salmon, n [1 sámun, 2 sáman] ME saumon, fr O Fr saumon, fr Lat salmō (em), prob 'the leaping fish', fr base of sallire, 'to leap', see salient (I) 1 A large fish, of which there are several species, abounding in the N Atlantic and adjacent waters and coasts, each breeding season it comes up from the sea into rivers and lakes to spawn, returning later to the sea, the salmon has silvery skin, and pale red or pink flesh, of firm consistency and delicate flavour, special names, as parr, smolt, grilse, are given to it in its various stages of development, b also ling salmon, a fish belonging to the same family, of the N Pacific, c rock salmon, fish-monger's name for a large sea blenny. 2 Silvery pink, or pale red the colour of the salmon's flesh.

salmon colour, n & adj 1 n The colour of the salmon's flesh, pink or pale red. 2 adj a (pred) The petals are salmon colour, b also salmon-coloured a salmon coloured rose.

salmon trout, n The sea-trout, Salmo trutta. salon, n [1 sálon, 2 sálō] Fr, 'reception room', see salle, the suff is Lat aco -ōnem, see -oon 1 A large hall, reception room, a public drawing room in a hotel, b none given to drawing room in private house in French speaking countries. 2 Reception, social gathering, held at regular intervals in private house of a great lady who is a recognized leader of society, esp such an assembly whose regular guests are notable in the world of intellect, art, literature, politics &c. 3 Annual exhibition of modern pictures held in Paris corresponding to that held by the Royal Academy in London.

saloon, n [1 sáloón, 2 sáloón] Anghorized variant of prec 1 A large reception room, a in a hotel, b in a large private house, also grand saloon. 2 Any large room set apart for specific public purposes, a dancing saloon, billiard saloon, hair-dresser's saloon &c, b (USA, before Prohibition) a public house for sale of drink, o (in Engl usage) usually saloon bar, one of the better class bars in a public house. 3 a The main cabin on board a passenger steamer, b a large first class cabin on a passenger steamer, also saloon cabin, c a large, specially luxurious railway carriage, not divided into compartments, and having separate armchairs instead of fixed seats, also such a compartment fitted with sleeping-berths, or one fitted with chairs and dining-tables, d closed motor-car without partition between driver and passengers.

saloop, n [1 sáloop, 2 sálop] Variant of salep A hot drink of salep or sassafras. Salopian, adj & n [1 sálopián, 2 sálopián], fr Salop, 'Shropshire', & -ian, ME Salop-pescherie, Sloppesberie wasa Norm Fr corrupt of OE Sorubbeabyrig, Shrewsbury. 1 adj a Belonging to Shropshire, b belonging to Shrewsbury, o belonging to Shrewsbury School. 2 n a Native of Shropshire or of Shrewsbury, b former, or present member of Shrewsbury School.

Salpiglossis, n [1 sálpiglossis, 2 sálpiglossis] Neo Lat, fr Gk salpigx, 'trumpet', & glōssa, 'tongue', see gloss (I) (bot) A genus of annual plants with brightly coloured trumpet-shaped flowers and tongue-like stigmas.

salsify, salsafy, n [1 sálsifi, 2 sálsifi] fr Fr salsify, etymol doubtful, op Ital sasse-frica A biennial plant, cultivated for its long tubular fleshy root, which is used as a vegetable, popularly called oyster plant, from the flavour, wild salsify is known as purple goat's-beard.

salt (I), n [1 sáwit, 2 sált] OE s(e)alt, OS, ON salt, Goth salta, OHG salza, op also Lat sal & Gk hal (ce), hals, see halaeutic 1 One of many chemical substances, specif, common salt or sodium chloride, a white, crystalline substance with sharp, characteristic taste, used as an essential seasoning for animal food, and as a preservative, obtained in natural state from beds, or by evaporation of sea-water. Phrs (to take a statement) with a grain of salt, with qualification, with caution and reserve, not, hardly, worth one's salt, good for nothing, to share a man's bread and salt, partake of his hospitality, to put a pinch of salt on his tail, ironical suggestion how to catch a bird &c. 2 In Phr an old salt, experienced sailor. 3 Salts, any of various mineral salts used in medicine &c. Epsom, Glauber's salts, also smelling salts, a dose of salts, purgative medicine in form of a salt. 4 A salt cellar. Phr to sit above, below, the salt, in superior or inferior position, from old custom in placing guests and retainers at table. 5 (fig) a That which gives a zest, interest, spice. adventure is the salt of life to many, b wit, pungency, sharpness of humour, Phr Allic salt, highly refined, pointed wit, expressed with restraint and elegance, o (of persons) purifying, ennobling influence, in Phr they are the salt of the earth, op Matt v 13. 6 (chem) a Sodium chloride, common salt (see above), b any chloride of various compounds formed by replacing the hydrogen of an acid by a metal, indicated by the suffix -ate or -ite, c the name of various compounds, as used in old chemistry salts of lemon, and potassium oxalate, used for removing ink or other stains from clothing &c.

salt (II), adj, fr prec Containing, impregnated with, salt, a having salt in solution salt water, a salt spring, b tasting of, having the flavour or smell of, salt the food, water, is too salt, salt breezes, (fig) salt tears, sorrowful, bitter, tears, c preserved in salt, salted salt beef, salt cod &c, d (of soil) flooded with impregnated by, salt water o salt pasture, meadow, * growing in salt soil or water salt grasses, salt weeds.

salt (III), vb trans, fr salt (I), OE sealtan, op Germ salzen 1 To flavour with salt. 2 a To preserve in salt or brine, to pickle, also salt down, put in pickle, b (colloq, by transf) to put away or by for safety, to save, especially secretly to salt down money, profits, illicit gains &c. 3 To sprinkle with salt. 4 (commero slang) a To salt books, receipts &c, represent profits as greater than they are, b to salt a mine, to place ore rich in gold, silver &c where it will be found by prospectors, so as to give false impression of the value of the mine, o to salt prices, to put fantastically high price on goods with intention of reducing them in order to delude purchasers.

saltant, adj [1 sáltant, sawltant, 2 sáltant, sáltant], fr Lat sallant (em), Pres Part of sallare, 'to dance, leap', frequent of sallire, 'to leap'. See salient Leaping, dancing, esp (her) of animals depicted as leaping or jumping.

saltarello, n [1 saltarello, 2 saltarello] Ital See base of prec word. A lively Italian or Spanish dance for two people, with a hopping, skipping step, b music composed for this dance.

saltation, n [1 sáit, sawltáshun, 2 sáit, sáltéshun] Lat sallātio (em), fr sallat, PP type of sallire. See saltant & salient 1 A leaping, jumping, dancing with leaping steps. 2 A sudden change, movement, or development, as if skipping intervening stages evolutionary saltation.

saltatorial, adj [1 sáit, sawltatorial, 2 sáit, sáltatorial], fr next word & -al. Saltatory saltatory, adj [1 sáit, sawltatori, 2 sáit, sáltatori] See saltation & -ory 1 Leap mg, jumping saltatory exercises, movements. 2 (biol) Changing by sudden variation, not by regular stages of development saltatory variation, evolution.

salt-box, n Wooden box in which salt is kept for kitchen and other uses.

salt-cake, n Unpurified sodium sulphate used in glass and soap making.

salt-cat, n Second element unexplained. a A lump of salt from a salt works, b a mixture of salt with sand, meal, lime &c used to attract pigeons.

salt-cellar, n The first element is in fact taoto logical, since the second element was orig saler, fr O Fr salier, 'salt box', fr Lat salarium, see sal (I) & salary, this was assimilated to cellar in 16th & 17th cents, & the taoto logical salt was added. Small receptacle of silver, glass &c placed on the table at meals for holding salt, formerly an imposing gold or silver vessel which marked the superior from the inferior guests according as they sat above or below it.

salter, n [1 sáwiter, 2 sáitō], fr salt (III) & -er 1 Dealer in, maker of, salt, workman in a salt works or mine. 2 A drysalter, q v saltern, n [1 sáwiltēr, 2 sáltān] OE sealtēr, fr sealt, see salt (I), & ern, 'place, chamber' &c, q v under barn A salt-works, where salt is obtained from brine or sea water by evaporation, b a series of ponds filled by sea-water for this process.

salt-horse, salt-junk, n (sailors' slang) Salt beef, salt meat.

saltier, n See saltire.

saltigrade, adj & n [1 sáltigrād, 2 sáltigrād], fr Lat salt (um), PP type of sallire, 'to leap', see salient, & grade 1 adj (of spiders) Having legs fitted for jumping or leaping, belonging to the group Saltigrades. 2 n A jumping spider.

saltimbanco, n [1 sáltimbangkō, 2 sáltim, bēpkōu] Ital, fr sallire, 'to dance, leap', see saltant, m, 'in, on', banco, 'bench', op mountebank (obs) Literally, one who leaps upon a bench, a mountebank.

saltiness, n [1 sáwtīnes, 2 sáltīnis] salty & -ness State, quality, of being salty, esp. the taste of salt.

salting, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] salt (I) & -ing, 'a meadow', a common suff in Place Names. A salt marsh, a meadow or pasture rich in salt, and so good pasture for cattle salure, salter, n [1 sál, sálwít, 2 sál, sálwít] M E salure, salure, fr O Fr salure, 'an X shaped stile, a sturup, a salure', fr L salūrium, 'stile', salūrium, 'sturup', fr salare, 'to leap'. See saltation (her) An ordinary on a shield consisting of a bend dexter and bend sinister crossing one another diagonally in shape of St Andrew's cross salurewise, adv [1 sálurwíz, 2 sálurwíz] See & -wise In the manner of a salure, crosswise diagonally salush, adj [1 sálwúsh, 2 sálwúsh] salt (II) & -ish Rather, somewhat salt salts, adj [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] salt (I) & -less Without salt, not tasting of salt, tasteless, insipid, also (fig) lacking point and sharpness of wit salt-lick, n A place to which animals resort in order to lick an outcrop of rock salt b a lump of rock salt placed for horses and cattle to lick salt-marsh, n Low lying marshy ground flooded by the sea and impregnated with salt, yielding rich pasture for cattle, a salting saltness, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] salt (II) & -ness Quality state, of being salt salt-pan, n A pan or other vessel used in obtaining salt by evaporation, b a shallow pond or basin filled with sea water evaporated in salt making saltpetre, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít], fr O Fr salpêtre, fr L sal petra, Lat sal petra, lit 'salt of the rock or stone', prob as first found exuding fr rocks (see 1 below), see sal (I) & petra, fr Gk petra 'rock, stone', see petro- 1 Colourless substance, potassium nitrate or nitre, with a bitter, salty taste, found as a superficial deposit in many hot climates, also obtained by chemical treatment of Chile saltpetre, used as a constituent of gunpowder, as a food preservative and in medicine. Phr 'illuminous saltpetre', gun powder (Shakespeare) 2 Sodium nitrate, Chile or cubic saltpetre found in beds in S America, and known locally as caliche, used in making potassium nitrate and for manures & so salt-put, n Salt pan salt-spoon, n A very small spoon with deep round bowl for helping oneself to salt salut, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] Lat, 'a leap', fr sal (um), P P type of salire, 'to leap'. See salient A sudden change or leap, a break in continuity, esp a in development, b in an argument salt-water, adj Belonging to, living in, sea water, hence, marine salt water fish salt-well, n A well sunk for the purpose of pumping brine from a salt mine saltwort, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] salt (I) & wort (I) A plant, genus Salicola, which grows in salt marshes or near the sea salty, adj [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] salt (II) & -y Having a salt taste salubrious, adj [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít], fr Lat salubris, 'healthy', fr salu, base of salus, 'health'. See salutary Promoting, giving health healthful, healthy salubrious climate air, situation salubriously, adv See & -ly In a salubrious, health giving manner, so as to produce or promote health salubriousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality of being salubrious, wholesomeness, healthfulness salubrity, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít], fr Lat salubritas (em) stem of salubrious & -ity State, quality, of being salubrious, salubriousness Saluki, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] A breed of hunting dog or hound, of Persia and Arabia, with a silky coat, used for hunting gazelles salutary, adj [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] Cp Fr salutare, fr Lat salūtāre, fr salū (em), fr salūs, 'health safety', cogn w salvus, 'safe', see salvage & safe Health giving, promoting health and well being, beneficial, wholesome, used in physical sense, but more commonly in moral sense a salutary lesson, warning salutation, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít], In M E & O Fr, fr Lat salūtāre (em), salūtatio fr salū (um), P P type of salūtāre, 'to greet', see salute 1 Act of saluting, greeting, or welcoming, expressing goodwill, usually by spoken or written words a word of salutation, with many tokens of greeting and salutation, now more usually replaced by greeting, welcome 2 Words uttered, gestures made, in greeting, welcoming, or addressing he gave a perfunctory salutation as he passed, to utter a cordial salutation, the Angelic Salutation, Hail Mary, Ave Maria salutational, adj [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] See & -al Of the nature of, pertaining to, a salutation salutatory, adj [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít], fr Lat salūtāre, stem as in salutation, & -ory (rare) Containing, expressing, salutations, welcoming, greeting a salutatory oration salute (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít], fr Lat salūtāre, 'to wish health to, to greet, hail, to salute', fr salū (em), stem of salūs, 'health, safety', cogn w salvus, 'whole, healthy, safe'. See salvage & safe A trans 1 To make a salutation to, to greet, welcome, acknowledge, recognize, by a customary or ceremonial gesture, as by a bow, the raising of the hat, a kiss & so 'salute the brethren with a holy kiss', they saluted each other with a frigid bow 2 (mil and nav) To make, perform prescribed act or gesture in honour and acknowledgement of, out of respect for to salute one's superior officer, the king's colour as it passes in the street, one ship salutes another, the right to be saluted with 21 guns & so 3 (archaic) To hail, acknowledge the people saluted him as king 4 To receive meet, a to accost, receive (persons) in a specified way to salute a person with a scowl, with a shower of stones, oaths, with cordiality a smile & so, b (of external phenomena, circumstances & so) to present itself to the senses to meet, he before, to assail fall upon a gloomy view saluted us, our ears were saluted by hostile shouts B intrans To perform, make, a salute, esp in military or naval sense soldiers must be taught to salute properly and smartly salute (II), n, fr Fr salut See prec 1 Act of saluting or greeting, greeting, act done, gesture made, as expressing recognition, welcome, respect, honour & so to give, return, a salute he acknowledged their salutes with a bow and smile, a salute to the dead 2 (archaic or humorous) A kiss on hand or cheek at meeting or parting to imprint a chaste salute upon her maiden cheek 3 (mil and nav) One of various, customary, ceremonial acts, a a prescribed, formal, ceremonial gesture made with the hand by soldiers and sailors in meeting an officer of commissioned rank, or by an officer to his superior, and returned by the person saluted, b act of presenting arms, performed by a stationary body of troops in saluting an important personage, the colours & so, c act of firing a number of guns, determined by rank of person saluted, from a ship or from a fortress & so, d act of dipping flags, performed by ships in passing each other at sea Phrs at the salute, standing at attention and saluting with hand or arms, to take the salute, to receive, acknowledge, a salute, to be saluted, of person, officer to whom the salute is made, royal salute, of 21 guns 4 (fencing) Formal engagement of foils or swords at commencement of a contest salvability, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] salvable & -ity State, quality, of being salvable salvable (I), adj [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] salvo (II) & -able Capable of being salvaged, scotched, remedied by a salvo salvable (II), adj salvo (III) & -able. Capable of being salvaged or rescued from shipwreck or fire & so salvage (I), n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] O Fr, fr O Fr salver, fr salver, 'to save', fr Lat salvare, 'to save', fr salvus, 'safe, unhurt, sound', cogn w Lat salū, stem of salūs, 'sound, safe condition, health, welfare' & so, see salute & salutary, cogn w Sort saravā, 'uninjured, whole'. See suff -age 1 a The saving or rescue of a ship, her crew, and cargo by another vessel from wreck, fire, or other peril of the sea, such as disablement, abandonment & so also (in war) from capture or destruction by the enemy's forces a *brave act of salvage, little hope of salvage, b compensation, reward, paid by the owners or insurers of the vessel salvaged to the owner, master, and crew of the rescuing vessel (the salvors), either as agreed by the parties or on award by the Court of Admiralty, salvage money, money so paid as reward for saving a vessel 2 Ship, cargo & so so saved or salvaged the ship is now in port and held as salvage by the insurers 3 The raising, recovery, of a sunk or wrecked ship and her cargo by divers and various apparatus, specially built vessels & so salvage company, one that contracts to supply such vessels & so for the salvage of wrecks 4 (of property or land) A rescue of goods or other property, usually as insured, from damage or loss by fire, b property so rescued or preserved, c amount paid for such rescue, or deducted as their value from insurance to be paid 5 a The saving and utilization of waste material of all kinds some enterprising towns have now a department for salvage, b (fig) rescue (of persons) from crime, poverty & so, persons so rescued devoted persons engaged in salvage in the slums, the salvage of the streets salvage (II), vb trans, fr prec To save from wreck, fire, capture & so, to make salvage of to salvage a ship, her cargo & so salvage corps, n A special corps, attached to a fire brigade, but paid by a Fire Insurance Company, whose duty it is to save goods insured from damage or destruction at a fire salvarian, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] Coined word, fr Lat salv (us), 'safe, whole', see salvage, & arsenic (med) A compound of arsenic, invented by Ehrlich in 1907, cure for syphilis and anthrax, also known as 606 now superseded by neo salvarian and other preparations of arsenic & so salvation, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] Direct fr L Lat salvation (em), formed fr salv as in salvus, 'safe' & so, see salvage, & -ation 1 Act of saving, a specif (in spiritual sense) redemption, deliverance from sin and its effects, by the merits of Christ's death Christ's salvation of the world, b (in material sense) the salvation of his country was his only aim 2 State of being saved, a specif (in spiritual sense) redemption from sin 'In Christ is our salvation', Phr to find salvation, to be convinced of sin and of the efficacy of Christ's redeeming power of salvation, to be converted, b (in material sense) preservation, rescue from danger, calamity & so the people owed him their salvation from slavery 3 Person who, thing which, saves, a specif (in spiritual sense) the Saviour Christ is my salvation, b (in material sense) by his unflinching courage he was the salvation of his country Salvation Army, n Religious, missionary, body founded by the Rev William (afterwards known as 'General') Booth in 1877, organized on quasi military lines, inculcating a rather crude 'enthusiastic' form of doctrine, the central formula being that if a man believes in Christ he is at once 'saved', the organization is engaged in evangelical and rescue work among the destitute and outcast poor throughout the world Salvationism, n [1 sálwít, 2 sálwít] salvationism & -ism The doctrine, principles, methods, of the Salvation Army*

Salvationist, n [1 salvashunist; 2 salvashunist] salvation & -ist Member of the Salvation Army salve (I), n [1 salv, salv, 2 salv, adv] O.E. sealf, 'ointment', OS & OHG salba, cogn. w. Scrt carps, 'clarified butter', & prob. w. Gk olpē, 'oil-flask', & elphos, 'butter', a rare word 1 A healing ointment for wounds, sores &c., a healing, soothing, remedy; chiefly poet or obs except in lip-salve, ointment for chapped, sore lips 2 (fig) Something which soothes and heals spiritual wounds, a balm a salve for wounded honour, for a tender conscience salve (II), vb trans O.E. sealfian, 'to anoint', cogn. w. Gotb salbōn, 'see prec', sense 2 prob. fr. Lat. salvare, 'to save', sss salvage 1 To apply a salve to, heal by use of a salve (in material and spiritual senses) 2 To overcome, evade, gloss over, to reconcile, by some saving clause or reservation to salve a difficulty, discrepancy, doubt &c salve (III), vb trans [1 salv, 2 salv] Back-formation fr. salvage To salvage, to save, reason, a ship, her cargo &c., or other property from loss or damage salve (IV), interj & n [1 salvē, 2 salvi] Lat., 'be well', good day', as general form of greeting, orig. a vocative of salvus, but regarded as imperat. of salvare, 'to be well, in good health', fr. salvus, 'whole, sound, healthy, well' See salvage (I) 1 interj Hail! God save you! 2 n (R.O. Ch.) a Antiphon, sung after lauds from Trinity Sunday to Advent, addressed to the B.V.M., beginning with the words Salve, regina misericordiae, Hail, queen of compassion, b music composed for this antiphon salver, n [1 salver, 2 salve] Through Fr. salve or direct fr. Span. salva, 'the tasting of food before serving, as precaution against poisoning, the dish on which the food was served, a salver', fr. salvar, 'to save, preserve, to taste food as a precaution', fr. Lat. salvare, see salvage, & -er, the common agent suff. A flat tray of silver or other metal on which refreshments, letters &c. are banded by a servant

Salvia, n [1 salvia, 2 salvia] Lat., 'the sage plant', fr. salvus, 'whole, sound, healthy', fr. its medicinal qualities Cp. also sage (I) 1 (hort) Flower of sage family, cultivated for its bright blue or scarlet colour 2 Botanical name for sage salvo (I), n [1 salvō, 2 salvou] Lat., fr. plur. salvo jure, 'the right being reserved or saved', abl. sing. of salvus, 'whole, safe' See salvage (rare or legal) A reservation, saving clause, a nice distinction, quibble with a salvo as regards certain named rights &c., (also advbl) without prejudice salvo the said rights salvo (II), n Earlier salva, fr. Ital. 'a salute, volley', fr. Lat. salve, 'hail' See salve (IV) 1 A discharge of guns fired simultaneously in war, esp. in naval actions, a broadside or as a salute, cp. volley, of small arms three salvos from the after turrets, a salvo of 21 guns 2 Shouts, cheers, collectively, a combined simultaneous shout as from a crowd salvo of applause, cheering &c sal volatile, n [1 sal volatili, 2 sel volatili] Neo Lat., 'volatile salt' An alcoholic, aromatic solution of ammonium carbonate, used as a restorative in faintness &c salvor, n [1 salver, -or, 2 salva, -or] salve (III) & -or One who helps in the salvage of a vessel and her cargo, or of other property, also (pl) the ship, her owner, master, and crew effecting the salvage of another vessel

Sam, n [1 sam, 2 sam] Short for Samuel, Uncle Sam, Brother Jonathan, the typical figure of the U.S.A., corresponding to John Bull, (in various colloq. and slang phrs) To stand Sam, to pay the reckoning, to pay for everyone present, esp. to stand drinks, upon my Sam, on one's oath, I'll take my Sam upon it samarra, n [1 samahra, 2. samara] Lat., also samera, 'the seed of the elm', etymol. unknown (bot) The dry, usually two-lobed fruit, with wing-like extrusions, of certain trees, as the ash, maple, sycamore &c. Samaritan, n & adj [1 samaritan, 2 samaritan] fr. Lat. Samaritanus, adj & n, fr. Gk. Samareites, fr. Samaria, Gk. Samareia, 'Samaria' 1. n an Inhabitant, language, of the ancient Samaria, b a good Samaritan, a person always ready to befriending this unfortunate and relieve distress, from the Parable, Luke x 2 adj a Pertaining to the ancient Samaritans, their language, beliefs &c., b a Samaritan fund, one for the assistance of the poor, Samaritan home, for destitute, homeless, children

Samaritanism, n [1 samaritanism, 2 samaritanism] Prec. & -ism Principles of charity, charitableness, charity samblind, adj See sand-blind

Sambo, n [1 sambō, 2 sambou] fr. Span. zambo, 'bandy-legged', etymol. doubtful 1 (in S. and Central Am.) A half-breed of Indian and negro descent 2 (colloq. and slang) A negro, usually as form of address

Sam Browne, n [1 sam brōwn, 2 sam brāwn] fr. Gen. Sir Samuel Browne, d. 1801 Leather uniform belt worn by commissioned and warrant officers in the British Army, having two straps crossed behind, passing over the shoulders, and attached back and front by rings to the belt, designed to take the weight of the sword sambur, n [1 sambur, 2 sombō] Hind. sāmbār, sābar (zool) A species of large, mands, and antlered deer, found in India, Ceylon, and the Malay Peninsula same, adj [1 sām, 2 seam] O.E. same, only as adv, in constructions same as, 'similarly', & swā same sū, 'just as', cp. O.N. samr, adv, op. Swed. & Dan. samme, adj, O.S. sama, O.H.G. sam, adj, Goth. sama, 'the same', samana, 'together', further cognates are Scrt. sama, Gk. homōs, 'the same', homōios, 'like', see homō-, Lat. similis, 'like', see similar, simul, 'together, at the same time' Cp. further Scrt. sam, 'together', see Sanscrit. See also under some 1 Preceded by the identical, of individual persons or things, also one and the same, the very same, as emphasizing the identity &c. was that the same man you saw here last week?, meet me tomorrow in the same place as yesterday, the family has lived in the same house for generations, she won't wear the same dress two days running, they both died on the same day Phr. at the same time, introducing some qualification to a previous statement which is admitted 2 Similar, alike in kind, degree, quality &c., identical with, corresponding on the same day as this last year, are women and men to get the same wages for the same work?, one cannot eat the same food every day, give the patient the same medicine as last time, we must all say the same thing, hold the same opinions as those of the majority, the same causes produce the same effects, the same sort, kind, of thing, at the same price, in the same way 3 Not different, unchanged my elder brother is not the same man since his illness, still the same queer old fellow, the patient is much (about) the same Phr. it is all, just, the same to me, it is a matter of indifference, it does not matter either way 4 Without the, (very rare) unchanged, unchanging, not varying, monotonous, marked by sameness a tendency to become somewhat same in this author's work, the fear of being too same 5 With that, this, these, those (archaic and rare), usually expressing emphasis or marking contrast &c. these same boasted heroes were the first to run away, that same wealth once so carefully hoarded was now spent recklessly 6 (as prom., used elliptically) The aforesaid person or thing, a 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner' (Matt. xxi. 42), 'The same was in his beginning with God' (John i. 1), whether A said or did, B felt obliged to say and do the same, to the same, from the same, as heading to one of a series of letters, poems &c. written to or by the same person, and the same (to petitioners) will ever pray &c., b (legal and commerce use, also, literally, without the), used for an ordinary personal or demonstrative pronoun as he, they, it, this &c. to erection fence, £10, to painting same, £4, with reference to our letter of the 12th ult. and your answer to same, we have heard from Mr Jones and have written to same 7 (as adv) In the same way Oriental do not look at things the same as we do, can you feel the same towards him as you used to?, we do not think the same of people after a long absence Plus all the same, just the same, nevertheless, notwithstanding what has been done, said &c., after all he is often rude, but I like him all the same sameness, n [1 sāmnēs, 2 séimnēs] sama & -ness 1 State, quality, of being the same, identity, exact likeness, exact correspondence, resemblance or similarity sameness of character, look &c., sameness in taste 2 Unvarying, uniform character, monotony, tedious want of variety a deadly sameness in life

Samian, adj & n [1 sāman, 2 séimān] fr. Lat. Sami-us, fr. Gk. Samos, fr. Samos 'Samos', island in the Aegean Sea, & -ian 1 adj Of, belonging to, coming from, produced in, Samos Samian wine, esp. Samian pottery or ware, a fine glazed red or black pottery, originally made of potter's clay from Samos, often ornamented with decorations in relief, made by the Romans in Gaul, and imported to, and so constantly found on, Roman sites in Britain &c. 2 n Inhabitant of Samos samisen, n [1 sāmisēn, 2 sāmisen] Jap., fr. Chinese san hsen, 'three strings' A Japanese three-stringed musical instrument, played with a plectrum samite, n [1 samit, 2 samast] In M.E., fr. O. Fr. samit, fr. Med. Lat. sanitum, exanimum, fr. L. Med. Gk. hexanimum; 'cloth woven with six threads', fr. Gk. hex, 'six', & mitos, 'thread', op. dimity (archaic or poet) A fine, thick silk material, often interwoven with gold or silver threads samlet, n [1 sāmlet, 2 samlet] See salmon & -let A young salmon, par

Samnite, n [1 sāmnit, 2 samnit] Lat. Samnites, pl A member of an ancient tribe of South Central Italy, inhabiting the district of Samnium

Samoa, adj & n [1 sāmōan, 2 sāmōan] Samoa & -an 1 adj Of, belonging to, Samoa, a group of islands of Polynesia 2 n A native, the language, of Samoa samovar, n [1 sāmōvar, 2 samōvā] Russ. samovar, 'self boiler', fr. samo, 'self', & varit, 'to boil' A Russian tea urn, with internal tube, through which heated air circulates

Samoyed, n [1 sāmōyēd, 2 sāmōyēd] Russ. One of a Mongol race dwelling in Russian Siberia sampan, n [1 sāmpān, 2 sāmpān] fr. Chinese san-pān, 'three boards' A light boat of Chinese and Far Eastern rivers and coastal waters, rowed with a scull from the stern, and usually provided with a sail of matting and an awning sampure, n [1 sāmīr, 2 sāmīr] Early form sampire, sampere, for Fr. Saint Pierre, in full, l'herbe de St Pierre, 'St Peter's herb' 1 A salty, fleshy plant, Crithum maritimum, growing on rocks and cliffs near the sea, used in pickles 2 Glass-wort, the marsh samphire, Salicornia herbacea sample (I), n [1 sāmpl, 2 sāmpl] Variant of example, M.E. assample, divided as a sample A portion of anything taken as a pattern, specimen or example to show quality or character of the whole, 1 (commerce, of material things) a representative specimen of the quality, style, appearance &c., esp. of goods offered for sale a sample of velvet cloth &c., err on approval, to take a sample of something for examination and test, a sample bottle, package &c, one containing sample, a sample book, book of patterns, sample room, room in a warehouse where goods may be examined and sampled. Phr up to sample, equal in quality, weight, measure &c, to the sample offered for approval or examination. 2 (fig, of non material things) A representative illustration to give a sample of one's courage, skill &c, that is a fair sample of his manners sample (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A. trans a To take a sample or samples of, to test quality of, from a sample or specimen to sample wheat, wine &c, b to try, test quality of, taste, enjoy I think we might sample my new claret tonight B intrans (commerce &c) Usually sample out, to show results after being sampled the goods sample out quite satisfactorily, the ore so for produced samples out at 3 oz per ton sampler, n [1 sãmpler, 2 sãmplə] Prec &-er, op O Fr esemplaire & exemplar 1 One who samples, one who arranges or sets out samples for examination 2 Specif, a specimen of a young person's needlework or embroidery, esp a square of canvas exhibiting a variety of designs, letters, figures of animals and often pious sentiments &c, in colours

Samson, n [1 sãmsn, 2 sãmsn], fr name of OT hero & strong man, Fr, fr Lat, fr Gk Sompson, fr Heb Shimshon, 'the splendid, shining one', cp shemesh, 'the sun', as name of the Israelite hero of mighty strength 1 A man of abnormal strength a Hercules 2 (without cap) A samson post samson-post, n A strong, supporting pillar or post, esp in a ship samurai, n, sing & pl [1 sãmoori, 2 sãmurai] Jap, 'guard' 1 (hist) a The name of the now extinct class of ancient Japanese feudal military retainers of the daimos or nobles, b a member of this class 2 A The class of gentry, in present-day Japan, as distinguished from the trading, and the working class, frequently serving in the army and navy, b a Japanese gentleman sanable, adj [1 sãnahi, 2 sãnahi], fr Lat sãnabilis, 'curable', fr sãnare, 'to cure, make sound or whole' See sane & -able (rare or archaic) Curable sanative, adj [1 sãnativ, 2 sãnativ], fr L Med Lat sãnativus, 'tending to cure', fr sãnare (um), PP type of sãnare, 'to cure, make sound or healthy', fr sanus, 'sound, healthy', see sane Curative, tending to cure, having the power of curing or healing, body or mind, sanatory sanatorium, n, pl sanatoria [1 sanatõrum, 2 sanatõria], Naut sing of Lat sãnatorius, 'sanatory' See prec &-ory 1 An institution for the treatment of the sick or convalescent, specif, one for the special treatment of patients suffering from tuberculosis 2 A health resort, esp in India or other hot countries, usually a hill-station. 3 The hospital attached to a school sanatory, adj [1 sanatur, 2 sãnatori] English form of prec Curative, sanative, conducing to, tending to promote, health, to be distinguished from sanitary sanbenito, n [1 sãnbentõ, 2 sãnbentõ], fr Spn sanbenito fr San Benito, 'Saint Benedict' 1 (hist) The garment shaped like a Benedictine scapular worn by heretics under the Spanish Inquisition that worn by penitents was yellow with a red St Andrew's cross that worn by impenitents, at the stake was black, painted with figures of devils and flames 2 A penitential garment of sack cloth sanctification n [1 sãngktifikashun, 2 sãngktifikashun] fr Eccles. Lat sanctificatio (em) See sanctify & -fication Act, process of sanctifying or making holy, state of being sanctified sanctified, adj & n [1 sãngktifid, 2 sãngktifid] fr PP of next word 1 adj a Dedicated, consecrated, a sanctified building temple, monk, b sanctimonious, affectedly holy or saintly sanctified airs, manners &c 2 n The sanctified holy persons, those who have been saved by the merits of Christ's death.

sanctify, vb trans [1 sãngktifi, 2 sãngktifi], fr Fr sanctifier, in O Fr sanctifier, fr Eccles Lat sanctificare, 'to make holy', fr Lat sanctus, 'sanctified, made holy, sacred', PP of sanctire, 'to consecrate, make holy' See sanctus & -fy To make holy, to hallow 1 (in religious senses) a To purify from sin 'That He might sanctify the people with His own blood' (Heb xii 12), b to consecrate, hallow 'God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it' (Gen ii 3), c to regard as holy 'Sanctify the Lord of Hosts' (Isaiah viii 13) 2 To give a sanction to, to sanction, justify, to cause to be revered or respected devotion to one's country sanctifies every act, the end sanctifies the means, the practice has long been sanctified by custom sanctimonious, adj [1 sãngktimõnius, 2 sãngktimõnius] sanctimony & -ous 1 (obs) Possessing sanctity, holy, religious, pious 2 Pretending to, making an outward show of, extreme piety, making play with pious formulae, hypocritical in expressing religious sentiments sanctimoniously, adv Prec & -ly In a sanctimonious manner sanctimoniousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being sanctimonious a sanctimonious manner, mode of speech &c sanctimony, n [1 sãngktimuni, 2 sãngktimuni], fr O Fr sanctimonia, fr Lat sanctimõnia, 'sanctity, chastity, virtue' See sanctus & -mony 1 (obs) Holiness, piety 2 Affected piety, sanctimoniousness sanction (I), n, [1 sãngkshun, 2 sãngkshun], fr Lat sanctio (em), the decreeing or ordaining of something as sacred or inviolable, decree, ordinance, sanction, fr sanct (um), PP type of sanctire, 'to decree as sacred or inviolable' See sanctus & sanct & -ion 1 A Act of a superior and recognized authority confirming, ratifying, or permitting an act or action of others, authorization, express permission, or consent to obtain the sanction of the proper authorities, official sanction has not yet been given, b support, general encouragement, permission, or countenance for acts or conduct the sanction of fashion, of polite society, custom gives sanction nowadays to what would have been regarded as bad form in the past 2 Specif a (jurisprudence) that which gives binding force to, or which provides for the enforcement of, a law, the penalty attached to the breaking of a law, or to the failure to carry out its provisions imprisonment is the sanction against theft, to execute, suffer, the last sanctions of the law, of capital punishment, b (ethics) that which enforces or makes binding any rule of conduct moral, religious sanctions, the sanction of conscience, the lowest sanctions are the mere pleasure or pain experienced after an act, c rational justification for an act, or for conduct sanction (II), vb trans, fr prec To give sanction to (in all senses of noun).

sanctitude n [1 sãngktitid, 2 sãngktitid], fr Lat sanctitudo, see sanctus & -tude (rare) Sanctity, sanctity sanctitude severe and pure' (Milton, P L iv 293) sanctity, n, [1 sãngktiti, 2 sãngktiti] Lat sanctitas (em) sanctitas 'state of holiness', fr sanctus See sanctus & -ity 1 Holiness pureness of life, sanctity the sanctity of his life, to make no pretence of sanctity 2 Sacredness, state of being consecrated or dedicated to God or deity the sanctity of a temple 3 Binding force, inviolability the sanctity of an oath 4 Thing held sacred, holy feelings, ties, duties &c the sanctity of the family, home &c (also in pl) sanctuary n [1 sãngkshoari, 2 sãngkshuari], fr O Fr sanctuarium, fr Lat sanctuarium, 'holy place, shrine', see sanctus & -ary 1 A holy place, a shrine, the most sacred part of a temple or place of worship, specif a the sacrum of a church, in which the altar stands, b any place sanctified and made venerable by tradition, association &c Westminster Abbey is one of the most precious of our national sanctuaries 2 A place of refuge, an asylum, specif a (hist) a sacred place where, under ecclesiastical law, fugitives from justice, criminals, or debtors, might take refuge and claim protection for a certain time and under certain conditions, Phrs right of sanctuary, right to grant or claim protection or sanctuary, to take sanctuary, to take refuge in a sanctuary, to break sanctuary, to violate such right and take away a criminal in sanctuary, b (by transf) a refuge or reservation for animals where they are protected from interference in the breeding season &c, esp a bird sanctuary, c (fig) a place of retreat, a private, secret place not to be violated or profaned by others the sanctuary of one's thoughts, to find a sanctuary in sleep sanctum, n, [1 sãngktum, 2 sãngktum] Lat, neut sing of sanctus, 'holy' A place of retreat, a private, reserved place, esp a private room, study, sanctum sanctorum, a the Holy of Holies, the place in the Jewish tabernacle or temple where the ark of the Covenant is placed, the sanctuary, b (u) any private or inviolate retreat, (u) a very sacred object sanctus, n [1 sãngktus, 2 sãngktas] Lat, 'holy', fr PP of sanctire, 'to make holy or sacred, to appoint ordain' &c, fr nasalized form of base in Lat sacer, q v under sacer 1 The hymn in the Eucharistic service beginning with the words 'Holy, holy, holy', also styled the Tersanctus, the threefold sanctus 2 Musical setting for the hymn.

sanctus bell, n A bell, usually hung at the junction of the nave or transept and the chancel of a church, rung at that point of the Eucharistic service when the sanctus is sung sand (I), n [1 sand, 2 send] In OE & ME, OHG sant, ON sandr, Du zand, it is suggested that the Aryan type was bhdh(s)dh-*, whence also Gk. psamthos, sand & also, w a different development of bhs*, Gk. omathos for hamathos*, fr sornathos*, Lat sabulum, 'sand', is also fr same base bhdh*, w a different suff, & may stand for psafiom* (see sabulous) The base bhdh* means 'to rub down, grind, reduce to powder', cp Scrt bhas, 'to grind' 1 hme, dry, gritty substance consisting of minute particles of disintegrated rock, found esp on shores of seas and estuaries, in river beds, or in beds of former rivers, and in deserts Phrs to plough the sand(s), to undertake useless labour, to mole ropes of sand to try to do what is impossible, to build on sand, to build on insecure foundations (chiefly fig), to put sand in the wheels, in the machine, to obstruct, prevent, render impossible, the smooth working of an institution organization, or of an arrangement of any kind between persons, by deliberate adverse actions 2 (pl) Sands, a stretch of sand by the shore of a sea or an estuary &c the Sands of Dee, to play on the sands, b of the accumulation of sand in a desert the sands of the desert, c (fig, of sand in an hour glass) moments of time the sands are running out, time is passing 3 (colloq, USA) Grit, pluck a man with plenty of sand in him sand (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To cover, sprinkle with sand to sand a road (in slippery weather), a sanded floor 2 To put sand into, mix with sand to sand the sugar sandal, n [1 sandl, 2 sandl] fr Fr sandale, fr Lat sandolium, fr Gk. sandalion, dimin of sandalon, sambalon, etymol doubtful a Protection for the foot worn in ancient Greece and Rome, and still worn in many parts of the East, and by some religious orders in Europe, consisting of a leather sole, with thongs passing over instep, b somewhat similar object worn instead of shoes by young children sandalled, adj [1 sándld, 2 sándld] Proc & -ed Furnished with sandale with sandalled feet sandal-wood, also sandal, n, fr Fr sandal, santal, L Lat sandalum, op Arab sandal, Sert candana 1 A hard, close grained wood of yellowish colour and fragrant scent, obtained from an East Indian tree, Santalum album, or from other allied trees of the Pacific, Australia &c 2 The sandal wood tree sandal-wood oil, n Oil obtained from sandal wood tree, used medicinally for internal inflammation sandarac, sandarach, n [1 sándarak, 2 sándarak], fr Lat sandaraca, fr Gk sandarakt, perh of Pers origin 1 A resin obtained from Moroccan tree, Calutris, tho 'sandalac tree', used in making varnish 2 (obs) Red arsenic, realgar sand-bag (I), n A bag filled with sand, used for various purposes a as ballast for boats, balloons &c, b in field fortifications, to make parapets, to line trenches &c, c in elender, elongated shape, to keep out draughts from windows, d in similar form, as a stunning weapon, used by criminals sandbag (II), vb trans, fr proc 1 A To pinoc sand bags upon, b to protect with sand bags 2 To strike and disable with a sand-bag sand-bank, n A bank or shoal of sand at mouth of a river, in an estuary or channel &c sand-bar, n A bank or bar of sand at the mouth of a river, at the entrance of a harbour &c sand-bath, n 1 A bath taken by rolling, or being covered, in sand, as birds do in cleaning themselves 2 (chem) A vessel filled with hot sand, in which retorts &c can be kept at an even temperature sand-bed, n (geol) A bed or stratum of sand sand-blast, n A jet or blast of sand forced by air or steam pressure against a hard material, as glass &c, for cutting, roughening &c, for scumming metal plates and other purposes sand-blind, adj Prob by popular etymol for obs sandblind, 'half-blind', OE sám, 'half', cogn w Lat sēmi, see semi-, & blind (I) (dial or archaic) Purblind, dim-sighted, weak sighted sand-box, n A box filled with sand, used for various purposes a on a locomotive, for sprinkling the rails when wet or slippery, thus giving a grip to the wheels, b for use on golf-links, at each tee, c (archaic) small box, used before blotting paper was invented, with perforated lid for sprinkling sand on wet ink on paper sand-boy, n A boy who carted round sand for sale, now only in Phr as jolly, merry, as a sand boy sand-crack, n 1 A crack in the hoof of a horse, causing lameness if neglected 2 A flaw in a brick due to bad mixing sand-dab, n Any of various small flounders found in the sand in shallow water sand-eel, n A small eel like marine fish, genus Ammodytes, frequenting sandy shores, burying itself in the sand when the tide is out, also called sand lance sanderling, n [1 sándoring, 2 sándoring] Etymol doubtful, but prob fr sand (I) & dimin -ling A small wading bird, Calidris arenaria, allied to the sandpipers, it frequents wet sandy beaches, where it finds its food sanders, sunders, n [1 sándurder, 2 sándor], fr O Fr sandre, a variant of sandal (archaic) Sandal wood sand-flea, n A Ths jigger or obigoo, b the sand hopper sand-fly, n A small biting fly or midge Sand fly fever, disabling fever, of tropical or sub-tropical climates, caused by a germ conveyed by the bite of various species of sand fly sand-glass, n A device for measuring intervals of time, consisting of two pear shaped glass bulbs joined together at their pointed ends by a narrow tube, through which sand slowly runs from the bulb which is uppermost at the moment, into the lower one, in a given space of time, the bulbs are protected and held in position by a stand in which they are fixed, so made as to be reversible and stand on either end These instruments are practically obsolete now, except in a small size, for measuring the time required to boil an egg (3 to 5 minutes), the larger sizes were called hour glasses sand-grouse, n Name due to the supposed relationship of the bird to the grouse A game bird with grey, buff, and black plumage, allied to pigeons, of family Pteroclididae, found in Africa and Asia, and occasionally in Europe sand-hill, n A sand dune sand-hopper, n Popular name for a small marine crustacean, Talitrus locusta, found on sandy shores between tide marks, having great leaping powers and acting as a useful scavenger of decaying matter sandiness, n [1 sándines, 2 sándines] sandy (I) & -ness State, quality, of being sandy sand-iron, n Special golf club for hitting a ball lying in sand sandiver, n [1 sándivor, 2 sándivo] Earlier sandiver, prob a popular form of Fr savir de verre, 'sawing of glass' A salty scum which rises from fused glass in the making, skimmed off and pulverized, it is used for polishing &c, also styled 'glass gall' sand-lance, n [1 sánd lanas, 2 sánd lanas] sand (I) & lance, earlier form of lance, op Fr lancou Sand eel sand-lizard, n A species of lizard found on the continent of Europe and in Southern England &c, Lacerta agilis, laying eggs in the sand sand-man, n The man who, according to the fairy tale, throws sand in children's eyes to make them feel sleepy at bed time, op dustman sand-martin, n A species of martin which builds its nest in holes in sand pits or sandy banks &c sand-paper, n & vb trans 1 n A cotton fabric coated with fine sand, used for smoothing rough surfaces of wood &c, coarser than glass paper and finer than emery paper 2 vb To polish with sand paper sand-pipe, n Tubular formation, of varying depth, in chalk, caused by solvent action of rain water, usually filled with sand, gravel, or earth sandpiper, n [1 sánd(p)per, 2 sánd(p)paip] So called from its note and habit Popular name of several different species of migratory birds, genus Totanus, frequenting streams, it is allied to the plovers sandstone, n [1 sánd(st)stón, 2 sánd(st)stoun] (geol) A rock formation of compacted sand, usually of quartz, cemented by carbonate of lime, silica &c, much used for building, Old, New, Red Sandstone, of such strata below or above the carboniferous system sandstorm, n [1 sánd(d)stórm, 2 sánd(d)stóm] A storm of wind on a desert which carries with it clouds of sand sandwich (I), n [1 sánd(d)wich, -wí, 2 sánd(d)wít, -wít] Said to be so called from John Montagu, 4th Earl of Sandwich, 1718-92, who used this form of food to allow him to continue gambling for long periods without interruption Two slices of buttered bread with a thin slice of meat, egg, tomato, cucumber &c placed between them Phr foride, sit, sandwich, to eat between two other people, esp of a thin person between two stout ones, or of a woman between two men sandwich (II), vb trans, fr proc To insert, introduce, squeeze, in between two others to sandwich a dangerous clause between harmless ones in a proposal, bill, to be sandwiched in between two other persons sandwich-boat, n In bumping races at Oxford and Cambridge, the boat rowing head of a lower division which has to row last in the division next above on the same night of the races sandwich-man, n A man who walks the streets carrying two advertisement boards, one hung in front and one behind sand-worm, n Thick worm which burrows in the sand and is found at low tide, used for bait in sea fishing, a ling worm sandwort, n [1 sándwort, 2 sándwát] A low, shrubby plant growing in sandy soil, genus Arenaria sandy (I), adj [1 sándi, 2 sándi] sand (I) & -y 1 A Consisting of, abounding in, containing, covered with, sand sandy soil, a sandy floor, path, b gritty, feeling like sand a sandy taste, feel 2 (of the hair) Palesh brown in colour, (of persons) having such hair

Sandy (II), n Short for Alexander, as common name in Scotland A Scotsman sandyish, adj [1 sándush, 2 sándush] sandy (I) & -ish Rather sandy in consistency, feel, colour &c sane, adj [1 sán, 2 seín], fr Lat sānus, 'sound in body or mind, whole, healthy', various proposed etymols are cited by Waldo, & dismissed by him as improbable, the origin is so far traced 1 Sound in mind, mentally normal, in one's right mind 2 Sound, reasonable, sensible, moderate, not unreasonable or exaggerated a sane policy, proposal sanely, adv Proc & -ly In a sane, sensible manner saneless, n See proc & -ness State, quality, of being sane sang, vb [1 sang, 2 seíg] OE, ME sang, Pret of sing sangar, n [1 sáנגgar, 2 sáנגga] Hind sunga A dry stone wall used as a protection against rifle fire, much used on N W frontier of India sangaree, n [1 sáנגgaré, 2 sáנגgaré], fr Span sangria, 'bleeding', fr sangre, 'blood', see sanguine, as made of red wine A West Indian drink made of wine, sweetened, spiced, and mixed with lime juice, and sometimes with brandy sang-de-bœuf, n & adj [1 sáhn do bý, 2 sá do bý] Fr, 'bullock's blood' 1 n A deep blood red colour, esp as found in old Chinese porcelain, b Chinese porcelain of this colour 2 adj Coloured deep blood red sang-froid, n [1 sáhn frwáh, 2 sá frwáf] Fr, lit 'cool blood' Coolness, presence of mind, freedom from excitement, composure, imperturbability in dangerous or trying circumstances sangrail, sangreal, n [1 sán grál, 2 sán grál] See grail sanguification, n [1 sáנגgwífíkáfshn, 2 sáנגgwífíkáfsh] Formed fr Lat sanguis for sanguis, 'blood', see sanguine, & -fication The conversion, by digestion &c, of food into blood sanguinarily, adv [1 sáנגgwínarí, 2 sáנגgwínarí] sanguinary & -ly In a sanguinary manner sanguinarness, n [1 sáנגgwínarínes, 2 sáנגgwínarínes] See proc & -ness State, quality, of being sanguinary sanguinary, adj [1 sáנגgwínarí, 2 sáנגgwínarí] fr Lat sanguinarius sanguine & -ary 1 Accompanied by bloodshed or slaughter, bloody, murderous a sanguinary battle 2 Blood stained, bloody, flowing with blood sanguinary hands, dagger 3 Bloodthirsty, cruel, delighting in blood shed a sanguinary tyrant, villain &c 4 As describing bad language, esp th it which includes the use of the common vulgar expletive 'bloody' rather sanguinary language, b as euphemism for 'bloody' a sanguinary fool sanguine (I), adj [1 sáנגgwín, 2 sáנגgwín] fr Lat sanguis, fr Lat sanguis, 'of blood, bloody, blood red', fr sanguis (em), now sanguis, 'blood', various etymols have been suggested wh are highly ingenious, but are perh too elaborate & complicated to be very convincing, perh the most probable is that wh connects the base of sanguin- w Goth siggan, OE sincan, see sink (I), in wh case the Lat word meant orig 'that which falls or flows' An identical association of ideas is seen in OS drōr, 'blood', connected w drīosan, 'to fall', cp also OE drēorig, 'blood stained', fr hase drēus*, as in OE drēosan, 'to fall', see dreary 1 Of the colour of blood, a (of complexion) ruddy, fresh coloured, florid a sanguine face, lips, b (poet) blood-red in colour, flaming sanguine banners, flames &c, c (her) of a dark purplish red, murrey coloured 2 a (from the ancient physiological doctrine concerning the humours) Having the cheerful, courageous, ardent, or passionate temperament of one in whom the blood is the strongest, most predominant humour, and having a ruddy complexion, and a full and rapid pulse, b hence, cheerful, hopeful, confident, always anticipating the best, optimistic a sanguine temperament, disposition, sanguine of success, a sanguine person, an optimist, sanguine hopes, he was too sanguine, a sanguine report sanguine (II), n, fr preo a A crayon dyed red with haematite or red oxide of iron, b a drawing in red crayon sanguinely, adv [1 sanggwini, 2 sangwini] sanguine (I) & -ly In a sanguine, confident, optimistic manner sanguineness, n [1 sanggwines, 2 sangwines] See preo & -ness State, quality, of being sanguine, confidence, optimism sanguineous, adj [1 sanggwines, 2 sangwines] fr Lat sanguineus, 'consisting of blood, blood stained' See sanguine (I) & -ous 1 (bot) Blood red in colour 2 (med) Of, pertaining to, the blood 3 Full blooded, sanguine sanhedrim, sanhedrin, n [1 sanedrim, 2 sanedrim, 3] Late Heb sanhedrim, sanhedrin, a transliteration of GK synhedrion, 'a sitting together, council, assembly', fr syn, 'with' see syn-, & hedra, 'a seat', fr base hed* for sed*, 'sit', see under sedentary & sit 1 (Jewish antiq) Ancient supreme council and court of justice of the Jews, sitting in Jerusalem, consisting of seventy one members, presided over by the High Priest 2 (gen) Any similar assembly, council of elders sennicle, n [1 sennikl, 2 sennikl] O Fr, fr Med Lat sennicula, prob fr sennus, 'whole, healthy', see sane so called fr its healing properties An umbelliferous plant, genus Sennicula, esp black snake root sannily, vb trans [1 sanni, 2 sannifai] fr Lat sannus 'sound, healthy' sane & -ly (rare) To make clean, wholesome, or sanitary sanitarian, sanitarian, adj & n [1 sanitarian, 2 sanitarian] sanitary & -ian 1 adj Of, pertaining to, public health and hygiene, sanitary matters, or sanitation 2 n An advocate of public health and sanitation sanitarily, adv [1 sanitari, 2 sanitari] sanitary & -ly In a sanitary manner sanitariness, n [1 sanitanoes, 2 sanitanoes] See preo & -ness State, quality, of being sanitary sanitary, adj [1 sanitari, 2 sanitari] fr sanitaire, fr Lat sani, as in sanial, q v under sanity & -ary 1 Pertaining to health or to the rules, conditions, connected with health, as drainage, and esp to freedom from dirt, filth or other agents of infection or disease sanitary laws, sanitary science, sanitary engineer, one skilled in laying down, and keeping in order, the drainage of a town or house a grandiloquent name for a plumber, sanitary inspector, official appointed by a local authority to inspect nuisances, report defective drains &c 2 Free from dirt, filth, or other matter deleterious to health, in a clean, healthy condition hygienic, having good sanitation or drainage in a sanitary condition, a sanitary cottage sanitate, vb trans [1 sanitat, 2 sanitati] Back-formation fr next word (rare) To introduce sanitation into, to adopt sanitary rules for, to cleanse, render sanitary sanitation, n [1 sanitashun, 2 sanitashun] fr Lat stem santi-, see sanity, coined in connexion w the modern ideas associated w sanitary, & -ation a (in larger sense) All those measures which conduce to the preservation of public health, esp efficient drainage, proper disposal of sewage, ventilation, a pure water supply, the system by which these are secured, b (in narrower but more usual sense) specif, drainage and disposal of sewage, both in individual dwellings, workshops &c, and in towns generally sanity, n [1 santi, 2 saniti] fr Fr santé, fr Lat sani (em), 'health, soundness of body or mind' See sane & -ity 1 Condition of being sane, soundness of mind, mental health 2 Conduct of a sane person, soundness of judgement, prudence in action, level headedness sanyak, n [1 sanjak, 2 sandžak] Turk 'flag' An administrative district of Turkey, a subdivision of the vilayet sank, vb [1 sangl, 2 sangk] OE sanc, ME sank, Pret of sink (I) sans, prep [1 sanz, 2 sanz], in Fr phrs [1 sanz, 2 sanz] Fr, 'without', ultimately fr Lat sine, see sine die 1 (obs) Without, only used in quoting, or as echo of 'As You Like It', II vi 166, (of old age) 'sans teeth', 'sans everything' 2 In various French phrs current in ordinary English usage sans cere monie, without ceremony or formality, e.g. come and dine with us sans cere monie, in a friendly way, sans doute, without doubt, doubtless, certainly, sans facon, without ceremony, without fuss, sans gene, n, a casual, offhand manner, lack of constraint, sans phrase, without circumlocutory or complimentary phrases, plainly, bluntly, in a word, sans souci, n, gay, irresponsible unconcern, thoughtless happiness

Sanskrit, Sanskrit, n & adj [1 sanskrit, 2 sanskrit] In the language itself, sanskrita, ht 'made, fitted, together, symmetrically arranged', fr sam, 'together', cogn w same, & kṛta, 'made', cogn w Lat creare, see create, cp Prakrit, 'the common language' 1 In The ancient, classical, literary and sacred language of the Hindus, belonging to the Aryan family, preserved in documents far older than those of any other Aryan language 2 adj Of, pertaining to, written in, Sanscrit

Sanscritic, adj [1 sanskritik, 2 sanskritik] Prec & -ic Belonging to, allied to, Sanscrit, the Sanscrit languages, now usually called Aryan languages sansculotte, n [1 sanskilot, 2 saskilt] Fr, 'without breeches' 1 (hist) The name given, originally in contempt, to the mob or lower classes, later to the more violent revolutionaries, or Jacobins, in the French Revolution as wearing pantaloons or loose trousers and not the knee breeches of the gentry 2 A violent republican or revolutionary, equivalent to the modern Bolshevik sansculotism, n [1 sanskilotizm, 2 saskiltizm] Prec & -ism Principles, methods, of the sansculottes, violent republicanism or revolutionary principles, mob rule sanserif, n [1 sanserif, 2 sanserif] fr Fr sans, 'without', & serif A form of type without serifs

Santa Clans, n [1 santa klawz, 2 sente klawz] American adaptation of Dn Sint Klaus, 'Saint Nicholas', Father Christmas santal, n [1 santal, 2 santel] Fr, fr Med Lat santalum Sandalwood, q v santalum, n [1 santaln, 2 santaln] Prec & -in (chem) The red colouring substance of sandalwood santon n [1 santun, 2 santun] Span, fr santo, fr Lat sando, dat or abl of sanctus,

'holy' See sanctus A Turkish dervish or holy man santonin, n [1 santunin, 2 senten:n] fr Lat santonica, 'wormwood', fr name of Santonica, a Gaulish tribe of Aquitania, & -in (chem) A bitter substance obtained from various species of wormwood, Santonica, used as a drug for expelling intestinal worms

Saorstát Éireann, n [1 sárstath éran, 2 séarstap éran] Ir The Irish Free State sap (I), n [1 sap, 2 sasp] OE sap, O H G saf (Mod Germ saffi), prob borrowed fr Lat sapa, 'must, new wine', wb is related to sapor, 'flavour', & sapere, 'to taste of' See sapid 1 The juice or fluid which circulates in the tissues of plants, esp in woody tissue 2 A Any fluid or essence regarded as giving life and vigour, e.g. (poet.) blood, b (fig) vigour, spirit, richness of temperament sap (II), vb trans, fr preo (chiefly fig) To drain away the life and strength of, to weaken, cause to dwindle or decline, over strain to sap one's health, strength, energies &c Probably associated with next word sap (III), n, fr O Fr sappe, a digging implement, Fr sape, 'entrenching, mining, tool', cp Ital zappa, Med Lat hys zappa, 'mattock, spade', etymol doubtful 1 (mil) A covered trench, often having a parapet on one side, made by an attacking or besieging force as a means of approach towards the enemy's fortifications, usually constructed in zig zag so as to prevent enfilade fire 2 (fig, rare) An insidious, secret attack or destructive agency 3 (schoolboy's slang, possibly a different word) A Hard work, a disagreeable task, swot, grind, b a hard working studious person sap (IV), vb trans & intrans, fr Fr saper See preo word A trans 1 (mil) To attack, approach, by means of saps to sap a line of trenches 2 See sap (II) B intrans 1 (mil) To dig a sap 2 (slang) To work hard, be studious to sap at a job sapajou, n [1 sapajou, 2 sapadžu] fr Fr sapajou, fr a S Am native word A small S American monkey with prehensile tail, a capuchin monkey, genus Cebus sapan-wood, n [1 sapan wood 2 sapan wud] fr Malay asapang A red dyo wood obtained from a tree, Caesalpinia sapan, of the Malay archipelago and elsewhere in the tropical East Indies sap green, n sap (I) & green A dull green colouring matter obtained from the juice of buckthorn berries sap-head (I), n sap (III) & head (mil) That end of a sap nearest to the line of trenches to be attacked saphead (II), n [1 sap hed, 2 saphead] fr sap (I) & head (slang) Person with a head like sapwood, a foolish, dull, spiritless person sapid, adj [1 sapid, 2 sapid] fr Lat sapidus, 'savoury, tasty', fr sapere, 'to taste, discern, be wise', see sapient, & cp insipid a Having taste or flavour, b possessing point or interest sapidity, n [1 sapiditi, 2 sapiditi] Prec & -ity Quality of being sapid, flavour, sapidness sapidness, n [1 sapidnes, 2 sapidnes] sapid & -ness Sapidity sapience, n [1 sapiens, 2 sapiens] Fr, fr Lat sapientia, 'wisdom', see next word, & -ce Wisdom, real or assumed, often ironical for self satisfied stupidity and ignorance sapient, adj [1 sapient, 2 sapient] fr Lat sapiens (em), Pres Part of sapere, 'to have a taste, to taste, to discern, to be wise, to know', cogn w O H G (ant) seppen, 'to take cognizance of', OS ansēbbjan, 'to notice, perceive taste of', OE sefa, 'mind, heart, knowing, b (tronic) wise in one's own conceit, would be knowing sapiential, adj [1 sapienshal, 2 sapienshal] fr Lat sapientia

(rare) Having wisdom, expounding wisdom, the Sopiental Books, in Bible, Proverbs, Wisdom, Ecclesiastes, and Ecclesiasticus
sapiently, adv. [1 sápiəntli, 2 sápiəntli] sapient & -ly Wisely, with an air or pretence of wisdom sapless, adj. [1 sápləs, 2 sápləs] sap (I) & -less Lacking, having lost, sap, dry, withered, without vigour or life sapling, n. [1 sáplɪŋ, 2 sáplɪŋ] sap (I) & -ling 1 A young tree, esp a young forest tree during first three or four years of growth 2 A youth just emerging from boyhood 3 (oursing) A young greyhound in first year of training sapling stakes, coursing stakes for greyhound saplings sapodilla, n. [1 sápodilla, 2 sápodilla] fr Span copotilla, dimin of zapote, fr Mexican zapoti, name of the tree A South American and West Indian evergreen tree, Achras zapota, with hard wood, edible fruit, and yielding a gum, chicha, used in America in making chewing-gum saponaceous, adj. [1 sáponášəs, 2 sáponášəs] fr Lat sápon (-em), stem of sápo, 'soap', & -aceous, Lat sápo is supposed to be a borrowing fr Gmc soip*, op OHG seifa, OE sápe, this word is cogn w Lat sabum 'tallow', see sebaceous 1 Having the properties of soap, containing soap, soapy 2 (fig) Unctuous in manner, oily, obsequiously flattering saponifiable, adj. [1 sáponifaiəbəl, 2 sáponifaiəbəl] saponify & -able Capable of being converted into soap saponification, n. [1 sáponifikášən, 2 sáponifikášən] See saponify & -fication Chemical process of converting fats or oils into soap by hydrolysis with an acid, state of being saponified saponifier, n. [1 sáponifaiə, 2 sáponifaiə] saponify & -er Agent used in saponification saponify, vb trans [1 sáponifi, 2 sáponifi] fr saponaceous, Lat sápon (-em), 'soap' See saponaceous & -fy To convert into soap by chemical process sapor, n. [1 sápor, 2 sápor] Lat, 'taste, savour' See sapid (rare) Taste, flavour, savour sapper, n. [1 sáper, 2 sáper] sap (IV) & -er One who saps, specif (mil) a member of the Royal Engineers, formerly styled Sappers and Miners Sapphic adj & n [1 sáfik, 2 sáfik] fr Lat Sapphica, fr Gk Sapphikḗs, 'of Sappho', Gk Sapphḗ, name of lyric poetess of Lesbos, c 600 B.C. 1 adj Connected with, pertaining to, Sappho, Sapphic verse, metre used by Sappho, also by Horace, and some times attempted in modern verse, consisting of a four-line stanza of three lines followed by a short one, the first three lines having five beats, the middle being of three syllables, the others of two each 2 n (usually pl) Sapphics, Sapphic verse, stanzas in Sapphic form and metre sapphire, n & adj [1 sáfír, 2 sáfír] ME saphir, safir, fr Fr saphir, fr Lat sapphirus, fr Gk sappheiros, applied to a gem stone which was prob lapis lazuli, of Oriental origin, cp Heb safir, 'lapis lazuli' 1 n a A translucent precious stone, of varying shades of intense blue in colour, b (mineral) a hard, translucent variety of corundum, of different colours, the constituent of the true sapphire and also of the ruby, with many intermediate stages, as white sapphire, often passed as a diamond, c a deep bright blue colour, as of the sapphire the sapphire of the skies, of eyes, of a butterfly's wings &c 2 adj a Pertaining to, composed of, set with, a sapphire or sapphires a sapphire ring, b resembling a sapphire in colour, of a bright intense blue, azure a sapphire sea, sapphire eyes &c sapphirine, adj & n [1 sáfírín, 2 sáfírín] sapphire & -ine 1 adj a Resembling, consisting of, sapphire, b deep bright blue. 2 n (mineral) A blue or green silicate of aluminium and magnesium sappiness, n. [1 sápinəs, 2 sápinəs] sappy & -ness State, quality, of being sappy sappy, adj [1 sápi, 2 sápi] OE sæpſ, sap (I) & -y 1 Full of sap, juicy, young, vigorous 2 (slang) Soft, weak, flabby sapr(o)-, pref used to form compounds, fr Gk sáprós, 'putrid, rotten', cogn w sápein, 'to rot', sápe, 'ulcer', etymol doubtful sapraemia, n [1 sáprəmə, 2 sáprəmə] sapro- & Gk haima, 'blood' See haemo- (med) Sepsicaemia saprogenic, -genous, adj [1 sáprɔjénik, 2 sáprɔjénik, sáprɔjénik, sáprɔjénik] sapro- & -genic, -genous Producing, produced by, putrefaction saprogenic bacteria saprolite, n [1 sáprəlīt, 2 sáprəlīt] sapro- & -lite, fr Gk líthos, 'stone' (geol) Decomposed, disintegrated, rock saprophagous, adj [1 sáprɔfəgəs, 2 sáprɔfəgəs] sapro- & -phagous (zool) Feeding, living, on decaying, putrifying organic matter saprophyte, n [1 sáprɔfīt, 2 sáprɔfīt] sapro- & -phyte, fr Gk phúlōn, 'plant' (bot) A vegetable organism that lives on decaying organic matter, such as certain fungi saprophytic, adj [1 sáprɔfítik, 2 sáprɔfítik] sapro- & -ic (bot) Living on decaying organic matter, saprophagous sap-rot, n sap (I) & rot Dry rot, in timber sapwood, n [1 sápwud, 2 sápwud] sap (I) & wood The newer, relatively soft, growing wood of a tree near the bark, also called alburnum, contrasted with the heartwood, the valuable part of timber sar, also sargo, n [1 sar (gə), 2 sá (gou)] Fr, fr Lat sargus, op Gk sargós A fish, sea-bream saraband, n [1 sárahənd, 2 sárahənd] fr Fr sarabande, fr Span sarabanda, etymol doubtful, prob of Moorish origin, Pers sorband, 'fillet for a woman's head-dress', has been suggested a A slow, graceful Spanish dance, in triple time, with accented second beat in the bar, b music composed for this Saracen, n [1 sárasən, 2 sárasən] fr L Lat Saracenus, fr L Gk Sarakēns, etymol doubtful, prob of Arab origin Name applied, a to various tribes of Syrian and Arabian origin, esp to the nomad tribes of the Syrian and Arabian desert, b to any Moslem, specif, those who opposed the Crusaders saracen corn, n Buckwheat Saraceno, adj [1 sárasénik, 2 sárasénik] Saracen & -ic Connected with, pertaining to, the Saracens, or Moslems Saracenic architecture, Moslem, Arabian, architecture Saracen's head, n A Turk's or Arab's head as heraldic charge, crest, or inn sign Saratoga trunk, n [1 sáratɔgə trɪŋk, 2 sáratɔgə trɪŋk] fr Saratoga Springs, fashionable resort New York State Travelling trunk of great size, used by Americans sarcasm, n [1 sáskəzəm, 2 sáskəzəm] Fr sarcasme, fr L Lat sarcasmus, fr Gk sarkasmos, 'mockery, sarcasm', fr sarkazein, 'to tear, gnaw flesh like dogs, to bite the lips, to sneer, taunt', fr sark (ds), sark, 'flesh', see sarco- 1 a A mocking sneering, taunt, intended to wound, an ironical jibe, b ironical mockery, satire 2 a Turn of mind inclined to irony, mocking bitterness, veiled sneers, and satirical taunts, b facility in uttering, proneness to utter these sarcastic, adj [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] fr Gk sarkastikḗs See sarcasm & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm

sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm
sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] sarcastic & -ic a (of utterances) Expressing sarcasm, bitter, mocking, contemptuously ironical or satirical, b (of persons) given to using sarcasm
sarcastically, adv [1 sáskástikali, 2 sáskástikali] sarcastic & -ly In a sarcastic manner, with sarcasm sarcastic, n [1 sáskástik, 2 sáskástik] cloth wound round the body with one end thrown over the head sargasso, n [1 sargasó, 2 sárgason], fr Port sargazo, fr sargo, 'grape' Species of seaweed (Sargassum), with berry-like air sacs, found floating in great masses, as in the Sargasso Sea, in the N Atlantic, and in the S Pacific &c, also called gulf weed sargo, n See sar

sark, n See saree

sark, n [1 sark, 2 sák] ME serke, Scand., fr ON serkr, 'shirt', cogn w OE serce, 'shirt, tunic' (Scots or archaic) Shirt, shift.

Sarmatian, adj & n [1 sarmáshán, 2 sámer-jón] 1 adj Of, belonging to, ancient Sarmatia, region north of the Black Sea, part of modern Poland and Russia 2 n Inhabitant of Sarmatia, (poet) a Pole or Russian.

sarmentose, sarmentous, adj [1 sármontós, 2 sármontós, 2 sármontós, 2 sármontós] Lat sarmentosus, 'full of twigs or branches', sarmentum for sarmentum, 'trimmed off brush wood, faggot', fr serpere, 'to lop, trim', cogn w Gk harpé, 'sickle', & O Slav srǫpǫ, 'sickle' It has been suggested that the sense 'to ont', of the base serp* &c, is secondary, & comes fr the seose, 'sickle, hook', & that this again was orig, 'the curved implement', fr serp-*, 'to wind, creep' &c, see serpent (of plants) Producing prostrate, trailing, branches or runners sarong, n [1 sáhrong, 2 sárrj] Malay sāring The principal garment of Meley men and women, consisting of a rectangular piece of striped silk or cotton cloth worn round the waist, forming a kind of kilt or petticoat sarsaparilla, n [1 sársaparíla, 2 sársaparíla], fr Span. zarzaparrilla, fr zarza Basque zartza, 'bramble', the second element is doubtful, prob a dimin of parra, 'vine trained against a wall', Porillo, name of supposed discoverer of medicinal use, has also been suggested 1 (bot) Any species of the South or Central American smilar 2 (med) A decoction made from the dried roots of the above, used as a tonic, blood purifier &c sarsenet, sarsnet, n See sarconet

sarsen stones, n [1 sársen stónz, 2 sársen stónz] Prob a variant of Saracen (stones), in sense of 'pagan, heathen' The large blocks of very hard siliceous sandstone very common on the Wiltshire Downs, of same kind as those which are used in the prehistoric circles of Stonehenge and Avebury, also called 'grey wetters' sartorial, adj [1 sartóriel, 2 sártóriel] Lat sartor, stem of sartor, 'a tailor', & -al, the Lat n is derived fr sart-, P.P type of sarcere, 'to patch, patch, mend', prob cogn w Gk. herlos for serlos*, 'fence, protection', orig 'a bundle of wicker work' Cp exorcize Connected with pertaining to, the trade and work of a tailor, pertaining to clothes made by a tailor, (chiefly jocular) a sartorial triumph, a well made suit the sartorial art, tailoring &c sartorius, n [1 sartórus, 2 sártórus] Lat adj, 'pertaining to a tailor', fr sartor See prec (anat) The long leg muscle which passes obliquely across the front of the thigh, used in crossing the legs when squatting, or sitting like a tailor at his work.

Sarum, n [1 sárum, 2 sárum] Med. Lat., supposed to be due to a misreading of an abbr form of Lat Saraburia, 'Salisbury' Ecclesiastical name of Salisbury and its diocese, used in the signature of the bishop, e.g. John Sarum, Sarum use, form of liturgy used in the diocese of Salisbury until the Reformation sash (L), n [1 sash, 2 sash] fr Arab shash, misused to make the turban, & so first used in Engl as equiv to 'turban' 1 A An ornamental exact strip, or band of silk worn over the shoulder, or round the waist by officers and certain non-commissioned officers as part of uniform 2 A broad ribbon worn over the shoulder and carrying the badge worn by members of the higher orders of various orders of knighthood &c 2 An ornamental, coloured scarf, or broad piece of ribbon, worn round the waist by women and children sash (IL), n. Corrupted form of Fr châssis, 'framework, framing', see chassis One of the two, upper and lower, pieces of framework, made to slide up and down, for opening and shutting, in which the panes of glass in a window are fixed, sash cord, line, cord attached to either side of a sash, with the balancing weights at the other end enabling the window to be easily raised and lowered, sash-weight, one of these leaden weights, sash window, one constructed with sashes, as distinguished from a casement window sasin, n [1 sásin, 2 sásin] Nepalese The Indian ootelo, the males of which have long spiral horns sassafras, n [1 sassafras, 2 sássafras] Fr, fr Span sasofras, also sasifras, etymol doubtful, prob confused w Lat saxifraga, saxifraga A laurel-like bush or tree of N America, with an aromatic bark, from which a volatile oil is extracted, used as an astringent medicine, as a tonic, and as a flavouring substance

Sassanian, adj [1 sássánian, 2 sássánian] Sāsān see next word, & -ian. Of, belonging to, the Sassanid dynasty, or to the period during which they ruled, Sassanid Sassanid, n & adj [1 sássánid, 2 sássánid], fr Sāsān, name of the founder of a dynasty of Persian kings who ruled fr c. A.D. 226 to 641 1 n. A member of this dynasty 2 adj Connected with, belonging to, the dynasty, Sassanian.

Sassenach, n [1 sássénagh, 2 sássénagh] Gael & Ir form of Saxon. An Englishman, also a Lowland Scot, as distinguished from a person of Highland, or Celtic Irish blood.

Sastra, Shashtra, Shaster, n [1 shástra, 2 shástra] Sert śāstra, 'sacred ordinance' One of the sacred writings, or books of the law, of the Hindus sat, vb [1 sat, 2 sat] Pret & P.P of sit, fr OE Pret sæt; ME sai Cp the OE P.P (ge)sæten, ME seten satable, adj [1 sátabl, 2 sátabl] sate & -able Capable of being sated or satisfied

Satan, n [1 sátan, 2 sátan] fr Lat Satanas in the Vulgate, Gk. Satanás, in Septuagint, for Hebrew Sātān 'the enemy, the adversary', fr sātan, 'to oppose, persecute', cogn w Arab shatan, fr shatana, 'to oppose' The Devil, the arch enemy of mankind.

satanic(al), adj [1 sátanik(l), 2 sátanik(l)] Prec & -ic & -al. The shorter is now the commoner form a (cap) Connected with, emanating from, pertaining to, Satan Satanic influence, hence b. diabolical, devilish, diabolical, utterly malignant and wicked with satanic glee, satanic cruelties, blasphemies &c, satanic energy, so great as to be abnormal, demonic Phrs the Satanic host, the fallen angels (Milton), His Satanic Majesty, humorous way of referring to the Devil, Satanic school of poetry, applied by Southey to the poetry of Byron and Shelley satanically, adv Prec & -ly In a satanic manner

Satanism, n [1 sátanizm, 2 sátanizm] Satan & -ism Infamous modern form of superstition or blasphemy, in which the Devil is invoked and worshipped with a travesty of Christian ceremonial, and with celebration of the so-called Black Mass, attended with monstrous impieties, diabolism

Satanist, n [1 sátanist, 2 sátanist] See prec & -ist One who practises Satanism Satanology, n [1 sátanolój, 2 sátanolój] Satan & o & -logy Study of Satan in Christian theory and in legend, historical account of theories and legends concerning Satan satara, n [1 sáthara, 2 sáthara], fr name of town in India A heavy ribbed woollen broadcloth.

satchel, n [1 sáchel, 2 sáché], fr O Fr sachel, fr L sacculus, dimin. of saccus, see sack (I) A small sack or bag, of leather or canvas furnished with a strap to pass over the shoulder, esp one used by children for carrying books to and from school sate (I), vb trans [1 sāt, 2 sōit] Possibly based on ME sāde, OE sadian, 'to make sated, to satiate', see sad, but assimilated to Lat sot, satis, 'enough', perh, more prob, merely a shortened form of satiate (chiefly in pass) To satisfy, gratify, appetite, desire, to the full, or to repletion, to glut, to satiate, surfeit to be sated with food, drink, pleasure, also to sate oneself with, satisfy completely, beyond measure sate (II), vb [1 sat, 2 sāt] Archaic Pret of sit, now sat

satene, n [1 sádn, 2 sádn], fr satén, w suff -en, variant of -ine, indicating a derivative or imitation Cp velvetene A cotton or wool fabric with glossy surface made to imitate satin satelless, adj [1 sátlés, 2 sátlés] sate (I) & -less (poet) Not to be sated, insatiable satellite, n [1 sátelit, 2 sátilait] Fr, fr Lat satellit (em), satelles, 'an attendant, guard', in pl, 'escort, retinue, partner, abettor of crime, accomplice', etymol doubtful 1 An attendant, dependent, follower of a superior, a member of the retinue or train of an important personage, an obsequious minion, hanger-on, lackey, of the great 2 (astron) A secondary planet revolving round a greater planet, as the moon round the earth satellite, adj [1 sátelitik, 2 sátilitik] Prec & -ic Having the qualities and character of a satellite, revolving as a satellite round a greater body sateloid, n [1 sáteloid, 2 sátiloid] satellite & -oid. A small body resembling a satellite, as the bodies that form the rings of the planet Saturn sati, n See suttie

satable, adj [1 sásh(ə)bl, 2 sásh(ə)bl] See satiate (II) & -able Capable of being satiated or sated satiate (I), adj [1 sáshūt, 2 sáshūt], fr Lat satiāt(-um), P.P type of satiare, 'to fill full, to satisfy', fr sai, satis, 'enough, sufficient', see satus (archaic or poet, followed by with or of) Having enjoyed enough, or more than enough, sated, satiated, surfeited, glutted satiated with pleasure, 'In life's cool evening, satiate of applause' (Pope, 'Epistle to Bolingbroke', 9) satiate (II), vb trans, fr prec a To satisfy, to sate fill to satiety (persons), b to appease, satisfy (desire, appetite &c), to dull, cloy, by over indulgence satiation, n [1 sáshúshun, 2 sáshúshun] Prec & -ion Act of satiating, state of being satiated.

satiety, n [1 sáshē, 2 sáshē], fr Fr satiété, fr Lat satiētāt (em), fr satis, 'enough' See satiate (I) & -ity State of being satiated or satisfied to repletion, feeling of having had enough or more than enough, surfeit satin (I), n [1 satin, 2 sátn] Fr, cp Ital setino, 'a thin silk stuff', Port setim, etymol. doubtful, Low Lat has satinus, etinus, 'a silk stuff, setim', apparently fr Lat seta, 'bristle, hair', also, in Low Lat, 'silk' See seta & seton 1 A soft rich silk fabric with a smooth, lustrous, glossy surface 2 A Any soft, smooth, glossy, lustrous surface the satin of a fine skin, of the coat of a horse &c, b (slang) gun, also white 3 (attrib) A blade of satin a satin dress, b resembling satin in appearance and texture, smooth, silky, to the touch, bright and glossy a horse's satin coat, a satin polish satin (II), vb trans, fr prec To make satiny or like satin, to give a satin-like surface to to satin paper

satisfy, vb trans & intrans [1 satisfai, 2 satisfais] O Fr satisfier, Lat satisfacere, 'to make content, to make amends, make reparation, to convince by proof' See satus & -fy A trans 1 To give physical, intellectual, or spiritual contentment to, to gratify, sate, to slake, quench, a to satisfy appetite, desire, lust &c, to satisfy one's ambitions, aspirations, needs of body and mind &c b to satisfy a person who wants something 2 a To give enough to, be enough for, suffice for, render content however much I do, I can't satisfy him, he is so grasping that no reasonable sum will satisfy him, b to come up to one's ideals, standard of excellence, to suffice to give one complete satisfaction this piece of work doesn't quite satisfy me, but it is the best I can do Phr to satisfy the examiners, just to reach the lowest standard, hence, to pass an examination by the skin of one's teeth 3 To fulfil, discharge, to comply with, perform, observe fully (requirements, rules, conditions &c) 4 a To pay (1) (a person) in full (for a debt) to satisfy one's creditors, (n) to discharge, meet to satisfy a claim, an obligation, b to make reparation to, compensate, make amends to, indemnify (a person, for an injury) 5 a To convince, persuade, by bringing proof or evidence, to set doubts, anxieties, at rest you must satisfy me that you are capable of fulfilling the duties, before I oppose you to the post, I had doubts, but your explanation satisfies me, I easily satisfied him that there was no danger, also, to satisfy oneself (1) that a person is honest, (n) of a person's honesty, to ascertain by inquiry &c that he is honest, b to allay, set at rest, relieve you have completely satisfied my fears, anxiety, doubts &c B intrans 1 To give satisfaction 2 (rare and archaic) To atone satisfying, adv [1 satisfaiŋ, 2 satisfaiŋ], fr Pres Part of prec Affording bodily or spiritual satisfaction o satisfying meal, a satisfying performance satisfyingly, adv Pres & -ly So as to satisfy Saturday, n [1 saturday, 2 saturday] sab- western (satday, seaterday, M E Saturday, trans lated fr Lat Saturnus dies, 'Saturn's day'.

The seventh or last day of the week, usually a half holiday, the Jewish Sabbath

Saturn, n [1 satērn, 2 satūn], fr Lat Saturnus, lt 'the sower', fr base *sat-, in PP of serere, 'to sow', cogn w semen & seed 1 (Rom mythol) The ancient agr cultural god of the Italic tribes, later identified by the Romans with the Greek Cronos, the Titan, father of Zeus (Jupiter), whose reign was a 'golden age' 2 a (astron) A major planet, next in size to Jupiter and, until discovery of Neptune and Pluto, the farthest from the sun of the known planets, distinguished by its ten satellites or moons, and its rings composed of a dense mass of satellite, b (alchem) the metal lead, c (astrol) the leaden planet, supposed to have a gloomy, depressing influence on those born beneath it saturnalia, n pl [1 sätürnälja, 2 sätürnäljə] Lat, neut pl of Saturnalia, 'of, belonging to, Saturn'. See prec & -al 1 (Rom antiq, cap) The yearly festival of Saturn, held about Dec 17th, when slaves were liberated, all business ceased, and there was general feasting and revelry, the ancient predecessor of Christmas time, celebrating the winter solstice 2 (often as sing) Bont, out break, of noisy riot and revelry, an orgy saturnalian, adj [1 sätürnäljan, 2 sätürnäljən] prec & -an 1 Of, pertaining to, the Saturnalia 2 Lascivious, riotous

Saturnian, adj & n pl [1 sätürmjan, 2 sätürmjan] fr Lat Saturnius, see Saturn & -ian 1 adj a Belonging to, connected with, the old Roman deity Saturn, Saturnian age, the supposed golden age when Saturn reigned, marked by simplicity, purity, and happiness Saturnian metre, the oldest Roman metre, used in primitive folk songs, of a lively dancing measure, the typical verse has three iambic feet, and an extra syllable, followed after the break by three trochees, it has been compared by Macaulay to the nursery rhyme metre of 'The queen was in the parlour, eating bread and honey', b (astron) of, belonging to, the planet Saturn Saturnian rings, satellites &c 2 n pl Saturnians, Saturnian verses saturnine, adj [1 sätürmjin, 2 sätürmjin] fr M Fr, fr Saturn, in astrol sense, & -ine 1 a (astrol) Born under the influence of Saturn, the leaden planet, hence, of a gloomy, morose, temperamental, contrasted with mercurial, b (of expression, temper &c) gloomy, glowering, frowning, morose a saturnine expression of face, a person of saturnine temper, appearance &c 2 (old chem & med) Of, pertaining to, resembling, lead saturnine poisoning, colic &c, lead poisoning, saturnine red, minium satyr, n [1 sätür 2 sätür], fr Lat satyrus, fr Gk satyros, etymol unknown the Doric form is ituros 1 (Gk mythol, usually cap) A woodland and mountain deity, half beast, half man, depicted with horse's ears and tail, or with goat's horns and tail, one of the followers of Dionysus or Bacchus in his revels, a wild lover of wine and women, the Romans identified the satyrs with the fauns, and depicted them with goat's legs and hoofs 2 A lecherous man 3 A butterfly belonging to the sub family Satyrinae or Argus butterfly flies satyriasis, n [1 sätürjäläs, 2 sätürjäläsjə] Gk satyr & -iasis Sexual mania in males

satyric adj [1 sätürik, 2 sätürik], fr Lat satyricus fr Gk satyrikós satyr & -ic Pertaining to, consisting of, satyrs, especially as the attendants of Dionysus or Bacchus Satyric drama, a form of ancient Greek, esp Attic, drama burlesquing the legends of the gods &c, and having a chorus of satyrs sauce (I), n [1 säs, 2 säs] Fr, fr L, popular Lat salsus, fam sing of Lat salsus, 'salted', see sal (I) 1 a One of numerous kinds of more or less highly flavoured and thickened gravies or other liquids, used to add a relish to meat and fish &c Phr what a sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander, that which is applicable for one person or in one case should be applicable to all others in the same circumstances b (fig) something which adds zest and gusto any little excitement is a sauce to the monotony of a quiet life 2 (colloq) Sauciness, impudence, impertinence, pertness now then, none of your sauce sauce (II), v trans, fr prec 1 To season with sauce 2 (colloq) To be pert, impudent, impertinent, to sauce-bowl, n Small vessel or tureen of silver or china in which sauces are served at table sauce-box, n A 16th cent term A saucy, impudent young person saucepan, n [1 säs-pän, 2 säs-pän, -pən] sauce (I) & pan (I) Kitchen utensil of copper, iron &c, with a cover and a long handle, in which food is boiled, originally a vessel for boiling sauces saucer, n [1 säser, 2 säse], fr O Fr sauccier, saucciere, fr saucciere, 'a dish for holding salt or sauces' See sauce (I) & -er 1 a A small, flat, round dish placed below a tea cup &c, b a flat earthenware dish with a high rim placed below a flower pot to catch water draining away from the plant 2 Round shallow depression in the ground saucer-eyed, adj Having large and round eyes, or wide open eyes as though startled saucerful, n [1 säserfööl, 2 säsefööl] As much as would fill a saucer saucily, adv [1 säsil, 2 säsil] saucy & -ly In a saucy manner, unpertinently, pertly sauciness, n [1 säswänes, 2 säswänes] See next word & -ness Quality of being saucy, impertinence saucy, adj [1 säsi, 2 säsi] sauce (I) & -y 1 a Pert, impudent, b lively, vivacious, obsequious 2 (vulg slang) Smart, coquettish, stylish, modish a coat of saucy cut, a saucy little hat sauerkraut, n [1 säurkräut, 2 säurkräut] Germ, fr sauer, sour, & kraut, 'vegetable, cabbage' A German dish of cabbage pickled in brine and allowed to ferment

Saumur, n [1 sämür, 2 sämür], or as Fr [sömür] Name of town, Maine-et-Loire, France A white French wine, with an aromatic flavour, from the vineyards near Saumur saunders, n See sanders

saunter, v intrans & n [1 säwnter, 2 säntə] Perf fr Low Lat exsauturare*, 'to set out on adventures' See ex- & adventure 1 v a To walk slowly, in a leisurely manner, to stroll, b to loiter, potter, linger, to walk too slowly and as if without purpose, hence, o to loiter, potter, over one's work 2 n A quiet, leisurely walk, a stroll saunterer, n [1 säwnter, 2 säntərə] prec & -er One who saunters saunteringly, adv [1 säwnterig, 2 säntərɪg] prec Part of saunter & -ly With a saunter, slowly, leisurely, loiteringly

Sauria, n pl [1 säria, 2 särie] Mod Lat, fr Gk sauros, 'lizard', see sauro- Family of reptiles, including the extinct dinosaurs &c, and lizards, crocodiles were also formerly grouped under this class saurian, adj & n [1 särian, 2 särian] prec & -an 1 adj Belonging to the Sauria 2 n One of the Sauria sauro- pref, fr Gk sauros, 'lizard', cogn w Gk sauros, 'twisting, vacillating', cognates in other languages not known, saurognathous (of birds, such as woodpeckers), having the bones of the head arranged like those of lizards

-sauros, suff Mod Lat, fr prec Used in names of various extinct lizard like monsters, ichthyosaurus &c saury, n [1 säri, 2 säri] See sauro- Popular name of various fishes with long slender heads sausage, n [1 säsi 2 säsidz], fr Fr saucisse, fr L Lat salsicia, 'salted, seasoned meat, sauce' (I) fr Lat salsus, 'salted, seasoned', see sauce (I) n Bag relatively long and slender, of thin membranous tissue having the ends tied or twisted, containing finely minced and highly seasoned pork, beef &c, b object shaped like a sausage, esp an observation balloon, also called sausage balloon sausage-meat, n Finely chopped seasoned meat as used for sausages or for stuffing sausage-roll, n Bol of oblong partly containing sausage meat saute, adj & n [1 sötä, 2 sötet] Fr, P P of sauter, 'to jump', fr Lat saltare, see saltant a adj (of articles of food) Fried quickly and lightly in boiling fat, and frequently turned during process, b n, a dish cooked in this way

Sauterne, n [1 sötän, 2 sötän] Sauternes, name of a district of Gironde, in France A light, sweet, white wine from this district saute qui pent, n, partly anglicized [1 söt ke pé, 2 söt ki pé] Fr, 'save himself who can' A hasty, precipitate flight, a complete rout, a general stampede savable, adj [1 sävabl, 2 sävəbl] save (I) & -able Capable of being saved or rescued (chiefly in moral sense) savage (I), adj [1 sävi, 2 sävidz] Earlier salvage (Spenser), fr O Fr salvage, salvage, fr Lat salvaticus, 'of the woods, woodland', hence 'wild', in Low Lat also salvaticus, fr Lat silva, 'wood', see silvan 1 a Wild, uncivilized, in a primitive, natural state savage races of mankind, a savage tribe, b pertaining to, characteristic of, inhabited by, such races &c savage customs, beliefs &c, to explore savage countries, that purely savage state of mankind which some have regarded as ideal 2 (of country, scenery &c) Showing no trace of human influence or action, wild, rugged, impressively grand and stern 3 a (of animals) Fierce, untamed, ferocious a savage bull, dog, b (of persons, actions &c) fierce cruel merciless, brutal 4 (colloq) Furious, very angry, with temper out of control to get savage with a person, the news made him really savage 5 (her) Often in archaic form, salvage, of figures as supporters, naked or clad in green leaves, skins &c savage (II), n, fr prec 1 A human being in the most primitive stage of civilization, a member of a savage tribe or race the savages of Central Africa, the noble savage, 18th cent conception of primitive man, living in the state of nature, unspoiled by civilization. 2 A cruel, fierce, merciless person, a brute, one of rude, uncivilized manners or behaviour the savages that form a riotous mob, the young savages of the slums 3 (her) A supporter representing a wild, naked man savage (III), v trans, fr prec 1 (rare) To make savage 2 a To treat brutally and cruelly and with physical violence, b (of horses &c) to behave to in a savage, untamed manner, to seize in the jaws, bite, and worry ferociously the stallion savaged the groom's arm savagedom, n [1 sävjədm, 2 sävidzdm] savage (II) & -dom The condition, mode of life, of savages, savages collectively savagely, adv [1 sävjli, 2 sävidzli] savage (I) & -ly In a savage manner, fiercely, wildly, cruelly savageness, n [1 sävjnes, 2 sävidznəs] See prec & -ness Condition of being savage, wild, or fierce savagery, n [1 sävjri, 2 sävidzri] savage (I) & -ry, cp Fr sauagerie 1 Condition of being savage, uncivilized, wild, a savage, primitive state to live in savagery, a gradual change from savagery to civilization 2 Condition quality, of being savage in temper and behaviour, savage disposition, cruelty, fierceness, brutality, violence &c the savagery of a riotous mob, the savagery with which the revolt was suppressed 3 (of scenery &c, rare and archaic) Wilderness, bleak, stern aspect awestruck by the savagery of the mountains savannah, savanna, n [1 sävəna, 2 sävənə] fr Span zavana, cavana, later savana prob a native Carib word An open, treeless, level tract of country, used esp of the wide, level tracts of grass land in sub tropical and tropical America, a prairie savant, n [1 sävon, 2 säv] Fr, prec Part of savoir, 'to know' See sapient A man of learning or of science, esp one of eminence and distinction.

SAYATE

1054 savate, n [1 savát, 2 savést] Fr, 'a rough shoe', op sabot A French form of rough boxing in which the feet are used save (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sáv, 2 seiv] M E salven, salva, fr O Fr salver, fr Lat salvare, fr salvus, 'safe' See salvage & salvation A trans 1 a To put into a condition of safety, to rescue or preserve from, prevent from incurring (danger, harm, injury, destruction, and evil of any kind, bodily or spiritual) 2 to save a person from drowning, from falling down, from bad ways, disgrace, humiliation &c, to save one's country, if the ship can make the harbour it will be saved, fortunately the wind changed and the houses next to the burning building were saved, my life was saved by good nursing, one's property from loss, to save one's skin, to take no risk of personal injury, to save one's face, to escape discomfiture, humiliation, preserve one's reputation &c, esp by some cunning device or pretence, to save appearance, preserve outward appearance of decency and decorum &c, to save the situation, avert apparently inevitable disaster, to save a person from himself, protect him from results of his own folly, save me from my friends, prevent disastrous results from well-meant but injudicious intervention in one's affairs, b (archaic) to guard, keep, preserve, in health and well being God save you, sir, 'God save the King' 2 Specif (theol) to preserve, liberate, deliver, from the results of sin, to redeem, to give salvation to Christ came into the world to save sinners Phr the saving grace of God, also trans, as he has the penitence for, other defects &c 3 a To store, preserve untouched, unused, unspoiled, left of the joint for tomorrow, to save one's clothes for grand occasions, to save one's strength for a great effort, b to preserve from waste, to economize, hoard up, put by to save money, one saves petrol by skilful management in driving, also save up (money), to economize it 4 a To prevent the necessity, or occurrence of, make it possible to dispense with, guard against to save oneself trouble, wealth cannot save one from ill-health, 1 met the doctor in the street, which saved a journey to his house, b to avoid the loss or expenditure of, to gain specified advantage &c to save a mile (by taking the shortest road), to reduce one's journey by, prevent necessity of travelling, an extra mile, to save a post, to secure earlier delivery of a letter &c by posting by a given hour in a given place, to save an hour by taking the express B intrans 1 To exercise the power of saving and re-deeming from sin and damnation, to perform the functions of the Saviour Christ alone has power to save 2 To hoard up, save, put by, money, to make economies it is difficult for anyone to save with the income he what it is save (II), tr, fr prec (football, cricket &c) Prevention of the opposing side scoring a goal, a run &c save (III), prep, conj, & adv, fr O Fr sauf, 'safe', used inabl absol construction as in sauf mon droit, 'saving, excepting my right' Cp legal use of salvo (I) (archaic, poet, or rhet) 1 prep Except, with the exception of, exception made of, saving all us lost save honour, all dead save him, or him alone, forty stripes save one, all but one, in the construction save thou there is none to help, the word is practically an adjective=thou excepted 2 Conj or adv in such constructions as all were drowned save he, = but he, be, or, save for the call of a bird (save for might be taken as a prep or as an adv bl phr) save-all, n save (I) & all (archaic) One of various things which save or prevent waste, eg a money box, a small strip of extra canvas added to a sail to catch the slightest wind, device attached to a candlestick enabling candles to be consumed to the last fragment saveloy, n [1 sáveloi, 2 sávelói] Popular form of Fr cervelas, fr Ital cervellata, fr cervello, 'the brain', see cerebrum A highly seasoned, dried sausage, formerly made of pig's brains, now of young salted pork saver, n [1 séver, 2 séiva] saves (I) & -er 1 (of persons) a One who saves or rescues, a saviour a saver of souls, lives &c, b one who saves, hoards, or economizes a saver of money, odds and ends &c, a saver of time 2 (of things) That which helps one to save, as a saver of labour, new inventions devised as savers of time and money 3 -saver (in compounds) a life saver, the device will prove a great labour saver savin, n [1 sávin, 2 sávin] O E safine, fr Lat sabina, so herba, 'the Sabine herb' An evergreen bushy shrub, a species of juniper, the shoots of which yield a bitter essential oil, used medicinally saving (I), adj [1 sáving, 2 seivín], fr, Pres Part of save (I) 1 a Inclined to save (money), thrifty, economical, frugal the English are not a saving race, b stingy, niggardly 2 Containing a stipulation, a reservation a saving clause 3 -saving (in compounds) labour-saving devices saving (II), n 1 Act of saving or resouing 2 Action of economizing, example of this there is a saving of some millions to the revenue, rapid travel is a great saving of time 3 (pl savings) That which is saved, the result of economy, esp in money, money saved or put by he has lost the savings of a lifetime, all my small savings are in Government securities saving (III), prep & conj 1 prep Except, excepting, save saving a few stones, nothing remains of the building, nothing wrong with him saving a slight deafness Phr saving your presence, (as apology) without meaning any offence 2 conj (followed by that or adv bl clause or phr) Saving that he is slightly deaf, he has preserved all his faculties, he was never idle, saving in his sleep, when asleep Such constructions as none saving I, he, I, he alone, are now archaic savagely, adv [1 sávingh, 2 seivín] saving (I) & -ly In a saving, economical, manner, frugally, thriftily savings bank, n [1 sávingh, 2 seivín] 1 Institution established for the purpose of thrift, which receives deposits of small amounts of money and devotes all profits to the benefit of the depositors saviour, n [1 sávyur, 2 sáviya] M E, fr O Fr sauteur, sauteur, fr Lat salvator, fr salvati (um), PP type of salvare, see salvage, & -or 1 One who saves, delivers, from danger, destruction &c 'And the Lord gave Israel a saviour' (2 Kings xiii 6), he proved the saviour of the nation, a saviour of society 2 Specif (cap) the Redeemer, Jesus Christ the Saviour, our Blessed Saviour savoir-faire n [1 savuar fáir, 2 savvá fée] Fr phr, 'to know, knowledge, how to do or behave' Social knowledge, how to do or specif, knowledge of the ways of good society, good breeding and manners, social tact savoir-vivre, n [1 sávyar vèvr, 2 savvá fáir] Fr, 'knowledge how to live', Savoir savory, n [1 sávrui, 2 savari], fr O Fr savere, fr Lat saturia, name of the herb, associated w & assimilated to savory, An aromatic variety of mint, cultivated for its use in cookery savour (I), n [1 sévur, 2 seiva] O Fr, fr Lat sapor (em), fr sapere, 'to taste', see sapid 1 Taste, flavour, relish, b (Bib) sweet, pleasant odour, fragrance, o (of non-material quality) a stimulus, zest, spice danger adds a savour to adventures 2 (fig) A slight suggestion perceptible trace, smack a savour of insolence in his manner

SAW (IV)

savour (II), vb intrans & trans, fr O Fr savourir See preo A intrans Savour of (archaic) To have a particular savour, to have in certain taste, or, more rarely, smell, to have a smack of those Southern dishes which seem always to savour of garlic 2 (fig) To show signs or traces, to suggest, have an appearance, smack of criticism that savours of pedantry, his remarks savoured of insolence B trans 1 (archaic and rare) To give a savour or taste to, to season, flavour a (in physical sense) meat savoured with salt, b (in fig sense) a life well savoured with humour and adventure 2 (rare or poet, usually in fig sense) To taste of, smack of, to show signs or traces of, to suggest, indicate presence of conduct savouring inordinance, pride 3 To perceive a savour or flavour in, to taste with pleasure, to relish, appreciate taste of smoking prevents one savouring the bouquet of wine, (also fig) to taste, appreciate, sate or critically no foreigner can savour the delicacy and precision of French verse savourily, adv [1 sávrinli, 2 séviri] savour (I) & -ly In a savoury manner, with plenty of flavour or seasoning, appetizingly savouriness, n [1 sávrines, 2 séviri] See preo & -ness Quality of being savoury savourless, adj [1 sávriles, 2 séviri] savour (I) & -less Without savour, taste less, unappetizing savoury (I), adj [1 sávrin, 2 séviri] savour (I) & -y 1 a Full of savour or taste, tasty, appetizing, b specif (of a dish) made with herbs and salted, not sweet a savoury omelette 2 (usually w neg, = un savoury) a (of places &c) Having a pleasant smell, fragrant, agreeable, pleasant, clean to have to live in a not very savoury district, b (in fig sense) reputable, attractive he has not a very savoury reputation savoury (II), n, fr preo A small, light, savoury dish, usually highly flavoured, served after the sweets, and before dessert and the wine at dinner savoy, n [1 sávói, 2 sávói], fr Fr chou de Savoie, 'cabbage of Savoy', province of France A hardy winter cabbage with closely curled, wrinkled leaves Savoyard, n [1 sav(w)jwárd, 2 sav(w)jwárd] Fr An inhabitant of Savoy, formerly s ooded to France savvy, vb & n [1 sávi, 2 sávi] Corrupt of Span. sabe, 'he knows', fr Lat sapere See sapient & sapid (along) 1 vb To know, understand, have one's wits about one 2 n Understanding, knowingsness, wits saw (I), n [1 sáv, 2 sá] O E sagu, 'saying', M E sage, cogn w O E secan, 'to say' See say (I) A traditional saying, maxim, proverb 'Full of wise saws and modern instances' (Shakespeare, 'As You Like It') saw (II), vb Pret sing, the w is prob due to the influence of the O E Pret pl sáwun sega, sago, cogn w O E sage, M E sáve, O H G further cp Lat secare, 'to cut', see scythe, A tool made in various shapes and sizes, consisting of a thin strip of steel with a toothed edge, worked by hand or by machinery, used for cutting through wood, stone, and other hard substances, the action of a hand saw is backwards and forwards a circular saw, worked by machinery, is a flat round disk with a toothed edge and cuts by a revolving motion saw (IV), vb trans & intrans, fr preo, PP sawm A trans 1 a To cut with a saw to saw a log in half, to saw timber into planks, to saw through a bone, also saw up (to log &c), to cut in pieces with a saw, b to form, shape, by cutting with a saw, to form, shape, log, Phr (fig) to saw a horse's mouth, to work the bit against, from side to side by pulling first one rein and then the other rapidly, as though sawing, to make more ments in the air with the arms suggestive of sawing B intrans 1 To use a saw I would rather saw than chop any day 2 (of a saw itself) To cut it (the saw) saws easily, will not saw at all 3 (of material to be sawn) To admit of being sawn, to be cut with a saw this kind of wood does not saw easily saw-back, n A serrated ridge, as of a mountain or mountain range, a scirra sawbones, n [1 sáwbónz, 2 sáwbónz] (jocular) A surgeon.

sawder, n [1 sawdér, 2 sáde] Variant of solder (colloq) Only in Phr soft sawder, flattery, insincere compliments, humbug, blarney sawdust, n [1 sáwdúst, 2 sádst] Minute particles of wood which fall from timber as the saw cuts through it Phr to let the sawdust out of a person, to take the stuffing out, take the conceit out of, from the sawdust stuffing of a doll sawer, n, more usually sawyer saw-fish, n Large fish, Pristis, allied to the skates, with a long, bony, flat, serrated projection from the snout resembling a saw saw-fly, n One of a numerous family of flies which lays its eggs in the leaves and stems of plants by means of a saw like ovipositor, they attack many kinds of plants from fir trees to roses and turnips, and their larvae are very destructive saw-frame, n The frame which holds a frame saw saw-gin, n See gin (II) A cotton gin used for separating the seed from the fibres of cotton, consisting of a set of revolving toothed saws which draw the fibres through a wire mesh sawing-horse, n [1 sawing hór, 2 sáwp hús] Rack for holding logs which are being sawn, shaped like two figures of X facing one another, and joined in the middle, or where the legs cross, by a stout piece of timber saw-mill, n Business premises, works, where timber is sawn up by machinery

Sawney, n [1 sáwni, 2 sáni] Sense 1, a variant of Sandy (II), sense 2 doubtful, possibly a variant of zany 1 A Scotsman 2 (without cap) A simpleton, a feeble weak minded person, a softy saw-pit, n A pit across which timber is laid and sawn by two men with a long two handed saw, one standing below in the pit, the other above saw-set, n A tool for setting the teeth of a saw saw-tooth, n 1 The tooth of a saw, usually large inserted tooth of a circular saw 2 A saw like tooth of an animal saw-toothed, adj [1 sáw tóuth 2 sá tópt] 1 Having saw teeth 2 Serrated saw-wort, n A perennial herb bearing serrated leaves and small thistle like flowers with reddish purple crowns, yielding a yellow dye saw-wrack, n A sea weed with serrated leaves sawyer, n [1 sawyer, 2 sáje] saw (II), & a variant of -ier Cp lawyer 1 A man whose trade is to saw timber, b one of the two men in a saw pit, called respectively bottom and top sawyers 2 A long horned beetle whose larvae bore into the wood of pines and firs sax, n [1 saks, 2 saks] OE sax, sax, 'knife', ON & O Frs sax, OS & OHG saks, fr same base as Saxon & saw (III), orig perh. 'a stone implement', & cogn w Lat saxum, 'stone, rock' See next word & saxifrage 1 (obs or hist) A cutting weapon, knife, short single-edged sword or dagger 2 A slate cutter's tool a sort of chopper with point at the back for piercing holes saxatile, adj [1 saksatíl, 2 sáksatol], fr Lat saxatilis, fr saxum, 'rock', the base seems to be the same as that in Lat. saxare, 'to cut', see section, & segmentum, 'a slice', see segment, esp also saw (III) & sax, it is not clear wh. is the primitive meaning, whether saxum was regarded as a material which could be split, or whether the Gmo sax was orig a cutting implement of stone (bot and zool) Growing or living among or on rocks saxe, adj [1 saks, 2 saks] Fr, 'Saxony', Germ. Sachsen Applied to various things coming from, or made in, Saxony, specul, saxe blue, a bright pale blue dye obtained from indigo, the colour of this dye, saxe paper, an albumenized photographic paper saxhorn, n [1 sáks horn, 2 sáksbón] Named after the inventor Adolphe Sax (1814-94) A brass musical wind instrument of trumpet type saxicolous, adj [1 sáksikolón, 2 sáksikolón], fr Lat saxum, 'rock, stone', see saxatile, & colere, 'to dwell, inhabit', see colony & -ino 1 (bot) Saxicolous 2 (zool) a. Inhabiting rocks, b pertaining to the Saxicola, a genus of birds which includes the stonechat, wheatear &c saxicolous, adj [1 sáksikolus, 2 sáksikolus], See prec & -ous (bot) Growing on rocks saxifrage, n [1 sáksifrá, -frá, 2 sáksifrádz, -frédz] Fr, fr Lat saxifraga (herba) 'the maiden hair fern or Adiantum', fcm sing of saxifraga, 'rock breaking herb', possibly as being used medicinally for stone in the bladder &c, or more likely because it grows in crannies in rocks, fr saxum, 'rock, stone', see saxatile, & base frag, 'to break, split', see fragment Any perennial herb of the genus Saxifraga or natural order Saxifragaceae, a rock plant with tufted foliage and panicles of white, yellow, or red flowers, London Fends is a common English species, and there are many Alps varieties cultivated in rock gardens

Saxon, n & adj [1 sáksun, 2 sáks(a)n], L Lat Saxón (em), pl Saxónes, W Gmo Sax, cp OE Sæxe, prob fr sax, 'knife, sword', as the typical weapon of these tribes See sax 1 n A member of a Nordic people of NW Germany, settled chiefly at the mouth of the Elbe, some of whom, with the Angles and Jutes, migrated to Britain in the 5th and 6th cents, the rest remaining in Germany, b ancient language of these tribes 2 adj Connected with, pertaining to, the Saxons, their language or country

Saxonism, n [1 sáksunizim, 2 sáksunizim] Prec & -ism A word, term, idiom, surviving in English, derived from Anglo Saxon, or Old English, contrasted with Latinism saxony, n [1 sáksun, 2 sáksun], fr L Lat Saxonia See Saxon & -y a A kind of fine woollen yarn produced in Saxony, b fine woollen cloth made from this saxophone, n [1 sáksafón, 2 sáksafón], fr Sax, as in saxhorn, & -phone Wind instrument with keys, made of a metal tube with the reed mouthpiece and curved like a ram's horn, and the other end turned up and outwards say (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sá, 2 set] OE seegan, 'to say, tell', ME seggen, segen, the latter, a new formation derived fr the OE type of 2nd & 3rd pers sing pres seg(e)st, seg(e)þ, is the ancestor of the Mod form, the Gmo starting point is sagō* (3) jan, whence also OS seggan, OHG sagēn, ON segga &c, see also saw (I), the Aryan base is sek-*, as in Goth sarkun, 'to see', OE seon, see see (I) the connexion in meaning is through the causative sense, 'make to see, make known, show, indicate', whence 'tell, say' Further cognates are Lat insueque, 'tell', imperat, GK empepe for ensele* 'say', Lith enlyti, 'to say', O Slav sobiti, 'to indicate, show', cp also Lat signum, 'mark, token', see sign A trans 1 To utter, express in words to say what one means, better to say too little than too much, who said that?, fol loved by to before name of person addressed I am saying to you what I wouldn't say to every one, say good morning to the gentleman Phrs what I say is &c, my opinion is &c, I should say that (he's rather stupid &c), I am inclined to think I should suppose that &c, cf §60 is too much, shall we say §35, make the suggestion of §35, to have something to say to a person usually implies a complaint, censure &c, to have nothing to say to a person, have no dealings with him, what do you say to (a game of billiards &c)?, how would you like? 2 (in pass construction) It is said in the Bible, it was said by Bacon &c, that &c, the statement is made, the opinion is expressed, and in the following words, referring to a specified statement which is quoted 3 a To report, allege people say that, it is generally said, they say that &c, b (in pass) it is reported concerning he is said to be a great artist, he is said to sing well 4 a To repeat, recite, utter aloud, by heart to say grace, a piece of poetry, one's lessons, one's prayers, also say over, go through in recitation, b (in liturgical use) to recite or read without intoning to be said or sung, Matins will be said at 11 o'clock, Phr to say Mass, (of a priest) to celebrate the Eucharistic service B intrans To assert, make a statement, utter an opinion, express ideas in speech no right to say so, to make a specified statement, so you say, you make such and such a statement, but I rather doubt it, who said so? you may well say so, what you say is perfectly correct, justified &c, it goes without saying, is so obvious as not to need to be stated, cp Fr cela va sans dire, it is just as you say, in accordance with your statement, say on, (archaic), go on with what you have to say I say!, interjection expressing surprise, satisfaction, protest &c, also to attract a person's attention, that is to say, expressing a statement more precisely in other words, giving explanation &c in three weeks' time, that is to say, on January 12th say (II), n, fr prec Only in Phrs to have one's say, (to be allowed) to say what one has to say, to say one's say, to say all one wishes to say to have a say in the matter, to have some influence weigh in, decision of, to have no say in the matter, to have no right or standing to express an opinion, or to intervene in a particular discussion say (III), n, fr O Fr sage, fr Lat saga, pl. of sagum, a cloak, kind of cloth, loan word fr Celt, cogn w Lett segene, 'large cloth, cloak', segi, 'to cover', O Prussian saxtris, 'rind, husk' L Gh sagos, 'cloth for pack saddles', is borrowed fr Lat (obs) A fine kind of serge cloth sayid n See sayyid

saying, n [1 sáing, 2 sáwp] say (I) & -ing That which is said, a statement, esp a proverb, adage, maxim, saw as the saying is, goes &c sayyid, n, also sayid, said [1 sád, 2 eed] Arab, 'lord' A Moslem title of honour, borne by the descendants of Abi, husband of Mohammed's daughter Fatima sbirro, n, pl sbirri [1 zburó zbré, 2 zburóv zbrni] Ital An Italian policeman

'sblood, n [1 zblnd, 2 zhlád] (obs) A euphemism for 'God's blood', used as an oath in late 18th to early 18th cents scab (I), n [1 skab, 2 skab] Scand, fr ON skabdr*, Mod. Swed slabb, Dan skab, cogn w OE scabb, see shabby, influenced in meaning by Lat scabies, 'itch', see scabies 1 A dry crust which forms over a wound or sore in the course of healing, a scab, b one of various diseases attacking the skin of animals, or the rind of fruit 2 A term of abuse applied by strikers to those in the trade who refuse to join, or by trade unionists to workmen who do not belong to a union, a blackleg scab (II), vb intrans, fr prec To form a scab scabbard, n [1 skábard, 2 skábed] Earlier ME forms scabberk, scabert, scabert, in A. Fr escabiers, etymol doubtful The leather, wooden or metal sheath of a sword dagger, or bayonet scabbard fish, n A long, narrow, silvery eel-like sea fish, Lepidion caudatus scabbed, adj [1 skahd, 2 skæbd] scab & -ad a Covered with scabs, scabby, b affected by the disease known as scab scabbiness, n [1 skahnes, 2 skæbɪnɪs] scabby & -ness State of being scabby scabby, adj [1 skabi, 2 skæbi] scab (I) & -y Scabbed, a covered with scabs, b affected by scab scabies, n [1 skabiɪz, 2 skéibɪz] Lat, 'roughness, scurf, the mange', connected w scabere, 'to scratch, scrape', cogn w shave (med) The itch scabious (I), adj [1 skabiʊs, 2 skéibɪʊs] fr Lat scabiōsus, 'affected by the itch' See prec & -ous (obs) Affected by scab, scabby, suffering from itch or mange scabious (II), n, fr Med Lat Scabiōsa herba, plant having healing properties for the itch An herbaceous plant, genus Scabiosa, with small round cushion-like pink, red, or blue flowers scabrous, adj [1 skabiʊs, 2 skéibɪʊs] fr L Lat scabrius, fr scabr-(um), scaber, 'rough, affected by itch', fr scabies 1 (of animals and plants &c) Having a rough, uneven surface, covered with small scales or protuberances, scurfy 2 (of subjects &c) Difficult to handle in writing &c, with dishonesty, indecent, improper scabrously, adv Prec & -ly In a scabrous manner scabrouness, n See prec & -ness State of being scabrous, roughness, harshness &c scabwort, n [1 skahwɜrt, 2 skæbwɜrt] scab (I) & wort (I) Popular name of the plant elecampane scad, skad, n [1 skad, 2 skæd] Etymol uncertain, perh variant of shad Popular name for the horse mackerel, Trachurus trachurus scaffold (I), n [1 skáfɔld, skáfɔld, 2 skæfɔld, -ɔld] fr O Fr eschafaut, eschafaud, earlier escadafaut, Mod Fr échafaud, of doubtful etymol, perh orig the same as catafalque 1 (also scaffolding) Temporary structure of poles and planks, put up for workmen to stand on while erecting, repairing, painting, or working upon, a building 2 a The raised platform, of wood, upon which criminals are executed, (in general) b the place of execution, c (by metonymy) capital punishment Phrs to go to, mount, the scaffold, to suffer capital punishment, to send to the scaffold, to condemn to be executed 3 (various techn uses) a (anat) A bony framework, b (metal) an obstruction formed of layers of adherent, unfused material in a blast furnace, c (min) a timber stage or platform used in the working of a coal mine scaffold (II), vb trans, fr prec To furnish, as a building &c, with a scaffold or scaffolding scaffolding, n [1 skáfɔldɪŋ, 2 skæfɔldɪŋ] scaffold (I) & -ing Collective term for the poles and planks forming a scaffold, the scaffold itself scaglia, n, as Ital [1 skahlija, 2 skálija], or w Engl spelling pronunciation, Ital, 'scale, thin piece of stone' &c See scale (II) A kind of Italian limestone, of red or reddish colour scagliola, n [1 skáhliola, 2 skáliola] Ital, dimin of prec An imitation ornamental stone made of plaster scalable, adj [1 skáliabl, 2 skéifabl] scale (VI) & -able Capable of being scaled (in various senses) scalar, adj & n [1 skálar, 2 skéila], fr Lat scálaris, 'of, belonging to, a scale, or ladder' See scale (V) & -ar 1 adj a (bot and zool) Resembling a ladder, scalariform, b (math) of the nature of a scalar 2 n (math) A pure number in a quaternion scalariform, adj [1 skálarɪfɔrm, 2 skéilaɪfɔrm] Prec & -form (bot and zool) Shaped like a ladder, as of the cells and vessels of plants, veins of insect wings &c scalawag, n See scallywag scald (I), vb trans [1 skawɪd, 2 skóld], fr

O Norm Fr escaldier, O Fr eschaldier, Mod Fr échauder, fr L Lat excaldare, 'to steep, wash, in hot water', fr ex-, 'out, very', & calidus, 'hot' See cauldron 1 To injure or destroy the soft tissues of the body by the action of boiling liquid or steam Phr (fig) scalding tears, tears of bitter sorrow, remorse &c 2 To bring (milk &c) to a temperature just below boiling-point scalded cream, cream gathered from milk scalded and allowed to stand 3 To treat with, subject to action of, boiling water, a to eliminate bristles of dead pigs by this means, b to clean, sterilize, vessels with boiling water scald (II), n, fr prec An injury to the skin and soft tissues caused by boiling water or steam scald (III), n Scandinavian poet See skald scald-head, n [1 skáldhed, 2 skóldhed], fr scalded head See scall (archaic) Popular name for various diseases of the scalp, as ringworm, tinea &c scaldino, n, pl scaldini, [1 skahldínɔ, -nɛ, 2 skáldinɔ, -ni] Ital, fr scaldare, 'to make hot or warm' See scald (I) A small earthenware brazier, used in Italy for warming one's hands or feet &c scale (I), n [1 skál, 2 skéil] ME scale, fr O Fr escala, of Gmc origin Cp O H G skála, 'drinking cup', cogn w OE scalu, 'shell, husk, dish, scale of a balance', & ON skali in same sense See scale (III) & shell The ancient Tountons applied the word skálō* only to drinking cups made fr skulls, the word skull is another cogn 1 a One of the two shallow dishes or pans of a simple weighing-machine, hence (usually in pl), the scales, pair of scales, the weighing-machine or balance itself, consisting of a beam, pivoting in the centre, from which is hung a scale pan, dish &c, at other end, in one of which the measured weights are placed and in the other the thing to be weighed, b (often fig) esp (in pl) as the symbol of justice, Phrs to hold the scales even, (fig) to judge impartially, to throw (argument &c) into the scale, to influence a decision one way or another, to turn the scale, to cause the balance to sink in one direction or scale or another, hence (fig) to determine the result of an action or event, to turn the scale of so many pounds, to weigh so much 2 (caps, pl) The Scales, the sign Libra, or the Balance, in the Zodiac 3 Specif (racing) the weighing machine in which jockeys are weighed before and after a race Phrs to go to scale, to be weighed before and after a race, to go to scale of, to weigh so much, also of boxers &c, Clerk of the Scales, official in charge of the weighing-room at a race meeting scale (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a (rare) To weigh in scales, to find the weight of, b to weigh, have a weight of (so much) he scaled 14 stone without his clothes 2 intrans To be weighed jockeys scale in and out before and after a race scale (III), n ME scale, fr O Fr escala, borrowed fr Gmc, see words given under scale (I), cp O H G skala, 'husk of fruit, egg-shell', cogn w OE scalu, 'husk, drinking-cup' There were two words in W Gmc, skál*, see scale (I), & skál*, fr wh the present word seems to be derived, the words are close cognates, representing different grades of the same base, & the meanings are also closely related & often hard to disentangle Any thin, small flake or plate, a lamina, hard film 2 (zool) a One of the thin, usually overlapping, horny plates or laminae forming a protective covering of the skin of most fishes and reptiles, b similar small hard plates on the legs of birds, c minute, downy, scale-like structure on the wings of moths, butterflies, and other insects 2 (bot) A modified or rudimentary leaflet, as of a leaf-bud before bursting, a bract of a pine cone, catkin &c 3 Any of various objects resembling the scales of fishes, a a thin flake of hardened, dead outer skin which becomes loose and separated from the healthy skin below, as in diseases and affections of the skin, b a flaky or furry encrustation on the inside of hooves, kettles &c, formed by deposits, usually of lime, from the water boiled in them, c the encrustation of tartar on the teeth, d flake or blister of oxide forming on iron &c after heating or when rusted, e a friable, flaky encrustation on the surface of stone after exposure to weather or the chemical action of a smoky atmosphere

4 In various specific uses a one of the two plates of bone, metal &c which form the sheath or handle of a clasp knife, razor &c, b one of the small overlapping metal plates in scale armour, q v, c a plain form of epaulette without fringe 5 A film, as in cataract of the eye, esp (fig) physical or spiritual blindness In Phr to remove the scales from one's eyes, the scales fell from his eyes (see Acts ix 18)

scale (IV), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To strip, clear, scrape scales from to scale fish, to scale a boiler &c, b to remove from by scraping to scale tartar from teeth, decayed surface from stone &c, also, scale off 2 To cause scales to form on, to encrust with scales time in the water scales a kettle, London smole has scaled the stones of its buildings B intrans 1 Also, scale off, to flake, peel off, to come away in scales, to shed scales some of the paint has scaled off, the skin scales after scarlet fever 2 To become encrusted with scales, stone which has scaled through weather &c scale (V), n Through Ital scala, or directly, fr Lat scala, 'ladder, flight of steps', for scandla*, fr base of scandere, 'to climb' See scan 1 (archaic and obs) Flight of steps, scaling ladder, used in both senses by Milton 2 (mus) The sounds which subdivide the interval of the octaves, arranged in successive order Phrs to learn one's scales, to begin the study of music, learning one's scales, in the first stages of this study 3 a Scheme, system, of grouping, classifying, in an order graduated according to some accepted standard of relative rank, importance, perfection &c the social scale, the scale of animal life, high, low, in the scale of civilization, b system of grading according to relative size, amount, extent &c a scale of charges, wages, pensions &c Phrs (to do something) on a large, grand, scale, widely, extensively, lavishly, splendidly &c, on a small scale, in a small way, meanly, moderately & (attrib) A system of numeration or numerical notations, in which the value of a figure depends on its place in the order according to the constant or radix chosen as the basis of the system the decimal scale, binary, duodecimal scale 5 Proportion, ratio of size, relative dimensions, of the representation of an object to those of the object itself, system of exact proportional reduction or enlargement a map drawn to a scale of ten miles to the inch, or of one inch to ten miles, picture of an object reduced to a scale of one twelfth the natural size, a large, small, scale map Phr drawn to scale, according to the scale or proportions adopted 6 A set of graduated marks as on a rule &c, b a rule, line &c so marked, used for measuring distances, indicating the scale used on a map &c scale (VI), vb trans, fr prec 1 To climb up, or over, ascend, reach the top of by ladder or by clambering, to clamber up to scale a wall, to scale the highest peaks of a mountain, (also fig) heights of philosophical abstraction 2 a To which his intellect cannot scale 2 a To regulate according to a scale, to fix the proportions, measurements, according to a scale, to ascertain the scale of to scale a building, map &c, b scale up, down, to increase, or reduce, according to a fixed scale or ratio to scale up prices, scale down wages scale-armour, n. scale (III) & armour Armour formed of small, overlapping, scale shaped pieces of metal fastened to a backing of leather or cloth scale-beam, n scale (I) & beam (I) The beam or lever of a balance or weighing machine scale-board, n scale (III) & board (I) A very thin slab of wood, used as backing for a framed picture, mirror &c scale-fern, n A polypody fern the fronds of which are covered with small scales scaleless, adj [1 skálles, 2 skállis] scale (III) & -less (offish, reptiles) Without scales scales-moss, n A plant, the liverwort or hepatica, the leaves of which are formed of small scales like moss scalene, adj & n [1 skálén, 2 skállín], fr L Lat scalenus, fr Gk skálénos, 'unequal, odd', perh cogn w skólos, 'crooked' See scolore.

1 adj a (geom) (L) (of triangles) Having unequal sides, (u) (of cones, cylinders) having the axis not perpendicular to the base, b (anat) of, pertaining to, a triangular series of muscles of the lower neck. 2 n a (geom) A scalene triangle or cone, b (anat) a scalene muscle, scalenus scalenus, n [1 skálénus, 2 skállínus] See prece (anat) One of the triangular series of muscles of the lower neck.

scaler (I), n [1 skáler, 2 skállis] scale (IV) & -er A one who scales or strips or scrapes the scales of anything b instrument for scaling the teeth, encrusted boilers &c scaler (II), n scale (VI) & -er 1 One who scales or climbs 2 One who uses a graduated scale in measuring, surveying &c scaliness, n [1 skállnes, 2 skállnis] scaly & -ness State of being scaly scaling (I), n [1 skálling, 2 skállín] scale (II) & -ing Action of weighing in scales scaling (II), n scale (IV) & -ing 1 Removal of the scales of fish &c or of scale from teeth, iron &c 2 Formation, arrangement of scales on fish, reptiles &c 3 Flaking, peeling off, of scale from stone &c scaling (III), n scale (VI) & -ing 1 Act of climbing, ascending 2 Graduation, arrangement, in a scale scaling-ladder, n a A ladder used for making an escalade on a fortified wall &c, b a fireman's ladder scalp, n [1 skawl, 2 skáll], fr ON skall, 'a bald head', op Swed. skallig, 'bald', perh fr same base as scale (III), skull (archaic) A scaly, scurf disease of the skin, esp of the scalp, a scald head scallawag n See scallywag scallion, n [1 skállun, 2 skállín] ME scallion, fr O Fr escalion, fr Lat carpa Ascalonia, 'onion of Ascalon' A kind of onion or shallot scallop (I), n [1 skolap, skállup, 2 skállap, skállup] fr O Fr escalope, Gmo borrowing See scale (I) & (III) 1 a A bivalve marine mollusc, genus Pecten, having fan shaped shells deeply grooved and ridged with undulating edge, b single valve of the scallop shell, representation of this, esp as badge of pilgrims to Holy Land in Middle Ages, and esp to shrine of St James of Compostella in Spain often borne on coat of arms by descendants of these pilgrims, usually scallop shell 2 a One valve of a scallop shell, or small porcelain dish in form of this, used to cook oysters the scallop itself, or other fish, b dish of oysters &c highly seasoned, and cooked in a scallop shell scallop of oysters &c 3 Scallops, series of pleats resembling edge of scallop shell, used as ornament on edge of a dress, blouse &c scallop (II), vb trans, fr prece 1 To cook (oysters &c) in scallop shells 2 To ornament (edge of dress &c) with scallops scallop-shell, n The shell or one valve of the shell of the scallop, representation of this as heraldic device scallywag, scallawag, n [1 skállwag, 2 skállwag] Orig Am slang, said to be a corrupt of scalloway, in Shetland, in allusion to the ponies 1 A name for undersized, poor-conditioned cattle 2 (USA) Term of abuse applied by Southerners to those who accepted the Northern reconstruction policy after the Civil War 3 A scamp, idle, disreputable fellow scalp (I), n [1 skálp, 2 skállp] Only in Engl in specific sense, but borrowed by Fr & Germ in sense of a Red Indian's scalp, apparently of Scand origin, cp ON skálpr, 'sheath', M Swed skálp, Dan dial skálp, 'shell', & Dn schelp, 'shell', eogn w scale (I) & (III), & cp scallop 1 a The skin and hair covering the top of the head, b this part as stripped off by Red Indians from a defeated enemy, and preserved as a trophy

Phr (fig) to take scalps, to have a victory, to have the scalp of, to defeat, subdue, in argument or otherwise, to pay out for some injury

2 Upper part of a whale's head. 3 Lep in form scap, a bare rounded rock or hill top scalp (II), vb trans, fr prece To strip off the scalp of scalpel, n [1 skállpel, 2 skállpél], fr Lat scalpellum, dimin of scalprum, 'knife', fr scalpere, 'to cut, carve, scrape', cogn w sculptere, 'to carve' See sculpturo A small, straight, slender knife used by surgeons scalper (I), n [1 skállper, 2 skállpér] scalp (II) & -er One who scalps, esp of Red Indians scalper (II), n, fr Lat scalprum See scalpel A surgical instrument used for scraping bone &c a surgical file or rasp scalping-iron, n [1 skállping írn, 2 skállping írn] See scalper (II) & iron A surgical scraping instrument scalpless, adj [1 skállples, 2 skállplís] scalp (I) & -less Lacking, having lost, one's scalp scalp-lock, n The lock or tuft of hair left unshaven by Red Indian braves as a challenge to their enemies scalpriform, adj [1 skállpríform, 2 skállpríform] fr Lat scalprum See scalpel & -form (zool) Chisel shaped, of the incisor teeth of rodents scaly, adj [1 skáli, 2 skállí] scale (III) & -ly 1 Covered with scales, as fish, reptiles &c 2 a Resembling scales or flakes, b peeling, flaking off in scales scammony, n [1 skámmun, 2 skámmún], fr O Fr scammonie, fr Lat scammonia, fr Gk skam(m)ónia, 'bind weed' A gum resin obtained from the fleshy root of a species of convolvulus from the Eastern Mediterranean, used medicinally scamp (I), n [1 skámp, 2 skállp] Prob fr scampier, an earlier word 1 (obs) A highwayman 2 An idle rogue, rascal, worthless fellow, often used playfully in same way as rogue a handsome young scamp, a gay, high spirited, young man scamp (II), vb trans Prob variant of scant, & cp skámp A to do (work &c) in a hurried, careless, perfunctory, inadequate way b to use insufficient or inferior materials in doing some particular work scamper (I), vb intrans [1 skámpér, 2 skállpér] Prob fr O Norm Fr escamper, 'to flee, decamp, escape', fr Lat ex, 'away, out', & campus, 'field', see camp (I), & cp Ital scampare of same origin, in present Engl sense, the OED suggests that scamper was a military word of the late 17th cent 1 (obs) To run away, flee, decamp now scamper off, away 2 To run about gaily, to caper, skip about from place to place (esp of children and young animals), also scamper about scamper (II), n, fr prece A break run, a rapid gallop &c

scan, vb trans & intrans [1 skán, 2 skálln], fr Lat scandere, 'to climb, ascend, mount', also by grammarians &c, in Phr scandere versus, 'to measure verses by taking them foot by foot', cogn w Gk skandalon, a trap, a stumbling block, see scandal, cp also scale (V) & second element in ascend descend &c A trans 1 a To niter (verse) so as to bring out full metrical value, giving the proper importance to all the elements of metrical effect, b to analyse

(verse) into its metrical elements 2 a (i) To look at closely, to examine, scrutinize to scan the horizon, a person's face &c, (u) to study, analyse, minutely 'presume nei God to scan, The proper study of Manland is Man' (Pope, 'Essay on Man', ll 1-2), b to consider glance at, cursorily and perfunctorily B intrans (of verse) To be so constructed as to allow of proper scansion scandal, n [1 skándl, 2 skállndl], fr Fr scandal, fr Eccles Lat scandalum, translating Hellenistic Gk skandalon, 'snare, stumbling-block, offence', cp in Glass Gk skandalakhron, 'the spring of a baited trap or snare', cogn w Lat scandere, 'to climb', see scan, & Sort skándal, 'bs hastens, leaps' &c, & cp slander 1 (Bib) a For Greek skandalon, as in Gnl v 11, 1 Cor 1 23 &c, translated offence in AV, stumblingblock in RV, that which occasions difficulty of religious faith the scandal of the cross, hence b that which brings discredit to the churches or causes offence to religious feelings to cause scandal to the brethren 2 a Act, circumstance, person &c, that brings disgrace on and damage to reputation of, or arouses feelings of shame, indignation &c in others the slums are a scandal to the town, b feeling of disgrace, indignation, outrage, as expressed in common talk conduct which has caused great scandal in the neighbourhood 3 Talk, gossip, damaging to the reputation of others, malicious, or merely idle, careless talk concerning the frailties and foibles of others to talk, listen to, scandal, people who dearly love a bit of scandal & (19w) Defamatory statement, or affront, esp one in a court of law, irrelevant to the issue, defamation of character, slander, q v scandalize (I), vb trans [1 skándlíz, 2 skálllíz], fr O Fr scandaliser, L Lat scandalizare, fr Hellenistic Gk skandalizein, 'to cause offence to' See prece & -ize 1 (rare) To slander, to utter scandal about, to defame 2 To cause scandal to, to shock the moral feelings of, arouse horror or indignation in his elderly aunts were scandalized at his goings on scandalize (II), vb trans, for scantelize*, 'form into small parts, divide, shorten sail', fr obs scanille, dimin of scant (II) (naut) In Phr to scandalize a sail, to reduce its area scandalmonger, n [1 skándlmungger, 2 skállndlmungger] One who spreads scandal, one given to idle and malicious gossip about others scandalmongering, n [1 skándlmunggering, 2 skállndlmunggering] Prece & -ing Act of spreading scandal scandalous, adj [1 skándalus, 2 skállndalus], fr Fr scandaloux, L Lat scandalosus See scandal & -ous 1 Of such a nature as to offend and wound the sense of morality and decency, disgraceful, deserving condemnation the conditions in slum areas of some large towns are perfectly scandalous 2 Bringing scandal and infamy, infamous scandalous conduct, crime &c 3 a Defamatory, libellous scandalous reports, b fond of scandal, given to spreading scandal a scandalous set, a scandalous tongue scandalously, adv Prece & -ly In a scandalous manner scandalousness, n See prece & -ness State, quality, of being scandalous scandalum magnatum, n [1 skándalum magnátum, 2 skállndalum magnátum] Med Lat, 'scandal of magnates' (legal hist) A special form of defamation or slander, being any words spoken in derogation of temporal or spiritual peers, judges, and other 'magnates' of the realm, an actionable offence punishable under an old statute now repealed

Scandinavian, adj & n [1 skándinávian, 2 skállndinávian] 1 adj Pertaining to, connected with, Scandinavia, its people, language &c Scandinavian languages, Old Norse, Icelandic, Norwegian, Danish, and Swedish 2 n a A native of Scandinavia, b a Scandinavian language scandium, n [1 skándium, 2 skándium] So named by Nilson, who discovered it in Scandinavia (chem) One of the metallic elements, discovered in 1879 scannable, adj [1 skánabl, 2 skánabl] scan & -able (of verse) Capable of being scanned scanning, n [1 skánung, 2 skánung] scan & -ing 1 Scansion 2 Close examination, scrutiny scansion, n [1 skanehun, 2 skán[en], fr Lat scansion-(em), fr scans (um), PP type of scandere, see scan, & -ion a Mode of scanning verse, metrical arrangement of a verse, way in which a verse scans, b act of scanning scansorial, adj [1 skansórial, 2 skansórial], fr Lat scansóri-(us), 'for climbing', fr scans-(um), see prec, & -al (of birds) Adapted for climbing scant (I), adj [1 skant, 2 skrent], fr ON skamt, neut of skammr, 'short, brief', cogn w OHG scamm, 'short', see scamp (II) & op skump Only in a few constructions and Phrs a small, spare a scant attendance (at a meeting), b inadequate in amount a scant supply (of food &c), 'fat and scant of breath', short of, c grudging, not frank or ample to treat a person with scant courtesy scant (II), vb trans; fr prec (archaic and rare) To skimp, stint scantly, adv [1 skántli, 2 skántli:] scanty & -ly In a scanty manner, insufficiently scantiness, n [1 skántines, 2 skántine] scanty & -ness State, quality, of being scanty scantling, n [1 skántling, 2 skántling] O Fr escantillon, 'pattern, sample', etymol doubtful Rarely used in any sense 1 a A sample, b a small amount 2 Dimensions of building materials 3 Timber frame to support a cask scantly, adv [1 skántli, 2 skántli:] scant (I) & -ly a Scarcely, barely, hardly, b sparingly, inadequately scantiness, n [1 skántines, 2 skántine] scant (I) & -ness State of being scant or deficient in number or quantity scanty, adj [1 skánti, 2 skánti] scant (I) & -y a Insufficient scanty means, nourishment, b meagre, reverse of ample scanty garments &c, c poor, thin, not abundant crops are very scanty this year scape (I), n [1 skáp, 2 skerp], fr Lat scapus, fr Gk skápos, cogn w sképtron, see sceptre A shaft, stem, stalk, a of a column, b of a feather, c of a flower scape (II), n Back-formation fr landscape A view of scenery, scenery itself, chiefly used in forming compounds sea scape, cloud-scape &c scape (III), vb & n Post form of escape scapegoat, n [1 skápgót; 2 skápgow], for escape goat, used in Authorized Version, to translate Heb word Azazel (Lev xvi), the meaning of wh is doubtful, where Vulgate has capr emissarius, 'the goat sent out or allowed to go free' 1 A goat set free by the High Priest on Jewish Day of Atonement, and supposed to have the sins of the people transferred to it 2 One who bears the blame, or suffers the punishment, due to another to be made the scapegoat for other people's crimes scapegrace, n [1 skápgrae, 2 skerpgrae], fr escape grace, 'one who has escaped grace' A graceless person, a rogue, a ne'er do well, a good-for nothing fellow, also semi humorously scapement, n See escapement scaph(o)-, pref Form used in compounds, meaning 'boat shaped', fr Gk skaphē, 'boat', orig 'a dug out', fr base in skaptein, 'to dig out', op scapula, cogn w O Slav lapati, 'to dig', Leti lapati, 'to chop small', laps, 'tomb' scaphocephalic, -ous, adj [1 skáfósefalik, -ofalns, 2 skáfósefalik, -sefalns] scapho-

& cephalic, -ous (anat) Having a 'boat-shaped' skull, the defect is due to premature union of the side bones scaphoid, adj & n [1 skáfoid, 2 skáfoid] scapho- & -oid (anat) a adj Boat-shaped, of a bone, b n, one of the scaphoid bones, one of which is in the wrist, and one in the ankle scapula, n [1 skápula, 2 skerpjula] L Lat, 'shoulder blade, shoulder', earlier Lat has only scapulae, pl, 'shoulder-blades, shoulders', the orig meaning is 'shovel', fr the use made of these bones by early man for digging & shovelling, cp Gk skaptein, 'to dig', skaphē, 'something scooped out, hollow vessel, a boat' &c, cp scapho- (anat) Shoulder-blade scapular (I), adj [1 ekápular, 2 skerpjula], fr L Lat scapularis, fr Lat scapulae, 'shoulder blade' See prec & -ar (anat and zool) Of, pertaining to, the scapula, shoulder blade, or shoulder scapular arch, the pectoral arch, scapular feather, one springing from the wing joint and lying along the back scapular (II), n, in first sense, prec used as n, in second sense fr Med Lat scapularē, also scapularium, fr scapula, 'shoulder' 1 (anat and zool) A scapular feather 2 (eccles) a (also scapulary) A short cloak worn over the shoulders by monks of certain religious orders, b a vestment worn by monks and others under the garments as an act of devotion, consisting of two small squares of cloth joined by shoulder straps and hanging in front and behind

scapulary See scapular (II) 2

scapulo-, pref See scapula, 'shoulder-blade', used to form compounds, as scapulo-clavicular, -humeral &c scapus, n [1 ekápus, 2 skerpós] Lat, 'shaft, stem', cogn w scopa & op sceptre (zool) a The shaft of a bird's feather, b the basal foot of a polyp scar (I), n [1 skar, 2 ská], fr O Fr escare, Mod Fr escarre, escharre, fr L Lat escara, 'scar', fr Gk eskharā, 'hearth, brazier, soar left by a burn', further etymol unknown 1 a (i) The mark left upon, and hardening of, the skin and underlying tissues, after the healing of a wound, from a cut, burn, or other injury, a cicatrice, (ii) a disfiguring blemish, b similar mark left after injury to the bark of trees &c, mark left on inorganic matter, such as rock, earth &c, c speck (hot) the mark left on a plant where a leaf, branch, seed &c has fallen off 2 (fig) a Result left on the mind by a moral injury, mental suffering &c, b physical signs of mental suffering, e g lines, furrows on the face scar (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To mark with a scar, also fig a face scarred with sorrow 2 intrans Scar over, (of wounds &c) to heal, leaving a scar, to cicatrize scar (III), n Rook See scaur

scarab, n [1 skárah, 2 skerab, -ah], fr Fr scarabee, fr Lat scarabaeus, cogn w Gk skárabos, 'stag-beetle, kind of prickly crab', prob not a true Gk word 1 Any beetle belonging to the genus Scarabaeus, esp S sacer, the black, winged, dung-beetle of Egypt and the Mediterranean coasts, regarded by the ancient Egyptians as sacred to the sun god and symbolical of life and creation &c 2 A representation of this beetle in stone, glazed pottery &c, with flat under side, inscribed with a name, title, sacred word &c, used as a seal, amulet &c, also as pectoral ornament of mummies scarabaeid, n [1 skarabéid, 2 skerabíid] Prec & -id Any beetle belonging to the family Scarabaeidae, including the sacred scarab or dung-beetles, the cockchafer &c scarabaeoid, adj & n [1 skarabéoid, 2 skerabíoid] See scarab & -oid. 1 adj Resembling a scarab beetle, or a scarab gem 2 n A seal or gem having the shape of a true Egyptian scarab scaramouch, n [1 skáramouch, 2 skáramaut], fr Fr Scaramouche, fr Ital Scara mucca, name of a character in 17th Italian farces, lit 'the skurmsner' See skurmsner scarce, adj [1 skárs, 2 skæe] M E scarce fr O Norm Fr escars, O Fr eschars, 'scanty, scarce', op Ital scarso, etymol doubtful, prob fr Low Lat scarpus* for excarpus, form of Lat excerpius, 'poked out, selected, select, rare', P P of excerpere, see excerpt 1 Deficient in quantity or number, insufficient, scanty, not plentiful food, money &c is scarce, fruit will be scarce and dear this season 2 Not often met with or found, infrequent, rare, difficult to find or collect a scarce book, portrait &c, coins of this period in a mint state are scarce Phr to make one self scarce (colloq), (i) to go away, make off, to steal off, depart quietly, (ii) to keep out of the way, to absent oneself 3 (as adv, poet or liter) Scarcely he scarce could speak scarcely, adv Prec & -ly 1 Barely, hardly, not quite, only just he died when he had scarcely reached manhood, scarcely thirty people were present, it is scarcely time for dinner, he had scarcely begun his speech when &c 2 In various qualified or restricted negative senses) a With difficulty I could scarcely drag one foot before another, b expressing sense of improbability, doubt, difficulty he can scarcely have said what is alleged, I should scarcely pay twice as much as the thing is worth, should I? I can scarcely believe such a story as that &c scarcement, n [1 skársment, 2 skérsment] Etymol doubtful, possibly fr obs vb scarce, 'to make scarce, diminish', & -ment A set-off or rebate in a wall, small flat ledge formed by this, any projecting, flat ledge scarceless, n [1 skársles, 2 skérsles] scarce & -ness 1 Deficiency, scarcity, scarceness of money, food &c 2 Rarity a marked scarceless of first-rate pictures, authors &c scarcity, n [1 skársiti, 2 skérsiti] M E scarcelte, fr O Norm Fr escarcelte, O Fr eschorsel See scarce & -ity Quality of being scarce (in various senses) 1 Deficiency of supply, smallness of quantity, number a scarcity of food, rain &c 2 Dearth, famine, a period of dearth a time of great scarcity, a great war is followed always by a scarcity 3 Rarity the price of an old edition of a book is determined by its scarcity scare (I), vb trans [1 skár, 2 skæ] The formal connexion of M E skären, 'to frighten', & scar, 'frightened', cp ON skjarr, 'timid', w the present-day form is not clear, the spelling & pronunciation presuppose a M E scäre The ON word may be connected w sheer (III) 1 a To startle, fill with unreasoning terror, as by some sudden, unexpected sight or sound, to strike fear into a sudden noise in the dark is apt to scare children, you scared me by coming in so quietly, b to fill with apprehension and dread, to oppress with sense of danger the nearness of the enemy scared the peaceful inhabitants, the knowledge that a volcano may erupt at any moment is enough to scare people who live near it 2 To drive off by frightening to scare birds from an orchard, also, scare away, off I keep a dog to scare away tramps scare (II), n See prec A panic, overwhelming and widespread fear caused by a sudden calamity, or by rumour of a great disaster, b an ill founded alarm scarecrow, n [1 skárkro, 2 skéakro] scare (I) & crow (I) 1 a A dummy figure used to scare birds from standing crops, b a boy with a rattle employed for the same purpose 2 A statement, circumstance, fact, which fills people with needless alarm 3 A badly dressed, shabby, ugly, unkempt person, a figure of fun, a guy scared, adj [1 skärd, 2 skæd], fr PP of scare (I) 1 Thoroughly frightened, filled with terror a scared child 2 (of face and expression) Evincing terror scare-heading, -headline, n A sensational headline in a newspaper, intended to startle and arouse interest, thus inducing people to buy the paper scaremonger, n [1 skärmünger, 2 skéa mänge] scare (II) & -monger One who originates and circulates alarming reports which tend to produce a public scare scaremongering, n [1 skärmüggering, 2 skéamänggerrig] Preo & -ing Act of inventing and circulating alarming reports scarf (I), n [1 skarf, 2 skáf] 16th cent, not in ME The origin & history of the word are difficult Connexion w O Fr escarpe, said to be fr escrèppe, 'pilgrim's scarp', see scrip, is hard to explain, seeing the final f of also Du scherf, 'officer's sash' 1 A long piece of silk or other fabric worn about the neck, b one worn chiefly as an ornamental accessory by women, c a warm muffler, worn to protect the throat by either sex, d a loose necktie or cravat for men (a haberdasher's term) 2 Long, broad piece of black silk worn by clergy of the Church of England over a surplice, somewhat resembling a stole in form, worn round the neck and hanging down in front on either side, also called a tippet 3 (mul) A sash scarf (II), n & vb trans Scand, op Swed skarfa, 'to join together', perh related to OE sceorfan, 'to scrape, shred' 1 n A End of a piece of wood, metal, leather &c prepared for chamfering, welding &c, b union of two pieces by chamfering, welding &c, a scarf joint 2 vb To fasten, join together, by a scarf joint scarf-joint, n scarf (II) & joint See preo, 1 b scarf-pin, n scarf (I) & pin (I) Ornamental pin worn in a necktie, better called tie pin scarf-ring, n scarf (I) & ring (I) Ring of gold &c, through which the ends of a scarf or tie are passed, the ring being drawn up close to the neck scarf-skin n Origin doubtful, op scarf (II) The outer skin or outside, esp of the skin at the root of the nails scarification, n [1 skarifikashun, 2 skærif keshun], fr L scarificatio (em), fr scarificat (um), PP type of scarificare, see scarify, & -ion Act of scarifying, mark left by scarifying scarificator, n [1 skarifikäter, 2 skærif kester] Lat scarificat, as in preo, & -or A surgical instrument used in scarifying, b an agricultural scarifier scarifier, n [1 skærifier, 2 skærifiser] scarify & -er 1 One who scarifies, esp in fig sense 2 An agricultural implement for breaking up the soil scarify, vb trans [1 skærifi, 2 skærifiser], fr Fr scarifier, fr Lat scarificare, lengthened form of scarifare, borrowed fr Gk skari phæsthai, 'to sketch, draw, in outline', fr skariophos, 'pencil, stylus', cogn w Lat scribere, 'to write' see scribe 1 To tear, lacerate, scratch, specif a (surg) to puncture, make a number of superficial incisions in (the skin), b to break, loosen, the surface of (soil) with a scarifier 2 (fig) To lacerate feelings of by severe censure or criticism, to tear (a work) to pieces in criticism scarious adj [1 skærus, 2 skæræs] fr Fr scarieux, fr Neo Lat scarious, fr Lat scaria, 'a stormy shrub', etymol. unknown (bot) Dry, shrivelled, membranous (of bracts or scales) scarlatina, n [1 skærätina, 2 skærätina], fr Ital scarlatina, fr scarlat° see scarlet (I) & dimm. suff Scarlet fever, popularly applied to what is supposed to be a milder disease than, or a mild form of, scarlet fever scarlet (I), n [1 skærät, 2 skærät] fr O Fr escarlata, op Ital scarlatto &c, prob fr Pers saqalät, saqalat, a kind of rich, heavy cloth, usually of a bright red colour 1 A brilliant, vivid red colour, slightly inclining to orange 2 Scarlet cloth, esp as used for full dress uniforms in the British Army, the robes of judges of the King's Bench division of the High Court, the robes and hat of a cardinal &c, hence to wear scarlet, to wear scarlet uniform or robes 3 (fig) The colour typical or symbolical of sin 'Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow' (Isaiah: 18) scarlet (II), adj, fr preo Of the colour of scarlet Phr to turn scarlet, to blush deeply scarlet fever, n An infectious disease, accompanied by high temperature, a scarlet rash, and sore throat scarlet hat, n A cardinal's hat, esp as symbol of the rank of cardinal scarlet oak, n A North American oak, Quercus coccinea, the leaves of which turn scarlet in autumn scarlet runner, n A variety of cultivated, climbing bean, Phaseolus multiflorus, with bright scarlet flowers scarlet woman, n Term applied to the Papacy, and to Rome, as the seat of the Roman Catholic Church, by violent Protestant controversialists, in reference to the woman mentioned in Rev xvii, 'sitting upon a scarlet-coloured beast arrayed in purple and scarlet colour' scaroid, adj & n [1 skæröid, 2 skæröid] Scarus & -oid a adj Pertaining to, resembling, fish belonging to the genus Scarus, b n, a scaroid fish scarp (I), n [1 skarp, 2 skäp], fr O Fr escarpe, fr Ital scarpa, fr Gmc See sharp (I) & escarp 1 (fort) The steep slope on the inner face of a ditch below the curtain wall or rampart 2 A steep slope or face of a hill, embankment &c, an escarpment scarp (II), vb trans, fr preo, cp O Fr escarper 1 a To cut in a steep face or slope, b (fort) to provide (a wall, rampart &c) with a scarp 2 (slang) To steal, pinch (cp sharp) scarpment, n See escarpment

Scarus, n [1 skärus, 2 skæræs] Lat, fr Gk skaros, 'a kind of fish' (zool) A genus of brightly coloured marine fishes, with jaws resembling a parrot's beak, belonging to the family Scandae or parrot-wrasse, also called parrot-fish scary, adj [1 skäri, 2 skærä] scare (II) & -y (colloq) 1 Causing a scare, terrifying, frightening 2 Liable, subject, to scares, easily frightened, timorous scat (I), n [1 skät, 2 sket], fr ON skattir, 'tribute, tax', cogn w OE scat, 'property, treasure, tribute' Cp scot The land tax paid to the Crown by a nidal tenant in Orkney and Shetland scat (II), n Etymol. doubtful, prob imitative Cp scatter 1 (provino, esp Corn colloq) a A blow, sound, noise, of a blow, b sound of an explosion, as of gun &c 2 As adverb in colloq Phr to go scat, to go, fall, to pieces, esp of business, trader &c, to go bankrupt, fail scathe, n & vb trans [1 skädh, 2 skæð] ME skäthe, fr ON skäði, 'injury, harm', & vb skäða, 'to hurt', cogn w OE scadian, 'to injure', sc(e)aða, 'one who injures, enemy, criminal', OS scado, 'harm', OHG scado, 'harm' &c, Goth slapan, OE scæppan, 'to injure', cogn w Gk (skäthēs, 'un harmed, unscathed' 1 n a (poet and archaic) Harm, injury (chiefly in neg senses) without scathe, unharmed, unscathed, to keep from scathe, to protect, shield, from harm, b (Scots) injury for which compensation can be claimed, legal damages 2 vb (practically obs even in poet) To injure, to blast (see scathing) scatheless, adj [1 skädhlēs, 2 skæðhlēs] scathe & -less Without scathe, unscathing, adj [1 skädhng, 2 skæðhng], fr Pres Part of scathe, vb, now obs See scathe Cutting, bitter, withering scathing comments, criticism, satire &c scathingly, adv Preo & -ly In a scathing manner, with scathing words &c scatological, adj [1 skätologi, 2 skæts lödzik] Next word & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, scatology scatology, n [1 skätölogi, 2 skätölädzi], fr Gk skatōs, genit of skōr, 'dung', & -logy, skōr is cogn w OE scæarn, 'dung' 1 The study of coprolites or fossilized excrement of extinct animals 2 Obscene literature &c, pornography scatophagous, adj [1 skätöfagus, 2 skæts föges] See preo & -phagous (zool) Dung eating (of certain beetles and other insects) scatter, vb trans & intrans [1 skätir, 2 skæts] Apparently a dial variant of shatter, & influenced by obs or provino scat (II), 'to fall to pieces, to break, burst' 1 A trans 1 a To fling about in various directions, to sprinkle, to disperse to scatter seed, to scatter sand on the floor, to scatter paper bags and orange peel about, fragments of bursting shells are scattered far and wide, b to diffuse to scatter fragrance, perfume &c, c to bestow (benefits &c) in various directions, to shower widely and indiscriminately formerly, kings scattered wealth and titles among their favourites 2 To spread, strew over with something, to sprinkle with to scatter the fields with seed, the public parks are scattered with rubbish after a bank holiday 3 a To break up, separate, put to flight, drive off in disorder, to disperse 'Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered' (Psalm lxxvii 1), the police scattered the crowd, the sun, wind, soon scattered the clouds, this great collection of books has now been scattered to the four quarters of the globe, b (fig) to defeat, frustrate, to shatter, dissipate all our hopes and plans are scattered to the four winds 4 To waste, dissipate, squander to scatter a fine estate, one's inheritance &c B intrans 1 To be dispersed, to go off, run away, fly off, in all directions the crowd scattered at the approach of the police, a flock of birds scatters when a shot is fired, clouds scatter before the wind 2 (of shot &c from a gun) To spread, be distributed widely scatter-brain, n One who cannot concentrate his powers of thinking, a flighty, thoughtless, careless, giddy person scatter-brained, adj Lacking power of mental concentration, flighty, heedless, thoughtless, giddy scattered, adj [1 skätird, 2 skætsird], fr PP of scatter Lying, situated, in various directions, occurring at wide and irregular intervals, dispersed, straggling a few scattered houses, villages &c, several scattered references to personal experiences in the book scarp, n [1 skawp, 2 skäp] Variant of scalp (I) & (III) 1 A bare hill, rock, or ridge of sand 2 A mussel or oyster bed 3 A scarp duck scarp-duck, n A duck of the sea-coasts of the northern hemisphere, genus Fuligula, the male being glossy black with green head, so called because it feeds on scarps or mussel beds scalper, n [1 skawper, 2 skäps] Variant of scalpel (II) A kind of engraving tool, shaped like a gouge scarp, scar, n [1 skör, skar, 2 skä, ska] Scand, connected w ON sker, 'reef, rock in the sea' Cp skerry w A precipitous rock, crag, or cliff, b a low lying rock or reef in the sea scavage, n [1 skävi, 2 skævidz], fr A Fr (escavage, fr escaver, 'to inspect', fr OLG (Flem) scavenen, cogn w OE scættan, 'to look at, gaze on' See show (hist and obs) A The duty of inspecting imported foreign goods offered for sale in the city of London and other towns, b toll imposed on foreign merchants offering goods for sale scavager, n [1 skávijer, 2 skávídža] Preo & -er (lust) Official whose duty was to inspect foreign goods and collect the toll, also employed as superintending the cleaning of the streets &c scavenge, vb trans & intrans [1 skávjen], 2 skávindz] Book-formation fr scavenger (I) 1 trans To clean the streets, collect rubbish &c, to scavenger 2 intrans To act as, be, a scavenger scavenger (I), n [1 skavenjer, 2 skávindža] Form of scavager, w intrusive n, op messenger & passenger 1 A person employed to clean the streets and collect house refuse and rubbish generally for destruction 2 An animal which feeds on and clears away carrion, garbage, or any decaying organic matter, e.g. vultures, certain beetles and other insects, shrimps, orahs &c scavenger (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To clean (the streets), collect rubbish from (houses) &c, also fig 2 intrans To act as, be, a scavenger scavenging, n [1 skávjenjering, 2 skávindžerij] Preo & -ing Action of a scavenger scavenger's daughter, n Said to be a popular refashioning of Skeffington or Slewington, name of a lieutenant of the Tower of London, under Henry VIII. An instrument of torture under the Tudors, by means of which every part of the body was subjected to pressure gradually increasing in severity scavenging, n [1 skávjenj, 2 skávindžij] scavage & -ing Scavengering, specif. expulsion of exhaust gases from an internal combustion engine, as in a motor car &c scazon, n [1 skázun, 2 skézan] Gk, fr skázō, 'I limp', fr *skynjō, cogn w Sert khandjot, O H G hinklan, 'to limp' (Gk and Lat pros) An irregular, 'limping', iambic verse, ending with a spondee, a choliambic verse scena, n [1 shána, 2 féna] Ital See sceno (mus) A scene of an opera, b dramatic, accompanied recitative interspersed with melody, often preceding an aria, either as part of an opera or as separate musical composition scenario, n [1 sbánáhrō, 2 seándriou] Ital, fr prec & suff equiv to -ary The complete outline of a play, opera, film &c, giving the names of the characters, different acts or scenes, situations, stage-directions &c (cp synopsis) scene, n [1 sēn, 2 slō], fr Fr scene, fr Lat scēna, scena, 'stage, scene', fr Gk skēnē, 'tent, booth, background of the stage, stage', connected w Gk skia, 'shade', also w shade, shine, & sky 1 (a class antiq) The stage of the ancient Greek or Roman theatre, strictly the stone or wooden background, representing a palace, house &c, the platform or stage proper being the proscenium, q v, b (arabico or rhot) (i) dramatic art, profession of acting a reigning figure of the tragic scene, (ii) a theatre, a stage, 'a syrian scene a woody theatre' (Milton, 'P L', iv 140-1), c (fig) huc, the world regarded as a stage to enter on, quit, this scene of troubles, to be born, die Phr to come on the scene, to appear, come into notice or prominence 2 A The place, locality, where the actions and events of a play, also of a novel, poem &c, are supposed to occur the scene is laid in France in the 18th century, the scene changes from London to a country inn, which Cathedral town is the scene of the Barchester novels, Phr change of scene, change, variation, of place, surroundings &c, esp as secured by travel, b place, locality, surroundings, where any event takes place the scene of his labours, exploits, adventures &c 3 A Painted screen, or group of these representing the surroundings, rooms, buildings, landscapes &c in which the action of a play is supposed to take place, (coll pl) scenery to shift, change, the scenes, drop scene, a painted curtain let down between the acts or scenes, Phrs behind the scenes, (i) (lit) out of sight of the audience, among the actors and the stage machinery &c, so that one sees the reality behind the make believe, (ii) (fig) not in the public eye, but in a position to observe and gauge the motives of public action, the causes of events &c, also, (iii) wielding influence privately a power behind the scenes, the scene changes (in narration), the story now deals with new and different surroundings and events &c, b a spectacle, vision, of real places, people, objects, with or without action, incidents &c, presented to the eye or called up by the mind a woodland scene, a scene of wild grandeur, scenes of merriment, sadness, squalor, luxury &c, we shall meet again amid very different scenes 4 A One of the smaller sections into which a play is divided, a sub-division of an act, often marked by the fall of the curtain and a change of locality, time &c, or by the close of a situation, b situation, incidents, dialogue occurring in such sub-division the balcony scene in 'Romeo and Juliet', c an incident, episode, situation, real or imaginary a painful, dramatic scene in Court, d spoof, an exhibition of excitement, temper, strong feeling, a row please don't make a scene, a scene in the House of Commons scene-dock, n The place in a theatre, near the stage, where the scenery is stored scene-painter, n One who paints scenes or scenery for the theatre scene-painting, n Art of painting scenery for the theatre scenery, n [1 skēni, 2 skēni] Earlier scenary, fr Lat scenarius, 'of, belonging to, the stage' See scene & -ery 1 The painted scenes, used on the stage to represent the place and surroundings in which the action of a play is supposed to take place 2 The general aspect of external nature, esp the relative disposition, grouping, and character of the larger features, such as sky, hills, woods, rivers, plains, and so on, landscapes the wild scenery of the Highlands, most people nowadays have, or at least profess, a love of natural scenery scene-shifter, n A stage hand employed in shifting or changing the scenes at a theatre scenic, adj [1 skēnik, skēnik, 2 skēnik, skēnik] fr scenicus, fr Gk skēnikos, 'of, pertaining to, the stage' See scene & -ic 1 Of, pertaining to, the stage or theatre, a dramatic, theatrical scenic poets, the poetic dramatists, esp the Greek and Latin dramatists, scenic conventions, actions, b used on, suitable for, use or representation on the stage, or in stage scenery represented on the stage scenic effects, machinery, scenic magnificence 2 Connected with, pertaining to, natural scenery, picturesque, affording views of landscape the scenic attractions of the place are few scenical, adj [1 skēnikl, skēnikl, 2 skēnikl, skēnikl] Preo & -al (rare) Scenic, esp in sense of theatrical, stagy scenically, adv Preo & -ly In a scenic manner, by means of scenes or scenery, dramatically, theatrically scenograph, n [1 skēnōgráf, 2 skēnōgráf] See scenography A perspective drawing or picture, b a scenographer scenographer, n [1 skēnōgráfer, 2 skēnōgráfer] Preo & -er A draftsman, painter in perspective, one who practises scenography, a scene-painter scenographic, adj [1 skēnōgráfik, 2 skēnōgráfik] fr Gk skēnōgraphikós See scenography & -ic Of, pertaining to, scenography or drawing in perspective or scene-painting scenography, n [1 skēnōgráf, 2 skēnōgráf] See fr Gk skēnōgraphai, 'scene painting' See scene & -graphy Drawing, painting in perspective, scene painting scenot (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sent, 2 sent] M E scenien, fr O Fr scenir, 'to feel, to smell', fr Lat scenire, 'to perceive by the senses, to feel, hear, see &c, to experiment, undergo, to observe, perceive with the mind, to think, deem', Walde's proposal to connect w Goth snape, 'time, occasion', O E sip, 'time, journey', Goth gasnipe, O E geip, 'travelling companion', also w Goth sanigan, O E seadan, q v under send, is unconvincing on account of the remoteness in meaning The -c- in the present Engl spelling has no significance or justification, it is a mere vagary of the 17th cent, as in scythe A trans 1 a To perceive by the organ of smell, to smell to scent spring in the air, b to track by sense of smell hounds scent a fox, also scent out, c (fig) to perceive with the mind, to suspect to scent a mystery, to scent Popery in the new Prayer Book, to scent danger &c 2 a To diffuse perfume through, impart fragrance, perfume, to, im pregnate with perfume the clove pink scent the whole garden, the air was scented with the odour of pine-woods, b to apply perfume to, sprinkle perfume upon to scent one's person, one's handkerchief &c B intrans 1 To track, hunt (game &c), by the sense of smell 2 Milton uses the vb in the sense of 'to sniff, to perceive, take in scent or smell', in comparing Death to birds of prey scenting carrion from afar 'So scented the grim Feature, and upturn'd His nostril wide into the murky air' ('P L', x 273-80) scent (II), n See prec 1 That which gives rise to olfactory sensation, pleasant or the reverse, an odour, smell, effluvium, fragrance, perfume the sweet scent of roses, a nasty scent of stale tobacco 2 An artificially manufactured liquid alcoholic essence, possessing a powerful, penetrating, and pleasant fragrance or odour, used to perfume the person, garments &c to put scent on one's handkerchief 3 The taint or odour left by an animal on the ground, or in the air, by means of which it is tracked by other animals, specif (i) odour left by the fox, hare, stag, which hounds follow the scent was poor, cold, hounds lost the scent at the brook &c, also (ii) trail of paper dropped by the 'hares' in a paper chase Phr on the scent, in the act of following it, (also fig) on the track, in course of pursuit or discovery hot on the scent of an important discovery &c, also, to throw, put, one off the scent, on a wrong, false, scent, all hunting phrases, used figuratively of the pursuit of an object of investigation &c 4 (esp of hounds &c) a Power of scenting out, or tracking by sense of smell to hunt by scent &c, also b (of persons) intuitive capacity, instinct, for perceiving detecting, or discovering, flair a keen scent for a mystery, an error &c scent-bag, n 1 Small, external pouch or sac, found in certain animals, e.g. the civet cat, containing a strong smelling substance, secreted esp during the breeding season, a scent-gland 2 A bag of unseed, used as an artificial scent for hounds, as in a drag hunt 3 A small bag or sachet, containing scented powder &c, for perfuming clothes, handkerchiefs &c scent-bottle, n 1 A bottle of scent or perfume 2 Ornamental bottle, usually of cut glass, filled with scent, for the toilet table, or for carrying on the person scented, adj [1 sénted, 2 sénted] 1 A Im pregnated with scent, perfumed a scented handkerchief, scented cigarettes are an abomination, b possessing, giving out, fragrance a scented rose, contrasted with scentless 2 -scented (prec by adv), a having a specified kind of scent strong-scented, b having a power of scent, of specified quality keen-scented &c scent-gland, n Gland possessed by civet cats, and such animals, which secretes a strong smelling substance, esp when the animal is being pursued scentless, adj [1 séntles, 2 séntles] scent (II) & -less 1 Having, yielding, no scent no scentless flowers 2 (hunting) Affording no scent for bounds, not carrying scent scentless ground, weather &c scepsis, skepsis, n [1 oképsis, 2 sképsis], fr Gk sképsis, 'inquiry, doubt', for base see next word (philos) Scepticism, philosophico doubt sceptic (I), adj [1 sképtik, 2 sképtik], fr Fr sceptique, adj & n, fr Lat scepticus, fr Gk sképtikos, 'inquiring, thoughtful, reflective, doubting', cp also sképtomai, 'I look carefully, examine, consider', & w different grade, Gk skopos, 'to contemplate, survey' &c, see scops & -scopy. This type sképt(i) is peculiar to Gk, & is apparently for sképt(i)*, cp Lat speculāre, 'to look at, to bear in mind, to judge, try, test' &c, see spectator, further specere, 'to look at, behold', species, 'sight, outward appearance', see species (rare) Sceptical, connected with the sceptics the sceptic school, sceptic philosophers &c sceptic (II), n See preo 1 a (ancient philos, usually cap) One of the school of Greek philosophy, founded by Pyrrho of Elis, c 300 B.C., holding the doctrine that no real, certain knowledge of things is possible, even of the so called facts of experience, and that universal mental doubt, undisturbed and calm, should be the attitude of all philosophers, b (mod philos) one who doubts or denies the validity of any judgement, and the competence of reason, outside the field of human experience 2 A one who refuses to accept dogmatic assertions at their face value, or any claims to knowledge not proved to his own reason, one who adopts a critical attitude in any sphere of knowledge, and prefers to suspend judgement, b (i) sceptic (in theology or religion) one who refuses to accept, or doubts the truth of Christianity or other revealed religion an agnostic, (u.) popularly, an unbeliever, an atheist sceptical, adj [1 sképtikl, 2 sképtikl] Preo & -al 1 (philos) Concerned with, pertaining to the doctrines of the Sceptics, referring to an attitude of mind inclined to question all statements which are not absolutely proved, and to doubt the possibility of proving or knowing anything 2 (popular use) Doubtful, inclined to call in question, not sanguine about the truth of, some specific statement, alleged fact, or event I am rather sceptical about, of, the genuineness of his pedigree, his avowed wealth, your prospects of success &c sceptically, adv Preo & -ly In a sceptical manner scepticism, n [1 sképtiszm, 2 sképtiszm] sceptico & -ism 1 (philos) The doctrines, principles, of the Sceptics, Pyrrhonism 2 An attitude of mind inclined to doubt, criticize, demand absolute proof, before accepting anything as true, or likely, b the doubt, uncertainty, about the truth of facts and statements felt by a sceptical mind sceptre, n [1 séptér, 2 séptér] M.E. sceptre, septr, fr O Fr septr later, on model of Lat, sceptre, Lat sceptrum, fr Gk sképtron, 'staff, sceptre', fr sképlein, 'to prop, support', sképlesthai 'to prop oneself, to lean on (something)', cogn w Lat scapus, 'shaft, stalk, beam' cp scapus, & w O.E. scapst, see shaft 1 A rod of gold, highly decorated and bejewelled held in the hand by kings or reigning princes, on ceremonial occasions, as the symbol of sovereignty and royal sway 2 (fig) Royal, or imperial office rank and function, kingly power, authority, sovereignty to wield, lay down, the sceptre sceptred adj [1 séptred, 2 séptred] Preo & -ed 1 Invested with the sceptre, (i) wielding sovereign power a sceptred king, (u.) connected with, sprung from, kings or ruling princes 'Ah whel' owns the sceptred rae? (Laudor, Roso Aylmer)', b actually holding a sceptre a portrait of H.M. the king, sceptred and crowned schedule, n & vb trans [1 shédül, 2 shédül], but in USA [1 shédül, 2 shédül], M.E. cedula, sedula, fr L Lat scedula, scedula, 'small sheet of paper', dimin of scheda, ceda, 'strip of papyrus bark', fr Gk skhidē, also skhiza, 'splinter of wood', fr skhizein, 'to split cleave' cp schisma 1 a A written or printed list, inventory, catalogue &c, often attached as an explanatory appendix to a longer or more formal document, giving details &c in tabular form, b any tabular, detailed statement 2 vb To set out, state, in, put into, the form of a schedule to tabulate schema, n, pl schemata [1 skéma, skémata, 2 skéma, skimota] Lat schéma, fr Gk skhēma, stem skhēmat-(os), 'appearance, form, bearing, mien, the manner of a thing, the nature of a thing, a figure in dancing', fr base skhe*, as in fut skhēzō of skhō, 'I have, hold, possess', wh is for segh-*, cogn w Scrt śahat, 'triumphant strength', & Goth sigu, 'victory', O.E. sige, O.H.G. sigi, cp first element in Gmc names such as Sigismund, Siegfried &c See also epoch An outline, figure, synopsis, systematic arrangement, scheme, specif a (gram and rhet) a figure of speech, b (log) a figure of the syllogism, c (Kantian philos) the result of the use of the transcendental imagination in giving form or generality to sense perceptions schematic, adj [1 skématic, 2 skimátik] Gk skhēmat-, stem of preo & -ic Pertaining to, connected with, of the nature of, a scheme, or a schema, arranged in diagrammatic, synoptical form, arranged according to a scheme or system schematically, adv [1 skémátikali 2 skimátikal] Preo & -al & -ly In a schematic manner scheme (I), n [1 skēm, 2 skim], fr Gk. See schema 1 Orderly, systematic arrangement, an organized combination of things, events &c on a definite plan or design a scheme of life, under the present scheme of society, a painter's scheme of colour, the scheme of a sonata, symphony 2 A proposed method or design for doing something, a programme of action, a plan, project, undertaking, enterprise to lay down a scheme of education, of rebuilding a town, to prepare a scheme of imperial defence, political reform, a great literary scheme 3 An underhand device, design, intrigue, plot I distrust his schemes and intrigues 4 A classified tabular statement of a plan, synopsis, outline, summary the scheme of the work can be found in the detailed chapter headings scheme (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To arrange, plan as a scheme, to formulate, plan a scheme or design for (also scheme out) to scheme (out) a system of water supply, the new method of traffic control seems well schemed, scheme to (do something) 2 To plan in an underhand way, to plot for, devise dishonest and unscrupulous means to effect he began at once to scheme the downfall of his rivals B intrans 1 To make schemes, to conceive, or execute plans, to design 2 To plot, intrigue, to act as a designing person, also scheme for (power &c) schemer, n [1 skēmer, 2 skima] Preo & -er One who schemes, esp in bad sense, a plotter, intriguer, a crafty designer scheming (I), adj [1 skēmīng, 2 skimīng], fr Preo Part of scheme (II) Given to hatching schemes, esp in bad sense, crafty, plotting, designing, contriving, intriguing a scheming, plausible rogue scheming (II), n, fr scheme (II) & -ing 1 The formation of plans and schemes 2 Plotting, intrigues all their scheming was of no use schemingly, adv scheming (I) & -ly In a scheming manner, craftily, designingly schertando, adv [1 skértándō, 2 skert-sándō] Ital, gerund of schertare, 'to play, sport' See next word (mus) A direction to play in a playful, lively manner, as in a scherzo scherzo, n [1 skértso, 2 skertsou] Ital, 'sport, play', Gmc in origin, cp M.H.G. scherz, back formation, fr vb scherzen, 'to sport, jest, to sport, jest', cp O.H.G. stern, 'jest, sport' &c, cogn w Lat scurrā, 'buffoon, jester', see scurrilous (mus) A lively, sportive, playful passage or movement, esp a movement in a sonata or symphony following one that is slow and solemn

Schiedam, n [1 skédam, shédam, 2 skídam, shídam] Name of town in Holland. Hollands gun schipperke, n [1 skíperki, shíperki, 2 skí-pki, shípi] Du, dimin of schipper, lit 'little skipper' A kind of small black dog, tailless, smooth haired, and with prick ears and a ruff, bred in Holland and Flanders as a watch dog for hedges, whence its name schism, n [1 sizm, 2 sizəm] M.E. scisme, cisme, fr O Fr scisme, cisme, fr Eccles Lat schisma, fr Gk skhisma, 'a split, tear, rent', in NT, in fig sense, 'division, dissension', cp 1 Cor xii 25, fr skhizein, 'to split, cleave', fr base skheid*, 'to cleave', cogn. w Lat scindere, P.P. scisum, 'to cut, cleave' Cp scissile A Division, dissension cleavage in an organized body or society, esp in the Christian Church, de liberate separation of themselves by a group of Christians from communion with the rest of the Church, b the offense of separating oneself from the main body of the Church, c (rare) a schismatic body schismatic, adj & n [1 sizmátik, 2 sizm-mátik], fr Fr schismatique, fr Eccles Lat schismaticus, fr Gk skhismatikós, fr skhizma, stem of skhizma See preo & -ic 1 adj Connected with, pertaining to, schism, guilty of the sin of schism, tending to secede from a Church and form a separate body 2 n One who is guilty of schism, a member, promoter, supporter, of schism schismatically, adv [1 sizmátikali, 2 sizm-mátikal] Preo & -al & -ly So as to cause, by virtue of, a schism schist, n [1 shíst, 2 jíst] Fr schiste, through Lat, fr Gk skhista, 'split, fissile', as n, so Lithos, 'stone', fr skhizein, 'to split', see base under schism (geol) A name applied to a crystalline, metamorphic rock formation, which splits easily into plates or laminae, there are many varieties, defined respectively by their chief mineral constituent, as hornblende schist, mica schist &c, in English usage, the shales, slates &c are not included in the term schistose, adj [1 shístōs, 2 jístōs] Preo & -ose Of, pertaining to, schist, resembling schist in formation, laminated, splitting readily into plates or laminae, schistous schistous, adj [1 shístus, 2 jístus] schist & -ous Schistose schizanthus, n [1 skízánthos, 2 skavánthos], schizo- & Gk onthos, 'flower', see anther (bot) A genus of S American annual plants with bright coloured flowers and deeply divided leaves schizo-, pref Form used in compounds, fr Gk skhizein, 'to split' See schism schizocarp, n [1 skízokarp, 2 skavzokárp] schizo- & Gk karpós, 'fruit' see carpel (bot) Fruit which splits into several angled seeded mericarps schizogenesis, n [1 skízójénesis, 2 skavzou-dzénisis] schizo- & genesis (biol) Reproduction by fission schizomycoete, n [1 skízómist, 2 skavzou-moist] schizo- & Gk mykē, mykē (os), 'fungus', see myco- (bacter) One of a group of unicellular vegetable micro organisms reproducing by fission, the fission fungi, including the bacteria schrapper, n [1 shnapper, 2 jnapper] Germ. See schnapper A sea fish of Australia and New Zealand, valuable for food schnapps, n [1 shnaps, 2 jnaps] Germ, orig a small portion of drink consumed at a gulp See snap (I) Name applied to various kinds of strong spirits, esp to a kind of Hollands gun schnorren, n [1 shnorer, 2 jnorer] Yiddish, fr Germ schnurren, 'to bam, whurr', hence slang, 'to heg', fr the sound of a musical instrument carried by beggars A Jewish beggar or through good fortune quick at making a score off an awkward heeler, it would be a great score if someone would lend us a car for the journey & Set of twenty persons or objects, a (uninflected after numerals) threescore years and ten, seventy years, (also elliptically) he was nearly fourscore when he died, b specif, in counting various things five score of herring, or, with pounds understood, in weight of pigs, cattle &c prime bullocks are fetching so much a, or per, score, c (in pl) an indefinite large number people came in scores, scores of times, very often 5 (mus) A copy written or printed, of a musical composition in which all the parts, vocal or instrumental, are shown on staves formerly scored through or joined by a line score (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 a To mark with scores, cuts, incisions or notches, to make scores, marks on rocks scored by glacial action, (also fig) a heart scored by sorrow and remorse, b to mark with lines &c as with the pen the page was scored with underlinings, erasures &c, also, score out, to erase, cancel by a line or score drawn through (words &c) the name and date have been scored out 2 Score up, to make a score or record, a of what is owed score 50 up against me, b of points made in a game to score up runs as they are made 3 A To make a score or points in a game to score 150 runs for one wicket, Phr to score a point, an advantage, to gain an advantage, to have a stroke of luck, b (of strokes, cards &c) to count (so much) towards the score hazards off the red score three 4 To arrange in score, to orchestrate, arrange (music) for instruments B intrans 1 To keep a score (at a game) 2 a To make a score, accumulate points (at a game), b (fig) to gain an advantage, be fortunate, to find circumstances profitable, favourable for one we found a good and cheap hotel at once, so we rather scored Phr to score off a person, to get the better of him in argument &c, turn a joke against him score-book, n A book in which the score (at games) is recorded score-card, n A card on which the names of the teams, scores, fall of wickets &c are printed, for sale at a cricket match scorer, n [1 skórer, 2 skóre] score (II) & -er Person a who keeps the score, or b who makes a score, at cricket &c scoria, n, pl scorise [1 skória, -is, 2 skória, -is] Lat, fr Gk skória, 'refuse, dross', fr skór, 'dung', see scatology 1 Dross, slag, left after metal has been smelted from the ore 2 (usually pl) The loose, cellular, light clinker found on the surface of molten lava after cooling and mixing with the air scoriaceous, adj [1 skórishus, 2 skórishas] Prec & -aceous Of the nature of scoria scoriated, adj [1 skórishat, 2 skórishat] -coria & -ate & -ed Scorified, reduced to scoria scorification, n [1 skórifikashun, 2 skórifikashon] scorify & -fication a Process of scorifying or reducing to scoria, b product of this scorifier, n [1 skórifier, 2 skórifier] scorify & -er A fire clay vessel used in the scorification of a metal scorify, vb trans [1 skórifi, 2 skórifas] scorify & -fy To reduce to dross, slag, or scoriae, specif, to assay (gold, silver &c) by fusion of the ore with lead and borax in a fire-clay vessel scorn (I), n [1 skorn, 2 skón] ME scorn, skarn, fr O Fr escorn, of Gmo origin, cf OHG skarn, 'mookery', skarnen, 'to mock', origin doubtful, popularly associated w O Fr escorner, 'to disgrace', lit 'to dishorn', L Lat escornare, see ex- & corn (III) 1 a Loftily contemptuous, disdainful, estate, attitude, of mind to feel, have, nothing but scorn for cowardice, b outward expression of this in word, look, act, lofty, contemptuous treatment, disdainful mterance he was cou'd by the scorn and invective of his opponent. Phrs to hold in scorn, to despise, to laugh to scorn, to treat with derision, to think scorn of, to despise, to think, hold, it scorn to do, to be too proud to do 2 An object of scorn, person held in, or up to contempt to become a scorn of (to) one's enemies scorn (II), vb trans See preo a To feel scorn for, b to express scorn for, treat disdainfully, or contemptuously scorn to (do), to feel it beneath, or unworthy of, one to do, hence, to refuse to do, abstain from doing on this account to scorn to tell a lie scornful, adj [1 skórifool, 2 skóful] scorn (I) & -ful Feeling, expressing, expressive of, scorn scornfully, adv Preo & -ly In a scornful manner scornfulness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being scornful Scorpio, n [1 skórps, 2 skópsion] Lat, fr Gk skorpíon, skorpíon, cogn w OE scorpián, 'to scrape', & scorfan, 'to gnaw, scrape, shred', see scarf (II) The Scorpion, the zodiacal constellation and eighth sign of the Zodiac scorpioid, adj & n [1 skórpioid, 2 skópioid] fr Gk skorpíoides See preo & -oid 1 adj a (hot, of inflorescence) Curled up like the end of a scorpion's tail and uncurling as the flower develops, b (zool) like a scorpion, belonging to the family of scorpions 2 n a (hot) A scorpioid inflorescence, b (zool) a member of the scorpion family, animal resembling a scorpion scorpion, n [1 skórpsun, 2 skópsion] fr Lat scorpión (-em), stem of Scorpio 1 a Any of various animals, known as arachnids, found in tropical countries, belonging to the genus Scorpio, or order Scorpiones, which have a long, incurving, flexible tail armed with a poisonous sting, two large pincers or claws, resembling a lobster's, sharp mandibles, and four pairs of legs, b (army slang) rock scorpion, a native of Gibraltar 2 (cap) The constellation and zodiacal sign Scorpio 3 A malicious, venomous person 4 An ancient form of ballista or catapult for hurling stones &c scorpion-broom, n A kind of thorny, yellow-flowered broom, Gomela scorpius, of S Europe scorpion-fish, n A spiny sea-fish, belonging to the genus Scorpaena, the sea scorpion scorpion-fly, n A black neuropterous insect, Panorpa, with incurving tail like that of a scorpion and beak-like mouth scorpion-grass, n The wild forget-me-not, or myosotis scorpion-plant, n A Javanese orchid with large white or yellow flowers shaped like a spider, b scorpion-broom scorpion-shell, n Shell inhabited by a mollusc, found in Indian Ocean, suggestive of a scorpion in shape scot (I), n [1 skót, 2 skót], fr O Fr escot, 'payment to a common fund', fr ON skot, 'payment, contribution', cogn w OE scot, 'shot, reckoning', fr scōtan, 'to shoot, pay in to a fund, contribute', see shot (IV) (hist) A sum of money assessed and paid, contribution to a sum assessed, a tax or rate, esp scot and lot, an old parish or town tax, assessed according to ability to pay Phr to pay (one's) scot and lot, to take one's fair share of a collective burden

Scot (II), n OE Scotlas, pl, L Lat Scoti, Scoti, fr Scotus, Scollus, etymol unknown 1 A native of Scotland, a Scotsman 2 Member of a Celtic race in ancient Ireland, many of whom migrated to Scotland in the 6th cent scotch (I), vb trans [1 skoch, 2 skót] Origin unknown, suggested etymologies appear to be mere shots 1 (obs) To out, score, make a gash or incision in 2 a To crush render harmless, to maim, kill b to take vigorous action against, put down, thwart, stifle, stop, put an end to to scotch a misdeed, to scotch a plot, a nefarious scheme &c scotch (II), n, fr preo A out, incision, mark scored or drawn on the ground &c, as in the game of hop scotch scotch (III), n & vb trans, etymol unknown 1 n A block, wedge placed under a wheel, cask, or other round object to prevent movement or rolling 2 vb To block, wedge a wheel &c with a scotch

Scotch (IV), adj & n, contracted form of Scottish 1 adj Connected with, pertaining to, Scotland, its people, vernacular language &c Scotch wh or Scots are the forms preferred by the people themselves, and now commonly used by English writers, except in such established collocations as Scotch whisky, Scotch terrier &c 2 n a The Scotch, the Scottish people collectively, b the dialect of the Lowlands of Scotland, c (colloq, specif) Scotch whisky a small Scotch

Scotch barley, n Pot barley, with the husk ground off

Scotch broth, n Mutton broth thickened with pearl barley

Scotch cap, n Type of headdress worn with Highland dress, esp the so called glengarry Scotch colllops, n pl Collops of beef, cut small and stewed, also called by some dictionary-makers, but apparently by no one else, scotched colllops

Scotch fir, n The common N European pine, Pinus sylvestris

Scotchman, n [1 skóthman, 2 skótman] A native of Scotland, a Scotsman, Scot Scotch mist, n A thick wet mist, accompanied by a fine, thick drizzle

Scotch pebble, n A variety of crystalline quartz, as agate, chalcedony, carnegorm &c, out and polished and used as an ornamental stone, in brooches, tops of snuff-boxes &c

Scotch pine, n Scotch fir Scotch terrier, n A breed of short-legged, long bodied terrier with a rough, wiry, iron-grey, or grizzled coat, pricked ears, and short tail carried erect

Scotch whisky, n Whisky, often having a smoky flavour of peat, as distilled in Scotland

Scotchwoman, n [1 skóthwoman, 2 skót woman] Female native of Scotland, Scots woman Scotch woodcock, n Scrambled egg with anchovies underneath, on a thin slice of hot buttered toast, served as a savoury scoter, n [1 skóter, 2 skóute] Etymol doubtful, possibly fr ON skots, fr skota, 'to put, shoot out' A large black sea duck of Northern and Arctic waters, genus Oedemia scot-free, adj scot (I) & free 1 (rare) Free from payment of 'scot', not liable for payment to a fund, subscription, account &c 2 Unharmed, unpunished to go, get off, scot free, (1) to escape punishment, (2) to get off unharmed scotia, n [1 skótia, 2 skóute] Lat, fr Gk skótia, fr skótos, 'darkness, shadow', see scoto- (archit) A deep, concave moulding, esp at the base of a column, having a dark shadow within the hollow

Scotism, n [1 skóthm, 2 skóutizm], fr Lat Duns Scotus, scholastic philosopher, d 1308, & -ism The scholastic philosophy of Duns Scotus and his followers, opposed to that of Thomism, of Thomas Aquinas

Scotist, n [1 skóthst, 2 skóutist] Prec & -ist Adherent of Scotism

Scotland Yard, n [1 skótlánd yárd, 2 skót land yárd] Name of London street where the police office once stood formerly site of the palace kept for the reception of the Scottish sovereign The headquarters of the Metropolitan Police, hence the London police force itself, and esp the Criminal Investigation Department or detective branch, as distinguished from the provincial borough or county detective force scoto-, pref, fr Gk skótos, 'darkness', cogn w shade, used to form words indicating darkness, impairment of vision &c scotodinia, n [1 skótódina, 2 skótódina] Prec & Gk dinos, 'whirling', also, 'whirl wind', fr the base seen in dienas, 'to hasten', dít, 'I flee', & further in Sert dyak, 'to fly', Lett dít, 'to dance'. Giddiness, vertigo, accompanied by dimness of vision and headache scotograph, n [1 skótógráf, 2 skótógráf] scoto- & -graph 1 Instrument for writing in the dark or for use by the blind 2 Radiograph

Scots, adj & n [1 skots, 2 skots] Nthn M E Scottis See Scot (II) & -ish, & op Scottish 1 adj Scottish, esp in such collocations as a Scots language, the form of English spoken in the Lowlands of Scotland, Scots law, an English usage, the form of law which prevails in Scotland and the Scottish Courts of law, differing from English law in many points from the strong infusion of the oval or Roman law from the 16th cent until the 19th, and esp in terminology, b in coins, weights, and measures &c formerly used in Scotland pounds Scots, as contrasted with sterling, a Scots mile &c; o in titles of regiments of the British army Scots Fusiliers, Scots Greys, Scots Guards 2 n The Scots, or Scottish language to speak broad Scots

Scotsman, Scotswoman, n [1 skotsman, -woman, 2 skotsmen, -women] Male, female, native of Scotland Scottice, adv [1 skótis, 2 skótis] Med Lat, adv of Scotticus, 'Scottish'. In the Scots language, as a Scotsman would say or pronounce

Scotticism, n [1 skótisizm, 2 skótisizm] See prec & -ism A Scots phrase, idiom, word, pronunciation &c

Scotticize, vb trans & intrans [1 skótiaz, 2 skótiaz] See prec & -ize 1 trans A To cause to be or become like the Scots, to make Scottish, to imbue with Scottish feeling, character, type &c, b to translate into the Scots tongue 2 intrans To introduce Scottish pronunciation, words, idioms, when speaking, or writing English

Scottish, adj [1 skótsh, 2 skótsh] In M E, a new formation fr Scot (II) & -ish, op Scots, the OE form is Scyttisc, & means 'Irish'. Connected with, pertaining to, Scotland, its people, language &c, used now preferably for Scotch Scottish Church, the Scottish Office &c scoundrel, n [1 skóundrel, 2 skóundrel] Etymol of first element unknown, the suff (-rel) is a dimin often w a disparaging sense, as mongrel &c, & the d is developed between n & r, as in thunder A dishonourable, unprincipled, person, a blackguard, a rogue, a good for nothing rascal scoundrelism, n [1 skóundrelizm, 2 skóundrelizm] Prec & -ism Conduct, acts, of a scoundrel, rascality, blackguardism scoundrelly, adj [1 skóundrel, 2 skóundrel] scoundrel & -ly Having the character of a scoundrel, characteristic of a scoundrel, rascally scour (I), vb trans & intrans [1 skour, 2 skous] Etymol obscure, the OED rejects the usually accepted derivation fr O Fr escourre, fr Lat currere, 'to run out, about', fr ex, 'out', & currere, 'to run', see excursion, & is inclined to connect the vb w O N skura, 'to rush violently, to storm', skur 'a storm', cogn w show Cp also scurry 1 trans To pass over, traverse, range, hasten over or along, esp in search or pursuit to scour the plain, police scouring the streets 2 intrans To move, run about quickly, earnestly, with vigour, in search or pursuit of anything, to range, rove to scour about in search of food dogs scouring through the woods after game scour (II) vb trans & intrans Perh through M Du & L G schuren, 'to polish, clean', fr O Fr excurrer, fr L or Med Lat excurrere, currere, 'to clean scour', fr ex, 'out, away', & Lat currere, 'to take care of, to keep clean'. See cure (II) A trans 1 A To clean by hard rubbing, to clean and polish by friction with abrasives, such as sand, or with soap and water &c to scour a rusty kettle, to scour pots and pans, to scour out a dirty cupboard, scour down the steps, b to get rid of, remove by rubbing to scour rust off a knife, grease from a pot &c, c specif, to cleanse (wool, cloth) of grease and dirt by various chemical processes 2 (of running water) a To clean, wash clean, to flush and remove dirt, obstructions &c from to scour (out) a ditch, drain pipe &c, the river has scoured its bed of silt, b to remove from, clear, wash away, by the rapid flow of water the river has scoured the mud from the estuary, from the foundations of the bridge, heavy rainfall scours the sewage out of the drains, c to dig out, form, by the rush of water the tide has scoured a channel through the sand 3 To purge, clear the intestines to scour a horse, cow, by drugs, to scour worms from bait, by poisoning them in damp moss, bran &c, she scour herself in fresh running water & (influenced by scour (I)) To sweep clear of, get rid of, free from to scour the sea of pirates slavers &c B intrans 1 To clean, remove dirt, by scouring a hard worker who can scrub and scour, sand and water are good to scour with 2 To be purged, to suffer from scours scour (III), n, fr prec 1 A Action of running water, as of a river, current &c, in washing away, or scouring, silt, mud &c, or of forming channels &c the scour of the river has affected the foundations of the bridge, the great scour of the tide, b place, bed, channel &c, formed by the flow of a river &c there is a deep scour under the embankment at this point 2 A kind of dysentery or diarrhoea affecting cattle &c, also scours 3 Chemical substance used in scouring wool, cloth &c scourge, vb trans & n [1 skerj, 2 skidz] M E scourgen, O Fr escorger, fr Lat excoriare, 'to take the bark or skin off'. See excoriate 1 vb A To chastise, flog, whip, b (in moral sense) to afflict, oppress, punish with severity scourged by the memory of one's misdeeds 2 n A An instrument for flogging, a whip, lash, b some severe punishment, affliction, anything which afflicts severely, a pest epidemics of infectious disease were a constant scourge in the Middle Ages, flies and wasps are a regular scourge in summer scout (I), v [1 skout, 2 skaut] M E scoute, fr O Fr escoute, 'spy, eavesdropper', scout, fr escouter, earlier escoller, Mod Fr écouter, 'to listen', fr Lat auscultare, 'to listen carefully to', see auscultation & op audience & ear (I) 1 (mil and nav) Person, or ship, sent out to obtain information about position and movements of the enemy, and generally to reconnoitre 2 Member of the organization known as Boy Scouts, founded in 1908, by Sir Robert (afterwards Lord) Baden Powell, for training boys in outdoor habits, self reliance, discipline, comradeship, knowledge of nature, woodcraft, and, in general, individual efficiency for the service of others 3 Man servant in an Oxford college, who waits on, and attends to the rooms of, resident members scout (II), vb intrans See prec a To act as a scout, to reconnoitre, b scout about, scout round, to go from place to place in search or as though in search of something, to prow scout (III), vb trans Scand, op O N skúta, 'a taunt'. To refuse to consider or entertain (an idea, suggestion &c), to treat as absurd, to flout scout (IV), n Etymol doubtful, possibly a variant of scout (I), but more prob of scoter Popular name of various sea birds of the auk family, esp the gullmolt and puffin scout-master, n scout (I) & master Leader of a group of Boy Scouts scow, n [1 skou, 2 skau], fr Du schouw,

'ferry boat'. A large, flat bottomed, square ended boat, used as a lighter or barge scowl (I), vb intrans [1 skoul, 2 skaul] M E scoulen, apparently Scand Most dictionaries connect the word w various others in Scand & Dn meaning, 'to lurk, lie hid' &c This is unlikely, & it seems better to relate the word to OE scolh, 'wry', & scollageda, 'squint eyed'. See words given under scolex. To assume, wear, a frowning, lowering, sullen expression, to stare with lowered and puckered brows, to frown he made no reply, but simply scowled, scowl at, look at with angry, sullen glance, scowl down (a person), reduce to silence, daunt him, by scowling scowl (II), n, fr prec A sullen, angry frown, sullen, lowering glance or aspect scowlingly, adv [1 skóulingh, 2 skóulingh], fr Pres Part of scowl (I) & -ly In a scowling manner, with a scowl or sullen look scrabble, vb intrans [1 skrábl, 2 skrábl] Variant of dial scrapple, freq of scrape (I) (rare) 1 To scrape, scratch, paw, with rapid movements of the hands, as if in search of something to scramble about in the dirt for copper, 2 (arobais or Bib) To scrawl, scribble 'David scrambled on the doors of the gate' (1 Sam xxi 13), the marginal note says 'made marks' scrag (I), n [1 skrag, 2 skrag] Of Scand origin, ep Norw skragg, 'a lean, poor, feeble person', Dan strog, 'lean carcass', possibly connected w shrink 1 A lean, skinny thin, spindly, poorly developed creature, a stunted tree or plant 2 A The neck bone of a sheep, esp the leaner joint, usually scrag end, of a neck of mutton, used for making broth &c, b (slang or colloq) the neck of a person scrag (II), vb trans, fr prec (colloq or slang) A To twist the neck of, to hang, put to death by hanging, b to throttle, to garrote, c to tackle round the neck as in Rugby football scrag-end, n The neck end or scrag of a neck of mutton scraggly, adv [1 skrágih, 2 skrágih] scraggy & -ly In a scraggy shape or form scragginess, n [1 skrágins, 2 skrágins] scraggy & -ness Scraggy condition scraggy, adj [1 skrági, 2 skrági] scrag (I) & -y Gaunt, lean, skinny, thin, insufficiently covered with flesh scramble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 skrámbi, 2 skrámbi] Not in M E, dual Engl has scrumpt & scramb, 'to snatch at, to rake, scrape together', prob a nasalized form of scrabble A intrans 1 To clamber, climb, crawl, make one's way, along, up and down &c, as best one can, using hands and feet children love scrambling among rocks, also scramble about, up, down, through 2 Scramble for, a to struggle, roughly and eagerly with others, in order to obtain something which all want specif, to scuffle and fight in a crowd for small objects, esp money, scattered broad cast, b (fig) to scramble for office, promotion &c B trans 1 To throw down, scatter (objects), to be scrambled for to scramble pennies for the children in the street 2 To cook eggs by breaking them into a saucepan, mixing and beating with butter, and beating till partially solid scramble (II), n, fr prec Act of scrambling, a an irregular mode of progression, a climb, olumber, using both hands and feet, over rough steep ground where regular progress is impossible, b a rough and tumble, n struggle or scuffle for material or other objects a scramble for pennies, the general scramble for wealth, place &c scramblingly, adv [1 skrámbingh, 2 skrámbingh], fr Pres Part of scramble (I) & -ly In a scrambling way, by a scramble scan, n [1 skran, 2 skran] Etymol doubtful, O N has skran, 'rabbiash', & ep next ward Refuse, scraps Phr (Ir) bad scan to you, bad luck to you scrannel, adj [1 skránl, 2 skránl] Scand, op Norw skran, 'lean, thin, scraggy'. Thin, poor, weak, wretched, chiefly known through Milton's lines 'Their lean and flashy songs Grate on their scrannel pipes of wretched draw' ('Lycidas', 124) scrap (I), n [1 skrap, 2 skrap] Scand, op ON skrap, 'scrappings, trifles'. See scrape (I) 1 A small piece of anything a scrap of bread, meat, paper &c, Phr a mere scrap of paper, a negligible, worthless, invalid document, (in pl) scraps, broken meat, odds and ends of waste food, also, a few scraps of news &c 2 Scrape, collection of newspaper outtings, illustrations &c, preserved and pasted in a book 3 Scrap, waste material, refuse of various kinds; a old iron &c, b dry, crisp refuse of fat, fish &c, after the oil has been squeezed out, used as cattle food 4 A very small portion of anything you have not eaten a scrap all day Phr I don't care a scrap, not at all scrap (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To make into scrap to scrap metal, iron &c 2 To discard, throw away, treat as waste, worn out, useless to scrap machinery, old ships &c, (also of non material things) I shall scrap that chapter of my book, and write it over afresh scrap (III), n & vb intrans, prob variant of scrape (II) (slang) 1 n a An informal fight, a rough and tumble, a scrimmage, a scuffle always ready for a scrap he had a bit of a scrap with the police, b a boxing match 2 vb To fight, engage in a scrap, also scrap with, to fight (with) scrap-book, n A book with blank sheets in which scraps, such as newspaper outtings, various literary odds and ends, illustrations &c, cut out of books &c, can be pasted for preservation scrap-cake, n Cake made of fat, fish scrap, used as a feeding stuff for cattle

scrape (I), vb trans & intrans [1 skráp, 2 skráp] ME scrápen, scrápien, of Scand origin, op ON skrapa, cogn w OE scrapian, 'to scrape, scratch', cp MHG schreppen, 'to scratch', wh Kluge derives tentatively fr base seen in sharp (I) A trans 1 A To pass a sharp instrument or edge over the surface of anything so as to graze or abrade it or to render it smooth, or clear of something adhering to scrape a wall, so as to remove paint, paper &c to scrape a ship's bottom, to remove barnacles &c, to scrape a dish, plate &c, to remove and eat every scrap of food on it and leave it clean, to scrape one's chin, to shave, b to bring (something) into contact with a hard, rough, body, so as to cause grazing, scratching, or abrasion to scrape one's knee against a stone, on the ground, the car scraped its side against the wall, c to scrape away, off, out, down, to remove, clear off, take away by scraping scrape paint off a wall, the dirt off one's boots, scrapes away accretions from a ship's bottom, scrape out a mark, one's signature, to scrape down a wall, remove paint, dirt &c thoroughly from it 2 A To draw (something) roughly across, to draw along or over anything so as to cause a harsh grating, scratchy sound to scrape one's nail over a slate, pen over paper, scrapes a bow across a fiddle, Phr (obs) to scrape the fool, draw back one foot, at the same time making an awkward bow, in greeting a superior, b to produce a grating sound by scraping to scrape out a tune from a fiddle, to scrape one's throat 3 a (usually scrape up, together) To collect, gather, together by scraping to scrape up the dirt from the road, scrape together the litter left by picnickers, b (also fig) to collect, get, together with effort or great difficulty scrape a few pounds, a little money, together, Phrs to scrape a living, to eke out a livelihood by saving and scraping, to make a bare living, to scrape acquaintance with, to get to know a person by some means or other, usually with the implication of thrusting oneself upon him without proper introduction, to scrape out, to dig, exscavate, to draw or drag out to scrape out a hole in the ground, to scrape out a pipe, scrape out the ashes from a grate B intrans 1 To scrape, rub, anything so as to smooth, remove dirt &c 2 (followed by against, along, by, through) To graze, rub against anything, to pass along, by, anything so as to touch lightly, or to avoid doing so by a narrow margin the car scraped against the wall, the two cars just managed to scrape by without touching Phrs to scrape through, to pass, get through, extricate oneself from anything with difficulty or by a narrow margin to scrape through a hedge, also fig, we shall scrape through somehow, scrape through an examination, just pass, scrape along, (i) pass along or over so as to scrape, (ii) to manage to exist in spite of difficulty, poverty &c 3 A To rub against, with a harsh, grating sound, to draw one thing across another, to rub, graze, against anything with a grating sound to scrape on a fiddle, don't scrape with your feet, there is something scraping against the window Phrs to bow and scrape, make an awkward bow and scrape back one foot, usually fig, to behave obsequiously, b to collect, get money together, with difficulty, to save by great economy or with difficulty, to be miserly or penurious to scrape and scrow, to hoard, be niggardly and miserly scrape (II), n, fr prec 1 a The act of scraping (in various senses), Phr a bow and a scrape, a rustic salute, referring to the movement of the foot at the moment of touching the forelock, b something thinly smeared or scraped on to something else Phr bread and scrape, thinly buttered bread 2 Effect of scraping, a an abrasion, scratch, on the surface of anything a scrape on the shin, b sound made by scraping, a squeak, a grating the scrape of a pencil on a slate, of a bow on a fiddle, of a bough on the window pane &c 3 An unpleasant, awkward, predicament, esp a situation brought about by the victim's own discreditable conduct, disgrace his son has been getting into a scrape again scraper, n [1 skráper, 2 skráp] Prec & -er 1 One who scrapes (in various senses), specif a a had fiddler, b miser, skunkfunt 2 One of various instruments used for scraping, a a device placed outside a hall-door for removing mud from one's boots, also called door-, shoe scraper, b apparatus of various types for cleaning mud &c from roads scraping, n [1 skráping, 2 skráp] scrape (I) & -ing 1 Act of scraping (in various senses, mostly idiomatic), a crewing and scraping, mean, petty, economy, miserliness, b bowing and scraping, originally a rustic greeting of respect made by pulling the forelock and scraping the ground with one foot, probably, in origin, an imperfect genuflection, hence, (i) obsequious demeanour towards superiors, (ii) airs and graces, extreme formality and observance of etiquette &c 2 a Something scraped off give me a small scraping of butter, (often pl) scrapings the scrapings of plates and dishes, b (fig) the scrapings and scoundrels of the streets, the disreputable elements of a population, riff raff scraper, n [1 skráper, 2 skráp] scrap (III) & -er (slang) One who scrapes or fights, one ready to have a scrap with anyone, a pincy, hard-fighting boxer scrappily, adv [1 skrápili, 2 skrápili] scrappy & -ly In a scrappy, fragmentary manner scrappiness, n [1 skrápines, 2 skrápines] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being scrappy scrappy, adj [1 skrápi, 2 skrápi] scrap (I) & -y 1 Consisting, made up, of scraps and oddments, fragmentary a scrappy dinner, furniture of the house rather scrappy, 2 (of mental action or its results) Disconnected, loose, full of gaps, inconsequent a scrappy mind, scrappy mode of thinking, a scrappy lecture, knowledge that is carved out scrappily scratch (I), vb trans & intrans [1 skraçh, 2 skraçh] A purely Engl word, the origin of wh is obscure, the attempts to derive it fr a blending of two words, ME skratten & cracchen, one of Scand, the other of LG, origin, are not convincing & are best disregarded A trans 1 A To tear slightly and leave a mark on the skin or surface of, with a sharp point of any kind the cat has scratched me with its claws, don't scratch the paint, b to break up the surface (of ground) by digging, raking, or harrowing superficially; c (fig) to deal with, treat of, study, in a perfunctory manner you hate so far only scratched the surface of the subject, there is still much more to learn 2 To incur a slight tearing of the skin or surface, to be marked, scored I've scratched my hand with the thorns 3 A To produce counter-irritation, to relieve itching, tickling &c by rubbing lightly with the nails or tips of the fingers never scratch a mosquito bite; Phrs scratch my back and I will scratch yours, help, flatter me, do me a good turn, and I will do the same for you, to scratch one's head, hesitate, pause, as if in perplexity, scratch one's head over, ponder over in a puzzled manner, wonder what to do about a matter, b to tockle, give gentle friction to cats like to be scratched under the chin 4 a To exscavate by scratching to scratch a hole in the ground; b to draw an outline, write by an action resembling scratching a drawing scratched on a wall, to scratch a few lines of a letter 5 Sponit, to scratch a horse, withdraw it from a race &c, from the action of scratching out and erasing the name 6 Followed by prepositions or adverbs scratch out, to strike out (word &c) with a pen &c, to score out, delete, erase, to scratch through, to scratch out, scratch up, to collect, rake together (lit and fig) B intrans 1 To perform the action of scratching (in various senses), a to use claws, wound with claws cats scratch, dogs bite, b to produce counter-irritant by scratching itching makes one want to scratch, c to produce a squeaking, scraping sound this pen scratches badly 2 To scratch, scrape, the ground, esp of animals, with claws, feet, paws hens ought to be made to scratch for their corn, the dog is scratching as if he smell a rat 3 To scratch out one's name from list of competitors in a race or other contest, hence, a to withdraw from competing, b (fig) to back out of, abandon, give up an undertaking scratch (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of scratching dogs enjoy a good scratch 2 A Mark, wound, superficial tear, made on skin or surface by scratching a scratch on the face, on fresh paint, on a silver tray &c, specif b a very slight, trivial, wound my injury was nothing, merely a scratch Phr without a scratch, without the slightest wound or injury 3 A Sound made by scratching, scraping, squeaking sound silence save for the scratch of his pen on the paper, b slight basty movement made in scratching, specif, the scratch of a pen, the writing of a few words the business could be settled by the scratch of a pen, i o by a brief written order, or by the writing of a signature 4 A Mark made on the ground &c to indicate starting point of a race, the place for boxers to stand at beginning of a match &c, hence, to come up to scratch, be ready to start race, match &c at proper time, also (fig) to be ready to embark on an enterprise, to fulfil one's engagements &c, to start from scratch, to have no handicap, run the whole course of a race, b zero, par, in games scored by numerical points 5 A A scratch wig, b (veter, pl) scratches, a disease affecting horses' heels, accompanied by dry cracks or scabs, swelling and suppuration scratch (III), adj, fr scratch (I) Hastily collected or scratched together, recruited as best one can or from any source a scratch crew, team, put up with a scratch dinner Scratch (IV), n. Etymol doubtful, but on O N skratla, 'goblin' (never used now) Old Scratch, the Devil scratch-back, n. An obsolete implement consisting of a small ivory or wooden hand on a long flexible handle, used for scratching one's back. scratcher, n. [1 skrācher, 2 skrēt[s]] scratch (I) & -er. One who, that which, scratches, specif (zool.) an old name for the scratching or rasorial birds scratchily, adv. [1 skrāchli, 2 skrēt[sil]] scratchy & -ly. In a scratchy manner (various senses) scratchiness, n. [1 skrāchunes, 2 skrēt[sinis]] See preo & -ness. Quality of being scratchy scratch man, n. Competitor in race or other game who starts from scratch or receives no handicap scratch-race, n. A race where all competitors start from scratch scratch-wig, n. A small 18th cent wig, covering only part of the head scratchy, adj. [1 skrāchi, 2 skrēt[s]] scratch (II) & -y. 1 Having the appearance of being scratched or drawn rudely or roughly, depicted by scratches a scratchy drawing, writing 2 Producing the sound of scratching a scratchy pen 3 Scratch, collected, scratched together, haphazard a scratchy crew, team 4 A itching, irritating, causing irritation scratchy cloth, b inclined to scratch oneself, scratching oneself the dog seems very scratchy today scrawl (I), v. intrans & trans. [1 skrawl, 2 skrāl] Etymol obscure, possibly a variant of scroll. 1 intrans a To write in a sprawling, straggly, shapeless hand, b to make sprawling, meaningless marks with a pencil, or pointed instrument someone has scrawled all over the wall 2 trans To write (a letter &c) hastily and in a shapeless, unformed, sprawling handwriting scrawl (II), n. n, fr preo a A shapeless, sprawling, untidy handwriting, b letter or other document written in such a handwriting scray, n. [1 skrā, 2 skrei] fr W yscræen, 'tern' The common tern, the sea swallow screen (I), v. intrans & trans. [1 skrēm, 2 skrin] M.E. scrēmen, fr O N skrima, 'to terrify, scare', op Swed. skrāna, 'to scream' A. intrans 1 (of human beings, birds, beasts &c) a To utter a shrill, piercing cry, esp of fear or pain, to shriek the baby screamed all night Phr to scream with laughter, to laugh heartily, hence, b to laugh heartily and uproariously he was so funny, he made us scream, c scream out, call out loudly and shrilly 2 (of wind machines &c) To produce a shrill, piercing noise 3 (of colours) To produce the effect of violent discord, to be at once loud and inharmonious, to clash B trans To utter (words &c) with, in, a scream to scream curses and defiance, also scream out scream (II), n, fr preo 1 A loud, piercing cry, esp one expressing fear or pain, a shriek, high wail Phr screams of laughter, hearty burst of laughter 2 (vulg slang) Person or thing that excites great amusement and entertainment a perfect scream, also in unfavourable sense, object of derision screamer, n. [1 skrēmer, 2 skrinme] scream (I) & -er. 1 One who, that which, screams, specif (ornith) a A S American bird, Palm-creeper, of semi aquatic habit, having a harsh, screaming cry, b popular name of the swift 2 (slang) Something evoking or likely to evoke a scream of laughter, wonder &c, a scream, a marvellous, incredible story or yarn screaming (I), n. [1 skrēmung, 2 skrinung] Act of making, sound of, a scream, or of screams screaming (II), sd, fr Pres Part of scream (I) & -ing 1 Of the nature producing effect, of a scream, like, uttered with, a scream a screaming cry, voice, a howling, screaming wind 2 Evoking screams of laughter, very funny a screaming farce screamingly, adv. Preo & -ly. In a screaming manner, screamingly funny, so funny as to produce screams of laughter screamy, adj. [1 skrēm, 2 skrinm] scream (II) & -y. Resembling a scream, screaming, screamy voice scree, n. [1 skrā, 2 skri] Prob for scre(th)s* (cp pronunciation of clothes), connected w O N skriða, 'landslip', fr skriða, 'to slide', op OE scripan, 'to move, glide, go' Ac cumulation of small or broken stones on a steep hill or mountain side which slides away when trodden on, collection of similar material artificially brought together for growing alpine plants in gardens screech (I), v. intrans & trans. [1 skrēch, 2 skrit] Variant of shriek. The formal connexion between these & the M.E. words meaning the same thing is obscure, & the origin still more so 1 intrans To shriek with a shrill, harsh, disagreeable sound. 2 trans To utter with a screech, also screech out screech (II), n, fr preo A shrill, piercing scream or cry, often, to let out a screech screech-owl, n. The barn owl, from its note when hunting screen (I), n. [1 skrēn, 2 skrin] M.E. scrēn, fr O Fr ecrēn, 'fire-screen curtain', Mod Fr ecran, etymol uncertain. 1 Any of various structures designed to afford shelter, protection, from wind, to cut off light, to separate or conceal one part of a room or building from another, curtain, partition, a portable piece of furniture, consisting usually of a framework with several panels of wood, covered with leather, cloth &c, each division of which is hinged so that it can be folded close or opened out, used to exclude draughts, or to secure privacy in part of a room &c, b structure, often elaborately carved, of wood or stone, having traceries and arches, separating the nave from the choir in a large church, c portable framework filled with thick glass, or containing a wooden panel covered with fabric, or a structure of basket-work, used to protect the face or back from the direct heat of a fire in a room, d framework holding glass or talc used to protect passengers in a motor-car from rush of wind, device on railway engine protecting driver from wind 2 a Large sheet, or curtain with white surface, upon which pictures are thrown by a magic lantern, or apparatus in a cinema, b large structure of boarding, painted white, used on cricket field as a background against which the batsman can see the ball better 3 a Any object serving to conceal, or affording shelter from wind, or from the heat of the sun, such as a hedge, row or belt of trees, specif b (mil and nav) troops or ships sent forward in advance of the main body esp when on the move, to protect from sudden attack, to conceal its movements, numbers &c from the enemy a screen of cavalry, of light cruisers &c smoke screen, a dense, low-lying cloud of smoke artificially produced for purposes of defensive or offensive concealment screen (II), v. trans, fr preo 1 a To protect, conceal, with, or as with, a screen to screen one's eyes from the fire, to screen oneself from observation, b to intercept mask, cut off, by means of a screen to screen the fire from one's back 2 Screen off, to divide, shut off (building, room), by a screen, partition, curtain &c to screen off a bay window from the rest of the room 3 (in non material sense) To afford protection to, intervene between (person) and punishment, censure, disgrace &c, to shelter from moral injury &c: it was felt that the accused was screening the real culprit, all her youth she was carefully screened from the slightest contact with the wickedness and cruelty of the world screen (III), n. Origin unknown, usually assumed to be identical w screen (I) & (II), the origin of wh. is equally dubious. It is difficult to find any relation in meaning between a means of concealment or shelter & a sieve! 1 A large coarse riddle or sieve, usually made with a mesh of thick wire, used to clean and grade coal, gravel &c, c sift earth, cinders, and the like 2 Spelf uses, probably derived from above a (elect) a body or substance which prevents or hinders the passage of high frequency currents or magnetic induction effects, b (photog) device used for controlling the passage of light through a lens, esp piece of glass covered with a mesh of fine lines used in taking photographs for reproduction by the half-tone or other processes screen (IV), v. trans, fr preo To clean, grade, sift (coal, gravel &c) by passing through a screen screenings, n. pl. [1 skrēningz, 2 skrinings] Preo & -ing. Whatever is left after passing matter through a screen, specif, rubbish of any sort left after screening corn screw (I), n. [1 skrū, 2 skri] M.E. scru, fr O Fr escro, etymol doubtful, possibly connected w scroll (I) 1 Object used for fastening two pieces of wood or metal together, in the form of a cylindrically shaped piece of metal, relatively thick in proportion to its length, having a flattened head projecting beyond the shaft, with a groove to facilitate turning, the shaft, which tapers slightly towards the point, has a deep spiral groove or thread, so that the screw can only penetrate into the wood &c by being turned round and round, or be withdrawn by being turned in reverse direction Phrs a screw loose, something amiss, all is not in proper order or adjustment there is a screw loose somewhere, to have a screw loose, to be off one's head to be a little mad 2 One of various mechanical contrivances whereby the principles of a screw are utilized for lifting or pressing Phrs to put the screw on, apply the screw to, give another turn to the screw, (in fig use) to put moral pressure on, coerce, exercise compulsion upon, oppress, compel to act in a manner desired. 3 A screw propeller of a steamboat. The following appear to be new formations from the verb 4 A action of screwing, turning, twisting to give a nut a good screw, b twisting, sideways bias or direction, a spin imparted to a moving body which causes it to depart suddenly from, alter, its direction, or to depart from straight path to put a screw on a billiard or tennis ball 5 Something screwed or twisted up a screw of tobacco, small amount twisted up in paper 6 Person who screws and scrapes, a stingy person, a miser, a skunkfunt 7 (colloq) Amount received as wages, salary, stipend a poor screw, a monthly, yearly, screw, from idea that it is wrung, or screwed, out of employer 8 (perhaps a different word) A broken down horse, one that has some defect, though not necessarily useless screw (II), v. trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To fasten with a screw to screw a lock on a door, followed by prepositions or adverbs a screw up, (i) to turn (a bolt &c) until it is tight, (ii) to close completely, make perfectly secure, with screw or screws to screw up a coffin, box, door &c, b screw in, drive home (screw) by turning it, c screw down, to close down and make fast with screws, d to screw on, to fasten with a screw, tighten by screwing to screw on a knob, Phr to have one's head screwed on tight, the right way, to be shrewd and level headed 2 a To turn, twist, with a movement similar to that of tightening a screw to screw a person's arm, b to turn round as far as possible to screw one's head round, also screw up, (i) tighten by a screwing movement to screw up the strings of a fiddle, (u) (fig) to brace up, stimulate (a person, oneself, one's courage), to the point of performing some particular task, (u) to screw up discipline, make it more severe 3 To twist, pucker, contort to screw one's features into a grimace, also screw up, contort, twist energetically to screw up one's face, eyes, to screw up a piece of paper into a ball 4 To squeeze, press, by screwing, twisting movement, esp screw out, a to extract, squeeze out, by screwing to screw water out of a sponge, b (fig) (i) to extort from, compel to give, or pay, by compulsion to screw money, or promises, out of people, (u) to give, pay out (money &c), grudgingly and with reluctance at last he screwed out half a crown for a taxi fare 5 To hit (a ball) in such a way as to put a screw on to it to screw the red into a pocket B intrans 1 To be made to screw, to be capable of being screwed that bolt doesn't screw in, it screws, this handle won't screw 2 a (of a player) To impart a screw to a ball if I knew how to screw, I could get my ball in off the red, b (of a ball) to twist aside, or backwards, on striking the ground or another ball my ball screwed into a pocket off the red 3 (of persons) To indulge in petty, mean economies, to stint, be miserly and stingy the old curmudgeon had screwed all his life screw-bolt, n A bolt with blunt end and external thread fitting into a nut with internal thread, used for fastening metal or other plates together screw-box, n A device for cutting wooden screws, b socket for screw.

screw-cap, n Cap or cover made to screw on to a jar or bottle screw-coupling, n A threaded joint or collar at end of rods or pipes, used to fasten two lengths together screw-cutter, n Tool, machine, for cutting screws screw-driver, n Tool shaped like a chisel with a blunt edge, used for turning, tightening, or loosening screws screwed, adj [1 skru:əd, 2 skru:d] Prob P P of screw (II), w reference to twisting, turning, staggering (slang) Intoxicated, drunk screw-eye, n Screw with a loop at one end instead of a flattened, grooved head screw-gear, n Endless screw working against a cogged wheel screw-hook, n Metal hook with a shank in form of a screw screw-jack, n A lifting jack, in which the leverage is worked by a screw, a jack-screw screw-key, n A wrench or spanner the jaws of which are opened, closed, and held at the desired position by means of a screw screw-pile, n One in the form of a large screw, usually having a ring at the upper end, through which a rod is passed for screwing into the ground screw-pine, n A genus, Pandanus, of shrubs and trees found in the Malay Peninsula and tropical islands, with leaves arranged in spirals, and aerial roots screw-plate, n A steel plate with threaded holes, used for cutting threads or screws screw-press, n A press worked by means of a screw screw-propeller, n Revolving shaft fitted with blades arranged in a spiral, whereby ships and aeroplanes are driven screw-steamer, n A steamer driven by a screw-propeller screw-tap, n 1 An instrument used for cutting internal screws 2 Water tap which closes with a screw movement screw-wheel, n A cogged wheel or gearing fitting into the thread of an endless screw, for transmitting motion screw-wrench, n Spanner working on a screw, a screw-key screwy, adj [1 skru:oi, 2 skru:] 1 Curving, twisty 2 Given to screwing and petty economies, stingy, mean scribal, adj [1 skribl, 2 skraibl] scribe (I) & -al Connected with, pertaining to, due to, a scribe, arising in process of writing scribal traditions, a scribal error scribble (I), vb trans & intrans [1 skribl, 2 skraibl] Freq form of scribe (II) A trans 1 a To write hastily, carelessly, or illegibly to scribble a note, letter &c, b (rare) to make meaningless marks on, to scrawl upon to scribble a wall &c 2 To compose, write, without regard to correctness or style to scribble verses, silly novels, I've only time to scribble a hasty note B intrans 1 a To write in a hasty, illegible, careless way, to scrawl, b to compose in a careless hurried way &c 2 (usually self-deprecatingly) To be a writer, to make one's living by authorship one has to scribble for a bare existence, an eighteenth century gentleman would admit that he scribbled for his own amusement scribble (II), n, fr prec 1 Hasty, illegible handwriting, scrawl 2 Anything written in a hasty, careless way, without regard to composition or style scribble (III), vb trans, fr Swed skrubba, 'to card wool', freq of skrubba, see scrub (II) To card wool or cotton roughly, as a first stage in the carding process, to pass through the scribbler or scribbling-machine scribbler (I), n [1 skribler, 2 skraibl] scribe (I) & -er One who scribbles, a one who writes hastily, illegibly &c, b a bad, ignorant, inferior author 'venal and licentious scribblers' (Macanlay, On Milton) scribbler (II), n scribble (III) & -er A machine for scribbling or roughly carding wool scribbling-machine, n [1 skribling mashən, 2 skraibliŋ məʃɪn] A scribbler for carding wool scribbling-paper, n Inferior kind of writing-paper for making rough notes &c scribe (I), n [1 skrib, 2 skraib], fr Lat scriba, 'official writer, clerk, secretary', fr scribere, 'to write', orig 'to tear, scratch', fr same base as Gk skraphomai, 'I scratch, tear', & skraphismos, 'a scratching, scraping', O E scrifan, 'to decree, allot, assign', see shrive, is a loan-word fr Lat 1 Penman, writer, esp a professional writer or copyist of MSS before invention of printing 2 (Jewish hist) One of a class of ecclesiastical lawyers who read and expounded the sacred law 3 A small pointed instrument used for marking a line to indicate where wood or stone is to be cut, also called scribe awl or scriber scribe (II), vb trans, fr prec (carpentry) To mark (stone, wood &c) with a scribe scribe-awl, scriber, n [1 skrib awl, skriber, 2 skraib əl, skraibə] See scribe (I), 3 scrim, n [1 skrim, 2 skrum] Etymol unknown Kind of thin, loosely woven canvas, used for linings in upholstery, bookbinding &c, also of jute for packing &c scrimmage, scrummage, n & vb intrans [1 skrim, skrum, 2 skrimdʒ, skrumdʒ], variant of skrumish 1 n. a (i) A confused struggle or rough and tumble, a fight, a row, brawl, tussle, (u) a heated, noisy dispute, b (usually scrummage, abbr scrum, in Rugby football) (i) the pack of forwards, (u) the grouping of the forwards of both sides compactly together, with heads down, on each side of the ball, which is placed on the ground between them, after a man has been collared &c 2 vb a To take part in a scrummage, engage in a rough and tumble, to brawl, b (Rugby football, usually scrummage or scrum) to pack together, form one of a scrummage scrimmager, n, more usually scrummager, [1 skrimjɜr, skrumjɜr, 2 skrimdʒə, skrumdʒə] Prec & -er A Rugby forward scrimp, vb trans & intrans [1 skrimp, 2 skrimp], fr O E scrimpan, see shrink, & op shrink, oegw Dan skrumpe, Germ schrumpfen To skimp, q v scrumpy, adj [1 skrimpi, 2 skrimp] Prec & -y Skimpy scrimshank, vb intrans [1 skrimshangk,

2 skrimʃəŋk] Origin doubtful, occurs first apparently in late 19th cent, Nthn dial has scrimp, 'to stint', & shankle, 'to loiter, shirk work' (army slang) To shirk duty, work, fatigues &c scrimshanker, n [1 skrimshangk, 2 skrimʃəŋks] Prec & -er One who shirks duty &c scrimshaw, n & vb trans & intrans [1 skrimshaw, 2 skrimʃə] A sailor's term, prob a surname 1 a n Decoration of shells, elephants' teeth, ivory &c with incised and coloured designs, b any neat piece of work 2 vb a trans To decorate (shells &c) in this way, b intrans, to do this kind of work scrimum, n [1 skrinum, 2 skranum] Lat, etymol unknown Persson compares Lath skruwa, 'wound round, curved, oblique', fr base kre-*, 'to turn, bend' See curve, crown, & words there referred to A press or case for books or MSS in old, mediaeval libraries, originally cylindrical in shape scrip (I), n [1 skrip, 2 skrip] In O E scrip, ME scrippe, prob Scand, cp ON skreppa, 'bag, knapsack', possibly connected w scrapp (I) A small bag, wallet, or satchel, esp in Phr pilgrim's scrip scrip (II), n Variant pronunciation of script in 17th & 18th cents A Provisional document of allotment issued to holder of stocks or shares, b shares themselves script, n [1 skript, 2 skript], fr O Fr script, 'a writing', fr Lat scriptum, 'thing written', PP of scribere, 'to write', see scribe (I) 1 Handwriting, as opposed to print, handwriting like print, specif, a form of printer's cursive type imitating handwriting 2 A piece of writing, written document, specif a (law) the original, as contrasted with the copy of a document, b paper of answers written by a candidate in an examination scriptorium, n [1 skriptorium, 2 skriptorium] L Lat See prec & -ory A writing room, specif, room in a monastery set apart for the copying of MSS, and for writing and study generally scriptural, adj [1 skriptʃərəl, 2 skriptʃərəl] scripture & -al Pertaining to, based on, according to, the Holy Scriptures, Biblical scripturalism, n [1 skriptʃərəlizəm, 2 skriptʃərəlizəm] Prec & -ism Rigid adherence to, and insistence upon, a literal, particularly one's own, interpretation of the text of a book, esp of the Bible, as the only guide in faith and morals scripturalist, n [1 skriptʃərəlist, 2 skriptʃərəlist] scriptural & -ist One who practises scripturalism scripturally, adv [1 skriptʃərəli, 2 skriptʃərəli] scriptural & -ly In a scriptural manner, as contained in the Bible scripture, n [1 skriptʃər, 2 skriptʃə], fr O Fr scripture, fr Lat scriptura, 'a writing' script & -ure 1 (archaic and obs) A writing, anything written, a manuscript, in scripture 2 Specif (cap) a holy writ, the Bible, the books of the Old and New Testament, or either of them, sometimes including the Apocrypha, in either of the following forms Holy Scripture or Scripture teaches us, also the Scriptures to read the Scriptures, b (archaic) a, the Scripture, a specific passage from, text of, the Bible as quoted or referred to there is a scripture which says 'that the scripture might be fulfilled', c the Scriptures, a Bible copy of the Old or New Testament, a Bible 3 Sacred, religious books of a non Christian religion the Scripture of Islam, Buddhist, Hindu, Scriptures & (attrib) Pertaining to, contained in, taken, quoted, from the Bible, scriptural a scripture lesson, text &c scripture reader, n A lay reader of the Bible, esp one employed to read the Bible in people's homes to those unable to read for themselves &c scrivener, n [1 skrivner, 2 skrivnə], fr earlier obs scriven & -er, fr O Fr scrivain, fr L Lat scriba & fr scribere, 'to write', see scryer, n [1 skríer, 2 skrías] Free & -er One who practices crystal-gazing scrying, n [1 skríng, 2 skríng] See preo & -ing Crystal gazing scud (I), vb intrans [1 skud, 2 skad] Sound, cp Norw skudda, 'to shove, push', cp Den skyde, 'to shoot, glide', cogn w scoot & shoot, cp scuttle (IV) To move along, be driven along, rapidly, to glide, dart, with swift, smooth, easy motion a ship scuds before the breeze, clouds scud across the moon, a stone is sent scudding over the ice, rabbits scud across the short turf &c scud (II), n, fr preo 1 Act of scudding, swift, smooth movement as of ship running before a gale 2 a Light, vapoury cloud or mist driving before the wind, b a short, sharp shower of rain or snow scudo, n [1 skúdd, 2 skúdu] Ital, lit 'shield' See scutum An old Italian silver coin and money of account worth about 4s scuff, vb intrans [1 skuf, 2 skaf] Scand; cp Swed skuffa, 'to shove, push', see shove To walk without lifting the feet, to shuffle scuffle (I), vb intrans & trans [1 skúfl, 2 skál] Freq of preo & -le 1 intrans To struggle, push roughly, to engage in a rough, irregular, confused fight 2 trans To hoe up, roughen surface of (gravel), so as to destroy weeds, and freshen its appearance, before rolling down afresh scuffle (II), n, fr preo A confused fight, a rough and tumble scull, n & vb trans & intrans [1 skul, 2 skál] Etymol doubtful, possibly same as skull, & so named fr shape of the blade 1 n A light ear pulled with one hand, so that one person pulls a pair, distinguished from an oar by being shorter, lighter, and having a more concave blade than this 2 vb a trans To propel (a boat) with sculls or a scull, b intrans, to propel a boat with sculls or a scull sculler, n [1 skuler, 2 skála] Free & -er a One who sculls, b light boat built to be rowed by sculls scullery, n [1 skúlon, 2 skálar] fr O Fr escullerie, the office of an eschewer, 'keeper of the plates and dishes of a household', fr Med Lat scutellarius, fr scutella, 'salver, tray' See scutella (I) & -ery A room behind or off the kitchen, where kettles, pots, and pans are cleaned and kept, dishes and plates washed up, and the rough work of the kitchen and household is done scullery-maid, n A maid who washes up dishes &c, and works in the scullery scullion, n [1 skúlon, 2 skálon] fr O Fr escouillon, escouillon, 'a swab, dishcloth', dimin of O Fr escove, 'a broom', fr Lat scopa, 'a thin twig', pl scopae, 'a bundle of twigs, broom', cogn w Lat scopus, 'stom, stalk, shaft', cogn w shaft (I) & sceptre (archaic) A boy who cleans pots and pans &c, and does the menial, rough work in the kitchen sculp, vb intrans & trans [1 skulp, 2 skálp] Back formation fr sculpture (I) (colloq) a intrans To sculpture, to carve in stone, wood &c, to be a sculptor, b trans, to carve, model, to sculpt busts sculpin, n [1 skulpin, 2 skálpin] Etymol doubtful, possibly corrupt of Fr scorpene, or Ital scorpius, fr Lat scorpius, 'the seascorpion', also a spiny fish, & perh influenced by skull A spiny sea-fish of the N American Atlantic coast with large head and gaping mouth sculpsit, vb [1 skulpsit, 2 skálpst] Lat, 'he carved', 3rd pers sing part indie of sculpere, 'to carve', connected w Lat sculpere, 'to scratch, tear', see scalpel, further cogn w O E sculf, 'shell, husk', lit 'something which is torn off', see scale Placed on engravings, followed by artist's name, (he, so and so) engraved this sculptor, n [1 skulptur, 2 skálpst] Lat, fr sculpt (um), PP type of sculpere, 'to carve' See preo & -or Artist who models in clay, and carves stone, metal, wood &c, a maker of sculpture sculptress, n [1 skúlpres, 2 skálpstres] Free & -ess A woman sculptor sculptural, adj [1 skúlpohural, 2 skálptjéral] sculpture & -al Of, pertaining to, sculpture, resembling sculpture, plastic sculpturally, adv Free & -ly In a sculptural manner sculpture (I), n [1 skúlpohur, 2 skálpst] Fr, fr Lat sculptura, formed fr stem sculpi, as in sculptor, & -ure See sculpt 1 A The art of carving, or cutting with a chisel, in stone or wood, any kind of figures, designs, and representations of natural objects whether in the round or in relief, the term is also extended to the art of modelling in clay, and casting in bronze, plastic art, b example of this art, a carved or modelled figure &c 2 a (bot and zool) Markings, in relief or impressed, on the surface of a plant or on a shell &c, b (physical geog) markings left on rocks, shape of ground formed by weathering, erosion &c sculpture (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 a To cut, carve, (stone &c) into designs and figures, b to portray by means of sculpture to sculpture a head, (also fig of the action of weather on rocks &c) to erode 2 To decorate, adorn with sculptured figures or work a sculptured pillar B intrans To practise the art of sculpture sculpturesque, adj [1 skúlpchurék, 2 skálp-tjérsék] sculpture (I) & -esque Having the character of, resembling, sculpture, shapely, well modelled, statuesque scum (I), n [1 skum, 2 skam] Scand, fr Dan skum, 'froth, foam, scum', cp O H G scūm, Mod Germ schaum, 'foam', according to Kluge fr base meaning 'to cover, protect', whence also Lat scūtum, 'shield', see scutum, & second element in obscure 1 Froth, foam rising to the surface of a liquid during boiling or in the process of fermentation, esp the impurities and refuse which rise to the surface and remain floating there as a film 2 a Offscourings, refuse, the worthless part of anything, dregs, b (fig) riff-raff, dregs of the population, Phr the scum of the earth, the lowest, most degraded people, also as term of abuse, you filling scum (to a single person) scum (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans To remove the scum from, to skim 2 intrans To form into, develop, scum scumble, vb trans & n [1 skúmbi, 2 skámbi] Free & -le 1 vb To soften the outlines of a painting by adding a thin opaque or semiopaque coat of almost dry colour 2 n a Coat of colour added for this purpose, b softening of outline by scumblug scummy, adj [1 skumi, 2 skámi] scum (I) & -y Covered with scum, like, consisting of, scum scuncheon, n [1 skúnshan, 2 skán[en] Also spelt sconcheon, fr Fr escouçon, dimin of sconce One of the stones or arches resting upon the angles of a square tower, and supporting the sides of an octagonal spire scupper (I), n [1 skuper, 2 skápe] Orig scupper hole, fr O Fr escupe, 'a baling scoop', of Gmc origin, cp Swed scopa, see scoop An opening cut through a ship's side to allow water to run off from the deck into the sea scupper (II), vb trans, fr preo, prob in sense of throwing a ship on to her scuppers (slang) To disable, throw into disorder scurf, n [1 skáf, 2 skáf] fr O N skurfur, pl, cogn w O E scurf, scurf, 'scurf', & scorfan, 'to scorp, scurfy', & cp scurvy 1 Thin, dry scales or flakes of dead skin, esp such coming from the scalp, dandruff 2 Anything loose and scaly or flaky, eg the dry pubescence on a leaf &c scurfiness, n [1 skáfines, 2 skáfínis] scurf & -ness Scurfy condition scurfy, adj [1 skáfí, 2 skáfí] scurf & -y Affected, oevered, with scurf, or with any flaky matter resembling it scurrile, adj [1 skuril, 2 skáril] fr Lat scurrilis, 'like a buffoon, scurrilous', fr scurra, 'buffoon, jester', cogn w Gk skatrain, 'to leap, dance', cp further M H G schera, 'jest, sport', & see scherzo (archaic) Scurrilous scurrility, n [1 skurílti, 2 skarílti] fr Lat scurrilitas (em), 'buffoonery' Free & -ity 1 Quality of being scurrilous 2 A scurrilous remark, scurrilous language, abuse scurrilous, adj [1 skárlus, 2 skárlus] scurrile & -ous 1 (of persons) Using low, vulgar, abusive, indecent language, coarsely abusive 2 (of language &c) Containing, consisting of, low, vulgar abuse scurulously, adv Free & -ly In a scurrilous manner scurry (I), vb intrans [1 skúri, 2 skáfi] Prob formed fr scour (I) & -y To run, hurry with quick, short steps, to scamper, scuttle scurry (II), n, fr preo 1 a Hasty, rapid, movement, b haste, flurry 2 Sudden, violent, shower of rain or snow scurvily, adv [1 skárvílt, 2 skárvílt] scurvy & -ly In a scurvy manner, (obolig fig) meanly, contemptibly, shabbily scurviness, n [1 skárvines, 2 skárvínis] See next word & -ness Condition, quality, of being scurvy (lit and fig) scurvy (I), adj [1 skárví, 2 skárví] scurf &

-y 1 (obs) Scurfy 2 (of persons and actions) Mean, low, shabby, contemptible a scurvy fellow, scurvy trick, treatment scurvy (II), n, fr preo, in sense of 'pitiful, low state of health' Cp scorbutic A disease of malnutrition, due to lack of fresh vegetables, fruits &c in diet, occurring formerly among sailors on long voyages, (the symptoms being spongy, swollen gums, bleeding from mucous membranes, great debility and dry, livid skin scurvy grass, a Free & substitution for cress A perennial herb, Cochlearia offic-inalis, growing near the sea, with fleshy root-stock and stems, spoon-shaped leaves, and clustered white flowers, used as a salad, reputed to be a cure for scurvy scut, n [1 skut, 2 skat] Prob fr O N schot, 'fox's brush'. Cp scruff The short, stumpy tail of an animal, esp of a hare or rabbit scutage, n [1 skúth, 2 skúthúð] fr Med Lat scutagium, see scutum, & -age (fiscal law) Sum of money paid to the Crown by holder of a knight's fee, in lieu of military service scutal, adj [1 skút, 2 skút] scutum & -al (bot and zool) Pertaining to a scutum or shield scutate, adj [1 skútát, 2 skútát] fr Lat scutatus, 'armed with a scutum or shield', see scutum, & -ate a (bot, of leaves) Shaped like a shield, b (zool) covered with shield-like plates or scales scutch (I), vb trans [1 skuch, 2 skát] fr O Fr escouche, 'a scutcher or swingle', etymol doubtful, perh fr O Fr escousser, 'to shake out', fr Lat excussare, ex & quatre, quies (um), 'to shake', see quash, perh influenced by couch grass & quitch To free the fibres of flax, cotton &c, of woody and other particles, dust &c, by beating scutch (II), n, fr preo Implement or machine used for beating and dressing fibres, scotch, swingle scutcheon, n [1 skúthun, 2 skát[en] Abbr form of escutcheon 1 Escutcheon 2 A metal name-plate, b the movable shield or cover for a keyhole scutcher, n [1 skúcher, 2 skát[er] scutch (I) & -er A scutch, swingle scute, n [1 skút, 2 skút] fr scutum (zool) A scutum scutellate, adj [1 skútélát, 2 skútélát] scutellum & -ate (bot and zool) Covered with scutella or small scales or plates scutellum, n, pl scutella [1 skútélum, -a, 2 skýtélum, -a] Neo Lat, 'little shield', dimin of scutum (bot and zool) A small horny scale or plate, as on lichens, birds' claws, the thorax of insects &c scutiform, adj [1 skútíform, 2 skýtíform] See scutum & -form (bot and zool) Shaped like a shield or scutum scuttle (I), n [1 skútíl, 2 skátíl] OE scutal, 'dish, bowl', fr Lat scutula, also scutella, 'square tray or salver', dimin of scutra, 'flat dish, platter', prob orig 'leather dish or vessel', connected w scutum A metal or other receptacle for carrying and holding small supply of coal for a fire in a room scuttle (II), n, fr O Fr escoutilles, pl, 'hatches of a ship', fr Spon escutilla, 'hatchway', fr escalar, 'to cut out a hole', esp in a garment at the neck so as to fit, fr escote, 'opening at the neck, tucker in a garment', of Gmc origin, cp Du schot, 'bosom, lap', oogn w OE scotl a An opening in a wall or roof of a house with a cover to fit, trap door, specif b (naut) a square opening or hatchway in a deck, large enough to admit a man's body scuttle (III), vb trans To cut holes in the bottom or sides of a ship in order to sink it, to sink (a ship) by making holes in it scuttle (IV), vb intrans & n Korier suddle, freq of scud 1 vb To run away, to hurry, scurry off; osp to run away from danger, difficulty &c 2 n A hasty flight, hurried departure, o halt scutum, n, pl sonta [1 skútum, skúta, 2 skýtum, skýte] Lat, 'shield', prob oogn w Lat cute, 'hide, skin', see cuticle, & meaning orig 'shield of hide or leather', or else fr primary meaning of the base, 'that which covers or protects', ep obscure 1 (Rom aotiq) The oblong shield of wood covered with leather and strengthened with iron horns by the heavy armed infantry of the legions 2 (annt) The knee cap, patella 3 (zool) A horny, shield like plate or scale as found in certain reptiles, on the thorax of insects &c, a scute

Scylla, n [1 sýla, 2 síle] Gk name of a she monster with six heads dwelling on a rock on Italian side of the Straits of Messina, opposite to the whirlpool Charybdis, q v, hence Phr between Scylla and Charybdis, to be caught between two fires, between the devil and the deep sea, in allusion to the difficulty of steering through the passage without being caught by one or other, as in Homer's Odyssey scylli-, scylpho-, pref, fr Gk skulphos, 'cup', see scyphus, used in compounds scylphiform, cap shaped scylphomelasma, scylphocoe, of various forms of jelly fish &c scyphus, n [1 sífus, 2 sífús] Gk skulphos, 'drinking cup', prob related to Gk skaptein, 'to hollow out', but the v is difficult to explain 1 (Gk antiq) A form of cup without a base or foot and with two handles with flat tops projecting from the sides 2 (hot) A corona of a flower, cup like formation in lichens scythe (I), n [1 síldh, 2 síldh] OE sigpe, scipe, scythe, fr seipe, ME sike, OS seigna, ON sigbr, OHG seigana, Med Germ senne, 'mickle or scythe', Gmc base scy, 'to cut', oogn w Lat scire, op section, & Engl saw (III) & sickle Tool for mowing, consisting of a long, slightly curved, tapering blade, the inner edge of which is sharpened, the back being relatively thick, set at right angles to a long wooden stock, which has two short handles projecting from it scythe (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec a trans To cut (grass) with a scythe, b in trans, to use a scythe for cutting grass &c Scythian, adj & n [1 síthian, 2 síthian] fr Lat Scythia, Gk Skuthia, Skuthia, 'a Scythian' & -an 1 adj Of, pertaining to, ancient Scythia, which lay north ood east of the Black Sea 2 n Inhabitant language, of ancient Scythia

'sdeoth, interj [1 zdeth, 2 zdep] Eophomistic abbr of 'God's death Oath now obsolete, expressing anger, impatience &c se-, pref Lat se, occurring in a certain number of Lat words, for sed-, wh remains before vowels, the particle denotes separation or division seure, separate, sedition It is identical w the ogy sed (w shortening of the vowel), 'hnt, yet' &c, the basal meaning is 'for itself alone', & it is ultimately fr the reflex pronominal stem sui, 'self', see sui, the s is prob the old shl suffix sea, n [1 sé, 2 sí] OE sā, 'sea, lake', ME sae, OS & OHG sea, O Fris sē, ON sær, Goth saues, OHG (g) sig, 'lake, marsh', a gradational variant, points to an ong Gmc saigun, wh apparently rules out the attractive proposal to connect the word w Lat saevus, 'fierce, raging, wild' 1 The ocean, the body of salt water which covers the larger part of the surface of the globe, a contrasted with freshwater rivers and lakes &c animals plants, which live in the sea, chemical constituents of the sea, salmon return from the sea to fresh water to breed, b contrasted with dry land by land and sea, beyond, across, the sea(s), away from one's own country, separated from one's home by the sea, by the sea, on the coast, by the seaside, close to any body of salt water, to be buried at sea, to put out to sea, to sail from land Phrs the high sea, the ocean, as the highway of commerce by sea, esp of the ocean outside territorial waters or outside the three mile limit and jurisdiction, the narrow seas, the seas between Great Britam and Ireland, or between England and France, or the Netherlands, the freedom of the seas, the right of states to trade by sea without interruption, even in time of war, as neutrals, at sea, (i) (lit) out of sight of land, (ii) (fig) all at sea, not knowing where one is or what one is doing, perplexed, confused, about anything, to go to sea, follow the sea, to adopt profession of a sailor, to go (down) to the sea, go to the coast, the seaside 2 A any of various tracts of the sea, considered as less than an ocean or as more or less defined or enclosed by the land or as part of an ocean: the Mediterranean, Baltic Sea, the Caribbean Sea, Japon, China Seas &c, Phrs the four seas, those surrounding Great Britam, the seven seas, the Arctic and Antarctic, N and S Atlantic, N and S Pacific, and the Indian Oceans, b ones of the large, entirely enclosed, salt water or brackish lakes the Caspian, Dead, Sea, more rarely of a freshwater lake Sea of Galilee 3 (also seas) State of dition, of the sea, in relation to wind or weather a calm, stormy sea, heavy, choppy seas, b a wave, hallow a high, short, long, sea, to ship a sea, (of vessel) to be flooded by a wave 4 A large expanse of anything, a sheet, flood, a (of material things) sea of flame, blood, of faces &c, b (of non material things) a sea of troubles 5 (Bib) The great metal laver or basin for the use of the priests in Solomon's Temple the brazen, molten, sea sea-aorn, n Aorn shell, a species of aorn shaped barnacle sea-air, n Air at the seaside, or at sea, as distinct from that inland sea-anchor, n A floating, expanding anchor, usually of canvas, used to prevent a ship drifting out to keep her head to the wind, o drag or drift anchor sea-anemone, n Any of various marine polyps, with expanding and often brightly coloured, flower like tentacles, belonging to the order Actinaria, of the class Anthozoa sea-angel, n The angel fish, a species of Atlantic shark, Squatina, with wing like, pectoral fins sea-ape, n 1 The sea otter 2 The thresher shark sea-bank, n 1 The shore of the sea 2 A bank, mole, or wall to keep off the sea and prevent encroachment on the land sea-beach, n A beach of shingle or sand by the sea sea-bear, n A fur bearing seal, Otaria ur sinq, of the Pacific sea-beet, n Wild beet, Beta maritima sea-bells, n Popular name of Camolulus soldanella, with pink flowers, growing by the seashore, the sea hawweed sea-belt, n A large seaweed, with long belt-like fronds, growing in masses on rocky shores, Laminaria saccharina sea-bird, n Any bird whose usual habitat is the sea coast and rocky islands in the sea seaboard, n [1 sšhord, 2 sšh3d] The coast bordering the sea, sea coast, line of coast sea-born, adj Born of or from the sea the sea born goddess, Aphrodite, the sea born town, Venice sea-borne, adj Borne, brought, by sea sea borne commerce, sea borne coal, sea coal sea-breeze, n A breeze blowing landwards from the sea, a breeze at sea sea-calf, n The common seal sea-canary, n Sailor's name for the white whale, from the whistling noise it makes sea-captain, n a The captain of a sea going vessel, a naval as distinguished from an army captain, b a great naval commander sea-oat, n 1 The common seal 2 The sea wolf sea-chestnut, n The sea urchin sea-coal, n Sea borne coal, old name in south of England, in areas remote from coal mines, for mineral coal as distinguished from charcoal sea-coast, n Land adjacent to the sea, line of coast of the sea sea-cock, n A valve or cock in a ship's side which opens and shuts, a pipe leading from the sea to the condenser sea-coconut, n The double or hlobed coconut of the Seychelles sea-collander, n A greenish seaweed, the fronds of which are perforated with small holes sea-cook, n A ship's cook, used as a term of abuse or contempt by sailors, esp of lands men sea-cow, n 1 The manatee or the dugong 2 The walrus sea-crow, n Popular name for various sea birds, as the black headed gull, the cormorant &c sea-uncumber, n Sea slug, one of the holothurians, esp the bêche de mer or trepang sea-devil, n 1 The devil fish, o large kind of ray 2 The angler fish, fishing frog or monk sea-dog, o 1 The dogfish 2 The common seal 3 An old, experienced sailor, generally old sea dog sea-dragon, n Name applied to various fish, esp to the Australian pipe fish sea-duck, n One of a kind which frequents salt water sea-eagle, n 1 A large fishing eagle, Haliaetus, including the Old World H albicilla, the white tailed eagle, and H leucoccephalus, the bald or white headed eagle of N America 2 The osprey sea-elephant, n The largest of the seals, of the S Atlantic, Macrorhinus proboscideus, the males have a short dilatible proboscis sea-fan, n A coral, genus Gorgonia, with fan-like branches seafarer, n [1 sšifār, 2 sšifār] sea & fare (III) & -er (post) One who travels by sea, a sailor, mariner seafaring (I), adj, fr Pres Part [1 sšifāring, 2 sšifāring] Chiefly in Phr seafaring man, a sailor, seafaring life, that of a sailor seafaring (II), vb n Aet of travelling oy, of going to, sea, specif, the profession of a sailor, a sailor's life sea-fennel, n Samphire sea-fight, n A naval battle sea-fire, n Phosphorescence in the sea sea-foam, n A foam of the sea, b meer schaum sea-fog, n Fog coming inland from the sea sea forces, n pl A nation's navy, as distinguished from the army or land forces sea-fowl, n Any bird that lives near or on the sea and gets its food from it sea-fox, n The thresher shark, sea cat sea-front, n That part of a seaside town which faces and skirts the sea, esp a marine parade sea-gauge, n 1 An automatic gauge used in deep sea soundings 2 The draught of a ship sea-gherkin, n The sea-oncumber sea-gillflower, n The sea pink, thrift sea-girt, adj (poet) Girdled, surrounded, by the sea this sea girt isle sea-god, -goddess, n A deity of the sea sea-going, adj 1 A sea-going vessel, craft, sailing, and built to sail, on the open sea for long voyages, and not merely for coastal trips, b sea-going fisherman &c, going out to sea, not working only in estuaries &c sea-grape, n 1 Gulf-weed, sargasso 2 Name of a shrubby tree with clustered berries growing on sand dunes 3 (pl) The egg clusters of the outtle fish sea-grass, n Collective name for various grass-like plants growing by the sea, as thrift, and esp eel grass, Zostera marina sea-green, adj, & n 1 adj Of a pale bluish green colour, as of the sea in shallow waters with sandy bottom. 2 n This colour sea-gull, n Any one of the sea birds constituting the family Laridae, a gull sea-hawk, n 1 The skua 2 The osprey sea-hedgehog, n The sea-nrohin sea-hog, n The porpoise sea-holly, sea-holm, n A variety of holly growing by the sea, Eryngium maritimum sea-horse, n 1 (zool) A small fish, Hippocampus, found in warm seas, allied to the pipe fishes, with head and upper part of the body resembling those of a horse, prehensile tail, and plated body 2 (mythol) A fabulous monster, half horse, half fish, depicted as harnessed to a sea-god's chariot sea-island cotton, n A fine, long haired variety of cotton, producing a long staple, originally cultivated in the islands and coast regions of Georgia and S Carolina sea-kale, n A colewort, with white roots used as a vegetable sea-king, n Ancient Scandinavian chieftain, esp one who was a leader in piratical, free-booting expeditions seal (I), n [1 sél, 2 sial], fr OE seole, inflected type of seolh, ME sele, OHG selah, ON seir, op Swed syöl, Dan seal 1 The general name for a group of marine, amphibious, fish eating mammals with long tapering bodies and stunted limbs ending in flippers or paddle like webbed feet, the true seals, Phocidae, have no external ear, and are hunted for their hides and oil, the fur-bearing or eared seals, Otariidae, of N and S Pacific, include the sea bear and sea-lion 2 Seal-skin a coat made of seal seal (II), vb intrans, fr preo To hunt seals (chiefly in Pres Part) to go sealing, a sealing expedition seal (III), n ME seel, sele, fr O Fr seel, fr Lat sigillum, 'little sign, mark, figure, a seal', dimin of signum See sigillate & sign 1 A Heraldic or other device stamped upon wax, lead, or other plastic material by means of an engraved die, affixed to a document &c as a mark or proof of its authenticity, Phr under my hand and seal, i.e with signature and seal, b small wafer, circular ring made by a pen, impression directly stamped on paper, used as the legal equivalent of an impressed wax seal on documents requiring such 2 A piece of metal, peltic &c upon which an initial, crest, coat of arms, or other device is engraved, used as a die for stamping on wax &c the Great Seal, of Great Britain, in charge of the Lord Chancellor, formerly Lord Keeper, used for treaties, parliamentary writs, and other important State documents, the Seal of the Fisherman, that of the Papacy, bearing a figure of St Peter as a fisherman 3 A device for closing a pipe to prevent the passing of air or gas, esp a quantity of water in a trap or bend 4 (fig) A That which authenticates, confirms, or identifies, a token, guarantee, prophetic mark a kiss as the seal of his love, to bear upon his face the seal of fate, b that which closes or secures, that which ensures secrecy or silence a seal upon his lips, under the seal of confession, secrecy &c seal (IV), vb trans, fr preo 1 a To affix a seal to, as authentication, to mark with official stamp as of standard pattern &c to seal a document, the treaty has been signed and sealed (op sealed book &c below), b to close, fasten, secure, by means of a seal or seals, also seal up to seal (up) a letter, officials have sealed (up) all drawers, doors &c 2 To close completely, so as to prevent access or passage of air, gas &c to seal a pipe, windows hermetically sealed 3 (in fig or transf senses) a To mark as settled, set apart, decide finally, to determine his fate is sealed, b to confirm, ratify, bear witness he sealed the bargain with a kiss, c to close tightly, shut up eyes sealed in death, sleep, his lips were sealed, he was unable to speak, he was bound by a promise of secrecy sea-law, n Maritime law, (esp pl) any of various ancient codes of maritime law sea-lawyer, n 1 Argumentative person with some slight, inaccurate smattering of legal knowledge, one fond of pedantic refinements and quibbles which he believes to be in accordance with the principles of law 2 A shark sealed book, n [1 seld bók, 2 seld buk] 1 (hist) A standard copy of the Book of Common Prayer, issued in 1662 under the Great Seal and ordered to be kept in all cathedrals and collegiate churches 2 a book the contents of which are secret, hence, b something difficult to know or understand metaphysical arguments are a sealed book to most people sealed orders, n, pl Instructions issued to a commander of a ship, esp in time of war, in a sealed envelope, only to be opened at a stated time or place to sail under sealed orders, of ship sailing with such instructions sealed pattern, n A regulation pattern, of uniforms &c, adopted by the Admiralty or War Office and kept as a standard sea-legs, n Only in such Phr as to find, get, one's sea legs, to become accustomed to the motion of a ship, in allusion to the habitual rolling gait of sailors, adopted in order to preserve balance when ship is tossing, to get accustomed to life at sea, and be free from sickness sea-leopard, n A spotted or blotched seal of the South Pacific seas, Ommochilus leptoniz, also used of Weddell's seal (Leptonyx weddellii) sealer, n [1 sélór, 2 sél] seal (II) & -er a Person engaged in seal hunting, b vessel used by seal hunters sealery, n [1 sélór, 2 sél] seal (I) & -ery Breeding place of seals sea-letter, n A document or passport issued from the custom-house to a neutral ship in time of war, giving full description of the vessel, cargo, destination &c sen-level, n Level taken midway between high and low-water mark, also called mean sea-level, and used as standard for measurements of heights and depths seal-fishery, n a The business of hunting and killing seals for their fur and oil, b seals' habitat, where they are killed by sealers sea-line, n The horizon at sea sealing, n [1 séling, 2 sáling] Trade of hunting seals, seal fishery sealing-wax, n Substance made of a mixture of shellac and resin, variously coloured, which becomes plastic when heated and hardens as it cools, thus easily receiving and preserving the impression of a seal, used for sealing and closing letters, documents &c sea-lion, n Large, maned, and eared kind of fur bearing seal of the Pacific Ocean, of which there are several species, belonging to the family Otariidae Sea Lord, n One of the four naval members of the Board of Admiralty, as distinguished from the two Civil Lords or non professional members seal-ring, n Finger ring having an armorial or other device engraved upon its stone, or on part of the metal, and used as a seal seal-rookery, n A breeding place of seals sealskin, n [1 sélskin, 2 sálskin] a The coat of one of various species of the eared seal dressed and prepared as a fur, b a garment made of this, a sealskin coat Sealyham, n [1 séliam, 2 sáliam], fr name of place in Pembrokeshire, Wales A breed of wire haired terriers with very short legs and a long body seam (I), n [1 sém, 2 sim] OE seam, ME seme, OHG seum, ON saumr, fr base *seu- &c See sew & suture 1 Line at junction of two pieces of cloth or leather where they are sewn together 2 The juncture of two boards or planks, esp of a ship's planking, filled in, or caulked, with oakum leaking seams 3 A suture, a (anat) an articulation in the bones of the skull, b (surg) the line where the two edges of a wound are stitched together, a scar, cicatrix seam of an old wound 4 Line resembling a seam, suture, a line or wrinkle in the face 5 (geol and min) A thin layer or stratum between two thicker strata, a vein of ore, coal &c between two thicker veins seam (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To join together to form a seam 2 To mark with scars or lines resembling seams, to furrow with wrinkles a face seamed with scars, with care, old age &c seam (III), n OE seam, 'burden, load', fr L Lat sauma, fr Lat seama, 'horse's load', fr Gk sema, 'a pack saddle' See sumpter & breastsumner (obs or province) An old measure of weight for wheat, manure, sand, lumber, of varying amount, usually as much as a horse would carry or draw seaman, n [1 séman, 2 sémán] OE seamon, sea & man 1 A sailor, mariner, specif a (merchant service) anyone employed on board a ship on the sea other than the master, pilot, or apprentices, b (nav) one below the rank of officer, able bodied seaman (A B), a fully qualified sailor, with higher rating and pay than an ordinary seaman 2 A person regarded from the point of view of his skill in the management of a ship at sea a good, poor, seaman seamanlike, adj [1 sémanlik, 2 sémánlik] Pro & -like Like a seaman, having, showing, the skill of a good seaman seamanly, adj [1 sémanli, 2 sémánli] See pro & -ly Seamanlike seamanship, n [1 sémanship, 2 sémánship] seaman & -ship Skill in handling or navigating a ship, the sailor's craft sea-mark, n A mark consisting of a conspicuous object on shore, a beacon or the like, serving as a guide for a ship's course when approaching land, a harbour &c sea-mat, n A kind of flat, matted corn sea-mew, n A sea gull sea-mile, n A nautical or geographical mile, one minute of the great circle of the earth, 6080 ft seaming, n [1 séming, 2 sémíng] seam (II) & -ing 1 A kind of gump lace, also called seam lace or seaming lace, used for ornamenting the seams in upholstery 2 A rope or cord at the edge of a fishing net seamless, adj [1 sémlés, 2 sémíla] seam (I) & -less Without seams, woven in a single piece sea-monster, n Any large, strange, monstrous, usually fabulous, animal of the sea sea-mouse, n Popular name of a marine, annelid worm, covered with minute iridescent bristles or setae, belonging to the genus Aphrodite seamstress, sempstress, n [1 sém(p)stres, 2 sém(p)stres] OE stāmeastre, fr stām, see seam (I), & -stresse, fem agent suff, op spinster, additional fem suff -ess A woman who seams or sews, needlewoman seamy, adj [1 sēm, 2 sīm] seam (I) & -y (of cloth &c) Showing the rough, unpressed underside part of a seam Phr the seamy side, the underside, the least attractive or pleasant side or aspect of life and experience

Seanad Éireann, n [1 shánadh éirán, 2 shénád éirán] Ir, 'Senate of Ireland' The Senate or Upper House of the Irish Free State Parliament séance, n [1 sáhns, 2 séáns] Fr, 'a sitting', fr Lat sedens, Pres Part of sedere, 'to sit', op sedentary 1 A session, meeting, of a public body, society &c 2 Specif, meeting of spiritualists, attended by a medium, for the investigation of psychical phenomena sea-nettle, n A stinging jelly fish or medusa sea-onion, n. Popular name of the squill, Urginea Scilla, the bulbs of which are used medicinally sea-otter, n A carnivorous, amphibious mammal of the N Pacific, Lutra lutra, allied to the true otters, with flipper like hind limbs and valuable dark brown fur sea-pen, n A kind of polyp with feathery shape, like the shaft of a quill pen sea-pie, n The oyster catcher sea-piece, n A picture of a scene at sea, a seascape sea-pig, n. The porpoise sea-pink, n A plant, Statice ormeria, also called thrift, with pink and white flowers, which grows by the seashore seaplane, n [1 séplán, 2 sēplén] An aeroplane fitted with floats to enable it to alight on and rise from the sea, a hydroplane seaport, n [1 séport, 2 sēpōt] A town with a harbour, having access to the sea for ocean going vessels sea-power, n 1 [1 sé póur, 2 sí páua] A nation with a powerful navy and a large mercantile marine 2 [1 sé póur, 2 sí páua] The possession of a powerful navy and mercantile marine, b the actual naval strength, and resources in trading ships collectively, of a nation at a given time sea-purse, n The egg case of the skate sequake, n [1 sékwák, 2 síkweik] A seismic disturbance in a part of the earth's crust forming the bed of the sea sear (I), sear, adj [1 sé, 2 sē] OE sēar, 'withered, barren', M.E. sēre, cp OD sear, Du soor, LG soor, cogn w Gk oúos, 'dried', for searose, Lath austaus, cp austere (poet) Dry, shrivelled, faded, withered, esp of plants, flowers, leaves Phr 'the sear and yellow leaf', the autumn of life, advanced age (from Shakespeare, 'Macbeth', v 3) sear (II), vb trans OE sēarian, 'to wither, pine away' See pre 1 To wither, dry up cold wind sears the leaves 2 A To scorch, parch, so as to render dry and hard, to cauterize to sear a wound with a hot iron, b (fig) to take away freshness from, to give faded appearance to a countenance seared by grief and weeping 3 To render callous or hard conscience seared by crimes sear (III), sear, n fr O Fr serre, 'a grasp', fr Lat sera, 'bar of a door', fr serere, 'to join, fasten' see serried & seraglio Catch in the lock of a gun which holds the hammer at half or full cock search (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sérch, 2 sáit] M.E. serchen, fr O Fr cercher, fr Lat circāre, 'to go round, about', formed fr circum, 'around' See circum- & circus A trans 1 To go through and examine carefully, by eye and touch, in order to find, or on the chance of finding, something or to ascertain what is there, to rummage, ferret about in, overhaul, ransack to search premises, a house, a cupboard, a drawer, one's pockets, specif, to search a person, go through his clothes, run the hand over his person, in order to find out what he carries, to search a woman, to explore it with a probe 2 A To scrutinize carefully, scan, peer at, reconnoitre to search the horizon with a glass, to search a person's face, look fixedly, piercingly, at, as though trying to read his thoughts, to search a book, read it carefully through in order to find a passage, b to apply moral scrutiny to, to examine carefully, test, try to search one's heart, conscience &c, to search one's memory, try hard to recall something to mind 3 To penetrate thoroughly, to rake, sweep through, along, across the wind searched every cranny of the hotel, the hail of bullets searched the trench B intrans To seek, look for, try to find, some thing you are sure to find your purse if you search properly C Followed by prepositions Search after, trans, to seek, try to find or obtain, pursue in hope of finding what is lacking or lost to search after health and happiness Search for, trans, to seek, look for Search out, trans, a to seek, inquire whereabouts of, and find, to look up, ferret out to search out an old friend, some books that have been put away b (archaic and Bib) to try, examine thoroughly 'Lord, thou has searched me out and known me' search (II), n, fr pre Cp O Fr cerche. 1 Act of searching, effort, endeavour, to find, or regain (what is lost) the search for the missing aviators has been discontinued, to make a careful search for a lost ring, in search of health, trying to regain health 2 Attempt to gain, quest, pursuit the search for truth, for wealth, in search of a wife 3 Right of search, (internat law) right of a belligerent to stop neutral vessels at sea and examine or search them for contraband searchable, adj [1 sérchabl, 2 sáitjabl] search (I) & -able (rare) Capable of being searched for, to be found searcher, n [1 sérchér, 2 sáitjér] search (I) & -er One who searches, examines, or investigates a searcher in the public records, specif a a person, male or female, employed by the Custom House to search passengers for smuggled articles, or by the police to search prisoners on arrest, b an implement (i) for probing or examining a wound, an internal organ &c, a probe, sound, (ii) for examining the bore of a gun for defects searching, adj [1 sérchung, 2 sáitjŋ], fr Pres Part of search (I) Penetrating, keen, piercing a searching glance, a searching scrutiny, examination, thorough, careful, rigorous, a searching wind, gunfire &c searchlight, n [1 sérchlīt, 2 sáitjlaīt] Large, powerful, movable ray of light, directed from electrical apparatus, used in war for discovering hostile aircraft, for observing enemy movements on land, passing ships &c search-party, n A party, body of persons sent out to search or look for someone or something lost or hidden search-warrant, n A warrant issued by a magistrate, giving authority to police to enter and search a house or premises for stolen goods, articles not lawfully kept &c, such as firearms &c, suspected persons &c sea-risk, n Risk of loss or injury at sea sea-robin, n The common red gurnard of the N Atlantic sea-room, n Room, free space at sea in which a ship can be sailed and steered without danger of collision or running aground sea-rover, n A pirate or pirate ship sea-salt, n Salt obtained from sea water by evaporation seascape, sea-scape, n [1 séskāp, 2 sískāp] Formed on anal of landscape A picture of a scene at sea sea-serpent, n 1 A sea monster, resembling in appearance and movement a gigantic serpent, often reported to have been seen at sea, but never authenticated to the satisfaction of zoologists 2 A sea snake seashore, n [1 séshór, 2 síj] 1 Land close to the sea, sea coast, beach 2 (law) Land between high and low water mark, foreshore sea-sick, adj Suffering from sea sickness sea-sickness, n Nausea, vomiting, accompanied by giddiness, and in severe cases by prostration, brought on by the rolling and pitching of a vessel at sea seaside, n [1 séáid, 2 síáid] Land by the side of the sea, on or close to the seashore, a watering place or town at the sea to go to the seaside for the holidays sea-sleeve, n Cuttle fish sea-snail, n 1 Any of various snail-like marine gastropod molluscs 2 A small slimy fish, genus Liparis, with a ventral sucker sea-snake, n A poisonous tropical marine snake, family Hydrophinae, of the Indian and Pacific Oceans sea-snipe, n a The dunlin, b the snipe fish, an eel like fish with long snipe like snout season (I), n [1 séz(u)n, 2 síz(u)n] M.E. season, fr O Fr sezon, seizon, fr saizon (cm), saizo, 'a sowing', in L Lat 'sowing time, the spring, season', fr saet (um), P P type of serere, 'to sow', fr hase *sē &c See further under semen, seed, sow (II) 1 One of the divisions of the year, spring, summer &c, distinguished respectively by differences of temperature and weather, in the relative length of day and night, determined by the position of the earth's axis in relation to the sun, the seasons, these periods collectively 2 a A part of the year in which specific processes of nature occur, or in which certain human activities related to, and conditioned by, these take place the season of harvest, the blossoming season, nesting, breeding, season, the season for pruning &c, b part of the year during which, by custom and convenience, specific occupational or social activities take place the publishing, the theatrical, season, the holiday season, specif the (London) season, the early summer, when the Royal Court is in London and social gaiety in the fashionable world is at its height, any period of social activity at a specified place the Bath, Brighton, Cheltenham, season, c the period of the year devoted to particular sports and amusements the hunting, football, cricket, season 3 A period of the year a when specific crops are most plentiful or at their prime the asparagus, strawberry, season, b when certain animals are fit for eating or are allowed to be caught, hunted, or shot, as opposed to close time, Phr, in, out of, season oysters are supposed to be out of season when there is no R in the month, grouse are in season after the 12th of August 4 Suitable, appropriate, convenient, time for anything there is a season for work and for play, a word (of advice) in season, at time when most useful or likely to be effective Phr in season and out of season, at any time, at all times, without discrimination 5 (archaic) An indefinite space of time, a relatively short period, a while 'The devil departed from him for a season' (Luke iv 13), to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season 6 (colloq) A season ticket season (II), vb trans & intrans, fr pre Cp A trans 1 a To bring into a fit, proper, condition for use, to render mature by special processes, exposure to air &c to season timber, wine seasoned in the wood, b to bring into good, sound, hard condition, by tanning, exposure to climate &c, to habituate, acclimatize, accustom, to season oneself to cold, hunger, fatigue, callosity seasoned to diseases, a seasoned soldier, a seasoned old toper 2 a To make (food) agreeable to the taste, render palatable, to flavour, to add salt, sauce, condiments to, to give a relish to, b (fig) to give intellectual zest, flavour, point, to season conversation with wit, he has not failed to season the narrative with some humorous sallies 3 (archaic) To make less harsh or severe, to qualify, moderate, temper 'When mercy seasons justice' (Shakespeare, 'Merchant of Venice') B intrans To mature, to become seasoned timber seasons best when exposed to the weather seasonable, adj [1 sēzənəbəl, 2 sīzənəbəl] season (I) & -able 1 Of the kind expected at, or usual and suitable for, a particular season of the year seasonable weather, a seasonable frost at Christmas 2 Appropriate to, suitable for, the occasion, occurring, done, at the proper time, opportune a seasonable gift, the money, help, came at a most seasonable time, the advice was good, but hardly seasonable seasonableness, n Proc & -ness State, quality, of being seasonable seasonably, adv See prec & -ly In a seasonable manner, at the appropriate season, opportunist seasonal, adj [1 sēzənəl, 2 sīzənəl] season (I) & -al Connected with, pertaining to, the seasons, or a season, occurring at special seasons of the year the seasonal migration of birds, seasonal changes of climate seasonally, adv Prec & -ly According to the seasons, at a special season, or at seasons seasoning, n [1 sēzənɪŋ, 2 sīzənɪŋ] season (II) & -ing 1 Act, process, by which anything is seasoned, made fit or palatable timber, food, needs seasoning 2 (lit and fig) That which seasons or renders palatable, condiment, spice add a little more seasoning, wit is the seasoning of good talk seasonless, adj [1 sēzənles, 2 sīzənles] Having no season or seasons, having a climate without distinct seasonal changes season-ticket, n A ticket issued by a railway company, &c, at a reduced rate for a stated period, entitling the holder to take as many journeys between two specified stations as he chooses during that period, b ticket giving right of entry to a series of entertainments &c, costing less than a series of tickets for individual performances sea-spider, n A spider crab, b a marine, spider-like arthropod of the order Pycnogonida sea-squirt, n An ascidian sea-sunflower, n A sea anemone sea-swallow, n A The common tern, b the stormy petrel seat (I), n [1 sīt, 2 sīt] OE sēat means 'ambush', ME sēat, 'seat', owes its meaning to the cogn ON sēta, fr wb indeed the word may be borrowed Both the OE & ON words represent the same gradational form fr the base wb gives us sit 1 That on which one sits, specif a anything made to sit upon, such as a chair, bench, stool &c, or suitable for sitting on, as a pile of cushions &c, accommodation for sitting, occupation of a seat all the seats in the room are occupied, you must take a seat on the floor, an old-fashioned carved seat, to take a seat, to sit down, to rise from one's seat, the king then took his seat upon the throne, b in symbolical Phr the seat of judgement, of mercy &c, the seats of the mighty 2 A That part of a stool, chair &c on which a person's body rests when sitting the seat of a chair, stool &c, b the part of the person upon which one rests when sitting, the buttocks, c that part of the clothing covering thus the seat of one's trousers, d (mach) a part of a machine on which another part rests or moves seat of an engine, valve &c 3 A Sitting accommodation, right to sit in a certain place a seat at a theatre, in a church, to buy, reserve, seats for a play, cricket match &c, b rank, position, membership of a specific body implied by occupation of particular seat, or one in particular place a seat on the bench, position of a judge, a seat on a board of directors, in the House of Lords &c, Phr to take one's seat in the House of Commons or Lords, to go through the formalities necessary after election, succession, or elevation, to lose one's seat, fail to be re-elected, a safe seat, constituency to which a particular person, or a member of a particular party, is certain to be elected 4 Manner, way, of sitting, esp when riding he has a good, poor, seat on a horse, a firm seat in the saddle 5 Place occupied by anything, site, location, habitat, principal, central, place where anything takes place or is carried on the seat of Government is at Westminster, news from the seat of war, the seat of the Muses, the lungs are the seat of the disease 6 A large house, esp one in the country, forming the principal residences on a private estate, regarded as the home of an individual, or of a family an old family seat in Somerset, many of the finest country seats are empty seat (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To place in, or on, a seat to seat a person in an armchair, Phr to be seated, to sit down, b (reflex) to seat oneself, to sit down 2 a To accommodate (person, oneself) with a seat or seats the vergers seated the large congregation, the public had to seat themselves where they could, b to furnish (building &c) with seats the theatre is seated for about 800, c (of building) to provide seats for (so many) the theatre will seat 800 3 To repair, put a new seat to, to reseat to seat a cane bottomed chair, to seat a pair of old breeches 4 To settle, plant with inhabitants, (usually reflex or in pass) to dwell, live in the Phoenicians began to seat themselves along the Mediterranean coast, a family long seated in Somerset

-seated, adj [1 sētd, 2 sīttd] In compounds, a having specified kind of seat cane-seated, b in deep seated, (of disease) well established, involving large area of the body

-seater, n [1 sēter, 2 sītse] In compounds Having so many seats (of motor-car &c) a two, four-seater (car) seating, vbl n [1 sētɪŋ, 2 sītɪŋ] 1 Act of providing with seats or a seat, or settling into seats the seating of the audience took a long time 2 Provision, arrangement, of seats for a building the seating of a theatre, church &c seatless, adj [1 sētləs, 2 sītlləs] Without, not provided with, a seat sea-trout, n Salmon trout, a true trout, Salmo trutta, which ascends rivers from the sea to breed sea-unicorn, n The narwhal sea-urchin, n See urchin A marine animal belonging to the class of echinoderms with organs enclosed in a globular, brittle, spiny shell, living on the sea-bottom sea-valve, n A sea-cook sea-wall, n A wall or embankment built to protect land from encroachment by the sea, or from being eroded by storms seaward, adj & n [1 sēwəd, 2 sītwd] sea & -ward 1 adj Directed, situated, toward the sea a seaward aspect 2 n Position toward the sea look to the seaward seaward(s), adv [1 sēwərd(z), 2 sītwd(z)] Toward the sea looking, travelling, seaward(s) sea-water, n The salt water of the sea sea-way, n 1 The progress made by a ship through the water, headway to make seaway 2 Place, position, in which a ship lies with the sea rolling in a heavy sea way seaweed, n [1 sēwēd, 2 sītwd] Any marine alga, any plant growing in the sea or on rocks covered by the sea according to the tide sea-wife, n Popular name for the wrasse sea-wind, n A sea breeze, wind blowing from the sea sea-wolf, n 1 A large sea fish belonging to the blenny family of the NE Atlantic, also called sea ot or wolf fish 2 A Viking, pirate, sea robber seaworthiness, n [1 sēwərdhɪnəs, 2 sītwdhɪnəs] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being seaworthy seaworthy, adj [1 sēwərdhɪ, 2 sītwdhɪ] sea & -worthy (of ships) Fit to go to sea, well built, rigged &c sea-wrack, n Floating seaweed, specif, thus when thrown up by the sea in large quantities sebaceous, adj [1 sēbāshəs, 2 sībē[əs]] Neo-Lat sebaceus, cp Lat sebum, 'a tallow candle', fr sebum, fr seivum*, 'fat, tallow', prob connected w soap & -aceous (physiol) Fatty, resembling, secreting, fat sebaceous secretions, sebaceous glands, small glands in the skin, usually associated with the hair follicles and sweat glands sebastian, -en, n [1 sebestan, 2 sēbēstan] Arab, fr Pers sebastan, fr sebastā, 'smelling badly' The plum-like fruit of an Assyria and Indian tree, Cordia, used in the East for pickles and in medicine sebundy, n [1 sebandi, 2 sībāndi] Hind & Pers sebandi Glass of irregular soldiers in the Indian Army sec (I), adj [1 sek, 2 sek] Fr, fr Lat siccus, 'dry' See siccative (of wine) Dry, unsweetened sec (II), n, abbr of secant secant, adj & n [1 sēkant, 2 sēkant] fr Lat secant (-em), Pres Part of secare, 'to cut', see section (geom) 1 adj Cutting, secant line, one cutting a line or curve 2 n a A secant line, b abbr sec, ratio of the secant line to the radius, reciprocal of cosine secateurs, n [1 sēkatēz, 2 sēkatēz] Fr, wrongly formed fr Lat seca (um), P P type of secare, 'to cut', see section (I) Pair of strong pruning scissors secco, n [1 sekō, 2 sekou] Ital, 'dry' See sec (I) Tempera painting, on dry plaster, contrasted with frresco secede, vb intrans [1 sēsēd, 2 sīsīd] fr Lat secedere, 'to go away, withdraw, separate from, revolt, secede' Sss se- & cede To withdraw, out oneself off, by a voluntary act, from a body of which one is a member, specif, to withdraw from membership of a religious body or, as a state, from a federation seceder, n [1 sēsēdor, 2 sīsīde] Prec & -er One who secedes, specif (cap and pl), the Seceders, Presbyterians who seceded from the established Church of Scotland in 1733 seccernment, adj & n [1 sēsērnment, 2 sīsērnment] Lat seccernere (-em), Pres Part of seccernere, 'to sift apart, to separate, to distinguish', see secrete & discern (physiol) 1 adj Secreting seccerned organs 2 n A seccernment or secreting organ, b drug acting as a stimulant of secretion secession, n [1 sēsēsən, 2 sīsēsən] fr Lat secessio (em), 'withdrawal, separation, secession', fr secess (um), P P type of secedere. See secede & -ion Act of seceding (from a political or religious body &c) secessionism, n [1 sēsēsənɪzəm, 2 sīsēsənɪzəm] Prec & -ism Doctrines, principles, policy, of a secessionist secessionist, n [1 sēsēsənɪst, 2 sīsēsənɪst] Sss prec & -ist One who advocates secession from some specific religious or political body seck, adj [1 sek, 2 sek] See sec (I) (law) Dry, barren, unprofitable, only in rent seck, one without power of distress seclude, vb trans [1 sēklūd, 2 sītklūd] fr Lat secludere, 'to shut up, shut off, seclude', fr se- & claudere, 'to shut, close', see close (I) 1 To shut up, apart from others, to keep away from others, to keep in seclusion Moslems seclude their wives in the harem, the prisoners were carefully secluded from intercourse with each other 2 (reflex) Seclude oneself, to withdraw, retire from society, or from intercourse with others, to live a retired and solitary life secluded, adj [1 sēklūdēd, 2 sītklūdēd] Prec & -ed Solitary, retired, remote, withdrawn from the world, esp of place a secluded spot secludedly, adv Prec & -ly In a secluded, retired manner, in retirement seclusion, n [1 sēklūʒən, 2 sītklūʒən] fr L Med Lat seclusio (em), fr Lat secludere (um), P P of secludere See seclude & -ion 1 Act of secluding Moslems still practise seclusion of their wives 2 State of being secluded, retirement, privacy in the seclusion of one's own house, aloofness from society to live in seclusion second (I), adj [1 sēkənd, sēkənt, 2 sēkənd, sēkənt] Fr, fr Lat secundus, 'following, second', fr base sel-*, 'to follow', w ger undive suff, see sequela 1 Ordinal number of two, immediately following the first in a series or of two things the second day of the month, the second finger of the right hand, second chapter of a book, here endeth the second lesson 2 Next to, following, the first in order of time the second person to swim the Channel, to go by the second train, the second child of his parents, second teeth, those which grow after the first or milk teeth are shed, the second king of the name Phr in the second place, secondly 3 Next to, following, the first in space, position, or place take the second turning to the right, the second floor or storey, one above the first 4 A occurring again, repeated, done over again do it, say it, a second time, the second time of asking, of banns of marriage, Phr second thoughts, opinions formed after reconsideration, b supplementary, additional to the first, another ask for a second helping, you need a second pair of boots 5 Next to the first in order of rank, dignity &c the second lady in the land, next to the Queen, a second secretary of legation, a second lieutenant, lowest rank of commissioned officer in the army 6 Inferior only to the first, lower than the first in number, size, importance, quality &c the second city of the empire, goods of second grade or quality Phr second to none, without a superior, equal to the best or first 7 Exactly, closely resembling another, serving as a counterpart he thinks himself a second Napoleon second (II), adv, fr prec In the second place, second in order, in importance &c will you play second?, after first player Phr to come second (in one's estimation, affections &c), to occupy a subordinate place second (III), n, fr second (I) 1 (in various elliptical uses of adj) a (of thing) The second of July, the second day of July, get into a second, second class of a train, to get a second in Greats, a second class in the examination so called at Oxford, Phr second of exchange, the second copy of a bill of exchange, b (of persons) to be the second (man) in a race, the horse was a poor, good, second, some distance from, close to, the winner at the finish James II, the Second, the second king of that name 2 Person next or inferior to the first in rank, position &c content to be a second to his rival, the second in command, an officer next in rank to the commanding officer 3 One who attends on and acts as supporter or assistant to another to act as a most useful second, to support, back up another in any matter, speak, one's seconds in a duel, those who represent one in making the preliminary arrangements, delivering challenges, and giving support and attendance on the field &c 4 (mus) a Interval between two tones of the diatonic scale, next tone above or below, b a lower part for voice or instrument arranged in harmony with that of the first voice or instrument which sings or plays the melody second (IV), o usually [1 sékunt, 2 sekant], but [1 sékund, 2 sekod] in careful, studied speech, fr Ir seconde, fr Med Lat minuta secunda, the secondary division of the minute 1 (as unit of time) a The sixtieth part of a minute the second subdivision of the hour, b a very short period of time, moment done in a few seconds, was a second for me, we mustn't lose a second 2 (as unit of angular measure) The sixtieth part of a minute, second subdivision of the degree symbol second (V), vb trans, fr second (III) 1 a To support back up to second a person's efforts, specif b to act as second to in a duel 2 (in Parliament, public meeting &c) To support a motion, proposal vote of thanks &c immediately after the mover of the motion &c, either by a speech, or merely by rising and formally stating intention of supporting it 3 [1 sékond, 2 sékond] To place (an officer) on temporary list for special service, military or civil outside his ordinary regimental or army service, for which he draws pay assigned to the special service, but not his regimental pay, through retaining regimental rank and seniority (chiefly in P P) seconded for service on the staff &c

Second Advent, n The second coming or return of Christ to the world, as judge and king, to establish His personal reign, the millennium

Second Adventist, n Prec & -ist One of a sect believing in the near approach of the Second Advent of Christ, or the millennium secondarily, adv [1 sékundarli, 2 sékondaril] secondary & -ly In a secondary manner, not primarily, not originally secondariness, n [1 sekundarnes, 2 sékondarnis] secondary & -ness State, quality, of being secondary secondary (I), adj [1 sékundari, 2 sékondari], fr Lat secundarius, 'belonging to the second class, inferior' See second & -ary 1 Second in order of rank or importance, inferior, subordinate, contrasted with primary of secondary weight, importance &c, a secondary post, secondary evidence, (law) indirect evidence 2 Coming after the first in time, in the second stage secondary symptoms of a disease, Secondary School, one coming after Primary or Elementary School, and leading to the University 3 In various specific uses a (astron) revolving round a primary planet a secondary planet, satellite, b (hol) of differences between the sexes, not directly connected with the reproductive processes secondary sexual characteristics, such as voice, colouration &c, o (chem) having some quality in the second degree, of second valency secondary cells secondary (II), n, fr prec A person who is secondary, subordinate, to another, one acting as deputy of another, b secondary thing, specif feather on second joint of wing second-best, adj & n second, adv, & best 1 adj Next to the best, of quality inferior to the best one's second best clothes Phr to come off second best, to get the worst of it 2 n That which is second best we ought not to be content with the second best second cabin, n A second class cabin or accommodation on board ship second cause, n A cause which is the effect of, or caused by, something else

Second Chamber, n The upper house in a legislature which consists of two chambers or houses second childhood, n Feebleness, childishness, of mind and body which comes in extreme old age, dotage, senility second class (I), n 1 The class in an honour examination next to the first to take, get, a second class in law 2 Second class compartment, ticket &c on a train or steamship can only afford a second class second-class (II), adj & adv 1 adj a inferior in quality, not of highest order, second rate a second class hotel, mind &c, b belonging to the class below the first, specif (i) belonging to a kind of accommodation in railway, or steamship, lower in price, and less luxurious than the first class, (u) Second-Class Honours (in University Degree Examination) awarded for attainments and performance not of the first order 2 adv Chiefly in Phr, to travel, go, second class, by railway, steamer &c

Second Coming, n See Second Advent second cousin, n The child of a parent's first cousin second distance, n (paint) The portion of a picture between the foreground and background, middle distance seconded, n [1 sékond, 2 sékond] Fr The second, parrying position in fencing seconded, n [1 sékonded; 2 sékonded] second (IV) & -or Person who seconds, or supports, specif, person who seconds a motion second-hand (I) adj & adv [1 sékund hánd, 2 sékond hánd] 1 Bought, or for sale, after use by previous owner, not new second hand clothes, books &c 2 (of knowledge, ideas &c) Derived from others, not discovered or invented for oneself, unoriginal Phr at second hand, by hearsay, not from personal knowledge or information 3 (as adv) To buy second hand, buy at reduced price, after use by another, to know, have, something second hand, got by hearsay second hand (II), n [1 sékund hánd, 2 sékond hánd] Rapidly moving, small hand on a watch or clock which marks the seconds, revolving in a small circle in the dial, and separate from the other hands secondly, adv [1 sékundli, 2 sékondli] second (I) & -ly In the second place second nature, n A habit, custom, tendency so long established that it has become instinctive and natural and unconsciously exercised avarice has become second nature in him secondo, n [1 sékondó, 2 sékondou] Ital, 'second' (mus) The second or lower part, second performer, singer, or instrumentalist, in a concerted piece, esp in a duet, for the pianoforte second-rate, adj & n 1 adj a Not of the first or superior rate or class a second rate ship, one rated in the second class, b inferior in quality, position &c a second rate mind, a second rate hotel &c 2 n Something which is second rate the second rate, inferiority, the mediocre second rater, n 1 A second-rate ship 2 (colloq) A second rate person, a person of inferior quality or standing second sight, n The faculty, claimed by, or attributed to, certain persons, of seeing, as in a vision, events, such as deaths, fatal accidents &c, before they occur, or objects such as corpse lights, shrouds &c giving warning of a coming death secrecy, n [1 sékret, 2 sékret] See secret & -cy 1 Secret conditions, state of concealment, state in which something happens, or is done, without common knowledge, freedom from observation, seclusion, privacy the Expeditionary Force was despatched with absolute secrecy, (fig) in the secrecy of one's own heart 2 Secretiveness, fidelity in keeping a secret I must rely on your secrecy in so confidential a matter secret (I), adj [1 sékret, 2 sékret] O Fr, fr Lat secretus, 'separated, set apart, secluded, secret', P P of secrevere, 'to set apart, sever, separate' See secrets 1 Deliberately hidden from the eye, and from common knowledge, designed to escape observation a secret door, staircase, drawer 2 a Done, made, carried out, or on, in secret, and without the fact being generally known a secret treaty, secret diplomacy &c, b (in had sense) clandestine, surreptitious a secret traffic in drugs, c (of persons) furtive secret in his habits 3 Remote, retired, secluded, hidden a secret pool, valley, the secret depths of the sea, 'in secret shades of woody Ida's inmost grove' (Milton, 'Il Penseroso', 289) 4 Mysterious, not revealed, difficult to discover or understand, inscrutable the secret ways of God, the secret workings of nature, of the human heart &c 5 Containing, based on, working by means of, a secret process a secret code, a secret padlock secret (II), n, fr prec 1 A fact known to, knowledge possessed by, a single person, or a small body of persons, which is not, and must not be divulged or disclosed, or he made common property, confidential information let us have no secrets between us Phrs to keep a secret, not to divulge it, an open secret, piece of information, supposed to be confidential, but which is widely known, in the secret, sharing possessed of, a secret 2 The true method by which something may be attained the secret of health is moderation in all things 3 The true explanation of something which is obscure key to understanding, hidden meaning shall we ever know the secret of Shakespeare's sonnets? 4 Something obscure and difficult to find out, something not commonly revealed and understood, a mystery the secrets of nature, of human motive secretaire, n [1 sekretär, 2 sekretéa] Fr form of secretary A writing-desk, secrétaire, bureau secretarial, adj [1 sekretarial, 2 sekretéariál] secretary & -al Connected with, pertaining to, a secretary secretarial duties, the office needs secretarial assistance, secretarial staff, members of an organization who perform the functions of secretaries secretariat, n [1 sekretariat, 2 sekretéaríat] Fr secrétariat See next word & -ate a The office of secretary, b body, staff, of secretaries, a secretarial staff secretary, n [1 sekretarí, 2 sekretári], fr Fr secrétaire, fr L Med Lat secrētarius, 'confidential, official' See secret (II) &

-ary 1 A person employed by another to help him in his correspondence, literary, or other work, and to act generally for him in a confidential capacity, also private secretary 2 Official of a company, or other corporation, in charge of correspondence, records, minutes &c, and acting generally as official representative, honorary secretary, one performing such duties without remuneration 3 One of the principal assistants to an ambassador or minister, often acting as his deputy secretary of embassy, legation 4 A Cabinet Minister, head of one of the great departments of State, the full official title being Secretary of State (see below) Home Secretary, Foreign Secre- tary &c, b the second responsible minister of a department, usually sitting in that House in which his principal does not sit Financial Secretary to the Treasury, Parliamentary or Under-Secretary, c the permanent official in charge of a department permanent (under-) secretary, or one of his principal assistants assistant secretary 5 An esquire, a secretaire 6 (typog) A form of type resembling hand writing secretary-bird, n A long-legged, large African bird, Serpentarius secretarius, bluish-grey and black in colour, with pen-like tufts behind the ears, whence its name

Secretary of State, n The full, official title of the responsible minister at the head of certain great departments of state; a (in Great Britain) now even in number - Secretary of State for Home Affairs, Foreign Affairs, the Dominions and Colonies, for War, for India, and (recently added) for Air, and for Scotland, usually styled Foreign Secretary, Colonial Secretary &c, b (USA) the member of the President's Council or Cabinet at the head of the department of foreign affairs, c (papacy) the Cardinal at the head of the administration and foreign department of the Vatican, acting as the Pope's chief minister secrete, vb trans [1 sekret, 2 sekretí], fr Lat secretum (um), PP type of secreta, 'to set apart, separate', fr sk, 'apart', see se-, & base (s)k^her-* &c, q v under erit, erisis, certain, & op riddle, 'sivo' 1 To put in a secret place, to hide away, conceal to secrete stolen goods, the corpse of a murdered person, to secrete oneself, to hide 2 (physiol and biol) of glands and organs To gather from the system by chemical process and give out as a secretion secretion, n [1 sekretshun, 2 sekretshun] Lat secretum (em) See pro & -ion 1 Act of secreting, concealing, or hiding, concealment the secretion of stolen goods 2 (physiol) A process carried out by the glands in secreting, b that which is secreted and given out by the glands secretive (I), adj [1 sekretív, sekretív, 2 sekretív, sekretív] secret (I) & -ive (of persons, characters &c) Inclined to conceal from others one's thoughts, feelings, intentions, plans &c, unduly reserved or reticent, uncommunicative, furtive secretive (II), adj [1 sekretív, 2 sekretív] secrete & -ive Promoting, causing, secretion, secretory secretively, adv secretive (I) & -ly In a secretive manner, reticently, furtively secretiveness, n See pro & -ness Secretive habit of mind, practice of being secretive secretly, adv [1 sekretli, 2 sekretli] secret (I) & -ly In secret, not openly, privately, covertly

secretary, adj [1 sekretári, 2 sekretári] secrete & -ory Secreting, connected with, producing, the physiological process of secretion secretory glands, organs secret service, n 1 Secret work or duties on behalf of the state, in obtaining information of political, military, naval, character, and concerning foreign states, of discovering political crimes &c, espionage 2 Official department undertaking such service, those engaged in such service

sect, n [1 sekt, 2 sekt], fr O Fr sekte, fr Lat secta, 'a path, a method, a school of thought, a following', &c, fr base seg, 'follow', see sequela, but early associated w secl, the PP type of seclre, 'to out', see section (I), & words there referred to Body of persons who hold certain philosophical or religious doctrines in common, esp a body whose beliefs are at variance with those commonly held, or which are in contrast to those of other schools of thought, the word is now usually applied specifically to a group of persons holding peculiar opinions on religion, and in particular to a schismatic body which has seceded from the Church of England, or of Scotland, (gen used disparagingly) a mere sect &c sectarian, adj & n [1 sektarian, 2 sektéarian] sectary & -an 1 adj Pertaining to, characteristic of, a sect or sects, tending towards the formation of a sect, supporting, devoted to, the interests and principles of a sect (usually in disparaging sense) sectarian animosities, sectarian education, parties in the Church may easily become sectarian 2 n An adherent of a sect, a sectary sectarianism, n [1 sektarianism, 2 sektéar-ianism] Pro & -ism 1 Habit of mind, mode of thought, line of conduct, conducive to the formation of sects, or of a sect 2 Condition in which sects develop, foot of sectarian tendencies being in existence, reverse of uniformity or orthodoxy sectarianize, vb trans [1 sektarianíz, 2 sektéar-ianíz] See pro & -ize To make sectarian, to imbue with sectarian tendencies and principles sectary, n [1 sektári, 2 sektári] See sect & -ary A sectarian, member of a religious sect or faction, applied specifically by the Cavaliers to a member of the body called Independents at the time of the Great Rebellion seethe, adj [1 séktil, 2 séktil], fr Lat sechilis, 'out, oiled, divided', fr secl (um), PP type of seclre, 'to out', see section (I), & -ile Capable of being out, esp (of mineral such as mica) capable of being out smoothly with a knife section (I), n [1 eskshun, 2 eskjen], fr Lat sectio (em), 'a cutting, a cutting off, or up', formed fr sect (um), PP type of seclre, 'to out' See further derivatives fr same base under segment, saw (III), saw, scythe, sickle &c 1 Act, process, of cutting the section of bones and muscles 2 That which is cut off from anything, a severed portion of anything a triangular section of cloth, cheese &c, wood cut into sections, specif, a thin slice of an object prepared for microscopic examination section of rock, diseased bone &c 3 Any one of a set of separable parts of a whole, one of the separate parts of something, made to be joined or fitted together to form a whole the jointed sections of a cane, plant-stem, a section of a lead pipe, of a fishing rod, a wooden hut, boat, machine &c, built in sections 4 Any distinct, separate part of anything, as of surface, area, distance, time &c a section of a road, railway, journey, day &c 5 A subdivision of a written treatise, of a speech, of a subject &c, a heading, specif, a subdivision of a chapter, statute, legal document, or other writing, usually marked by the symbol § 6 A definite, distinct part, division, class, of a community, group of individuals having some characteristic in common a section of the population, the various sections of Christendom 7 a (mil) One of the four subdivisions of a platoon of infantry, troop of cavalry, or battery of artillery, b (zool) a natural subdivision of a genus, group, family &c, not used as a strict term of classification 8 (geom) The cutting, intersection, of a solid by a plane, figure so produced, specif, conic section, one of the three curves, ellipse, parabola, and hyperbols, formed by the cutting of the surface of a cone by a plane, (in pl) conic sections, the branch of geometry treating of such curves 9 Also, representation, view of an object, such as a geological formation, earthwork, building, machine &c, regarded as having been cut through by an intersecting plane and thus showing its interior or internal structure, styled horizontal, longitudinal, vertical, section, according to the direction of the intersecting plane section (II), vb trans, fr pro 1 To cut, divide, into sections 2 To arrange in sections 3 To show, exhibit, represent, by a section sectional, adj [1 eskshunál, 2 eskshunál] section (I) & -al 1 Pertaining to, having reference to, a section or sections, to part or parts of a whole, individual, local sectional arrangement of a subject, sectional differences, quarrels, interests &c 2 Divided, cut up, into sections, composed of, arranged in, sections or by a section a sectional boat, boiler &c, a sectional plan of a building sectionalism, n [1 eskshunálizm, 2 eskshunálizm] Pro & -ism Tendency to lay stress on a section or part of whole, or tendency to regard disproportionately the interests of a section or class of the community sectionally, adv [1 eskshunál, 2 eskshunál] See pro & -ly By, in sections, in a sectional manner

section mark, n The symbol § used to mark a section in a book &c sector, n [1 sékter, 2 sékte] Lat, 'a cutting', secl -as in section (I), & -or 1 A An astronomical instrument for measuring differences of declination, b a mathematical measuring instrument or jointed rule, marked with various scales 2 (geom) Portion of a circle enclosed between the arc and two radii drawn from the centre to the arc 3 (mil) A section or division of a fortified line sectorial, adj & n [1 sektorial, 2 sektorial] sector & -ial 1 adj Referring to the teeth of carnivorous animals, adapted for cutting, like scissors, with corresponding tooth in the other jaw 2 n A sectorial tooth secular (I), adj [1 sékular, 2 sékule], fr O Fr seculer, fr Lat saecularis, 'of, belonging to, a saeculum or ago', hence, 'worldly', temporal, secular', fr saeculum, saeculum, saeculum, 'age, period of a man's life, generation, period of a hundred years, an indefinitely long period', the older form was sai ilom*, & the first syll is fr base sai*, 'seed, sowing' &c, q v under semen, season, for the development of meaning of the cogn Goth seps, 'seed', see seed & sow (II), vb occurs in compound mana seps, lit 'seed of man', hence 'humanity, the world' Cp also etymol of world 1 (Rom antiq) Of, belonging to, occurring once in, a generation or age, occurring once in a very long time, as secular games (judi saeculares), celebrated at long intervals of from 100 to 120 years, secular hymn, ode, poem written for and rooted at the celebration of the secular games 2 Continued through the ages, extending over, lasting a very long or indefinite period of time, occurring in, accomplished during, a very long period of time, contrasted with recurrent or periodical, a (of astron and physical phenomena or processes) secular cooling of the earth, changes in temperature, secular acceleration of the moon's motions &c. b (poet.) extremely old, aged the secular oaks, c (of states of mind &c) permanent, persistent, age long the secular enemy of Slav and Teuton 3 a Pertaining to this world, concerned with worldly things, worldly, temporal, contrasted with spiritual or religious concerned only with secular affairs, secular music, secular education, education which excludes all definite religious teaching, specif b not ecclesiastical, apart from, not owned by, an ecclesiastical organization, authority &c, civil, lay the secular power, secular property, secular courts, handed over to the secular arm for punishment 4 (R C Ch) Not monastic, not bound by a monastic vow or rule, contrasted with regular the secular orders, priesthood, clergy, parish priests &c 5 Connected with, pertaining to, secularism and its principles secular (II), n, fr prec (R C Ch) A secular or parish priest secularism, n [1 sêkularizm, 2 sêkularizem] secular (I) & -ism a Theory, doctrine, that the definite separation of the State from ecclesiastical and religious matters is desirable, contrasted with clericalism, b specif (cap) a system of political philosophy or social ethics, founded on natural, practical morality, wholly divorced from religious faith or teaching, so called by its chief exponent, G J Holyoake secularist, n & adj [1 sêkularist, 2 sêkularist] See prec & -ist 1 n A believer in, supporter of, secularism 2 adj Based on, pertaining to, advocating, secularism secularity, n [1 sêkularita, 2 sêkularita] secular (I) & -ity State, quality, of being secular, secularism secularization, n [1 sêkularizatsiun, 2 sêkularizatsiun] secularize & -ation Act of secularizing, state of being secularized, conversion from ecclesiastical or religious to civil or lay ownership, use &c secularize, vb trans [1 sêkulariz, 2 sêkulariz] secular (I) & -ize To render, make, secular Specif 1 to transfer from ecclesiastical or spiritual ownership, use, authority &c., to secular, temporal, civil, or lay ownership &c. 2 to secularize church property, courts &c 3 To make worldly or unspiritual, to exclude religion, or religious teaching or worship from to secularize education, a secularized Sunday 3 (R C Ch) To absolve from monastic or regular vows to secularize a monk, a regular priest secularly, adv [1 sêkulari, 2 sêkulari] secular (I) & -ly In a secular manner secund, adj [1 sêkund, 2 sêkund] Lat secundus, 'following' See second (I) (bot. of flowers, leaves &c) Growing, arranged, on one side of the stem only secundine, n [1 sêkundin, 2 sêkundin] Formed fr Lat secundus, see second (I), & -ine 1 (bot) The second membrane or integument covering an ovule or nucleus 2 (med) Placenta, afterbirth secundum, prep [1 sêkundum, 2 sêkundum] Lat See second. According to, in Phrs secundum ortem, according to art, science, skill, skilfully, scientifically, secundum legem, according to law, legally, secundum naturam, according to nature, naturally, secundum quid according to something, in some, one, respect with a certain limitation securable adj [1 sêkrabl, 2 sêkrabl] secure & -able Capable of being secured secure (I), adj [1 sêkur, 2 sêkur] Lat securus, 'free from care, free from danger, safe secure' See see & -ure 1 Free from care, anxiety, or apprehension, easy in mind, not fearing for the future, undisturbed, untroubled, as to the future to have one's mind secure, to feel secure about, as to, the future a peaceful and secure old age 2 a (of persons) Secure of, confident, certain, assured having no doubt about secure of success, victory, b (of hopes, beliefs &c) certain, well founded, firmly fixed we live in the secure hope of immortality 3 Free from, not exposed to, danger, made safe, capable of resisting an attack the danger is past and the town is now secure, also secure from, against secure from, against, attack, all enemies 4 Firm, stable, not likely to fall, collapse, or give way the foundations of the house do not seem very secure, make the fastenings more secure 5 In safe keeping, firmly held or fastened, secured to hold a secure position, keep the prisoners secure secure (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To make safe or secure, to put into a condition of safety, to guard, protect, against danger to secure a town against assault, starvation, to secure oneself against the cold 2 To make safe against loss or damage, to insure, to guarantee a fully secured debt or loan, to secure oneself against accidents, risks &c Phr (mil) to secure arms, hold a rifle in a position, as under the armpit, with muzzle down, to protect the breech mechanism or lock from wet 3 To confirm, make certain, the possession and enjoyment of (rights, privileges &c) Magna Charta secured for ever the liberties of Englishmen, b to devise, make succession of certain by will to secure one's property to one's son 4 To make fast or secure, to fasten firmly to secure a door, window, b to confine, keep in safe custody the prisoner was at once secured 5 To get hold of, obtain possession of I have at last secured a house, a good bargain, I managed to secure an excellent horse, a good dinner &c securely, adv [1 sêkuri, 2 sêkuri] secure (I) & -ly In a secure manner, safely secureness, n [1 sêkurnes, 2 sêkurnes] See prec & -ness a State of being secure, b sense of security, freedom from anxiety or danger securiform, adj [1 sêkuriferm, 2 sêkuriferm], fr Lat securus, 'axe', fr base *sel-, 'to cut', see section, & -form (bot and zool) Shaped like an axe, hatchet shaped security, n [1 sêkurita, 2 sêkurita] Fr securité, fr Lat securitas (em), 'freedom from care, unconcern, safety' See secure & -ity 1 State of being secure, safety, freedom from danger, injury, harm of any sort during the war some spies managed to live in England in security for a long time, Magna Charta gives us security against infringement of our liberties 2 Sense of being secure, belief, conviction, that one is safe one feels great security in the presence of a strong and brave personality 3 That which gives security, protection, defence, safeguard, a (in physical sense) strong bolts and a good watchdog are my securities against burglars, b (in moral sense) the law and the man's own conscience are sufficient security against any further molestation from him 4 (commerce) a Something of value deposited as pledge of repayment, and as protection against financial loss, guarantee security for a loan &c, b person who guarantees repayment, undertakes to indemnify in case of another's default, a surety 5 (usually pl) Securities, bonds, share certificates, title deeds of land or houses, or other evidences of ownership of property my securities are all lodged in the bank

sedan-chair, n [1 sêdan ôâr, 2 sêdan tje], fr Sedan, in France, where first used A portable covered chair for one person, borne by two bearers by means of poles, used in the 17th and 18th cents sedate, adj [1 sêdat, 2 sêdat], fr Lat sedatus, 'composed, calm, sedate', fr PP type of sedare, 'to calm, allay, still', fr base sed-, gradational variant of sed-, 'sit', q v under sedentary (of persons, manner, mode of expression) Calm, unruffled, composed, tranquil, staid, decorous, reverse of boisterous, excitable &c sedately, adv See & -ly In a sedate manner sedateness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being sedate sedative, adj & n [1 sêdativ, 2 sêdativ] Fr sedatif. See sedate & -ive 1 adj Having the property of calming, soothing, composing, bodily or mental pain or excitement 2 n Something which produces a sedative effect, (med) a sedative drug se defendendo, adv [1 sê dèfendendô, 2 dèfendendô] Lat, 'in defending himself, in self defence' (law) Plea in cases of homicide sedentarily, adv [1 sêdentari, 2 sêdentari] sedentary & -ly In a sedentary manner sedentariness, n [1 sêdentarnes, 2 sêdentarnes] See prec & -ness State of being sedentary, sedentary habits sedentary (I), adj [1 sêdentari, 2 sêdentari] fr Lat sedentarius, fr sedent-(em), Pres Part of sedere, 'to sit', & -ary, the base *sed-, 'sed &c', 'to sit', is found in various forms in most Aryan languages, Sanskrit sadas, 'seat' &c, Gk hêzoma, 'to sit', for *sed jo, hêzoo, 'seat', also hêdra, see cathedral, cp further sedate, sit, seat, set (I) 1 Sitting, keeping still, contrasted with active, mobile, bustling, specif a involving prolonged periods of sitting and enforced bodily inactivity sedentary occupation, clerks lead a sedentary life, b (of persons) compelled, or choosing, to lead a life of bodily inactivity, not taking much exercise, c sedentary habits, those of sitting still, not moving about, of taking little or no exercise 2 (of birds and animals) a Remaining in one country, not migratory, b remaining fixed to one spot, not moving, or able to move, about sedentary (II), n. Person or animal of sedentary habits sederunt, n [1 sêderunt, 2 sêderunt] Lat, 'they sat, there sat', 3rd pers pl, past tense of sedere, 'to sit' See sedentary A formal meeting of a deliberative or legislative body, a session, a sitting, b (gen) a formal, or informal, meeting of any body of persons, for discussion or ordinary conversation sedge, n [1 sêj, 2 sêj] O E secg, ME secge prob fr base *seg-, *sex-, 'to cut', variant of *sel-, see section cogn w sax saw (III) scythe, the meaning is 'cutting grass', cp the name sword grass, a species of sedge Any of various species of coarse perennial, grass-like plants, growing in tufts in marshy or swampy places, of the genus Carex, with long, narrow, sharp edged or serrated leaves and flowering spikelets, often used loosely of marsh or swamp grasses generally sedge-warbler, n A small brown and white European bird, one of the warblers, building in sedges and reeds sedgey, adj [1 sêji, 2 sêji] sedge & -y Overgrown, fringed, with sedge, resembling sedge sedilia, n pl [1 sêdilia, 2 sêdilia] Lat, pl of sedile, 'seat, stool, bench', fr base sed-, 'sit' See sedentary A set of seats, usually of stone, and three in number, set or recessed in the wall on the south side of the chancel of a church, intended originally for the priest, deacon, and subdeacon and often surmounted by a stone canopy and otherwise decorated sediment, n [1 sêdiment, 2 sêdiment] Fr, fr Lat sedimentum, 'anbundance, settling down', fr base sed-, 'sit' See sedentary That which settles to the bottom of a liquid, matter deposited by a liquid or by action of water, dregs, lees of wine &c sedimentary, adj [1 sêdimentari, 2 sêdimentari] Prec & -ary Pertaining to, of the nature of, containing, sediment, (geol) sedimentary rocks, formed by sedimentation, as sandstones, limestones &c sedimentation, n [1 sêdimentatsiun, 2 sêdimentatsiun] sediment & -ation Process of depositing sediment, precipitation of solid matter from solution sedition, n [1 sedishun, 2 sidifən] O Fr, fr Lat sedition-(em), 'a going apart or aside, civil dissension or discord, sedition', see se-, the second element is stōn (em), 'a going, travelling', fr base st-, extension of base t-*, 'to go', see itinerate & op exit 1 An offence against the crown and government, not amounting to treason, and therefore not capital, any act, writing, speech &c directed unlawfully against state authority, the government or constitution, or one calculated to bring it into contempt or to incite others to hostility, ill-will, or disaffection 2 Tumult, public commotion, riot, not amounting to insurrection or rebellion seditions, adj [1 sedishus, 2 sidifəs], fr Lat seditionus, fr sedīt, as in preo, &-ous 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, likely to cause or arouse, sedition a seditions assembly, society, seditions act, speech, seditions libel 2 (of persons) Guilty of, imbued with, sedition seditionally, adv Preo &-ly In a seditions manner seditionsness, n See preo &-ness Quality of being seditions seduce, vb trans [1 sedūs, 2 sidjūs], fr Lat seducere, 'to lead, draw away or apart, to separate', in eccles Lat, 'to lead astray, seduce', fr se- & dūcere, 'to lead, draw', see duct 1 A To corrupt, debauch, lead astray, persuade, entice (away from virtue and good conduct) to seduce a person from loyalty, into idleness &c, specif b to persuade (a woman) to surrender chastity 2 (in innocent sense) To attract greatly, charm, entice I was seduced by the beauty of the evening into staying out of doors till past midnight seducement, n [1 sedūment, 2 sidjūment] Preo &-ment (not much used) 1 Act of seducing, seduction 2 That which seduces, attracts, charms seducer, n [1 sedūser, 2 sidjūser] See preo &-er One who seduces, specif, one who seduces a woman seducing, adj [1 sedūing, 2 sidjūing], fr Preo Part of seduce Having power to seduce, seductive seducingly, adv Preo &-ly In a seducing manner seduction, n [1 sedūkshun, 2 sidākshən] Fr, fr Lat seductiō (em), fr seduct (um), PP type of seducere, see seduce, &-ion 1 A Act of seducing, specif b act, crime, of seducing a woman 2 That which seduces, means taken to seduce, a (in bad sense) wiles, blandishments, temptations, arts employed to seduce, corrupt, lead astray in spite of the seductions which ingenuity could devise, or which promised wealth could provide, he remained loyal to his allegiance, b (in innocent sense) powerful attraction, charm, allurements the seductions of country life, of one's favourite study &c seductive, adj [1 sedūktrv, 2 sidāktrv] See preo &-ive A Providing, exhibiting, full of, seductions, alluring, charming, winning, (chiefly in innocent sense) a seductive smile, the cool shade of the forest was most seductive after the heat of the sun, b persuasive seductive eloquence seductively, adv Preo &-ly In a seductive manner seductiveness, n See preo &-ness Quality of being seductive sedulity, n [1 sedūlta, 2 sidjūlta], fr Lat sedulitāt (em), 'assiduity, application, zeal' See sedulous &-ity Quality of being sedulous sedulous, adj [1 sedūlus, 2 sidjūlus], fr Lat sedulus, 'diligent, industrious, assiduous', lit 'without deceit, craft, or fraud', hence, honest showing application and devotion (to duty &c), fr sed, 'without', see se-, & dulus, 'device, artifice, deceit' &c, cogn w Gk dolos, 'craft, cunning', O HG sāl, 'enare, trap', further connexions are doubtful (of persons and actions) Diligent, persistent, assiduous, careful, painstaking in pursuit and accomplishment of an object sedulously, adv Preo &-ly In a sedulous manner sedulousness, n See preo &-ness Quality of being sedulous, sedulous action sedum, n [1 sedūm, 2 sidūm] Lat sedum, 'house leek', prob fr sed*, root of sedere, 'to sit' See sedentary (bot) A very large genus of perennial herbs, including the stonecrops, with fleshy stems and leaves and white, yellow, or pink flowers, growing chiefly on rocks or walls see (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sē, 2 sī] O E seon, fr sehwan* (op Goth sawhwan, 'to see'), M E seen &c, OS, OHG sehan The view that this Gmc word was derived fr the base sek-*, 'to follow', op sequela, & that the orig sense was 'to follow with the eyes', is now abandoned Etymologists prefer to relate the word to say (I), the basal meaning is 'to see', & 'say' is a derivative sense, see further under sign A trans 1 To perceive with the eyes, obtain a visual impression of animals appear to see things invisible to human sight, we see many things whose uses we do not know Phrs first saw the light, was born, I don't see it in that light, don't regard it in that way, to see the last of (person or thing), get rid of, have done with, to see one's way to doing something, feel disposed to do it, manage to do it, to come, go, and see, or to see (a person), to pay a visit to, call upon, see p 60 &c, look at, refer to, mode of reference to passage in a book &c, to see a person home, to the door, as far as the station &c, accompany him, to see a person further, damned, first, i e before consenting to his suggestion &c, expressing absolute refusal, to see something through, attend to it until it is completed and done, to wait on to the end, to see a person through his troubles &c, give him full support 2 To perceive with the intelligence, grasp intellectually, understand, appreciate bearing of to see the meaning of, to see an argument, a point in discussion, I see what you mean, now you see why I did that, I see how it is, I see that I'm not wanted Phrs to see a joke, perceive humour of, he can't see a joke, has no sense of humour, as I see it, as it appears to me, not to see the use, the good, the fun, of (something), to doubt whether it be of any use &c 3 To have experience of, live through, to witness, come across, to have brought to one's knowledge, or under one's observation he has seen a good deal in his long life, to see war at close quarters, I have seen the time when the poor could not afford meat, I never saw such rudeness Phrs *to see life, gain experience of the world, to see service, to serve, esp as a soldier or sailor, or in some other official capacity, he, it, has seen better days, (1) (of person) he has been prosperous, but is now poor, (2) (of object) it is old and shabby, or worn out 4 To have the illusion, hallucination, that one sees, to have a vision of to see things in dreams Phrs *to see stars, have impression of flashes of light before the eyes, through excessive stimulus of optic nerve caused by blow on the head &c, to see snakes, suffer from delusions through delirium tremens 5 To perceive by imagination, to visualize, form, call up, mental conception of, to imagine poets see many things in man and in nature to which the ordinary man is blind, I can't quite see myself at a ball, I see thee old and formal, fitted to thy petty part (Tennyson, 'Locksley Hall') 6 A To look at, be spectator of to see a play, the latest actors &c, b to become acquainted with, to study, understand, learn appearance and character of, by seeing, inspecting, and examining *to see the sights, to see Rome, Americans manage to see Oxford in a few hours, to see a house before taking it, c specif, to examine for purpose of discovering what is wrong he seems very ill, the doctor ought to see him at once, have a man to see the drains 7 A To meet, come across, come into social contact with (persons) I haven't seen you for ages, I hope to see him for a few minutes tomorrow, I am very pleased to see you, b to come upon, have under one's notice, observe, take cognizance of (things) *I have just seen the book, but haven't yet read it, have you seen today's paper?, I saw an interesting story the other day 8 A To interview, grant an interview or audience to the Rector will see those wishing to consult him in the vestry, I'm too busy to see you now, b to have an interview with, to consult *to see one's lawyer about something, I should like to see a doctor 9 To take care that, take steps to secure that, make sure that *kindly see that every thing is properly done, I'll see that he comes to no harm, also see to it that B in trans 1 A To have the faculty of sight very young animals do not see, 'eyes have they, but they see not' (Ps cv 5) b to make use of the eyes for a given purpose, or at a given moment *I can't see to read, I can't see as far as that, Phr to see no further than one's nose, (fig) to be mentally obtuse, lack penetration 2 To have an intellectual perception, to understand, to grasp a meaning, perceive significance of a fact, statement &c *the whole thing was a mistake, don't you see?, oh, I see now, he was only joking all the time 3 To look in order to find out something; to recognize, make survey, to make inquiry *I think the post has come, I will go and see Phr to see for oneself, make inquiries at first hand 4 To consider, reflect, think things over, deliberate will you come to dinner tomorrow? well, I'll see, let me see, what was I saying? C Followed by preposition or adverb *See about, to attend to, pay attention to, look, inquire into, to take steps to do *we must see about the matter at once, do see about packing, I will see about it at some time or other *See after, trans, to take care of, pay heed to *to see after one's own interests See into, intrans, to examine, make inquiries about, investigate *to see into the state of a business See off, trans, to accompany, attend a person till he goes away *to see one off at the station, to see a man off the premises See out, trans, to wait till the end of, to see a thing finished *to see out a long play, whatever happens I will see the struggle out See over, intrans, to examine, inspect thoroughly *to see over a house, the premises &c See through, intrans, to understand thoroughly *to see through a person, his motives, game &c, to perceive the duplicity of, Phr to see through a brick wall, to have uncommon power of mental penetration *See to, to attend to, I will leave you to see to the business see (II), n, fr O Fr se, ses, sies, fr Lat sedes, 'seat', fr base sed, 'to sit', see sedentary The ecclesiastical unit over which a bishop or archbishop rules, geographical area covered by thus, diocese the See of Oxford, Lincoln, Rome &c, bishops reside in their sees for the greater part of the year seed (I), n [1 sēd, 2 sīd] O E sēd, M E sēde, OS sād, OHG sāt, fr base sē*, 'se, op Lat stemen, see semen, cerere, 'to sow' Cogn w Lith siū, 'to sow', seklā, 'seed', O Slav sjā, 'to sow' See further under sow (II) 1 (bot) a Fertilized germ produced by a plant, and capable of developing into, and reproducing another plant of the same kind of fifty seeds She often brings but one to bear (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam', LV), b a number of seeds collectively to sow seed in the ground, used also of potato tubers whence new plants are produced *potato seed, Phr to run to seed, (of plants) to produce seed in abundance and cease sending up shoots, and producing flowers for the season (also fig, of persons) to become intellectually stolid, or physically feeble, to sow the good seed, to disseminate good influence, sound doctrines and principles, sowing, those of the Gospel 2 The fertile, reproductive element, in male animals, sperm, milt, hence (fig) descendants, offspring, posterity *the seed of Abraham segmentally, adv Prec & -ly In segments segmentary, adj [1. ségmentari, 2. ségmentari] segment (I) & -ary Segmental segmentation, n [1. ségmentáshun, 2. ségmentáshun] segment (II) & -ation 1 Act, process, of dividing or splitting up into segments 2 Specif (biol) formation of cells by cleavage segmented, adj [1. ségmentéd, 2. ségmentéd] segment (II) & -ed Divided, separated, marked off in segments, jointed, articulated segment gear, n Gear, wheel, with cogs on a segment only of the circle segment saw, n A One made in form of segment of a circle, b one made in segments, c one for cutting material into segments segregate (I), vb trans & intrans [1. ségregát, 2. ségregát] pedantically [1. ségregát, 2. ségregát] on account of Lat se & greg-, stem of greg-, 'a flock' See gregarious 1 trans To ont off, separate from others or the main body or mass, to set apart, isolate 2 intrans To become separated from a main body or mass, specif (of crystals &c) to separate and collect round a nucleus or line of fractures segregate (II), adj, fr prec Segregated, set apart, solitary segregation, n [1. ségregáshun, 2. ségregáshun] fr Lat ségregátion (em) See prec & -ion A Act, process, of segregating, b state of being segregated, c segregated group of persons or objects &c segregative, adj [1. ségregatív, 2. ségregatív] segregate (I) & -ive A Tending to segregate, b characterized by segregation seiche, n [1. oish, 2. seich] Swiss Fr., etymol doubtful, rather a dialectal variant of Fr seiche, 'dry', see see, or fr Germ seiche, 'sinking' Slight variation in level, oscillation of the surface of a lake, or land-locked sea, duo to changes in atmospheric pressure

Sedlitz powder, n [1. sédltz powder, 2. sédltz powder] fr name of village and mineral spring in Czechoslovakia A saline aperient medicine, an artificial powdered preparation from the mineral water of Sedlitz, mixed with powdered tartaric acid as an effervescent seigneur, seigneur, n [1. sányör, sányör, 2. seinyör, seinyör] O Fr, fr Lat See senior, sir, sire Feudal lord, lord of the manor, grand seigneur, a great nobleman, person of distinguished appearance, manners &c seignorage, n [1. sányur, 2. seinyuridz] O Fr Prec & -age A Right, due, of a feudal overlord, b percentage, royalty, specif c right to a percentage on all bullion brought to the royal mint for coining, profit made on coins issued at a rate above their intrinsic value seignioralty, n [1. sányuralty, 2. seinyuralty] Prec & -ty Seignior seigniorial, adj [1. sányórial, 2. seinyórial] seignior & -ial Of, pertaining to, a seignior, to a feudal lord, or to a lord of a manor, manorial seignior, n [1. sányori, 2. seinyori] O Fr seigneurie See seignior & -y A Jurisdiction, authority, of a seignior or feudal lord, b territory, domain, over which this extends, c (hist) the municipal council of a mediæval Italian city republic seine, n & vb trans & intrans [1. sân, 2. seîn] M E seyne, fr O Fr seigne, Mod Fr seine, fr Lat segena, fr Gk agênê, 'a fishing-net', origin obscure 1 n Large fishing net, the upper edge of which is kept near surface of water by floats, while the net is kept in vertical position by sinkers attached to lower edge, the net is drawn in together with the fish inside 2 vb a trans To catch (fish) with a seine, b intrans, to fish with a seine seize, vb See seize seizin, n See seizin seismal, adj [1. sizmal, 2. seismal] seismo- & -al. Seismic seismic, adj [1. sizmik, 2. sizmik] seismo- & -ic Pertaining to, caused by, an earthquake or earthquakes seismo-, pref, fr Gk seismós, 'earthquake', fr seiein, 'to shake', for tweiein*, cp Sort teiein, 'to be violently shaken, be upset', used in scientific compound words expressing ideas connected with earthquakes seismogram, n [1. sizmogram, 2. seizmogram] seismo- & -gram Record of an earthquake or tremor made by a seismograph seismograph, n [1. sizmograf, 2. seizmograf] seismo- & -graph Instrument which records in diagrammatic form the motions or oscillation of an earthquake seismographer, n [1. sizmografer, 2. seizmografer] Prec & -er One who uses a seismograph, recorder, observer, of earthquakes seismographic(al), adj [1. sizmografik(l), 2. seizmografik(l)] See prec & -ic & -al A Pertaining to, shown by, a seismograph, b pertaining to seismography seismography, n [1. sizmografi, 2. seizmografi] seismo- & -graphy Art of observing and recording earthquakes by means of a seismograph seismological, adj [1. sizmologik, 2. seizmologik] seismo- & -logical Pertaining to seismology seismologist, n [1. sizmólojist, 2. seizmólojist] seismo- & -logist One who studies, specializes in, seismology.

seismology, n [1. sizmólógj, 2. seizmólógj] seismo- & -logy The science of earthquakes seismometer, n [1. sizmómeter, 2. seizmómeter] seismo- & -meter Instrument for measuring the direction and intensity of earthquakes seismometric, adj [1. sizmómétrik, 2. seizmómétrik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, a seismometer or seismometry seismometry, n [1. sizmómétru, 2. seizmómétru] seismo- & -metry Measurement of the intensity &c of earthquake shocks seismoscope, n [1. sizmoskóp, 2. seizmoskóp] seismo- & -scope Apparatus used for detecting occurrence of earthquakes and earth tremors seizable, adj [1. sézabl, 2. sizabl] seize & -able Capable of being seized seize, vb trans & intrans [1. séz, 2. siz] M E seisen &c, 'to put in, take possession, to give seizin of land &c', fr O Fr seiser &c, fr L Lat seisire, 'to take possession of', etymol doubtful A trans 1 (law) a (the orig sense) To put into possession of, put into seizin of (with of and usually in P P) to stand, to, seized of the manor &c of A &c, b to take possession of by warrant or other legal process, to impound, attach, confiscate 2 To take possession of suddenly or by force, also seize on to seize the throne, reins of power Phrs to seize an idea, appropriate it (from someone else), adopt it, to seize on, upon, a suggestion 3 To grasp with the hand, take hold of forcibly, to clutch, grab to seize a rope, a stick, to seize a person by the arm, throat &c, also seize hold of Phr to seize an opportunity, the occasion, to make use of, avail oneself of it, with alacrity 4 Only in construction to be seized with, to be suddenly affected, struck, attacked, by (dis ease) to be seized with grief, a fit of coughing, a mortal illness &c, also to be seized with remorse, terror, pity &c 5 To understand, see, grasp firmly and rapidly with the mind, to get into one's head I can't quite seize your meaning, to seize the importance of a statement &c 6 (naut) To lash, fasten together (ropes), with small pieces of cord &c to seize up, to tie (a man) up with cords, esp to tie up to rigging or mast to flog him B intrans (of mach or part of it) To stick, adhere, jam, bind, esp from great heat, undue friction &c, also seize up seizure, n [1. sézúr, 2. sizúr] seize & -ure, op pleasure 1 Act of seizure, forcible appropriation the seizure of another's property 2 Something seized or forcibly appropriated 3 Sudden attack of illness, specif, a paralytic stroke, apoplectic fit seizant, adj [1. sézant, 2. sizant] A Fr, Pres Part of seier, 'to sit', fr Lat sedere, 'to sit', see sedentary (her, of lion or other beast) Sitting sekos, n [1. sékos, 2. sikos] Gk seikos, 'shrine, enclosure, pen', etymol doubtful (Gk arhōt) The adytum or sacred enclosure of a temple selachian, n & adj [1. selsákan, 2. selsékan] fr Gk selaíchos, 'any cartilaginous fish, a shark', cogn w Gk selas, 'flash, bright light', cp solemnium, & -ian (zool) a n Any fish of the sub class Selachii, including the sharks, dog-fishes, and rays, b adj, of, pertaining to, like, this class of fishes selah, n [1. selah, 2. sila] A Hebrew word found at end of a verse in the Psalms, of unknown meaning, but usually taken as a musical direction, indicating a pause or break.

selamluk, n [1. selsámluk, 2. selsámluk] Turk The men's quarters in a Turkish house seldom, adv [1. séldum, 2. séldum] O E seldum, seldan, dat pl used adverbially fr seld*, 'rare, strange', cogn w O H G seltan, Goth silda (leik), 'seldom', the base is apparently unknown outside Gmc Rarely, not often, infrequently very seldom, seldom or never, hardly ever, on the rarest occasions select (I), adj [1. sélekt, 2. silekt] Lat select (um), P P of selegere, 'pick out, choose' See sa- & lecture 1 Chosen, picked out, selected, from among a number, specif, chosen on account of excellence, merits, suitability for particular purpose dinner consisting of a few select dishes, a library of select books, a few select friends Phr select committee (of the House), one appointed by Parliament from all parties to inquire into desirability of proposed legislation &c 2 Specif, careful in selecting friends and associates, fastidious, exclusive Mrs Jones is very select in the people she invites, we are very select in the garden city, a select club, select circles, exclusive, consisting of select persons select (II), vb trans See prec To pick out, choose, for some particular purpose, on account of excellence, suitability for particular purpose &c to select the books one wants, a hat to wear in the sun, a candidate for a post &c selected, adj [1. sélektéd, 2. silektéd] fr P P of prec Carefully chosen, choice selection, n [1. selsáshun, 2. silekshun] fr Lat selectio (em) select (II) & -ion 1 A Act or process of selecting, choice to make one's own selection, specif b (biol) (i) natural process by which certain individuals of a species are eliminated, and therefore do not propagate, owing to their inability to adapt themselves to their environment, also called natural selection, (ii) artificial process whereby breeders match together pairs of animals who possess the characteristics which it is desired to perpetuate in the species 2 A That which, as who, has been selected, picked out, chosen, for any given purpose the selections for a match those chosen as members of a team, these shrubs are my selections for the border, b something, a limited number, picked out, or specially chosen from among many of the same kind the catalogue contains only a selection of our stock, c specif, collection of selected, representative examples selections

seizin, seizin, n [1. sézin, 2. sizin] O Fr from the writings of De Quincey, selections from the poets, etc from their works selective, adj [1 sɛləktɪv, 2 sɛləktɪv] select (I) & -ive Having the power of selection, tending to select, specif (wireless) selective system (of transmitting and receiving messages), one so devised that two messages can be sent and received at once without confusion selectively, adv Preo & -ly In a selective manner, by selection selectivity, n [1 sɛləktɪvɪti, 2 sɛləktɪvɪti] See preo & -ity (specif, wireless) Reception of any particular wave length to the exclusion of others selectman, n [1 sɛləktmən, 2 sɛləktmən] select (I) & man (USA) One of a board of officers chosen in various New England states to manage municipal affairs selectness, n [1 sɛləktnəs, 2 sɛləktnəs] select (I) & -ness Quality of being select selector, n [1 sɛləktər, 2 sɛləktər] select (II) & -or A One who selects, b specif (in Australia) a small farmer or squatter, c (wireless) device for eliminating certain wave lengths selenate, n [1 sɛlənət, 2 sɛlənət] See next word & -ate (chem) A salt of selenic acid selenic acid, adj [1 sɛlənik, 2 sɛlənik] See selenium & -ic (chem) Pertaining to, containing, the element selenium, specif, selenic acid, an acid formed by the oxidation of selenium, of higher valency than selenous acid selenide, n [1 sɛlənɪd, 2 sɛlənɪd] selenium & -ide (chem) A compound of selenium and another element seleniferous, adj [1 sɛlənɪfərəs, 2 sɛlənɪfərəs] selenium & -ferous (chem) Yielding, containing, selenium selenious, adj [1 sɛləniəs, 2 sɛləniəs] selenium & -ous (chem) Containing the element selenium, specif, selenious acid, acid formed by oxidation of selenium, of lower valency than selenic acid selenite, n [1 sɛlənɪt, 2 sɛlənɪt] Sense 1 fr selenium & -ite 1 A salt of selenious acid 2 (mineral) A variety of gypsum, crystallizing in thin, transparent plates selenitic, adj [1 sɛlənɪtɪk, 2 sɛlənɪtɪk] Preo & -ic Of, pertaining to, selenite selenium, n [1 sɛləniəm, 2 sɛləniəm], fr Gk selēnē, 'the moon', & lat suff on anal of names of other elements, the Gk word for 'moon' contains base swel-, 'to glow, be bright', op also Gk selas, 'light, brightness, flash', & cogn w O E sweal, 'to burn, be hot', q v under sweal & sultry Non-metallic element resembling sulphur and tellurium, discovered in 1817, its electric conductivity is increased by light, and is thus used in the transmission of photographic telegraphy seleno-, pref, fr Gk selēnē, 'the moon' See preo, used to form scientific words referring to the moon, its shape &c selenocentric, adj [1 sɛlənosɛntrɪk, 2 sɛlənosɛntrɪk] Preo & -centric (astron) Relating to the centre of the moon, viewed as if from the centre of the moon, referring to the moon as a centre selenodont, adj & n [1 sɛlənodənt, 2 sɛlənodənt] seleno- & -odont (zool) a adj Having molar teeth with crescent shaped, ridged crowns, b n, mammal with such teeth selenograph, n [1 sɛlənɒgrəfi, 2 sɛlənɒgrəfi] seleno- & -graph A chart or other representation of the moon's surface selenographic, adj [1 sɛlənɒgrəfɪk, 2 sɛlənɒgrəfɪk] seleno- & -graphic Of pertaining to, selenography selenographic chart, map selenography, n [1 sɛlənɒgrəfi, 2 sɛlənɒgrəfi] seleno- & -graphy Science which deals with the physical geography of the moon, with the mapping of the moon's surface &c selenology, n [1 sɛlənɒlədʒi, 2 sɛlənɒlədʒi] seleno- & -logy The branch of astronomy dealing with the moon selsmotropic, adj [1 sɛlənɒtrɒpɪk, 2 sɛlənɒtrɒpɪk] selano- & -tropio (bot, of plants) Turning towards the moon selenotropism, -tropy, n [1 sɛlənɒtrɒpɪz(ɪ)m, 2 sɛlənɒtrɒpɪz(ɪ)m] See preo & -ism (bot) Tendency to curve upwards under moonlight

Selencid, n [1 sɛləsɪd, 2 sɛləsɪd], fr Selencus & -id (hist) A member of the dynasty which ruled over a greater part of Asia Minor, Syria, and Persia from 312 to c 65 BC, founded by Selencus Nicator, general of Alexander the Great self, n [1 sɛlf, 2 sɛlf] O E self & ME self, OS, O Fms adj, Goth selbo, otymol unknown 1 One's own individual person ality, and identity, as distinct from those of others, the ego to be conscious of self, one's own self 2 One's own individual interests, advantage, things connected with and affecting oneself thought of to the exclusion of everything else thoughts centred on self to have no thought of self, to put self first 3 The essential quality, character, genius, quance, inmost nature, of anything some believe that we get a glimpse of Shakespeare's very self in the Sonnets, Keats's Odes seem to be the expression of beauty's self 4 Various commercial or vulgar uses a for me, myself a room for self and wife, b (on cheques) pay to self, to the person who signs the cheque, c Phr (commerce, in letters) your good selves, yon, that is, the heads of the firm, to whom the letter is addressed self-, pref expressing (1) reflexive action, direct or indirect self-defence, self-sacrificing &c, (2) relation with the self self-conscious, (3) action independent of external agency, automatic self-fertilize, self-own, (4) natural, uniform, unmixed, pure condition self-coloured The number of possible formations with this prefix is almost infinite

-self, suff Used to form a reflexive personal pronoun to hurt oneself &c, b emphatic pronouns if you want something done you had better do it yourself, I myself have known sorrow &c self-abandoned, adj [1 sɛlf əbændnd, 2 sɛlf əbændnd] Abandoned, given up to oneself, and one's own desires, impulses &c self-abasement, n [1 sɛlf əbæsmənt, 2 sɛlf əbæsmənt] A Abasement, shame, humiliation, as result of consciousness of guilt &c, b act of humiliating oneself self-abhorrence, n [1 sɛlf əbɔːrəns, 2 sɛlf əbɔːrəns] Abhorrence, detestation, of oneself self-absorbed, adj [1 sɛlf əbsɔːrbd, 2 sɛlf əbsɔːrbd] Absorbed in, taken up with, one's own thoughts, interests, and affairs self-adjustment, n [1 sɛlf ədʒʊstmənt, 2 sɛlf ədʒʊstmənt] Automatic adjustment (of parts of machinery &c) self-adornment, n [1 sɛlf ədɔːnmənt, 2 sɛlf ədɔːnmənt] Adornment of oneself self-applause, n [1 sɛlf əplɔːz, 2 sɛlf əplɔːz] Applause of oneself, self-praise self-appointed, adj [1 sɛlf əpɔɪntɪd, 2 sɛlf əpɔɪntɪd] Appointed by oneself self-assertion, n [1 sɛlf əsɜːʃən, 2 sɛlf əsɜːʃən] The asserting, putting forward, of oneself, one's opinions, claims, or rights self-assertive, adj [1 sɛlf əsɜːtɪv, 2 sɛlf əsɜːtɪv] Given to self-assertion, pushing, bumptious self-binder, n [1 sɛlf baɪndər, 2 sɛlf baɪndər] A An agricultural machine, with automatic attachment for binding sheaves as they are reaped, b portfolio fitted with an easily manipulated device for holding together loose sheets &c self-blinded, adj [1 sɛlf blændɪd, 2 sɛlf blændɪd] Deceived by one's own stupidity self-centred, adj [1 sɛlf sɛntəd, 2 sɛlf sɛntəd] Centred in preoccupied with, one self, one's own interests and affairs self-closing, adj [1 sɛlf klɔːzɪŋ, 2 sɛlf klɔːzɪŋ] (of door &c) Closing automatically self-collected, adj [1 sɛlf kələktɪd, 2 sɛlf kələktɪd] Self-possession, calm, cool, having presence of mind self-coloured, adj [1 sɛlf kələrd, 2 sɛlf kələrd] 1 (of textile materials &c) Of one colour throughout 2 (of flowers) a Of one colour, b of its natural, wild colour before cultivation self-command, n [1 sɛlf kəmənd, 2 sɛlf kəmənd] Control, command, of oneself, self-possession, power of controlling one's feelings self-communion, n [1 sɛlf kəmjʊnɪən, 2 sɛlf kəmjʊnɪən] Communion with oneself, meditation upon one's own spiritual condition, introspection self-complacence, -cy, n [1 sɛlf kəmpləns, 2 sɛlf kəmpləns] State, quality, of being self-complacent, self-satisfaction self-complacent, adj [1 sɛlf kəmplənsnt, 2 sɛlf kəmplənsnt] Unduly satisfied with oneself, one's abilities, appearance &c self-conceit, n [1 sɛlf kənseɪt, 2 sɛlf kənseɪt] Conceit, exaggerated opinion of one's own powers, appearance, merits &c self-confidence, n [1 sɛlf kənfaɪdəns, 2 sɛlf kənfaɪdəns] Confidence in oneself, one's own power, strength &c, self-reliance self-confident, adj [1 sɛlf kənfaɪdənt, 2 sɛlf kənfaɪdənt] Confident of oneself, one's powers &c, self-reliant self-confidently, adv In a self-confident manner self-conscious, adj [1 sɛlf kənʃəns, 2 sɛlf kənʃəns] 1 Over-conscious of oneself, of one's movements, behaviour &c, in the presence of others, easily embarrassed, awkward, shy 2 (philos) [1 sɛlf, 2 sɛlf] Conscious of the self or ego, as both subject and object of experience self-consciously, adv 1 In a self-conscious manner 2 (philos) By, through, the self-conscious mind or self-consciousness self-consciousness, n 1 State of being self-conscious 2 (philos) The faculty of apprehending subjective experiences or phenomena self-contained, adj [1 sɛlf kənteɪnd, 2 sɛlf kənteɪnd] 1 (of persons) Reserved, uncommunicative, self-controlled 2 (of things) Contained in itself, compact, specif a (of houses, flats &c) having all necessary rooms, domestic offices &c together and separate from another house or flat, esp having a separate entrance and staircase, b (of machines) having all the working parts in one framework or case self-contradiction, n [1 sɛlf kəntrədɪkʃən, 2 sɛlf kəntrədɪkʃən] A Act or state of contradicting oneself or itself, specif b a proposition containing two terms, one of which contradicts the other self-contradictory, adj [1 sɛlf kəntrədɪktɔːri, 2 sɛlf kəntrədɪktɔːri] Containing, expressing, a self-contradiction self-control, n [1 sɛlf kəntrɒl, 2 sɛlf kəntrɒl] Control of oneself, one's emotions, temper &c, self-command, self-restraint self-deceit, n [1 sɛlf diːst, 2 sɛlf diːst] The deceiving of oneself, state of being deceived or misled by oneself, self-deception, self-delusion self-deception, n [1 sɛlf diːsepʃən, 2 sɛlf diːsepʃən] Self-deceit self-defence, n [1 sɛlf diːfens, 2 sɛlf diːfens] Defence of oneself, one's property, rights, person &c Phr the art of self-defence, boxing, in self-defence, in order to defend oneself, not as an aggressive action self-delusion, n [1 sɛlf diːləʒən, 2 sɛlf diːləʒən] Self-deception, self-deceit self-denial, n [1 sɛlf diːniəl, 2 sɛlf diːniəl] Act, practice, of refusing to gratify one's desires, abstention from pleasure self-denying, adj [1 sɛlf diːnɪŋ, 2 sɛlf diːnɪŋ] Practising self-denial, of the nature of self-denial, self-denying ordinance, (hist) a resolution of the Long Parliament, 1646, declaring that no members should hold any civil or military office or command self-destruction, n [1 sɛlf diːstrʊkʃən, 2 sɛlf diːstrʊkʃən] Suicide self-determination, n [1 sɛlf dɛtɛrminəʃən, 2 sɛlf dɪtɪmɪneɪʃən] 1 Determination by one's own mind as to one's actions, without subjection to or interference by external influence, free will as opposed to determinism or fatalism 2 Specif, right, power, of a race or nation to determine its own form of government without interference by, or reference to, any foreign power.

self-devotion, n [1 sɛlf dɛvəʃən, 2 sɛlf dɪvəʃən] Devotion of oneself and one's interests to the good of others, self sacrifice self-display, n [1 sɛlf dɪspleɪ, 2 sɛlf dɪspleɪ] Display, showing off of oneself, one's wealth &c self-distrust, n [1 sɛlf dɪstrʌst, 2 sɛlf dɪstrʌst] Distrust, want of confidence, in oneself, reverse of self-confidence self-educated, adj [1 sɛlf ɛdʊkəɪtəd, 2 sɛlf ɛdʊkəɪtɪd] Educated by oneself, without teachers or without pecuniary help, self-taught self-elective, adj [1 sɛlf ɛləktɪv, 2 sɛlf ɛləktɪv] a (of an assembly or body of persons) Having the right of electing its own members by co-optation, b (of a person) having the right to nominate or elect himself to a position, membership of a body &c self-esteem, n [1 sɛlf ɛstɪm, 2 sɛlf ɛstɪm] Esteem, good opinion, of oneself, self respect, self conceit self-evident, adj [1 sɛlf ɛvɪdnt, 2 sɛlf ɛvɪdnt] Evidently true without proof or argument, producing conviction upon mere statement self-evidently, adv Without proof or reasoning self-examination, n [1 sɛlf ɛgzəminəʃən, 2 sɛlf ɛgzəminɪʃən] Examination of one's own mind, conscience, motives &c self-existent, adj [1 sɛlf ɛgzɪstnt, 2 sɛlf ɛgzɪstnt] (of God) Existing of or by the self, existing independently of a cause external to self self-explanatory, adj [1 sɛlf ɛksplənətɪv, 2 sɛlf ɛksplənətɪv] Explaining itself, carrying its own explanation with it without further demonstration self-feeding, adj [1 sɛlf fɛdɪŋ, 2 sɛlf fɪdɪŋ] (of machine, boiler &c) Supplying itself with fuel &c automatically self-fertilization, n [1 sɛlf fɛrtɪlaɪzəʃən, 2 sɛlf fɪltəreɪʃən] The fertilization of flowers with pollen from the same or other flowers on same plant self-governing, adj [1 sɛlf gʊvɜːnɪŋ, 2 sɛlf gʊvɜːnɪŋ] 1 Governing oneself, exercising self control 2 Specif, having, exercising, independent political government, autonomous the self-governing Dominions and the Crown Colonies self-government, n [1 sɛlf gʊvɜːnmənt, 2 sɛlf gʊvɜːnmənt] 1 Self control 2 Independent, democratic, political government, autonomy self-heal, n [1 sɛlf hɛl, 2 sɛlf hɛl] (bot) A perennial herb with purple flowers, Prunella vulgaris, allied to sage, marjoram, thyme &c, formerly supposed to heal wounds &c self-help, n [1 sɛlf hɛlp, 2 sɛlf hɛlp] Use of one's own powers, aided by other agency, to secure one's improvement and success in life self-importance, n [1 sɛlf ɪmˈpɔːtəns, 2 sɛlf ɪmˈpɔːtəns] a Exaggerated sense of one's own importance or worth, self-conceit, b pomposity of manner self-important, adj [1 sɛlf ɪmˈpɔːtənt, 2 sɛlf ɪmˈpɔːtənt] Having, exhibiting, self-importance self-induction, n [1 sɛlf ɪndʊkʃən, 2 sɛlf ɪndʊkʃən] (elect) The production of counter-electro motive force by the variation of direction in an alternating current self-inductive, adj [1 sɛlf ɪndʊktɪv, 2 sɛlf ɪndʊktɪv] (elect) Capable of producing, tending to produce, self-induction self-indulgence, n [1 sɛlf ɪndʊlʒəns, 2 sɛlf ɪndʊlʒəns] Indulgence, gratification, of one's own appetites and passions, without due self-restraint self-indulgent, adj [1 sɛlf ɪndʊlʒənt, 2 sɛlf ɪndʊlʒənt] Giving way to self-indulgence self-inflicted, adj [1 sɛlf ɪnfɪktɪd, 2 sɛlf ɪnfɪktɪd] Inflicted on or by oneself self-interest, n [1 sɛlf ɪntərəst, 2 sɛlf ɪntərəst] Consideration of one's own interests, selfishness self-interested, adj [1 sɛlf ɪntərəstəd, 2 sɛlf ɪntərəstəd] Animated by self-interest selfish, adj [1 sɛlfɪʃ, 2 sɛlfɪʃ] self & -ish 1 a Considering primarily oneself and one's desires and pleasures, consulting and indulging one's own desires and interests without regard to how such conduct may affect others, b (of conduct and action) based upon, arising from, regard taken primarily of one's own desires and interests 2 (of ethical system and theory) Regarding, adducing, self interest and the gratification of self as the mainspring of human conduct selfishly, adv Prec & -ly In a selfish manner, having regard only to oneself selfishness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being selfish self-knowledge, n [1 sɛlf nɔːlədʒ, 2 sɛlf nɔːlədʒ] Knowledge of self, knowledge of one's own powers, character, motives, limitations &c selfless, adj [1 sɛlfles, 2 sɛlfɪs] Forgetful of, having no regard for, self, unselfish selflessness, n Quality of being selfless self-limited, adj [1 sɛlf lɪmɪtəd, 2 sɛlf lɪmɪtəd] Limited, defined, by one's own or its own character, esp (med) of certain diseases running their natural course within a specified period self-love, n [1 sɛlf lʊv, 2 sɛlf lʌv] 1 Love of oneself, instinctive impulse to protect one's own life and happiness 2 Self-indulgence, selfishness self-made, adj [1 sɛlf meɪd, 2 sɛlf meɪd] Made by oneself, esp having risen from a humble position to one of wealth, influence &c, by one's own efforts, without money or help from others a self-made man, self-made career self-mastery, n [1 sɛlf mɑːstəri, 2 sɛlf mɑːstəri] Mastery of self, self-command, self-control self-murder, n [1 sɛlf mɜːdər, 2 sɛlf mɑːdər] Suicide self-neglect, n [1 sɛlf neɡlekt, 2 sɛlf neɡlekt] 1 Neglect of one's own interests, unselfishness 2 Neglect of one's own person, uncleanness self-opinionated, adj [1 sɛlf ɒpɪnjənɪtəd, 2 sɛlf ɒpɪnjənɪtəd] Sticking obstinately to one's own opinions, self-willed self-opinioned, adj [1 sɛlf ɒpɪnjənd, 2 sɛlf ɒpɪnjənd] Self-opinionated self-possessed, adj [1 sɛlf pʊzɪst, 2 sɛlf pʊzɪst] Having self-possession, cool, collected self-possession, n [1 sɛlf pʊzəʃən, 2 sɛlf pʊzəʃən] Possession of, control over, one's emotions, behaviour &c, self-command, self-control, coolness, composure, in emergencies self-preservation, n [1 sɛlf prɪzərvəʃən, 2 sɛlf prɪzərvəʃən] Preservation of oneself from injury or death, instinctive impulse to save one's own life and escape injury self-raising, adj [1 sɛlf reɪzɪŋ, 2 sɛlf reɪzɪŋ] (of flour) Containing a certain proportion of baking powder self-realization, n [1 sɛlf rɪəlaɪzəʃən, 2 sɛlf rɪəlaɪzəʃən] Accomplishment of, freedom to develop to the utmost, all that of which one is capable in view of one's character, natural faculties, powers, passions &c, esp regarded as the end of ethical action self-recording, adj [1 sɛlf rɪkɔːdɪŋ, 2 sɛlf rɪkɔːdɪŋ] Self-registering self-regard, n [1 sɛlf rɪɡəd, 2 sɛlf rɪɡəd] Regard for oneself and one's interests self-registering, adj [1 sɛlf rɛɡɪstərɪŋ, 2 sɛlf rɛɡɪstərɪŋ] (of instruments) Registering, recording, variations of phenomena automatically self-regulating, adj [1 sɛlf rɛɡjʊleɪtɪŋ, 2 sɛlf rɛɡjʊleɪtɪŋ] (of mach) Regulating, correcting, its movements automatically self-reliance, n [1 sɛlf rɪleɪəns, 2 sɛlf rɪlɪəns] Reliance on oneself, on one's own powers and faculties self-reliant, adj [1 sɛlf rɪleɪənt, 2 sɛlf rɪlɪənt] Relying on one's own powers, faculties, judgement &c self-renunciation, n [1 sɛlf rənʊnɪəʃən, 2 sɛlf rɪnənsɪeɪʃən] Renunciation of one's own desires and interests for the sake of others, or for a cause or ideal self-reproach, n [1 sɛlf rɪprəʊtʃ, 2 sɛlf rɪprɔːtʃ] Reproach, censure, of oneself, remorse, prickings of conscience self-respect, n [1 sɛlf rɪspɛkt, 2 sɛlf rɪspɛkt] Due regard for one's own dignity, conduct, position, character, reputation &c, regard for decency of behaviour and for a certain fitting or worthy standard of conduct self-respecting, adj [1 sɛlf rɪspɛktɪŋ, 2 sɛlf rɪspɛktɪŋ] Having, exhibiting, self-respect self-restraint, n [1 sɛlf rɪstreɪnt, 2 sɛlf rɪstreɪnt] Restraint, control, of oneself, self-control self-righteous, adj [1 sɛlf rɪtʃəs, 2 sɛlf rɪtʃəs] Righteous, virtuous, upright, in one's own opinion, pharisaical self-righteousness, n Quality, state, of being self-righteous, pharisaism self-sacrifice, n [1 sɛlf sɛkrɪfɪs, 2 sɛlf sɛkrɪfɪs] Sacrifice of oneself for the good of others, surrender of one's interest, advantage &c, to those of others, self denial self-sacrificing, adj [1 sɛlf sɛkrɪfɪsɪŋ, 2 sɛlf sɛkrɪfɪsɪŋ] Sacrificing, surrendering, oneself for the good of others, exhibiting self-sacrifice self-same, adj [1 sɛlf sɛm, 2 sɛlf sɛm] The very same, precisely the same, identical, an emphatic form of same self-satisfaction, n [1 sɛlf sɪtsɪsfəʃən, 2 sɛlf sɛtsɪsfɪkʃən] 1 State of feeling satisfied with oneself, self complacency 2 Satisfaction of one's desires, appetites &c self-satisfied, adj [1 sɛlf sɪtsɪfɪd, 2 sɛlf sɪtsɪfɪd] Satisfied with oneself, smugly conceited self-satisfying, adj [1 sɛlf ɛtsɪsfɪŋ, 2 sɛlf ɛtsɪsfɪŋ] Giving satisfaction to oneself self-seeker, n [1 sɛlf sɪkər, 2 sɛlf sɪks] One who is perpetually thinking of how to further his own interests, and whose chief motive is self-advancement, a pushing person with an axe to grind self-seeking, adj & n [1 sɛlf sɪkɪŋ, 2 sɛlf sɪkɪŋ] 1 adj Seeking primarily one's own advantage, striving to advance one's own interests 2 n Act, conduct, of a self-seeker self-sown, adj [1 sɛlf sɔːn, 2 sɛlf sɔːn] (of plants) Sprung from seed scattered by natural processes direct from parent plant self-starter, n [1 sɛlf stɑːtər, 2 sɛlf stɔːtər] 1 Any one of various electric or other devices for automatically starting the internal combustion engine of a motor car &c without the use of a crank handle 2 A motor car &c fitted with such device self-sterile, adj [1 sɛlf stɛrɪl, 2 sɛlf stɛrɪl] (bot) Not capable of self fertilization, needing pollen from other plants in order to become fertilized.

self-styled, adj [1 sɛlf stɪld, 2 sɛlf stɪld] Called, denominated, by oneself, but without any right, so dissant a self-styled 'professor' of conjuring self-sufficiency, n [1 sɛlf sʊfɪʃənsɪ, 2 sɛlf sɪfɪʃənsɪ] Quality, state, of being self-sufficient or self-sufficing, a capability of getting, doing, what one wants without external aid, b self importance, presumption self-sufficient, adj [1 sɛlf sʊfɪʃɪənt, 2 sɛlf sɪfɪʃənt] Sufficient, sufficing, for oneself, a capable of getting what one wants without others, b self-important, presumptuous self-sufficing, adj [1 sɛlf sʊfɪsɪŋ, 2 sɛlf sɪfɪsɪŋ] Sufficing to oneself, independent of others for help, advice, society &c

- self-suggestion, n. [1 self myšchun, 2 self sadist[an]] Auto suggestion, suggestion arising from oneself, as when hypnotized.
- self-supporting, adj. [1 self suporting, 2 self supd[un]] Supporting, maintaining, oneself or itself
- self-surrender, n. [1 self sur[er], 2 self s[er]] Surrender of oneself, of one's will, to another
- self-sustained, adj. [1 self sust[and], 2 self sust[and]] Sustained, supported, by oneself or itself
- self-taught, adj. [1 self t[awt], 2 self t[at]] Taught by oneself, self educated
- self-torture, n. [1 self t[or]tur, 2 self t[ot]] Torture deliberately inflicted on oneself
- self-will, n. [1 self w[il], 2 self w[il]] Obstinacy, pig headedness
- self-willed, adj. [1 self w[il], 2 self w[il]] Obstinately, pig headed
- self-winding, adj. [1 self w[ind], 2 self w[ind]] (of clock) Winding itself automatically at certain intervals by an electric device &c
- Selyuk, n. [1 selj[ook], 2 selj[ook]] Turk. Selyuk A member of a Turkish Moslem dynasty, founded by Selyuk, a D 1000, which ruled in Central and Western Asia from the 11th to the 13th cents
- sell (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sel, 2 sel] O E sellan, 'to give, give up, surrender, to sell', M E sellan, O S sellan, O H G saljan, O N selja, Goth saljan, 'to offer', prob cogn w Gk helen, 'to take with the hand, grasp, to take', fr sel- &c, the Gmc vb, it is suggested, was orig a causative, meaning 'to cause to take, hand over to, offer, give', the sense 'give in exchange for something, sell', is much later Cp also consult A trans 1 To transfer the ownership of (goods, property &c) to another in return for a valuable consideration, usually for money, to dispose of by sale to hand over in return for a price, the correlative of buy to sell one's pigs at the market, to sell a horse for £100 Phrs to sell one's life dearly, to make an enemy pay dearly by killing as many as possible before being killed oneself, (colloq) to sell a person a pup, cheat him, take him in, let him in for a bad bargain, to sell the pass, be unfaithful to one's trust, give opponents an advantage, give away some important point in a dispute 2 To deal in, be engaged in the sale of, to stock, keep (goods) for sale grocers often sell wine and spirits, do you sell postage stamps?, we sell only articles of the first quality 3 To help in the sale of, cause to be sold good advertising will sell goods 4 To part with, give up, surrender, sacrifice (something non-material) in exchange for a bribe or material inducement to sell one's honour, self respect, peace of mind &c 5 To betray, be a traitor to break one's faith with, be disloyal to to sell one's country, one's party 6 (colloq) To play a trick upon, to cheat, deceive, disappoint, (usually in pass) to be sold over a bargain, sold again, as exclamation of this appointment &c if of oneself, of triumph if referring to another B intrans 1 (of persons) To be ready to sell to deal in if you will sell, I will buy 2 (of goods) To become object of sale, to find buyers, to be sold wheat is selling well, goods of that quality will never sell C Followed by preposition or adverb Sell off to dispose of (the remainder of a stock of goods) at bargain prices Sell out, intrans, a to sell one's stock of goods, shares in a company &c, b (obs) to retire from the army by selling one's commission, in the days of purchase Sell up (person or goods), trans, to sell the goods of a debtor under a distraint or legal process to be sold up, have one's goods sold to satisfy creditors
- sell (II) n, fr prec (colloq slang) a A disillusionment, a disappointment we were too late for the luncheon which was rather a sell it was an awful sell going twenty miles only to find our friends had left, b a hoax, trick, catch the much vaunted weed killer was just a sell
- sellanders, n See sellandors
- seller, n [1 seller, 2 selb] sell (I) & -or 1 A person who sells, who deals in, goods a bookseller, b one who offers (something) for sale or is ready to sell are you a seller? 2 Something which sells or is sold a good, a poor, seller Phr a best seller, book that is largely bought
- seltzer water, n [1 seltser w[ater], 2 seltse w[ater]] fr Pl N Selters, near Wiesbaden, Germany Aerated mineral water consumed alone or mixed with spirits
- selvage, also selvedge, n [1 selvy, 2 selvidi] fr sl Du selvyge self & edge 1 An edge or border of cloth, so woven as to prevent ravelling 2 The edge plate of a lock into which the bolt is shot 3 Selvage
- selvages, n [1 selvajt, 2 selvidi] fr selvage A cord of rope yarn wound tightly together by lashings, used for slings, collars &c
- semantics, n pl [1 semantika, 2 semantika] fr Fr semantique, fr Gk semantikos, 'significative, meaning', fr semaltein, 'to signify', fr sema, 'a sign', cogn w Sert dhyama, 'thought', dhyati, 'to reflect upon' Branch of linguistic study which deals with the development of meaning
- semaphore (I), n [1 semafor, 2 semaf[or]] fr Fr semaphore, word coined fr Gk sema, 'sign', see semantics & phora, 'a carrying, bearing', see -phore 1 An apparatus used for signalling, consisting of a post with two movable arms at the top which can be swung into various positions, each representing a letter of the alphabet, a (hist) device of this kind used to send messages from station to station over long distances, until superseded by the telegraph, b (nav) similar device still used at sea for sending short messages from ship to ship 2 Similar device, with red and green lights for night, used for signalling on roadways
- semaphore (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec To signal, send (messages), by semaphore
- semasiology, n [1 semasiologi, 2 semasiologi] fr Gk semasia, 'significance, meaning', fr sema, 'sign', & -logy
- sematic, adj [1 sematik, 2 sematik] fr Gk sema (os), sema, 'sign', see semantics, & -ic (biol.) Serving as a sign, of warning or attraction sematic colouration
- semblable, adj [1 semblabl, 2 semblabl] Fr See next word & -able (archaic) Having semblance, resembling, like, similar
- semblance, n [1 semblans, 2 semblans] Fr, fr Lat simulans, Pres Part stem of simulare, to make like, copy, represent, see simulate, & -ce 1 Likeness, image, similitude Satan appeared to Eve in the semblance of a serpent 2 Outward show or appearance to have at least the semblance of virtue, honesty &c
- semble, vb intrans [1 sembl, 2 sembl] Fr il semble, 'it seems', 3rd pers pres indic See prec (law) It seems, it would appear, contracted as semb, sem, used in a judgement to express an obiter dictum
- semé, adj [1 semé, 2 semé] Fr, 'sown', P P of semer, 'to sow', see semen (her, of the field) Sown, powdered, strewn seme of fleur-de-lis &c
- semeio-, pref Form in compounds of Gk semeion, 'sign', fr sema, see semantics
- semeiological, adj [1 semeiologi, 2 semeiologi] Prec & -logical Pertaining to semeiology
- semeiologist, n [1 semeiologist, 2 semeiologist] See prec & -ist. Student of, expert in, semeiology
- semeiology, semeiology, n [1 semeiologi, 2 semeiologi] See prec & -logy 1 Art of using symbols to express ideas 2 (med.) The study of the symptoms of disease
- semeiotics, n pl [1 semeiotiks, 2 semeiotiks] fr Gk semeiotikos, fr semeion, 'sign' See prec words & -ic
- Semenology, semen, n [1 semen, 2 semen] Lat, 'seed', fr base sē*, se*, cp Lat severe, 'to sow', & the words given under seed & sow (II) Spermatic fluid of male animal
- semester, n [1 semestre, 2 semestre] Germ, fr Fr semestre, fr Lat semestris, 'every six months', for sex, fr sex, 'six', see sex-, & mensis, 'month', see moneses A half-year, period of six months, esp as applied to the two terms into which the educational year is divided in German and other continental universities and schools
- semi-, pref [1 s[emi], 2 s[emi]] Lat s[emi], 'half', cogn w Gk h[emi], see hemi-, Sert s[emi], O H G s[emi], O L s[emi], (as in O E s[emi] curva, 'half alive', O H G s[emi]que) Living pref capable of being used before any n & adj in Engl, having the sense a half semicircle, semicircular, b partly, to some extent, more or less semi-opaque, semi-idiotic
- semi-annual, adj Half-yearly, occurring, published, once every six months or twice a year
- semi-automatic, adj Acting, operated, partly automatically, partly by hand
- semi-barbarian, adj & n 1 adj Half-civilized, only partly civilized 2 n Person in a state of semi barbarism
- semi-barbarism, n State, quality, of being half or only partly civilized
- semi-barbarous, adj Semi barbarian
- semibreve, n [1 semihrev, 2 semihrev] (mus) A note of half the duration of a breve, equivalent to two minims or four crotchets, a whole note
- semi-bull, n A bull issued by a Pope between his election and enthronement
- semi-centennial, n & adj 1 n Celebration of a fiftieth anniversary 2 adj Occurring once every fifty years, pertaining to the end of a half century
- semi-chorus, n (mus) a A passage to be sung by half or part of a choir or chorus, b music composed for a semi chorus
- semicircle, n [1 semis[er]kl, 2 semis[er]kl] 1 a A half circle, b group of persons or objects arranged so as to form a semicircle 2 A surveying instrument for measuring angles
- semicircular, adj [1 semis[er]kular, 2 semis[er]kular] Having the shape of, b arranged in, a semicircle
- semi-civilized, adj Half, partly, civilized, not fully civilized
- semicolon, n [1 semikolon, 2 semikolon] 2 semikoulon, semikoulon] A mark of punctuation (;), indicating a more marked separation than the comma, and less than the full stop or colon
- semi-conscious, adj Half, partially, conscious
- semi-demisemiquaver, n (mus) A note of half the duration of a demisemiquaver
- semi-detached, adj (of a house) Having another built so as to be joined to it on one side
- semi-diurnal, adj Lasting half a day, lasting half the time between the rising and setting of a heavenly body
- semi-double, adj (of flowers) Having an extra number of floral leaves of which, however, only the outer ones are converted into full petals
- semi-final, adj & n a adj (of a round in a match) Played immediately before the final round, b n the round before the final
- semi-fluid, adj & n 1 adj Partially fluid, viscous 2 n Semi fluid substance
- semi-fluidity, n State, quality, of being semi fluid
- semilunar, adj [1 semilunar, 2 semilunar] Shaped like a half-moon or crescent, crescent-shaped, specif (anat) semilunar bone, cartilage, valves &c
- semi-monthly, adj & n 1 adj Occurring, made done, twice in a month 2 n Something occurring appearing, twice a month, specif journal or magazine published twice a month semi-mute, adj Having only partial power of speech, nearly, practically dumb, usually owing to congenital deafness seminal, adj [1 séminal, 2 séminal] Lat sēminālis See semen & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, containing, producing, the seed of plants or the semen of male animals seminal leaf, a cotyledon, seminal fluid, semen, seminal ducts, glands &c 2 Of, relating to, reproduction, germinal, reproductive, a (in physical sense) seminal power, weakness &c, b (of non-physical things) productive, pregnant, potential seminal thoughts, principle &c 3 Contained in the seed, rudimentary, primary in the seminal stage of life, also fig seminally, adv Preo & -ly In a seminal manner, originally, primarily seminar, n [1 sémīnār, 2 sémīnār] Borrowed fr Mod Germ See seminary A class or group of students, at a university, engaged in learning the methods of research under the direction of a professor seminarist, n [1 sémīnarist, 2 sémīnarist] See next word & -ist One trained in a Roman Catholic seminary, a seminary priest seminary, n [1 sémīnārī, 2 sémīnārī], fr O Fr seminaire, fr Lat sēminārium, 'seed-plot, nursery garden, seminary', neut sing as n of sēminārius, 'relating to seed' See semen & -ary 1 A place of education, formerly a high sounding name for a school, an academy a seminary for young ladies, b (fig) a nursery, training ground, school a seminary of revolution, vice &c 2 Specif, a training college for the Roman Catholic priesthood semination, n [1 sē, sēmīnāshun, 2 sē, sēmīnāshun], fr Lat sēminātō (em), fr sēmināt(-um), PP type of sēmināre 'to beget, procreate', see semen, & -ion 1 Act of sowing or spreading, dissemination 2 (bot) Process, mode, of seeding seminiferous, adj [1 sēmīniferus, 2 sēmīniferus] See semen & -ferous a (of plants) Seed bearing, b (animal physiol) Conveying semen seminiferous tubes semi-official, adj Not fully official, having some official authority only, not directly or officially authorized a semi-official report in the press semio-, pref See semeio- semi-opal, n A variety of opal without the opalescent quality of the true opal semi-oviparous, adj Not completely viviparous, producing the young not completely out of the egg stage, as marsupials semi-Pelagianism, n A theological doctrine of the 9th cent, which combined the free-will principles of Pelagius with the predestination of Augustine semi-plume, n (ornith) A feather with the shaft of a true feather, but with a downy web semi-precious, adj (of gems) Referring to those of inferior value to precious stones, e.g. the garnet, aquamarine, carbuncle &c semiquaver, n [1 sēmīkwāver, 2 sēmīkwēivə] (mus) A note having half the duration of the quaver, one sixteenth of a semibreve

Semite, n [1 sēmīt, 2 sēmīt], fr Gk Sēm, translating Heb Shem, & -ite Member of any one of several Asiatic races, including Jews, Arabs, and in ancient times, the Assyrians, Babylonians, Phoenicians &c

Semitic, adj & n [1 sēmītik, 2 sēmītik] Preo & -ic 1 adj Pertaining to, connected with, the Semites or their languages 2 n A Semitic language

Semitism, n [1 sēmītizm, 2 sēmītizəm] Semite & -ism 1 Semitic characteristics, racial or linguistic 2 A Semitic idiom

Semitize, vb trans [1 sēmītiz, 2 sēmītiz] Semite & -ize To give a Semitic character to many parts of London are largely Semitized semitone, n [1 sēmītōn, 2 sēmītōn] (mus) A half tone, one of the lesser intervals of the diatonic scale semi-tropical, adj (of climate, vegetation &c)

Nearly tropical, bordering on the tropics semi-uncial, adj Designating a handwriting between the uncial and the cursive semi-vowel, n Misleading term best avoided, applied by some philologists to a certain original sounds [w, j], which either remain as consonants (before vowels), or become the vowels [i, u] (before consonants, and finally, b to [w, j]), when uttered with very weak consonantal friction semolina, n [1 sēmōlēna, 2 sēmōlēnə], fr Ital semolina, dimin of semola, 'bran', fr Lat simila, 'the finest wheat flour after being sifted', fr Gk sempidalia, wh is prob also a loan-word A meal which is a coarsely ground product of wheat, used for making macaroni, and otherwise in cookery

Sempervivum, n [1 sēmpervivum, 2. sēmpēvaivəm] Neo Lat, fr semper, 'always', & vivum, 'living' See next word & vivacious (bot) A genus of plants with very fleshy leaves, including the houseleek sempiternal, adj [1 sēmpitērnal, 2 sēmpitānəl], fr Fr sempiternel, Lat sempiternus, 'everlasting, perpetual', fr semper, 'always', derived fr sem-, 'one', as in Lat semel, 'once, a single time', see words in simul-, & per, 'through', cp also sengreen, for second element see eternal (archaic, rhet, or poet) Everlasting, never ending, eternal semplique, adj [1 sēmplicā, 2 sēmplitjə] Ital, 'simple', cp simple (mus) A direction that the music is to be rendered simply, without embellishments sempre, adv [1 sēmpṛā, 2 sēmpṛə] Ital, 'continually', fr Lat semper, 'always' See undersempiternal (mus) A direction that the music is to be played throughout as directed, as sempre forte, loudly throughout &c sempstress, n See seamstress sen, n [1 sen, 2 sen] Jap, fr Chinese ch'ien, 'coin' A Japanese copper coin, one hundredth part of the yen senarius, n [1 sēnārius, 2 sēnērius] Lat, 'consisting of six each, a verse consisting of six feet', so terius, fr seni, distrib for sex* n See sex- & -ary A Latin verse of six iambic feet senary, adj [1 sēnārī, 2 sēnārī] Engl form of preo Containing, pertaining to, six senate, n [1 sēnat, 2 sēnat], fr Fr senat, fr Lat senātus, lit 'council of elders', fr base sen-, as in senex, 'old' See senile 1 A council, assembly of elders, specif a (ancient Rome) the chief council of the republic and of the Empire, consisting originally of the heads of the patrician families, but at an early date admitting representatives of the plebeians, having administrative, legislative, and judicial functions, b name given to deliberative, legislative bodies in many countriss, esp the Upper House of such bodies 2 The legislature considered as a whole with reference to its legislative functions, hence politics distinguished both at the bar and in the senate 3 Chief academic deliberative body in some universities, applied to such bodies, although they are variously constituted and have differing functions, in Cambridge and the newer English Universities, Senate house, the building in which the senate meets, as at Cambridge University senator, n [1 sēnātor, 2 sēnātor], fr Lat senātor See prec & -or A member of a senate senatorial, adj [1 sēnātorīal, 2 sēnātorīal] Preo & -ial, fr Fr senatorial Pertaining, relating, to a senate or to a senator senatorial rank, powers &c senatorship, n [1 sēnātership, 2 sēnātership] senator & -ship 1 Office, rank, position of a senator 2 Period of such office senatus, n [1 sēnātus, 2 sēnātus] Lat, 'senate', fr base sen-, as in senex, 'old', see senile 1 The Roman Senate, q.v., esp in Phr Senatus populusque Romanus, abbr S P Q R, the full title of the ancient Roman state, the senate and people of Rome Senatus consultum (pl consulta), a decree of the senate 2 Name given to chief academic deliberative body in Scottish universities, corresponding to what is elsewhere called a senote

send (I), vb trans & intrans [1 send, 2 send] OE sendan, fr sandjan*, ME senden, OS sendion, OHG senten, ON senda, Goth sandjan, the orig sense is 'to cause to go', op the OE sip, 'journey, time', fr sarp*, Goth sarp, 'time', OE gesip, 'travelling companion', Goth gasarpja, OE sipian, 'to travel, depart, go', a cogn of Gmo sarp*, fr earlier sent-*, is believed to exist also in Lat sentire, 'to feel, perceive' See scent, sentiment, sense A trans 1 To cause to go, or be carried, to dispatch, cause to be conveyed, to arrange for transit of to send a letter, a parcel, by post, to send goods by train, I will send you home in my car, to send troops by sea, to send one's boots to be mended, to send aid, relief, help, to send a message, on answer Phr to send word, to have a message conveyed by any method send me word of your arrival 2 To cause (person) to go from one place to another, by requesting or commanding if you are noisy, I shall send you to bed, send the children into the garden, send him to me at once, to send a missionary to the Jews, to send a messenger, to send an ambassador abroad &c Phr to send a person about his business, packing, to the right about, dismiss him abruptly, get rid of him 3 a To cause (object) to move in a certain direction or manner, to a certain spot, by throwing, striking, propelling in any way send the ball over here, will you, to send a ball (of cricket) to the boundary, we sent several shots into the enemy, to send a stone rolling down the hill, b to pass, hand &c (an object) send the wine round again, send your plates (up) for a second helping 4 To bestow, give, grant, cause to come as a benefit, or the reverse God sent plagues upon the Egyptians, He sends the former and the latter rain, (archaic) God send you better health, also in construction, God send his life may be spared &c, God grant that Phr God send you a good deliverance, formerly used by a judge in pronouncing sentences of death 5 To cause to be or become, to drive, only in such Phr as a to send a person mad, off his head, out of his mind, b 'Send him victorious Long to reign o'er us', grant him long to reign (National Anthem) B intrans To send a messenger, message, or missive if you want me, please send, I sent out let him know his father was dead C Followed by preposition or adverb Send away, 1 trans, a to dismiss (one's cook &c), b to dispatch to a distance to send away one's garden produce, 2 intrans, to send a message, or order for to another place I have to send away for my groceries Send down, trans, 1 to expel for a period from a college or the university, 2 to lower, cause to fall, a to send down temperature, b (fig) to send down prices Send for, intrans, a to summon (person), ask, order, tell to come to send for the doctor, b to order (things) to be brought to one to send for some more coal, a taxi &c, to send to the butcher for some chops, c to make request for dispatch of to send for help Send forth, trans, a to send out to send forth the labourers into the harvest, b to give out, emit the sun sends forth light and heat Send in, trans, to forward, dispatch, hand in (to particular person or place) to send in one's name as a candidate, to send in one's bill, Phrs to send in one's papers, to resign one's commission in army or navy, to send in one's resignation, to resign formally Send off, trans, a to send away, dispatch (things) to send off one's luggage, b to dismiss, expel, drive away (persons) Send out, trans, 1 (of human action) a to dispatch, commission (person) to send out young men as missionaries, b to enable to go away, arrange for journey of (persons) to send boys perceived by the senses or of arousing or exciting sensations the sensible world around us; Art thou not, fatal vision, sensible to feeling as to sight!?' (Shakespeare, 'Macbeth'), b capable of being distinguished, perceived, computed, appraisable, marked, distinct a sensible difference in the temperature, a sensible change for the better, worse 2 (rare) Capable of sensation or feeling or of receiving impressions, sensitive sensible to pain 3 Having possession of one's senses, conscious, not unreasonable the injured man was sensible when picked up 4 Sensible of, aware of, alive to, conscious of, able to be aware of, alive to, conscious of one's surroundings, sensitive of a voice calling one from afar, b able to realize, understand, appreciate, with the intellect or emotions fully sensible of one's own shortcomings, sensitive of the affection and loyalty of one's friends 5 a (of persons) Possessing good sense and judgment, shrewd, reasonable, sagacious, canny, judicious not brilliant, but a very sensible fellow, b (of actions, ideas, utterances &c) based on, evincing, inspired by, good sense, wise, prudent, practical a very sensible thing to do, a sensible remark, suggestion &c sensibleness, n Preo &-ness Quality of being sensible, wise, prudent &c, reasonable- ness, sagacity, prudence sensibly, adv See preo &-ly 1 To a sensible degree, appreciably, perceptibly he looked sensibly older than last time I saw him, 2 With the patient has grown sensibly weaker he spoke and behaved very sensibly sensitive (I), adj [1 sensitiv, 2 sensitiv] Fr sensitif, fem -ive, formed irregularly fr the Lat group of words related to sensus (see sense (I)), w suff -ive 1 A keenly sensible of bodily sensations, feeling readily and acutely, acutely perceptive of stimuli communicated through the senses eyes sensitive to light, a skin that is slightly sensitive to heat, his sensitive skin caught the slightest sound, a poet b over sensitive, hence tender, easily hurt a sensitive skin, a partly intellectual sense Highly refined, acute, delicate, responding readily to ideas, a sensitive perceptive, discriminating, nice points of appreciation, of art, literature, and moral taste, appreciation &c c b (in emotional and moral sense) easily wounded, readily shocked, susceptible, delicate, tender a sensitive heart, conscience, a sensitive child, one that is highly strung, liable to feel harsh treatment, Phr a sensitive ear, speak highly trained, discriminating, sense of different shades of musical or speech sounds, c easily offended, touchy sensitive about one's poverty, personal appearance &c 3 (of non sentient things) appearing ready to external conditions, a Resisting readily to external processes, the effects of natural or mechanical processes, delicately adjusted a sensitive thermometer, spring balance &c, speak b a sensitive film, plate, photographic film &c, especially sensitized, i.e covered with a chemical substance which reacts to light rays, c (commerce, of markets &c) liable to fluctuate in relation to political or other conditions sensitive (II), n, fr preo A sensitive person, specif, one liable, susceptible, to so called psycho influence sensitively, adv sensitive (I) &-ly In a sensitive manner sensitivity, n See preo &-ness State, quality, of being sensitive sensitive plant, n (bot) Any plant whose leaves &c react to, and move at, a touch, leaves &c react to, mmosia Mimosa pudica, specif, a species whose leaves curl up and whose leaflets droop when touched sensitivity, n [1 sensitivit, 2 sensitivit] sensitivity, n [1 sensitivit, 2 sensitivit] sensitivity (I) &-ity Sensativeness, esp in physical or material sense, susceptibility to physiological, chemical, action sensitivity of a nerve, photographic plate, film &c sensitize, vb trans [1 sênsitiz, 2 sênstanz] Irregular formation, fr atom sensiti-, as in sensitive, &-ize To render (paper, film &c) sensitive to actinic light sensitizer, n [1 sênstetizer, 2 sênstetaz] Preo &-er A sensitizing chemical agent sensistometer, n [1 sênstômetor, 2 sênstô-metor] See sensitive &-meter Instrument for testing the sensitivity of photographic plates, films &c sensori-, pref, fr sensorium or sensory, used to form compound physiological or psychological terms, as sensori-motor, of nerves, area of brain &c sensorial, adj [1 sênstriâl, 2 sênstriâl] See next word &-al Sensory sensorium, n [1 sênstriòm, 2 sênstriòm] Formed fr Lat sensus, see sense, for suffix -ory The grey matter of the brain, regarded as the seat of physical sensations, the nervous system as a whole, including the organs of sense sensory, adj [1 sênstri, 2 sênstri] sense (I) &-ory Connected with, pertaining to, the sensorium, to sensation, or to the senses sensuous, fr sensu-, etym of sensus See sense (I) &-al (arohaic, poet.) the bodily taming to, affecting, perceived by, the bodily senses, sensuous Sound, sound the clarion, fill the field! To all the sensual world proclaim (quoted by Scott in 'Old Mortality'), 'Thencefore, ye soft pipes, play on, Not to the sensual fore, ye soft pipes, play on, Not to the sensual fore' (Keats). Dile on a Grecian Urn") Chiefly now in unfavorable sense 2 Partaining to the body, carnal, earthy, connected with spiritual sensual appetite, affection &c 3 Connected with the gratification of the bodily senses, gross, specific a connected with gratification of, appealing to, sexual appetite a sensual attraction, charm &c, b inclined to gratify sexual appetite, lustful, lecherous, voluptuous the sensual person 4 (philos) Pertaining to the doctrine of sensualism a purely sensual origin of knowledge sensualism, n [1 sênstriâlizm, 2 sênstriâlizm] Preo &-ism 1 Sensual indulgence, gratification of the senses 2 (philos) sensualist, n [1 sênstriâlist, 2 sênstriâlist] 1 Person fond of, given to, sensual indulgence, a voluptuary 2 (rare) sensual &-ist sensual indulgence, 2 sensualist] A sensualist sensual, n [1 sênstriâht, 2 sênstriâht] a Love sensual &-ity Cp Fr sensualité a Love of, proneness to, sensual indulgence, b sensual quality, of being sensual sensualization, n [1 sênstriâlizâshun, 2 sênstriâlizâshun] See next word &-ation Act, process, of sensualizing, state of being sensualized, vb trans [1 sênstriâlize, 2 sênstriâlize] sensual &-ize To make sensual, to degrade by sensual indulgence, to de-spiritualize sensually, adv [1 sênstriâl, 2 sênstriâl] In a sensual manner sensual &-ly [1 sênstriâl, 2 sênstriâl] Pertaining to, arising from, based on, affecting, appealing to, bodily senses, connected with experience derived from the senses, distinguished from sensual in that it conveys no sense of grossness or lowliness sensuous impressions, Milton said that poetry should be 'simple, sensuous, passionately' Prec &-ly In a sensuous manner, by, through, the senses sensuousness, n See preo &-ness Quality of being sensuous sent, vb [1 sent, 2 sent] O E sende (gs) send (ed), M E sende, send, Prät & PP of send (I) Fr, sentence (I), n [1 sentans, 2 sentans] A way of thinking, opinion

SENTENCE (1)

SENTENCE (II)

judgment, decision, meaning, sentence', for sententia, fr sentent (em), Pres Part type of sentire, 'to feel, be of opinion', see sense & words there referred to 1 (archaic) a meaning, interpretation 'The sentence of this Latin is, Woman is man's joy, and of his bliss' (Chaucer, 'Nonne Preeste's Tale', 345-8) 2 decision, opinion 'My sentence is for open war' (Milton, 'P L', II, 81), c a maxim, proverb, short saying giving some moral teaching, d (theol) the opinion, briefly expressed, of the Fathers or Doctors of the Church on specific subjects, Master of the Sentences, Peter Lombard 2 (law) a The judgment, decision of a court, generally a criminal court, declaring the punishment or penalty to be inflicted on a prisoner found guilty of a crime or offence to pass sentence of death, to be under sentence of, the sentence of the court is that, b punishment so do I declare to receive a heavy sentence, to undergo a sentence of penal servitude Phr to pass sentence upon, (i) to declare the decision of the court as to the punishment of a convicted prisoner, (ii) to express an opinion or judgment, esp an unfavorable one 3 (gram) The unit of rational speech, series of words, or, occasionally, only one word, which makes a statement, asks a question, expresses a wish or command, or is merely exclamatory sentences (II), vb trans, fr preco To pronounce, pass formal, judicial, sentence upon, to impose punishment upon, to condemn to sentence a man to death, the accused was sentenced for theft ten years ago sentential, adj [1 sentēshāl, 2 sentēshəl], fr Lat sententiālis See sentence & -ial (rare) 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, a judicial sentence, a decision, decided opinion sentential power 2 (gram) Pertaining to sentences or a sentence, in the form of a sentence a sentential clause, subordinate clause sententious, adj [1 sentēshūs, 2 sentēshəl], fr Fr sententieux, fr Lat sententiōsus, 'full of meaning, pithy' See sentence & -ous (of persons and their mode of expression) Abounding in maxims and moral utterances, (chiefly in derogatory sense) burled and trite, high down, ponderous, pompous sententiously adv Free & -ly In a sententious manner sententiousness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being sententious sentience, n [1 sentēshāns, 2 sentēshəns] sentient & -ce Capacity, power, of feeling or perception by sense, consciousness sentient, adj [1 sentēshānt, 2 sentēshənt], fr Lat sentient (em), Pres Part of sentire, 'to feel' See sense (I) Having the capacity, faculty, of perceiving by the senses, experiencing sensation sentiently, adv Free & -ly In a sentient manner, by sense perception sentiment, n [1 sentimēt, 2 sentimēt], fr L Lat sentimentum, fr Lat sentire, 'to feel', see sense (I) & -ment 1 Whole body of feelings constantly entertained by a person towards some particular ideal, institution &c, Sentences, n See Sentences sentimental, adj [1 sentimētāl, 2 sentimētāl], fr Lat sentimentalis, 'pertaining to paths or byways', fr sentire, 'path' See sentire Armed military guard who paces up and down between fixed points to give warning in case of danger sentry, n [1 sentri, 2 sentri] Prob fr O Fr sentier, a form of sentier, 'path', fr L Lat sentarius, 'pertaining to paths or byways', fr sentire, 'path' See sentire Armed military guard who paces up and down between fixed points to give warning in case of danger sentry-box, n A small narrow wooden hut just high enough for a man to stand up in, used to protect sentries from the weather sentry-go, n 1 A sentry's beat 2 Duty as a sentry, guard duty senza, prop [1 senza, 2 senza] Ital, 'without', fr Lat See sine die Musical direction indicating that something can be dispensed with or disregarded senza stromento, without instruments, senza tempo, not in strict time sepal, n [1 sepal, 2 sepal], fr Fr sepale, Neo-Lat sepalum coined word, said by inventor to have been formed fr GL alēpē, 'evening' (possibly cogn w Lith kepure, 'hat') but now felt to be connected w petal (bot) One of the group of leaves forming the calyx of a flower sepalous, adj [1 sepalūs, 2 sepalōs] Free & -ous Having (specified number of) sepals polysepalous, having many sepals, gamosepalous, with sepals joined &c separability, n [1 separabiliti, 2 separabiliti] separable & -ity Quality of being separable, separableness, divisibility separable, adj [1 separabl, 2 separabl], fr

Lat separābilis See separate & -able Capable of being separated or divided separableness, n Free & -ness Quality of being separable, separability separably, adv See prece & -ly So as to be separable separate (I), adj [1 separit, 2 separit] Lat separat (um), P P of separare, 'to put apart, divide, separate', fr se, 'apart', see se-, & parare, 'to prepare, arrange, contrive' &c, see pare 1 Divided, disjoined, distinct, a (of parts of a whole or things formerly joined) no longer joined, disunited, disconnected, out, divided one from the other cut the cake into three separate parts, b (of individual, different, objects) distinct, placed apart one from the other three separate trees, a book in two separate volumes, to sleep in separate beds 2 Thought of, looked at, as distinct, having distinctive form and function, though occurring in proximity, and forming a unity the separate organs of the body, separate parts of a machine 3 Isolated, secluded, shut off, from others to live separate from others, prisoners are kept separate one from the other 4 Not in relation with others, individual, particular, independent each member of the family has a separate fortune 5 Kept apart, distinguished one from the other in the mind to keep two sets of ideas separate, these are two entirely separate questions separate (II), vb trans & intrans [1 separāt, 2 separāt] See prece A trans 1 a To make separate, sever, disunite, by cutting &c to separate a branch from the trunk, a head from a body &c, b to remove by lifting or other elminating process to separate chaff from grain, dress from ore, specify, to separate mill, to remove cream from it is a separator 2 To divide (persons) from each other, cause separation between, a to remove (persons) from society or propinquity of another (person, place &c) to separate a mother from her child, to separate a man from his home, b to cause disagreement, be source of difference, between to estrange, divide in feelings, opinions &c two old friends separated for a time by spiteful gossip, there are but a few minor points which separate us 3 a To divide, cut up, by physical barriers, place dividing lines, bound areas &c, between to separate a tract of land (up) into small plots &c, b to serve as a barrier, intervene, between the channel, a few miles off, separate(s) England from France, each field is separated from the next by a stone wall 4 To distinguish between intellectually, discriminate, perceive, difference between to separate sense from nonsense, I am unable to separate the two arguments, it is difficult to separate the different degrees of guilt one from another B intrans 1 To be, become separate, to come apart, break the rope separated under the strain 2 a To go apart, go in different directions, abandon company of another or others and pursue different road we walked a mile together and then separated, we did not separate till midnight, b to cease living together or in association (specif of husband and wife) 3 To succede from, dissolve partnership, membership of same body political unity &c various sects have separated from the Church of England at different times, America separated from the old country late in the 18th century separate (III), n, fr separate (I) 1 (obs) A person living a separate, esp a religious, monastic life 2 (biblog) Reprint, off print, separate copy of an article published in a journal or volume of Transactions &c separately, adv [1 separitē, 2 separitē], separate (I) & -ly In a separate manner, distinctively, singly separateness, n [1 separitēs, 2 separitēs] See prece & -ness Quality of being separate or independent separation, n [1 separāshun, 2 separēshən], fr Lat separāshō (em), 'a parting, severing, division, separation' See separate (II)

&-ion 1 Act, process, of separating, state of being separated or separate (in various senses of vb) 2 (specif, law) Formal arrangement, not amounting to a dissolution of marriage, whereby married persons cease to live together, whether by mutual agreement or by an order of the court Separation allowance, allowance made to a wife living separate from her husband, esp one paid by the State when the husband is serving as a soldier or sailor in war separationist, n [1 *separashun*ist, 2 separé-*jan*ist] Preo & -ist One who is in favour of political separation, between two states or parts of an empire, or between a group of members of a religious body and the main body, separatism separatism, n [1 separitizm, 2 separítizam] separate (I) & -ism Principles and aims of political or religious separatists separatist, n [1 separátist, 2 separítist] separate (I) & -ist One who advocates political or religious separatism, separationist separative, adj [1 separatív, 2 separítiv], fr Lat separatívus separate (I) & -ive Tending to cause separation separator, n [1 separáter, 2 separétér] separate (II) & -or 1 One who separates 2 Mechanical device for separating cream from milk separatory, adj [1 separátur, 2 separétur] separate (I) & -ory (rare) Separative

Sephardic, adj [1 sefarúk, 2 sefídík] Next word & -ic Pertaining to the Sephardim

Sephardim, n pl [1 sefarúm, 2 sefídúm] Heb Descendants of Jews anciently settled in Spain and Portugal sepiá, n [1 sepiá, 2 sepiá] Lat, fr Gk sepiá, 'cuttle fish', connected w base seip-*, 'decay', see sepsis, op Gk seps, 'a venomous snake' a The black inky fluid secreted by the cuttle fish, b a dark brown pigment made from this, used in water-colour drawing &c, sepiá-drawing, a drawing in sepiá sepoý, n [1 sepoi, 2 sepoi], fr Hind, Pers sepiá, 'soldier', fr Pers sepiá, 'army', op Fr sepiá A native Indian soldier, esp one trained in and for a European army, a soldier of a native regiment in British India the Sepoy Mutiny, the Indian Mutiny of 1857-58 seps, n [1 seps, 2 seps] Lat, fr Gk seps, 'a venomous snake, a lizard', fr sepsin, 'to make putrid, to rot' See next word Mediterranean snake like lizard, genus Chalcides sepsis, n [1 sepsis, 2 sepsis] Gk sepsis, 'putrefaction, decay', fr sepsin, 'to rot', cogn w Gk sepsis, 'rotten, destroyed' (with different grade), see sapro- & septic, other relationships doubtful Putrefaction, specif (pathol) a general term including various forms of infection of the blood by micro organisms or their products, blood-poisoning, septic infection sept, n [1 sept, 2 sept], fr O Fr sept, variant of septe, sect, possibly influenced by Lat saeptum, 'enclosure, fence', see septum One of the old Irish clans or tribes sept-, septem-, septen-, septi-, prefs Forms meaning 'seven', fr Lat septem, 'seven', cogn w Sort septa, Gk hepta, all fr Aryan septm*, op Goth seivan, & see seven

septa, n, pl of septum septal (I), adj [1 septal, 2 sept(á)] septum & -al (zool) Pertaining to a septum or to septa septal (II), adj sept & -al Pertaining to an Irish sept septan, adj [1 septan, 2 septan] sept- & -an, formed on anal of quartan (of fever) Recurring every seventh day septangle, n [1 septánggl, 2 septánggl] sept- & angle (geom) A figure having seven sides and seven angles, heptagon septangular, adj [1 septangúlar, 2 septángul] sept- & angular Having seven angles, septagonal.

septate, adj [1 septát, 2 septéit], fr Lat. septat (us) septum & -ate (anat) Having, divided by, a septum or septa

September, n [1 september, 2 septémbe] Lat, 'the seventh month', according to the old pre-Julian calendar See sept- & c & December The ninth month of the year

Septembrist, n [1 septémbrist, 2 septémbrist], fr Fr Septembriste (hist) One of those who took an active part in the September Massacres of Royalists in Paris, 1792 septempartite, adj [1 septempártit, 2 septempártit] sept- & partite Divided into seven parts septenarius, n [1 septénarius, 2 septénarius] Lat, fr septem, 'seven each, by sevens' See sept- & o (prosody) A verse of seven feet septenary, adj & n [1 septénari, 2 septénari] sept- & -ary 1 adj Consisting of, related to, seven 2 n The number seven, group of seven things septennate, n [1 septénat, 2 septénest], fr Fr septennal sept- & o, & septennal for second element, & -ate a A period of seven years; b period of office held for seven years septennial, adj [1 septénial, 2 septénial], fr Lat septennium, 'period of seven years', & -al, fr septennus, 'of seven years', see septennium, & -al a Lasting seven years septennial parliaments, Septennial Act, statute of 1716 extending the life of a Parliament from three to seven years, b happening, recurring, every seven years a septennial valuation of property, septennial elections septennially, adv Preo & -ly Once every seven years septennium, n [1 septénium, 2 septénium] Lat, 'period of seven years' See sept- & o, second element fr annus, 'year', see annual Period of seven years septentrional, adj [1 septéntrional, 2 septéntrional] Lat, 'northern, of the North', fr septentriones, 'the seven bright stars of Ursa Major or the Plough, the northern regions as a quarter of the heavens', fr septem, 'seven', see sept- & o, & triones, 'plough oxen', perh fr base tri*, 'ruh, grind', see trite Northern, coming from, situated in, the north septet, septette, n [1 septét, 2 septét] sept- & et(te), on anal of duet (mus) A composition for seven players or singers septic, adj & n [1 sephik, 2 sephik], fr Gk sephiká, 'causing putrefaction', fr sephós, 'putrid, rotten' See sepsis & -ic 1 adj Connected with, promoting, of the nature of, sepsis, poisoned, infected with putrefactive organisms 2 n Substance or organism tending to cause sepsis septicaemia, n [1 sepsistémia, 2 sepsistémia] Formed fr Gk sephiká, 'decayed, putrid', see septic, & haima, 'blood', see haemal, & -ia A septic condition of the blood stream caused by bacteria, blood poisoning septicaally, adv [1 sephikál, 2 sephikál] septic & -al & -ly In a septic manner, by septic infection septicity, n [1 sepsistí, 2 sepsistí] septic & -ity a Quality of being septic, b tendency to become septic or cause septic infection septilateral, adj [1 sephiláteral, 2 sephiláteral] See sept- & lateral Seven-sided septillion, n [1 sephilún, 2 sephilún] Fr septillion, fr sept- & -illion, on anal of million A million raised to the seventh power, 1 followed by 42 ciphers, b (in Fr and Am usage) a thousand raised to eighth power, 1 followed by 24 ciphers septimal, adj [1 septúmal, 2 septúmal], fr Lat septimus, 'seventh', see septimus, & -al Relating, pertaining, to the number seven septime, n [1 septém, 2 septím] Fr See next word The seventh position in fencing septimus, adj [1 septimus, 2 septimes] Lat, 'seventh' See sept- & o Seventh, esp in schools, of the seventh of a series of boys having the same name, cp primus, sometimes used as Christian name of a seventh son.

septuagenarian, n & adj [1 septúajenár, 2 septúajenár] See next word & -an 1 n A person seventy years old, b person between the ages of 70 and 80 2 adj Septuagenary septuagenary, adj [1 septúajenári, 2 septúajenári], fr Lat septuagénarius, fr septuagén, 'seventy each', septuagénia, 'seventy', & -ary a Consisting of seventy, b seventy years old, pertaining to a person seventy years old

Septuagesima, n [1 septúajésima, 2 septúajésima] Lat septuagésima (des), 'seventieth (day)', form of septuagénus, see preo, loosely, as nearly seventy days before Easter, op Quadragesima, see sept- & o, & the suff -ésima (imo-), fr gens-* for gent-, op gent- under next word Septuagesima (Sunday), the Sunday before Sexagesima, third Sunday before Lent

Septuagint, n [1 septúajint, 2 septúajint], fr Lat septuaginta, 'seventy', sept- & o & -gint (op Lat viginti, '20'), wh is for Aryan em-*, 'decade, group of ten', as in Lat decem & o, see deci- (abbr LXX) The Hellenistic Greek version of the Old Testament and the Apocrypha, made according to the legend by seventy (two) writers in the 3rd cent B C septum, n, pl septa [1 septum, -ta, 2 septa, -ta] Lat, also saeptum, 'hedge, enclosure', PP type of sepire, sepire, 'to enclose, fence', fr sepes, 'hedge', cogn w Gk sephiká for sephiká*, 'thicket', fr seph-* A dividing partition, a membrane or wall, specif a such a partition dividing two cavities or masses of tissue in the body, b (bot) one dividing the chambers of a seed vessel &c septuple, adj, n & vb trans [1 septúpl, 2 septúpl] Fr, fr Lat septuplus, see sept-, & suff -ple, as in quadruple &c, & op double 1 adj Multiplied by seven, sevenfold 2 n A sevenfold amount 3 vb To multiply by seven sepulchral, adj [1 sepulkrál, 2 sepulkrál] O Fr, fr Lat sepulchrus See sepulchre & -al 1 Connected with, pertaining to, a sepulchre, to the grave, to a burial or to the dead sepulchral monuments, rites &c, sepulchral remains, pottery &c 2 Suggestive of the grave, melancholy, dismal, funereal sepulchral visage, look &c, sepulchral voice, one that is deep in tone and suggestive of mental gloom sepulchrally, adv Preo & -ly In a sepulchral manner sepulchre (I), n [1 sepulker, 2 sepálka], fr O Fr sepulcre, fr Lat sepulcrum, fr sepul (tum), PP type of sepire, 'to bury, inter', the origin of this vb is doubtful 1 A burial place, grave, tomb, esp a grave cut in rock or built of stone &c, a vault Phr a whited sepulchre, hypocrite, see Matt xxiii 27 Easter Sepulchre, a small vaulted or arched niche on the north side of the altar in a church in which the consecrated elements of the Eucharist were kept from Thursday in Easter week till Easter Sunday, Holy Sepulchre, the rock tomb in which Christ was laid, the place for which the Crusades were fought and to which pilgrims resort 2 (fig, rare) Place where something is lost or buried the sepulchre of one's hopes, ambitions &c, grate in the more usual word here sepulchre (II), vb trans, fr preo To lay in a sepulchre or tomb, to bury, inter to sepulchre the dead, (also fig) there all his ambitions lay sepulchred sepulchre, n [1 sepulchur, 2 sepálke] O Fr, fr Lat sepulchus See sepul, as in sepulchre (I), & -ura Act, mode, of burying the dead, burial, interment sequacious, adj [1 sekwáshus, 2 sekwáshus] Lat base sequ-, 'to follow', see sequela, & -ious (rare) 1 Following, attendant, not independent, pliable, ductile 2 Logically consistent, following as effect on cause sequaciously, adv. Prec & -ly In a sequacious, logically consistent manner sequaciousness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being sequacious sequel, n. [1 sēkwel, 2 sēkwel] fr O Fr sequele, fr Lat sequela, 'a follower, that which follows, consequence, result, sequel' See next word & cp sociable That which follows 1 A continuation, resumption, after a break or pause the sequel of a novel, 'Paradise Regained' is not a mere sequel to 'Paradise Lost' 2 A following, subsequent event, whether causally connected with the preceding one or not is the sequel to (of) the war to be preparation for another, the sequel to this unhappy marriage is well known Phr in the sequel, as events have proved, as things turned out, as it has happened 3 A consequence, result, effect the sequel of such a speech can be foreseen, the inevitable sequel of his folly sequela, n. [1 sēkwēla, 2 sēkwēla] Lat, 'follower, that which follows, consequence, result', fr hse sequi, 'to follow', cogn w Gk ἀκολουῶ, 'I follow', Serb sećati, 'accompanies, follows', op the related Lat socius, 'fellow, companion', see sociable (med, usually pl sequelae) Condition, state, esp abnormal, morbid state, left as the consequence of a disease or injury scarlet fever often has deafness as one of its sequelae sequence, n. [1 sēkwēns, 2 sēkwēns] sequent & -ce 1 A Order in which events succeed each other, b series of events or phenomena occurring in succession 2 a (implying natural or causal connexion) The sequence of the seasons, the inevitable sequence of a crime and punishment, b (implying logical connexion) one could wish a little more sequence in the arguments 3 Specific uses a (cards) series of cards of same suit in order of value, b (gram) principles according to which the tenses of a subordinate are adjusted to those of a principal clause, c (mus) a succession of tones of graduated pitch, up or down the scale sequent, adj [1 sēkwēnt, 2 sēkwēnt] fr Lat sequens (em), 'following', Prec Part of sequi, 'to follow', see sequela a Following, succeeding, subsequent 'a sequent king' (Milton, 'P L', xii 165), b resulting, con sequent sequentes, n. [1 sēkwēntēs, 2 sēkwēntēs] Lat nom mass pl sequentes [1 sēkwēntēs, 2 sēkwēntēs] Nunt pl See prec (abbr seq, sequ) The following pages, verses, lines &c, used in giving references sequential, adj [1 sēkwēnshəl, 2 sēkwēnshəl] sequent & -al. Sequent, succeeding, following in order of time or place, occurring as a consequence or result sequentiality, n. [1 sēkwēnshəliti, 2 sēkwēnshəliti] Prec & -ity Quality, state, of being sequential sequentially, adv [1 sēkwēnshəl, 2 sēkwēnshəl] sequential & -ly In a sequential manner, subsequently, consequently sequester, vb trans & intrans [1 sēkwēstər, 2 sēkwēstər] fr O Fr sequester, fr L Lat sequestrare, 'to hand over to another for safe custody, to surrender, to take away, separate from', fr sequester, 'a depository, custodian, trustee', sequestrum, 'deposit of property which is a subject of dispute, with a third party as trustee, till the dispute is settled', etymol uncertain, prob fr base sequi, 'to follow', see sequela &c A trans 1 (now usually sequester) n (law) To take possession of (the property of another) for a certain time and purpose, b to cause (one's property) to be sequestered he has sequestered his estates, c (gen) to seize, confiscate 2 (reflex) To sequester oneself, to withdraw, set apart, seclude he sequestered himself from society, (or PP as adj) to live a sequestered life, (along the cool sequestered vale of life' (Gray, 'Elegy') B intrans. (law, of widow) To sequester sequestrable, adj [1 sēkwēstrəbəl, 2 sēkwēstrəbəl] sequester & -able Capable of being sequestered, subject to sequestration.

sequestrat, adj [1 sēkwēstrat, 2 sēkwēstrat] sequestrum & -al (med) Pertaining to, of the nature of, a sequestrum sequestrate, vb trans & intrans [1 sēkwēstrāt, 2 sēkwēstrāt, sēkwēstrōt] fr L Lat sequestratus (um), PP of sequestrare, see sequester A trans 1 (law) a To remove (property) from the possession of its owner, by process of law, and hold it, taking profits for the purpose of paying a debt, satisfying a claim &c, specif (used of bishop) to hold (an ecclesiastical benefice) till claims against the incumbent are satisfied, b to cause (one's property) to be sequestered, to hand over to a sequester, c (internal law, of a belligerent State) to appropriate the debts due from its own nationals to the enemy State, d (Scotts law) to take possession of a bankrupt's property for the purpose of realization for the benefit of the creditors 2 (obs) To sequester (A 2) B intrans (law, of widow) To renounce all claims upon the estate of her deceased husband sequestration, n. [1 sēkwēstrāshən, 2 sēkwēstrāshən] fr L Lat sequestratio (em) See sequestrate & -ion 1 Act, process, of sequestrating or taking possession of the property of another and holding it for the benefit of creditors or of the State 2 (rare) State of being sequestered or withdrawn, seclusion.

sequester, n. [1 sēkwēstrāter, 2 sēkwēstrāter] Lat See sequestrate & -or One who sequestrates, specif (law) person appointed to hold sequestered property till claims against it are satisfied &c, applied specifically to a bishop who sequestrates a benefice sequestrum, n. [1 sēkwēstrum, 2 sēkwēstrum] Med Lat, lit 'a sequestered thing' See sequester (med) A piece of dead or diseased bone which becomes separated by necrosis from the healthy bone, and has to be removed by an operation sequin, n. [1 sēkwīn, 2 sēkwīn] Fr, fr Ital sequino, 'coin', fr secco, 'a mint', fr Arab siklah, 'a die for stamping coins' 1 A Venetian gold coin, value about 9s 3d, struck first in the 13th cent, later struck elsewhere in Italy and circulating in Turkey and the Levant &c 2 A disk or spangle made of bright metal, unfail &c, used as an ornamental trimming for women's dresses

Sequoia, n. [1 sēkwōia, 2 sēkwōia] fr Sequoyah, name of a Cherokee Indian (bot) Genus of Californian evergreen coniferous trees of great height, including Sequoia sempervirens, the redwood, and Sequoia gigantea, the Californian 'big tree' the latter, grown as an ornamental tree, is called in England Wellingtonia ser, also seer, n. [1 sēr, 2 sēr] Hind ser An Indian measure of weight, one fortieth of a maund, slightly over 2 lb sérac, n. [1 sarak, 2 sarak] Fr, properly (in the Alps) the name of a cheese A pointed mass or pinnacle of ice formed by crevasses crossing a glacier or steep slopes seraglio n. [1 sērāhō, 2 sērāhō] fr Ital seraglio, orig 'enclosure, place enclosed by palisades', later, 'a Turkish palace', formed w suff aglio (Lat aculum), fr serrare, 'to lock, close, shut', fr L Lat serrare, 'to bolt, bar', fr sera, 'bolt, bar to door', fr serere, 'to join' See series & serried & cp sear (III), the ordinary meaning is due to a confusion w Pers serāi, 'a sultan's palace', see serai. 1 a (hist, cap) The name of the old palace of the Sultan of Turkey in Constantinople, including his residence and harem, official and government buildings &c the Old Seraglio, b (not cap) aoy palace of a sultan of Turkey or Moslem ruler, esp with reference to the harem 2 a Harem, the place where a Moslem keeps his wives &c in seclusion, b (fig) the wives and esp concubines of aa

Oriental or other monarch Charles II and his seraglio 3 The system of the harem or seclusion of wives &c, concubinage serai, n. [1 sērī, 2 sērī] Pers, 'palace' A place where travellers may be accommodated in India and the East, a caravansaray serang, n. [1 sērāng, 2 sērāng] fr Pers sarhang, 'commander' The name given in the East Indies to the native, usually Malay, boatswain of a ship serape, n. [1 sērāpī, 2 sērāpī] fr Mexican Span serape A blanket worn as a kind of riding cloak or used as a saddle-cloth in Mexico and Spanish S America seraph, n. [1 sērāf, 2 sērāf], pl seraphs, Heb seraphim [1 sērāfīm, 2 sērāfīm] fr Heb seraphīm (only in pl), 'the exalted ones', cogn w Arab sharaf, 'high, noble' Cp Sharief 1 (Bib) A celestial being, having human form and three pairs of wings (Isaiah vi 2, 6) 2 a An angel of the highest of the nine angelo orders, b n representation in art of such an angel, usually a head surrounded by three pairs of wings seraphic, adj [1 sērāfīk, 2 sērāfīk] Prec & -ic 1 Pertaining to a seraph or to the order of seraphs 'the great seraphic lords' (Milton, 'P L', i 704) 2 Sublime, angelic, serene a seraphic smile The Seraphic Doctor, Saint Bonaventura, General of the Franciscans, 1217-74, renowned for his ardent preaching seraphically, adv [1 sērāfīkālī, 2 sērāfīkālī] Prec & -al & -ly In a seraphic manner seraphim, n. pl [1 sērāfīm, 2 sērāfīm] Heb, used as pl of seraph. Seraphs Order of the Seraphim, the principal Swedish order of knighthood seraphine, n. [1 sērāfēn, 2 sērāfēn] seraph & -ine (mus) An early form of reed instrument played by a keyboard and bellows, succeeded by the melodeon and harmonium seraskier, n. [1 sērāskēr, 2 sērāskēr] Turk serasker, fr Pers sar, 'chief, head', & Arab askar, 'army' A Turkish general, the commander in chief, or minister of war, in the Turkish Empire

Serb, n. [1 sērb, 2 sēb] Serb Srb, Srp a Native of Serbia (or Serrva), b language of this people

Serbian, adj & n [1 sērbīan, 2 sērbīan], fr prec & -ian 1 adj Of or pertaining to Serbia or the Serbian language 2 n a A Serb, b the Serbian language

Serbian bog, n. [1 sērbīan bōg, 2 sērbīan bōg] fr Lake Serbonis, a boggy lake in the delta of the Nile, in which whole armies were said to be swallowed up, op Milton, 'P L', ii 892 (lit and fig) A difficult, confused position from which escape is almost impossible seré (I), adj [1 sēr, 2 sēr] See sear (I) Dry withered seré (II), n. See sear (III) A catch of a gun lock serectioth, n. See sercoloth seren, n. [1 sērān, 2 sērān] Fr See serene (I) A fine, misty rain falling from a clear sky serenade (I), n. [1 sērēnd, 2 sērēnd], fr Fr serénade, fr Ital serenata, fr Lat serénat (um), PP of serénare, 'to make calm, clear, or serene', fr serenus, see serene (I), the meaning is due to the confusion of Lat serenus w serus, 'late' (op Ital sera, 'evening'), & the application of former to the evening or night 1 a Music sung or played at night by a lover beneath a lady's window, b music composed for such a song 2 (mus) a A cantata, b an early form of the instrumental symphony, a development of the suite serenade (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To play, sing, a serenade to to serenade one's lady love 2 intrans To perform, sing, play, serenades the young Spaniards go serenading every night serenata, n. [1 sērēnāta, 2 sērēnāta] Ital. See prec Serenade serendipity, n [1 serendipity, 2 sārendipiti] Coined by Horace Walpole, Letters to Mann, Jan 1754, fr Serendib, di, Arab name of Ceylon, in tale of three princes of Ceylon. The faculty of finding interesting or valuable things by chance or where one least expects them serene (I), adj [1 serēn, 2 serin], fr Lat serēnus, 'clear, fair, cloudless, bright, joyous, glad', fr serenos*, prob cogn w Gk seros, seris, 'dry', Sort kadyati, 'it burns', op Lat serescere, 'to grow dry' 1 a (of sky, air, weather, of celestial bodies &c) Clear, unclouded the sky is serene and bright, in the clear sky the moon shines serene, b (of sea, weather) calm, unruffled, placid into the serene waters of the Pacific, a bright, serene October 2 (of condition of mind and body) a Calm, placid, tranquil, undisturbed, unruffled a serene old age, the serene dignity of his face, serene courage, he kept his temper serene in the most trying circumstances, b slang Phr all serene, 'everything is quiet, there is no danger, all right' 3 (as title) Serene Highness, abbr HSH, His, Her, Serene Highness, used of members of certain princely European families, the Lat serēnus simus, 'most serene', was used as a title of honour in the Byzantine Empire and also by the Doges of Venice serene (II), n & vb trans, fr prec (poet and archaic) 1 n A serene expanse of sky or sea into the vast serene, 'But never did I breathe its pure serene, Till I heard Chapman speak out loud and bold' (Keats) 2 vb To make serene, to make clear or calm serenely, adv [1 serēnli, 2 serinli] serene (I) & -ly In a serene manner, clearly, calmly, without perturbation or agitation of mind sereneness, n [1 serēnness, 2 serinness] See prec & -ness Serenity serenity, n [1 serēniti, 2 sereniti], fr Lat serēnitās (em) See serene (I) & -ity 1 State, quality, of being serene, a (of sky, sea &c) clearness, brightness the serenity of the weather, b (of mind &c) tranquillity, composure the serenity of old age 2 As title, referring to a Serene Highness Their Serenities the Prince and Princess of X serf, n [1 serf, 2 sāf] Fr, fr Lat servus, 'slave' See serve (I) 1 (hist) a In the earlier pre Conquest Middle Ages a slave belonging personally to a thegn, and working his land, b one who, as formerly in Russia, while personally free, is bound to the soil, which he cannot leave without his master's consent, a serf can be sold only with the land to which he is attached 2 (fig) Term applied to one who is conceived of as being in a humiliating and degrading state of dependence upon another and living under conditions supposed to resemble those of a serf, eg a wage earner who works for a master is compared by some to a serf serfage, n [1 serfi, 2 sāfid] Prec & -age Serfdom serfdom, n [1 serfdm, 2 sāfdm] serf & -dom a State, condition, of a serf, servitude, b system of tilling the land by serfs, villanage serge, n [1 sārj, 2 eīdz] Fr, fr Lat serica, 'silk material, silken garments', fem of sericus, 'silken' See sericeous Formerly a silken fabric, now a hard-wearing, twilled, woollen material, used for men's and women's outer garments sergeant, serjeant, n [1 sārjant, 2 sādjant], fr O Fr serjant, fr L or Med Lat serient- (em), n 'servant', Pres Part of serire, 'to serve', see servant & serve (I) The spelling w g is usual in military & police senses, that w j in the legal sense, the rule in other cases varies 1 (Med hist, in various uses) a Of various royal or court officials, surviving in serjeant at arms, b a fully armed mounted man at arms, ranking below a squire, c a legal official of the king, d a tenant holding by serjeanty 2 (mil) a Non commissioned officer in British Army, ranking above a corporal and below a serjeant major, responsible for drill and discipline, b a police-officer ranking below an inspector and above a constable 3 (legal, in full Serjeant at law) A member of an order of barristers, now abolished, ranking in precedence before King's Counsel, enjoying exclusive rights of pleading in certain courts, and wearing originally a coat of white lawn cap, later a small black silk patch on the top of the wig, the privileges were abolished finally in 1873, and the order is extinct except in Ireland, Common Serjeant, n judicial officer of the City of London, who also sits as a judge in the Central Criminal Court 4 Serjeant fish

sergeant, serjeant-at-arms, n Usually w j 1 The name of various ceremonial officials of the Royal Household 2 Specif, name of two officials in charge of the mace, a of the Lord Chancellor in the House of Lords, b of the Speaker of the House of Commons, responsible for carrying out disciplinary orders, conveying messages from the Crown, and other ceremonial duties sergeant-fish, n A deep sea fish of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, resembling the mackerel, bearing stripes like those of a sergeant's chevron sergeant-major, n (mil) A warrant officer of which there is one to each company in infantry battalions, ranking above n sergeant, in the cavalry and artillery, the senior non commissioned officer of a troop, squadron, or battery, regimental sergeant-major, the senior warrant officer of a battalion sergeanty, serjeanty, n [1 sārjenti, 2 sādjenti] Usually w j, fr O Fr sergentie See sergeant & -y (feudal law) A tenure of land by the rendering of various services, to the Crown, or superior lord, other than military or knight service, grand serjeanty, performance of personal service or attendances on the lord, still surviving in ceremonial duties at coronations petty serjeanty, annual tribute of some article of war, surviving in some tenures, by presentation of a flag &c serial (I), adj [1 seriāl, 2 seriēl] See series & -al 1 Pertaining to, arranged in, forming, a series currency notes bearing serial numbers, in serial order 2 a Appearing, issued, published, at specific intervals or periods, issued in a series of parts or instalments a serial story, film &c, b referring to a publication so issued serial rights, serial publication serial (II), n, fr prec a A serial publication of any kind, b specif, a story, novel &c published in serial form serially, adv [1 seriālly, 2 seriēlly] serial (I) & -ly a In a series, in successive order the numbers follow serially, b in succeeding numbers or parts the novel will appear serially seriate, adj [1 seriāt, 2 seriēti], fr Med Lat seriat (um), PP of seriare, 'to arrange in a series' See series & -ate a Arranged in a series or in order of successive numbers, b pertaining to a series seriatum, adv [1 seriātum, 2 seriēstum] Med Lat, prec & -um, old form of acc suff, used to form adv, op Lat statim, 'immediately' In regular order, serially, specif, point by point, taking things one by one in their order to deal with arguments seriatim, to take the numbers seriatim seriation, n [1 seriāshun, 2 seriēshun] seriate & -ion Arrangement in series, formation of a series, position in a series sericate, adj [1 serikāt, 2 serikēti] See next word & -ate Sericeous sericeous, adj [1 serishus, 2 serifas], fr L Lat sericeus & -ous, Lat sericus, 'silken', op sericum, 'silk', fr Gk serikōn, fr serilos, op sericum, 'silk', an E Asiatic people mentioned by Gk & Lat writers as making silk, now gen identified w the Chinese Resembling silk, having a silky appearance or feel, specif (bot) covered with soft, silky hairs sericite, n [1 serisit, 2 serisat], fr Lat sericus, 'silken', & -ite (mineral) A species of muscovite with a silky, lustrous surface, resembling talc sericultural, adj [1 serikūlohural, 2 serikaltjural] Next word & -al Pertaining to sericulture sericulturist, n [1 serikūlehur, 2 serikaltjē] Lat sericum, 'silk' See sericeous & culture The breeding and management of silkworms for the production of raw silk sericulturist, n [1 serikūlehurist, 2 serikaltjērist] Prec & -ist One engaged in the production of raw silk seriama, n [1 seriēma, 2 serifma] Native S Am name A large, long-legged, crested Brazilian bird, of yellowish grey colour, with red legs and bill, related to the bustards series, n [1 seriz, 2 serifz] Lat, 'row, succession, order, sequence, series', fr serare, 'to join, fasten together, to arrange in order', cogn w Gk heirein for serj*, 'to fasten together in rows, to string together, to bind', O E searu, 'device, contrivance, armour', op seraglio & serried A number, set of things, or events, similar to each other or having some common characteristic or relationship, arranged, or standing, in order of succession, following in time, or next in space, a sequence, row, set, succession, a (of material things or persons) a series of columns, arches &c, a series of coins, a series of able statesmen, b (of non material things) a series of defects, victories, Phr in series, arranged in order of 2 Specific or technical uses a (biblog) a number of works having similar size and scope, published successively from same firm, dealing with related subjects, different aspects of a subject &c, edited according to some common plan, b (biol) a group as a form of classification, less wide than order, c (elect) arrangement, set, of batteries connected end to end and not parallel, d (chem) a group of compounds having a common radical, as the hydrocarbons, e (geol) a formation, group, of allied strata forming a subdivision of a system, f (math) a succession of terms arranged according to a common law, a progression

serif, n See oscriph serin, n [1 serin, 2 serin] Fr, etymol unknown A yellow or greenish yellow finch, Serinus hortulanus, of Central and South Europe, akin to the canary serinette, n [1 serinet, 2 serinēt] Fr, prec & dimin -ette A musical instrument used in training serins and other song birds seringa, n [1 seringga, 2 seringga] Port See syringa A Brazilian rubber tree of various species serio-comic, adj [1 seriō kōmik, 2 seriōu kōmik] See serious & comic Half serious, half comic, combining the serious and comic, mock serious serious, adj [1 serius, 2 serias] O Fr serieux, fr L Lat serius, 'grave, earnest, not jocular, serious', & -ous, orig sense, 'heavy', whence 'weighty, in importance and in behaviour', cogn w O H G swēr, 'heavy, severe', Mod Germ schwer, O E suēr, 'excessive, heavy, grievous', Gotb swērs, 'honoured', fr earlier sense 'weighty, making an imposing impression', further Lith svārīs, 'heavy', svoras, 'weight'

1 a Of a solemn, sober, thoughtful turn of mind, not given to levity, grave, sedate, staid he is strangely serious for so young a man, also, a serious mind, a serious thought &c, b in a solemn, serious mood, not for the moment inclined to jest, filled with grave thoughts the news of the disaster rendered him serious in a moment, you look very serious this morning, also expressing, revealing, a serious mood his face became suddenly serious, we must have a serious talk 2 a Meaning what one says, wishing to be taken literally, not ironical you cannot be serious when you say you are thirty five, b (of things said or done) meant in earnest, intended, whole hearted is this a serious offer?, made a serious attempt to swim the Channel 3 Genuine, thorough, to be reckoned with in specified capacity, reverse of superficial, perfunctory, omatourish a serious student, scholar, painter, a serious opponent, rival 4 Important, grave, not to be disregarded, bringing important results, demanding consideration and care, demanding considered action, a as involving difficulty, effort a serious matter, a serious step to take, a serious offence, mistake, over sight &c, b attended with risk and danger, giving rise to anxiety, critical the situation is serious, a serious menace, a serious illness, wound, the patient is in a serious condition 5 Concerned, dealing with grave intellectual or spiritual questions many people cannot read serious books, a mind accustomed to dwell on serious subjects, the play was too serious for me seriously, adv. Preco & -ly 1 In a serious manner, a gravely, solemnly, impressively he warned them seriously, we must treat, take, the matter seriously, b not lightly, in earnest do you seriously mean what you say?, seriously speaking, now, seriously (as introducing a statement &c), joking apart 2 To a serious degree, so as to cause anxiety or danger, dangerously, severely seriously wounded, seriously ill, seriously affected by the coal strike, to a considerable extent, gravely seriously offended seriousness, n. See preco & -ness 1 Quality, state, of being serious, grave, earnest, not frivolous or jocular his life was marked by an unrelaxing seriousness, the seriousness of his mind, we must regard the matter in all seriousness 2 State or quality of being attended with danger, causing anxiety seriousness of our position, of the news, seriousness of an illness &c serjeant, serjeanty. See sergeant &c sermon, n. [1 sérmon, 2 sáman] M.E., fr. Fr. fr. Lat. sermō (em), 'speech, discourse, conversation, discussion', prob. cogn. w. Goth. swaran, 'to answer, to swear, affirm', q.v. under swear, & second element of answer a Discourse on moral and religious subjects delivered from the pulpit of a church, the Sermon on the Mount, the teaching of Christ embodied in the discourse related in Matt v, vi and vii and Luke vi, b (iron) tedious harangue, pronouncement of a moralizing and admonitory character uttered by one having no special mission to preach sermonize, vb trans & intrans [1 sérmoniz, 2 sámoniz] sermon & -ize a trans To preach at, to lecture, b intrans, to preach, to deliver harangues sero- pref. See serum, used in compounds sero therapy, treatment by serum serosity, n. [1 sérosita, 2 sárositi] serous & -ity 1 State of being serous 2 A serous fluid serotine, n. [1 sérutin, 2 serutin] Fr. fr. Lat. serotinus, 'happening, coming late or in the evening', fr. serus, 'late', cogn. w. Scrt. sayur, 'evening', O Ir. sir, 'enduring ever lasting', Goth. saipus, 'late', O.E. siddan, 'since, later', see since 'The base is *sē &c', 'to come late come slowly' A small European and N African bat, Vesperugo serotinus, chestnut brown in colour with yellowish underparts serotinous, adj [1 serotinus, 2 serotinus] Preco & -ous (bot and zool.) Appearing later in the season than is usual serous, adj [1 sérus, 2 sáras] serum & -ous Having the character of serum, secreting serum serpent, n. [1 sérpent, 2 sápent] Fr. fr. Lat. serpens (em), 'serpent snake', lit. 'a creeping thing', fr. Pres Part of serpere, 'to wind crawl', cogn. w. Scrt. sarpai, 'he creeps', & sarpai 'serpent' Gk. hérpēn, to creep 1 A snake Phr. the Serpent the devil in the form of the tempter 2 A malevolent, venomous person 3 Specif. n (astron, cap) one of the northern constellations, b (mus.) an obsolete bass wood wind instrument, with long tube curved or bent like a snake serpent-hearer, n. A constellation to the south of Hercules, represented pictorially by a man strangling a serpent, also called Ophiuchus serpent-charmer, n. A snake charmer serpent-eater, n. a The secretary bird, b the markhor or Himalayan wild goat serpent-fish, n. A ribbon fish serpent-grass, n. The Alpine histort, a polygonaceous perennial herb with twisted root serpentine, n. [1 sérpentin, 2 sápentin] Fr. Lat. serpens (em), 'serpent', & -form Serpentine-like in form serpentina (I), adj & n. [1 sérpentina, 2 sápentina] fr. Fr. serpentina (e), fr. Lat. serpentinus See serpent & -ine 1 adj Resembling a serpent, specif. a twisting, winding, sinuous the serpentine turnings of the road, b (fig, of character &c) crooked, tortuous, treacherous, unreliable 2 n. (cap) The Serpentine, sheet of water in Hyde Park, so called from its former shape serpentine (II), n, fr. preco 1 (geol) A rock or mineral consisting of hydrous magnesium silicate, found in a fibrous state as asbestos or in masses of soft rock, of deep green or red colour, taking a high polish and used as a form of marble for ornamental work, named from its mottled appearance 2 An old form of cannon serpent-like, adj serpent & -like Resembling a serpent (lit and fig) serpent-lizard, n. The seps serpent's tongue, n (bot) A fern, also known as adder's tongue serpiginous, adj [1 sérpiginus, 2 sápidiginus] fr. Lat. serpigin (em) Stem of next word & -ous Of the nature of serpigo, resembling this serpigo, n [1 sérpigō, 2 sápidigō] Lat., 'a creeping skin disease', fr. base serp, 'to creep', see serpent & Ringworm, b herpes or shingles serpula, n. [1 sérpulo, 2 sáipula] Lat., 'little snake' See serpent A brightly coloured marine worm living in a tubular shell serra, n. [1 séra, 2 sára] Lat., 'saw', etymol doubtful, perh. imitative of sound of sawing, Isidore says of the word 'nomen de sono factum est' A saw like organ, a serrated edge of an organ or part of the body, as of the saw fish or saw fly serradella serradilla, n. [1 séradéla, dila, 2 seradéla, dila] Port & Span, fr. serrado, 'serrated' See preco word. A kind of clover, also called 'hurd's foot clover', used for fodder serrate, adj [1 sérāt, 2 séroit] fr. Lat. serrātus See serra & -ate Having notches on the edge like the teeth of a saw, serrated, esp. of leaves serrated, adj [1 sératēd, 2 séroitēd] Preco & -ed Serrate, more usual in common parlance serration, n. [1 sérashun, 2 séroshun] Preco & -ion Formation resembling the edge of a saw serricorn, n [1 sericorn, 2 serilōn] serra & Lat. cornu, 'horn' See corn (III) A beetle with serrated antennae serried, adj [1 sérīd, 2 sérīd] fr. Fr. serré, P.P. of serrer, 'to press close together', & -ed, serrer is fr. Lat. serrare, 'to bolt, shut', formed fr. Lat. serra, 'bolt bar', wh. is in gradational relation to Lat. serus, 'branch of a tree bar (for a door)', cogn. w. Scrt. serus, 'long piece of wood', a post', O.E. sceor, 'pillar, column', & sceora, 'neck', op. series & seraglio Packed, pressed, knit, esp. in Phr. in serried ranks (of soldiers &c) serried rows of spectators serriferous, adj [1 sériferus, 2 sériferus]

See sorra & -ferous (bot. and zool.) Having serrated edges, bearing a serrated organ or appendage serriform, adj [1 sériform, 2 sérifism] sorra & -form Shaped like, resembling, a saw, having a serrated edge serrirostrate, adj [1 sérirōstrāt, 2 sérirōstrāt] sorra & rostrate (of birds) Saw-billed serrulate, adj [1 sérulit, 2 sérulit] fr. Lat. serrula, 'a little saw', dimin. of sorra, & -ate 1 finely toothed or serrated serum, n. [1 sérum, 2 sáram] Lat. serum, 'whew, watery fluid', cogn. w. Gk. orós, 'whew', fr. orós*, Scrt. sarā, 'flowing', the base ser*, sor*, is a simpler form of srew*, 'to flow', q.v. under rhoo & stream a Watery fluid remaining from the fluids of the body, esp. from blood, after coagulation, b specif. (pathol) a serum a fluid prepared by culture for immunization by inoculation, cp vaccine servable, adj [1 sérvabl, 2 sávehl] serve (I) & -able Capable of being served serval, n. [1 sérval, 2 sávl] fr. native name An African wild cat, Felis serval, of brownish-yellow colour with black spots, long limbs, and ringed tail servant, n [1 sérvant, 2 sávant] O Fr. fr. Lat. servant (em), Pres Part of servire, 'to protect, keep watch over' &c, the Fr. infin. servir, corresponds to Lat. servire, 'to be a servant' See serve (I) One who serves, in service of, another 1 A person in the service of the Crown or State the Ministers are His Majesty's servants, a public servant, civil servant, member of the Civil Service 2 A person employed by another, his master, under a contract, written or implied, to perform certain duties and to be under his control and obedient to his orders, esp. a one, male or female, in personal service to such master, and attached to his house or estate a domestic servant outdoor, indoor, general, servant, man, maid servant &c, b of a member of the official staff of a company, or of an employee of a company performing public services the servants of a railway company, including all the employees, in general the term is contrasted with employee, workman, labourer, which are applied to persons employed in trades, businesses &c 3 A form of ending an official letter whether to a superior or not your obedient servant, (formerly in full) your humble and obedient servant, b (obs or semi-jocular) as form of greeting, or acknowledgement madam, your obedient humble servant, your servant, sir 4 a (as transl. of Lat. servus, in religious or eccles. usage) *A devoted adherent or follower of another, one ready and eager to do service, fulfil the will of another a humble servant of Christ, 'Servant of God, well done' (Milton, P.L. vi 29), servant of the servants of God, (Lat. servus servorum Dei), title adopted for the Popes by Gregory the Great, b* (by transf.) one devoted to the service or interests of others or of some special duty or interest a servant of art, literature &c, he professed to conduct his business solely as a servant of the public 5 Something which aids, helps or serves, if put to proper use and kept under control, esp. in Phr. a good servant, but a bad master, of money, fire &c servant-maid -girl, n A maidservant, girl, maid in domestic service servants' hall, n Special room in a private house used as sitting room for the domestics servants for their meals &c serve (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sérve, 2 sáiv] M.E. serien, fr. O Fr. servir, there are two vbs in Lat. the meanings of wh. are to some extent combined in the Fr. vb, servire, 'to serve, to be in service, to be a servant', & servare, 'to save, deliver, preserve, protect', cp observe, preserve, conserve, both Lat. vbs are formed fr. servus, 'slave, servant' &c, the primitive sense of wb is 'guardian, watcher', specif. 'guardian of catilla &c

hence, 'attendant, slave' &c, op oogn Gk oúros, 'watcher, guardian', for servus, or also Lith servu, 'I watch', on the other hand, Gk éleros, 'servitude', orig perh 'place where something is guarded', the idea of servitude, slave &c, may be arrived at either direct fr that of 'one employed as a guardian', or fr the sense 'person under guard, one who is kept from escaping'. Another form of the same base, in the sense of 'to watch', hence, 'to be troubled' &c, is prob found in sorrow. A trans 1 a To act as servant to, to be employed by, to work for to serve a master, b to render spiritual service and obedience to, to worship and obey to serve God, Phr to serve two masters, to owe divided allegiance 2 a To perform service, duties, for, give one's service to to serve the king, one's country &c, b to be of service to, to help, assist, forward interests of I am only too glad if I can serve you in any way, c to be of use, to avail there are occasions when we feel that no human power can serve us 3 a To supply with goods &c, to attend, wait, upon to serve customers, what can we serve you with?, is there anyone to serve me?, b to supply, satisfy, the wants of our branch (railway) line services a large district 4 a To prepare and present (food) at table dinner is served, to serve goose with plenty of stuffing, b to distribute, hand round to serve coffee in Savres cups, serve it to his lordship first 5 To be adequate to, fulfil, (chiefly) to serve its purpose, do what is required, that will serve my purpose, perform the duties or functions which I need, (also) serve its, my &c, turn 6 a To perform, fulfil, the duties necessary for or required in one doctor serves a large district, b (1) to assist at (a service), (2) give assistance to in a subordinate position an acolyte to serve Mass, to serve the priest at Mass 7 To go through, pass time in, undergo punishment &c to serve an apprenticeship, to serve one's full term in office, prison &c, he served seven years Phr to serve time 8 To treat, to behave to, chiefly in Phr it serves you right, you have got what you deserve, (otherwise rather vulg) he served his father very badly, you have no business to serve me like that 9 To handle, work, operate to serve a, the, gun(s) 10 (of stallion) To cover to serve a mare 11 (law) a (of legal processes) To make legal service of, to bring to the notice of person affected, to deliver, execute, put into effect to serve a summons, writ, notice (upon), to deliver it personally or by substitution, to serve a warrant, to read it to and arrest person named in it, to serve an attachment, execution, to levy by attachment of person or seizure of goods, b to make legal service of processes on to serve a person with a writ, summons &c 12 (naut) To wind, wrap, pieces of cord, wire, canvas &c round (rope) to protect it from wear, fraying, or against the weather &c 13 (tennis and similar games) To deliver (ball to opponent) by striking with racquet into his court &c B intrans 1 a To be, act as, a servant, to be employed by another, to be in domestic service to serve in the house, garden, kitchen &c, he served as a footman before the war, b to be in subjection or servitude, to obey, have to be obedient to another, 'Better to reign in Hell than serve in Heaven' (Milton, 'P L', 263) 2 Specif a to be a soldier or sailor, perform military or naval duties to serve in India, in the ranks, in a flag ship &c, b to be in any public service, act as official or public servant to serve as a judge in India 3 To perform services, duties &c, to be of service 'They also serve who only stand and wait' (Milton, 'On his Blindness') 4 To do all that is needed, to suffice, to avail, for particular purpose, a single horse will serve, the car is old, but it will serve for my purpose, this will serve for the moment, (also) it will serve to do what I want &c, a single example will serve to illustrate the point, his rage hardly served to cover him, b to be convenient, favourable, to suit tide serves (for selling sail &c), as, where occasion, the time, serves, at the earliest and most favourable opportunity 5 Serve as, to supply the place of, perform functions of, act as substitute for a crutch served John Silver as a deadly weapon, an old blanket served as a curtain 6 (tennis &c) To deliver the ball to opponent before each point is scored it is your turn to serve serve (II), n, fr prec Act of serving, style of serving, turn to serve, at tennis &c server, n [1 sərˈvər, 2 sɪvə] serve (I) & -er One who serves, specif a (scoles) one who serves the officiating priest at the Mass, acolyte, b (tennis &c) the player who serves -server, suff Prec in compounds time-server &c

Servian, adj & n See Sorbian, wh is hotter service, n [1 sərˈvɪs, 2 sɪvɪs] ME service, fr O Fr service, service, fr Lat servitium, 'state of a slave, servitude', fr servus See serve (I) 1 A act of serving or being a servant, occupation, employment, position, of a servant, esp of a domestic servant to a master or mistress domestic service, to be in, go into, out to, service, to be, become, a domestic servant, b employ he was in his master's service for many years, the cook left our service last week Phr at your service, at your disposal, for your use 2 Devotion to, worship of, God 3 Any one of the various duties which a feudal tenant owed to his lord as a condition of tenure of land a knight's service Phr to do yeoman(s) service, good, useful service or work, valuable help or assistance when in need 4 A Public work, official duty, esp of a Government or State department or of the Crown, department performing such duties, staff employed the Civil, Consular, Diplomatic, Service, On His Majesty's Service, O H M S, form for franking official letters, the services, also the fighting services, the Army and Navy, b performance of the duties of any of such services, esp in Army or Navy (to be) on active service, to see service 5 Act performed for the benefit or advantage of a person, institution, or cause, action, effort, carried out as an assistance to a person, institution, or in furtherance of a cause &c, benefit arising from such action to render services to one's fellow townsmen, one's country, his services to the cause of learning deserve recognition, I shall be happy to render you any service in my power, you have done me a great service Phr to be of service to, be useful, advantageous, to 6 Any activity of public utility, regularly carried on to supply public need train service, tramway, telephone, service, a service of trains, all trains collectively running regularly between certain places 7 (scoles) An office, order, a part of the liturgy set down for religious worship the Church services, divine service, the Communion, Eucharistic, Service, marriage, burial, service &c, a performance of this to hold a daily service, to attend morning service, b musical setting for those parts of the liturgy which are to be sung Tallis's Service in the Dorian Mode 8 a The serving of a meal, attendance, waiting, as at a restaurant, hotel &c the food is good, but is spoiled by bad service, b a set of all the dishes, plates, cups, and saucers &c necessary for the serving of a particular meal a dinner, tea, breakfast, service, c a set of spoons, forks &c, in silver or gold plate a service of plate 9 (law) The serving of a writ or other legal process or notice in a suit so that it shall come to the knowledge of the person concerned, by personal delivery of a copy of the document, personal service, or by publication in a newspaper or other such means or by delivery to an authorized person, substituted service 10 (nant) Material, such as yarn, small cord &c used in serving a rope 11 (tennis &c) a Act of serving the ball, b ball so served, manner, style in which it is served, c turn for serving serviceable, adj [1 sərˈvɪsəbl, 2 sɪvɪsəbl] service & -able a (of persons) Fit, able, willing, to render service, b (of things) useful, fit for use, lasting serviceableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being serviceable serviceably, adv See prec & -ly In a serviceable manner service-book, n A book containing a church service or liturgy, a prayer-book, missal service court, n That court on a tennis-lawn, part of tennis court, into which the ball must be served service dress, n Uniform worn on active service, or when on ordinary routine duties, contrasted with full dress or parade order service flat, n A flat, set of rooms in a building of residential flats &c, in which meals and attendance are supplied from a common kitchen and by a central staff of servants service line, n Lane marking limit of service court in lawn-tennis service pipe, n Pipe conveying water or gas from the main into a building service tree, n ME service, pl, 'service berries', OE syrf(e), 'the service tree', fr Lat servus, 'the tree', servum, pl serva, 'its fruit', etymol doubtful A roseaceous tree, found in Europe and Asia Minor, Pyrus sorbus, allied to, and resembling, the mountain ash, with greenish brown berries servient, adj [1 sərˈvɪənt, 2 sɪvɪənt], fr Lat servient (em), Prec Part of servire, see serve Serving, subordinate to, specif (law) of estate or property which carries a servitude or easement due to a dominant estate or property servietta, n [1 sərˈvɪət, 2 sɪvɪət] Fr, fr servir, 'to serve (at table)', (vulg) A table napkin, better called simply a napkin servile, adj [1 sərˈvɪl, 2 sɪvɪl] O Fr, fr Lat servilis See servi, serve (I) & -ile 1 Con-noted with, pertaining to, a slave, slaves, or slavery 2 a (of persons) Having the character of, behaving like, a slave, hence cringing, fawning, abjectly submissive or obsequious, b expressing servility servile manners, behaviour, action &c 3 Specif uses a (R C Ch) pertaining to bodily, rather than mental labour servile works, such as are performed by servants or hired workmen, forbidden on Sundays &c except as permitted by custom, b (feudal law, of tenure) not free servilely, adv Prec & -ly In a servile manner, with servility servility, n [1 sərˈvɪlɪti, 2 sɪvɪlɪti] See prec & -ity State, quality, of being servile, a servitude, serfdom, slavery, b obsequious behaviour, subservience, sycophancy servicing man, n [1 sərˈvɪŋ mæn, 2 sɪvɪŋ mæn] (archaic) Manservant servitor, n [1 sərˈvɪtər, 2 sɪvɪtər], fr O Fr servitor, fr Lat servitor, 'servant' See serve (I) & -or (archaic and poet) 1 a A male attendant or servant, b an adherent, partisan, henchman 2 (Oxford University) Formerly a poor undergraduate, supported by a college in return for certain menial services rendered to the fellows and gentlemen commoners servitorship, n [1 sərˈvɪtərɪp, 2 sɪvɪtərɪp] Prec & -ship Position of a servitor servitude, n [1 sərˈvɪtɪd, 2 sɪvɪtɪd] O Fr, fr Lat servitudo, 'slavery', fr servus, 'slave', see servo (I) & -tude, in the legal sense the Lat word is servitūs 1 Condition, state, of a slave, slavery, serfdom, bondage, penal servitude, imprisonment for a term of three years or longer, (also fig) compulsory subjection to the will of another or so compelling influence a life of toil and servitude in servitude to one's evil passions &c 2 (Rom, civil and Scots law) A burden affecting land or other heritable property, equivalent of the English easement sesame, n [1 sɛˈsɑːmi, 2 sɛˈsɑːmi] In ME, fr O Fr sesame, sesame, fr Lat sesoma, also sisamum, fr Gk sisōmē, prob of Eastern origin a Annual East Indian herb,

Sesamum Indicum, with white flowers, spotted with red or yellow, and small, ovoid two-celled seeds yielding an oil, used as a substitute for olive or almond oil and also in medicine, b the seeds of this plant, the oil extracted therefrom, Phr Open Sesame (fr tale of 'Ali Baba' in 'Arabian Nights'), magic formula, a method of gaining entrance or access, where these are normally difficult or impossible sesamoid, adj & n [1 sésamoid, 2 sésamoid] Preco & -oid (anat) a adj Shaped like a sesame seed, used of small bone of kneecap &c, b n, a sesamoid bone sesqui-, pref Lat sesqui, adv, chiefly as pref, 'one half more, (ooo) & a half', fr semis, 'half a unit, a half', see semi-, and quis, 'and' sesquialter(al), adj [1 séskwálter(al), 2 sés kwálter(al)] Lat sesquialter, preco & alter, 'another, second' See alter In the ratio of 1:1, 3 to 2 &c sesquicentennial, adj & n [1 séskwisén ténal, 2 séskwisén ténal] sesqui- & centennial a adj Pertaining to, of, a century and a half, of 150 years, b n, a one hundred and fiftieth anniversary sesquipedalian, adj [1 séskwipédálian, 2 séskwipédálian] fr Lat sesquipedalis See sesqui- & pedal & -ian. Measuring, containing, a foot and a half, a foot and half long or broad, esp used humorously of words containing many syllables, very long sess, n See cass

sessile, adj [1 sésil, 2 sessil] fr Lat sessilis, 'of sitting, fit for sitting on, low, dwarfish, growing low', fr sess (um), PP type of sedere, 'to sit' See sedentary & -ile (bot and zool) Attached directly to the main stem or base, without stalk or peduncle session, n [1 séséshn, 2 sésén] Lat sessio (em), 'a sitting, a sitting for discussion', fr sess (um), PP type of sedere, 'to sit' See sedentary & sedurunt & -ion 1 a A formal assembly or meeting, of a legislative or deliberative body for the transaction of business, specif, a meeting of Parliament, Phr in session, assembled, sitting, b period during which a legislative body meets, or sits, regularly, without a break, for the transaction of business, specif, period during which Parliament sits 2 (in Scotland, and the newer universities of England) That part of each year, usually about seven months broken by short vacations, during which the university is officially in residence, academic year 3 (legal) Sessio, name given to certain meetings of courts of justice, presided over by judges, or magistrates, to try cases, grant licences &c, as Breaster, Petty, Quarter, Sessions 4 Court of Session, the supreme court of justice in Scotland 5 Kirk Session, lowest body in the Church of Scotland, consisting of the minister and elders of a particular church, which deals with matters concerning that church and parish sessional, adj [1 séseshunal, 2 sésénal] Preco & -al. Pertaining to a session or sessions, specif, sessional orders, rules, orders or rules applicable only to a specific session of Parliament sesterce, n, pl sesterces [1 séstères, 2 séstās] fr Lat sestertius, pl sesteris properly an adj, sc. nummus, 'coin', fr semis tertius, 'two and a half', see semi- & tertius Ancient Roman coin and money of account, originally of silver, later of bronze or copper, $\frac{1}{4}$ of a denarius, 2 $\frac{1}{2}$, later 4 asses, value about 2d. sestertium, o, pl sestertia [1 séstertium, 2 séstertium, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$] Lat, properly genit pl. of sestertius, so (malle) nummorum See preco Ancient Roman money of account, 1000 sesterces value about £8 17s.

set n [1 sétit, 2 sétist] fr Ital. sestello, fr setolo, sixth, fr Lat. sextus 'sixth' See sextet. a (mus.) A sextet, b the last six lines of a sonnet.

setina, n [1 sétina, 2 setina] Ital. See preco & -ine A complicated verse form, invented by the French troubadours of the 12th cent., consisting of six stanzas of six lines each with a triplet or envoy, it may be unrhymed, the words ending each stanza begin the next, but with the order changed, the triplet containing all these words set (I), v trans & intrans [1 set, 2 set]

OE settan, fr setljan*, 'to put, place, set down (what one is carrying), plant, lay foundations of, build &c, to decree, appoint', ME setle(n), OS sethan, OHG sezzen, ON setjo, Goth satjan, formed in Gmc fr sal*, grade of sittan, 'to sit', see sit The basal sense is to put, place, lay, hence, to bring into a specified position or condition In the vast majority of sentences where set is used in a general sense, put could be used with exactly the same force, the former being, however, perhaps less colloquial, and belonging to a more refined and etodied type of diction. On the other hand, there is a large number of idiomatic phrases in which set is fixed In the examples of such phrases given below, only those are included in which set is habitually used in the particular idiom, those in which it might be and occasionally is used, although put &c is more usual, are omitted. A trans 1 To put, lay, (an object in a specified place or position) by a bodily effort or movement, a to set a cup on a table, to set a stake in the ground, to set wine before a person, b to move a limb, or part of the body into, or on to, a specified place to set one's foot in the stirrup, on a step, to set one's hand on a person's shoulder, Phr to set eyes on, to see, catch sight of, meet, come across, to set one's foot on (a spark, a worm &c) to tread, stamp, on, not to set foot (in a person's house, a certain place &c), not to go there, to set one's hand to the plough, undertake to do something, and begin to do it, to set one's hand, name, to a document, sign it 2 To move something into contact with something else, apply, bring in contact or juxtaposition with to set a glass to one's lips, one's lips to a glass &c, to set a match, a light, to a fire, Phr to set fire, light, to, burn, to set pen to paper, to write 3 To move (something), cause it to incline, turn (it) in a certain direction to set one's face towards the sun, to set one's horse's head homewards Phr (fig) to set one's face against (proposal &c), to oppose strongly, to set one's cap at, endeavour to attract, make overtures to, esp try to gain love of 4 To adjust, (machine, mechanism, implement &c), put, fix, it into the right position, or condition, for functioning, various specif uses a to set a clock, put its hands at proper time, to set the hands of a clock, to set a trap, to set the sails of a ship, b to set a razor, put a keen edge on it, to set a saw, to sharpen the teeth with a file, c to set a palette, to squeeze out colours on to it, ready for painting 5 Specif (of jeweller's craft) a to set stones, diamonds &c to mount, embed, them firmly in some article of jewellery &c so that they are seen to advantage, (fig) an island set in a sea of silver b to set gold &c with jewels, to encrust it 6 To cause to become hard, solid, fixed, rigid &c, a the wind will soon dry up the mortar and set it, to set the white of an egg by boiling it, rennet sets milk, b to set one's teeth, to clench the jaws tightly (fig) to come to a firm determination, to adopt an unbending, obstinate attitude of mind, c specif (med.) to set a broken bone, fix the two edges in such a position that they will unite, d (1) of the body, its movements &c, chiefly in PP to make mature, no longer liable to growth and change her figure is hardly set yet, the bowler is set, has become fixed and invariable in his action, (u.) (in moral sense) fixed, inflexible, rigid, lacking pliability, or adaptability his mind and character are completely set 7 Specif, to set a (broody) hen, put her on eggs, to set eggs under a hen 8 To lay out, arrange in desired way plan out, place in position, for particular purpose the scene is set for the drama tragedy &c, all the properties and details are set for the picture, to set a table for dinner, specif b to set a butterfly, moth &c, pin it down, and fasten its wings in desired position, until they become stiff and retain this 9 (print) To set type, to arrange it in proper order for printing 10 a To bring into specified physical condition, position, order, movement, to dispose in particular way, in various senses, determined by following adverb or adverbial phrase to set a room in order, set your hat straight, to set in motion, to set a top spinning, to set one's heart beating, to set free, at liberty, Phr to set (the whole room, the table) in a roar, make everybody present roar with laughter, b also in non material sense to set one's affairs in order, to set things going, to start a series of events, initiate course of action, to set things right, straight &c, to set (a question, affair) at rest, settle it, bring it to an end 11 (mus) a To compose air for to set words, a song, to music, b to arrange, adapt to set a piece of music for the violin &c 12 To bring (persons) into a specified state of mind, feeling, emotion, to influence them intellectually or emotionally in a particular way, to influence the mind or feelings in a particular way to set a person right, correct his errors or mistakes, to set a person at ease, to set people by the ears, at variance, to set one's mind at rest, to set a person thinking, start him on a train of thought, that sets me thinking, gives me food for thought, suggests certain ideas, causes me to reconsider my position &c, to set people wondering 13 a To order (person) to do something, introduce him to, start him on, come task to set a man to saw wood, to catch rats, to dig a field &c, b to propose, submit, prescribe, as a task, duty, as something to be dealt with you have set me a difficult job, an easy task &c, to set a person a sum, a problem, ask him to calculate, solve it &c, specif, to set an examination paper, questions in an examination &c, to offer for written answer, as test of knowledge 14 To direct the thoughts or emotions into a particular channel, concentrate, fix, them on particular object to set one's mind, brain, (on) to a subject, to set one's thoughts on lofty themes, all my hopes are set on winning Phr to set one's heart on, to desire earnestly, be intent on, to set one's affections on, to conceive strong liking for (thing), a desire to obtain 15 To estimate, rate, rank, attach a value to I set the value of the horse at £100 Phr to set great, very little, store by, to value highly, low, to set at naught, to disregard, defy 16 a To assign a place for, order to be stationed to set a guard at the door, b to impose, place to set a limit, boundary &c, Phr (fig) set a limit to, curtail (extravagance &c) 17 To provide, introduce, exhibit for imitation to set a standard, model, a fashion, to set an example Phr to set the fashion (of), to fix, make current, to set the pace, to determine the rate of speed by imposing one's own pace, also (fig) to set a standard of conduct, expenditure &c 18 To appoint, fix, determine to set a time, date &c B intrans 1 (of celestial bodies) To sink below the horizon, to decline the sun has set, moon is setting, (also fig) his star has set 2 (of fruit or fruit-blossom) To develop from the blossom into fruit as result of fertilization the apples, or the apple blossom, won't set this year 3 To become firm, solid the cream, jelly, mortar &c has set 4 To have a certain direction, to flow, move the tides set strongly off the shore, the wind sets from the north east 5 (of sporting dogs, orig of setter) To indicate position of game by lying or crouching down and pointing C Followed by preposition or adverb Set about, 1 intrans, a to make a start with, begin (to do), pot in hand to set about one's work for the day getting dinner ready, to set about one's packing, b (slang) to start fighting with, to hit, knock about they then set about each other in fine style, 2. trans, to times injured in the setting, d act of sharpening, setting fine edge on, razors &c, o act of putting songs to music, of composing airs for them. The setting of a great lyric to music is a matter of considerable delicacy. 2 That in which anything is set, in various specific senses: a the general surroundings, background, environment, decoration, accessories &c, (i) (lit) modern theatre managers give a magnificent setting to plays, (ii) (fig) actual physical surroundings, accompanying events the tragedy of the murders of the Russian Imperial family had a lurid and terrible setting, b that in which gems are set, mounting. 3 The bed upon which machinery, a heavy gun &c rests, emplacement.

1086

SETTLING

setting-block, -board, n Board with grooved layer of cork, upon which butterflies &c are set. settle (I), n. [1 sɛtl, 2 sɛtl] OE setl, ME setel, setl, 'seat', cogn. w OHG sezal, Goth silts, 'throne', fr set*, the base in sit. A long wooden bench or seat with high back and arms.

settle (II), v. trans & intrans. So far as the form goes, & the meanings connected w recon- cilement, the word may be derived fr a very late OE sehtian, 'to bring, come, to an agreement', formed fr OE setl, 'agreement, settlement (of disputes &c)', peace, friend- ship'. On the other hand, the meanings 'to establish firmly, place securely, alight upon', & so on, & derived senses, are more akin to OE setl, 'a seat', see settle (I). ME has setten in the latter meanings. The two strands of meaning, 'to sink down, alight upon, place firmly' &c, whence, in fig sense, 'to be at, bring to, peace' &c, & 'to reconcile, alay disputes' &c, have become intertwined, & the latter might have developed fr the former without the existence of sehtian at all. The OE n seti is connected w sean, 'dispute, lawsuit' &c, see sake, the basal meaning being 'a quarrel smoothed over and disposed of by discussion, or disputation, or by means of a lawsuit', hence 'a reconciliation'. A trans. 1 To place, plant, firmly and securely, on or in. To settle one's hat on one's head, to settle one's feet in the stirrups, (also reflex) to settle oneself in a chair, in the saddle &c. 2 To plant, place, give place of abode to (persons), as inhabitants in a country, to people. King James settled Ulster with families from Scotland, a family long settled in the country, b to resort to and take up abode in. The Jutes settled Kent, part of Hampshire, and the Isle of Wight. 3 To establish (persons) in an occupation, a post, office, position to settle one's son in business, the government is quite settled in power, b to install help (persons) to establish himself. She went to settle her son in his new quarters. 4 To restore calm to, to soothe down, pacify, to compose. To settle a disordered brain, a heated imagination, a draught to settle one's stomach. 5 To bring to an issue or decision, a to determine, resolve, decide, what is uncertain, and under discussion or in dispute. To settle points of difficulty and doubt, to settle difficulties, problems, questions &c, b to dispose, fix, arrange, order. To settle affairs of state, the future, fate, of the country &c. 6 To make up one's mind concerning, fix, decide on, determine. To settle one's route, which way to go, what to take, what to say, the date of one's return &c. Phr that settles it (referring to something which has happened, been done or said), that decides the matter, determines what should be done, proves what is the fact &c. 7 To come to an agreement or understanding concerning, to compose, make up. To settle one's quarrels, differences &c. 8 To deal with so as to dispose of finally, to put out of the way, bring to a conclusion once for all, finish. His arguments soon settled his opponent, the affair is settled and done with, to settle one's affairs before one dies, speak b to settle a claim, bill, account, to pay it, Phrs to have an account to settle with, an affair of an unpleasant character to discuss, to settle a person's hash, prevent him once for all from being troublesome. 9 To clarify by causing dregs, sediment &c to sink to the bottom. A drop of cold water will settle boiling coffee. 10 To bestow with legal formality, endow with (property &c), to take legal steps to secure to the throne was settled upon the heirs of Henry VII, to settle one's estate upon one's son. B intrans. 1 To fix one's abode, go to reside, establish oneself as inhabitant, to make one's home. To settle in one's native country, in London, at Brighton &c, to settle in a Crown Colony, I can't make up my mind where to settle. 2 To assume, pass into, a permanent, lasting, stable condition, position, direction &c. The weather has settled at last, the wind seems to have settled in the south-west. 3 To apply oneself or one's mind to, concentrate upon, fix one's attention on, occupy oneself con- tinuously with. At last he has settled to his work in earnest, I fear he will never settle to anything for long. 4 To decide, determine, resolve. We had settled to start yesterday but were prevented, I can't settle finally till I know more details. 5 To descend, alight, rest. A butterfly settled on my hand, a bird settled on the lapmost bough, the last rays of the sun settled for a moment on the mountain peak. 6 To subside, sink down to a lower level, to give way. The foundations have settled, and the walls are beginning to crack, the ship was settling by the stern. 7 a (of sediment) To fall to the bottom (of vessel containing liquid), b (of liquid) to become clear through the settlement of sediment. C Followed by preposition or adverb. Settle down, intrans, 1 a to fix one's home some- where permanently, to cease moving about the world and adopt a fixed place of residence, b to become tranquil in mind and accus- tomed to one's surroundings, to cease to be restless and unhappy. To settle down at a new school, in one's job &c, c to adopt a regular, ordered mode of life and conduct. To marry and settle down, 2 a to sink, subside (of earth, foundations &c), b (of ship) to settle, sink, become immersed, c (of sediment) to fall to the bottom of liquid, or of vessel containing it. Settle in, 1 intrans, to move in (to new premises &c) and put every- thing in order preparatory to taking up one's abode. I have taken the house but shan't settle in till the autumn, 2 trans, to excuse, help, to settle in my wife is staying with her son, to settle him in to his new house. Settle up, 1 trans, a to complete, carry through (business), to settle up one's affairs, b to pay to settle up one's debts, tradesmen's bills &c. 2 intrans, a to complete, conclude, business &c, b to pay debts, bills &c. Settle upon, trans, a to decide resolve to do &c. To settle upon a plan, b make up one's mind to have to settle upon one's future home &c. Settle with, trans, a to come to an under- standing with, b to pay, c to discuss, conclude business with. settled, adj. [1 sɛtlɪd, 2 sɛtlɪd], fr PP of settle (II). Fixed, established, permanent. A settled melancholy brooded on her face. settlement, n. [1 sɛtlɪmənt, 2 sɛtlɪmənt] settle (II) & -ment. 1 Act of settling (in various senses), a the settlement of a new country &c, b settlement of a dispute, c formal conveyance of property &c. To make a settlement of one's estates, Act of Settle- ment, that which settled the Crown on the Electress Sophia and her heirs, d payment of debts, creditors &c. 2 Something which is settled (in various senses), a a group of settlers, colonists &c, the place, tract of country, where they settle, their dwellings &c collectively, b an understanding, agree- ment, concerning disputed questions, a reconciliation of disputing parties. To reach a settlement of one's differences, terms of settle- ment, c property conveyed, secured, to, settled on, some person.

settler, n. [1 sɛtlɪr, 2 sɛtlɪr] settle (II) & -or. 1 One who settles, agent one who settles as a colonist in a newly discovered or newly opened country, a planter, colonist: the early settlers in Virginia. 2 (colloq) slang) That which settles or finishes anything, a deciding blow, argument &c.

settling-day, n. [1 sɛtlɪŋ dɪ, 2 sɛtlɪŋ dɪ] (Stock Exchange) Day, appointed for period- ical settling of accounts.

settlor, n. [1 sɛtlɪr, 2 sɛtlɪr] settle (II) & -or (law). One who makes a settlement of property, esp a marriage settlement.

set-to, n. sɒt (I) & to (colloq). A vigorous fight with fists, a hotly contested argument.

setwall, n. [1 sɛtwaɪl, 2 sɛtwaɪl] ME setwale, setwale, fr O Fr setoual, setoual, fr Med Lat setuaria, fr Pers setuwar, cp setuwar Old, popular name for valerian, formerly used in medicine.

seven, adj. & n. [1 sɛvən, 2 sɛvən] OE seofon, Goth sibun, OHG sibun, Du zeven, Serb sapta, Gk hepta, see hepta-. Lat septem, see sept-. 1 adj. One more than six and less than eight, often used with omission of noun, as it is just on seven, nearly seven o'clock, only seven (persons) turned up, seven and six, seven shillings and sixpence &c. Phrs (of various groups, historical or legend- ary, of seven persons or things). Seven Bishops, tried in 1688 for protesting against James II's Declaration of Indulgence, Seven Champions of Christendom, the patron saints of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales, and of France, Italy, and Spain, Seven Churches, of Asia (see Rev 1:11) Seven Deadly Sins, Pride, Covetousness, Lust, Gluttony, Anger, Envy, Sloth, City of the Seven Hills, Rome, Seven League Boots, in the fairy tale, boots in which the wearer could cover seven leagues at each step, Seven Liberal Arts, the subjects of the mediaeval Quadrivium and Trivium, Seven Principal Virtues, Faith, Hope, Charity, Prudence, Justice, Fortitude, Temperance, Seven Seas, the Arctic and Antarctic, N and S Atlantic, N and S Pacific, and Indian Oceans, Seven Sisters, the Pleiades, Seven Sleepers, in early Christian legend, seven young men of high rank who during a time of persecution, A.D. 250, took refuge in a cave and slept for 200 years, to awake and find the Roman Empire Christian and then die, Seven Weeks' War, between Prussia and Austria, 1866, Seven Wonders of the World, various great buildings &c, such as the Colos- sue of Rhodes, the Pyramids &c, of the ancient world, Seven Years' War, war of chief European powers, 1756-63, in which Frederick the Great established the power of Prussia in Europe, and England gained from France her colonial possessions in America and India. 2 n. A The figure or symbol representing the number seven, 7, vii, b a playing card with seven pips the seven of hearts, c a person, object holding the seventh place in a series, usually, number seven, d set of persons or things numbering seven in sevens, in groups of seven, Phr at seven and sevens, confused, in confusion, upside down.

sevenfold, adj. & adv. [1 sɛvənfold, 2 sɛvən fold] seven & -fold. Seven times re- peated, seven times as many.

seventeen, adj. & n. [1 sɛvntiən, 2 sɛvntiən] OE seofon tene seven & ten. Seven plus ten, one less than eighteen or more than sixteen, the sum of ten and seven. Phr sweet seventeen, of girl nearly grown up, in the flower of her youth and beauty.

seventeenth, adj. & n. [1 sɛvntienth, 2 sɛvnti- tin] Prec & -th. 1 adj. Following sixteen others in a series, b n, the last of seventeen persons or things, one of seventeen equal parts.

seventh, adj. & n. [1 sɛvniθ, 2 sɛvniθ] seven & -th. 1 adj. Following six others in a series, next after the sixth, often used with omission of the noun. The seventh of October, of day of the month. Phrs the Seventh Day, the Sabbath of the Jews and of such seats as keep Saturday instead of Sunday as day of rest & the Quaker name for Saturday, Seventh Day Baptists, a Baptist sect which observes Saturday as the Sabbath, the seventh heaven, the highest of the seven heavens, regarded by the Jews as the dwelling-place of God Phr in the seventh heaven, in a state of extreme happiness, satisfaction & 2 n a The last of a series of seven persons or things, b one of seven equal parts, a seventh part, c (mus) a musical interval a tone or semitone lower than an octave seventhly, adv Preo & -ly In the seventh place seventieth, adj & n [1 sévantieth, 2 sévantieth] seventy & -th 1 adj Following sixty-nine in a series, forming one of seventy equal parts 2 n One next in order after the sixty-ninth, a seventieth part seventy, adj & n [1 sévnti, 2 sévnti] OE seofontig seven & -ty 1 adj Seven times ten, one more than sixty nine Phr seventy times seven, a very large number of times, from Matt xviii 22, seventy four, an old line of battle ship with seventy-four guns, a seventy five, translation of French soixante-quinze, the 75 cm gun of the French artillery 2 n Number equal to ten times seven, symbol of this Phr the seventies, the years seventy to seventy nine of a particular century, esp of the 19th cent sever, vb trans & intrans [1 séver, 2 séva] ME severen, fr O Fr severer, fr Lat separāre, see separate A trans 1 To separate, cut off, disunite, break or cut in two, divide, a (in physical sense) to sever a limb from the body, a bough from the trunk & the sudden jerk severed the rope, b (in spiritual or moral sense) to cause estrangement between, part slight misunderstandings may sever lifelong friends, to break up, shatter to sever an ancient friendship, alliance, partnership, to sever one's connexion with, cease to have social or business relations with, (also reflex) to sever oneself from (a party &), to separate oneself from 2 To divide, ooze, lie, between the Channel severs England from France 3 Spent (law) to divide, treat as separate and independent to sever an estate, liabilities & B intrans 1 To perform the action, carry out the process, of severing 2 To become severed this rope will stand a tremendous strain without severing severable, adj [1 séverabl, 2 séverabl] Preo & -able Capable of being severed or divided several (I), adj [1 séveral, 2 séveral] O Fr, fr L Lat separāle, 'a separate thing' See sever & -al 1 Separate, individual, and distinct, respective, various the several items in an account, examine the several reasons urged by different persons, we are all busy at our several tasks, ie each at his own individual task 2 (law) Able to be separated or treated as separate, not shared with others a joint and several liability, the bond, promissory note etc is joint and several, a several estate 3 More than two in number, but not very many, more than a few several people left the room, I have said the same thing several times, he missed several chances of scoring several (II), n, fr preo A few, several, a moderate number of, persons or things in the struggle several received injuries, fish began to rise and we caught several in a few minutes severally, adv [1 séveral, 2 séveral] several (I) & -ly Separately, distinctly, apart from others, not together or jointly the guests were received, the prisoners tried, severally, the bond was signed jointly and severally severalty, n [1 séveralty, 2 séveralty] several (I) & -ty State, character, of being several, separate or distinct, specif, in severality, of estate held by owner in his own right and not jointly or in common with others severance, n [1 séverans, 2 séverans] A-Fr, fr O Fr severance. See sever &

-ance Aot of severing, state of being severed (in all senses) severe, adj [1 sévēr, 2 sévīa] O Fr, fr Lat sevērus, 'serious, grave, strict, austere' Etymol very doubtful 1 (of persons, disposition &) a Harsh, stern, rigorous, strict o severe judge, b grave, serious, not inclined to levity From grove to gay, from lively to severe' (Pope, 'Essay on Man,' Epistle iv 379) 2 (of human actions &) a Exhibiting sternness and rigour, reverse of lenient severe punishment, sentence & , b searching, rigorous, exacting a severe cross-examination, criticism & 3 (of natural processes and phenomena) Violent, intense, exerting powerful effect, not slight a severe frost, thunderstorm & , a severe illness, attack of gout & 4 (of artistic expression) Plain, austere, reverse of florid a severe literary style, the beauty of severe lines severely, adv Preo & -ly a In a severe manner, with severity he has been punished too severely, discipline was severely enforced, b intensely, to a considerable degree to suffer severely from the cold, to be severely ill, Phr to leave (person or thing) severely alone, to avoid, have no association or connexion with, have nothing to do with severeness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being severe, severity severity, n [1 sévērīty, 2 sévērīty], fr Fr sevérité, fr Lat sevēritas (-em) See severe & -ity 1 Quality of being severe, severe treatment, harshness, rigour, austerity 2 State of being severe, intensity, gravity (of weather & , of an illness &)

Seville orange, n [1 sévil órn], 2. sevill frindz], fr name of Spanish town The bitter orange

Sèvres, n [1 sévr, 2 sévr] Name of town near Paris, France, seat of porcelain manufacture since 1768 Porcelain made at Sèvres sew, vb trans & intrans [1 sé, 2 sou] OE seōwian, ME sowen, sewen, O H G seuwan, Goth seujan, cogn w Lat suere, 'to stitch, sew', see suture 1 trans To fasten, put together, by needles and thread, to unite by stitches, put stitches into to sew on a button, or, a button on, sew up, fasten up, close, with stitches 2 intrans To practise sewing, to work with the needle and thread or with a sewing machine to be taught to sew sewage, n [1 séj, 2 séjdz] For sewerage See sewer (II) & -age Waste matter, water & carried off by sewers, sewage farm, farm in which the sewages of a town is disposed of by being utilized as manure sewen, n See sewin sewer (I), n [1 séw, 2 séws] sew & -er One who sews, a needlewoman, seamstress sewer (II), n & vb trans [1 séw, 2 séjdz], fr O Fr seuwiere, 'elms for draining a pond', L Lat exaquatorium, 'contrivance for letting water out', see ex-, nquintic, & -ory 1 n Large underground conduit, main drain of a town or district, into which smaller drains empty themselves, for carrying off waste water, excreta & 2 vb To furnish with sewers and drains, to install a system of sewers in to sewer a town, district sewer (III), n [1 séw, 2 séjdz], fr O Fr assecur, 'one who sets a table', fr asseoir, 'to seat, set', fr Lat assidere, 'to sit beside, to wait upon', fr ad-, 'near, by', & sedere, 'to sit', op assiduous A servant, household official in the Middle Ages, who set the dishes on the table and generally attended to the service of guests at meals sewerage, n [1 séwri, 2 séjridz] sewer (II) & -age 1 System of sewers and drains in a town, district & , public drainage 2 Construction of sewers and drains 3 Disposal of waste matter by sewers sewer-gas, n Gas generated in sewers, drains, and cesspools sewer-rat, n Rat infesting sewers, common brown or Norway rat sewin, sewen, n [1 séw, 2 séjw] W sewyn A variety of the sea or salmon trout, sometimes regarded as a distinct species, Salmo cambricus sewing, n [1 séwɪŋ, 2 séwɪŋ] sew & -ing Act, art, occupation, of one who sews, product of this, needlework sewing-machine, n Mechanical contrivance for sewing fabric sex, n [1 seks, 2 seks], fr Fr sexe, fr Lat sextus, 'sex', prob orig meaning 'division', fr secre, 'to cut', see section 1 The sum of physiological differences in form and function which distinguish the male from the female in animals and plants 2 One of the two groups of individuals, males or females, distinguished by sex Phr the sex, women 3 Everything arising out of, or determined by, sexual differences in human beings, passion, social relations & many modern novelists are obsessed by what they call problems of sex sex-, sexi-, pref Lat, 'six', Gk hex, see hexa- See further under six sexagenarian, adj & n [1 séksajenarian, 2 séksedzénarian] sexagenary & -an 1 adj Sixty years old, between the age of sixty and seventy 2 n Person of this age sexagenary, adj & n [1 séksajenari, 2 séksedzénari], fr Lat sexagénarius, fr sexagēni, 'sixty each', distributive of sexaginta, 'sixty', fr sex, 'six', see sex- 1 adj Pertaining to the number sixty, containing sixty, arranged in sixties, based on the number sixty 2 n a That which is composed of sixty parts, b a sexagenarian

Sexagesima, n [1 séksajéma, 2 séksedzésima] Lat, form of sexaginta (for 'gens-', 'sixtieth', fr sexaginta, 'sixty' See preo Sexagesima Sunday, the second Sunday before Lent, as preceding Quinquagesima Sunday, roughly, the 60th day before Easter sexagesimal, adj & n [1 séksajesimál, 2 séksedziesimál] Preo & -nál 1 adj Pertaining to, based on, the number sixty a sexagesimal fraction, one whose denominator is sixty or a multiple of sixty, as $\frac{1}{60}$ 2 n A sexagesimal fraction sexangle, n, [1 séksánggl, 2 séksánggl] sex & angle A hexagon sexangular, adj [1 séksánggular, 2 séksánggular] Preo & -ar Hexagonal sexcentenary, adj & n [1 séksenténari, 2 séksenténari] sex- & centenary 1 adj Of, pertaining to, six hundred years 2 n A six hundredth anniversary sexdigitate, adj [1 séksdítít, 2 séksdítít] sex- & digitate (zool) Having six fingers or toes sexed, adj [1 sékst, 2 sékst] sex & -ed Having sex (usually in combination) fully sexed, over sexed & sexennial, adj [1 séksénial, 2 séksénial] fr Lat sexennium, 'a period of six years', & -al See sex- & annuál Lasting six years, occurring once every six years sexillion, n See sextillion sexisyllabic, adj [1 séksasilílik, 2 séksasilílik] sex- & syllabic Having six syllables sexisyllable, n [1 séksasilíbl, 2 séksasilíbl] sex- & syllable A word of six syllables sexless, adj [1 séksles, 2 séksles] sex & -less 1 Without sex, neither male nor female, neuter 2 Not having the natural feelings and passions of sex, cold, frigid sexlessness, n [1 sékslesnes, 2 sékslesnes] Preo & -ness State of being sexless sexpartite, adj [1 sékspártít, 2 sékspártít] sex- & partite Divided into, made up of, six parts sexti, n [1 sékst, 2 sékst] Fr sextie, fr Mod Eccles Lat sexta (hora), 'sixth hour', fem of sextus, 'sixth', see sex- One of the canonical hours or offices recited at noon, the 6th hour, or rather earlier sextain, n [1 sékstán, 2 sékstón] Formed on anal of quintain, fr Lat sextus, 'sixth', op Ital sestina A stanza of six lines sextan, adj [1 sékstan, 2 sékstan], fr Lat sexti (us), 'sixth', & -an Recurring every sixth day, as an intermittent fever

SEXTANT

sextant, n [1 sɛk'stənt, 2 sɛk'stənt] Lat sextant (em), 'sixth part of a unit' 1 (math) The sixth part of a circle 2 Instrument used by navigators and others for determining the latitude and longitude sextet(te), n [1 sɛk'stɛt, 2 sɛk'stɛt], fr Lat sext (us), 'sixth', & -et(te), op quartet (mus) 1 A composition for six voices or six instruments 2 A set of six singers or instrumentalists for the performance of such composition 3 Performance by such singers & instrumentalists sextillion, n [1 sɛk'stɪljən, 2 sɛk'stɪljən, 2 sɛk'stɪljən, 2 sɛk'stɪljən] Lat sextus, see prec w ending on anal of billion & a (Engl usage) Sixth power of a million, 1 followed by 36 ciphers, b (Fr and USA) seventh power of a thousand, 1 followed by 21 ciphers sextio, n [1 sɛk'stɪo, 2 sɛk'stɪo] Lat, abl sing of sextus, 'sixth', see sex- Cp quarto A size of book made up of sheets folded in six sextodecimo, n [1 sɛk'stɒdɛsɪmɔ, 2 sɛk'stɒdɛsɪmɔ] Abl sing of Lat sextodecimus, 'sixteenth', fr sextus, 'sixth', & decimus, 'tenth' See sex- & decimal Cp prec (abbr 16mo, 16°) A Sheet of paper folded into 16 leaves, b size of book of sheets so folded sexton, n [1 sɛk'stən, 2 sɛk'stən] ME sekesteyn, sexteyn, an early modification of sacristan Man employed in a parish to open, warm, and light the church, ring the bells, and dig graves sextuple, adj & vb trans [1 sɛk'stʊpl, 2 sɛk'stʊpl], fr Lat sextus, 'sixth', see sex-, on anal of quadruple 1 adj Sixfold, six times as much 2 vb To multiply by six sexual, adj [1 sɛk'shuəl, 2 sɛk'shuəl], fr Lat sexualis, fr sextus see sex, & -al 1 Pertaining to, arising from, sex, and the distinction of sex 2 (bot) Sexual system of classification, that of Linnaeus, which classified plants according to the number of stamens sexualist, n [1 sɛk'shuəlɪst, 2 sɛk'shuəlɪst] Prec & -ist 1 Person obsessed by sex 2 Follower of Linnaeus in classifying plants sexuality, n [1 sɛk'shuəlɪti, 2 sɛk'shuəlɪti] sexual & -ity Quality of being distinguished by sex sexualize, vb trans [1 sɛk'shuəlɪz, 2 sɛk'shuəlɪz] sexual & -ize To assign sex to, to distinguish by sex sexually, adv [1 sɛk'shuəlɪ, 2 sɛk'shuəlɪ] sexual & -ly From the point of view of, by means of, sex Seyn, n [1 sɛm, 2 sɛm] Pol, 'diet, assembly' The legislature or parliament of the republic of Poland sforzando, adv [1 sfɔrt'sændɔ, 2 sfɔrt'sændɔ] Ital, 'to be emphasized' A musical direction indicating that a note is to be played with sudden force or emphasis stomato, adj [1 stɒmətɔ, 2 stɒmətɔ] Ital, PP, 'smoked' (of paint) Having indistinct, blurred, outlines shabbily, adv [1 shə'bɪli, 2 shə'bɪli] shabby & -ly In a shabby manner a poorly, raggedly & b meanly shabbiness, n [1 shə'bɪnes, 2 shə'bɪnes] shabby & -ness A shabby appearance & b shabby behaviour, treatment shabby, adj [1 shə'bɪ, 2 shə'bɪ] OE scabb, 'scab', & -y Cp scab 1 (of external appearance) a (of persons) Wearing old, dilapidated, worn out, threadbare, clothes, b (of things) showing signs of hard wear well worn, ragged, disreputable, deteriorated, reverse of smart new & c mean poverty stricken squalid, neglected a shabby neighbourhood, street & c 2 (in moral sense) a Mean, trifling, parsimonious, stingy, b ungenerous, ignoble, despicable shabby-genteel, adj Poor and shabby, but making brave efforts to retain something of the dignity and decency of earlier, more prosperous days shabrach, n [1 shə'bræk, 2 shə'bræk], fr Germ schabrack, fr Turk chabrak A saddle-cloth or housing usually covered with a leopard skin, used in parade uniform by a cavalry officer shack, n [1 shæk, 2 shæk] Etymol un certain (Canadian, Am) A hut, shanty shackle (I), n [1 shækl, 2 shækl] OE scaccol, 'a loose link in a chain, a bond', fr scacan, 'to shako', ME shakyl, ep ME Du schalel, 'link', ON skokull, 'a loose pole or shaft for a cart' See shako (I) 1 A link joining the metal rings fastened round the wrists or ankles of a prisoner or slave, sufficiently long to allow a certain amount of movement 2 (pl) a Fetters, chains a prisoner's, slave's, shackles, b (fig) that which hampers, fetters, or binds, that which constrains or restrains shackles of debt, vice, to break through the shackles of habit, convention & c 3 Applied to various objects or devices for fastening and coupling shackle (II), vb trans, fr prec a To put shackles upon, fasten with shackles, b (fig) to hamper, impede & c shad, n [1 shəd, 2 shəd] OE scadd, 'a kind of fish', similar forms in various languages Etymol. unknown Edible marine fish of herring family, chiefly used in America shaddock, n [1 shədʊk, 2 shədʊk] Named after Captain Shaddock, who brought the fruit fr the East to the West Indies at end of 17th cent A Tropical fruit usually globular in shape, much resembling a lemon in taste and smell, and having a pale yellow rind, also called grape fruit, b tree bearing this shade (I), n [1 shād, 2 shād] OE scadu, 'shadow, shade, darkness', ME schade, OS slado, OHG slato, Goth. sladus, cogn w Gk skotos, 'darkness' 1 a Partial darkness caused by intervention of something between the light and a given spot, Phr to put (person or thing) into the shade, cause to appear insignificant, unimportant, undesirable, by contrast, b diminution of light, partial darkness caused by waning of the day the shades of evening & c 2 (post) An obscure, remote, retired place 'In vain to deserts thy retreat is made, The muse attends thee to that silent shade' (Pope, Epistle to Roht Earl of Oxford, 28 9) 3 Reproduction of shade or shadow in painting or drawing, by more sombre, less vivid colour, or by darkening, blackening & c Phr light and shade, (fig) strong contrast in artistic expression in emotional feelings & c 4 a Something which affords shelter, protection, from excessive light the shade of trees, no shade from the burning sun, specif b a piece of silk & c stiffened with cardboard, attached to the forehead, so as to project outwards above the eyes, c any one of various devices attached to lamps of all kinds to intercept or direct the light 5 a The spirit, ghost, of a dead person, hence b (pl) the shades (i) (post), the shades of spirits, death, the grave, (ii) wine vaults, hotel bar 6 Slight difference of colour, variety of intensity, depth & c, or of luminosity, paleness & c 7 a Slight amount or degree, a suspicion, tinge a certain shade of disapproval, not a shade of doubt, hesitation, b a slight difference, minute variation many English words have innumerable shades of meaning shade (II), vb trans & intrans See prec A trans 1 To cast shade upon the tree shades the house too much 2 a To shelter, protect, from light or heat to shade one's head, eyes, from the sun with a broad brimmed hat, to cover to shade one's face with one's hand, b to out, keep off (light) from to shade the light from one's eyes 3 To indicate, express light and shade in (a drawing) by darkening some parts and leaving others light B intrans Shade away, off into, to exhibit gradually varying shades of colour, meaning & c, to grade off, fade away by gradually lessening intensity, to pass into by imperceptible degrees of difference shadeless, adj [1 shə'dles, 2 shə'dlis] shade (I) & -less Without shade, destitute of, deprived of, shade, unshaded shadily, adv [1 shə'dli, 2 shə'dlɪ] shady & -ly In a shady manner shadiness, n [1 shādɪnes, 2 shādɪnes] shady & -ness Quality, state, of being shady shady, adj [1 shə'di, 2 shə'di] shady & -ness Quality, state, of being shady shading, n [1 shādɪŋ, 2 shādɪŋ] shade (II) & -ing 1 Act or process of giving shade 2 n Act of giving light and shade to a picture, b contrast of light and shade depicted in a picture shadoof, n [1 shədʊf, 2 shədʊf] Arab shaduf Device for raising water from rivers & c, consisting of a pivoted pole with bucket at one end and counterbalancing weight at the other, used in Egypt and the East shadow (I), n [1 shədʊ, 2 shədʊ], fr OE scadwe & c, ME schadwe, fr type in oblique cases of OE scadu See shade (I) 1 a Patch of shade, obscure area of limited extent and definite shape produced upon a more or less illuminated surface by the intervention of a solid body between thus and the light her face was in deep shadow, b specif, such a patch of shade, of definite shape, produced by the intervention of some particular object between an illuminated surface and the light the shadow of a dog, a house & c, Phrs afraid, frightened, of one's own shadow, very timid, easily startled, alarmed by trifles, to grasp at the shadow and lose the substance, to sacrifice a solid advantage for a visionary unattainable ideal, coming events cast their shadows before, give an indication or warning of their approach 2 Person who attends or follows another closely, like his shadow 3 a A number of shadows, partial darkness, gloom, as of gathering twilight the shadows of evening are falling, night is coming on, (fig) b mental or moral gloom, depression, of spirits, obscuring of the intellect the shadows of old age, Couper's later years were passed amid the shadows of a disordered mind, the shadow of death 4 The pictorial representation of shadow or shadow, the darker parts of a picture 5 a An apparition, a phantom, a shade, b something unreal, fleeting, and transitory 'what shadows we are, and what shadows we pursue' (Burke) 6 An imperfect image, reproduction, of something, something which but faintly and vaguely represents another person or thing, an unreal, unsubstantial, feeble, reflexion of something lings have now but the shadow of their former power, the Protector's son was only the shadow of his father Phrs worn to a shadow exceedingly tired and exhausted, the mere shadow of one's former self, very much altered (by sickness, sorrow & c) 7 A very slight amount or degree not a shadow of difference between them, I have not the slightest shadow of doubt 8 (archaic and Bib) Shelter, protection 'Hud me under the shadow of Thy wings' shadow (II), vb trans fr prec 1 To cast a shadow upon, throw into shade a group of trees shadowed the house to the west 2 (rare) To shade (drawings & c) 3 Usually shadow forth, a to indicate in outline, adumbrate, b to be a type of, typify, symbolize 4 To follow closely, to dog footsteps of shadowiness, n [1 shədʊɪnes, 2 shədʊɪnes] shadowy & -ness State, quality, of being shadowy shadowy, adj [1 shədʊ, 2 shədʊ] shadow (I) & -less (rare) a Not covered by shadow, having no shade, b not casting a shadow shadowy, adj [1 shədʊ, 2 shədʊ] shadow & -y 1 Surrounded by, placed, standing, amid, shadows, producing shadows, umbrageous shadowy woods 2 Resembling a shadow, unsubstantial, dim, indistinct a shadowy form, outline 3 (in non material sense) a Vague, but faintly remembered, far off the shadowy past, b unreal, unlikely to be realized visionary a shadowy hope shady, adj [1 shə'di, 2 shə'di] shade (I) & -y 1 a Affording shade a shady tree, b standing in shade, sheltered from full light or heat of the sun a shady spot, the shady side of a street Phr on the shady side of forty &c, older than forty, the other side of forty &c 2 (in moral sense) Not able to stand the light of inquiry, hence, dubious, equivocal, disreputable, of doubtful character a shady person, character, a shady transaction, shady conduct shaft (I), n [1 shahft, 2 šaft] O E scæft, 'shaft (of an arrow or spear), a spear, a pole', M E sc(h)aft, O H G scift, cogn w Gk shapton, 'staff, sceptre', op also Gk skāpos, 'stick, staff', Lat scāpus, 'shaft, stem, stalk' &c, op scape, Gk skēptem, 'to prop, support (with a stick or pole)', is a cogn, op sceptre, but there is no reason to assume that 'prop, support', was a primitive sense of the base. Connexion w shave & its cognates is improbable, & the suggestion that a shaft was orig 'a shaved, sharpened rod' appears fantastic. Basal meaning a rod, pole, stake. Specific uses 1 Stem, stock, handle, of certain weapons, a shaft of a spear, of an arrow, hence b (poet) an arrow, a spear, c (fig) shafts of wit, salience, thought as if aimed at, and piercing someone 2 Handle, haft, of tools and implements shaft of an axe, a hammer, a golf club &c 3 (pl) The shafts, the two poles attached to the front of a horse vehicle, between which the horse is placed in order to pull the vehicle 4 Applied to several objects which are long or tall in proportion to their thickness, e.g. an iron, steel, or wooden bar used to support moving parts in machinery, or to transmit motion, b the main part of a column, between the capital and the base, c the main part of a tall column shaped chimney, d the upright trunk or stalk of a plant, e the central rib of a feather 5 A beam or ray of light, op the use of beam and ray in similar sense shaft (II), n Ultimately the same as prec, but in application to mines, borrowed fr L G 1 Vertical opening or excavation, narrow in proportion to its length, made in the ground, leading to the main workings of a mine 2 Channel, conduit, conveying air, used in ventilation shaft-horse, n A draft horse harnessed between the shafts of a vehicle shafting, n [1 shahftung, 2 šaftuŋ] shaft & -ing (mechan) System of shafts, belts &c, used in the transmission of power or motion shag (I), n [1 shag, 2 šæg] O E scacga, 'rough hair', cogn w O N skegg, 'the beard', fr skaga, 'to jnt out, project', op skagi, 'cape, headland' 1 (archaic or rare) A rough mass or mop of hair, b coarse, long napped cloth 2 A fine ont, coarse, strong kind of tobacco shag (II), n Proh same as prec A small crested cormorant, Phalacrocorax graculus shaggily, adv [1 shāgīli, 2 shægīli] shaggy & -ly In a shaggy manner shagginess, n [1 shāgīnes, 2 šægīnes] See prec & -ness State, quality, of being shaggy, roughness shaggy, adj [1 shāgi, 2 šægi] shag (I) & -y (of hair, animal's coat, growing bush &c) Rough, unkempt, having long hair, fur &c sticking out untidily, growing long and straggly reverse of smooth, sleek, well kept shagreen, n [1 shagrēn, 2 šægrēn, šægrīn], fr Fr chagrin, fr Pers & Turk saghr, 'the back, rump, of a horse or ass, leather obtained from this, esp of the wild ass', op chagrin 1 A kind of untanned leather made from the hide of a horse, ass, or camel, with a roughened, granulated surface produced artificially by embedding small seeds in the skin while soft, often dyed green and used for making small ornamental cases, covering handles of daggers &c 2 Shark-skin used for similar purposes, the granulated surface being natural shah, n [1 shah, 2 šā] Pers, 'king, ruler', in full padshah, 'lord king' See padishah & pasha, fr O Pers shāhshāh, 'power', fr shā, 'to rule', op Sort shahram, 'rule'

See satrap & checkmate The title of the sovereign rulers of Persia, shah-in shah, 'king of kings' shahzada, n [1 shāhzhāda, 2 šāzhāda] Pers, 'son of a king' The title of the heir-apparent of the Amir of Afghanistan shakable, adj [1 shākabl, 2 šekabl] shake & -able. Capable of being shaken shake (I), vb trans & intrans [1 shāk, 2 šek] O E scacan, 'to shake, brandish, to depart, flee away', M E shālen, O S shahan, 'to move off, depart' Prob cogn w O Slav skakati, 'to leap, spring' Used to express movements of various degrees of violence, and rapidly, also movement of very various kinds, but generally implying movement to and fro, backwards and forwards, up and down, trembling, vibrating motion, awaying, waving, brandishing A trans 1 (of movement imparted to external objects) a to shake a closed door (or other fixed object), to seize it by the handle &c, and attempt to move it towards, or away from one, alternately pulling and pushing with some violence, to shake a person, shake him (gently or roughly) by the shoulder, to shake a tree and bring the fruit down, b to take in the hand and agitate first in one direction then in another to shake a bottle of medicine, gently or violently, c to cause to sway the wind shakes the trees, d to cause to vibrate rapidly, impart a tremulous, vibratory motion to a reed shaken by the wind, the blast shook the windows, caused them to rattle, e to flap, wave, agitate with jerky up and down movements to shake a carpet, a coat &c 2 a (of effect of falling weight, heavy blow, explosion &c upon a heavy fixed object) To cause to tremble, to jar his step shook the room, b to unsettle, weaken stability of, cause to rock the explosion shook the house to its foundations, c (fig) to unsettle, cause to become precarious, to lessen stability of many thrones were sorely shaken in the Great War, and some fell 3 (of movement imparted to one's person, or part of it, to limbs &c) Specific usages to shake oneself, agitate one's whole body more or less violently, to shake one's finger (at), to wag the first finger rapidly (towards a person), expressing menace, warning, mild reproof &c, to shake one's head, move it repeatedly from side to side, esp as expressing refusal, disapproval &c, (fig) to shake one's head at, or over, to express doubt, hesitation, disapproval, to shake one's fist (at), hold it up and move it rapidly, alternately towards, and away from oneself, esp as expressing denunciation of, threat to, a person, Phr to shake hands (with), grasp the hand of another, in greeting, bidding farewell, or in token of reconciliation let us shake hands and be friends, to shake one's sides (with laughing), to laugh heartily, to be badly shaken (by a fall &c), to receive a nervous shock, be jarred, to shake oneself free, to free oneself by an abrupt movement, (fig) to get rid of by decisive action 4 (in moral sense) To upset, disturb, weaken, render less firm or intense to shake one's faith, confidence, courage, resolution, to shake the credit of (a bank &c) B intrans 1 To be moved, rapidly or violently to and fro, to vibrate, rock, sway the earth shook violently, the room shakes as he walks, the trees shake in the wind 2 A To tremble, quiver to shake with cold, fever, fright &c, his hand was shaking, Phr to shiver and shake, to shake in one's shoes, to be very frightened, b (of the voice) to become tremulous, he produced with a quavering sound 3 To execute shakes with the voice, in singing, or on a musical instrument, to trill, warble C Followed by preposition or adverb Shake down, 1 trans, a to cause to fall down by shaking or violent and rapid movement to shake down apples from a tree, b to cause to settle down into a close, compact form to shake down grain in a sack, c to throw, spread on the floor to shake down blankets, straw &c, to make a bed,

2 intrans, a to become firm and compact, to settle into a compact mass, b to settle down, in or with we will shake down on the floor with a blanket or two, c to become settled in mind, become calm and peaceful the boy will soon shake down at his new school, things are shaking down very quickly Shake off, trans, 1 to remove by shaking to shake off rain from one's hair &c, a person's hand from one's arm, Phr to shake off the dust of (place, person's house &c) from one's feet, to leave for good, resolve never to visit again, 2 to get rid of, become emancipated from (an illness, bad habit &c), 3 to ont distance, get away from, elude (pursuers, pursuit), 4 to get rid of, cease to be troubled by, drive away, by resolute action to shake off a disreputable acquaintance &c Shake out, trans, a to spread ont, open, to unfurl to shake out a sail, flag, b to spread ont and shake, for airing, getting rid of dust, wet &c to shake out a carpet, one's coat &c, c to cause to fall out by shaking shake the dust and grit out of one's shoes, shake the pepper out of the pot Shake up, trans, 1 to mix, cause to mix thoroughly, by shaking to shake up the ingredients in a bottle, 2 to restore to shape by shaking to shake up a pillow, cushion &c, 3 to rouse, stir up, stimulate, enliven an idle wretch like that needs to be well shaken up shake (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of movement made in shaking (in various senses) a shake of the head, negative gesture, a shake of the hand, a handshake, to give a person a good shake, submit him to a rapid rocking to and fro, by shaking him roughly 2 A tremulous, uncertain, quavering movement, or effect a shake in the walk, hand, head, voice, a shake in one's writing 3 A trill, rapid alternation on two notes, executed by the voice, or on an instrument 4 (colloq) The time occupied in shaking something, a very brief space of time, a moment Phr in two shakes, half a shake, in a moment, instantly shakedown, n [1 shākdoun, 2 šekdoun] A rough, temporary, make-shift bed of blankets spread on the floor shaken, vb [1 shāken, 2 šeken] PP of shake, O E (ge)scacen, M E shāken

shaker, n [1 shāker, 2 šeker] shake (I) & -er 1 A One who or that which shakes, b that in which something is shaken a cocktail shaker 2 (cap) Member of a religious sect founded c 1770, calling themselves the Millennial Church, who exhibited their religious emotions by violent bodily movements, and by dances

Shakeress, n [1 shākeres, 2 šekeres] Prec & -ess A female Shaker

Shakerism, n [1 shākerizm, 2 šekerizm] shaker & -ism Religious system and hebefts of the Shakers shakily, adv [1 shākīli, 2 šekīli] shaky & -ly In a shaky manner, totteringly, tremulously shakiness, n [1 shākīnes, 2 šekīnes] shaky & -ness State of being shaky shaking (I), n [1 shāking, 2 šeking] shake (I) & -ing Act of one who or that which shakes, process of being shaken the shaking of the trees, of head or hand, give the carpet a good shaking, the boy deserves a good shaking shaking (II), adj, fr Prec Part of shake (I) Trembling, specif shaking palsy, a form of paralysis accompanied by nervous twitchings and uncontrollable movements of the limbs shako, n [1 shākö, 2 šakou] Fr, fr Hung czako A flat-topped, cylindrical, peaked soldier's cap, with a plume shaky, adj [1 shākī, 2 šekī] shake (I) & -y 1 a (of fixed objects) Unable to be upset, not firm or stable, flimsy, wobbly, cranky a shaky wall, tree, also b (non-material) his position in the Cabinet, his credit, was shaky, c (of mental conditions, knowledge &c) uncertain, doubtful, vague, unreliable his Latin was got rather shaky, a bit shaky in his grammar 2 a (of movements, physical actions, or persons in movement) Tottery, wavering, uncertain, feeble, tremulous a shaky walk, gait, steps, his hand is getting shaky, shaky on one's legs, a shaky handwriting, a shaky voice, quavering, trembling, b (in moral sense) shifty, unreliable, wavering shaky in one's principles, veracity &c shale, n [1 shāl, 2 šel], fr Germ ochale, 'shell, scale, chale', OHG scala, cogn w scale (III) A clay rock formation of many varieties, which splits readily into plates or laminae shale oil, n Oil derived from bituminous shale shall, vb auxil [1 shāl, 2 šel] when stressed, when unstressed [1 shl, 2 šl], neg form shan't [1 shahnt, 2 šant] OE scēal, Pret type used as pres eng (1st & 3rd pers) of scēolan, a so called Pret Pres vb, the pres pl in OE is coulon, sceolon, ME schal &c, schullen, the distinction is preserved sporadically till near the end of the 15th cent. Corresponding forms are found in the other old Gmc languages—OS & OHG skolan, skal, Goth skulan (inf), skal. The orig sense is 'to owe, to be under an obligation', a sense still preserved in OE & the other old Gmc languages. See further under should, orig the Pret of skoll. The base is seen in OE scyld, 'guilt, fault', fr skulds*, cogn w OS & OHG sculd, 'guilt, sin' &c, further cogn w Lith skelti, 'to be guilty'. Connection w Lat scelus, 'crime', formerly widely accepted, is now considered improbable by Walde & by Klinge. Shall is followed by the vb directly without intervening to. 1 Expressing the future tense pure and simple, only with the 1st pers sing and pl., for other persons see will. I shall arrive by the first train tomorrow, we shall be away next winter, shall I be in your way if I stay? 2 Expressing intention to do something in the future. I shall come home every week, we shall not call on our new neighbours, I shall whip you if you don't behave better, I was told not to smoke at all but I certainly shall, shall you be here tomorrow? 3 A expressing obligation or compulsion, must, (with stress on shall) you shall do what you are told, he said he didn't want to come with us, but I say that he shall, b (in neg, expressing a prohibition) thou shalt not kill, you shalt have your own way in everything. 4 Expressing a promise of something in the future. if you are a good boy you shalt have a pony to ride. 5 (in interog sentences and polite formulas) Asking permission, ascertaining another's wishes &c shall I get you some more tea?, shall we go for a walk, shall we have another game?, have another cigar, shall I? = had I better have one?

shalleon, n [1 shālōon, 2 šelōn], fr Fr chalon, fr Châlons, town in France where the material was made. A light, loosely woven worsted fabric shallop, n [1 shālōp, 2 šēlōp], fr Fr chaloûpe, fr Du sclop See sclop. A light, undecked boat (poet) any small boat.

shalot, n [1 shalot, 2 šelōt], fr O Fr escholote, a variant or corrupt of escholone, fr Lat ascalonia, so caepa, 'onion', fr Ascalon, in Palestine. A plant of the onion family, Allium ascalonicum, with mild flavoured, clustered bulbs, used for pickling, and in cooking for flavouring shallow (I), adj [1 shālō, 2 šelō] Not in OE, ME schallowe, etymol doubtful, prob cogn w O.N. skjallr, 'shallow, oblique', see shoal (III) 1 Not deep, having little or not much depth. a shallow stream, in shallow seas, a shallow sea. 2 a (of thought, knowledg, feeling, character) Lacking depth, like a y. thore ignines, superficial, slight, trivial, b (of persons) possessing a shallow character, knowledg &c.

shallow (II), n, fr preo 1 shallow place in a body of water a shoal, (often pl) the shallows, a tr- of shallow water shallow (III), vb intr- & trans, fr shallow (K). 1 trans. to become shallow, to grow gradually less in depth the river shallows at this point 2 trans. To cause to become shallow the sand-banks hereo shallow the channel shallow-brained, -minded, adj Having a shallow, superficial brain or mind shallowness, n [1 shālōnes, 2 šelōunes] shallow (I) & -ness State, quality, of being shallow sham (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sham, 2 šam] A Ntin variant of shame, in early usage, new obs, 'to trick, delude, deceive' 1 trans. To assume the character of, to imitate, emulate, feign, to pretend to be in a state of to sham illness, stupidity, to sham madness, courage &c 2 intrans. a To practise simulation, to make pretences, to pretend take no notice, he is only shamming, b (followed directly by adj) to pretend to be to sham dead, sick sham (II), n, fr preo 1 A thing made to appear something it is not, a counterfeit, an imitation, a pretence, a fake these pearls are all shams, his illness was only a sham 2 Dis ingenuous, hypocritical conduct, an assumed virtue, an act of hypocrisy his religion, philanthropy, is all a sham 3 a A person who pretends to be what he is not, a fraud, a charlatan, b a person who shams (illness &c) sham (III), adj, fr preo Not genuine, bogus, counterfeit, feigned, spurious a sham diamond, (also of qualities &c) sham piety, (of persons) a sham doctor, a quack, a sham gentleman, a pretender to gentility shaman, n [1 shāman, 2 šaman] Etymol doubtful, prob Pers shaman, 'idolater' A priest magician or medicine man among the primitive Ural Altaic tribes of N Asia, also applied to witch doctors &c of other primitive tribes &c Shamanism, n [1 shāmanizm, 2 šamanzm] Preo & -ism The religion, religious practices &c of various primitive tribes in NE Asia, based on the belief in good and evil spirits which can only be controlled by the spells and rites of the shamans, also applied to other primitive religions of this type shambles, vb intrans & n [1 shāmbel, 2 šambel], fr O Du ochampellen, 'to oip, stumble', schampen, 'to slip away, decamp', fr O Fr escamper, Ital scampare, 'to decamp, escape', fr Lat ex, 'out of, away', & campus, 'field', op scampor 1 vb. To walk with a stumbling or shuffling gait, to walk as if the knees were weak and the feet could hardly be lifted 2 n A shambling, shuffling gait, an ungainly, clumsy walk shambles, n pl, used as sing [1 shāmbiz, 2 šambiz] OE scamel, 'stool', ME eschamel, 'bench', fr Lat scamellum, 'bench, stool', dimin of scamnum, 'step, throne' for scap* nom, fr base seen in Lat scapus, 'stem &c', q v under scape, shaft 1 a A butcher's stall or bench in which meat is exposed for sale, b a slaughter house 2 (fig) A place of slaughter, carnage, or bloodshed, place covered in blood the deck of a ship in action is a veritable shambles shame (I), n [1 shām, 2 šam] OE scamu, ME eschame, OS & OHG scama, O.N. skamm. Goth has the vb skaman, 'to be ashamed', Goth skanda, OHG scanta, in same sense, are fr same base. Further connexions in Gmc & outside are doubtful 1 Powerful and painful emotion of regret and contrition, arising from a consciousness of guilt, or from something which checks the sense of modesty, propriety &c, sense that one has offended against decency and seemliness of behaviour &c to feel shame at the recollection of one's conduct, the sight brought a blush of shame to her cheek. 2 n. A Disgrace, dishonour, reproach, ignominy suffered, contemptuous, disabouring treatment to bring shame on one's family, to suffer the shame of being inferior to one's fellows, Ehr to put to shame, cause to feel ashamed, bring to shame, to disgrace, cause to suffer ignominy;

b (colloq) hard luck, unfair treatment what a shame to treat you like that! it is a horrid shame not to give children enough to eat 3 Cause, source, of shame, reproach, disgrace 'Erasmus The glory of the priesthood, and its shame' (Pope, 'Eas on Crit', 693 4) shame (II), vb trans, fr preo, OE scamian, scamian 1 To make to feel shame, to make ashamed his industry and success shamed all his detractors 2 To bring shame or disgrace upon, to disgrace, put to shame openly detected as a thief, and shamed before the whole school 3 To urge, drive, cause to do by shame or reproach he was shamed into working, out of his bad habits shamefaced, adj [1 shāmfišt, 2 šemfišt] Popular etymol for shamefast, OE scamfast, 'ashamed, modest' shame (I) & fast (I), as in steadfast a (in good sense) Bashful, shy, easily put out of countenance, diffident, modest, b (more usually in unfavourable sense) ashamed of oneself, sheepish, exhibiting consciousness of some shortcoming shamefacedly, adv [1 shāmfišedli, 2 šemfišedli] Preo & -ly In a shamefaced manner shamefacedness, n [1 shāmfištnes, shāmfišednes, 2 šemfištnes, šemfišednes] See preo & -ness State of being shamefaced shameful, adj [1 shāmfool, 2 šemfool] shame (I) & -ful 1 Causing, bringing, shame or disgrace, disgraceful a shameful defeat, shameful conduct 2 Arousing feelings of shame, outrageous, disgusting, indecent a shameful book, sight &c shamefully, adv Preo & -ly In a shameful manner, disgracefully shamefulness, n See preo & -ness State of being shameful shameless, adj [1 shāmles, 2 šemlis] shame (I) & -less 1 Feeling no shame; destitute of modesty, insensible to shame, reproach, or disgrace, impudent, brazen a shameless liar, rogue 2 Exhibiting no sense of shame, no regard for propriety or decency, outraging all natural feelings of shame, immodest a shameless play, picture, shameless conduct shamelessly, adv Preo & -ly In a shameless manner shamelessness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being shameless shammer, n [1 shāmer, 2 šame] sham (I) & -er One who shams, impostor, humbug shammy (leather), n [1 shāmi, 2 šemi] Variant spelling of chamois shampoo (I), vb trans [1 sham-pō, 2 šam-pō], fr Hind champo, imperat of chāmpnā, 'to knead, squeeze, press, to shampoo' 1 To massage the limbs, by kneading, pressing &c, one of the principal stages in the Oriental or Turkish bath 2 To wash (the head or hair) by soaping and rubbing under a spray of water, or with a soap, alcoholic preparation, known as a dry shampoo shampoo (II), n, fr preo 1 Act or process of shampooing 2 Special soap powder &c used in shampooing the head shamrock, n [1 shāmrok, 2 šamrok], fr Ir scamrog, 'trefoil' a The white clover, Trifolium repens, with three heart shaped leaflets to each leaf, b this or similar trefoil as the badge or emblem of Ireland, worn on St Patrick's Day in memory of his adoption of a trefoil, probably the wood sorrel, as a symbol of the Trinity shandrydan, n [1 shāndrīdān, 2 šandridān] Etymol unknown. 1 Spoil (obs) a light, two wheeled Irish cart 2 A shabby, old-fashioned chair or carriage shandygaff, n [1 shāndigaff, 2 šandigaff] Etymol unknown. A drink of beer mixed with ginger beer shanghai, vb trans [1 shāng hī, 2 šanghī], fr the town and port in China (sailors' slang) To make a man insensible by drink, drugs, or other methods, and ship him on board an outgoing ship as a sailor.

shank (I), n [1 shangk, 2 [ʃɒŋk] OE sc(e)anca, 'the leg', M E schankle, op Mod Germ schenkel, 'the leg, thigh', fr skan-* sh, dimin fr same base, also OH G scinſc, Mod Germ schinken, 'ham' 1 The leg, esp the shin, of man or such animals as horses and cows, chiefly used in derogatory sense long, thin, lean, shanks &c Phr to go on Shank's mare, to use one's own legs, instead of riding, driving &c 2 Part between the top &c and the working end of tools and implements, handle, shaft, stem shank of a spoon, scissor-blade, key &c shank (II), v trans, fr prec (usually shank off, of flower) To drop off, decay and fall off, from the shank or footstalk shanny, n [1 shám, 2 [ʃɒni] Etymol unknown Green sea fish, smooth blenny shan't, vb [1 shahat, 2 [ʃánt] Contraction of shall not, see shall shantung, n [1 shántung, 2 [ʃántʌŋ] Name of Chinese province A coarse silk obtained from undomesticated silk-worms, tussore silk, usually left in its natural colour when woven shanty (I), n Sailor's song See chantey shanty (II), n [1 shánti, 2 [ʃánti] Etymol doubtful, perh Fr chanter, 'shed, timber-yard' A small shed or hut, a poor, mean, tumble down dwelling shapable, adj [1 shápahl, 2 [ʃéphl] shape (I) & -able Capable of being shaped shape (I), n [1 sháp, 2 [ʃép] OE (ge)scæp, 'creation, created thing, creature, form, shape, destiny, decrees (of fate)', M E sc(e)hapes, fr base skub-*, 'to scrape, out', &c, op Lat scabere, 'to scratch, scrape', scaber, 'rough', see scabrous, Lith skabus, 'sharp', related also to a group of words fr a variant skap-*, op Gk skaptein, 'to dig', Lith skupti, 'to hollow out' &c See also -ship & shave (I). 1 Outward form, outline, contour, the shape of one's head, face, shape of a cloud, tree &c Phrs in the shape of, in the form, in the guise, of a fiend in human shape, a reward in the shape of £100, not in any shape or form, in no way whatever, not at all 2 Something having an outward, visible form, esp something vague, mysterious, and uneasy, an apparition strange shapes appeared from the shadows 3 Clear, definite conception, orderly arrangement in the mind to put one's ideas into shape, the plan is taking shape in my head 4 A practical expression of an idea, plan &c in action Fooh's long prepared schemes at last took shape in a concerted attack along an immense front, b embodiment in artistic form the poet's dreams find a shape in his poetry 5 A Pattern to be copied in making anything, mould for shaping anything, model a hat shape, iron moulder's shape, b that which is formed or turned out of a mould confour shape shape (II), v trans & intrans A new formation fr prec, not derived fr OE scieppan, non WS scieppan, 'to create, form, appoint, decree', either in form or meaning, the OE vb is formed fr Gmc base skap-*, for wh see prec 1 trans To give a specific shape to, to form, mould (in material and non material senses) to shape a piece of wood, to shape a stone into an axe, to shape a garment, to shape one's ideas, shape one's rough material into a book Phr to shape one's course, direct it 2 intrans To take on, assume, a shape, appearance, to become ordered, disposed, adapted, to turn out, develop the box I am making is shaping quite well, I don't like the way events are shaping at all, the boy is shaping very satisfactorily shaped, adj [1 shápt, 2 [ʃépt], Prec & -ed Having a given or specified shape shaped like a pear

-shaped, suff Same as prec, in compounds pear-shaped, boat-shaped &c shapeless, adj [1 shápləs, 2 [ʃépləs] shape (I) & -less Without shape or form, lacking order and arrangement, amorphous.

shapelessly, adv Prec & -ly In a shapeless form shapelessness, n See prec. & -ness Quality of being shapeless shapeliness, n [1 sháplines, 2 [ʃéplines] Next word & -ness Quality of being shapely shapely, adj [1 sháplɪ, 2 [ʃéplɪ] shape (I) & -ly Having a good, pleasing, shape, well-proportioned, symmetrical

-shapen, suff [1 shápen, 2 [ʃépan] Old strong PP of shape. OE (ge)scapen Having a specified shape ill shapen, mis-shapen shaper, n [1 sháper, 2 [ʃéps] shape (II) & -er One who, that which, shapes, specif, a hand- or machine tool for cutting moulds, patterns &c shapka, n [1 shápka, 2 [ʃəpkə], fr Pol czapka A cylindrical, conical cap with a flat top, the typical head dress of lancer regiments shard, n, also sherd [1 shard, shərd, 2 [ʃəd, [ʃəd] OE scæard, 'notched, broken', fr base seen in adversan, 'to out', see shear (I) 1 (archaic) A fragment of pottery, or of a broken pot, a potsherd, (gardener's term) piece of crock placed over hole at bottom of a flower-pot 2 The hard wing case of a beetle share (I), n [1 shár, 2 [ʒə] OE sc(e)aru, 'a cutting', in compounds, 'that which is out off, apportioned' &c, gradational variant of shear (I) 1 A Portion, part, amount of a thing or quality in possession of which several participate to have a share in the spoils, he has some share of his father's genius, a share of luck, b part, division, of specific and limited size, and amount allotted, awarded, assigned, to a person in distribution, or to be contributed by him as part of a joint payment his share of his father's fortune was smaller than that of his brothers, your share of the expenses is five shillings, Phr lion's share, largest portion 2 Part, rôle, played, contribution made, by a person in an action what share had he in the victory?, he took no share in the plot 3 A Ownership of part of property, business, undertaking &c together with others to have a share in a mining speculation, a share in some house property, in a shipping business &c, specif b any one of the equal parts into which the invested capital of a joint stock company is divided, entitling the owner to a proportion of the profits as interest, and of the assets if and when the company is wound up, c (loosely) document which gives evidence of ownership of such a share, in full, share certificate share (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1. Share out, to distribute, apportion, hand out in shares, to share out food and clothing to the poor 2 Share with, to give a share of to (another person) and retain a portion for oneself to share one's dinner with a beggar, one's purse with a friend 3, a To participate in use or possession of, enjoy in common with others, to have a share or portion of, together with others we had better share the food, profit, glory, let us share what is left between us, Phr to share the bed of, sleep with, b to participate in, experience, incur, together with others to share the toils and hardships of a campaign, to share losses, expenses, to share the blame, responsibility &c B, intrans To have a share, to take, play, a part in, to participate in to share alike in the hopes and anxieties of parenthood, Phr share and share alike, (of several persons) to participate equally in use or enjoyment of something distributed share (III), n OE scær, 'ploughshare', fr same base as prec, & op shear (II) That part of a plough or similar implement which cuts the furrow, ploughshare share-beam, n share (III) & beam The part of a plough in which the share is fixed shareholder, n [1 shárhólder, 2 [ʃəhóldə] One who holds, or owns, shares in a joint-stock company sharer, n [1 shárer, 2 [ʃərs] share (II)

& -er One who shares, takes part, partakes shark (I), n [1 shark, 2 [ʃák] Etymol uncertain, possibly an adaptation of Lat carcharias, 'the dog fish', fr Gk karkharias, 'a sea fish with sharp teeth, shark', fr karkharos, 'jagged, sharp', the Gk word shows reduplication, op Scrt kharaf, 'hard, rough, sharp' 1 The general name for any one of a very large group of extremely voracious sea fishes, allied to the rays and including the dog fishes, chiefly characterized by a long, rounded and tapering body, and a powerful tail, having gills placed laterally, the mouth on the underside, a tough skin, usually of a slaty grey colour, and being covered with hard tubercles in stead of scales, some varieties, such as the man eating shark, Carcharodon carcharias, of tropical waters, the hasking shark, hammer head, thresher, the porbeagle, are dangerous to man 2 (fig) A rapacious, greedy person, one who preys on others, a swindling rogue, a sharper shark (II), v trans & intrans See prec 1 intrans To prowl about in search of plunder, to play the shark, swindler or plunderer 2 trans a To devour voraciously, like a shark, b to plunder, swindle, cheat sharker, n [1 shárker, 2 [ʃəks] shark (II) & -er One who sharks or plunders, swindler, sharper sharking, adj [1 shárking, 2 [ʃəksɪŋ], fr Prec Part of shark (II) Inclined to shark, rapaciously dishonest a sharking rogue, money lender &c shark oil, n Oil obtained from the liver of certain sharks or dog fishes, used as a substitute for cod liver oil shark-ray, n The angel fish shark-skin, n Shagreen shark's mouth, n An opening in an awning on a ship's deck through which the mast &c passes sharp (I), adj [1. sharp, 2 [ʃəp] OE scæpp, M E scheppe, schappe, OS skarp, ON skarr, oogn w OE scorpan, 'to scrape', & scrapen in same sense, further Lat scrobia, 'a ditch, a trench' 1 a (of edges, or edged tools &c) Keen, cutting, b (of points, or pointed tools &c) fine, piercing, reverse of blunt, c (of sand &c) composed of spiky, pointed grains 2 (referring to form and shape) a Acute, pointed, not obtuse or rounded, a sharp peak, ridge, a sharp nose, features, b (of curves) turning sharply and suddenly a sharp corner of a road, a sharp turn, c (of gradients) steep, abrupt a sharp ascent, descent, fall 3 (of visual images) Clearly seen, distinctly defined or outlined, standing out clearly, clean-cut, not blurred a sharp outline &c 4 Producing a physical sensation resembling or suggestive of cutting, biting, piercing &c, intense a sharp frost, a sharp pain, twinge &c 5 (of sound) Shrill, piercing 6 (of taste and smell) Acid, intensely bitter, sour 7, (of the senses) Acute, keen, sensitive, alert, quick to perceive and distinguish sharp eyes, sight, ears, hearing, a sharp nose, sense of smell &c, to have a sharp eye, ear, nose, for anything, to keep a sharp lookout 8 (of sensations, appetites &c) Eager, keen to be satisfied a sharp hunger, thirst 9 (of actions and movements) Brisk, rapid, swift, sudden, performed quickly and briskly, vigorously, a sharp walk, a sharp game, set &c Phr shori and sharp, brief but intense 10 (referring to mental qualities) a Quick, keen, penetrating, alert, clever, smart sharp wit, intelligence, a sharp lad, he was very sharp at figures, Phr sharp as a needle, very keen, alert &c, also b (in bad sense) Keen and unscrupulous a very sharp customer, he was much too sharp for me 11 (of actions, expression, affecting the feelings) Piercing, biting, cutting, wounding, severe a sharp rebuke, criticism, cross examination, a sharp shearwater, n [1 shérwáwter, 2 shérwôta] So called from its shearing or cutting the water as it swims 1 A sea bird, genus Puffinus, of many varieties, allied to the petrels and albatross, the Manx shearwater is the only species that breeds in the British Isles 2 The skimmer or shear-hull sheat-fish, n [1 shét fish, 2 fít fí] First element perh fr OE scēta, 'a trout', fr scēot, 'rapid', see shoot A very large, freshwater, edible fish of the catfish family, found in the Danube and other Central European rivers sheath, n [1 shéth, 2 fít] OE scæð, fr skapi-*, 'sheath', ME schēthe, OS skēða, OHG scēda, orig sense 'separation', whence 'means of separation, separation covering' &c, fr base in OE scēðan, 'divide, separate' &c, q v under shed (I) 1 A case or covering, esp one made to fit blade of a knife, dagger, or other sharp tool or weapon, the scabbard of a sword 2 Any close fitting, enveloping membrane, or sheath-like structure, in plants or animals sheathe, vb trans [1 shēdh, 2 fít], fr prec 1 To put, replace, in a sheath or scabbard Phr to sheathe the sword, (fig) to make peace 2 To cover with a protective sheath or casing 'to sheathe a ship's bottom with copper sheathing, n [1 shēdhing, 2 fít] sheathe & -ing 1 Act of placing or replacing in a sheath or scabbard the sheathing of the sword, (fig) cessation of hostilities 2 That which sheathes, covers, or encases the copper sheathing, of a ship's bottom sheath-knife, n A knife with a fixed blade, fitting into a sheath, as contrasted with clasp-knife sheave (I), n [1 shēv, 2 fít], fr unrecorded OE scēf*, fr skapi-*, gradational variant of ME shive, 'slice', op OHG sciba, Mod Germ scheibe, 'slice' &c, & Du schijf The grooved wheel of a pulley over which the rope runs sheave (II), vb trans, fr sheaf To collect, put, (grain) into sheaves sheaved (I), adj [1 shēvd, 2 fít], fr sheave (I) & -ed (of pulleys) Having sheaves sheaved (II), adj sheave (II) & -ed Shaped like a sheaf of corn, having top flared, and rather wider than base shebang, n [1 shibang, 2 fít] Variant of shebeen (slang) House, dwelling, shop shebeen, n & vb intrans [1 shēbēn, 2 fít] fr, dimin of shop, 'shop' 1 n A low public house, an unlicensed drinking shop 2 vb To carry on illicit traffic in drink shebeener, n [1 shēbēner, 2 fít] Prec & -er One who carries on traffic in drink without a licence shed (I), vb trans [1 shed, 2 fét] OE scēðan, 'to divide, separate, to distinguish, to scatter' ME schēden, scheden, cogn w OS skēdan, O Frs skētha, OHG scēdan, cogn w Gk skhizein, 'to cleave, split' See schism, rescind, & op water-shed 1 To let fall, allow to flow to shed tears, (poet) leaves shed their dewdrops, clouds shed rain 2 a To cast, slough, off, become divested of, lose, by natural process of moulting &c animals shed their coats in summer, snakes shed their skins, stags shed their antlers, flowers shed their petals, b to take off, leave off, divest oneself of to shed one's winter clothes, also (fig) to get rid of, abandon, free oneself from (habits, mannerisms, titles, acquaintances) 3 To cause to flow, hence in Phrs to shed blood, to kill, to deprive (man or other animal) of life, to shed one's blood, sacrifices one's life 4 To pour forth, to scatter, to radiate, to diffuse to shed light, radiance, warmth, roses shed their fragrance, (also of non material things) to shed a benediction, to shed peace and happiness around, to shed a good influence &c shed (II), n Apparently an unlengthened form of OE scēad, 'shade, protection' See shade (I) A low, one-storeyed structure, large or small, temporary or permanent, whether of stone or wood, roofed with stone, tiles, or thatch, usually near a dwelling-house, an outhouse a shed for cattle, for bicycles, for tools, a potting shed &c shedder, n [1 shēder, 2 fét], shed (I) & -er 1 One who sheds shedder of blood, a murderer 2 Specif, an animal, in the initial stages of shedding or moulting shedding (I), n [1 shēding, 2 fét] shed (I) & -ing 1 Act of one who or that which sheds or pours forth the shedding of blood, tears &c 2 Something shed, cast off the shedding of a lobster 3 A parting, division shedding of waters (op watershed) shedding (II), n shed (II) & -ing A collection of sheds or huts sheeling, n See shealing sheen, n [1 shēn, 2 fín], fr OE schēn (non-WS) schēn, 'beautiful', ME schēne, OS, OHG schēn, Goth skains, 'beautiful', further relations outside Gmc doubtful, mistakenly associated w shine, wh has influenced the meaning a (rare and poet) Brightness, flash the sheen of spears, b gloss, glossiness, lustre sheen on satin &c sheeny (I), adj [1 shēni, 2 fín] Prec & -y Glossy, bright, possessing a sheen sheeny (II), n, also sheeny man. Origm doubtful (colloq and disparaging) A Jew sheep, n [1 shēp, 2 fít] OE scēap, scēp, ME sheep, only in W Gmc, OS skāp, OHG scāp, no cognates traced 1 a Any of various species of ungulate, ruminant mammals, genus Ovis, with woolly coat or fleece, and often having curved, hollow horns, specif, domesticated species bred for flesh and wool, b the form is also pl five sheep &c, and collective to keep sheep, Phr the black sheep of the family, one who is different, in a bad sense, from the rest of his family or associates, a bad lot, a rogue, a wolf in sheep's clothing, from the fable, an avaricious, grasping, rapacious person concealing his real nature under a mask of simplicity and innocence, to cast sheep's eyes at, to look at with shy, sidelong, amorous glances, to follow like sheep, to follow a leader blindly or without thinking, to separate the sheep and the goats, to distinguish between the good and the bad, a lost, wandering sheep, one who has strayed from the flock, esp in a religious sense, a sinner who, it is hoped, may one day be reformed and restored to the fold, sheep without a shepherd, helpless people, without a leader, one may as well be hanged for a sheep as a lamb, if you are going to commit a crime or sin, you may as well risk punishment for a solid, satisfying one as for a petty one, so 'go the whole hog' 2 The skin of sheep, dressed as leather or parchment, sheepskin 3 a A spiritless, timid, feeble person, b the member(s) of a church or other religious community, regarded as the 'flock' of a minister or pastor sheep-dip, n A chemical preparation in which sheep are dipped to free them from parasites and other vermin and to preserve the fleece, sheep wash sheep-dog, n A dog trained and used by a shepherd to help him in herding his sheep, usually either a collie, or the so called Old English sheep dog, with long, woolly rough coat, and a hooked tail sheepfold, n [1 shēpfôld, 2 fít] An enclosure in which sheep are penned sheep-hook, n A shepherd's crook sheepish, adj [1 shēpish, 2 fít] sheep & -ish. A bashful, shy, awkward, self-conscious, in manner, bailey, dull witted sheepishly, adv Prec & -ly In a sheepish manner sheepishness, n. See prec & -ness State, quality, of being sheepish sheep-master, n. A breeder of sheep, a sheep-farmer sheep-pen, n A pen or fold for enclosing sheep, sheepfold sheep-run, n. A large expanse of land on which sheep are pastured, a large sheep-walk, esp in Australia sheep's fescue, n A kind of fescue grass, Festuca ovina, valuable as a pasture and lawn grass sheep's head, n 1 a The head of a sheep, esp as a dish for the table, b a dull, stupid person 2 A large food fish of the Atlantic coast of N America, Sargus ovis sheep-shearer, n One who shears sheep sheep-shearing, n 1 Act of shearing or clipping sheep 2 Time when sheep are sheared, a feast held at this time sheepskin, n [1 shēpskin, 2 fít] 1 A coat or rug made of the skin of a sheep with the fleece left on 2 A parchment made from the skin of sheep, b (by trans), a deed, document, engrossed on such parchment 3 Leather made of sheepskin, used in bookbinding &c sheep-tick, n Tick which infests sheep, called also sheep louse sheep-walk, n A tract of land on which sheep are pastured, a small sheep run sheep-wash, n Sheep dip sheer (I), adj [1 shēr, 2 fít] ME sheere, 'bright, clear', of Scand origin, op ON skerr, 'bright', cogn w OE scir, 'bright, shining', Goth skairs, prob same base as shine 1 (obs) Bright, clear, shining 'The sheer silver fountain' (Shakespeare, 'Richard II') 2 Clear, unmixed, undiluted, plain, mere, absolute, downright sheer waste of time, sheer nonsense, roguey &c, a sheer impossibility, this means sheer run for me 3 Uninterrupted, clear, perpendicular, precipitous a sheer rock, cliff, a sheer descent, fall 4 (of textiles) Transparent, thin, diaphanous sheer muslin &c sheer (II), adv, fr prec 1 Completely, absolutely, outright 2 Straight down, perpendicularly he fell sheer down 300 feet, the cliff descends sheer to the sea sheer (III), vb intrans, fr Dn scheren, 'to shear, cut, to move away or aside, to warp', cogn w shear (I) 1 (of ship) To deviate from proper course, to swerve aside 2 Sheer off, to move, turn aside, to depart, go away sheer (IV), n, fr prec 1 Deviation from proper or normal course of a ship 2 The upward curve of the lines or deck of a ship from amidships to stem or stern, as viewed from the side sheer-hulk, n Spelling due to association w sheer (I), in sense of 'mere' An old, dismasted ship or hulk, provided with beam legs for hoisting heavy weights in and out of other vessels in a harbour &c sheer-legs, n See shear-legs sheet (I), n [1 shēt, 2 fít] OE scēat, 'piece of cloth, cloak, lap, bosom, surface (of ground), region', OHG scēz, op Mod Germ schoos, 'bosom', ON skaut, 'corner, lapet', Goth skauts, 'hem, edge, of a garment', perh fr same base as shoot, but the path of development of meaning is uncertain, perh orig that part of a garment wh. hangs down, or projects 1 A rect angular piece of linen or cotton cloth used a in pairs, as the inner part of the bed clothes, coming between the body and the blankets, Phr to get between the sheets, go to bed, b as a shroud for wrapping a dead body, usually winding sheet, c as a white garment or robe for penitents, Phr to put on, stand in, a white sheet, to recant, repent, publicly for an offence 2 A piece of paper Phr a blank sheet, applied (fig) to a character or mind, as of a young person, ready to receive impressions by education, environment &c, clean sheet, the record of a person under discipline, which contains no entry of breaches of rules, offences, or misconduct, hence, a good character, a (gen) any such piece, whether blank or written or printed upon a sheet of notepaper, several sheets of MS &c, b (techn.) a piece of paper as it comes from the manufacturer, of various sizes, demy, foolscap &c, before folding, when folded it becomes a sheet in folio, quarto &c., of so many leaves and pages, in sheet, of book before binding, o (by trans.) printed matter, a pamphlet, newspaper a news sheet, fly sheet, to sell sheets hot from the press, a contemptible, rebellious sheet 3 Any broad, flat, and thin piece of metal or other material, specif. one of less thickness than a plate a sheet of tin, iron, glass &c., also sheet iron, sheet lead &c., iron, lead &c. in sheet 4 (by trans.) A broad, continuous, flat expanse or surface a sheet of water, ice, snow &c., a sheet of flame, fire, rain fell in sheets sheet (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To furnish with sheets to sheet a bed 2 To wrap, cover, in a sheet to sheet a corpse, 'the sheeted dead' sheet (III), n Same word as sheet (I) 1 A rope or chain fastened to the lower corner of a sail used for shortening or extending it to the wind let out, haul in, the sheet, with flaming sheets, with sails fully expanded, not close-hauled Phr three sheets in the wind (slang), drunk, from a ship with all three sheets left free or uncontrolled, and so staggering and veering about like a drunken man 2 (pl) The inside, angular parts at the bow or stern of an open boat not occupied by thwart fore sheets, stern sheets sheet (IV), vb trans, fr prec To haul, pull upon a sail by the sheet to sheet home, to haul hard on the sheets of a square sail so as to get it to expand to the full sheet anchor, n For earlier shoot anchor 1 A large, heavy anchor carried outside the waist or middle part of a ship, ready to be 'shot' or cast in case of great danger or emergency 2 (fig) A person, thing, circumstance &c., upon which one can thoroughly depend in time of trouble or emergency, a sure, last support, hope, or security sheet glass, n A kind of crown glass made in cylinders, then cut and flattened out while hot into sheets, in distinction to plate glass sheeting, n [1 shéting, 2 shítig] sheet (I) & -ing 1 Linen or cotton fabric, used for making sheets, material such as lead &c., made into sheets 2 Timber lining for an embankment, river or canal banks &c.

sheet lightning, n A diffused flash of lightning, lightning appearing in sheet like form, mainly visible as reflected from the clouds, contrasted with forked lightning

Sheffield plate n [1 shéfeld plát, 2 shéfeld plét], fr Sheffield, Yorkshire, where it was first made c 1768 Plate first made in 18th cent., of a thin sheet of copper enclosed between two sheets of silver which were brought together and welded at the edges sheik sheikh, n [1 shák, shék, 2 shék [ik] Aráb, sheikh, shaykh, lit. 'an old man an elder, chief' A title of respect used by Arabs and Moslems generally of the Nearer East, beco the head or chief of a family, tribe or clan, the head of a village, responsible for law and order &c., also applied to heads of religious communities &c. Sheikh ul Islam, the grand mufti the chief authority on religious law in Turkey and the countries formerly under the Caliphate shekaree n. See shikari.

shekel, n [1 shékel, 2 shék] Heb sheqel, fr sháqel, 'to weigh' 1 n An old Jewish unit of weight of about half an ounce, b a coin of silver, worth about two shillings and sixpence 2 (colloq or slang pl) Money, cash, coins to rule in the shekel

Shekinah Shechinah n [1 shékina, 2 shéino] fr Heb shékhinah, 'the dwelling place', fr shákhán, to dwell inhabit', in the Targums, put in OT 'The visible presence and glory of God.'

sheldrake, n [1 shéldrák, 2 shéldrál] In f E, fr shéld, shéld, see sheld, & drake (L), old sheldrake have shéld 'dappled spotted, sheld', the meaning is due to the resemblance of the pattern on the bird to the grey sheldrake as a sheld or coat of arms, sp.

ON shéldung, 'sheldrake', fr shýldr, 'shield, spot, patch', op Germ schildern, 'to paint, depict', as on a shield A genus of wild ducks, Tadorna, with red beak, dark green head, and bands of white, brown, and green on the neck, the bird comes between the true ducks and the wild geese, it is found on sandy shores by the sea, feeding on shellfish and marine worms shelf, n [1 shélf, 2 shélf] OE scylfe, scelfe, 'plank, shelf', origin & formation doubtful, the dictionaries assert a connexion w scale (III) & shell, wh does not throw much light on the meaning 1 A narrow, projecting, flat piece of wood or other material fastened to, or hung from a wall at right angles to this, and parallel to the floor or ground, used for holding various articles of ornament or use, books &c., b one of a set of such boards fitted into a framework, a cupboard, cabinet, bookcase &c., shelves, a set of such boards, Phr to be (put, laid) on the shelf, to be set, laid aside as not in use or not worth using, of persons past useful service &c. 2 A flat, projecting, horizontal ledge or layer of rock on the face of a cliff &c., b a flat submerged reef or sandbank in the sea or a river, c continental shelf, elevated submarine zone fringing continent, this may possibly be a distinct word See shelve (II) shellful, n [1 shélfú, 2 shélfú] Prec & -ful Amount, quantity, number of things, such as books &c., sufficient to fill a shelf shell (I), n [1 shél, 2 shé] OE (non W Sax) scell ME schell cogn w scale (III) & shale 1 The hard, outer covering of many vegetable or animal objects, retaining its hollow shape when removed from what it contains, a the husk of a nut, pod of peas beans &c., b the hard, calcareous outer covering of a bird's egg, c the wing case of a beetle &c., d specif, the test or carapace of invertebrates, such as molluscs, or of vertebrates, such as tortoises &c., forming a protection to their soft bodies, Phr to come out of retire into one's shell, to cease to be, to become, shy, reserved, or uncommunicative 2 Any kind of shell used for commercial purposes (pearl) shell (tortoise) shell &c 3 Anything resembling a shell, or husk, as being hollow, emptied of its contents and fittings, a the outer walls of a house or building, which has been gutted by fire or ruined by time only the shell of the castle remains, b the hull of a ship or boat, (in US) a light racing skiff c a light coffin, placed inside the outer or more solid coffin proper 4 (by trans or fig) Empty show, outward semblance, anything without substance or reality some regard ritual as the mere shell of religion 5 A metal or paper cartridge case for rifles, sporting guns &c., to be filled with charge of powder, bullet or shot. (in US) a filled, complete cartridge, b similar case used for fireworks 6 (artillery) A cylindrical projectile of hardened steel with conical head, fired from a gun, filled with a bursting charge which explodes by action of time fuse, in flight, or impact, or after penetrating the object aimed at, shells produce their destructive effect by the shrapnel, bullets, or poison gas which they contain, by the fragments of the casing itself or by the concussive shock of the high-explosive bursting charge 7 In various special uses a (poet) the lyre as originally made from the shell of a tortoise b hen Jubal struck the chorded shell (Dryden, S Cecilia's Day), b the semicircular hand plate or guard of a sword c an intermediate form at certain schools, coming usually between the fourth and fifth forms, d a shell jacket shell (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans. 1 A To remove, take off the shell from, to take out from the shell or pod to shell peas or beans, to shell an egg, shelled oysters, Phr as easy as shelling peas, (colloq) of some absurdly easy task, b to remove, strip grain, as wheat, maize, from the ear or cob 2 To cover with shells, to fix shells in or upon, for decoration &c. 3 Specif, to bombard, fire at with shells or artillery to shell a town, line of trenches, road &c., the troops were shelled unceasingly B intrans To cast, throw off the shell, to become free from the shell C Shell out, trans & intrans (slang) to pay out or over, to hand over money shell out your money, he hopes that his uncle will shell out handsomely shellac, n & vb trans [1 shélák, anelák, 2 shélák, shélák] shell (I) & lao (II) 1 n Lac melted and strained and spread into thin shells or flakes used in making varnishes, sealing-wax &c. 2 vb To coat with shellac shell-back, n (slang) An old sailor, old salt shell-bark, n A variety of hickory with peeling bark shell-bit n A kind of auger or gouge attached to a brace for boring

-shelled, adj [1 shéld, 2 shéld] shell (I) & -ed Having a specified kind, or quality, of shell hard shelled, soft shelled shellfish, n [1 shélfish, 2 shélfis] Any marine mollusc or crustacean having a hard outer shell, as the oyster, lobster, crab &c., esp of such as are used for food shell-heap, n A kitchen midden shell-jacket, n A tight-fitting, short-backed military jacket, as worn in dress uniforms by the household cavalry and horse artillery, or as a mess jacket by officers shell-less, adj [1 shéllés, 2 shéllés] shell (I) & -less Having no shells, lacking, deprived of, a shell shell-out, n (billiards) A variety of the game of pyramids shell-proof, adj Proof against the effect of explosive shells or bombs shell-work, n Ornamentation formed of shells, or with pattern resembling shells shelly, adj [1 shéll, 2 shéll] shell (I) & -y 1 Abounding in, covered with, shells a shelly beach &c. 2 Resembling, having the form or composition of, shells shelta, n [1 shéltá, 2 shéltá], a Celtic Kind of traditional secret ballad song, mostly of great antiquity, based on Old Irish, still spoken by Irish, Welsh, and Gaelic travelling cards or tinkers, also known to some gypsies shelter (I), n [1 shéltér, 2 shélté] OE scild truma, lit 'shield troop', that is, a body of men armed w shields a phalanx, later, the compound got to mean 'shielding, protecting, troop or force', hence 'a guard, a protection', the ME form was normally scheltrum, w shortening of é in first element before the combination of consonants, thus became scheld (troun, scheltren, whence the present form. For first element see shield, the second, a regular word in OE for a body of troops, is formed fr trum, 'strong, firm, steadfast' See this under trium (I) 1 Protection, cover, screen, state of safety, from physical or moral attack, annoyance, injury &c. to take, provide, shelter from rain, cold, wind &c., to find shelter from insult, bad influence, the worries of life &c., to lend the shelter of one's name and position to 2 A Place where shelter is obtained. place of refuge and safety, something which affords shelter, specif b a cabin, hut, shed, constructed for the purpose cabmen's shelter shelter (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To give, afford, shelter to, a to give a place of shelter, safety, rest &c., to shelter a person for the night, b to give moral support and protection to, to save I cannot shelter you from the results of your folly, from hostile criticism &c. 2 To afford cover to, to screen, come between (person or thing and physical injury &c.) the wood shelters the house to the north 3 (reflex.) Shelter oneself (chiefly in moral sense), to seek safety, excuse, justification, to shift responsibility from oneself to shelter oneself behind one's superior in office. B intrans To seek, take, shelter let us shelter till the storm is over, to shelter behind a hedge &c.

sheltie, sheltie, n. [1 shélti; 2 félti] Modification of Shetland & -y A Shetland pony shelve (I), vb trans [1 shelv, 2 felv], fr shelf 1 To place, arrange, on a shelf to shelve books &c 2 (fig, commonest sense) To put aside, as if on a shelf and not wanted for use, a to get rid of (persons), cease to employ, to supersede, dismiss, force to retire from service &c to shelve an official, b to put (questions, action) on one side, postpone, defer, put off, indefinitely officials like to shelve awkward questions 3 To furnish, fit, with shelves to shelve a recess in a wall, cupboard &c shelve (II), vb intrans Origin doubtful, prob fr shelf in sense 'to form a ledge or shelf' To slope, dip, incline, gently the shore shelves gradually into deep water, a shelving beach she-oak, n she & oak An Australian hardwood tree, of genus Casuarina

Sheol, n [1 shéöl, 2 shoul] Heb sheöl, fr shaal, 'to dig' The Hebrew place of departed spirits, the grave, Hades, translated hell in A V of O T, op Psalm xvi 10 shepherd (I), n [1 shépherd, 2 féped] OE scēap, scēpheard, M E shepherde See sheep & herd (II) 1 A man who looks after sheep, b (fig) a spiritual pastor Phr the Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ shepherd (II), vb trans, fr preo a To look after, protect, as a shepherd does his sheep, b to guide, direct along, induce to take, a particular road the police shepherded the crowd safely out of the park shepherdess, n [1 shéperdes, 2 fépades, -is] shepherd (I) & -ess. A woman who tends sheep, a figure rather of pastoral poetry than of real life shepherd's clock, n The common pimpernel shepherd's club, n Mullen, Verbascum shepherd's crook, n a A shepherd's staff with hook at one end, a sheep-hook, b a pastoral staff shepherd's knot, n Potentilla shepherd's pie, n A dish of minced meat, chopped onions &c with a thick covering of mashed potatoes, baked in a pie dish shepherd's plaid, n a A woollen cloth woven with a black and white check pattern, b fabric with a pattern of black and white checks shepherd's purse, n An annual, cruciferous, wild plant, Capsella Bursa-pastoris, with minute white flowers and heart-shaped, double valved seed case shepherd's rod, n A small teasing Sheraton, adj & n [1 shératun, 2 shératen], fr Thomas Sheraton, cabinet-maker & designer, d. 1806 a adj Designating a style of domestic furniture made by, or after the designs of, the above Sheraton furniture, style &c, b n, n genuine piece of Sheraton sherbet, n [1 shérbet, 2 shébat], fr Pers sharbat, fr Arab sharbah, 'a drink', shariba, 'to drink' Op syrup & shrub (II) 1 An Eastern drink of fruit juice, sugar, and water, cooled with snow 2 Popular name for an effervescent drink made by adding water to a powder of sugar, tartaric acid, and bicarbonate of soda, variously flavoured sherd, n Variant of shard

Shereef, Sherif, n [1 shérf, 2 shérif], fr Arab sharif, 'noble, exalted', also as n, 'prince, chief' 1 A descendant of Mahomet, through his daughter Fatima and her husband Ali, used as a title 2 The title of the governor of Mecca, the guardian of the Holy Places, usually Grand Shereef

Shereefian, Sherifian, adj [1 shérfian, 2 shérifian] Preo & -ian Pertaining to a Shereef His Shereefian Majesty, the Sultan of Morocco, Shereefian family sheriff, n [1 shérif, 2 shérif] OE scir-gerefa, a king's officer presiding over a shire, M E shereve See shire & reeve (II) 1 (hist) An official representative of the Crown in the various counties or shires of England and Wales, Scotland, and Ireland, with various important, chiefly judicial and police, functions 2 a (usually in full) High Sheriff, an honorary official of a county or shire in England, Wales, and Ireland, also in certain old cities of England, appointed yearly by the Crown or the cities, having various administrative and judicial functions, such as those of returning officer at elections, attendance on the judges of assize &c, and the issue and execution of writs, custody of prisoners &c, each being performed by his under-sheriff and sheriff's officers or bailiffs, b (Scotland) sheriff depute, q v, c (USA) an elective officer of a county with certain judicial functions, esp those of keeping the peace, and having the power to call out his posse comitatus sheriff court, n (Scotland) The court held by the sheriff depute or sheriff substitute sheriff-depute, n [1 shérif depút, 2 shérif depútt] (Scotland) A judicial officer of a county or stewartry having jurisdiction in minor criminal and civil cases, and administrative functions corresponding to those of the English high sheriff sheriffdom, n [1 shérifdum, 2 shérifdom] sheriff & -dom (Scotland) The office and jurisdiction of a sheriff-depute or sheriff-substitute sheriff-substitute, n (Scotland) The deputy of the sheriff depute sherris, n [1 shéris, 2 shéris] See sherry (archaic) Sherry, esp in sherris sack sherry, n [1 shéri, 2 shéri] Earlier sherris, regarded as a pl fr Xeres (= [xeriz]), now called Jerez de la Frontera (= [xeréb]), town, near Cadiz, Spain, the centre of the district where the wine is made, fr Lat Caesari, gent sing of Caesar A still, dry wine of Spain, yellowish brown or dark brown in colour, made in the district of Xeres or in Southern Spain generally sherry-cobbler, n Drink made of sherry, sugar, and lemon with broken ice, usually drunk through a straw

Shetland, adj [1 shétländ, 2 shétländ] Name of a group of islands, lying with Orkney, N N E of Scotland Specif a Shetland pony, a breed of small, sturdy pony, with long coat, mane, and tail, originally bred in the islands, b Shetland wool, a soft fleecy wool spun in the islands shew, vb See show (I) shewbread, n [1 shéhréd, 2 shéhréd] See show (I) & bread (Jewish relig) Twelve loaves of unleavened bread, 'shown' or presented to the Lord in the sanctuary of the tabernacle by the high priest each Sabbath shewn, vb See shown

Shuah, Shuhte, n [1 shéa, shéit, 2 shé, shéit] Arab shua(h), 'seet' A member of one of the two great divisions of the Moslem faith, which rejects the first three Caliphs and regards Ali, the husband of Fatima, daughter of the Prophet, as his lawful successor, opposed to Sunnah shubboleth, n [1. shiholeth, 2 shibalep] Heb, 'a river', also 'ear of corn', fr shibol, 'to flow, to grow' 1 (Jewish hist) A test word used to distinguish the Gileadites from the Ephraimites, who could not pronounce sh (see Judges xi 6) 2 a A cant catchword or formula used as a kind of test of genuineness and loyalty by the adherents of a sect or party, as supposed to embody some principle or ideal, b any arbitrary test of social status, conformity to which is exacted from those who desire to come up to the standard shield (I), n [1 shéld, 2 shéld] OE (non-WS) scild, M E scheld, OS scild, OH G scilt, Goth skildus, ON skjoldr, stymol uncertain, according to some authorities, orig 'a board', & cogn w ON skilya, 'to split', also Lith skelti, 'to split' &c, ultimately connected w scale (III) 1 a A piece of portable, protective armour of various shapes and sizes, term applied specifically to the long, kite shaped or triangular type carried on the left arm, as distinguished from the round buckler or target held by the left hand, b (her) the field on which a coat of arms is blazoned, representing the surface of a shield 2 (fig) That which serves as a protection or defence, a (of persons) a defender, protector 'Our soul waiteth for the Lord he is our help and our shield' (Ps xxxiii 20), b (of things) a defence, protection 'Above all, taking the shield of faith' (Ephes vi 16) 3 Any object which serves to protect or guard, a a guard protecting workers from the moving parts of a machine, b a pad for protecting a limb against injury, as the arm after vaccination &c 4 In various specific uses a (engin) a steel cylinder with cutting edge used in tunnelling, b (ordnance) a screen of armour-plate protecting the men serving a gun, c (zool) a plated or horny covering of certain animals, as of a tortoise, a carapace shield (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To protect, guard, defend, as with a shield, a (of physical things) the hedge shields the cattle from the wind, we can trust the fleet to shield us from invasion, b (of non-physical things) her youth and innocence shielded her from danger 2 To screen, cover, save, from punishment or rebuke who is shielding this notorious swindler from prosecution?

shield-bearer, n A young squire or page who carried his knight's shield shield-fern, n A fern, Dryopteris, with a shield-shaped cover or indusium to the clusters of sporangia or fruit cases shield-hand, n The left hand shieldless, adj [1 shéldles, 2 shéldlis] shield (I) & -less. A without, deprived of, a shield, b undefended, unprotected shueling, n See shealing shier (I), adj [1 shier, 2 shie] Compar of shy (I), less usual than shyer shier (II), n shy (II) & -er. A horse inclined to shy shift (I), vb trans & intrans [1 shift, 2 shif] OE scifian, 'to divide, separate', M E sc(e)shiften, 'to divide, change, remove', op. ON skipta, 'to divide, change, shift', Dn schiften, 'to divide, turn', cogn w sheave & shiver (II) A trans 1 To remove, get rid of, a (of material objects) shift this rubbish out of the way, b (of non-material things) to lay aside, to transfer from oneself to another and get rid of to shift n burden, blame, responsibility on to someone else, to shift off a load of anxiety 2 a To move (something) from one position to another, to change the position of to shift the helm, to put the helm hard over from port to starboard, or vice versa, to shift furniture from one room to another, to shift a rifle from the right to the left shoulder &c, to shift the scenes (on the stage), to shift one's lodgings, move into another house &c Plurs to shift one's ground, stand in another place, change one's position, (also fig) to adopt another point of view, change one's mind, to shift one's clothes (archaic or provine), change them &c, shift oneself (provine), to change one's clothes B m trans 1 a (of persons) To move, change, one's position to shift from side to side, from one foot to another, b (colloq) to go away 2 n (of things) To move out of original position, to slip, slide, away from a given place sandbanks are constantly shifting, cargo shifts in a ship's hold, b (of wind) to veer from one quarter to another 3 (new formation from n.) To shift for oneself, manage without assistance from others, be cast on one's own resources shift (II), n, fr preo 1. A change, in position direction, in conditions &c, change, fluctuation, of mood 2 a (archaic or provine) A change of clothes, esp of underclothing, b (archaic) a woman's undergarment, a chemise 3 A change from one resource to another, an expedient, contrivance, dodge to try every shift available. Phr to make (a) shift, to manage, contrive, with any resource available, to get along as best one can. 4 a Set of workmen working at one time at a specific job, b time worked by these day-shift, night shift, the working day is divided into three shifts 5 (various techn uses) A Rotation of crops, b method of laying bricks &c so that the joints of the rows do not coincide, c (min) a fault, dislocation, or slip in a vein or lode, d (mus) a change of position of the hand on the finger board of a violin.

shifter, n [1 shiftr, 2 [ftr] shift (I) & -er 1 In scene shifter, one who shifts 2 A shifty person.

shiftily, adv [1 shiftil, 2 [ftr] shifty & -ly In a shifty manner shiftness, n [1 shiftnes, 2 [ftrnes] shifty & -ness Quality of being shifty shiftness, adj [1 shiftnes, 2 [ftrnes] shift (II) & -less 1 (of persons) Without resource or expedients, lacking foresight and power of management, feckless, inefficient, incapable 2 (of something done or made) Exhibiting lack of resource in the deed or maker shiftness, adv Preo & -ly In a shiftness way shiftness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being shiftness shifty, adj [1 shiftr, 2 [ftr] shift (II) & -y 1 Not abiding by one's decisions or promises, tricky, b evasive, unreliable, dishonest a shifty fellow, too shifty to be trusted, furtive, wavering, not steady, hence, conveying impression of dishonesty shifty eyes, a shifty glance.

Shinto, n See Shiah.

shukar, n [1 shukr, 2 [kr] Hind Hunting, sport shukari, shukaree, n [1 shukhri, 2 [krri] Hind Hunter, sport, a native hunter acting as guide &c for a hunting or shooting party in India shillelagh, shillelah, n [1 shillla, 2 [lilla] Irish, name of a barony in Co Wicklow, famed for its oak trees A stout outdgel, esp one of oak or blackthorn.

shillbeer, n [1 shillber, 2 [lber] After G Shillbeer (1797-1866), coachbuilder (obs) An omnibus, a funeral coach shilling, n [1 shilling, 2 [lign] OE scilling, 'a coin worth about fivepence', OS & OHG scilling, Goth skilling, ON skillingr, etymol. doubtful, perh connected w Gmc base *skel-, 'to ring, resound', ep OHG scellan, ON skella, in wd osse shilling wd be orig 'the ringing coin' A silver coin and money of account, $\frac{1}{4}$ of the pound sterling, equal to 12 pence, abbr s Plms to cut (a person) off with a shilling, to disinherit, to leave an expectant heir merely a derisory sum in a will, as a sign of displeasure &c, to take the Queen's (King's) shilling, to enlist in the army, from the former custom of giving a recruit a shilling on enlistment, shilling shocker, a cheap sensational novel shilly-shally, n & vb intrans [1 shilly shilly, 2 [shilly] For shall I?, shall I? repeated as in hesitation. 1 n. Indecision, inability to make up one's mind, hesitation, needless delay 2 vb To hesitate, vacillate, to refuse to decide or make up one's mind.

shily, adv See shilly shim, n & vb trans [1 shum, 2 [jum] Etymol. unknown. 1 n. A thin slip of wood, metal &c used as a wedge to make two parts of a machine fit to fill in a joint &c 2 vb To fit, fill, with a shim.

shimmer, vb intrans & n [1 shimmer, 2 [jum] OE schimmer, 'to glitter', freq of schiman schiman, 'to shine', fr schima, 'brightness, light', OHG scimo Goth scima, 'a light, a torch' ep also Mod. Germ schimmern, schimmern, 'to glitter, shimmer, shine', ultimately fr same base as shine 1 vb To shine with a tremulous, wifd light, to glisten, glister. 2 n. A faint, tremulous light, a shimmer shimmer, adj [1 shimmer, 2 [jum] Preo & -y In a shimmering, tremulous light shimmy, n [1 shim, 2 [jum] fr chemise Chalked acid fr shift or chemise shin (L), n [1 shin, 2 [ja] OE scina, 'shin'

'shin', OHG scina, ep Mod. Germ. schien (been), 'shin bone', etymol. uncertain, possibly connected w shank a The front part of the leg from the knee to the ankle, the sharp edge of the front of the shin-bone, b the lower part of the foreleg of an ox, as a butcher's term, distinct from shank shin (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans Shin up, to climb, swarm (pole &c), esp by using legs and arms to grasp with to shin up a tree, wall &c 2 trans a To strike, hit, the shin to shin oneself against a rock &c, b to kick the shin of, back shin-bone, n. The tibia shindy, n [1 shindi, 2 [fndi] Etymol doubtful, possibly variant of shinty (colloq) A row, noise, a noisy disturbance to kick up a shindy, to make a disturbance, cause a row shine (I), vb intrans & trans [1 shin, 2 [jam] OE scinan, ME schinen, OS & OHG scinan, ON skina, Goth. skeman, relations outside Gmc doubtful, but ep scintilla A intrans 1 To emit, reflect, light the sun, the stars, a lamp, shine(s), jewels, armour, shine(s) in the sun 2 A To be luminous, be visibly bright, to glow, to illuminate a light shines in the window &c, b (fig) goodness and contentment shone in his face 3 a (of eyes) To sparkle, be lustrous, b to convey the impression of moral brightness, cheerfulness, intelligence &c his face shone with happiness 4 To be conspicuous, form a striking contrast to her beauty shines out amid sordid surroundings Phr a shining example, conspicuous and notable example

5 a To be intellectually brilliant he is a sound sort of fellow, but does not exactly shine, b to excel in, be conspicuous for, some particular attainment to shine as a teacher, as a half back, as an administrator, c to excel under particular circumstances to shine in society B trans (colloq) To polish, make bright to shine boots, the plate shine (II), n, fr preo 1 Sunshin, bright, fine weather in rain or shine. 2 (post) Brightness, lustre '3 (colloq) Polish, gloss get a shine put on one's shoes &c, his top hat had lost its shine Phr to take the shine out of, (i) to spoil the brightness or newness of, (ii) to impair effect of, cause to appear inferior by contrast 4 (slang, prob different word) A row, disturbance, shindy to kick up a shine, to make a row shiner, n [1 shiner, 2 [juer] shine (I) & -er 1 One who shines 2 (slang) A bright, shining coin, esp a sovereign 3 (zool) Popular name of various small freshwater fishes of N America, of the carp family, with gold or silver scales shingles (I), n [1 shinggl, 2 [jngl] Etymol. doubtful, perh of Scand origin, ep Norw singl, singling, 'small round pebbles, coarse gravel', fr single, 'to make a ringing rattling sound', as made by waves on a beach, ep sing Coarse, rounded stones or pebbles as found on sea beaches shingle (II) n & vb trans In ME, for shindle, fr Lat scindula, 'roofing shingle', fr scindere, 'to split, cleave' &c, cogn w schodule schism, & w shed (I) 1 n a small rectangular piece of split wood, thicker at one end than the other, forming a wooden tile for roofing, covering outside walls &c, the thicker ends of one row overlapping the thin ends of the row below, b a method of dressing women's hair, cut short behind, close to the neck, and waved so as to form curving lines like those of a roof or wall covered with wooden tiles. 2 vb a To cover with shingles, b to cut, dress, (hair) so as to form a shingle shingles, n pl [1 shinglz, 2 [jnglz] Earlier scinle, fr OE scinle, 'girth, belt', fr Lat scingulum, 'girdle', fr cingere, 'to gird', see cincture An eruptive, inflammatory disease of the skin (herpes zoster) which, among other symptoms, is characterized by a ring of vesicles, following the course of a nerve, round the body shingly, adj [1 shinggh, 2 [jnggh] shingle (I) & -ly Covered with shingle, pebbly, resembling shingle a shingly beach, path shin-guard, -pad, n A guard or pad worn at football or hockey to protect the front lower part of the leg shinness, n [1 shinnnes, 2 [dinnnes] shiny & -ness State, quality, of being shiny shinny, n See shinty

Shinto, n [1 shintō, 2 [jntōu] Jap, 'the divine way', fr Chin shen, pl shim, 'god', & tao, 'way, teaching' The very ancient national religion of Japan, consisting primarily in the worship of tribal ancestors and heroes

Shintoism, n [1 shintōizm, 2 [jntōuizem] Preo & -ism Religious principles of Shinto Shintoist, n [1 shintōist, 2 [jntōuist] See preo & -ist One who practices Shintoism shinty, shinny, n [1 shinti, shin, 2 [jnti, [in] Etymol uncertain, perh fr shin A rough, rudimentary form of hockey, played in Scotland and the north of England with curved sticks and a leather covered ball with a cork core shiny, adj [1 shin, 2 [dini] shine (II) & -y 1 Bright, clear, full of sunshine a ho', shiny day 2 a Glossy, polished, lustrous a shiny hat, shoes, face shiny with soap and water, b polished by wear, having the nap worn down a shiny pair of trousers ship (I), n [1 ship, 2 [jip] OE scip, ME e(s)hip, OS scip, OHG scif, ON & Goth skip, origin & further connexions entirely doubtful 1 Any large vessel used for navigating the sea, propelled by sails, steam, or other mechanical means Phr on board ship, in, or on, a ship, to take ship, to go on board a ship, ship of the line, a ship of 74 guns or over, of the old wooden sailing navy, that could take its place in the line of battle, the equivalent of the modern battleship, Phr ship of the desert, the camel 2 Specif, a sailing vessel with bowsprit, three masts, square rigged, each divided into lower, topmast, and topgallant masts ship (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 A Speat, to send (goods &c) by ship, b to cause (goods &c) to be transported by any means, ship off, to send away, whether by ship or otherwise to ship a young man off to the colonies &c 2 To engage for service on board a vessel to ship a new crew at the next port 3 A To place in its proper position for use at sea to ship a mast, tiller &c, b to remove from the rowlocks and place inboard ready for use to ship oars 4 (of vessel) To take on board to ship a sea

B intrans 1 (of sailors) To agree to serve on board a vessel to ship as bo'sun &c 2 (of passengers &c) To go on board, embark, sail us ship from Marseilles tomorrow -ship, suff OE scype, ME schype; cogn w OHG scap, fr base meaning 'to form, make', ep shape & -scape Suff forming abstractns 1 From na, indicating a office, dignity, status, tenure of the same premier-ship, judgeship, also of individual holding such office &c his lordship, b condition, state, quality friendship, companionship, c skill, capacity seamanship, workmanship, many words w this suff combine these meanings scholarship, fellowship &c 2 From adjs, as warship for warship hardness ship-biscuit, n A kind of hard biscuit, used on long voyages when bread cannot be made regularly, hard tack shipboard, n [1 shipbord, 2 [jipbōd] Only in advl Phr on shipboard, on board ship ship-breaker, n A person who buys up old, worn out ships and breaks them up in order to sell the material of which they are made ship-broker, n 1 The agent of a shipping company, transacting business for their vessels when in port, securing cargoes &c 2 One engaged in the buying and selling or chartering of vessels &c 3 An agent for marine insurance business shipbuilder, n [1 shipbɪldə, 2 ʃɪpbɪldə] One whose business it is to build ships, a naval architect shipbuilding, n [1 shipbɪldɪŋ, 2 ʃɪpbɪldɪŋ] 1 The art or business of building ships, naval architecture 2 Attributively, as shipbuilding yard, a shipyard ship-canal, n A canal large enough for seagoing vessels to pass through ship-chandler, n One who deals in cordage, canvas, or other things which go to furnishing a ship ship-fever, n An old name for typhus ship-letter, n A letter conveyed by a vessel other than a mail steamer shipload, n [1 ʃɪplɒd, 2 ʃɪplɒd] A full cargo or load for a ship, such quantity of cargo as a ship can carry shipman, n [1 ʃɪpmən, 2 ʃɪpmən] (archaic) A sailor, seaman, mariner shipmaster, n [1 ʃɪpmɑːstə, 2 ʃɪpmɑːstə] The master, captain, skipper, of a merchant vessel shipmate, n [1 ʃɪpmæt, 2 ʃɪpmæt] One who serves with another on board the same ship, fellow sailor, messmate shipment, n [1 ʃɪpmənt, 2 ʃɪpmənt] ship (II) & -ment 1 Act, process, of shipping or placing goods on board ship for transportation by sea goods awaiting shipment 2 A quantity of goods transported by sea, consignment ship-money, n (hist) An old tax on seaports and towns to provide money for national defence, specif, tax revived without consent of Parliament by Charles I and levied on inland counties in time of peace in 1634, 1635, and 1636, one of the causes of the Great Rebellion shipowner, n [1 ʃɪpəʊnə, 2 ʃɪpəʊnə] An owner of a ship or ships, or of shares in a ship or ships shippen, n [1 ʃɪpən, 2 ʃɪpən] OE scypen, fr scypin-*, cp OE scoppa, 'shed, booth' See shop A cowhouse, stable shipper, n [1 ʃɪpə, 2 ʃɪpə] ship (II) & -er 1 One who imports or exports goods by sea 2 A shipowner shipping, n [1 ʃɪpɪŋ, 2 ʃɪpɪŋ] ship (II) & -ing 1 Act, business, of importing and transporting goods & by ship 2 All the ships collectively, belonging to, using, a port, or belonging to a country shipping agent, n Person representing a shipowner at a seaport shipping-articles, n pl Articles of agreement between the captain of a vessel and the crew, as to wages, time of the voyage &c shipping-bill, -note, n Document sent by the shipper to the master of the vessel containing all necessary details as to goods to be shipped ship-rigged, adj Rigged as a ship, with three square rigged masts ship's company, n The crew of a naval or mercantile ship, not including the officers ship's corporal, n A petty officer on a war-vessel who assists the master at arms in police and disciplinary duties shipshape, adj & adv [1 ʃɪpʃəp, 2 ʃɪpʃəp] a adj After the manner of a ship, in good order, arranged as a good seaman would approve of, hence trim, tidy, orderly, b adv, in a shipshape manner ship's husband, n The agent of a shipowner at a seaport who looks after the repairs, equipment, stores, and general seaworthiness of the vessel, settles contracts, enters into charter parties, and keeps regular books of the business &c ship's papers, n pl The documents which every merchant vessel must carry, as required by the country of registry and by the law of nations, such as certificate of registry, bills of lading, shipping articles, bills of health, passport &c ship-way, n The inclined way or track on which a ship is built and down which she passes to the water on launching ship-worm, n Any of various worm-like marine molluscs, esp Teredo navalis, which bores into, and destroys, submerged ship's timbers, wooden piles &c shipwreck (I), n [1 ʃɪpɹɛk, 2 ʃɪpɹɛk] 1 The loss or destruction of a vessel at sea by storm, collision, sinking, running on shore or against rocks &c 2 Vessel so lost or destroyed 3 (fig) Ruin, destruction, complete failure or loss the shipwreck of one's ambitions, plans, hopes &c Phr to make shipwreck of, to ruin, destroy shipwreck (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 A To destroy, cause destruction, loss, of (vessel) by shipwreck, b to cause (persons) to undergo shipwreck Rare, except in PP pass, to be shipwrecked &c 2 (fig) To bring to ruin, to destroy utterly: shipwrecked hopes, plans &c B intrans A To suffer shipwreck, b (fig) to come, be brought, to ruin and destruction shipwright, n ship (I) & wright One who builds or repairs ships, shipbuilder, ship's carpenter shipyard, n [1 ʃɪpjɑːd, 2 ʃɪpjɑːd] ship (I) & yard A place, yard, establishment, where ships are built or repaired shir(r), n & vb trans [1 ʃɪr, 2 ʃɪr] Etymol unknown (USA) 1 n Gathered material, esp on elastic 2 vb To gather, make gathers in (fabrics) shire, n [1 ʃɪr, 2 ʃɪr] OE scīr, 'business, office, administration, district, shire', OHG scīra, 'business, charge', etymol unknown, it is impossible to connect w OE scīran, 'to out, divide' &c, as OE scīr can have no historical relation to I 1 A county, now chiefly as termination of names, of a certain counties in Great Britain, as Lancashire, Ayrshire, Flintshire &c, b of certain districts in Yorkshire, as Hallamshire, Phr the shires, (1) a general name of those counties in England which terminate in -shire, (2) specif, of certain midland counties famous for their grassland and fox hunting, as Leicestershire, Northamptonshire, and Rutlandshire, also sometimes including Warwickshire 2 A shire horse shire horse, n One of an English breed of heavy draught horses, with long hair on fetlocks shire-mote, -moot, n OE scīrgemōt shire & moot (hist) A An ancient deliberative assembly of a shire or county in Anglo Saxon times, b a county court held before the ealdorman twice a year shiresreeve, n See sheriff shirk (I), vb trans & intrans [1 ʃɪrk, 2 ʃɪrk] Earlier sherk, possibly a variant of shark (II), 'to cheat, swindle' 1 trans To evade, try to get out of, to refuse to face (duty, responsibility, danger, difficulties, and the like) 2 intrans To practise, or attempt, evasion of duty, difficulty, danger &c shirk (II), n, tr prec A shirker shirker, n [1 ʃɪrkə, 2 ʃɪrkə] shirk (I) & -er One who shirks or avoids danger, responsibility, hard work &c shirra, n [1 ʃɪrə, 2 ʃɪrə] Pronunciation of sheriff in certain parts of Scotland shirt, n [1 ʃɪrt, 2 ʃɪrt] OE scyrte, 'skirt, tunic', ME schirte, sherte, cp Mod Germ schürze, 'apron', fr seurti*, 'the short garment', see short, & cp skirt 1 A loose fitting, sleeved undergarment of linen, cotton, flannel &c, worn by men beneath the waistcoat and coat, extending from the neck to the middle of the thigh, to the neck-hand of which a collar is attached, while the sleeves terminate in wristbands or cuffs Phrs stripped to the shirt, (lit and fig) reduced to the barest necessities, to have one's shirt out, (slang) to lose one's temper, to put one's shirt on (a horse &c), (racing slang) to bet heavily, all one can possibly raise, on a particular horse 2 A woman's plain, tailored blouse shirt-front, n The front (archaic, the 'bosom') of a shirt, esp a stiff starched or pleated front worn with evening dress under a low-cut waistcoat shirting, n [1 ʃɪrtɪŋ, 2 ʃɪrtɪŋ] shirt & -ing (shop term) Textile material, of cotton, linen &c, suitable for making shirts shirtless, adj [1 ʃɪrtlɪs, 2 ʃɪrtlɪs] shirt & -less A Without a shirt, deprived of, not wearing, not possessing, a shirt, b (fig) reduced to direct poverty shirt-waist, n (Am) A woman's blouse shirty, adj [1 ʃɪrti, 2 ʃɪrti] shirt & -y (slang) Out of temper, irritable, peppery, fr Phr to have one's shirt out shittah, n [1 ʃɪtəh, 2 ʃɪtəh] Heb, pl shittim A tree, probably a species of acacia, of which the Ark of the Covenant and various parts of the Tabernacle were made

Shivaism, n See Sivaism

shiver (I), vb intrans [1 ʃɪvə, 2 ʃɪvə] Etymol doubtful 1 intrans To be agitated by involuntary vibratory muscular movement, to tremble, shake, quiver, as with cold, fear &c 2 trans (naut) To cause (sails) to shake in the wind by close tacking shiver (II), n, fr prec Tremulous involuntary muscular movement, a tremor, as from cold or violent emotion Phr (colloq) the shivers, the creeps shiver (III), n Dimin of obe shive, 'thm slice of wood', cogn w sheave & shift (usually in pl) A splinter, fragment, small piece into which an object is broken by a blow, fall &c the glass fell and broke into shivers, smashed to shivers shiver (IV), vb trans, fr prec, but cp ME severen, vb To break, smash, into fragments, to shatter, dash, to piece Phr shiver my timbers, an old nautical exclamation shivery, adj [1 ʃɪvəri, 2 ʃɪvəri] shiver (II) & -y Inclined to shiver, having a sensation of cold and shuddering, as with fever &c shoal (I), n [1 ʃəʊl, 2 ʃəʊl] OE scōla, 'crowd, throng', OS skola, 'troop', Du school, 'school of fish', cp school (II), fr Gmc base skel-*, 'to divide', cp ON skilja, 'to divide, separate', see skill A crowd, large number, or quantity, a specif, a large mass of fish, such as herrings, swimming together, a school, also b (colloq, pl) a large number or quantity I saw shoals of people I knew, we have shoals of butter left, plenty of, more than enough, esp shoals of time shoal (II), vb intrans, fr prec (of fish) To form, and swim together in, shoals shoal (III), adj & n A variant of shallow, fr ON skjálgr 1 adj Shallow, not deep shoal water 2 n A place in a river or sea where the water gets shallow, a shallow the deeps and shoals, b a submerged sand bank, bar, or piece of rising ground which causes the water to become shoal or shallow to strike on a shoal 3 (fig) A concealed danger, a pitfall the shoals of public life shoal (IV), vb intrans, fr prec (of water, river bed &c) To become more shallow, to decrease in depth shoalness, n [1 ʃəʊlnɪs, 2 ʃəʊlnɪs] shoaly & -ness State, quality, of being shoaly shoaly, adj [1 ʃəʊli, 2 ʃəʊli] shoal (III) & -y Full of shoals or shallows shock (I), n [1 ʃɒk, 2 ʃɒk] Either fr LG, cp Dn schok, 'jolt', cogn w OHG scoc, 'jolt, swing', prob cogn w shake, or fr Fr choc, the origin of wh is uncertain, & wh may be a Gmc loan word The Engl n was perh derived fr the vb See next word 1 A sharp, violent concussion, causing oscillation or shaking, a violent jolt or jar, as of an explosion, earthquake &c, b a violent collision or impact of meeting bodies the shock of a blow, fall, the shock of arms, battle, shock action, tactics, the employment of masses of troops, for attack in close formation, relying on physical weight and impact for success rather than on fire, shock troops, troops specially selected and trained to lead an attack on a defensive position, push it home at all costs and bear the brunt and shock of such tactics 2 (elect) Sensation as of a commotion or blow accompanied by contraction of the muscles and stimulation of the nerves, caused by the discharge of electricity through an animal body 3 A sudden disturbance, or total upset, of the vital functions and nervous system of the body, accompanied by collapse, caused by severe injuries, such as an operation, accident, explosion &c , or by violent emotion to die of shock 4 a Moral or emotional agitation, bewilderment, surprise, offense, disgust, suddenly and violently caused by some unexpected, overwhelming event or experience, be event or experience which produces such moral effects 5 A sudden violent disturbance in human affairs and circumstances, in that which causes such disturbance shock (II), vb trans & intrans See prec & trans 1 a To cause physical shock to, to shake, jar, cause to tremble or oscillate by severe impact, collision, b to give an electric shock to 2 a To produce mental or moral shock in, to produce a sudden sense of stupefaction, bewilderment, grief & in, speak b to wound moral susceptibilities of, excite strong disapproval in, outrage person's sense of propriety & I was shocked by his callousness and cynicism, I hope you won't be shocked at (or by) his coarse stories B in-trans To come into violent contact, to collide with a shock the two bodies of cavalry shocked, and reeled for a moment, also shock together appears and brawlers shocked together in the fight

shock (III), n & vb trans M E schokke, op M Du schocke, Swed sluck, 'heap, pile, of corn sheaves', etymol doubtful 1 n A pile, group, stook, usually of twelve sheaves, of corn placed upright in a field to dry and mature before earing 2 vb To arrange, pile. (sheaves of corn) in shocks shock (IV), n Etymol doubtful, possibly variant of shag (I) 1 A rough, unkempt, shaggy mass or mop of hair 2 (attrib) A shock head, a head with a shock of shaggy hair shocker, n [1 sbóker, 2 {óke] shock (II) & -or One who, that which, shocks, something very startling or sensational, specif, a sensational novel, often shilling shocker shock-headed, adj Having a shock of shaggy, unkempt hair

shocking, adj [1 shókŋ, 2 šókŋ], tr Pres Part of shock (II) In various senses developed from, but no longer clearly associated with, the idea of giving a moral shock, except Nos 1 & 2 1 improper, scandalous shocking conduct, shocking indecency 2 Horrifying, disgusting, revolting shocking cruelty, a shocking story of crime and folly 3 Of poor quality, inferior, bad a shocking dinner, sermon voice 4 As intensive a shocking coward, a shocking cold in the head, as intensive adverb very extremely, in Phrs shocking bad, shocking poor (play) &c shockingly, ad: Free & -ly In a shocking manner, so as to shock shod (I) adj [1 shod, 2 foɪ], fr PP of shoe (II) See next word. Furnished with shoes a shod horse also as second element of a compound preceded by qualifying word dry shod, also a tick, pole, shod w/iron shod (II) v Pret of shoe, v ME shoed, sho, Pret & PP of schēn, OE sc(e)an, to shoe, see shoe (II).

to shoe; (see also 111). shoddy 1 n. [1 shoddy, 2 shoddy] Etymol. unknown. 1 fibrous material made from old worn woollen cloth, or from waste woolen material, matted or ground up and re-spun and woven to form a cheap woollen cloth. 2. Cloth made of shoddy or similar cheap material. 3 (b. or c. 18th c.) Anything of inferior quality and inferior working; made to counterfeit excellence.

shoddy (II), adj., fr pres 1 Made of shoddy shoddy cloth, clothes &c 2 Sham, counterfeit, making great pretensions, but actually inferior, cheap and nasty shoddy buildings, his much vaunted learning proves to be very shoddy stuff. a shoddy character shoe (I), n [1 shoo, 2 [a] OE sceðh, M.E s(c)hō, OHG scuoh, ON skōr, Goth skōhs, oogn. w Goth skūyan, 'to wander about', op also O Slav skokti, 'a leap', skočiti, 'to leap, run'

1 An outer covering for the foot, usually of leather, reaching to but not covering the ankle, thus distinguished from boot Phrs another pair of shoes, something quite different, quite another matter, to stand in another man's shoes, to occupy another man's place or position, to enjoy another's honours, to be in the same condition or plight as another, to wait for dead men's shoes, to wait for a man's death in expectation of inheriting his wealth, to die in one's shoes, (rare) to die while still active, working to the last, without lingering illness, to know where the shoe pinches, to know by personal experience what causes trouble or grief, and what this means, to put the shoe on the right foot, to accuse the right person, to place blame, responsibility &c where it is due, to shake in one's shoes, to tremble, be nervous, esp in anticipation of evil to befall

2 A flat metal band shaped to a horse's hoof and fastened to it with nails 3 One of various objects resembling a shoe in shape or function as a wooden or iron block placed under the wheel of a vehicle to act as a brake when going down a hill, b that part of the brake of a bicycle or motor which presses on the rim of the wheels, c the metal or wooden run on the under side of the runner of a sleigh d the metal socket or ferrule of a pile or staff, e a small piece of lead or iron at the end of a gutter or pipe to throw off water in a particular direction.

shoe (II), vb trans OE sc(e)ðian, 'to shoe', fr scēh See prec a To fasten shoes on to (a horse), b in P P, Protect end of a stick or staff with iron. see shod (I) shoebill, n [1 shōbbil, 2 [hūil] An enormous kind of heron, genus Balaeniceps, of the White Nile, with large, flat, hooked bill, shaped rather like a shoe shoeblick, n [1 shoóblak, 2 úblak] Person who, for a small charge, cleans boots and shoes for passers by in the street.

shoe-block, n (naut) A block with double sheaves at right angles to each other shoe-buckle, n A silver or metal buckle on a shoe, now worn chiefly as an ornament on dress shoes shoeshorn, n [1 shōshōrn, 2 [shōn] Implement of horn, ivory, metal &c with a hollowed blade for easing the heel into the back of a shoe shoe-lace, n. A lace for fastening shoes shoe-latchet, n. (obs) Strap used for fastening a shoe or sandal.

y) shoe-leather, n. 1 Leather suitable for making shoes 2 Shoes or boots

Wearing no shoes, barefoot, of possessing no shoes shoemaker, n. [1 shoʊmələ, 2 {ʊmeɪkə}] Maker of shoes and boots, bootmaker shoemaking n. [1 shoʊmækiŋ, 2 {ʊmeɪkiŋ}] Trade, business, of a shoe or bootmaker shoe-string n. (shoʊ-ˈstriŋ) Shoelace shofar, n. { shó'far, 2 shó'far } Heb shó'far A ram's horn trumpet, blown on the day of atonement in the synagogue shogun, a. [1 shōgun, 2 shōgun] Jap shō gun 'generalissimo', fr Chin. ch'ang chün, 'leader of an army' (Jap. hōt) The title of the real, military, ruler of Japan, who, from the 12th cent. till their abolition in 1868, usurped all the powers of the Emperor. The office was hereditary in certain families.

shogunate, n. [1 shōgunāt, 2 shōgunest] Preo &-ate a Office, government, rank, of a shogun, b period of such office, c period of the rule of the shoguns in Japan shine OE Pret sing scān, M.E schoon, OE PP (scōnen) M.E schijn(en) shoo, interj & vb trans & intrans [1 shoo; 2 [u] imitative 1 interj Sound used for driving away or frightening animals or birds 2 vb a trans To drive away by uttering 'shoo', to drive, frighten, away with an energetic sound or gesture, b intrans, to utter the sound 'shoo' shook (1), n & vb trans [1 shook, 2 [uk] Etymol unknown 1 n a A set of staves to make a barrel or cask, b a shock or set of sheaves of corn 2 vb To arrange, pack (staves), in a shook shook (II), vb OE scōc, ME s(c)hook.

Pret of shake shoot, n. Archæol pl of shoe shoot (I), vb trans & intrans [1] shoot 2 [füt] OE scōtan, trans, to shoot (missile), hit with missile, to push, throw', intrans, 'to rush, flow, shoot out' &c, M E schieten (op sheet anchor) & schoten, the former derived fr OE type w stress on first element of diphthong scōtan, in wh case ēo normally becomes ē in M E except in the Western areas, tho latter fr OE sc(e)ðtan, wh becomes M E schot, Mod Engl [füt] The word is found in OHG as scozzan, OS sketan, ON skjota The base is widely used in Gmc in forming words, but outside connections are very doubtful A trans 1 To cast, hurl, propel, forward with a sudden, forcible, jerky, movement to be shot out of a car, over a horse's head, to shoot rubbish, gravel &c on to a heap 2 Shoot out, thrust forward, protrude suddenly and with some force (some limb or member of the body) to shoot out one's tongue, he suddenly shot out a leg, his fist &c 3 To emit, flash out, dart (ray of light &c) the sun shoots its beams through the mist, the search light shot a long ray across the harbour Phr (fig) to shoot a look, glance, to cast the eyes, look, at, suddenly and swiftly & Specif (referring to use of missiles, firearms &c) a to send forth (a missile) from a weapon of propulsion to shoot an arrow from a bow, a bullet from a rifle, a shell from a cannon &c, b to use, discharge, fire (a weapon of propulsion) to shoot a rifle, gun, also shoot off, o (i) to hit with a missile, or by firing a missile to shoot game, a bird on the wing to shoot a man through the head &c, (ii) to execute by shooting condemned to be shot for cowardice, it is less disgraceful to be shot than to be hanged, Phr (slang) to shoot up (a person), shoot at, fire at, try to kill by shooting, to shoot the moon, remove one's furniture &c from a house, and leave without paying one's rent 5 To kill game in (a particular area) by shooting to shoot a solari 6 To be carried rapidly through or over to shoot a rapid in a canoe B intrans 1 To flash, dart, suddenly a meteor suddenly shot across the sky 2 To throb, produce sharp sudden, darting, stabbing pain the pain of sciatica shoots up the back of the leg, shooting pains in the limbs 3 A Te bud, germinate, break the rose will shoot again if you cut it back hard, b shoot up, (i) grow strongly and rapidly the child has shot up wonderfully, (u) to rise, tower up, abruptly the cliff shoots up to a height of several hundred feet 4 To let fly a missile from a how &c, to discharge a fire-arm, to fire the king laid the archers to shoot low, hands up! or I'll shoot 5 To practise shooting as a sport he hunts and shoots, but doesn't fish Phr to shoot over a dog use him to retrieve game when shooting 6 (of a fire arm) To discharge a bullet &c - my old revolver doesn't shoot very straight 7 n (of player at football) To kick the ball at the goal, b (of cricket ball &c) to gain suddenly increased speed after striking the ground.

shoot (II), n, fr prec 1 A Act of shooting with a gun &c. 2 A party assembled to shoot game, a shooting party. 3 A area, tract of land over which game is shot, land rented for the shooting of game. 4 A new growth on a plant, from the root, or from a bud, a newly sprouted branch. 5 Same as chute, with which it is confused. 6 A spurt, jet, sudden gush of water.

shootable, adj [1 shóutabl, 2 shútahl] shoot (I) & -able Capable of being shot or shot over.

shooter, n [1 shóúter, 2 shúta] shoot (I) & -er One who, that which, shoots, specif. a (in compounds) revolver &c holding and firing so many cartridges. a six shooter, also pea shooter, small metal tube from which peas are shot by the breath. b (of cricket ball &c) one that keeps low and close to the ground and does not bounce.

shooting, vbl n [1 shúting, 2 shúting] 1 A Act of one who shoots, specif. of one who shoots for sport to be found. 2 shooting, b opportunity for, practice of, a good shooting is obtainable quite n London. 2 Tract of land over which game is preserved, such land rented for the shooting of game, a shoot to take a shooting in Scotland.

shooting-boots, n pl Strong, thick boots worn for shooting.

shooting-box, n Lodge, smallish house, near a shooting, used during the season.

shooting-gallery, n Place where shooting at targets with miniature rifles is practised.

shop (I), n [1 shop, 2 shóp] OE sceoppa, 'stall, booth at a market' &c, ME scheppe, in mod sense, OHG scopf, 'shed', LG schup, Germ schuppen, 'shed, barn', etymol uncertain, prob fr same base as shape. 1 A place, set of rooms, where goods are displayed, and sold by retail, retail tradesman's place of business, whole building in which retail trade is carried on, Phr to talk shop, to talk about one's own special profession, business, subject of study and interest, to shut up shop, retire from business, cease to carry on a given form of activity, to keep a shop, he engaged in retail trade, b (fig) retail trade generally. 2 A workshop of a joiner, engineering works or yard &c. Phr the Shop, Royal Military Academy, Woolwich. 3 (loosely, slang) A place, building, generally, a dwelling, place of employment &c. Phr (things) all over the shop, in disorder, out of place, scattered in confusion.

shop (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To visit shops to make purchases, to make purchases at a shop. to go shopping, we shop at the Stores. 2 trans (slang) To get (person) put in prison.

shop assistant, n An employee in a retail shop.

shop-girl, n A girl or young woman employed as an assistant in a shop.

shop hours, n pl Hours during which a shop may be open for sales and the employees kept at work, under various Acts of Parliament known as Shop Hours Acts.

shopkeeper, n [1 shópképer, 2 shópképa] A one who owns or keeps a shop for the sale of goods by retail, b a small retail trader, as contrasted with merchant, Phr a nation of shopkeepers, quoted by Napoleon I of this English, from Adam Smith's 'Wealth of Nations', iv 7.

shop-keeping, n A business of keeping a shop for retail trade, b retail trade.

shoplifter, n [1 shóplifter, 2 shóplifta] See special sense of lift. Thief who specializes in stealing articles from shops under the guise of a customer.

shoplifting, n [1 shóplifting, 2 shópliftig] Stealing from shops, under pretence of being a customer.

shopman, n [1 shópmán, 2 shópmán] A shopkeeper, b man who serves in a shop.

shopper, n [1 shóper, 2 shópa] shop (II) & -er One who shops.

shopping, n [1 shóping, 2 shóping] shop (II) & -ing Act of purchasing goods at a shop.

shoppy, adj [1 shópi, 2 shópi] shop (I) & -y 1 A Pertaining to, characteristic of, the shop, or of retail trade. shoppy manners, b full of shops. a shoppy neighbourhood. 2 (colloq, of persons, conversation &c) Pertaining to one's own special business, profession, interests, or to some technical branch of knowledge.

shop-soiled, adj [1 shóp sóild, 2 shóp sóild] (of goods) Grown dingy, shabby, soiled, from being exposed for sale.

shop-steward, n An official of a trade union, in a workshop or factory, elected by his fellow workers, to see that their union rules are carried out &c, and to represent them in disputes and negotiations with the employers as to wages, hours &c.

shopwalker, n [1 shópwáiker, 2 shópwáika] A man employed in a large shop as a person of some authority, to supervise junior assistants, direct customers to the department they require &c.

shop window, n Large front window of a shop where samples of goods for sale within are displayed. to dress a shop window, to arrange goods in a shop window for purposes of display. Phr to put all one's goods in the shop window, to make an obtrusive display of all one's knowledge, talents &c, and have nothing behind the superficial show.

shop-worn, adj Shop soiled.

shore (I), n [1 shór, 2 shó] ME schóre, perh fr a grade of OE sceran, see shear (I), op PP scoren, 'shorn', w sense of 'something out off'. Edge of the land abutting on the sea, an estuary, or on a large lake. Phr on shore, on the land, as contrasted with on the water, to come on shore, to land from a vessel at sea, used also of coming to land from a boat on a river, in shore (naut), near to the shore, in shallow water.

shore (II), n & vb trans Either fr Du schoor, 'prop', or fr ON skorda, 'a stay, prop' &c, w initial *o*ns influenced by the Engl cogn shorn &c. See prec, shear (I), & shorn. 1 n. Large, thick beam, or balk of timber used to prop a shaky building &c, or one of a series of smaller timbers used to prop a ship of any sort, in dry dock, or drawn up on shore, while in process of construction or repair &c. 2 vb Usually shores up, to support, prop, with a shore or series of shores.

shore (III), vb Archaic pret of shear (I).

shoreless, adj [1 shóries, 2 shóis] shore (I) & -less (poet) Without a shore or coast, limitless, not bounded, of indefinite extent. launched on a shoreless sea.

shoreward, adj & adv [1 shorward, 2 shóward] shore (I) & -ward. Moving, going, towards the shore, a, adj, a shoreward set of the tids, b, adv, to row shoreward.

shorning, n [1 shóring, 2 shóring] shore (II) & -ing 1 The supporting, propping of a ship, building &c with shores. 2 System of shores for support of a building &c, shores collectively.

shorn, adj [1 shorn, 2 shón] OE scoren, PP of scieran. See shear (I) (archaic). Closely cut, or shaven, of the hair, grass, sheep, chiefly in Phrs such as shaven and shorn, closely shorn &c, also God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb.

short (I), adj [1 shórt, 2 shót] OE. sce(e)ort, 'short in length, brief in time', op OHG scurt, 'short garment', OE scyrte, 'skirt, tunic', see shurt & skirt. The Gmc words are early loan forms fr Lat excursus, q v under ex- & curt. 1 (of spatial extension) Not having great length, extending but a small way, not reaching far, occupying but a limited space between starting-point and end, reverse of long. a short street, road, piece of rope, stick, short skirts, hair, a short journey, involving but little distance and lasting only a little time, a short cut, near, direct way of reaching one's objective, (special sense) short sight, vision which does not carry far, inability to see at a distance, myopia, short story, a piece of fiction, not of the length of a novel, usually concerned with a single episode, development of a single phase of a character &c. 2 A Of less than normal height, below the average height, reverse of tall. a short man, b of less than normal or proportionate length. his legs are very short, short legs are ugly, c of less than the desired, requisite, length, not long enough for a particular purpose. why do fat women so often wear skirts that are short for them?, I can't tie a proper knot, the string is short. 3 A (of periods of time) Brief, of limited duration, lasting only a little time, not protracted or spun out. a short life, reign, visit, a short winter, one in which the cold begins late and ends early, the nights are getting shorter, period of darkness is becoming less, the pain will be sharp but short, Phr a short life and a merry one, b (of actions and events in relation to time) not taking long to happen, or be performed, soon completed and over. a short war, a short sermon, address, prayer &c, speak a short memory, one that remains only for a short time, a short temper, one that is quickly aroused. 4 Concise, brief, not lengthy. in speaking one should be short and to the point. Phr to cut a long story short, to put in as few words as possible. 5 (of persons, their speech or manner) Abrupt, curt. 6 Not reaching a required amount or standard. a short weight, to be short in one's accounts, in payments, short time, reduced hours of work in an industry, adopted for economic reasons, b (short of) not reaching to, or as far as we were some miles short of our destination, all the shells fell short of the mark, Phrs to fall, come, short of, to fail to reach, as a required or expected standard, nothing short of, nothing less than, c (of ball in cricket &c) not pitched, not falling, near enough to wicket. 7 (of persons) Inadequately supplied, deficient, lacking sufficient quantity. if I give you all this money it will leave me rather short, also short of money, food &c. Phrs to run short (of) (1) (of persons) not to have enough (of), (2) (of things, supplies &c) to fail or run out, become exhausted, short commons, insufficient or less than normal amount of food &c. 8 A (phonetics, of vowels, syllables, and consonants) Of relatively brief duration, compared with others in the same language, b (prosody, of vowels or syllables) (1) (in languages having quantitative metres) reverse of long in phonetic sense, (2) (in many languages, including English) unstressed, weak. 9 (commercial) A (of negotiable instruments) Maturing early. a short bill, note, to be paid or met very soon, at short date, dated to mature early, b (of dealers) not having sufficient stocks or shares or goods in hand for delivery when such have been sold forward, c (of stocks &c) not available on the market at the price at which they have been sold forward. copper is very short today. 10 (of clay, metal, pastry &c) Not tough or tenacious, brittle, friable, crumbling. 11 (of drink, esp spirits) Undiluted, strong.

short (II), adv, fr prec In a short manner, abruptly, suddenly. to stop short, to cut a man short, interrupt him, to pull a horse up short, (colloq) to be taken short, to be seized with a sudden need of evacuating the bowels, short of, except, apart from. short of what is dishonourable, I will do anything to help you.

short (III), n, fr short (I). 1 That which is short or not long only in Phrs for short, for brevity's sake, as abbreviation. called Sam for short, in short, in a few words, summarily, to sum up, the long and the short of it is, to put the matter briefly or in a few words. 2 (phon and prosody) A short vowel or syllable. 3 (pl) Loose knickerbockers outshooting above the knee. football, running, running shorts. 4 (pl) Middlings, milled grain less coarse than offal or bran.

shortage, n [1 shórti, 2 shórti] short (I) & -age Condition of being short or deficient, deficiency, insufficient amount shortage of food, ruin, fighting men &c short-armed, adj. a Having short arms, b delivered with a short, bent, or unextended arm a short-armed blow or punch shortbread, shortcake, n. [1 shórtbred, -kák, 2 shótrd, -keik] a friable, crisp, brittle kind of biscuit or cake, made of wheat flour with butter and sugar short-circuit (L.), n. (elect.) A new path made by a current where it encounters a smaller resistance than in the normal circuit, thus allowing a much larger current to flow through and causing dangerous overheating, fusing &c short-circuit (II.), vb trans. To cause a short circuit in.

short-coat, vb trans. To put a child into short clothes or a short coat from the long clothes of a young baby shortcoming, n. [1 shórtkumíng, 2 shótkamíng] 1 Failure to reach a required standard, a defect of character, failure in performance of a duty the shortcomings of Charles I as a king, b defect, inadequacy, in the way some piece of work is carried out, unsatisfactory feature, drawback, imperfection a comfortable house in spite of some shortcomings 2 A falling below expected yield in a crop &c short-dated, adj. [1 shórt dáted, 2 shótdéitd] (of negotiable instruments) Having an early date for maturity coming to maturity shortly after being drawn.

short-eared, adj. Having short or small ears, short-eared owl, Aleo accipitrinus, with short ear tufts.

shorten, vb trans. & intrans. [1 shórtén, 2 shótn] short (I) & -en. A trans. 1 To reduce length or extent of (material objects, period of time &c) to shorten a rope, to shorten sail, lessen spread of, his life was shortened by trouble. Phr to shorten one's arm, sword, or anything held extended in the hand, hold it nearer one's body 2 To abbreviate, cut down (a chapter, lecture, speech &c.)

B intrans. To become, grow, shorter, to shrink, contract the days are rapidly shortening shortland, n. [1 shórt-land, 2 shóthánd] short (I) & land, in sense of 'writing'.

Stenography, system of graphic notation designed to make possible the recording of speech with much greater speed than with ordinary writing, economy of labour being secured partly by the character of the symbols used, partly by contractions, partly by eliminating all superfluous letters short-handed, adj. Short of, lacking, the usual or necessary number of hands, workmen servants or assistants.

short-hand writer, n. Person employed to make verbatim report of speeches, debates &c. in shorthand, stenographer short-headed, adj. (ethnol.) Having a head which is short, or broad in proportion to its length, brachycephalic, contrasted with long-headed or dolichocephalic.

shorthorn, n. [1 shórt-horn, 2 shóthón] An English breed of large heavy cattle with short curved horns valuable for rapid fattening qualities and as good milk producers.

shortish adj. [1 shórtish, 2 shóts] short (I) & -ish. Rather short.

short list n. Brief enumeration of names &c., compiled, selected, from longer list short-lived, adj. short (I) & -lived. a Having a short life, not living long a short lived family, race b not lasting long of brief duration, transient short-lived happiness, triumph, his jubilation was short-lived shortly adv. [1 shórt, 2 shóts] short (I) & -ly 1 In a short time, soon, before long the guests will arrive shortly events will shortly happen which will prove that I am right 2 Briefly, succinctly to put it shortly in a few words 3 Abruptly, sharply, curtly as soon as the questioner up shortly answered me very shortly shortness, n. [L. shortness, 2 shótnes] short (I) & -ness. State, quality, of being short (in all its senses), specif. shortness of breath, liability, tendency, to get out of breath.

short rib, n. One of the false ribs short sea, n. A broken, choppy sea.

short-sighted, adj. 1 Having short sight, not able to see objects at a distance, near-sighted, myopic 2 (fig.) a Lacking imagination and vision, deficient in foresight, incapable of preparing for future developments, b exhibiting, based on, lack of vision and foresight a short-sighted policy short-sightedly, adv. Free & -ly In a short-sighted way short-sightedness, n. See prec & -ness. State, quality, of being short-sighted.

short-spoken, adj. Speaking in a short, abrupt, curt manner short temper, n. A temper easily and soon roused, provoked, excited.

short-tempered, adj. Having a short or quick temper, losing control of one's temper easily or quickly short-waisted, adj. a (of persons) Having comparatively short space between the ribs and the hips, b (of garments) made so as to produce the impression of a short waist in the wearer short-winded, adj. [1 shórt wínded, 2 shótwíndd] Becoming breathless after comparatively slight exertion.

short-windedness n. Prec & -ness. Condition of being short-winded.

shot (L.), adj. [1 shót, 2 shótn], fr P.P. of shoot (I), O.E. (gylscoten, M.E. shote(n)) Variegated, streaked, with another colour or colours, (of fabrics) woven with the warp and the weft of different colours, so that an iridescent effect is produced, and the material appears to change colour when seen from different angles.

shot (II.), vb, Pret. & P.P. of shoot, fr M.E. P.P. type shoten. See prec Cp O.E. Pret. scotat, M.E. shet

shot (III.), n. O.E. gesc(e)ot, in gradational relation to scotlar. See shoot (I) 1 a One of the small lead pellets with which the cartridge of a sporting or 'shot gun' is filled, b (coll. pl.) a number of such pellets a cartridge filled with shot, a few shot, c a solid ball, formerly of stone, later of metal, used as the missile of a cannon contrasted with shell shot and shell, to fire a shot, Phrs a shot in the locker, (naut. slang) money in one's pocket any personal resource in an emergency there's hope while there's a shot in the locker, d iron ball in form of a shot used as a trial of skill and strength, held in the hand, and propelled by extending the arm from the shoulder to put the shot 2 Act of firing a fire arm, the discharge of a fire-arm, sound of this was that a shot I heard? Phrs (to do it) like a shot, at once, willingly off like a shot, instantly, at great speed 3 Range, distance to which a shot will carry, or over which it is fired. a long shot 4 Aim, attempt, to hit with a shot from a fire-arm to take, have, a shot at, that was a good shot a flying shot, one at a moving object, pot shot, one at any easy mark which one can hardly miss 5 a A stroke hit, throw &c., attempt to hit with any kind of missile. a lucky shot off the red (at billiards), a neat shot through the slips (at cricket) a beautiful shot at goal (at football &c.) a random shot with a stone breaks the window, b (colloq.) attempt to do anything to have a shot for (or at) the prize I'll have a shot for the brain, try to catch it a chancy, random guess as a shot, I should say she's about forty don't make shots at the questions 6 One who shoots considered in relation to his proficiency a good shot with a sporting gun is often a poor one with a rifle, he was much of a shot 7 Specific uses a cast of a net in sea-fishing, b (min. &c.) a charge of blasting explosive, discharge of this shot (IV.), n. Variant of scot (L.) Share, contribution reckoning, chiefly in Phr to pay one's shot, pay one's share of expenses &c shot-gun, n. a smooth bore gun, often double-barrelled, used for killing birds and other small game, firing cartridges filled with varying sizes of small shot

shotted, adj. [1 shóted, 2 shótd] shot (III) & -ed. Loaded, weighted, with shot

shoten, adj. [1 shótn, 2 shótn] O.E. scoten, P.P. of scotian. See shoot (I) (of fish) Having shot or ejected its spawn, and therefore of inferior food value a shoten herring should, auxil. vb [1 shood, 2 jud], un stressed [jed] O.E. sceolde, Pret of scel, fr base scul, in gradational relation to scel, see shall, & -de, suff. of Pret 1 (forming conditional mood) I should be glad to play if I could 2. (expressing future intention) I said I should be at home next week 3 (expressing obligation) You are not behaving as you should, as you ought to (behave), children should be taught to speak the truth 4. (expressing expectation or probability) They should arrive by one o'clock, I think.

shot-tower, n. A lofty, cylindrical tower used for making shot by pouring molten lead from the top through a sieve, so that the streams of metal form round drops in the fall.

shoulder (L.), n. [1 shólder, 2 shóulde] O.E. sculder, O.H.G. sculdarra, Swed. skuldra, Dan. skulder, ultimate orig. doubtful. 1 a That part of the body of a man or lower animal where the arm or foreleg is attached to the trunk, articulating with the collar bone and shoulder-blade either one of the two projecting parts of the body below, and on either side of, the neck: to put one's shoulder out, to dislocate it, Phrs to give the cold shoulder to, to give a cold reception to, to shun, avoid, to show distaste for the company of (possibly derived from a cold shoulder of mutton, as an unappetizing dish); head and shoulders, in comparison of height, (in physical or moral sense) he stands head and shoulders above his colleagues, to put one's shoulder to the wheel, to put all one's energies into a task &c., to make a strenuous, earnest effort, shoulder to shoulder, (l.) close together, side by side, (u.) (fig.) in close, united, co-operative effort, b the upper part of the foreleg of a slaughtered animal, as butcher's term a shoulder of lamb 2 (pl.) Shoulders, the upper part of the back just below the neck a man with broad shoulders Phrs to shift the blame, responsibility, on to other shoulders to let others take the blame &c., his shoulders are broad enough to bear the responsibility, blame &c, he is sufficiently strong, courageous &c. 3 One of various things supposed to resemble a shoulder in shape the shoulder of a mountain detached part sloping into the plain, shoulders of a bottle shoulder (II.), vb trans. & intrans. fr prec 1 a To place (burden, bundle) upon the shoulder in order to carry, b (mil.) in Phr shoulder arms to hold rifle vertically in front of shoulder the butt resting in palm of hand, the arm being fully extended downwards, c (fig.) to shoulder a task responsibilities &c to undertake, assume, deal with. 2 a To push, thrust, aside to shoulder a person out of the way, also b to make a path for oneself by pushing &c. to shoulder (one's way) through a crowd shoulder-belt n. A belt worn with military uniform, passing over one shoulder and under the other arm, to support weight of sword &c.

shoulder-blade, n. Either of the two broad flat bones of the upper part of the back, the scapula

-shouldered, adj. [1 shólderd, 2 shóulded] Having shoulders of specified shape &c. -broad shouldered &c.

shoulder-knot, n. A knot of lace, ribbon &c., worn on the point of the shoulder by servants in livery shoulder-strap, n. A small, narrow strap worn extending from base of collar to point of shoulder in military uniforms through which is passed the shoulder belt, it bears badge of rank in case of commissioned officers, in that of non-commissioned ranks a regimental mark &c.

barrelled, used for killing birds and other small game, firing cartridges filled with varying sizes of small shot

shotted, adj. [1 shóted, 2 shótd] shot (III) & -ed. Loaded, weighted, with shot

shoten, adj. [1 shótn, 2 shótn] O.E. scoten, P.P. of scotian. See shoot (I) (of fish) Having shot or ejected its spawn, and therefore of inferior food value a shoten herring should, auxil. vb [1 shood, 2 jud], un stressed [jed] O.E. sceolde, Pret of scel, fr base scul, in gradational relation to scel, see shall, & -de, suff. of Pret 1 (forming conditional mood) I should be glad to play if I could 2. (expressing future intention) I said I should be at home next week 3 (expressing obligation) You are not behaving as you should, as you ought to (behave), children should be taught to speak the truth 4. (expressing expectation or probability) They should arrive by one o'clock, I think.

shot-tower, n. A lofty, cylindrical tower used for making shot by pouring molten lead from the top through a sieve, so that the streams of metal form round drops in the fall.

shoulder (L.), n. [1 shólder, 2 shóulde] O.E. sculder, O.H.G. sculdarra, Swed. skuldra, Dan. skulder, ultimate orig. doubtful. 1 a That part of the body of a man or lower animal where the arm or foreleg is attached to the trunk, articulating with the collar bone and shoulder-blade either one of the two projecting parts of the body below, and on either side of, the neck: to put one's shoulder out, to dislocate it, Phrs to give the cold shoulder to, to give a cold reception to, to shun, avoid, to show distaste for the company of (possibly derived from a cold shoulder of mutton, as an unappetizing dish); head and shoulders, in comparison of height, (in physical or moral sense) he stands head and shoulders above his colleagues, to put one's shoulder to the wheel, to put all one's energies into a task &c., to make a strenuous, earnest effort, shoulder to shoulder, (l.) close together, side by side, (u.) (fig.) in close, united, co-operative effort, b the upper part of the foreleg of a slaughtered animal, as butcher's term a shoulder of lamb 2 (pl.) Shoulders, the upper part of the back just below the neck a man with broad shoulders Phrs to shift the blame, responsibility, on to other shoulders to let others take the blame &c., his shoulders are broad enough to bear the responsibility, blame &c, he is sufficiently strong, courageous &c. 3 One of various things supposed to resemble a shoulder in shape the shoulder of a mountain detached part sloping into the plain, shoulders of a bottle

shoulder (II.), vb trans. & intrans. fr prec 1 a To place (burden, bundle) upon the shoulder in order to carry, b (mil.) in Phr shoulder arms to hold rifle vertically in front of shoulder the butt resting in palm of hand, the arm being fully extended downwards, c (fig.) to shoulder a task responsibilities &c to undertake, assume, deal with. 2 a To push, thrust, aside to shoulder a person out of the way, also b to make a path for oneself by pushing &c. to shoulder (one's way) through a crowd

shoulder-belt n. A belt worn with military uniform, passing over one shoulder and under the other arm, to support weight of sword &c.

shoulder-blade, n. Either of the two broad flat bones of the upper part of the back, the scapula

-shouldered, adj. [1 shólderd, 2 shóulded] Having shoulders of specified shape &c. -broad shouldered &c.

shoulder-knot, n. A knot of lace, ribbon &c., worn on the point of the shoulder by servants in livery

shoulder-strap, n. A small, narrow strap worn extending from base of collar to point of shoulder in military uniforms through which is passed the shoulder belt, it bears badge of rank in case of commissioned officers, in that of non-commissioned ranks a regimental mark &c.

shout (I), vb intrans & trans [1 shout, 2 [aut]] ME shouten; origin unknown A intrans 1 To utter a loud cry, call out, to bawl to shout with pain, laughter, to shout for, with, joy 2 To call something out loudly, utter words with a shout to shout for the waiter, shout to a man to come &c, also shout out 3 To speak loudly, to raise the voice when speaking I'm not deaf, you needn't shout, please don't shout at me B trans 1 To say, utter, with a shout, in a very loud voice to shout one's orders, an insult, a person's name &c, also shout out 2 To shout (a person) down, to speak so loudly as to drown what another says, to silence by loud speech shout (II), n, fr prec A loud outcry, soddeo call of a single person or a crowd, a loud, vehement expression of various emotions, a burst of vocal sound greeted with shouts of laughter, applause, to give a shout of warning shouter, n [1 shouter, 2 [dute]] shout (I) & -or One who shouts, a loud, noisy speaker shouting, n [1 shouting, 2 [aut]] shout (I) & -ing Act of calling out loudly, outcry, clamour, shouts 'The tumult and the shouting dies' (Kipling, 'Recessional') Phr it's all over bar the shouting, the race, contest, struggle &c is concluded, and nothing is left to do but to cheer shove (I), vb trans & intrans [1 shove, 2 [av]] OE scūfan, trans, 'to thrust', intrans, 'to fall', ME shouven, OHG scūpan, ON skúfa, skijfa, Goth skubān, 'to thrust', cogn w Lith skubti, 'to baste', skubus, 'hasty, quick' Cp also sheaf A trans Implies rough, hasty action Not cow, as in OE, a dignified word, used in place of push and put 1 To push, thrust, roughly to shove a person off the pavement, over a cliff, into the water &c, to shove a boat into the water, who are you shoving? 2 (colloq and coarse) Instead of to put to shove one's clothes on, a plate on the table, a book back in the shelves, to shove something down on paper, to write B intrans 1 To push, exert pressure against, person or thing, to thrust roughly don't shove, wait your turn, if you pull, I'll shove 2 In various Phrs, followed by adverb or preposition shove along, up (a heech), to move to a different place upon it, shove off, out, to leave the shore in a boat, by thrusting it out into the water, shove past (a person), pass by pushing roughly against or aside shove (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of shoving, a vigorous push, thrust.

shovel (I), o [1 shuvl, 2 [áv]] OE scoff, ME schovel, fr skufal*, in gradational relation to OE scūfan, see shove (I), cp P scoffen & -el A tool somewhat resembling a spade in general shape but not used for digging, having a broad, slightly hollowed blade with a blunt edge, used for shifting loose earth, gravel, small coal grain &c, also b one of several much smaller implements, a scoop, for sugar, a scoop for lifting coals from a scuttle shovel (II), vb trans, fr prec A To take up, collect, shift with a shovel, also shovel up, b (colloq) to shovel up, down, food, to put it into the mouth hastily and voraciously Phr to shovel up in, money, make it rapidly and in large quantities shovelboard, n [1 shúvldrd, 2 [ávldrd]] 1 A game played on a marked board with coins or disks, formerly called shove halfpenny, b board on which this game is played 2 Game played on the deck of a ship with wooden disks shoved by a sort of one or more into divisions marked by chalk &c shovelful, o [1 shúvlfúul, 2 [ávlfúul]] shovel (I) & -ful Enough to fill a shovel, amount which a shovel will hold at one time.

shovel hat, n A broad-brimmed hat looped up at the side, as worn by Church dignitaries shoveller, n [1 shúvliar, 2 [ávliar]] shovel (II) & -ar A bright-coloured, freshwater duck, with broad, flat bill, also called the spoon bill duck shovel-nosed, adj Having a broad, flat nose or bill shovel-nosed duck, the shoveller, shovel-nosed shark, sturgeon show (I), archaic spelling shew, vb trans & intrans [1 shō, 2 [jou]] OE scēawan, 'to look at, scrutinize, to watch, spy' (Mod sense, 'to display', is first found in EME), OS skauwōn, OHG scouwōn, all in sense of looking. op Goth us skaus, 'oo the look-out, wary', cogw Lat cavēre, 'to be wary', see cave (III) & cp caution, Gk kōleîn, 'to observe', O Slav čiti, 'to feel, perceive' A trans 1 a To bring before, present to, the sight, to exhibit to show the contents of one's pockets, show your tongue to the doctor, to show one's passport at the frontier, Phrs (not) to show one's face (head), (not) to appear or be seen, to show one's teeth, to give signs of anger, hostile intentions &c, to show one's hand, to disclose one's plans and intentions, to show fight, exhibit hostile intentions or disposition, b to allow to be seen, permit a sight of a dress showing the petticoat below, to show oneself, to appear, c to point out, indicate show me the best way to the village 2 Specif, to display for inspection and examination at an exhibition to show dogs, fat cattle, roses 3 To bring before, present to, the mind, a to convince, give proof of possession to show a noble spirit, b to prove, make manifest, by argument and logical proof Bopp was the first to show the existence of an Aryan family of languages 4 a To guide, conduct, to show a visitor into the drawing room to show a person to the door, attend, accompany, hum, Phr to show a person the door, turn him out of the house, b to expulse, make clear to the mind, to reveal, make known show me the best way to learn languages, show me the truth and I will follow it 5 To bestow, confer to show kindness to the oppressed B intrans To be visible, noticeable, permit itself to be seen the scar on his cheek hardly shows now C Followed by preposition or adverb Show off 1 trans, to display, exhibit, 2 intrans, to make a display of one's abilities, talents, attainments, to behave in a way that one hopes will excite admiration Show out, trans, a to conduct (a person) to the door of room or house, b to accompany (person) to the door, and turn him out Show up, 1 trans, to expose, show true character of to show up a swindler, a fraud, 2 intrans, a to appear, be clearly seen, esp by contrast the house shows up against the western sky, b (colloq) to come, be present at, some specific place &c he never shows up of bulls show (II), n, fr prec 1 (rare) Act of showing, chiefly in Phr (to vote by) show of hands, holding up of one's hand to signify the side on which one votes 2 A something shown, exhibited, to be looked at, admired, as a spectacle &c a picture, flower, cattle dog, show, wild beast show, travelling show, a menagerie, a pageant, procession &c Lord Mayor's show, b (slang) any institution, organized undertaking, concern, establishment, business &c the present government is rather a poor show, the party was rather a dull show, Phrs to give the (whole) show away, reveal defects, weakness, shortcomings of any thing, (s) to do this of deliberate intent to betray (u) to do it unconsciously and madly, a one horse show, a poor, inefficient concern, c a contemptible, pitiable, spectacle, person or thing whose appearance, behaviour, condition, evokes contempt and derision 'And Surf captures a driveller and a show' (Johnson 'Vanity of Human Wishes', 317) 3 A something which shows, which presents itself to view, a natural collocation of objects which attract attention, a display a fine show of blossom on the trees this year, not much of a show of apples in this orchard, b trace, vestige, indication, promise I don't see the slightest show of bud as yet, considerable show of new growth 4 Vain pomp, hollow, gaudy, display, ostentation fond of show, all done for show 5 a Appearance, semblance there is some show of justice in his claim, of sense in his remarks, b pretence, fallacious appearance not even the show of affection between them showbread, n See shewbread show-card, o A small placard or card for advertising goods in a shop &c show-case, o A case with glass sides or top for exhibiting goods for sale in a shop or small objects in a museum &c shower (I), o [1 shower, 2 [jau]] OE scūr, ME schour, shour, OHG scūr, ON skūr, Goth skūra winda, 'gale, storm of wind', perh related to Lat caurus, 'north-west wind', Lith szaurys, 'oorth wind', sziaure, 'oorth' See further under obscure & sky 1 a A brief fall, or storm, of rain, sleet, hail, b a single, light fall or scattering of water or moisture, coming otherwise than from the sky, a sprinkle a shower of spray, a shower of snow sliding off a roof 2 A copious, uninterrupted discharge, flight, cloud, rain (of arrows, bullets, dust &c) 3 (fig) An abundant, copious, rush of things arriving all at once or in rapid succession a shower of prayers, blessings, a shower of invitations shower (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To seed down, discharge, let fall pour, in a shower or in showers to shower rain upon the field, the waves showered spray over us, to shower stones &c, b to drench, wet, with or as with a shower to shower plants, the fields, with rain &c 2 To bestow copiously, plentifully, give lavishly to shower gifts, benefits, kindness, affection, blessings &c upon B intrans (of rain, sleet &c) To fall in showers shower-bath n A device whereby water falls in a shower from above upon the person, through a perforated plate, b (fig) a thorough drenching showeriness, o [1 shōoeriness, 2 [duariness]] showery & -ness Showery state of weather showery adj [1 shōoeri, 2 [duari]] shower (I) & -y (of weather) Characterized by constant showers showily adv [1 shōih, 2 [jūih]] showy & -ly In a showy manner, in a manner to attract attention, ostentatiously, gaudily showman o [1 shōman, 2 [jūman]] Owner, organizer, producer, of a travelling show, menagerie, circus, person who takes part in exhibiting attractions at a show shown vb [1 shōn 2 [jūn]] PP of show (I), formerly always weak The new strong PP is on the anal of blown &c show-place, o A large, famous or beautiful home park &c open to the public to view showroom, n, [1 shōroom, 2 [jūroom]] A room in a shop or warehouse where goods or samples are exhibited for sale show-window, o Window in a shop &c where goods are displayed showy, adj [1 shōi, 2 [jūi]] show (II) & -y A making a great show or display, noticeable and attractive, b possessing superficial qualities which attract attention, gaudy ostentatious shrank vb [1 shrangk, 2 [fræjk]] OE scrinc, ME shrank, Pret of shrink shrapnel, n [1 shrapnel, 2 [fræpnəl]] fr General H Shrapnel, 1761-1842, the inventor A shell which bursts in the air and scatters bullets or pieces of metal pieces of shrapnel, missiles from such a shell shred (I), n [1 shred, 2 [fred]] OE scrad(e), 'shred, paring', ME shrede, OHG scrid, 'piece cut off', prob cogn w OE scrūd, 'a cloth, a garment', see shroud 1 A small piece torn, cut, or pared off, a strip, paring, tattered fragment, scrap a shred of cloth, of orange peel, in shreds and tatters, torn to shreds 2 (fig) A fragment, particle, iota left without a shred of reputation, not a shred of evidence for the charge shred (II), vb trans & intrans O E scrēdian, 'to cut', O H G scrētan. See prec a trans To pare, cut up, into shreds, b intrans, to pest, flake, off, into shreds or strips shrew, n [1 shrōd, 2 [rū]] O E scrēawa, 'shrew mouse', M E schreue, 'a bad, malicious person, a scoundrel', etymol. unknown Cp heshrew 1 A nagging, scolding woman, virago, termagant 2 (zool) Also shrew mouse, a small, mouse like, insectivorous mammal, genus Sorex, with long pointed snout, shortish tail, and brownish silky fur, its bite was long supposed to be poisonous to animals shrewd, adj [1 shrōd, 2 [rūd]] M E shreud, PP of shrewen, 'to curse', fr schreue, 'malicious person', see prec 1 (archaic) a (of persons) Malicious, wicked, mischievous, shrewish 'as curst and shrewd As Socrates' Xanthippe' (Shakespeare, 'Taming of the Shrew'), b (of things) biting, keen, sharp, penetrating a shrewd wind, pain, a shrewd thrust 2 Penetrating mind, astute, sharp witted, sagacious, having sound practical common sense shrewdly, adv Prec & -ly In a shrewd manner, sagaciously, b (archaic) bitingly, penetratingly 'The air bites shrewdly' (Shakespeare) shrewdness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being shrewd shrewish, adj [1 shrōdish, 2 [rūdish]] shrew & -ish Ill tempered, malicious, given to biting, ill natured speech shrewishly, adv Prec & -ly In a shrewish manner shrewishness, n See prec & -ness Condition, quality, of being shrewish shrew-mouse, n. See shrew shriek (I), vb intrans & trans [1 shrēk, 2 [rik]] M E schriken, shriken, scriken, fr O N skrakja, see screech A intrans To utter a loud, piercing, shrill cry, to screeam, screech to shriek with pain, terror, to shriek with laughter, to laugh loudly, shrilly or hysterically B trans To utter with a shriek to shriek curses at one shriek (II), n, fr prec A loud, shrill, piercing cry, a scream, screech shrievalty, n [1 shrēvālti, 2 [rīvālti], fr shrive, obs form of sherrif & -alty Office, rank, of a sherrif, tenure, period, of the same shrift n [1 shrift, 2 [rift]] O E scrift, 'legal penalty, penance', fr scrifan, see shrive Confession and absolution, obs except in Phr short shrift, a (obs) the very short time allowed to a condemned criminal to make his confession to a priest and he shrieved before execution b to give, get short shrift, to treat, be treated, summarily, to make short work of, be soon disposed of shrike, n [1 shrīk, 2 [rōk]], fr O N skryka, 'shrieker shrike', cogn w O E skria, 'the musical thrush', & w shrike. The general name given to the genus Lanius or butcher-birds, as the great grey shrike, Lanius excubitor or the red backed shrike, L. collurio shrill (I), adj [1 shrīl, 2 [rīl]] Not in O E, M E sc(h)ril(l), prob fr LG source, cogn. w O E scrilletan, intrans, 'to sound loudly', of imitative origio 1 (of sound, voice) High pitched and thin penetrating piercing 2 (fig) Petulant, plaintive, complaining, invidious shrill (II), vb intrans & trans M E schrillen. See prec a intrans To make a shrill noise b trans, (rare) to utter on a shrill note, with a shrill voice shrilly, adv [1 shrīli, 2 [rīli]] shrill (I) & -y On a shrill note, with a shrill voice shrimp (I) n [1 shrīmp, 2 [rīmp]] to M E, cogn w O E scrim 1a, to dry up, wither, to shrink, cp M H G scrim, scrim, Germ scrimmen to shrink See scrimp & shrink 1 A small scapod, long, tailed crustacean bel. gr. to the division Decapoda, esp. one below 30 to the edib. genus Crangon, frequenting shallow, sandy shores of pale greyish transparent colour, with brown spots, turning a pinkish brown when boiled 2 A small, poorly developed man, esp one who appears to lack virility 3 A pale pinkish colour, resembling that of a boiled shrimp shrimp (II), vb intrans, fr prec To fish for, to catch, shrimps shrimper, n [1 shrīmp, 2 [rīmp]] Prec & -er One who catches or fishes for shrimps shrimp net, n Net used for catching shrimps shrines (I), n [1 shrīn, 2 [raīn]] O E scrin, used of the ark of the Covenant, fr Lat scrinium, 'case, box for papers, books, letters' &c, see scrinium 1 A casket or box, often richly ornamented and sometimes elaborated into a large architectural feature of a church &c, in which are kept the relics of a saint, a reliquary the shrine of St Thomas at Canterbury, b the sculptured tomb of a saint or hero 2 A An altar, chapel, church, temple, or other sacred holy place, b (fig) a place made sacred by reason of the events or ideas associated with it, something held sacred in the memory the shrine of liberty, beauty, art &c shrine (II), vb trans, fr prec, more usually enshrine (post) To place in a shrine or sacred place, to enshrine shrink, vb intrans & trans [1 shrīngk, 2 [rīngk]] O E scripcan, M E sc(h)rinken, similar words occur in Du & Swed Origin unknown A intrans 1 (of materials, fabric &c) To contract, become smaller in superficial area by becoming denser and closer in texture unseasoned wood is apt to shrink, flannel shrinks in the wash 2 To become less, diminish, in amount or extent the streams have shrunk from the drought, our resources are gradually shrinking, his property had shrunk almost to nothing through his extravagance 3 Shrink back, away, from, a to recoil, start, suddenly hack, or away, from to shrink back from the heat of the fire, to shrink away from (a person), as though in fear or disgust, also to shrink away (from a crowd &c), to retreat, retire, withdraw, seek solitude; b (in moral sense) to feel reluctant to encounter, to dread, flinch from, avoid to shrink from danger, responsibility, publicity; I rather shrink from meeting him, feel unwilling to meet B trans To cause to shrink, contract, diminish the washerwoman has kindly shrunk all my underclothes, summer has shrunk the streams shrinkage, n [1 shrīngkij, 2 [rīngkij]] shrink & -age Process of shrinking, contraction in area, diminution, reduction, in bulk, quantity &c there has been much shrinkage of clothes in the wash, the long droughts have caused a shrinkage in the water supply, a shrinkage in values shrinking, adj [1 shrīngking, 2 [rīngking], fr Prec Part of shrink (in moral sense) Reluctant, reticent, timid, sensitive shrinkingly, adv Prec & -ly Timidly, diffidently shrive, vb trans [1 shrīv, 2 [raiv]] O E scrifan, M E sc(h)rifan, 'to shrive, impose penance, to judge', loan word fr Lat scribere, 'to write', see scribe, op shrit & Shrove-tide (archaic) 1 To receive the confession of a penitent, impose penance, and grant absolution to 2 (reflex, very rare) To obtain absolution by confession and penance shrive, vb intrans & trans [1 shrīv, 2 [rīv]] Not in O E or M E, etymol uncertain, op Swed skryla, 'to wrinkle, shrivel up' 1 intrans To curl roll up, become wrinkled, to shrink, by the action of heat frost, dryness, decay &c, of thin, flat objects and substances, such as leaves, the skin &c, also shrivel up, to shrivel considerably 2 trans To cause to shrivel shroff, n [1 shrōf, 2 [rōf], fr Arab sharāf A money changer in India and the Far East, esp one who is expert in currency and the testing of good and bad coins shroud (I), n [1 shrōud, 2 [raud]] O E scrud, 'a dress, a garment', M E sc(h)roud, in gradational relation to O E scrēad, q v under shred, orig meaning 'a piece, a fragment' (of cloth), etymol doubtful, perh the base ultimately means 'tear, out', then it is used of 'torn, stripped off skin', op O N skrydda, 'shrivelled skin', & Lath scravulla, 'brittle' 1 Sheet or cloth in which dead bodies are wrapped for burial, a winding-sheet 2 A Something which enfolds, covers, conceals, a covering, cloak, veil, mask a shroud of snow, mist, darkness &c, also b some thing which conceals from the understanding a shroud of mystery 3 (naut) Shrouds, the set of ropes, usually in pairs, leading from the mast heads of a vessel to the sides, acting as lateral supports (op O N skrud in same sense, the word is applied in O E poetry to a ship's sails and rigging) shroud (II), vb trans A new formation fr prec, O E scrifjan, fr scrifjan*, wd give 'shrive in Mod Engl 1 To wrap (a dead body) in a shroud 2 To hide, cover, envelop, enfold a mountains shrouded in mist; b a crime shrouded in mystery shroudless, adj [1 shrōdles, 2 [raudles]] shroud (I) & -less Without a shroud or winding sheet shroud plate, n One of the chain plates at the side of a ship to which the shrouds are fastened, b one of the side plates of the buckets of a water wheel

Shrove-tide, n [1 shrēvtid, 2 [rōvvtaid]] Shrove, representing an O E scraf*, is not used in this connexion, the gradational type occurs as the Pret sing of scrifan, see shrive, see also tide (I) The season for being shriven, extending from the Saturday to the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, the commencement of Lent

Shrove Tuesday, n The Tuesday before Ash Wednesday

shrub (I), n [1 shrub, 2 [rab]] O E scrybb, 'underwood, low growing bushes', M E sc(h)rub; origin unknown, scrub (I) is fr the O N variant Low growing woody plant, smaller than what is specifically called a tree, having a number of separate stems growing from near the ground shrub (II), n, fr Arab sharab, 'drink, hever ago' See sherbet & syrup A drink made of the juice of lemons or other fruit, sugar, and spirit, usually rum shrubby, n [1 shrūben, 2 [rāhari]] shrub (I) & -y a Collection, mass, of shrubs, b a walk planted with shrubs on either side shrubbiness, n [1 shrūbines, 2 [rāhūnes]] shrubby & -ness Quality, habit, in plants, of growing thickly like a shrub shrubby, adj [1 shrūbi, 2 [rābi]] shrub (I) & -y Having the habit of growth of a shrub, growing thickly, bushy shrug (I), vb trans & intrans [1 shrug, 2 [rag]] Cp Dan skrugge, 'to stoop, sit huddled up', origin unknown 1 trans To lift and draw (the shoulders) up, slightly, as sign of doubt, hesitation, disapprobation, nonchalance, helplessness &c to shrug one's shoulders 2 intrans To shrug the shoulders shrug (II), n, fr prec Act of, gesture made in shrugging shrink, vb [1 shrīngk, 2 [rīngk]] PP of shrink. O E (ge)scrunken, M E shrunke(n) shrunken, adj [1 shrīngken, 2 [rīngkēn]], fr old PP of shrink. See prec Giving an impression of having grown smaller and thinner, shrivelled withered, pinched shrunken limbs, a shrunken face.

shuck, n & vb trans [1 shnk, 2 [ak]] Etymol unknown (rare or province) 1 n. Husk, pod, shell of maize, oats, peas &c 2 vb To remove the husks of shudder (I), vb intrans [1 shuder, 2 [fūda]] M E shodden, sc(h)huden, prob fr a LG source, op M. Dn shudden, fr similar source, Mod Germ schaudern, 'to shudder', cogn w O E shuddian, 'to shake, rattle' 1 To be powerfully agitated or shaken, as by a quake involving the whole being to quake violently, as with great horror or disgust 2. Shudder at, to feel violent aversion to, be filled with disgust at. to shudder at the thought of, shudder to think of shudder (II), n, fr prec An agitation, shaking, of the body, resembling, but more powerful and deep seated than, shivering or trembling, caused by strong feeling of horror or disgust shudderingly, adv [1 shúderingli, 2 fader-igli], fr Pres Part of shudder (I) & -ly With a shudder shuffle (I), vb trans & intrans [1 shúfi, 2 fád] A variant of scuffle, & perh formed fr shove Op shovel 1 trans a To move rapidly and aimlessly backwards and forwards to shuffle one's feet, specif b to shuffle cards, mix them so that the order is changed, before dealing, c shuffle off, get rid of. 2 intrans a (also shuffle along) To drag the feet in walking, to walk with a stumbling gait, without lifting the feet properly, b to shuffle cards, c (fig) to equivocate, prevaricate, answer in such a way as to mislead shuffle (II), n, fr prec Act of shuffling, shuffling movement 1 a A skid, scraping, dragging movement of the feet in walking, b a dancing step, usually double shuffle, consisting of a rapid backward and forward scrape, made twice, first with one foot and then with the other 2 Act of shuffling cards 3 An evasion, equivocation, trick, swindle shuffle-board, n See shovelboard shuffler, n [1 shúflar, 2 fáfia] shuffle (I) & -er One who shuffles (in any sense) shuffling, adj, fr Pres Part of shuffle (I)

Shifty, adverb

shun (I), vb trans [1 shun, 2 fan] O E shunan, 'to avoid, fear', etymol not clear To avoid, keep clear of, to eschew to shun danger, evil company, vice, temptation, a person to be shunned shun, abbr of attention, as drill word of command shunt (I), vb trans & intrans [1 shunt, 2 jant] Suggested connexion w O E shyndan, 'to hasten, cause to hasten, to urge, incite', seems improbable, op M E shunten, the origin of which is obscure A trans 1 To turn off, to shift to one side; specif a to turn, switch a train, waggon &c from one line on to another, b (elect) to provide a current with an alternative circuit by means of a 'shunt' 2 (gen, colloq) To put, push, on one side, to remove, get rid of, dismiss, to put off, to shelve B intrans To be shunted shunt (II), n, fr prec Act of shunting, process of being shunted (in various senses), specif (elect) alternative circuit for a current, a condenser, switch, or other contrivance for turning a current on to another circuit shunter, n [1 shúnter, 2 fánta] shunt (I) & -er One who shunts, specif, a railway employee who shunts trains shut, vb trans & intrans [1 shut, 2 fát] O E scytlan, 'to shoot the bolt of a door', M E schutten, shutten, 'to shunt', op Da schutten, 'to shunt', M H G schütten, 'to dam up (water), to protect, guard', formed fr skuti jan*, a gradational variant of the base of O E scotan, q v under shoot A trans 1 To close, used of various physical actions and movements resulting in the closing, covering, of an opening, of an entrance or exit of any kind, in the exclusion of light, air, sound &c, or in the fastening of a receptacle and the safe enclosure of something, a (of action exerted on external objects) to shut a door, gate, by pulling or pushing it to, so that the catch or lock falls into position, shut a window, pull to, as in a casement, slide up or down, as in a wash-window, shut the lid of a box, close it down, so that it covers the opening, shut a drawer, push it back into position, b (of action on bodily organs) to shut one's eyes, close, draw the lids, shut one's mouth, close the lips, c to prevent entrance to or exit from by closing door or window, to cover with lid as: to shut (up) a house, stable, shop &c, *to shut a box, specif, the shops are shut, no longer open to customers, Phrs to shut the door on, to (a person), to exclude, refuse him admission, also to shut the door on proposals, measures &c, refuse finally to consider, make it impossible to carry them out, to shut one's eyes, to be wilfully blind, to refuse to see what is plain and obvious, to shut one's eyes to, to be wilfully blind to, refuse to notice, to shut one's mouth, to hold one's tongue, be silent, to refuse to divulge a secret &c, shut your mouth, face, rude way of saying, 'stop talking', to shut a person's mouth, to persuade or compel him to be silent about something, to shut one's ears to, refuse to listen to or hear, d (in non-material sense) to shut one's mind to, refuse to admit or to try to understand (ideas &c), to shut one's heart to (pity &c), refuse to be moved by 2 To fold, fasten, bring together, close what is open, expanded, or unfolded to shut a book, knife, fan, umbrella &c B intrans To be shut, close itself, the door won't shut, shuts of itself &c C Followed by preposition or adverb Shut down, a trans, to pull, push down shut down a window, lid of a box, to cease activity, stop work to shut down a business, factory, b intrans, to cease working, come to a stop some mines will have to shut down Shut in, trans, to enclose, keep out view, light &c, to prevent from access to &c the house was much shut in by trees, hills &c, a harbour shut in by sandbanks Shut out, to out, turn off, to stop, check flow of to shut off water, gas, electricity, steam &c, Shut out, to exclude by making access difficult to shut out a view, air, light &c Shut in, trans & intrans, to close, fasten, to become fastened or shut shut the box to, the door shut to behind me Shut up, 1 trans, a to close firmly or securely shut up the box, window &c b to close the windows, doors of to shut up a room, house, close it, and cease to use or live in it, Phr to shut up shop, to close down a business, cease doing business, c to shut in, enclose to shut a person up in prison, shut up the silver in the safe, d (colloq) to make a person stop talking, to disconcert and reduce to silence, by ready retort, invective, or physical force &c the interrupters were quickly shut up, 2 intrans, (colloq) to cease, stop talking or doing anything I wish that old bore would shut up, oh! shut up! it is time to shut up shutter (I), n [1 shúter, 2 fát] shut & -er That which shuts, specif a wooden or steel panel on a hinge, made to close over a window for the purpose of excluding light and heat, or to give greater security against burglars &c, b small movable flap in a photographic camera for admitting and shutting off light to and from the sensitized plate or film, c device for regulating volume of sound in the swell box of an organ* shutter (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To fit, furnish (a window), with shutters 2 To close (a window) with a shutter shutterless, adj [1 shúterless, 2 fáteliss] Pres & -less Without shutters shuttle (I), n [1 shútl, 2 fátli] O E scytel(s), 'bolt, bar', as 'shot' into a loom &c., M E sc(h)utal &c., 'bolt, weaver's shuttle', formed fr O E base scut, gradational variant of scot, see shoot, & -el 1 The weft carrier in a loom, a boat- or cigar shaped wooden implement, metal pointed and capped, with hollowed centre to hold the weft thread, formerly thrown or 'shot' from hand to hand by the weaver, now moving by mechanical power, backwards and forwards across and through the warp 2 The sliding plate carrying the under thread in a lock stitch sewing machine shuttle (II), vb intrans, fr prec (rare) To move backwards and forwards like a weaver's shuttle shuttle-cock, n O E scytel, 'a missile' Formed as shuttle (I) & cock (I), as being fitted w feathers & kept flying in the air 1 Object made from a piece of weighted cork, with feathers projecting in a ring from one side and struck backwards and forwards across a net, by a battledore in the old game of battledore and shuttlecock, and by a racket in badminton 2 (fig) An object of controversy, bandied to and fro by contending parties, a person who wavers between different opinions, tossed about by conflicting interests and desires &c, a mere plaything or sport of circumstances or passion shuttle-train, n A train which moves backwards and forwards on a set of rails shy (I), adj [1 shí, 2 fái] O E scioh, 'timid', M E schey, shy &c., 'shy', of a horse, op O H G senhen, 'to avoid, fight shy of', O H G adj scioh*, 'shy' &c, whence M H G schioch, Gorm schu, is not recorded 1 (of animals) Timid, easily scared, keeping away or at a distance, evading observation partridges are shy this year, the shy small beasts of the woodlands 2 (of persons) a Bashful, retiring, diffident, farsaiche, extremely self-conscious, and uncomfortable in society, b (of manner, character &c) expressing, animated by, shyness c shy glance, smile, of shy disposition 3 Shy of, reluctant, hesitating, chary shy of committing oneself Phr to fight shy of, to keep aloof from (a person), to avoid (doing something) shy (II), vb intrans, fr prec 1 (of a horse) To start and swerve aside nervously this horse has never been known to shy, some horses shy at running water 2 (of human beings) Generally shy at, to recoil from as in alarm or disgust, to refuse to do, or to entertain, to have scruples about many who are not over nice will shy at sheer treachery shy (III), n, fr prec A sudden start or swerve aside of a horse shy (IV), vb trans & intrans Etymol unknown A trans (usually colloq) To fling, throw to shy a stone, cricket ball &c B intrans To perform the act of shying he must learn to shy straight shy (V), n, fr prec 1 A throw, fling of a stone, ball &c three shies a penny, a good, long shy, b object thrown at, usually in combination, cockshy 2 (colloq) Am, chance, try, shot to have a shy at doing something shyer (I), more usual than shier [1 shíer, 2 fái] Comparative of shy (I) shyer (II), n shy (II) & -er A horse addicted to shying Shylock, n [1 shúlok, 2 fáilok], fr character in 'Merchant of Venice' A grasping, rapacious, merciless money lender, one who drives the hardest possible bargain shyly, adv [1 shíly, 2 fái] shy (I) & -ly In a shy, diffident manner shyness, n [1 shíness, 2 fáiñis] See prec & -ness Condition, quality, of being shy shyster, n [1 shíster, 2 fái] Etymol unknown (Am slang) A disreputable, unscrupulous lawyer, one who undertakes business of doubtful honesty and respectability si, a [1. sò, 2 ai] Prob fr the initials of Sancie loonnes, in old verses for the gamut (mus) The seventh note of the diatonic scale in the sol fa system siamang, n [1 siámang, 2 siámang] Malay A large, long armed black ape or gibbon, Hylobates syndactyla, of Sumatra and the Malay Archipelago

Siamese, n & adj [1 siáméz, 2 siámíz] Siam & -ese 1 A native, the language, of Siam 2 adj Belonging to, coming from, Siam

Siamese cat, n A distinct breed of domesticated cat, of a cream colour with chocolate or seal brown head, tail, and feet, usually with a shortish, knotted tail

Siamese twins, n pl. Pair of human beings joined together from birth by a fleshy ligature, as called from a notorious pair born in Siam (1811-74) sub, adj, [1 shí, 2 shí] O E sið, shíð, 'relationship, friendship, peace, happy' ness, also genb, 'related', OS sibbia, OHG sippa, Goth sibja, 'blood relationship', op Mod Germ sippe, 'race, family, stem', cogn w Sort sibbi, 'race, relationship'. Cp second element of gossip, n (archaic and rare) Related, of the same kin

Siberian, n & adj [1 sibērian, 2 sibērīan] Siberia & -an. 1 n Inhabitant, native, of Siberia 2 adj Belonging to, coming from, Siberia

Siberian dog, n A breed of dogs, resembling the Eskimo dog, used for drawing sledges &c

Siberian sable, n A The true Russian sable, as distinguished from the American martens, b the fur or skin of this sibilance, -ey, n [1 sibulans(i), 2 sibulans(i)] sibilant & -ca, -cy Quality, state, of being sibilant, sibilation sibilant, adj & n [1 sibulant, 2 sibilant] fr Lat sibilant (em), Pres Part of sibilare, 'to make a hissing sound, to hiss', fr sibilus, 'hissing', imitative in origin 1 adj Having, making, a hissing sound, sounding like, producing, a hiss (of the consonants [s, z, ʒ]) 2 n (popular phon) One of the above consonants sibilate, vb trans & intrans [1 sibilat, 2 sibilat] fr Lat sibilat (um), PP type of sibilare, 'to hiss' See prec & -ate a trans To utter with a hissing sound, b intrans, to hiss sibilation, n [1 sibulashun, 2 sibilesjon] Prec & -ion Utterance with a hissing sound, sibilance, a hissing sound, a hiss sibyl, n [1 sibul, 2 sibil] fr Lat Sibylla, Gk Sibylla, etymol uncertain, the class explanation is that the word is fr Dor Gk Sio bolla, for Attic theō bōlē, 'will of God' 1 (class mythol) One of several women of the ancient world, having the power of delivering prophecies or oracles under the inspiration of some god, established in various countries or places, from which they were named, as the Babylonian, Egyptian, Delphic sibyls, the most famous was the Cumaeae sibyl, who kept the Sibylline books 2 a A wise woman, fortune teller, soothsayer, b a witch, sorceress, an ogly old hag, a orone Sibylline, adj [1 sibulin, 2 sibilian] fr Lat Sibyllinus Prec & -ine Pertaining to, uttered, written, by a sibyl or the sibyls, oracular Sibylline books, collection of Greek oracles brought to Rome from Cumae, by the influence of which Roman religion was largely transformed.

sic, adv. [1 sik, 2 sik] Lat sic, 'so, thus', for si, 'if', & ce, 'there', si is fr sēt, orig 'then', perh ultimately identical w demonstr pron, for ce, see under he Thus, generally stylized and in brackets, used to call attention to a word, phrase, or expression, which looks wrong or doubtful b is quoted verbatim and literatim, also, loosely, to express a writer's surprise at some statement &c which he is quoting siccative, adj & n [1 sikativ, 2 sikativ] fr Lat siccativus, 'tending to dry, drying', fr siccus (um), PP type of sicare, 'to dry', fr siccus, 'dry', & -ive, the etymol of siccus is disputed The earlier proposal to derive it fr sikkos*, & connect it w Lat siccus, 'thirst', is now rather discredited, & Walde prefers to derive it, strange as this may seem, fr a base meaning orig, 'wet, fluid', the development of meaning being 'flowing, drained away, dried out', op Lath sikka, 'to drip', (nu)sikka, 'to flow away, to become dry' 1 adj Having property of drying (things) up 2 n A substance which promotes drying sice (1), n, also suse, size [1 siz, 2 sais] fr O Fr sic, six The six on duos sice (II), n, also sice [1 siz, 2 sais] fr Hind & Arab ayis Term for groom used esp in Bengal

Sicel, also Sikel Sienhan, n & adj [1 sikl, 2 sikl] sikl (sikhilhan), fr Gk Sikelai, Lat Siculi 1 n One of an early im migrant race into Sicily, coming probably from Italy before Greek colonization began 2 adj Of, pertaining to, the Sicels

Siceliot, also Sikeliot, n & adj [1 siklōt, 2 siklōt] fr Gk Sikelidēs, fr Sikelia, 'Sicily' 1 n One of the early Greek colonizers or settlers in ancient Sicily 2 adj Of, pertaining to, the Siceliot

Sicilian, n & adj [1 sikilian, 2 sikilian] fr Lat Sicilia Sicily & -an 1 n A native of Sicily 2 adj Of, pertaining to, Sicily or its inhabitants, Sicilian Vespers, the massacre, at vespers on Easter Monday, 1282, of the French by the Sicilians, leading to the expulsion of the Angevin kings and the beginning of Spanish rule sickle, adj [1 sik, 2 sik] OE sloc, 'sick, ill', ME sike, sik, 'ill'. OS sioh, OHG sioh, Mod. Germ sich, ON sjúkr, Goth sula 'ill', op sulan, 'to be ill' 1 a (pred, archaic and Bth) In sense ill, not well, suffering, only used in certain Biblical or archaic Phrs he is sick unto death, sick of a fever, sick at heart, very sad, filled with mourning, and in a few colloquial Phrs sick and sorry, to fall sick, become ill, go, report, sick, (mil) report oneself as unfit for duty (NB, the word is superseded by ill, and the Phrs to be sick, feel sick, look sick are hardly used now in England in sense of unwell, ill, though normal in America), b (attrib, in ordinary Engl usage) a sick man, dog, cow, rather than ill, Phr the sick man of Europe, of the now extinct Turkish Empire, also the Sultan, on the sick list, ill, and unable to perform one's duties (from mil usage), the sick, sick persons 2 (pred) Vomiting, ready, inclined, to vomit, suffering from nausea I'm going to be sick, am about to vomit; to feel, turn, sick, to feel that one is going to vomit, to make (a person) sick, cause him to vomit 3 Filled with longing (only pred, sick for) 'when sick for home, She stood in tears amid the alien corn' (Keats, Nightingale) 4 (pred) Sick of, tired of, sated with 'I am half sick of shadows, said The Lady of Shalott' (Tennyson), sick of doing nothing Phrs sick to death (of), sick and tired (of) 5 (colloq, usually pred) Disgusted, annoyed, exasperated, disappointed, disconcerted it makes me sick to think of that fellow living in my old house, I was awfully sick at missing you, he was sick with me for being so late, he was rather sick at missing the train 6 In various special senses a (of wine) undergoing a chemical process while maturing which gives it an unpleasant taste, b (of cast iron or other wrought metal) in a peculiar physical condition which renders it brittle sick-bed, n That upon which a sick person lies

sicken, vb intrans & trans [1 sikan, 2 siken] sick & -en A intrans 1 a (i) To become sick or ill he sickened and died, (u) (of plants) to wither, fade, cease to flourish, b to begin to be ill, to show signs of an on coming attack of illness he is sickening for mumps 2 To be disgusted, feel sick, be nauseated by, to be filled with physical or moral loathing to sicken at the sight of blood, to sicken at the mere idea of cruelty 3 To weary, grow tired of, become satiated by he soon sickened of his wife, he is amused with his new possessions for the moment, but he will soon sicken (of them) B trans 1 To cause to feel sick or inclined to vomit; to make, turn, sick, to nauseate rich food sickens me; a sickening draught of medicine 2 To cause to feel (physical or moral) disgust, abhorrence, loathing, to nauseate to be sickened by the sight of blood, a sickening sight, his cowardice and cruelty are enough to sicken decent people sickener, n [1 sikener, 2 sikens] Prec & -er 1 (schoolboy slang) A sickening, annoying, disagreeable, person 2 (colloq) Feeling of disgust, fact of being disgusted, wearied, bored six months of prison ought to have given him a sickener of the life sickeningly, adv [1 sikeningli, 2 sikeningli] Pres Part of sicken & -ly In a sickening manner, to a sickening extent sick-headache n Headache accompanied by nausea, migraine sickish, adj [1 sikish, 2 siki] sick & -ish

1 Somewhat sick or nauseated, to feel sickish, 2 Somewhat sickening or nauseating a sickish smell, taste &c sickle, n [1 sikl, 2 sikl] OE sicol, ME sikil, fr Lat secula, 'sickle', fr secare, 'to cut', see sacant & section, native Engl words fr same Aryan root are saw (1) & scythe, Gmc words, as Du sikkel, Germ sichel &c, are also fr Lat hook used for reaping corn by hand, reaping hook.

sickle-bill, n Popular name of various birds such as some humming birds, birds of paradise, with bill shaped like a sickle sickle-feather, n One of the long curved feathers in the tail of a cock sickle-wort, n Popular name of a plant, Prunella vulgaris, also called heal-all sickness, n. [1 sikness, 2 sikness] sickly & -ness 1 n Bad, feeble, health, b nausea 2 Washed out appearance, lack of intensity, in a colour sickly, adj [1 sikli, 2 sikli] sick & -ly 1 n Inclined, disposed, to be sick or ill, chronically ailing, unhealthy, poorly, invalidish a sickly child, family, b having the appearance of ill health or sickness, pale, wan a sickly complexion, hence o (of light and colour) lacking intensity, faint, pale, feeble, washy, also d a sickly smile 2 a Connected with sickness, unhealthy, marked by prevalence of sickness a sickly season, b producing, tending to produce, sickness or disease a sickly climate, region &c 3 a Causing, tending to produce, a feeling of nausea from faintness and inappetence, sickening a sickly taste, smell, b (fig) nauseating, mawkish, sickly sentimentality sickness, n [1 sikness, 2 sikness] sick & -ness 1 a State, quality, of being ill, ill-health, disease, b a specific disease a sleeping sickness 2 A sick feeling, inclination to vomit, vomiting itself sick-room, n Room in which a sick person lies

sida (1), n [1 sida, 2 said] OE & ME sida, OHG sita, ON sida, connected w OE sida, 'spacious, broad', relationships outside Gmc unknown 1 a (i) Any one of the external surfaces of anything a box has usually four sides, the north side of the house, also (ii) one of the corresponding internal surfaces (of a box &c), b boundary line of a geometrical figure a triangle has three sides 2 a One of the two halves or divisions of an object or portion of space, right and left of a central line on one side of the head, body &c, the other side of the room, road, playground &c, b either of two opposite surfaces of a flat, thin object two sides of a coin, wall &c, the right and wrong sides of a piece of cloth &c, Phr born on the wrong side of the blanket, of illegitimate birth 3 Specif, that part of the body extending from immediately below the ribs to the hips, between the backbone and the abdomen a pain in the side Phrs to shake, spit, one's sides with laughing, to laugh very heartily, to stand by a person's side, (i) not in front of or behind him, (u) (fig) to support him morally, side by side, close together, also (fig) in mutual agreement, by the side of, (i) near, (u) compared with 4 a One of the two lateral boundaries of anything rectangular, specif contrasted with top or bottom front or back a drawer with oak sides, a deal bottom, and a mahogany front, b the wall, the bounding, enclosing portion of a curved receptacle, in distinction to the bottom, the rim or the mouth the sides of a flower pot, cup, jug &c 5 That part of a space, or object of definite shape and limit, which is near one of its definite shape and edge, margin by the side of the road, pavement, the river side &c, distinguished from the middle or centre Phr on all sides, from every side, everywhere, from all directions, to put a question on one side, disregard it 6 Area situated on either extremity of something which divides one area from another on this side of the Channel, the house is on the other side of the river, street 7. Slope, declivity, sloping shoulder of mountain or hill 8 Aspect, view, regarded as partial only, and as differing from, or contrasted with, another aspect to look at the bright, gloomy, side of life, to study a question from every side, a side of his character not generally known

9 A One of two groups of persons holding respectively contrasting views, ideals, doctrines, one of two opposing or contending parties or groups of persons, a party, faction on the side of the moderates against the extremists, 'Who is on my side? who?' (2 Kings 17 32), neither side has strong leaders, Phr to take sides (in a dispute &c), be, declare oneself, a supporter of one side or the other, b a team of players in a match 10 A line of descent traced through one or other parent on the father's, mother's, paternal, maternal, side

11 (billiards) Tendency to spin or twist aside from the straight course on coming in contact with another ball, imparted to a ball by the manner of striking it with the cue 12 (colloq) Pretentiousness, arrogance of manner, swagger much too much sides about the man, to put on side, to swagger, op use of face, cheek, in somewhat similar sense 13 (football) On side, off side, right or wrong position of player when receiving or playing the ball in reference to position of other players, no side, call of time at Rugby football side (II), vb intrans, fr prec 1 Side with, to support, be on the side of (a person, party &c) 2 (colloq, slang, rare) To put on side, to swagger side-arms, n, pl Such weapons, as bayonet or sword, as are worn at the (left) side by soldiers or sailors side-bar, n A supporting bar or plate on the side of various objects, a g either of the two plates which join the pommel to the cantle of a saddle, a side piece of a wagon or cart &c sideboard, n [1 sɪdbɔːd, 2 sɪdibɔːd] Piece of furniture of various design, but essentially a long table, placed against a wall at one side of a dining room, used for displaying plate &c, and also for holding glasses, dessert &c required during the service of a meal side-bone, n 1 The hip bone 2 One of the two small forked bones beneath the wing of a fowl 3 A bony cartilage, causing lameness, on the hunder side of a horse's hoof side-car, n 1 An Irish jaunting car 2 A small car for a passenger attached to the side of a motor bicycle side-chain, n (chem, bacter) A chain of atoms branching off from the main or central chain of a molecule, side chain theory, a theory of Ehrlich accounting for the immunity produced by anti-toxins

-sided, adj [1 sɪdɪd, 2 sɪdɪdɪd] side (I) & ed Having specified number of sides a three sided figure, one sided argument, a many sided character &c side-dish, n Extra dish or course at a dinner -sidedly, adv [1 sɪdɪdli, 2 sɪdɪdɪdli] -sided & -ly In one sidedly &c -sidedness, n [1 sɪdɪdnes, 2 sɪdɪdɪdnes] -sided & -ness One, many sidedness side-glance, n A glance or look to or from one side, a sidelong glance side-issue, n Result, point in question, which is to the side of or away from the main result or point side-light, n [1 sɪdlaɪt, 2 sɪdɪdlaɪt] 1 A lamp, lantern &c placed on or at the side, as on a ship, carriage, motor-car &c 2 a Light coming or shining from one side, as from windows other than the main window or a top or skylight, b something, apart from the main stream of fact or knowledge, which throws light on a subject incidentally side-line, n 1 A rope attached to the side of anything 2 Sport, a class or line of goods sold as subsidiary to the main line of goods stocked, any business, course of action &c, subsidiary to the main one sidelong, adv & adj [1 sɪdɪlɒŋ, 2 sɪdɪlɒŋ] side (I) & -long 1 adv Sideways, in the direction of, towards, on the side, obliquely, laterally to move, look, sidelong 2 adj Coming, directed, from or to the side, lateral, oblique a sidelong movement, glance sidereal, adj [1 sɪdɪrəl, 2 sɪdɪrəl], fr Lat sidēriālis See sidereal (rare and poet) Pertaining to the stars, sidereal, (esp astrol) exerting a baleful influence, as do the stars sidereal, adj [1 sɪdɪrəl, 2 sɪdɪrəl] Variant of the earlier sɪdɪrəl, fr Lat sidēreus, 'of, belonging to, the stars, starry, heavenly', & -al, fr sidēr, stem of sidūs, 'star, esp group of stars, constellation', prob cogn w Lith sidūs, 'shining'

1 Of, relating to, the constellations or the fixed stars, starry, astral sidereal light

2 Measured by, measuring, the apparent motion of the fixed stars sidereal clock, an astronomical clock, regulated by marking sidereal time, sidereal day, a day, less than the solar day of 24 hours, by about 4 minutes, measured by the interval between two transits of Aries across the meridian, sidereal time, time measured by the axial rotation of the earth in reference to a fixed star, as one in Aries, sidereal year, the time occupied by a complete revolution of the earth round the sun, and measured by the recurrence of a fixed star, 365 days, 6 hours, and about 9 10 minutes, 20 minutes more than the tropical year siderography, n [1 sɪdɪrɒgrəfi, 2 sɪdɪrɒgrəfi], fr Gk sidēros, 'iron', the origin of which is unknown, & -graphy A kind of engraving on steel siderolite, n [1 sɪdɪrəlɪt, 2 sɪdɪrəlɪt], fr Gk sidēros, 'iron', see prec, & -lite A meteorite, mainly composed of meteoric iron or siderite, but with some stony matter side-saddle, n A saddle for women, so made that both legs of rider are on the same side of the horse side-show, n. a A small, subsidiary show at a larger exhibition carried on at the same time as the main show, b (fig) a subsidiary event or activity, one of secondary importance to some more extensive form of action &c side-slip, n & vb intrans 1 n A slip, skid, to one side, esp. of a motor car or aeroplane 2 vb To make such a slip sidesman, n [1 sɪdzmən, 2 sɪdɪdzmən] Person whose business it is to look after, and find seats for, a certain section of a church congregation, usually that in a particular aisle side-step (I), n A step to one side, step taken sideways, so as to avoid a blow or get out of the way side-step (II), vb intrans & trans 1 intrans To take a side step, to step to one side 2 trans To avoid (blow &c) by making a side step side-stroke, n The stroke made when swimming on the side, contrasted with breast stroke side-table, n A small table placed against the wall or at one side of a main or principal table, used for serving &c during a meal side-track (I), n A railway siding side-track (II), vb trans 1 To shunt, turn into a siding or off the main line 2 (colloq) a To divert (person) from his purpose, or from some important line of action, or from pursuing a career of importance, b to postpone, shelve (a proposal &c) side-view, n View of anything taken from the side, profile side-walk, n Path for foot passengers by the side of a street or road, pavement sideward(s), adv & adj [1 sɪdwərd(z), 2 sɪdwəd(z)] side (I) & -ward(s) Sideways sideways, adv & adj [1 sɪdwaɪz, 2 sɪdwaɪz] 1 adv a Towards the side to look sideways, from the side, obliquely to look sideways at, b side first, edgewise to walk, move, come in, sideways 2 adj a From the side a sideways glance, b edgewise a sideways walk side-wind, n. 1 A wind blowing from one side or obliquely 2 (fig) An indirect influence, agency, or means I only learnt the news by a side wind siding, n [1 sɪdɪŋ, 2 sɪdɪŋ] side (I) & -ing A set of rails, or short track, by the side of a main line, to which a train, goods-waggons &c can be shunted by points in order to clear the main line for another train, or for purpose of unloading &c sidle, vb intrans [1 sɪdl, 2 sɪdl]. Formed fr obs adv sidling, 'sidelong' a To move, walk, sideways or with one side forward, b to advance or retreat in a furtive, fawning, cringing, or apologetic, nervous manner to sidle up to a person, to sidle away siecle, n [1 sɪkl, 2 sɪkl] Fr, fr Lat saeculum, 'age, century' See secular Century, age, in Phr fin de siècle, q v, end of the century siege (I), n [1 sɛʒ, 2 sɪdʒ] M E sēge, 'seat, siege', fr O Fr sēge, siege, Mod Fr siege, cp Ital seggio, 'seat', fr assumed Low Lat sedicium*, sedicium*, fr. sēdes, 'seat', sēdre, 'to sit', see sedentary 1 a (obs) A seat, throne 'from lofty sieges' (Spenser, 'F Q' ii li 39), the siege perilsous, seat of danger at King Arthur's round table, (also fig) rank, station 'of royal sieges' (Shakespeare, 'Othello'), b (in tech'n senses) a workman a bench, floor of a glass-blower's furnace 2 a The investment of a fortified place, town &c by a military force for the purpose of taking it either by direct attack or compelling its surrender by cutting off supplies of ammunition, food &c, b period of such investment, c act of besieging, state of being besieged Phrs to lay siege to, to besiege, (also fig) to lay siege to a lady's heart &c, attempt to win by persistent attentions, to press a siege, to force it on more vigorously, to raise a siege, (of besieging army) to give up, abandon, the investment of a fortified place; (of relieving army) to force the investing army to abandon a siege, to stand, undergo, a siege, to be besieged siege (II), vb trans, fr prec (archaic) To besiege siege-artillery, n Heavy artillery used in a siege of a fortified place siege-money, n Money minted in a town undergoing a siege, usually of special shape and device to distinguish it from the current coinage not available siege-piece, n A cannon struck during a siege siege-train, n Artillery &c used by a besieging army siege-works, n, pl Trenches, gun emplacements &c constructed for a siege Sienese, Siennese, n & adj [1 sɪnɛz, 2 sɪnɛz] Siena, town in Italy, & -ese 1 n. An inhabitant, native, of Siena 2 adj Pertaining to Siena, Siennese school, of painting, 13th-16th cents sienna, n [1 sɪəna, 2 sɪəna], fr Ital terra di Siena, 'earth of Siena' An earthy ochreous pigment, containing oxides of iron and manganese, yellowish-brown, raw sienna, reddish-brown, burnt sienna sierra, n [1 sɪərə, 2 sɪərə] Span, fr Lat serra, 'saw' See under serrate A range of hills, mountain chain, with saw like or jagged ridges siesta, n [1 sɪɛsta, 2 sɪɛsta] Span, fr Lat sista (hora), 'sixth hour, noon' See sect A short nap, esp one taken at mid day or after the mid day meal in hot countries sieve (I), n [1 sɪv, 2 sɪv] OE sife, M E sive, cogn w Dn zeef, OHG sib, Mod Germ sieb, prob connected w OE sēan, fr sēhan*, 'to strain, filter', & sigan, 'to fall', though the final consonants present difficulties 1 Utensil consisting of a framework across which is stretched a fine network of wire, or horsehair, or a thin perforated sheet of metal, used for separating the finer from the coarser particles of a granulated substance, the former passing through, the latter remaining behind, when the sieve is shaken Phr like putting water into a sieve, said of a fruitless, unprofitable task, a head, memory, like a sieve, incapable of retaining anything 2 A coarse basket containing about a bushel, used as a measure 3 (fig) A person who cannot keep information to himself, and who lets out a secret sieve (II), vb trans, fr prec To pass through a sieve, to sift sift, vb trans & intrans [1 sift, 2 sift]

O E sifian, fr sife See sieve A trans 1 a To pass through a sieve or riddle to sift cinders, b sift out, to separate, eliminate, by sifting to sift out gravel from gold dust 2 To sprinkle (sugar, pepper &c) through a sifter 3 To examine carefully and critically so as to separate the true from the false, the useful from the worthless &c to sift evidence, to sift a question to the bottom B intrans (of dust, sand, snow &c) To pass, filter, percolate, through or as through a sieve sand sifts through one's clothes, into one's shoes, snow sifts through a chink in the window sifter, n [1 sifter, 2 sifter] Prec & -er (often preceded by defining word) Object used for sifting or sprinkling a sugar sifter &c sigh (I), vb intrans & trans [1 si, 2 sat]

O E sican, M E siken, sighen, 'to sigh', the latter a new formation in infn & pres, fr Pret type sighs, prob imitative, op sough. A intrans 1 a To draw into the lungs, and expel slowly and audibly, a deep, long breath, often thus expressing weariness, sadness, or of relief after an effort &c to sigh with fatigue, for grief, with satisfaction, relief, repletion &c, b to make a sound resembling sighing the wind sighs through the trees 2 Sigh for, a to pine after, long for it is no good sighing for the unattainable, to sigh for the country amid the heat and noise of London, b to lament, grieve for to sigh for a mispent youth B trans (rare) To utter with a sigh, also sigh out sigh (II), n, fr prec a Act of sighing, b sound made in sighing sighs and sobbs, a sigh of satisfaction, to heave a sigh of relief sighing, n [1 sighing, 2 sighing] sigh (I) & -ing 1 Sighs, act, sound, of sighs, of human beings, or of this wind &c 2 (fig) Grief 'sorrow and sighing shall flee away' (Isa xxxv 10) sighingly, adv, fr Prec Part of sigh (I) & -ly With sighs sight (I), n [1 sit, 2 sate] O E (ga) sīhþ, sīht, 'power of seeing, act of seeing, what is seen, a vision, apparition', fr W Gmc sīh*, fr sīh, formed fr base sēx*, 'to see', sees, see, & abstract suff, q v under -th, M E sīht, sight, O H G gīht in sense of O E gēht, Mod Gern geseht, 'countenance' 1 a Faculty of seeing, vision, ability to see, long sight, ability to see clearly at a distance, near, short, sight, inability to see things clearly except when close to the eyes Phr to know (a person) by sight, to be familiar with the appearance of, although not having his personal acquaintance 2 a Act of seeing, perception by the eye of physical objects, the sight of a total eclipse of the sun is one which one will always remember Phrs to have, catch, gain, get, sight of, to manage, begin, to see, to have sight of, to see, to lose sight of, (i) ceases to see, (also fig) (d) to omit to see or take heed or regard of, forget such points must not be lost sight of, (in) lose track of, allow to pass out of one's ken, cease to meet or hear from I've lost sight of him for several years, et, on, sight, when or as soon as seen, inspected, or examined a draft payable on sight, (also attrib) sight draft, one payable on presentation, to shoot a person at sight, directly he is seen, to read (a passage in a foreign language) at sight, without previous preparation, to play, read, music at sight, to play without previous practice, of fire at sight, on first seeing a thing, without further examination, prima facie, b (of mental vision) point of view, judgement, estimation to the sight of God all men are equal, to gain, lose, favour in a person's sight, to do what is right in one's own sight 3 Range of vision, visibility, space, region, distance over or to which the vision reaches, or penetrates in, within, sight, visible, able to be seen, or to see the land came in sight, to come in sight of land, (also fig) within sight of victory, victory is near at hand, peace is now in sight, approaching, out of sight, invisible, not to be seen, out of range, get out of my sight, begone!, to put (something) out of sight, to hide it Phr out of sight, out of mind, forgotten when absent

4 a That which is seen or visible, a spectacle, a view a pleasant, beautiful, memorable, horrid, awful, sight, Phrs quite a sight, something worth looking at, a sight for sore eyes, something that is pleasant to see, that one is glad to see, the sights, noteworthy, interesting, curious, objects, esp such as are to be seen in a particular place the sights of London &c, b (colloq) something conspicuous, odd or which attracts attention and (usually unfavourable) notice these clothes make you look a perfect sight 5 (colloq and illit) A multitude, large number, quantity, a great deal it must have cost a sight of money, not by a long sight, not nearly 6 Any of various devices for helping the vision, a a small piece of metal placed on the central line at one or both ends of the barrel of a rifle to assist the eye in taking aim at an object a fore, back sight, b optical apparatus attached to artillery for the same purpose a gun sight, c an aperture attached to an optical instrument, as a prism compass, through which the object observed can be aligned to a bearing sight (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To get sight of, to come in sight of, to see by approaching near to to sight land, a fox breaking covert, to sight a town from the air 2 To look at, observe through an optical sight to sight a star, to sight an objective point, landmark &c, so as to get a bearing upon it 3 a To aim at over or through the sights of a rifle to sight a target, objective, b to adjust the sights of, so as to get the right elevation and aim to sight a rifle, c to equip, furnish, with sights B intrans To take aim by a sight a sighting shot, one taken with a rifle to get the range and elevation &c sighted, adj [1 sited, 2 sited] sight (II) & -ed (of rifles or guns) a Having sights fitted to it, b aligned on a mark, by adjustment of sights sighted, adj sight (I) & -ed Having sight of a specified kind short, keen, quick sighted sightless, adj [1 sightless, 2 sightless] sight (I) & -less 1 Lacking sight, blind 2 (rare or poet) Not appearing to sight, invisible sightlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a sightless manner, blindly sightlessness, n See prec & -ness State of being sightless, blindness sightliness, n [1 sightliness, 2 sightliness] sightly & -ness Quality of being sightly, comeliness sightly, adj [1 sitly, 2 satily] sight (I) & -ly Pleasing to the eye, comely, of pleasing appearance sight-reader, n. One who reads and plays or sings music at sight sight-reading, n The reading and playing or singing of music at sight sightseeing, n [1 sitseeing, 2 satiship] Act of going to see places or objects of special interest, beauty, rarity &c sightseer, n. [1 sitseer, 2 satiale] Person who visits places and objects of interest &c as a spectator sightworthy, adj [1 sitwōrthi, 2 satwōrðli] Worth seeing sigillate, adj [1 shilāt, 2 shilēit], fr Lat sigillat (um), P P type fr sigillare, 'to mark with a seal or sign', fr sigillum, 'seal', earlier signolom*, dimin of signum, 'a mark, token, sign' See sign (I) 1 (bot) Having marks resembling seals or stamps 2 (of pottery) Decorated with impressed marks sigma, n. [1 sigma, 2 sigma] Gk. The 18th letter of the Greek alphabet (Σ, earlier C, σ or ς), expressing the sound [s] sigmate, adj & vb trans [1 sigmat, 2 sigmet] Prec & -ato 1 adj Shaped like a Greek sigma or σ 2 vb To add sigma or σ to sigmatic, adj [1 sigmātik, 2 sigmātik], fr stem of sigma & -to (of tenses, esp aorist) Formed by addition of a sigma sigmoid, adj & n [1 sigmoid, 2 sigmoid], sigma & -oid 1 adj Shaped like the letter S, with two reversed curves, speak (anat) sigmoid flexure, of the intestine between the colon and the rectum, sigmoid cavity, of the elbow &c 2 n A double, reversed curve sigmoidal, adj [1 sigmoidl, 2 sigmoidl], Prec & -al Sigmoid sign (I), n [1 sin, 2 sain], fr O Fr signa, fr Lat signum, 'mark, token, sign', op. signillare, prob fr base of seare, 'to out' See seant, sect, & section 1 (in widest and most general senses) Anything whether a material, visible object, mark, occurrence, natural phenomenon, or an action, state, or condition &c which conveys a meaning to the mind, by the sight or otherwise, indication, token, symbol, evidence, symptom a flag as the sign of one's nation, animals leave signs and traces behind them, there are signs of ill-health in his face, the weather shows signs of change, the gift was a sign of his forgiveness

2 A visible mark, written or inscribed on anything, having some definite, accepted meaning, conveying a message, or expressing some idea, thought &c pictorial signs representing things, conventional signs to represent sounds, bore the sign of his coat painted on his forehead, he could read the signs the tramp had marked on the wall, the broad arrow is the sign on government property, specif, an arbitrary, conventional character or symbol, a (math) one of the symbols representing a mathematical process the positive or plus sign, + &c, b (mus) any of the characters indicating a sharp, flat, key &c 3 Any agreed word, gesture, object &c, understood only by certain people the freemason's sign, a sign and countersign, pass word 4 A bodily gesture, used to express an idea, conception, emotion, instead of words or writing to talk in signs, a sign of assent, he made a sign to me to leave the room Phr to make the sign of the cross, to make gesture tracing the shape of a cross with the hand, either in the air, over an object, or by touching successively one's forehead, one's breast, one's left and right shoulders, in token of consecrating, blessing, or as an act of reverence, in memory of the Cross of Christ 5 Any device, such as a painted or lettered board, a carved or painted object &c, used to indicate that a particular trade or business is carried on, as an advertisement &c an inn sign, a pawnbroker's sign, three gold balls &c 6 (astron) Sign of the zodiac, one of its twelve divisions, represented by a conventional symbol representing a constellation, which occupied its position owing to precession of the equinoxes 7 a Something done, act performed, something which occurs, of such a nature as to give evidence of the possession of supernatural power, or of supernatural forces at work, miracle, portent, omen they asked him for a sign, signs and wonders, b (theol) an external rite &c, having a spiritual force, or meaning a sacrament is an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace (Church Catechism) sign (II), vb trans & intrans Cp Fr signer, fr Lat signare, 'to sign' See prec A trans 1 To mark with a sign or symbol, esp to mark with the sign of the cross in baptism we do sign (the child) with the sign of the cross in token &c (Baptismal Service) 2 a To write (one's name) as signature to sign one's name to a cheque, petition &c, b to ratify, indicate one's consent to, acknowledge as one's own &c, by affixing one's name or signature to, or allowing such to be published to sign a cheque, receipt, letter, to sign a petition, a picture, article, signed by the artist, author &c, the treaty was signed today, a (fig) to confirm, assure, fix by this act he has signed his doom 3 To express, indicate, communicate, make known, by signs, as a gesture &c, to signify to sign one's assent, dissent &c 4 Sign away, to assign, convey, transfer, by affixing one's signature to document &c to sign away one's property, interests, rights &c, to sign away one's liberty, freedom &c, (fig) to act in such a way as to produce this effect 5 Sign on, to engage, hire, obtain, the service of, by securing the signature of to a contract of service to sign on a hundred more workmen, fresh crew &c B intrans 1 To affix one's signature to a document to refuse to sign, all are requested to sign 2 To signify, communicate, by signs or signals she signed to the other ladies to leave the room 3 Sign on, to undertake, engage oneself for service by affixing one's signature to an agreement or contract to sign on for a new job, to sign on for a voyage signable, adj [1 signabl, 2 signabl] sign (II), &-able Capable of being signed, ready for, requiring, signature a document signable by special persons signal (I), n [1 signal, 2 signál] Fr, fr L. Lat signale, 'a signal', neut sing of signális, 'of, belonging to, of the nature of, a sign' See sign (I) & -al 1 A Message conveyed to a distance by means of visible or audible signs such as waving of flags, flashing lights, or firing guns &c a signal of distress, a apparatus, object, whereby a signal is conveyed - the signals are against our train, the signals are up, down &c, a specif, Royal Corps of Signals, the army organization in charge of all means of communication in time of war 2 Act, behaviour, occurrence, phenomenon, which is an indication, warning, premonition, of something else his rising was a signal that the meeting was over, fainting is a signal of ill health 3 Any action or event which serves to provoke, cause, or incite some other action a shot fired by an unknown hand was the signal for indiscriminate fighting signal (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans To send, notify, communicate, announce by means of signals to signal an order, a message, the ship signalled its distress, position 2 intrans To make a signal or signals to signal by means of rockets signal (III), adj Fr, fr Med. Lat, fr sign (I) & -al Distinguished, marked out, standing out, from others, noticeable, conspicuous, remarkable a signal success, failure, a man of signal virtues, he must receive signal punishment, a signal instance of courage signal-book, n A book containing the code of signals used esp in the army and navy signal-box, n A building on a railway line containing the levers and other apparatus used in the control of the signals, points &c signal gun, n A gun carried on board a ship to be fired as a signal in case of distress &c, b the report of such a gun signalize, vb trans [1 signaliz, 2 signaliz] signal (III) & -ize To make signal, noteworthy, remarkable or conspicuous, to mark out as noteworthy, to give distinction to to signalize a victory by public rejoicing, signalized by great courage signaller, n [1 signaler, 2 signale] signal (II) & -er One who signals, esp a soldier &c of the corps of signals in an army signally, adv [1 signali, 2 signali] signal (III) & -ly In a signal or noteworthy manner, conspicuously, remarkably to fail signally signalman, n [1 signalman, 2 signelman] Railway official in charge of the signals and points signary, n. [1 signari, 2 signari] sign (I) & -ary (archaic) A systematic arrangement of signs, used in the writing of a language, as of ideographs, hieroglyphics &c signatory, n. Spelling variant of signatory signatory, adj & n [1 signatur, 2 signat(e)r], fr Lat signatōrius, 'of, belonging to, seals or sealing', fr signāt (um), PP type of signāre, 'to sign, seal' See sign (I) & -ory 1 adj (rare) Pertaining to a seal or signature, used in sealing or signing, b signing or sealing, taking part in the signing or sealing of a document, esp of a treaty or other interstate document the signatory powers to the Treaty of Versailles 2 n Person, representative of a party or state, who signs a document, agreement, treaty &c signature, n [1 signatur, 2 signat] Fr, fr L. Lat signātūra See proo word & -ure 1 Person's name written by himself, autograph 2 (archaic) Characteristic mark, feature, appearance, esp in ancient medicine, some external feature of a disease found also in the herb &c which was used in its treatment, e.g. yellow flowers of a herb supposed to cure jaundice, red colour of the bloodstone, which was supposed to stop bleeding 3 (mus) The symbol or mark placed at the beginning of the stave to indicate the key, key signature, or rhythm, time signature 4 (print) a The mark, letter, numeral, or both, placed by the printer at the foot of each sheet before folding as guide to the binder, b the folded sheet, thus marked signboard, n [1 signbord, 2 signbōd] A board bearing a sign or notice, esp a painted board bearing a device suggestive of the name of an inn signet, n [1 signet, 2 signit] Fr, dimin of signe, 'seal, stamp' See sign (I) & -et A private seal, used for sealing documents &c with or without signature, the privy signet, the private seal of the sovereign, used by him for personal letters and documents, and for certain bills, writs &c under the sign manual, esp for the authentication of writs issued in Scotland, whence, Writter to the Signet, a Scottish law officer, equivalent to the English solicitor signet-ring, n A finger ring bearing crest, coat of arms &c, used as a seal significance, n [1 signifikans, 2 signifikans] Next word & -ce 1 Quality of being significant, expressiveness a look, voice, words, of great significance 2 That which is signified, meaning, import the real significance of his words was not grasped at the time 3 Importance, weight, consequence a person, matter, of little or no significance significant, adj [1 signifikant, 2 signifikant] fr Lat significans (em), Pres Part of significare See signify, -fic & -ant 1 Having a meaning or significance, expressing, conveying something the t-in Fr. 'a t-on' is not a significant element of speech 2 A Conveying, suggesting, a covert meaning a significant glance, b full of import, not negligible, momentous, likely to have an effect - your success today may be significant for your whole future significantly, adv Proo & -ly In a significant manner (with various shades of meaning) signification, n [1 signifikashun, 2 signifikashun] Fr fr Lat significatō (em) See signify, & -fication 1 Act of signifying, indicating, making known 2 That which is signified, meaning, significance the signification of a word, sentence &c, of an action, look significative, adj [1 signifikativ, 2 signifikativ] fr Fr significatif, (-ive), fr Lat significativus; fr significat (um), PP type of significare See signify & -ive Significant, having significance or signification signify, vb trans & intrans [1 signifi, 2 signifi] fr Fr signifier, fr Lat significare, 'to show by signs, to notify, signify' See sign (I) & -fy A trans 1 To indicate, announce, make known to signify one's satisfaction, approval, one's intentions &c 2 To be a sign or indication of, to imply, portend a red sunset signifies fine weather, few people realized what the event signified 3 To have, express, as a meaning; to mean this notice signifies that we mustn't talk here, what does K G signify? Phr what does it signify?, what does it matter? B intrans To have significance or importance, to matter he doesn't signify, is of no importance, never mind, it doesn't signify signior, n [1 signyör, 2 signjör] Anglicized form of Ital signior or Span señor (archaic) Sir, as form of address of Italian or Spanish gentleman the Grand Signior, the Grand Turk, archaic title of the Sultan of Turkey sign manual, n A signature written by one's own hand, an autograph signature, esp that of a sovereign or official head of a state, affixed, to give validity, to certain State documents before passing the Great or Privy Seal signor, n [1 senyör, 2 signjör] when=Mr, [1 senyör, 2 signjör] when=Sir Ital See senior Title and form of address of an Italian gentleman, equivalent to Sir and Mr signora, n [1 senyōra, 2 signjōra] Ital Title &c of an Italian married lady, equivalent to Madam and Mrs signorina, n [1 senyōrina, 2 signjōrina] Title &c, of an Italian unmarried lady, equivalent to Miss sign-painter, n One who paints inn signs, signboards, inscriptions on shop fronts &c signpost, n [1 signpōst, 2 signpōst] A post bearing a sign, esp one placed at cross roads bearing the names and distances of towns &c on arms pointing in their direction

Sikh, n [1 sik, 2 sik] Hind, 'disciple' Member of a religious community in the Punjab and N-W Provinces of India, founder in the 16th cent, rejecting the polytheism and caste system of Hinduism, with a sacred book, the Granth, and ruled by gurus or teachers, the Sikhs became a military power in the Punjab in the 17th cent

Sikhism, n [1 sikizim, 2 sikizim] Proo & -ism The religious and other tenets of the Sikhs silage, n & vh trans [1 sili, 2 siliidž] silo & -age 1 n Fodder packed green in a silo or pit, ensilage 2 vh To pack fodder in a silo silence (I), n [1 silens, 2 silens] Fr, fr Lat silentium See silent & -co State of being or keeping silent 1 Forbearance from speaking or from making a sound or noise, abstinence of speech or sound, taciturnity silence is golden, they listened in dead silence 2 Absence of sound or noise, stillness, quiet, a the silence of the desert, in the silence of the night, not one moment of silence all day or night, b (fig) the silence of death, of the grave 3 A failure to make known, mention, or communicate the silence of history as to Shal-espeare's life, we cannot understand your long silence, b secrecy, withholding of information to buy a person's silence, c oblivion, absence of mention or knowledge the rest is silence silence (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To cause to be silent, to reduce to silence, to cause (person) to cease speaking or making a noise, to put an end to (sounds or noise) to silence a speaker, a crying child, to silence the roar of machinery, Phr to silence the enemy's guns, cause them to cease firing by putting out of action 2 (fig) To put down, crush, put to shame to silence capricious criticism, popular complaints, malicious traducers &c silencer, n [1 silenser, 2 silenser] Proo & -er That which silences, specif, device for reducing or muffling noise of machinery or firearms silent, adj [1 silent, 2 silenti] Lat silent (em), Pres Part of silere, 'to be still, to keep silence, not to speak of', cogn w. Goth (and) silan, 'to be silent', & w the (rare) OE silne, 'silence' Cp w different form above element, Lat silere, 'to leave, leave off', see desistance 1 a Not actually speaking, preserving silence, holding one's tongue, mum children must be absolutely silent during the sermon, he was silent the whole evening, b given habitually to speaking little, disinclined to speak, taciturn, uncommunicative a strong silent man, c no longer vocal, having ceased to speak 'The trumpet's silver sound is still, The warbler silent on the hill' (Scott, Intro to Canto I of 'Marmion'), that eloquent voice is silent now, Phr silent as the grave, quite silent, silent prayer, not uttered aloud, silent thought, carried on in silence 2 Silent about, concerning, respecting, on he is silent about his past, says nothing about, does not mention, biographers are silent concerning the less creditable episodes in his career, on these things history is silent 3 Quiet, still, not uttering sound, not making, causing, a noise, not heard, a (of living things) the birds are silent on the trees, b (of inanimate things) the engine is very silent and runs quite smoothly, c (popular phon.) not uttered final t is usually silent in French (An absurdity, because if a sound is not uttered it has no existence, if the reference is to the 'letter', it is more absurd, since 'letters' can have no sound) 4 Permeated by silence the silent hills, the streets of cities are never silent silently, adv Prece & -ly In a silent manner, without speaking, noiselessly silent partner, n A sleeping partner Silenus, n [1 silēnus, 2 silēnas] Lat, fr Gk. Seilēda, one of the companions of Dionysus (Bacchus), one of the older Satyrs, depicted as a drunken old man with goat's legs A jovial, rather debauched old fellow, whose appearance suggests that he is fond of good living silesia, n [1 silēha, 2 silēha] Name of Prussian province, where it was made. A thin, twilled cotton or linen cloth, used for linings &c silhouette (I), n [1 silōot, 2 silūt] Fr, so named in mockery of E de Silhouette, a Fr 18th cent finance minister, notorious for his petty economies 1 A portrait in outline or profile, either cut out of black paper and mounted on white ground or drawn in outline and filled in with black paint &c 2 Profile or outline of a person or object, esp as seen against a light or a light background, in silhouette, in outline, as portrait or figure silhouette (II), vb trans, fr prece 1 To depict in silhouette 2 (usually in PP) To project, show up in outline against a background a figure silhouetted against the sky silica, n [1 silika, 2 silika] Neo Lat, fr Lat silicē (em), silicē, 'flint or other hard stone', perh. dissimilated fr *silikē, & cogn. w OHG siliz, siliz, Mod Germ.iesel, 'gravel', OE sil, ciesel, 'gravel', wh survives in Place Names, Ouselehurst, Ousele Beach &c Hard, white mineral, varieties of which are flint and quartz, forming principal constituent of sandstone, feldspar, and other rocks silicate, n [1 silikat, 2 silikt] Prece & -ate (chem.) A salt of silicic acid or compound of silicic acid and a metallic base silicated, adj [1 silikated, 2 silikated] Prece & -ed Impregnated, combined with silica siliceous, silicious, adj [1 silishus, 2 silifae] silica & -ous (chem) Of, pertaining to, containing, silica silicic, adj [1 silisk, 2 silisk] silica & -ic Derived from, pertaining to, silica, esp of compounds of silica or silicon silicic acid siliceiferous, adj [1 siliferus, 2 siliferus] silica & -ferous Containing, producing, combined with, silica silicify, vb trans & intrans [1 silisifi, 2 silisifi] silica & -fy 1 trans To convert into, impregnate with, silica 2 intrans To be converted into, impregnated with, silica, to become silicified silico-, pref, fr silica, used to form compounds indicating the presence of silica or silicon silicon, n [1 silikon, 2 silikm, -on] silica & -on. (chem) A non metallic element, symbol Si, not found in uncombined state, but in silica or various silicates and forming one of the principal constituents of the earth's surface siliqua, n [1 silikwa, 2 silikwa] Lat, 'pod, husk of various leguminous plants', for *siliqua, fr base *sil, 'to split, cleave', whence also O Slav silitsa, 'oyster', see also scale (III) & shalo, more remotely connected is Lat. calz, 'small stone, limestone' See calcareous &c (bot) The long, narrow seed pod of plants belonging to the mustard or cross family silique, n [1 silik, 2 silik] Fr. form of prece Siliqua silk (I), n [1 silk, 2 silk] OE scol, for *siluc, w change fr r to l, cp also O.N silki, fr Lat sericum, 'silk', the fabric associated w the Seres, Gk Sira, 'the Chinese' see sericate, sergo, prob ultimately fr a Chinese word, variously transliterated se, sai, sa, &c, for the substance & fabric 1 a The fine, lustrous, strong filament produced, to form their cocoons, by the caterpillars or so called 'silk worms' of a moth, Bombyx mori, also by other caterpillars, and wound off and spun into fibrous threads, b similar filament produced by spiders for webs &c, c similar lustrous filament or fibre obtained, by chemical processes, from cellulose, artificial silk or rayon 2 a Thread spun from natural or artificial silk, b lustrous fabric, cloth, woven from natural or artificial silk thread 3 A dress, robe, gown made of silk dressed in silk and satins, specif a silk gown worn in Court by King's Counsel, K.C., to distinguish them from Junior Counsel. Phr to take silk, to be called within the bar and become a K.C., b a K.C. to sit among the silks 4 A lustre resembling that of silk, seen in defective gem stones, esp. in rubies and sapphires silk (II), adj, fr prece Made of silk, silken silk cloth, dress, stockings &c silken, adj [1 silken, 2 silken] silk (I) & -en. 1 (archaic or poet) Made of silk arrayed in silken robes 2 Resembling silk, silky, soft, lustrous, gleaming her silken locks 3 (hy transf) Soft, smooth, silky a silken voice, manner silk gland, n One of the two glands in a silkworm which secrete the viscous fluid that hardens in the air and becomes silk silk gown, n Specif the gown or robe of silk, worn by a King's Counsel, as contrasted with the stuff gown of a junior barrister silk hat, n A tall or top hat, with a covering of silk plush stretched over a stiff calico framework silkeness, n [1 siliknes, 2 siliknes] silky & -ness Quality, state, of being silky silkworm, n [1 silkworm, 2 silkworm] The silk producing larva or caterpillar of various Eastern moths, genus Bombyx esp of Bombyx mori, domesticated since ancient times in China and now in Europe and elsewhere, the caterpillar feeds on mulberry leaves silky, adj [1 silki, 2 silki] silk (I) & -y Like silk, resembling silk in texture and appearance, glossy, lustrous, fine, soft, smooth to the touch, a (of hair, fur &c) a horse's silky coat, b (of taste) smooth, soft to the palate a silky wine; c (of voice or manner) enavo, smooth, and soft, caressing, (usually in depreciatory sense) oily sil, n [1 sil, 2 sil] OE syl, 'foundation beam or plank, base, support', fr *sily, ME sille, ON syl, sil, cp Goth (gal)-sulan, 'to lay a foundation for', cp w different grade OHG sil, Mod Germ säule, 'pillar, column', cp Goth saul, 'pillar', perh cogn w OHG swelli, 'threshold', related to Lat solum, 'ground earth, base', for *swalam, see soil (I), further connected w Gk sulon, 'piece of wood, timber', see xyl(o)- & silē, 'a wood', also piece of wood 1 The horizontal block, shelf, or slab of stone or wood at the foot of a window or door 2 In various technical uses a the floor of a seam of coal, b the timber across the bottom of the entrance to a lock on a canal or river against which the gates close, c a sheet of igneous rock intruded between the strata of older rocks silabub, syllabub, n [1 silabub, 2 silabab] Etymol doubtful, earlier form siliboul, where second element is obs or diol boul, OE buc, 'belly', cp bulk, the first element being silly, in sense of 'bappy, merry', Skeat cites a Dorsetshire variant merriboul for the dish A mixture of cream, or of milk fresh from the cow, with wine and sugar siller, n [1 silir, 2 silir] Scots variant of silver Silver, money Sillery, n [1 sileri, 2 silori] Name of village near Rheims, France A sparkling or still brand of champagne sillyly, adv [1 silili, 2 silili] silly & -ly In a silly manner silliness, n [1 sillines, 2 sillines] See next word & -ness Quality of being silly, a silly act, word &c silly (I), adj [1 silu, 2 silu] OE silu, 'fortunate, happy', ME silly, fr OE sil, 'time, occasion, good fortune, happiness', OS silig, 'happy, good, blessed', OHG silih, Mod Germ silig, 'blessed', ON sil, Goth sila, 'good, kind', ultimate origin obscure 1 (archaic or obs senses) Blessed, innocent, simple weak 2 A lacking wisdom and experience, foolish, frivolous, trivial, stupid a silly girl, child, b arising from, expressing, folly and frivolity a silly book, joke, a silly laugh Phr silly season, (obs) holiday, summer, season, when newspapers are short of news and publish correspondence &c on trivial matters 3 Imprudent, injudicious it was silly (a silly thing to do) to offend your best friend, you were very silly to trust him 4 Weak minded, imbecile, senile he is getting quite silly in his old age 5 Specif (cricket, of fieldsmen) placed close to the wicket so as to entrap an unwary batsman silly point &c silly (II), n, fr prece (colloq) A silly, foolish, credulous, imprudent person you are a silly silo (I), n [1 silo, 2 silou] Span, fr Lat silus, fr Gk silos, silos, 'pit for storing grain', etymol unknown A pit, trench, or building from which air is excluded, used for storing and preserving fodder in a green compressed state silo (II), vb trans, fr prece To store, preserve (fodder) in a silo silt (I), n [1 silt, 2 silt] ME silte, etymol doubtful, prob of Scand origin, cp M Swed sylta, 'mud, marsh', Dan sylt, 'silt marsh', Norw sylta, 'coast-land washed by the sea', cogn w LG silte, 'brine pit', Germ silze, 'brine pit, linn', in this case the word is cogn w salt On the other hand, an orig connexion might be suggested between the Gmc *sulta & Gk silē, 'mud, sediment', cp also Gk silizem, 'to filter, clarify', & silodēs, 'muddy, full of sediment', fr a base *sil Mind, fine earth or sand deposited as sediment by water, as at the mouth or in the bed of a river, nt entrance to an estuary, harbour &c silt (II), vb trans & intrans fr prece 1 trans (usually silt up) To choke, fill up, block, with silt 2 intrans a Silt up, to become choked or blocked with silt, b silt through, to percolate, ooze through

Silurian adj [1 silūrian, 2 silūrian], fr Lat Silures & -ian 1 The name of an ancient British people or tribe living in Glamorgan, Monmouth, and Brecon 2 (geol) A Palaeozoic rock series and geological period above or following the Ordovician, and below or preceding the Devonian silvan, sylvan, adj [1 silvan, 2 silvan], fr Lat silvanus, fr silva, less correctly sylva, 'wood, forest', etymol obscure (poet) rural silvan glades, scenes &c silver (I), n [1 silvor, 2 silva] OE seofor, OS silubar, OHG silabar, silbar, ON silfr, Goth silubr, cp Russ serebro, origin doubtful 1 An element and one of the 'destruction, death', & in keratzen, 'to lay waste, destroy'. Being what one appears to be, being in reality the same as in appearance or profession, a (of persons, character &c) honest, true, genuine, frank, straightforward, loyal, really meaning what one says or does a sincere friend, he was quite sincere in his professions of loyalty, b (of actions &c) free from deceit or pretence, real, genuine, not assumed o sincere devotion, is his grief sincere?

sincerely, adv Preo & -ly In a sincere manner, genuinely, earnestly, with sincerity, truthfully I am sincerely grateful, I sincerely hope you are right Phr yours sincerely, formula in terminating a letter, less formal than yours truly or faithfully &c sincereness, n See preo & -ness State, condition, of being sincere, sincerity sincerity, n [1 sinsērīti, 2 sinsērītī], fr Fr sinceritas, fr Lat sinceritas (-em) See sincere & -ity Quality of being sincere, honesty, genuineness of character, purpose, motive &c, freedom from pretence, deceit, or dissimulation to doubt a person's sincerity, the sincerity of one's grief, professions &c sinciput, n [1 sinsiput, 2 sinsipat] Lat, 'half the head, one of the smoked cheeks of a pig', the first element is either sēmi, 'half', see sēmi-, or, as Walde suggests, possibly for (s)uino-, 'pig', see swine, the second element is caput, 'head', see capital & op occiput (anat) The forehead, the upper half of the skull sine, n [1 sin, 2 sain], fr Lat sinus, 'fold of garment, bosom, curve, bay, gulf', see sinus, in L Lat used to translate Arab jiba, 'ohord of an arc, sine', also written yab & confused w word meaning 'fold of garment' (math, abbr sin) a Perpendicular or its length drawn from one extremity of an arc to diameter drawn through the other extremity, b ratio of this perpendicular to the radius of the circle sine-eater, n One who professed, according to an old custom, to take upon himself the sins of a dead person by eating bread laid on the bier, for a money payment sinecure, n [1 sinekūr, sinekūr, 2 sainikjū, sainikjū], fr Lat sine cura, 'without a cure (of souls)', Lat sine, 'without', see sine die, & cura, 'care', see cure (I) 1 An ecclesiastical benefice without a cure of souls 2 Any office or position with emoluments or rank, but with few or no duties attached to it Phr hardly a, not a, no, sinecure, a very busy job sinecurism, n [1 sinekūrizm, 2 sainikjūrizm] Preo & -ism Conditions under which sinecures are prevalent, principle of taking emoluments without work or performance of any duty sinecurist, n [1 sinekūrīst, 2 sainikjūrist] See preo & -ist One who holds a sinecure sine die, adv [1 sin, sin, dīs, 2 sain, sain, daī] Lat, 'without a day', sine, 'without', & abl of die, 'day', see die non sine is cogn. w Sort sanctus, 'without', Gk ater, 'without', O E sunder, 'in two', see asunder & sunder Without a day or date fixed to adjourn business sine die, to postpone it indefinitely sine prole, adv [1 sin prōlē, 2 sain prōlū] Lat, abl sing of proles, 'offspring, descendant' See under proletariat(s) Without issue, leaving no children sine qua non, n [1 sin kwa non, 2 sain kwa nōn] Lat, ut 'without which not' An indispensable condition, a necessity sinew, n [1 sinū, 2 sinjū] O E seonu, sinu, M E seoneu, sinewe, Du zenue, O N sinar, pl., O H G senawa, Mod Germ sehne, possibly cogn. w Sort senaw(s), 'tendon' 1 A tendon, fibrous tissue, connecting muscle and bone 2 (pl) Muscles, muscular power, strength, brawn a man of mighty sinews Phr the sinews of war, money and material resources sinewed, adj [1. sinūd, 2 sinjūd] (poet)

Having sinews of specified kind iron-sinewed sinewiness, n [1 sinūnes, 2 sinjūnes] sinewy & -ness State, quality, of being sinewy sinewless, adj [1 sinūles, 2 sinjūles] sinew & -less Without, deprived, devoid of, sinew or sinews, without strength, flabby, weak sinewy, adj [1 sinūi, 2 sinjūi] sinew & -y 1 Containing sinew or sinews, having many sinews, stringy a sinewy piece of beef 2 a Muscular, physically strong and vigorous sinewy arms, a strong, sinewy frame, b (fig of style) well knit, terse, not diffuse sinfonia, n [1 sinfōnia, 2 sinfounia] Ital A symphony sinful, adj [1 sinful, 2 sinful] O E synfull ein (I) & -ful 1 (of persons) Full, guilty, of sin, wicked poor, sinful mortals 2 (of actions &c) Tainted with, characterized by, of the nature of, sin a sinful act, thought &c sinfully, adv Preo & -ly In a sinful manner sinfulness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being sinful sing, vb intrans & trans [1 sing, 2 sinj] O E sangan, O S & O H G angon, 'to sing, to orow', O N syngga, Goth siggan, 'to sing, to read out' = singuan, cogn w Gk omphē, 'voice, oracle, report', fr sagghwā*, orig meaning of vb is 'to use the voice' See eing & eong A intrans 1 To use the voice so as to produce musical sounds and modulations, so as to render an air or tune, also simply, to utter musical notes to learn, be taught, to sing, to sing in tune, to sing at a concert Phrs to sing for one's supper, to contribute something to one's entertainment, to pay in some way for what one gets, to sing in the choir, form one of the choir at a particular church, to sing small, to behave modestly and humbly, refrain from arrogance as though conscious of error and fearing a rebuff 2 (of birds &c) To utter their natural cries, to pipe, twitter &c 3 (fig) To rejoice, show signs of exultation 'When the morning stars sang together' (Job), her heart sang for joy 4 To be capable of, be adapted for, being sung, these words don't sing very well 5 To make a humming, buzzing noise or shrill sound the wind sings through the trees, a littie singing on the fire, the mosquitoes sing round one's head, to make one's head sing, produce sensation of humming &c by a blow 6 (poet) a To write, compose, poetry, to be a poet 'I do but sing because I must' (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam'), b sing of, to celebrate, tell of, something in verse poets shall sing of their glory 7 Sing out (chiefly colloq), to shout, call out loudly sing out if you want anything B trans 1 a (of persons) To utter (words) with musical inflections and modulations of the voice sing us one of the old songs, let us now sing 'God save the King', sing the part of Tristan, Phr to sing another tune, song, to change one's tone, take another line, esp to be less exultant or arrogant, b (of birds &c) to utter with their natural cries the birds sang their merry notes 2 To intone, chant the psalms may be said or sung, to sing Mass 3 (poet) To tell of, celebrate, in verse 'Arms and the man I sing' (Dryden, transl of Virgil's 'Aeneid'), 'I celebrate myself, I sing myself' (Whitman) Phr to sing a person's praises, to praise enthusiastically or canonically 4 (reflex) To go naturally into a song, to be perfectly adapted for singing Moore's lyrics sing themselves 5 To attend, accompany, with songs and singing to sing the harvest home, sing a bride to her new house, sing the Old Year out, New Year in 6 To bring to a certain state by singing to sing a child to sleep Phr the song has been sung to death, sung so often that one is tired and sick of it singable, adj [1 singabl, 2 sinjabl] Preo & -able Adapted, suitable, for singing, easy to sing singe(I), vb trans & intrans [1 sinj, 2 sindj] O E sengan, 'to singe, scorch', M E sengen, fr sang jan*, a gradational form of sing*, see eing, orig sense 'to cause to sing, hiss' &c, in reference to the sound made in the process of scorching &c, for change of eng to ing, op wing, & the pronunciation of England &c A trans 1 a To burn, scorch lightly and superficially the hot iron has slightly singed the cloth, a moth gets singed in a candle, Phr to singe one's wings, (i) to injure one's reputation, (u) to suffer loss, by some action or enterprise, b to remove feathers, fluff, bristles &c from, by singeing or scorching to singe a fowl, pig &c 2 Speaf, to singe hair, to burn the ends slightly after cutting B intrans To become singed or scorched I can smell something singeing singe(II), n, fr preo A superficial burn or scorch, mark of this singer, n [1 singer, 2 sinj] sing & -er 1 A One who sings, esp one who sings in public as a profession, b a person who can sing I fear I'm not a singer 2 A poet

Singh, n [1 sinj, 2 sinj] Hind, fr Sort amha, 'lion' Patronymic or title borne by Sikhs after imitation into the community Singhalese, adj & n [1 singgalē, 2 sinjgalē], also spelt Sinhalese Sort amha, 'Ceylon' 1 adj a Pertaining to, coming from, Ceylon, b pertaining to, uttered, written in the language of Ceylon 2 n a A native of Ceylon, b the language of Ceylon singing, n [1 sinjng, 2 sinjng] sing & -ing a Act of, sound made by, one who sings b Art of the singer singing-bird, n A song bird singingly, adv [1 sinjngl, 2 sinjngl] fr

Preo Part of sing & -ly In a singing manner, with a sound as if singing or sung singing-man, n A man employed in a choir to sing the services, choir man singing-master, n A teacher of singing singing-voice, n Voice as used in, or trained for, singing single(I), adj [1 singgl, 2 sinjgl] M E & O Fr sengle, fr L Lat singulus (Class Lat only in pl singuli), 'one to each, one apiece, single, separate, individual', fr sem*, 'one', as in Lat semel, 'once', simplex, 'onfold', see simple, & go- & lo, elements found also in Goth am ah lē, 'single' 1 A one only 'And beauty drowns us with a single hair' (Pope, 'Rape of Lock', ll. 28), b as emphatic, preceded by negative: not a single thing of value, not even one, also hardly a single man to be seen, hardly any at all, hardly one even 2 Not double or compound, not more than one, consisting of one thing or part only a single valve, singls ply, a single burner &c 3 (various specialized uses) a Designed for use for one person only, suitable for one person a single bed, single room, b performed by one person on either side challenged to single combat, a single game at tennis, single court, court for such game, o done, performed, once only to keep accounts, books, by single entry, i o entered under one account only, d levied on one species of property single tax, on land value only, e to be used for one journey only a single ticket, as railway, contrasted with return, also a single, as navv 4 Alone, solitary, special, unmarried are you married or single?, a single man, woman, a single life, to live and die single Phrs single blessedness, the unmarried state, to remain single, not to marry 5 United, shared in common with others, devoted to one thing only the party worked with a single purpose, for a single object, the nation speaks with a single voice 6 Not animated by unworthy motives, untainted by self interest, simple, ingenuous, sincere a single eye, heart, mind single(II), n, fr preo (in various games) a (cricket) A hit for which one run is scored, b (lawn tennis) a game between only two players single (III), vb trans, fr prec Single out, a to choose, pick out, select, from among several, for some purpose, or as possessing some quality to single out the biggest apples for dumpings, he was singled out to succeed his uncle, b to indicate as most suitable for a particular purpose, cause to appear superior to others his abilities soon singled him out for promotion single-breasted, adj [1 singl brésted, 2 singl hrésted] (of coat, waistcoat) blade to button on one side only, having only a single row of buttons and buttonholes single entry, n. Simple method of book keeping in which transactions are entered under one account only in the ledger, contrasted with double entry single-eyed, adj 1 Having only one eye, one eyed. 2 Devoted exclusively to a single purpose, honest, sincere single-handed, adj & adv 1 adj a Having only one hand, b unassisted, with no help from others, o done, performed, with one pair of hands, by one person, without assistance from others 2 adv Without assistance, unaidedly, alone did the job single handed single-hearted, adj Having an honest, simple character, faithfully devoted to one purpose or cause, sincere, single minded.

single-minded, adj single hearted.

singleness, n. [1 singlness, 2 singlness] single (I) & -ness State, quality, of being single, esp of being single in heart or mind singleness of purpose single phase, adj (elect) Having an alternating current of one phase singletstick, n. [1 singlstick, 2 singlstick] Prob fr the cudgel wielded by one hand, as contrasted w the quarter staff, with two 1 A stick about the length of a sword, provided with basket hilt, used in a rough kind of fencing 2 The use of the singletstick.

singlet, n. [1 singlet, 2 singlet] single (I) & -et, as contrasted w doublet (shop term) Garment worn under a shirt, a vest singleton, n. [1 singlton, 2 singlton] single (I) & -ton, cp simpleton. A single card of any suit occurring in a hand at whist singly, adv [1 singlly, 2 singlly] single (I) & -ly 1 Individually, separately, one at a time, one by one deal with the questions singly 2 Alone, without associate, quite &c to live singly 3 By oneself, alone, unassisted, single handed he attacked the enemy singly sing-song, n., adj, & vb [1 sing song, 2 sing song], fr sing & song 1 n. A droning, monotonous, expressionless utterance, or delivery, a speech, reading, utterance, rising and falling in tone with monotonous regularity, undiversified by expressive modulation many churches are emptied by the dreary sing-song of the clergy, b an informal impromptu concert, in which members of the audience are the performers 2 adj Uttered, delivered, in a sing song, hence, also, lacking freshness of ideas, dull, commonplace 3 vb To speak in a sing song singular (I), adj [1 singgular, 2 singgular] Lat singularis, 'alone, one at a time, solitary, of the singular number, unique, unparalleled' See single (I) & -ar 1 Of, relating to, a single person or thing, a (gram.) contrasted with plural or dual in the singular number, first person singular, b (law) each, separate, individual, not taken together all and singular interests, parcels &c, o (log) considered by itself, individual, referring to a single thing not general a singular term, proposition &c 2 (rare) Alone of its kind, unexampled, unique a specimen singular of its kind 3 A rare, unusual, uncommon, strange, remarkable, extraordinary a most singular phenomenon, a singular coincidence, they all agreed with singular unanimity, b above the usual or common standard, of high degree eminent a man of singular ability, c not in accord with general customs, eccentric, unconventional, peculiar, odd he has rather singular habits, dressed in singular fashion singular (II), n., fr prec The singular number, word not in the plural in the singular, give the singular of mice.

singularity, n. [1 singgularity, 2 singgularity], fr fr singularité, fr Lat. singularitas (em) singular (I) & -ity Quality, state, of being singular, esp of being rare, peculiar, unusualness, strangeness, or eccentricity the singularity of such an occurrence, singularity in dress, manner &c. singularization, n. [1 singgularizashun, 2 singgularizashun] singularize & -ation. Act, process of singularizing singularize, vb trans [1 singgulariz, 2 singgulariz] singular (I) & -ize To make singular, to turn into a supposed singular form the word pea has been singularized from pease

Sinhalese See Singhalose

sinister, adj [1 sinistur, 2 sinistur] Lat 'on the left hand or side, awkward, wrong, perverse, improper, lucky, favourable' (because the Romans faced south when taking auspices, so that the left side was to the East, or fortunate quarter), also, according to Gk custom, 'unlucky, inauspicious', the first element is prob cogn w Scrt adnyan, 'more profitable, more advantageous', cp also Scrt sandi, 'he gains, acquires', further, Gk. (hianucan, 'to accomplish, complete', the second element is comparable to that in Lat dexter, 'right', see dexter, & in OE winestre, 'left hand', O H G winstru &c, & is ultimately a compar suff, 1 a (archaic) On the left (hand) side, b (her) on the right side of the shield as seen from the front, that is as depicted, but on the left of the supposed bearer who stands behind, for band (bar) sinister see under bend (II) 2 A Evil, inauspicious, portending or suggesting coming disaster a sinister beginning to an enterprise, sinister symptoms, b forbidding, malignant, malevolent, conveying an impression of evil a sinister countenance, expression, glance, o mysteriously, covertly, evil, conveying a sense of lurking wickedness, treachery, or danger a sinister design, plot, a sinister character, reputation &c sinisterly, adv Prec & -ly In a sinister manner sinistral, adj [1 sinistral, 2 sinistral] sinister & -al (zool, of shells) Having the whorls turning leftwards sinistrally, adv Prec & -ly Towards the left hand sinistro-, pref Form of sinister used in compounds pertaining to, towards, the left hand sinistrorse, adj [1 sinistors, 2 sinistors] Lat sinistrorsus, fr sinistrorsus*, 'turned towards the left'. See prec & versus (bot) Twisting spirally from right to left, of climbing plants as the hop, contrasted with dextrorse

sinistrorsus, adj [1 sinistrus, 2 sinistrus] sinister & -ous Sinistral sink (I), vb intrans & trans [1 sunk, 2 sink] OE sincan, only intrans, the old trans sencan* is lost, ME sinken, OS sincan, O H G sincan, Goth siggwan for simg-* (g)-lwan, cogn w Lith. sekti, senkti, 'to drain away' See also siccative A intrans 1 To fall gradually or slowly downwards, descend, as by weight or gravity heavy clouds began to sink lower and lower, a to appear to the sight as descending or disappearing the sun sinks in the west, below a cloud, beneath the horizon, the land sank slowly as the ship sailed away, b to be or become submerged in a liquid or semi-liquid, to disappear beneath the surface of water the ship sank with all her crew, swimmer sank like a stone, to sink up to one's knees in mud in a quicksand, Phr sink or swim, of a desperate chance, in which there is no choice but to succeed or fail absolutely 2 (of liquids) To subside, fall gradually to a lower level, to diminish, shrink in quantity the floods are sinking rapidly, the lake has sunk much below its level 3 (of ground, buildings &c) a To slope, fall away gradually to a lower level the land sinks at this point towards sea-level b to subside, fall in, give way the road suddenly sank in, ground sank under my feet, the building has sunk slightly at one corner 4 To diminish in degree, intensity &c, a (of voice, sound &c) to fall to a lower pitch, to become less in volume, to become less loud his voice sank to a whisper, b (of volub, prices) to become lower, to diminish, lose former price the shares have sunk to nothing, c (of numbers &c) to grow less, diminish have figures of unemployment sunk since last year, d to become less in force, violence, to abate, die down the storm, wind, is beginning to sink 5 a To fall, slide, allow oneself to fall down gradually from an upright position to sink into a chair, they sank into each other's arms, to sink exhausted on the ground, to sink back on to the pillows, Phr to sink into the grave, to die, b (of part of the body) to droop forward or down, to drop his head sank on his breast, he let his arms sink from weariness, Phr my heart sank, I lost all hope, spirits, buoyancy, I was in despair, c (of eye, look &c) to droop, be cast down, to turn downwards his eyes sank before that stern glance 6 To become, or appear, hollow, shrunken, or deeply withdrawn his eyes seemed to sink into his head 7 To pass into a mental or bodily condition of reduced vitality, robustness, vigour, activity to sink into a consumption, into a faint, a deep sleep, specific In Phr he is sinking (fast) &c, is dying 8 To decline from a higher, better position, condition, mode of life &c into a lower and worse one to sink into poverty, degradation, vicious habits &c, to sink to the lowest depths of humiliation, baseness &c, to sink in another's estimation, be less esteemed by 9 To percolate, penetrate, enter gradually into, to be absorbed by, to become impressed on, a (in physical sense) dye sinks into the fabric, water will sink through sand but not clay, also, b (of intellectual process) let the lesson sink into your mind, his early privations have sunk deeply into his memory B trans 1 To cause, allow to sink, to submerge, send below the surface of water the battleship was sunk by gunfire, the submarine sank two vessels on her first voyage, the captain sank his ship by opening the coals 2 To lower below the surface of the ground, to fix firmly and deeply into to sink a post ten feet into the ground 3 To let fall into a lower position to sink one's head on one's arms, to sink one's eyes, to cast them down 4 To excavate from above downwards, to make, construct, by digging or boring to sink a well, shaft, mine 5 To cause to subside, reduce volume of, drain away a week of fine weather will soon sink the floods, a leakage has sunk the water in the well 6 To lower the pitch, reduce volume of to sink one's voice 7 a To reduce, extinguish, by annual payments or by a sinking fund, q v to sink a (national) debt, b to invest (money) in some business, undertaking &c from which it may prove difficult to withdraw it, to lose, waste (money) in a speculative investment he sank all his capital in house-building 8 To conceal from sight or notice, to keep withdrawn or concealed, to suppress, ignore to sink one's identity, he generously chose to sink his personal interests, let us sink our differences, enmities &c 9 In technical senses a (mining &c) to engrave to sink a die, b (naut) to cause to disappear from view by moving away to sink the land, o (print) to set lower than the top of a page or line sink (II), n., fr prec 1 A shallow, rectangular trough or basin of stone, porcelain, lead &c with a drainage outlet, placed beneath a water tap or taps in a scullery, pantry &c, for washing up dishes &c, getting rid of dirty water &c 2 A place in which filth, drainage &c is collected, a cesspool, (usually only fig) a sink of iniquity, the slum as a sink for all the dregs of humanity 3 Any place, such as a marsh, hole in rock &c., through which water drains or percolates away and disappears 4 A trap or opening in the stage of a theatre, through which scenery is raised or lowered sinkable, adj [1 sɪŋkəbəl, 2 sɪŋkəbəl] sink (I) & -able Capable of being sunk, liable to sink sinker, n [1 sɪŋkər, 2 sɪŋkər] sink (I) & -er 1 One who sinks, esp one who sinks or engraves dies a die-sinker 2 That which sinks something, esp a leaden weight on a fishing net or line, or sounding line sinking, n [1 sɪŋkɪŋ, 2 sɪŋkɪŋ] sink (I) & -ing Specif, an internal sensation of collapse, as from weakness, hunger, fear &c. a sinking in the stomach, at the heart sinking fund, n A fund formed by setting apart yearly certain sums of money out of revenue for the sinking or paying off of a national debt, a municipal loan or a company's debentures &c sinless, adj [1 sɪnles, 2 sɪnles] sin (I) & -less Free from sin, innocent sinlessly, adv Preo & -ly In a sinless manner, without sin sinlessness, n See preo & -ness Quality, condition, of being sinless sinner, n [1 sɪnər, 2 sɪnər] sin (II) & -er 1 One who sins, one who has transgressed the law of God or refuses to obey His will 2 One guilty of a breach of social conventions, of regulations, or unwritten laws of any kind, an offender against these occupants of the stalls are the worst sinners in disturbing a performance by their late arrival

Sinn Féin, n [1 sɪn fɛɪn, 2 sɪn fɛɪn] Ir, lit 'we ourselves' An Irish political social and economic movement, aiming at complete independence from Great Britain sin offering, n sin (I) & offering An offering, sacrifice, in expiation of sin sinologist, n [1 sɪnɒləjɪst, 2 sɪnɒlədʒɪst] See sinology & -ist Student of, specialist in, sinology sinologue, n [1 sɪnɒləg, -ɒg, 2 sɪnɒləg, -ɒg] Fr See next word Sinologist sinology, n [1 sɪnɒlədʒi, 2 sɪnɒlədʒi], fr Lat Sinæ, fr Gk Sinai, 'the Chinese people', & -logy Study of Chinese language, history, literature, art &c sinter, n [1 sɪntər, 2 sɪntər], fr Mod Germ, 'dross', fr Lat See under cinder A siliceous or calcareous deposit from mineral springs sinuate, adj [1 sɪnjuət, 2 sɪnjuet], fr Lat sinuāt (um), P P type of sinuare, 'to wind, bend', see sinus Winding in and out, sinuous, specif (bot) having a wavy edge, of leaves with regular and strongly marked indentations sinuosity, n [1 sɪnjuəstɪ, 2 sɪnjuəstɪ] sinuous & -ity A state of being sinuous, b a bend, or winding, as in a river, road &c sinuous, adj [1 sɪnjuəs, 2 sɪnjuəs] fr Lat sinuōsus, see sinus Bending, winding, snaky, serpentine, undulating sinuously, adv Preo & -ly In a sinuous manner sinus, n [1 sɪnəs, 2 sɪnəs], Lat sinus, 'a curve, hollow, fold, esp of a garment across the breast, hence bosom, a gulf, bay' Prob cogn w Lat sinum, 'round drinking-vessel with swelling sides', & stula, 'a bucket', fr base swet*, swit*; further etymol uncertain 1 (zool and anat) A cavity, esp in substance of a bone, or soft tissue 2 (pathol) A cavity in which pus forms, a fistula 3 (bot) Depression, curve, between the lobes of a leaf

Siouxan, adj [1 sɪʊən, 2 sɪən] Sioux & -an Pertaining to the language spoken by tribes of N American Indians of the same stock as the Sioux

Sioux, n & adj [1 sɪʊ, 2 sɪ] Fr, form of native name 1 n A One of the chief tribes or families of N American Indians, b a member of this-tribe or family, o its language 2 adj Of, pertaining to, the Sioux or their language sip (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sɪp, 2 sɪp] O E sȳpan, 'to absorb moisture', op also O E sȳpan, 'to absorb, to drink', OHG sȳfan, Mod Germ saufen, 'to drink deep', op sup (I) 1 trans To drink in repeated and very small quantities, to drink drop by drop, or a very little at a time, specif, to drink wine in this way, so as to taste each mouthful thoroughly he sat sipping his wine for hours 2 intrans To drink a small quantity of liquid at a time, to take a sip sip (II), n, fr preo a A very small mouthful of any liquid, b act of sipping sipahae, n Ohs form of sepooy siphon (I), n [1 sɪfən, 2 sɪfən] Fr, fr Lat siphōn (em), fr Gk siphōn, 'a small pipe or tube', perh fr tuihōn*, & cogn w Lat siba, 'shin-bone, pipe' See tibia

1 A tube with one short end bent downwards, by means of which, if the bent end is placed in a vessel of liquid, and the longer end allowed to hang downwards outside the vessel, the liquid is made to drain away down the outside pipes of pipe by atmospheric pressure, provided that the lower extremity be lower than the bottom of the vessel 2 Glass bottle containing aerated water, fitted with an internal glass tube, and an external lever which opens a valve and allows the water to flow out from this pressure of the gas within 3 (zool) Any of various kinds of tubular organs, as in molluscs, insects &c, used for drawing in and ejecting water or air, sucking &c siphon (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo a trans Siphon out, to draw off (water &c) by means of a siphon, b intrans, to be drawn from higher to lower level through the action of a siphon siphonet, n [1 sɪfənɪt, 2 sɪfənɪt] siphon & -et One of the siphon tubes of the green-fly or of similar insects siphuncle, n [1 sɪfʊŋkl, 2 sɪfʊŋkl], fr Lat siphunculus, dimin See siphon 1 The tube connecting the inner chamber of the shell of some cephalopods 2 Sucking tube of insects, siphonot sippet, n [1 sɪpɪt, 2 sɪpɪt] sip & -et, op sop a A small piece of bread, toast, biscuit &c, dipped in soup, milk, or other liquid and eaten, a sop, b small triangular piece of toast, or fried bread, used for garnishing a dish of mince &c sir (I), n [1 sɪr, 2 sɪ] In M E, form of sire, occurring orig in unstressed position in the sentence 1 As form of address a (obs) as polite form in addressing a friend or equal, b polite form of address for a stranger, c expressing respect to a superior, servant to master, pupil to teacher, officer to his colonel, and to any superior officer when on parade &c, d official form used in addressing the Speaker, in House of Commons, either directly or in course of debate, e in writing formally on business or to a stranger, as Dear Sir, or Sir, gentlemen is now used for the plural rather than sirs 2 As title of knights and baronets, in written communications, prefixed to the Christian name, followed by surname Sir John Jones, in speaking, to Christian name alone Sir John, and in writing, Dear Sir John, or more formally, Dear Sir John Jones, in addressing letters to baronets Sir X Y, Bart, to knights or baronets, Sir follows another title, e.g. The Hon Sir X Y, The Rev Sir X Y, Bart, General, Colonel &c, Sir X Y 3 (obs and hist) Translating Latin dominus, as titular prefix to the name of a priest, equivalent to modern Reverend, as Sir Hugh Evans, in Shakespeare, 'Merry Wives' (Sir is always unstressed when it precedes a name, and the latter is strongly stressed, as [sɪ dʒɪn]), when a second name follows, this has chief stress, first name having secondary stress, [sɪ dʒɪn dʒɒnz]) sir (II), vb trans, fr preo To address as sir don't sir me quite so much sirkar, sirkar, n [1 sɪrkər, 2 sɪkə], fr Hind & Pers sarkār, 'chief', fr Pers sar, 'head', & kār, 'work'. a (as title) Master, lord, b the supreme government of India sirdar, n [1 sɪrdər, 2 sɪdər] Hind & Pers sardār, 'commander', fr Pers sar, 'head', & dār, 'possessing, holding', A military commander, specif, the British Commander-in-chief of the Egyptian army sire (I), n [1 sɪr, 2 sɪr] Fr, variant of seur, earliest O Fr form senre, fr Lat senior, 'older' See senior & op sir (I) 1 As form of address, to a monarch, equivalent of 'Your Majesty' 2 (post or rhet) Father or other male ancestor buried with his sires 3 a Male parent of horse or bullock, also of a dog, specif b a stallion sire (II), vb trans, fr preo (of stallions &c) To beget, be the sire of siren, n [1 sɪrən, 2 sɪərən] Lat siren, fr Gk pl seirēn (es), etymol doubtful 1 (class mythol) One of two or three sea nymphs, half-woman, half-bird, who with their song lured mariners to destruction on the rocks where they dwelt 2 (fig) a An alluring, dangerous woman, a fascinating temptress, female seducer, b a woman with a charming voice, c mermaid. 3 A hooter or whistle, operated by steam or air driven through a revolving perforated disk, giving various sounds 4 (zool) a An eel-like batrachian, with small forelegs and no hindlegs, having gills and lungs, found in swamps in U.S.A. 5 (astr) Of, pertaining to, the siren, fascinating, alluring siren song, voice sirenian, adj & n [1 sɪrɪniən, 2 sɪrɪniən] Mod Lat sirenia & -an, see siren, so called fr their resemblance to a mermaid (zool) 1 adj Of, belonging to, the order Sirenia, of marine mammals, the sea cows, the manatees and dugong 2 n. A sirenian mammal sirgang, n [1 sɪrgaŋ, 2 sɪgəŋ] Native name A bright green or blue East Indian or Asiatic bird, allied to the jaokdaw, with long tail and red bill and feet siriasis, n [1 sɪrɪəsɪs, 2 sɪrɪəsɪs], fr Gk seiridias, fr seirios, 'hot, scorching', op Sort tveðam, 'to be strongly agitated, to sparkle, burn', & Lith tvisketi, 'to waver (of a flame), to shine' a Sunstroke, b a sun-bath

Sirius, n [1 sɪrɪəs, 2 sɪrɪs] Lat, fr Gk Seirios See preo The dog star sirlon, n [1 sɪrlɒn, 2 sɪrlɒn] Variant spelling of sirlon, fr O Fr surlonge, 'upper part of the loin' See sur- & loin Upper part of a loin of beef, with meat above and below the bone sirocco, n [1 sɪrɒkɒ, 2 sɪrɒkɒ] Ital s(c)irocco, fr Arab shorq, fr sharg, 'the East, rising of the sun', fr sharga, 'to rise' A hot wind blowing from the Libyan deserts, experienced on the northern coasts of Mediterranean, dry or moist according to the season sirrah, n [1 sɪrə, 2 sɪrə], fr Provençal sra, fr Fr sire, see sire & sir (obs) Sir, fellow, used contemptuously in speaking to an inferior sirup, n See Syrup

sirvente, n [1 sɪrvənt, 2 sɪvənt] Fr, fr Provençal, Pres Part of Lat servire, see serve A medieval Provençal form of lay, often satirical sisal grass, hemp, n [1 sɪsəl græs, hɛmp, 2 sɪsəl græs, hɛmp], fr Sisal, seaport in Yucatan. A strong fibre, used for making rope and cords, obtained from the American agave, henequen siskin, n [1 sɪskɪn, 2 sɪskɪn], fr M Du cysken, cysken, fr LG ziesle, fr Pol cyszi, dimin of cysz, name of the bird. A species of finch, of Asia and Europe, of olive green plumage with black and yellow markings, often kept as a caged song bird.

sisoo, n [1 sisoo, 2 sisoo] Hind sīd East sit, vb intrans & trans [1 sit, 2 sit] OE sittan, ME sitten, OS sittian, OHG. sizzan, Mod Garm sitzen, ON sitja, Goth sitan, all fr Gmo sēd-jan*, fr base sed jō*, cp Gk hedzomas, Lat sedere. See further under sedentary, op seat, set (I), settle. A intrans 1 a (of men) To assume, be in, a position in which the thighs are more or less at right angles to the trunk, while the body itself is upright, with its weight resting upon, and supported by, some object serving as a seat, contrasted with both to stand and to lie, Phrs to sit on the throne, reign, be king, to sit on the fence, hesitate to commit oneself by taking a definite side, adopting an opinion, embarking on a line of action, to sit tight, (colloq) (i) to seat oneself firmly in the saddle, (ii) to adhere firmly to one's opinions, purpose &c, and refuse to be shaken, b (of quadrupeds) to rest the weight of the body on the haunches and hocks, with the hind legs stretched out in front and the front legs kept upright, c (of birds, loosely used) to rest, perch, on anything, the weight of the body being sometimes partly supported by the object on which the bird sits to sit on a bough, a jackdaw sitting on a roof, contrasted with to fly 2 Specif (of birds) to remain cowering eggs uninterruptedly, so as to hatch them the hens won't sit this year, don't disturb hens when they are sitting 3 a To occupy a seat, as indicating official functions to sit on the bench, be a judge or magistrate, the judge will not sit on Saturday, will not hold a court on that day, Phr to sit in judgement on, to take upon oneself the function of a judge, esp in matters of morals, to judge, censure, b to be a member of (a body) to sit on a jury, committee &c, to sit in parliament, be an MP or peer of the realm, to sit for a constituency, represent it in House of Commons, c (of law court, deliberative or legislative body) to be in session, to meet, be convened, for transaction of business Law Courts do not sit from August till October, Parliament will sit in the autumn, the House was still sitting at 3 o'clock this morning 4 To do something in which a sitting position is usually involved, specif a to sit for an examination &c, to submit oneself, enter, for an examination &c, b to sit to an artist, a photographer &c, to sit for one's portrait, have one's portrait painted. 5 To press, bear, weigh, upon, to be felt as a weight or burden, a (in physical sense) food at night is likely to sit heavy on one's stomach, b (in non material sense) his losses, his responsibilities sit but lightly upon him, 'care sat on his faded cheek' (Abdton, 'P L' 1 601) 6 a To sit, hang, well the coat does not sit properly across the shoulders, b (fig) to be suitable to, to become, to befit his new dignities sit rather awkwardly upon him 7 (archaic or poet, esp of the wind) To have a certain position or direction, to set in what quarter sits the wind? B trans 1 (reflex) Sit oneself, to sit, take a seat, be seated, place oneself we sat ourselves (down) on a mossy bank, he came and sat himself beside me 2 a (riding) To keep one's seat on, to ride, bestride to sit a horse like a gentleman, b (rowing) to sit in so that the boat does not roll, to keep (boat) trimmed by even ewing and good watermanship to sit a light eight C followed by adverbs and prepositions Sit down intrans, a to encamp before and besiege to sit down before a town, fortress &c, b sit down to (one's work), settle down to, concentrate on, c (of speaker in public) to conclude a speech, make an end of speaking, d sit down under (an insult &c), to submit to, suffer without protest or reply Sit on, upon, intrans, a to be a member of (a committee, deliberative body &c), b to inquire into, investigate, be member of a jury, commission &c to sit on a case, to sit upon a body found drowned, c (colloq, slang) to rebuke, repress, snub to sit upon a bumptious person Sit out, 1 trans, a to stay to the end of, sit through to sit out a play, concert &c, b to stay longer than (others) which of the visitors will sit out the other?, c to refrain from taking part in, to remain seated during to sit out a dance, 2 intrans, specif, not to dance, but to sit and talk to one's partner while a dance is in progress if you are tired, let us sit out Sit through, intrans, to stay to the end of, sit out it is an ordeal to sit through a long sermon Sit under, intrans, to be a member of the congregation of a particular minister, esp as a listener to his preaching he was proud to have sat under the great Mr Spurgeon. Sit up, intrans, a (of a dog &c) to sit up right upon hind quarters with forelegs held up in the air she taught Fido to sit up and beg, b to raise oneself from a lying position to sit up in bed, c to keep the back bone erect when sitting, not to lounge or sit with a bent back in the days of our great grandmothers decent people sat up straight, and didn't lean back in arm-chairs, d (colloq) (i) to be startled, suddenly shocked, surprised, frightened &c the sudden pain made me sit up, I can tell you, (ii) to become suddenly alert and expectant, to be startled into activity some of the country clergy need the bishop to drop in on them suddenly now and then, and make them sit up a bit, e to stay up beyond, not go to bed at, the usual time to sit up all night playing cards, children are allowed to sit up later than usual for a treat on Christmas day Sit upon, to sit on.

siste, n [1 sit, 3 sist] Fr, fr Lat situs, 'situation, local position', formerly exposed to be formed fr PP type of sistere, 'to set down, leave, to let', though Walde rejects this, & connects the word w Sort Lēti, Lēyati, 'he dwells, abides', op also Sort khiif, 'dwelling, settlement', & Lēlram, 'landed property, dwelling-place', cogn also w Gk khsien, 'to found, build' &c Ground, specific space of ground, on which anything is, or is to be, built, local position the site of a church, a good site for a house, to buy a site for building sited, adj [1 sited, 2 sited] Prec & -ed. (rare) Situated, placed, usually with qualification a well, badly sited house

sith, conj [1 sith, 2 sith] OE sippan, 'since, afterwards', ME sith See since (obs) Since, seeing that

sitology, n [1 sitōlōgi, 2 sitōlōdžī] fr Gk sitos, 'wheat, corn, meal, food', op also siten, 'to feed', the etymol is disputed, an ingenious & attractive suggestion is that the word is borrowed fr the so called śatam branch of Aryan speech, & represents a form sitos*, fr Aryan sēit* &c, wh survives in Gmc in husitene, 'wheat', for wh, however, Aryan lwo* must be postulated. See under wheat & white, for suff see -logy Study of food, its values &c, dietetics

autophobia, n [1 sitōfōbia, 2 sustōfōbia] Gk silo, 'food', see prec, & -phobia Morbid aversion to food, refusal to take proper nourishment

sitter, n [1 siter, 2 siter] sit & -er One that sits, specif a person who is sitting for a portrait &c, b a broody hen incubating her eggs a good, bad, siter, c a sitting game-bird or other animal, hence (colloq) an easy abot, also of anything easy to do, as an easy catch at cricket sitting, n [1 siting, 2 siting] sit & -ing 1 Act of one who sits (in various senses), a general sitting becomes more fatiguing than standing if too much prolonged, b a session of a deliberative body a sitting of Parliament, c set of posing for a portrait to give a sitting to a painter, photographer 2 Time occupied by a sitting, occasion on which a sitting in any sense takes place 3 Time during which some piece of sedentary work is uninterruptedly carried out, a spell, bout, of work to finish a job at a one, sitting 4 Seat reserved in a church for a particular person in return for rent, right thus acquired in such a seat.

sister (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To act like a sister to sisterhood, n [1 sisterhood, 2 sistahud] sister (I) & -hood. 1 State of being a sister, mutual relation of sisters the lived in loving sisterhood 2 A community or order of women living under religious vows and performing works of religion, charity &c sister-hooks, n. Pair of hooks, each having a looped shank, hung from a ring with the openings facing, and made so that they close over each other sister-in-law, n [1 sister in law, 2 sister in lā] a Husband's or wife's sister, b brother's wife, c brother in law's wife sisterless, adj [1 elsterles, 2 sistales] sister (I) & -less Having no sister, having lost a sister sisterliness, n [1 sisterliness, 2 sistaliness] sisterly & -ness Quality of being sisterly, sisterly character, action &c sisterly, adj [1 sisterli, 2 sistali] sister (I) & -ly a Like a sister, affectionate as a sister, b resembling the conduct of, be coming, suitable for, a sister

Sistine, adj [1 sistin, 2 sistain] fr Ital. Sistino, fr Sisto, 'Sixtus', name of popes & saints, fr Lat sextus, 'sixth', see sext-, & -ine 1 Of, pertaining to, built by &c, one of the Popes, named Sixtus, a Sistine Chapel, private chapel of the Popes in the Vatican, built by Sixtus IV, d 1484, decorated by Michelangelo and others, b Sistine Vulgate, edition revised under the Papacy of Sixtus V, d 1590 2 Sistine Madonna, painting by Raphael, now in Dresden, formerly in the church of San Sisto, Piacenza sistrum, n, pl sistra [1 sistrum, -tra, 2 sis trum] Lat, fr Gk sistrion, fr seism, 'to shake' See seismo- An ancient form of rattle, used by the Egyptians in the religious rites of Isis, consisting of a metal oval frame with rods passing through holes, which jangled when shaken.

Sisyphean adj [1 sisifdan, 2 sisifan] fr Gk Sisyphos, fr Sisyphos, Lat Sisyphus, prob fr a redupl form of sophos, 'wise, crafty', q v under sophist. Of, pertaining to, Sisyphus, a crafty king of ancient Corinth, condemned in the underworld to roll for ever up a hill a huge rock which at once rolled down again, hence Sisyphean task, labour &c, one that is tedious, useless, and can never be completed.

site, n [1 sit, 3 sist] Fr, fr Lat situs, 'situation, local position', formerly exposed to be formed fr PP type of sistere, 'to set down, leave, to let', though Walde rejects this, & connects the word w Sort Lēti, Lēyati, 'he dwells, abides', op also Sort khiif, 'dwelling, settlement', & Lēlram, 'landed property, dwelling-place', cogn also w Gk khsien, 'to found, build' &c Ground, specific space of ground, on which anything is, or is to be, built, local position the site of a church, a good site for a house, to buy a site for building

sited, adj [1 sited, 2 sited] Prec & -ed. (rare) Situated, placed, usually with qualification a well, badly sited house

sith, conj [1 sith, 2 sith] OE sippan, 'since, afterwards', ME sith See since (obs) Since, seeing that

sitology, n [1 sitōlōgi, 2 sitōlōdžī] fr Gk sitos, 'wheat, corn, meal, food', op also siten, 'to feed', the etymol is disputed, an ingenious & attractive suggestion is that the word is borrowed fr the so called śatam branch of Aryan speech, & represents a form sitos*, fr Aryan sēit* &c, wh survives in Gmc in husitene, 'wheat', for wh, however, Aryan lwo* must be postulated. See under wheat & white, for suff see -logy Study of food, its values &c, dietetics

autophobia, n [1 sitōfōbia, 2 sustōfōbia] Gk silo, 'food', see prec, & -phobia Morbid aversion to food, refusal to take proper nourishment

sitter, n [1 siter, 2 siter] sit & -er One that sits, specif a person who is sitting for a portrait &c, b a broody hen incubating her eggs a good, bad, siter, c a sitting game-bird or other animal, hence (colloq) an easy abot, also of anything easy to do, as an easy catch at cricket

sitting, n [1 siting, 2 siting] sit & -ing 1 Act of one who sits (in various senses), a general sitting becomes more fatiguing than standing if too much prolonged, b a session of a deliberative body a sitting of Parliament, c set of posing for a portrait to give a sitting to a painter, photographer 2 Time occupied by a sitting, occasion on which a sitting in any sense takes place 3 Time during which some piece of sedentary work is uninterruptedly carried out, a spell, bout, of work to finish a job at a one, sitting 4 Seat reserved in a church for a particular person in return for rent, right thus acquired in such a seat.

5 Collection of eggs covered by a bird when sitting (in spec. sense), a clutch sitting-room, n [1 sitting room, 2 sitvum], 1 A room in a house used for sitting in, contrasted with bedroom, office, bathroom &c 2 Space reserved for sitting, space sufficient to sit in there is very little sitting room in a small aeroplane, sitting room for two only situate, adj [1 sichooat, 2 stijust], fr L Lat situat (um), PP of situare, 'to place', fr situs, see sit (house agent's word) Situated situated, adj [1 sichooated, 2 stijustid] Free & -ed Placed, having a particular site or position, a (in physical sense) a pleasantly, badly, situated house, town &c, b (in non-physical sense) placed in certain conditions, circumstances I am rather awkwardly situated having no house to go to situation, n [1 sichooashun, 2 stijubisun] Fr situat & -ion 1 Place, locality, site, position, of anything in relation to other things, surroundings &c a delightful situation for a house 2 A State, condition, position, of affairs, circumstances the political situation seems quiet, the situation at the front is critical, he found himself in a very delicate situation, b specif, momentous combination of circumstances, clash of passions or personalities at a critical moment in a drama, or in life a thrilling, a tense, situation 3 Employment, job, place, position, in which specific duties are to be performed, chiefly used now of the humbler kinds of employment a situation as head porter, gardener, cook, butler &c sitz-bath, n [1 sits bāth, 2 sits bāp], fr Mod Germ. sitz bad, fr sitzen, 'to sit', q v A hip bath Sivaism, Shivaism, n [1 sēva, shēvaizəm], 2 sēva, [svaizəm], fr Hind Shiva, fr Sort śiva, 'propitious, gracious', cogn v Lat cinis, q v under orio The worship, by the Hindus, of Shiva as the supreme god of the Brahman triad, with Brahma and Vishnu Sivaist, Shivaist, n [1 sēva, shēvaist], 2 sēva, [svaist] See pro & -ist Worshipper of Siva Sivaistic, Shivaistic, adj [1 sēva, shēvaistik], 2 sēva, [svaistik] Pro & -ic Of, pertaining to, Sivaism six, adj & n [1 siks, 2 siks] OE six, seox, six, ME six, OS & OHG sehs, ON sex, Goth saxhs, Lat sex, see sex - Gk hex for hex*, see hexa - Sort šes, O Slav šest, W. chwech 1 adj a One more than five or less than seven six feet high, yards long, six years old &c, b elliptically, with noun understood six o'clock, half past six, 6.30, six and six, 6/8, bel six to one against, the child is only six, a party of six Phr six of one and half a dozen of the other, nothing to choose between two alternatives 2 n A The cardinal number six, the symbol for this number, 6, vi, Phr at sixes and sevens, upside down, in confusion &c, b a card, domino, dice, with six pips the six of hearts, play the double six or six blank, to throw a six, c a hit for six runs at cricket, d a size of gloves, shoes, e (pl sizes) candles running six to the pound sixam, n [1 sikzān, 2 sikzesu] Fr, fr six, Lat sex, & -am A stanza of six lines, sextain sixer, n [1 sikser, 2 siksā] six & -er (colloq) A hit for six runs at cricket sixfold, adj & adv [1 siksfoлд, 2 siksfoлд] OE sixfoлд six & -foлд Six times as much, six times over six-foot, adj [1 siks foot, 2 siks fut] Six feet in height, length &c a six-foot plank &c six-footer, n [1 siks footer, 2 siks fūta] (colloq) Person six feet in height sixpence, n [1 sikspens, 2 sikspens] six & -pence, see penny A silver coin of the value of six pennies, half a shilling put a sixpence in the plate, b value of this it cost me sixpence Phrs I don't care (a) sixpence about it, care nothing at all, it doesn't matter sixpence, is of no consequence sixpenny, adj [1 sikspeni, 2 sikspens] a Of the value of six pennies a sixpenny piece, but, sixpence, b costing, worth, sixpence a sixpenny toy six-score, adj & n Six times twenty, 120 six-shooter, n A revolver with six chambers sixte, n [1 sikst, 2 sikst] Fr, fr Lat sextus, 'sixth' One of the parties in fencing sixteen, adj & n [1 sikstēn, 2 sikstēn] OE sixtyne, sixtēna six & -teen 1 adj Six more than ten 2 n Sum of ten and six, symbol of this, 16, xvi sixteenth, adj & n [1 sikstēnth, 2 sikstēnth] New formation fr sixteen & -th, OE, form sixtēoba 1 adj Ordinal of sixteen, a next after fifteenth, b consisting of a sixteenth sixteenth part 2 n One of sixteen equal parts sixth, adj & n [1 siksth, 2 siksp] New formation fr six & -th, on anal of fourth, OE sixta, ME sixte, sext, sixt was used in 16th cent 1 adj a Ordinal of six, next in order after fifth the sixth day of the week &c, b in the sixth form, b being one of six equal parts or divisions took a sixth share, o as noun with ellipse of word the sixth of August, was in the sixth (form) at school, the sixth in the class 2 n Specif (mus) interval between a tone and the sixth tone above or below, reckoned inclusively, on the diatonic scale sixthly, adv Pro & -ly In the sixth place (only in enumeration) sixtieth, adj & n [1 sikstēth, 2 sikstēth] sixty & -eth 1 adj a Next in order after fifty-ninth, b forming one of sixty equal parts 2 n The ordinal number following the fifty-ninth, b one of sixty equal parts sixty, adj & n [1 siksti, 2 siksti] OE sixtig six & -ty 1 adj Six times ten, also elliptically as noun not more than sixty were present (persons understood), I'll take sixty for the horse (pounds understood) 2 n A The sum of six times ten, b symbol representing this, 60, lx sizable, adj [1 sizəbl, 2 sizəbl] size & -able Of considerable size, of a suitable or reasonable size sizar, n [1 sizar, 2 sizə] Earlier spelt sizer, fr size (I), in sense of a 'ration of bread and drink', & -er In use at Cambridge and Trinity College, Dublin, an undergraduate student, corresponding to the Oxford servitor, who, after examination, was exempted from certain fees and other payments, and performed certain duties, now abolished, as the distribution of this 'size' or ration to the students of a higher grade, receiving his own 'size' free of charge sizarship, n [1 sizarship, 2 sizəʃip] Pro & -ship Position, emoluments, of a sizar size (I), n [1 siz, 2 siz] Shortened form of assize, in the old sense of 'that which is fixed or assessed' Cp assess 1 (hist) A fixed quantity, allowance, ration, of anything, specif, at Cambridge University, a ration of food or drink served from the buttery of a college 2 (hist) A standard measure of length, weight, or quantity, fixed by an assize, now, one of the conventional relative dimensions into which certain articles, as gloves, shoes, hats, ready made clothes &c, are divided 3 A Relative dimensions, magnitude, mass or bulk of an object a building of the largest size, the size of the book makes it awkward to hold, type of such small size is difficult to read, of what size is our future army to be? Phr that's about the size of it, (colloq) that's the real fact, the true explanation, b also of intellectual and spiritual bulk or magnitude we want a man of a considerable size for the position of ruler 4 Specif, instrument used by dealers to grade and measure the size of pearls size (II), vb trans & intrans, fr pro 1 trans a To classify, arrange, grade according to size, esp of soldiers, to arrange them in rank according to height, so that the tallest men are at each flank and the smaller in the centre to size a platoon, company &c, b size up, (colloq) to estimate the value, character, ability &c of, to form a general judgment about to size up a man, a situation 2 intrans (obs) To draw a 'size' or ration, as at Cambridge University size (III), n & vb trans, fr Ital size, abbr form of assize, 'painter's glue, size', fr PP fem of assidere, 'to make to lie or sit down', fr Lat assidere See assize & assess 1 n A thin kind of glue or gelatinous solution used to glaze and stiffen paper, textiles &c 2 vb To apply size to, to glaze with size -sized, adj [1 sizd, 2 sazd] size (II) & -ed (in compounds) Having a certain size or magnitude medium sized &c sizey, adj [1 sizi, 2 edizi] size (III) & -y Of the nature of, covered with, size, gelatinous, viscous, gloey sizzle, vb intrans & n [1 sizl, 2 sizl] Of imitative origin 1 vb To make a hissing, spluttering sound, as of things frying or very hot, to fizzle 2 n A hissing sound sjambok, n & vb trans [1 šāmbok, 2 šāmbok] SA, fr Du, fr Malay chamboy, fr Pers chābūq, 'whip', also adj 'quick, alert', 1 n A heavy whip with lash of rhinoceros hide 2 vb To flog with a sjambok skald, scald, n [1 skawld, 2 skōld] ON skáld, etymol doubtful One of the old Scandinavian bards, a composer and singer of poems in honour of the heroes and their deeds skat, n [1 skabt, 2 skāt] Mod Germ, according to Kluge, a 19th cent loan word, orig scat(r), fr Ital scartare, 'to reject a card', skat karte being the rejected or discarded card Cp ecarte & card (II) A three handed card game, played with a thirty-two card pack, one of the predecessors of bridge skate (I), n [1 skāt, 2 skēt], fr ON skata, wh is perh fr Lat agātus, 'a flat fish', cogn v Gk peleia, 'sole or turbot' An edible flat fish, genus Rosa, of the ray family skate (II), n Back formation fr skates, fr Dn schaat(en), M D schact(en), fr O Fr exhace, 'stilt', Fr échasse, fr LG shaks, 'leg', see shank, the word meant something wh raised the leg off the ground & lengthened the stride 1 One of a pair of sharp edged steel blades fitted into a metal or wooden frame, and fastened by clamps, screwed plates, or straps to the boot, used for moving rapidly over a sheet of ice 2 One of a pair of objects furnished with four small solid wheels, or rollers, attached to the feet, and used for moving rapidly over a smooth, flat surface, esp in a rink, called also roller skate skate (III), vb intrans, fr pro To move on skates over ice &c Phr to skate over thin ice, to treat a difficult or dangerous subject or situation with skill and tact skater, n [1 skāter, 2 skēte] Pro & -er One who skates, esp. one who skates well skating, n [1 skāting, 2 skētiŋ] skates (II) & -ing Act of moving on ice, or on a rink, with skates skating-rink, n A Specially prepared surface on which roller skating is practised, b (rare) generally ice rink, specially made sheet of ice used for skating skean, skene, n [1 skēn, 2 skūn] fr Gael sgian, 'knife' A short dagger or dirk, generally with an ornamented silver handle, as worn by Scottish Highlanders with native dress skean-dhu, n [1 skēn dū, 2 skūn dū] Pro & Gael dubh, 'black' A small dirk or knife, worn in the stocking by Highlanders in native costumes skedaddle, vb intrans & n [1 skedādl, 2 skūdādl] Etymol unknown 1 vb (colloq and slang) To run away, to bolt, to depart in haste, to clear out. 2 n (rare) A hasty flight or departure, a bolt.

skein, n [1 skān, 2 skain] M.E. skeyn, fr O Fr escagne, prob of Celt origin, op Gael. speinnidh, 'hemp or flax thread', fr eganne, 'skein of thread', possibly cogn. w Gk skhoinas, 'rope, cord' 1 A quantity of yarn, of wool, cotton, silk &c, coiled and knotted 2 A flock of wild geese or swans in flight skeletal, adj [1 skēlatal, 2 skeltal] See skeleton & -al. (anat) Pertaining to the skeleton, of the nature of a skeleton skeletal muscles, those attached to the bones, a skeletal structure &c skeleto-, pref Form of skeleton used in compounds, indicating some relation to the skeleton or bony structures skeletology, n [1 skēlētōlōj, 2 skeltōledz] Preo & -logy Study of the skeleton, osteology skeleton, n [1 skēlētōn, 2 skelt(a)n] Gk., neut sing of skelētōs, 'dried up, paroled', as n., 'mummy', op skellen, 'to dry up, paroh', cogn. w sklēros, 'dry, hard', see scler(o)- 1 The bony framework of the human or animal body, specif, the bones of the body as a whole, from which all the soft tissues have decayed or been removed of the body nothing was left but the skeleton, skeletons of men and animals are exhibited in museums Phr skeleton at the feast, a person whose presence casts a gloom on an occasion of rejoicing, a the skeleton in the cupboard, family skeleton, some distressing, shameful, or discreditable fact, afflicting an individual or family, the secret of which is carefully guarded by him or them, reduced to a skeleton, very thin and emaciated by illness, worn to a skeleton, thin and worn from toil, want, anxiety &c, a mere skeleton, a thin emaciated person 2 The fine lace like fibrous framework of a leaf from which all the tissue has disappeared, 3 A framework of a building many modern buildings are constructed upon steel skeletons, b the remaining framework or other remnants of a building &c wh survive after some destructive agent, such as fire or natural decay, has brought it to ruin, a shell, 4 An outline, preliminary, general plan, of a piece of literary or scientific work, of a speech, lecture &c, the details of which have still to be filled in skeleton army, n. An army with a few men representing each unit of a large force and marking their presence by flags or other signals extended over a wide area skeleton crew, n. A crew reduced in numbers to the minimum required for keeping a ship seaworthy, and ready to be enlarged to full complement when required.

skeleton drill, n. Practice drill, for officers, with only flank men of a line present skeletonize vb trans [1 skēlētūnz, 2 skeltān aɪz] skeleton & -ize 1 To reduce (an animal body) to a skeleton by removing the tissues, muscles &c, to prepare (a body) for exhibition as a skeleton, 2 To put down in outline, to reduce to a brief sketch or abstract skeleton key, n. A key with parts of the bit filed away, and capable of opening a large variety of locks, a form of master key skeps n See skean.

skerp, n [1 skop, 2 skerp], fr O.N. sleppa, 'basket, bushel' 1 A light kind of basket, of wicker work or wood, used for carrying or measuring light farm or garden produce, b a measure of capacity for such, varying in different districts 2 A beehive of straw skeptic &c See sceptic skerry, n [1 skēr, 2 skērj] Scand., fr O.N. sker, op scar (II), sonur A small, isolated rock or reef in the sea sketch (I), n [1 sketch, 2 sketʃ] Du schela, fr Ital. schizzo, through Lat. schēdium, 'extempore poem' fr Gk. skhēdōs, 'extempore'. see further under schéma 1 A rapidly executed drawing of an object, scene, landscape &c, made in outline or simple washes, in pencil, chalk, water colour &c serving as a study for a finished picture or as a note for further use in aiding the memory, also b a drawing or painting in a slight or broad manner, not intended to be worked on further 2 A rough preliminary draft, synopsis, outline, epitome, of a plan, literary work &c 3 A short musical or dramatic play, b a short, descriptive article sketch (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans a To make a sketch of to sketch a scene, person's head &c, b (also with out) to draw up a sketch or outlined plan of, to make a rough draft of, to plan, indicate, by giving only essential details to sketch (out) a scheme, plan, he sketched the situation in a few vivid words 2 intrans To practise the art of making sketches, to paint landscapes &c in water colours sketch-book, n a A book containing paper suitable for making sketches on, b book containing an artist's sketches sketcher, n [1 sketcher, 2 sketʃə] sketch (II) & -er One who sketches sketchily, adv [1 sketchli, 2 sketʃili] sketchy & -ly In a sketchy manner sketchiness, n [1 sketchines, 2 sketʃines] sketchy & -ness State, quality, of being sketchy sketching, n [1 sketching, 2 sketʃɪŋ] sketch (II) & -ing Art, practice, of making sketches sketchy, adj [1 sketchi, 2 sketʃi] sketch (I) & -y Depicted in outline or roughly, having only an outline and few or no details, hence, unfinished, incomplete, inadequate only a sketchy knowledge of philology, a rather sketchy meal, this lecture was too sketchy to be much good skew, adj & n [1 skū, 2 skju], fr obs vb skew, skua, M.E. skensen, 'to turn, move, to one side, to shy', fr M. Du. schouwen, 'to avoid, shun', cogn. w O.H.G. scouwen, 'to avoid, escape', op Germ. scheu, 'shy', see shy (I) 1 adj, a Oblique, sloping, turned, twisted, to one side, crooked, chiefly in compounds, in technical terms, see below and op askew, b (math) unsymmetrical, distorted, 2 n (archit) A sloping stone cut to hold the coping of a gable &c, the upper, sloping top of a buttress skewback, n [1 skūbak, 2 skjūbæk] The sloped face of part of an abutment used to carry the thrust of an arch which projects beyond the vertical line of the opening skewbald, adj [1 skūbawld, 2 skjūbōld] skew, in sense of 'irregular', & bald, op piebald, (of horse &c) Marked with irregular patches of different colours, used by some to imply black and white, by others to mean a patchiness in which black does not occur, sometimes distinguished from piebald skew-bridge, n A bridge with an arch or arches set obliquely to the abutments skew-chisel, n. a A chisel with oblique edge b chisel with bent shank to allow the edge to work in a sunk groove &c skew-curve, n. (math) A curve in three dimensions skewer, n & vb trans [1 skūer, 2 skjuə] Scand., op Swed. skaver, 'a slate', province Engl. skiver, 'skewer', variant of skiver (III), 'splinter' 1 n a A thin pointed rod or pin of wood or metal used for fastening a piece of meat together and keeping it in shape for cooking, b humorous term for a sword, dagger 2. vb To fasten (meat &c) with a skewer skew-eyed, adj skew & eyad Squinting skū, n & vb intrans [1 skū, sks, 2 f, ski] Norw. & Dan., fr O.N. skid, 'billet of wood, snow-shoe', cogn. w skid (I) 1 n One of a pair of long, narrow strips of hard wood, strapped to the feet and used as runners for moving over frozen snow, and for racing and jumping &c as a form of sport, 2 vb To use skis for travelling &c over snow.

skidgram, n. See sciagram.

skidgraph, n. See sciagraph.

skid (I), n [1 skid, 2 skid], fr O.N. skid, 'wooden billet', the Engl. cogn. is seen in

M.E. skide, 'hillet, thin piece of board', obs. except in dial. & some techn. uses, cogn. w sneath & shed (I) 1 A drag, shoe, slog of any kind placed under a wheel of a heavy cart to reduce speed downhill 2 A side-slip or slide of wheel of bicycle or motor-car on a slippery road skid (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans To slip sideways (of wheels) 2 trans (rare) To retard speed of by means of a skid or drag skier, n [1 skier, 2 skai] ski & -er One who skis, user of skis to travel or run over snow skiff, n. [1 skif, 2 skiff], fr Fr. esquif, fr Ital. schifo, 'little boat', fr O.H.G. schif, cogn. w ship a A light rowing or sailing boat, usually for a single rower or sculler, b (poet or obs.) any small boat skidding, n [1 skidding, 2 skidɪŋ] skid & -ing Act of moving along on skis, thus considered as n sport skilful, adj [1 skilfool, 2 skilful] skill (I) & -ful a Possessing skill a skilful surgeon; b performed with skill a skilful cross-examination &c skilfully, adv Preo & -ly In a skilful manner, with skill.

skilfulness, n. Preo & -ness Quality of being skilful, skill skill (I), n [1 skil, 2 skill] In M.E., fr O.N. skil, 'discernment', op skilja, 'to separate, distinguish, discernment', orig sense of base 'to split' See also under shell 1 Manual dexterity and deftness, proficiency, resulting from training, practice, experience skill in fencing, boxing, skill in watch making, carpentry, the skill of a surgeon 2 Intellectual adroitness, resourcefulness, cleverness, ingenuity skill in diplomacy, lecturing, teaching, skill in debate &c.

skill (II), vb intrans, fr O.N. skilja. See preo word (archaic, impers) If skills not, it makes no difference, it matters not, what skills it that we do?

skilled, adj [1 skild, 2 skild] skill (I) & -ad. a Possessing manual or intellectual skill, esp. of some specified kind a skilled watch-maker, a skilled debater &c, b specif (of workmen) trained and practised in some particular trade or handicraft, and having gone through an apprenticeship in it, also skilled work, such as requires special training to perform, contrasted with unskilled, in specific sense skilless, adj [1 skilles, 2 skilluz] skill (I) & -less (rare or archaic) Lacking skill skillet, n [1 skilet, 2 skilt], fr O Fr. escuelle, dimm. of escuelle, 'dish, pan', fr Lat. scutella, dimm. of scuta, 'dish' Cp also scutella (I) A small metal cooking-pot with long handle and three or four legs skilly, n [1 skili, 2 skili] Shortened form of earlier skillegales, etymol. unknown. Thin oatmeal gruel or thin broth mixed with some meat, as formerly served in workhouses or prisons skim, vb trans & intrans [1 skim, 2 skɪm] The word looks like a form produced by mutation fr O.N. skim, w shortening as in the loan word scum A. trans 1 To remove the scum, cream, fat, or other substance floating on the surface of a liquid to skim the cream off milk, also to skim milk, remove cream from surface 2 To glide over the surface of, to pass lightly or swiftly over, to touch or nearly touch the surface of, in passing over it a gull skims the water, a skater skims the ice, a swift runner seems to skim the ground 3 To read, run through (a book &c) rapidly and perfunctorily

B intrans 1 Skim over, to become coated with a film, scum &c, on the surface, 2 To move, glide, along, lightly and rapidly the boat, a bird, skims before the breeze, also skim along, over, through, a skater, a stone, skims along the ice, 3 To read a book rapidly and perfunctorily, to skip read carefully, don't skim, also to skim through a book.

skimmer, n [1 skimer, 2 skíma] skim & -ar 1 A one who skims, specif b a long winged sea bird, genus Rhynchops, with the lower mandible longer than the upper, with which it skims up fish near the surface of the water as it flies 2 Utensil used for skimming liquids, such as milk skim-milk, n Milk from which the cream has been skimmed skimp, vb trans & intrans [1 skimp, 2 skimp] Etymol doubtful, prob allied to O N skemma, 'to make short, shorten', & to scant & scamp (II) 1 trans A To stint, grudge, act meanly towards (a person), b to supply (things) in too small an amount, give, allow, insufficient quantity of 2 intrans To be parsimonious, practise petty economies Phr to skimp and screw skimpily, adv [1 skimpily, 2 skimpily] skimp & -ly In a skimping manner, stingily, meagrely skimp, adj [1 skimp, 2 skimp] skimp & -y Scant, skimmed, inadequate, meagre, in quantity, amount, amplitude a skirt which is skimp round the hips skin (I), n [1 skin, 2 skín] Found as scinn in Late OE, borrowed fr O N skinn, O H G has scinlan, 'to take the skin off, to flay', though the n does not occur Etymol unknown 1 The outer, flexible covering or integument of the animal body, consisting of the epidermis or outside and the corium or true skin, with its sebaceous glands, hair follicles &c Phrs to save one's skin, to escape with one's life, escape unharmed in body, reputation &c, with a whole skin, unharmed, with, by, the skin of one's teeth, by the narrowest margin of safety, to have a thick, thin, skin, to be insensitive, or the reverse, to criticism, insults &c, to be more skin and bone, to be emaciated, excessively thin or skinny 2 The stripped, dressed, and preserved outer covering of an animal or bird, including the actual outline, and the hair, fur, or feathers growing from this, hide, pelt 3 (slang) A horse or other beast, b specif, a poor, worn out, emaciated horse, hence, o (jocose) a person the headmaster isn't a bad old skin 4 A receptacle for wine, water &c, made from an animal's skin 5 The rind of a fruit 6 A thin film which has formed on a liquid, and acquired n certain toughness and consistency 7 The outermost layer, covering, surface, of various objects, a the outer layer of planks or plates on the hull of a ship, b the outer layer of nares on a pearl skin (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 A To remove, strip off, the skin from, to flay to skin a tiger &c, b to remove the peel or rind from, to peel skin a walnut, Phrs to skin a flint, to be exceedingly miserly and penurious, to keep one's eyes skinned (colloq), to be very watchful and alert, o to abrade, graze, scrape off, skin from fell and skinned his knee 2 (slang) To fleece, swindle, do out of money or other possessions the gamblers skinned him of every shilling B intrans Skin over, to become covered with skin, to cicatrize the wound has skinned over too quickly skin-bound, adj With skin stretched too tightly over, or adhering too closely to, the flesh skin-deep, adj Not penetrating deeper than the skin, not affecting the tissues, superficial, esp of wounds skinfint, n [1 skinfint, 2 skinfint] One who extracts the utmost profit or advantage from n transaction, a mean, avaricious, niggardly, stingy person skin friction, n Friction exerted upon the surface of a body moving through a liquid, e.g. that upon the sides of a ship moving through water skinful, n [1 skinful, 2 skinful] skin (I) & -ful Chiefly used in Phr skinful of drink, as much drink as one can hold skink, n [1 skink, 2. skynk], fr Lat scincus, fr Gk skínglos A kind of lizard, with thickish body and short tail and limbs, found in N. Africa in dry sandy places

-skinned, adj [1 skind, 2 skind] skin (II) & -ad Having a skin of specified kind. thin skinned, clear skinned &c skinner, n [1 skiner, 2 skína] skin (I) & -er A dealer in pelts and hides skinny, adj [1 skini, 2 skini] skin (I) & -y Very thin or emaciated, reduced to skin and bone, scraggy skip (I), vb intrans & trans [1 skip, 2 skip] In ME, origin uncertain, prob Scand. A intrans 1 To leap, or bound lightly about, like a child or young animal, to frisk, frolic, gambol, commonly, skip about 2 Specif, to bound or hop lightly, at the same time swinging a rope with both hands so that the middle of it passes with a circular motion alternately over the head and under the feet 3 (colloq) a To depart, disappear, hastily and suddenly, to bolt, b to travel rapidly, undertake a brief journey to skip over, across, to France for a week 4 To read a book through hastily and perfunctorily, omitting large portions of it B trans 1 To jump, bound, lightly over or across, more often skip over, across, to skip (over) a brook 2 A To read perfunctorily or omit altogether, pass rapidly over in reading to skip the dull parts of a book, b to leave out, omit to mention, in narration I shall skip the events of the next few days 3 Colloquial Phr skip it, to go away, skedaddle, hook it skip (II), n, fr prec A light jump or bound, specif, a quok leap from one foot to the other a hop, skip, and a jump skip (III), n, prob for skipper (II). The captain of a team or side at bowls and curling skip (IV), n, variant of skap An iron bucket used for hoisting coal in a mine, also small iron truck or tub running on rails in a coal-mine skip (V), n, etymol doubtful, prob fr skip (I) A college servant at Trinity College, Dublin, equivalent to the Oxford scout and Cambridge gyp skipjack, n [1 skipjak, 2 skípdjak] skip (I) & Jack (I) 1 Small doll formed from the wish bone of a fowl, made to leap into the air by means of a piece of elastic 2 Popular name for any of several small animals which have a quick, jumping movement skipper (I), n [1 skiper, 2 skiper] skip (I) & -er A One who, that which, skips, b a skipjack skipper (II), n [1 skiper, 2 skiper], fr Du schipper, fr schip, cogn w ship Captain, master, of a small merchant ship, hence (colloq) the captain of any ship skippet, n [1 skippet, 2 skippet] Dimin of skap A case or box used to enclose and protect the large pendent seal attached to an official document skipping-rope, n [1 skíping róp, 2 skíping róp] A rope with a wooden handle at each end, used for skipping skirl, vb intrans & n [1 skéril, 2 skíl] Scots variant of shrill 1 vb To make a shrill, piercing sound, like that of the bagpipes 2 n The shrill, piercing flourish of the bagpipes skirmish, vb intrans & n [1 skermish, 2 skírm] ME skirmishen, fr O Fr eslarmes, stem of eslarmier, 'to fence, fight', fr O H G scirmen, 'to fight under cover', Germ schirmen, 'to defend', fr scirm, 'shield, defence, cover' Cp also scaramouch & scrummage 1 vb To engage in a skirmish 2 n A fight between small, detached bodies of troops or as incidental to a battle, any slight, unimportant, or unexpected engagement between detachments of opposing armies, b any slight, brief contest, argument skirmisher, n [1 skírmisher, 2 skírmíse] skirmish & -er. One who skirmishes, specif, one of a body of detached troops sent forward or to a flank, in extended order, to cover a movement of the main body skurset, n [1 skíret, 2 skíret] Earlier spelt skíruhit, as though fr O N skírr, 'bright, clear', see under shaer (I) & whites, more prob a modification of O Fr escheries, Fr chervis, fr Span chirivia, fr Arab karawia See caraway A plant, allied to the celery and parsnip, with odible tuberous root, the water-parsnip skirt (I), n [1 skört, 2 skít], fr O N skyrt, 'kirtle, skurt', cogn w shirt 1, a Lower part of any garment, as coat, shirt &c, which hangs below the waist 'Laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle' (1 Sam xv 27), b specif, outer garment worn by women covering the legs 2 (vulg slang) A woman. 3 (often pl) The outer edge, margin, border, of anything on the skirts of the wood, town, the skirts of a cloud 4 In various technical senses a the leather flaps of a saddle covering the iron loops to which the stirrups are attached, b butcher's term for the midriff of beef &c, c skirting board skirt (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans A To form the border, edge, or margin of, to be situated on the margin of the road skirts the wood, b to move, pass along, or close to, the border of ship skirted the coast 2 intrans (w prep) To move, go close, to border &c to skirt along the edge of a cliff skirt-dancing, n Dancing with long, full skirts, which are waved rhythmically -skirted, adj [1 skérted, 2 skítet] skirt (I) & -ed Having a skirt of specified kind short, full skirted &c skirting-board, n [1 skírtíng bórd, 2 skítíng bórd] A board running round the bottom of the walls of a room skit, n [1 skit, 2 skít], fr an old word meaning 'to shoot, to taunt, jibe at', of Scand origin, op O N skjota, 'to shoot, to dart', cogn w shoot A light, humorous, satirical, literary or dramatic sketch or burlesque, a parody, upon, on, any subject &c skitter, vb intrans [1 skíter, 2 skíta] Freq, fr prec & -er n (of sea bird, wild duck &c) To skim rapidly over the surface of water with splashing touches, of wings or legs, as in rising, b (in fishing) to draw the hook and bait along near the surface of the water skittish, adj [1 skítish, 2 skítí] See skit & -ish. 1 (of a horse) Playful, lively, frisky, fresh, inclined to jump about in harness or with rider 2 (of persons) Lively and playful, frolicsome, said esp of a woman past her first youth who affects the airs and graces and sprightliness of girlhood skittishly, adv Free & -ly In a skittish manner skittishness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being skittish, skittish behaviour skittle, vb trans [1 skítel, 2 skítel] See next word 1 (colloq) Skittle away (one's money, resources, chances in life &c), to waste, squander, lose by foolish conduct 2 Skittle out, (cricket) to bowl (batsmen) out easily or quickly skittles, n pl (1 skítiz, 2 skítiz), not used in sing except attributively, fr Dan skytel, 'a child's earthen ball', Scand form of shuttle A Set of ninepins used in the game of skittles, b game resembling ninepins, in which a heavy wooden disk, 'oboes', is bowled along n wooden course at the skittles Phr. not all beer and skittles, not all fun and amusement, (slang) skittles!, exclamation of contempt skive, vb trans & n [1 skív, 2 skáiv] Scand., op O N skífa, 'slice', cogn. w sheave (rare) 1 vb a To pare, split, cut (hide, leather &c), into thin slices, b to grind (gem stones) on a skive 2 n A diamond wheel for grinding gem stones.

skiver, n [1 skíver, 2 skáiv] Free & -er. A Cheap leather made from split shoepekin, used for bindings, linings &c, b knife used in skiving leather skua, n [1 skúa, 2 skúða], fr O.N. skúfr, also skúmr, prob so called fr its dark colour, cp O.N. skúmr, 'shade, dusk' One of several large, dark brown gulls of the N Atlantic and Arctic and Antarctic seas skulk, vb intrans & n [1 skulk, 2 skalk] Scand, cp Dan skulke, 'to skulk', cogn w O.N. skolla, see scowl, & op Swed skalka, 'to shirk', L.G. skulen, 'to skulk' 1 a To seclude oneself, hide, to lurk in concealment, b to elude furtively away or about 2 Specif, to shirk duties and dangers, keep oneself out of the way so as to avoid danger &c 3 n (rare) One who skulks skulker, n [1 skulker, 2 skálka] Prec & -er One who skulks, a shirker skulking, adj [1 skáking, 2 skálking], fr Pres Part of skulk. Inclined to evade and avoid danger or dangerous duties, cowardly, evasive, shirking a skulking coward, rogue skull, n [1 skul, 2 skal] M.E. skulle, skulls, of Scand origin, op Swed. dual skulle, variant of Norw skult, fr Gmo base a different grade of wh appears in scale (I) & shell, cp also soull 1 a The bony case containing the brain of animals, Phr to have a thick skull, to be stupid and impervious to ideas, b the bones of the head as a whole when stripped of flesh 2 A pictorial, or other representation of a skull, as a symbol of death, skull and cross bones, a skull with two thigh bones crossed below it, on a black ground, the typical pirate's flag skull-cap, n 1 The upper part of the cranium, brain pan 2 A close fitting brimless cap, worn in the house to protect bald heads from cold or draughts

-skulled, adj [1 skuld, 2 skald] skull & -ed Having a skull of a specified kind thick-skulled, broad long skulled skunk, n [1 skunk, 2 skank] Shortened form of native N Am Indian name, seganku 1 A small carnivorous N American mammal, Mephitis, allied to the weasel and polecat, with bushy tail and black fur, striped on back with white, which when attacked emits from anal glands a secretion with a very offensive odour 2 (colloq) An offensive, mean, contemptible person

Skupshina, n [1 skúpshtina, 2 skuphtina] Serb fr skupiti, 'to meet' The parliament of Yugo Slavia sky (I), n [1 ski, 2 skai] M.E. (Chaucer & Gower) skie, 'cloud', fr O.N. sky, cogn w O.E. sclo, 'cloud' See further under obscure, shower, & cutis 1 The vault of heaven, the upper atmosphere Phrs under the open sky, the open air, with no roof or shelter above one, to pray to the skies, praise excessively 2 (often pl) Place of clouds, storms, and other meteorological phenomena, climate, weather under brighter skies than ours 3 (in the language of devotion) Heaven, the dwelling place of God sky (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To place in a lofty position, specif, to hang (a picture) et an exhibition somewhere near the ceiling, where it can hardly be seen, thus implying that it is an inferior work 2 To hit (a ball) high into the air sky-blue adj & n 1 adj Having the bright blue colour of the clear, cloudless sky 2 n This colour

Skye terrier, n [1 ski téner, 2 ska; téne], fr the Isle of Skye, Hebrides A variety of Scotch terrier, with long body, short legs, and long, silky, grey or fawn coloured hair sky-high, adj & adv (colloq) As high as the sky, very high skylark (I), n [1 skilark, 2 skailark] The common lark of the open fields and downs Alouda arvensis, nesting on the ground, and famous for its song as it rises almost perpendicularly into the air skylark (II), vb intrans & n, fr prec 1 vb (orig naut.) To cut capers in the rigging of a ship, high above the deck, b to romp, engage in boisterous play 2 n Boisterous merriment or play, usually skylarking skyless, adj [1 skiles, 2 skails] sky (I) & -less With no sky visible, cloudy skylight, n [1 skilit, 2 skailant] A glazed opening in a roof, or in a ceiling, which admits light to a hall, passage, or room sky-line, n a The line which, to the eye, separates earth and sky, visible horizon, b outline, silhouette, of an object seen against the sky sky-pilot, n (slang) A clergyman, esp a ship's chaplain skysail, n [1 skisál, 2 skaisail] A small sail set above the royals in square rigged sailing vessels skyscape, sky-scape, n [1 skískap, 2 skáiskap] On anal of landscape. A picture, study, of sky and clouds sky-scraper, n sky (I) & scraper 1 A skysail 2 A very lofty building, containing a large number of storeys, used esp of such as are built in America skyward(s), adv & adj [1 skíward(z), 2 skaiward(z)] sky (I) & -ward(s) Toward(s) the sky, upwards slab (I), n & vb trans [1 slab, 2 slab], fr O Fr esclape, 'thin fragment of wood', of doubtful etymol., cogn w Provenc esclapa, Ital. schiaappare, 'to split, cleave', possibly fr es (ex-) as intens pref, & L.G. klappen, 'to clap, go off with explosive sound, as of split wood' 1 n a A flat, relatively thin slice of any solid material, esp of wood, stone, meat, bread, cake, specif b this out side piece sawn off a timber log in squaring it for cutting it into planks 2 vb To saw the slab off (log &c) slab (II), n & adj, fr O.N. slabb, 'mud' 1 n (archaic or dial) Slime, mud, a puddle 2 adj Thick and sticky, viscous, slimy, chiefly familiar from 'Make the gruel thick and slab' ('Macheth') slabber (I), n [1 sláber, 2 slaba] slab (I) & -er A saw for cutting the slabs off logs, slabbing saw slabber (II), vb See slabber slab-stone, n slab (I) & stone Stone, such as sandstone, which splits easily into slabs slack (I), adj [1 slak, 2 slak] O.E. slac, slac, 'slow, slack', cogn w O.N. slakr, O.S. slah, O.H.G. slah, allied to lax (I) & slake 1 Slow, sluggish, not moving rapidly at a slack pace, speed, specif, slack water, a (of tide) dead, not moving on the surface, as at period between end of ebb and beginning of flood tide, b (of stream) with no visible current, as at head of dam &c, or under shelter of curving bank, Phr (naut) slack in stays, (of sailing vessel) slow in going about 2 A relaxed, left or left loose, not taut or tight a slack rope, leave your muscles slack, ride, drive, with a slack rein, keep only a slack hand on the rein, b specif (phon.) slack vowels, those uttered with the tongue in a slack condition, contrasted with tense, also called, rather misleadingly, open vowels, and by other phoneticians wide vowels 3 Not energetic or active, lazy, listless, negligent, remiss to feel slack, to be slack in one's duties, work 4 Not brisk or active or busy, having no life or movement, dull trade, business, is slack, a slack season 5 A Not sufficiently baked or dried slack bread, hops, b slaked slack lime slack (II), n, fr prec 1 Part of anything left slack or loose slack of a rope, sail &c, to pull in, up, the slack, tighten it 2 (pl slacks) Loose trousers or overalls worn by soldiers on fatigue duty &c 3 Slack water, period of this at the slack of the tide 4 (colloq) Bunt, spell, of slackness, inactivity, or rest to have a good slack slack (III), vb trans & intrans, fr slack (I) A. trans a To slacken, b slack off (rope &c) to loosen, remove strain from by lengthening or loosening B intrans 1 To become loose or slack, to sag rope, sail, slacks 2 a To work slackly, to be idle, lazy, remiss, or negligent to slack at one's job, to slack for the whole afternoon, b slack off, to diminish one's efforts, slow down, preparatory to ceasing work &c, c slack up, to reduce speed, to go more slowly slack (IV), n. L.G. slack See also slag slack-, adv Only in slack baked, slack dried &c. See slack (I), 5 slacken, vb trans & intrans [1 slákem; 2 sláken] slack (I) & -en A trans. 1 To cause to be slack and unbraced, to loosen, relax to slacken a rope, one's muscles. 2 To diminish, abate, to make less intense, to lessen the energy or force of to slacken one's efforts, to slacken speed B intrans. 1 To become slack or loose rope slackens. 2 To become less energetic or active to slacken in one's efforts, work &c 3 To diminish gradually in violence, to abate &c. the wind, fire, has slackened slack, n [1 sláker, 2 slake] slack (III) & -er (colloq) One who slacks or takes things easy, one who is slack, lazy, negligent, or remiss at work, games &c, an idle fellow, lacking energy and vigour, a shirker slackly, adv [1 sláklí, 2 sláklí] slack (I) & -ly In a slack manner, a loosely, sloppily, b lazily, negligently slackness, n [1 sláknes, 2 sláknis] slack (I) & -ness 1 Slack condition, looseness, lack of tenseness, state of being unbraced. 2 Quality of being slack in action or mind, lack of energy, laziness, negligences slag, n & vb trans & intrans [1 slag, 2 slag], fr Swed slagg, 'dross', cogn w Norw slagga, 'to flow over', L.G. slagle, Germ schlacke, 'scoria', linguistic variant of slack (IV)

1 n a The dross, under, refuse, left after smelting metallic ore, b volcanic scoria. 2 vb To form, be formed into slag, to convert, be converted into or combine as slag slaggy, adj [1 slági, 2 slági] Prec & -y Of the nature of slag slam, vb [1 slán, 2 slain] O.E. (ge)slafen, slagen, M.E. slæjen, 'slain', P.P. of slay slake, vb trans. [1 slák, 2 slak] O.E. slacan, 'to grow slack, slacken', M.E. slaken, 'to make, slack' See slack (I), of wh. it is a variant 1 To render less intense, to assuage, satisfy, quench, allay a (in physical sense) to slake one's thirst, b (fig) to slake one's longing for vengeance, to slake one's lust of blood &c 2 To mix with water, so as to form a chemical compound to slake lime slakeless, adj [1 slákles, 2 slákiles] Prec & -less (post) Unquenchable, quenchless, not to be assuaged or satisfied slakeless desire, vengeance &c slam (I), vb trans & intrans [1 slám; 2 slám] Cp Swed slamma, 'to bang', of imitative origin 1 trans a To shut, close, violently, with a bang also slam to to slam (to) a door, window &c, b to pnt, throw, down hastily and violently, or noisily to slam down the lid of a trunk, to slam one's hand on the table, hat on one's head &c, c to beat, hit he got badly slammed about the head, cricketer slams the bowling 2 intrans To be shut, to close with a bang to hear a door slam slam (II), n, fr prec 1 A loud bang or noise, as of a door slamming 2 (cards) The taking, winning, of all tricks in one deal, as at bridge &c slander (I), n [1 slándder, 2 slándde] M.E. scalandre, fr O Fr esclandre, for earlier escand(e), escandre, fr Lat scandalum, see scandal 1 (law) Malicious defamation, by words, of a person, in his reputation, character, profession, or trade, utterance of false statements about a person with intent to injure or defame, cp libel, slander of title, false, malicious statement casting doubt on a person's title to property, (loosely) any false statement likely to damage the value of property 2 A false tale, report &c, disparaging, untrue statement about a person.

slander (II), vb trans, fr preo To utter slander concerning, to defame, injure, by malicious tales &c slanderer, n [1 slándorer, 2 slándorə] Preo & -er One who slanders, an utterer of slander slandorous, adj [1 slándorous, 2 slándorəs] slander (I) & -ous 1 Uttering, given to uttering, slanders slandorous accusers, a slandorous tongue 2 Containing, imputing, slander or slanders slandorous rumours, state ments &c slandorously, adv Preo & -ly In a slandorous manner slang (I), n [1 slang, 2 sləŋ] Etymol doubtful, used in 18th cent, prob fr or cogn w sling (I), op Norw slengja kjeften, 'to sling the jaw, to abuse', slengja ord, 'a new slang word', slengja namn, 'nickname' 1 (orig use) Words, phrases &c used only among a particular community, class, section of society, jargon, argot, cant &c schoolboy slang, thieves' slang &c, also technical terms peculiar to a particular profession, or to a special branch of study doctors' slang, biological slang &c 2 A new word, phrase, or idiom introduced into, and used in, colloquial speech, but not yet recognized as efficiently dignified for literary usage, esp on solemn occasions or in elevated style, whether in speaking or writing, b peculiar idiomatic use of a word in a new way to impart variety, picturesqueness, point, to familiar colloquial style, but felt to be trivial or flippant on serious occasions While slang is essentially part of familiar and colloquial speech, it is not necessarily either 'incorrect' or vulgar in its proper place On the other hand, slang may be vulgar, either from its own character, or because it is associated with the usage of vulgar people 3 (attrib) Belonging to, of the nature of, slang a slang word, expression &c slang (II), vb trans, fr preo To scold, vituperate, to censure loudly in abusive terms slangily, adv [1 sláŋgɪlɪ, 2 sləŋgɪlɪ] Next word & -ly In a slangy manner slangy, adj [1 sláŋgɪ, 2 sləŋgɪ] slang (I) & -y a Given to using slang when speaking, b of the nature of slang a slangy phrase slank, vb [1 sláŋk, 2 sləŋk] OE slanc, ME slank, Pret of slunk, now usually slunk slant (I), vb intrans & trans [1 sláht, 2 sláht] ME slenten, 'to slope, glide', Scand, op Norw slanta, 'to fall slanting or obliquely, to fall on one side' 1 intrans To slope, to incline away from the perpendicular 2 trans To cause to slant, to put, place, obliquely slant (II), n, fr preo Oblique position, a slope slanting, adj [1 sláhtɪŋ, 2 sláhtɪŋ], fr Pres Part of slant (I) Sloping, oblique, aslant slantingly, adv Preo & -ly In a slanting direction or position slap (I), vb trans [1 slap, 2 sləp] Imitative, op LG slappe, Germ schlappe, & op slamm (I) 1 To smack, strike, smartly with the open hand to slap a naughty child, to slap a person's face, slap him in the face &c, to slap person on the back, by way of hearty greeting 2 Slap down, to throw down with force to slap down a piece of steak on to the counter, slap on, to put on violently to slap a hat on (to) one's head slap (II), n, fr preo A smack, a smart blow, given with the open hand Phr a slap in the face, eye, an unexpected snub, a rebuff, a disappointment, a check, repulse slap (III), adv, fr slap (I) (colloq) Straight, directly, fall his arm slap in the eye, car ran slap into the wall slap-bang, adv (colloq) Violently, noisily slap-dash, adv & adj (colloq) 1 adv Impetuously, headlong, carelessly 2 adj a (of persons &c) Impetuous, headlong, careless, happy-go-lucky, b (of actions, work &c) performed hastily or carelessly.

slapstick, n [1 slápsɪk, 2 sləpsɪk] A wooden stick with flapping ends used in rough, knockabout farce &c, also attrib slapstick comedy slap-up, adj [1 sláp up, 2 sləp ap] (slang) First rate, first class, of the finest quality, of the best of its kind a slap up establishment, dinner &c slash (I), vb trans & intrans [1 slash, 2 sləʃ] ME slaschen, fr O Fr eschacier, 'to break, split up', etymol doubtful, possibly fr es (ex), as intons, & MHG klecken, 'to break with a sharp, choking noise', prob influenced by O Fr eschacier, 'to slice', see slice A trans 1 a To cut gashes in with a cutting instrument, to slit with a downward blow of a sword, knife &c, specif b to make cuts or slits in a garment, by way of ornament, so as to show another garment underneath 2 To lash, strike violently at, with a whip B intrans (often slash at) To strike fiercely at with a sword, knife, whip &c slash (II), n, fr preo 1 A violent, cutting blow 2 A slit, gash slashing, adj [1 sláʃɪŋ, 2 sləʃɪŋ] slash (I) & -ing Specif, cutting, severe, destructive a slashing review, attack, criticism &c slat (I), n [1 slát, 2 slát] Variant of slats (I) A thin, flat, narrow piece of wood or metal, a lath, esp a one of the set of such pieces forming a Venetian blind, b one of the cross pieces of a bedstead on which a mattress rests, (slang) the ribs slat (II), vb intrans & trans Prob imitative, op slap a intrans To flap, strike object, with noisy sound, esp of sails, ropes &c, b trans, to strike against with such sound slate (I), n [1 slát, 2 slát] ME sclet, slat, fr O Fr esclat, 'a split piece of wood, lath, wooden tile or shingle', fr eschaler, 'to split, burst, into splinters', apparently fr a presumed L Lat scaplatūre*, fr es (ex-), intens pref, & LG klappen, see clap (I), & op sciat 1 (geol) A hard, grey or greenish grey shaly rock which splits easily into thin flat layers 2 Piece of this rock split into a flat plate and used as a roofing tile 3 A sheet of slate, usually with a narrow wooden frame, used for writing on, esp in schools Phr a clean slate, a good, clean record 4 Grey colour resembling that of slate slate (II), vb trans, fr preo To cover (a roof) with slates slate (III), vb trans, fr slate (I), fr idea of throwing slates at, pelting Connexion w OE slatan, 'to rend', is improbable a To submit to severe censure to slate a book, review it harshly, b to blame severely, to rate, to pitch into to slate a person slate club, n A voluntary, unofficial benefit or thrift society, to which small sums are paid in weekly slate-coloured, adj Of the colour of slate, dark grey slate-grey, adj Slate coloured slate-pencil, n A thin pencil of soft slate, used for writing on slates slater, n [1 sláter, 2 slátə] slate (II) & -er Tradesman who lays slates on roofs slat(e)ly, adj [1 sláti, 2 sléti] slate (I) & -y a Resembling a slate in colour, b of the nature and consistency of slate, c full of slates slating (I), n [1 slátiŋ, 2 slétiŋ] slats (II) & -ing a Act of covering a roof with slates, b slates collectively as used for roofing slating (II), n slate (III) & -ing Rebuke, scolding, severe criticism to give, get, a severe slating slattern, n [1 slátern, 2 slátəŋ] Etymol doubtful An untidy, dirty, sluttish woman slatternliness, n [1 sláternlɪns, 2 slátənlɪns] slatternly & -ness Quality, state, of being slatternly slatternly, adj. [1. sláternlɪ, 2 slátənlɪ], slattern & -ly Untidy, dirty, sluttish slaty, adj See slat(e)y slaughter (I), n, [1 sláwtər, 2 sláts] ME slauhter &c, fr. ON slátr, 'sleann flesh', influenced by the cogn slah, fr OE slæht, 'a killing, slaughter', formed fr OE base slag-, slah-, q v, under slay. The act or fact of slaying or killing, specif a the butchering of animals for food, b the killing of human beings, esp on a large scale, in battle, or by putting to death in a massacre the battle was attended by a terrible slaughter on both sides, Herod ordered the slaughter of the innocents.

slaughter (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 Specif, a to kill cattle, sheep, or pigs for market, b to kill wild animals ruthlessly and wantonly 2 To kill, massacre (human beings), in large numbers, either in battle, or as an act of cruelty inflicted on a civilian population.

slaughterer, n [1 sláwtərə, 2 slátərə] Preo & -er One who slaughters, specif one who slaughters cattle slaughter-house, n a Place where cattle are butchered for market, an abattoir, shambles, b (fig) place of carnage or massacre.

slaughterous, adj [1 sláwtərəs, 2 slátərəs] slaughter (I) & -ous (rhet) Murderous, wantonly, ruthlessly destructive of life

Slav, n & adj [1 sláv, sláv, 2 sláv, sláv], fr Germ Slawe, fr L Byzantine Gk Σλάβος, Sclabinos, name given to various Slavonic races in S Russia & the Balkans, origin unknown 1 n A member of various races, widespread over E and SE Europe, speaking different forms of the Slavonic language, including Russians, Poles, Serbians, Croats, Czechs, Bulgarians &c 2 adj Of, belonging to, the Slavs, Slavonic slave (I), n [1 sláv, 2 sləv], fr. Fr esclave, fr L Lat sclavus, fr Gk Σκλάβος, see Slav, term first applied to captives of various SE European Slavonic races 1 One held in bondage to another, a human chattel, one whose person, family, life, labour, or skill is in the absolute ownership of another, by capture, purchase &c, and whose status as such is recognized by law and custom, a bondman, serf, thrall Phr to work like a slave, to toil hard 2 A any one who is subject to the will of another person, a member of a subject race or nation 'Britons never shall be slaves', b one who works like a slave, a drudge, also a workman, regarded as economically entirely under the control of employers or the employing class the worker in the early days of the industrial revolution was a slave 3 A slave to, or of, one who is dominated by desires, habits, passions, to the point of being no longer master of himself a slave to one's passions, to vice, drink &c, a slave to his own ambitions, to convention, fashion &c, b (in favourable sense) person completely devoted to, and dominated by, a cause or a principle a slave to duty &c, c a person entirely devoted to another he professed to be her devoted slave, a willing slave, one who submits cheerfully to another's domination slave (II), vb intrans, fr preo To work, labour, like a slave, to toil very hard to slave for one's family slave-driver, n a Superintendent or overseer of slaves at work, b a hard, merciless taskmaster, one who forces people to work to the last ounce of their strength and ability slave-driving, n Action, behaviour, methods, of a slave driver slaver (I), n [1 slávr, 2 slávrə] slave (I) & -er 1 Person who trades in slaves 2 A slup engaged in the slave trade slaver (II), vb intrans & trans [1 slávr, 2 slávrə], fr ON slafra, cogn w LG slabbern, op variants sllobber & slubber 1 intrans To dribble with saliva, to let saliva dribble from the mouth, to foam at the mouth 2 trans a To cover with salva, let salva drop on to, b (fig) to be effusively servile and fulsome to slaver (III), n, fr prec 1 Salva dropping or dribbling from mouth 2 (fig) Servile, fulsome flattery &c slavery (I), adj [1 slavery, 2 slavery] prec & -y Covered with, dripping with, slaver slavery (II), n [1 slavery, 2 slavery] slave (I) & -ary 1 A status, condition, of a slave, bondage, serfdom, b (also fig) domination by one's dearest &c 2 The institution, custom, of owning slaves 3 Hard, toilsome work or labour, drudgery slave-ship, n Ship engaged in the slave trade, a slaver slave-states, n pl Those Southern States of N America in which slave owning predominated before the Civil War of 1861 slave-trade, n Traffic in slaves, esp that formerly prevalent, involving the purchase or capture of West African negroes and the transporting of them to the West Indies and America for sale to planters slave-trader, n One engaged in the slave trade, a slaver slavery, n [1 slavery, 2 slavery] slave (I) & -y (familiar, slang) A young servant girl Slavic, adj & n [1 slavic, 2 slavic] Slav & -ic adj Connected with, pertaining to, the Slavs, or to their language, b n, the language of the Slavs, Slavonic slavish, adj [1 slavish, 2 slavish] slave (I) & -ish Characteristic of, befitting, a slave, servile, adj a slavish follower, flatterer Phr slavish imitation, one that is blind and uncritical, reproducing the object copied exactly, without discrimination or originality slavishly, adv prec & -ly In a slavish, servile, manner Slavism, n [1 slavism, 2 slavism] Slav & -ism 1 Devotion to the political ideal of a national unity for the Slavic races, insistence on this as a principle of statesmanship 2 A Slavonic idiom Slavonian, adj & n [1 slavonian, 2 slavonian] fr Mod Lat S(c)lavonia, the country inhabited by the Slavs, & -an 1 adj Slavonic 2 n a Member of, language of, the Slavonic races, b inhabitant of the district of the old Austrian Empire, Slavonia Slavonic, adj & n [1 slavonic, 2 slavonic] See prec & -ic adj Belonging to, connected with, the Slav races, or their language, b n, the language of the Slavs Slavophil, n & adj [1 slavophil, 2 slavophil] Slav & -phil n Lover, admirer, of the Slavs, b adj, loving, admiring, the Slavs Slavophobia, n & adj [1 slavophobia, 2 slavophobia] Slav & -phobia n One who fears or hates the Slavs, b adj, fearing, hating, the Slavs slay, vb trans [1 slay, 2 slay] M E slēan, a new formation on the anal. of O E slēpan, (M E slē(e)pp &c) 3rd pers sing pres indic of slēan, 'to strike, to kill', wh also survives directly in M E as slē(n) O E slēan is fr W Gm slahan*, op O S, O H G, & Goth slahan, 'to strike' From the base slah-* comes also slaughter, & fr the variant slay* comes sledge-hammer To deprive of life, to kill. The word is now chiefly confined to poetry, elevated prose style, and to technical legal usage, in ordinary use it has been replaced by kill slayer, n [1 slayer, 2 slayer] prec & -er One who slays, a killer, murderer, also in combination as moon slayer &c sled, n & vb intrans & trans [1 sled, 2 sled] M E slēde, fr M Du slēde, cogn w slide, for variants see sledge & sleigh 1 n Small, low wooden framework with runners, for travelling on ice, or on snow-covered roads, a small sledge 2 vb To travel, convey, by sled sledge, n & vb intrans & trans [1 sledge, 2 sledge] Prob earlier slēde, pl slēdes 1 n A vehicle of different shapes and sizes, furnished with runners, for travelling over snowy roads, varying from an elaborately built earnage with a hood and padded seats, drawn by horses, to a simple wooden framework upon which persons or goods slide down a mountain road, or down a specially made track of ice 2 vb To travel, convey, by sledge sledge-hammer, n O E slēg, 'a heavy hammer', fr earlier slagga*, fr the base seen in O E slēgan, slēg &c, P P of slēan, 'to strike', see slay A heavy hammer, with a long handle, wielded with both hands, used by blacksmiths Phr a sledge hammer blow, a very violent, powerful blow, (also fig) a powerful, destructive attack sleek, adj & vb trans [1 sleek, 2 sleek] M E slēke, w lengthening fr slīke, fr O N slīk, 'smooth', variant of sluck, w differentiation of meaning, cp sight (I) 1 adj a (of animal's coat, person's hair) Smooth, glossy, (also of general appearance) very neat and trim, b (of manner) smooth, oily, unctuous, smug 2 vb To make sleek, to smooth, press down sleekly, adv prec & -ly In a sleek manner sleekness, n See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being sleek, smoothness, glossiness, smugness sleeky, adj [1 sleeky, 2 sleeky] sleek & -y Sleek sleep (I), n [1 sleep, 2 sleep] O E slēp, M E slēpe, O S slēp, O H G slāf, Goth slēps, orig sensu, 'drowsiness, lethargy' is preserved in Mod. Germ. schlafen, 'loose, slack, weak, feeble', cogn w O Slav slabī, 'weak', Lith. slėpti, 'become weak' 1 A The natural and healthy temporary suspension of consciousness and activity necessary to complete repose in man and the lower animals, recurring normally at least once every twenty four hours, and lasting for several hours, slumber, Phr to go to sleep, fall into the state of sleep, to put to sleep, place (a person) under conditions which induce and finally produce sleep, one's last sleep, death, b closing up of leaves or petals of plants at night, c prolonged state of quiescence, and cessation or partial cessation of bodily functions in certain animals, hibernation 2 Period during which one is asleep Phr beauty sleep, the first and most refreshing period of sleep 3 (fig) A condition of mental inactivity, inactivity, indifference sleep (II), vb intrans & trans O E slēpan, M E slēpan See prec A trans 1 To pass into a state of sleep, to take rest by sleeping, to slumber to sleep well, badly, I hardly slept all night, Phr to sleep the clock round, sleep for twelve hours on end, sleeping dogs, unpleasant awkward facts, memories of these, dormant and half forgotten, to sleep like a top, sleep very soundly, sleep on, upon (a question, problem, proposal), to take a night to consider and decide, b to behave as though one were asleep, to be indifferent, torpid 2 To pass the night I shall sleep in London tonight, to sleep out of doors 3 To be dormant, not to show signs of activity, to be quiescent for the moment feuds and quarrels are sleeping 4 (fig) To be dead to sleep in the grave, with one's fathers 5 (of a top) To spin so rapidly and steadily that it stands perfectly upright, the motion being imperceptible B trans 1 In such constructions as to sleep the sleep of the just, to sleep one's last sleep &c, 'such a sleep They sleep the men I loved' (Tennyson), or to sleep one's life away, to spend in sleeping 2 (colloq) To provide sleeping accommodation for a hotel that can sleep 300 people, we can dine you and sleep you 3 Sleep off, to get rid of by sleeping to sleep off the effects of a debauch sleepy, n [1 sleepy, 2 sleepy] sleep (II) & -er 1 A One who is asleep, b (preceded by adj) one who sleeps in a specified way a good sleeper, a heavy, light, sleeper 2 A stout, squared wooden timber used as a support for the rails of a railway line 3 A sleeping-car on a railway sleepily, adv [1 sleepily, 2 sleepily] sleepy &

-ly In a sleepy manner, drowsily, lazily, indolently sleepiness, n [1 sleepiness, 2 sleepiness] sleepy & -ness Quality, condition, of being sleepy, drowsiness, somnolence sleeping-car, n [1 sleeping kar, 2 sleeping kā] Railway carriage fitted with beds or berths sleeping-draught, n An opiate or other narcotic medicine for inducing or promoting sleep sleeping partner, n A partner with financial interest in a business who takes no active part in the control and management sleepingsickness, n A tropical African disease, trypanosomiasis, caused by a parasite introduced by the bite of a species of tsetse fly, accompanied by extreme drowsiness and headache, often lasting several years, and usually terminating fatally sleepless, adj [1 sleepless, 2 sleepless] sleep (I) & -less 1 a Not attended by sleep, wakeful a sleepless night, b not enjoying sleep, unable to sleep, suffering from insomnia 2 a Unremitting, untiring, over alert sleepless care, b ever in motion, never at rest the sleepless ocean sleeplessly, adv prec & -ly In a sleepless manner sleeplessness, n See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being sleepless, lack of sleep, insomnia sleepwalker, n [1 sleepwalker, 2 sleepwalker] One who walks in his sleep, a somnambulist sleep-walking, n [1 sleep walking, 2 sleep walking] Somnambulism sleepy, adj [1 sleepy, 2 sleepy] sleep (I) & -y 1 (of persons) a Inclined to sleep, overcome by sleep, drowsy, somnolent, b mentally sluggish, not alert in mind 2 (of places) Characterized by an absence of business and bustle, lifeless, very quiet, reverse of stirring 3 (of fruit, esp of pears) Grown soft and aqueous, yet juiceless, without ripening properly sleepyhead, n [1 sleephead, 2 sleephead] A sleepy person, esp a child who has stayed up beyond its usual hour, and is overcome by sleep sleepy sickness, n Popular name of a disease, encephalitis lethargica, a form of inflammation of the brain, usually accompanied by intense drowsiness, and sometimes leaving mental and nervous degeneration sleet, n & vb intrans [1 sleet, 2 sleet] In M E, origin uncertain 1 A fine, grain like form of ice, or frozen rain, smaller and softer than hail 2 vb It is sleeting, sleet is falling sleety, adj [1 sleety, 2 sleety] prec & -y Consisting of, resembling, sleet sleeve, n [1 sleeve, 2 sleeve] O E (non WS) slēf, W S slēf, sleeve, cp slēfan, slēfan, 'to put on a dress', prob fr a variant form of basin O E slēpan, slēpan, 'to slip (a thing) off, or on', see slip (I) 1 That part of a garment which covers the arm, (in several phrases) to have something up one's sleeve, to have some plan, or decisive foot, in one's possession ready to be used when needed, originally of cards, concealed in sleeves by sharpers, to wear one's heart upon one's sleeve, to show one's private feelings to the world, to laugh in, up, one's sleeve, to sneer inwardly, covertly, from the old fashioned wide loose sleeves with which one could hide one's face 2 Any of various mechanical devices, in which a tube is used to fit or slip over a smaller tube or rod sleeved, adj [1 sleeved, 2 sleeved] prec & -ed Provided with sleeves sleeved, adj, fr prec Having sleeves of specified kind loose, full sleeved &c sleeve-fish, n A squid or cuttle fish sleeveless, adj [1 sleeveless, 2 sleeveless] sleeve & -less Having no sleeves sleigh, n & vb intrans & trans [1 sleigh, 2 sleigh] Variant of sled, perh fr Du slēe 1 n A sledge. 2 vb To travel, convey, by sleigh sleigh-bell, n Small, jingling bell attached to the harness of an animal drawing a sleigh. sleight, n [1 sliit, 2 sliat] ME sleihte, slēipe, fr ON sleagð, 'unning, slyness', fr. slēgr, 'sly, cunning'; see sly, & -th Dexterity, craft, cunning, a dexterous trick or device, now, chiefly in sleight-of-hand, dexterity, of the hand, esp in performing conjuring tricks, legerdemain slender, adj [1 slender, 2 sléndr] ME slendre, fr O Du slinder, 'thin, slender', origin doubtful 1 Thin, slim, tenuous, narrow, small in circumference or width, as compared with height, reverse of stout, thickset, cobby a slender figure, slender fingers, waist &c, a slender girl, a slender stem, tree &c 2 a Slight, feeble slender hopes of success, b scanty, meagre, moonstruck, a person of slender means, a slender income, my knowledge of the subject is of the slenderest, a slender meal slenderly, adv Preo & -ly In a slender manner, to a slender degree, sparsely, meagrely, slightly slenderness, n See preo & -ness Quality, condition, of being slender slept, vb [1 slept, 2 slept] Preo & PP of sleep OE slēpte, ME slepte OE has also a strong Preo slēp sleuth (I), n [1 slouth, 2 slūp] Perh fr ON slōð See slot (I) 1 (archaic) The slot or track of an animal or man 2 a Also sleuth-hound, a bloodhound or other hound that tracks by scent, b (colloq) a detective sleuth (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo a To track by scent (of hounds), b to follow, track down, as a detective slew (I), vb [1 slōw, 2 slū] Preo of slay, ME slēw, a new formation on the anal of grew, knew &c, ME has slōg, slouh, fr OE slōg, slōh slew (II), slue, vb trans & intrans Etymol unknown. Often slew round, a trans, to cause to swing round, b intrans, to swing round slice (I), n [1 slis, 2 slais] ME schice, fr O Fr esclice, 'splinter', fr eschier, 'to split, shiver, split', fr OHG slizen, slizan, 'to split', cogn w OE slitan See slit (I) 1 A flat piece, thin in proportion to its breadth, cut off from anything a slice of cake, meat, bread &c, a slice of rock for microscopic examination 2 A part, piece, share, of or in anything all demanded a slice of the booty, profits &c, a slice of luck, a piece of good fortune 3 Any thin, broad, flat implement for cutting slices 4 A outing, shoving, stroke, esp in ball games slice (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 a To cut into slices, also slice up, b slice off, to cut off as a slice 2 slice off a man's head, arm 2 To strike with a drawing, outing, blow to slice the water with an oar, to slice a ball at golf B intrans To make a shoving drive at golf, or shoving stroke in rowing slick, adj, & adv [1 shk, 2 shk] ME shike, 'smooth', fr ON See also sleek & slight (I) (colloq) 1 adj (rare) a Rapid, smooth-running, moving easily, b clever, adroit 2 adv Directly, straight, full tilt his car ran shik into mine slid, vb [1 shd, 2 shd] Preo & PP of slide (I), fr ME, PP slide(n), OE (de)sliden, op OE Preo slād, ME slād slide (I), vb trans & intrans [1 shd, 2 shd] OE slidan, 'to slide, glide', to make a false step, to err', cogn w OE slider, 'slippery', op OHG slita, 'sledge', cogn w Luth slāde, 'smooth, slippery' A intrans 1 To move along with a gliding movement while preserving contact with a surface, to slip, glide, easily and smoothly, a to slip down or off to slide down a slope, the book slid off my knee, b to move, slip, easily into a given place or position the window catches slides backwards and forwards, a sword slides into its scabbard 2 Specif, to glide along over the smooth slippery surface of ice or hard snow without moving the feet 3 (fig) To pass lightly over without dwelling upon to slide over delicate questions 4 To pass gradually, and without being conscious of the process, into a specified condition, to come gradually to adopt a specified line of conduct to slide into a state of lethargy, to slide into bad habits B trans 1 To cause to slide, to propel (something) along a surface or push it into a receptacle to slide a decanter along a table, to slide a drawer back into its place 2 To thrust slowly, with a sliding movement he slid his hands, purse, back into his pocket slide (II), n, fr preo 1 Act of sliding a slide on the ice 2 Strip of smooth ice, or hard snow, rendered extra slippery by persons sliding upon it 3 An inclined plane down which heavy objects are made to slide as a means of moving them, a shoot 4 Something which slides, specif, a round shallow vessel of silver with smooth cloth on the under surface, in which a wine decanter is placed for sliding along a polished table 5 A slip of glass, which is slid into place, used as a mount for specimens for examination under a microscope, b a glass plate bearing a picture, to be projected on to a screen by a magic-lantern 6 Kind of flat brooch used in a woman's hair 7 A fall of rock, earth, ice, or snow down a mountain-side a landslide slider, n [1 slider, 2 slāde] slide (I) & -er a One who slides, b the sliding part of a machine &c slide-rule, n [1 slid rōl, 2 slaid rīl] Ruler with graduated sliding part attached, for making mathematical calculations slide-valve, n A valve which opens and shuts an aperture by sliding over, or away from it, as in a steam engine &c slide-way, n An inclined plane or chute sliding-rule, n See slide-rule sliding-scale, n A scale or schedule for raising or lowering taxes, wages, prices &c automatically in accordance with fluctuations in economic conditions sliding-seat, n A seat, moving on runners, used in racing boats, to increase the length of the stroke slight (I), adj [1 sliit, 2 sliat] ME sliht &c, fr OLG sligt, 'even, smooth, ample, poor, bad', op OHG slēht, 'smooth', Germ schlech, 'bad', Goth slāhts, 'smooth', prob cogn w Gk lēssōs, 'smooth', fr slīk, cp also ON slīk, 'smooth' See slick & sleek 1 A Slim, slender, not thick or stout a slight figure, b fragile, frail, not strong - the platform is too slight for the weight it carries 2 Mild, not severe or intense a slight attack of the gout, a slight cold 3 Inconsiderable amount or extent a slight meal, a slight difference of opinion, not the slightest doubt 4 Intellectually inadequate, not weighty, trivial, insignificant his book is so slight as to be negligible slight (II), vb trans, fr preo To treat, speak of (persons), with less than the deserved degree of respect, to neglect, disregard, claims to attention and respect, to belittle to ignore his greeting was to slight him publicly slight (III), n, fr preo Action with regard to another which constitutes a breach of due respect, a neglect of deference due to a person, act or utterance expressing disrespect, a humiliation inflicted upon another slighting, adj [1 slighting, 2 slaiting] slight (II) & -ing Of the nature of a slight, expressing, conveying, a slight slightingly, adv Preo & -ly In a slighting manner slightish, adj [1 slītah, 2 slātit] slight (I) & -ish Somewhat slight slightly, adv [1 slītlī, 2 slāitlī] slight (I) & -ly In a slight manner, to a slight degree slightness, n [1 slītnes, 2 slāitnes] slight (I) & -ness Quality, condition, of being slight (in various senses) slily, adv See slyly slim, adj [1 slim, 2 slim] fr Du, op also MHG slimp, 'crooked, oblique', same word as Mod Germ schlamm, 'bad' Origin uncertain 1 Slender, slight, in girth and build, reverse of stout, thick a slim figure, leg, tree trunk &c 2 Slight in degree or amount very slim chances of success 3 (introduced from Cape Dutch during last Boer War) Crafty, wily, cunning slime, n & vb trans [1 slīm, 2 slāw] OE slim, MHG & ON slim, cogn w Lat limus, 'mud', Gk leios, 'smooth' See also lime (I) 1 n A Any soft, moist, sticky, slippery, substance, such as thin, oozy mud, moisture secreted by snails &c, b (fig) moral degradation 2 vb To cover, bedaub, with slime slimly, adv [1 slīmli, 2 slāwli] slimy & -ly In a slimy manner sliminess, n [1 slīmnes, 2 slāwines] slimy & -ness Condition, quality, of being slimy slimly, adv [1 slīmli, 2 slāwli] slim & -ly 1 Slenderly, slightly slimly built 2 With cunning, craftily slimness, n [1 slīmnes, 2 slāwines] See preo & -ness 1 Slenderness 2 Wileless, cunning slimy, adj [1 slīm, 2 slāw] slime & -y 1 Of the nature of, like, slime a slimy liquid &c 2 Covered, smeared, with slime a slimy road 3 (colloq) Obsequiously servile, obnoxious, fawning slimy manners &c slung (I), vb trans [1 slung, 2 slup] OE slengan, 'to creep', ME in mod sense, op OHG slangan, 'to creep', ON slýngva, 'to throw, sling', cogn w Luth slenku, 'to creep' See also slink The ME & Mod Engl sense perh due to the influence of slung 1 To throw with a free, swinging movement of the arm Phrs to sling ink, to write copiously and frequently, sling out, to hurl (esp a person) out of a room &c, to eject, to sling a man out of the room, to thrust out with a violent action 2 Specif, to cast by means of a sling, probably from noun 3 a To suspend by means of a sling to sling a sword from a belt, b to lift and leave hanging, to lift and move by means of a sling to sling a sick cow from the roof of a shed, to sling a crate on board a ship, c specif, to suspend (wounded limb), place in a sling, d sling oneself up (a tree), climb, hoist, oneself up by rapid easy movements slung (II), n, fr preo 1 Primitive device for throwing stones or other small missiles, used as weapon of offense, consisting of a short strip of leather or other material, held so as to form a loop in which the stone &c, is placed, as it is brought sharply forward by a rapid movement of the arm as in throwing, one end of the band is released 2 A throw, cast, stroke, from, or as from, a sling, (also fig) a blow, stroke, attack The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune (Shakespeare) 3 A band of material passed round an object in order to lift or suspend it, a such a band used for holding heavy weights which have to be hoisted by tackle, b a scarf or strip of cloth passed round the neck and hanging down in a loop in front for supporting an injured arm slung (III), n Etymol doubtful, but op Mod Germ schlingen, 'to swallow', an Am term A drink made of spirits, usually gum and water, sweetened and iced sling dogs, n A pair of grapping irons or cramps, slung by ropes, used for hoisting blocks of stone &c slinger, n [1 slinger, 2 slup] sling (I) & -er 1 Man armed with or using a sling, as a weapon 2 Man in charge of slings used as hoisting tackle &c slink (I), vb intrans [1 slīngk; 2 slupk] OE slincan, 'to creep', prob a variant of sling (I) To move, proceed, in a furtive, secretive, sneaking manner, (commonly) slunk away, about, off slink (II), vb trans & trans & n, variant of slung (I) 1 vb (of animals, esp cows) a intrans To muse, about, b trans, to cast, ship, give birth to (offspring) prematurely 2 n. A prematurely born calf or other animal slip (I), vb intrans & trans [1 slip, 2 slips]

ME slippen, 'to slip, glide, to escape', either fr OLG or formed in Engl fr the base in OE slipor, 'slippery', & slipig, 'slimy'. A cogn exists in O & MHG slifan, 'to glide, to make smooth, polish', Mod Germ schleifen, 'to sharpen'. A in trans

1 To slide, move, be moved, slowly from one place or position to another by weight or pressure, or owing to absence of friction on a smooth surface a table napkin slips off one's knee, a stone slips down the face of a cliff, over the edge of a grassy slope, the bolt slips quite easily into its catch 2 To miss one's footing through treading on some thing slippery or slimy, to stumble, trip, lose one's balance in walking or running to slip on the stairs, on the ice, my foot slipped, also slip up, to trip, stumble 3 A To slide out, away from, a normal or desired position a window catch slips out of the place, a paper has slipped down behind the bookcase, a tie is apt to slip up over the collar if not properly held in place, b to slide suddenly, and with a jerk, in an unexpected direction the knife slipped and cut my hand 4 A To run, slide, fall, away from a grasp or fastening the sword slipped from his nerveless hand, the rope slipped through my fingers, b to become relaxed or untied the knot is so firm that it can't slip, c to pass from one's mental grasp all these points had entirely slipped from my mind 5 To go, steal, away, escape swiftly and quietly, without attracting attention I slipped out just before the sermon, you had better slip away while the hymn is being sung, the dog slipped off after a hare, (also fig) to let opportunities slip 6 A To move, progress, glide, along, swiftly, smoothly, and easily the boat slips through the water, the car is slipping along splendidly, Phr to slip into another suit, dress, one's evening clothes &c, to put on a suit &c rapidly, b (of periods of time) to pass, esp to pass rapidly and imperceptibly life is slipping away and we get very little done, the years slip by and the seasons soon come round again B trans

1 To cause to slip or glide on, off &c, to pull on or off quickly to slip a ring on to a finger, slip one's shoes off, to slip one's clothes on, off 2 A To put in, insert take out, remove, quietly &c with smooth, gliding movement to slip a cartridge into (breach of) a gun, to slip one's hand into, out of, a pocket, b implying stealthy, furtive movement to slip money into a person's hand, to slip a pair of handcuffs on a man's wrists 3 To let go, release, a (of dogs) to let free from the leash to slip greyhounds on the hare, b (naut) to let go overboard by releasing tackle to slip an anchor, cable &c c to detach (railway carriage) from coupling and leave behind when moving 4 A To escape from a prisoner slips his captors, b to get rid of by slipping out of a dog slips his collar, a horse his bridle, a prisoner his handcuffs, c (of mental process) to slip the memory, pass out of, be forgotten 5 (of animals) To give birth to prematurely, to slink the cow has slipped her calf slip (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of slipping, an involuntary sliding action of the foot caused by treading upon something slippery, a stumble caused by a slip of the foot 2 A A slipping, sliding movement of anything out of straight line of progress, away from normal position &c the slip of a wheel on a slippery road, n sudden slip of a portion of a cliff Phrs a slip of the pen, a graphic error, error of expression in writing, slip of the tongue, slight error in utterance, many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip many things may possibly occur between the beginning of an action, and its completion, to prevent the latter, to give (a person) the slip to escape from, evade him, b an error in judgement, defect of knowledge, an error in conduct, a moral lapse 3 One of various kinds of loose garment easily slipped on 4 A loose outer linen cover or case, for a pillow or bolster 5 A A cutting, live shoot, taken from a plant for grafting, or planting, scion, hence b (i) (archaic, poet) a descendant, a youthful member of a family &c, (n) a young, undeveloped person, chiefly in Phr a (mere) slip of a boy, girl 6 (usually slips, pl) The leash or coupling by which a dog or couple of dogs, as greyhounds, is held 7 A A thin, narrow strip or piece of anything a slip of paper, wood &c, b specif, a galley proof, printed in single column on a long slip of paper, for revision before being set up in page form 8 A small, young solo or place 9 An inclined plane on which a vessel is built or hauled up for repair, a slipway 10 (cricket) One of the fielders, two or more in number, placed behind the wicket on the offside, in position to stop balls which slip or glance off the bat -short, long slip, placed close to or at a distance from the wicket, in the slips, in this position on the field 11 Clay in a semi liquid state, used to cover earthenware or for decorations &c slip-carriage, n A carriage, coach, on an express train which is detached or 'slipped' at a station where the rest of the train does not stop slip-knot, n A A running knot, one that slips up and down and tightens or loosens a loop, b form of knot which can be untied by a pull slipper (I), n [1 slipper, 2 slippers] slip (I) & -er A new formation, op, however, OE slipes scēah, lit 'slip shoe', where the first element is unconnected w slip A light, loose, easy shoe, worn indoors, esp while dressing and undressing, a light, lady's shoe, worn in the evening, for dancing &c slipper (II) n slip (I) & -er 1 Man who slips greyhounds in coursing 2 A shoe or drag, placed or slipped under the wheel of a cart or waggon to take the weight off the house when going downhill slipper (III), vb trans, fr slipper (I) (colloq) To obustate with a slipper slipper-bath, n Obsolete kind of bath shaped like a shoe, having a cover over lower part of the body and the legs slipped, adj [1 slipped, 2 slipped] slipper (I) & -ed Wearing slippers slipperly, adv [1 slipperly, 2 slipperly] slipperly & -ly In a slippery manner slipperiness, n [1 slipperiness, 2 slipperiness] See prec & -ness Condition, quality, of being slippery slipper-worm, n The calceolaria, also called lady's slipper slippery, adj [1 slippery, 2 slippery] OE slipor, 'slippery' & -y 1 (of a surface) Affording no purchase, producing only very slight friction in contact with other bodies, by reason of extreme smoothness, sliminess, ice &c, hence, liable to cause slipping and skidding if trodden or walked upon a slippery slope, deck, path, road, plank &c 2 Affording no purchase when grasped, liable to slip through the fingers, difficult to hold a slippery rope Phr as slippery as an eel, very slippery, (also in fig sense see 3) 3 (in moral sense) Unreliable, undependable, evasive, hard to pin down to a bargain, unscrupulous Phr a slippery customer, unreliable, unscrupulous person slippy, adj [1 slippy, 2 slippy] slip & -y (colloq) Quick, nimble, active, esp in Phr look slippy, be slippy about it, be smart, quick in going somewhere, or doing something slip-rope, n A rope, or bawser, so fastened that it can be easily slipped on and freed slipshod adj [1 slipshod, 2 slipshod] slip (I) & shod (I) 1 (archaic) Wearing shoes or slippers trodden or worn down at heel

2 Slowly, careless in dress, manners style of writing, speaking or in action generally slipslop, n. & adj [1 slipslop, 2 slipslop], Imitative 1 n a Weak, sloppy liquor or other hooch, b sentimental, sloppy writing, talk &c, trashy, futile gossip &c 2 adj Feeble, weak, sentimental, trashy slipway, n [1 slipwā, 2 slipwā] An inclined plane or slip in a dock or shipbuilder's yard slit (I), vb trans & intrans [1 slit, 2 slits] ME slitten, new weak formation, fr sliten, OE slitan, (strong), 'to tear, out', op O HG slizan, ON slita, op sliza 1 trans To cut open, make an incision in, with a sharp, cutting instrument to slit a person's throat, to slit open an envelope, to slit one's coat up the back 2 intrans To be slit the coat has slit in two places slit (II), n, fr prec 1 A narrow, clean cut incision a slit in one's coat &c 2 A narrow opening the window was a mere slit in the wall, he appears to have two slits for eyes slither, vb intrans [1 slither, 2 slithers] OE slidrian, 'to slip', ME slidieren, op OE slidor, 'slippery', fr gradational variant of base in slide 1 To slip and slide continually as in walking upon a hard, slippery road, or through liquid, slimy mud 2 To slide slowly along, or down, a surface, preserving continuous contact with it to slither along a bench, the car began to slither down the hill slithery, adj [1 slithery, 2 slithery] Prec & -y Slippery, causing one to slither, slimy silver, n & vb trans & intrans [1 silver, silver, 2 silvers, silvers] ME silver, 'part, portion', op ME silven, fr OE silfan, 'to cut, slice' 1 n Small, narrow piece, cut, torn, or split off anything 2 vb a trans To cut, tear, off a silver from, to cut into silvers, b intrans, to split into silvers slobber (I), vb intrans & trans [1 slobber, 2 slobbers] ME sloberen, apparently of Du origin, perh oogn w slaver (II) 1 intrans To allow saliva to run out of the mouth, to dribble, Phr to slobber over a person, cover him with fulsome caresses, speak to or of him with sentimental enthusiasm 2 trans To cover, wet, with saliva slobber (II), n, fr prec a Dribbling saliva, slaver, b maudlin, drivelling, sentimental talk &c slobberiness, n [1 slobberiness, 2 slobberiness] slobbery & -ness State, quality, of being slobbery slobbery, adj [1 slobbery, 2 slobbery] slobber & -y 1 a Inclined to slobber, b wet with saliva 2 Maudlin, drivelling, sentimentally emotional sloe, n [1 sloe, 2 sloes] OE slā, ME slō, cognates occur in other Gmc languages, origin doubtful, possibly oogn w Lith slayna, Russ sliva, 'wild plum', & w Lat lividus, 'blue', see livid The acid, bluish black fruit of the blackthorn or wild plum, Prunus spinosa sloe-gin, n A liqueur made from sloes steeped in gin sloe-worm, n See slow-worm slog, vb intrans & trans & n [1 slog, 2 slogs] Etymol doubtful 1 vb a intrans To hit hard, esp at cricket, to hit a ball, or at a ball, hard and wildly, slog at, to work hard, exert effort to accomplish to slog at one's work, to slog away, b trans, to strike with violence to slog a ball at cricket, to slog a man over the head 2 n A hard, rather random stroke, a violent blow slogan, n [1 slogan, 2 slogans] fr Gael sluagh gairm, fr sluagh, 'host, army', & gairm, 'cry, shout' 1 The gathering call or war cry of a Highland clan, a battle cry 2 A word or phrase embodying or standing as a symbol of, some principle or cause advocated by a political or other party, b similar phrase &c, used in advertising our slogan is 'high quality and low prices' slogger, n [1 slogger, 2 slogs] slog & -er 1 One who slogs; a hard, wild hitter, esp at cricket, a hard, steady worker sloid, sloyd, n [1 sloid, 2 sloid], fr šwed slojd, 'skill, dexterity', op sleight System of elementary manual training based upon the making of small wooden articles with the aid of simple tools sloop, n [1 sloop, 2 slup], fr Du sloop, LG sluup, fr slupen, 'to glide, slip along', cogn w OE slūpan, 'to glide', the base is seen outside Gmc in Lat, see lubricate. A single-masted fore and aft rigged vessel, with jib, mainsail, staysail, and gaff topsail sloop of war, n A small war vessel furnished with sails as well as steam sloop-rigged, adj Rigged as a sloop slop (I), n [1 slop, 2 slop] ME sloppe, 'puddle', OE -sloppe, in combin cū sloppe, 'cow's droppings', fr slūpan, 'to slip'. See sloop 1. A pool of spilt liquid, as produced by upsetting a cup or other vessel of any kind. 2 (pl slops) Water which has been used for washing, and liquid from other utensils, removed from bedrooms. Phr to empty the slops, remove water from hand-basins &c. 3 Slops, liquid food, milk, broth, milky puddings &c, as given to invalids to live on slops slop (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To be spilt, to overflow soms water has slopped on the floor, also slop over 2 trans To spill, cause to overflow slop (III), n, fr ON sloppr, 'loose robe', cogn w slip (only in pl slops) 1 (archaic) Loose, wide trousers or breeches 2 Ready-made clothing, esp clothes, bedding &c issued to sailors slop (IV), n For eclop, back slang for police (thieves' slang) A policeman slop-basin, n Small china basin, forming part of a breakfast or tea service, into which the dregs from teacups &c are poured slop clothes, n slop (III) & clothes Sailor's slops, ready-made clothes slope (I), n [1 slop, 2 slopp] In ME, first in aslope, 'ready to slip, on an incline', formal development obscure, perh connected w OE slūpan, 'to glide'. Cp sloop 1. An oblique, oblique direction or position, line away from the horizontal or perpendicular the slope of a roof, to give a slope to anything, b degree of inclination from the perpendicular or horizontal or from ground level the road rises at a slope of 1 in 20 Phr on the slope, obliquely, aslope, aslant 2 Sloping ground, ground rising or falling, an incline, a declivity the grassy slopes of the downs 3 Position of rifle when sloped at the slope slope (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans a To lie in an oblique direction, to incline, to slant the ground slopes sharply at this point, a sloping roof, forehead &c, b (slang) (1) to go away, also slope off, (u) slope about, to loaf, lounge, saunter, idly and aimlessly about 2 trans To give a slope to, to place at a slope or obliquely, to cause to slope or slant to slope the ground so that the water can run away, to slope a roof, to slope a ladder at a safe angle, Phr (mil) to slope arms, to hold rifle at the slope upon the shoulder sloping, adj [1 slōping, 2 sloūping], fr Pres Part of slope (II) Inclined, inclining, slanting, oblique slopingly, adv Prec & -ly In a sloping direction, or position, at a slope, obliquely slop pail, n A pail or bucket for holding the slops of a bedroom &c sloppily, adv [1 slōpili, 2 slōpili] sloppy & -ly In a sloppy manner sloppiness, n [1 slōpiness, 2 slōpiness] sloppy & -ness Condition, quality, of being sloppy (in various senses) sloppy, adj [1 slōpi, 2 slōpi] slop (I) & -y 1 a Of a thin, liquid, watery consistency, impregnated with liquid, reverse of firm a sloppy pudding, sloppy food, sloppy ground, b covered with liquid, or semi-liquid, liable to splash sloppy roads 2 (fig) a Carelessly, loosely, put together, or performed sloppy work, lacking sound, well-knit, terse construction sloppy style, b lacking restraint, sincerely depth sloppy sentiment slop-room, n slop (III) & room Room on board ship from which slops &c are issued slop-shop, n slop (III) & shop Shop where ready-made clothes or slops are sold slosh, n [1 slōsh, 2 slōsh] Variant of slush slot (I), n [1 slōt, 2 slōt] A-Fr escot, borrowed fr ME slooth, 'track', see sleuth slot (II), n & vb trans Etymol doubtful 1 n a A groove, slit, incision in any object into which something fits or along which something may slide, b a narrow aperture or slit, esp in an automatic machine, into which a coin is inserted to start the lever working the machine which delivers a small article, such as a packet of cigarettes &c 2 vb To make a slot in, provide with slots slot (I), n [1 slōth, 2 sloup] OE slēow, ME slēw, also sloup The latter is a new formation fr adj slōw, whence present form, see slow & -th Disinclination to, absence of, bodily or mental activity, indolence, laziness slot (II), n, fr prec One of several species of nocturnal, long-haired, slow-moving arboreal mammals found in the forests of S America slot-bear, n Bear with long black coat, and long claws, feeding on honey and insects, found in India and Ceylon slotful, adj [1 slōthful, 2 sloūpful] slot (I) & -ful Indolent, lazy, inactive slotfully, adv Prec & -ly In a slotful manner slotfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being slotful, slot slot-machine, n An automatic machine which delivers small packages of cigarettes, sweets &c through an opening upon the working of a lever set in motion by a coin placed in a slot slouch (I), n [1 slouch, 2 slaut] The development of the form is obscure, though there is apparently some connexion, as the dictionaries suggest, w ON slōkr, 'slouching, lazy fellow', fr slōka, 'to hang down, to droop, fall slack or loose', wh is prob in gradational relation to slack 1 A crouching, bent, stooping, attitude of head, shoulders, and back, in walking or sitting, a careless, clumsy, slovenly gait 2 (rare) Downward droop of a broad soft hat brim slouch (II), vb intrans, fr prec a To hold oneself with a slouch in sitting, standing, or walking, to move with a slovenly, clumsy gait, also slouch along; b slouch about, to hang idly about, to loaf, to loll in a lazy, aimless manner slouch-hat, n Hat of soft material, with a broad, turned down brim slough (I), n [1 slou, 2 slau] OE slōh, fr slugy*, cogn w schlingel & geschlinge, 'a small valley, gorge', found in Germ Pl-Na, connexion w Mod Germ schlingen, 'to swallow up, devour', is problematical, since in OHG the form was slunden, w thus cp OHG slunt, 'throat, swallow', Mod Germ schlund, 'gullet, abyss' A swamp, quagmire, a marshy, muddy place, a bog Phr Slough of Despond, the bog of sin in which Christian flounders at beginning of Bunyan's 'Pilgrim's Progress', hence any state of hopeless despondency &c slough (II), n [1 sluf, 2 slaf] ME slūghe, slūch, origin obscure, cp the cogn OHG slūch, Mod Germ schlauch, 'skin, bag, wallet' 1 'The skin of a snake cast off at certain periods, any part periodically shed or cast by an animal &c 2 Dead, injured tissue which comes away from a wound as this heals slough (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To beat, cast, throw off as a slough a snake sloughs its skin, wound sloughs dead tissue, b (fig) to cast away, discard as worthless or dead to slough off old prejudices, habits &c 2 intrans To form a slough, slough off, to come away, be shed, in form of a slough sloughy (I), adj [1 slōm, 2 slau] slough (I) & -y (rare) Resembling a slough, boggy, marshy sloughy (II), adj [1 slufi, 2 slāfi] slough (II) & -y (rare) Of the nature of, resembling, the slough of a snake, or the dead tissue cast off from a wound &c

Slovak, n [1 slōvak, 2 slōvayak] Czech Slovak, 'Slavic' See Slav 1 Member of a western Slav race inhabiting the reg on south-east of Moravia, now included in Czechoslovakia 2 Slavic language spoken by this race

Slovakian, adj [1 slōvákian, 2 slōvayákian] Prec & -ian Connected with, pertaining to, the Slovaks and their language sloven, n [1 sluvn, 2 slávn] ME sloven, fr M Du slof, sloef, 'a sloven, careless person', cogn w LG sluf, 'slovenly' & -in, Fr -ain, Lat -anus, see -an a An untidy, dirty, lazy person, a male slattern, b one who is slipshod, unmethodical, or careless in work &c

Slovene, n [1 slōvén, slōvén, 2 slōvín, slōvín], fr Slowene, the people's own name, cp Gk Slavēnos, & see Slav 1 Member of a South Slavonic race, inhabiting Carinthia and Styria, formerly included in the Austrian Empire, now one of the peoples forming, with the Serbs and Croats, Yugo Slavia

Slovenian, adj & n [1 slōvénian, 2 slōvínian] Prec & -ian 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the Slovenes, their language &c 2 n Language of the Slovenes, a Southern Slavonic language slovenliness, n [1 sluvnliness, 2 slávnliness] slovenly & -ness Condition, quality, of being slovenly slovenly, adj [1 sluvnli, 2 slávnli] sloven & -ly 1 Having the habits, character, of a sloven, a untidy, neglected, in appearance, clothes &c, b careless, negligent, slipshod, in performance of duties, work &c 2 (of work &c) Performed in a careless, slipshod way slow (I), adj [1 slō, 2 slou] OE slāw, ME slōwe, OS slēw, OHG slēo, 'dull, blunt', ON slōr, slār, further relations obscure, connexion w Lat laevus, 'left hand', is doubtful Reverse of fast, quick, rapid In physical, material senses 1 a Moving at a low rate of speed, traversing only a small space or short distance in a relatively long time a slow runner, walker, a slow ball (at cricket), a slow horse, one of the slower vessels of the line, Phr a slow train, one that stops at intermediate stations between terminal points, contrasted with express or fast train, b taking, occupying, a considerable time to complete a slow journey, crossing &c 2 Taking a considerable time, or longer than the average or usual time, to perform some action a slow worker, speaker, reader &c, a slow bowler, one who delivers a slow ball at cricket 3 Taking some time to develop, to accomplish a process, to take effect a slow growth of timber, a slow poison 4 In such a state as to cause an object travelling over it to move at a low rate of speed a slow cricket pitch, tennis court, billiard table, golf green &c 5 Taken at, performed at, a rate or rhythm below that of the average or common rate in slow time, at a slow pace, a slow step Phr slow march, of soldiers, as at a funeral or as a parade exercise 6 (of time) a (of clock or watch) Behind the correct time the clock is slow, ten minutes slow, b late, not punctual the guests are slow in arriving, to be slow in keeping an appointment In non material senses 7 a (of mental capacity) Not quick or alert, not able readily and rapidly to take in an idea or to understand, dull, sluggish, stupid slow of wits, slow of speech, very slow in grasping one's meaning, in learning lessons &c secretly, surreptitiously 2 Arch, playfully roguish, bantering sly jokes slyboots, n [1 slyboots, 2 slahüts] a A playful name given to a roguish child or pet animal & also b (as mildly reproachful term) a secretive person, one who is not perfectly frank slyly, slihy, adv [1 slihy, 2 slahü] sly & -ly In a sly manner slyness, a [1 slyness, 2 slyness] sly & -ness Quality of being sly slype, n [1 slype, 2 slasp] May be fr ME slyp*, fr OE type slyp*, mutated form of the base OE slypan*, 'to move, glide, smoothly', porh connected w slop (I), but not w slyp. The orig meaning was apparently simply 'a passage'. A narrow covered passage-way leading between two walls, specif, one from the transept of a cathedral or monastic church to the deanery or chapter-house smack (I), n [1 smak, 2 smak] OE smac, ME smak, 'taste, flavour', cp M Du smack, OHG smac, Mod Germ (geschmack) Origin obscure 1 The quality which gives a distinctive flavour or taste to anything, small quantity, trace, of any substance which gives a taste a smack of garlic in a salad, of resin in rough Italian wines, add a smack of pepper, spice & so to a dish 2 (in non-material sense) Significant trace, tinge, suggestion, of some quality a smack of the pedant about him, a smack of insincerity in his character, a smack of the sea in the man's garb and walk smack (II), v, intrans, new formation fr pres, the OE vb smaccan, 'to taste', wd give smack* in Mod Engl 1 To have a smack of, to taste slightly of, to indicate the presence of a substance by the taste or flavour southern cookery always smacks of oil, medicinal waters smacking of sulphur 2 (in non-material sense) To suggest the presence of (some quality), to have the air of, be tinged with, suggest his manner smacks of self-conceit, a style which smacks of pedantry smack (III), n, Of imitative origin, cp Dan smæk, 'smack, rap', Swed småk, 'slap', & op v, below 1 A smart explosive sound, a (of lips) in kissing or tasting anything a smack of the lips, b a smack of the whip, crack, o (of palm or flat of open hand) brought his hand down with a smack on the table 2 A loud, hearty kiss gave the girl a good smack on the lips, b smart blow from a whip, slap with open hand caught the horse a smack, he got a smack in the face for his trouble Pbr a smack in the eye, a disconcerting fact, rebuff &c smack (IV), v, trans & intrans Cp M Da smacken, Du smakken, 'to flag, throw, down', Dan smække, 'slap, bang' 1 trans a To part (lips) with slight explosive noise, esp as a sign of enjoyment over food, wine &c, or in anticipation, Pbr to smack one's lips over (something), (also fig) to dwell on with satisfaction, to gloat over, b to crack, make a loud noise with to smack a whip, o to strike, slap, smartly, but not severely, with the flat of the hand to smack the table, smack a naughty child 2 intrans n To make a sharp noise, as with lips, b to crack, as a whip smack (V), adv See smack (III) (colloq or slang) As if with a smack or slap, suddenly, directly, bang, slap to run smack into something, fell smack on to his back, caught him smack on the point of the chin smack (VI), n, fr M Du smacke, Da smak, LG smacke, 'a boat, boy, smack', origin obscure A small fishing boat, usually sloop-rigged smacker, n [1 smaker, 2 smake] smack (IV) & -or (colloq or vulg) a A loud-sounding kiss or slap, b anything very fine, large, or splendid, a stunner smacking, vbl n [1 smaking, 2 smuck] smack (IV) & -ing Act of smacking or slapping, punishment inflicted by a smack or slap the child wants a good smacking small (I), adj [1 smawl, 2 smöl] OE smæl, 'narrow, slender, fine, small', ME smal, OS, OHG smal, 'narrow, slight', Mod Germ schmal, 'narrow, slender', Goth smals, cp ON smali, 'small cattle', ie sheep or goats, cogn w O Slav malü, 'small', Gk melon, 'a small beast, sheep' 1 a Little, not large, of considerable bulk, height, extent a small dog, house, field, estate, piece of paper &c, b of less than average, usual, normal, size, not so large as other things of the same kind, of a size less than is desired, too small, undersized a small man is often very self-important, the cuckoo, though a large bird, lays small eggs, I find my house rather small, all the rooms are small, a small size in hats, a breed of small sheep, her nose was small but finely shaped, Phrs on the small side, rather too small, not large enough, a small whisky, half the usual portion, a small soda, small bottle of soda (water), a small size, half usual size, c specif, young, undeveloped, not fully grown, esp in small birds, a small boy, quite a child, a little hoy 2 a Inconsiderable in number, amount, quantity, reverse of numerous, large a small audience, dinner-party, small profits, a small present, a small sum of money, a small helping of pudding, b of inferior strength, quality, value, volume, or the like small beer, q v, Phrs small change, coins of low face value, a small voice, weak, not powerful 3 Not lasting long, of short duration a small time, while 4 a Insignificant, trivial, unimportant, petty small cares and worries, thankful for small mercies, matters too small to be worth notice, small errors, Phrs to feel small, feel rebuffed or snubbed, to look small, appear foolish, b involving but slight or inconsiderable interests, conducted on a petty scale a small business, to keep a small shop, a small tradesman, one having a small business, Phrs in a small way of business, doing only a small business, to live in a small way, poorly, unostentatiously 5 Narrow-minded, petty, reverse of magnanimous, mean, ungenerous small jealousies, a person of small mind, to enjoy a small triumph 6 Not much, but little to have small cause for gratitude, to pay small heed to what is said Pbr small blame to him, he was quite justified small (II), n, fr prec 1 The small, slender part of anything, esp of the part of the back above the waist small of the back 2 (pl smalls) Small clothes 3 Smalls, (Oxford Univ) popular name for the examination Responsions, q v small (III), adv, fr small (I) Only in Pbr to sing small, (fig) to express oneself with modesty and diffidence, to assume a humble attitude of mind, esp to cease boasting and asserting oneself as result of a rebuff, failure, humiliation &c smallage, n [1 smawly, 2 smöldiz] ME smalache, smakege, fr small (I) & Fr ache, 'parley', fr Lat apum, etymol doubtful Old popular name for wild celery small-arms, n A collective term, applied in widest sense to all military weapons that are wielded and carried by a single man, but more usually confined to all fire arms other than field or other artillery or machine guns small beer, n (obs) a A thin, weak beer, b (by transf) anything trivial or unimportant, trifling gossip To suckle fools and chronicle small beer (Shakespeare, 'Othello'), c an unimportant person he is very small beer, Pbr to think no small beer of oneself, have a high opinion of one's own abilities and importance small capital, n (typog) Capital letter of smaller size than the ordinary capital letter used small-clothes, n (archaic) Knee breeches small coal, n Broken coal, coal in small lumps small debts, n (law) Debts of such amount as can be sued for in a county court small fry, n a Diminutive, young fish, b persons, things, of no importance.

small-hand, n Ordinary handwriting, as distinguished from text hand small-holder, n A tenant of a small holding small-holding, n A small plot of land let at special rents and under special terms to agricultural workers for their own cultivation small hours, n pl The hours from 1 o'clock to 3 or 4, after midnight smallish, adj [1 smawly, 2 smöldiz] small (I) & -ish Rather, somewhat, small small-minded, adj Having a small, narrow mind, narrow-minded, mean, not magnanimous small-mindedness, n Prec & -ness State, quality, of being small minded smallness, a [1 smawly, 2 smöldiz] small (I) & -ness 1 State, quality, of being small 2 a Pottiness of mind, meanness, b petty, mean, action or motive his conduct revealed many unsuspected smallnesses small pica, n Size of type between long primer and pica smallpox, n [1 smawpoks, 2 smöldpoks] small (I) & pox, esp distinct fr the 'great pox', syphilis See pox An acute infectious and contagious disease, variola, often epidemic in occurrence, accompanied by high fever and an eruption of pustules or poeks, which in severe cases leave permanent scars small-sword, a A light sword for thrusting only, a rapier small-talk, n Easy, urbane, trivial conversation on general subjects of trifling importance small-wares, n pl Small articles of commerce, esp such as are sold by drapers, o g tapes, reels of cotton, ribbons, trinkets &c smalt, n [1 smawit, 2 smölt], fr Ital smalto, 'enamel', of Gmo origin, fr OHG smaltz, 'batter, grout', connected w OHG smelzan, 'to smelt' See under smolt (I) & op enamel A deep blue pigment obtained by fusing oxide of cobalt with silica and potash and reducing the glass thus formed into powder, b deep blue glass formed thus smart (I), v, intrans [1 smart, 2 smölt] OE smearian, ME smerten, 'to give pain', OHG smertan, Mod Germ schmerzen, 'to pain', op OHG smertzo, 'a pain, smart', prob Lat moedore for smordere*, 'to bite, sting', see mordant, & Gk smerdnōs, smerdalos, 'terrible' 1 a To feel, be affected by, a sharp, tingling, but comparatively slight and superficial pain, to feel sore and painful eyes smart with tears, smoke &c, his back smarted after five strokes of the cane, finger smarts from a sting, throat from scalding drink &c, a smarting wound, b (rare) to be the cause of a sharp pain a strong, carbolic dressing smarts when applied to a wound 2 To experience mental pain, n (rare) to suffer the sting of conscience, feel self-reproach I only hope your conscience is smarting, b to feel hurt or resentful he was still smarting from the insult, o smart under, to suffer from, to resent to smart under on injustice, to smart under the jibes of one's fellows, under the lash of reviewers &c 3 Smart for, to receive punishment for, be punished on account of he must be made to smart for his impudence, you shall smart for this smart (II), a, fr prec 1 a Sensation of smarting, a slight tingling, pricking pain, as from a superficial injury the smart of a broken blister, b (poet) pain generally, whether slight and superficial, or severe and deep-seated the smart of his wounds 2 Mental distress, wounded feeling caused by insult, resentment, grief felt at calamity the smart of ancient wrongs, of former errors smart (III), adj, fr prec 1 a Sharp, forcible, severe, delivered with energy and vigour a smart punishment, a smart blow, b occurring suddenly and with intensity, sharp a smart pain in the side. 2. Char- acterized by, involving, rapid, vigorous action or movement, break, quick a smart walk, gallop, you'd better be pretty smart about the job 3 a Alert, rapid, and dexterous in performance of an action, quick and clever a smart cricketer, bowler, hockey player, a smart carpenter, smart at his work, job &c b performed with celerity and skill a smart piece of work, to make a smart job of it, do something easily and well 4 (of persons) Mentally quick and alert, a ready, clever, acute, sharp witted, on the spot, quick to see a point or grasp a situation it was rather smart of him to seize the occasion and profit by it, he is as smart as his brother is slow and stupid, b witty, and ready of speech, but superficial, given to clever, pointed sayings uttered for effect, superficially clever, per you are merely trying to be smart, I hate your smart man who thinks a problem is settled by an epigram, o ohward, keenly alive to one's own interests and quick to further them, clever and unscrupulous he was inclined to be smart in his dealings, and few trusted him, more smart than honest 5 a (of sayings) Witty, pungent, pointed, but superficial, said for effect without regard to sincerity and truth he is very young, and too fond of saying smart things, b (of actions) displaying unscrupulous shrewdness and cleverness, tricky his methods were altogether too smart for an honest man 6 Neat and spruce, fresh, clean, bright, gay, in appearance, reverso of shabby or dingy, a (of persons) well dressed, carefully groomed, brushed up go and make yourself smart, he looked quite smart with white opals and a flower in his button hole, spoof (mill) having uniform and kit, accoutrements &c, clean and in good order, also with an implication of alertness and competence in performance of duties (see No 3 above) the regiment was not as smart as one could wish, the general expressed pleasure at their smart appearance, b (of dress) well made, well fitting, in good order, fresh, clean, hence striking, gay, showy his clothes were not new, but still looked smart, a smart lie and a dirty collar don't go well together, c (of other objects) tidy, in good order, clean, bright, fresh the lawn was mown and the paths swept, and the garden made smart for the party, a car painted sealing was red looks very smart 7 In accordance with the latest conventions of the moment among what is accepted as, or what claims to be, the most highly civilized and fashionable society, expressing, embodying, agreeing with, conventional standards of behaviour and action, belonging to the latest ton, modish, fashionable, good form it is no longer smart to wear long hair and a beard, smart men do not wear frock coats now, at one time it was smart to pronounce 'r' like 'w', at another to pronounce -in' for -ing, and to make certain slips in grammar, the smart set 8 (colls) Considerable, fairly large, extensive, intense &c a smart number of people present a smart frost Pbr a smart few, a good fairly large, number smartens, vb trans & intrans [1 smartn, 2 smartn] smart (III) & -en 1 trans To make smart, to give smart, spruce appearance, also smarten up (one's house, one's clothes, oneself) 2 intrans Chiefly smarten up, a to become smart, be smartened up, b to brush up, become alert smartish adj & adv [1 smartish, 2 smartish] smart (III) & -ish 1 adj Rather smart, fairly smart. Pbr a smartish few, a good ouibtr 2 adj (colloq) To some considerable extent it hurt smartish, it froze smartish last night smartly adv [1 smartly, 2 smartly] smartly (II) & -ly In a smart manner (la various senses), a sharply, severely he ought to be smartly censured, punished b rapidly, briskly bring the hands smartly to the ends c usually, intelligently, alertly, nittily to smarten one's, d (i) spruce, neatly quily, showily smarty, b but not fashionable smart-money, n (mainly obs or hist) 1 a Money paid as damages or compensation for injuries, esp when excessive or vindictive, b money exacted from or paid by a person to escape from an unpleasant situation or severe penalty 2 (mil and nav) a Money allowed to a soldier or sailor for wounds received on active service, b money paid by a recruit before being sworn in, to escape formal enlistment smartweed, n [1 smártwēd, 2 smátwīd] The water pepper, Polygonum, which has sharp, acrid juice smash (I), v_o trans & intrans [1 smash, 2 smash] Prob of imitative origin, on clash, dash & , Norw has smaska, 'to break to bits'. A trans 1 a To break, dash, to pieces, shatter to smash a window she dropped a plate and smashed it to atoms b smash in, to break, burst, through with violence, cease to fall or open inwards to smash in a door, c smash up, to break up to smash up the furniture 2 (colloq) To deal a heavy blow to, to hit hard to smash a man on the nose, in the ribs, over the head 3 (law-tennus &c) To hit (ball &c) downwards with hard, overhead stroke so that it is impossible to return 4 To defeat utterly, annihilate, destroy, crush, bring to nothing a to smash an attack, b to smash an argument, an opponent in argument, c smash, to ruin financially, to break, bankrupt B intrans 1 To break up into pieces, to be shattered, to fall to pieces the cup fell and smashed to pieces 2 To collide with, rush into, or on to, some thing the car smashed into a wall, ship smashed on to the rocks &c 3 To come to grief, disintegrate, be destroyed, go to pieces, also smash up, (i) to lose one's health utterly, spend (ii) to be financially ruined 4 (slang) To make counterfeit coin smash (II), n, fr pres 1 a Process of smashing, a violent shattering, a breaking to pieces, b sound caused by a violent fall, or by the process of something being smashed, a clatter, Plur to go, come, to smash, to be ruined, destroyed, specif, to be financially ruined 2 Also smash up, a a violent collision, fall b crash his ribs as a result of a smash in, with his car, he's bound to have a smash up if he drives so recklessly, c failure, bankruptcy, run the smash-up of a great business, d a catastrophe of any kind there will be a smash up in that household long long 3 (colloq.) An used drink of brandy or other spirit and water, sweetened and flavoured with mint &c.

smash (III), adv fr prec (colloq, after vbs of movement) With a smash, equivalent to bang, slap, crash the cars ran smash into each other smasher, n [1 omáshor, 2 smásh] smash (I) & -er One who, that which, smashes, Speed (shog) 1 a a crushing, smashing, blow, b a convincing, decisive, argument & 2 One who niters counterfeit coin, counterfeiter.

smashing, adj [1 sməʃɪŋ, 2 smæʃɪŋ], tr Pres Part of smash (1) Tending to smash, destructive, disastrous, crushing, overwhelming, shattering a smashing blow, a smashing argument, defeat, a smashing victory, one in which the smasher is victorious

M.L. smatieren 'to make a noise, to talk, prate ignorantly', Scand., cp Sved smattra, 'to elator', imitative in origin (obs or archaic) 1 To talk, chatter, boast something of which one is ignorant 2 To have only a slight or superficial knowledge of anything, to dabble in to smatter in Latin

Preo & -er One who has only a superficial, slight knowledge of a subject, a dabbler smattering, n [1 smättering, 2 smättering] smatter & -ing A slight, superficial knowledge of a subject smear (I), n [1 smēr, 2 smie] OE smearu, smaru, 'fat, grease', ME smēre, OHG smero, ON smýr, 'grease, fat', Goth smayrpr, 'fatness', cogn w Lith smareas, 'fat', Gk smiron, 'ointment, unguent', O Ir smur, 'marrow' A spot, stain, blotch, mark, made by a rub or touch from a greasy, sticky, staining, or dirty substance a smear of greasy fingers on the glass, a smear on one's face smear (II), vb trans & intrans O E smear uan, ameruian, ME smēren See prec A trans 1 To put a smear upon, to soil by contact with greasy, dirty substance to smear one's face, b to rub, daub, with grease, dirt &c to smear one's face with grease-paint, to smear a plate with butter, c (rare) to sully, stain, morally 2 To rub (grease or sticky substance, dirt &c) on to to smear butter on to a plate 3 To blur, render indistinct by a rubbing, brushing movement to smear the address on a letter B intrans a (of greasy, sticky substance) To cause a smear, b to be liable, tend, to blur, or to be smeared anything written with a soft pencil smears easily smeariness, n [1 smérnes, 2 smierinis] smeary & -ness State, quality, of being smeary smeary, adj [1 smēn, 2 smērī] smeary (I) & -y 1 Covered, stained, blurred, with smears, having the appearance of having been rubbed with something greasy or sticky a smeary window-pane, a woman's face smeary with paint and powder 2 Likely, tending, to become smeared, sticky, greasy the paint is still wet and smeary smear n See smew smear n [1 smérgma, 2 smérgma], fr Gk smérgma, 'soap', fr sméllein, 'to wipe off', fr emsein, 'to wipe', cognates doubtful A scapy, sebaceous secretion from the glands, in folds of the skin smell (I), n [1 smel, 2 smel] Not recorded in OE, in ME occurs in the dialectal variant forms smel, smul, smul, the first of wh is the ancestor of the present form, & must be of the Essex or SE dual type, fr smul*, perh cogn w smoulder (I) 1 That one of the five senses which perceives odours through stimulation of the olfactory nerve conveyed through the nose taste and smell are closely connected 2 That which is perceived by the olfactory organs, an odour whether pleasant or unpleasant, a scent, a perfume a the pleasing smell of newly broken earth, b a stink a stench sulphur fumes have a disgusting smell 3 Act of smelling, a snuff to take a smell at a nosegay (prob formed fr the vb)

smell (II), v_t trans & intrans M E smellen, smellen, (odours) See pre 1 A to perceive (odours) by means of the olfactory organs, to be conscious of the odour of do you smell something burning? 1 I don't smell anything, Phrs to smell a rat, have suspicions, suspect, that something is wrong, to smell powder, to have experience of warfare, to be vaguely conscious of, to suspect, to scent to smell treason 2 To direct one's sense of smell upon, to sniff, halahlo, the odour of just smell this rose 3 Smell out, to track, discover, by means of the sense of smell hounds soon smell out the fox, B (fig) to track, discover, unravel to smell out a mystery B intrans 1 A To have the sense of smell, to have the capacity of perceiving odours one cannot smell with a cold in the nose, Phr to smell round, come smelling round, to poke and pry, to try to pick up odds and ends of information, B smell a, to sniff the odour of to smell at a flower 2 to omit an odour (good or bad) the old-fashioned roses often smell deliciously, many of the new ones don't smell at all, b especially, to emit an unpleasant odour, to stink in hot weather meat soon begins to smell, the room is so stuffy, it positively smells, c (often followed by adj or adv) to smell good, have a pleasant smell, smell bad, nasty, to smell nicely, delightfully &c 3 Smell of, a to have a smell characteristic of, be redolent of, fragrant with the house smells of paint, your clothes smell of tobacco smoke, of camphor &c, to smell of drink &c, Phr to smell of the lamp, to show signs of having oost much labour, (op Phr to burn the midnight oil), b to suggest, to smack of the whole affair smells of plotting and intrigue smellable, adj [1 smélabl, 2 smelabl] smell (II) & -able Capable of being smelt smeller, n [1 smeler, 2 smelə] smell (II) & -er (vulg slang) 1 The nose 2 a A heavy fall, b a severe blow smelling-bottle, n [1 sméling bôtl, 2 sméling bôtl] Bottle filled with smelling salts smelling-salts, n An aromatic compound of carbonate of ammonia crystals, mixed with some strong pungent essence, used for faintness, headache, &c smell-less, adj [1 smél les, 2 smél lis] smell (I) & -less 1 Deprived of, lacking the sense of, smell 2 Having no smell, scentless, odourless smelly, adj [1 smel, 2 smel] smell (I) & -y (colloq) Having a disagreeable smell, whiffy smelt (I), vb trans [1 smelt, 2 smelt] Soand, op Swed smälta, 'to smelt iron ore', cogn w O HG smelzan, 'to melt, become fluid', & smelzan, 'to cause to melt', a primitive variant of melt a To subject (ore) to intense heat and reduce it to fluid state in order to extract the metal from it, b to extract (metal) from ore by smelting to smelt copper smelt (II), n In OE, perh fr same base as OE smolt, 'calm, smooth' A small edible fish with silvery sides, belonging to the genus Osmerus, found in tidal waters smelter, n [1 smélter, 2 smélts] smelt (I) & -er One who smelts ore, a worker in a smeltery or at a smelting-furnace smeltery, n [1 smelteri, 2 smelters] Preo & -y Establishment where ore is smelted smelting-furnace, n [1 sméltng ftrnis, 2 sméltng ftrnis] Furnace in which ore is smelted smew, n [1 smū, 2 smjū], also smee Origin very doubtful A small diving sea-duck with black and white plumage, allied to the merganser smilax, n [1 smíleks, 2 smáleks] Gk smilax, 'bindweed convolvulus', ozymol doubtful (bot) a (cap) A genus of climbing plants, with small greenish flowers, some tropical species of which yield sarsaparilla, b a climbing or twining S African vine, grown in green-houses for its beautiful foliage smile (I), vb intrans & trans [1 smíl, 2 smail] ME smílen, prob Scand, op Swed smíla, perh ultimately fr base smi*- &c seen in Sort smíra, 'smiling', Lat mirari, 'to wonder' See mirror A intrans 1 To allow the features to assume an expression indicative of mild amusement, joy, pleasure, benevolence &c, by drawing up the corners of the mouth and generally relaxing the facial muscles, esp those round the eyes, reverse of to frown he smiled to see the children's frolics, to smile through one's tears, what are you smiling at?, what is making you smile? 2 Smiles at, (fig) to regard with indifference or mild contempt, to disregard I can afford to smile at your threats 3 Smile on, upon, (fig) to regard with favour, to be propitious to he rejoiced when the lady of his choice smiled upon him, fortune has smiled upon him from his birth 4 To convey an impression of joy, cheerfulness, prosperity, well-being to all nature smiled, a smiling landscape trans 1 To express by a smile to smile farewell, forgiveness 2 (w cogn object) To smile a bitter smile 3 Such constructions as, to smile away his grief, to dispel by a smile &c, are possible but rare smile (II), n See preo 1 Act of smiling, facial expression somewhat resembling that in a laugh, but unaccompanied by any vocal sound, while the lips are closed and curve upwards at the corners greet one with a smile, to raise a smile on the face of the audience, 'The tear which enjoyment may gild with a smile' (Moore), a face wreathed in smiles, the word denotes an expression indicating mild, placid, amusement, joy, benevolence &c, unless some qualifying word or phrase shows the contrary, e g a bitter, cruel, smile, a smile of contempt, derision &c, also in I can afford to regard your threats with a smile &c 2 (usually pl) Favour, support, favourable attitude the smiles of fortune, he long enjoyed the smiles of his sovereign 3 External appearance of nature which suggests and promotes feelings of cheerfulness, gaiety &c the smile of spring smileless, adj [1 smíles, 2 smíllis] Preo & -less Without a smile smiling, adj [1 smíling, 2 smáiling], fr Pres Part of smile (I) 1 Wearing a smile a pleasant, smiling face, I wish the portrait was more smiling, and less stern 2 (of land scape) Conveying an impression of placid cheerfulness and prosperity, radiant, peaceful, serene 'To scatter plenty o'er a smiling land' (Gray) smilingly, adv [1 smílingh, 2 smáilingh], fr Pres Part of smile (I) & -ly In a smiling manner, with a smile smirch, vb trans & n [1 smérch, 2 smít] Apparently formed fr smear, but the nature of the ending is obscure 1 vb To smear, stain, tarnish, soil, sully (esp in fig sense) to smirch a person's fair name, fame, reputation &c 2 n Stain, blot (esp fig) it has left a smirch on his reputation smirk, vb intrans & n [1 smérk, 2 smík] In OE smearcan, 'to smile', ME smirken is connected w this, but not derived fr it Origin entirely uncertain 1 vb To contort the lips into a disagreeable expression of low satisfaction, or self conceit, to smug in a self-satisfied manner 2 n A disagreeable gesture, or contortion, of the lips, partly resembling a smile, but expressing or suggesting fatuous self complacency, would-be arohnness, and eo on smite, vb trans & intrans [1 smít, 2 smait] OE smítan, ME smíten, O HG smízan, 'to stroke, to strike', Goth (b) smítan, 'to enout', the orig meaning was perh 'to throw', thence 'throw down', Walde derives the Gmc words fr an Aryan base smēd*, 'throw', fr a variant of wh (s)mei-* &c, comes Lat mittere, 'to send', q v under miss (II) (archaic or poet) A trans 1 To strike, hit, hard, to deal a heavy blow upon or to to smite a person on the cheek, head, Moses smote the rock with his rod, to smite the drum, smite one's hands together, to smite a person's head off, decapitate him 2 a To defeat, rout with slaughter, to slay 'go and smite Amalek and spare not', b to afflict with 'I will smite the Egyptians with pestilence', smitten with palsy 3 To affect, fall upon, strike, the senses, powerfully a blinding glare smote our eyes, our ears were smitten by a deafening roar, a horrible alien smote our nostrils 4 a To affect strongly, distress the mind, cause a moral twinge or pang to my conscience smites me, smitten with remorse, b (only in PP pass) to be smitten by, to have the affections and emotions deeply stirred, be struck by he was much smitten by the charms of Miss X, to be smitten by Miss X, to be in love with, I am suddenly smitten with a desire for a pipe, am strongly desirous of B intrans 1 To strike, deal, a heavy blow, to slay smite and spare not, 'That two handed engine at the door stands ready to smite once, and smite no more' (Milton, 'Lycidas') 2 Smite on, upon, to strike, beat, hammer, upon he smote on the door, sound smites on one's ears, sunlight smiting on one's eyes &c, smite together, to knock one against the other his knees smote together in his terror smiter, n [1 smíter, 2 smáts] Preo & -er One who smites to turn one's cheek to the smiter smith, n [1 smíth, 2 smáþ] OE smiþ, ME smith, Goth (aza-) smiþa, '(copper) smith', ON smiðr, 'a worker in wood or metal', the orig sense seems to have been 'worker, wright, craftsman', perh fr a base smē-, smi- &c, 'to bow, out', op Gk smíle, 'knife', & perh Goth smílan (fr (s)mai), 'to hook, bow', O HG smazan, 'out', & meisel, 'hacking tool' The Gmc specialisation of smith as 'metal-worker' is a lat process A worker in metal, usually one who works in and forges iron, in full, blacksmith also in compounds, as tinemith, goldsmith silversmith &c smithereens, n pl [1 smíðheréns, 2 smíðrínz] Origin unknown, the suff appears to be the Ir dimin as in colleen, 'a girl' & (colloq, slang) Small pieces, fragments, atoms to blow, smash, to smithereens smithy, n [1 smíðhi, 2 smíðs] New formation fr smith & -y, perb on anal of stithy The OE form for a forge, smith's workshop was smiþpe, op ON smiþja, wh wd become simply smith* in Mod Engl A blacksmith's shop, a forge smitten, vb [1 smítn, 2 smítin] PP o smite, q v for special uses OE (ge) smíten ME smíten smock (I), n [1 smok, 2 smók] OE smoc(c), 'smock frock, women's shift', ME smock, cogn w ON smokkr, O HG smoccho connected w OE smúgan, 'to creep into' op ON smýgja, 'to creep into', esp to get into a garment by putting it over one's head Cogn w Lith smūli, 'to slip down', O Slav smúati, 'to creep', for probable fr their cognates see nuvous Cp smuggle 1 (archaic) A women's shift or chemise 2 a A loose, sleeved, linen garment worn outside other clothes, formerly much worn by workers on the land, also called a smock-frock, b an overall similarly shaped, worn by small children and young girls smock (II), vb trans Back formation fr smocking To decorate (garment) with smocking smock-frock, n A long outer garment of linen, with pleated gathers at neck and shoulders, and ornamented at front and back of the neck with 'smocking', formerly worn by farm labourers, milkmen &c smocking, n [1 smókng, 2 smáking] smock (I), 2, & -ing Needlework in which the material is stitched into very small pleats or gathers, forming a kind of honeycomb ornamentation smock-mill, n A form of windmill, in which the cap alone moves round to the wind with the sails, contrasted with post mill, where the whole body of the mill revolves smokable, adj [1 smokabl, 2 smókabl] smoke (II) & -able Capable of being, fit to be, smoked smoke (I), n [1 smók, 2 smouk] OE smoca, ME smōks, in gradational relation to ME smouch, Mod Germ schmouch, 'thick smoke, whiff of smoke', op Lith smuigi, 'to choke', op further O L smēocan, 'to smoke, to fumigate', cogn w Gk smíle, 'to burn with a smouldering flame' 1 The volatile gaseous product of the combustion of any organic substances, rendered visible by uncombusted particles of carbon, suspended in it and deposited as soot Phrs no smoke without a fire, no rumour or scandal without some foundation for it, to end in smoke, come to, and in, nothing, his smoke, (slang) at once, quickly, readily 2 Any thing which resembles the smoke of burning substances, as heavy cloud of steam, vapour, spray &c the smoke of a volcano, of a water fall &c 3 (fr vb) a lot of smoking tobacco to long for a smoke, b (colloq., vulg) some thing to be smoked, a cigar, cigarette a box of good smokes smoke (II), vb intrans & trans New formation fr prec The OE vb smōcan wd becomes smēl* in Mod Engl A intrans 1 To emit, discharge, smoke on every hill a bonfire smoked 2 Specif a to discharge smoke in a wrong direction the study chimney, fire, fireplace, smokes, i.e. discharges its smoke downwards into the room, instead of upwards into the air, b to give off smoke, through imperfect combustion, where there should be none oil lamps smoke if they are not properly trimmed 3 To give off, exhale, steam or vapour, to reek the horses were smoking after the gallop, their swords smoked with blood 4 To smoke tobacco smoke into the mouth from a pipe, cigar, cigarette, and blow it out again everyone smokes nowadays, you must not smoke in this carriage 5 (schoolboy slang) To hush B trans 1 A to impregnate (meat &c) with wood smoke in order to outlast and preserve it to smoke a ham, salmon, herrings, b to impart the taste and smell of smoke to, to spoil taste of (food) by allowing smoke to reach it when cooking the milk has been smoked 2 To darken by depositing carbon on, by exposing to, or impregnating with, smoke smoked glasses 3 Gen smoke out, a to fumigate, purify, by impregnating thoroughly with chemical fumes to smoke out a sick room, b to drive away, expel, by a discharge of smoke or poisonous vapour upon to smoke rats out of a barn 4 A to breathe in and out the smoke of, by means of a pipe, or in form of cigarette &c to smoke tobacco, opium &c b to draw at, for purpose of smoking smoke into the mouth to smoke a pipe, cigarette &c 5 (reflex) To bring into a specified condition by smoking tobacco to smoke oneself silly &c 6 (arabico or obs) To have an inkling of, suspect existence or character of, be suspicious of, to detect (as one suspects fire from getting a whiff of smoke) to smoke a plot, I smoked his intentions at once, I smoked him as a traitor 7 (obs or liter) A To tease, chaff, quiz (as it were to pester by discharging smoke at) they smoked the young man rarely on the subject of his intrigue, b to bamboozle, take in, hoax, deceive (as by blinding with smoke) they smoked him that the lady was a fortune smoke-bell, n a smoke bomb, a small bell used in trap shooting which emits a puff of smoke when hit smoke-bomb, n Bomb or other missile filled with chemical which on ignition by explosion throws out dense clouds of smoke, which serve as a screen in warfare smoke-box, n A hollow space or chamber between the end of the boiler of a steam engine and the funnel or smoke stack smoke-consumer, n Apparatus or device for consuming the solid particles in the smoke from a furnace &c before it is allowed to be discharged into the air smoke-dried, adj [1 smók dríð, 2 smouk draud] Dried and cured in wood smoke smoke-jack, a A jack or spit for roasting meat in which the motive power is obtained from a small fly wheel placed in the chimney of the kitchen range and turned by the ascending heated air smokeless, adj [1 smókles, 2 smókúles] smoke (I) & -less Not producing smoke, making little or no smoke, not attended by smoke, esp smokeless powder, an explosive, such as cordite, which explodes with little or no smoke, smokeless fuel smokelessly, adv Prec & -ly In a smokeless manner, without producing smoke smokelessness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being smokeless smoker, a [1 smókár, 2 smókúks] smoke (II) & -er 1 One who smokes, esp one who habitually smokes tobacco smoker's heart, throat attention of the heart or throat, due to excessive smoking of tobacco 2 (colloq.) a A carriage or compartment on a railway train reserved for smokers, b n smoking cocoon smoke-screen, a A cloud of thick smoke spread by smoke bombs or other devices, used in land or sea warfare to conceal movements from the enemy smoke-stack, n The funnel of a steamship, factory chimney smokily, adv [1 smókúli, 2 smókúli] smoky & -ly In a smoky manner smokiness, n [1 smókúnce, 2 smókúnie] smoky & -ness State, quality, of being smoky smoking-carriage, n [1 smókúng kan], 2 smókúng karúð Carriage or compartment on a railway train reserved for smokers smoking-concert, n Concert at which smoking is allowed smoking-jacket, n A jacket, usually braided &c, worn formerly by smokers to prevent the smell of tobacco smoke affecting their clothes smoking-room, n Room in house, hotel &c in which smoking is allowed smoky, adj [1 smók, 2 smókú] smoke (I) & -y 1 Emitting, giving off, smoke, esp in excessive quantities or of black, dense quality smoky chimneys, a smoky chimney is also one which discharges smoke into the room 2 Filled, dense with, covered by, smoke a smoky town, room &c, a smoky atmosphere 3 Stained with, of the colour of, smoke smolt, n [1 smólt, 2 smóult] OE, 'calm, serene', in dial use, 'shining', orig 'liquid, smooth', perh a gradational variant of smelt (II) A young salmon in its second year, when its silvery scales are developed smooth (I), adj [1 smóðh, 2 smóð] OE smóp, fr wh our present form comes, is only noted once, & then in the sense of 'serene' applied to the human countenance, the regular form is smóp, a mutated form, fr *smóp

The old meanings were 'smooth, polished, soothing, flattering, suave, harmonious, pleasant, comfortable' The Gmc form was *smān, whence OE smóp by a well known & regular change (op tooth, OE tōþ, fr *tanþ), eogn w M H G smant, 'cream', wd, however, is apparently orig a Slav loan word, op Czech smant, & Russ smelana, 'cream' (fr *smant), Sort manth, 'hutter'

The ultimate meaning was apparently 'bottery', OE is the only Gmc language wh preserves the word, & then only in derived senses

In M E the mutated form smóthe was gradually ousted by the unmutated smóth, it survives, however, in such names as Smeth & Smadley In general sense, the reverse of rough 1 (of surfaces in general) Free from roughness or irregular projections perceptible to touch or sight glossy, polished, glabrous, silky a smooth paper, bark of tree, plank of wood, floor &c smooth sheet of ice, smooth as marble 2 (of edge) Not jagged or indented, even the smooth edge of a table razor &c 3 (of undulations or sudden depressions and elevations a smooth lawn, smooth slopes of a hill, a smooth road, one easy to travel on Phr to make things smooth for a person, to make them easy, get rid of difficulties, obstacles, &c, the way is now smooth (for further progress &c), obstacles have been removed 4 (of water) Not agitated and broken by waves or ripples, calm, unruffled a smooth sea, stream, lake, a smooth passage, crossing, one across a smooth, calm sea, to get to, reach, smooth water, to come safely through difficulties &c 5 (of skin) (i) Not hairy or bristly, whether made so by nature or by shaving a smooth face chin, (ii) unwrinkled, as by age the smooth cheeks of youth, b (of animal's coat &c) not long or rough or shaggy, sleek, v (of hair) sleek, glossy, well brushed, not ruffled ap d (hot) having no pubescence or down, not prickly 2. (of countenance)

Well, evenly, mixed, of the same fine texture throughout, not coarse or lumpy a smooth paste 7 (of taste) Soft, soothing, bland, not harsh or acid or astringent good wine should be silky and smooth 8 (of melody, style) Flowing easily, rhythmical, not disjointed, harsh, or discordant smooth verses, a smooth phrase, in music &c 9 (of motion) Not interrupted, not subject to motion, jolt, jolts, moving easily and freely, like well-oiled machinery the smooth running of an engine 10 a Suave, soothing bland, calm, unruffled a smooth temper, disposition &c, smooth, polished couriers, b flattering, conciliatory, often with suggestion of insincerity to speak smooth words, such as are pleasant and flattering to another's susceptibilities, or words which gloss over real difficulties, a smooth tongue, one ready with smooth, flattering words smooth (II), n, fr prec 1 That which is smooth, something smooth, esp, smooth ground 'O'er rough and smooth she trips along' (Wordsworth, 'Lucy Gray') Phr to take the rough with the smooth, to take things as they come, the unpleasant with the pleasant, to accept the ups and downs of life 2 (from vb) Act of making smooth give one's hair a smooth, (also fig) his temper is ruffled and needs a smooth down smooth (III), also smooths, vb trans & intrans, fr smooth (I) A trans 1 To make smooth or level, to remove roughnesses, projections &c from the surface of to smooth rough ground &c, to smooth wood with a plane 2 a To arrange neatly and evenly by brushing, patting, or pressing down smooth one's hair, ruffled clothing, a rumpled sheet &c, also b smooth out, away, down, to remove so as to make smooth to smooth out wrinkles from a coat death has smoothed away the lines from his face 3 To make easy by removing obstructions &c to smooth a path, road, (also fig) to smooth difficulties away 4 Smooth down, to soothe, render calm to smooth down a person, his temper, to smooth down quarrels, differences 5 Smooth over, to gloss, minimize to smooth over faults B intrans Smooth down, a to become smooth or calm the sea gradually smoothed down, b (fig) become easier, less disturbed affairs have smoothed down since the cause of trouble was removed smooth (IV), adv, fr smooth (I) Smoothly the engine is running very smoothly today, things have gone smoothly with me smooth bore, n Gun with barrel not rifled smooth breathing, n (Gk gram) a Sound of initial vowel when not aspirated, b symbol, of this before such vowel smooth-faced, adj [1 smóðh fát, 2 smóð faret] a Having a smooth or hairless face, clean shaven, b (fig) having a suave, bland manner, usually with sense of insincerity smoothing-iron, n [1 smóðhing lern, 2 smóðing dærn] A tailor's flat iron for smoothing and pressing clothes smoothing-plane, a [1 smóðhing plān, 2 smóðing plen] A small carpenter's plane with closely set blade for finishing work smoothly, adv [1 smóðhli, 2 smóðli] smooth (I) & -ly In a smooth manner (in various senses of adj) smoothness, n [1 smóðhnes, 2 smóðnes] See prec & -ness State, quality, of being smooth (in various senses of adj) smote, vb [1 smót, 2 smout] OE smát, M E smoci, Pret of smite smother (I), vb trans & intrans [1 smóððer, 2 smóð] M E smotheren, the OE form is smorvan, to choke, suffocate, the formation of the M E word is obscure, as is the origin of the OE form Alleged connexion w smoulder is very doubtful as the words agree neither in sense nor form A trans 1 a To suffocate, choke, stifle, prevent access of air to the lungs of, cause difficulty of breathing to be smothered by thick smoke, the fog was smothering me, b to kill by suffocation, as by pressure of something over mouth and nose the princes were smothered in the Tower, also fig, smothered by unwelcome attentions 2 A To put out, damp down (fire), by heaping ashes &c on it so as to prevent free passage of air, b To cover up (light) so as to prevent visibility, c (fig) to conceal, enpress, stuff to smother a yawn, smother one's boredom, also to smother (up) a crime, scandal 3 A To cover, wrap up, entirely and thickly town smothered in smoke, fog, smother the patient in blankets, b to spread, heap, thickly upon to smother a salad with oil, coffin smothered in flowers, o (fig) to heap on, cover, overwhelm the smothered the child with kisses B intrans To feel choked, suffocated, be unable to breathe, to stifle I shall smother if I stay in this hot room smother (II), n See prec 1 (archaic) A smouldering fire, ashes 2 A A choking, stifling, cloud of smoke, fog, or dust, b a heavy cloud of steam, spray smothery, adj [1 smudheri, 2 smáðari] smother (I) & -y Stifling, suffocating smoulder (I), vb intrans [1 smólder, 2 smóldra] ME smolderen, op LG smólen, Du smoulen, perh cogn w smóll (I) 1 (of fire) To burn slowly, with smoke but little or no flame 2 (of emotions &c) To be felt inwardly, without outward sign, to be in a latent or suppressed condition hatred smouldered in his heart, the rebellion smouldered for some time and then broke out afresh

smoulder (II), n, fr prec A smouldering fire, smother smudge (I), vb trans & intrans [1 smudj, 2 smáðj] ME smogen, variant of smutch 1 trans A To make a dirty mark or smear on, to smear with dirt to smudge the wall-paper with one's finger, with face smudged with soot, b to smear, blot, blur (writing, a drawing &c) 2 intrans To be liable to be, to become, smudged or blurred this spongy paper smudges badly smudge (II), n, fr prec A smear, dirty mark, a blur, blot smudge (III), n Origin doubtful A fire of weeds &c kept smouldering to drive away insects, as in a garden &c smudgily, adv [1 smúðli, 2 smáððli] smudgy & -ly In a smudgy, blurred, manner smudginess, n [1 smúðnes, 2 smáððnes] See prec & -ness State, quality, of being smudgy smudge, adj [1 smúðj, 2 smáððj] smudge (II) & -y Covered with smudges, smodged, smeared, blurred, blotted with dirty marks or smudges smug (I), adj [1 smug, 2 smag] fr LG & Du smuk, 'neat, spruce', op Germ schmuck, 'ornament', & schmücken, 'to dress, adorn', cogn w MHG smiegem, 'to creep into, put on (clothes) over the head', see smock & smuggla 1 (archaic) Neat, trim, spruce 2 A Pedantically, affectedly, precise in appearance, manner, or conduct, b scrupulous in keeping up the appearance of respectability, absurdly self-satisfied and complacent, prim, narrow minded smug smile, content to live in smug respectability, such forms of social interference will always find smug supporters smug (II), n, fr prec 1 A smug person 2 (school or univ slang) One who does not mix freely in the ordinary life of the place, esp one who takes an unwilling part in games and devotes himself to work smuggle, vb trans & intrans [1 smúglj, 2 smaglj] fr LG smuggeln, in Engl sense cogn w Dan smugla in same sense, Swed smuga, 'hole to creep into', cogn w OE smugan, 'to creep', q v under smock A trans 1 Specif, to import or export (goods) into or out of a country in a way that contravenes the laws of the country, as forbidding all trading in such commodities or as levying a customs duty on them, which is thereby evaded to smuggle silk, tobacco, cocaine &c 2 (by trans) To introduce, convey, pass, secretly or clandestinely, to conceal, hide away to smuggle a letter into, out of, a prison, to smuggle a person into a meeting B intrans To smuggle goods, to practise smuggling smuggler, n [1 smugler, 2 smágla] Prec. & -er a One who practises smuggling, b vessel employed in smuggling smuggling, n [1 smugling, 2 smágling] smuggle & -ing a Lot of one who smuggles, b practice of bringing into or out of a country goods which are prohibited or without paying the lawful customs duty smut (I), n [1 smut, 2 smat] Scand, op Swed smuts, 'dirt', cogn w ME (bi-) smoleren, 'to make dirty', op MHG smuz, Mod Germ schmutz, 'dirt, filth' 1 A A small piece or flake of soot, coal-dust, or other dirty, black substance, b stain, spot, mark left by such substance 2 A disease of wheat and other cereal plants, caused by a parasitic fungus breaking out into masses of brownish-black spores resembling soot 3 Obscene conversation or writing smut (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans A To mark, stain, with smuts, b to infect (wheat &c) with the smut disease

2 intrans To become infected with smut smutch, vb & n [1 smutch, 2 smat] Perh connected w prec, now rarely used, but the usual form smudge is a later variant smuttily, adv [1 smutli, 2 smátli] smutty & -ly In a smutty manner smuttiness, n [1 smutnes, 2 smátines] smutty & -ness State, quality, of being smutty smutty, adj [1 smúth, 2 smátli] smut (I) & -y 1 Marked, stained, with smuts, sooty, dirty 2 Obscene snack, n [1 snak, 2 snæk] Cp M Do snacken, & see snatch 1 (obs) A share, portion, something snatched Phr to go snack, to go shares (used by Pope) 2 A hearty, light meal snaffle, n & vb trans [1 enáfli, 2 snæfli] fr Du snavel, 'horse's muzzle', dimin of OD snabbe, 'hill, back of bird', op OHG snabul, Mod Germ schmabel, 'beak, snout' See snub 1 n A bit for a horse consisting of two slightly curved, rounded bars, each tapering towards the point where it is joined to the other by a loop in the metal which allows considerable play between the parts, externally, the snaffle is attached to the reins either by large rings alone, or by straight bars with movable rings, into which the reins are hooked, this bit sometimes has the reins permanently attached 2 vb a To put snaffle on (horse), b (slang) to steal, pinch snag, n & vb trans [1 snag, 2 smag] Scand, op Norw, 'projecting point, spike', ON snagi, 'clothes peg' 1 n a A rough, jagged projection, such as of a broken branch, stump of a tree, tooth &c, esp the trunk or branch of a tree embedded in a river with jagged end sticking upwards, b (fig, colloq) an unforeseen obstacle or difficulty, an unexpected drawback it seems an ideal plan, but there is sure to be a snag somewhere 2 vb a To run (boat) on to a snag, b to clear (river) of snags snaggy, adj [1 smagi, 2 smagj] Prec. & -y a Of the nature of a snag, b abounding in snags snail, n [1 snál, 2 snéil] OE snegl, snegol, dimin of snaca, snake, op ON snagi, 'snail', OHG sneco is the same word without the st suff 1 Any of various kinds of air-breathing gastropod molluscs, bearing a spiral shell into which the body can be retracted for protection and sealed up by a membrane during hibernation &c, very slow of movement, leaving a slimy track, and with retractile eye stalks, usually applied to the land-snails, family Helicidae, as distinguished from pond or freshwater snails or sea snails, and from the shell-less 'slugs' Phr at a snail's pace, exceedingly slowly 2 A slow, sluggish person 3 A spiral cam or wheel with notches, controlling the striking movement in a clock, a snail-wheel snail-clover, n A kind of lucerne with pods shaped like a snail's shell snailery, n [1 snáleri, 2 snéilari] Place where edible snails are bred and fattened.

snail-fish, n The sea snail snail-like, adj Like a snail, either in appearance &c, or in slowness of movement snail-paced, adj Slow-moving, like a snail, moving at a snail's pace snail-wheel, n Notched spiral cam or wheel, controlling the striking movement of a clock.

snake, n [1 snák, 2 snæk] OE snaca, ME snake, MHG snake, Mod Germ schmake, 'ringed snake', ON snákr, 'serpent', connected w OHG snahhan, 'to creep, crawl', apparently related to Scrt nágas, 'serpent' Origin obscure See also snail 1 The general name for any member of the zoological order Ophidia, or scaly, limbless reptiles or serpents, also loosely applied to certain snake-like lizards with rudimentary limbs, as the glass snake &c. Phr a snake in the grass, a lurking, concealed enemy or danger, to see snakes, (colloq) to have delirium tremens 2 (fig) A treacherous, cold blooded, malevolent person snake-berry, n The bryony and its fruit snake-bird, n A fish eating bird with long snake-like neck, belonging to the genus Ploceus, of America, allied to the cormorant and shag snake bite, n The bite of a poisonous snake, the pathological results of this snake-charmer, n One who claims to charm and tame poisonous snakes, esp by music of a pipe &c snake-charming, n The art of charming poisonous snakes, as practised in the East snake-eater, n Another name of the secretary-bird snake-fly, n Popular name of a neuropterous insect, Raphidia, with large head and elongated prothorax snake-like, adj [1 snáklik, 2 snéiklik] Resembling a snake, esp in form and movement snake-lizard, n Any lizard with rudimentary limbs, resembling a snake snake-root, n Popular name for various American plants whose root is supposed to be an antidote for snake bite snake's head, n The tertiary, so called from the markings on the petals, which resemble those on the head of a snake snake-stone, n a An ammonite, b any stone supposed to act as a charm or antidote for snake bite snake-weed, n A herb allied to buckwheat, with tall spike of flowers and curiously twisted root-stock, called also histort snake-wood, n The hard, ornamental wood of a tall Brazilian tree, with markings like those of a snake's skin snakily, adv [1 snáklik, 2 snéiklik] snaky & -ly In a snaky manner snakiness, n [1 snáknes, 2 snéiknes] snaky & -ness State, quality, of being snaky snaky, adj [1 snákj, 2 snéikj] snake & -y 1 Pertaining to a snake or snakes, resembling a snake a snaky tail, snaky locks 2 Winding, serpentine a snaky stream 3 Wily, treacherous, cold-blooded, cruel snap (I), vb trans & intrans [1 snap, 2 smap] Either Scand, op Swed snappa, or fr Du snappen, Mod Germ schnappen is of LG snabul, origin Prob related to OHG snabul, 'beak, muzzle', &, more remotely, w OE nebb, 'nose, beak, front', see neb A trans 1 (also snap off) To bite, scratch, with the teeth or beak shark snapped the man's leg off, teeth or beak snapped a piece out of my trousers, parrot dog snapped a piece out of my trousers, parrot dog snapped my finger Phr to snap a person's head, nose, off, to take up, out short interrupt hum curtly or rudely, to speak sharply, angrily, to 2 Snap up, a to snatch, grasp, seize, pick up, hastily, greedily, or eagerly dog snaps up a piece of meat, to snap up odds and ends, Phr to snap a person up, to interrupt outly or rudely, to cut short in an argument &c., b to seize, take possession of, acquire, early and eagerly all the best houses have been snapped up by this time. 3 a To break quickly or sharply, to break with a sharp, wrenching movement to snap a sword across his knee, snap a stick, piece of thread, in two, (also fig) the ties of affection were snapped, b snap off, to break off, detach by a snapping movement to snap off a piece of stick 4 To cause to make a sharp report or crack, to make a sharp noise with, to crack to snap a whip, to snap a pistol, gun, release the trigger with click of falling hammer but without exploding the charge Phr to snap one's fingers at, (lit or fig) to show complete contempt for, or indifference to 5 a To close, bring together, with a short, sharp noise to snap the teeth, beak &c., b to shut, close, fasten, also to open, with a click to snap down the lid of a box, snap open a watch, snap to the clasp of a necklet &c., snapped the handcuffs on person's wrists 6 To take an instantaneous photograph or snapshot of he was snapped falling off his horse 7 To catch (batman) out smartly from a glance or snick snapped of the wicket B intrans 1 Often snap of, a to make a hasty, sudden bite at, to try to bite or seize with the jaws, to make a sudden rapid movement with the jaws towards something as though about to seize or bite a fish snaps at the bait, I hate a dog that snaps, b to grasp at, accept, eagerly, to try and seize or get hold of he snap at a bargain, offer, invitation &c 2 To speak curtly, crossly, irritably to snap and snarl, always snapping at one 3 To break in two, part, suddenly, with a sharp noise stick snapped under the weight, branch snapped off the tree in a wind, knife snapped as he struck a chain, rope, snaps at its weakest point 4 To make a sharp noise or crack whip, pistol, snaps 5 To close to, shut, become fastened, with a sharp click the bolt snapped into its place, door, lid, window catch, snaps to snare (II), n See prec 1 Act of snapping with teeth &c., sound made in snapping felt a snap at my legs, heard snaps and snarls 2 Process of something breaking, or being broken suddenly, sound made thus the snap of things under one's feet 3 Sharp clicking sound as of a bolt being shot home, movement producing this 4 A catch, elasp the snap of a bracelet, necklace &c 5 Liveliness, spirit, point, bite a style without much snap 6 A short, sudden spell (of weather &c.) a cold snap 7 A crisp cake of gingerbread ginger snaps 8 An instantaneous photograph, snapshot 9 A child's simple game of cards snare (III), adj Done quickly, taken, done, without notice by surprise, (esp parl.) a snap decision to take a snap sale snaydragon, n [1 snáydrahn, 2 snay-drahn] 1 A herbaceous perennial or biennial plant Antirrhinum, with showy red, yellow, or white flowers, of tubular, lipped shape, opening like a mouth 2 An old fashioned Christmas game of picking out riddles from a dish of burning brandy snaphance n [1 snáp hāns, 2 snaphāns] fr Du snaphān lit 'snapping hen' of the cock of the weapon An old form of pistol or must-let with a flint-lock and spring snap-look n A look fasten-ug with a snap or catch snapper, n [1 snáper, 2 snápe] snap (I) & -er 1 n 1 dog or other animal given to snapping b person given to snapping i.e. raving, sharp, irritably caustic c n marks 2 Popular name for 'arous kinds of sea fish, also called Schrapper snappily adv [1 snáplī, 2 snápplī] snappy & -ly In a snappy manner snappyw-turtle, n [1 snápw-úg kítīl, 2 snáp-wúg kítīl] A large voracious freshwater turtle of North America, with powerful jaws with which it snaps its prey snappish, adj [1 snápshī, 2 snáplī] snap & -ish 1 (of dog) inclined to snap 2 (of person) Irritable, given to making sharp, ill-natured remarks or replies snappishly, adv Prec & -ly In a snappish manner snappishness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being snappish snappy, adj [1 snáplī, 2 snápe] snap (II) & -y 1 Snappish 2 Full of snap, vigour, or life, brisk, lively a short, snappy article, paragraph &c snaphooter, n [1 snápshúter, 2 snápshúte] snap & shooter One who takes a snap shot or one with little or no aim at an object with a gun or rifle snapshot, n & vb trans [1 snápshot, 2 snápshót] 1 n a (usually snap shot) [1 snápshot, 2 snápshót] A quick shot fired with little or no aim, b an instantaneous photograph taken with a hand camera and usually without posing &c 2 vb To take an instantaneous photograph of snare (I), n [1 snár, 2 snæ] ME snare, proh fr ON snara, 'snare, noose, halter', cogn w OE snearh, 'cord, string', cp OHG snarahha, 'noose', in gradational relation to Goth snarjō, 'woven basket, basket-work', OHG snur, 'a string, rope, band', Mod Germ schnur, orig base snēu-*, 'to twist', prob cogn w OE snū see snaw, & OE snōd, see snood A variant base, snē(u)*, w loss of s, is seen in Lat nēre, 'to sew' See Nemesius & needle

1 A device for catching birds, rabbits &c., consisting usually of a noose of wire or cord, a trap, gun -2 (in moral sense) Anything which seduces, beguiles, entraps, entangles one, or brings one into difficulties, trouble, or disgrace, allurements, enticement, temptation the snares of the devil, of the wicked, beauty and charm too often prove a snare 3 A string of gut stretched across the under head of a side drum to increase the rattling sound and give resonance snare (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To catch in a snare to snare a bird, rabbit 2 (in moral sense) To seduce from duty, good conduct &c., to entangle, inveigle, to entrap to be snared by the wiles of a designing female snare drum, n A side drum with snares stretched across the under end to increase resonance and rattling sound snarer, n [1 snár, 2 snæ] Prec & -er One who, that which, snares, usually in combination bird, rabbit-snarer snark, n [1 snerk, 2 snák] Invented by Lewis Carroll in 'The Hunting of the Snark', 1876 Imaginary mysterious creature whose appearance and character are only hinted at snarl (I), vb intrans & trans [1 snarl, 2 snarl] Freq form of earlier snarre, snar, fr or cogn. w M Du snarren, Germ. schnarren, 'to growl, to roll the r in speaking' Cp sneer & snort. A intrans 1 (of animals) To growl with a sharp, high tone and showing the teeth, as a dog when angry 2 (of human beings) To speak in a harsh, grating voice and with angry, savage tone B trans (rare) To utter with a snarl, also snarl out snarl (II), n, fr prec Facial expression adopted, and sound made, in snarling snarl (III) n & vb trans & intrans In ME fr O Swed snarl, 'noose halter', dimin of snara, q v under snare (I) 1 n (archaic or obs) a tangle, entanglement, (also fig) complication, intricacy 2 vb trans a To entangle snarled hair, skein (of wool) &c., also b (fig) to ornament (metal ware) by beating out a design in relief from the ins de with a snarling iron 3 vb intrans To become entangled snarlier, n [1 snárlī, 2 snárlī] snarl (I) & -er Animal or person that snarls snarling-iron, n [1 snárlīng īrēn, 2 snárlīng īrēn] Tool used in making ornaments in relief on metal ware snarlingly, adv [1 snárlīnglī, 2 snárlīnglī] fr Pres Part of snarl (I) & -ly In a snarling tone or manner, with a snarl snatch (I), vb trans & intrans [1 snatch, 2 snat] ME snacchen, prob fr a LG word snah as M Du snakken, 'to seize', w final ons influenced by ME lacchen, 'to seize', see latch, or by cacchen, see catch Connected w snack, snack A trans 1 a To seize with a sudden, rapid, more or less violent movement of the hand, to grab, snap - to snatch a thing from a person's hand, b to grab, seize suddenly, with the jaws, beak &c a fish may snatch a worm from the hook, one bird will snatch food out of the beak of another, Phr to snatch a kiss, take, give, one, without permission 2 Snatch up, to pick up, seize hurriedly 3 a To take, obtain, take to oneself, with haste to snatch a hurried meal, b (fig) to secure, grasp, obtain, carry off, with difficulty, or as by chance, to seize the opportunity of enjoying to snatch a few hours of sleep, 'They hear a voice in every wind, And snatch a fearful joy' (Gray, 'Eton Coll' 4), 'And snatch a grace beyond the reach of art' (Pope, 'Ess on Crit' 155), also to snatch a victory from a seeming defeat & Snatch away, carry off, remove, by the exercise of sudden force, a (in physical sense) to snatch food away from a starving person, to snatch a knife away from a would be assassin, b (in non-material sense) 'O, snatched away in beauty's bloom!' (Byron), all hope of happiness has been snatched away B intrans 1 To seize, or attempt to seize, by a sudden movement of the hand, to grab children are not allowed to snatch 2 Snatch at, to make a sudden, eager, movement towards, in an attempt to seize the thief snatched at the purse in the lady's hand, (also fig) to snatch at the chance of to avail oneself eagerly of it snatch (II) n, fr prec 1 Act of snatching, a grab, sudden more or less violent movement in an attempt to seize something he made a snatch of my watch 2 (often pl) a Short period or spell of activity to work in, by, snatches b disconnected fragment, or portion short snatches of song, a snatch of melody snatchily, adv [1 snáshlī, 2 snatshīlī] snatchy & -ly In a snatchy manner, by snatches snatchy, adj [1 snáshī, 2 snatshī] snatch (II) & -y Performed, done, in snatches, not continuous, disconnected, interrupted; broken snathe n [1 snáth, 2 sneth] fr ON snath, 'a portion, a slice', cogn. w OE snēd see next word (obs or provine) The wood stock or shaft, to which a scythe blade is fastened snead n [1 snēd, 2 snid] OE snād, 'a morsel, slice', lit 'something out off', ME snēde, fr snādi*, fr base of OE snifan, 'to cut', Pret snāp, cogn w ON snaið See prec Cp OS snithan, OHG snidan, Goth. snifjan, 'to out' (obs or provine) Sneath sneak (I), vb intrans & trans [1 snēk, 2 snik], presupposes a ME snēle*, vb is not found The word cannot possibly be derived formally, fr OE snican M.L. snike, to creep, crawl' It is apparently connected in some way w these, but how, is entirely obscure It is still more difficult to connect OE snican w snail or snake A intrans (usually w various advs) 1 a To creep, move silently or furtively, to move so as not to be observed or as if in fear of detection or observation, to slink, lurk, steal to sneak into, out of, a room he sneaked off round the corner, he was found sneaking about the place, b sneak out of (fig), to contrive to avoid, withdraw oneself from, escape from, dodge, responsibility, difficulty &c., by stealth, craft &c 2 (schoolboy slang) To tell (a master) of something which other boys desire to hide, esp to inform against a classmate boy, and reveal his offences to a master, to peach, blow the gaff B trans (slang) To steal, pinch my watch was sneaked in the crowd sneak (II), n, fr prec 1 A mean, underhand, furtive, cowardly person 2 (school-boy slang) An informer, a tall tale 3 (cricket) A ball bowled so as to travel along the ground sneaking, adj [1 snēking, 2 snēkɪŋ], fr Pres Part of sneak (I) 1 Furtive, underhand, mean 2 Unavowed, secret a sneaking sympathy for certain kinds of criminals

sneakily, adv [1 snēkɪŋli, 2 snēkɪŋli] Prec & -ly In a sneaking, furtive manner sneak-thief, n One who steals small articles which he finds lying about, or which he can pick up through open doors and windows, without breaking in sneek, n & vb trans [1 snēk, 2 snēk] Connected w snatch (province) 1 n Latch, catch of a window or door 2 vb To make fast with a sneek sneer (I), vb intrans & trans [1 snēr, 2 snēə] ME snēren, 'to scorn, deride', op Dan snærre, 'to grin like a dog', connoted w snarl A intrans 1 To smile mockingly, ironically, or scornfully, to show contempt by a contraction or contortion of the facial muscles 2 To utter remarks intended to belittle and disparage, to express contempt in words, esp by innuendo 'Damn with faint praise, assent with civil leer, And without sneering, teach the rest to sneer' (Pope) 3 Sneer at, to feel and express contempt for, esp in words B trans (rare) 1 To express with a sneer or in sneering words to sneer one's contempt for 2 To affect by a sneer to sneer person down, out of countenance &c sneer (II), n, fr prec 1 A sardonic, ironical, scornful smile or change of facial expression 2 Verbal expression of covert contempt, a bitter suggestion of disparagement, a gibe, flout sneerer, n [1 snērər, 2 snēərə] sneer (I) & -er One who sneers sneeringly, adv [1 snērɪŋli, 2 snēərɪŋli] Pres Part of sneer (I) & -ly In a sneering manner, with sneers sneeze (I), vb intrans [1 snēz, 2 snēz] ME snēzen The OE form is snēosan, perh cogn w OHG snēzen (fr snies ?), but in any case w Gk pnēem, 'to breathe', fr pneū- & pnēuma, 'breath, spirit', see pneumonia Snēzen is still found in ME, the change in initial consonant is due to the influence of snch words as sniff, snort To undergo a sudden involuntary convulsion of throat and soft palate, accompanied by the noisy expulsion of air through the vocal chords and nose, as a result of irritation in the mucous membrane of the nose, from catarrh, effect of pepper, dust &c Phr not to be sneezed at, not to be despised, worth consideration or acceptance sneeze (II), n, fr prec A Act of sneezing, b sound thus produced sneezewort, n [1 snēzvērt, 2 snēzvērt] sneeze & wort (I) Popular name of a strongly scented perennial herb, Achillea ptarmica, or wild peltitory, with large white flowers, allied to the yarrow, the leaves were once powdered and used as snuff snell, n [1 snel, 2 snel] Origin unknown A short piece of gut or horsehair used to attach the hook to a fishing line snook (I), vb trans [1 snuk, 2 snuk] Scand ? Cp ON snikka, 'to cut' Origin obscure 1 To cut a small notch or nick in 2 (cricket) To hit (ball) with a glancing stroke, to touch (ball) slightly with bat snuck (II), n, fr prec 1 A small notch or nick in a piece of wood &c 2 A glancing stroke, slight touch of a cricket ball with the bat snicker, vb [1 snīker, 2 snīke] Variant of snigger snickersnee, n [1 snīkərsnē, 2 snīkəsnē] Prob fr obs snick and snee, 'a fight with knives', lit 'stab and cut', it is suggested that the first element is fr Du steken, 'to stab, stick', st- being assimilated to the sn- of the second element, wh is fr Du snijen or snijden, 'to ont', cogn w OE snipan, 'to ont', see snoad Humorous term for a cutting weapon, knife, dagger, or sword Snider, n [1 snīder, 2 snīde] Inventor's name An obsolete type of breech loading rifle sniff (I), vb intrans & trans [1 snif, 2 snif] Apparently of late Scand origin, cp Dan snive, in same sense The ME vb is snēvien, this precise origin of wh is obscure The word is imitative Cp also snivel & snuffles On the other hand, the word may have been formed direct fr snivels by omission of the enffir A intrans 1 a To draw in air sharply and audibly through the nose, as a person with a cold &c, b to draw in air thus, sharply and nervously, as though to express contempt, disapproval &c, to affect an air of superiority, with or without actually sniffing, also, sniff at, to express contempt for or disapproval of 2 Sniff at, to smell at perfunctorily, or hesitatingly and delicately, to test the scent of with quick, slight drawing in of air through the nose to sniff at a flower, sniff at this egg and see if it is fresh B trans 1 To breathe in through the nose, to inhale to sniff the sea air 2 Sniff up, to draw up into the nose by inhalation to sniff up cocaine 3 a To perceive (odour of) by sniffing I can sniff something burning, to sniff the drains, b (fig) to have an inkling or suspicion of, to suspect presence of to sniff treason, danger sniff (II), n, fr prec 1 Act, sound, of sniffing 2 That which is sniffed or inhaled sniffy, adj [1 snifi, 2 snifi] Prec & -y (colloq) 1 Inclined to sniff at or be contemptuous of, disdainfully superior or critical, disapproving 2 Smelly, malodorous, whiffy sniffing-valve, n [1 snifiŋ vālv, 2 snifiŋ vālv], fr obs snift, 'to snivel, whimper', variant of sniff A valve in a steam-engine which allows steam or air to escape from the condenser or cylinder, so called from the noise made snigger, vb intrans & n [1 snīger, 2 snīge] Variant of earlier snicker, possibly form of nioker, or an independent imitative word 1 vb To utter a silly, half-suppressed laugh, to giggle, to laugh furtively and slyly, as at something improper, or suggestive of impropriety 2 n A half-suppressed laugh, a giggle sniggle, vb intrans [1 snigl, 2 snigl] Dimin of province snig, 'eel', found in 16th cent, perh connected w snake To fish forelegs by dropping or pushing a baited hook into their holes snip (I), vb trans & intrans [1 snip, 2 snip] LG, op Du snippen, & LG snippen, 'to cut in small pieces', Germ schnippen, 'to snap', connected w snap 1 trans To cut, clip, with scissors, shears, to pinch, nip, with the nails snip a piece out of a hole in cloth, snip a bud off a stem, snip off the ends of hair &c 2 intrans To make a cut or nip at snip (II), n, fr prec 1 A short, quirk cut or clip with shears or scissors 2 Small piece cut off or out by snipping 3 (colloq) A tailor snipe (I), n [1 snip, 2 snap] In ME, fr ON snipa, op Dan sneppe, Du snip, Mod Germ schneipe, the meaning is 'the snapping bird', cogn w snap The OE word is snite, still preserved in some dialects Any bird of the genus Gallinago, allied to the plover, curlew, sandpiper, woodcock &c, haunting marshes in which it probes for its food with a long and sensitive bill, its curious zigzag flight makes it a favourite bird for shooting, the plumage is mottled black and brown, with buff or grey under parts, the three best-known species are the common, G caelestis, the solitary, G major, and the small jack-snipe, G gallinula snipe (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans a To shoot snipe, go snipe shooting, b specif (mil) to shoot at, and pick off, single men of the enemy forces from a concealed position, usually at long range, with specially sighted rifle 2 trans To hit, kill (man) in this way snipe-eel, n A long, slender marine eel with long, curved beak snipe-fish, n a Garfish, b snipe eel sniper, n [1 snīper, 2 snāipe] snips (II) & -er One who snipes, specif, a trained marksman who picks off single men of an enemy's forces, from a concealed position and at long range, sniper's post, concealed, camouflaged position for a sniper snippet, n [1 snīpet, 2 snīpit] snip & -et a small piece snipped or cut off anything, a snipping, clipping, b any small fragment or scrap of anything snippets of news, information &c, a short extract or passages selected from a literary work &c so many anthologies consist of mere snippets snippery, adj [1 snīpeti, 2 snīpiti] Prec & -y Consisting of snippets, fragmentary snipping, n [1 snīpɪŋ, 2 snīpɪŋ] snip & -ing Piece snipped off, a snippet, clipping snip-snap, adv Descriptive of the action and the sound made by scissors &c snip snap went the scissors and her golden locks fell snivel (I), vb intrans [1 snīvl, 2 snīvl] The OE words connected w this are sniflung, fr snifil ung*, 'mucus from the nose', & snof for snufol-ŋ* w same sense From the base or stem snifil-*, a vb snuvelen, snivelen, sniefelen, according to dial, was formed in ME The mod form is derived fr the sniv- type See also sniff & snuffle 1 (rare) To run, have a running at the nose, to sniff continually 2 (chief present uses) a To whine, whimper, fret, like a peevish or frightened child, b to complain in a fretful, whimpering manner, o to exhibit feeble, maudling, canting, often hypocritical and insincere regret, contrition &c snivel (II), n, fr prec 1 (rare) Running at the nose 2 Fretful, whimpering complaint, canting expression of sorrow &c sniveller, n [1 snīvler, 2 snīvla] snivel (I) & -er One who snivels snob, n [1 snob, 2 snob] Also in Scots dial snab, orig sense 'cobbler's mate or boy', also snap, 'boy, lad', Scand, op ON snapr, 'dolt, impostor', Swed dial snopp, 'boy', Dan snopp, 'silly, foolish', cogn w snub 1 (archaic or obs) a Person belonging to the so called vulgar or lower classes, person of no breeding or social position, in Phr a snob or a nob, b (obs university slang) townsman 2 a A person who pretends, from vulgar ostentation, to be better than he is, one who pretends to belong to or be familiar with people of high social standing or of great wealth or reputation, one who puts an exaggerated and vulgar estimate on rank, wealth, fashionable society or distinction and endeavours to conceal his own supposed inferior position or connections, b also applied to persons who adopt a similar attitude in intellectual or artistic spheres.

3 A cobbler

snobbery, n [1 snoberi, 2 snoberi] Prec & -ery Quality of being a snob, snobbishness snobbish, adj [1 snobish, 2 snóbɪʃ] snob & -ish Characteristic of a snob, pertaining to a snob snobbishly, adv Prec & -ly In a snobbish manner snobbishness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being snobbish, snobbery snood, n [1 snūd, 2 snūd] OE snōd, 'fillet, head dress', fr same base as snare though w different gradation & formative element 1 (Scots or poet) A fillet or ribbon for the hair, worn formerly by unmarried girls 2 A short piece of gut or silk fastening the hook to a fishing line, a snell snook (I), n. [1 snook, 2 snuk], fr Du snook, prob gradually related to OE snac, see snake. Popular name of various sea fishes with long beak like snouts, as the garfish, sea pike, barracouta &c snook (II), n. Etymol unknown (slang). Impudent, boyish gesture of derision, made by placing thumb on tip of the nose and stretching out the fingers. In Phr to cool a snook at snooker pool, n. [1 snooker pool, 2 snuka pool]. Origin unknown, also called Snooker's pool, as if fr a personal name. A game played on a billiard table, combining pyramids and ordinary pool snook, vb intrans [1 snōp, 2 snūp]. Limit (U S A slang). To pry inquisitively, meddle snooze (I), vb intrans & trans [1 snōz, 2 snūz]. Etymol doubtful, Swed dial. bas musa, 'to take snuff, to snuff, breathe loud in sleep'. 1 intrans To take a light, short sleep or nap, to doze 2 trans Snooze away, to spend, occupy (time) in dozing, to laze, to be lazy or indolent over snooze (II), n, fr prec A light, short sleep, a nap, doze snore (I), vb intrans & trans [1 snōr, 2 snō]. M.E. snōren, fr I.G. of imitative origin 1 intrans To breathe heavily, stertorously, with vibrating or snorting noise, when asleep, a practice usually due to sleeping with mouth open on account of obstructed nasal passages 2 trans (rare) a Snore away, to spend, pass (time &c) in snoring, b (reflex) to bring (oneself) into specific state by snoring: to snore oneself awake snore (II), n, fr prec Act, sound, of snoring snort (I), vb intrans & trans [1 snōrt, 2 snōt]. M.E. fr I.G. snorten, cogn w Dan. snørke, Swed. snorka, 'to snort, fume with anger', Germ. schnarchen, 'to snore, snort'. Of imitative origin & connected w snarl & snore. A intrans 1 (of living creatures) To make a sound by drawing in the air violently and noisily through the nose, nervous action due to sudden fear, rage, surprise &c, esp of horses, b (of steam engines &c) to make a loud noise in emitting steam, gas &c 2 (of human beings) To show signs of contempt, surprise, impatience, disapproval &c, and to express such feelings by snorting, or merely in words B trans (rare) Snort out, to express by or with a snort to snort out words of contempt &c snort (II), n, fr prec Act, sound, of snorting snorter, n [1 snōrtēr, 2 snōtēr] snort (I) & -er 1 Person or animal that snorts 2 (slang) a (1) Something or someone big, violent, vulgar, noisy &c, (2) a harsh, severe, outspoken rebuke his letter was a regular snorter, b person who, thing which, is especially good surprising, admirable &c, in a particular class snorty, adj [1 snōrti, 2 snōti], fr snort (I) 1 Given to snorting uttering snorts 2 (fig of persons) Contemptuous, scornful, disapproving snout n [1 snōt, 2 snōt]. OE (ge) snat, cp I.G. snolte, cogn w snout (vulg) Mucus from the nose snotty, adj & n [1 snōti 2 snōti]. Prec & -y 1 adj (vulg) Befouled with nasal mucus 2 n. (nav slang) A midshipman snout n [1 snōut 2 snaut] O.I. snūt*, unrecorded M.E. snūte snout, cp, however, O.L. snulan, 'to wipe the nose', cp I.G. snūle, Du snuit, Mod Germ schnauze, 'muzzle' & schnutzen, 'to blow the nose', fr snutjan*, belongs to the group of imitative words w includes sniff, snuff, snort, snore &c 1 a The projecting nose and muzzle of an animal, such as the pig, b (colloq and vulg) the human nose, the face 2 Projecting, nozzle of a pipe a projecting cliff, end of glacier &c snouted adj [1 snō'ted 2 snautid] Prec & -ed furnished with having a snout, -cp in combination long snouted &c snow (I), n. [1 snō, 2 snou]. O.E. snāw

M.E. snāw &c, found in all Gmc languages & in most of the other Aryan families Gmc type snegw-, fr Aryan snegw-, snegw-*, the Gmc cognates are O.E. & O.H.G. snēo, Goth snarus, O.N. snār, fr snarw-*, in other Aryan languages, Scrt snithya, 'it becomes damp or sticky', snitha, 'stickiness, slipperiness, grease', Gk. snēpha, 'snow', snēphos, 'snowflake', fr snegh-*, Lat nix, 'snow', for snegh-*, gemt nivis, O Slav sněgъ, Lith snėgas, 'snow' 1 a Vapour frozen in the atmosphere into crystals and falling upon the earth in white flakes; b a fall of snow: heavy snow is reported in the North, snow is expected soon Red snow, snow plant, q v 2 (poet) Bright, pure whiteness the snows of venerable age, white hairs, the snow of a maiden's breast &c 3 Anything white and powdery, esp (slang) powdered cocaine snow (II), vb intrans & trans New formation fr n, O.E. snāwan, 'to snow', represents a different gradational type fr that in the n See prec 1 intrans a (impers) To discharge snow from the sky 4 is snowing, snow is falling, it will snow tonight, it was snowing in the North yesterday, b (by trans) to fall, come, down in heavy showers or in large numbers: complaints, congratulations &c, came snowing in 2 trans a To scatter, shower, cause to fall as or like snow it snowed petitions &c, b (usually in P P) snow in, up, under, (lit or fig) to be moved in, up, to be prevented from going on by heavy fall of snow, to be moved under by complaints, letters &c, overwhelmed by snowball (I), n [1 snōbāl, 2 snōbbəl] snow (I) & ball (I). 1 A round mass of snow moulded by the hands and used as a missile, a mass of snow rolled on ground in the snow and growing larger as it rolls and collects more snow round it 2 A form of collecting money &c by an ever-widening group of subscribers, each of whom enlists the support of others 3 The flower of the guelder rose 4 Humorous name for a white haired negro snowball (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To throw snowballs 2 trans To pelt, hit, with snowballs, to throw snowballs at snowball-tree, n. The guelder rose snow-berry, n. A garden ornamental shrub, Symphoricarpos racemosa, with small pink flowers and round white berries snow-bird, n. The snow bunting or snowflake snow-blind, adj Having become temporarily blind or partly blind from the effects of prolonged exposure of the eyes to the dazzling glare of snow on the ground.

snow-blindness, n Total or partial temporary blindness, caused by the glare of a large expanse of snow covered country snow-blink, n. Reflection on the horizon of sunlight from a field of ice or snow snow-boot, n. A boot of rubber and felted cloth worn over the ordinary boot in heavy snow snow-bound, adj Snowed up, shot in prevented from travelling &c, by a heavy fall of snow snow-bunting, n. A bird of the finch family, Plectrophanes nivalis, breeding in polar regions and visiting N Europe and America in winter with white and brown plumage, also called 'snowflake' snow-cap n 1 Cap, crown, of snow on the top of a mountain 2 Name of a very small humming bird, with white crown, inhabiting Central America snow-capped adj [1 snō kapt, 2 snōu kapt] (of mountains) Capped, crowned with snow snow-drift n A heap, bank of snow, drifted or blown together by the wind snowdrop n [1 snōddrɒp, 2 snōudrɒp] A bulbous plant Galanthus nivalis, with drooping white bell like flowers, appearing in late winter or early spring snowfall n. [1 snōfāl; 2 snōufāl] a A fall of snow, b amount of snow falling at a certain place or during a certain period snow-field, n A large expanse of permanent snow, on Alpine heights, in Arctic regions &c snowflake, n [1 snōflak, 2 snōuflek] 1 A flake of snow, the form in which snow falls to the ground, being a group of frozen crystals massed together 2 The snow bunting 3 A plant, Leucocym, like a large snowdrop snow-goggles, n Spectacles with darkened glass worn amid snow fields to prevent snow-blindness snow-goose, n An Arctic wild goose, with white plumage and black tipped wing feathers snow-grouse, n The ptarmigen snow-ice, n White, opaque ice formed by the freezing of half melted snow or ice snowily, adv [1 snōbli, 2 snōubli] snowy & -ly In a snowy manner snowiness, n [1 snōinis, 2 snōuinis] snowy & -ness Quality, state, of being snowy snow-leopard, n. The ounce, Felis uncia, of the mountains of Central Asia snowless, adj [1 snōlēs, 2 snōuh] snow (I) & -less Without snow snow-like adj snow (I) & -like Like, as white as, snow snow-line, n The imaginary line of altitude above which snow never melts, the line of perpetual snow snow-on-the-mountain, n. Popular name for various plants with closely set white flowers, as arabis, the N American spurge &c snow-owl n See snowy owl snow-plant, n A minute alga, Protococcus nivalis, with reddish spores found in the snow fields of Arctic and subarctic regions snow-plough o A device of various kinds for clearing a road, railway track &c, of snow snow-shoe, n & vb intrans 1 n Long, narrow, flat framework in form of a racquet, with cross pieces of strips of leather &c, attached to the foot enabling wearer to walk over soft snow without sinking 2 vb To travel over snow in snow shoes snowstorm, n. [1 snōstōrm, 2 snōustōrm] Heavy fall of snow, esp one accompanied by a strong wind snow-white adj White as snow snow-wreath, n A circular drift of snow snowy, adj [1 snōi, 2 snōui] snow (I) & -y 1 Covered with snow snowy mountains 2 Characterized by abounding in snow a snowy day snowy weather 3 White as snow, snow-white snowy breast, a long snowy beard snowy owl, n A large species of Arctic owl, Nyctale scandiaca with white plumage mottled with black, visiting N Europe and America in winter snub (I), vb trans [1 snub, 2 snub] M.E. snubben also snibben, of Scand origin, cp Dan snubbe Swed snubba, to nip off, to check, rebuke snub O.N. snubba, to check, chide cozo w snuff (III) 1 To check, slight put down rebuff by a sharp, sarcastic, or contemptuous remark or by a show of coolness or indifference 2 (naut) To stop, check, the way of a ship suddenly by means of a rope tautened round a bollard or snubbing post snub (II), n fr prec Act of snubbing, rebuke, rebuff snub (III) adj & o, fr prec words 1 adj (applied only to the nose) Short, thick, blunt, and somewhat flat and turned up at the end 2 n A snub nose snubbing n [1 snubing 2 snubing] snub (I) & -ing a snub sharp rebuff or reproval snubbingly, adv Prec & -ly In a snubbing manner by means of a snub snubbing post, o A bollard or post on a wharf or quayside round which a rope may be thrown and tautened to 'snub or check the way of a vessel' snub-nosed adj Having a snub nose snuff (I) & b trans & intrans [1 snuf, 2 snaf], fr M. Da snuffen 'to blow clear the nose', op Du snuiver 'to snort', Swed snuffa, 'to snuffle', Mod Germ schnuffen, 'a cold in the head', connected w sniff, orig imitative 1 trans To sniff, inhale, breathe in through the nose to snuff (up) the scent of &c, to snuff sea breezes, to snuff tobacco 2 intrans To snuff snuff (II), n, fr prec, & vb intrans, a new formation fr n in sense b 1 n a A sniff, b (1) powdered, grated tobacco, for snuffing up the nose, a pinch of tobacco thus inhaled, Phr up to snuff (colloq, slang), wide-awake, knowing, sharp, not to be taken in, (u) any powdered drug used for inhaling medicinally 2 vb To take snuff snuff (III), vb trans & intrans ME snuffen, 'to snuff a candle', origin doubtful A trans 1 To nip off that part of the wick of the antiquated type of tallow candle which had ceased to be incandescent, and which curled over and prevented flame burning brightly to snuff a candle 2 Snuff out, a to extinguish, put out (candle), by squeezing wick with snuffers &c, b (fig, colloq) to destroy, do away with, put down, suppress to snuff out a rebellion B intrans Snuff out, (colloq) to die, be extinguished snuff (IV), n, fr prec The charred wick of a tallow candle, which prevents it burning clearly or brightly snuff-and-butter, adj & n snuff (II) & butter 1 adj a Brownish yellow in colour, specif b (colloq) of mixed European and B Indian blood 2 n a The colour itself, b mixed European and E Indian descent snuff-box, n A small box of horn or metal &c, often highly decorated and used for carrying snuff in the pocket snuff-coloured, adj snuff (II) & coloured Ol the colour of snuff, brownish yellow snuffers, n pl [1 snuffer, 2 snuffers] snuff (III) & -er Instrument of silver or other metal, shaped like a pair of scissors, having broad short blades, one of which had a raised rim on the outer edge, formerly used for removing that part of the wick of a now obsolete type of candle, which had ceased to be incandescent snuffiness, n [1 snuffiness; 2 snuffiness] snuffy & -ness Condition, quality, of being snuffy snuffle (I), vb intrans & trans [1 snuff, 2 snuffs] Freq of snuff (I), op snivel & sniff 1 intrans a To snuff constantly and continually, to keep on sniffling, make a sniffling noise, to breathe rapidly in and out, audibly through the nose, esp when the nasal passages are partially blocked, b to speak through the nose, (in trans sense) to speak with a nasal, whining, sing song and creaking, hypocritical tone of voice 2 trans (rare) To utter with a snuffle snuffle (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of snuffling, sound made by snuffling 2 The snuffles, kind of persistent nasal catarrh, affecting babies and young children snuff-mill, n snuff (II) & mill (I) A small hand mill for grinding tobacco into snuff snuffy, adj [1 snuffy; 2 snuffs] snuff (II) & -y 1 Resembling snuff in colour &c 2 Covered, stained, with snuff, untidy, grimy, dingy, in personal appearance 3 (colloq) Offended, cross snug (I), adj [1 snug, 2 snags] Early & provincial use, 'trim, neat, compact', of Soand origin, op ON snaggr, 'smooth haired, tidy'; Swed snugg, 'neat, trim' 1 Warm, sheltered, comfortable; protected from draughts or cold, cosy a snug seat by the fire, to lie snug in bed 2 a Of comfortable, adequate, size a snug income, b convenient, compact, trim a snug little cottage, farm &c 3 Protected from view or notice, hidden, concealed he lay snug for some time before his retreat was found out 4 Neatly and closely arranged, oiled down, furred, fitting closely makes ropes, sails &c, snug snug (II), n, fr prec A snug place, snugery.

snug (III), vb intrans & trans 1 intrans To make oneself snug, to snuggle 2 trans To make snug, esp of ropes, sails &c snuggery, n [1 snugery, 2 snageries] snug (I) & -ery A snug, cosy place or room, place in which one can lie snug and undisturbed, one's own private study or 'den' snuggle, vb intrans & trans [1 snuggl, 2 snaggl], fr snug (III) & -le 1 intrans. To nestle, get, lie, close and snug to, or comfortable in to snuggle up to a person, snuggle down in bed 2 trans To bring close to one, to cuddle snuggled the baby in her arms snugly, adv [1 snuggly, 2 snaggly] snug (I) & -ly. In a snug manner, cosily, comfortably snugginess, n [1 snugginess, 2 snaggy] snug (I) & -ness State, quality, of being snug so, adv, pron, & conj [1 so, 2 sou] OE sūð, ME sō, OHG sō, Gk. sōs, 'so, thus', the word belongs ultimately to the reflex base *swo &c, seen in Lat. suus See sui 1 a (archaic) To the extent, in the way, stated, indicated, or about to be stated, thus so spoke he, b in this or that way you must not behave so, so, and in no other way, c in accordance with what has been stated or expected, in that case so he really ill? if so, send for the doctor, he states that you struck him—kindly tell me if that is so, do do you say so, expressing surprise, just so, quite so, expressing agreement with what has been said 2 a To snub an extent or degree, to that extent or degree I was so hot (that) I took my coat off, he is so stupid that he can't understand a plain statement, b followed by correlative as (chiefly in neg sentences) he is not so stupid as he looks, not so hot as yesterday 3 To such a great degree or extent, how much (chiefly colloq) it was so kind of you to write, I am so tired 4 (partly pronominal in function) In that way, thus (=that which has been stated or referred to) I don't think so, I hope so, he promised to clean the car but has not yet done so, I never said so, I told you so 5 In the same proportion, in like manner, to the same extent, in the same way, in correlation with preceding clause introduced by as just as we have been unprepared for war in the past, so we are now; as the father was a degenerate, so the son is a criminal, 'as thy days, so shall thy strength be', as you treat me, so will I treat you 6 For the reason specified, on that account, therefore the manager was out, so I left a message with his secretary, the train leaves in half an hour, so you had better hurry 7 (exclamatory) Well, so you came after all; so the great dictionary is finished at last! 8 In the same way, to the same extent, also, as well my father was a Tory, and so am I, we were wrong, so were you 9 Or so, more or less, therabouts, approximately he must be forty or so, it will cost you five pounds or so 10 (as impersonal pron) So and so, a referring to some specific person, whose name is not mentioned we all know what So and so will say, b referring to some person unknown, considered as a type, people, somebody or other, anybody don't be afraid to do your duty because So and so will laugh of you 11 So much, a definite but unspecified sum, amount &c you can board of so much a day, so much brandy, so much wine, and so much of several other things, b in Phr so much nonsense, rubbish &c, all nonsense &c, so much for, that is the end of, that concludes, there is nothing more to be said or done about so much for Mr Jones, he won't trouble us again, every one of his statements was refuted—so much for his case 12 So long as, provided that, on the understanding that I will pay you five pounds so long as you admit that you have no legal claim, you may have leave this time so long as it does not form a precedent 13 So on, so forth, as abbreviation of an enumeration &c, more (things) of the same kind, etcetera he told me his age, where he lived, how many children he had, and so on.

also emphatic and so on and so on, and so on and so forth 14 So as, a in such a way as he struck the snake so as to break its back, b in order comes early so as to have plenty of time 15 So that, in order that I stayed on so that he might not feel lonely soak (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sōk, 2 souk] OE sočan, fr *sulōjan, ME solen, in gradational relation to OE sēcan, q v under suok A trans 1 To steep, allow to lie in liquid, to impregnate thoroughly with liquid to soak bread in milk Phr to soak oneself in a subject (of study), an author &c, to immerse oneself in, saturate oneself with, study with such intensity as to become thoroughly familiar with 2 To wet thoroughly, to drench, saturate the shower soaked us to the skin 3 Soak up, a (f) to absorb (liquid), become saturated with, soak up sponges readily soak up water, porched ground soaks up rain, (u) also in non material sense, to soak up information &c, to imbibe it, acquire it readily, b to remove (liquid) from a given position by absorption soak up that pool of ink with some blotting-paper B intrans 1 To remain in liquid so as to become saturated, to steep, put the clothes in water and allow them to soak for several hours 2 (colloq) To drink (alcoholic liquor) steadily and persistently in large quantities, to drink to excess 3 (of liquids) A Soak through, to penetrate, percolate through blood from the wound has soaked through the bandages, b soak into, to pass into from elsewhere, by soaking, oozing &c water has soaked into the cellar from the soil soak (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of soaking, state of being soaked give the clothes a thorough soak 2 (colloq) A downpour of rain, drenching rain, a spell of wet weather 'If ash is out before the oak, in summer we shall have a soak' 3 (colloq) A steady spell of hard drinking, a booze soakage, n [1 sōk, 2 sōukidz] soak (I) & -age 1 Act of soaking or percolating through or into anything 2 Amount of liquid percolating through or into anything soaker, n [1 sōker, 2 sōuko] soak (I) & -er One who, that which, soaks, specif (colloq) a a downpour of rain, drenching rain, b a hard drinker, boozier soap (I), n [1 sōp, 2 sōup] OE sāpe, ME sōpe, OHG seifa, Du zeep, ON sōpa is fr OE, Lat. sēpo, sēponem, see saponaceous, is borrowed fr Gmo Op further the related OE sēpon, 'to macerate, be soaked', the true Lat cogn is sēbum, 'tallow, suet', see sebacaceous 1 The substances used for washing and cleansing, composed of a combination of caustic soda or potash, and animal or vegetable oils and fats, often scented and moulded into bars or cakes Phrs to wash one's hands in unsavory soap, to rub one hand over the other, as though washing them, esp as a nervous or ill bred person wishing to be ingratiating, or when merely embarrassed, soft soap, (f) a semi liquid form of potash soap, (h) (fig) flattery 2 Specif (chem) any compound of an alkali with a fatty acid sosp (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To use soap upon, apply soap to for washing, to rub with soap and water, b (fig) to flatter to soap a person down 2 intrans To use soap for washing soap-bark, n Name of various American tropical trees, the bark of which is soapy and used for washing and medicinally soap-berry, n A tropical tree of America, genus Sapindus, the berries of which, soaked in water, produces a lather, used for washing soap-boiler, n A manufacturer of soap soap-boiling, n The process or industry of manufacturing soap soap-bubble, n A hollow, indescend ball or bubble of air enclosed in a film of soap soapily, adv [1 sōpily, 2 sōupily] soapy & -ly In a soapy manner, specif (fig) with obsequious politeness soapiness, n [1 sópines, 2 sópinis] See prec & -ness State, quality, of being soapy (in both senses) soap-plant, n Any plant which yields substances capable of being used as soap soap-root n Name of various bulbous plants used as soap soapstone, n [1 sópstón, 2 sóupstoun] A soft stone which is soapy to the touch, esp. steatite soap-suds, n soap & suds Frothy scum of soap floating on water, soapy water soap-wort, n soap & wort (1) Popular name of a plant, Saponaria officinalis, the leaves of which when bruised and steeped in water yield a soapy lather.

soapy, adj [1 sópi; 2 sóupi] soap (1) & -y 1 Covered with, impregnated with, full of, soap a soapy face, soapy water 2 Resembling soap in consistency and texture, almy, greasy to the touch 3 (fig., of bearing and manners) Obsequious, flattery, designed to propitiate, oily,unctuous soar, vb intrans [1 sór, 2 só] ME sóren, fr O Fr essorer, 'to expose (wings) to the air, to soar', orig. a hawking term, fr L Lat exaurare, fr ex-, 'out', & aura, 'air', see aura 1 (of birds) To rise from the ground & mount high into the air 2 (fig.) To aspire in mind, to rise to heights of feeling, imagination &c., to attain great elevation of thought, feeling, expression soave, adv [1 sóháv, 2 sóve] Ital, fr Lat suavis, 'sweet' See suave (musical direction) Sweetly, gently, softly sob (1), vb intrans & trans [1 sob, 2 sob] ME sobben, fr an unrecorded OE sobban*, prob. related to OE sogfan, 'to sigh, lament', & apparently to OHG sufzen, 'to sigh, groan', though the phonology is by no means clear. Prob. of imitative origin. A intrans 1 To weep convulsively and noisily 2 To labour for breath, to breathe in short, rapid, convulsive breaths, as after prolonged, violent exertion. 3 To produce either a series of rapid convulsive sounds, such as the palpitations of an angina, or b a mournful, intermittent sound such as the breaking of waves on rocks, a fitful gust of wind &c. B trans Usually sob out, to express, utter, in sobs or by sobbing to sob out one's grief &c. Phr to sob one's heart out, to weep convulsively and noisily as from heart-rending grief sob (II), n, fr prec Act of, sound of, sobbing sobbing n [1 sobing, 2 sobij] sob (I) & -ing Act, sound, of one who, that which, sobs sobbingly, adv, fr prec Part of sob (I) & -ly In a sobbing manner, with sobs sober (I), adj [1 sóber, 2 sóube], fr Fr sobre, fr Lat sóbrus, wh. is believed to come fr só(d)*, 'without', a variant of séd, see sad-, & thrus, 'drunk', see ebriety 1 A Not drunk, not under the influence of strong drink, unaffected in mind or power of movement by alcohol not completely sober at the time of the accident, drunk or sober he is a dismal man, b not given to habitual excess in the use of strong drink, temperate, abstemious the man was sober, honest, and thrifty, the sober army and navy of today Phr as sober as a judge, completely sober 2 Moderate in character or temperament, of sound, cool judgement, not given to extremes in opinions and prejudices, habitually avoiding vehemence of feeling and expression, or violence in action, not easily carried away by emotion or passion the more sober of his supporters were not so confident of success, a sober critic 3 Characterized by moderation not excited or exaggerated, not fanciful or visionary of sober mind, judgement, no man in his sober senses would act thus, gave a sober statement of the facts 4 Quiet, subdued in colour, not bright or garish clad in sober raiment sober (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To make anber a to bring out of condition of drunkenness or other excess, b to cool the judgement of, to reduce to a reasonable state of mind, to reduce to moderation from a state of mental exaltation, from extremes of passion, prejudice &c. 2 intrans Sober down, to become sober in mind, opinions, conduct soberly, adv [1 sóberh, 2 sóubeli] sober (I) & -ly In a sober manner sober-minded adj Having a sober, calm, self-controlled mind and character, not rash or impetuous sober-mindedly, adv prec & -ly In a sober-minded manner sober-mindedness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being sober-minded sobersides, n [1 sóbersiz, 2 sóubasaidz] (colloq.) A solemn, sedate, serious person, one not given to frolics, light jests, jollification &c.

Sobranje, n [1 sóbráhnj, 2 sóubránje] Bulg. 'assembly', fr so, 'together', & base ber*, 'to bring, bear', see bear (I) The national legislative assembly of Bulgaria sobriety, n [1 sóbríoti, 2 sóubriwiti], fr Fr sobriété, fr Lat sobrietas (em) See sober & -ty State, quality, of being sober, in all its senses sobriquet, soubriquet, n [1 sóbrík, 2 sóubriki] Fr, etymol. obscure, O Fr had soubriquet, 'chuck under the chin', fr soubz, sous, 'under', sp sub, & Norm Fr bruiet, fr brechet, 'brisket, chest' A nickname, an assumed name sob-stuff, n (Am. slang) Mawkish sentimentality, exaggerated pathos, esp. in journalism, acting on the stage, and in films soc, n [1 sók, 2 sók] OE or early ME soc, a legal term, apparently a variant of sóc, 'inquiry, right of inquiry, jurisdiction, place, area, over which jurisdiction extends', borrowed fr ON & cogn. w OE sécan, 'to seek', see sokk. (federal law) 1 Right and power of judicial inquiry and decision, jurisdiction, esp. in Phr sac and soc, power of hearing and deciding legal causes and disputes 2 Area in which such power is exercised, surviving as sok, q v 3 Freedom from certain personal, esp. military, services or burdens, as basis of tenure of land.

socage, soccage, n [1 sóh, 2 sókidz] L. Med. Lat societatem See prec & -age (legal hist.) A form of tenure of agricultural land in which the tenant performed certain fixed, definite services other than military, or paid in kind in lieu of such, developing into freehold and copyhold tenures soccer, also spelt socker, n [1 sóker, 2 sóke] Popular abbr of association football.

sociability, n [1 sóciabiliti, 2 sóufébliti] sociable & -ity Quality of being sociable sociable (I), adj [1 sóshabl, 2 sóufébl] Fr, fr Lat sociabilis, 'easily joined, sociable', fr base of sociare, 'to accompany, be a companion to', fr socius, 'companion, fellow', fr base só-*, 'to follow', in gradational relation to Lat sequi, 'to follow', see sequela, Lat socius is exactly cogn. w OE seeg, 'man, warrior' fr Gmc sagjya*, Aryan sok-yé-*, sp also Sert saki, 'together' 1 (of persons &c.) Fond of company and society, companionable, agreeable to meet, inclined to be friendly and genial, ready to talk and mix with others, affable the English are not a very sociable people 2 Characterized, marked, by friendliness and affability, not stiff or formal sociable manners, disposition &c. 3 Affording opportunity for friendly talk and companionship a sociable evening, meeting, party sociable (II), n, fr prec 1 (colloq.) A friendly, social informal, meeting, party &c. 2 A vehicle, sofa, trolley, with seats for two persons side by side.

sociably, adv [1 sóshabl, 2 sóufébl] sociable (I) & -ly In a sociable manner, sociably inclined, fond of society, convivial social (I), adj [1 sóshi, 2 sóufi], fr Lat socialis, fr socius, 'companion, partner, ally', q v. under sociable 1 Pertaining to concerned with, the mutual relations of mankind as living in an organized, interdependent body or society social laws, relations, social progress, reforms &c., the social good Phr the Social Contract, translating Rousseau's 'Contrat Social', theoretical contract by which men obtained true freedom by mutual agreement to substitute a state of law for a state of individualism and nature, the social evil, prostitution, social science, sociology 2 a (of human beings) Living in mutual relations, sharing work, duties &c. with, or in dependence on, others when did man become social? b (zool., esp. of insects) living in communities, gregarious, contrasted with solitary social wasps, ants, bees &c. 3 A Pertaining to organized human society, the social customs of the Hindus, specif. b pertaining to the ranks, grades, of society one's social equals, to long for social advancement 4 Composed of persons meeting on terms of social equality, tastes &c. a social club 5 Enjoyed, spent, in company with others a social evening 6 Friendly, sociable he has a nice, social character 7 (Gk. and Rom. hist.) Taking place between allies the Social Wars social (II), n, (colloq. or vulg.) a social evening socialism, n [1 sóshalizm, 2 sóufélsizm] social (I) & -ism. 1 A political and economic theory and movement for the reform of society by the substitution of collective for individual ownership of capital and property, contrasted with, and opposed to, capitalism or individualism, state or municipal ownership of the means of production, distribution and exchange socialist, n [1 sóshalist, 2 sóufélist] See prec & -ist 1 A One who believes in socialism as a political and economic theory, b a member of a political party which advocates and endeavours to introduce socialism as a form of government 2 (attrib.) Pertaining to socialism or socialists socialist organization, members of Parliament &c.

socialistic, adj [1 sóshalistik, 2 sóufélistik] prec & -to Pertaining, relating, to socialists or socialism.

socialistically, adv [1 sóshalistikali, 2 sóufélistikali] prec & -al & -ly In a socialistic manner, by way of socialism.

sociality, n [1 sóshiati, 2 sóufélistiti] social (I) & -ity a State, quality, of being social or sociable, sociability, b instinct, tendency, to become social.

socialization, n [1 sóshalizeshun, 2 sóufélaizeshun] See next word & -ation. a Act, process, of socializing, b state of being socialized.

socialize, vb trans [1 sóshaliz, 2 sóufélaiz] social (I) & -ize 1 To make, render, social, to subordinate to the interests of a society, to incorporate in a society 2 To make socialistic, to make to conform to the principles of socialism, to change from individual or private ownership to state or municipal ownership socially, adv [1 sóshali, 2 sóuféli] social (I) & -ly 1 After the manner of, according to the principles and customs of, organized society man has lived socially from the moment at which he became man 2 In social or sociable manner, affably, companionably 3 According to the ranks, grades, divisions, of society ranks socially inferior, superior society, n [1 sóseti, 2 sósetiti] Fr société, fr Lat societas (em), 'fellowship, association, community, a political league, alliance', fr base in socius, 'companion' &c., see under sociable, & abstract suff. q v. under -ty

1 System whereby men live in organized communities, regulated by custom and law, for purposes of mutual protection, help, government &c., with division of labour to ensure that the various necessities of life are provided and its essential activities carried on the dawn of human society, primitive society 2 Any organized group of human beings forming a community, more or less closely united by common customs or laws, and living under some form of common government the society of the Ancient Egyptians was based upon kingship closely related with religion 3 Human life, customs, behaviour, in general, considered as existing in organized communities, and subject to the conditions governing organized social life the habits and morality of society have changed greatly since the Great War 4 Some particular grade or stratum of society, a some group of persons associated together, and marked out from the community as a whole, by the possession of particular interests and capacities or by following some special occupation literary, scientific, academic, society, b specif (1) those sections of the community distinguished by birth, high rank, considerable wealth, and sometimes by education and refinement of manners, those circles which are fashionable and (more or less) exclusive society with a capital S, anxious to get into society, (It) (attrib) belonging to, frequenting, fashionable society a society woman, hostess 5 Companionship, company, of, social association with, another or others to enjoy the society of one's friends, I was glad to be quit of his unwelcome society 6 A group, party, company, posse, of persons, standing or walking, at a given moment, in sufficiently close proximity to each other to form a band or unit 'There entertain him all the saints above, In solemn troops and sweet societies' (Milton, 'Lyonesse', 178-9) 7 (cap) A group or association of persons united under a set of regulations, conditions of membership &c, for the furtherance of a particular cause, set of interests &c the Royal Society, Archaeological Society, Society for the Propagation of the Gospel &c

Socinian, adj & n [1 sōsīnian; 2 sōsīnian] Formed fr Socinus, the Latinized form of the name of the Italian Fausto Sozzini (1539-1604) & his uncle Leio S. (1525-62) who taught anti-Trinitarian doctrines, & denied the Atonement Socinus's views are virtually those held by modern Unitarians a adj Pertaining to, based on, embodying, the doctrines of Socinus, b n, an adherent of these doctrines

Socinianism, n [1 sōsīnianizm, 2 sōsīnianizm] Prec & -izm The doctrines and theological system taught by Socinus sociological, adj [1 sōsiolōjīk, 2 sōsiolōjīk] See sociology & -ic & -al Pertaining to sociology sociologically, adv Prec & -ly From the point of view of sociology sociologist, n [1 sōsiolōjīst, 2 sōsiolōjīst] sociology & -ist Student of sociology sociology, n [1 sōsiolōjī, 2 sōsiolōjī] fr Lat socius See social (I) & -logy Scientific and systematized study of mankind considered as social beings, living in organized communities, the study of human society, social sciences sock (I), n [1 sōk, 2 sōk] OE socce, fr Lat soccus, 'a light shoe or slipper', worn by comic actors, fr Gk, op sukhē, 'kind of shoe', prob of Oriental origin 1 (archaic and poet) The comic actor's shoe, hence, comedy, the comic muse 'If Jonson's learned sock be on' (Milton, 'L'Allegro', 132) 2 A short stocking reaching to the middle of the calf of the leg, as worn by men and young children 3 An inner sole, usually with a woolly upper surface, inserted in a boot or shoe for the sake of warmth or to effect a better fit sock (II), vb trans Etymol obscure, possibly abbr fr sockdologer (slang) To hit, strike, with missile, fist, or weapon sock (III), n Etymol unknown. (school-boy slang) Food, such as pastry, sweets &c, obtained in school tuck-shop &c, grub, tuck sockdologer, n [1 sōkdolōjer, 2 sōkdolōjī] Corrupt of doxology (Am slang) Something which finally settles or ends anything, such as a blow, decisive argument &c socket, soccer, n [1 sōker, 2 sōka] Popular abbr of association football socket, n & vb [1 sōket, 2 sōkit] ME, fr O (Norm) Fr soclet, dimin of souche, 'stock, stump, of a tree', of Gmo origin, op M Du schocke, 'cock, heap, shock, of corn', &c, see shock (III), Ital hascioce, 'stump', fr same source 1 n A hollow chamber, cavity, recess, formed by nature or art, adapted for the reception of another object or a portion of this, whether so as to hold it immovable, or to allow a certain play or movement a bolt often fits into a socket cut in the wood of the door frame, the head of a joint works in a socket, the eye sockets 2 vb To furnish with, fix into, a socket socketed, adj [1 sōketəd, 2 sōkitəd] PP of prec Fixed into, provided with, a socket soole, n [1 sōl, 2 sōl] Fr, fr Ita' zoccolo, fr L Lat socculus, dimin of soccus See sock (I) (archit) A plain, rectangular base or plinth, forming the pedestal of a statue, column &c, b a low, plain, projecting plinth at the base of a wall soeman, n [1 sōkman, 2 sōkman] soc & man (legal hist) Person holding agricultural land by tenure of socage

Socratic, adj & n [1 sōkratik, 2 sōkratik], fr Gk Sōkratēs 1 adj Connected with, pertaining to, Socrates, the Greek philosopher and teacher (469-399 B.C.), Socratic dialectic or method, method of argument and proof by means of question and answer, Socratic irony, assumption of ignorance on the part of questioner, thus leading the questioned into contradictions and display of his own ignorance 2 n (usually pl) Follower of the teaching and philosophy of Socrates

Socratically, adv [1 sōkratikah, 2 sōkratikah] Prec & -al & -ly In the manner of Socrates or the Socratics sod (I), n [1 sōd, 2 sōd] The word is prob of LG origin in the present sense, op LG sode, 'turf' It is, however, connected w seethe & sodden, the orig sense of the base being 'to boil, bubble' Cp also the OE cogn safp, 'a pond, well', LG sod, 'a well' Thus the chain of meaning wd be 'a spring, ground through which water springs, moist ground, grass growing on such ground' 1 Grassy surface of earth, turf, sward Phr under the sod, in the grave, buried 2 A piece of out turf sod (II), vb trans, fr prec To cover with soda sod (III), vb Pret of seethe Obs or very archaic sod (IV), n Contraction of Sodomite An obscene and vulgar term of abuse soda, n [1 sōda, 2 sōda] Ital, orig applied to the ash used in making glass, fem sing of sodo, 'firm, hard', fr Lat solidus, see solid 1 Any of the various compounds of sodium, esp a sodium carbonate, common soda, used in various industries, as glass-making, soap boiling &c, and for washing purposes, b sodium bicarbonate, used for baking powders and medicinally, c sodium hydroxide, caustic soda 2 Soda water a whisky and soda soda-fountain, n Apparatus for holding and supplying soda water or other effervescent mineral waters and beverages sodalite, n [1 sōdalit, 2 sōdalit] Fr See soda & -lite Name of a group of rock-forming minerals, of which the type is a silicate of sodium and aluminum sodality, n [1 sōdakti, 2 sōdakti], fr Lat sodalitas (em), fr sodālis, 'comrade, companion', fr suedhālis*, cp Sert sadhad, 'peculiar manner, custom', & Gk ethos, 'custom, habit' See ethos A fraternity or fellowship, brotherhood, esp one of laymen in the Roman Catholic Church, existing for charitable or devotional purposes soda-water, n a Water highly charged with carbonic acid gas, forming an effervescent drink, often used mixed with brandy, whisky, wine, milk &c, b formerly, a weak effervescent solution of bicarbonate of soda sodden (I), adj [1 sōdn, 2 sōdn], fr OE soden, PP of sēpan, 'to boil, cook' See seethe 1 (archaic) Boiled in water, seethed. 2 A soaked, saturated, with water, b specif (of food) badly cooked, so as to be damp, soft, and squashy 3 (fig) a Soaked in, having partaken to excess of, alcoholic drink, b heavy, dull in mind, stupid, from habitual intemperance sodden (II), vb trans & intrans Prec, or new formation fr form sod & suff -en, as in deepen &c 1 trans (usually in PP) Soddened, to make sodden, to saturate, soak 2 intrans To become sodden soddenness, n [1 sōdness, 2 sōdness] Condition, quality, of being sodden sodium, n [1 sōdium, 2 sōdium] Mod counce fr soda A metallic, alkaline element, having symbol Na (for natrum), of a silvery white colour, and waxy soft consistency, only found in combination, as sodium chloride, common salt, sodium nitrate, Chile saltpetre &c

Sodomite, n [1 sōdnmit, 2 sōdnmit] Fr, fr Lat Sodomia, fr Gk Sodomites, 'inhabitant of Sodom' 1 (cap) Inhabitant of Sodom 2 (without cap) One guilty of the crime of sodomy sodomitic(al), adj [1 sōdnit(ik), 2 sōdnit(ik)] Prec & -ic & -al Pertaining to sodomites or to sodomy sodomy, n [1 sōdnmi, 2 sōdnmi] Sodom & -y See Gen xix Unnatural sexual crime between males soever [1 sōévor, 2 sōévor] so & ever Adverbial suffix, appended to, but separable from, relative pronouns and pronominal adjectives and adverbs, giving them a wider or more indefinite meaning, or adding emphasis who, what, when, howsoever, how wide soever the difference may be &c sofa, n [1 sōfa, 2 sōfa], fr Arab suffa (h), 'bench, couch' Piece of furniture in form of a long seat or couch on which to recline, sofas are made in various shapes, but all have in common that they are upholstered, have a layer of thick soft material placed over springs, on which the user lies, and are intended primarily for repose during the day time soffit, n [1 sōfit, 2 sōfit], fr Fr soffite, fr Ital soffitta, 'ceiling', fem sing of soffitto, 'fixed underneath', fr Lat suffigum, PP of suffigere, 'to fasten underneath' See suffix The s- is due to confusion w Lat fictum, PP of figere, 'to shape, fashion', but the Ital PPs are normally formed as fr Lat -io- type. (archit) The under surface of an arch, vault, cornice &c soft (I), adj [1 sōft, soft, 2 sōft, soft]. OE sōfte, 'quiet, luxurious, comfortable, not stern, gentle', also as adv fr samfio*, the more usual form of the adj in OE is, however, sēfte, w mutation fr sarfio*. OS sāfti, adj, sāfto, adv, OHG semft, adj, semfto, adv, Germ sanft, this word may be fr base sam*, seen in Goh samjan, 'to please', cp further Gk hēmeros, 'mild, calm', fr sēm, Sert sāman, 'mildness', cp O Ir sāim, 'mildness' Referring to material qualities 1 Offering little or no resistance to pressure, easily compressed or squeezed, readily worked or cut, the top posto of hard or tough soft as clay, butter, a soft bed, pillow, one comfortable and yielding to lie upon, as being packed with light substances &c, soft ground, pitch, not rolled or trampled hard, also damp, sodden, or slow, (specific uses) soft coal, bituminous coal, as opposed to anthracite, soft goods, textiles, as opposed to hardware, soft metal, one that is malleable, such as lead &c., soft money, paper money, soft palate, the velum, the back membranous part of the roof of the mouth, between the pharynx and the mouth cavity, soft sawder, soft solder, also (fig) flattery, soft soap, soft soap, semi-liquid potash soap, also (fig) flattery, soft sawder, soft solder, solder used for soldering soft, easily fused metals, soft lach, (sailor's slang) white bread, as contrasted with diacust or hard lach, soft woods, timber of coniferous trees, which is light and not closely grained, and thus easily sawn. 2. Not rough or harsh in texture, smooth, a smooth to the touch skin soft as silk, a soft hand, cheek. Phra. as soft as silk, (clad in) soft raiment, luxurious, as made of silk &c., b smooth to the palate or taste, not astringent or sour a soft wine, soft as milk 3 (of bodily condition) Not firm, hard or well braced &c., flabby, weak muscles grow soft through want of exercise. 4 (of physical action) a Gentle, light, not violent a soft tap on the head, b (colloq) easy, not demanding great exertion or expenditure of energy to perform a soft job Phr a soft thing, a transaction in which money can be easily earned. 5 (of weather &c.) a Mild, balmy, gentle, not cold or boisterous, not excessively hot he had to live in a softer climate, a soft breeze from the west, a soft rain, one which falls gently, b moist, damp, and warm a soft day 8 (referring to chemical quality, constituents &c.) a Soft water, one free from such mineral salts as prevent the easy lathering of soap, b (colloq) not alcoholic soft drinks 7 a (of colour) Not too bright, vivid, glaring, or garish, subdued, low in tone soft shades of green and blue, b (of outline &c.) not sharply defined, indistinct, merging into other lines, or into the background soft contours of the distant hills, soft lines of a statue. 8 (of sound) Low, modulated, not loud or harsh a soft voice, to speak in soft tones, the soft murmur of a stream, soft rustle of the leaves 9 (as popular and misleading phon term, very vaguely and inaccurately used) a Voiced the soft th=[ð], b not a stop the soft sound of c=[s], b is often soft in Spanish, i.e. is pronounced not as a lip stop, but as a lip open consonant. (Such terminology should be avoided.) Referring to non-material qualities 10 (of disposition &c.) a Gentle, merciful, tender, averse to giving pain or distress, reverse of harsh or obdurate a soft heart, appeal to the softer side of his character, b expressing such a disposition a soft glance, smile Phr 'A soft answer turneth away wrath' (Proverbs), soft words, in gratiating, mollifying expressions 11 a (of mental capacity, colloq) Weak, feeble a bit soft in the head, b (of character) not virile, not energetic, enfeebled, effeminate, easy going, luxurious the softer races of the East, Northerners look on Southerners as soft, c lacking severity and sternness, humane, lenient it is a mistake to be soft with inveterate rogues and criminals, a soft sentence soft (II), adv & interj, fr prec 1 adv Softly, gently soft falls the snow speak softer 2 interj (archaic) Be quiet, be still, stop, go slowly or quietly soft! someone comes soft (III), n, fr soft (I) (colloq) 1 A weak-minded, soft-headed person.

softa n [1 softa 2 softa] Turk. A Moslem student of theology and law soften vb trans & intrans [1 sáwín, 2 sáfn] soft (I) & -en. 1 trans To make, cause to become, soft, pliable &c (in various senses) to soften leather, to soften water, to soften one's voice, to soften a person's heart 2 intrans To become soft or softer softener, n [1 sáwínar 2 sáfnar] Prec & -er One who, that which, softens, specif, some chemical substance or device by which hard water is softened water softener softening, n [1 sáwínng, 2 sáfnng] soften & -ing Act, process of making or of becoming soft, a (in material sense) specif, softening of the brain, a chronic disease of the brain marked by a morbid, gradual degeneration of certain parts of the brain tissue, b process of becoming milder, of relenting, of becoming less harsh stern &c the cruel tyrant showed no signs of softening soft-hearted, adj soft (I) & hearted Having a soft, tender heart, gentle, pitiful, merciful.

soft-heartedness n Prec & -ness Quality of being soft hearted softish, adj [1 sawtish, 2 sáftif] soft (I) & -ish Rather, inclined to be, soft.

softly, adv [1 sáwíth, 2 sáftif] soft (I) & -ly In a soft manner softness, n [1 sáwítnes, 2 sáftínes] soft (I) & -ness Quality, condition, of being soft (in various senses) soft-spoken, adj soft (I) & -spoken. Speaking softly, having a soft, gentle voice, usually fig, saying pleasant things, mild in expression sogginess, n [1 ságnies, 2 ságnis] soggy & -ness Condition of being soggy soggy, adj [1 ságn, 2 ságn] Cp ON soggr, damp', prob cogn w soak. (of soil) Saturated with water, sodden soho, interj [1 sóhó, 2 sóuhóu] Earlier sa ho, fr Fr ça, 'here', & ho! as call Sports man's call, indicating position of game, a halloo soi-disant, adj [1 swáh dézon, 2 swd díz] Fr Self styled, self named, hence, would be, pretended a soi-disant poet soil (I), n [1 soil, 2 sol] M.E. soile, soyle, fr A. Fr so i, fr O Fr soel, suel, 'threshold sill of a door', fr Lat solea, 'sole of the foot, sandal', wh. in L. Lat is used also in sense of 'ground, soil', thus taking the place of Lat solum, 'ground', w wh it is cogn The words go back to a base soel*-&c, whence also O.H.G. swells, 'threshold' O.E. syll, 'foundation', see sill, & also Goth. (ga-)suljan, 'to base, found', are prob early loan words fr Lat solea 1 The surface earth or top layer of ground in which plants grow, consisting of loose, broken down rock and decayed organic, chiefly vegetable, matter, mould. 2 Rare, except in night soil, sewage cleared from cess pits at night 3 Ground, land, country one's native soil, on foreign soil, a friendly soil, 'Is this the region, this the soil, the clime, this the soil That we must change for Heaven?' (Milton, 'P.L.', I 241) soil (II), vb trans & intrans M.E. soilen, fr A-Fr soiler, O Fr soiller, Mod Fr soiller, fr soil, soail, 'place where a pig has wallowed', fr Lat soillus, adj, 'of, pertaining to swine', fr rus, 'pig', cogn w O.E. sū, see sow (I), cp also sully A trans 1 (in material sense) a To make dirty, to stain or smear with dirt, to put dirty marks upon to soil one's hands, one's linen, clothes &c, Phr to soil one's hands with, to degrade oneself by b (rare, influenced by soil (I)) to cover with manure, to put soil on to soil a field &c 2 (in non material sense) To defile, tarnish, besmirch, sully his character was soiled by serious crimes B intrans To become soiled, stained, or dirty such delicate fabrics soil only too quickly soil (III), n, fr prec 1 (archaic) Lair, wallowing place of a boar or wild pig 2 That which soils, dirt, a stain, also fig soil (IV) vb trans, fr O Fr soiler, souiler, soeler, fr Lat. sauillus, 'filled with food', dimin. of satur, 'full, satiated', see saturate To feed, fatten (cattle or horses) in stall with green food or fresh grass soil-pipe, n soil (I) & pipe (I) Large pipe which conveys sewage from a house &c into the drain or sewer soiree, n [1 swáhrrá, 2 swárré] Fr, 'evening party', fr soir, 'evening', fr Lat serus, 'late', see serotinus A social gathering in the evening sojourn vb intrans & n [1 sojurn 2 sadžan] fr O Fr sojourn, sojournier, Mod Fr sojournier, fr assumed Low Lat subdiurnare* fr Lat sub, 'under', see sub- & diurnare, to stay, dwell', fr diurnus 'daily', see diurnal, & cp journey (archaic or liter) 1 vb To stay, live, dwell, have one's abode in for a season, reside temporarily in at, among to sojourn in Ireland, sojourn among strange peoples 2 n A temporary residence in, or visit to, a place or country sojourner, n [1 sojurner, 2 sadžana] Prec

& -or One who sojourns, a temporary resident or visitor soke, n [1 sók, 2 souk] OE soca See soc & cp socage 1 (legal hist) Right to hold a court and exercise jurisdiction 2 An administrative district over which soke is exercised, still surviving in the Sole of Peterborough sokol, n [1 sókol, 2 sákol] Czech, 'falcon' An athletic and gymnastic association, organized for national and patriotic purposes in pre-war Bohemia &c, now Czechoslovakia

Sol (I), n [1 sol, 2 sol] Lat, sun', fr saueles*, cp Gk. cogn hēlios, hēlios, 'sun', for saueles*, see holiacol, Goth saul, O.E. sól may be a cogn or a direct borrowing fr Lat O.E. suelan, 'to burn, to glow' &c, cp sultry, may be connected The sun, only in vulgar scale in the sol fa system, b the fifth note, G, in scale of C major sola, n [1 sóla, 2 soula] Bengali, fr Hind shola A An East Indian plant with pithy stem, b pith of this plant used for making sun helmets solace, n, & vb trans & intrans [1 sólas, 2 sólas, -es] M.E. solas, 'satisfaction, pleasure', fr O Fr solaz, fr Lat sólātium, 'a soothing, assuaging, comfort, solace', formed fr sólātum, P.P type of sólari, 'to comfort, console', cogn w Lat sollus, 'whole', cogn w Gk. holos, 'entire, whole, intact', Scrt sarvas, 'intact, entire', closer in meaning to Lat sólātium are O.E. sæl ('favourable') occasion, happiness', sælig, 'happy, prosperous', & sily, Goth sels, 'good' Cp further salvation, solid, & second element of console (I) 1 n That which provides comfort, consolation &c, a relief, consolation, a pleasure, a recreation to find solace from grief in religion, my chief solace in old age is the affection of my friends, his sole solace in his loneliness and ill-health was the company of books 2 vb a trans To provide solace for, bring solace to, esp solace oneself (with), b intrans, to provide, be a source of, solace the older we grow, the more we find that great literature solaces and supports

solan goose, n [1 solan góbs, 2 soulan gds] Scots soland, fr ON súla The gannet, a large fish-eating sea bird of the North Atlantic, found in a few spots in Northern Britain, such as Ailsa Craig and the Bass Rock

Solanum, n [1 sólánnum, 2 sólénum] Lat, 'deadly nightshade', formed fr Lat sól, 'sun' See Sol (I) (bot) The typical genus of the family Solanaceae, which includes the nightshade, potato, tomato, henbane, capsicum, tobacco &c solar (I), adj [1 sólar, 2 sóula] fr Lat sólāris, belonging to the sun' See Sol (I) & -ar 1 Pertaining to, concerned with, the sun the solar system, the system of planets, including the earth, satellites, comets &c, of which this sun is the centre, solar eclipse, eclipse of the sun, solar myth, myth or tale explained as originating from various natural phenomena in which this sun is the cause &c 2 Caused by, produced by, emanating from, the sun solar heat, rays &c 3 Measured by the revolution of the earth in relation to the sun solar year &c solar (II), n, fr Lat sólārium, 'flat house-top, balcony exposed to the sun', also 'a sundial' See prec Living room on the upper storey of a mediaeval house solarization, n [1 sólārizashun, 2 sólārizashun] Next word & -ation. a Act, process, of solarizing, b state of being solarized solarize, vb trans [1 sólāriz, 2 sólāriz] solar (I) & -ize To expose or over expose to the heat of the sun's rays solar plexus, n [1 sólāri pleksa, 2 sólāri pleksa] A network or mass of nerves situated in the abdomen behind the stomach, so called as being the centre of the nervous system of the abdominal viscera solatum, n, pl solatus [1 sôlâz um, -a, 2 sôlûsiam, -i] Lot See solace Something, money, or other gift, presented to a person as compensation or reward for trouble incurred or injury suffered sola topi, n [1 sôla tôpi, 2 sôla tôupi] See sola & topi, also, by a natural popular association of meaning, often epelt solar topi A hat or helmet, made from the pith of the sola plant, worn by Europeans in India, Meso potonua, Africa &c, as a protection against the sun sold, vb [1 sôld, 2 sôuld] Prot & PP of sell, O E Pret sâlde (cp W S salde), PP (ge)sald, M E sold(e) solder, n & vb trans [1 sâwder, sôdor, sôlder, 2 sôda, sôda, sôldo] M E soudere, fr O Fr soudure, 'solder', fr souder, 'to fasten together, to solder', fr Lat soldarius, 'to make firm', fr soldus, 'firm', sso sold, & -ure, the Mod Engl vb is fr the n, M E has souden, fr O Fr souder See also sawder 1 n Fusible metal alloy used for uniting two metal surfaces or edges, and for filling holes in metal objects, metallic cement 2 vb To unite, fasten together, the surfaces or edges of (metal, metal vessel &c) by means of solder soldering, n [1 sâwdering, 2 sôldârîng] Proc & -ing Act, process, of using solder for uniting two metallic surfaces &c, soldering-iron, tool used in this process soldier (I), n [1 sôljer, 2 sôldjâ] M E soldiour, soldier, fr O Fr soldoier, soldier, fr L Lat soldarius, fr L Lot soldum, 'pay', fr L Lat soldus, 'a coin', sso soldus & sou, L Lat soldat (um), PP of soldare, 'to pay', gives Mod Fr form soldat, 'soldier' 1 A One who is enrolled or enlisted in the military force of a country, member of an army, as contrasted with sailor, of the navy; Phrs soldier of fortune, a person of adventurous character and restless nature, willing to go, and to serve, anywhere where his services are well paid, soldier of Christ, an earnest Christian, b specif, a private or non commissioned officer, one of the rank and file officers and soldiers, Phrs go for a soldier, (colloq and popular) to enlist, an old soldier, empty bottle of wine or other liquor 2 Person having specific military qualities, abilities, or fame, esp as a commander or general the great soldiers of history, no one thought he would make a soldier, he turned out a very fine soldier 3 One of a class or caste of white ants or termites, also of red or black ants, with large jaws and head, a specialized form of worker not adapted for fighting, roiding other ants &c 4 (colloq) A red herring soldier (II), vb introns, fr prec To serve as a soldier he has soldiered all over the world, to go soldiering soldier-ant, n A fighting ant or termite soldier-crab, n A hermit crab soldierlike, adj [1 sôljerlik, 2 sôldjâlik] soldier (I) & -like Having the appearance, bearing, qualities, of a soldier, soldierly soldierly, adj [1 sôljerli, 2 sôldjâli] soldier (I) & -ly 1 (of persons) a Having a military appearance and bearing, well set up, b having the qualities of mind and character usually associated with a soldier, courageous, determined, restrained, and well-disciplined 2 (of qualities, appearance &c) Characteristic of a soldier; esp a upright, neat, smart soldierly appearance, b evincing coolness, courage, endurance, loyalty &c soldierly mind, character &c soldiery, n [1 sôljeri, 2 sôldjâri] soldier (I) & -y A Soldiers collectively, the military troops of a state, b any body of troops or soldiers at the mercy of an undisciplined soldiery soldo, n, pl soldi [1 sôldô, s, 2 sôldow, -i] Ital, fr Lot See soldus & sou A small Italian coin, & of o lira, 5 centesimi, equivalent to French sou, halfpenny sole (I), n [1 sôl, 2 sôul]. In O E & M E, fr Lot solea, 'sole of sandal, of the foot, a flat fish, sill', fr or cogn w solum, 'bottom of anything, ground, floor' See further under soil (I) 1 a The under surface of the foot of men and plantigrade animals, b strip of leather or other material forming the under part, upon which one walks, of a boot, shoe, or sandal 2 The bottom or lower part of various objects, that part on which they rest the sole of a plough, wooden golf club, carpenter's plane &c sole (II), vb trans, fr prec To provide (boot &c) with (now) sole sole (III), n, fr Fr, fr L Lat solea, fr Lot solea, 'a flat fish, the sole', see sole (I), fr its shape A marine flat fish, Solea vulgaris, one of the most valuable of food fishes, often styled Dover sole to distinguish it from the lemon sole, or limanda, which is a variety of plaice sole (IV), adj, M E sool, fr O Fr sol, Mod. Fr seul, fr Lat solus, 'alone', wh is prob fr suolos, formed fr base of reflex pron Lat suis, 'belonging to him, her, itself, one's own', see sui The primary sense of solus wd therefore be 'existing for, and by, itself, without connexion with others' 1 (archaic or poet) Alone, solitary, without companions 'So's aking by the shores of old Romanes' (Wordsworth) 2 One and only, single, acting, being, without another a (of persons) the sole heir to an estate, b (of actions &c) it was done on your sole authority, the sole argument he brought forward 3 (law) a Single, unmarried, only in Phr feme sole, as contrasted with feme co(u)vert, b having one individual member only corporation sole solecism, n [1 sôlesizm, 2 sôlesizam], fr Fr solecisme, fr Lat solecismus, fr Gk solokhis mos, fr solokheia, 'to speak (Greek) ungrammatically or badly', fr solokhos, 'speaking badly' like the people of Solos, town in Cilicia, colonized by Greeks who soon began to speak a corrupt form of Attic Greek 1 A grammatical or idiomatic error or blunder in speaking or writing, esp. the use of a phrase, word, pronunciation &c which is regarded as vulgar or provincial 2 A social mistake or impropriety in manners &c, an offence against the conventions of polite society, a piece of ill breeding solecist, n [1 sôlesist, 2 sôlesist] See prec & -ist One who commits a solecism solecistic, adj [1 sôlesistik, 2 sôlesistik] Prec & -ic Of the nature of, containing, o solecism solecistically, adv [1 sôlesistikali, 2 sôlesistik(e)li] Prec & -al & -ly In a solecistic manner solely, adv [1 sôlli, 2 sôalli] sole (IV) & -ly 1 Alone, apart from, to the exclusion of, others he is solely responsible 2 Solely because, on account of, for this reason alone he left the Army solely because he couldn't afford it, solely on account of ill-health solemn, adj [1 sôlem, 2 sôlam] M E & O Fr solempna, fr Lat solemnis, solemnis, later sollenis, sôlemnis, 'taking place every year, annual, religious, solemn', an old compund, the first element of wh is sollus, 'whole, entire', see under solace, & the second element omnis, 'year', q v under annual 1 Kept and observed at stated intervals, whether annually or not, regular, according to established, esp religious, usage solemn festivals of the Church &c 2 Observed, performed, with due formalities, formal a solemn oath, act &c, to prove o will in solemn form, Phr this is the solemn truth, as if sworn on oath, the Solemn League and Covenant, of 1643, establishing Presbyterianism in Scotland and England 3 Serious, grave, important, weighty on such solemn occasions as these, to give a solemn warning 4 (of persons, manner, action &c) a Grave, serious, not smiling or cheerful, impressively calm and deliberate a solemn judge, you look very solemn, what's the matter?, o solemn voice, 'with solemn tread and slow', b affect-edly, exaggeratedly grave and serious, pompous the usual letter in the papers from some solemn ass 5 (of things, places &c) Causing, arousing a feeling of awe, seriousness, or gravity a solemn sight, a solemn place, building &c solemnity, n [1 sôlemniti, 2 sôlemniti] M E & O Fr solempnitas, fr Lat sollemnitatis (em) See solemn & -ity 1 Stote, quality, of being solemn, solemn appearance, character, emotion, behaviour &c the solemnity of the occasion, place, awe him, you do not treat the matter with the solemnity it deserves, a ribald laugh somewhat detracted from the speaker's pompous solemnity 2 Coremomal observance, due, formal rito performed with all the historic solemnities solemnization, n [1 sôlemnizâshun, 2 sôlemnizâshon] solemnize & -ation Act of solemnizing or celebrating, due, formal, performance the solemnization of a marriage &c solemnize, vb trans [1 sôlemniz, 2 sôlemniz] solemn & -ize 1 To celebrate, keep with due rites and ceremonies: to solemnize Easter by going to Communion, Christmas with old-fashioned feasting &c 2 To perform with proper, legal formalities to solemnize a marriage 3 To make solemn, to impart a grave, serious, or awful character to sacred memories solemnize the place solemnly, adv [1 sôlemli, 2 sôlemli] solemn & -ly In a solemn manner, with due solemnity, formally, ceremoniously, gravely solemnness, n [1 sôlemnes, 2 sôlemnis] See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being solemn Solen, n, [1 sôlen, 2 sôulan] Gk solên, 'pipe, channel, gutter, also a shell-fish', prob. fr tuol, w gradational variants tuol &c, cogn w O H G dala, 'pipe, drain', fr Gmo piwulaz, wh was prob. borrowed in O Fr in the form tuel See towel, (zool) A genus of shell fish, the razor clam solenoid, n, [1 sôlenoid, 2 sôulonoid] See prec & -oid (elect) A coil of insulated wire through which an electric current is passed, magnetizing iron within the coil, used in constructing magnetic brakes, electro magnets &c sol-fa, n & vh [1 sôl fah, 2 sôl fâ], fr sol (ve) & fa (multi), words in Lat mnemonic See gamut 1 n System of using certain syllables, do (ut), re, mi, fa, sol, la, si, for, and associating them in sound with the notes of the scale, solmization, cp also tonic sol-fa 2 vb To pronounce, sing these syllables, use this system in singing solfatara, n [1 sôlfâtâra, 2 sôlfôtâra] Ital, fr solfo, 'sulphur' A vent or fissure in the ground, in or near a dormant volcano, from which sulphurous fumes issue solfeeggio, n [1 sôlfetjô, 2 sôlfedjôu] Ital See sol-fa Exercise for the singing voice based upon the syllables (and corresponding notes) do, re, mi, fa, &c solicit, vb trans & intrans [1 solist, 2 sâksit] M E soliciten, M Fr soliciter, fr Lat solicitare, 'to arouse, excite, urge, to solicit', fr solicitus, 'violently, lit wholly, moved, agitated, anxious, solicitous', formed fr sollus, 'whole', see solace, & citus, PP of citeré, 'to arouse', see cite A trans 1 a To beg, ask earnestly of, to petition (person) for something to solicit a person for help, money, his custom, his support &c, b (in bad sense) to beg persistently of, to importune, specif (of woman) to accost (man) in the street or o public place &c for immoral purposes 2 To beg, ask earnestly for to solicit favours, custom &c of or from a person B intrans a To practise solicitation, specif b to accost persons in public places for immoral purposes solicitation, n [1 sôlistâshun, 2 sôlistetis] (an) Prec & -ation Act of soliciting, persistent, earnest, invitation or request, specif, offence of soliciting or accosting men in streets for an immoral purpose solicitor, n [1 solistat, 2 solistat] Formed fr solicit & -or, op, however, O Fr soliciteur 1 (rare) One who solicits or asks earnestly for a solicitor for one's favour, custom &c 2 An officer of the Supreme Court of Judicature, admitted to practise law on behalf of clients, by advice, and in the hearing of barristers, but allowed to plead only in the lower courts, the term was at one time distinguished from attorney, but is so no longer, and it is now the general term for all legal practitioners other than barristers

Solicitor-General, n One of the principal law officers of the Crown, ranking next to the Attorney-General, a member of the Ministry of the day, but not of the Cabinet solicitous, adj [1 solistat, 2 solistat], fr Lat solicit (us), 'disturbed, agitated, anxious' See solicit & -ous 1 Eager, desirous to do, obtain, or avoid something solicitous to please, solicitous to gain esteem &c 2 Anxious, concerned solicitous about, concerning, one's health, safety &c solicitously, adv Preo & -ly In a solicitous manner solitude, n [1 solistat, 2 solistat] Fr, fr Lat solitudo See solicitous & -ude

State of being solicitous or anxious, anxiety, concern solid (I), adj [1 sólíd, 2 sólíd], fr Fr solide, fr Lat solid (us), 'firm, solid', cogn v solus, 'whole complete' See under solace 1 Not liquid, fluid, or gaseous, maintaining its shape, size, volume under pressure, or immediately regaining it when pressure is removed, firm, capable of resisting penetration by other substances solid bodies, lava becomes solid on cooling, a solid block of ice

Phr solid food, meat, bread &c, contrasted with liquid nourishment 2 Compact, of firm consistency, hard, able to support weight, stable solid ground Phrs a solid meal, a substantial one, rather a solid pudding, stuff, heavy, substantial 3 A Opposite of hollow, not having empty spaces or cavities within it a solid ball, globe, a solid wall, a solid tree, contrasted with pneumatic, b of the same material throughout, not merely having a casing or coating of some material a dinner service of solid gold 4 Firmly, strongly built, substantial, massive a man of solid frame, build, some of these new houses don't look very solid 5 (math) a Of three dimensions, cubic a solid figure a solid or cubic foot, yard &c b concerned with solid figures solid geometry 6 (of persons) a Of sound, sterling character, reliable, trustworthy, not superficial or flashy English voters like a good solid man as their member, he's a very plausible speaker but hardly a solid politician 7 Of sound financial position, substantial a solid merchant of the City of London, a solid business, firm &c, one well established and safe 8 Logically sound, well established based upon, characterized by, good reasoning reasonable, well grounded solid arguments, he had no solid ground for his actions 9 United in opinions, feelings, beliefs, unanimous the meeting was solid in its favour, England is said to be solid for Protestantism solid (II), adv fr preo Chiefly solid unanimously solid (III), n fr solid (I) 1 (phys) A solid body, contrasted with a liquid or a gas 2 (geom) A figure which has three dimensions such as a cube or sphere solidarity, n [1 sólídriti, 2 sólídriti] fr fr solidar, mutual interdependence be tween persons, formed fr solidaire having common interests &c, fr Lat solidus, solid Complete union of interests and responsibilities solid so community in feeling, and action, "flowing the solidarity of the nations across &c solid colour, n a Colour covering an object completely b a uniform colour solid drawn, adj Of tubes &c, formed out of a solid bar or rod of iron or steel solid hoofed, adj Having a solid, not cleft hoof, as the horse &c, solidungulate solid horned, adj Having solid horns, like deer &c, not hollow horns like oxen solidifiable, adj [1 sólídifiabl, 2 sólídifiabl] See solidify & -able Capable of being solidified solidification, n [1 sólídifikáshun, 2 sólídifikáshun] See next word & -fication a Act, process, of solidifying, b state of being solidified solidify, vb trans & intrans [1 sólídifi, 2 sólídifi], fr Fr solidifier, fr solid (I) & -fy 1 trans To make, cause to become, solid, compact, or firm 2 intrans To become solid solidity, n [1 sólíditi, 2 sólíditi], fr Fr solidité, fr Lat soliditas (em) See solid (I) & -ity Quality, condition, of being solid (in various material and non material senses) solidly, adv [1 sólídli, 2 sólídli] solid (I) & -ly In solid form, in a solid manner solid matter, n Specif (print) type set without leads between the lines solidness, n [1 sólídnes, 2 sólídnes] solid (I) & -ness Quality of being solid, solidity solidungulate, adj [1 sólídunggulát, 2 sólídunggulát] See solid & ungulate Solid hoofed solidus, n, pl solidi [1 sólídus, i, 2 sólídus, oi] L Lat, fr Lat solidus, adj See solid 1 A gold coin of the Late Empire, replacing the aureus, called the Byzantine solidus or bezant, q v 2 A silver coin of the Franks, worth twelve denarii, twenty going to the libra, or pound, whence a farthing in £ s d, or / (the old long /) in 8/8, op Ital solido, -y of lira and Fr sol, modern sol, 1/2 of the libra or franc solidian, n [1 sólídian, 2 sólídian] Formed fr Lat solus, 'alone' see sole (IV), & fid, stem of fides, 'faith' See fidelity & -ian (thool) One who holds that man can be justified by faith alone without works soliloquist, n [1 sólílokwist, 2 sólílokwist] soliloquy & -ist (rare) Soliloquizer soliloquize, vb intrans [1 sólílokwiz, 2 sólílokwiz] soliloquy & -ize a To utter a soliloquy, as on the stage &c, b to speak to oneself soliloquizer, n [1 sólílokwizer, 2 sólílokwizer] Preo & -er One who utters a soliloquy or speaks to himself soliloquy, n [1 sólílokwí, 2 sólílokwí], fr Lat soliloquium, fr solus, 'alone', see sole (IV), & loqui, 'to speak', see loquacious 1 The utterance of one's thoughts aloud, talking to oneself 2 Declaration in which he utters his thoughts, by a character in a play when alone on the stage, speech uttered by an actor as for himself, in the presence of other characters who are supposed not to hear, actual passage uttered in soliloquy 3 Talk, a monologue, by one person only who monopolizes the conversation in a company solipsism, n [1 sólípsizm, 2 sólípsizm] Formed fr Lat solus, 'alone', see sole (IV), & ipse, 'he himself, self', & -ism A term in metaphysics for the doctrine that nothing exists outside the cognition of the self, and that the self can know nothing outside its own experience solitaire, n [1 sólítár, 2 sólítár] Fr See solitary 1 a A single stone, such as a diamond &c, set as a stud ring earring &c, b (obs) a loose lace cravat worn by men in the 14th cent 2 a A game played by a single person with a board with small cups or hollows in which marbles are placed one being left vacant, the object being to clear the board by taking the marbles one by one as in draughts, b (US) the game of patience

3 (zoöl) a In extinct flightless bird, resembling the dodo whose remains are found in the Island of Rodriguez, b any of various other extinct, thorough of the W Indies and Southern United States solitarily, adv [1 sólítárlí, 2 sólítárlí] solitary & -ly In a solitary manner solitariness, n [1 sólítárnés, 2 sólítárnés] See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being solitary solitary, adj [1 sólítári, 2 sólítári] ME & A Fr solitarie, Mod Fr solitaire, fr Lat solitarius for sólitarius, formed w suff árius, see -ary, fr sólit (am), sólitas, 'solitariness, loneliness', fr sólus, 'alone', see sole (IV) 1 a Living, being, alone, not accompanied by others, alone, lonely a solitary monk, a solitary horseman on the lonely road, now all the guests have gone v feel quite solitary, b (of animals, esp insects) not living in communities, opposed to social or gregarious the solitary wasp &c 2 Passed, spent, performed, alone, not shared with others to lead a solitary life, take a solitary walk, a solitary task, solitary confinement, form of imprisonment in which the prisoner is isolated, works in his cell and takes exercise alone 3 Not much frequented, lonely, remote, secluded a solitary village, house, a gloomy, solitary moor 4 Single, sole, not having anything similar not a solitary instance of such a thing in history solitude, n [1 sólítúd, 2 sólítúd] Fr, fr Lat solitudo, fr solus, 'alone', see sole (IV) & -tude 1 State of being solitary, state of being, or living alone, of being isolated from others to live in solitude, 'O solitude, where are the charms, That eyes have seen in thy face?' (Cowper) 2 A lonely, deserted place, a wilderness 'He makes a solitude and calls it peace' (Byron, 'Bride of Abydos', II 20) solve, n [1 sólív, 2 sólív] O Fr, etymol. uncertain, perh formed fr Fr soulver, 'to raise up', fr Lat sublevaré, 'to lift up', fr sub- & levaré, 'to lift', formed fr Lat levis, 'light, not heavy', see lever & levitate &c A secondary timber, or joist, resting on beams, and supporting a floor solleret, n [1 sólérét, 2 sólérét] O Fr sol (heret, dimm of sol (her), Mod Fr soulier, 'shoe, slipper', fr Lat solea, see sole (I) A steel shoe, made with jointed, flexible plates worn with armour in the Middle Ages solmization, n [1 sólímizáshun, 2 sólímizer-jon], fr sol, mi, see sol-fa, -ize, & -ation Sol fa system of musical notation and singing solo (I), n [1 sóló, 2 sólóu] Ital, 'alone', fr Lat solus See sole (IV) (mus) Piece, passage, sung or played by a single performer, whether accompanied or not, (also attrib) solo (II), n, see preo (also solo whist) A card game for four players, resembling whist, b a declaration by a player that he will take five tricks soloist, n [1 sólíst, 2 sólóuíst] solo (I) & -ist Player, singer, of a solo

Solomon, n [1 sólómun, 2 sólóman] Gk. Solomón, Heb Shelomōh, name of David's son, King of Israel, famed for his wisdom A wise man, a sage the Solomon of his age, looked up to as a regular Solomon

Solomon's seal, n 1 A magic symbol formed of two interlaced triangles, making a six pointed star 2 (bot) A perennial lilaceous herb Polygonatum, with arching stems from which depend greenish white bell-shaped flowers

Solon, n [1 sólón, 2 sólóun] Gk Sólón 1 Name of Athenian statesman and lawgiver, of 7th and 6th cents, B C, one of the seven sages of the ancient world, hence, b any very wise man, a wise lawgiver so-long, interj [1 sólóng, 2 sólóun] Said to be a corrupt of solam, but associated w the Engl words, & felt as meaning 'until we meet again' (colloq) Good bye au revoir solstice, n [1 sólístis, 2 sólístis] Fr, fr Lat solstitium, lit 'standing still of the sun', fr sol, 'sun', see Sol (I), & stis, stem of stare, 'to make to stand', fr stare, 'to stand', see stand - Point in the ecliptic at which the sun reaches the limit of extreme N or S declination and appears to stand still, as on June 21, summer and Dec 21, winter, solstices, corresponding with the longest and shortest days of the year solstitial, adj [1 sɒlstɪʃəl, 2 sɒlstɪʃəl] See prec & -al Pertaining to, occurring at time of, a solstice solubility, n [1 sɒləbɪlɪti, 2 sɒləbɪlɪti] See next word and -ity Quality, condition, of being soluble soluble, adj [1 sɒləbl, 2 sɒləbl] Fr, fr Lat solūbilis, formed w suff -ibilis, see -able, -ible, fr solu-, stem of solvere, 'to loosen, break up' &c See solvo 1 Capable of being dissolved, capable of solution 2 (rare) Capable of being solved, solvable solution, n [1 sɒləʃən, 2 sɒləʃən] Fr, fr Lat solūtiō (em), 'a loosening, dissolution, an explanation', fr solūt-(um), PP type of solvere, see solvo, & -iōn 1 Act or process of loosening, separating, or dividing up a body or substance into its component parts 2 A That condition of an originally solid substance in which it is broken up, or dissolved, into its component parts or elements, so that it may be absorbed by a different substance, esp a liquid many chemical substances are held in solution in water, b a substance broken up and held in solution 3 A The act or process of resolving, explaining, making clear, finding the answer to, a problem, mystery, riddle &c, act of overcoming, finding a way out of, a difficulty, b an explanation, clearing up, making plain, of a problem, mystery, riddle &c, method discovered for overcoming a difficulty &c

Solutrean, adj [1 sɒlɪˈtʃriən, 2 sɒlɪˈtʃriən] fr Solutré, Saône et Loire, France, where characteristic fossil remains of palaeolithic culture & extinct animals were discovered, & -ian a (of) palaeolithic culture, implements &c 1 Belonging to, found in, the rock shelter at Solutré, b belonging to the same type and period as the fossil remains at Solutré, succeeding the Mousterian solvability, n [1 sɒlvəbɪlɪti, 2 sɒlvəbɪlɪti] See next word & -ity State, quality, of being solvable solvable, adj [1 sɒlvəbl, 2 sɒlvəbl] Next word & -able Capable of being solved or explained solve, vb trans [1 sɒlv, 2 sɒlv] fr Lat solvere, 'to loosen, untie, to break up, to pay, to explain, to free, release', for solvare*, fr sēd(ā), prep expressing separation, see sēd-, & luere, 'to loose, release', orig 'to wash, wash away, purge' &c, cp Lat lues, 'a spreading, contagious disease', see lues & words there referred to 1 (rare or obs in physical sense) To untie, unravel 2 To discover an answer to, explanation of (a problem, riddle, mystery &c), to contrive to overcome, find a way out of (a difficulty) solvency, n [1 sɒlvənəsi, 2 sɒlvənəsi] solvent (I) & -cy State, quality, of being solvent, ability to pay one's debts solvent (I), adj [1 sɒlvənt, 2 sɒlvənt] fr Lat solvent-(em), Pres Part of solvere, see solvo 1 A Having the property of dissolving another substance or of forming a chemical solution solvent liquids &c, b (fig) having power of loosening, disintegrating, or of modifying, mitigating, an emotion, state of mind &c the solvent power of laughter, flattery &c 2 Having sufficient funds to pay all debts, claims &c was the defendant solvent when the debt was incurred?, a solvent firm &c solvent (II), n, fr prec 1 Substance having the property of dissolving other substances 2 Action, fact, circumstance, which modifies, relieves, explains, other acts, circumstances &c somatic, adj [1 sɒmætɪk, 2 sɒmætɪk] fr Gk sōmatikós, fr sōmat-, stem of sōma, 'body', & -ic, sōma stands for tūōmni-, fr a base tewa- &c, 'to swell', variants of wh are seen also in Lat tumere, 'to swell', see tumour, tetus, 'whole', see total. A Pertaining to the body, bodily, corporeal, physical, contrasted with mental or psychical, specif b (biol) somatic cells, those which form the body of the individual organism, as distinct from the reproductive cells somato-, pref Form used in compounds, fr Gk sōmat-, see prec somatology, n [1 sɒmætɒlədʒi, 2 sɒmætɒlədʒi] Gk sōmat, see somatic & -logy Study of the bodily structure of individuals, races &c sombre, adj [1 sɒmbə, 2 sɒmbə] Fr, etymol uncertain, Span sombra, 'shade', sombra, 'shady, gloomy, sombre', point to a L Lat exumbrāre*, 'to cast shade upon, to darken', fr ex- & umbra, 'shadow, shade' See umbra 1 Dark, dismal, in appearance, a reverse of bright or sunny, not cheerful, gloomy, overcast a sombre sky, cloud &c, a sombre landscape, b dark in colour, subdued sombre raiment &c, a sombre shade of colour &c 2 A Expressing, exhibiting, suggesting, a depressed, gloomy state of mind a sombre countenance, expression &c, b melancholy, sinister a sombre character, c depressing, sad, dismal my life just now is rather sombre, the future outlook is sombre indeed sombrely, adv Prec & -ly In a sombre manner sombreness, n See prec & -ness Condition, quality, of being sombre sombrero, n [1 sɒmbɾəro, 2 sɒmbɾəroʊ] Span fr sombra, 'shade' see sombre A broad-brimmed felt hat, esp as worn in Spain, S America &c sombrons, adj [1 sɒmbɾəs, 2 sɒmbɾəs] sombre & -ous (poet, rare) Sombre some (I), adj, (when stressed) [1 sʌm, 2 sʌm] (when unstressed) [səm] OE sum, 'a certain one, some', ME sōme, OS & OHG sum, ON sumr, Goth sums, cogn w same 1 A A certain, particular (person, thing, event &c) not specifically named or known some mischievous boy has broken the window, some unscrupulous person has borrowed my umbrella, some car or other broke down our fence, b emphatic some people don't know when they are well off, there are those who &c, some houses are very damp in winter 2 Some day, some time, on a certain future day, at a certain future time, not precisely determined some day we will visit the Zoo, I'll come some time when I'm less busy 3 (unstressed) A certain, indefinite number or quantity of (persons, things &c) I must get some new clothes, have some more tea, I would like some strawberries, I saw some people walking on the lawn as I passed 4 Nearly so many or so much, so much as, more or less, about there were some 20 persons present, some 40 tons in weight, some 15 more miles to go 5 A (stressed or unstressed) Of a considerable or appreciable amount, number, degree, or quantity some miles still to walk, you'll need some courage to face this, b (stressed) (colloq, slang) some battle, a great one, some scholar, a good one some (II), pron See prec Certain number, quantity, not specified, of persons, &c some say it is true, some not, I want some of those strawberries, this is good—will you have some?

-some (I), [1 sʌm, 2 sʌm], suff, fr OE sum, cogn w OHG sum, Du zaam, ON -samt, Goth sams, see same, forming a derivatives from nouns, verbs, and adjectives, indicating a likeness with, or aptness or tendency for, or to, as handsome, quarrelsome, whimsome, lively &c, also b with numerals to form nouns, now chiefly in four some, q v

-some (II), [1 sɒm, 2 sɒm] suff, fr Gk sōma, 'body', see somatic, chiefly in biol terminology, as chromosome somebody, n [1 sʌmbədɪ, sʌmbədɪ, 2 sʌmbədɪ, sʌmbədɪ] some & body 1 Some person not identified, or unknown, somebody somebody has disclosed the secret 2 A person of importance he thinks he is (a) somebody, nobody posing as somebody somehow, adv [1 sʌmhaʊ, 2 sʌmhaʊ] some & how In some way, by some means, not otherwise specified or not yet known, in one way or another he had to get money somehow, we must get home somehow, even if we have to walk, somehow or other he always managed to get the best of his opponent, somehow I don't trust him, for some reason or other someone, n [1 sʌmwʌn, 2 sʌmwʌn] Somebody somersault, n & vb intrans [1 sʌmɜːsɔːlt, 2 sʌmɜːsɔːlt] fr O Fr sombre saut, Fr soubre saut, Lat supra, 'above', see supra-, & salire, 'a leap', see saltation & salient 1 n A leap, or fall, in which the performer turns completely head over heels while in the air 2 vb To turn, fall, head over heels in the air something (I), n [1 sʌmtɪŋ, 2 sʌmtɪŋ] 1 Some thing or event &c, thing &c, of some kind, anything indefinite, uncertain, undetermined, or vague I must get something to eat, read &c, take something hot the last thing at night, he has something on his mind, something dreadful has happened, there is something about it in the papers, something in the city, a (followed by of) an indefinite quantity or degree he is something of a liar, there is something of uncertainty in his self confidence, b preceded by or, expressing vagueness, lack of precise information he's a stockbroker or something, she can't play today, she's got a cold or something, he turned dizzy or something and fell out 2 That which is of importance, thing or (rarely) person that matters it is something at any rate to be out of the rain, it is something at least that the income tax has not gone up, he thinks he is something and puts on airs something (II), adv, fr prec a (archaic) to some extent, rather he is getting something about round the waist, b (colloq) something like, (i) bearing some, though not a strong, resemblance to he is something like what his father was at that age, (ii) nearly, more or less, round about, approximately it must be something like six o'clock, he left something like a million, (iii) in such Phrs as, Kean was something like an actor, a superlatively good one, to become a millionaire and a peer at forty five is something like success, a very considerable success, Scott was something like an author, a very great one (In such Phrs like is always strongly stressed) sometime, adv [1 sʌmtɪm, 2 sʌmtɪm] 1 At some date or at a time hereafter, not specified I will do it sometime or other 2 Formerly, at one time he was sometime professor of chemistry at the university also as adjective X, the sometime professor at &c sometimes, adv [1 sʌmtɪmz, 2 sʌmtɪmz] Prec w advbl suff -s At some times, at times, occasionally, now and then some times he seemed very depressed, sometimes rich, sometimes poor somewhat, adv & pron [1 sʌmwʌt, 2 sʌmwʌt] 1 adv In some degree, to some extent, rather you are somewhat rash in making such promises, he was somewhat hard to follow 2 pron A certain amount or degree of he was somewhat of a connoisseur somewhere, adv [1 sʌmwɛə, 2 sʌmwɛə] In, to, at some place not specified, or unknown I have left my umbrella somewhere, you should go somewhere for a holiday, you will find the quotation somewhere in Pops somite, n [1 sɒmɪt, 2 sɒmɪt] fr Gk sōma, 'body' See somatic & -ite (poet & biol) One of the series of similar segments of which the bodies or many articulated animals are composed, a metamere somatic, adj [1 sɒmætɪk, 2 sɒmætɪk] Prec & -ic Pertaining to a somite somnambulant, adj [1 sɒmnəmbələnt, 2 sɒmnəmbələnt] fr Lat somnus, 'sleep', see somnolent, & ambulant (am), Pres Part of ambulare, 'to walk', see ambulance (rare) Walking, having a tendency to walk, in one's sleep somnambulate, vb intrans [1 sɒmnəmbulət, 2 sɒmnəmbulət] See prec & -ate (rare) To walk in one's sleep somnambulism, n [1 somnambulizm, 2 somnambulizem] See somnambulant & -ism Sleep-walking, a kind of trance in which a person may move about, speak, and perform various actions of which he has no recollection in his normal waking state somnambulist, n [1 somnambulist, 2 somnambulist] See preo & -ist One who walks in his sleep, person liable to somnambulism somnambulistie, adj [1 somnambulistik, 2 somnambulistik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to somnambulism or walking in one's sleep somni-, pref Form of Lat somnus, 'sleep', used in compounds See somnolent somniferous, adj [1 somniferus, 2 sonniferus] See preo & -ferous, op Lat somnifer Sleep producing, inducing sleep, soporific somniloquence, n [1 somniloquens, 2 sonniloquens] sonni- & Lat loquent, 'speaking', Pres Part stem of loqui, 'to speak', see loquacious (rare) Speech uttered in one's sleep somniloquy, n [1 somnilokwi, 2 sonnilokwi] See preo, op ending of soliloquy (rare) A talk in one's sleep somnolence, -cy, n [1 somnolens(i), 2 admnolens(i)] Fr, fr Lat somnolentia Next word & -ce, -cy Tendency, inclination, to fall asleep, sleepiness, drowsiness somnolent, adj [1 somnolent, 2 admnolent] fr base of Lat somnolentus, formed w adj suff -lentus, fr somnus, 'sleep', *for sopnus, *fr suepnos, op Sert siapna, 'sleep', Gk hypnos, see hypno-, & O E swefn, 'a dream, a vision', op also soporifico 1 Inclined to fall asleep, sleepy, drowsy 2 Tending to induce sleepiness a somnolent tone of voice, sermon &c somnolently adv Preo & -ly In a somnolent manner son, n [1 sun, 2 san] O E sunu, M E sune, sons, O H G sunu, Mod Germ sohn, Du. zoon, O N sunr, sonr, Goth. sunus, cogn w Lith sūnus, O Slav sŭnъ, Sert sūnu, 'a son', *fr sū, 'to beget, bear', cp Gk huioi, *fr sūdo, O Ir sun, 'birth' 1 a A male offspring of a specified parent, Phr the Son, the second Person of the Trinity, b one closely resembling his father in body, mind, or character he is a true son of his father, his father's own son, c one who feels for another, older, person the kind of affection and respect that he might bear to his own father, d descendant, male offspring the sons of Adam, mankind, the sons of Abraham, the Jews 2 a A member of a particular nation, one born and bred in a specified country a faithful son of England, b a member of a specified institution, movement, society, regarded chiefly as having been trained and formed by it the great public schools may be proud of their sons, the young Wordsworth was a son of the French Revolution, c person regarded as engaged in a particular mode of life, addicted to certain pursuits, having certain interests &c a son of toil, a son of the Muses, a poet 3 As form of address, a from a priest to a male member of his flock, or from an ecclesiastical superior to an inferior, chiefly my son, b (colloq) affectionate or playful, to a friend my son, old son.

-son, suff, of Fr origin, as in poison, reason, representing Lat -sona, f son, used to form ns fr vb stems sonance, -cy, n [1 sonans(i), 2 sonans(s)] See next word & -cy Quality of being sonant sonant, adj & n [1 sonant, 2 sonant] fr Lat sonant (em), Pres Part type of sonare, 'to sound', fr sonus, 'sound', *fr sonos, *fr suevos, cogn w Sert swanah, 'it sounds', also w O E swan, name of the bird, see swan & ep sound (L) 1 adj a Sounding, giving forth a sound, b (specif phon) voiced 2 n A voiced speech sound sonata, n [1 sonata, 2 sonata] Ital, lit, 'a sounding thing sounded', i.e played on musical instrument, as contrasted w canala, 'a something sung', tem sing of PP of sonare, 'to sound', fr Lat See preo A special type of musical composition, for one or two instruments, consisting of three or four movements, varying in rhythm, but so related as to form a unity sonatina, n [1 sonatina, 2 sonatina] Ital, dimin of preo A short or simplified form of the sonata proper song, n [1 song, 2 son] O E sang, M E sōng, O H G sanc, Goth saggs, in gradual relation to song, perh cogn w Gk omphē, 'voice', *fr sony hē 1 Musical, rhythmic, variously modulated utterance produced by the human voice, or by that of birds, more rarely used of sounds made by insects to break into song 2 a A musical composition forming a setting for words intended to be sung by the human voice, b a rendering by the voice of such a composition, Phr not worth an old song, valueless, (slang) nothing to make a song about, of something not worth troubling about or of little or no importance, c such a composition reduced to a graphic notation, whether printed or in manuscript be sure to bring some songs with you 3 a A lyrical poem intended to be set to music and sung, b (poet) a poem of any kind, poetry in general song-bird, n A singing bird, such as a thrush, nightingale &c song-book, n Book consisting of a collection of songs, esp one containing both words and music songful, adj [1 songfool, 2 sonf(u)l] song & -ful a Melodious, b inclined to sing, in the habit of singing frequently songless, adj [1 songless, 2 sonlis] song & -less a Lacking song, b not able to sing, not in the habit of singing song-sparrow, n The hedge sparrow songster, n [1 songster, 2 sonster] O E songstere See song & -ster One who sings, esp a singing bird, but applied also to a human singer songstress, n [1 songstres, 2 sonstres] Preo & -ess A female singer song-thrush, n The thrush or mavis, Turdus musicus soniferous, adj [1 soniferus, 2 sonifarus] fr Lat sonus, see sonant & -ferous Producing conveying, sound son-in-law, n [1 sun in law, 2 san in lō] A daughter's husband sonless, adj [1 sunles, 2 sanlis] son & -less Without a son sonnet, n [1 sonet, 2 sonet] Fr, fr province sonet, Ital sonetto, 'sonnet', dimin of sonc, 'sound', fr Lat sonus, see sonant, & -et Short poem of fourteen iambic lines, the regular or Petrarchan form being divided into an octave of eight lines, rhyming a b b a b b o, and a sestet of six lines with two or three rhymes variously arranged, the Shakespearean or irregular sonnet has three quatrains followed by a rhymed couplet sonneteer, n [1 sonetēr, 2 sonstēr] fr Ital sonettiere See preo & -eer A writer of sonnets, sometimes in derogatory sense sonnet sequence, n A series of sonnets bound together by a common theme running through them, and sometimes by the last line of one being repeated as the first of the following sonnet sonny, n [1 sun, 2 sin] son & -y Term of familiar or affectionate address to a boy or to an inferior sonometer, n [1 sonometer, 2 sonomētr] fr Lat sonus see sonant, & -meter 1 Instrument for measuring sounds, their audibility and intensity and mathematical relations 2 Instrument for testing the power of hearing sonorescence, n [1 sonorēscens, 2 sonarēscens] See next word & -ce Quality of being sonorescent sonorescent, adj [1 sonorēscant, 2 sonarēscant] fr Lat sonor, 'a noise a sound', fr base seen in sonant, & -escent (phys, of certain substances) Capable of emitting sound under the stimulus of radiations of heat or light sonority, n [1 sonoriti, 2 sonoriti] fr Lat sonoriti (em), Lat sonor, 'sound' &c, see preo & -ity Quality of being sonorous, fullness of sound, resonance, sonoraneous sonorous, adj [1 sonorus, 2 sonorē] fr Lat sonorus, 'resounding', fr sonor, 'sound', see sonant, & -ous 1 a (of the voice) Full, loud, resonant in quality, b (of instruments or other objects) emitting a powerful, resonant note or sound when played on, struck &c 2 a (of verse or prose) High sounding, melodious, b (of style in general) rhetorical, orotund, imposing sonorously, adv Preo & -ly In a sonorous manner, with full, resonant sound sonorousness, n See preo & -ness Sonority sonship, n [1 sunship, 2 sanšip] son & -ship Filial relationship, relation of a son to his father, used in both a literal and a spiritual sense sonsy, adj [1 sonzi, 2 sonzi] Scott, fr Gaelic Buxom, comely, good natured soon, adv [1 soōn, 2 sin] O E sōna, 'immediately', M E sōne, op OS sana, O H G san, Goth suna, 'at once' 1 In a short time from now, before very long, shortly after the present time, shortly after some specified time in the past or future come as soon as you can, summer will soon be here, it will soon be time to go, I shall soon have to get a new hat, the train arrives soon after six o'clock, he soon repented his hasty marriage, I shall come soon after you arrive Phr sooner or later, some day, but inevitably in the long run 2 Before the expected or usual right time, early winter has come rather soon this year, if we arrive too soon, we shall have to wait 3 In no long time, without trouble, effort, or delay, readily, quickly he soon took his adversary's measure, you will soon get the better of that fellow Phr least said, soonest mended, talking may only make things worse, cause irritation 4 As soon as, so soon as, at the very same moment, without delay, immediately be ready to start as soon as I give the signal, as soon as I spoke I felt I had committed a blunder, so soon as I saw him I knew he was a rogue, no sooner than, immediately after he had no sooner arrived than he fell ill Phr no sooner said than done, of an action accomplished immediately after it is suggested 5 In various constructions, a expressing preference I would sooner stay where I am than go to such a place, I would as soon leave at once if I'm not wanted, in such Phr as he would as soon cut his throat as disoblige a lady = he would never disoblige a lady, b expressing capacity, he could as soon write an epic as drive a car = he could never drive a car soot, n & vb trans [1 soot, 2 soot] O E & M E sōt, also in O N, op Lith soot, 'soot', sootzolas, 'sooty', *fr Aryan sōd, gradual variant of base sed*, 'to sit, settle', See sedentary, sederunt, sit 1 n Black, flaky or powdery substance, consisting chiefly of carbon, produced through imperfect combustion of coal, wood, oil &c, and deposited in chimneys or on buildings, trees, and the ground, used as a garden manure 2 vb To cover with soot sooth, n [1 sooth, 2 sūp] O E sōð, adj, 'true', n, 'truth', M E sōth, adj & n, the O E word is *fr Gmc sauh, cp the O N cogn sannr, 'true', for sauh* Phr The literal sense is 'that which is', & the word is *fr a participial base essant of es*, 'to be' See esse, essence, also second element of presence, cp am, is (archaic) That which is true or a fact, truth, chiefly in Phr in sooth, sooth to say, truly, really, in fact, op forsooth soothe, vb trans [1 sooth, 2 sūð] O E sōðian, 'to prove, show the truth of', fr sūp, 'true', see preo, M E sōðian, 'to assent to, confirm, verify', lit 'to say "yes" to, agree with' 1 To exert a pacifying influence on the mind, to restore calm to, a to appease, placate by kind or flattering words to soothe a person's injured dignity, vanity &c, b to calm down, put to rest, to quiet, comfort to soothe a crying baby, a restless patient, person's nerves &c 2 To allay, mitigate, assuage (physical suffering) to soothe the pain of a toothache &c soothfast, adj & adv [1 sōðfahst, 2 sūp-fāst] O E sōp-fest, 'truthful, just, righteous' See sooth & fast (I) (archaic) Truthful, honest, trustworthy, loyal soothingly, adv [1 sōððinghly, 2 sūðinghly], fr Pres Part of soothe & -ly In a soothing manner, so as to soothe soothsay, vb intrans [1 sōðhsā, 2 sūpsē] Brok formation fr next word (rare) To tell the truth, to foretell, predict, what is coming soothsayer, n [1 sōðhsær, 2 sūpsær] Cp M E sōp-sayge, 'a speaker of truth' See sooth & say (I) & -or One who predicts the future, a diviner, a prophet soothsaying, n [1 sōðhsaing, 2 sūpsē: iŋ] Cp M E sōp-sayge, 'a true saying' sooth & saying The foretelling of the future, prediction, prognostication soothly, adv [1 sōðthly, 2 sūtlh] sooty & -ly In a sooty state or manner sootiness, n [1 sootines, 2 sūtnis] sooty & -ness A sooty state or condition sooty, adj [1 sōti, 2 sūti] soot & -y 1 n Pertaining to soot, of the nature of soot, b impregnated, covered, soiled, stained, with soot sooty smoke, fog, a sooty face, sooty London buildings 2 Dark, black, like soot, dusky, sometimes used as descriptive of sea birds &c sooty albatross &c sop (I), n [1 sop, 2 sɒp] O E sopp, M E soppa, sop, op ON soppa, M Du soppe, cogn w sup (I), O E sūpan, & ep soup 1 Piece of bread or similar substance, dipped and soaked in broth, milk &c, and eaten 2 (fig) From mythological tale, a sop to Curverus (the watch-dog of hell), something given to pacify, or meet demands of another, a bribe, concession 3 Anything sopped or soaked, wet with rain or other water like the ground is a mere sop 4 (colloq slang) A soppy person, a milk-sop sop (II), vb trans, fr pres 1 A To dip and soak (bread &c) in broth, milk &c, b to sop up, to mop, soak up, absorb (water) &c, as with a sponge or other absorbent substance &c 2 To drench, saturate, with water, rain &c sopped to the skin soph n [1 sof, 2 sɒf] Abbr form of sophister or sophomore, qq v sophism, n [1 sɒfɪzəm, 2 sɒfɪzəm], fr Fr sophisme, fr Lat, fr Gk sophisma, formed fr Gk sophōs, 'clever, skilled, in any art or craft, prudent, shrewd, cunning, learned, wise', perh for tuog-nds, 'clear sighted, intelligent', & possibly cogn w Lat tuor, 'to look at, examine, to look after, to watch, guard, defend', see tutor, for the suff -ism 1 Form of reasoning or dialectic, as practised by the Greek sophists 2 Sophistic reasoning, fallacious, captious, argument, plausible, deceptive reasoning, ingenious quibble sophist n [1 sɒfɪst, 2 sɒfɪst], fr Fr sophiste, fr L Lat sophista, fr Gk sophistes, 'a clever, skillful man, a wise, prudent person, statesman', specif liter, in sense 1 below, fr Gk sophos, discussed under prec., & -ist-1 (hist) One of a class of professional paid teachers of grammar, rhetoric, dialectic, philosophy, politics &c, in ancient Greece, who were often accused, as by Socrates, of being skilled in 'making the worse appear the better cause' Hence, 2 A fallacious, plausible, captious reasoner, a quibbler, one skilled in persuasion by unsound though plausible arguments sophister, n [1 sɒstɪst, 2 sɒstɪst], fr O. Fr sophiste, an irregular variant of sophiste See sophist (obs) Student in his second or third year at Cambridge University and Trinity College, Dublin sophistic(al), adj [1 sɒfɪstɪk(əl), 2 sɒfɪstɪk(əl)], fr Gk sophistikos See sophist & -ic & -al 1 Pertaining to a sophist or the class of Sophists in ancient Greece the sophistic school, teaching &c 2 Usually sophistical, a (of arguments &c) fallacious, though plausible, subtly deceptive, based on, involving, sophistry, b (of persons) using sophistry, arguing in a fallacious way sophistically, adv Pres & -ly In a sophistical or sophist manner sophisticate, vb trans & intrans [1 sɒfɪstɪkət, 2 sɒfɪstɪkət], fr L or Med Lat sophisticāt (um), PP type of sophisticāre, fr sophisticus See sophist & -ate Rare, except as PP used as adj, see sophisticated A trans 1 To render, make, sophistical, to treat sophistically, use sophistical arguments about, to use sophistry concerning a subtle controversialist able to sophisticate the simplest question of morals 2 A To spoil the purity of, to adulterate (a substance, esp an article of commerce), specif b to change, tamper with (the text of an author) B intrans To use sophistry, be sophistical sophisticated, adj [1 sɒfɪstɪkətəd, 2 sɒfɪstɪkətɪd], fr PP of prec (of persons) Artificial, not genuine or natural, lacking in natural simplicity, disingenuous, worldly-wise sophistication, n [1 sɒfɪstɪkəʃən, 2 sɒfɪstɪkəʃən] sophisticate & -ion A lot of rendering sophisticate, b state of being sophisticate sophistry, n [1 sɒfɪstri, 2 sɒfɪstri] M E sophistria, fr O Fr sophistria See sophist & -ry A art, skill, practice, of a sophist, b plausible but specious reasoning sophomore, n [1 sɒfəmɔr, 2 sɒfəmɔ] Invented word, supposed to be fr Gk sophos, 'wise', & mōros, 'dull, stupid, foolish', ep sophistor A second-year man at an American university soporiferous, adj [1 sɒp, sɒpɒrɪfərəs, 2 sɒp, sɒpɒrɪfərəs] See next word & -ferous, & ep Lat sopōrifer Causing, tending to cause, sleep, soporific soporific, adj & n [1 sɒp, sɒpɒrɪfɪk, 2 sɒp, sɒpɒrɪfɪk], fr Lat sopōr, stem of sopore, 'sleep', derived, w different formative elements, fr same base as Lat somnus, 'sleep', see somnolent 1 adj Causing, tending to cause, sleep 2 n A drug or other agent which causes sleep, a narcotic sopping, adj & adv [1 sɒpɪŋ, 2 sɒpɪŋ], fr Pres Part of sop (II) 1 adj Thoroughly drenched with moisture, soaked, wet through if you were out in that shower you must be sopping 2 adv Gen sopping wet, very wet, soaked through, drenched soppy, adj [1 sɒpi, 2 sɒpi] sop (I) & -y 1 Like a sop, saturated with moisture, soft, sloppy, squishy 2 (fig, colloq) Lacking spirit and vigour, weakly sentimental soprano, n [1 sɒprænə, 2 sɒprænə] Ital pl soprani [1 sɒprænə, 2 sɒprænə] Ital, supreme, sovereign', also in musical sense, fr L Lat suprānus See sovereign (mus) 1 A The female voice of the highest range and clear, bird-like quality, b a boy's treble voice of similar quality 2 n Woman singer with such voice, b one of the singers in a choir taking the treble parts 3 The treble part in a musical composition for several voices, which indicates the air and is sung by the sopranos sora, n [1 sɒrɪ, 2 sɒrɪ] Native Indian name. A small, short-billed bird, like a rail, which frequents the marshes or the Southern Atlantic States in its autumn migrations sorb, n [1 sɒrb, 2 sɒrb] fr O Fr sorbe, fr Lat sorbus for sorbillus, ep Lat sorbus, 'foxy in colour' The service tree or its fruit sorbefacient, adj & n [1 sɒrbɪfəsɪənt, 2 sɒrbɪfəsɪənt], fr Lat sorbere, 'to suck in, swallow', cogn w Gk hropōō, 'I swallow', & -facient. See also absorb (med) 1 adj Causing, promoting, absorption, soaking up moisture 2 n Drug or other substance which absorbs or promotes absorption sorbet, n [1 sɒrbet, 2 sɒbet] A French variant of sherbet A water ice sorcerer, n [1 sɒsərər, 2 sɒsərər], fr O Fr sorcier, fr L Lat sorciārus, 'teller of fortunes by casting of lots, sorcerer', fr sorciare, 'to cast lots', fr sor-(em), sors, 'lot', see sort (I) Magician, wizard, practitioner of the black arts sorceress, n [1 sɒsərəs, 2 sɒsərəs] See prec & -ess Female sorcerer, a witch sorcery, n [1 sɒsəri, 2 sɒsəri] O Fr sorceria See sorcerer & -ry Magic, witchcraft, enchantment sordamente, adv [1 sɒrdəməntɪ, 2 sɒdəməntɪ] Ital, fr sorda, 'deaf', fr Lat surdus, see surd, & -ment Musical direction to play in a muted or muffled manner or with use of a sordine sordes, n [1 sɒrdɪz, 2 sɒdɪz] Lat, 'filth', cogn w OE surt, 'black, dark', OHG swarz, see next word (mod) The foul, yellowish crust which forms on the lips, teeth, and gums of patients suffering from typhoid and other acute fevers sordid, adj [1 sɒrdɪd, 2 sɒdɪd], fr Fr sordide, fr Lat sordidus, 'dirty, squalid, mean', fr base sord*, as sordere, 'to be dirty, mean, to seem base', sordes, 'filth' &c, see prec, cogn w OE sucart, 'block, dark', OHG swarz See swart 1 Filthy, squalid, mean, low a sordid district, in sordid surroundings 2 Base minded, mean, arising from, animated by, ignoble, unworthy ideals, motives, characterized by low, mean aims and methods sordid desires, a sordid quarrel, sordid practices &c sordidly, adv Pres & -ly In a sordid manner sordidness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being sordid, material or spiritual squalor sordine, n [1 sɒrdɪn, 2 sɒdɪn] Fr, fr Ital. sordino for sorde, 'deaf, dull sounding', fr Lat surdus, 'deaf, noiseless', see surd. Any of various devices used to reduce resonance and produce a muffled tone in musical instruments sore (I), adj [1 sɒr, 2 sɒ] OE sār, 'painful', M E sār, OHG ār, 'painful', Du. zeer, 'sore', ON sār, 'sore, painful' See sorry 1 Painful to the touch, tender, esp of uninfamed or wounded surfaces of the body a sore finger, foot &c, a sore throat, inflamed condition due to a cold, a sore head, one that is cut or bruised as from fighting Phr like a bear with a sore head, surly, grumpy 2 Grieved, sad, filled with sorrow. woeful there were many sore hearts at home after the great victory 3 Grieved, wounded in spirit, having a feeling of resentment as from a slight or affront to feel sore about, to resent, feel hurt at. Phr a sore subject, topic which causes awkwardness, irritation, resentment when broached 4 Extreme, intense, severe in sore cold, distress sore (II), adv O E sare See prec (archaic and poet) Sorely, awfully, grievously sore troubled, oppressed &c sore (III), n O F sār, 'pain of body or mind', fr the adj, see sore (I) 1 A place on the body where the skin has been broken or has perished, esp a painful, inflamed, suppurating open place on which a crust forms, caused by injury or disease Phr an open sore, a stinging evil, an abiding cause of scandal 2 A feeling of mental irritation, rancour, a grudge, a painful memory I've done no wrong, and this is a sore sorel, See sorrel (I) sorely, adv [1 sɒrli, 2 sɒli] sore (I) & -y n Grievously, severely restored sorely, in 3 by his wife's temper, b exceedingly much I felt sorely inclined to hit his head soreness, n [1 sórnēs, 2 sórnis] sore (I) & -ness State, quality, of being sore 1 Painfulness, sensitiveness, to the touch abrasions of the skin causes considerable soreness 2 A Reckoning, grudge, sense of injury I no longer feel any soreness at his ingratitude, b strained relations between persons, unfriendliness, ill feeling there was some soreness between father and son over the former's second marriage sorghum, n [1 sorgum, 2 sǫgm] Latinized form, also sorgum, prob fr an East Indian word, Ital has sorgo 'The name of a tall cereal grass, of which the chief and most valuable species, S. vulgare, is Indian millet, S. saccharatum is Chinese sugar cane soricine, adj [1 sórsin, 2 sórsin] fr Lat sorcinus, fr sorin, stem of sorin, 'shrew-mouse', cogn w Gk hurax, see hyrax & -ine Pertaining, related to, belonging to, the genus of shrew mice sortes, n [1 sortēs, 2 sortatū] Lat, fr Gk sortēs, 'beaped up', also (fr eulogis mōs) 'a heap, pile of syllogisms, a sortēs', fr sortēs, 'a heap', wh is fr h₂udros*, fr a base h₂ud* & 'to swell', found also in Lat tumēre, 'to swell', see tumid, tumour (log) A series of condensed syllogisms, the predicate of each proposition becoming the subject of the next, and so on, the conclusion having the subject of the first and the predicate of the last proposition, e.g. English is a Germanic language, Germanic speech is a branch of Aryan, all Aryan languages are inflexional, therefore English is an inflexional language.

Sortoptunist, n [1 sǫrǫptunist, 2 sǫrǫptunist] Concocted term, fr Lat sortor, q v under sister, & optunist A member of a woman's Rotary Club sorosis, n [1 sórsis, 2 sórsis] fr Gk. sorōs 'heap' See prec (bot) A clustered, compound pulpy fruit, such as the pineapple, bread fruit, mulberry &c sorrel (I), adj & n [1 sorēl, 2 sǫrēl] fr O Fr sorel, 'sorrel horse', dimin of sor, 'sorrel horse', also the colour itself, also as adj, Mod Fr sour, 'reddish brown', of Gmc origin, op LG soor, Dn soor, 'dried, withered', op sear (I), the sense is derived fr the colour of autumn leaves 1 adj Reddish brown in colour, esp of horses 2 n a A sorrel horse, b (obs) also urel, a third year brook sorrel (II), n, fr O Fr sorel, Mod Fr surrelle, dimin form fr M H G sūr, 'sour', see sour 1 A plant, Rumex acetosa, allied to the dock, with arrow shaped leaves, which have an acid taste, and reddish brown flowers, it is a common weed in meadows and pastures 2 A plant of the genus Oxalis, usually called wood sorrel, with acid trefoil leaves and small, white, delicately veined cup like flowers sorri adv [1 sorih, 2 sǫrēl] sorry & -ly In a sorry manner sorriness, n [1 sorines, 2 sórnis] See prec & -ness Condition or quality of being sorry, inferior, poor quality sorrow (I), n [1 sórd, 2 sǫrd] OE sorg, sorh M E sorow cogn w ON sorg, Du sorg, Germ sorge, camp anxiety', Goth saurga, 'sorrow, grief', Gmc type sorgō*, 'care', op Lith sirgti, 'to be ill, in pain', O Ir serp, achneas perh related also to serve (I), w a different formative element The word has no historical connexion w sore or sorry but the latter has been to some extent influenced by it in sense owing to resemblance in sound 1 Grief pain of mind, sadness, unhappiness felt for or aroused by one's own or another's misfortune, disappointments loss &c to feel sorrow for, the people's sorrow at her death was deep 2 A Regret for what has been done punishment, contrition sorrow for one's sins of omission or commission, he expressed his sorrow for his mistake, b regret for what one has lost or is losing we left the place without much sorrow 3 Experience of that which causes sorrow, occasion of such, misfortune, affliction 'a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief' (Isaiah lxx 3), these repeated sorrows broke his heart 4 Expression, display, of sorrow mourning, lamentation his exaggerated sorrow for his rival's misfortunes was somewhat ridiculous sorrow (II), vb intrans OE sorgian, M E sorwen, sorowen, op Goth saurgan, 'to grieve' See prec 'To feel, show, sorrow, to grieve, regret, mourn' sorrower, n [1 sórdēr, 2 sǫrdēr] sorrow (II) & -er One who sorrows, a mourner sorrowful, adj [1 sǫrdful, 2 sǫrdful, full] sorrow (I) & -ful A Full of, experiencing, sorrow, melancholy, unhappy and left us all very sorrowful, b expressing sorrow and sadness, mournful such sorrowful tales, hymns &c, c exciting or causing sorrow, grievous a sorrowful sight sorrowfully, adv Prec & -ly In a sorrowful manner, with sorrow sorrowfulness, n See prec & -ness Condition of being sorrowful sorry, adj [1 sórn, 2 sǫrn] OE sarig, 'feeling, expressing, grief, sad', fr sār, M E sōry, not related historically to sorrow, but partially influenced in meaning through association w this word See also soro (I) 1 A Grieved, distressed in mind we were sorry to hear of your sad bereavement, b feeling deep regret, repentant, contrite 'we are heartily sorry for these our misdoings', say you are sorry and I'll forgive you, (colloq) sorry, expressing mild apology, o mildly regretful I'm so sorry I can't accept your kind invitation, (I am) sorry you can't stay longer 2 (archaic) a Of poor, inferior, quality a sorry performance, exhibition, b contemptible, mean a sorry rogue, a sorry jade, c miserable, unfortunate, wretched in a sorry plight sort (I), n [1 sort, 2 sǫt] fr O Fr sorte, 'kind, sort, manner', op also Fr sort, 'lot, fate', fr Lat sort (em) & sort, 'fate, lot, condition, state', prob cogn w sert (um), PP type of serere, 'to join, connect', see series 1 A Number or group of persons or things possessing certain common qualities of character, appearance, a class, category, kind, species we have every sort of books in stock, 'all sorts and conditions of men', the latent sort of music, he is not the sort of man to do a mean thing, he's not my sort, not the kind of man I like, b kind, quality, something in the nature of (that) that's the sort of thing I want, we discussed art and that sort of thing, I don't believe anything of the sort, nothing of the sort, as a strong negative, he is a politician of a sort, something like one, but of a doubtful kind, a sort of a peace, not a very satisfactory one Phrs a good sort, (colloq) a good, kind, genial, decent person, sort of (with advl force, colloq) he sort of hinted he'd like a tip, in a kind of way 2 Manner, quality, fashion, condition after a sort, to a certain degree Phr out of sorts, not very well, seedy, not in good fettle 3 (print, in pl) Letters, stops, and other marks of a particular fount of type sort (II), vb trans & intrans fr O Fr sortir, 'to get by lot, to obtain, choose', fr Lat sortiri, 'to assign by lot, to divide' See prec A trans To separate things of one sort or kind from others, and group them together, to classify, select, pick out, arrange in groups to sort the sheep from the goats, to sort letters, sort out your cards, arrange them in suits B intrans 1 (archaic) To associate with others of same kind or character, to consort 2 To suit agree with, fit, be in accord with such conduct sort ill with his position sortable adj [1 sǫrtabl, 2 sǫrtabl] sort (II) & -able Capable of being sorted sorter n [1 sórtēr, 2 sǫtēr] sort (II) & -er One who sorts, specif, on employee of Post Office who sorts letters sortes, n pl [1 sórtēs, 2 sǫrtēs] Lat, pl of sort, 'lot' &c, see sort (I) The lots, cp sortilege, hence determination of line of action by choosing, haphazard, passages from a book, as Sortes Virgilianae, fr Virgil, Sortes Biblicae, fr the Bible &c sortie, n [1 sórtē, 2 sǫtē] Fr, fem sing of PP of sortir, 'to go forth, to sally', op Ital sortita, Spn surtida, in same sense, etymol. doubtful, but prob to be referred to a Low Lat surrectire*, 'to rise up', fr Lat surrect (um), PP of surgere, 'to rise', see surge & cp source A sally made by troops besieged in a town or fortress upon the besieging army sortilege, n [1 sórtēl, 2 sǫrtēl] Fr, fr Med Lat sortilegium, fr sort (em), sors, 'lot', see sort (I), & legere, 'to pick out, select, read', see legend Divination by drawing lots sorus, n, pl sori [1 sórus, i, 2 sóras, ar] Neo Lat, fr Gk sortēs, 'heap', see sortes (hot) Group, cluster, of spore cases at the back of fungi so-so, adj [1 só sǫ, 2 sóu sǫu] Reduplication of so (colloq) Not very good, not very well his play was only so so, how do you feel? Just so so sostenuto, adv [1 sóstenútōtō, 2 sóstenútōu] Ital, PP See sustain (mus) Sustained, prolonged, so as to give each note its full value sot, n [1 sot, 2 sǫt] In M E in sense of 'foolish', fr L Lat sottus, 'stupid', prob of Gmc origin, cp M Du soot, M H G sote Person stupefied by drinking, persistent, habitual drunkard

Sothic, adj [1 sóthik, 2 sópik] fr Gk Sōthia, the Egyptian name of Sirius, the dog-star, & -io Named after, pertaining to, Sothis, esp Sothic year, the Egyptian year, of 365 days 8 hours, reckoned by the heliacal rising of the dog star, Sothic period or cycle, of 1460 Sothis years = 1461 years sottish, adj [1 sóthish, 2 sǫtish] sot & -ish Like a sot, given to excessive drinking, bemused by this, foolish sottishly, adv Prec & -ly In a sottish manner sottishness, n See prec & -ness Condition of being sottish sotto voce, adv, Anglized to [1 sótd vóchā, 2 sótu voutjē] Ital, lit 'under the voice'. In an undertone, so as not to be overheard, aside sou, n [1 sóu, 2 sǫ] Fr, in O Fr sol, fr solidus Five centimes, 1/2 of the franc, nickel or copper coin of this value, halfpenny, in Phr he hasn't a sou, is penniless soubrette, n [1 sóbrēt, 2 sóbrēt] Fr, fem fr O Fr soubret, 'sober, cunning, sharp' Type of female character in light comedy &c, usually depicted as an arch, pert, and pretty chambermaid soubriquet, n See sobriquet soucar, n [1 sókar, 2 sókār] Hind. saukar, 'honest' Hindu banker souchong, n [1 sótsǫng, 2 sótsǫng] Fr, fr Chin hsiao chung, 'small, fine kind' A kind of black Chinese tea, of small leaf and fine quality

Soudanese See Sudanese

soufflé, n [1 sófēl, 2 sófēl] Fr [suffl] Fr, fr souffler, 'to blow', fr Lat sufflare, fr sub- & flare, see flatus, blow (I) & words there referred to (med) Soft, low murmur or sound, as of blowing, heard through the stethoscope in the examination of the heart, lungs, or other organs soufflé, n [1 sófēl, 2 sófēl] Fr, PP of souffler See prec A dish, either sweet or savoury, made of the white of egg, milk or cream, beaten to a froth and baked sough, n & vb intrans [1 suf, sou, 2 saf, sauf] M E sough, sough, cp OE swoðgan, 'to sound, make, a noise', also OE swoð, 'sound, melody', fr swoð*, prob imitative a n. A low, murmuring, meaning, or sighing sound, as of wind in trees &c, b vb (of wind) to make such a sound sought, vb [1 sawt, 2 sǫt] OE sōhte, M E sought, Pret & PP of seek.

soul, n [1 sǫl, 2 sǫul] OE sāwol, M E soule, soule, OS sēla, OHG sēla, Mod. Germ seele, Goth sawala, relation has been suggested w Gk aidōs, 'quick moving, rapid', wh wd be plausible if this were for psuollos*, hot this is rendered improbable by Sort ayul, 'quick-moving' 1 The non-material part in man which thinks and wills, the personal entity of an individual regarded as separate and separable from the body and distinguishing him from others, psychologically the inner activity of which one is directly conscious, theologically the immortal substance of man which distinguishes him from the beasts the transmigration of souls, the immortality of the soul, a corporation has not a body to be killed nor a soul to be saved 2 The vital, mental principle without which consciousness either totally or partially ceases an idiot can hardly be said to have a soul, to keep body and soul together 3 The ethical or emotional nature of man, as contrasted with his bodily, or intellectual, powers and desires do it with all your heart and soul, a soul which no appeals could touch, he has a soul above mere money grubbing 4 That which expresses the essential part of anything, quality, property, which gives life and energy to anything in translation the soul of the book has been lost, dull copies of ancient art without any soul 5 A person regarded as giving vitality, enthusiasm, animation to anything, inspirer, the moving, active spirit he was the life and soul of the party, place, company &c., b person regarded as the embodiment of some quality the soul of generosity, kindness &c. 6 A departed, disembodied spirit the souls of the blessed in heaven, pray for the souls of the departed 7 A human being, a person ship was lost with 500 souls on board, not a soul was saved, I have not spoken to a soul all day, also with qualifying epithet a kind, good soul; a jolly old soul, poor soul, she has had a lot of trouble -sould, adj [1 sôld, 2 sould] Preo & -ad Having a soul of a specified kind, as great-, high-sould &c soulful, adj [1 sôltool, 2 sôlful] soul & -ful Full of soul, emotional, sentimental soulfully, adv Preo & -ly In a soulful manner soulfulness, n See preo & -ness Condition of being soulful soulless, adj [1 sôlles, 2 sôllus] soul & -less Having no soul, without emotion, sentiment, or feeling soullessly, adv Preo & -ly In a soulless manner soullessness, n See preo & -ness Condition of being soulless sound (I), n [1 sound, 2 sound] ME, fr O Fr son, fr Lat sonus, see sonant The final d in the present form is due to a tendency to develop thus finally, after n, wh is traceable fr the 16th cent onwards, op too now vulg gound 1 That which is or can be heard, the sensation resulting from stimulation of the auditory nerves through the ear the sound of running water, of a drum, of the human voice, not a sound was heard, what was, what made, that sound? Phr within sound of, at a distance within which sound can be heard, within earshot 2 The external causes of auditive sensation, namely, the vibrations set up in a vibrating body, and transmitted through the air, water, or other elastic medium the physics of sound, sound is impossible in a vacuum, regularity of vibration distinguishes sound from noise 3 A An auditive impression which, by reason of its characteristic quality, conveys a definite impression as to its cause or source or character 'There was a sound of revelry by night' (Byron), a cheerful, melancholy, sound, b meaningless noise 'full of sound and fury, signifying nothing' 4 Specif, a sound produced by the vocal organs the sounds of speech 5 Meaning, mental impression, conveyed by the voice, or (fig) as read or understood the rumours have a sinister sound sound (II), vb intrans. & trans ME sounen, fr O Fr soner, Fr sonner, fr Lat sonare See preo A intrans 1 To make a sound or noise, to produce an audible effect - the organ sounds, I cannot make this bell sound 2 To have a specific acoustic quality, to convey a particular auditive impression how sweet the music sounds, the poem sounds better when read than sung 3 A To produce an auditive impression which suggests that some specific thing is taking place, or that that which makes a sound is in some specified condition it sounded as if someone was running away, his voice sounds as if he had a cold, b to suggest to the mind, to seem, to appear the statement sounds improbable, how does this proposal sound to you? 4 (law) To have or tend to have the effect of, in Phr to sound in damages, when the action is brought for unascertained damages B trans 1 To cause to sound, to produce sound from sound a trumpet, a bell 2 A To utter, express by the voice to sound a note of fear, b to express, utter, by any means the first note of danger was sounded by the press 3 To give a signal for by means of a sound the locsin sounded an alarm, to sound the retreat, the resuscitate &c. 4 To spread abroad, publish, celebrate in speech, or otherwise to sound a man's praises &c.

sound (III), adj, OE sund, 'uninjured, in good condition', OHG gswunt, 'strong, healthy', Mod Germ gesund, these words are prob connected w OE swif, 'strong', op Goth swinpe, the base is prob unrelated to Lat sanus, 'healthy', see sane 1 A Physically healthy, in good bodily condition, not diseased of sound body and mind, his heart is not sound horse hasn't a sound leg to stand on, b not decayed, over-ripe, or rotten sound fruit, timber, o not defective, undamaged, in good, workable condition, not worn out a sound building, the bridge is no longer sound 2 (of the mind and mental faculties and activities) a In healthy, normal condition, unimpaired, b well founded, reliable, sagacious a sound opinion, judgement, o based on reason, in accordance with logic, valid, logical sound argument 3 (of actions) a In accordance with good judgement, judicious, safe a sound policy to adopt, b (of specific acts, movements, activities) skilfully and efficiently carried out, likely to effect its purpose a sound stroke at cricket &c., a sound way of operating, o (of conduct) morally unexceptionable, correct, right sound behaviour 4 Financially stable, solvent, commercially solid, firmly established, safe a sound investment, his financial position is perfectly sound 5 (of persons) Exhibiting soundness in thought, action, conduct &c., reliable, competent, efficient in a specified way a sound reasoner, cricketer, member of society, a sound strategist &c. 6 A Complete, thorough a sound thrashing, beating, b a sound sleep, one that is profound, unbroken, undisturbed 7 Legally valid, without a flaw, unassailable sound title to land sound (IV), adv, fr preo 5 In a sound, unbroken manner, soundly to sleep sound, the more noise there was the sounder he slept sound (V), n *OE sund, 'capacity of swimming, act of swimming, that in which swimming takes place, the sea', specif, 'narrow strait of sea', the latter is prob primarily an ON sense, prob orig a piece of water that one can swim across, fr sund d, cogn of swim 1 A narrow channel or strait, as between an inland sea or lake and the high sea, or between an island and mainland, the Sound, one of the entrances to the Baltic 2 The swim or air bladder of a fish sound (VI), vb trans & intrans ME souden, souden, 'to use a sounding lead', formed fr preo or fr Fr sonder, in same sense, the Fr word is almost certainly derived fr Gmc The word sund, see preo, is used w sense of testing depth in the OE compound sund gerd, 'a sounding pole' A trans 1 To find out the depth of (water), to explore nature of bottom of (water) by means of a line and plummet, the sailor's lead, or other mechanical device to sound the entrance to a harbour, sound the depths of the ocean &c. 2 (med) To probe, examine, by a sound &c to sound the bladder, urethra, also to sound a person's chest, heart &c., to test with a stethoscope, perhaps influenced by sound (II) 3 To ascertain, or try to ascertain, the opinions, feelings, wishes of (a person) by cautious, tactful questions, the purpose of which is rather hinted at than fully expressed will you sound X as to whether he would accept the post if offered? 4 (fig) To know by experience, to explore to sound the depths of human misery B intrans 1 To use the lead or other sounding apparatus to ascertain depth of water &c ship moved slowly forward sounding as she went 2 (or whale &c) To plunge, dive suddenly from surface of the sea sound (VII), n, fr preo, Surgeon's probe used for examination of bladder or other cavity of the body sound-board, n See sounding board sound boarding, n Extra hoarding under a floor to deaden sound sunder (I), n, fr sound (II) & -er That which sounds, specif, a device in a telegraphic instrument which transmits the message by means of clicks sunder (II), n, fr sound (VI) & -er Device for taking soundings without stopping a ship sunder (III), n [1 sôunder, 2 sounds] OE sônor, 'herd of swine', fr base in sow (I) & swine (archaic) Herd of wild swine erroneously applied to a single young wild boar sound-film, n Cinematograph film accompanied by mechanically reproduced effects of sound, dialogues &c., vulgarly styled talkies sounding (I), adj [1 sôunding, 2 soundig] Preo Part of sound (II) A Full of sound, making a sound, resonant, resounding, esp b having much sound but without much meaning, magnificent in sound only sounding oratory sounding (II), n, fr sound (VI) & -ing 1 Act, process of ascertaining or measuring the depth of water in a channel &c., by the lead or other methods 2 (pl) a Measurements of depth of water at specific places, b places where such measurements have been, or can be, taken sounding board, n sounding (I) & board a A contrivance placed above a pulpit or rostrum &c which prevents the sound of a speaker's voice from being dissipated, and throws it forward end down towards the audience, b a thin plate of wood or metal which increases the resonance of a musical instrument soundless, adj [1 sôndless, 2 soundlis] sound (I) & -less Without sound, noiseless soundlessly, adv Preo & -ly In a soundless manner, noiselessly soundlessness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being soundless soundly, adv [1 sôundli, 2 soundlis] sound (III) & -ly In a sound manner soundness, n [1 sôundnes, 2 soundnis] See preo & -ness State, quality, of being sound sound-wave, n sound (I) & wave (II) One of the longitudinal vibratory disturbances of air which produce upon the auditive nerves the sensation of sound soup, n [1 sôop, 2 súp], fr Fr soupe, of Gmc origin See sup (I) & supper & op sop 1 A clear or thick liquid food, made by boiling down bones, meat, or vegetables in water, variously seasoned and served hot or, more rarely, cold, usually distinguished by the name of its principal ingredient, as pea soup, turtle soup &c. Phr (slang) in the soup, in trouble, in a fix 2 (legal slang) Certain briefs at the Central Criminal Court, the Old Bailey, distributed in rotation among the junior barristers soupçon, n [1 sôpsɔ̃, 2 sôpsɔ̃] Fr, 'suspicion, slight trace', see suspicion. A suspicion, suggestion, mere trace, or taste, of anything, material or non material, a soupçon of garlic is the making of a salad, a soupçon of humour will enliven the driest of lectures soup-kitchen, n Publio échantable institution where soup and other food is supplied free among the poor in times of distress soup-plate, n Plate with deep centre for serving soup soup-ticket, n Ticket entitling a person to obtain soup &c from a soup kitchen sour (I), adj [1 sour, 2 saur] OE sūr, ME sours, OHG sūr, Mod Germ sauer, Du zuur, ON surr &c, cogn w Lath sūrus, 'salt to the taste', O Slav sjŭrŭ, 'rough, raw', possibly cogn w Lat rūla, 'a bitter herb', & rumer, 'sorrel', if fr erū*, & Gk rhūlō, 'a bitter herb', cp also sorrel (II) 1 (of taste or smell) a Acid, acrid, sharp, tart to the taste, as vinegar, lemon juice, unripe fruit &c, b (of milk) rancid, turned 2 (of the temper &c) Morose, cross, crabbed, disagreeable, bitter, acrimonious sour looks, a sour temper &c, also of persons, a sour old maid 3 (of soil) Poor, cold, and damp, impoverished, unproductive sour (II), n, fr prec That which is sour, esp fig that which is unpleasant or bitter, in Phr to take the sweet with the sour, accept all the changes and chances of life as they come sour (III), v trans & intrans See sour (I) 1 trans a To turn, make sour, acid, or rancid thunder will sour beer, milk &c, b (fig) to make morose and gloomy, to render unhappy a temper soured by disappointments 2 intrans To become sour or rancid milk sours quickly in heat (also fig) source, n [1 sors, 2 sīs] ME sours, fr O Fr source, surs (later & Mod Fr source), fem of sors, PP of sordre, 'to rise', fr Lat surgere, see surge 1 a The point at which a river or stream rises, the fount, a spring at its rising point, b (poet) a stream, a rill, generally 2 The starting point, place of origin of anything, esp when regarded as the cause literature is a source of endless pleasure to many thousands, the sources of political unrest are often obscure 3 a Documents or other means of knowledge from which information, esp historical, is directly derived sources of knowledge, historical sources, b literary works which have supplied later poets with inspiration, models, plots &c many of Chaucer's sources are to be sought in France and Italy source-book n Collection of historical documents of primary authority as sources of our knowledge of certain events, transactions souse (IV), adv, fr prec hut confused w souse (I) Down with a plunge, with a splash to fall soused into the water soused, adj [1 soust, 2 saust], fr PP of souss (II) (slang) Drunk, half seas over pokled soutans, n [1 sôstahn, 2 sôtân] Fr, in O Fr sotane, fr Med L Lat subtāneus, also L Lat subtāna, 'under garment', fr sub, 'beneath', see sub- Long black outer garment resembling a cassock, worn as walking dress by Roman Catholic priests in France and other foreign countries souteneur, n [1 sôtēneur, 2 sôtānā] Fr, 'supporter, protector', also spec in sense below Mau who lives on the immoral earnings of a woman, a hully south (I), n [1 south, 2 saup] OE sūð, adj for sund*, sūða, n, sūðan, adv, ME sūp, south, ON sunnr, sūðr, OHG sund, adj, sundan, n & adv, Germ süd, Du zuid, prob fr same base as sun

1 One of the four cardinal points of the compass, the point facing one, N of the equator, when turned towards the sun at midday, the point opposite to the north

2 The southern hemisphere, the Antarctic regions, southern parts of the earth generally, also people living in southern regions of the globe the tropical south, 'bright and fierce and fickle is the south' (Tennyson)

3 That part of a country, town, district &c which lies south of a specified line or towards the south the south of England, of France &c, the Solid South, the Southern States of U S A, which seceded in 1862 at Civil War, usually voting for Democratic party south (II), adj, fr prec 1 a Situated at, lying in or towards, the south, southern the south country, southern part of England &c, so south countryman, south latitudes, the South Pole, b directed towards the south, facing south a south aspect, window &c, south side, of church, that side which is on the right hand of one looking towards the altar, the Epistle side c coming from the south a south wind 2 In combination (esp), as part of the name of the southern part of a sea, country, district &c, or of peoples living in the South South Atlantic, South America, South Africans, to live in South London, the South Seas, Pacific Ocean, the South Downs, the chalk hills of Sussex also applied to the Hampshire downs south (III), adv, see south (I) Towards the south in a southerly direction to sail, go south south (IV) vb intrans, fr prec 1 To move, go, towards the south or in a southerly direction, esp of ships 2 (of the moon) to cross the meridian

Southdown, adj & n [1 southdown, saup daun] See south (II), 2 1 adj Pertaining to a breed of sheep of the South Downs of Sussex and Hampshire Southdown mutton 2 n A Southdown sheep flock of South downs south-east, southeast, also son'east, n, adj, & adv [1 sou(th) est, 2 saup(p) est] 1 n Point of the compass half way between due south and east, region district &c towards this point in the south east of London, south-east by east or by south, one point east or south of due south east 2 adj a Situated in or towards the south east, (being, directed towards the south east south-east London, south-east ward 3 adv Towards the south east to sail so th east south-easterly n [1 south e'ter, 2 saup est] Prec & -ur At 10 wind blowing from the south-east south-easterly adj & adv Prec & -ly 1 adj a Situated in or towards the south-east, b coming from the south-east south-easterly wind 2 adv In a southerly or south-easterly direction, the south-east south-eastern adj south & eastern, situated & pertaining to, the south east south-eastward, adj, adv, & n south & eastward a adj Situated in or towards the south east, b adv, in a south east direction, c n, the south east south-eastwardly, adv South eastward southerly, adj & adv [1 sudherh, 2 saðəh] See next word & -ly 1 adj a Towards the south a southerly course, b coming from the south a southerly breeze 2 adv a Towards the south sail southerly, b from the south wind blows southerly southern, adj [1 sudhern, 2 saðən] OE sūðerne, see south (I), & -ern Pertaining to, situated in, characteristic of, the south Southern railway, Southern States of U S A, Southern Cross, bright constellation of the Southern hemisphere, southern habits, customs southerner, n [1 sudherner, 2 saðənə] Prec & -er Person belonging to the south, specif, inhabitant of the Southern States of U S A southernmost, adj [1 sūdhermōst, 2 saðən-moust] southern & -most Most southern, farthest south southernwood, n [1 sudhernwood, 2 saðən-wud] OE sūðerne wudu, it first came from S Europe A shrubby plant, Arisma, with scented leaves, allied to wormwood.

southing, n [1 southing, 2 saunŋ] south (I) & -ing (of ships) Difference in latitude south from last point of reckoning south-polar, adj south & polar Antarctic south-polar regions, exploration &c southron, n [1 sudhrun, 2 saðran] Variant of southern (archaic) Inhabitant of a southern part of a country, one who lives south of one, a southerner, esp applied by the Scots to the English south-south-east, n, adj, & adv [1 sou(th) sou(th) est, 2 saup(p) saup(p) est] (In or towards) direction, point, midway between south and south east south-south-west, n, adj, & adv [1 soo(th) sou(th) west, 2 saup(p) saup(p) west] (In or towards) direction, point, midway between south and south west southward, southwards, adv, adj, & n [1 southward(z), 2 saupward(z)] OE sūðweard, south (I) & -ward, s is advb Toward the south, southerly sailing south ward(s), take a southward direction, to the southward southwardly, adv [1 sudherdh, 2 saðadli] Prec & -ly Southward, southerly southwards, adv Variant of southward south-west, southwest, also son'west, n, adj, & adv [1 sou(th) west, 2 saup(p) west] 1 n Point of the compass half way between due south and west region, district towards this point in the south west of London, south west by west or by south, one point west or south of due south west 2 adj Situated in or towards the south west, facing or coming from the south west the south-west district, a south-west aspect, wind &c 3 adv 'to wards the south west southwester, son'wester, n [1 sou(th)wester, 2 saup(p)wester] Prec & -or 1 A strong south west wind 2 (always son wester) A waterproof hat with broad flap behind to protect the neck, worn by sailors &c in stormy and wet weather south-westerly, son'westerly, adv & adj Prec & -ly Towards or from the south-west south-western adj [1 sou(th) western, 2 saup(p) western] south & western, Situated in, pertaining to the south west south-westward(s), adv, adj, & n [1 sou(th) westward(z), 2 saup(p) westward(z)] a adv In a south west direction, b adj, situated in or toward the south west, c n, the south west souvenir n [1 sō'venēr, 2 sō'venā] Fr, fr subvenir to come up to, recall to the mind', see sub- & venir An object preserved or serving as a reminder or memento of a place, event &c, keepsake sovereign (I), adj [1 sóvrin, 2 sóvrin], fr O Fr & ME soverain, later spelling influenced by reign, fr L Lat superānus, 'chief, principal', fr Lat super, 'above', see super- 1 Supreme; superior to others, paramount, chief sovereign authority, power, rights 2 Possessing wielding, supreme power and dominion, royal, reigning a sovereign prince, a sovereign state, one exercising supreme, independent, unlimited power and jurisdiction within its own territories 3 Excellent, efficacious, effectual to a high degree a sovereign remedy sovereign (II), n, fr prec 1 a One who exercises supreme rule, a monarch, king, emperor, b (in political science or jurisprudence) a sovereign State, the body or person in whom sovereign power is vested and by whom it is exercised 2 A gold coin of Great Britain, value 20 shillings, £1 sterling, half sovereign, smaller gold coin, value 10s, both so called from the sovereign's head on the obverse sovereignty, n [1 sóvrnti, 2 sóvrnti], fr O Fr soveraineté See prec & -ty 1 State, position, of holding and exercising sovereign power, state of being a sovereign 2 A Supreme, sovereign power in a State, b power exercised over other States soviet, n, Engl pronunc [1 sóviet, 2 sóviet], Russ [1 súvjet, 2 súvjet], 'council' A council of workers and soldiers, the political unit of the Communist, proletarian (Bolshevik) federated republic of Russia, the official title of which is the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, USSR sovietism, n [1 sóvietizm, 2 sóvietizm] Prec & -ism Principles, system, of government by Soviets or workers' councils, Bolshevism sovietist, n [1 sóvietist, 2 sóvietist] See prec & -ist Supporter, adherent, of Sovietism sovietize, vb trans [1 sóvietiz, 2 sóvietiz] soviet & -ize To give the form of a soviet to a government sovrain, adj [1 sóvrain, 2 sóvrain] Archaic form and spelling of sovereign (I) Sovereign, esp in sense of effectual, efficacious sovrain remedies sow (I), n, [1 sou, 2 sau] OE sugu, sū, ME sūwe, sowe, OHG sū, ON sifr, cogn v Lat sūs, Gk hūs or sūs, fr sug, fr Aryan base su-*, 'to bring forth, produce' See also son & swine 1 A fully grown female pig Proverb Phrs to take, get, the wrong sow by the ear, (t) to attribute an action, mistake &c to the wrong person, (u) to settle on the wrong thing as the cause, you cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear, it is impossible to make a good thing, or get a good result, from bad or poor materials, esp, impossible to make a rough, ill bred person into a polished gentleman 2 a One of the large or main channels or moulds into which molten metal, as iron, is run, the smaller branches being styled 'pigs', b large bar of iron cast in such channel or mould, any bar of cast iron larger than a 'pig' 3 A movable covering for besiegers in attacking a wall in ancient warfare sow (II), vb trans & intrans [1 sō, 2 sou] OE sōwan, ME sōwen, OHG sāwen, ON sā, Goth sāwan, cogn v Lat sēmen, 'seed', see samen, cp also seed & cognates there referred to A trans 1 a To scatter, cast (seed or specific kind of seed) on the ground so that it shall grow and produce to sow seed in autumn and spring, sow wheat, oats &c Phrs to sow one's wild oats, indulge in youthful follies before settling down in life, to sow the wind and reap the whirlwind, to find that one's actions produce a greater and more violent result than one anticipated or desired, b (fig) to sow the seeds of (hatred, revolution &c), to spread abroad, disseminate, inculcate &c 2 To scatter, cast, seed upon, to plant with seed to sow a field with wheat, sow a garden with annuals 3 Only in PP sown with pearls, thickly studded or embroidered with, a sky sown with stars, densely bespangled B intrans To perform the act of sowing seed not yet time to sow Phr as a man sows, so he shall reap, our own actions determine the future course of our lives for good or ill sowar, n [1 sowár, 2 sowá] Pers & Hind sūwar, 'rider' A trooper of native Indian cavalry, a mounted orderly, member of a mounted escort sow-bread, n sow (I) & bread Popular name of the wild cyclamen sower, n [1 sōer, 2 sōer] sow (II) & -er a One who sows seed 'a sower went forth to sow his seed', b (fig) one who spreads, disseminates a sower of discord sowing, n [1 sóing, 2 sóing] sow (II) & -ing a Act, process, of scattering seed in the ground, b that which is sown, seed sown, vb [1 sōn, 2 sōwn] OE (ge)sāwen, ME sāwen, PP of sow (II) sow-thistle, n sow (I) & thistle Popular name for various species of a perennial or annual wild herb or plant, genus Sonchus, with spiked leaves, yellow flowers, and milky juice soy, n [1 soi, 2 soj] Jap shōyū, 'sauce from soya bean', fr Chin shí, 'beans', & yin, 'oil' A Chinese and Japanese sauce for fish made from fermented soya-beans pickled in brine soya-, soy-bean, n [1 soia, soi, hēn, 2 sóia, sói, hēn], fr prec An Asiatic leguminous plant, the beans of which yield a rich oil, which is used in making margarine, and also an oil cake for feeding cattle spa, n [1 spab, spaw, 2 spā, spō], fr Spa, town in Belgium 1 Health resort having a mineral spring 2 Mineral spring space (I), n [1 spās, 2 spēs], fr O Fr espace, fr Lat spāsum, 'space, room, extent, distance', cp Sort spātyl, 'increases', O Slav spēja, 'to be successful', spěšiti, 'to hasten', Lett spēl, 'to be able', spēls, 'power', OHG spuot, OS spōd, OE spēd, 'success', see speed, cp also Gk spasin, 'to draw, draw out', see spasm, spadion, 'racecourse', fr Aryan base spē(i)-, spā(i)-, spē-* &c, to stretch out, extend in time or space' See spadix, span, epathe 1 One of the conditions of material existence, characterized by dimension, limitless extension considered with or without reference to what it contains our existence is governed by conditions of time and space 2 A portion of extension, interval between two or more objects, distance a space of 100 yards, not enough space between the houses, an open space, an enclosed space 3 Specif (print) a blank interval between words, b the type which effects this 4 (mus) Interval between the lines on a score 5 Portion, interval, duration, of time to live in London for a space, the space of a month &c space (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To set, place, arrange, with space(s) between to space men in a line, lines of type, words in line of type &c 2 intrans Space out, (print) to arrange with specially large spaces between to space out words, head lines &c space-bar, n Flat bar in typewriter &c pressed down to make a space between words &c space-key, n Key taking place of space bar in typewriter &c spaceless, adj [1 spāsles, 2 spēsiles] space (I) & -less Having no space, deficient in space spacer, n [1 spāser, 2 spēsā] space (II) & -er One who, that which, spaces, specif a space bar, b instrument for reversing telegraphic current space-time, n (phys) An amalgamation of space and time into one system or continuum of four dimensions space-writer, n Journalist &c paid for articles according to the space they occupy in print space-writing, n Journalistic articles paid for in proportion to the space they occupy spacial, adj [1 spāshal, 2 spēs[al]] Variant of spatial spacing, n [1 spāsing, 2 spēs[ing]] space (II) & -ing 1 Act, method, of placing or arranging with fixed or suitable spaces between, arrangement at intervals 2 Space between words, lines &c in printing &c spacious, adj [1 spāshus, 2 spēs[as]], fr Fr, fr Lat spatiosus (us), 'roomy, ample, extensive', fr spat (um), 'space', see space (I), & -ous 1 Of large or considerable extent, affording ample space, extensive, roomy a spacious plain, hall, realm &c 2 (fig) Of great capacity, breadth, ample, not narrow, limited, or restricted of spacious intellect spaciously, adv Prec & -ly In a spacious manner spaciousness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being spacious, ample room spadassin, n [1 spādāsin, 2 spēdāsin], fr Fr, fr Ital spadacchino, fr Lat spatha, 'spade', see spathe Man expert in swordsman'ship, esp one making use of his skill in acts of violence, bravo spado (I), n [1 spād, 2 spēd] OE spodu, ME spāde, cp OS spado, cogn v Gk spathe, 'flat wooden instrument', see spathe Cp also Gk spidēs, 'long, extensive', fr Aryan base spēi-, spāi-, spē-*, 'to press or stretch out, extend', see space (I) 1 Tool, used for digging, with broad, nearly flat blade of metal with sharp edge, attached to long handle, similarly shaped implement of wood, esp one of small size used by children at the seaside Phr to call a spade a spade, speak plainly and unambiguously, to call things by their right names 2 Flat-bladed tool resembling a spade, specif a spado like tool for breaking ice, b tool used in outlying canoes, c instrument for cutting whale's blubber spade (II), vb trans, fr prec To dig or out with a spade spade (III), n, fr Span espada, 'sword', fr Lat spatha, 'spade, broad two edged sword', see epathe (cards) 1 a Conventional representation of a spade, consisting of a black heart shaped figure with projection below, as distinctive mark on playing card, b card bearing one or more of these marks to lead a spade 2 (usually pl) Suit of cards marked with spade(s) spades are trumps spade (IV), n, fr spado Castrated animal, gelding spade-bayonet, n Broad-bladed bayonet used as tool and weapon spade-bone, n Shoulder-blade, scapula spade-foot, n Kind of toad with spade like projection on hind feet used for burrowing spadeful, n [1 spādfool, 2 spēdiful] spade (I) & -ful Amount taken up by, and contained in, a spade spade-guinea, n Guinea issued 1787-99, having on the reverse a shield shaped like spade on a playing card spade-husbandry, n Method of cultivation in which deep digging is substituted for sub soil ploughing spade-work, n (fig) Laborious, detailed work, drudgery, necessary as the basis of higher, constructive work spadger, n [1 spajer, 2 spēdž], fr sparrow (slang) Sparrow spadiceous, adj [1 spādishus, 2 spēdifas], fr Lat spadic-, stem of spadix, 'broken branched' See spadix & -ous (bot) Of, having, of the nature of, a spadix spadiceous, adj [1 spādikōs, 2 spēdikōus], fr Lat spadic-, stem of spadix, & -ous Spadiceous spadille, n [1 spādil, 2 spēdil], fr Fr, fr Span espadilla, dimin of espada, 'spade', see spade (III) Ace of spades in ombre or quadrille spadix, n [1 spādiks, 2 spēdikis] Lat. spadix, 'broken palm branch with its fruit', fr Gk spadix, cp Gk spain, 'to tear away, rend', spasma, 'spasm, convulsion', see spasm, spadon, 'sunuch', spadon, 'racco-cours', fr Aryan base spe(i), sp(i) &c, 'to spread or stretch out', see space, spade (I), speed, span Spiko of flowers round a fleshy axis, usually wholly or partially surrounded by a spathe spado, n [1 spádō, 2 spéidow], fr Lat spado, fr Gk spadon, 'sunuch', fr spé (cin), 'to tear, destroy' See spadix Person incapable of procreation spaghetti, n [1 spagétu, 2 spagétu] Ital, pl of spaghella, dimin of spago, 'cord', fr its appearance Kind of thin macaroni spahi, spahes, n [1 spáhsh, 2 spáh], fr Fr spahi, fr Turk, fr Pers spahi, 'soldier', see sepoy 1 Member of Turkish irregular cavalry corps founded in 14th cent and disbanded in 1835 2 Member of native Algerian cavalry corps in French army spake, vb [1 spák, 2 speik] Archaic or obs Pret. of speak ME spák(e), fr earlier spak, O E sp(r)ac, w vowel lengthened through the influence of the infin, Pret pl, & PP, all of wh had long vowels in ME spalder, n [1 spáwider, 2 spólde] ME spald (en), 'to split', see spall (II) & -er Man employed in spalling stone or ore spall (I), n [1 spawl, 2 spál], fr next word Flake, chip, splinter, esp of stone spall (II), vb trans & intrans ME spalden, 'to chip, split', fr Germ spalten, 'to split', M Du spalden, O N spald, 'plank', Goth spilda, 'writing-tablet', Scot spalati, 'tears', Gk spheles, 'block of wood', prob cogn w Lat pellis, 'skin', orig 'fayed skin' See pellhole A trans 1 To break up roughly in preparation for sorting to spall ore 2 To give preliminary dressing to spall stone B intrans 1 To spall ore 2 (of stone) To splinter, chip spalper, n [1 spáwipén, 2 spólpín] Ir spailpín, 'rascal', fr spailp, 'dandy, pride, conceit', on spailp, 'to strut' Rasenl, ne'er do well spalt, n [1 spawlt, 2 spált], fr Germ, fr spalten, 'to split', q v under spall (II) Scaly mineral used in fusing metals span (I), vb trans & intrans [1 span, 2 span] OE spannan, 'to clasp, unfold, fasten, stretch', ME spannen, op O H G spannan, O H G spanna, OE spann, 'span, measure', O N spann, Du spannen, 'to span, fasten', fr same base as space A trans 1 To stretch thumb and finger(s) around or across for measurement &c, to encircle to span one's wrist 2 To measure, determine, breadth of his eye spanned the intervening space 3 A to cross, extend over, stretch across the bridge spans the river, hence, b (fig) to extend over, cover imagination will span the gap in our knowledge 4 (naut) To fasten with ropes, esp to span a boom B intrans (of span worm &c) To advance by a series of contractions and extensions span (II), n OE spann, 'span' See prec 1 A distance between tip of thumb and tip of little finger when hand is fully extended, b average span as measure, 9 inches, o (fig) short period or distance how brief is the span of human life 2 A Extreme measurement, full extent, length from end to end the span of one's arms, of a bridge, girder &c 3 A brief, extreme lateral measurement of an aeroplane from tip to tip, o (fig) the whole extent of a period of time his life had well nigh completed its span 3 Space between bases or supports of arch, obtusities of bridge &c 4 (naut) Rope fastened nt both ends, leaving loop in centre free to take a purchase on 5 (USA, S Afr) Pair or team of horses, mules, oxen &c spancel, vb trans [1 spánal, 2 spanal], fr M Du spancel, fr spannen, 'to stretch', see span (I) To tether, bobble, handle of, to prevent looking while milking to spancel a cow span-dogs n Pair of hooked bars used in hauling timber spandrel, n [1 spándrel, 2 spændrel], fr O Fr spandre, q v under expand, & -ol 1 Triangular space between shoulder of arch and right angle of frame surrounding it 2 Triangular space between the curves of adjoining arches and a straight cornice &c above them spandrel-wall, n Wall built above arches and filling in spandrels between them spangle (I), n [1 spánggl, 2 spungl] ME spangel, fr O E spang, 'clasp, buckle', op Germ spange, perh cogn w Gk spéiggin, 'to bind', spéiglinér, 'band, bond', see aphinctor, Lott spangis, 'fork for catching crabs', O N spikr, 'nail' See further spion, spiko, spilo, spiro 1 Very small, thin disc of brilliant metal, usually with hole in centre, attached to dress &c for ornament 2 Hence, any small, esp round, glistening object 3 (bot) Small, spongy outcroscence on oak leaf spangle (II), vb trans, fr prec To adorn with, as with, spangles, to cover, sprinkle, with a number of shining objects a spangled scarf, grass spangled with dewdrops, the heavens spangled with stars spangly, adj [1 spanggh, 2 spanggh] spanglo (I) & -y Of, like, adorned with, spangles

Spaniard, n [1 spányerd, 2 spanjrd], fr ME Spaygn (el), 'Spanish', w change of suff, op O Fr espagnard See next word & -ard Native of Spain spaniel, n [1 spányel, 2 spánjel] ME spaliguel, 'Spanish, spaniel', fr O Fr espagneul, fr Span español, 'Spanish', fr España, 'Spain', fr Lat Hispania Any of many closely related breeds of dogs, with long, silky hair and large, drooping ears Phr a tame spaniel, person who is at another's beck and call, a fawning flatterer

Spanish, adj & n [1 spánuh, 2 spánuh] ME Spamisch, fr Spain, fr Lat Hispania, & -ish 1 adj Of, pertaining to, coming from, Spain, Spanish Armada, see Armada, Spanish bayonet, kind of yucca, Spanish broom, Mediterranean shrub with showy yellow flowers, Spanish black, pigment obtained from charred cork, Spanish brown, dark reddish brown earth used as pigment, Spanish chalk, kind of talc, Spanish chestnut, see chestnut, Spanish fly, kind of beetle from which cantherides, used for blistering, is obtained, Spanish fowl, breed of greenish-black domestic fowl, Spanish grass, esparto grass, Spanish main, see main (I) 2 n Language of Spain

Spanish American, adj & n 1 adj Of, pertaining to, a part of America in which Spanish or a form of Spanish is spoken 2 n Person of Spanish descent inhabiting Spanish America spank (I), vb trans & intrans [1 spank, 2 spank] Op Dan spanke, 'to strut' A trans 1 To strike, slap, smack, with open hand or other flat object as punishment 2 To urge on, drive forward, esp by slapping, striking, with flat object B intrans Spank along, to move along swiftly, (of horses) to move with a brisk, spirited action spank (II), n, fr prec Single slap with flat of hand &c spanker, n [1 spángker, 2 spépkér] spank (I) & -er 1 One who, that which spans, specif a horse that moves with a fast, spirited, showy action, b (slang) a brilliant, spirited, striking person 2 (naut) Fore and aft sail extended by spars from after side of mizzen mast spanking (I), n [1 spángking, 2 spépkín] spank (I) & -ing Series of slaps administered as punishment spanking (II), adj, fr Pres Part of spank (I) 1 Brisk rapid a spanking trot 2 (slang) Fine, strong, striking esp a spanking breeze spanless adj [1 spánles, 2 spánulés] span (II) & -less (poet) Not capable of being spanned, measureless spanner, n [1 spáner, 2 spáner] span (I) &

-er One of various tools for tightening or loosening nuts and bolts, a wrench span-roof, n Roof with two slopes inclining towards a common ridge span-worm, n Larva of geometer moth spax (I), n & vb trans [1 spax, 2 spax] ME sparre, 'spar, beam, rafter', op OE sparran, 'to shut, bar', O N sparr, O H G sparro, M Du sparre 1 n (naut) Pole for supporting or extending sail(s), mast, yard, gaff &c 2 vb a To furnish with, support on, n spax, b to take (a ship) over bar, through shallows &c, by means of spars and tackle spar (II), n O E spær (slan), 'gypsum', op O E spærren, 'chilly', M H G spär, 'gypsum' One of various kinds of crystalline mineral, esp fluor-spar, calcium fluoride, Greenland spar, oryolite, Iceland spar, transparent calcite used in making optical instruments spar (III), vb intrans, fr O Tr esparer (of cook), 'to strike with spurs', prob of Gmo origin See spur 1 To fight with the fists, to box, spar at, to make motions with the fists towards (a person) as though about to strike 2 (fig) To engage in dispute, to wrangle 3 (of cooks) To fight, esp with protected spurs spar (IV), n, fr prec n Act of sparring, boxing match, b wordy dispute, quarrel, wrangling, o a cook fight sparable, n [1 spárabl, 2 sparabl], fr earlier sparrow bill, fr shape of nail Small, headless nail used in shoemaking spar-buoy, n Buoy consisting of, or supporting, vertical spar to indicate channel &c spar-deck, n Upper deck of ship, including quarter deck and fore-castle spar (I), adj [1 spár, 2 spær] OE spær, 'sparing, frugal', ME spære, op O N sparr, O H G spær, 'frugal' &c, O E sparian, 'to abstain from, to show mercy to', formed fr base spa*, spé*, meaning 'to prosper, succeed, promote advance' &c See further under speed 1 Not plentiful, scanty, meagre spar diet 2 Lean, thin, having little flesh a spar form, frame 3 In excess of absolute necessity, additional to what is in ordinary use, available at will, after usual requirements are fulfilled, spar time, leisure time, left over after discharge of duties or completion of other work, spar cash, that left after supplying one's needs, paying one's legal debts &c, spar wheel (on motor car), an extra, additional, wheel carried to take the place of one of those in use, in case of emergency, spar parts, extra parts of machine, esp of a motor car, kept in stock or reserve for replacement, spar room, spar bed room, specif, room in a house unoccupied under ordinary circumstances and reserved for visitors, a guest room spar (II), vb trans & intrans OE sparian, 'to show mercy to, abstain from, preserve' See prec A trans 1 To refrain from using, to withhold use or expenditure of, to grudge to spar neither trouble nor expense Phr spar the rod and spar the child, discipline and punishment are necessary in the training of the young 2 To dispense with, do without, to lose use or services of, to afford could you spare a poor man a copper, sir, a public servant of a kind that can ill be spared, I have no time to spare today Phr enough and to spare, sufficient for all needs and something over 3 A To show mercy, leniency, consideration to, to refrain from killing, injuring, destroying &c the victorious enemy spared neither young nor old, he doesn't spare his dearest friends when he is roused, Phrs spare my life, don't kill me if we are spared (ie by Providence), if we are still alive, b (i) to spare oneself, to economize one's strength, reserve oneself for a later effort, to take things easily, not to exert oneself, (ii) not to spare oneself, to be severe or exacting with oneself, to put forth all one's efforts, show great zeal in performance of a task, o to secure, preserve (a person) against, or from, some specified misfortune, to save from, protect from undergoing I want to spare you all the suffering I can, I will spare you the humiliation of a public exposure, pray spare me the tedium of hearing your story all over again B intrans 1 To be frugal, practise economy 2 To exercise mercy, refrain from inflicting injury &c sparely, adv [1 spárli, 2 spéali] spare (I) & -ly In a spare manner, scantily, meagrely spareness, u [1 spárnes, 2 spéanis] See preo & -ness State, quality, of being spare, leanness, scantiness sparerib, n [1 spárib, spárib, 2 spéarib, spéarib] Part of ribs of pork so trimmed that very little meat is left on the bones sparger, n [1 epárjer, 2 apdíž], fr rare or obs spargis, 'to sprinkle', fr Lat spargere, 'to scatter, sprinkle', cogn w OE spearca, 'apark', see spark (I), O Ir arg, 'drop', Sort parjanyaś, 'rain', Lith sproga, 'spark', Gk spargasma, 'to swell' See asperges, asparagus Apparatus for sprinkling, specif (brewing) machine for sprinkling hot water in mash tub spar-hawk, n [1 spár hawk, 2 apd bšk], fr sparrow-hawk Sparrow hawk sparing, adj [1 spáring, 2 spéaring], fr Pres Part of spare (II) Moderate, frugal, restrained, not copious or excessive a sparing use of alcohol, be sparing of your epithets in writing sparingly, adv Preo & -ly In a sparing manner, with restraint and moderation spark (I), n [1 spark, 2 spák] OE spearca, ME spark, op M Du, M LG sparkes, op also M Du spranken, 'to sparkle', Lith sproga, 'spark', Lat spargere, 'to scatter, sprinkle', see sparger, further cogn w OE spæc, 'shoot, twig', OE spæc, ON sprakr, 'lively', op Gk aspharagos, see asparagus, perh also OE sprecan, 'to speak, give forth utterance', see speak 1 Small glowing particle thrown off by a body in combustion or in a state of incandescence sparks fly out of the fire, to strike a spark from flint Phrs as the sparks fly upward, in accordance with an irresistible tendency, the vital spark, life 2 (in various fig senses) a Animating, kindling principle, germ the spark of life, of learning, religious zeal &c, b slight vestige, trace he showed not a spark of interest, intelligence &c 3 a Light, brief flash accompanying an electric discharge, b (pl, naut slang) wireless operator on a ship spark (II), vb intrans OE spærcian, fr spærc (a), 'spark' See preo & -to give out sparks, b spærc, to produce electric sparks and secure ignition spark (III), n & vb intrans, fr ON spærkr, 'lively', cogn w spark (I) 1 n Gay, dashing fellow, a gallant, a beau a gay young spark 2 vb To play the spark spark-arrester, n [1 spark arester, 2 spák aresta] Device to prevent sparking in part of electric circuit when this is not desired sparkling-plug, n [1 spárking plig, 2 epd'ing plig] Device for securing electric ignition in an internal combustion engine sparkish, adj [1 sparkish, 2 spák'ish] spark (III) & -ish Like, having the character of, a spark, lively, gay, apt to make love sparkle (I), vb intrans [1 spárkl, 2 spdkl] ME spetarcelen, freq fr spark (I) & -le 1 To give forth shifting sparks of light, to flash, scintillate, coruscate a thousand gems, bright eyes, sparkled, (of intellectual brilliance) his wit, he sparkles in society 2 To give out bubbles of gas, to effervesce (of champagne &c) sparkle (II), n ME sparkle, fr preo Physical or intellectual scintillation, coruscation, shifting flash, glitter sparkler, n [1 sparkler, 2 spdkla] sparkle (I) & -er That which sparkles, a (thieves' slang) a diamond, b a brilliant, beautiful, showy person sparkless, adj [1 sparkles, 2 spdkla] spark & -less Emitting no sparks sparklet, n [1 spárklet, 2 epdklit] spark (I) & -let a Small spark, b trade or proprietary name for small metal capsule filled with carbonic acid gas, used in conjunction with a special type of syphon for aerating water sparkling, adj [1 spárking, 2 spdking] sparkle (I) & -ing 1 a Giving off sparks, flashing, glittering, scintillating, b intellectually brilliant 2 (of wines &c) Giving out continuously small bubbles of gas, effervescing, contrasted with still sparklingly, adv Preo & -ly In a sparkling manner sparring-match, n [1 spáring mäch, 2 epd'ing mäch] Pres Part of spar (III) & match (I) Boxing match, esp for exhibition or exercise sparring-partner, n See preo & partner Boxer with whom professional boxer spars as part of training sparrow, n [1 spáro, 2 apærou] OE spærowa, ME sparewe, cp Goth sparwa, OHG sparo, ON sporr, 'sparrow', OS spár, 'starling', Lat parra, 'a bird of ill omen', Gk sporgilos, 'sparrow', sparasion, 'sparrow', O Prussian spurgis, 'sparrow', op spavin One of various small passerine birds, allied to the finches, with dull coloured, plain, streaked, or speckled plumage, esp house sparrow (Passer domesticus), small brown kind found frequently in neighbourhood of human habitations, the hedge sparrow, Acentor modularis, is not of the same family, but is allied to the thrushes sparrow-bill, n Sparable sparrow-grass, n By popular etymology fr asparagus (vulg) Asparagus sparrow-hawk, n OE spær hafoc sparrow & hawk Small species of hawk, Accipiter nisus, which hunts sparrows and other small birds as prey, it has shortish wings and a light grey barred breast sparry, adj [1 spárr, 2 spári] spar (II) & -y Of, like, containing, abounding in, spar (II) sparse, adj [1 spars, 2 spás], fr Lat sparsus, P P type of spargere, 'to scatter', q v under sparger, prob cogn w many words beginning w sp(r) See also asperges, spark Occurring here and there, singly, or in scattered groups, planted, growing, thinly, reverse of dense, close a sparse population, a sparse vegetation, a sparse beard sparsely, adv Preo & -ly In a sparse manner sparseness, n See preo & -ness State of being sparse sparsity, n [1 spársiti, 2 spásiti] See preo & -ity Sparseness, scarcity, lack Spartacist (I), n [1 spártast, 2 spdtast], fr Spartacus (us), leader of army of slaves who rebelled against Rome in 73-71 B C, & -ist Adherent of Laebknaob, who adopted the pen-name of Spartacus, and was leader of the extreme revolutionary Socialist party organized in Germany in 1918 Spartacist (II), adj, fr preo Connected with, pertaining to, the Spartacists Spartan (I), adj [1 spártan, 2 epdtan], fr Lat Spartān (us), 'of Sparta', fr Lat Sparta, fr Gk Spartē, capital of Laconia, the people of wb were noted for their hardihood, endurance, & the simplicity of their lives 1 Of, pertaining to, Sparte or Laconia 2 Characteristic of, resembling, the Spartans Spartan courage, simplicity, honesty, austere, hardy, the reverse of luxurious a Spartan diet Spartan (II), n, fr preo 1 Native, inhabitant, of Sparte, characterized by courage, severe discipline &c 2 (fig) A hardy, robust, courageous person, one who lives a rigorous, austere, simple life sparrein, sparreine, n [1 spártun, sēn, 2 spáruin, -in], fr Mod Lat sparra, 'broom', fr Gk spartos, 'esparto grass', op Gk spetra, 'net, cordage', cogn w Lith spartas, 'thong' See spire (III) Colourless, oily liquid obtained from the broom and used as a narcotic sparterie, n [1 spárteri, 2 spdtari], fr Fr, fr Span esparteria esparto & -ery a Fabric woven from esparto grass, b mats, ropes &c made from this fabric spasm, n [1 spázam, 2 spéazam], fr Fr spasme, fr Lat spasmus, fr Gk spasmos, 'spasm, convulsion', fr spá (ein), 'to draw, drag, tear, to contract violently, to tear out', fr base spē(i), spō(i) &c, 'to stretch or press out, extend, prolong' See also space, span, speed &c 1 Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of the muscles 2 Sudden, violent, convulsive mental or physical reaction to shock, powerful emotion &c a spasm of fear, pain &c spasmodic, adj [1 spazmódik, 2 spéazmódik], fr Gk spasmodē (ēs), 'of the nature of a spasm', fr spasm (ds), 'spasm', see preo, -oid, & -io 1 Characteristic of, characterized by, of the nature of, a spasm, convulsive spasmodic twitching of the limbs, spasmodic sobs &c 2 Taking place, carried out, from time to time, at no fixed period, and by fits and starts, intermittent spasmodic attempts spasmodical, adj [1 spazmódiki, 2 spéazmódiki] Preo & -al (rare) Spasmodic spasmodically, adv Preo & -ly In a spasmodic manner spasmology, n [1 spazmóloji, 2 spéazmóladži] spasm & o- & -logy Branch of pathology dealing with spasms spasitic, adj [1 spáistik, 2 spástik], fr Gk spastik (ds), 'afflicted with a spasm', fr spa (ein), 'to tear, draw, to contract, convulse', see spasm (mod) Spasmodic spasticity, n [1 spástisti, 2 spástistiti] Preo & -ity Tendency to spasms or to spasmodic action spat (I), n, vb intrans & trans [1 spét, 2 epat] Prob cogn w spit (III) 1 n A Spawn of shellfish, esp of oyster, b young oyster before it becomes fixed in position 2 vb a intrans (of oyster &c) To spawn, b trans, to deposit (spawn) spat (II), n, abbr of spatterdash Short garter of cloth &c covering upper part of boot or shoe, buttoned a short way up the ankle, and strapped under the instep spat (III), vb OE spātte, fr spātan, 'to spit', Pret of spit (III) spatchcock, n & vb trans [1 spáchkok, 2 spáf[kok] Either dispatch cock or variant of spitchcock 1 n (rare) Bird killed and cooked immediately in an emergency &c 2 vb (colloq) To interpolate, put in, as an afterthought, between or amongst other things &c to spatchcock a sentence into a letter spate, n [1 spát, 2 spet], fr O Fr espoit, fr Du spuilen, 'to flow, flood spout', cogn w spout Flood, esp sudden flood of river after rain, when it is said to be in spate spathaceous, adj [1 spathákeus, 2 spáf[as] Next word & -aceous a Having a spathe, b of the nature of, resembling, a spathe spathe, n [1 spádih, 2 spéih], fr Lat spatha, fr Gk spathē, 'broad, flat wooden instrument for stirring &c, broad, flat sword, spathe of palm tree', cogn w OE spadu, see spade, & cognates given under space Large leaf like, single or double sheath surrounding flower cluster, bract enfolding spadix spathic, adj [1 spáthik, 2 spáfik], fr Mod Germ spat(h), 'spar', M H G spāt, possibly cogn w spar (II), & -io Of, resembling, of the nature of, spar spathiform, adj [1 epáthiorm, 2 spáf[orm] fr Germ spat(h), 'spar', see preo, & -form Having the character or appearance of spar spathose (I), adj [1 spáthōs, 2 spáf[ous] spaths & -ose Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, a spathe spathose (II), adj [1 spáthōs, 2 spáf[ous] fr Mod Germ spat(h), 'spar', see spathic, & -ose Spathic spatheous, adj [1 spáthūs, 2 spáf[ous] spathe & -ous Spathose (I) specialism, n [1 speshalizm, 2 opseshalizm] special & -ism Devotion of effort to a special line of study, research &c, or to some special branch of a profession specialist, n [1 speshbalist, 2 speshalist] special & -ist Person engaging in special line of study, research &c, or in special branch of a profession, one who has special knowledge in some field of learning or science a specialist in geology, diseases of the heart &c specialistic, adj [1 speshalistsk, 2 speshalistsk] Preo & -ic Characteristic of, pertaining to, a specialist, or specialism speciality, n [1 speshialiti, 2 speshialiti], fr O Fr specialité, fr Lat specialitas (em), 'peculiarity', fr special (m), 'peculiar, individual' See special (I) & -ity 1 Distinctive feature, characteristic, peculiarity 2 Object, occupation, branch of study, to which special attention is given 3 Article of commerce in selection or manufacture of which the vendor takes special care and pride specialization, n [1 speshializatsiun, 2 speshializatsiun] Next word & -ation Act of specializing, state of being specialized specialize, vb trans & intrans [1 speshaliz, 2 speshaliz] special (I) & -ize A trans 1 A To give a special definition to, make special or specific, to qualify, limit to specialize a statement, application &c, b to direct, and limit, to a particular object to specialize a course of study &c 2 (biol) To develop, evolve (an organ or part), in particular direction, or adapt to specific function 3 To limit to a particular purpose or function, reverse of generalize the word 'shroud' has a specialized meaning in Modern English B intrans 1 To particularize 2 To engage in special study, occupation &c 3 (biol) To assume, develop, a special character or function specially, adv [1 speshali, 2 speshali] special (I) & -ly 1 In a special manner, particularly, individually he was specially mentioned 2 For specific purpose specially selected, appointed &c specialty, n [1 speshalti, 2 speshalti], fr O Fr specialité See speciality 1 Specialty 2 (law) A contract embodied in a document bearing a seal specie, n [1 spesh(i)js, 2 spif(i)js], fr Lat specie, abl of species Money in metal form, coin, as distinct from paper money species, n [1 spesh(i)js, 2 spif(i)js] Lat species, 'sight, look, appearance, shape, form, kind, class, ornament, beauty', cp Lat specere, 'to see, look at', Gk skoptomai, 'to look closely at', for epel, see sceptic, skopos for epok, 'one who sees', see scope, Sort spagati, 'sees', O H G spehōn, 'to watch', cp spy 1 (theol) The appearance as presented to the senses of either of the consecrated elements in the Eucharist 2 (log) A group of individuals possessing common attributes, and designated by a common name 3 (biol) A term of classification used to denote a group of animals or plants, larger than a variety and smaller than a genus, possessing certain distinctive characters in common, capable of interbreeding and of transmitting their distinctive characters to their offspring 4 Sort, kind a species of fierce egotism which one hopes is rare specifiable, adj [1 speshifabl, 2 speshifabl] specify & -able Capable of being specified specific (I), adj [1 speshifik, 2 speshifik] Med Lat specificus, Lat speci (js), see species, & -fic 1 Characteristic of a species, possessing the distinguishing features of a species specific forms, variations, characters, in animals or plants, specific difference, one constituting a species 2 Characteristic of a particular, distinct, class, sort, kind there is no specific distinction between a language and a dialect, specific gravity, see gravity 3 (a of drugs) Acting upon some particular organ or part of the body, b (of disease) produced by a particular micro organism 4 A clearly defined or formulated, precise, explicit, definite a specific statement, to have a specific aim and object in view, specific performance, carrying out of strict terms of contract, esp at the order of court of equity, b definitely limited in force and application the word 'whisper' is used by phoneticians with a perfectly specific meaning specific (II), n, fr Preo A specific drug or medicine specifically, adv [1 speshifikah, 2 speshifikah] specific (I) & -al & -ly In a specific manner, precisely, definitely specification, n [1 speshifikatsiun, 2 speshifikatsiun] See specify & -fication 1 Act of specifying 2 A detailed descriptive statement, esp a one made in reference to the design and particulars of a building, piece of machinery, or other constructive work, b a statement embodying a definition of specific charges brought against a person, a specific enumeration of the terms of a contract &c 3 (law) Working up of material into a different form, character, product, adjudged not to be the property of the owner of the material specificity, n [1 speshifisti, 2 speshifisti] specific (I) & -ity Specification specificness, n [1 speshifiknes, 2 speshifiknes] specific (I) & -ness State or quality of being specific specify, vb trans [1 speshifi, 2 speshifi], fr O Fr spécifier, fr Med Lat specificare, 'to specify' See species & -fy 1 To make specific, to make definite and particular mention of, state, indicate, precisely, enumerate to specify the grounds of complaint, to specify those to whom invitations are to be sent 2 To include, insert, in a specification specimen, n [1 speshimen, 2 speshimen] Lat specimen, 'indication, distinctive mark, sign', fr spec (are), 'to look at', see species, & -i & -men 1 A One of a class, taken and regarded as possessing the characteristic features, qualities &c of the whole class, and serving as a representative example a fine specimen of English manhood, a specimen of the first issue of English postage stamps, b specif, an example of any kind of natural object preserved, classified, and exhibited as a sample of its kind a museum specimen, his house was full of stuffed specimens, and specimens in spirits 2 A A part of anything, taken as an example or pattern of the whole a specimen of fourteenth-century handwriting, b isolated characteristic instance a specimen of a person's manners, of English weather, specimen page, of book or other publication, one showing style, size of type &c, esp one printed in publisher's prospectus 3 (colloq) An eccentric, unusual person, one exhibiting some marked characteristic, a remarkable type (usually in unfavourable sense) a queer, a rum, specimen speciological, adj [1 speshiologi, 2 speshiologi] Next word & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, speciology speciology, n [1 speshiologi, 2 speshiologi] species & o & -logy The science of the origin and development of species speciosity, n [1 speshiositi, 2 speshiositi], fr Lat speciositas (em), 'beauty', fr specios (us), 'beautiful', see next word, & -ity State or quality of being specious, speciousness specious, adj [1 speshius, 2 speshius], fr Lat specios (us), 'beautiful, showy, plausible', fr speci (js), 'appearance', see species, & -ose Having superficial beauty or excellence, seeming good on the surface, but deceptively and lacking genuineness, plausible, meretricious a specious appearance of prosperity, a specious excuse, plea &c, a specious refinement speciously, adv Preo & -ly In a specious manner speciousness, n See preo & -ness Speciousity speck (I), n [1 spek, 2 spek] O E specca, 'speck, spot', ME specke 1 A Small spot, stain, dot, mark, b specif, a small spot in fruit caused by disease &c 2 A Minute object, a small grain, a particle a speck of dust, b something which appears like a speck from being remote, the ship became a mere speck in the distance speck (II), vb trans, fr Preo To mark with small spots or specks speck (III), n O E epic, 'bacon', op O N spek, O H G spek, Du spek Blubber of whales or seals, also (USA and S Afr) fat meat, esp bacon speckle, n & vb trans [1 spēkl, 2 spēkl] speck (I) & -le 1 n Small spot or mark distinct in colour from surrounding surface 2 vb (chiefly in PP) To mark, cover, with speckles, to dot, variegate with spots speckless, adj [1 spēkles, 2 spēkles] speck (I) & -less Without a speck, spotless, also fig speckioneer, specksioneer, n [1 spekshunēr, 2 spekshunēr], fr Du spekshijer, fr spek, 'blubber', see speck (III), & snij (den), 'to out', & or The Gmo stem *snip-, 'out', appears in O E, snidan, Mod Germ schneiden, 'to cut' &c, but apparently has no cognates outside Gmo Chief harpooner in whaler specky, adj [1 spēki, 2 spēki] speck (I) & -y Marked with specks, esp of fruit with spots of rotteness specs, n [1 spēks, 2 spēks] Abbr fr spectacles, see next word (colloq) Pair of spectacles spectacle, n [1 spēktakl, 2 spēktakl], fr Fr, fr Lat spectaculum, 'show, sight, public spectacle', fr spect (are), 'to see, watch', fr spect (um), PP type of specere, 'to look', see species 1 Something looked at, specif, something exhibited to public view, a show, a remarkable display 2 Something unusual, esp that which arouses pity, contempt, reprobation &c when seen he is a sad spectacle in his infirm old age 3 (pl) (Pair of) spectacles, pair of optical lenses for correcting the sight, fitted into a frame, supported by the nose, and held in place by thin bars of metal or tortoiseshell passing behind the ears, (colloq, cricket slang) a failure to score in both innings, a duck in both innings spectacled, adj [1 spēktakld, 2 spēktakld] Preo & -ed a Wearing spectacles, b having markings resembling a pair of spectacles spectacled bear, cobra &c spectacular, adj [1 spēktakulār, 2 spēktakulār], fr Lat spectacul (um), 'show', see spectacle, & -ar Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, characteristic of, a spectacle a spectacular display spectacularism, n [1 spēktakulārizm, 2 spēktakulārizm] Preo & -ism State or quality of being spectacular spectacularly, adv [1 spēktakulārli, 2 spēktakulārli] See preo & -ly In a spectacular manner spectator, n [1 spēktātūr, 2 spēktētūr], fr Lat spectator, 'observer, spectator', fr spectāt (um), PP type of spectāre, 'to see, watch', see spectacle, & -or 1 Person who watches, sees, looks on at, a performance, an action, an event, an observer, an onlooker a crowd of spectators at a football match, he remained a mere spectator of the great occurrences of his time 2 (cap) Title of periodical spectatorial, adj [1 spēktātōriāl, 2 spēktātōriāl] Preo & -ial Of, pertaining to, a spectator spectatorship, n [1 spēktātūrshīp, 2 spēktētūrshīp] See preo & -ship State of being a spectator spectatress, n [1 spēktātētēs, 2 spēktētētēs] See preo & -ess Female spectator spectra, pl of spectrum spectral, adj [1 spēktrāl, 2 spēktrāl] See spectre, spectrum, & -al 1 Pertaining to, resembling, of the nature of, a spectre, ghostly 2 Pertaining to the spectrum spectral analysis, colours spectrally, adv Preo & -ly Like, after the manner of, a spectre spectre, n [1 spēkter, 2 spētēr], fr O Fr spekre, fr Lat spectrum, 'appearance, form, apparition' See spectrum 1 Disembodied spirit in visible form, apparition, ghost.

2 Spectre of the Brocken, huge, ghost like image of spectator projected on mist at the summit of mountain, as on the Brocken in the Harz Mountains spectre-bat, n S American leaf nosed bat spectre-crab, n The transparent larva of certain crustaceans spectro-, prf Walking stick insect spectre-lamur, n The tarsier spectre-shrimp, n Shrimp with long, slender body spectro-, prf Form of spectrum, used in compounds spectrogram, n [1 spéktrógrám, 2 spektragram] Free & -gram Reproduction of a spectrum by means of a spectrograph spectrograph, n [1 spéktrógráf, 2 spéktragraf] See prec & -graph Instrument for representing or reproducing a spectrum photographically &c spectrographic, adj [1 spéktrógráfik, 2 spéktragrafík] Free & -ic Of, pertaining to, by means of, a spectrograph spectrography, n [1 spéktrógráf, 2 spéktragraf] See prec & -y Art of reproducing spectra by means of a spectrograph spectrological, adj [1 spéktrólógi, 2 spéktrólógi] See spectrology & -ic & -al Pertaining to spectrology spectrologically, adv Free & -ly By means of spectrology spectrology, n [1 spéktrólóg, 2 spéktrólógi] Free & -logy Science of spectral analysis spectrometer, n [1 spéktrómeter, 2 spéktrómíto] See prec & -meter Instrument for measuring angular deviation of ray of light passing through prism spectrophone, n [1 spéktrófon, 2 spéktráfón] See prec & -phone Form of spectroscopes in which the different light rays are made to produce distinctive sounds spectroscope, n [1 spéktróskóp, 2 spéktróskóp] See prec & -scope Instrument for analysing the spectra of rays emitted by luminous bodies spectroscopic(al), adj [1 spéktróskópik(i), 2 spéktróskópik(i)] Free & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, formed by, a spectroscope spectroscopically, adv Free & -ly By means of a spectroscope spectroscopist, n [1 spéktróskópist, 2 spéktróskópist] See prec & -ist Student of, one learned in, spectroscopy spectroscopy, n [1 spéktróskóp, 2 spéktróskóp] See prec & -y 1 Use of the spectroscope 2 Science of spectral phenomena and analysis spectrum, n, pl spectra [1 spéktrum, 2 spéktrá(m)] Lat spectrum 'form, image', formed fr spec (um), PP type of specere, 'to look', see species 1 Image presented by a ray of light which has passed through, and been broken up by, a prism, consisting of a series of bands of the different colours forming the constituents of the ray, spectrum analysis, chemical analysis carried out by examination of the spectrum of a compound, also spectral analysis 2 Image retained by the retina of the eye, after the object which caused the stimulus to the optic nerve is removed, after image spectular, adj [1 spékulár, 2 spékulár] fr Lat specular (is), 'of the nature of a mirror' See speculum & -ar Of, pertaining to, having the property of a speculum specular iron, lustrous variety of hematite speculate vb intrans [1 spékulát, 2 spékulát] fr Lat speculatio (um) PP type of speculari 'to observe, examine', fr specula, 'watch tower', fr base spec*, 'to look at', see specious 1 To consider, form theory about, ruminate, ponder, meditate to speculate concerning the future life 2 To invest money in uncertain security, under circumstances involving risk of loss or possibility of gain to speculate in mining shares speculation, n [1 spékulášun, 2 spékulášun] fr Lat, speculatio (em), 'observation, contemplation'. speculate & -ion

1 Act or process of speculating mentally

2 a Theory, opinion, arrived at by speculation, b conjecture unconfirmed hypothesis

3 Investment of money in hope of gain but with risk of loss to engage in speculation, to buy land &c, as a speculation 4 Kind of card game speculative, adj [1 spékulatív, 2 spékulativ] speculate & -ive 1 Pertaining to, derived from, given to, mental speculation 2 Of the nature of, given to, financial speculation, hence, risky, uncertain speculatively, adv Free & -ly In a speculative manner speculativeness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being speculative speculator, n [1 spékulátor, 2 spékulátor] speculate & -or Person engaging in speculation, esp in finance speculum, n [1 spékulum, 2 spékulum] Lat speculum, 'mirror', fr spec (era), 'to look at', see species, & -ule 1 (med) Instrument for dilating a cavity &c, of the body, to facilitate the inspection of the interior 2 Mirror, usually of polished metal, used as reflector in telescopes &c 3 (ornth) Patch of distinct colour on bird's wing speculum-metal, n Hard alloy of copper and tin, capable of taking a brilliant polish, used for making the speculum of a telescope speed, vb [1 spéd, 2 spéd] OE spēde, ME spēde Pret & PP of speed (II)

speech, n [1 spéch, 2 spit] OE sp(r)æc, ME spēche, op OHG sprihha, OS spriha, O Bris sprihe, in gradational relation to OE specan, 'to speak', wh has also the type spēc in Pret pl See speak 1 a The expression of ideas and thoughts by means of articulate sounds produced by the vocal organs, language, Phr figure of speech, see figure, b the faculty of thus expressing ideas and thoughts 2 A particular form of language used by the people of a given country, a tongue, a language English speech, the native speech of Ireland, b manner of speaking, dialect, jargon, in vogue among a limited section of this community the speech of the proletariat, c mode of utterance, articulation, enunciation his speech was very indistinct 3 Act of speaking speech is silver, silence is golden Phr to have speech of (a person), to converse with 4 A formal public utterance, an address, harangue 5 Sound produced by musical instrument, esp organ or organ pipe speech basis, n (philol) The group of mental and physical habits, esp habits of using the vocal organs, peculiar to an individual speaker, or to those speakers of a given language or dialect speech-day, n Annual school celebration at which prizes are presented &c speechification, n [1 spēchifikášun, 2 spitifikášun] See speechify & -fication Act of speechifying speechifier, n [1 spēchifier, 2 spitifikášun] Next word & -er Person given to speechifying speechify, vb intrans [1 spēchif, 2 spitifikášun] speech & -ify (contemptuous or facet) To make (public) speeches, esp to make long, or frequent, speeches speechifying, n [1 spēchifing, 2 spitifikášun] Free & -ing Act of making speeches, the making of long or frequent speeches do not let us have too much speechifying after dinner speechless, adj [1 spēchles, 2 spitifikášun] speech & -less 1 Lacking the faculty of speech dumb 2 Not actually speaking at a given moment, temporarily unable to speak he remained speechless the whole evening, speechless with indignation (slang) dead drunk 3 Not expressed, not expressible in speech speechless fear, grief &c speechlessly, adv Free & -ly In a speechless manner, without speaking speechlessness, n See prec & -ness State of being speechless speech-maker, n Person who makes a speech, one given to making speeches speech-reading, n Interpretation of speaker's words by observation of movements of mouth &c, as practised by the deaf &c, lip-reading speech-sound, n Single articulate sound produced by the vocal organs and forming an element of languages speed (I), n [1 spéd, 2 spid] OE spēd, fr spēdi*, 'success, prosperity', ME spēd, 'speed', op OS spēd, OHG spuoc, 'success', cogn w OE spōwan, OHG spuon, 'to prosper, succeed', op further O Slav spěja, 'to be successful', spěti, 'to hasten', Lith spėti, 'to be able', Scot spēdhai, 'increases', spēdai, 'spread out, broad', Lat spatium, 'extent' See space 1 (obs, except in archaic Phr) To wish good speed (to), God send you, give you, good speed, prosperity, luck, success 2 Quick motion, swiftness, rapidity to move with incredible speed, at full speed 3 Rate of motion, velocity with gradually increasing speed, at a reasonable speed speed (II), vb trans & intrans, fr OE spēdan, 'to succeed, make successful', fr spēd, 'success' See prec A trans 1 a To wish good luck, or success to speed the parting guest, b to help forward, be propitious to, give, grant, success to God speed you, 'What racks it them? What need they? They are sped' = they have succeeded, have got what they want (Milton, 'Lycidas', 122) 2 To accelerate, increase speed of, also speed up B intrans 1 To go with speed, to move swiftly forward, to hasten, hurry a boat speeds across the waves, the arrow sped forth on its flight 2 To make progress, fare, get on, to prosper how have you sped?

speeder, n [1 spēder, 2 spide] speed & -er Attachment to machine for regulating or increasing its speed speedily, adv [1 spēdih, 2 spidih] speedy & -ly In a speedy manner, rapidly, promptly speediness, n [1 spēdimes, 2 spidimes] See prec & -ness Haste, rapidity, promptitude speed-limit, n Legal limit of speed at which a vehicle, esp a motor, may travel speedometer, n [1 spēdómeter, 2 spidómíto] speed & o -meter Instrument which registers the speed at which a vehicle, esp a motor, is travelling speedway, n [1 spēdwe, 2 spidwe] Publio track for motor cycle racing, dirt track speedwell, n [1 spēdwe, 2 spidwe] Genus Veronica, of low growing herbs, with small, blue, pink, or white flowers speedy, adj [1 spēdi, 2 spidi] OE spēdh, 'prosperous', ME spēth speed & -y 1 Characterized by swiftness of motion, rapid, quick a speedy flight 2 Undelayed, prompt, made or occurring soon a speedy recovery, return, retribution &c spess, n [1 spis, 2 spais], fr Germ speise, 'food, meal, amalgam of metal', fr Mad Lat spesa, 'food, provisions', fr Lat expensa 'disbursement' See exposse Arsenical compound of copper, iron, nickel, &c produced in smelting certain ores spelaeon, adj [1 spēlan, 2 spilan], fr Lat spelaeon (um), fr Gk spelaeon, 'cave', cp Gk spelagz, spelos, 'cave', etymol doubtful Of, pertaining to, inhabiting, a cave spelaeology, n [1 spēlógi, 2 spilógi] See prec & -logy The science or study of caves spelikan, n [1 spēlikan, 2 spēlikan] See spilikan spell (I), n [1 spel, 2 spel] OE spell, 'saying, narrative, discourse', op OHG spel, ON spjall, Goth spill, 'tale, saying', Goth spilōn, OHG spellōn, 'to tell', possibly cogn w Lat appellare, 'to speak to', see appeal, Gk apellē, 'threat', cp second element of gospel 1. Magical formula, incantation, charm 2. Irresistible fascination, sway, overpowering attraction under the spell of beauty, eloquence &c spell (II), vh trans & intrans, fr O Fr espeler, fr LG spellen, 'to say', cogn w O E spellan, 'to tell, narrate', spell, 'tale'. See prec. A trans 1 To name, or write, in succession, the letters used to express (a word) in writing. to spell a word, how do you spell your name?, is 'harass' spell with one r or two?, spell out, (i) to decipher slowly and with difficulty, (ii) (as direction to printer) spell in full, not in contracted form 2 (of letters) To form a word when arranged in specific order. O-N-E, spells 'one' 3 To involve, result in, have as consequence, signify such an error spells the ruin of our hopes B intrans To put down, or mention the right letters of a word in the right order, to express words in writing, in the correct, recognized, conventional manner learn to spell, we do not pronounce as we spell spell (III), n, fr next word 1 Single period, hour, turn, of activity, esp as coming in rotation to take a spell at the oars, a spell of work 2 Short period, interval, brief space, a season to sleep for a spell, a spell of fine weather spell (IV), vh trans O E spelian, 'to act, deputize, for another', prob related to spulan, 'to play', cogn w OHG spulan, O N spila, 'to play', O Fris spil, spel, 'sport, game' (rare) To take turns with in working, give temporary relief from duty to spell-binder, (U S slang) Speaker able to hold an audience spell-bound spell-bound, adj a Overcome by, or as by, a spell, fascinated, entranced, hence b smazed, dumbfounded speller, n [1 spéler, 2 spéla] spell (II) & -er 1 One who spells, (usually qualified) a good, careless, speller &c 2 Spelling-book spelling, n [1 spéling, 2 spélin] spell (II) & -ing 1 Act of naming or writing down in order the letters which express a word graphically 2 Way in which a word is spelt an incorrect -pelling, variant spellings spelling-bee, n Competitive exercise in spelling spelling-book, n Book of exercises for teaching children to spell spelt, n [1 spelt, 2 spelt] O E spelt, op OHG spēla, Lat spelta is prob a loan-word fr Gmc Kind of wheat, resembling both wheat and barley, grown in the mountains of Switzerland, Germany, and Spain, German wheat spelter, n [1 spéltér, 2 spéltér] fr LG spialter, 'pewter', op Du spialter, porh cogn w pewter Zinc spence, spense, n [1 spens, 2 spens] ME spens, spence, fr O Fr spense, ahhr fr despense See disburse (archaic) Larder, pantry spencer (I), n [1 spenser, 2 spensa] Named after Earl Spencer, d 1845 1 Short overcoat, esp of early 19th cent 2 Short woollen jacket spencer (II), n Etymol unknown (naut) 'Trysail'

Spencerian, adj & n [1 spensérian, 2 spensérian] fr Herbert Spencer (1820-1903), & -ian adj Pertaining to, connected with, Herbert Spencer or his synthetic philosophy, h n, a follower of Herbert Spencer

Spencerianism, n [1 spensérianizm, 2 spensérianizm] prec & -ism Philosophical doctrines and system of Herbert Spencer

Spencerism, n [1 spensérianizm, 2 spensérianizm] See prec & -ism Spencerianism spend, vb trans & intrans [1 spend, 2 spend] O E spendan, fr Lat dispendere, 'to weigh out', fr dis- & pendere, 'to weigh, pay out, to ponder' See pendant A trans 1 To give out in payment, pay out, for thing(s) bought to spend a penny on sweets, how much have you spent? 2 To use up gradually, consume, expend to spend one's efforts, strength, to no purpose, h to pass to spend one's life, the time, to spend a sleepless night 3 To wear out, exhaust, consume work itself out to spend one's strength, the storm has spent itself, also (archaic) this night is far spent, far advanced 4 (naut) To lose to spend a mast B intrans 1 To pay out, disburse money 'Getting, and spending, we lay waste our powers' (Wordsworth) 2 (of fish &c) To emit spawn spendable, adj [1 spendahl, 2 spendahl] prec & -able Capable of being spent, available for spending spender, n [1 spéndor, 2 spénda] spend & -er One who spends money a lavish spender spendthrift, n & adj [1 spén(d)thrift, 2 spén(d)prift] 1 n One who spends lavishly, and extravagantly, a wastrel, a prodigal, a squandor 2 adj Characteristic of a spendthrift, extravagant, prodigal, thriftless spendthrift lavishness spense, n See spence

Spenserian, adj [1 spensérian, 2 spensérian] fr Edmund Spenser (1552-99) & -ian Pertaining to, characteristic of, Edmund Spenser, esp Spenserian stanza, that used in the Faerie Queene, consisting of nine lines, the first eight having ten syllables, the last being an alexandrine spent, adj [1 spént, 2 spént] fr PP of spend 1 Worn out by effort, exhausted, spent bullet &c, with speed reduced after traversing distance 2 (of fish &c) Having deposited spawn sperm (I), n [1 spérm, 2 spím] fr Fr spérme, fr Lat sperma, fr Gk spérma, 'seed, germ, sperm', cogn w Gk sperein, 'to sow', spór, 'sowing', sporas, 'scattered, sparse' See also spray & words there referred to Male generative substance sperm (II), n Abbr of spermaceti 1 Also sperm whale, whale yielding spermaceti 2 Spermaceti spermaceti, n [1 spérmaseti, 2 spármaseti] fr Lat sperma, 'sperm', see sperm (I), & ceti, gen of cetus, 'whale', see cetacean White, waxy substance obtained from the oil in the head of the sperm whale, used as basis for ointments, and in making candles &c spermary, n [1 spérmari, 2 spármari] sperm & -ary Male generative gland spermatic, adj [1 spérmatik, 2 spármatik] fr Gk spérmatik, stem of spérma, 'sperm' See sperm (I) & -ic 1 Pertaining to, containing, sperm 2 Pertaining to the spermary spermatism, n [1 spérmatism, 2 spármatism] See spermatio & -ism 1 Discharge of seminal fluid 2 Spermism spermatist, n [1 spérmatist, 2 spármatist] See prec & -ist Spermist spermatize, vb intrans [1 spérmatiz, 2 spármatiz] See spermatio & -ize To emit seminal fluid spermato-, pref representing Gk spermat, stem of sperma, 'seed, sperm' See sperm (I) spermatoblast, n [1 spérmatoblásth, 2 spármatoblásth] prec & Gk blasté, 'bud, sprout', see blastoderm Cell from which spermatoozon develops spermatogenesis, n [1 spérmatogénésis, 2 spármatogénésis] See prec & genesis Development of spermatoozon spermatogenous, adj [1 spérmatojenús, 2 spármatogénús] fr spermatio & base gen, 'produce', see genesis, & -ous Producing sperm spermatogeny, n [1 spérmatogéni, 2 spármatogéni] See prec & -y Formation of sperm spermatological, adj [1 spérmatológik, 2 spármatológik] See next word & -ic & -al Pertaining to spermatology spermatologist, n [1 spérmatológist, 2 spármatológist] Next word & -ist Student of spermatology spermatology, n [1 spérmatológí, 2 spármatológí] spermatio & -logy Branch of biology treating of the properties and character of the male generative principle spermatophore, n [1 spérmatofór, 2 spármatofór] spermatio & -phore Case containing spermatoozon in some invertebrates spermatorrhoea, n [1 spérmatorrhéa, 2 spármatorrhéa] spermatio & rheo- Involuntary emission or flow of sperm spermatoozal, adj [1 spérmatózál, 2 spármatózál] See spermatoozon & -al

Spermatoozon, adj [1 spérmatózón, 2 spármatózón] See next word & -an Spermatozoan spermatoozon, n, pl spermatoozoa [1 spérmatózón, 2 spármatózón] spermatio & Gk zōon, 'animal' See zoo- One of the germ cells forming the fertilizing elements in the semen of male animals spermism, n [1 spérmizm, 2 spármizm] sperm (I) & -ism Theory that the spermatozoan contains the complete germ of the future animal spermist, n [1 spérmist, 2 spármist] sperm (I) & -ist Adherent of the theory of spermism spermio-, pref representing Gk sperm (a), 'seed' See sperm (I) Seed, sperm spermoblast, n [1 spérmohlásth, 2 spármohlásth] prec & Gk blasté, 'bud' See blastoderm Spermatoblast spermological, adj [1 spérmológik, 2 spármológik] spermatology & -ic & -al Pertaining to spermatology spermologist, n [1 spérmológist, 2 spármológist] Next word & -ist Student of spermatology spermatology, n [1 spérmológí, 2 spármológí] spermatio & -logy 1 Spermatology 2 Branch of botany treating of seeds sperm-whale, n Large whale or cachalot, the head of which contains spermaceti spew, spue, vb intrans & trans [1 spú, 2 spýd] O E spēowan, ME spēwen, 'to vomit, to spit', op Germ speien, O N spjja, Gk phuein, Lat spuere, Lath spiaufu, 'to spit' Prob imitative A intrans 1 To vomit 2 (of gun) To sink at the muzzle after too quick firing B trans To vomit up, eject sphacelate, vb trans & adj [1 sfaselát, 2 sfaselot] fr Gk sphalei (as), 'gangrene, convulsive movement, spasm', prob fr Aryan base sphē*, sphō*, 'to stretch, draw out', op parallel base spē* (a) &c See space 1 vh (of flesh or bone) To be affected with necrosis, to mortify, becomes gangrenous 2 adj Mortified, gangrenous sphacelation, n [1 sfaseláshun, 2 sfaseláshun] prec & -ion Mortification, necrosis sphaer(o)-, pref representing Gk sphair (a), 'ball, sphere', op Gk spháron, 'ankle', sperein, 'to move convulsively, gasp', Lath spírū, 'I knock', Sort sphurati, 'to knock, trample', Lat spernere, 'to reject, spurn', O E spurnan, 'to spurn', see spurn, fr base sp(h)er-, sp(h)eré, 'muscular contraction, tension, spasmodic movement', fr sp(h)ē* &c, 'to stretch or spread out' See space, spasm Spherical shape, esp in botanical terms, eg sphaerella, a genus of fungi sphagnum, n [1 sfaǵnum, 2 sfaǵnum] fr Gk sphagn (os), sphalos, 'kind of fragrant moss', also, 'sage', prob named fr the astringent properties of the latter, op Gk sphallos, 'convulsive movement, gangrene' See sphacelate Gen sphagnum moss, genus of mosses, peat moss sphen(o)-, pref representing Gk sphén, 'wedge', cogn w Sort sphayad, 'splinter of wood', O N spānn, OHG spān, 'splinter', O E spōn, 'chip, shaving', MHG spā, 'splinter', cogn w spathe 1 Wedge-shaped 2 Of the sphenoid bone sphenocapital, adj [1 sfenokápitl, 2 sfnokápitl] prec & occipital Of the sphenoid and occipital bones.

sphenocephalous, adj [1 sfenóséfalus, 2 sfnóséfalus] sphen(o)- & -cephalous Having a wedge shaped head sphenogram n [1 sfénogám, 2 sfínougrám] sphen(o)- & -gram Cuneiform character sphenographic, adj [1 sfénográfik, 2 sfínougráfik] See prec & -graphic Of, pertaining to, written in, cuneiform characters sphenography, n [1 sfénográfi, 2 sfínougráfí] See prec & -graphy Cuneiform writing sphenoid, adj & n [1 sfénoid, 2 sfínoid], fr Gk sphén, 'wedge', see sphen(o)-, & -oid 1 adj a Wedge shaped, esp sphenoid bone, large bone at base of skull, b of the sphenoid bone 2 n (anat) Sphenoid bone sphenoidal, adj [1 sfénoidl, 2 sfínoidl] prec & -al Of, pertaining to, the sphenoid bone sphenoido-, pref representing sphenoid & -o Of the sphenoid bone, eg sphenoidoparietal, of the sphenoidal and parietal diameters of the skull sphere (I), n [1 sfér, 2 sféra], fr Lat sphaera, fr Gk sphaira, 'ball, globe, sphere' See sphaero- 1 A Solid figure of such a form that every point on its surface is equidistant from a fixed point (the centre) within, doctrine of the sphere, spherical geometry and trigonometry 2 Any completely or approximately spherical solid, ball, globe, especially one of the heavenly bodies, b globe representing the earth or the apparent surface of the heavens, c one of the spherical, hollow bodies, revolving round the earth, in which ancient astronomers believed the heavenly bodies to be enclosed, esp music of the spheres, produced by movements of the spheres 3 A Celestial sphere, spherical surface on which the heavenly bodies appear to be set, b (poet.) sky, heavens 4 A scope, range, compass, province, field of action, knowledge, or influence, b normal circumstances, condition of life, social circle to remain in one's proper sphere sphere (II), vb trans, fr prec To enclose in, form into, a sphere spheric, adj & n [1 sférik, 2 sférik], fr Gk sphairik-(ós), 'spherical' sphere (I) & -ic 1 adj a (poet.) Connected with, pertaining to, the heavenly bodies, celestial, b spherical 2 n (pl) Spherical geometry and trigonometry spherical, adj [1 sférik, 2 sférik] prec & -al 1 Shaped like a sphere round, globular 2 Pertaining to spheres spherical geometry, spherical triangle, polygon &c, on the surfaces of spheres and bounded by arcs of great circles spherically, adv prec & -ly In spherical form sphericity, n [1 sférisiti, 2 sférisiti] spheric & -ity State of being a sphere spheriform, adj [1 sférfórm, 2 sférfórm] sphere (I) & -ic & -form Shaped like a sphere spherograph, n [1 sférogáfí, 2 sférogáfí] sphere (I) & -o & -graph Device for finding spherical triangles spheroid, n [1 sféroid, 2 sféroid] fr Gk sphaeroides, 'spherical' sphere (I) & -oid Solid generated by revolution of an ellipse about either of its axes, body which is nearly but not quite spherical, prolate, oblate, spheroid, slightly lengthened, slightly flattened, sphere spheroidal, adj [1 sféroidl, 2 sféroidl] prec & -al Of, pertaining to, shaped like, a spheroid spheroidally, adv See prec & -ly In a spheroidal manner spheroidal(ity), adj [1 sféroidik(í), 2 sféroidik(í)] spheroid & -ic (& -al) Spheroidal spheroidicity, n [1 sféroidisiti, 2 sféroidisiti] prec & -ity State of being a spheroid spherometer, n [1 sférométer, 2 sférfórméter] sphere (I) & -o & -meter Instrument for measuring curvature or radius of spherical surface or body spherular, adj, [1 sféroular, 2 sféridl] spherula & -ar Of, pertaining to, shaped like a sphere spherulate, adj [1 sféroulat, 2 sféridl] Next word & -ate Of pertaining to, bearing spherulites spherule, n [1 sféroul, 2 sféridl], fr Lat sphaerula, 'small ball' sphere (I) & -ule Minute sphere spherulite, n [1 sféroulité, 2 sféridlité] prec & -ite Spherical group of minute crystals found in siliceous rock spherulitic, adj [1 sférouliték, 2 sféridliték] prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, containing, spherulites spherulitize, vb trans [1 sféroulítez, 2 sféridlítez] spherulite & -ize To form into spherulites sphery, adj [1 sféri, 2 sféri] sphere (I) & -y 1 Pertaining to, resembling, a sphere 2 (poet.) Belonging to the heavens, celestial sphincter, n [1 sfíngktér, 2 sfíngktér] Lat sphincter, fr Gk sphingktér, 'hind', cp Gk sphingx, 'to bind tightly', sphigma, 'knot', sphigx, 'sphinx', prob a nasalized form of base sp(h)eg* &c, expanded fr sp(h)é(s)-* &c, 'to stretch' See spasm, space, speed Muscular ring surrounding an orifice of the body and serving to close it sphincteral, adj [1 sfíngktérol, 2 sfíngktérol] prec & -al Of, pertaining to, a sphincter sphincterial, adj [1 sfíngktériál, 2 sfíngktériál] sphincter & -ial Sphincteral sphincterio, adj [1 sfíngktériok, 2 sfíngktériok] sphincter & -ic Sphincteral sphinx, n [1 sfíngks, 2 sfíngks] Lat sphinx, fr Gk sphigx, 'sphinx', qv under sphincter 1 (cap, Gk. mythol) Monster, usually represented with a woman's head and the body of a winged lion, who sat on a rock near Thebes and straggled all passers by who could not solve the riddle which she put to them 2 (cap) Egyptian sculptured figure of wingless lion with head of man, ram, or hawk, esp the Sphinx, colossal, human headed sphinx of Gizeh 3 (fig) Person of mysterious or enigmatic character, inscrutable person 4 (zool.) a Hawk moth, b Guinea baboon sphinx-like, adj Resembling a sphinx sphinx-moth, n Hawk moth sphragistics, n [1 sféragístik, 2 sféragístik], fr Gk sphragístik-(ós), 'of seals', fr sphragízō, 'I seal', fr sphragízō, 'seal, signet ring, on engraved stone' Etymol. unknown. Study of engraved seals sphygmio, adj [1 sfígmik, 2 sfígmik] See sphygmio- & -ic Pertaining to, resembling the action of the pulse sphygmio-, pref representing sphygmus & -o Pulse sphygmogram, n [1 sfígmogám, 2 sfígmogám] prec & -gram Graphic record of pulse beats made by a sphygmograph sphygmograph, n [1 sfígmogáfí, 2 sfígmogáfí] sphygmio- & -graph Instrument recording the force and rate of the pulse and its variations sphygmographio, adj [1 sfígmogáfíok, 2 sfígmogáfíok] sphygmio- & -graphic Pertaining to, recorded by, sphygmography sphygmography, n [1 sfígmogáfí, 2 sfígmogáfí] sphygmio- & -graphy A Use, art of using, the sphygmograph, b study of sphygmograms sphygmology, n [1 sfígmológí, 2 sfígmológí] sphygmio- & -logy The study of the pulse sphygmometer, n [1 sfígmóméter, 2 sfígmóméter] sphygmio- & -meter Instrument for measuring blood pressure in the arteries sphygmophone, n [1 sfígmofón, 2 sfígmofón] sphygmio- & -phone Instrument for making the pulse beat audible sphygmoscope, n [1 sfígmóskóp, 2 sfígmóskóp] sphygmio- & -scope Instrument representing the pulse beat in visible form sphygmus, n [1 sfígmós, 2 sfígmós] Mod Latinized form of Gk sphigmós, 'pulsation', cp Gk spizem, to beat, pulsate, dsphul, 'pulsus, lifeless', prob fr a variant spiz*, of the base spiz* &c seen in Gk spizelos, 'convulsive movement' See sphasinate Pulse spica, n [1 spíka, 2 spáika] Lat spica, 'ear of corn', op Lat spina, 'thorn', cogn w Lett spile, 'wooden fork', ML Du spicher, 'nail', ON spilr, 'spike, nail', see spike, O HLG spénala, 'needle', O E spini, 'spindle', see spindle Cp further O E spila, 'spit', see spt (I), Lath spina, 'tongue of buckle', Lat pinna, 'pinnacle', see pinna, fr baso sp*, sp*, 'point' 1 (bot) Spikes, flower-spikes 2 (surg) Spiral bandage with turns arranged in herring bone pattern spicate(d), adj [1 spíkat, spíkatd, 2 spáikéit, spáikéitd] prec & -ate & -ed (bot) Arranged in form of, forming, consisting of, a spike spice (I), n [1 spís, 2 spáis], fr O Fr espice, espice, fr Lat speciēs, 'kind, sort' See species 1 A pungent, aromatic preparation, usually dried, of vegetable root, seed, &c, used for flavouring, b spices collectively 2 (fig) Quality, feature, giving a characteristic touch or flavour a spice of malice in one's words, a spice of the devil in one's character spice (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To flavour with spice 2 (fig) To give a characteristic tinge or piquancy to spice-box, n Box in which spices are kept, esp ornamental box of china &c spicebush, n [1 spíshoosh, 2 spáishuf] Aromatic American shrub, Lindera Benzoin, of the laurel family spicery, n [1 spíséri, 2 spáiséri] spice & -ery Spices generally spicewood, n [1 spíswud, 2 spáiswud] Spicebush spicily, adv [1 spásh, 2 spáishí] spicy & -ly In a spicy manner spiciness, n [1 spáinis, 2 spáishinis] spicy & -ness State or quality of being spicy, pungency spick and span, adj [1 spík en(d) spán, 2 spík en(d) spén] Formerly spick and span, prob variant of spike & spoon = new and fresh as a chip or spike just made Very smart, fresh, end spruce, bright, clean, and tidy he looked very spick and span, the whole place is thoroughly spick and span spicular, adj [1 spíklár, 2 spíkljúl] spicule & -ar Having the shape of, covered with spicules spiculate, adj [1 spíkulát, 2 spíkuléit] Next word & -ate Having, covered with, divided into, spicules spicule, n [1 spíkul, 2 spáikjúl], fr Lat spicul-(um), 'small, sharp point, dart, arrow', dum of spica, 'ear of corn', see spica, & -ule Any small, sharply pointed object, specif a (bot) small, secondary spike, b (zool) small, hard, often needle-shaped, granule found in invertebrates, esp as forming skeleton of sponge spicy, adj [1 spísi, 2 spáisi] spice (I) & -y 1 Flavoured or perfumed with spice, pungent, aromatic 2 (fig) Piquant, racy spicy conversation, spicy bits of scandal spider, n [1 spíder, 2 spáida] ME spídre, prob fr earlier spíner*, fr base of spinnar, 'to spin', & agent suff, op Den spínder & see spin 1 A member of the order Araneida, with eight legs in four pairs and body of two segments, furnished with silk glands and spinnerets with which they spin webs for catching insects, thus distinguished from other arachnids, to which class they belong 2 Utensil, framework &c resembling a spider in having long slender legs, specif a trivet b long handled frying pan with feet to support it above a fire spider-catcher, n [1 spíder kacher, 2 spáida kát] Kind of East Indian bird spider-crab, n Sea-crab with long, slender legs spider-like, adj Resembling a spider, esp in having longer than legs spider-line, n Thread of spider's web used in delicate weighing instruments or to form reticle of telescope spider-monkey, n Thin, long legged, long-tailed monkey of S and Central America spider-wasp, n Wasp that provides in its nest a store of spiders &c for its young spider-web, n Web spun by spider to catch flies &c, also spider's web spiderwort, n [1 spiderwört, 2 spaidewört] Plant of the genus Tradescantia, esp American perennial, deep blue variety spidery, adj [1 spidari, 2 spaidari] spider & -y 1 Connected with, pertaining to, a spider, resembling a spider in shape, spidery handwriting, with thin, sprawling strokes 2 Infested with spiders spied, vb [1 spid, 2 spuid] Pret & PP of spy spiegeleisen, n [1 epégl izen, 2 spigl aizen], fr Germ spiegel, 'mirror', fr OHG spigal, fr Lat speculum, 'mirror', see speculum, & essen, 'iron', cogn w iron Hard, brittle, white cast iron, containing manganese, used in making steel by Bessemer process spiff(f)icate, vb trans [1 epifikkät, 2 spiffik-est] Etymol unknown (slang) A To squash, scotch, b to confound, disconcert spiff(f)ication, n [1 epifikkäshun, 2 spiffiké-[-en]] Prec & -ion Act of spifficating, state of being spifficated spigot, n [1 epigut, 2 spigat] In ME, pesh fr Provenc espigot, 'ear of corn', fr Lat spica, 'ear', see spica, & dimin euff Small plug for stopping air hole in a caulk, vent peg spike (I), n [1 spik, 2 spak] Partly fr Lat spica, 'ear of corn', see spica, chiefly fr ON spik, 'nail', op OHG speihha, OE spāca, 'spoke', see spoko (I), Lett spīša, 'bayonet', M Du spicher, 'nail' See also spire, spindle 1 Any tapering, sharp-pointed rod, har, projection, specif a a sharp-pointed metal projection on top of wall, railing &c, b on soles of shoes &c to prevent slipping 2 Strong, stout metal nail, esp as used in fixing railway lines 3 Steel pin or stopper used for plugging vent of cannon 4 Ear of corn 5 (bot) Inflorescence consisting of small sessile flowers arranged about an axis 6 (slang) A High-Churchman, a ritualist spike (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To provide, furnish, set, with spike(s) spiked shoes, a spiked pole 2 To stop up vent of (cannon) with spike Phr (fig) to spike a person's guns, to upset, frustrate, his plans, bring his devices to naught 3 To pierce, fix, impale, with spike spike-lavender, n French lavender, from which spike oil is obtained spikelet, n [1 spiklet, 2 spdiklet] spike (I) & -let Small spike, esp (bot) secondary spike of inflorescence spike-nail, n Large nail used for fastening thick planks together spikenard, n [1 spiknard, 2 spaidknd] ME spilencard, fr O Fr spiquenard, fr Lat spica nardi, 'spike of nard' See spica, nard 1 Perennial aromatic herb resembling valerian 2 Fragrant, costly ointment anciently prepared from this herb 3 Kind of aromatic, vegetable oil spike-oil, n Oil obtained from a species of lavender spike-plank, n Platform before mizzen-mast of ship in polar regions spikewise, adv [1 spikwiz, 2 spaikwiz] spike (I) & -wise In the form of a spike spiky, adj [1 spiki, 2 spaki] spike (I) & -y 1 A Set, bristling, with spikes, b (fig, of persons) difficult to deal with, cantankerous, touchy 2 Resembling a spike in form spile (I), n [1 spil, 2 spail] Cp Du spijl, 'bar', Germ speiler, 'askewer', op MHG spille, 'peg', ON spila, 'narrow piece of wood', Cp further Lat spina, 'thorn', see spine, spica, 'ear of corn', see spica See also spoke (I), spire, spindle (II) 1 Timber driven into ground as foundation for building or other erection, pile 2 Wooden spigot, a vent peg spile (II), vb trans, fr prec To pierce hole in (a caulk) for spile, to vent to spile a caulk spiling, n [1 spihing, 2 epailig] Prec & -ing 1 Set of piles for building, spiles collectively 2 (naut) Curve of plank in ship's hull spill (I), vb trans & intrans [1 spil, 2 spil] LOE spillan, 'to destroy', fr ON spilla, op OE spildan, 'to kill', M Dn spillen, spilden, OHG spaltan, 'to split', ON spjald, 'plank', MHG spelte, 'splinter', ME spalden, 'to split, chip' See spall (II) A trans 1 To allow (liquid &c) to splash or run out of vessel, esp unintentionally, permit to escape or be wasted to spill gravy, salt, a glass of milk, on the tablecloth, Phr (slang) to spill the beans, divulge a secret, blow the gaff 2 (colloq) To throw out or off, upset to be spilt from vehicle, horse &c 3 (naut) To empty of wind before reefing &c to spill a sail B intrans (of liquid &c) To flow, splash, be upset, out of a vessel spill (II), n, fr prec (colloq) A fall, esp from a horse or vehicle, a tussle, a tumble spill (III), n Cp OE speld, 'a splinter of wood, a torch', Goth spilda, 'writing-tablet', ON spjald, 'plank', q v under spall (II) A thin, narrow shaving or strip of wood, or paper, used for lighting pipes &c spiller, n [1 epiler, 2 spila] Etymol doubtful Small makeshift seinelet down into larger one to remove the fish spilskin, n [1 epilskin, 2 spilskin], fr ME spelleken, fr M Dn, dimin of spelle, 'pun, peg', prob cogn w OE speld, 'splinter of wood', q v under spall (II) A slender strip of wood, ivory &c used in the game of spilskins, b (pl) the game itself spilling-line, n [1 spiling lin, 2 spiling laun] (naut) Rope used for spilling a square sail spillway, n [1 spilwä, 2 epilwei] spill (I) & -way Passage in a dam to carry off overflow of water spilth, n [1 spilth, 2 spilp] spill (I) & -th (archaic) Surplus, overflow, excess spin (I), vb trans & intrans [1 spin, 2 spin] OE spinnan, ME spinnen, op OHG spinnan, ON spinna, Goth spinnan, 'to spin', cogn w Lith spinti, 'to stretch, draw, tie', O Slav spiti, 'fetter', op further OE spannan, 'to clasp, enfold', see span (I) & further, space, & cp epindile A trans 1 To draw out and twist (yarn, wool, fibre) into threads 2 To make (thread) by spinning, Phrs to spin a yarn, tell a story, to spin out, protract unduly, b (of silkworm &c) to spin a cocoon, to form by exuding silk 3 To cause to revolve rapidly, to whirl, twist, rotate to spin a ball, a top, specif, to spin a coin, to toss up, b (slang) to reject, plough (examination candidate) B intrans 1 To practise the art, engage in occupation of, spinning thread 'the lives of the field toil not, neither do they spin' 2 To revolve rapidly, rotate, turn, on axis Phr to send (person or thing) spinning, to strike forcibly and cause to fall, roll, stagger spin (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of spinning, rapid rotation, whirl, twist given to a ball 2 Short spell of rapid, brisk exercise or movement to go for a spin in a car, on a horse &c spinacenus, adj [1 spindeshus, 2 spindeshes] spinach & -aceous Pertaining to, resembling, spinach spinach, spinage, n [1 spimj, 2 spindj], fr O Fr espinache, fr Span, fr Arab aspanakh, fr Pers Annual garden herb, Spinacia oleracea, with hollow stems, and scabrous, fleshy leaves, used as a vegetable spinach beet, n Vegetable resembling and cooked to look like spinach, but having a different flavour spinal, adj [1 spini, 2 spaini], fr L Lat spinal (is), 'spinal' spine & -al Pertaining to, connected with, the spine spinal injury, curvature &c, spinal column, spine, backbone, spinal cord, structure of nerve-fibres and cells passing down the spinal column and forming an important part of the nervous system spindle (I), n [1 spindi, 2 spindli] OE spint, ME spindle, op OHG spinala, 'spindle', spēnala, 'needle', fr base seen in spine, spike, possibly having orig connexion w spin (I), but in any case associated w it 1 Slender rod on which the thread from the distaff is wound in hand spinning, Phr spindle side, maternal side, female line 2 Rod holding the bobbin of a spinning-machine 3 Rod, pin, shaft, axis, on which anything rotates, e.g. the spindle of a lathe spindle (II), vb intrans, fr prec To grow into, assume, a long slender shape spindle-legged, adj Having long, slender legs spindle-shanked, adj [1 spindli shangkht, 2 spindli shankht] Spindle legged spindle-shanks, n [1 spindli shangkha, 2 spindli shangkha] Spindle shanked person spindle-shaped, adj Shaped like a spindle, in the form of a slender cylinder tapering at both ends spindle-tree, n Shrub, Euonymus, with close-grained wood used for spindles, skewers &c spindle-whorl, n Perforated disk of stone, pottery &c used to weight a spindle spindly, adj [1 spindli, 2 spindli] spindle (I) & -ly Spindle shaped, long and thin spindrift, n [1 epindrit, 2 spindrift] Variant of spoon drift, earlier spoom drift, fr Lat spuma, 'foam', see spume, & drift Spray blown over water from crests of waves, (attrib) spindrift clouds, light, feathery clouds spine, n [1 spin, 2 spain], fr O Fr espine, fr Lat spina, 'thorn, spine, prickle, backbone', fr base *(s)pi-, *(s)pei-, 'point', as in spica, spike &c 1 Bony column composed of series of small bones or vertebrae, jointed together, running from the back of the head to the hips in vertebrates, and in animals other than man, being continued to form the tail 2 Any stiff, pointed, spiky structure on the surface of an animal's body the spines of a porcupine 3 (hot) Sharply pointed, slender projection resulting from modification of a leaf or other organ, thorn the spines of a fir tree spinehack, n [1 spinbak, 2 spainbak] Fish with spines on ridge of back spined, adj [1 spind, 2 spaind] spine & -ed Having a spine or spines spinel (I), n [1 spini, 2 spini], fr O Fr espinelle, dimin of espine, 'spine', see spine Kind of vitreous, crystalline mineral, red, blue, green, or brown, spinel ruby, red variety spinel (II), n [1 spini, 2 spini] Origin unknown Lamon yarn used for making tape spineless, adj [1 spini, 2 spaini] spine & -less 1 Having no backbone, invertebrate 2 (fig) Lacking moral backbone, irresolute, lacking in force of character 3 (bot) Without spines spineless cactus spinet, n [1 spini, 2 spini, 2 spinet, 2 spinet], fr M Fr espinelle, fr Ital spinella, dimin of spina, 'thorn, spine', see spine, named fr the quills w wh the strings were plucked, or fr the name of the alleged inventor, G Spinetti, of Venice (c 1600) Small keyboard instrument of 16th, 17th, and 18th cents, ancestor of the harpsichord and piano spini-, pref representing Lat spina, 'thorn, spine, backbone', see spine 1 Back bone 2 Thorn, spine spinocerebrate, adj [1 spini, 2 spini] spin- & cerebro- & -ate Having a brain and spinal cord spiniferous, adj [1 spini, 2 spini] spin- & -ferous Producing spines, thorns spinifex, n [1 spini, 2 spini] Kind of Australian grass with stiff, sharply pointed leaves spiniform, adj [1 spini, 2 spini] spin- & -form Having the shape of a spine, or thorn spininess, n [1 spini, 2 spini] spiny & -ness State or quality of being spiny spinitis, n [1 spinitis 2 spinditis] spini- & -itis Inflammation of the spinal cord spinnaker, n [1 spinnaker, 2 spinake] Possibly connected w spin Large triangular sail carried on the side opposite the mainsail by racing cutters &c when running before the wind spinner, n [1 spiner, 2 spine] spin (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, spins, specif a one who shapes cups &c on a revolving lathe, b spinning machine 2 Spinneret spinneret, n [1 spinneret, 2 spinaret] Pre & -et Silk or thread spinning organ of silk-worm, spider &c spinney, n [1 spinu, 2 spinu] fr O Fr espinoie, fr Lat spinellum, 'thorn hedge, thicket', fr spina, 'thorn', see spine, & op suff in arborum Copse, thicket spinning-house, n [1 spinning hous, 2 spinu] hous (hut) Women's house of correction, the inmates of which were made to spin spinning-jenny, n Machine for spinning several threads at the same time spinning-wheel, n Instrument used for household spinning, with spindle rotated by fly wheel usually worked by a treadle spinose, adj [1 spinos, 2 spinous] fr Lat spinulosus, 'thorny, prickly' spine & -ose Full of, covered with, spines, spiny, prickly spinosity, n [1 spinositi, 2 spinositu] fr L Lat spinositatem, 'thorniness' Pre & -ity State of being spinose spinous, adj [1 spinus, 2 spinas] spine & -ous 1 Having, producing, spines, spinose 2 Having the shape of a spine, spiniform, spinous process, part of vertebra projecting backwards

Spinozoism, n [1 spi, spinozism, 2 spaz, spinouzism] fr Benedict de Spinoza, d. 1677, & -ism Philosophical system of Spinoza

Spinozist, n [1 spin, spinozist, 2 sp(a)nuozist] See pre & -ist Adherent of Spinoza Spinozistic, adj [1 spin, spinozistik, 2 sp(a)nuozistik] Pre & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, Spinozoism spinster, n [1 spinster, 2 spinste] M E spinster, 'woman who spins' spin (I) & -ster Unmarried woman, (popularly) esp elderly unmarried woman spinsterhood, n [1 spinsterhood, 2 spinste-hud] Pre & -hood State of being a spinster spintharscope, n [1 spintharskop, 2 spintharskou] fr Gk spintharis, 'spark', op Gk spinthar, 'spark', Lith spintu, 'to shine, sparkle', Lett spidru, 'to shine', spudra, 'brilliant' & -scope Instrument for exhibiting the scintillations caused by the impact of products of radium disintegration against a screen.

spinule, n [1 spinul, 2 spinull] fr Lat spinula, 'little thorn' epine & -ule Small spine, prickle spinuliferous adj [1 spinuliferus, 2 spinuliferas] Pre & -iferous Bearing spinules spinulose, adj [1 spinulos, 2 spinulous] epinulo & -ose Having, covered with, spinules spinulous, adj [1 spinulus, 2 spinulob] epinulo & -ous Of, like, covered with, small spines spiny, adj [1 spinu, 2 spinu] spine & -y 1 Having, covered with full of, spines, spiny ant eater, echidna, spiny rat, genus of rats of Central and South America with spines among the hair 2 (fig) Difficult, perplexing harassing a spiny subject to discuss spiracle, n [1 spirakl, 2 spirakol] fr Lat spiraculum, 'breathing hole', fr spirare, 'to breathe', see spirant, & -culo External orifice used in respiration, breathing hole, ar-hole, specul. a external opening of trachea of insect, b blow hole of cetacean.

spiracular, adj [1 spirakular, 2 spirakula] fr Lat spiraculum, see pre & -ar Pertaining to, of the nature of, a spiracle spiraculate, adj [1 spirakulat, 2 spirakuleit] fr Lat spiraculum, see pre & -ate Having a spiracle or spiracula.

spiraea, n. [1 spiraea, 2 spauria] Lat spiraea, fr Gk spereia, 'meadow sweet', op Gk spereia, 'spiral, not, tissue', see spire (III) Genus of small rosaceous shrubs or herbs with feathery clusters of small white or pink flowers spiral (I), adj [1 spirakl, 2 spirakol] fr Lat spiralis, 'spiral', fr spira, 'coil', see spire (III), & -al 1 Forming a curve that winds continually about a centre from which it constantly recedes 2 Winding constantly about a centre while undergoing continual change of plane, as on surface of cylinder or cone spiral staircase, spring, thread of screw &c, spiral balance, instrument measuring weight by the torsion of a spiral spring spiral (II), n, fr pre 1 A Spiral curve remaining in one plane, b spiral curve that changes its plane continuously, forming a cone or cylinder 2 Object or series of objects arranged to form a spiral, specif a spiral spring, b spiral or whorled shell spiral (III), vb trans & intrans, fr pre 1 trans To form into, arrange as, a spiral, to make spiral 2 intrans To move in, form, a spiral.

spirality, n. [1 spirality, 2 spirare] fr Lat spiralis, 'spiral', fr spira, 'coil', see spire (III), & -ity State of being spiral spirally, adv [1 spirakl, 2 spirakol] See pre & -ly In a spiral manner, so as to form a spiral.

spirant, n & adj [1 spirant, 2 spirarent] fr Lat spirantem, Pre Part of spirare, 'to breathe, blow', op Lat spiratus, 'breath, spirit', prob fr base spew*, 'to blow', as in O Slav plyti, 'to pipe', see spirit (I) & cp despair 1 n (phon) A consonantal sound formed by a constriction, but not a total closure, of the air passage, so that the air-stream passes continuously, and the sound can be prolonged indefinitely, called also open consonant, contrasted with stop 2 adj Of the nature of a spirant spirated, adj [1 spirated, 2 spiraretid] fr Lat spiratus, 'spirited', fr spira, 'coil', see spire (III), & -ate & -ed Twisted into spiral form spire (I), n [1 spir, 2 spaze] O E, M E spire, 'sprout, spire', op M L G spira, 'point, ear of corn', fr base spi*, 'spira', 'point' Seen also in spike, spine &c 1 Tall, slender prolongation of a tower, which tapers to a point 2 Any of various objects tapering to a point, e.g. flower cluster of this shape, an ear of corn, the upper part of a tapering tree such as a poplar spire (II), vb intrans & trans, fr pre (rare) 1 intrans To taper upwards, shoot up, in a spire 2 trans To furnish with, build with, a spire spire (III), n, fr Fr, fr Lat spira, fr Gk spira, 'coil, twist, braid, net', op Gk spereia, 'fold of a serpent', spereion, 'web, tissue', spereia, 'spirea', op further Gk spartes, 'esparto grass', spuris, 'woven basket', Lith spartes, 'bond' a Spiral coil, esp rising spiral, b single coil or twist of a spiral, whorl

Spirillum, n, pl Spirilla [1 spirillum, -a, 2 spirilla(m)] Mod Lat, dimin of Lat spira, 'coil, twist', see spire (III) A genus of bacteria, of spiral or twisted thread like shape one species is the cause of cholera spirit (I), n. [1 spirit, 2 spirit] M E spirit, fr O Fr esprit, fr Lat spiritus, 'breath, breeze, breath of life, life, soul, mind, spirit, energy, courage, pride, arrogance', fr spirare, 'to breathe', see spirant 1 The life giving principle, breath of life, conceived of as animating the body 2 a The immortal, non material part of, or element in, man, which wills, thinks, and feels, thought of as a gift of God, contrasted with body, intelligence, soul, (translating Gk pneuma, or Lat spiritus, and anima) the spirit shall return to God who gave it, to lead the life of the spirit, b this element or principle thought of as separated from the body, disembodied intelligence the spirits and souls of the righteous, the abode of spirits 3 Life, will, and consciousness thought of as existing apart from matter, and as never being associated with a body, and yet as pervading all things, contrasted with matter God is pure spirit, (specif) the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Trinity, Holy Ghost 4 A materialized, sometimes visible, disembodied spirit, an apparition, specter, ghost are the phenomena of the séance room really the work of spirits? 5 Individual human being, a person, thought of as exhibiting certain qualities of mind, character, disposition Dr Johnson is recognized as one of the greatest spirits of his day 6 Temper, mood, disposition, mental attitude, frame of mind His spirits do not seem to have been high, but they were singularly equable (Macaulay, on Milton), a noble spirit animates all Burke's speeches, to show a mean, a proper, the right, spirit, high spirits, cheerfulness, elation, low spirits, dejection, depression, of mind 7 Vigour, energy of mind and character, liveliness, vivacity, fire, noble pride and courage, contempt for what is mean and base a young man of spirit, a cowardly wretch who shows no spirit, the King faced his accusers with spirit 8 Real meaning, true intention, underlying principle, contrasted with letter he obeyed the true spirit of the law, you must understand this in the spirit in which it was written 9 a A volatile distilled essence, alcohol to burn spirit in a lamp, b spirits, (1) powerful alcoholic drink, (2) any powerful distilled alcoholic liquor anatomical specimens are often preserved in spirits 10 (obs) An aspirate, a rough breathing, translating Lat spiritus asper spirit (II), vb trans, fr pre 1 Usually spirit away, off, to carry off, remove, secretly, swiftly, and mysteriously 2 To give spirit to, animate, cheer spirit-blue, n Kind of aniline dye soluble in alcohol spirit-duck, n Kind of wild duck with unusually rapid dive spirited, adj [1 spirited, 2 spirited] spirit & -ed 1 Vigorous, animated, full of life, spirit, or courage spirited dialogue, a spirited attack, defence, a spirited horse 2 (in compounds) a Having specified character or disposition poor, high spirited, public spirited, b showing specified mood low spirited spiritedly, adv Pre & -ly 1 In a spirited manner 2 (in compounds) In a manner showing specified kind of spirit(s) high-spiritedly spiritedness, n See pre & -ness 1 State or quality of being spirited 2 (in compounds) State of having specified spirit(s) spirit-gum, n Gum dissolved in alcohol, used by actors &c to affix false beard &c spiritism, n [1 spiritism, 2 spiritizam] spirit & -ism 1 Spiritualism 2 Animism spiritist, n [1 spiritist, 2 spiritist] spirit & -ist Believer in spiritism, spiritualist spirit-lamp, n One in which alcohol is burnt spiritless, adj [1 spiritless, 2 spiritless] spirit & -less Lacking spirit, animation, energy, vigour, or courage, listless, apathetic spiritlessly, adv Pre & -ly In a spiritless manner spiritlessness, n Pre & -ness State or quality of being spiritless, listlessness spirit-level, n Glass tube almost completely filled with spirit, and used in surveying &c to show any deviation from the level.

spiritoso, adv [1 spiritoso, 2 spiritosou] Ital. & -oso (mus) With spirit, with animation.

spirit-rapping, n [1 spirit rapping, 2 spirit rapping] a Raps on table &c made at spiritualist seances, as it is alleged, by disembodied spirits, b (loosely) the physical phenomena generally, said to be produced by spirits spirit-room, n Paymaster's storeroom spirit(s) of wine, n [1 spírít(s) uv wín, 2 spírít(s) av wain] Pure alcohol. spirit-stove, n Stove for cooking &c, heated by burning spirit spiritual (I), adj [1 spíríchool, 2 spírítjuél], fr O Fr, fr Lat spirituális, 'of breathing, of the spirit', fr spiritus, 'breath, spirit'. See spirit (I), &-al, see also spirant 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, spirit, contrasted with material, incorporeal spiritual beings 2 a Pertaining to the soul or spirit, connected with the inner life and being, contrasted with physical, carnal, or bodily the spiritual life, spiritual concerns, ideals, spiritual growth, b preoccupied with the things of the spirit, expressing, animated by, thoughts and interests connected with the spirit, not centred in material, or worldly things a spiritual mind, a spiritual face, expression &c 3 Proceeding from, inspired by, the Holy Spirit spiritual gifts, psalms and hymns and spiritual songs 4 Of, pertaining to, the Church or to religion, ecclesiastical as opposed to secular or temporal a spiritual court, Lords Spiritual, peers of Parliament who are bishops spiritual (II), n, fr prec Also negro spiritual, a sacred song or hymn as sung by the negroes in the USA spiritualism, n [1 spíríchoolizm, 2 spírítjuélizm] spiritual (I) &-izm 1 Philosophical theory that spirit is the ultimate reality, idealism 2 a Belief that the spirits of the dead can and do communicate with the living by means of material manifestations, b the system of belief, beliefs collectively, of spiritualists, practices based on these beliefs spiritualist, n [1 spíríchoolíst, 2 spírítjuélíst] spiritual (I) &-íst Bohovert in spiritualism, a in sense 1, b in sense 2 spiritualistic, adj [1 spíríchoolístík, 2 spírítjuélístík] prec &-ic Of, pertaining to, a spiritualist or to spiritualism spirituality, n [1 spíríchoolítá, 2 spírítjuélítá], fr O Fr, fr L Lat spiritualitatem, 'spirituality' spiritual (I) &-ity 1 Quality of being spiritual, spiritual character or nature, contrasted with materiality, carnality &c 2 a The spiritual jurisdiction belonging to the Church or to an ecclesiastical office, b fees and revenues due to the holder, as such, of an ecclesiastical benefice spiritualization, n [1 spíríchoolízashún, 2 spírítjuélízashún] Next word &-ation Act of spiritualizing, state of being spiritualized spiritualize, vb trans [1 spíríchoolíz, 2 spírítjuélíz] spiritual (I) &-ize 1 To render spiritual, to purify, to give a spiritual, elevated, non material character to (a person, belief &c) 2 To give a spiritual meaning to, contrasted with literalize spiritually, adv [1 spíríchoolá, 2 spírítjuélá] spiritual (I) &-ly In a spiritual manner spiritualness, n [1 spíríchoolánes, 2 spírítjuélánes] See prec &-ness State or quality of being spiritual spirituelle, adj [1 spírítuél, 2 spírítjuél] Fr spirituelle, form of spirituel, fr Lat spirituális, 'of a spirit', see spiritual 1 Delicate, graceful, ethereal 2 Delicately and gracefully witty spirituous, adj [1 spírítúus, 2 spírítjuús], fr O Fr spiritueux, fr Lat spiritus, 'breath, spirit', see spirit (I) &-ous Containing a large percentage of alcohol, esp of distilled liquor as distinct from fermented spirituousness, n prec &-ness State or quality of being spirituous spiritus, n [1 spírítus, 2 spírítjús] Lat spiritus, 'breath, (gram) breathing, aspiration', see spirit (Gk gram) Spiritus asper, rough breathing, aspiration, spiritus lenis, smooth breathing spirivalve, adj [1 spíríválv, 2 spíríválv], fr Lat spira, 'coil, spiral', see spire (III), & valve 1 Having a spiral shell 2 (of shell) Spiral, whorled spirket, n [1 spérkot, 2 spákt] Etymol unknown Space between floor-lumbers of a ship, forward and aft spirketing, n [1 spérketiog, 2 spáhting] prec &-ing Part of inside planking of a ship spiro- (I), pref representing Lat spira, 'coil', see spire (III) Spiral, whorled, e.g. Spirochaete, a thread-like bacterium of the genus Spirochaeta, of the Spirillum type, one species, S. pallida, is the cause of syphilis, Spirodela, genus of aquatic plants including the great duckweed spiro- (II), pref representing Lat spir (äre), 'to breathe' See spirant Breath, breathing spiograph, n [1 spírógráf, 2 spáiarougráf] spiro- (II) &-graph Instrument recording movements made in breathing spirometer, n [1 spíróméter, 2 spáiarómítá] spiro- (II) &-méter Instrument for measuring the capacity of the lungs spirometric, adj [1 spírómétrík, 2 spáiarómétrík] prec &-ic Pertaining to, recorded by, a spirometer spirometry, n [1 spírómétrí, 2 spáiarómétrí] spiro- (II) &-métrí The measurement of the breathing capacity of the lungs spirophore, n [1 spírífor, 2 spáiarouf] spiro- (II) &-phore Instrument for inducing artificial respiration spirt (I), spurt, vb intrans & trans [1 spért, 2 spít] Metathesized form of O E spryttan, 'to shoot forth, sprout', op O E sprikan, 'to sprout', see sprout 1 intrans (of liquid) To shoot out, gush out, in a small, sudden jet or stream 2 trans To squirt out, pour out in a sudden jet spirt (II), spurt, n, fr prec See also spurt (I) in special sense Sudden, small, but strong jet or stream of liquid spiry (I), adj [1 spír, 2 spáiar] spira (I) &-y a Of, pertaining to, having the form of, having, a spire, b abounding in spires spiry (II), adj spire (III) &-y Spiral, coiled spit (I), n [1 spít, 2 spít] O E spitu, M E spite, op O H G spiz, M Da spit, epet, op also O H G spizzi, Mod. Germ spitz, 'point', cogn w Lath spitid, 'tongue of a buckle', Lat pinnula, 'pinnacle', bipinnus, 'two-edged', fr base *(s)p(i)d-, *(s)p(i)t-, 'point', expanded fr *(s)p(i)-, *sp-, 'point', see spine, spike 1 Long, thin pointed bar of iron thrust through and supporting meat to be roasted before a fire 2 Long, narrow point of land or sandbank extending into the sea, separating lagoon from sea &c spit (II), vb trans, fr prec To pierce, penetrate, transfix, with, or as with, a spit spit (III), vb intrans & trans O E spittan, M E spitten, fr spit, gradate vocal variant of base in O E spittan, 'to spit', wh is for *sp(i)-jan, earlier *sp(i)-, ultimately related to spew & sputum A intrans 1 a To eject saliva from the mouth, Phr spit upon (fig), to treat, regard, with contempt, b (of an angry cat) to make a noise like that of spitting, or hissing 2 (of boiling liquid, fat &c) To sputter, hiss, spurt out in minute drops 3 To rain intermittently and lightly B trans 1 a Often spit out, to eject from the mouth, to spit blood, cough it up from the lungs or throat, b (vulg) to utter, say, tell, esp in Phr spit it out, out with it 2 To utter violently, as in anger, contempt, malice he spat his words at his hearers spit (IV), n, fr prec 1 Act of spitting 2 Saliva, spittle, Phr the dead spit of (a person), another who resembles him exactly, living image 3 Frothy secretion of certain insects 4 A spittle of rain spit (V), n Prob fr Du spit, 'a spit', op O E spittan, 'to dig' Depth of earth equal to blade of spade spitcheek, n & vb trans [1 spíchkok, 2 spítchkok] Etymol doubtful 1 n Eel split and broiled 2 vb To split and broil (eel, bird &c) spite (I), n [1 spít, 2 spait] Abbr of despite 1 Malice, malevolence, mean or petty hatred the victim of another's spite, to do something out of spite, Phr spite of, in spite of, notwithstanding, in defiance of 2 Cause of dislike or desire to injure, grudge to have a spite against one spite (II), vb trans, fr prec To injure, annoy, through malevolence, to act maliciously towards it is only done to spite me spiteful, adj [1 spítfool, 2 spáitful] spits (I) &-ful Full of, caused by, spite, malicious, malevolent, meanly hostile spitefully, adv prec &-ly In a spiteful manner spitefulness, n See prec &-ness Quality of being spiteful spitfire, n [1 spítfir, 2 spítfas] spit (III) & fire (I) Sharp-tongued person, one given to hasty, biting speech spittle, n [1 spítli, 2 spítli] O E spitl, M E spitel, remodelled on spit (III) Secretions of the glands of the mouth, saliva, esp when ejected spittoon, n [1 spítuon, 2 spítun] spit (III) &-oon Receptacle for saliva ejected by smokers spitz, n [1 spits, 2 spits], fr Germ spitzhund, fr spitz, 'point', q v under spit (I) Also spitz dog, breed of small dog, with narrow, tapering muzzle and long, silky hair, Pom eraman splanchnic, adj [1 oplágnkík, 2 splágnkík], fr Gk splanchna, 'viscera' See next word &-ic Of, pertaining to, the abdominal viscera, esp the intestines splanchno-, pref representing Gk splanchnon, 'viscera', proh cogn w spén, 'spleen', see spleen, cogn w Scrt plāhan-, Lat lien, O Slav elezena, 'spleen' The abdominal viscera splanchnology, n [1 splágnknólógí, 2 splágnknólódí] prec &-logy The science or study of the viscera splanchnoskeleton, n [1 splágnknóskéleton, 2 splágnknóskéleton] splanchno- & skeleton Part of the skeleton surrounding the viscera splanchnotomy, n [1 splágnknótómí, 2 splágnknótámí] splanchno- & -otomy. Dissection of the viscera splash (I), vb trans & intrans [1 splash, 2 splásh] Of imitative origin A trans 1 (of liquid) To scatter, fly about, and fall i drops upon the mud has splashed my dress 2 To cause (liquid) to fly or scatter in drop or small streams to splash one on to one's fingers 3 To cause liquid to scatter or fall in drops upon to splash a page with ink 4 To achieve, effect, by splashing to splash one's way through the mud 5 To adorn with scattered ornament irregularly placed B intrans 1 (of liquid) To fly about, scatter, in drops or small streams, esp as result of sudden pressure of falling body the mud splashed up at every step 2 To strike liquid so as to cause it to fly or scatter in drops 3 To pass, go, so as to cause splashing to splash through the stream splash (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of splashing to fall into water with a splash Phr to make a splash, to create a sensation by display &c 2 Sound produced by splashing 3 A Spot, streak, or patch of liquid splashed on to a surface a splash of ink on the carpet, b patch or streak of colour on a surface 4 Kind of white face powder splash-board, n Screen or guard protecting passengers in a vehicle from splashes caused by wheels &c splasher, n [1 splásher, 2 splásh] splash (I) &-er 1 One who, that which, splashes 2 Screen &c giving protection from splashes, specif a splash board, b mudguard over wheel of locomotive, c curtain &c. protecting wall behind wash stand splashy, adj [1 spláshí, 2 spláshí] splash &-y Liable to splash, wet, muddy splatter, vb intrans & trans [1 spláter, 2 splátá] Variant of spatter A intrans split-moss, n Family of mosses whose seed-capsules split open when ripe split peas(s), n Peas shelled, dried, and split in halves for cooking split shot, stroke, n (croquet) Stroke by which two balls are driven in different directions splitter, n [1 splitter, 2 splita] split (I) & -er One who, that which, splits, sometimes in compounds, e.g. side splitter sploche, n [1 sploj, 2 splozdj] Variant of next word Irregular patch, smear, blotch, splash splootch, n [1 splooch, 2 sploctj] Cp OE, ME sploč, 'spot', but perf a blend of spot & splash Sploche sploctchy, adj [1 splocthy, 2 sploctj] Prec & -y Marked with sploches splurge, n & vb intrans [1 splərg, 2 splɪdʒ] Prob imitative (colloq, slang) 1 n Ostentatious, obtrusive display 2 vb To show off, make a splurge sputter (I), vb intrans & trans [1 spʌtər, 2 spʌtə] Variant of sputter 1 intrans a To eject, throw off, liquid, saliva &c with succession of spitting sounds, to eputter, b to speak hastily and indistinctly, as from anger or other form of excitement 2 trans To utter in a sputtering manner sputter (II), n, fr prec Sputtering noise sputterer, n [1 sputterer, 2 spʌtərə] See prec & -er One who splutters Spode, n [1 spɒd, 2 spɒd] Name of maker, Josiah Spode (1754-1827), of Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire Also Spode ware, a highly decorated form of chinaware spoil (I), n [1 spɔɪl, 2 spɔɪl] ME spoile, fr O Fr espoille, fr Lat spoliūm, 'skin or hide stripped from animal, arms taken from defeated enemy, prey, booty', cogn w Gk spolēs, 'flayed skin, leather jerkin', Sort phlōdā, 'ploughshare', O Slav plěg, 'to weed out' 1 Property, goods, taken by violence, loot, plunder, booty the thieves escaped with their spoil, (also in pl) the spoils of war 2 (fig) Profit, benefit, arising from contest with, or effort against, another, (esp of USA) public offices and their emoluments given by political party as rewards to their adherents, spoils system, political service given in hope of reward spoil (II), vb trans & intrans, fr ME spoilen, fr O Fr espoillier, fr Lat spoliāre, 'to strip, rob, plunder', fr spoliūm, 'spoil', see prec A trans 1 (archaic) To take spoils from, plunder, rob with violence to spoil the Egyptians 2 a (of physical effect) To injure, impair, do harm to, to injure the appearance of, to detract from the beauty, value, or usefulness of the fresh paint has been spoiled by the rain, the picture is spoiled by too much detail, the damp has spoiled my watch, don't spoil your new clothes by wearing them too much, Phrs to spoil one's appetite, reduce desire for a meal by eating beforehand, to spoil one's dinner, lessen appetite for, enjoyment of, by eating beforehand, b (in non-material sense) to detract from extent or merit of, lessen enjoyment of to spoil one's pleasure, he spoiled the effect of his genuine kindness of heart by his rudeness and moroseness, c to cause to deteriorate, to make bad his temper had been spoiled by petty worries 3 Specif, to injure character of, to cause character of to develop badly, to encourage growth of selfishness and unruliness in, by wrong modes of training, by lack of discipline, over indulgence &c, esp to spoil a child, she had been thoroughly spoiled by adulation and flattery B intrans To deteriorate, to become impaired, lose quality, value, usefulness delicate fabric soon spoils if exposed to the sun Phr to be spoiling for (a fight &c), be eager for spoilage, n [1 spɔɪlɪdʒ, 2 spɔɪlɪdʒ] spoil & -age Paper spoilt or wasted in printing spoiler, n [1 spɔɪlər, 2 spɔɪlər] spoil & -er Person who takes spoils, plunderer spoil-five, n Card game for three or more persons, to each of whom five cards are dealt spoilsmen, n [1 spɔɪlsmən, 2 spɔɪlsmən] Person engaging in political career in the hope of financial gain spoil-sport, n A dismal, disagreeable person who objects to, and tries to prevent, other people enjoying themselves, the skeleton at the feast spoke (I), n [1 spɒk, 2 spɒk] OE spāca, ME spōke, 'spoke', op MLG spēke, O HG speicha, cogn w spike 1 Any one of the bars radiating from the hub of a wheel and joining this to the outer rim or felly 2 Rung of ladder 3 Bar of wood used to prevent the wheels of a cart &c from turning, acting as a drag downhill Phr to put a spoke in a person's wheel, to upset or delay his plans 4 (naut) One of the handles projecting from the rim of the steering wheel spoke (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To supply, fit, with spokes 2 To hinder movement of (wheel &c) with spoke spoke (III), vb Prot of speak, fr PP spoken spoke-bone, n Bone extending from elbow to wrist, radius spoken, vb [1 spɒkən, 2 spɒkən] PP of speak, ME spōlen, formed on the anal of broken, op OE sp(r)ecen, PP

-spoken, adj, fr prec (in compounds) Characterized by specific manner of speech ill-, fair-, soft spoken &c spoke-shave, n Small bladeset in the middle of a piece of wood which, grasped by a hand at either end, is used for planing and smoothing curved wood articles spokesman, n [1 spɒksmən, 2 spɒksmən], fr spoke, Prot of speak, & -es & -man Person who speaks as representative of others spokewise, adv [1 spɒkwɪz, 2 spɒkwɪz] spoke (I) & -wise Arranged as spokes, in the position of a spoke, radiating spolia opima, n pl [1 spɒliə opɪmā, 2 spɒliə opɪmā] Lat, fr pl of spoliūm, 'booty', see spoil (I), & opimus, 'rich, fat', prob cogn w Gk pinelē, 'fat', Lat pinguis, 'rich, fat', see pinguid Arms taken by Roman general from enemy's commander in single combat, hence, rewards, honours, received as result of contest spoliation, n [1 spɒliəʃən, 2 spɒliəʃən], fr Lat spoliātōnem, fr spoliātum, PP type of spoliāre, 'to pillage', see spoil (II), & -ion 1 Robbery with violence, plunder, esp plunder of neutral trading vessel by armed at war 2 (ecol) Illegal appropriation of tithes &c 3 (legal) Wilful destruction, mutilation &c, of document liable to be put in evidence spoliator, n [1 spɒliətər, 2 spɒliətər], fr Lat spoliātum, PP type of spoliāre, 'to pillage', see spoil (I), & -or Plunderer, spoiler spoliatory, adj [1 spɒliətəri, 2 spɒliətəri], fr Lat spoliātum, see prec & -ory Of the nature of, causing, spoliation spondac, adj [1 spɒndæk, 2 spɒndæk], fr O Fr spondaque, fr L Lat spondacus, spondiacus, fr Gk spondakios, 'spondacio', fr spondaios, 'spondes', see next word Pertaining to, composed in, spondee, spondac hexameter, one that has a spondee in fifth foot spondee, n [1 spɒndē, 2 spɒndē], fr Lat spondēus, fr Gk spondēios (pous), 'metrical foot used at a libation, esp in making a treaty', cp spondem, 'to pour forth as a libation', spondē, 'libation, treaty, alliance', Lat spondēre, 'to promise', see sponsion. Metrical foot consisting of two long syllables spondulics, n pl [1 spɒndʊlɪks, 2 spɒndʊlɪks] Origin doubtful, Wessley suggests that first element may be fr Do epaan, 'a chip', see spoon (I), used also in sense of 'money' (Am slang) Money, equivalent to bits spondyl(s), n [1 spɒndɪl, 2 spɒndɪl], fr Fr, fr Lat spondylus, fr Gk spōnd-, sphōndulos, 'vertebra', op Gk sphēndōnē, 'shing', prob related to Gk sphēndōnē, 'to move convulsively'; Sort spandall, 'to start up'. One of the bones of the spinal column, vertebra. spondyl(o)-, pref representing prec & -o Vertebra, e.g. spondylitis, inflammation of the vertebrae sponge (I), n [1 spʌnʃ, 2 spændʒ], fr O Fr sponge, fr Lat spongia, fr Gk spoggid, 'sponge', etymol doubtful 1 n Marina animal, belonging to the phylum Porifera, with tough, fibrous skeleton and without tentacles, usually found fixed to a rock. 2 Elastic, absorbent, fibrous network left after removal of living matter from a sponge, used for applying water to the body or other surface for cleansing &c Phr to throw up the sponge, (of boxer and fig) to admit defeat, to give up a struggle of any kind 3 Object or substance resembling a sponge in structure, appearance, or use, specif a light, porous mass of fermented dough before kneading, a sweet cake of light, soft, elastic consistency, a coat pad &c used for cleaning bore of cannon. 4 Person living at another's expense, hanger-on, parasite, a cadger sponge (II), vb intrans & trans, fr O, Fr esponger, fr L Lat spongiare, 'to sponge', fr spongia, 'sponge', see prec A intrans 1 To collect, gather, sponges 2 To play the part of a social sponge, to live at the expense of others B trans To apply water to, wash, wipe, cleanse, by means of a sponge C Followed by adverb or preposition, with special meanings Sponge down, trans, to wash, pour water over, with a sponge Sponge on, intrans, to live in dependence on, as parasite of Sponge out, trans (lit and fig), to erase, efface, wipe out, with or as with a sponge Sponge up, trans, To absorb, take up, with a sponge sponge (III), n, fr prec Act of sponging, process of being sponged to have a sponge (down) sponge-cake, n Soft, light, sweet cake made of eggs, sugar, and flour sponge-cucumber, n Tropical plant producing a large gourd, the fibrous network of which is dried and used as a rubber in Turkish baths sponge-gourd, n Sponge cucumber spongelet, n [1 spʌnʃlɪt, 2 spændʒlɪt] sponge (I) & -let Spongole, qv sponger, n [1 spʌnjər, 2 spændʒər] sponge (II) & -er 1 One who sponges, apparatus for sponging 2 Parasite, hanger-on sponge tree, n Tropical tree with round clusters of sweet scented yellow flowers spongiform, adj [1 spʌnʃɪfɔrm, 2 spændʒɪfɔrm] sponge (I) & -form Resembling a sponge in form, structure, or texture sponginess, n [1 spʌnʃɪnəs, 2 spændʒɪnəs] spongy & -ness State of being spongy sponging-house, n [1 spʌnʃɪŋ haʊs, 2 spændʒɪŋ haʊs] Bailiff's house where debtors were formerly detained in custody before being committed to prison spongole, n [1 spʌnʃlɪl, 2 spændʒlɪl] sponge (I) & -ole, as in aureole, foliole Protective tissue covering the tip of the root of a plant spongiophilic, n [1 spʌnʃiɒfɪlɪn, 2 spændʒiɒfɪlɪn] spongiophilic, fr Lat spongia, 'sponge', see sponge, & -o & Gk philos, 'felt', cp Lat pilleus, 'felt cap', & see pule (VII) Material made of small pieces of sponge and vegetable fibre, waterproofed on one side, used wot as a poultice spongo-, pref representing Gk spōggos, spongiid, 'sponge', see sponge (I) Spongo spongoid, adj [1 spɒŋɡɔɪd, 2 spɒŋɡɔɪd] See prec & -oid Like, of the nature of, a sponge spongologist, n [1 spɒŋɡɔlədʒɪst, 2 spɒŋɡɔlədʒɪst] Next word & -ist Student of, one versed in, sponology sponology, n [1 spɒŋɡɔlədʒi, 2 spɒŋɡɔlədʒi] spongo- & -logy Study of sponges spongy, adj [1 spʌnʃi, 2 spændʒi] sponge (I) & -y 1 Like a sponge in structure, elastic and porous 2 (of land) Wet, marshy, absorbent 3 (of metal) Of open texture, loosely coherent ponson, n [1 spónshun, 2 spón[ən], fr Lat spónsionem, 'engagement, covenant', fr spónsum, P P type of spendēre, 'to warrant, give, assurance, promise', op Lat respondēre, 'to promise in return, to reply', see respond, cogn w Gk spéndōn, 'to pour out a libation, to promise', spendē, 'libation, treaty' 1 Act of becoming surety for another, of entering into an engagement on another's behalf 2 (legal) International agreement made on behalf of a state by an official not fully empowered to enter into it ponson, n [1 spónsnn, 2 spónsen] Possibly a popular modification of expansion Curved projection from side of vessel, specif a outward curve of planking before and behind each wheel of paddle steamer, b projection on side of warship to enable gun to be swung round to a different angle sponsor, n [1 spónsur, 2 spónse], fr Lat spónsor, 'surety', fr spónsum, P P type of spendēre, 'to bind oneself', see sponson, & -or a Person who enters into an agreement on another's behalf, one who makes himself responsible for another's obligations, or who vouches for his character, specif b godfather or godmother sponsorial, adj [1 spónsorial, 2 spónsorial] Prec & -ial Pertaining to a sponsor sponsorship, n [1 spónsurshíp, 2 spónsa[shíp]] sponsor & -ship State of being a sponsor spontaneity, n [1 spóntanéití, 2 spóntanéití]

See next word & -ity State or quality of being spontaneous, spontaneous action spontaneous, adj [1 spóntáneus, 2 spónténeus], fr Lat spóntáneus, 'of one's free will, voluntary', fr spóntis, 'of one's own accord', fr spóna*, 'free will, desire', op OHG spant, 'charm, allurements', spanan, 'to entice', OE spanan, 'to entice' 1 Arising from one's own internal tendency, disposition, inclination, without external influence, constraint, compulsion, voluntary spontaneous expression of admiration, spontaneous generosity 2 Self acting, produced by internal, natural impulse or energy, not due to external agency or stimulus spontaneous movement, action, growth spontaneous combustion, n See combustion.

spontaneous generation, n Process, the existence of which is no longer believed in, whereby life, as it was held, originated spontaneously, in non living matter, under certain conditions, without the presence of pre existing living organisms spontaneously adv [1 spóntáneush, 2 spóntáneush] spontaneous & -ly In a spontaneous manner spontaneousness, n [1 spóntáneushnes, 2 spóntáneushnes] See prec & -ness State or quality of being spontaneous spontoon, n [1 spóntoon, 2 spóntún], fr Fr sponton, fr Ital spontone, fr spontare, fr Lat spunculāre*, 'to blunt the point', fr ex- & punctum, 'point', see point (hist) Kind of halberd, usually with hook, sometimes carried by infantry officers spool, v trans & n [1 spool, 2 spool] Invented by Arthur Roberts, the comedian, b 1852 (slang) 1 v trans To deceive, hoax, swindle 2 n Hoax, swindle spook, n [1 spook, 2 spuk], fr Du spook, cp Germ (dial) spuk, Dao epog Ghost, apparition, wraith spookish, adj [1 spóokish, 2 spúk[sh]] Prec & -ish Of like a ghost spooky adj [1 spóoki, 2 spúkí] spook & -y Pertaining to, resembling, a ghost, suggesting the presence of ghosts, haunted spool (I) o [1 spool, 2 spool] fr M Do spole, cp Germ spule, etymol doubtful Bar, cylinder &c, on which thread &c is wound, a reel for cotton &c, specif, bar of reel on fishing rod, on which line is wound spool (II), v trans, fr prec To wind on a spool spoon (I), n [1 spoon, 2 spün] OE spōn, a shaving chip of wood', op Du spaan, OHG spān, O Fris spōn, ON spānn, spōnn, 'chip, splinter', cogn w Gk spēnē, 'wedge', Scrt ephydi, 'splinter of wood', fr base sp(h)et*, sp(h)et* &c, 'to spread out, stretch', seen in spathe, spade (I) &c 1 Implement made of wood, iron, nickel &c, or (esp for table use) of silver, with long handle ending in a shallow oval or round bowl, used for measuring or stirring liquid &c, in cooking &c, and for conveying food to the mouth, often in compounds, named according to use &c egg spoon, tea spoon, dessert spoon, mustard spoon &c, Phr wooden spoon, specif a that for msrly given to candidate placed lowest in Cambridge mathematical tripos, b man attaining this distinction 2 Instrument somewhat resembling a spoon in form, specif a kind of oar with curved blade, b (golf) kind of wooden headed club, c spoon bait spoon (II), v trans & intrans, fr prec & trans 1 To use a spoon for, to lift, convey, with a spoon to spoon up liquid, to spoon liquid out of a vessel 2 To lift, move, as with a spoon, (specif croquet) to push or scoop with mallet B intrans To fish with spoon bait spoon (III), n Prob same as spoon (I), op use of stick or pump as terms for a stupid, empty headed person 1 Foolish fellow, simpleton 2 One who makes love in a foolish and demonstrative manner spoon (IV), v intrans & trans, fr prec (vulg slang) 1 intrans To make love 2 trans To make love to, to court spoon-bait, n Bright piece of metal, shaped like bowl of spoon with hook at one end, attached by swivel to fishing line and drawn through the water spoonbill, n [1 spóonbil, 2 spóonbil] Family of wading birds resembling ibises, having a broad flat bill expanded at the end in the shape of a spoon spoon-drift, n [1 spóondrift, 2 spóundrift] Spindrift q v

Spoonerism, n [1 spóonérizm, 2 spóonérizm], fr name of the Rev W A Spooner, D D, formerly Warden of New College, Oxford Involuntary transposition of sounds in successive words, o g bulging buns, for bulging buns, queer dean, for dear queen &c spoon-fed adj a Fed (as infant, invalid &c) with a spoon, b (fig, of industries &c) encouraged aided, by artificial financial support, o (of pupils) taught by the repeated administration of small doses of information, cut and dried, and carefully adapted to the comprehension of the recipients spoon-feed, n Food taken with a spoon, esp by infants or invalids spoonful, n [1 spóonfool, 2 spóonful] spoon (I) & -ful Amount contained in a spoon spoonily, adv [1 spóonlik 2 spóonlik] spoonily & -ly In a spoony manner spooniness, n [1 spóonness, 2 spóonness] See prec & -ness State of being spoony spoon-meat, n Soft or liquid food, esp infant's food spoon-net, n Fisherman's landing net spoon adj [1 spóon 2 spóon] spoon (III) & -y Amorous, inclined for love-making spoor (I), n [1 spór, spoor, 2 spó, spue] Dn spoor, cp Germ spur, 'track', ON spor, OE spor, perh cogn w OE spora, 'spur', see spur (I) 1 Trail, track, succession of footprints, of wild animals 2 Animal's scent spoor (II), v trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To follow the track or scent of 2 intrans To follow a spoor sporadic(al), adj [1 spórádík(l), 2 spórádík(l)], fr Gk sporádikos, fr sporad-, stem of spora 'scattered', cp Gk spóros, 'sowing', speirein 'to sow, scatter', spérma, 'seed germ', see sperra Occurring at irregular intervals, scattered, (esp of disease) not epidemic or widely prevalent, occurring in single cases.

sporadically, adv [1 spórádikali, 2 spórádikali] Prec & -ly In a sporadic way sporadicness, n [1 spórádikness, 2 spórádikness] See prec & -ness State of being sporadic sporange, n [1 spóranj, 2 spórэндж], fr next word Sporangium sporangium, n [1 spóránjium, 2 spórэндж-ium], fr spore & Gk aggeion, dimin of aggos, 'vessel, receptacle' Sac within which spores are developed sporation, n [1 spóráshun, 2 spórés[ən]] Next word & -ation Production of spores spore, n [1 spór, 2 spó], fr Gk spór, 'sowing, seed', op Gk sporos, 'sowing', & see sporadio, sperra (I) (biol) a minute reproductive organism of flowerless plant, capable of developing into a new individual, b minute animal organism as in bacteria &c developing into a new individual sporo-, pref representing spore & o Spore sporogenesis, n [1 spórójéneus, 2 spórádíneus] Prec & genesis Reproduction by means of spores sporogonous, adj [1 spórójéneus, 2 spórádíneus] sporo- & -genous Reproducing by means of spores sporran, n [1 spóran, 2 spóran], fr Gael sporan Leather pouch, usually having the fur left on, worn by Scottish Highlanders with the kilt, slung round the waist by a leather thong and hanging down in front sport (I), n [1 spórt 2 spó] Abbr of disport 1 Any of various forms of activity, engaged in as recreation, a hunting, shooting, fishing, sailing a boat, b outdoor games, c athletics, swimming, boxing, fencing, wrestling &c, d (vulg) a sporting person

2 Sports, meeting for athletic contests school sports, sports day &c 3 A Jest, railery, fun to say a thing in sport, b plaything, object, victim, of caprice to become the sport of fortune, (fig) the sport of the waves 4 A diverting action, occurrence, or experience children think it great sport to dress up, and pretend to be grown up 5 (biol) Plant or animal varying spontaneously from the normal type, a freak sport (II), v intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To frolic, disport oneself, to dally 'To sport with Amaryllis in the shade' (Milton, 'Lyonesse', 68) 2 trans To wear or carry, esp ostentatiously, for display to sport a rose in one's buttonhole, (Phr, university) to sport one's oak, shut the outer (oaken) door of college rooms, as indication that one must not be disturbed sporting, adj [1 spórtin, 2 spórtin] Prec Part of sport (II) 1 Of, pertaining to, engaging in, addicted to, sport 2 Characteristic of a sportsman sportsmanlike, enterprising, willing to take risks, Phr a sporting chance, one involving risk, but offering possibility of success sportingly, adv Prec & -ly In a sporting manner sportive adj [1 spórtiv, 2 spórtiv] sport & -ive Inclined to sport, playful, frolicsome sportively, adv Prec & -ly In a sportive manner sportiveness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being sportive sportless, adj [1 spórtles, 2 spórtis] sport (I) & -less (of country, region &c) Giving no opportunity for sport sportsman, n [1 spórtsmán, 2 spórtsmán] 1 Person engaged in or addicted to, sport 2 (fig) Person possessing the qualities attributed to a sportsman, a chivalrous, fair-minded person, one willing to incur risks, and prepared to suffer defeat in fair competition without complaining sportsmanlike adj [1 spórtsmánlik, 2 spórtsmánlik] Prec & -like Of the nature of, characteristic of, suitable for, a sportsman sportsmanship, n [1 spórtsmánshíp, 2 spórtsmánshíp] sportsman & -ship Skill in, devotion to, sport, sportsmanlike quality or character sporular, adj [1 spórular, 2 spórula] Next word & -ar Of, pertaining to, a spore spore, n [1 spórul, 2 spórul] spore & -ule Small spore spot (I), n [1 spot, 2 spot] M E, also in O Du Origin unknown 1 A patch, speck, fleck on a surface, differing in colour from the rest a black dog with white spots, b a stain, discolouration a spot of ink, blood &c, c (specif) a pimple, pustule on the skin his face was covered with spots 2 A moral stain, flaw, blemish, defect of character, matter of reproach a character without spot or stain 3 A definite part of space, a specific place, locality, region a lovely spot on which to build a house Phr on the spot, at a given place the doctor was on the spot a few minutes after the accident, the people on the spot, those who live in a given place, and who know the facts &c connected with it, a tender spot, (fig) subject on which one's feelings are easily aroused 4 (specif, billiards) a One of the black spots on the table upon which balls are placed on opening and on other occasions during the game, spot barred, game in which players are not allowed to place the red ball on the spot and continue to hole it indefinitely, Phr to be on the spot, (fig) alert, wide awake, equal to the situation, to act on the spot, there and then without delay, b small black spot on one of the white balls to distinguish it from the other, the spot ball, that bearing the spot, spot (contrasted with plain) the spot ball 5 (colloq) a Small quantity of liquor, a splash won't you have a spot of whisky? b small quantity of food how about a spot of lunch? 6 (commerce) Spot cash, paid on delivery, spot price, price for spot cash, spot goods, wheat, cotton &c, sold for immediate delivery, spots, spot goods spot (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To mark, stain, with spots to spot one's fingers with ink 2 To mar, impart moral blemish to 3 (colloq) a To identify, pick out, recognize, at sight it is difficult to spot people in a crowd, b to detect, find out, perceive true character of I spotted his roguesy as soon as I met him B intrans To become discoloured or injured by spots a delicate fabric which spots very easily spotless, adj [1 spótles, 2 spótles] spot (I) & -less 1 Without spot or stain, hence, scrupulously clean this room was absolutely spotless, a spotless white shirt-front 2 Free from moral stain, immaculate, unrepachable spotlessly, adv Preo & -ly To the degree of being spotless spotlessly clean spotlessness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being spotless spotlight, n [1 spótlit, 2 spótlast] 1 Strong beam of light thrown on to a performer on the stage &c 2 Electric searchlight used in theatre &c to project such a beam spotted, adj [1 spótet, 2 spótet] spot (II) & -ed Marked with, characterized by, spots, esp in names of birds, fishes, and other animals, plants &c spotted bass, flycatcher &c, spotted dog, (slang) plain, boiled suet pudding with currants &c spotted fever, n Cerebro spinal meningitis spottedness, n [1 spótetnes, 2 spótetnes] spotted & -ness State of being spotted spottiness, n [1 spótines, 2 spótines] Next word & -ness State of being spotty spotty, adj [1 spót, 2 spót] spot (I) & -y Marked, covered, with spots (in various senses), a patchy, diversified by patches of different colours seen from a distance the different uniforms produced a spotty effect, b spotty complexion spousal, n [1 spouz, 2 spouz] Variant of spousal (archaic) Marriage, nuptials, also spousals spouse, n [1 spouz, 2 spouz] fr O Fr époux(s), 'spouse', fr Lat epōne(um), epōne(s), 'bride(groom)', fr P P type of spōndere, 'to engage oneself, promise', see sponsion, op Lat. sponsare, 'to marry', sponsalia, 'marriage'. Either of two persons joined by marriage, a husband or a wife sponseless, adj [1 spōnzles, 2 spōnzles] Preo & -less Without a spouse spout (I), vb intrans & trans [1 spout, 2 spout] M E spouten, op M Du spuiten, O N spjta, O H G spuitzen, 'to spout', perh remotely connected w spit (III) A intrans 1 To burst, gush, spurt, pour forth, be discharged, in a copious stream blood spouted from the wound 2 To discharge liquid forcibly the whale spouts 3 To makespeeches, harangue, copiously and often a good fellow but too fond of spouting B trans 1 To pour out in a stream, discharge forcibly, cause to gush forth in a jet the volcano spouts lava, the whale spouts water, the chimney spouted smoke and flame 2 (colloq) To utter, recite, esp in a fluent and declamatory manner to spout one's own verses 3 (slang) To pawn, pledge spout (II), n, fr preo 1 A narrow, specially shaped, projecting part, orifice, mouth of a receptacle, through which the liquid contents are poured out, piece of projecting pipe discharging water the spout of a tea-pot, jug, spout of a pump, b (archit) carved or moulded projection of stone or lead for conveying water from a roof 2 Shoot, or small lift, in pawnbroker's shop, by means of which pledged articles are conveyed to place of storage, (hence vulgar) up the spout, in pawn 3 Blow-hole of whale &c 4 Stream, jet, gush, of water or other liquid, esp one discharged or escaping with considerable force and volume, (specif) a column of water shot into the air by whale &c, in breathing, b water spout 5 A copious, sudden discharge, burst, gust, of vapour, steam, smoke, dust spout-hole, n Blow-hole of cetacean, spiracle spoutless, adj [1 spōtles, 2 spautles] spout (I) & -less Without a spout sprag, n [1 sprag, 2 sprag] Den sprag, 'twig, sprig', cogn w spray (I) Billet or block of wood, bar of steel &c, used to obstruct movement of wheel &c, as prop in mining &c sprain, vb trans & n [1 sprān, 2 sprein], fr O Fr esprain, stem of esprendre, 'to press out', fr Lat exprimere, 'press out', to squeeze, wring, fr ex- & primere, 'to press', see press 1 vb To strain excessively, but without dislocation, by a sudden twist or wrench, the tendons and muscles connected with a joint, esp those of the ankle or wrist 2 n. A violent wrench or twist given to the muscles, ligaments, or tendons of a joint, without dislocation, b inflammation and swelling resulting from such a wrench spraints, n [1 sprānts, 2 spreints], fr O Fr espraintes, fr P P of esprendre, 'to press out', see sprain Otter's dung sprang, vh [1 sprag, 2 sprang] O E, M E sprang, Pret of spring (I) sprat, n [1 sprat, 2 sprat] O E, M E sprot, op LG sprotte, 'sprat', prob a gradational form of base in sprout The present day form shows unrounding of M E ō, as in gad (I) & strap Small, edible fish of the herring family, found off W Europe sprat-day, o November 9th, on which sprat season begins spratter, n [1 sprāter, 2 sprāte] sprat & -er Man or vessel engaged in fishing for sprats sprawl (I), vb intrans & trans [1 sprawl, 2 sprail] Connected w O E spreūthan, 'to move convulsively', M E spraulen, op Norw sprala, origin unknown. A intrans 1 a (of person) To lie or sit with limbs relaxed and spread out in careless ungainly manner, to loll, b (of limbs) to be stretched out in an ungainly manner 2 To be spread out irregularly, so as to cover considerable space, to straggle handwriting in which a single word sprawls half across a page, sprawling shoots of roses B trans To cause to sprawl sprawl (II), n, fr preo Sprawling position or movement spray (I), n, [1 sprā, 2 spre] M E spray, op Dan sprag, O E sprac, 'twig, shoot', O N spret, cogn w Gk spargēn, 'to be swollen, be ripe', Lith sprigti, 'to bud', spurgas, 'sprout', Sort spārjati, 'breaks forth', op also Lat spargere, 'to scatter', & see sparce & spark See also next word 1 Small branch or stem of tree or plant, sprig, twig, with flowers or smaller branches spreading from it 2 a Design, pattern, ornament, representing spray of flowers &c, b similar design representing other objects spray (II), n, fr LG sprei, 'spray, drizzle', op O H G spru, 'spray', M H G spreusen, M Du spreuten, 'to spray, scatter', cogn. w O E spreūtan, 'to sprout', see sprout (I); fr base sper-, sprē- &c, 'to scatter, sow, to grow up, sprout', see sparger, spring, spark. 1 Fine particles of water, larger than those of vapour, carried in a cloud from a breaking wave, or from a waterfall. 2 a Liquid disinfectant, chemical disease-killer, or perfume &c, driven in fine particles resembling spray by an atomizer, b mechanical device for producing such a spray spray (III), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans To form spray 2 trans To treat with liquid in the form of spray. to spray one's throat, an apple tree &c spray-board, n. Board on gunwale of boat to throw off spray spray-drain, n Trench filled with branches end covered in with earth, to serve as drain sprayer, n [1 sprāer, 2 sprēer] spray (III) & -er One who, that which, sprays, device for spraying sprayer (I), adj [1 sprāi, 2 sprēi] spray (I) & -y In the form of, consisting of, sprays sprayer (II), adj spray (II) & -y Resembling, in the form of, full of, spray spread (I), vb trans & intrans [1 spread, 2 spread] O E spreddan, M E spreiden, evidently fr. spreudjan*, op O H G spreiten, 'to extend' &c Origin of base unknown

A trans 1 To cause (a substance) to cover a larger surface, a by pressing and smearing to spread butter on bread, b by laying or scattering on, and scraping it out thin to spread mortar on a stone, manure over a field, c to cover a surface by unfolding, and stretching to spread a carpet on a floor, a cloth on a table 2 To cover (surface) with a substance or material to spread bread with honey, butter &c, to spread a table with a cloth, with a meal 3 To extend, stretch out, reach out to spread one's hands to the fire, a bird spreads its wings, a tree spreads its branches to the light 4 To diffuse, disseminate, bend on, extend, cause to be widely circulated, a (of material things) to spread disease, b (of non material things) to spread news, learning, knowledge, a loss of virtue, to spread one's interests over too many subjects, also to spread oneself, engage in variety of activities, (also) a to talk, write, at length, or self assertively, b to profess in hospitality B intrans 1 To extend, cover larger surface the floods have spread over the valley 2 To extend in time, be prolonged during the course of study spreads over three years 3 To open out, be extended or displayed a broad plain spread before us 4 (of material and non material things) To be diffused, disseminated, circulated, banded on menials has spread to the school, the bad news, rumour, spread like wildfire C Followed by adverb with special meanings Spread out, 1 trans, a to unfold to spread out a carpet, b to stretch out, extend to spread out one's hands, arms, legs, c to scatter, sprinkle, here and there over a surface to spread out manure over a field &c, 2 intrans, to be extended, unfolded, displayed the branches spread out like a fan spread (II), n, fr preo 1 Process of extending over wider area, extension, expansion, increase the alarming spread of the floods

2 Process of circulation, diffusion, dissemina-spruce (I), adj [1 sprúts, 2 eprúts] Prob as spruce (III), w special reference to Prussian leather, fashionable in 16th cent. Neat, smart, trim, dapper spruce (II), vb trans, fr preo Usually spruce up, to make spruce, tidy, smarten spruce (III), n Abbr fr spruce-fir, for Prussian fir, fr ME (s)pruce, O Fr Prusse, 'Prussia', see Prussian 1 (also spruce-fir) Coniferous tree of the pine family, genus Picea, indigenous to northern hemisphere, of many kinds, as the black and white spruce, Norway spruce, Douglas fir &c 2 Timber of this tree spruce-beer, n Bear made from leaves and twigs of spruce fir spruce (I), n [1 sprúts, 2 sprú] Etymol unknown a Aperture through which molten metal is poured into a mould, b piece of metal remaining in this sprus (II), n, fr Du spruw, 'thrush' (the disease) Tropical disease characterized by inflammation and ulceration of the mouth and throat, and by enteritis sprung, adj [1 sprung, 2 spran] PP of spring (I), OE (ge)sprungen 1 (of hat, racquet) Split, cracked 2 (slang) Slightly intoxicated, tipsy spry, adj [1 sprí, 2 sprás] Op Swed sprygg, ON sprakr, OE sprece, 'lively', q v under spark Active, nimble, and alert in movement, agile, also alert in mind, smart Phr look spry, hurry up, look sharp spud (I), n [1 spud, 2 spad] ME spudde, (p Dan spyd, ON spjot, 'spear' 1 Small spade or ohisel shaped tool for digging up weeds &c 2 (colloq) Potato spud (II), vb trans, fr preo To remove, dig up, with a spud spuddle, vb intrans [1 spúdl, 2 spádl] Prob freq of preo (dial) To use a spud, esp to dig carelessly or desultorily, potter about with a spade spuddy, adj [1 spudi, 2 spádi] spud (I) & -y Short, plump, thickset spue, vb See spew spume, n [1 spúm, 2 spjúm], fr Lat spuma, 'foam, froth', perh cogn w Lat pumex, 'pumice stone', see pumice, cogn w Sert phénas, 'foam', O HG fēim, OE fām, 'foam', see foam, op Luth spaine, 'foam' Foam, froth, scum spumescence, n [1 spúmésens, 2 spjúmésens] See next word & -ence State or quality of being frothy, foaming spumescient, adj [1 spúmésent, 2 spjúmésent] fr Lat spumescens (em), Pres Part of spumescere, 'to grow frothy', fr spuma, 'foam', see spume Producing or resembling foam, frothy spuminess, n [1 spúmínes, 2 spjúmínes] spummy & -ness State or quality of being spummy spumous, adj [1 spúmús, 2 spjúmús], fr Lat spumósus, 'full of foam', spume & -ous Of, pertaining to, resembling, covered with, foam spumy, adj [1 spúmí, 2 spjúmí] spume & -y Spumous spun, adj [1 spun, 2 span] PP of spin (I), OE (ge)spunnen Spun glass, stretched into threads while hot, spun gold, thread of gold-covered fibre for weaving &c, spun silk, material woven of thread spun from short fibres of silk, spun yarn, (naut) rope made of two or four loosely twisted strands spungs Archaic spelling variant of sponge spunk, n [1 spunk, 2 spak], fr Ir spóna, 'tinder', fr Lat spongia, 'sponge', see sponge 1 Touchwood, tinder made from dried fungus impregnated with inflammable substance 2 (Scotts) a Courage, spirit, b hot temper, irascibility spunky, adj [1 spunkí, 2 spákí] Preo & -y 1 Resemblance, of the nature of, spunk or tinder 2 a Courageous, mettlesome, b angry, ill-tempered.

spur (I), n [1 spér, 2 spá] OE spura, spora, ME spur, spors op O HG spora,

ON spors, Du spoor, Germ sporn, 'spur', cogn w Gk spurdn, 'ankle', op also O HG spornón, 'to strike with the heels', OE spurnan, 'to drive away, reject', see spurn 1 a Instrument fitted to rider's heel, with sharp point, or series of points on revolving wheel or rowel, for pricking horse's flanks, b (hist) specif, spur, esp of gold, as emblem of knighthood Phr to win one's spurs, (i) attain the rank of knight, (u) (fig) achieve honour and reputation 2 Sharply pointed, spur-like object, specif a stiff, pointed projection on wing of bird or leg of bird or insect, esp horny projection on leg of cock, b projection from, or elongated part of, flower, c projecting cliff, ridge, or part of mountain range &c, d wall connecting part of rampart with interior work 3 (fig) Keen impulse, instigation, stimulus, incentive ambition is an excellent spur for the young Phr on the spur of the moment, without previous intention or preparation spur (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To strike, prick, urge on, with spurs 2 To provide, equip, with spurs booted and spurred 3 (fig) To stimulate, incite, urge on to spur a person into action. B intrans A To use spurs to urge on a horse, hence, b to ride fast and urgently spurge, n [1 spér, 2 spádl], fr O Fr espurge, fr espurger, 'to purge', fr Lat expurgare, 'to cleanse, purge', see expurgate Genus of plants, Euphorbia, usually having fleshy stems containing a highly acrid, milky juice spurge-laurel, n Evergreen shrub, Daphne laureola, with yellow flowers and poisonous berries spurious, adj [1 spúrius, 2 spjórius], fr Lat spurius, 'illegitimate birth, false, spurious', prob fr Gk spora, 'sowing, seed, generation, birth', see sperm (I) 1 Of origin different from that claimed, not genuine, false, counterfeit, sham spurious bank notes, spurious sentiment 2 (biol) Having superficial resemblance to some organ, limb &c, but differing in function or origin spuriously, adv Preo & -ly In a spurious manner spuriousness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being spurious spurless, adj [1 spérles, 2 spáls] spur (I) & -less Without spurs spurling-line, n [1 spérling lín, 2 spárlín] Etymol unknown (naut) Cord attached to helm and serving to show position of the latter on an indicator spurn, vb trans & intrans [1 spérn, 2 spán] OE spurnan, spornan, 'to kick, thrust at with foot, to drive away, reject', op ON spyrna, 'to drive away', O HG spornón, 'to kick', cogn w spur (I), & further w Sert spuhrat, 'to push with the foot', Lat spurnare, 'to repulse', Gk spairein, 'to palpitate', see also sphaero- A trans 1 (archaic) To thrust at with the foot, chiefly now in Phr to spurn the ground, to leap 2 To drive away roughly or rudely, repel to spurn a poor relation from one's door 3 To reject scornfully, refuse with disdain, show contempt for to spurn one's offers, affection &c B intrans Spurn at, (rare) to reject with scorn spurrer, n [1 spérer, spúrner, 2 spárer, spárer] spur (I) & -ier Maker of spurs spur-royal, n Gold coin of James I, worth about 16s, having on the reverse side a star resembling a rowel spurry, spurry, n [1 spórn, 2 epári], fr O Fr spurry, op Med Lat spergula Genus, Spergula, of small, slender, annual, herbaceous plants with small white or pink flowers spurt (I), vb intrans & n [1 spért, 2 spát] See also spurt 1 vb To make a sudden violent effort, put forward all one's strength 'for a short spell, in racing &c 2 n Sudden, short spell of violent exertion, esp at the end of a race &c spurt (II), vb intrans & trans & n OE spyrðan, ME spurlen, spurlen, 'to shoot forth', see spirt (I) Same as spirt (I) and (II) spur-wheel, n Gear-wheel with toothed rim spurwort, n [1 spárwért, 2 spáwát] Madder, from the whorls of leaves encircling the stem sputter (I), vb intrans & trans [1 spóter, 2 spáte], fr ME spouten, 'to spout', see spout & -ar A intrans 1 To make a series of spitting sounds or light explosive noises, to splutter 2 To speak rapidly, jerkily, and indistinctly B trans To utter rapidly and indistinctly, jabber sputter (II), n, fr preo Sputtering noise or speech sputteringly, adv [1 spúteríng, 2 spáter ígl], fr Pres Part of sputter (I) & -ly In a sputtering manner, with a sputter sputum, n [1 spútum, 2 spjútum] Lat spitum, 'spittle', fr naut PP of spuere, 'to spit', cogn w Gk phúō, Goth speiwan, ON spýja, Lith spidyti, 'to spit', see spew 1 Saliva 2 (often pl, spula) Matter that has been expectorated, esp when considered as characteristic of specific disease spy (I), vb trans & intrans [1 spí, 2 spai] ME spien, fr O Fr espier, fr O HG spehōn, 'to see, spy', op O HG, OS spāhō, 'wise, discriminating, prudent', Sert spēpāt, 'sees', Lat specere, 'to see', species, 'appearance', see species 1 trans To see, discern, perceive, make out, espy Phr I spy strangers, used in British House of Commons by a Member who wishes to have the galleries cleared 2 intrans To act as a spy he spies for the enemy 3 Followed by adverbs and prepositions in special senses Spy into, to examine, investigate, carefully and secretly to spy into one's actions Spy out, to make clandestine investigations in, explore secretly to spy out the land Spy upon, to keep a secret watch upon, examine closely and secretly to spy upon a person spy (II), n ME spie, fr O Fr espie, fr espier, 'to spy', see preo A Person keeping secret watch on another's speech, conduct, actions, specif b person employed to obtain secret information about another country, its social conditions, military preparations, political intentions &c spy-glass, n Small hand telescope spy-hole, n Hole through which one can see without being seen, peep hole squab, adj & n [1 skwob, 2 skwobh] Cp Swed squabb, 'loose flesh' 1 adj Short, plump and thick, stumpy 2 n Short, fat, round object, specif a young, unfledged pigeon or rook, b short, stout person, a small, stuffed cushion squabble (I), n [1 skwóbl, 2 skwóbl] Cp Swed skabbel, 'a dispute' Undignified quarrel, a petty wrangle, a bicker squabble (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans To engage in squabbles, to quarrel, to bicker 2 trans (print) To disarrange, upset, disturb position of (composed type) squabby, adj [1 skwóbl, 2 skwóbl] squab & -y Short, plump, and stumpy squab-chick, n Young bird, fledgeling squab-pie, n 1 Pigeon-pie, rook pie 2 Pastey made of mutton, apples, and onions squaceo, n [1 skwákō, 2 skwákou] Imitative Small crested heron of Southern Europe, Africa, and Asia squad, n [1 skwod, 2 skwod], fr M Fr esquade, fr Ital squadra, 'square', fr L Lat exquadrate, 'to form into a square', see square (I) 1 Small detachment of troops &c for drill Phr awkward squad, body of new, and still raw, recruits, (chiefly fig) of inefficient group of people &c 2 Small group of persons acting together squadron (I), n [1 skwódrón, 2 skwódrón], fr M Fr esquadron, fr Ital squadra, 'square', see squad, & -oon 1 Body of cavalry, consisting of 120 to 200 men, two troops 2 a Group or detachment of ships of war detached for special service, b group of twelve military aeroplanes 3 Organized group of persons, squad squadron (II), vb trans, fr preo To form into squadrons, organize as squadron squadron-leader, n Officer in Royal Air Force commanding a squadron of twelve aeroplanes, ranking with a major in the army squal, n [1 skwāl, 2 skwāl] Etymol unknown, cp dual squat, 'to strike, pelt', see squallor 1 Small wooden counter used in the game of squalls 2 (pl) Table game played by snapping small discs from the edge to centre of a board squall-board, n Round board used in the game of squalls squallor, n [1 skwālēr, 2 skwālēr], fr dual squat, 'to strike, pelt', of doubtful origin. Stok with weighted knob used as missile in hunting animal &c squalid adj [1 skwōlīd, 2 skwōlīd], fr Lat squalidus, 'rough, neglected, filthy', fr squalere, 'to be stiff with dirt or dryness', cogn w Gk pēlos, 'clay', fr skēlos*, O Slav kalu, 'mud, loam, clay' a Filthy and degraded, foul, unclean, dingy a squalid slum, squalid surroundings, b (in moral sense) base, sordid, mean a squalid quarrel squalidity, n [1 skwōlīditi, 2 skwōlīditi] Prec & -ity State or quality of being squalid squalidly, adv [1 skwōlīdli, 2 skwōlīdli] See prec & -ly In a squalid manner squalidness, n [1 skwōlīdnes, 2 skwōlīdnes] See prec & -ness Squalor squall (I), vb intrans & trans [1 skwawī, 2 skwawī], fr ON skwala, 'to squeal', cp Swed sqida, 'to gush out', prob imitative in origin 1 intrans a To cry out loudly and shrilly, to bawl, b to sing loudly, unmelodiously 2 trans To utter with a squall squall (II), n, fr preo 1 Loud, discordant cry, harsh, shrill shriek, squawk 2 Sudden, violent brief storm of wind, whether accompanied or not with rain or snow. Pr look out for squalls be on your guard against trouble, esp that due to another's temper squally, adj [1 skwawī, 2 skwawī] Prec & -y Liable to, abounding in, characterized by, squalls squaloid, adj [1 skwāloīd, 2 skwēloīd], fr Mod Lat squalus, 'shark', fr Lat squalus, 'kind of large fish', cp ON skjalr, OE hwæl, 'whale', see whale, perh cogn w Gk skulton, 'kind of shark' & -oid Of, pertaining to, resembling, a shark squalor, n [1 skwōlēr, 2 skwōlēr] Lat squalor, 'stiffness, roughness, filth', fr squalere, 'to be stiff with dirt', see squalid, & -or State or quality of being squalid, physical or moral uncleanness, filth, sordidness squama, n [1 skwāma, 2 skwōma] Lat squama, scale etymol. doubtful. Scale, or scale like structure or object squam- squamo- prefix representing Lat. squama scale see prec Scale squamiferous, adj [1 skwāmīferus, 2 skwāmīferas] Prec & -ferous Bearing scales squamiform adj [1 skwāmīform, 2 skwāmīform] squam- & -form In the form of a scale squamoid, adj [1 skwāmōīd, 2 skwēīmōīd] squam- & -oid Like, having the form of a squama squamous adj [1 skwāmūs, 2 skwōīmōus], fr Lat squamosus, 'scaly' squam- & -ous Of the nature of resembling, covered with, scale squamo-temporal adj [1 skwāmōtemporal, 2 skwēīmōtemporal] Of the squamous part of the temporal bone squamous, adj [1 skwāmūs, 2 skwōīmōus] squam- & -ous Squam- & -ous squamous, n [1 skwāmūs, 2 skwōīmōus] Lat squamula, 'little scale' see scale squander, vb trans [1 skwōnder, 2 skwōnda] Etymol dubious To spend wastefully and extravagantly, to dissipate, to dissipate, expend foolishly and to no purpose to squander money, time, talents &c squanderer, n [1 skwōnderer, 2 skwōnderer] Prec & -er Person given to squandering squanderingly, adv [1 skwōnderingli, 2 skwōnderingli] Prec Part of squander & -ly Extravagantly squandermania, n [1 skwōndermānia, 2 skwōndermānia] A journalistic invention. Mania for spending money, esp applied to any government expenditure on objects of which the user of the word disapproves square (I), n [1 skwār, 2 skwār], fr O Fr esquarre, fr Low Lat squadrare*, 'to form into a square', fr ex- & quadra, 'square', cp Lat quadri, quadri, 'four' (in compounds), & see quadri- 1 A Plane rectangular figure enclosed by four equal sides, b four equal lines, at right angles to each other, enclosing such a figure 2 A Object having the shape of a square a square of glass, linen &c, b specif, division of chess-board &c 3 A Square or oblong open space in town usually laid out as a garden, fenced in and bounded by a street of houses on at least two sides, b large open space, or place in a town, bounded by streets, and usually with several important buildings looking into it, used for fairs, markets &c 4 Body of troops &c drawn up to form a square 5 Measure for flooring &c = 100 square feet 6 Instrument for measuring or determining right angles, consisting of two wooden or metal bars at right angles to each other, in form of L or T. Phr on the square, honest, sincere, genuine 7 (arith) Product of quantity multiplied by itself square (II), adj, fr preo 1 Having, bounded by, four equal sides and four right angles, rectangular 2 Forming, having, a right angle, placed at right angles square corners Phr a square meal, a solid, substantial one 3 (of shape) Having a firm outline suggestive of a square square shoulders, o square chin &c, b broad in proportion to height, square-built 4 (lit and fig) On equal terms, with debit and credit balanced, even to get one's accounts square Phr to get square with, get even with retaliate upon, all square, (golf) with neither side leading, even 5 Honest, genuine straightforward, just square dealing, he is absolutely square 6 Unequivocal, unambiguous, clear a square refusal 7 (arith) a Of, pertaining to quantity multiplied by itself having two equal factors square number, square inch foot &c, surface area equal to square each of whose sides measures one inch, foot &c, b square measure, giving table of measurement of superficial area, c square root see root square (III), vb trans & intrans, fr square (I) A trans 1 To make square, give square shape to Phr to square the circle, (i) to construct a square equal in area to a given circle (u) to express or determine the exact area of a circle in terms of its radius, (w) (fig) to perform an impossibility 2 a To make square, form into a right angle to square the edge of a board, b to raise place so as to form a horizontal line to square one's shoulders, elbows esp in preparation for fighting 3 To settle make even, balance to square accounts with 4 a To induce, persuade, by illicit means, to act in a certain way, or to abstain from hostile action, to bribe it was said that the police had been squared b to persuade by legitimate means, to satisfy, convince, to settle with to square one's creditors by paying them 5 To adapt reconcile bring into line to square one's theory with ascertained facts 6 (arith) To multiply (quantity) by itself 7 (naut) a To get (head of eye &c) in line with each other, b to lay (vane &c) parallel to deck and at right angles to ship's length. B intrans 1 To be at right angles form a square 2 To be in line an alt tado w il squared elbows &c, assume boxer's preliminary position to square up to a person 3 To harmonize, be in agreement with statement does not square with the facts square (IV), adv, fr square (II) 1 At right angles, so as to form a right angle, squarely to stand square 2 Honestly, fairly fair and square square-built, adj Broad in proportion to height, and with straight outlines square-head, n (US slang) Scandinavian immigrant in America square-leg, n. (cricket) Fielder standing at right angles to wicket on the on side squarely, adv [1 skwārli, 2 skwārli], square (II) & -ly 1 So as to form a right angle 2 Directly opposite to face a person squarely 3 Unambiguously, without equivocation. 4 Honestly, equitably, on the square squareness, n [1 skwārnes, 2 skwārnes] See prec & -ness 1 State of being square 2 Honestly, sincerity, square dealing square-rigged, adj (of ship) Having the yards horizontal and at right angles to keel, opposed to fore and aft square-rigger, n [1 skwār rīger, 2 skwār rīger] Square rigged vessel squaresail, n [1 skwārī, 2 skwārī] Four-cornered sail extended by yard lying across mast, esp on fore and aft rigged ship square-shouldered, adj Having shoulders which give the impression of being approximately at right angles to the neck, contrasted with sloping square-toed, adj 1 (of shoes &c) Having square toes 2 (fig) Punctual, over rigid and scrupulous square-toes, n [1 skwār tōz, 2 skwār tōz] Exact, punctilious, conventional, puritanical person squarish, adj [1 skwārīsh, 2 skwārīsh] square (II) & -ish Nearly square squarrose, adj [1 skwārōs, 2 skwārōs], fr L Lat squarrosus, 'scaly, scurfy', prob w assimilation to squama, fr Gk ekkhara, 'scab' With rough, scale like projections squarrous, adj [1 skwārōs, 2 skwārōs] See prec & -ous Squarrose squarson, n [1 skwārson, 2 skwārson] Coinage fr a blend of squira & parson

Clergyman who is also a landowner, esp one who is both the squire and the incumbent of his parish squash (I), vb trans & intrans [1 skwosh, 2 skwosh] ME equachen, fr O Fr equacher, fr ex- & Low Lat coaccharē*, 'to press together', fr Lat coactus, PP of coagere 'to drive together, to compel' See cogent

A trans 1 a To crush, press, to a shapeless mass or pulp, b to compress, crush, jam, press or squeeze flat 2 (fig, colloq) To disconcert crush, abash, by sarcastic speech &c B intrans 1 To become crushed, squeezed, compressed to a soft or pulpy mass the fruit will squash if it is badly packed 2 To squeeze, force one's way by pressure squash (II), n, fr preo 1 Condition of being closely packed and crushed, a jam 2 Mass of soft, moist substance which has been crushed and bruised the strawberries have all gone to squash 3 A Closely packed crowd of persons &c, b process, or sensation, of being squeezed in a crowd 4 Drink made of the juice of crushed fruit, chiefly in the compounds, lemon-squash, orange-squash 5 Squash racquets squash (III), n, fr Am Indian askutasquash. Thick fleshy fruit of various kinds of trailing plant, eaten as vegetable &c squash-hat n Soft felt hat with broadish brim squashiness, n [1 skwōshīnes, 2 skwōshīnes] squashy & -ness State or quality of being squally squash-rackets, n Game resembling rackets, but played in a smaller court, by two persons, with a soft and a rubber ball.

squashy, adj [1 skwóshi, 2 skwóʃi] squash (II) & -y Tending, liable, to become squashed, soft and pulpy, reduced to a soft moist mass squat (I), vb intrans [1 skwot, 2 skwót] M E squatten, fr O Fr esquatr, fr ex- & quatr, 'to flatten', fr Lat coactus, P.P of cogere, 'to drive together, to compel' See cogent 1 (of person) To sit back, resting on the heels, or, generally, to crouch on the ground with the feet drawn up to the body 2 (of animal) To crouch with legs close to body 3 A To settle down on land without permission of owner, or on common land without authorization, b to occupy land as a settler in a wild, thinly populated country, esp a settler on Government land in Australia squat (II), adj, fr prec Short and thick, stumpy and square squatter, n [1 skwóter, 2 skwóta] squat (I) & -er 1 Person or animal that squats 2 Person who settles on common land, on only part of an estate, without right or permission 3 (in Australia) Person who settles on Government land with a view to eventual ownership squaw, n [1 skwaw, 2 skwō] fr N Am Ind squa, 'woman' North American Indian woman squawk, vb intrans & n [1 skwawk, 2 skwōk] Imitative 1 vb To utter a short, shrill, harsh cry 2 n Short, harsh cry squaw-man, n White man married to American Indian woman squeak (I), vb intrans & trans [1 skwék, 2 skwík] In Shakespeare, of Scandinavian origin, op M Swed squēka in same sense A intrans 1 To utter a squeak 2 (slang) To betray secrets, inform on a person & B trans To utter, pronounce, in a squeak squeak (II), n, fr prec Weak, thin, high-pitched cry of fright or excitement, as made by small animals such as rats, mice, bats, or by young children, high piercing, grating sound, such as that made by a pencil on a slate, an uncoiled hinge or wheel & Phr a narrow squeak, narrow margin of success, performance, escape from danger & C squeaker, n [1 skwēkor, 2 skwīks] squeak (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, squeaks, speak, young pigeon 2 (slang) An informer, esp a criminal who betrays his companions to the police squeakily, adv [1 skwēkili, 2 skwīkili] Next word & -ly With a squeaky sound.

squeaky, adj [1 skwēki, 2 skwīki] squeak (II) & -y Producing, of the nature of, a squeak, liable to squeak squeal (I), vb intrans & trans [1 skwēl, 2 skwīl] M E squēlen, of Scandinavian origin, op M Swed squēla, prob connected w squeak & squall 1 intrans A To utter a high, shrill, but ringing, prolonged cry, b to complain 2 (slang) To act as informer, betray confederates & 3 trans To utter with a squeal squeal (II), n, fr prec High, shrill, prolonged cry, louder and stronger than a squeak squealer, n [1 skwēler, 2 skwīler] squeal & -er One who, that which, squeals, specif a young bird, esp pigeon, b a person who is always complaining squeamish, adj [1 skwēmish, 2 skwīmish] M E squeimous, fr A Fr squeimous, 'squeamish, disdantful', etymol doubtful, & -ish. 1 Easily affected by nausea, slightly nauseated 2 Highly fastidious or scrupulous, easily offended or disgusted, very sensitive squeamishly, adv Prec & -ly In a squeamish manner squeamishness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being squeamish squeegee (I), n [1 skwējē, 2 skwīdjē] fr popular form of squeeze & -ee 1 Long-handled wooden instrument with rubber blade for clearing water, mud & so, from smooth surface of a road, deck & so 2 Small implement in form of a rubber roller for drying photographic prints & so squeegee (II), vb trans, fr prec To treat dry, sweep, with a squeegee squeezability, n [1 skwēzabiliti, 2 skwīzabiliti] See next word & -bility State or quality of being squeezable squeezable, adj [1 skwēzabi, 2 skwīzabi] Next word & -able A Capable of being squeezed, yielding to pressure, b capable of being persuaded or coerced squeeze (I), vb trans & intrans [1 skwēz, 2 skwīz] Prob fr O E (non-WS) cwēsan, 'to bruise, dash against, to squeeze', w O Fr pref es-, fr Lat ex-, as intens, further connexions of cwēsan are doubtful A trans 1 To compress (esp a soft substance) between two or more surfaces or between the fingers, to press firmly, to mould, knead to squeeze moist clay, to squeeze a person's hand 2 A To exert pressure upon for the purpose of extracting moisture to squeeze a sponge, to squeeze a lemon dry, b to extract (moisture) by squeezing to squeeze juice from a lemon 3 (fig) A To bring moral pressure of persuasion or fear to bear upon, constrain, to practise extortion upon a usurer squeezes his victims, b to extort, extract, by moral pressure, threats & so to squeeze money, a confession, from a person 4 To pack tightly, cram, compress, jam in, by pressing to squeeze things into a box, to squeeze oneself into a room & so 5 To gain, force, by pushing and pressing to squeeze one's way through a crowd 6 To take an impression of (moulded, engraved, inscribed object & so) on a plastic surface B intrans To go, move, pass, force one's way by squeezing and compressing to squeeze through a narrow opening squeeze (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of squeezing to give one's hand a squeeze 2 Crowding, compression, state of being packed closely together it was a tight squeeze to get everything in 3 Impression of inscription, coin & so, taken by pressure on soft surface, such as on damp paper squeezer, n [1 skwēzer, 2 skwīzer] squeeze (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, squeezes, specif a device for extracting juice from fruit & so, b machine for removing air-bubbles from puddled iron 2 Squeezers, playing-cards with value indicated in top right hand corner squelch (I), vb intrans [1 skwelch, 2 skwel(t)] Imitative 1 To produce a splashing, gurgling sound, or a sound of suction, as by walking in wet boots through adhesive mud & so 2 A To crush, annihilate, as by treading upon, b (fig) to disconcert, reduce to silence by rebuke or irony squelch (II), n See prec 1 Sound of suction made in walking through wet, thick mud & so 2 Act of squelching, a crushing extermination, b rebuke or retort which silences opposition, disconcerts, and abascs & so squib (I), n [1 skwib, 2 skwīb] fr next word 1 Small firework which, when lighted, gives off a series of sparks, ending with a loud but harmless explosion squib (II), n [1 skwīb, 2 skwīb] 2 Tube of gunpowder used to fire a charge 3 Short satirical composition, a lampoon squib (III), n See prec 1 Sound of suction made in walking through wet, thick mud & so 2 Act of squelching, a crushing extermination, b rebuke or retort which silences opposition, disconcerts, and abascs & so squib (IV), n [1 skwīb, 2 skwīb] fr next word 1 Small firework which, when lighted, gives off a series of sparks, ending with a loud but harmless explosion squib (V), n [1 skwīb, 2 skwīb] 2 Tube of gunpowder used to fire a charge 3 Short satirical composition, a lampoon squib (VI), n [1 skwīb, 2 skwīb] fr next word 1 Sound of suction made in walking through wet, thick mud & so 2 Act of squelching, a crushing extermination, b rebuke or retort which silences opposition, disconcerts, and abascs & so squid (I), n [1 skwid, 2 skwīd] Origin uncertain, perb related to O N skjella, 'squirt' 1 Kind of cuttle-fish with a slender body and long arms and tentacles, esp the common squid, used as bait 2 Kind of artificial bait, sometimes made of metal in imitation of a squid squid (II), n [1 skwid, 2 skwīd] fr prec To fish with squid as bait squid (III), n [1 skwid, 2 skwīd] Etymol. doubtful, perb imitative 1 To squirm (I), n [1 skwirm, 2 skwīrm] Etymol. doubtful, perb imitative 1 To squiffy, adj [1 skwif, 2 skwīf] Etymol. unknown Slightly intoxicated, tipsy squiggle, n & vb trans [1 skwīgl, 2 skwīgl] See squeegee, origin of variant unknown squill, n [1 skwil, 2 skwīl] M E, fr M Fr squilla, fr Lat squilla, fr Gk skilla, 'squill, sea-onion' 1 Genus, Scilla, of plants of the lily family with blue or purplish, bell shaped flowers, the bulb of some species is used medicinally 2 Dried and sliced bulb of the squill, used as purgative and emetic drug 3 Genus of crustaceans, esp kind of shrimp squint, n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] The quinsy-word, see quinsy squint (I), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] Variant of squint Arch or series of arches across interior right angle, esp of square tower, to support octagonal spire & so squint (II), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] Occurs in Early M E in adv asquint, op O Frs schin, 'oblique', & schinle, 'obliquity', also Dan pas skina, 'aslant' Prob connected w askance 1 Condition in which both eyes cannot look, at the same time, straight at an object, condition in which the eyes tend to converge or to diverge, caused by an affection of the eye-muscles or nerves, strabismus to have a bad squint 2 (colloq) Look, peep, glance let me have a squint at it 3 Small tunnel open at either end, made through the thickness of the wall of a church to enable the high altar to be seen from transepts, side chapels & so squint (III), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (IV), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (V), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (VI), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (VII), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (VIII), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (IX), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (X), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XI), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XII), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XIII), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XIV), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XV), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XVI), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XVII), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XVIII), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XIX), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XX), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XXI), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes

squint (XXII), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes squint (XXIII), n [1 skwint, 2 skwīnt] A intrans 1 To be affected with strabismus or squint, to look in different directions with the two eyes 2 Squint at, a to look hastily and sideways at, b (colloq) to glance, look, at B trans (rare) To cause (eyes) to squint to squint the eyes twist the body, wriggle, writhe 2 (fig) To exhibit a sense of humiliation, embarrassment, discomfort, to feel and betray impatience and silent dislike of what is said or of something which occurs squirm (II), n., fr prec 1 Squirming, writhing motion, wriggle 2 (naut) Kink in rope squirrel, n [1 skwɪrəl, 2 skwɪrəl] ME squirrel, fr O Fr escurel, fr L Lat sciurellus, fr sciurus, 'squirrel', fr Gk skiouros, fr skid, 'shadow', see scigraphy, & curd, 'tail', op Gk ourakhde, 'point', cogn w Lat uruncum, 'lowest part of ear of corn', see also uro- Small arboreal, bushy tailed, hibernating rodent, genus Sciurus, with reddish, dark-brown, or grey fur, barking squirrel, prairie-dog, flying squirrel, species with extendible, lateral membranes serving as parachutes squirrel-fish n Reddish fish of West Indies squirrel-grass, n Wild barley squirrel monkey, n A small, long-tailed monkey of S America, b marmoset squirrel-tail, n Kind of grass resembling barley squirt (I), vb trans & intrans [1 skwɪrt, 2 skwɪrt] Op L G squithen 1 trans To eject (liquid) in a thin but fairly powerful stream, or jet 2 intrans To spurt out, be forced out, in a jet squirt (II), n., fr prec 1 Jet, stream, of liquid &c 2 Instrument for ejecting liquid in a jet, syringe 3 (colloq and vulg) Concocted, hmnptious, insignificant npart, pert, self satisfied person squish, n. [1 skwɪʃ, 2 skwɪʃ] Prob variant of squash (II) (colloq) Marmalade stab (I), vb trans & intrans [1 stəb, 2 stəb] Etymol. doubtful, perh fr Swed ställa, 'a stab, stump' A trans 1 To pierce, wound, penetrate flesh or substance of, with stick, or pointed weapon (esp with a knife or dagger) to stab one in the arm Phr to stab in the back, to disparage, injure, in underhand way, to backbite 2 To cause to pierce, to stick, jab to stab a weapon into 3 (fig) To attack, assail, injure maliciously to stab one's reputation 4 To roughen surface of (wall &c) by blows from a pick, to enable it to hold a coat of plaster B intrans 1 To aim a blow, to make a thrust, with pointed weapon to stab at a person 2 (of wound, pain) To produce sensation of stabbing, to shoot, throb suddenly and painfully stab (II), n., fr prec A sharp, sudden, violent blow, thrust, with pointed weapon a stab in the breast, Phr (fig) a stab in the back, a malicious treacherous attempt to injure, b a sudden sharp shoot, or throb, of pain

Stabat Mater, n [1 stəbət mātər, 2 stəbət mātər] Lat stābat mater (dolorosa), 'the mother stood', first words of hymn. 1 Medi several Latin sequences on the Crucifixion. 2 Musical setting of this stabber, n. [1 stəbər, 2 stəbər] stab (I) & -er 1 One who stabs an assassin, one who kills by stabbing 2 That which stabs, esp instrument for stabbing or piercing stability, n [1 stəbɪlɪtɪ, 2 stəbɪlɪtɪ] Lat stabilitas (-em), 'firmness', fr stabilis, 'firm, stable', see stable (I) & -ity State or quality of being stable steadiness, firmness stabilization n [1 stəbɪlɪzəʃən, 2 stəbɪlɪzəʃən] Next word & -ation Act of stabilizing, state of being stabilized, esp of a country's currency, by fixing a definite gold value for it stabilize, vb trans [1 stəbɪləɪz, 2 stəbɪləɪz] stabiliz, fr Lat stabilis, 'firm', see stable (I), & -ize To make stable, bring into a state of stability or equilibrium, specif, to stabilize a currency stabilizer, n. [1 stəbɪləɪzər, 2 stəbɪləɪzər] prec & -er One who that which, stabilizes, specif, an additional plane or fin attached to aeroplane &c to maintain stability in flight stable (I), adj [1 stəbəl, 2 stəbəl] fr Lat stabilis, 'firm, steady, constant', fr sta-, fr base stā, stā*, 'to stand', see stand, state, & -ble 1 (of material and non material things) Fixed, firmly established, steady, not easily moved or upset stable foundations, a stable government, stable currency, reverse of shifting, uncertain, fluctuating 2 Resolute, unwavering, steadfast, tenacious of purpose 3 (mechan) Stable equilibrium, tendency of body to return to position of rest when moved or disturbed stable (II), n., fr O Fr estable, fr Lat stabulum, 'stable, stall, lair, hive, hut, bovel', fr stā-dhlo*, expanded fr stā*, stā*, 'to stand', cogn w stall (I) See also stand, state, & prec 1 Building fitted and used as shelter for cattle or, more usually, for horses 2 Group of horses kept in any particular stable, and belonging to a given owner stable (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To put into a stable 2 intrans To be kept in occupancy, a stable stable-boy, n. Boy employed in stable stable-call, n. Signal in cavalry regiment for watering and grooming horses stableman, n [1 stəbəlˈmən, 2 stəbəlˈmən] Man employed in or about a stable stability, n. [1 stəbɪlɪtɪ, 2 stəbɪlɪtɪ] stable (I) & -ness Quality of being stable, stability stabling, n [1 stəbɪlɪŋ, 2 stəbɪlɪŋ] stable (II) & -ing Set of stables, accommodation for horses &c stablish, vb trans. [1 stəbəlɪʃ, 2 stəbəlɪʃ] Abbr fr establish, (archaic) To make firm, set stably, to found, establish stably, adv [1 stəbəlɪ, 2 stəbəlɪ] stable (I) & -ly In a stable manner, firmly staccato, adv & adj [1 stəkətəʊ, 2 stəkətəʊ] Ital, PP of staccare, fr dulaccare, 'to detach', op detach & see tack (I) (mus) 1 adv With each note played in a sharply detached, abrupt manner 2 adj (of passage note &c) To be played staccato staccato mark, dot above or below musical note to show that it is to be played staccato stack (I), n [1 stæk, 2 stæk] ME stac fr ON stakkr, 'stack', cogn w Lath stakas, 'pillar' O Prussian staklan, 'enport', fr base stā* & do expanded fr stā*, stā* & do, to stand', see stand & words there referred to 1 Large symmetrical pile of hay straw or unthrashed corn, usually round or rectangular, with topsloping to a peak or ridge rock 2 Any orderly heap pile, or group a stack of wood &c, specif a pyramidal pile of rifles &c, with muzzles upwards b cluster of chimneys projecting above a roof 3 Also, smoke stack, chief chimney or funnel of locomotive engine, furnace &c 4 (esp Scots) Tall, detached shaft of rock 5 (as measure of firewood &c) One hundred and eight onbns feet 6 (colloq) Any large pile, heap a stack of papers books stack (II), vb trans, fr prec To place, arrange pile up in a stack Phr stack arms, (mil) command to pile rifles &c in a stack stack-funnel, n. Vertical, cylindrical opening down centre of haystack &c, to prevent overheating stack-stand, n. Rough platform on short stone or wooden posts, faggots &c, to raise stack above ground to prevent injury from damp, rats &c stack-yard, n. Enclosure in farm &c, within which stacks are erected stacte n. [1 stæktɪ, 2 stæktɪ] Lat stactē, 'oil of myrrh', fr Gk staktē, fr stazein to drop drip, op Gk stagon 'flowing drop', cogn w Lat stagnum, 'pond', see stagnant Spice used by ancient Jews in making incense (op Exodus xxx 34) stactometer n [1 stæktəmɪtər, 2 stæktəmɪtər] fr Gk staktēs, 'flowing in drops' fr stazein, 'to flow', see prec, & -meter Tubular instrument pierced with minute hole for measuring liquid in drops stadium, n. [1 stædɪəm, 2 stædɪəm] Lat stadum, fr Gk stadion, 'racecourse, stadium', apparently, through the influence of cladior, 'firm', fr base stā*, 'to stand', q v under stand (I), for earlier spadion, 'racecourse', fr spazin, 'to draw out, stretch', q v under spathe spasm, span, speed. 1 (Gk antiq) Foot racecourse at Olympia &c, where games were held. 2 Course specially prepared for foot races, consisting of a large open space enclosed by walls and tiers of seats for spectators 3 Length of Olympic stadium from end to end, as ancient Greek measure of length equal to nearly 203 yards. 4 (med) Specific phase or stage of disease stad(t)holder, n [1 stædˈhəldər, 2 stædˈhəldər] prec & -ate Office of stadholder stad(t)holdership, n [1 stædˈhəldərʃɪp, 2 stædˈhəldərʃɪp] See prec & -ship Stadholdership staff (I), n [1 stæf, 2 stæf] OE staf, ME staf 'stick, staff, letter, verse', op O Fris. stef ON staf OHG stab cogn w Sert stabhast, 'supports', stambast, 'post', Lith stebas, 'staff, pole', & further w stem (I) 1 a (archaic) Strong relatively slender stick, rod pole esp for aid in walking &c, or as weapon, b staff or wand in various forms as a badge of office, or authority &c pastoral staff (of a bishop) 2 Tall pole serving as a support flagstaff 3 Instrument used in a surveying, b (naut) for taking altitudes 4 (surg) Curved steel instrument for guiding knife into bladder 5 (fig) Support, prop, stay bread is the staff of life, a son should be the staff of his father's old age. 6 Organized group of persons working under central direction, esp in a factory, an educational or other institution &c the nursing, medical, staff of a hospital, the staff of a college, teaching staff &c 7 (mil) Group of officers of various ranks not themselves in command, serving at the headquarters of a military unit larger than a regiment under the commander of the unit and engaged in administrative or executive duties connected with the various branches of military operations and organization, General Staff that for the army as a whole 8 (mus) Group of five parallel horizontal lines and intermediate spaces used for indicating pitch of notes staff (II), n Etymol unknown Plastic compound of plaster of Paris, glycerine, cement &c, used as material for building architectural ornament &c, esp for temporary structures staff captain n Junior staff officer of a military unit higher than a regiment staff college n Establishment for instruction and training of officers for the General Staff staffed adj [1 stæft, 2 stæft] staff (I) & -ed Having provided with, a staff a well-staffed institution staff notation n Musical notation in which the pitch of the notes is indicated by position on the staff staff officer n. Officer serving on the General Staff staff sergeant, n. Non commissioned officer serving on regimental staff staff tree n Genus, Celastrus, of small trees and climbing shrubs with brightly coloured fruit staff work n A Work of organization and direction carried out by military staff, hence b organization and management of any undertaking stag n [1 stæg, 2 stæg] Scand op ON steggr 'male bird, male cat' 1 Male of red deer, esp in and after fifth year 2 Male of other varieties of large deer 3 Bull castrated when full grown 4 (Stock Exchange)

Person applying for an allotment of shares in a new company in order to sell immediately on allotment at a profit stag-beetle, n Genus of beetles with large, strong, branched mandibles stage (I), n [1 stāj, 2 staidz], fr O Fr stage, fr Low Lat stadium*, fr statum, P P type of stare, 'to stand', see state (I) 1 Platform for raising, supporting or displaying any object, person &c, specif a platform supported by scaffolding, slung by ropes, &c, for workmen at work, b small adjustable shelf of microscope, supporting object to be examined, c usually landing stage, part of dock or wharf, on which passengers disembark from vessel 2 A raised platform in theatre on which dramatic performance &c takes place, Phr to go on the stage, take up acting as profession, b any space, surface, enclosure &c for dramatic performance 3 Dramatic literature, the drama the medieval stage 4 Acting as a profession, occupation of an actor to give up the law for the stage &c 5 (fig) Scene of action, place where plans are carried out, events happen &c 6 Period of development, specific point of progress &c at an early stage in his career, different stages of education, negotiations had reached their final stage 7 a One of a series of stopping places in a journey, of a public vehicle on a regular course &c to travel to the last stage, b distance between two successive stopping-places to travel by short stages 8 Stage coach stage (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To arrange, prepare (play &c) for public performance on the stage, put on the stage 2 To arrange the sequence of events in a pageant or other public show so as to produce the greatest dramatic effect stage-coach, n Large, public conveyance plying regularly by stages, as means of communication between two places stage-coachman, n Driver of stage-coach stage-craft, n Skill in writing plays for performance on the stage, skill and experience in everything connected with the production of plays in public stage-direction, n Instruction to the actors of a play regarding their entrances, exits, their relative positions on the stage and the like, written or printed on the copies of a play stage-door, o Door leading to back of theatre for the use of actors, workmen &c stage-effect, o Effect produced on, characterization of or suitable for, the stage stage-fever, n Infatuation for everything connected with the theatre, esp a strong desire to embark on an actor's career stage-fright, n Nervousness experienced by actor or speaker on facing an audience stage-manager, n Person superintending the acting of a play stager, n [1 stājer 2 staidz] stage (I) & -er In Phr old stager, person of long experience stage-right, n Right of producing a play stage-struck, adj Infatuated with the theatre, desirous of embracing a theatrical career stag-evil, o Look-jaw in horses stage whisper, n loud whisper as of actor on stage intended to be heard by audience staggard, n [1 stāgard 2 stegard] stag & -ard Stag of the fourth year stagger (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stājer, 2 stega] M F stakkeren, fr O N stakra, 'to cause to reel', op O N staka, 'to push', M Du staggeren A intrans 1 To move with an unsteady, uneven, uncertain gait, as from weakness, shock, intoxication &c, to reel, walk stumblingly 2 (fig) To become irresolute, vacillating, hesitant B trans 1 (fig) To disconcert, overwhelm as by amazement, horror &c, by the shock of something unexpected &c I was positively staggered by the news, the size of the bill staggered him 2 (metaph)

To set (wheel spokes) inclined alternately to right and left stagger (II), n, fr prec 1 Staggering, tottering, unsteady, jerky movement 2 The staggers, a feeling of giddiness, vertigo, b often blind staggers, nervous disease of cattle and horses, characterized by staggering movements in walking staggerer, n [1 stājerer, 3 stāgers] stagger (I) & -er a One who, that which, staggers or disconcerts, specif b disconcerting or difficult question &c, poser staggering, adj [1 stājeriŋ, 2 stāgeriŋ], fr Pres Part of stagger (I) 1 Tottering, reeling, unsteady staggering gait 2 Causing one to stagger a staggering blow 3 Of a kind, size, amount, to produce a shock of amazement, overwhelming, gravely disconcerting a staggering piece of news, sum, misfortune staggeringly, adv Prec & -ly To an extent which staggers one stag-horn, n 1 Kind of branching moss or fern 2 Kind of large coral staghound, n [1 stāghound, 2 steghaund] One of a large, swift breed of dogs used for stag-hunting stag-hunting, n The chase of the stag on horseback, with pack of hounds staginess, n [1 stājnes, 2 staidzines] stogy & -ness State or quality of being stogy, theatricality staging, n [1 stājiŋ, 2 staidziŋ] stage (I) & -ing 1 Temporary platform or scaffolding for use of men at work on the face of a building 2 Method or process of presenting a play on the stage

Stagrite, n [1 stājrit, 2 stēdzirrit], fr Lat Stagrites, fr Gk Stagēritēs, fr Stagera, town in Macedonia, & -its Native of Stagera, esp the Stagrite, Aristotle stagnancy, n [1 stāgnansi, 2 stegnansi] stagnant & -cy Condition of being stagnant stagnant, adj [1 stāgnant, 2 stegnant], fr Lat stagnantem, Pres Part of stagnare, 'to become a pool', fr stagnum, 'pool', cogn w Gk stagnōn, 'drop', stēzin, 'to drip', op stacte 1 (of water) A not moving or flowing, having no current, remaining stationary as in a pond, ditch &c, b esp stale, foul, unhealthy, through lack of motion 2 Inactive, remaining in a dull, moribund state, torpid, sluggish, reverse of brisk, lively trade is stagnant, a stagnant brain stagnantly, adv Prec & -ly In a stagnant manner stagnate, vb intrans [1 stāgnāt, 2 stēgnēt], fr Lat stagnāt (um), P P type of stagnare, 'to become a pool', fr stagnum, 'pool', see stagnant 1 (of water) To remain stationary, without current or flowing motion, esp to become foul through remaining in a pond, ditch, barrel &c without inlet or outlet 2 (fig) To be and remain inactive, to become dull and lifeless through lack of use, to lack variety and movement stagnation, n [1 stāgnāshun, 2 stēgnēsən] Prec & -ion. (lit and fig) Act or process of stagnating, condition of being stagnant stagnicolous, adj [1 stāgnikulus 2 stegnikulus], fr Lat stagnum, 'pond, swamp', see stagnant, & -ic, & -colous, 'to inhabit', see colony & -ous Living in or near stagnant water, marsh &c stag's-horn fern, n Genus, Platycentrum, of evergreen ferns with broad, antler-like fronds stagi, adj [1 stāji 2 staidzi] stage (I) & -y Characteristic of the stage, (usually in unfavourable sense) over-ompatic in manner or mode of speech, producing an effect of unreality and insincerity, artificial, theatrical staid, adj [1 stād, 2 staid] Variant of staid, P P of stay (I) Steady, sober, sedate reverse of frivolous or flighty staidly, adv Prec & -ly In a staid manner staidness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being staid stain (I), vb trans & intrans [1 stān, 2 stem], M E stemen, abbr fr disstemen, fr O Fr disstendre, 'to colour', fr dis- & Lat tin gere, 'to dye, stain', see tinot A trans 1 To make a stain on surface of, to discolour to stain one's fingers with ink, one's coat with blackberry juice 2 To impart colour, esp by a deliberate process, to the surface of (substance) to stain wood, glass &c 3 To colour (part of tissue &c) for greater distinctness in examination under a microscope, by staining with a substance whose chemical reaction affects some cells &c but not others 4 To mar, impart moral blemish to his character was stained by cruelty and rapacity B intrans 1 To be affected by, susceptible of, discolouration, to be liable to staining the cloth will not stain 2 To be liable to cause a stain, or produce discolouration ink stains worse than almost anything stain (II), n, fr prec 1 Discolouration, dirty mark, patch, streak, spot, of distinct colour, or foreign substance, esp upon the surface of some other substance or material: a stain on the cloth, petrol will remove stains of grease, ink stains, blood stains &c 2 Colour given in wood, glass, wall paper &c by staining or dyeing 3 Pigment, colouring matter, used for staining 4 Moral defect, blemish, spot without a stain on one's character stainable, adj [1 stānabl, 2 stēnabl] stain (I) & -able Capable of being stained stainer, n [1 stāner, 2 stēner] stain (II) & -er One who, that which, stains, specif, colouring matter used in staining stainless, adj [1 stānles, 2 stēnles] stain (I) & -less 1 Without a stain, (esp in moral sense) spotless, immaculate, unstained 2 Not liable to become stained stainless steel stainlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a stainless manner, without causing stains or becoming stained stainlessness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being stainless stair, n [1 stār, 2 ste] O E stājer, 'stair, ladder', M E staire, fr stāg* ir, earlier stāg*, op M Du stājer, op same base in Goth staija, O H G staija, 'path', in gradational clination w O E stīgan, O H G stīgan, 'to climb, go up', op stāle (I), cogn w Serb stigniti, 'to ascend', Lett staijat, 'to go, walk', stija, 'path', O Slav stigna, 'street', Gk stēikēn, 'to go', stēikos, 'rank, line', see stichic 1 One of a series of steps leading from one floor to another in a building a short passage and then three stairs 2 a (in sing) A flight, series, of steps forming part of the structure of house or other building, leading from one floor to another a winding stair, a short stair leads to the first floor, the stair is very steep, more commonly, b (pl) stairs the stairs are steep, a flight of stairs, Phr below stairs, in the lower floor of a house, specif, the kitchen and servants' quarters in a house with a basement stair-carpet, n Carpet woven in narrow strip for laying on stairs staircase, n [1 stārās, 2 stēkās] 1 The part of a building in which the stairs are constructed 2 The stairs themselves, including the banisters, flight of stairs in any one part of a house, forming a continuous series a narrow staircase, the principal staircase, large houses often have several staircases, carless staircase, flight of stairs winding spirally round central pillar, also spiral staircase stair-rod, n Metal or wooden bar for holding stair-carpet in position at bottom of each riser stairway, n [1 stārwa, 2 stēwa] Staircase, flight of steps stairth, n [1 stāth, 2 steip] O E stap, M E stape, stap, 'bank, shore', op O N stāth, 'landing stage', cogn w O E stede, 'place', see stead & stead Wharf with apparatus for loading coal &c stairthe, n [1 stāth, 2 stēid] Variant of prec stake (I), n. [1 stāk, 2 stēk] OE staca, ME stake, 'stake', op O Frs stake, ON stakr, OHG stehho, 'pillar, stake', cogn w Lett stēga, 'stake', prob also w Lat ignum, 'beam', gradational variant of stake (II). 1 Bar of wood, strong but slender relatively to its length, pointed for driving into the ground to tether an animal to a stake, to tie a plant to a stake, to fix a row of stakes. 2 A stout post to which person was tied when being burnt alive burnt at the stake, hence, b the stake, death by burning some died by the axe, some perished at the stake. 3 Small anvil used by tinsmith &c. 4 Money &c risked on a bet &c, amount or object wagered, esp (pl), money &c deposited with third person until wager is decided. Phr at stake, risked, depending, on the outcome of an event &c. 5 (pl) a money offered as prize for horse-race &c, b race run for such a prize. 6 Interest, share in chances of profit or loss, concern a stake in an undertaking, in the country.

stake (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To fasten, support, secure, with stake(s) dahlias and Michaelmas daisies should be staked long before they attain their full growth, b to pierce, impale, with a stake my horse got staked in trying to jump a very big fence. 2 Usually stake off, out, to mark (boundary &c) by driving in stakes to stake out a boundary &c. Phr to stake out a claim, (1) (lit) mark out the piece of land which one claims as one's own (in a new settlement, minefield &c), (u) (fig) to set up, make, a claim, generally. 3 To pot on as a stake, to wager, hazard, risk, as a bet to stake a fortune on a single race, (also fig) to stake one's future on a single chance, I stake my reputation on his honesty, will forfeit my reputation if he be not honest.

stake-boat, n. Boat anchored or moored to post at starting point or as winning post in boat race. stakeholder, n. [1 stākholder, 2 stēkholder] Person appointed to hold the stakes for a wager &c.

stake-net, n. Fishing net stretched on stakes in shallow water near shore of river or estuary.

stalactite adj [1 stalaktik, 2 stēlaktik], fr Gk stalaktos, fr stalassein, 'to drip, drip', op Gk klma, 'stagnant water, marsh', cogn w MLG stal, 'urine of horses', see stale (II). Of, pertaining to, in the form of, containing, stalactites.

stalactiform, adj [1 stalaktiform, 2 stēlaktiform] See prec & -form. Having the structure or appearance of a stalactite.

stalactite, n. [1 stalaktik, 2 stēlaktik, 3 stalaktit, 4 stalaktis], fr Gk stalaktos, 'dripping', see stalactite, & -ite. Long, tapering or cylindrical, calcareous formation, resembling an icicle in form, hanging from roof of cavern, produced by continuous deposits of limy matter dissolved in the water which percolates through, distinguished from stalagmite.

stalactitic, adj [1 stalaktik, 2 stēlaktik] Prec & -ic. Same as stalactite, stalactitic column, formed by the uniting of a stalactite with a stalagmite.

stalagmite, n. [1 stalagmit, 2 stēlagmit, 3 stalagmit, 4 stalagmitis], fr Gk stalagmē, 'dripping', fr stalassein 'to drip', see stalactite & -ite. Formation analogous to stalactite but formed from below, by limy matter deposited on the floor of a cavern by water dripping from roof, a stalagmite often becomes united into a continuous column with the stalactite forming from above.

stalagmatic adj [1 stalagmitik, 2 stēlagmitik] Prec & -ic. Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, a stalagmite.

stalagmatically adv [1 stalagmitikali, 2 stēlagmitikali] Prec & -al & -ly. In the manner of a stalagmite, as a stalagmite.

stale (I), adj [1 etil, 2 etwil] ME stale, 'stale', prob fr next word. 1 Not fresh, having lost some original, vital quality, specif. a (of air) heavy, close, stagnant, vitiated, b (of food &c.) beginning to decay, or grow sour &c, stale bread, dry, not freshly baked, c (of wine) flat, insipid. 2 Having lost bodily or mental freshness, vigour, sprung, grown out of condition, fatigued by prolonged strain or monotony one's mind gets stale with too much teaching, an athlete becomes stale through overtraining. 3 (fig) Lacking in interest or originality, no longer new and fresh, grown tedious from frequent repetition or long familiarity a stale joke, stale news.

stale (II), n. Cp MLG stal, 'urine of horses', LG stallen, Lith. telzu, 'to make water', cogn w Gk klma, 'stagnant water', stalassein, 'to drip', cp stalactic. Urine of cattle and horses.

stale (III), vb trans, fr stale (I) (rare) To make stale, (chiefly in spiritual sense).

stale (IV), vb intrans Cp stale (II) (of horses and cattle) To discharge urine.

stale (V), n. OE stalu, ME stale, 'theft', cp OHG stala, 'theft', gradational variant of steal. (rare or archaic) Victim of deception, dope, gull, laughing stock, bnt.

stalely, adv [1 stālī, 2 stēlī] stale (I) & -ly. In a stale manner.

stalemate, n & vb trans. [1 stālmāt, 2 stēlmāt] stale (I) & mate (I), in chess 1 n. a (chess) Position in which one player can make no move without bringing his king into check, b (fig) a deadlock, an impasse in negotiations. 2 vb To pot (opponent) into this position.

staleness, n. [1 stālīn, 2 stēlīn] stale (I) & -ness. State or quality of being stale.

stalk (I), n. [1 stāv-k, 2 stōk] ME stalle, 'stalk, reed', formed w dimin suff -oc, uc, cp bullock, fr OE stela, stela, 'stalk, support', cp OHG stul, Mod. Germ stiel, 'stem, stalk', pos cogn w Lat. stilus, 'a stake' (but see alternative explanation of this under style (I)), perh. also Gk. stēlēde, 'handle of an axe', & stēlēhos, 'trunk, log', cp further the gradational variant Lat stolo, 'shoot from a root, sucker'. The last is connected by Walde w Lat latus, 'broad, expansive', fr stalos*, q v under latitude. 1 (bot) a Central support, stem, axis of a plant, esp of herbaceous plant, b any secondary stem, petiole &c supporting a leaf, flower fruit or other part of a plant. 2 (zool.) Slender part supporting an organ, stem, peduncle. 3 Object or part of object resembling a stalk in appearance or function, specif a stem of a glass goblet &c. b shaft of feather, c tall, slender chimney. 4 (archit.) Moulding, fluting &c, resembling a stalk.

stalk (II), vb intrans & trans OE stealcian, ME stalker, 'to walk carefully', perh orig 'to walk lifting the feet high at each step', the word has been connected w OE stealc, 'steep lofty'. A. intrans 1 a To walk with a lofty, stately, dignified stride, to move with a certain pride and arrogance. b (fig of disease, death, misfortune) to sweep silently but irresistibly along pestilence and famine stalked unchecked through the land. 2 To practise the stalking of game. B. trans. 1 To pursue, approach, get close to (game &c) cautiously and noiselessly, without being seen, heard, or wounded. 2 To stride through, across along to stalk the land, the streets.

stalk (III), n. fr prec 1 Stuff imposing gait. 2 Act of stalking game, stealthy pursuit.

stalked, adj [1 stāwk, 2 stōk] stalk (I) & -ed. Having supported by, a stalk.

stalker, n [1 stāvker, 2 stōker] stalk (II) & -er. One who stalks, esp one who pursues game by stalking, esp deer stalker &c.

stalk-eyed, adj (of crustacean &c) Having the eyes supported on stalk like structures.

stalking-horse n [1 stāvking hors, 2 stōking hōs] 1 Horse used as cover by hunter in stalking game. 2 (fig) Alleged motive, pretext concealing real intention.

stalkless adj [1 stāwkles, 2 stōkles] stalk (I) & -less. Without, unsupported by, a stalk.

stalklet, n. [1 stāwklet, 2 stōklet] stalk (I) & -let. Small stalk.

stalky, adj [1 stāwki, 2 stōki] stalk (I) & -y. 1 Like a stalk. 2. (of plant) Having a long stalk with few or no leaves, leggy.

stall (I), n [1 stawl, 2 stōl] OE steall, stall, 'stable', ME stall OHG stall, ON stallr, all fr Gmc stabla-*, cp also OE stabil, OHG stadal, 'foundation, base', fr Aryan type stādhlō*, whence also Lat stabilum, see stable (II). The word is extended fr the base stā*, sta-* &c, q v under stand (I), stato (I) &c. 1 Division compartment, in stable, cow house &c, in which horse or beast is kept, fed &c. 2 a Small recess with seat, in choir of cathedral, church, chapel &c, sometimes assigned by right of office to specific church dignitary canon's stalls &c, hence, b ecclesiastical office, dignity, entitling holder to a stall in a cathedral &c. to hold a prebendal stall. 3 a Small shelter or enclosed space, compartment, booth, in market, fair, or other public place, for sale of goods a stall at a bazaar, also in compounds book-stall &c, b table, counter &c in a booth on which goods for sale are displayed. 4 Theatre seat forming one of a series, usually with arms, on ground floor of auditorium and nearest the stage, orchestra stalls, those in front, pit stalls those in rear. 5 Covering, sheath, for injured finger &c, usually compounded finger, thumb stall &c. 6 Recess for single workman in coal mine &c.

stall (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A. trans. 1 a To place, keep in a stall, specif b to fatten (cattle) in a stall. 2 To furnish (stable &c) with, divide into, stalls. B. intrans. a (of horse vehicle, train &c) To be brought to a standstill, stuck, obstructed, by snow, mud &c, b (of engine, esp of motor) to stop working, c (of aeroplane) to lose speed to such an extent that the machine becomes out of control.

stall (III), n. Variant of stale (V). Thief's accomplice, who distracts victim's attention during perpetration of theft &c.

stallage, n. [1 stāwhj, 2 stōldz] stall (I) & -age. 1 a Space for stall in market &c, b rent paid for such space. 2 Right of erecting stalls in market-place &c.

stall-fed, adj (of cattle) Fed, fattened, in a stall instead of in the open fields.

stall-feed, vb trans To keep and feed (cattle) in a stall, esp for fattening.

stallion, n [1 stālun, 2 stālun] ME stalon, fr O Fr estalon, lit. horse kept in a stall, fr OHG stal, 'stall', see stall (I), & -oon. Uncastrated male horse, an entire horse, esp a sire for breeding.

stalwart (I) adj [1 stālwart, 2 stōlwat] OE stælwerde, able to stand one in good stead, serviceable. ME stælwerpe, stælwerpe &c, also once stabelwerpe, firm the OE form may be for stadelwerpe*, firm on its base, or may simply be fr a Gmc stēl*, cp OE stēl, 'place relation assistance', wh is a gradational variant of stail*-as in Mod. Germ ställen (fr stalljan*), to place, cp also Gk stēllein, to arrange set in order &c (with orig e). The base is an extension of sta-* &c stand, see stall (I) & stand (I) see second element under worth. 1 Tall and muscular robust, strong. 2 Staunch, reliable unflinchingly loyal to a person or cause stalwart defenders.

stalwart (II) n, fr prec A staunch reliable person, who is unshakable in defence and support of a cause of a party in politics &c.

stalwartly adv Prec & -ly. In a stalwart manner.

stalwartness n. See prec & -ness. State or quality of being stalwart.

stamen, n [1 stāmen, 2 stēmən] Lat. stamen, 'warp in upright loom', cp Gk stēmōn, 'warp', fr base stā*, 'to stand', see stand (I). Cp further Sert sthaman, 'stamēon', Goth. stāma, 'maternal', Lith. stomā, 'stature' (bot) Pollen bearing organ of flower.

stamen, adj [1 stámond, 2 stémend] Proc & -ed Having stamens stamina, n [1 stámina, 2 stémína] Lat stámina, pl of stámen, 'warp of upright loom', see stamen Vigour of constitution, vitality, staying power staminal, adj [1 stá-, stáminál, 2 stá-, stáminál], fr Lat stámin-, stem of stamen, & -al (bot) Of, pertaining to, stamens 2 Of, pertaining to, giving, stamens staminate, adj [1 stáminát, 2 stémínat], fr Lat stámin-, stem of stamen, & -ate (bot) Having stamens, esp having stamens hut no pistils staminal, adj [1 stáminál, 2 stémínál] See next word & -al Staminal stamineous, adj [1 stáminéus, 2 stémínéus], fr Lat stámin-, stem of stamen, & -eous Of, pertaining to, stamens stamiferous, adj [1 stáminíferus, 2 stémíníferus], fr Lat stámin-, stem of stamen, & -i & -ferous Producing stamens stammer (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stámer, 2 stámé] ME stameren, op M Du stameren, OHG stammalon, in gradational relation w OS, & OHG stum, 'dumb' 1 intrans a Specif, to speak with a nervous impediment or hesitation, esp, to utter certain sounds repeatedly, pause on certain sounds, through inability to complete the articulation, to stutter, b to speak incoherently, jerkily, and brokenly through nervousness, to hesitate, hum and haw in speaking 2 trans To utter, pronounce, with a stammer to stammer, stammer out, a few words stammer (II), n, fr prec Nervous defect in articulation arising from a kind of partial paralysis in, and lack of control of, the tongue and lips, resulting in the speaker dwelling unduly on the beginning or end of a sound through inability, sometimes to begin, sometimes to complete it, and pass on to the next sound of a series, a stutler stammerer, n [1 stámerer, 2 stáméer] stammer (I) & -er Person afflicted with a stammer stammering, adj [1 stámering, 2 stáméring], fr Pres Part of stammer (I) 1 Specif, afflicted with, speaking with, a stammer 2 a (of speaker) Halting, hesitating, b uttered with hesitation a stammering speech stammeringly, adv Proc & -ly In a stammering manner stamp (I), vb trans & intrans [1 stamp, 2 stamp] ME stampen, op O E stampen, M.L.G. M Du stampen, OHG stampfen, 'to pound', ON stappa, 'to stamp', cogn w Gk stámben, 'to crush with the foot', nasalized variant of base in step (II) A trans 1 a To imprint (inscription, pattern, mark &c on) by means of a die &c to stamp a document with the address and date, metal stamped with a design, goods stamped with the maker's name, b to imprint on a surface by means of a die &c to stamp one's name on a title page 2 To affix a post age stamp to (letter, document &c) 3 To crush, pulverize (ore &c), by pressure, esp in a stamp mill 4 Usually stamp out, to cut out, give shape to (piece of metal, dough &c), by means of die, cutter &c 5 To imprint, impress, upon the mind the scene is stamped on my memory 6 (fig) To distinguish, characterize, mark, give specific character to, reveal true nature of his manners stamp him as a cad 7 To bring down (one's foot) heavily to the ground, strike ground violently with (foot), esp as indication of anger, impatience &c 8 Stamp down flat &c, to crush, flatten &c by stamping heavily upon with the foot to stamp the grass flat Phr to stamp out, (1) to destroy, extinguish, by crushing with foot to stamp a fire out, (2) (fig) to suppress, extirpate, by drastic measures to stamp out disease, a rebellion &c B intrans To strike the ground violently with the foot to stamp with rage, 'the wild ass stamps o'er his head, but cannot break his sleep' (Fitzgerald, 'Omar Khayyam', xvii stamp (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of stamping, heavy blow of foot on ground &c 2 a Design, mark, signature &c impressed or printed upon the surface of something by means of a die &c, b specific mark &c stamped on goods &c by maker, owner &c as sign of genuineness, ownership &c every article bears the stamp of the maker 3 Object used for stamping, having a design incised or in relief upon it 4 a Official device imprinted on certain documents, goods &c to indicate that the necessary duty, fee &c has been paid, b paper label, often adhesive, bearing such a device to be affixed to documents &c in proof of payment of fee &c, specif, stamped piece of paper bearing value engraved on it attached to letters for the post, also postage-stamp 5 Machine, part of machine, implement, for stamping, crushing &c 6 Characteristic indication, sign or mark, evidence, of specific quality, kind, nature to bear the stamp of breeding, learning &c 7 Kind, class, character men of the same stamp stamp act, n Act of Parliament &c, imposing stamp duty, specif (cap) act of 1765, imposing stamp-duty on colonists in N America stamp-album, n Book in which stamp-collector preserves his specimens stamp-collector, n Person who collects postage stamps &c as hobby, philatelist stamp-duty, n Tax levied upon certain legal instruments, payment of which is indicated by an official stamp impressed upon, or affixed to, the document stamped (I), n [1 stamped, 2 stampid], fr Span estampido, fr estampar, 'to stamp', of Gmc origin, see stamp (I) 1 Sudden, combined, headlong rush of horses, cattle &c caused by fright 2 a Panic stricken rush or scattering of crowd of people, soldiers &c, b any confused, unreasoning rush on the part of a crowd of people &c stamped (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To take part in a stampede 2 trans To cause to stampede stamper, n [1 étamper, 2 stampa] stamp (I) & -er One who, that which, stamps, esp machine for pulverizing stone, ore &c stamp-machine, n Machine for stamping or crushing material, esp machine for reducing rags to pulp in the manufacture of paper stamp-mill, n Machine for crushing ore &c stamp-office, n Office where government stamps are issued and the revenue from stamp duties received stance, n [1 stans, 2 stans], fr O Fr stance, fr L Lat stantia, 'place, abode', fr stare, 'to stand', variant of stanza Position, attitude, assumed by player when making a stroke, at such games as golf, cricket &c stanch (I), staunch, vb trans [1 stanch, 2 stanch] ME elawunchen, fr O Fr estanchier, fr Low Lat *stagnicare, 'to stop the flow', fr stagnare, 'to be or cause to become stagnant', see stagnant a To stop or retard flow of (blood) from wound &c, esp by use of absorbents, pads &c, b to plug, bandage, or otherwise treat (a wound), so as to arrest bleeding stanch (II), adj See staunch (I) stanchion (I), n [1 stanchun, stáshun, 2 stanchun, stáshun], fr Norm Fr estanchon, fr O Fr estance, 'place, situation', see stanza & stanza Upright post or bar acting as support &c, specif, a iron rod fixed in masonry &c for support, b bar or pair of bars, usually removable, for fastening cattle &c in a stall, c (naut) post supporting deck-beam &c stanchion (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To furnish, support, with stanchions 2 To fasten (cattle) in a stall with stanchions stand (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stand, 2 stand] O E standan, ME standen, op O L.G. Goth standan, ON standa, O H.G. slantan, 'to stand', cogn w Lat stare, Gk hístēmi, 'I stand', Lith státi, O Slav státi, 'I place myself'; fr base *stā-, *stā-, 'to stand', wh appears in many words in all the Aryan languages, see stable (I), state, station,stead, stolid, locus, stool &c A. intrans 1 a (of men and quadrupeds) To place the body and limbs in such a position that the weight of the body rests, and is balanced, upon the feet, the legs being more or less straightened and braced, contrasted with sit, kneel, lie very young children cannot stand without support, so giddy that one cannot stand, no one may sit down as long as the king is standing, the cow is so weak that she can't stand, b specif (of human beings) to support weight of body on the feet, the back being relatively straight and the head erect, contrasted with crouch, squat &c stand straight, don't stoop 2 To assume a standing position, to rise to the feet from a sitting or recumbent posture everyone stood as the king entered, the congregation shall now stand 3 To remain standing, without moving from one place to another, contrasted with go, walk, run, trot &c it is more trying to stand for long periods than to walk a long distance, a horse that won't stand is a great nuisance 4 (of inanimate objects) To be upright, remain vertical the glass stands on a stem, the table will not stand without support, one's hair stands on end 5 (archaic) To halt, cease motion, stop stand and deliver! 6 To move into particular position to stand aside, back, clear, down, out &c 7 To be in a specific place, position, situation, to be placed or situated the stuffed parrot stands on the table, the house stands by the river, the chaise stand by the wall, a Roman camp once stood on the hill top, the stones stand in a circle 8 To remain in, maintain, be left in, original position, be undisturbed the walls of the keep still stand, not a stone was left standing, to stand fast, Phr to stand pat, in poker, to play the hand dealt without drawing cards, also Am polit slang, to stick firmly to one's party's politics and platform, esp on tariff matters Phr it stands to reason, is a logical deduction, can be proved logically 9 a To be in specified state or condition to stand in awe of, to stand ready for anything, to stand accused of murder, convicted of treason, Phr to stand alone, (1) to be unequalled, pre eminent, (2) to be without supporters &c, to stand corrected, accept correction, to stand well with, be on good terms with, esteemed by, to stand one's good stead, be of use, come in handy, b to be at, reach, parhousar price, measure, degree &c the thermometer stands at 50°, he stands six feet 10 To remain valid, hold good, be in force the order will still stand, his resolution still stands, that translation may stand 11 (of dog) To point 12 (naut) To steer, lay, a course to stand in, off &c B trans 1 To put into a more or less upright position, cause to remain vertical, or nearly so to stand a ladder against a wall 2 To remain firmly at, or on, resist attempts to remove from, esp in Phr to stand one's ground 3 (of physical action or process) a To tolerate, endure, be able to bear I cannot stand great heat, she will not stand another winter in England, b to remain unimpaired by, to resist, be proof against your coat won't stand much rain, these boots have stood a good deal of wear 4 (of moral attitude) To tolerate, bear, with patience, to suffer will ingly I can stand a good deal, but I won't have insolence, I will not stand any nonsense Phr I can't stand (such and such a person or thing), I detest, dislike extremely 5 To undergo, be subjected to to stand one's trial 6 To treat (person) to, pay for on behalf of to stand one's friend a dinner C Followed by adverbs and prepositions with special meanings Stand by, a to remain as an onlooker, refrain from interfering, b to support, aid, be loyal to to stand by one's friends, c to adhere to, refrain from breaking or abandoning to stand by one's promise, faith &c, d (naut) to remain near in order to help to stand by a sinking ship (of another ship), also absol. Stand for, a to support, be adherent of, strive for 1 stand for liberty, b to symbolize, be typical of the one branch stands for peace, c to represent, be significant of what the initials stand for?, d to be a candidate for, aim at election to to stand for Parliament, e to tolerate, put up with I won't stand for that Stand in, (colloq) a to cost, cause expense of it stood me in a lot of money, b to participate in, take a share, give help if you are starting a movement for brighter streets, I'll stand in Stand in with, a to be in agreement with, to support, ally oneself to to stand in with the progressive party b to take a share in along with I'll stand in with you in this expense. Stand off, (lit and fig) to be aloof, withdraw keep one's distance Stand off and on (naut) to tack along a coast Stand on, (naut) to follow a specific course. Stand out, a to be in clear relief, be distinctly outlined to stand out against a background, b to remain firm be obstinate in objecting refuse to yield. Stand to, to adhere to, abide by to stand to one's word, Phr (fig) to stand to one's guns, to stick to one's principles, decision &c Stand up a to be on one's feet, be standing, b to assume an erect position, rise to one's feet, c to hold oneself erect, refrain from stooping Stand up for, to defend maintain to stand up for oneself, for the truth Stand up to, to face boldly, meet courageously Stand upon, to take one's stand on, rely upon, insist upon to stand upon one's rights stand (II), n, fr prec 1 Halt, stoppage, arrest, cessation of progress to come to, be at, n stand Phr to make a stand (against), offer determined resistance 2. a Position, situation to take one's stand on the platform, b moral position, that on which one relies for support my stand is on the strict interpretation of the law 3 Place appointed for vehicles to stand, parking place, also in compounds cab stand &c 4 a Any structure, framework &c on which objects are kept, supported, displayed &c, also in many compounds hat stand, music-stand, wash stand &c, specif b stall, table &c for display of goods for sale a stand for fruit in a market-place. 5 Raised platform or enclosure on which persons may sit or stand bandstand, grand stand 8 Growing crop in specific area, year's growth &c n stand of clover standard (I), n [1 standard, 2 standard] fr O Fr estandard, 'banner, of Gmc origin, op stand (I), or connected w extend, also in some senses fr Engl stand 1 A flag, banner; royal standard, that bearing the royal, national arms, flown only by the Sovereign, specif, flag of cavalry regiment, contrasted with colours of infantry Phr raise the standard of revolt &c, initiate revolt, to march under the standard of, to be a follower, adherent, of 2 That which is constituted by authority as a fixed basis of comparison by which weights, measures, values (of gold and silver) are tested and tried, fixed rule, official gauge, criterion Hence 3 Style, mode type accepted and recognized by convention within a community, at a given time, as the criterion of what is best in speech behaviour, conduct, action, taste morality &c, test, criterion, pattern, approved model to sin against fall short of accepted standards, up to below, standard, society punishes those who will not conform to its standards 4 Any of various upright shafts, poles, columns serving as supports &c, o g upright stand supporting a lamp, perpendicular pole used in scaffolding &c 5 (hort.) A shrub or other plant growing with an upright, tree like stem or growing from a bud grafted upon an upright stem, contrasted with a bush, tree, climber &c standard (II), adj, fr prec 1 In accordance with serving as a recognized standard standard weights, measures, standard English.

2 Having permanent, undisputed value a standard writer, the standard books on history &c 3 n Supported by a standard, standing on hnt raised above the ground a standard lamp, b (hort) growing, grown, in form of a standard a standard tree, rose, apple &c standard-bearer, n. 1 a Member of regiment, army &c, who carries the standard, hence, b leader of party, movement, cause &c 2 (esp) Hereditary officer who bears the king's standard on great ceremonial occasions, esp at a coronation.

standard bread, n Bread containing at least four fifths of whole meal.

standardization, n. [1 standardizeshun, 2 standadazeishun] Next word & -ation. Act of standardizing, state of being standardized.

standardize, vb trans [1 standardiz, 2 standadaz] standard (II) & -ize a To reduce to an unvarying standard to standardize English speech, b to regard as standard, recognize as the standard type, measure, value &c one type of English has been standardized as the proper form for literature stand-by n [1 stand bi, 2 stand bai] Person, object, line of action &c, to which one has recourse in an emergency &c, trustworthy, reliable, person or thing standing (I), adj [1 standing, 2 standin], fr Pres Part of stand (I) 1 Remaining in an erect position standing corn Phr standing jump, one made without preliminary run. 2 Permanent, lasting, perennial, remaining always in being, contrasted with temporary a standing joke, menace, standing orders, n standing army 3. (print) Remaining set up, not distributed standing type.

standing (II), n. stand (I) & -ing 1 Position, rank, reputation a person of high standing 2 Duration, period, of existence n custom of long standing standing gear, rigging, n (naut) The shrouds and stays which are more or less permanent, and support the mast, bowsprit &c standing part, n. (naut) That part of a rope &c which is made fast, fixed end.

standing room, n. Room, space, for person(s) to stand standing stone, n. Vertical monolith of unhewn stone standish n. [1 standish, 2 standish] stand (II) & dish. (archaic) Inkstand.

stand-offish, adj [1 stand ofish, 2 stand sh] Aloof, distant, reserved, repellent, in manner character &c haughty stand-offishly, adv Prec & -ly In a stand-offish manner stand-offishness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being stand offish.

standpatter, n. [1 standpater, 2 standpate] (Am. polit slang) One who stands pat, i.e sticks firmly to his party platform, esp in tariff matters stand-pipe n. Vertical pipe for water, steam, gas &c standpoint, n. [1 standpoint, 2 standpoint] a Position from which a thing is seen, point of view, b mental attitude, point of view stand-rest n. Sloping seat supporting person in half standing position.

standstill, n. [1 standstil 2 standstill] Complete cessation of progress, halt to come to n standstill, work was at a standstill stand-up, adj [1 stand up, 2 stand ap] 1 Erect upright a stand-up collar 2 Done, taken, while standing a stand-up meal Phr stand up fight serious fight or scuffle in which blows are exchanged.

stanhope, n. [1 stanup, 2 stanop] fr name of inventor Light open, two- or four wheeled carriage usually with single seat

Stanhope-lens n. Lens with differently curved, convex faces, invented by the Earl of Stanhope (1753-1816)

Stanhope-press n. Iron printing press invented by Lord Stanhope, as prec stanjel, n. [1 stanjel, 2 stanjel] OE stanjella fr stān 'stone' see stone, & gella, 'screamer', fr gellan, 'to yell', see yell. Kind of small falcon, kestrel stank, vb [1 stangk, 2 stangk] Pret of stunk, OE stanc stannary, n. & adj [1 stannari, 2 stannari], fr Mid Lat stannarius, fr Lat stagnum, stannum, 'an alloy of silver and lead, tin', possibly cogn w Gk staphulē, 'plummet', but perh of Celt origin, cp W y-lawn, 'tin'

1 n. a Tin mine, b district in which tin-mines are situated. 2 adj Of, pertaining to, tin mines, stannary courts, tin miners' courts held in Cornwall stannate, n. [1 stānat, 2 stēnat] fr Lat stannum, 'tin', see prec, & -ate (chem) Salt of stannic acid.

stannic, adj [1 stānk, 2 stēnk], fr Lat stannum 'tin', see stannary, & -ic Of, derived from, tin.

stanniferous, adj [1 staniferus, 2 s'tēniferus], fr Lat stannum, 'tin', see stannary, & -i- & -ferous Containing, producing, tin stannite, n. [1 stānit, 2 stēnit], fr Lat stannum, 'tin', see stannary, & -ite (I) Grey or black mineral compound of tin, copper, iron, and sulphur stannous, adj [1 stānus, 2 stēnas] fr Lat stannum, 'tin', see stannary, & -ous Of, pertaining to, containing, tin.

stanza, n [1 otanza, 2 stanza], fr Ital stanza, fr L. Lat stātia, 'place, situation', see stances Group of four or more rhymed verse lines arranged according to a specific metrical scheme, esp one of series of such groups, a strophe Spenserian stanza stanzaed, adj [1 stanzad, 2 stenzad] Prec & -ed Arranged in, consisting of stanzas, (in compounds) consisting of stanzas of a specific type stanzaic, adj [1 stanzāik, 2 stenzēik] stanza & -ic Of, pertaining to, consisting of, arranged in, stanzas stapes, n. [1 stāpēz, 2 stēpiz]. Med. Lat stapes, 'stirrup' Dn Cange has stapes, stapedium, stapeda, stiraphes (once each), possibly fr a form of Lat stāre, 'to stand', see state, & Lat ped-(em), 'foot', see pedal. Stirrup-shaped bone of the middle ear, stirrup-bone staple (I), n. [1 stāpl, 2 stēpl] OE stapul; M E stapel, 'pillar, prop, step', cp O Fris stapul, M Dn stapel, O H G stapf, 'rung', cogn w OE stōpol, 'footprint', & O H G stufa, 'threshold', cp Mod. Germ stufe, 'degree, stage in development', fr same base as step (II) One of various objects used for fastening, specif a metal bar, wire &c, pointed at both ends and bent into U shape, used as fastening for holding end of bolt &c b metal tube holding ends of reeds in oboe and similar musical instruments, c bent wire used in bookbinding for stitching with wire staple (II), vb trans, fr prec To fasten, hold, with a staple staple (III), n., fr O Fr estapel, 'market, staple', fr L G stapel, 'step, pile, market', cogn w staple (I) 1 (hist) Centre of trade, principal market of district &c 2 Leading article of commerce, principal commodity, of country, district, town &c 3 Leading factor, element, chief material the staple of diet, conversation &c 4 Raw material, stuff, matter, ready for manufacture 5 Thread, fibre, of wool or cotton wool of fine staple.

staple (IV), adj fr prec Of the nature of a staple, forming an important factor or part, leading principal staple products of a country, the staple topic of conversat on staple (V), vb trans, fr stap'e (III) To sort classify, grade (wool &c) according to quality of fibre stapler, n [1 stāplər, 2 stēplər] Prec & -er Person who grades wool &c, esp wool-stapler stapling-machine, n. [1 stāpling mashin, 2 stēpling mashin] (bookbinding) Machine for wire stitching star (I), n [1 star, 2 stār] OE steorra, ME sterre, op OHG sterro, sterno, ON stjarna, Goth stairnō, cogn w Lat stella, 'star', see stellar, Gk astēr, dastēr, 'star', see astral, Sort star, 'star' 1 A One of the distant, luminous, heavenly bodies, appearing to be of small size as compared with sun and moon, Phr to see stars, to have the sensation of seeing luminous flashes, as after a severe blow on the eye, back of the head &c, b specul, a fixed heavenly body, contrasted with a planet 2 Any of various objects or figures resembling a star in shape or appearance, specif a five- or six-pointed device formed by producing sides of pentagon or hexagon, used as ornament, emblem &c, Phr stars and stripes, flag of USA, bearing a pattern of stars and stripes, b jewel or personal ornament in the shape of a star, object of this shape in precious metal, and highly decorated, forming the regalia, or part of it, of an order of knighthood, also the order itself The Star of India &c, o an asterisk used in printing, d white mark on a horse's forehead 3 Heavenly body considered as influencing person's character, fortunes &c to be born under a lucky star, one's star is in the ascendant, to thank one's stars, to be thankful, consider oneself lucky 4 Person who excels, is eminent, in particular field, profession &c a literary, operative, film, star &c, specif, leading actor or actress in theatrical production star (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To mark, adorn, set, with design of stars 2 To mark, distinguish, with an asterisk 3 To present as a star or theatrical celebrity in a play Phr to star, to play the part of theatrical star B intrans 'To appear as leading actor on the stage or in a film play to star in the provinces star-apple, n 1 Evergreen tree of tropical America producing an apple like fruit whose carpels exhibit a star shaped figure when the fruit is out open 2 The fruit of this tree starblind, adj [1 stārblind, 2 stēdblind] OE ster-, stareblind, quite blind', op O Frs stareblind, OHG stareblind, cp OE ster, 'stiff', starian, 'to gaze fixedly', see stare (I) Half blind, having dim sight starboard, n, adj, & vb trans [1 stārbord, 2 stēdbord] OE stārbord, ME sterbord, fr OE stior, 'rudder', q v under steer (I), & board 1 n Right hand side of ship, from point of view of observer standing on ship and looking towards bow 2 adj Situated on, pertaining to, the starboard 3 vb To turn (helm) to starboard starch (I) n [1 starch, 2 stāt] ME starche, OE sterce, 'stiff', op sterced, 'resolute', fr steara, 'strong, stiff', see stark 1 A White, tasteless substance found in all vegetables except fungi, esp in grain, beans, potatoes &c, and forming a valuable constituent of food, b starch in granular or powdered form as extracted from vegetable matter 2 Starchy, thick, jelly-like preparation of starch with boiling or cold water, used for stiffening clothes in washing &c 3 (fig) Stiffness, formality, rigidity, of manner, mind, or character starch (II), adj See preo (archaic, lit and fig) Stiff, rigid starch (III), vb trans, fr preo To make (linen &c) stiff with starch

Star-chamber, n So called fr decoration of ceiling (cap) Civil and criminal court abolished in 1841, characterized by arbitrary methods of procedure starched, adj [1 starcht, 2 stāt] fr PP of starch (III) (fig) Stiff, formal, rigid, precise, in manner starchedly, adv [1 stārohodli, 2 stāt] idli Preo & -ly In a starched manner starchedness, n [1 starchednes, 2 stāt] idnes See preo & -ness Quality of being starched starchily, adv [1 starchili, 2 stāt] idli starchy & -ly In a starchy manner starchiness, n [1 starchines, 2 stāt] idnes

Next word & -ness State or quality of being starchy starchy, adj [1 stārohi, 2 stāt] idhi starch (I) & -y (IV) 1 Containing, composed of, starch starchy food 2 Stiffened with starch 3 (fig) Firm, precise, formal, stuff, in manner &c star-drift, n United motion in the same direction by a group of fixed stars in a particular region of the heavens stare (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stār, 2 stēa] OE starian, 'to look, gaze, upon', ME stāren, 'to look fixedly, to gleam, shine', op OHG starren, 'to stand out, project', MHG starren, 'to be stiff', Mod Germ starr, 'stiff', Goth andstairran, 'to be opposed to, murmur at', ON stōrr, 'proud', cogn w Gk stereōs, 'stiff, firm', stērēōs, 'hard, rough', Lat strenuus, 'vigorous', see strenuous, Sort stirrd, 'hard, firm', Lith stiras, 'thick', styrn, 'to be stiff', O Slav starū, 'old' See also stern (I), sterile, stark 1 a (i) To look or gaze intently, fixedly, as though with curiosity it is very rude to stare, (u) to gaze abstractedly to stare straight in front of one, b stare at, to contemplate, gaze at intently, as with surprise or curiosity Phr (the fact, thing &c) stares you, is staring you, in the face, it is perfectly plain and obvious, to make people stare, surprise, shock, them, 'And paid a tradesman once to make him stare' (Pope, Moral Essays, Epist 11 56), to stare a person out of countenance, stare at him until he becomes confused 2 (of colour &c, rare except as adj in Pres Part) See staring stare (II), n, fr preo 1 A prolooged, fixed, intent, look, or gaze, expressive of curiosity, surprise, contempt &c 2 Peculiar fixed expression of the eyes when the lids are widely opened and the eyes immovable, a glare the eyes of the dead man were fixed in a terrifying stare starfinch, n [1 stārfinoh, 2 stāfin (v)] Bird of the warbler family, redstart starfish, n [1 stārfish, 2 stāfis] Kind of echinoderm, esp one with a central body from which five or more rays or arms project in the form of a star star-gazer, n [1 stār gāzer, 2 stēd gēza] (facet) a Astronomer, b an absent minded, dreamy person star-gazing, n [1 stār gāzing, 2 stēd gēzing] a Practice of observing the stars, b absent-mindedness, abstraction staring, adj & adv [1 stāring, 2 stēaring] fr Pres Part of stare (I) 1 (of the eyes) Fixed as in a stare, wide open and glaring Phr stark, staring mad, completely mad 2 (of colours) Presenting too violent a contrast to surroundings, brilliant to excess 3 (of animal's coat) Bristling, rough, esp in illness staringly, adv Preo & -ly In a staring manner, with a fixed gaze stark (I), adj [1 stark, 2 stāk] OE stearc, ME stark, 'strong', op O Frs stark, OHG starch, ON starkr, 'strong', Goth gas'aurknan, 'to stiffen', cogn w Lith stregti, 'to stiffen, freeze' Cp further OE stear, Mod Germ starr, 'stiff', & see stare (I), stern (I) sterile 1 Stiff, rigid, esp in, or as in, death stark and cold 2 (archaic and poet) a Strong, powerful, firm, b resolute, unyielding 3 Absolute, utter, downright stark madness stark (II), adv, fr preo Absolutely, thoroughly stark mad stark (III), adj, fr stark naked stark-naked, adj ME stark-naked, fr OE stearc, 'tail', op O Frs stark, 'strong', Goth gas'aurknan, 'to stiffen', MHG starken, 'to stick out stiffly', fr base stear &c, 'stiff', see staro (I), stern (I), & op redstart Completely naked starless, adj [1 stāries, 2 stēries] star (I) & -less Without stars starlet, n [1 stārlēt, 2 stērlēt] star (I) & -let Small star starlight, n & adj [1 stārlīt, 2 stērlīt] 1 n Light given by stars 2 adj Lighted by stars a starlight night star-like, adj Resembling a star in shape, appearance, brilliance &c starling (I), n [1 stārling, 2 stērling] OE stearling, ME stearling, op OHG stāra, ON stari, cogn w Lat sturnus, 'starling', Genus, Sturnus, of birds with glossy iridescent black plumage, of gregarious habits and often nesting near human dwellings starling (II), n Cp Swed stork, 'stake', but perh fr earlier stodding, fr OE stadolung, 'foundation', fr stado, 'support, foundation', q v under stall (I) Ring of piles surrounding and protecting the pier of a bridge &c starlit, adj [1 stārlīt, 2 stērlīt] star (I) & lit Lat up, illuminated, by stars a starlit landscape star of Bethlehem, n [1 stār nv bēthlēēm, 2 stār av bēplēm] Herbaceous plant, Ornithogalum umbellatum, of lily family, with long narrow leaves and six-petalled white flowers having green stripes on the back starred, adj [1 stard, 2 stād] fr PP of star (II) 1 Marked, set, adorned, with a star or stars, specif, to mark with an asterisk 2 Affected by influence of stars, esp in compounds ill starred, unlucky, unfortunate starryness, n [1 stārhines, 2 stērhines] Next word & -ness State of being starry starry, adj [1 stārbn, 2 stērbn] star (I) & -y (IV) 1 Pertaining to, covered with, stars the starry sky 2 Bright, shining like stars starry eyes star-shell, n (mul) Metal cylinder filled with illuminating explosives, fired so as to burst in the air and light up enemy's lines star-spangled, adj Studded, adorned, with stars, esp star spangled banner, USA flag, the Stars and Stripes star-stone, n Variety of corundum, esp kind of sapphire, showing starlike markings when cut start (I), vb intrans & trans [1 start, 2 stāt] ME sterten, 'to start, leap', fr ON skarta, cp Du storten, OHG stuzen, 'to overthrow', perh fr same base as OE steor, 'tail', see under stark-naked, for meaning op Fr cultiver, 'to upset' A intrans 1 To make a sudden, involuntary movement as from fear, shock, surprise &c to start at the sound of a rifle shot 2 To move, jump, suddenly, in specified direction to start back, forward &c 3 To begin a journey &c, set out we must start early, as we have a long way to go, to start for the continent, b to begin to move forward the train has just started, to begin to work I can't get the engine (of motor-car) to start, c specif, to begin to run, be among those who come up to scratch, in a race 4 To begin, embark on, a course of action, beginning to do something to start on a course of study, he started to whistle a tune 5 To come into existence, begin to exist, to have origin the fire started in the cellar 6 To get out of position, be displaced, or warped the timbers have started B trans 1 To begin (an action), set out on (a journey) to start work, a meal, to start crying, start one's travels 2 To cause to start, put in motion, set going to start an engine, car &c 3 To give signal for starting to start runners in a race 4 To give a start, enable to start to start a person in life 5 To arouse, put up to start a hare, (also fig) to start another hare, to raise a fresh, irrelevant, subject for discussion 6 A To be the cause of, cause to begin, bring into existence to start a fire, b to originate, initiate to start an idea, a discussion &c 7 To displace, cause to move suddenly from position the damp has started the timbers 8 To tap, cause contents to flow from C Followed by adverbs and prepositions with special meanings Start in, intrans (colloq), to begin, set to work just start in and clean out the stables Start out, intrans (colloq), to have the intention, propose to one-self (to do something) he started out to reform the society Start up, 1 intrans, a to spring suddenly to one's feet, jump up, b to come suddenly into existence, appear abruptly a new leader, idea &c has started up, 2 trans, to cause to begin working, put into motion to start up an engine start (II), n., fr prec 1 Slight shock, caused by some sudden, unexpected occurrence, a fright &c, involuntary jerky muscular movement resulting from this your sudden, silent appearance gave me quite a start, Phr by fits and starts, irregularly, intermittently 2 A Act of setting out on journey &c to make on early start, to prepare for the start, Phrs a start in life, beginning of one's career, to give one a start in life, help one, afford one an opportunity for making a good beginning, b beginning of race &c to line up for the start 3 Commencement of action, work &c the workmen looked on for several hours before making a start on the job 4 Place at which a start is made, esp starting point of race &c Phr from start to finish, from beginning to end 5 Advantageous position, distance in advance, allowed or obtained at beginning of race, pursuit &c to have a few yards' start, you must give me a start if I'm to race you starter, n [1 starter, 2 stárter] start (I) & -or 1 Person who gives signal for a race to start 2 Person, or horse, who starts in a race as a competitor 3 A device for causing an engine to start working, esp self starter, b motor car provided with such a device starting-gate, n [1 starting gát, 2 stárting geit] Movable barrier at starting post in horse race for ensuring a fair start starting-point, n Place or point at which a start or beginning is made, a of a journey or a race, b of a course of action, line of thought, argument &c starting-post, n. Post or mark from which a race is begun starting price, n Odds offered immediately before start of race startle, vb trans [1 stártl, 2 stárl] O E startleian, 'to stumble', M E sterlen, 'to rush along', mod vb prob a new formation fr start (I) & freq -le 1 a (i) To cause to start, to scare, frighten, alarm suddenly to startle a herd of deer, (ii) to cause slight shock to, by a sudden, and unexpected appearance, noise, movement, action &c you startled me by bursting in so suddenly, b to cause shock of surprise to (usually in bad sense) as by an unexpected occurrence, piece of news &c I was startled by the news of his death, by the magnitude of the demands made &c 2 To rouse, stimulate, goad (into action) by startling to startle a person out of his opacity, into doing some hard work startling, adj [1 stárling, 2 stárling] fr Pres Part of prec Causing alarm or astonishment startling events, developments &c startlingly, adv Prec & -ly In a startling manner, to a startling degree starvation, n [1 starváshun 2 stárvéshun] Next word & -ation a hybrid word dating fr late 18th cent Act or process of starving, state of being starved starve vb intrans & trans [1 starv, 2 stáv] O E starfon 'to die', M E sterien, cp O Fns sterva, O HG sterbon, 'to die', cp ON starf 'tail effort, starfe, 'tetanus', stjerran 'stubborn', cogn w Gk sterphos, 'thick, hard skin, leather', fr an expansion of base *ster, 'stiff', see stare, stark, possibly also remotely cogn w O Slav stirpiti, 'to stiffen', Lat torpere, 'to be numb, torpid slu-zh', see torpid A in trans 1 Original, general sense of to die preserved only in Phr starving with cold 2 To die from insufficient food he bolted to America and left his family to starve 3 To suffer from lack of food to be reduced to extreme weakness and emaciation by hunger any live in luxury while others are starving, Phr (colloq) I'm simply starving, you must be starving to be very hungry 4 To abstain from food temporarily when one is ill it is very good to starve for a bit 5 To starve for, long for, hunger after, to feel the lack of to be starving for companionship, a mind starving for knowledge B trans 1 To cause to suffer greatly, to kill, only in Phr starved with cold 2 To kill by depriving of food 3 To supply with insufficient food, to nourish inadequately, Phr to starve into submission, surrender, induce, compel, to submit, surrender, by starvation starveling, n & adj [1 stárvling, 2 stárvling] starve & -ling (I) 1 n Thin, weak, underfed person or animal 2 adj Hungry, emaciated, ill fed stasis, n [1 stásis, 2 stéisis], fr Gk stasis, 'a standing still', see state (I) Stoppage of the circulation of any of the fluids of the body statable, adj [1 státbl, 2 státbl] state (III) & -able Capable of being stated state (I), n [1 stét, 2 stéit], fr O Fr estat, see estate, fr Lat status, 'posture, attitude, place, position, condition, circumstances, public affairs, constitution, form of government', fr P P type of stare, 'to stand', cp Lat stis, 'I stand', earlier stajō*, cogn w O Slav stajō, 'I stand', Lith stajū, 'I put myself', Lith stataū, 'to place', Serb stajati, 'standing', Gk statis, 'placed', Sort stithis, 'act of standing', Gk stasis, 'standing', O E stede, 'place', see stead All fr base *sta, *stā &c, 'to stand', seen also in stall (I), still (I), stamen, status, stool, stand, locus &c 1 A Temporary or permanent set of circumstances a building in on unfinished state, affairs in a state of confusion, physical or mental condition a wonderful state of preservation, in a state of coma, a poor state of health, an unhappy state of mind, (colloq) b had condition of body or mind to get oneself into such a state that one is unfit to be seen, c agitation, anxiety in a terrible state 2 A Rank, position, social circumstances persons in every state of life, b specif, high station, dignity to live in a style befitting one's state 3 Elaborate style of living, pomp, ceremony to keep up considerable state the state with which he is surrounded Phr in state, with great pomp and circumstance, ceremony 4 (often cap) Body of persons inhabiting an area, or country with defined limits or frontiers, organized as political unity under one supreme ruler or government to fight for the state, the state declared war, to be a menace to the state Phr States of the Church, Papal States, parts of Italy formerly under the temporal authority of the Pope 5 Partially autonomous division of federal republic, specif, one of the states forming the United States of America, free state, part of U S A in which slavery did not exist, as opposed to slave states 6 A Government, political authority, of state schools provided by the state, b specif, civil, as distinct from ecclesiastical, government Church and State 7 (pl) a Legislative body in islands of Jersey and Guernsey, b States General, legislative body of the Netherlands, and of France before 1879 8 (hol) Organized community of insects, organisms &c 9 (archaic) a Dais or throne, b canopy above throne 10 (engraving) Any one of the stages through which a plate passes in the process of engraving state (II), adj fr prec 1 Pertaining to the state state papers, state prisoner, person arrested for or convicted of felony, esp for political crime, state trial, that of person prosecuted by the state, esp on political charge 2 A Performed upon used for, intended for, occasions of special ceremony state coach, b intended, reserved for persons of exalted rank state apartments state (III), vb trans fr state (I) 1 To express in words affirm, relate, say the witness stated that he was struck on the head it is sometimes said that English weather is uncertain travellers state that he will leave us more ferocious than the tiger 2 To put down clearly in words, to expound, give a reasoned exposition of to state one's case, he stated Verner's Law with great lucidity 3 (math) To express (problem &c) in algebraic symbols state bank, n Bank under the control of the state statecraft, n [1 státkrahit, 2 stétkrahit] state (I) & craft The art of government, statesmanship stated, adj [1 státed, 2 stéited], fr P P of state (III) Appointed, established, definitely fixed at a stated time, at stated intervals, a stated meeting statedly, adv Prec & -ly In a stated manner stateliness, n [1 státliness, 2 stétliness] Next word & -ness Quality of being stately stately, adj [1 státl, 2 stétl] stato (I) & -ly Grand, impressive and dignified, imposing, nobly proportioned, well balanced a stately manner, walk, stately dances, stately buildings, stately rhythm, phraseology &c statement, n [1 státmént, 2 stéitmant] state (III) & -ment 1 Act of stating, utterance, verbal expression belief and statement are two different things 2 That which is stated, an expression of a judgment, belief, opinion, in words, assertion, affirmation to make a statement, an astonishing statement, b a reasoned exposition, a setting forth, mode of stating a new statement of old truths is often necessary, an admirable statement of the case 3 Official report or summary of financial position issued by commercial firm &c stater, n [1 státer, 2 stéts] Lat stater, fr Gk stater, 'stater', orig 'a weight', op Serb stajati, 'upright object', fr base *stā, 'to stand', see state (I) Ancient Greek coin of different values, esp a Persian gold coin worth about 22s, b later silver coin worth four drachmas stateroom, n [1 státrum, 2 stéstrum] Private cabin on ship statesman, n [1 státsman, 2 stétsman] state (I) & gent es & -man 1 Person taking part in state government, specif, who has constructive ability and foresight in the management of public affairs, often contrasted with politician, which is used in sense of one interested merely in party politics 2 Small landowner, farming his own land, in the North of England statesmanlike, adj [1 státsmanlik, 2 stétsmanlik] Prec & -like Characteristic of, befitting, a statesman statesmanly, adj [1 státsmanli, 2 stétsmanli] See prec & -ly Statesmanlike statesmanship, n [1 státsmanship, 2 stétsman[sh]p] statesman & -ship Art of a statesman, statecraft state trial, n Trial in which the state is the prosecuting party, esp for a political offence static(al), adj [1 státlk(l), 2 stétlk(l)], fr Gk statikos, 'causing to stand', fr stem *stat-, in Gk statos, 'placed standing', fr base *sta, 'to stand', see state (I) & -ic & -al 1 At rest, not in motion, stationary 2 Pertaining to, connected with, bodies in a state of rest, contrasted with dynamic, or kinetic, static pressure, that caused solely by weight without motion. 3 (elect) Shortened form of electrostatic statically, adv Prec & -ly In a static manner, by means of pressure statice, n [1 státsē, 2 stétsē], fr Gk statikē, 'stanching blood', see static (hot) Genus of plants, including the sea lavender, a shore plant with lilac flowers statics, n [1 státlks, 2 stétlks], fr static a Branch of mechanics dealing with bodies remaining at rest and the equilibrium or forces contrasted with dynamics b (wrr-lew) name given to naturally produced ether waves, causing irregular disturbances in reception of atmospheric station (I) n [1 stáshun, 2 stéshun] fr I st. statin (ci.) 'act of standing, place pos-tion, abode, office', fr stat (um), P P type of stäre, 'to stand', see state (I), & -ion 1 Place, position, situation, esp spot chosen by or assigned to person for particular purpose to take up one's station, one's appointed station 2 Place, enclosure, building, &c, forming local headquarters of some official organization, often in compounds police, coastguard, lifeboat, dressing-station &c 3 Regular stopping-place of public vehicle in a road or street 4 Also railway-station, the whole group of buildings, offices, sheds, platforms &c, used in the working and administration of a railway for the taking up and setting down of passengers and goods at a regular halting place on a railway line, bearing the name of the place, or district in which it is situated 5, (Australia) Farm, estate, run, for sheep &c, stock farm 6 a (India) Place at which English troops and officials reside, military post, official headquarters, b administrative centre or base assigned to a fleet or naval unit naval stations

 7 (ooles) a (pl) Also stations of the Cross, series of fourteen pictures &c, placed at intervals around walls of church, esp Roman Catholic church, and representing scenes of the Passion, b (R C Ch) church to which a procession makes its way for devotions &c, c fast appointed for Friday (R C Ch) or Wednesday and Friday (Gk Ch) 8 a Position of an individual in relation to society, condition, rank, status, walk in life to have ideas above one's station, a lowly, an exalted, station in life, b specif, high social or official position several men of station 9 (surv) a Point from which measurements are taken, b distances adopted as unit for surveying 10 (zool and bot) Area of specific character regarded as the habitat of particular animal or plant station (II), vb trans, fr prec a To place in a specific spot, assign a station to to station a guard at the gate, to station oneself at a window, b specif (mil) a regiment stationed at Quetta stational, adj [1 stāshunāl, 2 stējənāl] station (I) & -al Relating to a station stationariness, n [1 stāshunarinēs, 2 stējənarinēs] Next word & -ness State of being stationary stationary (I), adj [1 stāshunari, 2 stējənari], fr Lat stationarius, 'pertaining to a post or station', station (I) & -ary 1 At rest, remaining in one place or position, not in motion, not moving from one place to another to remain stationary, a row of stationary vehicles, stationary air, that remaining in lungs during normal respiration, stationary diseases, local ailments appearing and disappearing in accordance with specific atmospheric conditions 2 Remaining at the same degree, amount, value, size &c, neither increasing nor diminishing the population has remained stationary since the last census, the glass is stationary for the moment 3 Acting, or intended to act, in one fixed position, not capable of being, or liable to be, moved a stationary crane, stationary troops stationary (II), n, fr prec Stationary object or person, esp member of stationary force station-bill, n (naut) Document showing post allotted to each member of the crew in specific operations stationer, n [1 stāshuner, 2 stējənā] M E stationere, 'a bookseller', fr Med Lat stationarius, 'bookseller', so called fr his station or stall 1 Old meaning survives only in Stationers' Hall, the headquarters of the guild of stationers or booksellers, at which, until 1911, every book published in England had to be 'entered' or registered for purpose of copyright 2 (present use) A dealer in all kinds of writing materials stationery, n [1 stāshuneri, 2 stējənari] Prec & -ery All those classes of goods, collectively or separately, in which a stationer deals, specif, writing paper, in Phr stationery and envelopes station-house, n Building used as station, esp police station station-master, n Official of railway staff in charge of railway station station-pointer, n Three armed protractor used in determining point on chart from given data statist, n [1 stāstīt, 2 stētist] state (I) & -ist 1 (obs) Politician 2 Statistician statistic(al), adj [1 stāstītk(l), 2 stētistīk(l)] Prec & -ic & -al Pertaining to, consisting of, based on, statistics statistically, adv Prec & -ly According to, by means of, statistics statistician, n [1 stāstīshān; 2 stētistīshən] statistic & -ian Person skilled in collecting, dealing with, interpreting, statistics statistics, n [1 stāstītk(s), 2 stētistītk(s)] statist & -ics 1 Systematic collection and arrangement of numerical facts statistics of crime, disease, births and deaths &c 2 Science of collecting and tabulating numerical facts, esp such as bear upon social conditions statistology, n [1 stāstīlōj, 2 stētistīlōj] See prec & -logy Science of collecting and classifying statistics statoscope, n [1 stāstōskōp, 2 stētāskōp], fr Gk stāidō, 'placed, fixed', q v under state (I), & -scope Instrument showing minute variations in atmospheric pressure statuary (I), adj [1 stātūari, 2 stētūari], fr Lat statuarius, 'of statues', statue & -ary Connected with, pertaining to, suitable for, statues statuary marble statuary (II), n, fr Lat statuarius, 'maker of statues', statuarius, 'art of making statues', statue & -ary 1 Art of making or carving statues 2 Statues collectively, sculpture, group of sculptured figures 3 Maker of statues, a sculptor statue, n [1 stātū, 2 stētū, stētjū] M E, fr O Fr statue, fr Lat statua, 'image, statue', fr statum, P P type of stäre, 'to stand', see state (I) Human or animal figure, approaching or exceeding life size, carved or modelled, in the round statued, adj [1 stātūd, 2 stētūd] Prec & -ed Having, adorned with, statues statuesque, adj [1 stātēsk, 2 stētjēsk] statue & -esque Resembling, having the dignity, noble proportions or serenity, of a statue a lady of statuesque beauty statuesquely, adv Prec & -ly In a statuesque manner statuesqueness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being statuesque statuette, n [1 stātūtēt, 2 stētjūtēt] statue & -ette A small statue statu quo See status quo statute, n [1 stāchūr, 2 stētjēs], fr Fr, fr Lat statuta, 'statute', fr stat (um), P P type of stäre, 'to stand', see state (I) & -ure a Bodily proportion, height, size of imposing stature, to grow in stature, b intellectual proportions, mental or moral calibre statuted, adj [1 stāchūrd, 2 stētjēd] Prec & -ed Having specified stature, chiefly in compounds, small statuted &c status, n [1 stātūs, 2 stētīs] Lat status, 'mode of standing, posture, position, circumstances, civil standing, rank', fr P P type of stäre, 'to stand', see state (I) 1 a Standing, rank, social position, b relative position in regard to others in attainments, professional reputation and the like a man's status as a scholar 2 (law) Legal position of a person, a in relation to the state, b in relation to other persons status lymphaticus, n [1 stātūs līmfatīkus, 2 stētīs līmfatīkūs] Lat, see prec & lymphatic A pathological condition of the lymphatic vessels, associated with an enlargement of the thymus gland status quo, in quo, n [1 stātūs (in) kwō, 2 stētīs (in) kwō] Lat, see status (lit) Position, condition in which, state, condition in which things were before certain date or event, unaltered condition, esp in such Phrs as to preserve the status quo, in statu quo, also in full in statu quo ante (bellum), in state as before the war statutable, adj [1 stātūtābl, 2 stētjūtābl] statute & -able Statutory statutably, adv Prec & -ly According to, by means of, statutes statute, n [1 stātūt, 2 stētjūt], fr O Fr statūt, fr L Lat statutum, 'law, decree', fr P P type of statuere, 'to cause to stand, set up, erect, to establish, constitute, to determine', fr statum, P P type of stäre, 'to stand', see state (I) 1 Enactment of a legislative body, expressly stated and fully authorized, act of parliament declaratory statute, giving authoritative explanation of previous statute, private statute, applying to individuals only, statutes at large, statutes of legislative body, in full as originally enacted, and unabridged.

 2 Decree, ordinance, rule, of corporation, founder of institution &c, made as permanent rule statute-book, n Register of statutes statute-law, n Law expressed in statutes, contrasted with common law statutory, adj [1 stātūturi, 2 stētjūturi] statute & -ory Pertaining to, in the form of, depending on, enacted by, a statute staunch (I), staunch, adj [1 stawnch, stahnch; 2 stān(t)ch, stān(t)ch], fr O Fr estanche, 'seaworthy, watertight, staunch, reliable', cp O Fr estancier, 'to stop the flow', & see stanch (I) Reliable, dependable, trust worthy, loyal staunch (II), vb, variant of stanch (I) staunchly, adv staunch (I) & -ly In staunch manner, loyally staunchness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being staunch stauroscope, n [1 stōrōskōp, 2 stējōrōskōp], fr Gk staurōs, 'stake, pile, cross', cogn w Lat staurare, 'to stand', see restore, or O N staurr, 'post', see steer (I), fr bas stāu-, stā-, 'to be upright', parallel to stā-, stā-, 'to stand', see stand, state, & -scope Instrument for determining the direction of polarized light in crystals stauroscopic, adj [1 stōrōskōpīk, 2 stējōrōskōpīk] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, carried out by, a stauroscope stave (I), n [1 stāv, 2 stēiv] M E stave, fr inflected form of O E steaf, 'bar, staff', see staff (I) 1 Curved and shaped strip of wood forming part of wall of cask, pail &c 2 Ring of ladder

 3 Stanza, verse, section, of poem or song 4 (mus) Group of lines and intermediate spaces used for showing relative pitch of notes, staff stave (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To furnish with staves 2 Stave in, to break, strike a hole in, break through to stave in a cask, sides of boat &c 3 Stave off, to keep off, defer, delay progress or performance of to stave off bankruptcy, arrest, starvation stave-rhyme, n After Germ. Stabreim Alliteration, esp as prominent feature of verse stavesacre, n [1 stāvzākər, 2 stēivzēkər], fr O Fr stavesacre, fr Med Lat staphysagra, fr Gk (staphis), 'raisins', cp Gk staphulē, 'bunch of grapes', prob cogn w Scr. stambhat, 'puller', stambhūt, 'to lean', Lth stebas, 'rod', O E stef, 'rod, staff', see staff (I) The second element is Gk agros, 'wild', cogn w agros, 'field', q v under agronomy Kind of Southern European larkspur, the seeds of which have emetic properties stay (I), vb trans & intrans [1 stā, 2 stēf] fr O Fr estayer, fr M Du stade, 'support, prop', cogn w O H G stāt, Goth stap, O E stede, 'place', see stead

 A trans
 1 A To check, restrain, hold back, stop or hinder progress of to stay the spread of a disease, Phr to stay one's hand, refrain from action, b specif (law) to delay, defer, suspend, postpone to stay judgement, proceedings 2 To restrain one's energy, continue, last out B intrans
 1 To remain, stop, refrain, from departure, be contentiously in specified place or condition have no time to stay, to stay where one is, to stay in bed, to stay still, the fine weather has come to stay 2 To have a temporary abode, reside for a time, be a guest, visitor to stay at the seaside, to stay with friends, at a hotel &c. (colloq.) I don't live here, I'm only staying 3 (in imperat., archaism) To stop, halt, cease motion, speech &c stay! not so fast! 4 To be capable of prolonged effort, endure, last out to be unable to stay to the end of a race, staying power stay (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of staying, period of continuance in one place &c to make a long stay 2 Restraint, controlling influence to put a stay on one's thoughts 3 (legal) Postponement, suspension, of proceedings &c stay of execution, of writ &c 4 (fig) Endurance, persistence, power of sustained effort stay (III), n In specif naut sense, fr OE stap, 'rope for supporting mast', but cp also OE stap, 'prop', borrowed fr Gmc word, s.g. O Du stag, cogn. w the OE Largely confused w stay (I). 1 (naut) Rope supporting mast or spar Phr in stays, going about 2 A A prop, support, strut, b a moral support, a stand by religion is the stay of thousands in times of trouble 3 (pl.) Stays, tightly fitting garment, stiffened with whalebones, worn by women on the upper portion of the body to give support to the figure, corset stay (IV), vb trans, fr prec, influenced by stay (I) 1 To support, prop by means of a stay or stays 2 To support, sustain, to satisfy to stay one's stomach, to stay one's appetite 3 Stay up, to support by means of a stay or prop stay-at-home, adj & n. [1 stá at hóm, 2 stéi at hóm] 1 adj Added to staying at home 2 n. Stay-at-home person.

stay-bar, n. Bar used as support in building, machinery &c tayer, n. [1 stáir, 2 stéoi] stay (I) & -or One who stays, specif (colloq.) person, horse &c capable of prolonged effort stay-lace, n Cord for lacing stays stayless, adj [1 stáiles, 2 stéilais] stay (II) & -less 1 Without support 2 Not wearing stays stay-maker, n Manufacturer of stays or corsets stay-rod, n Stay-bar staysail, n. [1 stáil, 2 stéail] Sail extended on a stay stead n [1 stéd, 2 stéd] OE, ME stede, 'place', OHG stat, cp Goth. staps, O.N. stadr, 'place', cogn. w Lat status, 'position', see status &c 1 Place, in Phr I am come in his stead, in the stead of, as substitute for, cp instead. 2 Service, advantage, in Phr it will stand, has stood, me in good stead

-stead, fr prec, in compounds farmstead, homestead &c steadfast, adj [1 stédfast, 2 stédfast] OE stedefast, stead & fast (I) 1 a (archaism) Firmly fixed, unshakable 'the steadfast ground' (Spenser, 'F Q'), b intent, steady, unwavering a steadfast gaze. 2. (in moral sense) Firm, constant, steady, enduring, unwavering a steadfast faith &c steadfastly adv Prec & -ly In a steadfast manner steadfastness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being steadfast steadily adv [1 stédli, 2 stédli] steady (I) & -ly In a steady manner steadiness, n. [1 stédinis, 2 stédinis] See prec. & -ness. State or quality of being steady steading, n. [1 stéding 2 stéding]. stead & -ing Farmstead steady (I), adj [1 stédu 2 stédu]. ME stedi, 'stab e, steady' stead & -y (IV) 1 Firmly supported, not liable to fall, abate, or totter hold the ladder steady, a steady hand (I) one which does not tremble, (II) (fig) resolute leadership, guidance, command. 2 Uniform, regular, constant, not fluctuating, uninterrupted a steady light, improvement, flow of talk &c 3 Firm, unwavering, constant a steady look, faith &c 4 Sober and regular in conduct &c, not erratic or dissipated a very steady young man. 5 (naut) In Phr keep her steady, order to keep ship on her course 6 Steady!, command to slacken speed, to be cautious, prepare for careful action &c steady (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans (lit and fig) To make, cause to become, steady (in various senses of adj)

2 intrans To become steady steady (III), n, fr steady (I) Rest for supporting hand, tool &c, when at work steak, n. [1 sták, 2 stéik] ME stēke, fr O.N. steik, lit 'something stuck on a spit, a steak', cp O.N. steikja, 'to roast on a spit', cogn. w OE stican, 'to stab, pierce', see stick (I) a Thick slice of meat or fish for grilling or frying, often preceded by specifying word beef steak, cod-steak, rump-steak &c, b specif, beef steak steal, vb trans & intrans [1 stél, 2 stíl] OE stelan, ME stelen, 'to steal, hide, move stealthily', cp Goth stilan; OHG stelan, O.N. stela, 'to steal, hide', origin uncertain. A trans. 1 To seize (the property of another) unlawfully, and appropriate it to one's own use or purpose Phr to steal a march on, gain an advantage over another by anticipating a move of his

2 a To gain by stealth or art, obtain without permission to steal a kiss, a glance at &c, b to win subtly by art or cunning to steal a person's heart B intrans 1 To practise stealing, to thieve 'Too proud to beg but not ashamed to steal' 2. a To pass, glide, move, furtively, silently he stole cautiously round to the back-door, clouds stole across the face of the moon, b to invade, overwhelm gradually a sense of peace and happiness stole over him 3 Steal away, to slip, go, away, furtively and silently, steal out, slip out silently &c stealth, n. [1 stélth, 2 stélth] Prec & -th (I) Secret, concealed, furtive action or movement 'Do good by stealth and blush to find it fame' (Pope, Epilogue to Satires) stealthily, adv [1 stélthli, 2 stélthli] stealthy & -ly In a stealthy manner, secretly, furtively stealthiness, n. [1 stélthinis 2 stélthinis] Next word & -ness State or quality of being stealthy stealthy, adj [1 stélth, 2 stélth] stealth & -y (IV) Characterized by, performed with, stealth, furtive, secret, cautious a stealthy tread, glance, whisper &c steam (I), n. [1 stém, 2 stím] OE stēam, exhalation, vapour, steam', ME stēam, 'steam flame', cp O.N. stoom, further connections unknown 1 Water in the form of vapour, transparent elastic gas produced from water by boiling, used for heating, cooking, and under pressure as motive power &c, dry, wet, steam steam without or with a mixture of suspended particles of water saturated steam, in contact with water at the same temperature superheated steam, not in contact with water but with addition of heat, thus increasing volume and temperature Phr to get up steam, (colloq., fig) to prepare oneself for special effort. 2 Cloudy mass or film, mist, formed by partially condensed vapour windows covered with steam steam (II), vb intrans & trans OE stēman, 'to give out an odour', see prec A. in trans. 1 a To give out steam the kettle was steaming on the hob, b to give out vapour the fields are steaming in the frosty air, a horse steams after a hard gallop, he wiped his steaming forehead, steam away, (of water) to become exhausted, dissipated, in the form of steam or vapour 2 To move along by means of steam the train steamed into the station B trans. To subject to the influence of, bring into contact with, steam, specif, to cook (food) by this means steamboat, n. [1 stémbót, 2 stímbót] Vessel driven by steam steam-boiler, n. Boiler in which steam is generated for engine &c steam-box, n. Chamber through which steam passes from boiler to cylinder of engine steam-brake, n. Brake worked by steam steam-chest, n. Steam-box steam-colour, n. Colour printed on material &c by action of steam steam-engine, n. Engine worked by action of steam steamer, n. [1 stémsr, 2 stímsr] steam & -er One who, that which, steams, specif, a steamship, b domestic utensil for cooking food by steam steam-gas, n. Gas produced by superheating steam steam-gauge, n. Device for indicating the pressure of steam steam-hammer, n. Powerful machine hammer worked by steam steam-heat, n. 1 Heat required to convert water nt freezing point into steam. 2 Heat given off by steam steaminess, n. [1 stémnes, 2 stímnes] steamy & -ness State or quality of being steamy steam-jacket, n. Chamber filled with steam, enclosing a cylinder in machinery steam-navy, n. Excavating machine worked by steam steam-port, n. Opening for the passage of steam, esp between steam chest and cylinder steam-power, n. Steam employed as motive power &c steam-roller, n. Heavy roller, propelled by steam, for levelling roads steamship, n. [1 stémshíp, 2 stímshíp] Large vessel driven by steam steam-tight, adj. Capable of resisting passage or pressure of steam steam-whistle, n. Powerful whistle worked by a jet of steam steamy, adj [1 stémi, 2 stími] steam (I) & -y a Of the nature of, resembling, steam, vaporous, b covered with, enveloped in, steam, teeming with, giving off, vapour, misty, hazy stearate, n. [1 stéarát, 2 stíarát] See stearin & -ate A salt of stearic acid stearic, adj [1 stéarík, 2 stíarík] See next word & -ic Of, derived from, stearin stearic acid, fatty acid obtained from stearin and used for making candles &c stearin, n. [1 stéarin, 2 stíarin] fr Gk stéar, 'fat', see under steat(o)-, & -in. 1 White, fatty, crystalline compound contained in many animal and vegetable fats 2 Stearic acid stearnery, n. [1 stéarneri, 2 stíarneri] Prec & -ery Manufacture of stearin steatite, n. [1 stéatit, 2 stíatit] steat(o)- & -ite Massive variety of talc, usually white or yellow, soapstone steatitic, adj [1 stéatitik, 2 stíatitik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, resembling, containing, composed of, steatite steat(o)-, pref representing Gk stéar, stem of stéar, 'fat', cp Gk stéar, 'dough', stéar, 'pebble', stéar, 'hard, firm', cogn. w Lat. stipare, 'to press together, cram', see stipate, Scrt stidyauit, 'to coagulate, coagulate, harden'; fr base st-, st(e)j-, to condense, congeal, seen also in Goth staina, see under stone, cp also stiff, perh. ultimately allied to the base stā-* &c, 'to stand', see stand (I) Fat, fatty steatopygia, n. [1 stéatópigia, 2 stíatópigia] Prec & Gk púgē, 'buttocks', prob wrong sense swelling, & cogn. w Scrt pūga 'heap, crowd' Abnormal accumulation of fat on the buttocks, esp as in some primitive African races steatopygous adj [1 stéatópigos; 2 stíatópigos] Prec & -ous Affected by, exhibiting, steatopygia steatosis, n. [1 stéatosis, 2 stíatosis] steato- & -osis Fatty degeneration of an organ steed, n [1 stēd, 2 stīd] OE stēda, 'horse, stallion'; ME stēde, cp OE stōd, 'stud', see stud, cp ON stōð, 'stud', OE stēd, Prot eng of standan, 'to stand', see stand (I) (poet or facet.) Horse steadless, adj [1 stēdles, 2 stīdles] Prec & -less Without a steed steel (I), n [1 stēl, 2 stīl] OE stēle, (WS stiele), OHG stahol, M Du stael, ON stāli, 'steel', O Prussian stakla, 'steel', Kluge connects w Zend stuxra, 'firm, strong' 1 Form of iron, containing a certain proportion of carbon alloy, hardened and toughened by heating to a very high temperature and cooling suddenly 2 Any of several objects made of steel, specif a sword, cutting weapon, Phrs cold steel, weapons of steel &c, as distinct from fire-arms, a foeman worthy of one's steel, (chiefly fig) a redoubtable opponent, b bar of steel with roughened or fluted surface for sharpening knives, c thin, flexible strip of steel for stiffening dress, corsets &c, d piece of steel for striking fire from flint steel (II), adj, fr prec Made of, resembling, containing, steel steel (III), vb trans, fr prec 1 To cover, strengthen, edge, with steel 2 (fig) To harden, make obdurate, firm, unyielding, esp to steel one's heart steel-clad, adj Covered with steel, clad in armour steel-engraving, n Engraving by means of a steel plate steelily, vb trans [1 stēlīf, 2 stīlīf] steel (I) & -ly To convert into steel steeliness, n [1 stēlīnes, 2 stīlīnes] steelily & -ness State or quality of being steelily steel-plated, adj [1 stēl plāted, 2 stīl plēd] Covered with steel plates, armoured a steel-plated ship &c steel-points, n Small steel studs or nails fixed in soles of shoes to prevent slipping steelwork, n [1 stēlwērk, 2 stīlwīrk] Tools and other goods made of steel steely, adj [1 stēli, 2 stīli] steel (I) & -y (IV) a Of, pertaining to, like, made of, steel, b (fig) obdurate, relentless, unyielding steelyard, n [1 stēlyārd, 2 stīlyārd] fr the Steelyard, London meeting-place of German traders, fr Germ stahlhof, 'sample yard', misunderstood as 'steel yard' Instrument with a short arm for supporting object to be weighed, and a weight moving on long, graduated arm steen, vb trans [1 stān, 2 stīn] Cp OE stēnan, 'to pelt with stones, to set with stones, to bejewel', fr stānjan*, fr OE stān, see stone (I) To line a (well) with stone or brick steenbok, n [1 stēnbok, 2 stīnbok] Du steenbok, fr steen, 'stone', q v under stone (I), & bok, 'buck', see buck Small S African rock-dwelling antelope steening, n [1 stēning, 2 stīning] steen & -ing Material used for lining a well steenkirk, n [1 stēnkerk, 2 stīnkīrk] Named after battle of Steenkerke, in Belgium, 1692 (hist.) Kind of lace cravat, wig, buckle &c of late 17th cent steep (I), adj [1 etēp, 2 stīp] OE stēap, 'lofty, tall, prominent', ME stēp(e), 'steep, difficult', cp O Fris stāp, & see stoop (I) 1 Having a pronounced slope, making a considerable angle with the level, ascending or descending sharply a steep hill, roof &c, steep stairs 2 (colloq) Exorbitant, excessive, considerably above what is normal or expected steep prices, demands &c, hence, preposterous, intolerable I thought his conduct a bit steep steep (II), n, fr prec (chiefly poet) Prominent slope, hill, steep ascent or descent the steep slopes of the mountains steep (III), vb trans ME stēpen, 'to steep', fr ON stēppa, 'to pour, to rush down to overthrow', cogn w stoop (I) 1 To soak in liquid 2 To bathe, wet thoroughly, saturate, with liquid 3 (fig) To soak, immerse, imbue, impregnate steeped in crime, blood, sorrow &c., to steep oneself in a subject, a language &c steep (IV), n, fr prec 1 Act of steeping, state of being steeped 2 Liquid in which anything is steeped steepen, vb trans & intrans [1 stēpen, 2 stīpen] steep (I) & -en (V) 1 trans To make steep 2 intrans To become, grow, steep or steeper steeper, n [1 stēpor, 2 stīpa] steep (III) & -er Vessel containing articles in steep steeples, n [1 stēpl, 2 stīpl] OE, ME stēpel, 'steaple', fr stēpil*, cp OE stēap, 'lofty', see steep (I) Tall, tapering structures, usually surmounted by a spire, rising above roof of a building, esp a church, and often containing a belfry steepchase, n [1 stēplchās, 2 stīpltjēs] Horse race across country, over hedges, walls, &c, or on a fixed track with built up obstacles, so called because the first race of the kind was across country in a bee line for a distant steep steepchaser, n [1 stēplchāsēr, 2 stīpltjēās] Horse running, man riding, in steepchase steepchasing, n [1 stēplchāsing, 2 stīpltjēasing] Steeplechases as a form of sport steeples-crowned, adj [1 stēplkrōud, 2 stīplkrāund] (of hat) Having a tall, tapering crown steepled, adj [1 stēpld, 2 stīpld] steeples & -ed Having, surmounted by, a steeple steeplesjack, n [1 stēpljāk, 2 stīpldzæk] Man employed to scale steeples, chimneys, and other tall structures for purposes of repair &c steeples-top, n Bowhead whale steepleswise, adv [1 stēplwīz, 2 stīplwīdz] Like a steeple steeply, adv [1 stēpli, 2 stīpli] steep (I) & -ly In a steep manner, with a steep slope steepness, n [1 stēpnēs, 2 stīpnīs] See prec & -ness State or quality of being steep steepy, adj [1 stēpi, 2 stīpi] steep (I) & -y (IV) (poet) Steep, sheer steer (I), vb trans & intrans [1 stēr, 2 stīr] OE stēran, 'to steer, guide', ME stēren, cp OHG sturan, O Fris stura, ON stjra, 'to steer', Goth stjuran, 'to confirm, maintain', cp OE stior, 'rudder', ON staurr, 'post', OHG stura, 'pillar', Gk staurōs, 'pole', see stauroscope, fr base st(h)ēu-r-, st(h)ōu-r-, &c, 'firm', parallel to base stā-* &c, 'to stand', see stand (I), state (I), see further stow, style (III)

A trans 1 To direct movements and direction of (vessel) by means of rudder or instrument used as rudder 2 a To guide movements of (oneself, motor car &c), keep on a definite course, b (fig) to direct, bring, guide, to specified position or condition to steer one's country to peace and prosperity

3 To pursue, pick out, find, by steering to steer one's way, to steer a steady course (lit and fig) B intrans To direct course of vessel &c by means of a rudder or other instrument, Phr to steer clear of, (chiefly in fig sense) to avoid, (colloq) where are you steering for?, where are you going, heading?

steer (II), n OE stēor, ME steer, cp Goth stjūr, OHG stior, cp further OHG stjūr, 'stroog, heavy', LG stūr, 'large', cogo w Sert stjūraf, 'thick, dense, heavy', Gk stūraz, 'butt of lance', staurōs, 'pole, pillar', see stauroscope, steer (I) The connexion with Lat taurus, bull, see Taurus is improbable Young ox, bullock

steerable, adj [1 stērabl, 2 stīrabl] steer (I) & -able Capable of being steered

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c steerage-way, n Movement of vessel sufficient to enable it to answer to the helm steerer, n [1 stērer, 2 stīrer] steer (I) & -er One who steers steering-gear, n [1 stēring gēr, 2 stīring grē] Mechanism controlling the steering of a vessel, the rudder &c steering-wheel, n Wheel controlling the rudder of ship, motor car &c steersman, n [1 stēzman, 2 stīzman] Person steering a vessel steersmanship, n [1 stēzmanship, 2 stīzmanšip] Skill in steering steeve (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stēv, 2 stīv] Scots variant of stiff (naut) 1 intrans (of bowsprit) To form an angle with the plane of the horizon 2 trans To cause (bowsprit) to steeve steeve (II), n, fr prec (naut) Angle made by bowsprit with plane of horizon steeve (III), vb trans, fr O Fr estaver, 'to cram', fr Lat stipare, 'to press closely, to cram', see stipate, cp also stevedore

To pack, stow (cargo), with a steeve steeve (IV), n, fr prec Spar with block at one end used in stowing cargo steganography, n [1 steganografi, 2 steganogrāfi], fr Gk stegano, 'covered', fr stegen, 'to cover closely, to conceal', cp Gk stegos, 'roof, house', cogn w Lat tegere, 'to cover', see tegument, OE þær, 'roof', see thatch, for the second element, see -graphy Art, science or practice of writing in cipher

Steinberger, n [1 stēnbērgēr, 2 stīdnbērgēr], fr Steinberg, near Wiesbaden Kind of white, Rhemish wine produced on the estate of Steinberg steinbok, n [1 stīnbok, 2 stānbok] Germ, fr stein, 'stone, rock', q v under stone (I), & bok, 'buck', see buck Steenbok stelar, adj [1 stēlar, 2 stīlar] Next word & -ar Pertaining to, executed on, a steele stela, n [1 stēls, 2 stīls] Gk stēla, 'block of stone, as gravestone, bntress, for inscription &c', cp Gk stēllen, 'to arrange, set in order', stōlē, 'adjustment, equipment, clothing', cp stols (I), stēlēon, 'handle', cogn w OE stela, 'handle', stīll, 'quiet', see still (I), Sort sthalas, 'stands', Lat stolidus, 'stupid', see stolid Ancient Greek inscribed or sculptured upright stone slab, as monument, gravestone &c stylene, adj [1 stēlēn, 2 stīlīn] Prec & -one stellar, adj [1 stēlar, 2 stēlar], fr L Lat stellāre, 'of a star', fr Lat stella, 'star', fr stēr-lā*, cogn w Gk astēr, 'star', see astral, & w OE stearra, 'star', see star

Stellar

Connected with, pertaining to, the stars stellar light &c stellate(d), adj [1 stēlāt(ed), 2 stīlest(īd)], fr Lat stellātū (um), PP type of stellare, 'to set with stars', fr stella, 'star', see stellar, & -ed Star shaped, radiating from a centre stellately, adv [1 stēlātī, 2 stīlestī] Prec & -ly In a stellate manner stelliferous, adj [1 stelliferus, 2 stelliferōs], fr Lat stella, 'star', see stellar, & -i & -ferous Set with many stars stelliform, adj [1 stēlīform, 2 stīlīfōm], fr Lat stella, 'star', see prec, & -i & -form

Star shaped

stellular, adj [1 stēlular, 2 stēlulār], fr Lat stellula, 'little star', fr stella, 'star', see stellar, & -ule & -ar a Shaped like a small star, b set with small stars stellulate, adj [1 stēlūlāt, 2 stīlūlūt], fr Lat stellula, 'little star', see prec, & -ate stem (I), n [1 stem, 2 stēm] OE stefn, stefn, stāmin, 'stem of tree, prow of ship, family', ME stam, stem, cp ON stafn, OLG stāmin, OHG stām, 'stem, prow', Du stam, 'trunk', cogn w OE staf, see staff (I)

Stellar

1 Main part, body, support, trunk or stalk of tree, plant &c, as distinct from branches &c, usually ascending and aerial, but sometimes prostrate and subterranean

2 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerable, adj [1 stērabl, 2 stīrabl] steer (I) & -able Capable of being steered

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

steerage, n [1 stērij, 2 stīardz] stoer (I) & -age 1 a Act or process of steering, b the manner in which a vessel answers to the helm 2 a The end of a vessel from which she is steered, the stern, hence, b that part of a vessel in which are the quarters of passengers paying the lowest rates, c part of berth deck of warship used as quarters for junior officers &c

2 Slender branch from main stem of plant, supporting flower, fruit, or leaf, secondary stalk 3 Slender, stem like part or growth, anything resembling a stem in form or function, specif a slender part between foot and hawl of wineglass, egg cup &c, b short perpendicular line projecting above or below certain notes in written or printed music, c rod projecting from top of watch, by means of which the watch is wound, d (zool) slender stalk supporting organ &c, e (print) vertical strokes forming part of letter 4 (archaeol) Family, stock, ancestry, lineage the stem of Jesse 5 Part of word to which inflexional endings are added 6 (nant) Upright, usually curved, timber or metal bar, to which timbers of both sides of ship are joined at the bow. false stem, sharp edged timber in front of stem, serving as outwater Phr from stem to stern, throughout whole length of ship stem (II), vb trans, fr prec To remove stem(s) of stem (III), vb trans ME stemmen, 'to stop', cp MHG stemmen, ON stemma, 'to stop', pieb cogn w stammer (I) 1 To check, hold back, dam up to stem a torrent, flood, the flow of water, of blood &c., (also fig) to stem the flood of a person's eloquence 2 To make progress, headway, against, chiefly in Phr to stem the tide, often indistinguishable from No 1 in fig uses to stem the tide of opposition &c stemless, adj [1 stemles, 2 stémles] stem (I) & -less Without a stem stemlet, n [1 stémlet, 2 stemlét] stem (I) & -let Small stem or stalk stemma, n [1 stéma, 2 stéma] Lat stemma, 'garland, pedigree, nobility', fr Gk stemma, 'wreath', fr stephén, 'to surround, wreath, crown', op Gk stephanos, 'crown', cognates in other languages doubtful 1 A Pedigree, genealogical tree, b heave family, descent, lineage 2 (zool) Simple eye or single facet of compound eye stemmed, adj [1 stemd, 2 stemd] stem (I) & -ad Having a stem usually of specified character short, rough stemmed &c stemmer, n [1 stémmer, 2 stémme] stem (II) & -er Person employed in removing stems from tobacco plants in making tobacco stemple, n [1 stépl, 2 stépl] Med Germ stempel, 'a prop', connected w stamp (I) 1 One of a series of cross timbers forming steps in a shaft 2 Timber supporting platform &c stem-winder, n Keyless watch stench, n [1 sténch, 2 stén(t)ʃ] OE sténch, 'smell, odour', ME sténch, fr *sténch, gradational variant of OE sténch, 'to smell', see stink (I) Stroog, offensive smell (Politer word than stink, n) steno-trap o Trap in sewer to prevent noxious smells from rising stencil (I), n [1 sténal, 2 sténál, sténs] Prob fr O Fr estenceler, 'to spangle', fr estenceler 'spark', fr Lat scintilla, 'spark', see scintillate 1 Thin metal plate perforated with series of holes forming a design through which colouring matter is applied to a surface 2 Pattern, design, produced by stencilling stencil (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To apply, produce (design &c), by means of a stencil 2 To apply design to, produce pattern on, by means of a stencil stencil-plate o Stencil steno- pref representing Gk sténos, 'narrow', op Gk sténos confined space', n no certain cognates Narrow, o sténos, constriction of the pores or other orifice steno-chromo, o [1 sténokrom, 2 sténokrom] atono- & chromo Print produced by steno-chromy steno-chromy n [1 sténokrum, 2 sténokrum] Proc & -y (I) Art of printing in several colours at one impression by means of a group of pigment-blocks steno-graph n [1 sténograhf, 2 sténograhf] ateno- & -graph 1 Character used in short hand 2 Script in shorthand 3 Machine for writing in a form of shorthand steno-grapher, n [1 sténograhf, 2 sténograhf] Proc & -er Shorthand writer steno-graphic, adj [1 sténograhfik, 2 sténograhfik] steno-graph & -to Connected with, written in shorthand steno-graphically, adv [1 sténograhfikali, 2 sténograhfikali] Proc & -al & -ly By means of shorthand steno-graphist, n [1 sténograhfist, 2 sténograhfist] Next word & -ist Stenographer steno-graphy, n [1 sténograhfi, 2 sténograhfi] steno- & -graphy Shorthand, art of writing shorthand steno-lalism, n [1 sténolálm, 2 sténolálm] fr steno- & Gk lálain, 'to speak, chatter', see alalia, & -ism Formation of a name or term from the initial letters or syllables of full title, e.g. Anzac (Australian and New Zealand Army Corps), Chela (Chrezvyehamayn Komissiya) steno-type, n [1 sténétip, 2 sténétap] steno- & type Letter, group of letters, representing in shorthand a word or phrase

Stenor, n [1 sténór, 2 sténós] Lat Stenor, fr Gk Sténór Person with unusually powerful voice, so called from the Greek herald of this name in Trojan war stentorian, adj [1 sténórían, 2 sténórían] Proc & -ian Very loud or powerful a stentorian voice, stentorian tones step (I), n [1 step, 2 step] OE stepe, 'a step, a tread in stairs, degrees' See next word 1 Movement in walking, involving lifting the foot and putting it down further forward Phr step by step, gradually, to turn one's steps (towards &c), to go, to retrace one's steps, go back, return, to watch one's steps, act cautiously and prudently 2 A space covered by a step, a pace, b a short distance it is only a step to the inn Phr unable to walk a step, not able to walk at all 3 Sound of a footfall steps were heard approaching

4 Mark made by a foot on the ground, footprint, (chiefly fig) to tread in the steps of, follow example of, adopt same career &c as

5 Mode of walking, tread a light, heavy, ponderous &c step 6 One of a series of characteristic movements executed by the feet in a dance 7 Regular, rhythmical pace made in marching or walking esp one made simultaneously by each of two or of more persons walking or marching together, so timed that each person advances the left or right leg at the same moment as all the others in step, out of step, to keep step (with)

8 An act performed with a view to securing some object, means mode of procedure, measures Phr to take steps, adopt means, measures &c, to take steps to avoid the repetition of an offence to abolish a nuisance &c, a false step, wrong, foolish, measure

9 (fig) A degree, stage, in progress, advance, or retrogression we have made a great step forward in our negotiations, a few steps nearer the grave 10 An object designed as, or serving for, a support for the feet in moving from one level to another, one of rising or falling series of shelves ledges spars &c, upon which the foot is placed in ascending or descending, specif a one of the treads in a set of stairs o flight of steps, a staircase, b ledges out on face of a rock bank &c for placing the feet upon, o small projecting metal or wooden ledge, some few inches from the ground to facilitate entering or leaving a vehicle, d (i) one of the rungs of a ladder, (ii) steps pair of steps, light short ladder, with hinged prop which keeps it upright when opened step ladder o object in nature resembling a step, e.g. a plateau, esp one of a series of plateaux on the side of a hill &c

11 Higher or lower grade in rank a step in the peerage, in army rank &c Phr to get one's step, to be promoted to superior rank, to rise a step in one's opinion estimation &c to be more highly thought of 12 (mus) Degree, interval between notes of a scale 13 (naut)

Socket in which lower end of mast rests. 14 (mechan) Socket or support for shaft &c step (II), vb intrans & trans OE steppan, steppan, ME steppen, op OHG steffan, O Frs steppa, op OE stepe, 'a stop', & further w nasal, OHG stampfen, OE steppan, 'to stamp with the foot', see stamp (I) A intrans 1 To take a step or series of steps to step forward, back, over an obstacle, into a carriage, on a person's toe &c Phr to step high, raise foot high in taking a step, to step out, take long step, increase length of step, to step short, take too short a step 2 To move forward, walk, esp a short distance, or in specified manner to step lightly, to step out briskly In various colloq Phr will you step inside, come in (to the house or room), step outside, go out, step upstairs, (nlse fig) to step aside, withdraw in favour of another, step in, intervene B trans 1 To perform, execute, steps of (dances) Phr to step it, to go on foot, to walk 2 Also step out, to measure by stepping to step (out) the length of a room &c 3 To insert (mast) in socket &c, fix in position step-, pref representing OE stēp-, ME stēp-, op ON stēp-, OHG stēp-, stēp-, O Frs step, step, 'step', op further OHG stēpfan, 'to bereave of parents, orphan' Related by remembrance of one parent e.g. stepson, stepbrother, stepfather &c stepbrother, n [1 stēpbrððer, 2 stēpbrððe] Son of one's stepfather or stepmother stepchild, n [1 stēpchild, 2 stēpchild] Child of a husband or wife by a previous marriage stepdame, n [1 stēpdām, 2 stēpdām] (archaic) Stepmother step-dance, n Dances in which characteristic steps are executed stepdaughter, n [1 stēpdāwter, 2 stēpdāte] Daughter of a husband or wife by a previous marriage stepfather, n [1 stēpfādhār, 2 stēpfāðe] Second or subsequent husband of one's mother stephanotis, n [1 stēfanótis, 2 stēfanótis] fr Gk stēphanos, 'wreath, crown', q.v. under stemma, & stēfanotis, 'ear', see otalgia. Genus of tropical twining shrubs with very fragrant, waxy flowers step-ladder, n Ladder with flat steps which is not lean up against a wall &c, but has a folding support opening at an angle stepmother, n [1 stēpmððer, 2 stēpmððe] One's father's second or subsequent wife, sometimes with implication of being unfeeling or negligent, also fig Oxford Street, stony-hearted stepmother' (De Quincey) stepmotherly adj [1 stēpmððerli, 2 stēpmððeli] Proc & -ly Pertaining to, befitting, like, a stepmother, often in bad sense, unfeeling, neglectful stepney n [1 stēpni, 2 stēpni] fr name of inventor Also stepney wheel, spare wheel carried on motor car step-parent n Stepfather or stepmother stepps, o [1 step, 2 step] Fr or Germ, fr Russ step Broad, open, treeless, uncultivated plain, esp of Russia and Siberia stepped, adj [1 stēpt, 2 stēpt] step (I) & -ed Having, furnished with, forming, a series of steps stepped gables stepper, o [1 stēpər, 2 stēpə] step (II) & -er One who, that which, steps, esp in specified manner a high stepper stepping-stone n [1 stēping stōn, 2 stēping stōn] 1 One of a series of stones placed in stream so as to rise above water and form means of crossing 2 (fig) Means or instrument to an end, position which leads to further advancement a stepping-stone to promotion, fame &c stepsister, n [1 stēpəstər, 2 stēpəstə] Daughter of one's stepfather or stepmother stepson, n [1 stēpsən, 2 stēpsən] Son of a person's husband or wife by a previous marriage stepwise, adv [1 stepwiz, 2 stépwáiz] step (I) & -wise In steps, so as to form steps

-ster, suff representing OE estre, agent suff, in OE restricted to fem ns (op spinster), hnt in ME & Mod Engl used to form ns. of either gender, denoting a trade, occupations, e.g. brewster, hnt esp a in surnames, Webster, Baxter &c, derived from these, & b (in deprecatory sense) punster, rhymester, youngster &c stercoraceous, adj [1 stérkúrdshus, 2 stáker-asjós], fr Lat stercor-, stem of stercus, 'dung', perh cogn w Lith triszau, 'to manure the ground', Gk targanon, 'sour wine', ON prekkr, 'excrement', for the second element see -aceous Connected with, pertaining to, dung or excrement stercoral, adj [1 stérkural, 2 stákarál], fr Lat stercor-, stem of stercus, 'dung', see preo, & -al Stercoraceous stereo, n [1 stérēō, stérōō, 2 stériou, stáriuū] Abbr fr stereotype (I) Stereotype stereo-, pref representing Gk stereós, 'firm, stiff solid', cogn w OHG storrēn, 'to rise stiffly', op Goth (and) staurran, 'to complain', OE stierne, 'stiff, stern', see stern (I) See also stare, & words there referred to Solid stereobate, n [1 stérobât, 2 stériabêt] stereo- & Gk bátēs, 'that which treads, steps', cogn w base (I) Solid or continuous substructure of building stereochemistry, n [1 stérokémistri, 2 stérioukémistri] stereo- & chemistry Branch of chemistry dealing with the arrangement of atoms in the molecule stereochromy, n [1 stérokrómi, 2 stérioukrómi] stereo- & chrome & -y (I) Process of painting with colours fixed by waterglass stereogram, n [1 stérogram, 2 stériográm] stereo- & -gram Drawing made by stereographic means stereographic(al), adj [1 stérogáfí(l), 2 stériogáfí(l)] stereo- & -graphic & -al Relating to, executed by means of, stereography stereographically, adv Preo & -ly By stereographic means stereography, n [1 stérogáfí, 2 stériogáfí] stereo- & -graphy The art of representing solids on a plane surface stereome, n [1 stérom, 2 stérioum], fr Gk stéréma, 'a solid body', see stereo- Strengthening or supporting tissue of the cells of plants stereometer, n [1 stérométer, 2 stériómétr] stereo- & -meter 1 Instrument measuring volume of a body, capacity of a vessel &c 2 Instrument for determining specific gravity of liquids &c stereometric(al), adj [1 stérométrí(l), 2 stériómétrí(l)] stereo- & -metric & -al Relating to, done by means of, stereometry stereometry, n [1 stérométrí, 2 stériómétrí] stereo- & -metry The art of determining the dimensions of solid bodies stereopticon, n [1 stérophtíkūn, 2 stérióptíkan] See stereo- & optio Double magic lantern for exhibiting dissolving views stereoscope, n [1 stéroskóp, 2 stériaskóp] stereo- & -scope Optical instrument for representing to the eye as single object in relief two views of the object taken from slightly different angles stereoscopic, adj [1 stéroskópík, 2 stériaskópík] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, suitable for, of the nature of, a stereoscope stereoscopically, adv [1 stéroskópíkalí, 2 stériaskópíkalí] Preo & -al & -ly By stereoscopic means stereoscopy, n [1 stéroskópi, 2 stériaskópi] stereoscopic & -y Art of making or using a stereoscope stereotype (I) n [1 stérotíp, 2 stérietápi] stereo- & -typo (print) Metal plate cast in mould taken from page &c, set up in ordinary type stereotype (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 a To cast (printing-plate) from a mould, b to print (book &c) from stereotypes 2 (fig) To fix once for all, reproduce always according to one and the same fixed pattern, to repeat unalterably as though always from the same mould stereotyped features, ideas, phrases, lectures &c stereotyper, n [1 stérotíper, 2 stérietápi] Preo & -er Person engaged in printing from or making stereotypes stereotypist, n [1 stérotípist, 2 stérietápi] stereotype & -ist Stereotyper stereotypography, n [1 stérotípagrafi, 2 stérietápi] stereotype & -o & -graphy Art or practice of printing from stereotypes stereotypy, n [1 stérotípi, 2 stérioutápi] stereotype & -y (I) Art of making stereotypes sterile, adj [1 stéril, 2 stérail], fr Lat sterilis, 'unfruitful', cogn w Scrt stariš, 'barren cow', Gk stera, Goth stairō, 'sterile', perh fr base ster-*, 'to be stiff, rigid', q v under stare, stereo-, stern &c 1 (of animal, plant &c) Incapable of reproducing itself in offspring, barren 2 (of soil, country &c) Unproductive, infertile, unfruitful 3 (of food, liquid &c) Containing no living bacteria, microbes &c 4 (of action, work &c) Producing no result, ineffective 5 (of literary style &c) With out life or interest, not stimulating, barren of suggestive ideas sterility, n [1 stériliti, 2 stériliti], fr Lat sterilitas (em), 'sterility', sterile & -ity State or quality of being sterile sterilization, n [1 stérilizashun, 2 stérilizáshon] Next word & -ation Act of sterilizing, state of being sterilized sterilize, vb trans [1 stériliz, 2 stérilaz] sterile & -ize To make sterile, speak a to deprive (animal) of reproductive power, b to render free of living organisms, esp of bacteria to sterilize milk, surgical instruments &c sterilizer, n [1 stérilizer, 2 stérilazér] Preo & -er One who, that which, sterilizes, esp instrument, device, for sterilizing sterlet, n [1 stérlet, 2 stálet], fr Fr, fr Russ sterlyadi, apparently borrowed fr a Fr or Germ form, op sturgeon Kind of small sturgeon, yielding a superior variety of caviare sterling, adj [1 stérliŋ, 2 stáliŋ] In ME, formerly supposed to be fr Easterling, name given to traders of the Hanseatic League, in ME G sterling was the name of a coin Origin uncertain 1 (of British money, coinage, and of gold or silver) Of standard value, of quality fixed by Government sterling silver, five pounds sterling 2 (fig) Genuine, true, dependable, not sham or counterfeit sterling worth, qualities, sense &c stern (I), adj [1 stérn, 2 stáin] OE steorne, WS styrne, ME sterne, 'stern, severe', op OHG storrēn, 'to rise stiffly', MHG starren, 'to stiffen', Goth andstaurran, 'to complain of', cogn w Gk stereós, 'firm, stiff', see stereo-, stare, stark Austere, rigid, unyielding, relentless, severe stern parents, discipline, necessity, resolve &c, a stern look, command &c stern (II), n [1 stérn, starn, 2 stáin, stán] ME stern, fr ON stjorn, op O Fris stjerne, 'rudder', cogn w OE stéran, 'to steer', see steer (I), ON stjira, OHG stjuran, 'to steer, guide' 1 Back part of ship, part farthest from bow or stem Phrs a stern chase, in which pursuing ship follows in wake of pursued, stern foremost, backwards, stern on, with stern turned to observer &c 2 a Rump of animal, b tail of animal, esp of foxhounds sternal, adj [1 stérnal, 2 stáinal] stern (o) & -al Of, pertaining to, situated near, the sternum sternalgia, n [1 stérnálnia; 2 stáineldzja], fr stern (o) & -algia, op Gk. algein, 'to suffer', q v under neglect Pain near the breast-bone stern-chase (r), n Gun mounted in stern of vessel for defence against pursuing ship sterned, adj [1 stérnd, 2 stánd] stern (II) & -ed (chiefly in compounds) Having a stern of specified kind stern-fast, n Rope, chain &c for mooring vessel by the stern sternly, adv [1 stérnlí, 2 stánlí] stern (I) & -ly In a stern manner sternmost, adj [1 stérnmōst, 2 stáinmōst] stern (II) & -most Nearest to the stern sternness, n [1 stérnnes, 2 stáinnis] stern (I) & -ness State or quality of being stern stern(o)-, pref representing sternum Sternum, near the sternum sternoclavicular, adj [1 stérnoklaviklár, 2 stáinoklaviklár] stern (o) & clavicular Of the sternum and clavicle sternocostal, adj [1 stérnokostal, 2 stáinoklástal] stern (o) & costal Of the sternum and ribs sternoscaphular, adj [1 stérnóskáfulár, 2 stáinóskáfulár] stern (o) & scaphular Of the sternum and scapula sternothyroid, adj [1 stérnthíroid, 2 stáinóthíroid] stern (o) & thyroid Of the sternum and thyroid cartilage stern-post, n Upright timber at vessel's stern, attached to keel, and usually supporting rudder stern-sheets, n Part of boat between stern and rowers' thwarts sternum, n [1 stérnum, 2 stáinm] Lat sternum, fr Gk stérnon, 'chest', op Scrt stirnás, 'spread out', OHG stirna, 'forehead', OE steornede, 'having a forehead', Gaul sarn, 'paved way', O Slav strand, 'side, place', fr base st(er)ē-, st(er)ē-, st(er)ē-*, 'to spread out, extend', seen also in stratum, strath, strand (I), strew &c Breast bone, vertical bone in front of thorax, to which the upper ribs are joined sternutation, n [1 stérntútashun, 2 stáinútáshon], fr Lat sternutatio (em), 'act of sneezing', fr sternutatio (um), P P type of sternutatio, 'to sneeze', fr sternuere, 'to sneeze', cogn w Gk plarnám, W yslewa, 'to sneeze', O Ir aren(n)im, 'to snore' Act of sneezing sternutative, adj [1 stérntútativ, 2 stáinútativ], fr Lat sternutatio (um), P P type of sternutatio, 'to sneeze', see preo, & -ive Causing, tending to cause, sneezing sternutatory, adj & n [1 stérntútatur, 2 stáinútatur], fr Lat sternutatio (um), see preo & -ory 1 adj Sternutative 2 n Sub-stance causing, or intended to cause, sneezing sternward, adj & adv [1 stérnward, 2 stáinward] stern (II) & -ward 1 adj Situated near or towards the stern 2 adv Towards the stern sternwards, adv [1 stérnwardz, 2 stáinwardz] stern (II) & -wards Towards the stern stern-way, n Backward motion of ship stern-wheeler, n (USA) Steamboat with angle paddle wheel at stern stertorous, adj [1 stértorus, 2 stáitaras], fr Lat stertere, 'to snore', & -or & -ous, etymol doubtful, possibly fr the same base as Lat sternuere, 'to sneeze', op O Ir aren(n)im, 'to snore', & see sternutation (of breathing or person breathing) Characterized, accompanied by, producing sound like, snoring stertorously, adv Preo & -ly In a stertorous manner stertorously, n See preo & -ness Quality of being stertorous stet, impert (intrans) & vb trans [1 stet, 2 stat] Lat stet, 'let it stand', 3rd sing pres snbj of stare, 'to stand', see stare 1 imperat Direction to printer &c, written in margin of a proof to cancel correction made in text, the letters thus replaced being dotted under 2 vb trans To cancel (correction in text) by placing dot(s) beneath and writing 'stet' in margin stethoscope, n & vb trans [1 stéthoskop, 2 stéthoskop], fr Gk stéthos, 'breast', cogn w Sort stans, 'breast', for the second element see -scope 1 n Slender tube with one flat and one bell shaped end for auscultation of heart, lungs &c, also more elaborate apparatus for same purpose 2 vb To examine with a stethoscope stethoscopic, adj [1 stéthoskopik, 2 stéthoskopik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, a stethoscope or stethoscopy stethoscopically, adv [1 stéthoskopikali, 2 stéthoskopikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a stethoscopic manner, by means of the stethoscope stethoscopist, n [1 stéthoskopist, 2 stéthoskopist] stethoscope & -ist Person using or skilled in use of a stethoscope stethoscopy, n [1 stéthoskopí, 2 stéthoskopí] stethoscope & -y (I) Art or practice of using a stethoscope stivedore, n [1 stévidor, 2 stévidor], fr Span estivador, fr estivar, 'to pack, stow', fr Lat stipare, 'to pack tightly', see steeve (III) & stipate, the Span suff -dor, corresponds to Lat -tor, expressing the agent Person employed at docks to stow and unload cargoes stew (I), n [1 stū, 2 stjū] M E stewe, stue, fr O Fr estue, 'hot bath, bath-room, stew', of Gmo origin, ep Germ. stube, 'room', M Du stove, O E stofa, 'heated room, bath room', see stove (I) Public baths were formerly, in many countries, the resort of persons of ill fame (archaic, usually pl stews) A brothel stew (II), vb trans & intrans M E stew (to stew), 'to stew', fr stue, 'bot bath', see prec 1 trans To cook slowly by simmering in a small proportion of liquid, esp in covered vessel to stew beef, stewed fruit 2 intrans (of food) To be cooked, be in process of cooking, by this method. Phr to let a person stew in his own juice, abandon him to his fate, withhold help stew (III), n, fr prec 1 Dish of meat, fish, vegetables &c cooked by stewing, usually with considerable number of ingredients, Irish stew, thick stew of mutton, onions, and potatoes 2 (slang) State of restless anxiety and excitement in a regular stew stew (IV), n, M E stewe, cp M L G stouwe, fish pond', stauen, 'to dam', O H G stovan, stian, 'to accuse, blame, take into custody', Goth stýan 'to judge', & see stow Fish pond serving as store for fish for the table steward, n [1 stúard, 2 stjúard] O E stýward, M E steward, 'steward', fr O E stý, 'sty, hall', see sty & ward 1 a (hist) An officer on the estate of a feudal lord having charge and management of the cattle, b generally, manager and administrator of a large estate and of all the businesses connected with it, agricultural, legal, and financial. 2 Salaried manager of a large household and estate belonging to another 3 Person whose business it is to arrange for the supply of provisions in a college, club, or similar institution 4 Servant on a ship who waits on and attends to the passengers 5 One of a body of officials employed on various public occasions, e.g. at race meetings, at public balls 6 One of various high officers of State Lord High Steward of England, Lord Steward of the Household stewardess, n [1 stúardes, 2 stjúardes] Prec & -ess Female steward, esp on passenger ship stewardship, n [1 stúardship, 2 stjúardship] steward & -ship A Rank, office, functions of a steward, Phr to give an account of one's stewardship make a statement relative to the way in which one has discharged one's duties and responsibilities, b tenure of office of steward stew-pot, n stew-pot stichic, adj [1 stíchnik, 2 stíchnik], fr GL stíchnos, 'strength', etymol. doubtful (pathol) Abnormally active, applied to a state of morbid activity of some vital process stibial, adj [1 stíbiál, 2 stíbiál], fr Lat stibi, stibium, fr Gk stibi, 'a sulphuret of antimony', fr Egyptian, & -al Of, containing, consisting of, like, antimony stibialism, n [1 stíbiálm, 2 stíbiálm] Prec & -ism Poisoning by antimony stibium, n [1 stíbium, 2 stíbium] Lat., see stibial (chem) Antimony stichic, adj [1 stíchnik, 2 stíchnik] Gk stíchnos, fr stíchnos, 'file of soldiers, line of verse', cp Gk stíchnos, 'row, rank', stíchnos, 'to advance', cogn w Sert stíchnos, 'ascend', Goth stígan, O N stiga, O E stigan, 'to ascend', O E stíger, 'stair', see stair Connected with, consisting of, lines as metrical units stichomyth, n [1 stíkomith, 2 stíkomith], also stichomythia [1 stíkomithia, 2 stíkomithia] Gk stíchnomíthia, 'conversation in alternate lines', fr stíchnos, 'line of verse', see stichic, & míthos, 'word, speech', see myth Verse dialogue as in Greek plays stick (I), vb trans & intrans [1 stík, 2 stík], fr two M E vbs, w forms & meanings confused, (1) M E stelen (str vb), 'to prick, fix, fasten', cp O S stecan, O H G stechan, 'to prick', (2) M E stíken (wk vb), 'to be infixed, to prick', fr O E stícan, 'to prick, goad, stab', to remain fixed, be infixed', both cogn. w Goth stíke, O H G stih, 'prick, point', cp O E sticca, 'stick, peg, point', see stick (II), L G stikke, 'to stick on', cp etiquette, further, Gk stízein, 'to prick, puncture', stíche, 'embroidered, variegated', stigma, 'mark made by pointed instrument, scar, brand', see stigma, Lat instigare, 'to goad', see instigate, Sort stígalē, 'is sharp', stígalē, 'pointed', O Pers stíga, 'sharp', see tiger Cp also stake (I) A trans 1 To pierce, thrust pointed object or instrument into or through to stick a pincushion full of pins, b specif, to stick a pig, to kill it by sticking knife into its throat Phr to stick pigs (as sport), to hunt wild pigs on horseback with spear 2 To cause to penetrate, thrust into to stick a fork into a potato, a needle into one's finger &c 3 (colloq) To place, put, set, thrust stick it on the shelf, to stick one's hands into one's pockets, to stick one's tongue out, to stick a rose in one's buttonhole, to stick one's head round the door 4 To cause to adhere, cause to cling or cleave, fix in position, attach to stick a stamp on a letter, to stick bills, a notice, on a wall &c, b to mend, fasten together, stick a thing, broken pieces &c, together with glue 5 (slang) To tolerate, endure, stand I simply can't stick a whole summer in a town Phr to stick it, to bear patiently (circumstances &c), go through with, see it through B intrans 1 To remain fixed in, be held in position by point penetrating an object pins sticking in a pincushion, a dagger sticking in the corpse 2 A To remain attached to, adhere, cleave, cling closely stamps stick together, to one's fingers &c, b to stick to one's clothes to stick fast, like a limpet &c, (colloq) to stick on a horse, be firmly seated on, not to fall off, b (fig) to cling, cleave, remain in close association, avoid estrangement friends stick together c to remain, stop to stick at home, in the house &c, d to remain attached, become permanent, always used the nickname stick 3 A To become embedded, held fast, fixed, to be caught, entangled, attached to stick in the mud, the key has stuck in the lock, the door sticks, a fish-bone stuck in my throat Phr to stick in one's throat, (fig) be difficult to accept, acknowledge, utter &c, b (fig) to come to, be forced to a standstill, be unable to proceed he tried to repeat Gray's "Elegy", but stuck after the first few verses C Followed by adverbs or prepositions with special meanings Stick at intrans 1 to remain at, persist in to stick at a piece of work, 2. to be checked, daunted by, to hesitate about, have scruples concerning he will stick at nothing to gain his ends, to stick at trifles Stick out, 1 intrans, to project, stand out his ears stick out, buried in the sand with only his head sticking out, 2 trans, to cause to project, thrust out, force into prominence to stick out one's chest Stick out for, intrans, to persist in demanding, insist on having to stick out for higher wages Stick to, intrans, a to persevere in, continue at, refrain from abandoning to stick to one's work, post &c, Phr to stick to one's guns, (fig) adhere to one's opinions, refuse to be deflected from one's purpose, in spite of opposition, b (fig) to be loyal, faithful, constant, to stick to one's friends, one's word &c Stick up, 1 intrans, to project upwards, stand upright hair sticking up on end, a head sticking up out of the water, 2 trans, a to cause to project upwards, put into upright position to stick up a post, b (slang) to hold up, stop, or threaten for the purpose of robbing, c (slang) to puzzle, perplex Stick up for, intrans, to defend, uphold, speak, or act in defence of to stick up for a friend, oneself, one's rights &c stick (II), n. O E sticca, 'stick, peg', M E sticke, see prec 1 Slender, stiff shoot or twig of tree or shrub, light enough to be lifted or carried in the hand to collect dry sticks for the fire, to put a stick in the ground to mark a point Phrs to cut one's stick, (colloq) takes one's departure, in a cleft stick, (fig) dilemma, position from which one cannot extricate oneself, to give one the stick, cane him, to get hold of the wrong end of the stick, to misunderstand a situation, form a wrong idea concerning a matter, specify a stick seasoned, shaped &c for support or defence, as symbol of office &c, rod, staff to walk with, lean on, a stick, b (usually in compounds) stick prepared or adapted for specific purpose fiddlestick, singletick, broomstick, drumstick, hockey stick &c 2 Slender, usually cylindrical, bar or piece of some plastic substance a stick of sealing wax, barley sugar &c 3 (print) Composing stick 4 (mus) Conductor's baton 5 Stick insect 6 (fig, colloq) Dull, stiff, starched, unresponsive person he's a regular stick a dry old stick stick (III), vb trans, fr prec 1 To support with a stick, to fasten to, supply with, stakes as support to stick peas 2 (print) To set up (type) in composing stick sticker, n [1 stíker, 2 stíke] stick (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, sticks (in various senses), specif a butcher &c who sticks pigs, b one who fastens objects with adhesive compound bill sticker &c, c (cricket) batsman who stays in for a long period but makes few runs 2 Person who sticks to, persists in, a piece of work, line of conduct &c, a persistent, assiduous, persevering person 3 Wooden rod connecting two reciprocating levers in an organ &c stickful, n [1 stíkfú, 2 stíkfú] stick (II) & -ful (prmt.) Amount of type that fills a composing stick stickily, adv [1 stíklí, 2 stíklí] sticky & -ly In a sticky manner stickiness, n [1 stíknēs, 2 stíknēs] See prec & -ness State or quality of being sticky sticking-place, -point, n [1 stíking plás, point, 2 stíking plás point] (chiefly fig) Point at which something sticks, holds fast, remains fixed, esp in Phr to crew one's courage to the sticking point sticking-plaster, n Adhesive plaster for covering cuts &c on the face &c stick-insect n Any of several kinds of insect resembling a twig or small stick.

stick-in-the-mud, adj & n [1 stík in the mud 2 stík in the mud] 1 adj Unprogressive, dull, without imagination, initiative &c 2 n Stick in the mud person, place &c stickjaw, n [1 stíkjaw, 2 stíkjús] (slang) Sweetmeat, pudding, which is sticky and difficult to masticate stickleback, n [1 stiklɪhɪk, 2 stiklɪbæk], fr O E sticel, 'sting', fr stican, 'to prick', see stick (I), & -le & back Small, fresh- and salt-water fish with a ridge of sharp dorsal spines stickler, n [1 stiklɪr, 2 stiklɪ] Obs sense, 'umpire', fr M E stihlen, 'to rule, dispose, set in order', fr stihlen, O E stihlan, 'to arrange, dispose', fr stik lan*, cp M Du stichlen, O H G stiflan, 'to arrange' Only in Phr stickler for, person who insists on, is punctilious about a stickler for ceremony, chiquette &c sticky, adj [1 etfɪk, 2 etfɪk] stick (I) & -y (IV) A Adhesive, glutinous, tending to cling to surfaces, b (in moral sense) difficult to move or influence, given to making objections, having scruples and hesitations rather sticky about giving his consent &c stiff (I), adj [1 stɪf, 2 stɪf] O E stif, M E stif, 'stiff, strong', cp M L G stif, Du stijf, O N stijf, 'stiff', cogn w Lat stipare, 'to pack closely, cram', see stipate, stipes, 'pillar', Lth stiprūs, 'strong', cp further Gk stiphrōs, 'thick, firm', stiehem, 'to thicken', fr base sti-, stet- &c, 'to press close together', see also stato-, stone (I) 1 Rigid, firm, not easily bent, not flexible or pliant a stiff bar of iron, standing straight and stiff, stiff and cold in death, a stiff piece of cardboard, a stiff collar 2 Dense in texture, only slightly plastic, thick stiff dough, paste, clay &c 3 A Not moving freely, working with difficulty, owing to excessive friction &c stiff joints, hinges &c, a stiff neck, rheumatism of muscles of neck, Phr to keep a stiff face, lip, remain grave, (fig) remain unmoved, to keep a stiff upper lip, remain firm in trouble or difficulty, b (of part of body) painful when moved through over exertion, c (of person) suffering from stiffness of limb, muscle &c through over exertion feeling rather stiff 4 A Formal, constrained, distant, reverse of natural, cordial, or easy in manner or character a stiff bow, greeting &c, a stiff manner, style &c, b morally unyielding, not easily persuaded or influenced, severe 5 Requiring physical or mental effort, difficult a stiff climb, examination 6 Of considerable strength, volume, amount &c, specif a a stiff gale, breeze &c, strong and steady, b a stiff drink &c, containing large proportion of spirit, drug &c, c excessive a stiff demand, price &c, d (colloq) startling, difficult to acquiesce in, preposterous, thick, steep (in colloq senses) stiff (II), n, fr prec (slang) 1 Paper money &c 2 A corpse stiff-bit, n Horse's bit consisting of a single, rigid bar stiffen, vb trans & intrans [1 stifən, 2 stifən] stiff (I) & -en (V) A trans 1 To make stiff, specif a to make rigid, difficult to bend to stiffen linen with starch, b to increase density of, make less plastic to stiffen paste &c 2 To render more resolute and unyielding, to inspire with power or will to resist the king tried to stiffen his wavering generals B intrans 1 To become stiff, specif a to grow rigid, lose flexibility, b to become less plastic, hard 2 To become colder in manner, more formal, distant, constrained. 3 A To increase in intensity, force, volume the breeze stiffened, b (fig) to become firmer, more determined and unyielding one's resolution stiffens stiffener, n [1 stifənər, 2 stifənər] Prec & -er Something which causes stiffening, a (in material sense) specif (slang) a stimulant, a tonic, b (in moral sense) circumstance which stiffens the courage, resolution &c stiffening, n [1 stifənɪŋ, 2 stifənɪŋ] See prec & -ing Material used to stiffen substance or object stiffish, adj [1 stɪfɪʃ, 2 stɪfɪʃ] stiff (I) & -ish (I) Fairly stiff stiffly, adv [1 stɪfli, 2 stɪfli] stiff (I) & -ly In a stiff manner stiff-necked, adj [1 etf nekt, 2 stɪf nekt] (fig) Stubborn, unyielding, obstinate stiffness, n [1 stɪfnəs, 2 stɪfnəs] stiff (I) & -ness State or quality of being stiff stifle (I), vb trans & intrans [1 etɪfl, 2 stɪfl], fr O N stifla, 'to choke', fr stiva, 'to stiffen', cogn w M L G stifen, M Dn stuyven, 'to stiffen', cp O N stijf, O E stif, 'stiff', see stiff (I) A trans 1 a To choke, suffocate, kill, destroy, by stopping air supply, b to render breathing difficult, deprive of adequate supply of fresh air 2 a To oppress, damp down, cause to die down, to extinguish, to quench to stifle fire, flames, b (fig) to quell, put down to stifle complaints, rebellion &c 3 a To repress (feelings &c), to crush down, keep in check control, refrain from giving vent to or expressing to stifle one's hopes, fears, affection &c, b to stifle a noise, laughter, sob &c B intrans To experience sensation of stifling stifle (II), n Prob fr O N stifa, 'stiffen', see prec 1 Joint in hind leg of horse or dog, above the hock, also stifle-joint 2 Disease of stifle-joint or stifle bone stifle-bone, n Horse's knee-pan stified, adj [1 stɪfɪd, 2 stɪfɪd] stifle (II) & -ed Affected with stifle stifle-joint, n See stifle (II) stifle-shoe, n Horseshoe designed to correct a stified joint stifling, adj [1 stiflɪŋ, 2 stɪflɪŋ] stifle (I) & -ing Tending to stifle, suffocating, stuffy, airless, also in moral sense stiflingly, adv Prec & -ly So as to stifle stigma, n [1 stɪɡmə, 2 stɪɡmə], pl stigmata, (eccles, anat) stigmata [1 stɪɡmata, 2 stɪɡmata] Lat fr Gk stigma, 'puncture, brand', fr stem of stizein, 'to prick, brand, tattoo', cogn w Lat instigare, 'to goad', see instigate, also w O E stican, 'to prick', see stick (I) 1 (archaic) Mark made with branding iron on slave or criminal, brand 2 Moral reproach, brand of disgrace or infamy the stigma of illegitimacy 3 (eccles, commonly in pl, stigmata) Marks, or periodically bleeding wounds, corresponding to the five wounds of the Saviour, appearing miraculously on the bodies of some saints and other persons 4 (anat) Any small mark or scar on the body, specif, small spot that bleeds periodically or under certain mental or physical stimuli 5 (bot) That part of a pistil which receives the pollen stigmatic, adj [1 etɪɡmætɪk, 2 etɪɡmætɪk], fr Lat, fr Gk stigmat, stem of stigma, 'brand', see stigma & -ic Of the nature of a stigma stigmatiferous, adj [1 stɪɡmætɪfərəs, 2 stɪɡmætɪfərəs], fr Gk stigmat, as in prec, & -i- & -ferous Bearing stigmas stigmatism, n [1 stɪɡmætɪzəm, 2 etɪɡmætɪzəm], fr Gk stigmat, as in prec, & -ism 1 Condition of bearing stigmas 2 Property of an optical lens, or of that of the eye, of focussing rays of light upon a single point stigmatist, n [1 stɪɡmætɪst, 2 stɪɡmætɪst], fr Gk stigmat, see prec, & -ist (eccles) Person supposed to bear the marks of the stigmata stigmatization, n [1 stɪɡmætɪzəʃən, 2 stɪɡmætɪzəʃən] Next word & -ion Act of stigmatizing, state of being stigmatized stigmatize, vb trans [1 stɪɡmætɪz, 2 stɪɡmætɪz], fr Gk stigmat, see stigmatic, & -ize 1 (fig) To designate, brand, as (something discreditable) to describe by an opprobrious name to stigmatize a person as a rogue 2 (eccles) To impress, mark, stigmatize upon, to mark with stigmata stigmatose, adj [1 stɪɡmætəʊs, 2 stɪɡmætəʊs], fr Gk stigmat, see prec, & -ose Bearing, marked with, having, a stigma stiltite, n [1 stɪltaɪt, 2 stɪltaɪt] Formed fr Gk stilben, 'to glitter', cp Gk stilpnos, 'shining', perh cogn w O Ir sell, 'eye'

A white, crystalline mineral stile (I), n [1 stɪl, 2 stɪl] O E stigel, 'place for climbing over fence, stile', M E stiele, cp M H G stigele, M L G stigel, 'stile', cp further O E stigan, 'to climb', P P (ge)stigen, & see stair & sty (I) Device for facilitating the climbing of a wall or fence, usually consisting of a bar or rail, and more or less rough steps of wood or stone placed permanently on either side stile (II), n Origin unknown. Upright piece in frame of door &c stiletto, n & vb trans [1 stɪlətə, 2 stɪlətəʊ], fr Ital stiletto, dimun of stilo, fr Lat stilius, 'pointed instrument', see style (I) 1 n. A small, slender, continuously tapering dagger, b small pointed instrument of metal, ivory &c for making eyelet holes in textile fabric &c 2 vb (rare) To pierce, make holes in, stab, with a stiletto still (I), adj [1 etɪl, 2 stɪl] O E stille, 'at rest, silent, secret', cp M Dn stille, O H G stili, 'still', cogn w Gk stillein, 'to set in order', stēlō, 'puller', see stale, stalekhos, 'stem', Scrt stihlam, 'place, position', Lat locus, O Lat stilocus, 'place', see locus, fr base stēl-, stēl-, stēl-* &c, 'to place', expansion of stēl-, stēl-, 'to stand', see stand, state 1 A Devoid of motion still water, the air is perfectly still, a still evening, b no longer moving, having come to rest keep your feet still, never still for a moment 2 (of wine) Not sparkling or effervescent 3 Devoid of sound, no longer heard, silent 'The trumpet's silver sound is still' (Scott, Intro to Canto I of 'Marmion') still (II), n, fr prec Cp O H G stills, 'stillness' (rare and poet) Stillness, quiet, calm still (III), vb trans & intrans fr still (I) 1 trans To make still, a to cause to be quiet or silent, to calm, hush to still the clamours of envy, b to soothe, assuage to still the pain of a wound 2 intrans (rare) To become still still (IV), adv O E stille, 'quietly', see still (I) 1 (archaic or obs) Continuously, constantly 2 Fought up to specified time, even now or even then he is still asleep, will you still be here when I return? 3 Nevertheless, even, granting that, notwithstanding he is an awful bore—still we are bound to ask him 4 (after or before a compar adj) Even, yet, more, to an increasing degree he is tall enough, but his brother is still taller, or taller still still (V), vb trans & intrans Abbr fr distil, but cp also Lat stillare, 'to fall in drops, to cause to fall in drops', fr stilla, 'a small drop', dimin of stilla, 'small drop, trickle', cogn w stipare, 'to press together', q v under stiff, & cp stipate 1 trans To distil, produce (spirit) from a still 2 intrans (poet) To fall drop by drop, trickle still (VI), n M E stillborne, fr still (um), P P type of still, see prec, & -ory Apparatus for distilling, apparatus in which the more volatile parts of a liquid are separated from it by heat and subsequently condensed stillage, n [1 stɪlɪ, 2 stɪlɪdʒ] Formed fr base of stilling, stilloon, & -age Frame work, bench, stool &c for raising things off the floor, e.g. yarn &c while draining, goods ready for packing &c still-birth, n Birth of a dead child still-born, adj Dead when born still-fish, vb intrans To fish from an anchored boat stilling, n [1 stɪlɪŋ, 2 stɪlɪŋ], fr L G steling, fr stellen, 'to place', cogn w stall (I), & -ing (I) Stand, framework, support stillion, n [1 stɪljən, 2 stɪljən] Variant of prec Stilling still life, n Pictorial representation of inanimate objects stillness, n [1 stɪlnəs, 2 stɪlnəs] still (I) & -ness State or quality of being still still-room, n 1 Room in which distilling is carried on 2 Housekeeper's store room, one where home made preserves &c are kept stilly (I), adv [1 stɪli, 2 stɪli] still (I) & -ly In a still manner, quietly stilly (II), adj [1 stɪli, 2 stɪli] still (I) & -y (IV) (poet) Still quiet, silent stilt, n [1 stilt, 2 stilt], fr Swed stylla, op Germ stelze, 'stilt' 1 (usually pl) Stilts, device used for raising a walker above the ground, consisting of a pair of long, light poles, with supports for the feet eighteen inches or so from the ground, the upper part of each resting in crook of elbow and grasped lower down by the hand 2 Also stilt bird, stilt plover, genus of three toed wading birds, with long, slender legs stilt-bird, n See stilt, 2 stilted, adj [1 stilted, 2 stilted] stilt & -ed. 1 Stiff, pretentious, bombastic (of style and manner), literally resembling gait of person on stilts 2 (archit) Stilted arch, one springing from a series of horizontal courses of masonry above the impost, and not from the impost itself stiltedly, adv Pre & -ly In a stilted manner stiltedness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being stilted.

Stilton, n [1 stilton, 2 stilton], fr Shilton, Hunts Kind of rich cheese stilt-petrel, n Long legged petrel.

stilt-plover, n See stilt, 2 stilt-sandpiper, n Kind of North American sandpiper stimulant (I), adj [1 stimulant, 2 stimulant], fr Lat stimulare, 'to prick with a goad, to stimulate', fr stimulus, 'goad', see stimulus, & -ant Serving to stimulate, acting as a stimulant stimulant (II), n, fr prec Something which stimulates, specif a drug or other agent which increases the activity of some bodily organ or function, or which excites emotions, in Phr to take stimulants, refers specifically to alcohol, b some motive or influence which incites (persons) to action ambition is often a stimulant of industry stimulate, vb trans [1 stimulat, 2 stimulat], fr Lat stimulat (um), PP type of stimulare, 'to prick with a goad, to rouse up, stimulate', fr stimulus, 'goad', see stimulus 1 To cause activity in, rouse up, excite, act as stimulus to, specif a to excite a nerve light stimulates the optic nerve, b to increase, arouse, provoke, an emotion to stimulate one's curiosity, n to increase action of a bodily organ to stimulate (the action of) the heart 2 To provide a motive or incentive to human action, to urge, incite I couldn't stimulate him into a display of spirit or courage stimulating, adj [1 stimulating, 2 stimulating] Pre & -ing Acting as stimulus, exciting, provoking, increasing, bodily or mental activity, bracing stimulation, n [1 stimulatshun, 2 stimulatshun] stimulate & -ion Act of stimulating, state of being stimulated stimulative, adj [1 stimulatv, 2 stimulatv] stimulate & -ive Tending to stimulate stimulator, n [1 stimulatör, 2 stimulatör] stimulate & -or One who, that which, stimulates, cap object or substance used for stimulating stimulose, adj [1 stimulos, 2 stimulous], fr Lat stimulosus, 'stimulative', see stimulus & -ose (bot) Having a sting stimulus, n [1 stimulus, 2 stimulus] Lat stimulus, 'goad, sting, pang spur, incentive', op Lat stilus, 'pointed instrument', fr base stih*, steh*, stoh* &c, 'sharp', op Avest stāra, 'peak' From the same base w addition of formative element g, op Lat (in) stigare, 'to goad', see investigate, Gk stigma, 'prick', see stigma, OE sticca, 'stick, peg', see stick (I) 1 Anything which excites action or reaction in tissue, muscle, nerve &c 2 (bot) Plant's sting 3 (ecclcs) Point at end of ecclesiastical staff 4 A substance, drug &c which increases and provokes activity of bodily function, a stimulant, b something which incites to mental or moral action, an incentive, a motive, an inducement interest and curiosity provide a sufficient stimulus to industry without the stimulus of poverty and ambition he would never have reached success stimy See stymie

sting (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sting, 2 sting] OE stingan, ME stingen, op ON stinga, Goth stingan, 'to sting', prob a nasalized form of base in stick (I) A trans 1 (of insect, plant &c) To pierce, wound, with a sting to be stung by a bee 2 To cause a sharp, smarting, tingling sensation or pain to a stinging blow, the hail stings one's face 3 (fig) a To give keen mental pain to, cause to suffer acutely to be stung by remorse, an insult &c, b to stimulate, provoke the insult stung him into a reply B intrans 1 (zool, bot) a To beve a sting, b to inflict a sting 2 To feel a sharp, smarting sensation, to tingle the blow made his hand sting 3 (fig) To give acute mental pain reproach stings sting (II), n OE sting, see prec 1 (zool) Sharply pointed organ of offence or defence of an animal, as insect, reptile &c 2 (bot) Sharp, stiff hair, containing tube leading from poison gland, as in a nettle 3 A Act of stinging, b wound or puncture caused by sting 4 Sharp pain caused by, or as by, a sting to feel a sharp sting, the sting of the wind, the stings of hunger 5 Property of, capacity for, inflicting keen mental or moral suffering 'O Death, where is thy sting' 6 Stimulating force, keenness, power to rouse, excite, bite, tang the breeze has a sting in it stingaree, n [1 stinggarē, 2 stinggarē], fr sting-ray Sting ray sting-bull, n Kind of sharp spined fish, weever stinger, n [1 stinger, 2 stinger] sting (I) & -er One who, that which, stings, esp stinging blow sting-fish, n Sting bull stingily, adv [1 stingily, 2 stindzily] stingy & -ly In a stingy manner stinginess, n [1 stinginess, 2 stindziness] See prec & -ness State or quality of being stingy stinging, adj [1 stinging, 2 stingy], fr Pre Part of sting (I) 1 (of plant, insect &c) Having a sting, able to sting 2 Producing a sharp, smarting, painful sensation a stinging blow 3 (fig) Causing acute exasperation, irritating like a sting stinging words stingingly, adv Pre & -ly So as to sting to retort briefly but stingingly stinging-nettle, n Species of nettle with stings on leaf stingless, adj [1 stingless, 2 etigless] sting (II) & -less Without a sting stingo, n [1 stinggō, 2 stinggō], fr sting (archaic) Strong beer sting-ray, n Kind of ray with a sharp spine near the base of the long whip like tail sting-winkle, n Kind of shellfish that perforates the shells of other shellfish stingy, adj [1 stingy, 2 stindzi], fr OE stingig*, 'stinging' See sting (II) & -y (IV) Disinclined to spend money, not in the habit of giving, penurious, mean, niggardly, reverse of open handed, generous, liberal stink (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stink, 2 stink] OE stincan, 'to emit vapour, to give forth odour (good or bad)', ME stinken, op OHG stincan, MLG stinken, 'to smell', prob cogn w Gk tygōs, 'rancid', fr a nasalized form of base seen in ON stokr, 'stinking' See also stench 1 intrans To give out a strong, unpleasant smell, have an offensive odour Phrs (fig) to stink of money be conspicuously rich, to stink in one's nostrils, be highly offensive to one 2 trans Only in stink out, to drive out by stinking stink (II), n, fr prec 1 (not a refined word) Strong offensive, disgusting smell, a stench 2 (alang) Stink chemistry, natural science stink-alive n Kind of fish, whiting pout stinkard, n [1 stinkard, 2 stinkard] stink

(I) & -ard Stinking person, animal, esp the stinking bodger, telcdu stink-ball, n Boll or vessel filled with explosives or combustibles, designed to produce noxious fumes, formerly used to fling on to hostile ships in naval warfare stinker, n [1 stinkor, 2 stinkor] stink (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, stinks, stinkard 2 Kind of petrel, esp giant fulmar stink-horn, n Kind of fungus growing on decayed vegetable matter stinking, adj [1 stinking, 2 stinking], fr Pre Part of stink (I) Emitting an offensive odour, eg stinking badger, E Indian badger secreting a malodorous fluid, the teledu, stinking cedar, stinking crane's-bill, night shade &c, stinking elder, common elder, stinking weed, kind of W Indian cassia stinkingly, adv Pre & -ly In a stinking manner stink-pot, n 1 Stink ball 2 Term of abuse stink-stone, n Kind of rock, esp limestone, which emits a fetid odour when struck or split stink-trap, n Contrivance to prevent escape of effluvia from drains stink-wood, n Valuable, durable, but ill-smelling timber obtained from a South African tree stint (I), vb trans [1 stint, 2 stint] OE stintan, 'to stopefy', ME stinten, 'to stop, stint', fr OE stunt, 'dull', op ON stulr, 'short', cogn w Lat tundere, 'to beat' Cp Sort tundatē, 'proke, pushes', &, without the nasal, Lat tudes, 'hammer', op the same base w a different formative element in type, & op toil (II) See also stunt (I) & cp confuse 1 To be chary of bestowing, to limit, be too sparing in bestowal of he does not stint his praise 2 To grudge, be niggardly with, dole out inadequate quantities of (thing), to (person) to stint one's children of food, also to stint oneself (of) stint (II), n, fr prec 1 Restriction, limitation, chiefly in Phr without stint, unrestrictedly, ungrudgingly, lavishly 2 (archaic) Limited, appointed, assigned proportion or task 3 Small sandpiper, esp the dunlin stinting, adj [1 stinting, 2 stinting], fr Pre Part of stint (I) Grudging, niggardly stintingly, adv Pre & -ly Grudgingly, sparingly stintless, adj [1 stintless, 2 etintless] stint (II) & -less Without stint, unlimited.

stipate, adj [1 stipat, 2 stipat], fr Lat stipat (um), PP type of stipare, to press together, compress, op Lat stipes, 'pillar, stem', cogn w stiff (I) (bot) Compressed, crowded.

stipe, n [1 stip, 2 stape] Fr, fr Lat stipes, 'stem', see prec Stalk, stem, support, specif (bot) a stalk of fern frond, b stem-like part of mushroom or similar fungus stipel, n [1 stipel, 2 stape] Pre & -el Small, secondary stipule, esp at base of leaflet in compound leaf stipellate, adj [1 stipelat, 2 stapeleat] Pre & -ate (bot) Having a stipel.

stipend n [1 stipend, 2 stape] fr Lat stipendium, 'tax, impost, pay, stipend, income', earlier stipendium*, fr stips, 'payment, donation', the orig sense may possibly have been 'stem, rod, specif, bar of copper used as form of currency', op Lat stipula, 'stalk, straw' see stipule & stipate Regular periodical payment made for services rendered in some permanent post or employment, salary stipendiary, adj & n [1 stipendian, 2 stape] fr Lat stipendarius, 'of tribute, receiving pay', fr stipendium, 'tax, payment' See prec & -ary 1 adj Receiving periodical payment, serving for pay 2 n In full, stipendiary magistrate, one appointed by Home Secretary and paid by Government, presiding in certain metropolitan or other borough police courts stipes, n [1 stípēz, 2 stáipiz] Lat, 'stalk, stem' See under stipate Stipe stipiform, adj [1 stípiform, 2 stáipifóm] stipe & -i- & -form Having the form of a stipe stipitate, adj [1 stíptāt, 2 stáipitēit], fr Lat stipit-, stem of stipes, 'stem', see stipe & -ate Having, supported by, a stipe stipitiform, adj [1 stíptiform, 2 stáipitifóm], fr Lat stipit-, stem of stipes, 'stalk', see stipes & -i- & -form Stipiform stipple (I), vb trans & intrans [1 stípl, 2 stípl], fr Du stippen, fr stippen, dimin of stip, 'point, dot', op M Du stippen, 'to prick', fr base *st-, *stō- & -s, 'sharp, pointed', seen in stimulus, stigma, stick & 1 trans To execute, draw, engrave & in stipple 2 intrans To work in stipple stipple (II), n, fr prec Method of painting or engraving in which dots are used in place of lines stipple-graver, n Instrument for making dots in stippling stippler, n [1 stípler, 2 stípla] stipple (I) & -er 1 Painter, engraver, using stipple 2 Paint brush used in stippling stippling, n [1 stípling, 2 stíplín] stipple (I) & -ing Etching or engraving in which effect is produced by dots and points, work done in stipple stipulaceous, adj [1 stípulášus, 2 stípuláš] stipule & -aceous Stipular stipular, adj [1 stíplár, 2 stíplár] stipule & -ar Pertaining to, of the nature of, a stipule stipularly, adj [1 stíplári, 2 stíplári] stipule & -ary Stipular stipulate (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stíplāt, 2 stíplēt], fr Lat stipulāt (um), PP type of stipulār, 'to demand a formal promise, to bargain, stipulate', fr O Lat stipulus, 'firm', cp Lat stipes, 'trunk, stem', stipare, 'to press together, make compact' See stipate 1 intrans To make stipulations, esp in Phr to stipulate for, make a necessary condition of an agreement & c, insist expressly on the contract stipulates for the use of seasoned timber, the witness, before telling his story, stipulated that his name should be kept secret 2 trans To demand as essential part of agreement or contract an increase in the working hours was not stipulated, to use the stipulated material stipulate (II), adj stipule & -ate (bot) Having a stipule stipulation (I), n [1 stíplášun, 2 stípláš] stipulate (I) & -ion 1 Act of stipulating 2 That which is stipulated, point, condition, undertaking, insisted on in a contract, agreement, bargain & c stipulation (II), n stipule & -ation (bot) Character, formation, arrangement, of stipules stipulator, n [1 stíplāter, 2 stíplēt] stipulate & -or Person who makes a stipulation stipule, n [1 stípl, 2 stípl], fr Lat stipula, 'stalk, stem, blade, straw', dimin of stipes, 'stem, trunk' See stipes & -ule Appendage at the base of a leaf stalk, usually in the form of a small leaf, or of a scale, or tendril stipuliform, adj [1 stíplifóm, 2 stíplifóm] stipule & -i- & -form Having the shape of a stipule stir (I), vb trans & intrans [1 stēr, 2 stā] O E stiran, 'to set in action, to agitate', M E stiren, op O H G stōren, 'to disturb', Germ stören, 'to disturb', sturz, 'plunge, overthrow', op also störmen, cogn w Lat trua, 'scoop, ladle, spoon for stirring', see trowel A trans 1 To set in motion, cause to move, alter position of the wind stirs the leaves Phrs to stir one's stumps (lit and fig) move or act briskly, energetically, to stir the fire, poke it, move pieces of burning fuel & c, not to stir an eyelid, remain perfectly motionless, not to stir a finger, make no effort 2 To give circular motion to (fluid, semi-fluid, or dry particles) in a vessel with a spoon, cause to move round and round, to mix thoroughly, make or keep smooth to stir one's tea, soup, porridge, mince meat 3 To affect the emotions (of), to move, rouse he was deeply stirred by the news, to stir the imagination, enthusiasm & c Phr to stir the blood, rouse to excitement, enthusiasm & c B intrans 1 To move, be in motion not a wind was stirring, something stirred in the wood 2 To shift from one position to another don't stir for a moment, the cat lay the whole day on the chair without stirring C Followed by adverbs or prepositions, with special meanings Stir up, trans, 1 to mix, stir thoroughly, cause particles of to intermingle, 2 to disturb, cause to rise, by stirring don't stir up the dogs, 3 to rouse, excite, bring into existence or action to stir up interest in a subject, to stir up strife stir (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of stirring, stirring movement or action to give the fire, porridge & c a stir 2 Mental excitement, disturbance, commotion, esp public excitement, sensation the news created a tremendous stir in the country stirabout, n & adj [1 stérabōt, 2 stérabōt] 1 n Kind of porridge 2 adj Active, busy, bustling stirless, adj [1 stérles, 2 stérles] stir (II) & -less (rare) Without a stir, motionless stirpiculture, n [1 stérpiklōchur, 2 stérpiklōt], fr Lat stirp, stem of stirps, 'stock', see next word, & -i- & -culture Breeding of animals & c from special strains or with special characteristics stirps, n [1 stérps, 2 stérps] Lat stirps, 'roots and stem of tree, stock, stem, branch of family, race, foundation', etymol unknown (law) Person from whom a family descends, common ancestor of a group of persons stirrer, n [1 stérer, 2 stérer] stir (I) & -er One who, that which, stirs, (specif) instrument for stirring food & c stirring, adj [1 stéring, 2 stéring], fr Pres Part of stir (I) 1 Having the property of affecting, rousing the emotions, exciting, moving a stirring incident, speech, song & c 2 A Active, brisk, busy a stirring person, a stirring body, b characterized by, filled with, incident, activity, business & c stirring times stirringly, adv stir & -ly In a stirring manner stirrup, n [1 stírur, 2 stírur] O E stirap, 'stirrup', M E stirap, stirap, op O N stirap, O H G stirap, 'stirrup', op O E stigan, 'to climb', stigel, 'stale', see stair, stile (I) For the second element see rope 1 A One of two metal hoops or rings, with flat base, hung by straps, one either side, from a saddle to support foot of rider, also stirrup iron to have one's feet in the stirrups, b strap from which stirrup iron is suspended to shorten, lengthen, one's stirrups, called also stirrup leather 2 (naut) Rope which supports the foot rope below a ship's yard stirrup-bar, n Short, horizontal iron bar, let into rider's saddle, to which stirrup leather is attached stirrup-bone, n Stirrup shaped bone of the middle ear, stapes stirrup-cup, n Parting out of wine & c drunk by rider mounted for departure stirrup-iron, n The metal ring in which the foot of a rider is placed, stirrup, contrasted with stirrup leather stirrup-leather, n Strap attaching stirrup to saddle stirrupless, adj [1 stíruples, 2 stíruples] stirrup & -less Without stirrups stirrup-piece, n (meban, carpentry & c) Hanging, metal loop supporting bar, beam & c stirrup-strap, n Stirrup leather stitch (I), n [1 stich, 2 stit] O E stic, 'stab, prick, puncture', M E stiche, op O E stican, 'to prick', fr *stik-, see stick (I) 1 Single, complete in and-out action of needle in sewing, act of passing needle through material from above and bringing point out to upper surface again by a forward movement 2 A Piece of thread & c drawn through material by needle, and left to cover part of material, used for ornamentation, for joining two pieces or parts of material together & c to make small, long, neat, stitches, to put a stitch in a garment & c, make slight repair in, Phr without a stitch of clothing, not a stitch on, completely naked, b specif, stitch made by surgeon to close wound & c to put in several stitches, to take out the stitches & c 3 Single, complete loop or knot made by needle or hook in knitting, crochet & c Phr to drop a stitch, allow it to slip off needle 4 A Method of forming, character, structure, of stitch in sewing, knitting, crochet & c to learn a new stitch, esp in compounds, buttonhole, feather, slip, satin stitch & c, b style of work produced by characteristic stitch, chiefly in compounds, cross, stocking stitch & c 5 (bookbinding) Loop of thread, wire & c, securing sheets of book & c 6 Sudden, sharp, stabbing pain in the side stitch (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans A To secure, fasten together, with stitch(es), sew, b to ornament with stitches, embroider 2 intrans To make stitches, sew stitching-horse, n [1 stiching hōrs, 2 stiching hōrs] Saddler's clamp for holding harness steady during stitching stitch-wheel, n Saddler's toothed wheel for marking position for series of holes in leather & c stitchwort, n [1 stichwōrt, 2 stit[w]ōrt] O E sticwurt, stitch (I) & wort (I), so called from its supposed efficacy for a stitch in the side Genus of herbaceous plants, Stellaria, esp greater stitchwort, with white star-like flowers and grass like leaves stitchy, n [1 stidh, 2 stidh], fr M E stithe, stethe, 'anvil', fr O N stēbi, 'anvil', cogn w stead (archaic) Smith's workshop, anvil, forgo stiver, n [1 stiver, 2 stave], fr Du stiver, small coin formerly current in the Netherlands A trifling amount, worthless object not worth a stiver, to lose every stiver one possesses stoa, n [1 stōa, 2 stōus] Gk stoia, 'colonnade, cloister, portico', prob fr the base *stō-, *stōu- & c, 'to be upright', seen in Gk stōlos, 'column', see style (III), cogn w Scrt stānā, 'pillar', O E stōw, 'place', see stow & words there referred to Cp also stoic (Gk arhit) Cloister, colonnade walled at the back, with the front opening upon a public place stoat, n [1 stōt, 2 stōut] M E stōte, inflected form of stot, 'stoat, bullock, male animal', cp Swed stut, Dan stud, 'bullock', cogn w Goth stautan, O H G stōzan, 'to push', Lat tundere, 'to beat', cp further O E stunt, 'dull', stynnan, 'to stupefy', see stunt 1 Small animal, Mustela erminea, resembling weasel, esp in russet summer coat, also called ermine in white winter coat 2 Any animal of weasel family stock (I), n [1 stōk, 2 stōk] O E stoc, 'trunk, log, stock', M E stoc (I), op O Fris stok, O N stokl, O H G stoc, 'trunk, stock', orig 'brawn stump, log chopped off', op Norw staula, 'to strike, push', O N stāla, 'to push', cogn w Scrt stāyati, 'strikes, pushes', Lith tūz-genti, 'to knock at' Cp further, w different formative element, Gk stipos, 'stock', stipern, 'to strike', stipos, 'stamp, impression', see type, O N stuf, 'stamp', O Slav stipati, 'to beat, palpitate' See also stunt, stut, stump, stupid 1 A Main stem of tree or plant, esp lower part of trunk, bole, stem, Phr stocks and stones, inanimate, insensible, objects, b (fig) only in laughing stock, butt, target, object, of attack ridicule & c 2 Main body, base, solid part, serving as support, handle &c, of an object, piece of mechanism &c stock of a rifle, plough, plane &c, specify a stock of an oval, support, heavy block, on which it stands, b stock of an anchor, wooden cross piece into which the shank is fastened 3 (pl.) Framework of solid timbers supporting ship in course of construction Phr on the stocks, in process of making, undergoing construction 4 (pl., hist.) Heavy wooden framework to which offenders were fastened by having their feet passed through holes in the timbers 5 a Stem into which a graft is inserted, b plant from which cuttings are taken 6 a Descent, ancestry, lineage to come of good, noble, talented, stock &c, b (biol.) colony, related group, of organisms 7 (of material and non material things) a Supply on which one may draw, material ready for use, equipment, store, effects to lay in a stock of flour, a contribution to the common stock, the general stock of human knowledge, Phrs live stock, domestic animals kept on farm &c, dead stock, agricultural implements &c as part of equipment of farm, to take stock, (lit and fig) to make an inventory of, review, one's stock, assets, to take stock of, (fig) estimate character &c of, by observation, specify b supply of articles of commerce kept in reserve at a given moment, by a shopkeeper, from which to supply his customers Phr to have, keep, in stock, have in store, on hand, and available for sale 8 Raw or partially prepared material for manufacture &c, specify a also paper stock, rags, pulp &c, for making paper, b also soup stock, broth, liquor, in which bones vegetables &c have been boiled, used in cooking for making soup, gravy &c 9 a Broad band of leather or stiffened silk &c, formerly worn by men round neck, now largely superseded by a collar and tie, though still worn in modified forms, b woman's upright collar 10 Genus, Matthiola, of half shrubby garden plants, usually having brightly coloured, scented flowers 11 (finance) a Originally a wooden tally representing a sum of money lent to the king, hence b money lent at specified rate of interest to a government, usually divided into shares or units of £100, the stocks, the total of the money lent to a State upon which interest is paid to have money in the stocks, capital of a company or corporation divided into units, often of £100, entitling holders to a proportion of the profits stock (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To supply with stock, equip, store to stock a shop with goods, to stock a farm, a mind well stocked with information 2 To keep in stock, have as part of regular stock the shop only stocks cheap goods 3 To fit, supply (gun &c), with stock 4 To put in the stocks as punishment 5 To sow, plant (land) B intrans (of plant) To produce suckers stock (III), adj, fr stoock (I) a Constantly kept in stock stock sizes in boots, hence, b (fig) habitually produced, stereotyped, commonplace, hackneyed stock examples, jokes, arguments stockade, n & vb trans [1 stókád, 2 stókéid] 1r estacade, estocade, cp O Fr estaque, 'a stake', of Gmc origin, see stako, cp Ital. steccata, palisade 1 Fr form w o, & present Eng form influenced by stock (I) or its continental cognates 1 n Barrier, enclosure, wooden fence, for defence, consisting of a series of stakes or posts planted upright in the ground, a palisade 2 vb To defend, supply with a stockade, set up a stockade around stock-book, n. Commercial register of goods bought and sold stock-breeder, n. Person engaged in breeding live stock.

stock-broker, n. Member of Stock Exchange who buys and sells stocks and shares for clients.

stock-broking, n Business, occupation, of a stock broker stock-car, n Railway truck for transporting cattle &c stockdove, n [1 stókdúv, 2 stókdáv] Small, dark, European wild pigeon, without the white markings of the ring dove, so called as nesting in stocks of trees or as enposed to be of the original stock from which domestic pigeons were bred

Stock Exchange, n a Organized body or association of stock brokers, the membership of which is limited and regulated by various conditions imposed by the governing body, b the building in which stock brokers meet to discuss and transact their business stock-farm, n Farm used for the raising of live stock stock-farmer, n Farmer engaged in the rearing of cattle, sheep &c stockfish, n [1 stókfísh, 2 stókfísh] Cod, bake &c, prepared for keeping by being split and dried without salt stock-gang, n Set of saws in saw-mill cutting log into series of planks by single simultaneous action stock-gillyflower, n Genus of half shrubby garden plants with scented flowers, now usually stock, see stock (I), 10 stock-holder, n (finance) Owner of stock stockily, adv [1 stóki, 2 stóki] stocky & -ly In a stocky manner stockiness, n [1 stókínes, 2 stókínes] See prec & -ness Quality of being stocky stockinet, n [1 stókinet, 2 stókinet] Next word & -et Elastic knitted or woven material for dresses, underclothing &c stocking, n [1 stóking, 2 stóking] stock (I) & -ing (II), op earlier (nether) stocks, from knee downwards, regarded as cut off from original long hose, from waist downwards 1 knitted or woven, elastic, close fitting covering for leg and foot, made of wool, silk, cotton thread &c, often pair of stockings Phrs to stand six feet in one's stockings, i.e. without additional height given by heel of shoe, elastic stocking &c, surgical device, shaped like a stocking or part of stocking, woven with rubber &c, for compressing part of leg 2 Lower part of leg of hose &c, when of distinct colour from upper part a hose with one white stocking stockinged, adj [1 stókingd, 2 stókingd] Prec & -ed. Wearing, covered with, stock ing(e), chiefly in compounds, silk-stockinged stocking-feet, n pl In (his) stocking feet, without boots or shoes stocking-frame, n Machine for knitting stockings stockingless, adj [1 stókingles, 2 stókingles] stocking & -less Without stocking(s) stocking-loom, n Machine for knitting stockings stock-in-trade, n a Stock goods, appliances, equipment, tools &c required for the carrying on of particular trade, business, occupation books are a scholar's stock in trade, b (fig) any habitual, stereotyped trick, mannerism, trite utterance, set phrase &c, characteristic of a particular profession or individual grimaces and posturings are part of an actor's stock in trade, catchwords, and promises never to be fulfilled, are the stock in-trade of the professional politician stock-jobber, n Member of the Stock Exchange from whom the broker buys and to whom he sells stocks and shares on behalf of his clients stockless adj [1 stókles, 2 stókles] stock (I) & -less. Without a stock, esp of gun &c stock-list n Periodical list of current prices of stocks and shares stock-man, n (chiefly Australian) Man in charge of stock on farm &c stock-market, n a Stock Exchange, b business transacted on Stock Exchange stock-owl, n Eagle owl stock-pot, n Vessel in which bones &c are boiled to make stock stock-raising, n [1 stók ráizng, 2 stók reizng] The raising of live stock on a farm &c stock-rider, n (chiefly Australian) A mounted herdsman stock-still, adv As still as a stock, absolutely motionless to stand stock still stock-taking, n Periodical taking of inventory of stock in a shop &c stock-whip, n Herdsman's short-handled, long-lashed whip stocky, adj [1 stóki, 2 stóki] stock (I) & -y (IV) Short and thickset, sturdy stock-yard, n Enclosure fitted with pens &c, where cattle &c are kept for market &c stodge, n & vb intrans [1 stój, 2 stódz] Possibly imitative 1 n a Heavy, solid food, b substantial, heavy meal, o (fig) dull, heavy intellectual pabulum 2 vb To eat heartily and greedily, to stuff and cram stodginess, n [1 stójnes, 2 stódznes] Next word & -ness State or quality of being stodgy stodgy, adj [1 stój, 2 stódzi] stodge & -y (IV) 1 (of food &c) Heavy, solid, substantial 2 (of literary style &c) Dull, heavy, uninteresting, difficult to read, verbose, lacking lightness of touch stoep, n [1 stóop, 2 stúp] S Afr Dn, in European Du = 'a threshold', cogn w. O H G stuopa, 'threshold', Mod. Germ stufe, 'stage, degree', op step (I) Verandah in front of African Dutch house stoic (I), n [1 stóik, 2 stóuik], fr Gk. stoikós, 'Stoic', fr stod, 'cloister, colonnade', specify, the Stoa Poikile, 'Painted Porch', the colonnade at Athens where Zeno and his followers taught, see stoa & -to 1 (cap) Follower of the philosopher Zeno of Citium (c 340-260 B.C.), who taught that virtue or conformation to the divine will was the highest good and insisted on complete submission to the divine will with indifference to external pleasure and pain 2 Person who does not feel, or controls, personal emotions, person of rigid calm, fortitude, or impassivity stoic (II), adj, fr prec (often cap) Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, a Stoic Stoic doctrines, stoic calm &c stoical, adj [1 stóiki, 2 stóuiki] stoic (I) & -al. Pertaining to, characteristic of, resembling, a Stoic, hence, impassive, indifferent to external conditions and circumstances stoically, adv Prec & -ly In a stoical manner, like a Stoic stoichiometry, n [1 stóikíometrí, 2 stóikí mtri], fr Gk. stóikheion, 'base, element', fr same as stóikheos, 'row' see stichio & -metry That branch of chemistry which deals with determination of atomic and molecular weights of elements &c stoicism, n [1 stóisizim, 2 stóusizim] stoic (I) & -ism. 1 (cap) Doctrine, philosophy, of the Stoics 2 Stoical impassivity, calm fortitude, rigid indifference stoke, vb trans & intrans [1 stók, 2 stóuk], fr etoker 1 trans a To feed (furnace, fire &c) with fuel, b to feed furnace of (engine &c) 2 intrans a To tend a furnace, act as stoker, b (slang, also stoke up) to eat, take, a meal stokohold, n [1 stókhöld, 2 stóukhöld] Space, compartment, from which ship's boilers are fed.

stoke-holo, n Small room or enclosure near a furnace in which a stoker works stoker, n [1 stóker, 2 stóuka], fr Du, fr stoken, 'to light a fire', fr stol, 'stick', cogn. w stock (I) 1 Person employed in feeding a furnace, esp of boiler on ship steam engine &c, a fireman 2 Mechanical device for supplying a furnace with fuel

Stokes mortar, n [1 stóks mortar, 2 stóuks mót], fr inventor, Sir Wilfrid Stokes (1860-1927) Light, easily transported, trench mortar, also Stokes gun stole (I), n [1 stōl, 2 stoul], fr Lat stola, fr Gk stōlē, 'equipment, apparel, garment', op Gk stellōn, 'to put in position, to arrange, equip, prepare, to array, dress', stēlē, 'column', see stale, & words there referred to 1 (also in Lat form, stola) Long outer garment of Roman matron 2 Long strip of coloured cloth or silk, usually embroidered and having fringed ends, part of the Eucharistic vestments, worn over the neck so that the ends hang down in front on either side, and reach to just above the knee 3 Woman's long, narrow wrap of fur &c worn round the neck with the ends hanging down stole (II), n, fr stolon Stolon stole (III), vb Pret of steal, fr PP stolid, adj [1 stōlīd, 2 stould] stols (I) & -ad Wearing a stole stolen, vb [1 stōlən, 2 stoulən] PP of steal, O E (ge)stolen, M E stōlen stolid, adj [1 stōlīd, 2 stōlīd], fr Lat stolidus, 'slow, dull, obtuse', op Lat stultus, 'foolish', see stultify, cogn w O E still, 'motionless', see still (I), cp further Lat locus, O Lat alocus, 'place', see locus, Gk stellōn, 'to place', see stale Dull and unpassive, not betraying emotion, lifeless, lacking animation or agitation stolidity, n [1 stōlīditi, 2 stōlīditi], fr Lat stoliditas, 'obtuseness', prec & -ity State or quality of being stolid stolidly, adv [1 stōlīdli, 2 stōlīdli] stolid & -ly In a stolid manner stolidness, n [1 stōlīdnəs, 2 stōlīdnəs] See prec & -ness Quality of being stolid, stolidity stolon, n [1 stōlən, 2 stōlən] Lat stolōn, nom stolō, 'shoot, sucker', possibly, according to Walde, fr base stēlā-, stolā- &c, 'broad, extended', whence Lat lātus, earlier stātus*, 'broad', see latitudes Prostrate shoot, or sucker from a plant, which roots, a runner, an offset stolonate, adj [1 stōlōnāt, 2 stōlōnāt] Prec & -ate Having, producing, a stolon stoloniferous, adj [1 stōlōnīfərəs, 2 stōlōnīfərəs] stolon & -i- & -ferous Producing a stolon stoma, n [1 stōma, 2 stōuma] Gk stōma, 'mouth', see stomach (I) Minute mouth-like orifice in one of the lower animals, or in a plant cell stomach (I), n [1 stumak, 2 stámak] M E stomak, fr O Fr estomac, fr Lat stomachus, 'gullet, stomach, taste' (lit and fig), fr Gk stomakhos, 'gullet', fr stōma, 'mouth', cogn w Goth stibna, O Frs stijne, O E stefn, 'voice' 1 Internal sac in the animal body within which the chief part of the process of digestion is carried on, formed by an enlargement of the alimentary canal, connected with the mouth by the gullet, and passing on the digested food into the intestine 2 The lower external front part of the body below the diaphragm, the belly, abdomen to get a kick in the stomach, a pain in the stomach 3 A Desire for food, appetite, b desire, inclination, generally no stomach for fighting 4 (archaic) Disposition, character, bearing and deportment as expressive of these a man of a proud and haughty stomach stomach (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To deal with in the stomach, to digest, hence to relish, manage to eat (food) 2 (fig) To tolerate, put up with, accept without protest to stomach an insult, insolence from an insignificant scoundrel is more than I will stomach stomach-ache, n Pain in stomach or bowels stomachal, adj [1 etumakl, 2 stamakl] stomach (I) & -al Of, pertaining to, the stomach stomach-congh, n Congh caused by irritation in digestive organs stomacher, n [1 stumaker, 2 stámaka] stomach (I) & -er Part of woman's dress in 15th-17th cents, consisting of a piece of material, triangular in shape, often embroidered or otherwise ornamented, covering breast and upper part of abdomen stomachful (I), n [1 stumakfūl, 2 stámakfūl] stomach (I) & -ful Amount sufficient to fill the stomach stomachful (II), adj (archaic or obs) Proud, baughty stomachio, adj & n [1 stomákik, 2 stomákik] stomach (I) & -ic 1 adj a Pertaining to, connected with, arising from, the stomach, b promoting action of the stomach, digestive 2 n Medicinal substance with stomachic properties stomachless, adj [1 stumakles, 2 stámakles] stomach (I) & -less a Without a stomach, b without appetite stomach-pump, n Apparatus with india-rubber tube attached used for washing out the stomach stomach-staggers, n Apoplexy in horses, caused by paralysis of the stomach stomach-tooth, n Infant's lower canine tooth stomach-tube, n One of the tubes of a stomach pump stomatitis, n [1 stómatisis, 2 stóumatisis] See next word & -itis Inflammation of the mucous membrane of mouth, as in thrush &c stomato-, pref representing Gk stomat-, stem of stōma, 'mouth', q v under stomach (I)

Mouth, s g stomatogastric, of mouth and stomach stomatology, n [1 stómátolop, 2 stóumátolop] stomato- & -logy The study of the diseases of the mouth stomatoscope, n [1 stómátoskop, 2 stóumátoskop] stomato- & -scope Instrument for inspecting the mouth stone (I), n [1 stōn, 2 stoun] O E stān, M E stān, op O H G stein, O Frs stēn, Dn steen, O N steinn, Goth stains, 'stone', op further O Slav stěna, 'wall', fr base stēnā-, stē- &c, 'to stiffen, become thick, compressed', seen also in Lat stipare, 'to pack closely', see stipitate, Gk stia, 'pebble', Lith stinga, 'stiff', Lat stipes, 'stem, pillar', see stipes, O E stif, see stiff (I)

1 Single lump or piece of rock of comparatively small size to throw stones, to try over a stone, the horse has a stone in its hoof, a heap of stones Phra rolling stone, person of restless temperament and habits, esp one who is constantly changing his occupation, situation, and place of abode, to leave no stone unturned, use every effort, to throw a stone at, (fig) make an imputation against, to censure, to mark (a day) with a white stone, record as exceptionally happy or fortunate, stone of Sisyphus, task involving constant, but unsuccessful effort, a stone's throw, short distance, as cold, as hard, as a stone, very cold, or hard, precious stone, a gem of high value, such as a diamond, ruby, sapphire &c 2 Solid mineral matter, rock, esp as material for building &c a wall of stone, a floor paved with stone, blocks of stone, also in compounds, sandstone, limestone &c Phr a heart of stone, an unfeeling, callous nature 3 Block or slab of stone cut or shaped for some specific purpose, usually in compounds, e g paving, stepping stone, millstone, oilstone, keystone &c, specif a for sharpening tools &c whetstone, grindstone &c, b as memorial, often inscribed tombstones, gravestones, headstones &c, c curling-stone, d stone used for lithography

4 Specif, a precious stone of any kind, a gem a ring set with five stones 5 A hailstone 6 (bot) a Hard shell enclosing the kernel of certain fruits, e g peach, plum, cherry stone &c, b hard, grain like seed of the grape 7 (med) a Hard concretion formed in an organ of the body, calculus, esp gallstone, b disease characterized by such a concretion an operation for stones 8 (archaic) A testicle 9 (with invariable pl, 10 stone &c) Measure of weight differing in different substances avoidupous weight, 14 lb, in weighing meat, 8 lb, cheese, 16 lb, hay, 22 lb, wool, 24 lb stone (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To throw stones at, pelt with stones to stone a man to death 2 To supply with stone paving, lining, facing &c to stone a wall, well &c 3 To remove stone from (cherries, raisins &c) stone (III), adj, fr stone (I) Connected with, pertaining to, made of, stone(s) a stone wall, stone implements

Stone Age, n Prehistoric period in which stone was used for weapons, cutting tools &c stone-axe, n Heavy axe with short handle at right angles, having one blunt edge for breaking and one sharper edge for shaping stone stone-blind, adj Quite blind stone-blue, n Mixture of indigo and whiting stone-boiling, n Primitive method of heating water for cooking by placing hot stones in it stone-borer, n Kind of bivalve stone-brash, n Lamy ansoil containing detached pieces of stone of varying size stone-break, n Sacrilege stone-breaker, n a One who breaks stones, esp for road-making &c, b machine for crushing stones stone-buck, n Steenhok stone-butter, n Variety of alum stone-cast, n As far as one can fling a stone, short distance, stone's cast stonechat, n Small European bird, Pratincola rubicola, black above, with reddish breast and white collar, allied to the wheatear stone-circle, n Prehistoric ring of upright megaliths stone-coal, n a Mineral coal, as opposed to charcoal, b hard coal, anthracite stone-cold, adj Very cold, quite cold stonecrop, n [1 stōnkrop, 2 stōunkrop] Sedum, esp common stonecrop, small creeping plant with fleshy leaves and yellow flowers stone-courlew, n Large species of plover, the thick-kneed courlew or plover, Oedicnemus stone-outer, n Person employed in shaping stone for architectural purposes &c stoned, adj [1 stōnd, 2 stound] stone (I) & -ed (of fruit) With stone(s) removed stoned raisins stone-dead, adj Quite dead stone-deaf, adj Completely deaf stone-dresser, n Person employed in dressing stone for building &c stone-eater, n Stone borer stone fence, n (US slang) Mixed alcoholic drink, esp whisky and cider stone-fern, n Kind of fern growing on stone walls stone-fly, n Kind of insect used as fishing fly stone-fruit, n Fruit containing a stone, drupe, e g plum, damson &c, as opposed to soft fruit stone-gall, n Clayey mass sometimes found in sandstone stone-horse, n (archaic) Stallion stoneless, adj [1 stōnles, 2 stōunles] stone (I) & -less (esp of fruit) Without a stone stone-lily, n Fossil orinoid stone-man, n Cairn stone-mason, n Man employed in hewing, dressing, and laying building stone stone-parsley, n Tall herb of parsley family, with clusters of creamy flowers stone-pine, n Umbrella shaped pine of Mediterranean coast, with edible seeds stone-pit, n Pit from which stone is quarried.

stone-pitch, n Hard pitch stone-plover, n Stone courlew stone-rag, n Kind of lichen stone-rue, n Kind of fern stone-saw, n Instrument for cutting stones stone-snipe, n North American bird, yellow legs stone-still, adj As still as a stone, very still stone-walling, n [1 stōn wāling, 2 stōun wāling] 1 (cricket) Batting with little effort to make runs 2 (politics) Opposition by obstruction stone-ware, n Kind of coarse, glazed pottery, made of siliceous clay stone-weed, n. Kind of plant with stony seeds, lithospermum, gromwell.

stone-work, n. Masonry stonewort, n. [1 stónwért, 2 stóunwát] stony, adv. [1 stónih, 2 stóunih] stony & -ly In a stony manner stominess, n. [1 stóunnes, 2 stóunnes] Next word & -ness State or quality of being stony stony, adj. [1 stóni, 2 stóuni] stone (I) & -y (IV) 1. Of, containing, full of, stony stony ground, a stony path Phr (slang) stony broke, financially ruined. 2 (fig) a Like stone, hard, unfeeling a stony heart, b fixed, unmoving a stony stare.

stony-hearted, adj. Unfeeling, pitiless stood, vb [1 stood, 2 stúd] OE stōd, ME stod, Pret. & PP of stand (I) stool, n. & vb trans [1 stook, 2 stúk] ME stouke, 'pile of sheaves'; op LG stūke, 'bundle' 1 n. Gramp of sheaves of corn set up in field, shock. 2 vb To set up, arrange (sheaves, corn &c), in stools stool (I), n. [1 stool, 2 stīl] OE, ME, stol, cp Goth. stōls, ON stōll, OHG stul, 'stool, seat', cogn. w O Slav stoli, 'throne, seat', Lith. pastolas, 'stand', fr base stā*, sta-* &c, to 'stand', as in stand, state (I) &c 1 Seat for one person, consisting of a flat top supported by one, three, or four legs, and without a back. Phr to fall between two stools, lose an opportunity by hesitating between two courses 2 Low stool or bench for resting feet or kneeling on, also footstool 3 A seat used for evacuation of the bowels, Phr to go to stool, evacuate the bowels, b act of evacuating bowels, o faeces discharged. 4 Portable framework to which a wooden pigeon is attached to serve as decoy 5 Root from which a sprout or sucker springs stool (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 (of plant) To produce shoots or suckers 2. (archaic or obs) To evacuate the bowels stool-ball, n. Game resembling cricket, popular in 17th cent., and now played in Sussex and elsewhere, chiefly by women.

stool-pigeon, n. Wooden pigeon used as decoy, also fig, chiefly U.S.A., of persons stoop (I), vb intrans & trans. [1 stoop; 2 stūp] OE stōpan, ME stūpen, cp ON stōpa, M Du stūpen, cogn. w steep (I) A. intrans. 1 To curve, bend, the upper part of the body forwards and downwards towards the ground to stoop to pick a flower, the doorway is so low that you must stoop 2 (fig) To demean oneself by unworthy conduct, lower oneself by an action below one's dignity and character, to condescend to stoop to meanness and duplicity, rarely absol., but cp title of Goldsmith's play, 'She Stoops to Conquer' 3 To hold, carry, oneself with the back and shoulders curved and bent forward sit up straight and don't stoop, to stoop over one's books 4 a (of hawk &c) To swoop, b hence (fig) to pounce, make swooping attack B trans 1 To bend (head and neck) forward and downwards stoop (II), n., fr prec. Act, position, of stooping, curved, hunched attitude of the back and shoulders he has a shocking stoop stoop (III), n. See stoop stoop (IV), n. Variant spelling of stoep (U.S.A.) Uncovered verandah, porch, platform &c at door of house.

stooping, adj. [1 stōping, 2 stūpin] fr Pres Part. of stoop (I) Bent forward and downward bowed, bumped stooping shoulders stoopingly, adv. Prec & -ly In a stooping manner stop (I) vb trans & intrans [1 stop, 2 stɒp] OE (for) stoppan, to stop np close', ME stoppen, op ON stoppa, M Du stoppen, M H G stopfen fr L. Lat. stuppare, to stuff stop up, fr Lat. stippa, 'tow', fr Gk. stūptē 'tow', possibly cogn. w Scrt. stupaś 'tuft of hair' A. trans. 1 A To stuff up, close, place obstruction in, so as to check egress or ingress to stop a hole, leak, crack &c.

Phrs to stop one's ears, (i) place hands &c over them to prevent hearing, (u) (fig) refuse to listen, to stop a gap, (fig) act as substitute in emergency &c, take someone's place, to stop a person's mouth, (colloq) prevent his speaking, to stop the way, (lit and fig) hinder progress or passage, b specif, to stanch, check to stop the flow of blood, c to fill up, pack tightly with cement &c to stop a tooth 2 a To cause (moving object) to cease motion, to arrest motion of, cause to come to rest bring to a standstill to stop the traffic, a run-away horse, stop the train, he was running too fast to stop himself, the fielder stopped the ball, b to cause to cease operation, put out of action to stop on engine, watch &c 3 To arrest progress or course of, cause cessation of, hold up (action or process) to stop a fight, the rain stopped further play, frost has stopped the growth of plants Phr to stop a cheque, order bank not to pay it 4 To prevent, hinder (person &c) from action nothing will stop him, him from interfering, what is to stop me from coming? 5 (of agent) To discontinue, leave off, cease from (an action which one is in course of performing) to stop work, to stop talking, stop that chatter! 6 To discontinue supply of, cut off, deprive of to stop one's allowance, wages &c Phr to stop payment, (i) to stop a cheque &c, (u) (of bank), be unable to continue financial operations 7 (mus) To alter pitch of musical note by pressing down string, closing hole &c, to change rate of vibration to stop a string &c 8 (nant) To make fast, lash firmly B intrans 1 a To cease movement or advance, come to rest, halt the train stops at all stations, to stop short, stop dead, it's time we stopped to rest, b (of mechanism, organ &c) to cease operation, cease to function the clock has stopped, his heart had stopped 2 A To break off, discontinue, make an end of action, to pause he began to speak, but suddenly stopped, we will work for an hour and then stop, b to be discontinued, come to an end the music, rain, rush of visitors &c, has stopped 3 (colloq) To stay, remain for a time to stop at home, in bed &c, don't stop out too long, to stop with friends, at a hotel &c, be a guest, visitor C Followed by adverbs or prepositions, with special meanings Stop down, trans, (photog) to reduce exposed part of (lens) by partially covering with a diaphragm. Stop off, intrans, (founding) to fill up part of mould with sand. Stop out, trans, (etching) to cover part of (plate &c), with some substance which prevents action of acid upon that part Stop up, trans, to obstruct, choke, close, fill up to stop up a hole, the drain is stopped up stop (II), n., fr prec 1 Act of stopping, state of being stopped, cessation of movement or action to come to a sudden stop, the train goes through without a stop, Oxford is the first stop, i.e. place of first stop Phr to put a stop to, cause to cease, bring to an end. 2 (mus) a Key or other device for depressing string, closing hole, &c to alter pitch of note, b lever, movable knob &c, for opening or closing particular set of organ pipes, and producing specific quality or volume of tone, c (fig) quality, character, of speech, style, tone &c designed to produce specific effect to pull out the sympathetic stop 3 Punctuation mark, full stop dot indicating end of sentence, an abbreviation &c, a period. Phr to come to a full stop, (fig) be obstructed or checked in action be unable to continue 4. (joinery) Peg, block &c, checking movement of drawer, window sash, door &c, at specific point 5 (phon) Also stop consonant consonant formed by complete stoppage of air stream at some point, followed by its sudden release 6 (photog) Diaphragm reducing aperture of lens. 7 (nant) Line used for lashing stop (III), vb trans, fr prec. To put in the stops (in a piece of writing), to punctuate stop-cock, n. Tap for opening or closing pipe, cash &c.

stop-collar, n. Ring limiting motion of shaft &c stop-cylinder, n. Kind of mechanical printing press stop-drill, n. Drill with collar stopping its operation at specific depth stope, n. [1 stōp, 2 stoup] Perb connected w stop (min.) Space cut through seam, usually roughly in the form of steps, between two galleries in a mine stopgap, n. [1 stōpgap, 2 stōpgap] Person or object supplying the place of another in an emergency stop-knob, n. Knob controlling organ stop stopless, adj. [1 stoples, 2 stōplis] stop (II) & -less Without stops stop-motion, n. Mechanical device for arresting motion of machine automatically at certain point(s) stop-order, n. Order fixing the prices above or below which stock is to be bought or sold, in order to limit losses stoppage, n. [1 stoppi, 2 stōpdi] stop (I) & -age Act of stopping, state of being stopped, cessation of action, movement, or progress stopper (I), n. [1 stōper, 2 stōpa] stop (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, stops, specif a object designed to fit into and close an opening, esp the mouth of bottle &c, b tobacco-stopper, instrument for packing tobacco into pipe 2. (nant) Lane for lashing, checking motion of, or shortening a cable &c stopper (II), vb trans, fr prec To fit, close, with a stopper to stopper a bottle.

stopping (I), adj. [1 stōping, 2 stōpin] fr Pres Part of stop (I) Specif (of train &c) calling at intermediate stations, contrasted with non-stop, fast, express, train stopping (II), n. stop (I) & -ing 1 Act of one who, that which, stops, specif (mus) act of pressing a string or closing hole &c, double stopping, simultaneous stopping of two strings 2 Material used for stopping, specif, cement, gold &c used to stop a tooth.

stop-plate, n. Plate fixed to the end of an axle to prevent too great lateral play of the wheel.

stopple, n. & vb trans [1 stopl, 2 stōpl] stop (I) & -le 1 n. Object for closing mouth of bottle &c, stopper 2 vb To close with a stopple stop-press, n. Late news inserted in special column of a newspaper after printing has begun.

stop-valve, n. Valve for controlling volume of water or steam passing through a pipe.

stop-watch, n. Watch, the hands of which can be instantaneously stopped or started by pressing a knob in the rim, in order to measure the exact duration of an action or event storable, adj. [1 stōrabl, 2 stōrēbl] store (II) & -able Capable of being stored, suitable for storing storage, n. [1 stōrij, 2 stōridi] store (II) & -age 1 Act of storing, state of being stored in cold storage, refrigerator 2 Space devoted to, available for, storing goods 3 Charge made for storing of goods storage battery n. (elect) Accumulator storax n. [1 stōraks, 2 stōraks] Lat storax, fr Gk. stōrax, 'kind of resin', Semito loan-word 1 Resin with scent like vanilla, formerly used in medicine, liquid storax, kind of balsam. 2 Tree from which this resin is obtained.

store (I), n. [1 stōr, 2 stīs] ME stōr, fr. O Fr estōr, fr L. Lat. (injā) staurum fr. Lat. instaurāre, 'to renew, restore, repair', q v under restore steor (I), stauriscops 1 a Preserve supply, stock, accumulation of goods, material, provisions, kept for use when needed a store of food, fuel &c, to lay in stores for the winter, Phrs to set store by, consider valuable, to set no (great) store by, regard as unimportant, b (pl.) supply of goods of specific kind, or needed for specific purpose naval, military, ship's stores &c; marine stores, old ship materials, cables &c, offered for sale, c accumulation of knowledge in the mind a store of learning, information &c.

2 Place in which goods are stored. a depôt, warehouse, magazine &c. Fr store, (1) reserved for future use, (u) (fig) reserved by fate, destined to come or happen in the future to have a disappointment in store for one, who knows what the future may hold in store? 3 Place in which goods are sold, specif a store, large general shop containing a number of departments for sale of goods of various kinds, b (Am) a store, a shop, to buy candy and crackers at the store, to buy sweets and biscuits at the shop 4 (usually pl.) Store catils store (II), vb trans ME stören, fr O Fr estorer, fr estor, 'store', see prec 1 To fill, furnish, stock, with supplies, reserves, a (in material sense) to store one's cupboards with food, b to store the mind with knowledge, with pleasant memories &c 2 a Often store up (in material and non-material sense), to put away, lay up, set aside carefully, reserves, for future use, consideration &c to store up fuel for the winter, to store up a fact in one's mind, specif, b to place, deposit (furniture &c), temporarily in warehouse &c, for safe-keeping, c (of elect) to accumulate 3 To hold, provide storage room for the shed will store 20 ton of coal store-catils, n Catils kept for future fattening for killing storehouse, n [1 stórhus, 2 stáhus] a Building in which goods &c are stored, warehouse, repository, also b (fig, of person, mind &c), he is a storehouse of information store-keeper, n 1 Official in charge of stores, esp naval and military stores 2 (Am) Shopkeeper store-room, n Room in which supplies are kept, esp for household use store-ship, n Vessel carrying supplies for fleet &c storey, story, n [1 stóri, 2 stóri] Earlier, 'building', fr O Fr estorce, PP of estorer, 'to build, construct, to repair, renew', fr Lat (m) staurāre, to renew', see store (II), or perh fr Med Anglo Lat (h) istoria (ashistory) in the sense of storey marked by paintings, pointed windows, carving &c Single horizontal section of house or other building, the whole set of rooms, passages &c on the same level Phr the upper storey, (slang) the brain, mind storeyed, storied, adj [1 stórid, 2 stórid] Proc & -ed (of building) Having specified number of storeys three storeyed &c storey-post, n Upright post supporting floor-beam &c storiated, adj [1 stóriated, 2 stóriated] fr historiated (of letter, page, of book or manuscript) Decorated with elaborate design storied (I), adj [1 stórid, 2 stórid] story (I) & -ed 1 Celebrated, made famous, in story 2 Ornamented with, bearing, significant design or inscription, adorned with scene(s) from history &c 'Storied windows richly dight' (Milton, 'Il Penseroso', 188), 'Can storied urn, or animated bust, Back to its mansion call the fleeting breath?' (Gray's 'Elegy') storied (II), adj See storeyed storiette, n [1 stóriét, 2 stóriét] story (I) & -etts Story in miniature, very short tale storiology, n [1 stóriologi, 2 stóridiologi] story (I) & -o- & -logy The study of folk-tales stork, n [1 stork, 2 stók] OE, ME stork, op ON storkr, MLG stork, OHG storch, 'stork', cogn w Gk tórgos, 'vulture', prob fr base ster g*, 'strong', expanded fr ster* &c, 'stiff, firm, strong', q v under stare (I), etark (I) Large, long legged, long necked, long billed, wading bird resembling heron, ibis &c, esp common or white stork, Ciconia alba, migratory European stork, often frequenting human habitations, nesting on house-tops &c stork's bill, n Plant of genus Erodium or Pelargonium storm (I), n [1 storm, 2 stóm] OE, ME storm, op MLG, M Dn storm, OHG storm, ON stormr, 'storm, tumult', fr bass seen in OE styrjan, 'to stir up, put in motion, whirl round', see stir &c 1 Violent atmospheric disturbance involving strong wind, with or without rain, sleet &c, and sometimes accompanied by thunder and lightning, sometimes in compounds, indicating specific character of storm, e.g. thunder storm, sand, dust storm, clouds of sand, dust, carried and whirled round, by the wind, cyclonic storm, cyclone, magnetic storm, disturbance of magnetic field, indicated by oscillation of magnetic needle Phr a storm in a tea-cup, a fuss about trifles 2 Violent atmospheric precipitation, with or without wind a storm of rain, hail, also in compounds, hail, rain, snow storm &c 3 (naut and meteorol) Wind of specific velocity, usually 70-80 miles per hour, between gale and hurricane 4 Dense shower or volley of objects flying through the air a storm of arrows, missiles &c 5 Loud, repeated, tumultuous expression of emotion by persons, voices &c, in unison a storm of cheers, applause, hisses &c 6 A violent mental or emotional agitation, disturbance, commotion, gust of passion, esp one affecting a large number of people a storm of indignation swept over the country, op brain storm, Phr storm and stress, period of restlessness, agitation, or revolutionary change, in intellectual development &c, b violent upheaval in social or political conditions the storm of revolution 7 (mil) Sudden violent assault on fortified post &c Phr to take by storm, (1) capture by sudden attack, hence (u) (fig) captivate instantaneously and completely he took her, her affections, by storm storm (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans (mil) To take by storm, capture by sudden assault B intrans 1 (of wind &c) To be boisterous, violent, tempestuous 2 (fig) To give violent expression to anger, agitation &c, to rage, also, storm at, to upbraid loudly and violently, to scold, vituperate storm-beaten, adj Injured by storm storm-belt, n Area in which storms are specially frequent storm-bird, n Bird supposed to presage approach of storm, esp stormy petrel storm-bound, adj Delayed by storms storm-card, n Chart indicating position of ship in relation to storm centre storm-centre, n a Point of lowest atmospheric pressure in a storm area, b (fig) person or group of persons who form a centre and starting point of unrest and disturbance storm-cloud, n a Cloud portending or accompanying storm, hence, b (fig) signs of approaching danger or disturbance storm-cock, n Kind of bird, esp fieldfare or mussel thrush storm-cone, n Large canvas cone hoisted as storm signal storm-door, n Supplementary outer door to protect entrance to building &c in a storm storm-drum, n Canvas-covered cylinder used, in conjunction with storm cone, as storm signal stormer, n [1 stórmer, 2 stóme] storm (II) & -er One who, that which, storms, esp member of storming-party storm-flinch, n Stormy petrel stormful, adj [1 stórmful, 2 stórmful] storm (I) & -ful (rare) Abounding in storms storm-glass, n Glass-tube containing a chemical solution, the precipitate of which changes in appearance in varying atmospheric conditions stormily, adv [1 stórmli, 2 stórmli] stormy & -ly In a stormy manner storminess, n [1 stórmness, 2 stórmness] See prec & -ness State or quality of being stormy storming-party, n [1 stórmng párti, 2 stórmng párti] Member of military party detailed to storm fortified post &c stormless, adj [1 stórmless, 2 stórmless] storm (I) & -less Without, free from, storm storm-petrel, n Stormy petrel storm-proof, adj Not liable to be injured, affected, or penetrated by storm storm-sail, n Heavy canvas sail used in rough weather storm-signal, n Signal displayed on coast &c to give warning of storm storm-tossed, adj [1 stórm tost, 2 stórm tost] (lit and fig) Suffering from effects of storm storm-wind, n Violent wind, constituting or accompanying a storm storm-window, n Extra, external window for protection in a storm stormy, adj [1 stórm, 2 stórm] storm (I) & -y (IV) 1 Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, agitated by, stormy weather, winds, sea 2 Indicating presence or approach of storm a stormy sunset, sky &c, storm petrel, kind of petrel thought to portend storm, called by sailors 'Mother Carey's chicken' 3 Characterized by violent emotion, passionate, agitated by strong contending feeling, opinions &c a stormy discussion, the meeting was rather stormy storm-zone, n Storm-belt stort(h)ing, n [1 stórtng, 2 stórtng] Norw lit 'the great meeting or place of discussion', fr ON stórr, 'great, proud', see under stare (I), & ON þing, 'meeting', see under thing Norwegian parliament story (I), n [1 stóri, 2 stóri] ME, fr A-Fr storia, O Fr estorie, fr Lat istoria, see history 1 A history, account and description of a series of past events and actions the story of the rise of England's sea power, 'In this harsh world draw thy breath in pain, To tell my story' ('Hamlet'), b what is told in the form of traditional, often legendary, recital, concerning the lives and adventures of heroes and other great personages of the past a name famous in story, the story goes that 2 A piece of imaginative writing, whether in prose or verse, shorter than a novel, describing adventures and episodes in the lives of a group of personages, esp an account of a complete action or adventure with a rounded-off conclusion, also short story, b a recital by word of mouth of such an action or adventure, a tale please tell us a story, children like to listen to a story Phr a very different story, something quite different 3 An interesting series of events, adventures, actions, associated with a person or object there is often a story connected with a famous jewel 4 A brief, pointed, narrative, relating a single saying, adventure, or action of a specific person, an anecdote he told some good stories of Oxford dons 5 The plot, intrigue, denouement of a work of fiction or of a drama a novel with very little story 6 Childish word for lies, untrue statement, fib story (II), n See storey story-book, n Collection of short stories; book containing a single story, a novel, a romance story-teller, n 1 One who relates a story, writer or reciter of stories 2 (childish) Liar, fibber story-writer, n Writer of stories stoup, n [1 stóop, 2 stúp] Cp ON stauþ, Dn stoup, OL stéap, 'flagon' 1 Drinking-vessel, flagon, goblet 2 Vessel or basin for holy water stout (I), adj [1 stóut, 2 staut] ME stout, fr O Fr estout, fr M Du stolt, 'stout, strong, bold', op ON stótt, OHG stolz, 'proud', the Gmc words are possibly for Lat stultus, 'foolish', see stultify 1 Strong, tough, durable, able to stand strain or pressure stout cords, a stout staff, a stout ship 2 Brava, resolute, capable of, characterized by, endurance a stout fellow, a stout fighter, a stout heart, stout resistance 3 Full-bodied, fat, plump, corpulent, obese.

stout (II), n, fr prec A dark, strong, superior kind of porter stout-hearted, adj Having a stout heart, courageous, resolute stout-heartedly, adv Prec & -ly In a stout hearted manner stout-heartedness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being stout hearted stoutish, adj [1 stóntsh, 2 stóntsh] stout (I) & -ish (I) Fairly stout stoutly, adv [1 stóntsh, 2 stóntsh] stout (I) & -ly In a stout manner, resolutely stoutness, n [1 stóntsh, 2 stóntsh] See prec & -ness State or quality of being stout, a chesty, b toughness, c resolute ness stove (I), n [1 stów, 2 stów] OE stofa, ME stove, 'hathroom, heated room', OHG stuba, 'heated chamber, bath', Mod Germ stube, 'room', op further Ital stufa, Fr stuve, 'heated chamber, stove', fr Low Lat stuba*, prob fr extufa, whence Fr étouffer, 'suffocate', & Ital tufo, 'vapour'. Ultimately fr Gk stúphos, 'mist, vapour, cloud'. This is fr base sthd-*, qv also under duet & fume Apparatus, burning different kinds of fuel, as coke, gas, oil, electricity, of various shapes and sizes, for heating and cooking stove (II), vb trans, fr prec To raise (plants) in a stove stove (III), vb Pret & PP of stove (II) stove-pipe, n Metal pipe carrying off smoke & from stove, stove pipe, (USA) top hat rw, vb trans [1 stów, 2 stów] OE stōman, ME stouen, 'to place stow away', fr OE stōw, 'place', op ON stō, 'place', Goth stōjan, 'to direct', oogn w Lath stōnd, 'position', Lett stauiti, 'to stand', Serb stihina, 'pillar', Gk stod colonnade', see stoa fr base st(h)eu*, st(h)ou* &co, 'to stand firm', seen also in steer (I), restore a To pack carefully, closely, and compactly in a receptacle to stow clothes into a box &co, Phr (vulg slang) stow it, shut up!, b to fill (receptacle) with goods to stow the hold with cargo stowage, n [1 stów, 2 stóuðž] stow & -age a Method of stowing, b space for stowing, c charge for stowing towaway, n [1 stóswā, 2 stóswew] Person who conceals himself in onward bound ship in order to obtain a free passage stow-wood n Wooden blocks for wedging and steadying casks in ship's hold &co strabismic adj [1 strabizmal, 2 strabizmal] See strabismus & -al. Of, pertaining to, affected with, strabismus, cross eyed strabismic adj [1 strabizmik, 2 strabizmik] See oert word & -ic Strabismic strabismus n [1 strabizmus, 2 strabizmus] Mod Lat fr Gk, fr strabōs, 'crooked, squinting', op Gk strōbōs, 'spinning, whirling', see strobile, strōbos, whirlpool, strēbōs, 'twisted, squinting' Op further Gk strophēn, 'to turn, twist', strophē, action of turning' See strophe

Affection of eye muscles which makes it impossible for both eyes to look straight at an object at the same time, squint, cast in the eye strabotomy n [1 strabotomī, 2 strabōtām] fr Gk strabōs, squinting, see prec, & -tomy Surgical operation of cutting contracted muscle of eyeball to cure squint

Strad, o [1 strad, 2 strad] Abbr fr Stradivarius straddle (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stradl, 2 stradl] Perb a freq fr strido, vowel unexploited A intrans 1 To sit, stand, or walk with feet far apart, to stretch the legs out widely 2 (fig) To assume a doubtful or hesitating position, to hedge, vacillate. 3 (naut) To drop shots of known range beyond and short of an object in order to determine the range of the latter B trans 1 To sit or stand with a leg on either side of to sit like a fence. 2 To double (the opening stakes) at poker, before examining one's cards.

straddle (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of straddling, straddling position 2 a (poker) A doubling of opening stakes before looking at one's cards, b (Stock Exchange) a form of contract which gives right of calling for or delivering stock at an agreed price straddle-legged, adj Having the legs wide apart

Stradivarius, n [1 strādīvārius, -vārius, 2 strādīvārius, -vārius], fr name of Antonio Stradivari, violin maker of Cremona, d 1737 Violin, viola, or violoncello made by this maker strafe, vb trans & n [1 strāfh, 2 strāfh], fr Germ Phr Gott strafe England, 'God punish England', used in Great War (slang) 1 vb a To shell, bombard, heavily, hence, b (i) to damage, punish, (u) to scold severely 2 n a Heavy gunfire, bombardment, hence, b punishment, injury straggle vb intrans [1 strāgl, 2 strāgl] Origin uncertain 1 a To loiter, stray, wander in the rear of a group, to loiter along in isolated irregular groups children straggle home from school, b to stray irregularly from the rest of a mass, bunch, bundle, plait &co a wisp of hair straggled across her ear 2 To extend, in isolated scattered, groups the town straggles out into the country, a few houses straggling along the road straggler, n [1 strāglr, 2 strāglr] Prec & -er One who, that which, straggles straggling, adj [1 strāglng, 2 strāglng] Prec Part of straggle 1 Detached from the main body, forming an irregular, outlying portion, scattered a straggling line of soldiers, of houses, of bushes 2 Drooping, projecting, untidily from its place a straggling wisp of hair, a shrub with straggling shoots stragglingly, adv Prec & -ly In a straggling manner straggly, adj [1 strāglh, 2 strāglh] straggle & -y (IV) Straggling straight (I), adj [1 strāt, 2 strēt] ME streht, fr OE streht, PP of streccan, 'to extend' See stretch (I) 1 Extending constantly, throughout its length, in one direction, lying evenly between its extreme points, contrasted with crooked, bent, or curved a straight line, road, strip, hedge &co, straight arch, having sides without curve, straight hair, without curl or wave 2 Upright, not bent, stooping, or inclined, vertical a straight back, tree trunk &co 3 Level, not crooked, esp parallel to a given line or surface to put a picture, mat, one's hat, straight 4 In order, properly arranged, worked out, balanced &co to put a room straight, to get one's affairs straight 5 Direct, frank, not ambiguous or equivocal, without concealment a straight question, answer, look &co 6 Morally up right, honest, sincere, equitable a thoroughly straight fellow a person who is naughtly straight, straight dealing, to keep straight 7 (slang) Authoritative, reliable a straight tip for a race straight (II), n, fr prec 1 State, quality, of being straight, esp out of the straight, crooked 2 Straight stretch of road, river &co, specif, final straight part of racecourse 3 A sequence, in card games, esp poker straight (III), adv, fr straight (I) 1 In a straight line, directly, without forming or following a curve or angle the smoke rises straight upwards, to fly straight as an arrow, to look straight ahead, he can't walk straight Phrs to hit, shoot straight take accurate aim, to ride straight, ride across country after bounds taking all fences &co and not stopping to go through gates, to run straight, (fig) behave as an honest man 2 Upright, not crouching or stooping to stand straight 3 a Directly, by direct route, without making a detour, without intermediate stages, without breaking the journey I shall go straight to Paris without stopping at Dover, b directly in thought or speech, without circumlocution, digression or ambiguity to come straight to the point tell me straight what you think, also to say, tell, something straight out & a (archaic) At once, immediately, straightway, b (I will do it) straight off, straight away, immediately, without delay, hesitation, or reflection, at once straight-cut, adj (of tobacco) Made from leaf cut lengthwise straight-edge, n Wooden or metal bar or strip with one straight edge for testing straightness of line, level surface &co straighten, vb trans & intrans [1 strāt, 2 strēt] straight (I) & -en (V) 1 trans To make, put, straight 2 intrans To become straight straightforward, adj [1 strātforward, 2 strētforward] 1 Acting, speaking, openly, without concealment or ambiguity, made, done, in this way, frank, candid, honest a straightforward person, answer, straightforward behaviour 2 Not elaborate or complicated, simple a straightforward piece of work straightforwardly, adv Prec & -ly In a straightforward manner straightforwardness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being straightforward straightness, n [1 strātnes, 2 strētnes] straight (I) & -ness State or quality of being straight (in material and moral sense) straightway, adv [1 strātswā, 2 strētswē] (archaic) Immediately, at once strain (I), vb trans & intrans [1 strān, 2 strēn] ME streinen, 'to strain, stretch, to constrain', fr O Fr estreign, Pres stem of estreindre, 'to strain', fr Lat stringere, 'to draw tightly' See stringent A trans 1 To stretch tightly, make taut to strain a wire in a fence 2 To exert (bodily faculty) to the utmost, use, tax, to the utmost capacity to strain one's ears to catch a sound Phr to strain every nerve, use every effort, employ every means 3 To over exert, over tax, put too great a strain or tax upon (bodily faculty), to fatigue by excessive use to strain one's eyes by reading small print 4 a To wrench, tear, sprain cause injury to, by sudden or too violent effort or movement to strain a tendon b to twist, pull awry, cause to warp (part of a structure) to strain the timbers of a ship 5 To presume too much upon, to exact too much from, try too far to strain a person's patience, good temper, politeness &co 6 To wrest, pervert (meaning) of, to put an interpretation upon, read a meaning into (words), different from, or wider than, what appears to be the actual implication, Phr to strain a point (esp in a person's favour), to interpret a statement, rule, as liberally as possible 7 To embrace tightly, clasp press closely to strain a person to one's heart 8 a To filter by passing through perforated object or porous substance to strain wine, soup &co, b to remove by straining, also strain out B intrans 1 To make a violent effort, exert all one's forces, strive with difficulty a swimmer straining to reach the shore, eyes straining through the mist 2 To become strained or clarified, to percolate slowly through filtering object or substance C Followed by adverbs or prepositions in special senses Strain after, intrans, to strive laboriously for, make utmost efforts to obtain or produce a writer who strains after effect Strain at, intrans, a to apply exertion to, push or pull at to strain at a rope, the horses strain at his collar, b (with reference to Matt xxiv 24) to make a fuss about tolerating or accepting one shouldn't strain at a few needless words Strain off, trans to remove (impurities &co) from liquid by passing through strainer &co strain (II), n, fr prec 1 A condition of tension, tightness, tightness to keep a strain on a rope, b amount of force exerted on an object by tension the rope broke under the strain 2 Severe bodily or mental effort it was a hard strain to reach the top of the mountain, the constant strain of anxiety 3 Effect on body or mind of an excessive strain, a bodily injury (wound) sprain, b nervous fatigue resulting from prolonged and severe tension 4 (mechan) Effect exerted upon, alteration caused in shape of, material, by pressure, stress, thrust stram (III), n Neither spelling nor pronunciation can be derived fr OE strēon, 'treasure, propagation, offspring, progeny', as many dictionaries appear to suggest, & as there is no connexion in sense w stram (I) there is no ground for assuming that this word could have influenced the form, wh remains a puzzle The old word in its normal modern form is used by Spenser 'yborne of heavenly strane', race, lineage ('F Q' v 9 32)

1 a Breed, stock, ancestry he comes of a noble strain, b inherited characteristics, line of descent from a particular stock Alsatian dogs seem to have a wolf strain in their ancestry

2 a Cast of mind, disposition, tendency, characteristic quality, tinge, streak a strain of melancholy, cruelty &c in a man's character, b characteristic mode of expression, style, manner, tenor he spoke in a dismal strain, he said he had been grossly betrayed, and much more in the same strain

3 a (often pl) A song, melody, musical air, note the strains of the human voice, of a harp; the melancholy strains of the bagpipes, strains of mirth &c, b (poet) poetry, minstrelsy, song 'Soul-animating strains, alas, too few!' (Wordsworth, of Milton's Sonnets) strainable, adj [1 strānabl, 2 strēnabl] strain (I) & -able Capable of being strained strained, adj [1 strānd, 2 strēnd], fr PP of strain (I) 1 (in moral sense) Warped, distorted, awry, awkward, constrained relations between us have become strained 2 Produced with effort, forced, unnatural strained merriment, his jokes were rather strained strainer, n [1 strāner, 2 strēnə] strain (I) & -er One who, that which, strains, specifies, doves with a mesh for removing solids or impurities from liquid strait (I), adj [1 strāt, 2 strēt] ME estreit, fr A-Fr estreit, 'narrow', fr Lat strictum, PP type of stringere, 'to draw together', see strict, stringent 1 (archaic) Narrow, restricted, in Plur the strait gate (Matt vi 13) 2 (archaic) Strict, scrupulous, rigorous strait (II), n, fr prec 1 Narrow channel of water connecting two larger bodies of water Menas Strait, (also pl) the Straits of Dover 2 Position, circumstances, of difficulty and perplexity, an awkward fix, situation of stringency, (often pl) to be in a strait, in great straits straiten, vb trans [1 strātn, 2 strētn] strait (I) & -en (I) 1 (archaic) To make narrow, confine, limit 2 (chiefly in PP as adj) To restrict, make difficult, put into difficulties, embarrass in straitened circumstances strait jacket, n Strait waistcoat strait-laced, adj (fig) Rigid, severe, strict, austere in morals or opinions straitly, adv [1 strāth, 2 strēthl] strait (I) & -ly (archaic) Strictly, narrowly straitness, n [1 strātnes, 2 strētnes] See prec & -ness (archaic) Strictness strait waistcoat, n Kind of coat made to confine arms and used to restrict movements of dangerous lunatic or criminal strake, n [1 strūk, 2 streik] Variant of streak Single breadth of plank or plating running continuously from stem to stern of ship, and forming a section of her side stramineous, adj [1 strāmīnəs, 2 strāmīnəs], fr Lat strāmineus, 'like, made of, straw', fr strāmin-, stem of strāmen, 'straw, litter', op Gk strāma, 'straw, litter, cover', see stroma, Sert. starinān, 'spreading out', op further Lat strātum, 'something spread out, layer', see stratum, & words there referred to (archaic) Of, like, straw, esp of the colour of straw stramonium, n [1 strāmōnīum, 2 strāmō-nīum] Etymol doubtful Poisonous narcotic drug obtained from the Datura or thorn-apple, used medicinally for asthma &c strand (I), n [1 strand, 2 strand] OE, ME strand, cp MHG strant, prob cogn w Lat sternere, PP strātum, 'to spread, scatter', see stratum, O Slav strana, 'region', Sert strāniti, 'strove', see also straw, strew (chiefly poet) Shore, beach, of sea, lake, or river strand (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To run (ship) aground, cause to run aground 2 intrans (of ship &c) To run aground strand (III), n, fr O Fr estran, fr OHG streno, 'skoin', cp Dn streen, 'skain', prob oogn w Lat stris, 'furrow, channel, rutting', see stria, op also OHG strimo, 'stripe, streak' Single thread, fibre, or part twisted with another or others to form yarn, rope &c strand (IV), vb trans, fr prec 1 To break a strand of (rope &c) 2 To make (rope, yarn &c) by twisting strands together stranded, adj [1 strānded, 2 strēndid], fr PP of strand (II), fr idea of ship & crew left on a rock, barren shore &c Left destitute or helpless, without means of escape or extrication from difficulty, left without resources strange, adj [1 strānj, 2 strēndž] ME stränge, fr O Fr estränge, fr Lat estrāneus, 'strange, foreign', see extraneous 1 Not known, unfamiliar, not recognizable, not previously seen, heard, experienced &c a strange man, face, voice, handwriting &c, to wake in a strange place, the language is quite strange to me 2 Foreign, alien, exotic, not one's own to visit strange lands, to follow strange gods 3 Remarkable from its newness or unexpectedness, unusual, uncommon, angular, difficult to explain what a strange thing!, to see strange sights, it's very strange that you haven't heard from him, a strange expression on one's face, a strange thing to say, to speak with a strange reluctance. Phr strange to say, it is surprising that 4 (of persons) Inexperienced, raw, unfamiliar, unaccustomed, out of one's element he is still strange to the job, place &c, to feel strange strangely, adv Prec & -ly In a strange manner, esp remarkably, unusually, to a remarkable degree strangely silent about it strangeness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being strange, esp a unfamiliarity, b remarkableness, queeriness stranger, n [1 strānjər, 2 strēndžə] ME stranger, fr O Fr estranger, strange & -er 1 Person unknown to one, one who is unfamiliar, not an acquaintance a stranger came to the door, he is a stranger to me, to be shy in the presence of strangers Phrs to see, spy, strangers, said in House of Commons in order to have House cleared of all but members, you are quite a stranger, you have not been here, or to see us, for a long time 2 Person coming from another place or country, foreigner, alien I'm a stranger in these parts, a stranger in a strange land 3 Person unfamiliar with, not experienced in, unaccustomed to, some particular condition, circumstances, occupation no stranger to sorrow, a stranger to your way of thinking strangle, vb trans [1 strānggl, 2 strēngl], fr O Fr estrangler, fr Lat strangulāre, 'to strangle, choke, to check, constrain', see strangulate 1 To kill by suffocation caused by constriction of windpipe, hence, to b of anything placed or worn round neck, to b uncomfortably tight for, choke 2 (fig) To suppress, keep back, stifle to strangle a sob, oath, sigh &c strangle-hold, n Hold in wrestling involving this temporary choking of one's opponent (also fig) strangles, n [1 strāngglz, 2 strēngglz], fr strangle Infectious catarrhal disease in horses strangulate, vb trans [1 strānggūlāt, 2 strānggūlāt] fr Lat strangulātum PP.

type of strangulāre, 'to strangle, to stifle, suppress', fr Gk straggallōn, 'to twist, strangle', cp Gk straggallē, 'cord, lace', stragz, 'drop squeezed out', cogn w Lett stringit, 'to dry up, stiffen', Ir srang, 'cord', op further OE streng, 'cord', see string, O N strangr, 'rough, strong', see strong See also stringent To strangle, hence, (specif med and surg) to compress, constrict (vsn, duct, intestine &c), so as to obstruct passage strangulation, n [1 strānggūlāshun, 2 strānggūlāshən] Prec & -ion (med) Compression, constriction, of some channel or tube in the body, which prevents passage of air, liquid &c strangurious, adj [1 strānggūrius, 2 strānggūriəs] Next word & -ous Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, strangury strangury, n [1 strānggūrn, 2 strānggūri] fr Lat strangūria, fr Gk straggouria, 'strangury', fr Gk stragg, stem of stragz, 'drop', q v under strangle, & ōtron, 'urine', q v under urine, & -ia Difficult and painful urination.

strap (I), n [1 strap, 2 strap] OE strop, 'thong', ME strop, fr Lat strappus, 'thong, strap', fr Gk strophos, 'cord, band', see strophe 1 Strip of flexible material, usually of leather, esp such a strip furnished with a buckle, used for fastening and securing, (fig) the strap, corporal punishment, from use of strap in castigation 2 Flat piece of metal for holding timbers, or parts of a machine, together 3 Blade of grass leaf strap (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To fasten, secure, bind, with a strap 2 To fasten with straps of adhesive plaster, esp to fasten (edges of wound) together in this way, also, strap up (a wound) 3 To chastise with a strap 4 To sharpen on a strap, to strop strap-hanger, n Passenger in train, bus, or tram who cannot obtain a seat and has to hold on to a strap strap-laid, adj Strap laid rope, flat band made of several ropes laid side by side and fastened in position strappado, n & vb trans [1 strāpādō, 2 strāpēdō], fr Ital strappada, fr strappare, 'to pull' 1 n Punishment or torture in which the victim is raised above the ground by a rope fastened to his wrists, and then allowed to fall to the length of the rope 2 vb To torture by this method strapped, adj [1 strāpt, 2 strāpt], fr PP of strap (II) Fastened, secured, with a strap strapped trousers, fastened down by straps passing under insteps, ornamented by straps or flat bands of material strapper, n [1 strāper, 2 strāpe] strap (I) & -er 1 A One who fastens or fixes straps; specif b one who harnesses horses, stableman 2 (colloq) Large, robust, strapping person strapping (I), adj [1 strāpɪŋ, 2 strāpɪn] strap (II) & -ing (II) (colloq) Tall, robust, largely made and well proportioned, bouning: a fine strapping wench, girl strapping (II), n strap (II) & -ing (I) a Material used for straps, b specif (surg) strips of adhesive plaster used to bring edges of a wound together, to hold bandages in place &c strap-work, n. (archit) Ornamentation representing a series of narrow, interlacing bands strawwort, n. [1 strāpwɜrt, 2 strāpwɜlt] Maritime plant with white flowers, Corrigiola littoralis strata pl of stratum stratagem, n [1 strātājəm, 2 strātājəm], fr O Fr stratageme, fr Lat stratagemā, fr Gk stratēgema, 'piece of generalship; device, stratagem', fr stratēgēs, to lead as general', fr stratēgēs, 'general', see strategus fr stratēgēs, 'general', see strategus, Cunning devices intended to deceive; artifice, clever trick stratal, adj [1 strātl, 2 strātl] See stratum & -al Pertaining to, arranged in characteristic of strata.

strategic(al), adj [1 strátégik(l), 2 strátídž-ik(l)], fr Gk stratégikós, 'of a general', fr strátégos, 'general', see strategus, & -ic (& -al) Of, pertaining to, carried out by, characterized by, strategy a strategic retreat strategically, adv Prec & -ly In a strategic manner strategics, n [1 strátéjiks, 2 strátídžiks], fr Gk stratégos, 'general', see strategus, & -ics Science of strategy strategist, n [1 strátéjst, 2 strátídžst] strategy & -ist Person skilled in strategy strategus, n [1 strátégus, 2 strátígus] Lat strategus, fr Gk strátégos, 'strategus', fr strátēs, 'army, crowd, division of people', op Sort stratē, 'spread out', cogn w Lat stratum, 'layer', see stratum, & dēim 'to lead' see act (I) General commanding ancient Greek army, esp one of the ten Athenian officers elected yearly to commands in army and navy strategy, n [1 strátēj, 2 strátídžj], fr Gk stratégia, 'office of general, skill of general', fr strátégos, 'general', see prec, & -ia The art of conducting a military campaign, specif, the art of preparing, moving, and using armed forces in a war so as to secure the initiative and ultimately to win the war, distinguished from tactics, also fig strath, n [1 strath, 2 strəp] Gael srath, 'valley', op M Ir srath, 'shore, valley', W (y) strath, 'plain', cogn w Lat stratum, 'layer', see stratum, Gk strāma, 'layer, carpet', see stroma, OE strāman, 'to spread', see straw (Scots) A broad, open valley through which a river runs strathspey, n [1 strathspé, 2 strəpsépj], fr name of district in Eastern Scotland A kind of Scottish dance, rather slower than reel, b muso for this dance strati-, pref representing stratum Stratum or strata stratificate, adj [1 strátifikát, 2 strátifik-julet] Prec & -cule & -ate (geol) Having, arranged in, deposited as, s series of thin layers stratification, n [1 strátifikášun, 2 strátifik-ášjən] See stratify & -fication Process of stratifying, state of being stratified, specif, deposition of sediment in distinct layers by the action of water, wind, or other agency, relative position or arrangement of such layers in specific type of rock stratiform, adj [1 strátifórm, 2 strátifórm] strati- & -form Having the character of, forming, s stratum stratify, vb trans [1 strátifj, 2 strátifaj] strati- & -fy To arrange, deposit, in layers, specif, stratified rock, deposited in the form of layers of sediment by the action of water &c stratigraphic, adj [1 strátigráfik, 2 strátigráfik] strati- & -graphic Of, pertaining to, stratigraphy stratigraphically, adv [1 strátigráfikalj, 2 strátigráfikalj] Prec & -al & -ly According to the methods of stratigraphy stratigraphy, n [1 strátigráfj, 2 strátigráfj] strati- & -graphy Science or description of relative position of strata of rock strato-, pref representing stratus & -o Stratus, e.g. strato-cirrus, -cumulus, cloud formations resembling cirrus or cumulus and stratus stratocracy, n [1 strátókraji, 2 strátókraej], fr Gk strátēs, 'army, division of people', q v under strategus, & -cracy Government by the army, military domination in a state stratum, n, pl strata [1 strátum, a, 2 strátum -ə] Lat. stratum, 'covering, blanket, bed', orig 'thing spread out', fr PP type of sternere, 'to spread out, stretch out, to scatter, strew, to cover', fr base ster*, stōr* 'stir &c.', 'to spread out, extend', cp Lat. stramen, 'straw', see stramineous, Gk stērēmi, 'to spread out', stērma, 'layer, carpet', see stroma, Sort stiradi, 'scatter', Gch. stōrjēn; O.E. stōrman, 'to scatter', see straw, Gk stērnon, 'surface, breast', see sternum, O Slav stirg, 'to spread out', strana, 'region', see also street Layer, bed, horizontal division of distinct character, specif a (geol) layer of deposited rock distinguished from layers above and below, b (fig) anything thought of as resembling a stratum or layer a stratum of society, social division, class, the various strata of Latin loan words in English, groups of words of Latin origin, each containing a number of words borrowed from the same source at the same period stratus, n, pl strati [1 strátus, -i, 2 strátus, -es] Lat stratus, masc sing of PP of sternere, see prec Low, horizontal, uniform layer of cloud straw (I), n [1 straw, 2 strə] OE strāw, ME straw, 'straw', op ON strā, O Fris strā, OLG strō, OHG strō, strou, cp further OE strāwan, 'to scatter', see strew, cogn w Lat strāmen, 'straw', see stramineous, see also stratum, & words there referred to 1 Hollow stem, stalk, or portion of stalk, of grain, esp that of wheat, oats, barley, rye &c., Phrs to catch at a straw, resort desperately to any expedient available, the last straw, (fig) final addition to a burden, hardship &c., which renders it unendurable, not worth a straw, worth nothing, not to care a straw, to be indifferent, straws which show the way the wind blows, slight indications of the trend of events, of public opinion &c 2 Stalks of grain collectively, esp after drying and threshing, used for thatching, hedding, for making textile fabric for mats, hats &c stuffed, thatched &c, with straw Phr man of straw, effigy made of or stuffed with straw, hence (i) imaginary person regarded as opponent in controversy &c., (u) an unreliable person, with no solidity or strength of character, (uu) person of no financial substance 3 Straw hat straw (II), vb trans ME strawen, 'to scatter', variant of strewen, see strew (archaic) To scatter, strew strawberry, n [1 strəwbəri, 2 strəbəri] OE strāwberrig, perh so called because the runners were supposed to resemble straw, or because straw was used to keep the fruit off the ground, this name may, however, be due to an ant popular etymol, & it has been suggested that the first syll is fr Aryan sragh*o, whence Gmc sragz*-, cp Lat fragum fr sraghom*, 'strawberry', Gk hṛagós, fr sragos*, 'a grape', Sort stray, 'wreath, crown' A fruit of any plant of genus Fragaria, consisting of a pulpy, sweet, juicy, red or yellowish body bearing seeds on the surface, crushed strawberry, dull crimson colour, b plant bearing these berries strawberry-leaf, n a Triple leaf of strawberry, b representation of this forming part of ornamentation of the coronet of a duke, marquess, or earl, hence specif, strawberry leaves, dnoal rank strawberry-mark, n Dull reddish birthmark strawberry-pear, n Red pear shaped fruit of a tropical American cactus strawberry-roan, adj & n Reddish roan strawberry-tree, n Small S European, ever green tree, Arbutus unedo, with edible fruit which resembles a strawberry in appearance straw-board, n Kind of coarse cardboard made of straw pulp straw-colour, n Clear, pale yellow, the colour of straw straw-coloured, adj Of the colour of straw straw-stem, n Vineglass stem made in one piece with the bowl, by drawing out part of the material of the latter straw-worm, n Caddis strawy, adj [1 strāw, 2 strə] strnw (I) & -y (IV) Connected with, resembling, full of, covered with, straw stray (I), vb intrans [1 strāi, 2 strəj] M.E. strāien, 'to stray, wander', fr O Fr estrāier, prob fr Lat strāis, 'way, road', see street

1 a To go or wander beyond appointed limits, leave enclosure or recognized path don't stray too far from the path, the sheep have strayed (from a field &c), a child that has strayed from home, b (poet) to wander, roam, rove to stray aimlessly through the woods 2 To wander from the path of virtue and rectitude, to fall into sin 3 (of thoughts, affections &c) To wander, not to be concentrated on a single object, or the subject of study or discussion stray (II), n, fr prec 1 Domestic animal that has strayed 2 Person or child who is lost, has wandered from its home, or is without a proper home, esp in Phr ways and strays 3 (law, in pl strays) Property passing to Crown in default of heirs to deceased owner 4 (wireless, in pl strays) Atmospheres stray (III), adj, fr prec 1 Having strayed, wandering, lost stray cattle, a stray dog 2 Occurring here and there, at irregular and infrequent intervals, scattered, sporadic strayed, adj [1 strād, 2 strəd], fr PP of stray (I) Having strayed, wandering, astray a strayed horse streak (I), n [1 strék, 2 strík] Cannot be derived fr OE strec, 'mark, stroke of the pen', though it may come fr a cogn of this, & of strike (I) & stroke (I), we may assume an OE strec*, fr strati*, wh wd normally give ME strék, the final k may be due to anal w strike, stroke &c 1 Long, narrow, usually irregular, mark, line, stripe on s surface, distinct in colour an apple with a red streak, streaks of light in the east, streak of lightning, a flash Phr off like a streak (of lightning), very swiftly 2 (fig) Tendency, strain he hasn't a streak of humour in him streak (II), vb trans, fr prec To mark with streaks streakily, adv [1 stréklj, 2 stríklj] See next word & -ly In a streaky manner streakiness, n [1 strékljns, 2 stríkljns] Next word & -ness State or quality of being streaky streaky, adj [1 stréklj, 2 stríklj] streak & -y (IV) Arranged in, marked with, showing, streaks streaky bacon, with alternate layers of fat and lean stream (I), n [1 strém, 2 strím] OE stréam, 'current, river', ME stréme, cp OHG stroum, O Fris strān, ON strawmr, fr Gmc strāum*, cogn w Sort aravati, 'flows', arūti, 'stream', Gk rhóos, 'stream', rhéan, 'to flow', fr Aryan srow*, srew, see rhéao- 1 Body of running water, flowing naturally from its source, in a bed or channel, rivulet, brook, river the Thames is a noble stream Phr the stream of time 2 A flow of water or other liquid, a jet, gush water flowing from the burst main in a great stream, a stream of blood, b flow of molten matter a stream of lava 3 A direction in which a stream or river moves, current with, against, the stream, b (fig) trend, drift, of events of popular feeling or opinion &c, direction in which events, feelings &c tend, are moving the stream of popular prejudice is against what is new 4 Continuous series of moving objects a stream of people, motor cars, the stream of traffic stream (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 (of fluid) To flow in, or as in, a stream, to flow freely, form a continuous line of moving matter pour forth tears streamed down her cheeks, people streamed out of the building, light streamed through the window 2 To pour forth liquid in a stream, be suffused with run with, liquid eyes that streamed with tears, a streaming cold, one accompanied by copious discharge from eyes and nose 3 To fly out, be extended, float (on the air) to trail hair streaming in the wind, the comet's tail streams behind it B trans To pour out, cause to issue, emit, in a stream wounds streaming blood &c stream-anchor, n Anchor of medium size eamer, n [1 strēmer, 2 strīna] stream (II) & -er 1 Strip of material designed to hang down, be extended, float, in the air &c, esp flag, ribbon &c, attached at one end 2 Ray of light seen shooting up or across the sky in the aurora borealis streamless, adj [1 strāmles, 2 strīmlis] stream (I) & -less Without, lacking in, streams streamlet, n [1 strāmlet, 2 strīmlit] stream (I) & -let Small stream, brook stream-line, n, adj, & vb trans 1 n Natural flow of current in air or water without eddying 2 adj (of shape of fish, aircraft, motor-car &c) Such as to offer the least resistance to currents in air or water 3 vb To give a stream line form to (submarine, body of car &c) streamy, adj [1 strēmi, 2 strīmi] stream (I) & -y (IV) Of, like, flowing in, a stream, abounding in streams street, n [1 strēt, 2 strīt] OE stræt, ME strēte, 'paved road', op OLG strāta, OHG strāza, Dn strat, borrowed in continental period, fr Lat strāta (via), 'paved way', fr PP of strāpere, 'to spread, scatter, to cover, pave', see stratum 1 Formerly applied to the old Roman roads in England, op Walling Street, Albion Street 2 Properly constructed, metalled road in a town or large village, with buildings on one or both sides the chief street of the town, to live in a quiet street, the village street, to run out into the street, High Street Phrs street arab, homeless wail, street cries, of hawkers calling their wares, on the streets, earning a living as a prostitute, not in the same street with, not to be compared with, not nearly as good as street-door, n That door of a house which opens on to a street street-orderly, n Street scavenger street-sweeper, n A person occupied in sweeping streets, b machine with revolving brushes for sweeping streets street-walker, n Prostitute streetward, adj & adv [1 strētward, 2 strītward] street & -ward 1 adj Situated in or near the street 2 adv Towards the street strength, n [1 strenght, 2 strenght] OE strengþ(o), 'strength, severity, efficacy', ME strengþ, fr strang* spu, strong & -th (I) 1 a Quality, condition, of being strong, bodily or intellectual vigour, power, capacity for exertion or endurance a man of enormous strength, the strength of his mind was such that he overcame all obstacles, b special quality, aptitude, talent, that in which one excels, forte his strength lay in lucid exposition rather than in original discovery 2 Quality in materials which enables them to resist strains, bear weights &c, toughness, durability, opposite of fragility the strength of a beam, bridge &c 3 Power of resisting attack, impregnability the strength of a fortified place 4 Large numbers, power, efficiency, completeness considered as depending on numbers the enemy were in great strength Phrs up to, below, strength, of a regiment, or other body of fixed size, having full complement, or less than full complement, of men, (mil) on the strength, on the muster-roll 5 Source of power, efficiency &c, that which makes one strong in some specified way high courage and cheerfulness are a great strength to a general, he was a strength and support to his father in old age 6 Intensity, potency, degree of capacity for producing characteristic effects the strength of a poison, the strength of colour, the strength of one's affections 7 Power to effect an intellectual or moral result, compelling power, cogency the strength of an argument Phr on the strength of (what was said, of a promise &c), having regard to, relying on, influenced, persuaded, by strengthen, vb trans & intrans [1 strēngthen, 2 strengþen] Prae & -en (I) 1 trans To make strong, increase strength of, reinforce 2 intrans To grow strong, increase in strength strengthening, adj [1 strēngthening, 2 strengþenig] Prae & -ing Tending, serving, to strengthen, invigorating strengthening food strengthless, adj [1 strēnghtles, 2 strengþles] strength & -less (rare) Devoid of strength, weak strenuous, adj [1 strēnuūs, 2 strēnjuūs] fr Lat strēnuus, 'brisk, active, vigorous', op Gk strēnēs, 'keen, strong', strēnos, 'haughtiness', op OE styrna, 'hard, keen, severe', see stern (I), O Slav strada, 'labour', the base st(er)-* &c, 'vigorous, powerful', is prob expanded fr ster-, stir &c, 'stiff, strong', see stare, stark, sterile Characterized by, putting forth, continuous, intense, unremitting effort, unrelaxing and vigorous strenuous supporters of a cause, a strenuous worker, strenuous efforts, the strenuous life strenuously, adv Prae & -ly In a strenuous manner strenuousness, n See prae & -ness Quality of being strenuous Strephon, n [1 strēfūn, 2 strēfan] Shepherd lover in Sidney's Arcadia Lover, counterpart of Chloë strepitoso, adv [1 strēpitōso, 2 strēpitōsou] Ital fr Lat strepit (us), 'confused noise', fr PP type of strepere, 'to make a noise, to clatter, rattle, roar', parh related to stridre, 'to hiss, creek, buzz' &c, see strident, fr base st(er)-*, 'to make a harsh noise' (mus) Boisterously, loudly, vigorously strepto-coccus, n [1 strēptōkōkus, 2 strēptōukōkus] Coined fr Gk streptōs, 'easy to hand, pliant', fr base strebh-* in Gk strephēin, 'to twist, turn', op gradational form strophē, 'a turn, twist', see strophe, coccus is Neo-Lat fr Gk kōklos, 'a kernel, a berry', see coccus & cochineal One of a genus of bacteria of virulent character found in the blood in several diseases, such as pneumonia, septicæmia &c stress (I), n [1 stres, 2 stres] ME stresse, 'force', fr O Fr estrecer, fr Low Lat strichāre*, 'to constrain', fr Lat strict-(um), PP type of stringere, 'to draw tight', see stringent 1 Strain, tension, intense effort in times of stress 2 Impelling force, pressure, power or influence exerting constraint or compulsion under stress of weather, circumstances &c 3 Importance, weight, emphasis, esp in Phr to lay stress on, indicate importance of, bring into prominence 4 a Relative force with which a word or syllable is uttered, accent strong, secondary, weak, stress, esp b highest degree of force used in uttering a group of syllables or words, strong stress the stress is on the first syllable, to put special stress on a word, there are two stresses in each half line. 5 (mechan) Force(s) exerted on a solid body and tending to alter its shape stress (II), vb trans, fr prae 1 To lay stress on, emphasize, indicate importance or prominence of St Paul specially stresses charity as the greatest of the virtues 2 To utter (word or syllable) with stress, esp with strong stress, to accentuate stressed syllables. 3 (mechan) To subject to stress stressless, adj [1 stresles, 2 strālis] stress & -less Without stress stretch (I), vb trans & intrans [1 streech, 2 stret] OE streccean, ME stret(t)chen, OHG strecchan, parh fr base strek-, a parallel form of stak- in reach, or connected w stark, & more remotely, w strong, op also OE strec, 'strong, vehement, violent' & trans 1 a To cause to increase in length or breadth by forcibly pulling longitudinally or laterally to stretch a pair of gloves to make them fit, also b (fig) to stretch the law, a rule, to strain it, so as to make it more inclusive Phr to stretch a point (in a person's favour), to go beyond what is strictly and literally legal or legitimate 2 a To pull or spread (object or material) tightly to its fullest extent, without attempting to increase thus to stretch a rope between two posts, to stretch a carpet upon the floor, to stretch one's neck in order to see over the heads of a crowd, to crane it, extend it fully, to stretch (out) one's arm, hand, reach it out, extend it, to stretch oneself, extend one's muscles fully by stretching out one's limbs Phr to stretch one's legs, exercise them, to go for a walk after a period of inactivity, b (reflex) stretch oneself, to extend the limbs forcibly as far as muscles and tendons will allow, as on waking from sleep 3 To knock down, cause to lie at full length on the ground a blow behind the ear stretched him unconscious on the floor. 4 (alang) a To hang by the neck, b to lay out for burial B intrans. 1 To be capable of extension, to have elastic properties, to become larger by being stretched my gloves are too tight, but no doubt they'll stretch, iron may stretch slightly, but not alone 2 a To extend, reach, lie spread out the plain stretches for miles, the range of mountains stretches across the frontier, also, b (of time) to last, to extend the Middle English Period stretches (down) roughly to the early years of the 18th century, a dreary life stretches before prisoners 3 To stretch oneself, extend one's limbs to the utmost, as after sleep or prolonged inactivity, to stretch one self he sat up in bed, yawned, and stretched stretch (II), n, fr prae 1 a Act of stretching to give, make, a stretch of the arm, a stretch of the imagination, b state of being stretched, strained, tightened, spelf, bodily or mental tension or strain nerves on the stretch 2 a Unbroken period or spell of time to work for six hours at a stretch, b (alang) period, term of imprisonment, esp of penal servitude 3 a Uninterrupted tract of space, a reach, extent, expanse a fine stretch of country, of water, b (sailing) distance traversed on a single tack stretch-er, n [1 stretcher, 2 strētje] stretch (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, stretches, esp a apparatus for stretching something, also in compounds, glove stretcher, boot stretcher, b wooden frame for stretching and tautening artist's canvases 2 Apparatus, consisting of a light wooden framework covered with canvas &c, for carrying injured or wounded person, hence stretcher bearer 3 Crosspiece in boat, against which the rower braces his feet 4 (masonry) Brick or stone laid longitudinally along line of wall 5 (alang) Exaggerated or untrue statement stretch-er-hond, n (masonry) Method of building in which bricks or stones are laid lengthwise in successive courses stretchiness, n [1 strēchines, 2 strētjims] Next word & -ness State or quality of being stretchy stretchy, adj [1 strēchi, 2 strētji] stretch & -y (IV) Capable of being stretched, liable to stretch, pliant, elastic strew, vb trans [1 strōw, 2 strū] OE strēowan, ME strēuan, 'to scatter', sp Goth strawjan, 'to scatter', see straw, stratum 1 To scatter, drop, or fling hither and thither in small quantities, to sprinkle, spread irregularly to strew rushes on the floor 2 To cover lightly and irregularly, scatter, hestrow to strew a grass with flowers, the road was strewn with stones stria, n, pl striae [1 strīa, strīs, 2 stria, strāis] Lat stria, 'furrow, channel, fluting', cogn w OHG strima, 'stripe', strem, 'skew', see strand (III), op also Lat stigma, 'stroke, stripe, swath', see strigil, see also stringent (zool, bot, geol &c) Narrow, lengthwise mark, stripe, channel, groove &c, thread like or finte like marking striate (I), adj [1 strīat, 2 strāiat] fr Lat striat (um), PP type of strāre, 'to groove, flute', fr stria, 'furrow', see prae 1 Marked with striae, striped, fluted, variegated. 2 Of, resembling, forming, striae striate (II), vb trans [1 strīat, 2 strāiat] fr Lat striatum, see prae To mark with striae striated, adj [1 strīatid, 2 strāiatid] fr PP of striate (II) Striate striately, adv [1 strīatli, 2 strāiatli] striate (I) & -ly In striae striation, n. [1 strīdshun, 2 strāsh[ən]] striate (II) & -ion. 1 Act of striating, state of being striated, variegation, arrangement of stripes 2 Stria strature, n. [1 strīachur, 2 strīat[ə]] strate (L) & -ure Arrangement of stripes, striation stricken, adj. [1 strīken, 2 strīkan] Archaic PP of strike 1 (archaic) Wounded, injured by missile &c, struck down o stricken deer 2 Smitten, affected by grief, illness &c, stricken with disease &c, sometimes in compounds, terror stricken, stricken field, pitched battle, or the place where it was fought 3 Stricken in years, of advanced age, old.

strickle, n. [1 strīkl, 2 strīkl] OE strīcel, 'rod', cogn w strike Rod used for leveling grain in a heaped vessel to ensure accurate measure, see strike-measure strict, adj. [1 strīkt, 2 strīkt] Lat strīctus, 'drawn together, tight, close knit, narrow', fr PP of stringere, 'to draw tight', see stringent, & op strait (L) 1 A Precise, accurate, exact, reverse of lax, loose, equivocal the strict truth, take the words in their strict sense, a strict interpretation, in strict accuracy, law &c, b punctilious, nice, rigidly conscientious, admitting no deviation from what is correct a strict observer of rules, of the truth, o strict Protestant 2 A Admitting no infringement, inflexible, exacting a strict system of government, the game laws are very strict, a school must have strict rules, b rigorous in preserving law and order, insistent on discipline, stern, severe, austere schoolmasters should be strict but just, it doesn't do to be too strict with very young children strictly, adv. Free & -ly 1 A Precisely, exactly, with rigid accuracy - strictly (speaking) you ought not to leave, b punctiliously he stuck strictly to his own business 2 Severely, sternly, rigidly he preserved discipline strictly, but with fairness strictness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being strict in all senses structure, n. [1 strīkshur, 2 strīkt[ə]] fr Lat strīctura, 'contraction, compression, suffering', fr strīc (tum), PP type of stringere, 'to draw together, bind tightly', see stringent, & -ure 1 (med.) Constriction, contraction, of a duct or vessel of the body, esp of the urethra 2 (fig, often pl) Severe criticism, reflection, censure structures were passed on his conduct structured, adj. [1 strīkshurd, 2 strīkt[əd]] Prec & -ed Affected by structure stridden, vb. [1 strīdin, 2 strīdin] PP of stride (I) OE (ge)strīden stride (I), vb. intrans & trans [1 strīd, 2 strīd] OE strīdan, ME strīden, 'to stride, step', op M Du strīden, cogn w OH G strītan, 'to fight', OS strīd, 'eagerness', ON strīðr, strong, firm, obstinate', fr base *ster, *str-, 'to stiffen, become strong', see stare stark, & words there referred to A intrans 1 To walk with long, swinging or measured steps 2 To take a single long step in crossing a space, obstacle &c to stride over an obstacle, across a brook &c B trans 1 To cross, pass over, with a single long step 2 To bestride, stand or sit with a leg on either side of stride (II), n. fr prec 1 Long step in walking to walk with rapid strides, Phr to make great, rapid, strides (in learning &c), to progress rapidly, to take something in one's stride, to do something easily, without special effort, without going out of one's way 2 A Distance between feet when standing astride, b greatest length of pace strident, adj. [1 strīdēt, 2 strīdēt] fr Lat strīdēt (em), Pres Part. of strīdere, 'to make a shrill, harsh, or creaking sound', cogn w Gk. strīzein, 'to utter a shrill sound', cp also Gk. strīz 'owl', Lat. strīz, 'screech owl'. (of sound, voice &c) Loud, harsh, jarring stridently, adv. Free & -ly In a strident manner strident, adj. [1 strīdēt, 2 strīdēt] Lat strīdēt, 'creaking', see next word & -ant (of insect) Producing stridulations stridulate, vb. intrans [1 strīdūlāt, 2 strīdjulēt], fr Lat strīdulus, 'creaking, grating', fr strīdere, 'to make a shrill, harsh sound', see strident, & -ule, & -ate (Of crickets, locusts, grasshoppers &c) To produce a shrill chirping or creaking noise by rubbing parts of the hard integument together stridulation, n. [1 strīdūlāshun, 2 strīdjulāshun] Rec & -ion 1 Act of stridulating 2 Noise produced by stridulating stridulator, n. [1 strīdūlātūr, 2 strīdjulētūr] stridulate & -or Insect that stridulates stridulous, adj. [1 strīdūlus, 2 strīdjulus] See stridulant & -ous Resembling, characterized by, stridulation strife, n. [1 strīf, 2 strīf] ME strīf, fr O Fr strīf, fr ON strīf, 'oppression, pain', cp ON strīðr, 'strong, obstinate', see stride (I) Conflict, struggle, combat, controversy, reciprocal hostile action, quarrelling, war striga, n. [1 strīga, 2 strīga] Lat strīga, 'furrow, stroke, stripe', see strigil (bot) Short bristle or hair like scale strigil, n. [1 strījl, 2 strīdjl] fr Lat strīgula, 'scraper', op Lat strīga, 'swath, furrow, stroke, stripe', cogn w O Slav strīga, 'to shear', OE strīcan, 'to rub', see stricks (I), stringent (Rom. antiq) Instrument of metal, bone, or horn used for scraping the skin after the bath.

strigose, adj. [1 strīgōs, 2 strīgōs] fr Lat strīga, 'swath, furrow', q v under strigil, & -ose (bot) Covered with short, stiff bristles or hair like scales strigos, adj. [1 strīgus, 2 strīgus] fr Lat strīga, 'swath', see prec, & -ous (bot) Strigose strike (L), vb. trans & intrans [1 strīk, 2 strīk] OE strīcan, 'to rub, to move, go', ME strīken, 'to strike, stroke, rub', op M LG strīken, M Du strīken, OH G strīkhan, ON strīkna, 'to rub, stroke', cp further Goth strīka, OE strīca, 'stroke of pen', cogn w O Slav strīga, 'stripe, stroke, swath', Lat strīgula, 'scraper', see strigil, cp w infixed nasal Lat strīgere, 'to touch, graze, to draw out, to draw together', see stringent, Gk. strīg-, 'line, ray, channel' Cp further Lat strīa, 'channel, furrow', see stria, O H G strīma, 'stripe', strīno, 'skew', see strand (III), see also strokes (I) The word expresses generally violent, or sudden, & rapid action or movement A trans 1 To hit smite, give a blow to, bring (an object) violently into contact with (another) to strike the table with one's fist, to strike a person a violent blow, to strike a ball with a racket, the wall sounds hollow when struck, Phr to strike hands, (archaic) make a bargain or agreement 2 To cause to hit or impinge upon, bring (object) violently into contact with another to strike one's head against the lintel 3 To pierce, penetrate, by a blow to strike a person to the heart with a dagger 4 To give, deal, aim, deliver to strike a blow for, make an effort in support of 5 To come suddenly in contact with impinge upon the ship struck a rock a falling rock struck his head, the ball struck him in the eye 6 A To come upon, to reach, to find we shall strike the main road beyond the wood, b to come across, happen upon, to discover as by chance I struck a good place for a holiday, to strike a bad hotel, an amuse me book, Phr to strike oil, (u) to discover a gu her, (u) (fig) to make a lucky hit, make one's fortune 7 To produce by striking to strike a light to strike sparks from flint 8 To produce by striking musical instrument, cause to sound to strike a chord, note, Phr to strike a note, to convey a specific impression, emotion &c 9 To make by stamping to coin to strike a medal 10 To pull down, take down lower to strike a sail, tent &c, to strike camp, remove, break up, encampment, to strike one's flag, esp in token of surrender &c 11 To bring suddenly into a specific condition, affect suddenly and violently to be struck dumb, blind, with disease &c, Phr to strike dumb, (fig) make speechless with amazement, terror &c, to strike one all of a heap, (colloq) to astonish

12 To inspire, instil, with (some violent emotion) to strike terror and dismay into every heart 13 A To affect the judgement, produce an impression on the mind of, to impress how does his playing strike you?, the idea strikes me as a good one, the humorous side of it struck me very forcibly, specif b to make a favourable, deep, lasting, impression upon to be struck by a person's beauty, ability &c, o (of ideas &c) to come into the mind of, occur to an idea has just struck me, it strikes me that 14 To assume, put oneself into (esp by a sudden, rapid movement) to strike an attitude 15 (of clock) To sound, announce by striking the clock strikes the hours and quarters, it has just struck four 16 To make (measure) level, by smoothing of piled up grain &c from the top by means of a rod &c 17 To come to, make, arrive at, by reckoning, agreement &c to strike a balance, a bargain, an average &c 18 (fishing) To fix hook in mouth of (fish), by quick, upward stroke of the rod to strike a fish 19 A To cause to take root, set, plant to strike cuttings, b (of plant) to strike root, to form roots 20 To tap, broach (cask) 21 To strike work, a to cease work, specif b to go on strike B intrans 1 To hit, smite, deliver blow(s) 'Willing to wound, and yet afraid to strike' (Pope, Epistle to Dr Arbuthnot, 203) Phr to strike while the iron's hot, act promptly, and at appropriate moment 2 To come sharply into contact with an object or surface the ship struck (on a rock &c), his foot struck against a stone 3 To be landed by striking the match wouldn't strike 4 To direct one's course, turn, to penetrate, pass to strike to the left, the disease struck inwards, the light strikes through the darkness, the clouds &c, the damp strikes through the walls 5 a (of plant) To take root, b (of oyster &c) to become fixed, adhere to rock &c 6 To strike one's flag as sign of surrender or respect 7 a (of clock) To announce hour &c by specific number of strokes I didn't hear the clock strike, b (of hour) be recorded by striking of clock the hour has struck, Phr his hour has struck, he is about to die C Followed by adverbs or prepositions, with special meanings Strike off, intrans, to aim at, aim blow or attack at, direct blow towards, Phr to strike at the root of, try to destroy or exterminate utterly Strike down, trans, a to tell with a blow, b to attack, prostrate by illness &c Strike in, intrans, 1 (of disease) to affect internal organs instead of surface of body or extremities, 2 to interrupt, interpose here someone struck in with a question Strike into, 1 intrans, a to turn off abruptly into to strike into the fields, b to break into, start off suddenly into to strike into a gallop, 2 trans, to cause to penetrate, drive to strike spurs into a horse. Strike off, trans, 1 to remove by striking to strike off a person's head, 2 to cancel, remove by drawing stroke through &c to strike a name off a list, 3 to print to strike off a hundred copies Strike out, 1 intrans, to aim a blow, hit out, 2 a (of swimmer, skater) to make a stroke, esp in specific direction to strike out for the shore, b (fig) to begin action, make a start to strike out in a line of one's own, 3 trans, a to cancel, erase, cross out (word &c), b to produce, originate to strike out a new idea, a line of one's own. Strike through, trans, to cross out, cancel, by stroke of pen &c Strike up, trans, 1 to begin to play or sing to strike up a song, 2 to begin, bring into being to strike up a friendship, 3 intrans, to begin to play or sing now then, strike up, the band struck up as the King entered strike (II), n & vb intrans Noun fr prec, in specialized sense, as in Phr to strike work, vb, a new formation fr n 1 n Legalized method for workers of dealing, and bargaining for terms, with employers, by an organized general stoppage of work among all workers in a given trade or industry, or in a branch of a trade &c, until agreement is reached regarding wages, hours of work, or other matters in dispute 2 vb To engage, take part, in a strike strike-a-light, n [1 strikə līt, 2 strikə ləit] Apparatus for producing spark from flint and steel &c strike-breaker, n Worker brought in from outside to replace striker strike-measure, n Method of measuring grain &c, in which the surplus is levelled off from a heaped vessel with a rod strike-pay, n Allowance made by trade union to workmen during a strike striker (I), n [1 strikər, 2 strikə] striks (I) & -er 1 One who strikes, specif (tennis &c), player to whom ball is served 2 Instrument, device, mechanism, for striking striker (II), n, fr strike (II) & -er Workman, employee, who takes part in a strike striking, adj [1 strikɪŋ, 2 strikɪŋ], fr Pres Part of strike (I) Producing an effect on, impressing, appealing to, the mind, or imagination, hence, arresting, remarkable, provoking wonder, admiration &c a striking face, portrait, likeness &c, a striking example of folly &c strikingly, adv Pres & -ly In such a manner as to impress, remarkably strikingness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being striking striking-plate, n Metal plate securing latch when door is closed string (I), n [1 strɪŋ, 2 strɪŋ] OE streng, 'string of bow, of harp, rope, cable, snare', ME streng, string, cp ON strengr, MLG streng, fr strongi-*, see strong (I) 1 A slender, tough line of twisted fibre &c used for tying, cord, twine a piece, ball, of string, to tie a parcel up with string, to pull a toy along by a string, Phrs to pull strings, use one's influence to bring about some result, specif b cord of bow, bow string Phr to have two strings to one's bow, have more than one expedient or means for attaining one's end, first, second, string, person or thing that main, alternative, reliance is placed upon 2 Slender cord of stretched gut or wire, in certain musical instruments, tightened until it gives forth a specific musical note when made to vibrate the strings of a harp, violin &c Phrs to touch the strings, to play (harp &c), to be for ever harping on the same string, dwelling on the same subject, idea &c 3 Narrow strip of ribbon or other textile fabric used for tying parts of wearing apparel &c together &c the strings of a bonnet, apron &c 4 Strong, slender, string like object or substance, specif a tendon the string of the tongue, eyes &c, b fibre connecting the two halves of a pod 5 Series of objects threaded on a string, a chain a string of beads, pearls &c 6 Long succession of persons, objects &c a string of people, horses, also a string of oaths, series uttered in rapid succession 7 (mus, in pl) The strings, group of stringed instruments in an orchestra &c string (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To supply, furnish, with a string or strings to string a bow, b (fig) usually string up, to tune, key up, braces to string oneself up to a high pitch of expectancy &c, nerves string up to the highest pitch 2 To join, link, by a string, to thread, suspend, on a string &c to string beads, beads string on wire Phr to string up, to hang 3 To remove string or fibre from (beans &c) B intrans (of glue) To become stringy C Followed by adverb with special meaning String out, to extend in a long line, form into a series. to string out scouts along the road string-alphabet, n Alphabet in which each letter is represented by a specific knot or group of knots tied in a cord string-band, n Orchestra of stringed instruments string-bark, n Kind of eucalyptus tree with fibrous bark string-board, n Board running np side of staircase, at right angles to and receiving ends of steps string-course, n Projecting moulding running horizontally along the wall of a building stringed, adj [1 strɪŋd, 2 strɪŋd] string (I) & -ed Having a string or strings stringed instruments, also four-stringed &c stringency, n [1 strɪŋjənə, 2 strɪndʒənə] See stringent & -ency State or quality of being stringent, specif a severity, b scarcity of money stringendo, adv. [1 strɪŋjəndə, 2 strɪndʒəndə] Ital, fr Lat stringent (em), see next word (musical direction) Increasing the tempo, accelerating stringent, adj [1 strɪŋjənt, 2 strɪndʒənt], fr Lat stringent (em), Pres Part of stringere, 'to draw or bind tightly, to touch lightly, graze, to pull or cut off, to draw from the sheath, to check, restrain', according to Walde, fr two orig distinct vbs (1) earlier strengere*, 'to draw tightly', oogn w Gk straggaloun, 'to twist, strangle', see strangle, ON strangr, 'violent', see strong (I) & string (I), (2) fr base strei g-, stri g- &c, 'to rub, scrape', seen also in Lat stringilis, 'scraper', see strigil, O Slav strigq, 'to shear', OE strican, 'to rub', see strike, cp base streu*, 'to rub', seen in strip (I), stripe (I) 1 Requiring exact obedience or fulfilment, binding, not to be evaded, rigid, rigorous, severe stringent regulations 2 (finance) Marked by shortage or scarcity of money, tight a stringent money market stringently, adv Pres & -ly In a stringent manner stringer, n [1 strɪŋɡər, 2 strɪŋɡər] string (II) & -er 1 One who, that which, strings 2 Timber forming part of framework and supporting other parts of the same structure string-halt, n Disease of muscles in horse's hind leg causing a jerky action, string-bait stringiness, n [1 strɪŋɪnəs, 2 strɪŋɪnəs] stringy & -ness State or quality of being stringy stringless, adj [1 strɪŋɡləs, 2 strɪŋɡləs] string (I) & -less Without a string or strings string-orchestra, n Orchestra composed of stringed instruments string-piece, n String-board string quartet, n 1 Quartet of players on stringed instruments, usually two violins, a viola, and a violoncello 2 Piece of music composed for such a combination of players stringy, adj [1 strɪŋɡi, 2 strɪŋɡi] string (I) & -y (IV) 1 Resembling string, consisting of, containing, tough fibres stringy meat, a stringy throat, one in which the tendons are very apparent 2 (of glue &c) Forming thick, viscous strings, ropy stringy-bark, n String-bark strip (I), vb trans & intrans [1 strɪp, 2 strɪp] OE stripan, ME stripan, 'to strip', op OHG stropfen, 'to flay', M Du stroopen, etymol obscure, perh ultimately connected w base seen in strike A trans 1 To tear off (skin, outer covering &c) to strip the bark from a tree, paper off a wall, the hide from a carcass &c, b to deprive (object) of outer covering, skin, or some external appendages to strip a tree of its bark, leaves &c, the birds have completely stripped the currant bushes 2 Strip (person or thing) of, to deprive of, remove, take away from, bereave, despoil, to strip a man of his honours, wealth, possessions, pretensions &c, to strip a house of its furniture 3 Phr to strip a cow, milk her dry, remove all the milk from her B intrans 1 To take one's clothes off, to undress 2 Specif (of a screw) to have the thread torn off strip (II), n, fr prec, perh partially influenced in meaning by stripe (I) 1 Long, narrow, flat piece of thin material, a an irregular piece torn, or partially torn, from something, a tatter, a shred paper hanging in strips from the wall, b narrow piece of anything, cut or shaped into more or less regular breadth a strip of wood nailed over a crack, a strip of paper as a book mark, a dress trimmed with strips of velvet 2 Long narrow piece of land or vegetation &c distinct from surroundings a strip of garden, woodland, turf, gravel &c stripe (I), n [1 strɪp, 2 strɪp] ME stripe, fr M Du stripe, op OHG strif, Germ streifen, 'to touch lightly, graze, to strip off, to mark with stripes', Du strippen, 'to strip off leaves', prob related to strip 1 A Long, narrow mark, line, band, division visibly distinct in colour or character from the surface on which it appears, a streak, stria, variegation the stripes of a tiger, zebra, the material is blue with yellow stripes, specif b stripe or chevron worn on sleeve of uniform as symbol of military rank a sergeant's stripes Phr. to get, lose, one's stripes, be promoted from, degraded to, the ranks 2 Blow, stroke, delivered by a rod, lash stripe (II), vb trans, fr prec To impose stripes upon, to mark with a stripe striped, adj [1 strɪpt, 2 strɪpt] stripes (I) & -ed Having, marked with, stripes striped cloth &c, also specif of animals, e.g. striped squirrel stripiness, n [1 strɪpiːnəs, 2 strɪpiːnəs] stripy & -ness State or quality of being stripy strip-leaf, n Tobacco with stalks removed stripling, n [1 strɪplɪŋ, 2 strɪplɪŋ] strip (II) & -ling (I) Young man, youth, lad stripper, n [1 strɪpər, 2 strɪpər] strip (I) & -er One who, that which, strips, esp a mechanical device for stripping off bark &c stripy, adj [1 strɪpi, 2 strɪpi] stripe (I) & -y (IV) Having, marked with, stripes strive, vb intrans [1 strɪv, 2 strɪv] ME striven, fr O Fr estriver, fr O Fr estri, 'strife, effort', see strife 1 To make great efforts, try earnestly, exert oneself the swimmer strives to reach the shore, to strive to understand, to strive for victory

2 To fight, struggle, engage in combat to strive with, against, an enemy, temptation &c strobile, n [1 strɒbɪl, 2 strɒbɪl, -ɪl, 2 strɒbɪl, 3 strɒbɪl(aɪl)] fr L Lat strobilus, 'pine cone', fr Gk strōbilos, 'anything twisted or whirling, whirlwind, pinwheel, pine cone', cp strobos, 'a twisting round', strobile, 'twisted', strabos, 'crooked', see strabismus strobe, vb [1 strɒd, 2 strɒd] OE strōd, ME strōd Pret of stride (I) stroke (I), n [1 strɒk, 2 strɒuk] OE strāc, ME strōk, 'stroke', op MHG streich, op also OE strican, 'to rub, stroke', Pret sing strāc, & see strike (I) 1 Action of one who strikes, a blow with one stroke of the axe, 'How bowed the woods beneath their sturdy stroke' (Gray's 'Elegy') Phrs a stroke of genius, action inspired by genius, a stroke of luck, fortunate event or experience, piece of good fortune 2 A single movement of the hand(s), or of an instrument guided by hand, in performing some operation, esp in games a stroke in cricket, tennis, golf, billiards &c, a backhand stroke, to do a hole in three strokes, b single movement forming part of rhythmic series the stroke of a bird's wing, of person swimming, of an oar in rowing &c 3 A movement of a clock in striking mechanism or hammer in a clock sounding the hour, blow &c, b sound made by such a blow Phr on the stroke of (five &c), as the hour is being struck or is about to strike & Lune produced by single movement of pen, pencil, brush &c straight, thick, fine, strokes &c 5 Sudden attack or access of illness, esp paralytic, apoplectic, stroke, also without qualifying word to have a stroke 6 Oarsmen oarsmen of boat, and setting time of stroke to row stroke stroke (II), vb trans, fr prec, 8 To stroke o boat, row stroke in it stroke (III), vb trans OE strācian, ME strōken, 'to stroke', fr OE strac, 'stroke', see stroke (I) 1 To draw one's hand with gentle pressure over surface of, to caress to stroke one's hair, a cat Phrs to stroke one (up) the wrong way, irritate him, to stroke one down, soothe him, allay irritation 2 To smooth, set in order (gothar in needlework &c), by drawing point of needle & down each strokes (IV), o, fr prec Act of stroking strokingly, adv [1 strōkingli, 2 strōkingli], fr Prec Part of stroke (III) & -ly In the manner of one who strokes, caressingly stroll (I), vb intrans [1 strōl, 2 strōl] Origin unknown To take a short, leisurely walk, to saunter, walk quietly ood without hurry stroll (II), n, fr prec A quiet, leisurely walk, o saunter stroller, n [1 strōler, 2 strōler] stroll (I) & -or One who strolls, specif (rare) strolling player strolling, adj [1 strōling, 2 strōling], fr Prec Part of stroll (I) Going from place to place, itinerant a strolling player, minstrel &c stroma, o [1 strōma, 2 strōma] Gk strōma, 'covering', cp Gk strōlōs, 'spread out', strōmōs, 'I extend, spread out, spread o covering over', Lat strolus, 'layer, covering', see stratum, & words there referred to (hol). Fine network of connective tissue forming the framework of an organ or cell.

stromatic, adj [1 strōmātik, 2 strōmātik], fr Gk strōmat, stem of strōma, 'covering', see prec, & -ic Of, pertaining to, forming of the nature of, a stroma strong (I), adj [1 strōng, 2 strōng] OE, ME strong, strong, fr ON strongr, OHG strang, strang, 'strong, severe, powerful', prob cogn w ME strong, 'I draw, drag', Gk stragallōn, 'twist, strangle', see strangle, Lott strang 'to stiffen', see also string (I) 1 A Physically powerful, capable of exerting great force, muscular strong arms, he is enormously strong, Phr with a strong hand, forcibly, b morally powerful, possessing great force of character, tenacity of purpose the strong man of the government, a strong, silent man, c intellectually powerful, capable of vigorous, clear thinking o strong brain, intelligence, imagination 2 A Tough, firm stout, durable, not easily broken, resisting strains o strong chain, branch, strong cord, wall &c, b difficult to capture, capable of resistance, well protected, easy to defend a strong fortress, position &c Phr one's strong point, something in which one excels, a good quality &c 3 Producing considerable effect, rigorous, drastic acting powerfully strong remedies, to talk strong measures 4 Robust, vigorous, hale, in good health and physical condition, sound he is far from strong, quite strong again, o strong constitution 5 Not weak or diluted, containing a large proportion of essential quality strong tea, coffee, whisky &c, strong drink, alcoholic liquor 6 Affecting the senses powerfully and keenly a strong smell, taste &c, specif brank ill smelling 7 A Deeply felt, vigorously held pronounced, decided, intense, strong opinions, suspicions, a strong sense of disappointment, strong feeling, b appealing powerfully to the mind cogent, conclusive strong reasons, arguments 8 Expressing ideas and emotions vigorously and unambiguously o strong expression Phr strong language, swearing blasphemy 9 Possessing a stated strength, amounting to, reckoned at, a specified number or figure an army 10,000 strong 10 (of wind) Moving rapidly, of considerable velocity 11 (gram, a Strong verb, in Germanic languages one which exhibits gradational changes in conjugation, b strong noun, in Germanic ood Aryao, ood which had originally a vowel stem 12 (commerce) strong prices, ore strong, tending to rise strong (II), adv, fr prec (slang) Strongly, vigorously, esp in Phr (he is) going strong, continues to be vigorous, healthy &c, still in action, that is coming in rather strong, making an extravagant claim, proposal &c, going in rather strong, behaving in an extravagant manner strong-box, n Strong chest of iron for storing deeds and other important documents stronghold, n [1 strōng hōld, 2 strōnghōld] Place of defence or refuge, fortified or defensible position a robber's stronghold in the mountains, (also fig) o stronghold of superstition &c, place where it flourishes strongish, adj [1 strōngish, 2 strōngish] strong (I) & -ish (I) Fairly strong strongly, adv [1 strōngli, 2 strōngli] strong (I) & -ly To a strong manner, vigorously strong-minded, adj a Having capable, vigorous, resolute mind, b specif, strong minded woman, one who is free, or supposed to be free, from ordinary feminine weaknesses strong-room, n Fire proof or burglar proof room, usually built in thickness of a wall, ood provided with heavy iron door, for storing valuables strontia, n [1 strōnsha, 2 strōsha] See strontium & -io Oxide of strontium strontian, n & adj [1 strōnshan, 2 strōshan] See strontium & -an 1 n Oxide of strontium 2 adj Pertaining to, consisting of, strontia or strontium strontium, n [1 strōnshum, 2 strōnshum] fr Strontian, in Argyleshire, where the metal was first found, & -ium Yellowish, ductile, metallic element, whose salts burn with a red flame strop, n & vb trans [1 strop, 2 strop] OE, ME stropp, see strap (I) 1 n A Leather strap, or a piece of wood covered with leather &c, for putting an edge on razors, b (naot) band of leather, rope, or iron round pulley 2 vb To put an edge on to (a razor) by applying it to a strop strophanthus, n [1 strōfānthus, 2 strōfēopas], fr Gk strophē, see strophe, & anthos, 'flower', see anther A A genus of tropical African plants, b a poisonous drug made from the seeds of this, used in heart disease, also called strophanthin strophe, n [1 strōfi, 2 strōvfi] mere rarely [1 strōfi, 2 strōfi] Gk strophē, a turning, twisting', cp Gk strophos, 'cord', strophēn, 'to turn', fr base strophē, cp the parallel form strophē, 'to turn, twist', in Gk strophē, 'twisted', strophos, 'whirlpool', strophos, 'squinting', see strobile, strobilus & strepto-coccus 1 (Gk theatre) A Specif, the dancing of choros in Greek play towards one side of scene, b song sung during this evolution 2 A regular arrangement or group of metrical lines in a poem, a loosely, a verse, a stanza, b strictly, former of two corresponding stanzas, in an ode, of which the second is the antistrophe strophos, adj [1 strōfik, strōfik, 2 strōvifik, strōfik] Prec & -io Pertaining to, characteristic of, written m, strophes strove, vb [1 strōv, 2 strōv] Pret of strive, formed on the anal of the Engl strong vb drive, drove &c strow vb trans [1 strō, 2 strō] OE strōwan, strowan, ME strōwan, variant of strew (archaic) To strew, scatter struck, vb [1 struk, 2 strak] Pret & PP of strike The form struck occurs fr the early 17th cent, perch on the anal of stuck Cp OE strāh, ME strool structural, adj [1 struktural, 2 struktural] structure & -al Pertaining to, connected, associated with structure the structural beauties of a building, a play &c structurally, adv Prec & -ly From the point of view of structure, as regards structure structure, n [1 struktchur, 2 struktis] Lat structura, 'mode of building, construction, edifice, erection, arrangement, order', fr struct (um), PP type of struere, 'to put together, construct, erect, build', cp Lat struēs, 'heap, pile, series of layers', Lat stratum, 'layer', cogn w OL strāusan, 'to scatter', see strow, straw (I) 1 Way in which o body is built up, arrangement and mode of conoection of the parts of an organic whole, formation, construction, organization of component parts the structure of a building, cell, organ &c, the structure of rocks, the structure of a sentence, of a language 2 Something that is constructed, specif, a building o tall, top heavy structure, the earthquake shook the structure to its foundations structured, adj [1 struktchurd, 2 struktisfad] Prec & -ed Having o structure of specific kind, having carefully designed mode of arrangement structureless, adj [1 struktchurless, 2 struktisless] structure & -less Without structure, lacking any specific arrangement of parts struggle (I), vb intrans [1 strōgl, 2 stragl] ME stroglēn, 'to struggle', origin uncertain, perch connected w strike (I) & stroke (I) 1 A To fight, offer resistance, to attempt to free oneself from physical constraint by violent bodily movements the prisoner struggled fiercely with the police before being arrested, the rabbit struggled to escape from the snare, b to grapple with, attempt to solve or overcome, intellectual difficulty to struggle with mathematical problems &c 2 To move the limbs and body violently and convulsively he struggled for moment and then died to struggle to one's feet 3 To make a strenuous effort, attempt vigorously, to accomplish something to struggle to get a position in society, to struggle to make oneself heard struggle (II), o, fr prec 1 Act of struggling, a violent movement, effort to free oneself from constraint, or against odds, or to reach o position in spite of opposition, a fight a rough and tumble a violent struggle to escape, o sharp struggle with the police, b convulsive movement of limbs the wounded animal made a short struggle, and then lay still 2 Effort of ood land, strenuous attempt to overcome difficulties o desperate struggle to make both ends meet, the struggle for existence, a hard struggle to get one's work done in time struggling, adj [1 strugling, 2 stragling], fr Prec Part of struggle (I) Engaged in a struggle, esp striving with difficulty to overcome poverty or obscurity &c a struggling painter, genius &c strugglingly, adv Prec & -ly With, by means of, a struggle struldbrug, n [1 struldbrug, 2 straldbrug] Arbitrary coinage One of a class of humao beings in Luggnagg, described in Swift's Gulliver's Travels (Vge to Laputa, ch x), who were unable to die, but who, after the age of eighty, exhibited all the signs of senility gradually lost both physical and mental vigour, and were unable to remember the words of their own language, or to understand that spoken by the younger generation strum (I), vb intrans & trans [1 strum, 2 stram] Pret fr strum (II) 1 intrans To play musical instrument by thumping heavily, or plucking the strings violently to play noisily and carelessly to strum on a piano, on a banjo, he strums from morning to night 2 trans To strum on to sit for hours strumming the piano strum (II), n, fr prec Act of strumming, noisy, careless playing on a piano or plucking instrument struma, n [1 strōma, 2 strōma] Lat strūma, 'serofulous tumour, swollen neck', prob cogn w Gk strūphnē, 'hard firm', ON str(j)ūpi, 'throat', OHG strūben, 'to stand stiffly' 1 Scrofula 2 Morbid enlargement of the thyroid gland goitre 3 (bot) Small soft swelling at the base of an organ strumose, adj [1 etrōmōs, 2 etrōmōs], fr Lat strēmōsus, 'scrofulous', prec & -ose Strumons

strumous, adj [1 etrōmōs, 2 strūmās] struma & -ous a Resembling, of the nature of, struma, b afflicted with struma strumpet, n [1 strūmpet, 2 strāmpit] ME strumpet, possibly fr O Fr strupe, stupre, fr Lat stuprum, 'dishonour, violation', orig 'punishment, banishment', cogn w Gk stuplein, 'to strike', typos, 'blow, imprint', see type (I), O Frs stūpa, 'ohastisement' A prostitute strung, vb [1 strung, 2 stray] Pret & PP of string, vh strut (I), vh intrans & n [1 etrut, 2 etrat] OE strūtan, 'to stand stiffly', ME strouten, 'to swell out, strut', cp MHG strūz, 'swelling, contention', cogn w Lat trudere, 'to push, press', see Intrude, O Slav truditi, 'to trouble', op also without initial s, OE prētan, 'to threaten', see threat & thrust (I), OHG drizan, 'to oppress' 1 vb To walk with stiff, pompous, affected, self-conscious gait 2 n Act of strutting, self-satisfied, swaggering, pompous gait strut (II), n & vb trans Cp LG strutt, 'stiff, rigid', cogn w prec 1 n A prop, stay, or support, esp for a wooden structure, consisting of a piece of timber placed at an angle and pressing in the contrary direction from the strain or thrust 2 vh To support, keep in position by a strut struthious, adj [1 strōthiūs, 2 strūpiēs], fr Lat strūthio, fr Gk strouthōs, 'sparrow, ostrich', prob earlier strouthōs*, & cogn w OHG drōca, OE pryca, 'thrush', see thrush, Lat turdus, 'thrush', see turbine, O Prussian brēda, 'thrush' Pertaining to, connected with, the ostrich strutting, adj [1 strūting, 2 strating], fr Pres Part of strut (I) Performed with, characterized by, a strut & strutting wall struttingly, adv Prec & -ly In a strutting manner strychnia, n [1 strīkna, 2 strīkna], fr Lat strychnos, fr Gk strukhnos, 'kind of nightshade', stylom unknown, & -ia (archaic) Strychnine strychnic, adj [1 strīknik, 2 strīknuk], fr Lat strychnos, 'nightshade', see prec, & -io Pertaining to, caused by, strychnine strychnin(e), n [1 strīknin, 2 strīknin, m], fr Lat strychnos, 'nightshade', see strychnia, & -ins White, crystalline, highly poisonous alkaloid, obtained from tropical plants of the genus Strychnos, especially S. Nux vomica, used medicinally in minute quantities as a stimulant for the nerves strychnin(ism), n [1 strīkn(in)izm, 2 strīkn(in)izm, -izm], fr Lat strychnos, 'nightshade', prec & -ism Strychnine poisoning, characterized by spasm and violent contraction of the muscles stub (I), n [1 etub, 2 stab] OE stybb, ME stubble, 'stock of tree', op MLG stubble, ON stubs, cogn w ON stúfr, 'stump', Gk stupos, 'stump, stuck', Lett stups, 'stump', op further Gk stuplein, 'to strike', typos, 'blow, imprint', & see type (I), stump (I) 1 Lower part of trunk or stalk of a tree left when upper part is cut off, a stump 2 Short, thick, portion, or stump, of enoh an object as a pencil, cigar, &c, the main part of which has been worn down, used, or consumed stub (II), vh trans, fr prec 1 To clear (land) of stumps, roots &c 2 (usually, stub up) To remove (stumps &c) from ground 3 A To strike (foot) accidentally against a hard object, esp to stub one's toe, b to thrust, poke, with, or as with, a stub stubble, n [1 stūbl, 2 stābl] ME stuble, stobul, fr O Fr estouble, fr Lat stipula, 'stalk, stem, straw, stubble', see stipule 1 Short, stiff stalks of grain left standing in the field after reaping 2 Anything resembling stubble, asp short, stiff, bristling growth of hair on the chin stubbly, adj [1 stuhh, 2 stābl] Prec & -y (IV) 1 Of, covered with, full of, stubble 2 Like stubble, short and bristling stubborn, edj [1 stubarn, 2 stāhan] ME stoburn, stiborn, prob fr OE stýbb, 'stump of tree', see stub (I) 1 Resolute, determined, inflexible, not easily overcome, staunch stubborn courage, a stubborn resistance 2 (of persons) Not accessible to reason, obstinate, intractable, pig-headed stubbornly, adv Prec & -ly In a stubborn manner stubbornness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being stubborn stubby, adj [1 stuh, 2 stābi] stub (I) & -y (IV) Like a stub, short, thick, stumpy, squat a stubby bit of pencil, a short stubby figura stub-iron, n Iron refashioned from old horse shoes nails and used for gun barrels stucco, n & vh trans [1 etukō, 2 stākou] Ital, fr OHG stucco, 'crust, piece, fragment', op OE stoc, 'stump, piece', see stook (I) 1 n Fine white plaster used as external coating for walls, for architectural ornaments in relief &c 2 vb To cover (wall, house &c) with stucco stuck, vb [1 stuk, 2 stak] Pret & PP of stick, perh on the anal of stung, Pret of sting stuck-up, adj [1 stūk up, 2 etāk ap], fr PP of stiock (colloq) Vain, conceited, haughty stud (I), n [1 etud, 2 stad] OE, ME stōd, 'stud, herd of horses', op ON stōð, OHG stuoð, 'stud', Mod Germ stute, 'mare', op also OE stōda, 'a stallion', see stead, the word is fr base stā-* &c, 'to stand', & the orig sense was prob 'standing-places (for horses)', op similar transference of sense in stable (II) a Number of horses and mares kept for breeding, b collection of horses for hunting, racing &c stud (II), n OE studu, 'post, buttress', ME stude, 'stud, button', op OHG (unter) stuzzen, 'to prop, support', ON stýdia, 'to establish, support', fr base stā-* as Gk stilos, 'pillar', see style (III) 1 One of a series of supporting posts in a framework &c 2 Large headed, projecting nail or peg used to strengthen or ornament a surface 3 Kind of button consisting of a short neck, with a flattened base and a smaller round or flat head, used to fasten collar, shirt-front &c, similar object used for buttoning two edges of leather &c together 4 Cross bar strengthening a link in a chain cable stud (III), vh trans, fr prec (chiefly in PP) 1 To cover, ornament with short, projecting studs an iron studded door 2 A To set thickly, an ornament a box studded with gems, b to sprinkle, bespangle sky studded with stars, a plains studded with trees stud-book, n Register of pedigree of thorough bred horses studding-sail, n [1 etūdāl, 2 stansl] Etymol. unknown Narrow, auxiliary sail set beyond outer edges of square sail in light wind student, n [1 stūdēt, 2 stýdēt], fr Lat student (em), Pres Part of studēre, 'to apply oneself to, engage in, occupy oneself with', either cogn w Goth stunth, 'patience, endurance', fr stuswōjo*, op Lat studium, 'zeal, eagerness', see study, or, w orig sense, 'to strive after, aim at something', connected w Lat tundere, 'to strike', & tuder, 'hammer', see stint (I) 1 Specif, person engaged in the acquisition of knowledge, esp one not yet a graduate, at a university, college &c, person engaged in a course of study at a learned institution a medical student, a hotel for students 2 One who studies, & a person who is devoted to learning, who pursues study or investigation in any special branch of knowledge or human experience a profund student of theology, archaeology &c, a student of life, human nature &c, b a person of studious habits he is a man of action rather than a student 3 (esp) At Christ Church, Oxford, senior member of the foundation, and of the governing body of the college, equivalent to a Fellow at other colleges studentship, n [1 stādnatshp, 2 stýdnatshp] Prec & -ship 1 Endowment for scholar ship at certain colleges 2 Position of a student at Christ Church, Oxford.

stud-farm, n. Farm where horses are bred stud-groom, n Groom employed in looking after a stud, esp head groom stud-horse, n Horse kept for breeding, a stallion studied, adj [1 etudid, 2 etādid], fr PP of study (II) Carefully planned, deliberate, intentional, premeditated studied indifference, a studied insult, a style which is too studied, mannered, over careful, looking spontaneity studiedly, adv Prec & -ly In a studied manner, deliberately studio, n [1 stūdīō, 2 etýdīōu] Ital, fr Lat studium, 'zeal, eagerness, exertion, study', see study (I), student Work room of painter, sculptor, photographer &c studious, adj [1 etūdīus, 2 stýdīus], fr Lat studiosus, 'zealous, assiduous, devoted to study', fr studium, 'zeal, application, study', see study (I), & -ous 1 Devoted to, occupied with, engaged in, study 2 Deliberate, careful, studious politeness 3 Eager, careful, zealous studious to obey studiously, adv Prec & -ly In a studious manner studiousness, n Prec & -ness State or quality of being studious study (I), n [1 etūdi, 2 stādi] ME studie, 'thought, study', fr O Fr estudie, fr Lat studium, 'zeal, eagerness, assiduity, application, application to learning, study' Cp student 1 Object of solicitude, earnest endeavour, deliberate intention his constant study is to please 2 Act of applying the mind to the acquisition of erudition and knowledge, systematic cultivation and pursuit of science and learning fonder of sport than of study 3 A Systematic attention to, and pursuit of, knowledge in some specific branch of learning or science the study of history, ancient languages, electronics, politics &c, b to begin, interrupt, one's studies, b careful examination, scrutiny, critical consideration, concentration of the attention the study of a document, the study of human nature, Phr in a brown study, in an abstracted state of mind, distract 4 Subject studied, branch of learning, department of knowledge philology and archaeology are comparatively modern studies, human studies 5 Something deserving or attracting attention, interest, or observation his face was a perfect study 6 An excursion, dissertation, essay, embodying the results of a special investigation Froude's 'Short Studies in Great Subjects' 7 A drawing, painting, sketch, a exhibiting an experimental treatment of an object, as part of a training, or b an experimental, tentative, essay to portray some particular aspect or part of a subject 8 Musical composition designed as an exercise in technique 9 Actor considered from the point of view of his facility for memorizing a part in a play a quick study &c 10 Room in which studies are carried on, specif, a room in a private house devoted to one person, generally containing a library, in which reading, writing, and the transaction of private business is carried out study (II), vb trans & intrans ME studien, fr O Fr estudier, fr estudie, 'study', see prec A trans 1 a To pay great attention to, be concerned with or for, act in regard to to study one's own interests, another's comfort &c, b to show deference, solicitude, regard, respect, consideration, for he studies his parents in every possible way 2 To seek to acquire knowledge of, apply oneself to learning to study history, medicine &c. 3 A To examine, investigate, make a study of 'to study social conditions at first hand, b speed, to scrutinize, gaze carefully at, examine in detail to study a map, a person's face &c 4 To learn by heart, memorize (part in play &c) B intrans 1 To endeavour, direct one's efforts, apply one's mind to 'May he ever study to preserve thy people committed to his charge', study to be wise 2 To engage in study, be a student, a to carry out the process of acquiring knowledge, to receive one's in intellectual training and education to study at a university, b to work at, endeavour to increase one's knowledge by study he never studied after he left the university 3. (archaic) To reflect, contemplate, meditate C Followed by adverbs or prepositions with special meanings Study for, to undertake special course of instruction or training for to study for the Bar, the Church &c Study out, to elucidate by study, to puzzle out to study out a plan, a problem &c stuff (I), n [1 stuff, 2 stafs] ME stufte, stoffe, fr O Fr estoffe, fr Lat stippa, 'coarse part of flax, tow', q v under stop (I) 1 A Substance, matter of all sorts dynamicists is queer stuff to play with, rhubarb is nasty stuff to take, (also of non material things) his poems are poor stuff Phrs (colloq) the sort of stuff, the stuff, to give them, the proper treatment, the right way to deal with, the right thing to say, green stuff, vegetables, doctor's stuff, medicine, b (disparaging or contempt) (i) rubbish, worthless, heterogeneous material or objects what shall I do with all this stuff from the cupboard?, (ii) silly, fan-tastic nonsense all stuff! I don't believe a word of it, stuff and nonsense! 2 a That from which anything, material or non material, is constructed or made tallow is the stuff of which candles are made, to collect the stuff for a book, (fig) he is made of sterner stuff than his father, has a more resolute character, not the stuff of which poets are made, not possessing the mental qualities, temperament &c, b essential quality, character, content, constituent elements a man with plenty of good stuff in him 3 Textile fabric I don't like the stuff that your dress is made of, specif, woollen fabric a dress made of stuff stuff (II), adj, fr prec Made of woollen fabric stuff gown, specif, gown worn by barrister before becoming a king's counsel and adopting a silk gown stuff (III), v trans & intrans, fr stuff (I) A trans 1 a (i) To fill tightly, pack, cram, with to stuff a box with old clothes, a sack with leaves &c, (ii) (fig) to stuff one's mind, head, with facts &c, fill full, overload, (colloq) to stuff a person, tell him what is untrue, coax him, play on his credulity, specif b to fill a pillow, mattress, seat of a chair &c as an upholsterer does this cushion ought to be freshly stuffed, a mattress stuffed with horsehair, c to fill with food to stuff oneself, overeat 2 To preserve (a dead animal, bird &c) by packing the skin with tow &c, treating with preservatives, placing limbs in a lifelike attitude, and mounting 3 To put spices, condiments &c into to stuff a duck with sage and onions &c 4 To thrust, crowd, cram, ram, press (objects), with force into a receptacle or into a narrow space to stuff one's clothes into a trunk, just stuff a cushion behind my head, please B intrans To eat to excess to eat voraciously, overeat, to cram, guzzle, eat like a pig stuffiness, n [1 stuffiness, 2 stuffiness] stuffy & -ness State of being stuffy stuffing, n [1 stuffing, 2 stuffings] stuff (III) & -ing Material with which something is stuffed or packed a the stuffing of a cushion, doll &c, Phr (colloq) to knock the stuffing out of, (i) take self confidence or conceit out of, disconcert discompose (a person), (ii) to unnerv, render weak & shaky, as by a shock, illness &c (iii) show (argument &c) to be worthless, render ineffective, b compressed mass of pungent, savoury spices, herbs, chopped meat &c, inserted and cooked in a hrd or joint of meat to impart flavour stuffing-box, n Chamber filled with packing to reduce leakage of steam, water &c from the hole in which a piston rod moves stuffy, adj [1 stúfi, 2 stáfis] stuff (I) & -y (IV) 1 a (of room) ill ventilated, imperfectly supplied with fresh air, close, airless, fusty, frowsty, b (of air) exhausted, reverse of fresh, used up, musty, c (of weather) close, steamy, reverse of bracing 2 (of persons, mind) Not easily accessible to new ideas, dull, stodgy, stodgy stuggy, adj [1 stúgi, 2 stáigi] Prob. variant of stookey Stookey stultification, n [1 stultifikáshun, 2 stultifikáshun] See next word & -fication. Act of stultifying, state of being stultified stultify, vb trans [1 stúlfifi, 2 stálfifi], fr L Lat stultificare, 'to make foolish', fr stultus, 'foolish', & -fy, op Lat stolo, 'use less smoker', stolidus, 'dull, stupid', see stolid, cogn w Sort stúlufi, 'thick, coarse, stupid', OE stille, 'motionless, silent', see still (I) To make of no effect, cause to appear in a foolish light, make inconsistent, destroy value or weight of, spoil effect of to go back on one's word now would be to stultify oneself hopelessly, this clause is stultified by what follows stum, n & vb trans [1 stum, 2 stam], fr Du stom, 'stum', fr adj stom, 'silent, still', op Mod Germ. stumm, 'dumb', op stammer & stam (III) 1 n Wholly or partially unfermented grape juice 2 vb To prevent or hinder fermentation of (grape juice) by adding sodium sulphate &c stumble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stámbli, 2 stámbli] ME stom(b)len, op M Du stomelen, op ME, M Du stamaren, OHG stammalon, 'to stammer', see stammer & prec A intrans 1 a To trip up, miss one's footing, lose balance, in walking, running &c, esp by catching foot in, or striking foot against, an object, or from weakness &c to stumble and fall, to stumble over a stone, b (fig) to err, make a mistake, to be guilty of a moral or intellectual lapse 2 To speak, read, recite &c haltingly, with frequent mistakes, hesitations &c, to falter, blunder to stumble over one's words, to stumble through a speech, lesson &c B trans (archaic) To disconcert, perplex, trouble C Followed by adverbs or prepositions with special meanings Stumble across, intrans, to come upon, discover, by chance Stumble along, intrans, to walk or run with a stumbling gait Stumble at, intrans, to hesitate over, be disconcerted, perplexed, embarrassed by Stumble (upon), stumble across stumble (II), n, fr prec Act of stumbling, sudden loss of foothold, halt in progress due to catching one's foot &c stumbling, adj [1 stumbling 2 stámbli], fr Pres Part of stumble (I) Hesitating, unsteady, faltering a stumbling gait, a stumbling speech stumbling-block, n. (fig) Something that hinders progress, impediment, obstacle a stumbling block to faith stumblingly, adv [1 etumblingly, 2 stámbli] stumbling & -ly In a stumbling manner stunmer, n [1 stúmer, 2 stúme] Etymol unknown. (slang) Worthless, farged, counterfeit, can, note, or cheque stump (I), n [1 stump, 2 stamp] ME stump, stompe, fr ON stump, op M Du stomp, M LG stump, MHG stumpf, cogn w Sort tu(m)pan, 'strikes, pushes', op further, without m, ON stuftr, 'stamp', Gk stupos, 'stuck', tupien, 'to strike', tupos, 'blow', see type (I) op Lett stupa, 'broomstick' 1 a Lower part of trunk of tree left in ground when upper part has fallen or been felled, stock, stub, specif b tree stump or similar object from which speaker addresses crowd &c Phr stump oratory, 'speeches &c bombast, ranting speeches, esp on political affairs, such as are made from a stump, Phr to go, be, on the stump, engage in a campaign of stump oratory 2 Any short, thick, more or less cylindrical body left when the remainder has been removed, worn off &c: the stump of a tooth, amputated limb, mast, pencil, candle &c Phr to stir one's stumps, move the legs, walk, hurry 3 (cricket) One of three upright sticks forming the wicket 4 Pointed, rubber stock, or stiff cylinder of paper, used to apply or soften charcoal &c in drawing stump (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A. trans 1 a (cricket) To put batsman out by striking the balls from the wicket while he is outside his ground, b (fig, colloq) to puzzle, disconcert, defeat, esp by asking questions which cannot be answered, or presenting difficulties which cannot be resolved to be stumped by an examination question, I was completely stumped when the car began to slide backwards down the hill 2 (drawing &c) To apply (pigment), tone down, soften, with a stump 3 (See prec 1 b) In Phr to stump the country, a consultant, to travel about addressing meetings in support of a political or other cause to stump the country on Tariff Reform &c B intrans To walk with stiff, heavy steps, esp stump along C Followed by adverb Stump up, trans, (slang) to pay out stumper, n [1 stúmpier, 2 stámpie] stump (II) & -er One who, that which, stumps; specif (colloq) puzzling problem, question &c, a poser stumpily, adv [1 stámpili, 2 stámpili] stumpy & -ly In a stumpy manner stumpiness, n [1 stámpines, 2 stámpinas] Next word & -ness Quality of being stumpy stumpy, adj [1 stámpa, 2 stámpí] stump (I) & -y (IV) Short and thickset, stubby, stocky, cobby stun, vb trans [1 stun, 2 stan] ME stonen &c, 'to stun, astonish', fr O Fr estoner, to stun, resound', fr L Lat extonare, 'to resound', op also OE stunan, 'to resound, dash against', ON styma, 'to groan', cogn w Gk sténein, 'to groan', Sort stunath, 'thunders', tanyat, 'rustles, roars', Lat tonare, 'to thunder', OE þunor, 'thunder', see thunder 1 To inflict a severe physical shock to, as by a heavy blow or impact, which temporarily destroys consciousness and power of movement 2 To cause a shock to the nerves, to amaze, astound, by unexpected news &c, to the point of producing momentary confusion of mind completely stunned by the (news of the) disaster

Stundism, n [1 stundizm, 2 stundizem], fr Germ stunde, 'hour, lesson', op OE, ON stund, O Fris stunde, 'moment, time, hour' Doctrines of the Stundists

Stundist, n [1 stoundist 2 stundist] See prec & -ist Member of a body of dissenters from the Russian Orthodox Church, rejecting all forms and ceremonies, and basing their doctrines entirely on the Modern Russian translation of the Bible (1861) stung, vb [1 stung, 2 etan] Pret & P P of sting, OE (ge)stungen P P stunk, vb [1 etung, 2 etan] Pret & P P of stink, OE (ge)stuncen, P P stunner, n [1 stúner, 2 stána] stun & -er (slang) Person or object that surprises and delights by his or its qualities of beauty or excellence stunning, adj [1 stúning, 2 stáning] Pres Part of stun 1 Producing physical or mental shock, causing loss or partial loss of consciousness a stunning blow on the head, (also fig) stunning blow, terrible, paralyzing shock 2 (slang) Producing a pleasant surprise, hence highly delightful splendid topping stunningly, adv Prec. & -ly In a stunning manner stunsail, n [1 stúnal, 2 stánal] Contracted fr studding-sail. Studding sail stunt (I), vb trans [1 stunt, 2 stant], fr ME, OE stunt, 'dull, foolish', cp ON stult, MHG stunz, 'ebort', see stint (I) To check growth, development, of, to dwarf stunted trees, intelligence &c stunt (II), n Introduced fr America, orig athletic slang, fr Germ stunde, 'lesson', see Stundism (slang) A showy, striking performance, feat, display, of skill stuntedness, n [1 stuntednes, 2 stantidnes], fr PP of stunt (I) & -ness Condition, state, of being stunted or dwarfed stupa, n [1 stúpa, 2 stúpa] Sort stúpa, 'monnd', op Hind top A round, domed tumulus in India, containing a Buddhist shrine, a tope stupe, n & vb trans [1 stúp, 2 stúp], fr Lat stupe, variant of stuppa, 'tow', see stop (I) 1 n Compress, cloth wrung out in hot water &c, as fomentation for wound &c 2 vb To apply a stupe to, to poultice, foment stupefacent, adj & n [1 stúpéfásent, 2 stúpífasent] See stupefy & -facent 1 adj Tending to stupefy 2 n (med) Stupefacent substance, a narcotic stupefaction, n [1 stúpéfákshun, 2 stúpífékshun] See stupefy & -faction A act of stupefying, state of being stupefied, b spent, amazement, cause of amazement stupefactive, adj [1 stúpéfáktív, 2 stúpíféktív] See preo & -ive Having the power of stupefying, stupefacent stupefy, vb trans [1 stúpífi, 2 stúpífas], fr Lat stupefacere, 'to make senseless, benumb, deaden', fr stupere, 'to be stunned, stupefied, to be amazed', qv under stupid A To deaden the faculties or senses of, make stupid, dull, deprive of perceptive power, b to stun with astonishment, to amaze stupendous, adj [1 stúpéndus, 2 stúpéndás], fr Lat stupendus, 'amazing', gerundive of stupere, 'to be benumbed, amazed', see stupid, & -ous Possessing some quality in an extraordinary degree, astonishing by virtue of size, volume, force &c stupendous height, a stupendous mistake stupendously, adv Preo & -ly In a stupendous manner stupendousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being stupendous stapeous, adj [1 stúpeus, 2 stúpípeus], fr Lat stapeus, 'of tow', fr stupa, 'tow', see stupe, & -ous Having, bearing, long, loose, thread-like hairs or scales stupid (I), adj [1 stúpíd, 2 stúpíd, stúpíd], fr Lat stupídus, 'stupid, senseless, amazed, dull, stupid', fr stupere, 'to be stunned, senseless, to be amazed', cogn v Sort tu(m)-pati, 'strikes, pushes', Gk tupeo, 'blow, imprint', see type (I), see stub (I) stump (I), & words there referred to 1 With senses or faculties deadened, dull, benumbed, stupefied, in a state of stuper to be stupid with sleep 2 Characterized by, evincing, lack of intelligence, wisdom, prudence &c, dull, foolish, slow-witted a stupid person, action, book, a stupid thing to do stupid (II), n, fr preo (colloq) Stupid person stupidity, n [1 stúpíditi, 2 stúpípditi], fr Lat stupídité, 'dullness, stupidity', fr stupídus, 'dull', see preo, & -ity Quality of being stupid, mental dullness, lack of intelligence, slowness of wit stupidly, adv [1 stúpídli, 2 stúpípdli] Preo & -ly In a stupid manner stupor, n [1 stúper, 2 stúpe], fr Lat stupor, 'numbness, insensibility, dullness', fr stupere, 'to be senseless, to be amazed', see stupid, & -or 1 Partial insensibility, torpor, deadened condition of faculties and senses, state of coma 2 Mental dullness or helplessness caused by intense astonishment, shock &c stuporous, adj [1 stúporus, 2 stúpíperus] Preo & -ous Of, characteristic of, affected with, stupor stupose, adj [1 stúpós; 2 stúpóus], fr Lat stupa, 'tow', see stupe, & -ose Having tufts of tow like filaments sturdied, adj [1 stéríd, 2 stíd] sturdy (II) & -ad Affected with sturdy sturdily, adv [1 stérídli, 2 stídli] sturdy (I) & -ly In a sturdy manner sturdiness, n [1 stérínes, 2 stídínes] See preo & -ness State or quality of being sturdy sturdy (I), adj [1 stérí, 2 stíd] ME stourdi, 'sturdy, stubborn', fr O Fr estourdi, 'astounded', etymol uncertain 1 Strong, vigorous, robust, well developed, stout a sturdy youngster, a sturdy oak, sturdy beggar, specif, one able, but unwilling, to work 2 Characterized by, evincing, strength, vigour, robustness a sturdy common sense, resistance, faith sturdy (II), n, fr O Fr estourdis, 'giddiness', fr estourdi, 'amazed', see preo Disease of sheep characterized by giddiness and stupor sturgeon, n [1 stérjun, 2 stídžun] ME sturgen, fr O Fr esturgeon, fr Med Lat sturiōnem, fr OHG sturjo, 'sturgeon', op OE sturna, 'sturgeon', origin obscure Large fish, genus Acipenser, of N Atlantic coasts and N American and N European rivers, from which caviare and isinglass are obtained sturnoid, adj [1 stérnoid, 2 stáncid], fr Lat sturnus, 'starling', see starling (I), & -oid. Pertaining to, like, the starlings stutter (I), vb intrans & trans [1 stúter, 2 státe], fr ME stuten, 'to hesitate, stammer', op ON stauta, Du stotteren, 'to stutter', Goth stautan, OHG stōzzan, 'to strike', op further OE stytlan, 'to stupefy', see stint (I), ON stultir, 'short' 1 intrans To speak with involuntary, spasmodic hesitations and repetitions, to stammer 2 trans To pronounce, utter, with hesitation to stutter (out) an apology stutter (II), n, fr preo Speech defect characterized by spasmodic repetition of initial sounds, a stammer stuttering, adj [1 stúteríng, 2 státaríng], fr Preo Part of stutter (I) Characterized by a stutter stutteringly, adv Preo & -ly In a stuttering manner sty (I), n [1 sti; 2 stai] OE stig, ME sti, 'sty', fr the base in OE stigan, 'to rise, mount', also in OS & OHG, Goth steigan, cogn v Gk stekhēn, 'to walk, go', Sort stighnati, 'he climbs' See also stair, steward, & stile (I) Enclosure, pen, for pig sty (II), vb trans, fr preo (rare) To enclose, keep, in a sty sty (III), stye, n [1 sti, 2 stai] ME sti(en), 'sty', OE stygend, 'sty in the eye', prob fr OE stigan, 'to rise', qv under sty (I) Small, unflamed swelling on the eyelid Stygian, adj [1 stíjan, 2 stídžan], fr Lat Stygus, fr Gk Stygios, 'Stygian', fr stug-, stem of stuz, 'Styx', river of the nether regions', op Gk stugein, 'to hate', stygnde, 'hateful' Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, the Styx or the infernal regions, esp in Phr Stygian gloom, darkness &c style (I), n [1 sti, 2 stai] ME stille, 'style, pen', fr O Fr stile, style, fr Lat stilus, 'pointed instrument, spike, pale, instrument for writing on waxed tablets, writing, composition, mode of expression, style', cogn v Lat stimulus, 'point, goad', fr base stih-, stio-, 'sharp, pointed', whence also Lat instigare, 'to goad, prick', see instigate, OE sticca, 'stick, peg', see stick (I) &c 1 A small, slender, pointed instrument anciently used for inscribing letters on waxed tablets, hence, b (archaic) pen, pencil. 2 Object or formation resembling a style in shape; specif a engraving tool, b etching needle, c (zoöl.) small, pointed projection or process 3 A mode of verbal expression, way of putting ideas into words in speech or writing, manner a concise, rhetorical, turgid, style, a style of one's own, b distinguished, good, clear, graceful, style &c a writer without style, a specific mode of expression characteristic of an individual, a period, a school &c in the Elizabethan, eighteenth-century, style, in the style of Pope &c 4 Mode, method, of execution, expression, in any of the fine arts, esp method characteristic of specific person, country, period &c the Byzantine, Romanesque, style, in the style of Rubens, classical styles of architecture, furnished in Mid-Victorian style 5 Way of moving in carrying out some skilled action or series of actions, e.g. in games &c the style of a cricketer, fencer, lawn tennis player &c 6 Fashion in dress, mode all the latest styles from Paris 7 A way of carrying and behaving oneself, general bearing, manner, deportment, in relation to the usages of good society ladies tell me that the new Mayoreess is shocking bad style, b speed, good style, distinction of bearing and manner, good breeding a woman who naturally has style can afford to be plain 8 Sort, kind, particular variety just the style of dinner I desire, he called me a fool, and more in the same style 9 Phrs style of thing, way of behaving, speaking, the way things happen, particular kind of event &c I've had quite enough of that style of thing 8 Mode of address, proper title, designation what is the proper style of a bishop? 10 Mode of reckoning date, Old Style, with reference to date reckoned according to Julian calendar, New Style, according to Gregorian calendar style (II), vb trans, fr preo To call, name, designate, address, speak of, by title of the heads of several Oxford Colleges are styled Warden, an impostor styling himself a baronet style (III), n, fr Gk stilos, 'pillar', op Gk stēlē, 'I set upright', staurōs, 'stake', see stauroscope, ON staurir, 'post', OE stow, 'place', see stow, steer (I), & words there referred to 1 Gnomon, pointer, of sundial 2 (bot) Slender part of pistil, between ovary and stigma style (IV) See stile stylet, n [1 stilet, 2 stailct], fr O Fr stilet, fr Ital stiletto 1 Small, slender, pointed instrument or weapon 2 (med) Wire extending and stiffening catheter styliform, adj [1 stílfírm, 2 stílsfírm] style (I) & -i- & -form Having the shape of a style stylish, adj [1 stílish, 2 stílsí] style (I) & -ish (L) (often vulg) a Having social style a stylish woman, b fashionable, smart a stylish hat, a coat of stylish cut stylishly, adv Preo & -ly In a stylish manner stylishness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being stylish stylist, n [1 stílist, 2 stailist] style (I) & -ist Writer or other artist who has a good, or a characteristic, style, one who pays great attention to style stylistic, adj [1 stílistik, 2 stailistik] Preo & -ic Of, pertaining to, literary style stylistically, adv [1 stílistikali, 2 stailistikali] Preo & -al & -ly From a stylistic point of view stylite, n [1 stílit, 2 stáilant], fr L Gk stylites, 'stylite', fr stílos, 'pillar', see style (III), & -ite (I) One of a class of religious ascetics of the early Middle Ages, who lived without shelter on the tops of pillars stylize, vb trans [1 stíliz, 2 stáilíz] style (I) & -ize To conventionalize stylo, n [1 stílo, 2 stailou] Abbr form of stylograph stylo-, pref representing style (I) & -o- Styloid process, e.g. stylohyoid, (muscle &c) of the styloid process and the hyoid bone. stylobate, n [1 stílobāt, 2 stáilobēt], fr L Lat stylobates, fr Gk stilobates, pedestal of a row of columns', fr style (III), & -o- & -bates, fr bairein, 'to go', see haus Continuous foundation, base, for two or more columns stylograph, n. [1 stílografi, 2 stídila-, stídila-gráf] style (I) & -o- & -graph. Kind of fountain pen with needle like point stylographic, adj [1 stílográfik, 2 stílográfik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, a stylograph stylographic pen stylographically, adv [1 stílográfikah, 2 stílográfikah] Prec & -al & -ly By means of a stylograph styloid, adj & n. [1 stíloid, 2 stídílaid] stylis (I) & -oid. 1 adj (anat) Styloid process, spiny projection at the base of the temporal bone 2 n Styloid process stymie, stymy, n & vb trans [1 stími, 2 stídími] Etymol. unknown (golf) 1 n Position in which the opponent's ball lies between that of player and the hole 2 vb trans a (of opponent's ball) To lie between (ball of player) and the hole, b (of player) to leave ball between that of (opponent) and the hole styptic, adj & n. [1 stíptik, 2 stíptik], fr Fr, fr Lat stypticus, fr Gk stíptikós, 'astringent, styptic', op Gk stíptein, 'to contract, to be astringent', stíptēs, 'contraction', fr base stíu-, stíu & 'to condense', parallel w stíhū* & 'to stand', see under stand (I), state (I) 1 adj Tending to check bleeding, esp by contraction of blood vessels 2 n Styptic substances styrax, n. [1 stíraks, 2 stídíraks], fr Lat styrax, fr Gk styrax, 'styrax', Semitic loanword 1 Genus of trees and shrubs yielding a fragrant resin. 2 Gum obtained from this plant Styx, n. [1 stíks; 2 stíks] Lat Styx, fr Gk Stíx, 'Styx', see Stygian (Gk mythol) River of the infernal regions, across which the shades of the departed had to pass Phr to cross the Styx, to die Suabian. See Swabian

suability, n. [1 súabílitá, 2 súabílitá] See next word & -bility State of being suable suable, adj [1 súabí, 2 súabí] sue & -able Capable of being, liable to be, sued suasion, n. [1 súázshun, 2 súeí:zən] Lat suasivōnem, 'advice, persuasion', fr suasum, P.P type of suādere, 'to advise, recommend, persuade', q v under suave Act of persuading, persuasion, now chiefly in Phr moral suasion, as opposed to force suasive, adj [1 súeíav, 2 súeíav] See prec. & -ive Persuasive, tending to persuade suave, adj [1 súav, 2 súeíav], fr Fr, fr Lat suavis, 'sweet, pleasant agreeable', earlier súadu-*, op Lat suādere, 'to recommend, persuade', fr suādu-, 'pleasant to the taste' Gk hēdus, see hedonic, O.E. swele, 'sweet', see sweet (I) 1 Possessing, exhibiting a smooth, ingratiating courtesy, bland, urbane gracious, affable suave manners, smile & 2 (of wine &c) Smooth, reverse of acid or astringent suavely, adv Prec & -ly In a suave manner suavity, n. [1 súávití, 2 súávití], fr Lat suavitate, 'sweetness', suave & -ity Quality of being suave, urbanity sub (I), n. [1 sub, 2 sab] Abbr fr subaltern. (colloq) Subaltern. Not in military usage sub (II), prep Lat sub, suba, 'under', op Lat super 'above', proli orig, 'from below, upwards', see aupar According to Walde fr base upo* & 'to, towards, up to' &c, see up w pref ks*, see sub- In Latin Phrs, e.g. sub iudice, under consideration, awaiting decision, sub rosa, in secret, in confidence, privately, sub voce, under the word specified sub- pref Lat sub, (suba), (I) expressing spatial relations below, under, beneath near, at the foot of (2) expressing relations of time towards about, just after A. In compounds derived fr Lat, sub- has the following senses 1 a Under, as in submergere, 'to dip under', hence, b inferiority, as in subalternation, c diminution, subdure, 'to laugh slightly, smile', d secrete, as in subornare, 'to instigate secretly, suborn', e substitution, succedere, 'to come into another's place' 2 a From below, up, suscipere, 'to take up', b assistance, succurrere, 'to run up (in order to help), to succour' 3 Propinquity, immediate succession, subsequi, 'to follow closely' Sub- remains unaltered in form before vowels, & b, d, j, l, n, s, t, v, before c, f, g, p, r, the b is usually assimilated, thus sub- appears as suc-, suf-, sug &c, before m it appears sometimes as sum-, sometimes as sub It is assumed by Brugmann that the orig form was sup, & the meaning, in Aryan, was 'from below, upwards, towards', hence he connects Lat super, 'above', see super-, op also Gk hupō, 'under', & huper, 'over', see hypo- & hyper- The Lat sup* is assumed to be formed fr s(e)l-*, 'from', see ex- (I), & upo*, for wh op Sert upa, 'towards, on', & the group of Gmo words wh includes Goth sup, 'upwards', & O.E. upp, see up B Sub, as living pref in Engl, same as prec in origin, having the following senses 1 Below, lower in degree or intensity subconscious, subnormal, subhuman, less than human &c 2 Situated below, underneath subsoil, substratum 3 Inferior in size, importance, rank &c subdivision, subarea, subcommittee 4 Approaching, bordering on, partly, to some extent, slightly (uu anal. of genuine Lat subacidus) subtropical, subfebrile &c subabdominal, adj [1 súabábdómínal, 2 súabábdómínal] Situated beneath the abdomen subacid, adj [1 súabáid, 2 súabáid] Lat subacidus, 'sourish', sub- & acid (I) 1 Moderately acid, tending to sourness 2 (fig) Somewhat acid or hitting subacidity, n. [1 súabásídítí, 2 súabásídítí] Prec & -ity Quality of being subacid subacute, adj [1 súabakút, 2 súabakút] Moderately acute, less acute than normal subadar, subadar, n. [1 súábádar, 2 súábáda] Hind, fr Pers subadar, 'one holding a province', fr subah, 'province', & dār, 'master' Native officer commanding a company in a native regiment in India subaerial, adj [1 súabáral, 2 súabáral] Existing, formed, on the surface of the earth, contrasted with subterranean, aerial subaerialist, n. [1 enháralíst, 2 sahearalíst] Prec & -ist One who attributes geological formations to changes produced subaerially subaerially, adv [1 súabáral, 2 súabáral] See prec & -ly On the surface of the ground subagency, n. [1 súabájensí, 2 súabédžansí] Office or position of a subagent subagent, n. [1 súabájent, 2 sahevdžent] Person acting as representative of or employed by an agent subalpine, adj [1 súabálpín, 2 súabálpín] (bot, zool) Of, pertaining to, part of mountainous district between Alpine region and timber line subaltern, n. & adj [1 súáaltern, 2 súáaltern] fr Fr subalterne, fr Med. Lat subalternus, sub- & alternus, 'one after the other', see alternate (I) 1 n. Any commissioned officer in the army below rank of captain. 2 adj Of less importance, subordinate, of lesser rank, inferior, (esp log) specific, individual, particular, opposed to universal, general subandean, adj [1 súándéfan, 2 sahándéfan] Pertaining to, characteristic of, the lower slopes of the Andes mountains subapennine, adj [1 subapennín, 2 súabáspínán] Pertaining to characteristic of, the lower slopes of the Apennines subapostolic, adj [1 súabapostolík, 2 sahepostolík] Of, pertaining to, the period immediately following that of the Apostles subaquatic, adj [1 súabakwátík, 2 sahekwatík] Partially aquatic subaqueous, adj [1 súabákweús, 2 sahekweús] Existing, formed, intended for use, under water subarctic, adj [1 súabárktík, 2 súabáktík] Of, pertaining to, a region bordering on the Arctic subastral, adj [1 súabástral, 2 súabástral] Situated, existing, below the stars, terrestrial subaudition, n. [1 súabawdíshun, 2 sabádjən], fr L. Lat subaudire (um), P.P type of subaudire, 'to understand, supply, a word omitted', sub- & audition. Mental process of supplying, understanding, something implied, but not expressed in words subaural, adj [1 súabúral, 2 sabóral] Situated below the ear subaxillary, adj [1 subaksílarí, 2 súabáksílarí] a Situated below the armpit, b (bot) growing beneath the axil. sub-base, n. [1 súb báis, 2 súab báis] (archit) Lowest division of a base divided horizontally. subcaudal, adj [1 súbakawdí, 2 sabkóldí] Situated beneath or near the tail subcentral, adj [1 súbáséntral, 2 saheéntral] Situated near or beneath the centre subcerebral, adj [1 súbásébral, 2 súabéébral] Of, pertaining to, originating in, part of the body or nervous system below the brain subclass, n. [1 súbkláhs, 2 súabklás] (biol) Subdivision of a class subclavian, adj [1 súbklávan, 2 súabklé:ván] Situated beneath the clavicle subclavicular, adj [1 súbklavíkúlar, 2 sabklavíkúlar] Subclavian subcommittee n. [1 súbknómítí, 2 súabkámítí] Committee formed as adjunct to general committee for specific purpose subconcave, adj [1 súhkonkáv, 2 súabkónkev] Slightly concave subconical, adj [1 súbkoníkí, 2 sabkóníkí] Nearly conical, tapering slightly subconscious, adj [1 súbkonshus, 2 sabkónshas] Present in the consciousness, and capable of being the subject of, or involving, mental activity but not fully perceived and recognized by the mind, or completely and clearly present to the attention subconscious ideas, reasoning subconsciously, adv Prec & -ly In a subconscious manner subconsciousness n. See prec & -ness That region of the mind, the margin of consciousness, which lies outside attention and introspection. subcontiguous, adj [1 súhkontígúus, 2 súbkontígúus] Nearly, but not quite, touching subcontinent, n. [1 súbkontínent, 2 sahkónánt] Mass of land, large enough to be regarded as a separate continent, but not usually so called subcontract n. [1 súhkontrákt, 2 sabkóntrákt] Contract subordinate to or forming part of a larger contract subcontrariety n. [1 súbkontrarietá, 2 sahkóntrarietá] (log) Relation of subcontraries subcontrary, adj & n. [1 súbkontrari, 2 sabkóntrari] 1 adj Contrary in some, though not all, respects (esp in log and geom) 2 n (log) A subcontrary proposition, e.g. some Englishmen are fair—some Englishmen are dark, are subcontraries, but all Englishmen are dark—no Englishmen are dark are contraries subconvex, adj [1 súhkonvéks, 2 súabkónvéks] Slightly convex subcornuous, adj [1 súbkonrúus, 2 súabkónrúus] 1 Somewhat horny 2 Situated beneath horn or horny growth, nail &c subcostal, adj [1 súbkoostí, 2 sabkóostí] Situated behind or between the ribs subcranial, adj [1 súbkrámal, 2 súabkrémal] Situated beneath the cranium. subcrystalline, adj [1 súbkrístalín, 2 sabkrístalín] Only partially crystallized. subcutaneous, adj [1 súbkyúténeús, 2 súabkúténeús] Existing, applied, beneath the skin. subcutaneously, adv Prec & -ly Beneath the skin. subcuticular, adj [1 súbkyútíkúlar, 2 sabkyútíkúlar] Situated beneath the cuticle.

subcylindrical, adj [1 súbailíndrík], 2. súb-sílíndrík] Nearly cylindrical subdeacon, n [1 súbddékun, 2 sábdíkan] Minister next below deacon in rank, in Roman Catholic and Eastern Churches subdean, n [1 súbddén, 2 sábdín] Assistant or deputy of a dean subdecuple, adj [1 súbddékúpl, 2 sábdékúpl] In the ratio of 1 to 10 subdelirium, n [1 súbddelíríum, 2 sábdelíríam] Condition bordering on delirium, intermittent delirium subdermal, adj [1 súbddérmal, 2 sábdérmal] Beneath the skin subdiacoonate, n [1 súbddiakúnat, 2 sábdaiakúnat] Rank or office, tenure of the office, of subdeacon subdititious, adj [1 súbddítíshus, 2 sábdítíshas], fr Lat subditivus, 'substituted, spurious', fr PP type of subdere, 'to place under, to substitute', fr sub- & dare, 'to give', q v under date (1) Secretly substituted, insinuated, foisted on in place of something else subdivide, vb trans & intrans [1 súbddívíd, 2 sábdívíd], fr L Lat subdividere, 'to subdivide' sub- & divide (1) 1 trans To divide still further a part resulting from a previous division 2 intrans To become subdivided, separated into lesser or subordinate parts subdivisible, adj [1 súbddívízíbl, 2 sábdívízíbl] Capable of being subdivided subdivision, n [1 súbddívízíhun, 2 sábdívízíhun] 1 Act of subdividing, state of being subdivided 2 Part, section, area, produced by subdividing subdominant, n [1 súbddómnant, 2 sábdímínant] (mus) Fourth note of the scale subdorsal, adj [1 súbddórsal, 2 sábdórsal] Situated nearly on or near the back subdoubtful, adj [1 súbddóbtl, 2 sábdóbtl] In the ratio of 1 to 2 subduable, adj [1 súbddúabl, 2 sábdjúabl] subdue & -able Capable of being subdued subdual, n [1 súbddúal, 2 sábdjúal] subdue & -al Act of subduing, state of being subdued subdue, vb trans [1 súbddú, 2 sábdjú], fr Lat subducere, 'to draw away, to withdraw', fr sub- & ducere, 'to lead', see duke To take away, remove, withdraw, draw off subduct, vb trans [1 súbddúkt, 2 sábdjúkt], fr Lat subducere, PP type of subducere, 'to draw away', see proo To subduce subdue, vb trans [1 súbddú, 2 sábdjú] ME seduce, 'to subdue', later subduce, through influence of sub-, fr O Fr seducere, 'to seduce', fr Lat subducere, 'to draw off, draw away', see subdue, the Engl word has the sense of Lat subdere, 'to place under', see subdititious 1 To conquer, repress, bring into subjection, gain authority over by force or effort to subdue one's enemies, one's passions &c 2 To reduce, lessen, force, intensity, vigour of, diminish effect of, limit power of subdued light, voices, spirit subduedness, n [1 súbddúdnas, 2 sábdjúdnas], fr PP of sub- & -ness State or quality of being subdued subduple, adj [1 súbddúpl, 2 sábdjúpl] In the ratio of 1 to 2, subdouble subduplicate, adj [1 súbddúplikat, 2 sábdjúplikat] (math, of ratio) Expressed by the square root sub-edit, vb trans [1 súbédít, 2 sábdédít] To act as sub editor of, prepare (copy &c), for the press as assistant of editor sub-editor, n [1 súbédítór, 2 sábdédítór] Assistant editor subepidermal, adj [1 súbépídermal, 2 sábépidírmal] Situated beneath the epidermis subequal, adj [1 súbékwal, 2 sábkíwal] 1 Nearly equal, approximating in value & 2 (of numbers in a group) Of such value that no one number equals the sum of the rest subequilateral, adj [1 súbékíwílatéral, 2 sábkíwílatéral] Nearly equilateral suberect, adj [1 súbérékt, 2 sábérfékt] Nearly upright, tending to become erect subereous, adj [1 súbérous, 2 s(j)úbéríus], fr Lat subereus, 'of cork, of the cork tree', fr siber, 'cork, cork tree', etymol doubtful, & -ous Of, pertaining to, like, cork suberic, adj [1 súbérík, 2 s(j)úbérík], fr Lat siber, 'cork', see proo & -ic Of, pertaining to, obtained from, cork suberin, n [1 súbérín, 2 s(j)úbérín], see proo & -in Waxy substance contained in cork tissue suberose, adj [1 súbérús, 2 s(j)úbérús], fr Lat siber, 'cork', see subereous, & -ose Suberous subfamily, n [1 súbáfámíh, 2 sábfámíh] (bot, zool &c) Division of a family, consisting of a genus or group of genera subfebrile, adj [1 súbfébríl, 2 sábfíbrál] Slightly or intermittently febrile subflavour, n [1 súbflávr, 2 sábfíva] Secondary or underlying flavour subfusc, adj [1 súbfusk, 2 sábfíak], fr next word Subfuscous subfuscous, adj [1 súbfískus, 2 sábfíakus], fr Lat sub, subfuscus, 'brownish, dusky', fr sub- & fuscus, 'dusky, tawny', see fuscon Dull or dark in colour subgelatinous, adj [1 súbjélatínus, 2 sábdjélatínas] Somewhat gelatinous in character subgeneric, adj [1 súbjénérík, 2 sábdjénérík] Pertaining to a subgenus subgenus, n [1 súbjénus, 2 sábdjénas] (bot, zool &c) Division of a genus, consisting of one or more species subglacial, adj [1 súbglásíal, 2 sábgléásiál] 1 Existing, formed, under a glacier 2 (of climate &c) Partially glacial, verging on glacial conditions subglobular, adj [1 súbglóbúlar, 2 sábglobúlar] Nearly globular subheading, n [1 súbhédíng, 2 sábhédíng] Heading of minor division of newspaper article &c subhepatic, adj [1 súbhépátík, 2 sábhépátík] Situated under the liver subhuman, adj [1 súbhúmán, 2 sábhjúmán] Less than, inferior to, human sub-image, n [1 súbímáig, 2 sábmáigou] (zool) Stage between pupa and imago in the development of some insects subinfundation, n [1 súbínfúddáshun, 2 sábsínfúddíshun] Grant of land by a vassal to a dependant subintestinal, adj [1 súbínstéshínal, 2 sábsínstéshínal] Situated beneath or near the intestines subjacent, adj [1 súbjásént, 2 sábdjéásént], fr Lat subjacent (em), Pres Part of subjacere, 'to lie under or near', fr sub- & jacere, 'to lie', see adjacent 1 Situated, lying, directly below, underlying 2 Situated below, at the foot subject (I), adj [1 súbjékt, 2 sábdjékt], fr Lat subjectum, PP type of sub(j)icere, 'to place or throw under, to submit, subject, to include, comprise, to subjoin, append', fr sub- & jacere, 'to throw', see facilitation & jet 1 Under authority, not a free agent, owing or giving obedience subject nations, States, a State subject to another, subject to the law 2 Having a tendency to, exposed, liable to subject to sudden changes of temperature, fits of depression &c 3 Subject to, conditional upon some other action or event a proposal subject to the approval of a higher authority subject (II), adv, fr proo Subject to, conditionally upon this can only be done subject to the consent of the King subject (III), n, fr Lat subjectus, 'an inferior, dependent', subjectum, grammatical subject, fr PP type of sub(j)icere, 'to place under, to submit, subject', see subject (I) 1 Person owing, or giving, allegiance to a sovereign, or a sovereign State we in England are all the subjects of His Majesty King George 2 a That which is treated or dealt with in specific way, person or object submitted to treatment, or process a hypnotic subject, to make a person the subject of an experiment, specif b dead body for anatomical dissection &c, c person liable to specific disease, condition &c a hysterical, gouty, subject 3 a That which is dealt with in writing, painting &c, matter written or spoken of, theme, leading figure, idea &c, in literary or artistic composition the subject of a story, play, to choose the subject of a dissertation, a painter with a leaning to mythological subjects, a subject for discussion, b (mus) short musical phrase, sentence, theme upon which a composition is founded 4 Cause, occasion, originating circumstance a subject for rejoicing &c 5 (gram) The nominative of a sentence, word or group of words in a sentence representing the person or thing about which something is predicated 6 (log) That part of a proposition corresponding to the subject of a grammatical sentence, the person or thing concerning which a statement is made, or judgement expressed 7 (philos) a The substance of anything, the thing in itself, substantive reality, as opposed to its qualities and attributes, that of which an attribute is affirmed, or in which it inheres, b the Ego, the self, the mind which thinks subject (IV), vb trans [1 súbjékt, 2 sábdjékt], fr subject (I) 1 To bring under authority, make subject, subordinate, subdue to subject a nation to one's rule 2 a To cause to undergo, submit, to cause to be affected by some action, treatment, process to subject a person to cross examination, to subject an object to extreme pressure, to subject a statement to criticism, b to render liable to subject oneself to ridicule, insult &c 3 To present, submit, place before to subject one's plans to another's consideration subject-heading, n Reference heading to a subject in a catalogue, index &c subjectation, n [1 súbjéshún, 2 sábdjéshun] subject (IV) & -ion Act of subjecting, state of being subjected, dependence, subordination she was in a state of complete subjectation to her husband's authority subjective (I), adj [1 súbjéktív, 2 sábdjéktív], fr Lat subjectivus, 'pertaining to the subject of a proposition', subject (I) & -ive 1 (philos) Arising from, originating in, the mind itself, not produced by something external to one's own mind, opposed to objective subjective impressions, many believe the phenomena of spiritualism to be purely subjective 2 (gram) Pertaining to the grammatical subject, subjective case, the nominative subjective (II), n, fr proo Subjective case, nominative subjectively, adv subjective (I) & -ly (philos) In a subjective manner, from a subjective point of view subjectiveness, n See proo & -ness State, quality, of being subjective subjectivism, n [1 súbjéktívizm, 2 sábdjéktívízm] subjective (I) & -ism Doctrine that all knowledge is the result of subjective experience, and that there is no objective test of truth subjectivist, n [1 súbjéktívíst, 2 sábdjéktívíst] subjective (I) & -ist Adherent of subjectivism subjectivity, n [1 súbjéktívítá, 2 sábdjéktívítá] subjective (I) & -ity 1 Subjective quality or state 2 Doctrine that religious belief should be based upon subjective experience rather than upon external revelation subjectless, adj [1 súbjéktíles, 2 sábdjéktíles] subject (III) & -less Without a subject subject-matter, n Theme, that which is discussed or treated of subjoin, vb trans [1 súbjóm, 2 sábdjéshun], fr O Fr subjoindre, fr Lat subjungere, 'to append, affix', fr sub- & ungere, 'to join', see join To add (statement) to what has already been stated subjoint, n [1 subjōint, 2 sábdžōint]

Secondary joint, division of limb of animal &c subjoinable, adj [1 súbjōogabl, 2 sábdžōogabl], fr Lat subjūgare, 'to subjugate', see next word, & -able Capable of being subjugated subjugate, vb trans [1 súbjōogāt, 2 sábdžōogāt], fr Lat subjūgāre, P P type of subjūgare, 'to subjugate', fr sub- & jūgum, 'yoke', see jūgate To bring under a yoke, force under control, subdue, bring into subjection subjugation, n [1 súbjōogāšun, 2 sábdžōogāšun] Preo & -ion Act of subjugating, state of being subjugated subjugator, n [1 súbjōogātūr, 2 sábdžōogātūr] See preo & -or One who subjugates, conqueror subjunctive, adj & n [1 súbjūngktiv, 2 sábdžūngktiv], fr Lat subjunctivus, 'connecting, subjunctive', fr subjunct (um), P P type of subjungere, 'to append, subjoin, subordinate', see subjoin, & -ive 1 adj (gram) Subjunctive mood, that mood of a verb expressing an action or state of existence as hypothetical, contingent on something else, conditional, virtually obs in English 2 n Subjunctive mood subjunctively, adv Preo & -ly By means of, as, a subjunctive subkingdom, n [1 sábkīngdom, 2 sábkīngdōm] (biol) Subdivision of a kingdom sublanceolate, adj [1 súblánsōolāt, 2 sáblánsōolāt] (bot) Somewhat lanceolate sublapsarian, adj & n [1 súblápsarian, 2 sáblápsarian], fr sub- & Lat lapsus, 'act of falling', see lapse (1), & -arian 1 adj Pertaining to the Calvinist doctrine that the Fall of man was permitted, but not fore-determined, by God 2 n Person believing in this doctrine sublapsarianism, n [1 súblápsarianizm, 2 sáblápsarianizm] Preo & -ism The doctrine of the sublapsarians sublate, vb trans [1 súblāt, 2 sáblēt], fr sub- & Lat lat (um), P P type of latere, 'to carry', see ablation & tolerate (log) To deny, refuse to regard as fact, opposed to posit sublation, n [1 súblāšun, 2 sáblēšun] Preo & -ion (log) Act of subulating sublease (1), n [1 súblēs, 2 sáblūs] Lease granted by tenant or lessee to another person sublease (2), vb trans [1 súblēs, 2 sáblūs] To grant a sublease of sublessee, n [1 súblēsē, 2 sáblēsē] Person holding a sublease sublessor, n [1 súblēsōr, 2 sáblēsōr] Person granting a sublease sublet, vb trans & intrans [1 súblēt, 2 sáblēt] To let to another, a house, land &c, of which one is oneself a tenant sublibrarian, n [1 súblibrarian, 2 súblibrarian] Person acting as assistant to a librarian sublieutenant, n [1 súblēftēnant, 2 sáblēftēnant] Junior officer in the Navy holding rank next below that of a lieutenant sublimate (1), vb trans [1 súblimāt, 2 sáblimēt], fr Lat sublimare, P P of sublimare, 'to lift up', fr sublimis, 'high, lofty, elevated', see sublime (1), limax 1 (fig) To refine, etherealize, elevate 2 (chem) To purify by heating from solid to vaporous state and subsequently restoring solidity sublimato (2), adj & n [1 súblimat, 2 sáblimat], fr Lat sublimatus, see preo 1 adj (chem) Refined by sublimation 2 n Sublimated substance sublimation, n [1 súblimāšun, 2 sáblimāšun] sublimato (1) & -ion Act of sublimating, state of being sublimated sublimo (2), adj [1 súblīm, 2 sáblīm] fr Lat sublimis 'high, lofty, elevated, exalted', prob fr sub- & limen, 'threshold, limit', see limen 1 Characterized by extreme nobility and grandeur, majestic, grandiose, laprovial exalted, awe-inspiring sublime beauty, strength, nature, self sacrifice 2 'Lofty, haughty, Olympian, superluous, as though raised above ordinary human qualities sublime insolence, contempt, & hence, showing, evincing, an indifference arising from a sense of superiority sublime ignorance, self conceit 3 (anat) Situated near the surface sublime nerves

sublime (2), n, fr preo The sublime, a sublime thing or quality, that which inspires a sense of awe and reverence and impresses by virtue of its vastness, nobility, majesty sublime (3), vb trans & intrans, fr Mod Lat sublimare, 'to sublimate' fr Lat sublimare, 'to exalt', see sublimato (1) 1 trans (lit & fig) To sublimate 2 intrans (lit & fig) To refine, purify, by, or as by, sublimation sublimely, adv [1 súblīmī, 2 sáblīmī] sublime (1) & -ly In a sublime manner, to a sublime degree

Sublimis Porte, n [1 súblīm pōrt, 2 sáblīm pōrt] Fr, translating Turkish name of the Government central office See Porte subliminal, adj [1 súblīmīnāl, 2 sáblīmīnāl], fr sub- & liminal, fr Lat limen, 'stem of limen', 'threshold', see limen, & -al (psychol) Present in the consciousness, but not consciously apprehended, subliminal self, the subconscious mind, regarded as a domain of the individual's personality distinct from, and unrecognized by, the ordinary waking consciousness sublimity, n [1 súblīmītī, 2 sáblīmītī], fr Lat sublimitatem, 'loftiness, elevation', sublime (1) & -ity State or quality of being sublime, sublime character sublingual, adj [1 súblīngwāl, 2 sáblīngwāl] Situated, existing, below the tongue sublittoral, adj [1 súblītērāl, 2 sáblītērāl] (zool) Existing near the shore line sublunar (1), adj [1 súblōnār(ī), 2 sáblōnār(ī)] (poet) Beneath the moon, belonging to this world, terrestrial, mundane submammary, adj [1 súbmāmārī, 2 sábmāmārī] Situated below the mammas submarine, adj & n [1 súbmārēn, 2 sábmārēn] 1 adj Existing, living, designed for use, below the surface of the sea submarine plants, submarine vessel &c, one capable of being sunk and moved about below the surface of the sea, used esp in war, for firing torpedoes &c 2 n Submarine vessel submaster, n [1 súbmāstēr, 2 sábmāstēr] Second master in certain schools submaxillary, adj [1 súbmākšīlārī, 2 sábmākšīlārī] Situated under the lower jaw submembranous, adj [1 súbmēmbṛānūs, 2 sábmēmbṛānūs] Somewhat membranous in character submental, adj [1 súbmēntī, 2 sábmēntī] Situated below the chin submerge, vb trans & intrans [1 súbmērg, 2 sábmērg], fr Lat sub, summere, 'to plunge under, sink, overwhelm', fr sub- & mergere, 'to dip, plunge', see emerge 1 trans To cause to plunge, dip, below surface of water, to cover with water or other liquid submerged, adj [1 súbmērgd, 2 sábmērgd] Phr the submerged tenth, completely destitute, hopelessly poor class 2 intrans To go sink beneath the surface of water, esp of submarines submergence, n [1 súbmērgēns, 2 sábmērgēns] Preo & -ence Act or process of submerging, state of being submerged submergible, adj [1 súbmērgībīl, 2 sábmērgībīl] (rare) Capable of being submerged submerso (2), vb trans [1 súbmērs, 2 sábmērs], fr Lat submersum, P P type of submergere, 'to plunge under, sink', see submerge To cause to sink under water, rare except in P P, (bot) see next word submerso (3), adj, fr Lat submersum, see preo Also submersed, (bot) growing under water submersible, adj [1 súbmērsībīl, 2 sábmērsībīl] Preo & -ible Capable of being submersed or submerged submersion, n [1 súbmērsiōn, 2 sábmērsiōn] submerse (1) & -ion Act or process of submerging, state of being submerged submetallic, adj [1 súbmētālīk, 2 sábmētālīk] Somewhat metallic in character submission, n [1 súbmīšun, 2 sábmīšun], fr Lat submit (um), P P type of submittere, 'to put or place below, to furnish, provide, to transfer, resign', see submit 1 Act or process of submitting, state of being submitted 2 Spirit of readiness to submit, resignation, surrender, acquiescence Phr with all due submission, with respect and humility submissive, adj [1 súbmīšiv, 2 sábmīšiv], fr Lat submitsum, see preo, & -ive Ready to submit, expressing submission, acquiescing, resigned, docile submissively, adv Preo & -ly In a submissive manner submissiveness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being submissive submit, vb trans & intrans [1 súbmīt, 2 sábmīt], fr Lat sub, mittere, 'to place, set, below, to furnish, provide, to transfer, resign, to reduce, moderate', fr sub- & mittere, 'to send, place', see missile A trans 1 (reflex) To yield, surrender, resign to submit oneself to another's authority 2 To present, place before person, tribunal &c for consideration, judgement &c to submit a scheme, case &c 3 To suggest, put forward, urge 1 submit, with all respect, that what you propose is contrary to the statutes B intrans To give in to authority, superior force &c, to yield, surrender, resign oneself, be submissive to refuse to submit tamely, to submit to control, specif, to submit to the Pope, the Church, to acknowledge the absolute supremacy of submontane, adj [1 súbmōntān, 2 sábmōntān] Situated, formed, at the foot of a mountain or mountain range submucous, adj [1 súbmúkus, 2 sábmúkus] Somewhat mucous in character submultiple, n [1 súbmúltīpl, 2 sábmúltīpl] Number contained in another an exact number of times, factor subnarcotic, adj [1 súbnarkótīk, 2 sábnarkótīk] Slightly narcotic subnasal, adj [1 súbnāzīl, 2 sábnāzīl] Situated beneath the nose subnatural, adj [1 súbnāšūrāl, 2 sábnāšūrāl] Less than natural, opposed to super natural subnormal, adj [1 súbnōrmīl, 2 sábnōrmīl] Below normal suboccipital, adj [1 súbōksīpītīl, 2 sábsōksīpītīl] Situated below the occiput suboceanic, adj [1 súbōšēānīk, 2 sábsōšēānīk] Situated beneath the surface of the ocean subocellate, adj [1 súbōsēlāt, 2 sábsōsēlāt] Somewhat ocellate in appearance suboctuple, adj [1 súbōktūpl, 2 sábsōktūpl] In the ratio of 1 to 8 subocular, adj [1 súbōkūlār, 2 sábsōkūlār] Situated beneath the eye suborbital, adj [1 súbōrbītīl, 2 sábsōrbītīl] Situated beneath the orbit of the eye suborder, n [1 súbōrder, 2 sábsōrder] (biol) Subdivision of an order subordinal, adj [1 súbōrdīnāl, 2 sábsōrdīnāl] Pertaining to, ranking as, a suborder subordinate (1), adj [1 súbōrdīnat, 2 sábsōrdīnat] fr sub- & Lat ordinatus, P P type of ordinare, 'to ordain, appoint' see ordain 1 Placed below, inferior in rank and importance, subject to the authority of another subordinate (2), adj [1 súbōrdīnat, 2 sábsōrdīnat] fr sub- & Lat ordinatus, P P type of ordinare, 'to ordain, appoint' see ordain 1 Placed below, inferior in rank and importance, subject to the authority of another subordinate (3), adj [1 súbōrdīnat, 2 sábsōrdīnat] fr sub- & Lat ordinatus, P P type of ordinare, 'to ordain, appoint' see ordain 1 Placed below, inferior in rank and importance, subject to the authority of another subordinate (4), adj [1 súbōrdīnat, 2 sábsōrdīnat] fr sub- & Lat ordinatus, P P type of ordinare, 'to ordain, appoint' see ordain 1 Placed below, inferior in rank and importance, subject to the authority of another

subordinate (5), adj [1 súbōrdīnat, 2 sábsōrdīnat] fr sub- & Lat ordinatus, P P type of ordinare, 'to ordain, appoint' see ordain 1 Placed below, inferior in rank and importance, subject to the authority of another control of, make subservient to to subordinate one's own interest to the public good, b to place in inferior, less important, position, regard as inferior it is sometimes necessary to subordinate an elderly official to one who is his junior in service subordinately, adv [1 subórdinath, 2 eob-ódinith] subordinate (I) & -ly In a subordinate manner subordination, n [1 subórdinashun, 2 eob-ódinshen] subordinate (III) & -ion Act of subordinating, state of being subordinated subordinationism, n [1 anbórdinashunizm, 2 eobódinshenizm] Preo & -ism Doctrine of the superiority of the first Person of the Trinity over the second and third subordinative, adj [1 subórdinativ, 2 eob-ódinativ] subordinate (I) & -ive Tending to, expressing, subordination a subordinative conjunction, one introducing a subordinate clause suborn, vb trans [1 suborn, 2 eobón], fr Fr suborner, fr Lat subornare, 'to provide, furnish, to instigate, incite secretly', fr sub- & ornare, 'to equip', see ornate 'To procure (a person) by bribery or other illicit means, to commit a crime, esp that of perjury subornation, n [1 subornashun, 2 eobónshen], fr Lat subornatum, PP type of subornare, 'to incite secretly', see preo, & -ion Act of suborning, state of being suborned subornal, adj [1 subóv, 2 eobóv] Nearly oval, somewhat egg shaped subovate, adj [1 subóvat, 2 eobóvat] Suboval subparietal, adj [1 subparietal, 2 eobparietal] Situated beneath the parietal bones subphrenic, adj [1 subfrónik, 2 eobfrénik] Situated beneath the diaphragm subpilose, adj [1 subpilós, 2 eobpailós] Somewhat hairy subpleural, adj [1 subplóral, 2 eobplural] Situated beneath the pleura subpoena, n & vb trans [1 subpéna, 2 eobpíná], fr first words of the document, Lat sub poena, 'under the penalty', see sub-, penal 1 n Writ summoning person to attend in court of justice 2 vb To summon by subpoena subpolar, adj [1 subpólar, 2 eobpólar] 1 Near the North or the South Pole 2 (astron) Situated directly beneath the celestial pole subprefect, n [1 subpréfekt, 2 eobprífekt] Official acting as assistant to prefect subprior, n [1 subpríor, 2 eobpríre] Official in religious house ranking next to prior subpyramidal, adj [1 subpirámídl, 2 eobpirámídl] Nearly pyramidal in shape subquadrante, adj [1 subkwódrat, 2 eobkwódrat] Nearly square subquadruple, adj [1 subkwódroopl, 2 eobkwódrupl] In the ratio of 1 to 4 subquintuple, adj [1 subkwintápl, 2 eobkwintápl] In the ratio of 1 to 5 subramose, adj [1 subrámos, 2 eobrámos] Slightly branching subrational, adj [1 subrásunal, 2 eobrásen] Nearly rational subrectangular, adj [1 subréktánggular, 2 eobréktánggula] Almost rectangular subrector, n [1 subréktor, 2 eobrékte] Rector's assistant or deputy subregion, n [1 subréjun, 2 eobridžan] Subdivision of a region, esp with reference to distribution of fauna or flora subreption, n [1 eubrépsun, 2 eobrépsen], fr Lat subreptum (em), 'theft', fr subreptum, PP type of subripere, 'to steal or snatch away', & -ion, fr sub- & ripere, 'to seize, snatch', see rapa (I) Obtaining of favour, property &c by fraudulent concealment, misrepresentation of fact subretinal, adj [1 eubrétnal, 2 eobrétn(e)] Situated beneath the retina subrhomboidal, adj [1 eubrombóídl, 2 eobrombóídl] Nearly rhomboidal in shape subrogation, n [1 subrogashun, 2 eobrogéi-[ən] (law) Substitution of one creditor for another subsacral, adj [1 shásákrál, 2 eobásákrál] Situated beneath the sacrum subscapular, adj [1 eobskápular, 2 eobskápulá] Situated beneath the scapula subscribe, vb trans & intrans [1 subskríb, 2 eobskríb], fr Lat subscribere, 'to write below, to sign, to agree to, approve of', fr sub- & scribere, 'to write', see scribe (I) A trans 1 To write (one's name &c) at end of document, as attestation &c 2 To sign one's name at end of (document &c), esp to indicate consent, attestation &c 3 To pay, guarantee to pay, contribute (sum of money) to fund &c 1 to subscribe money to charities B intrans 1 To signify one's agreement, approval, assent to subscribe to a proposal, opinion &c 2 To contribute, pay or engage to pay sum of money, as one of a group of contributors, to fund, for publication of book &c, for regular receipt of periodical &c 3 to subscribe to a fund, journal &c, to subscribe for a book subscriber, n [1 subskríber, 2 eobskríbsa] Preo & -er One who subscribes, specif a person who contributes, or undertakes to contribute, periodically, a specific sum for a specified purpose, b a person who undertakes to receive and pay for a publication appearing at stated intervals subscript, adj [1 subskrípt, 2 eobskrípt], fr Lat subscriptum (um), PP type of subscribere, 'to write below', see subscribe Itala subscript, (in Gk) a small note written below 4, 4, 4, expressing originally the second element of a diptetong subscription, n [1 subskrípsun, 2 eobskríp-ən], fr Lat subscriptionem (em), 'something written below, signature' &c, see preo & -ion 1 Act of subscribing, state of being subscribed 2 Signature to a document 3 A sum paid or subscribed at regular intervals for a particular cause or purpose, a contribution, b sum charged or paid for a periodical publication subsection, n [1 subsekshun, 2 eobsekshen] Division of a section subsellium, n [1 subshélium, 2 eobsheliam] Lat subsellium, 'bench, seat', fr sub- & sellia, 'seat', fr earlier sedlā*, op sedere, 'to sit', & see sedate, op further OE sell, 'seat', see settle (I) Low bench, ledge below a hinged seat, a misericord subsensibile, adj [1 subshénsíbl, 2 eobshénsíbl] Beyond the range of, not capable of being perceived by, the senses subseptuple, adj [1 subshéptúpl, 2 eobshéptúpl] In the ratio of 1 to 7 subsequence, n [1 subshékvens, 2 eobshékvens] See next word & -ence Condition of being subsequent subsequent, adj [1 subshékwent, 2 eobshékwent], fr Lat subsequentem, Pres Part of subsequor, 'I follow, exceed', fr sub- & sequor, 'I follow', see sequela 1 Following, occurring, appearing, at a later time, coming after subsequent events showed that I was right, subsequent to his death 2 Subsequent upon, following as a result, consequent upon 3 (geol) of stream) Forming a primary tributary to main stream of river system, and flowing in hollow formed by denudation.

subsequently, adv Preo & -ly At a subsequent time, later on, later subserous, adj [1 subshéras, 2 eobshéras] Somewhat serous in character subserve, vb trans [1 subshérv, 2 eobshérv], fr Lat subservire, 'to be subject to, serve', sub- & servire To promote, help on, be a useful adjunct to, to fulfil to subserves a useful purpose subservience, -cy, n [1 subshérvíens(i), 2 eobshérvíens(i)] See subservient & -once & -cy State of being subservient subservient, adj [1 subshérvíent, 2 eobshérvíent], fr Lat subservientem (em), Pres Part of subservire, 'to be subject to', see subserves 1 Obsequious, servile 2 Adapted to promote or forward, serving as means to an end, acting in subordination to, as ancillary to subserviently, adv Preo & -ly In a subservient manner subsessile, adj [1 subshésíl, 2 eobshésíl] Nearly sessile subsextuple, adj [1 subshéskstúpl, 2 eobshéskstúpl] In the ratio of 1 to 6 subside, vb intrans [1 subshéd, 2 eobshéd], fr Lat subsistere, 'to sit, sink, or settle down', fr sub- & sistere, 'to sit down', op Sort sidat, 'sit', fr base sīd*, redupl fr sed* &c, 'to sit', see sit, sedate 1 A To fall, pass, sink, to a lower level, to settle or sink down the floods have subsided, b (of ground) to collapse, cave in, sink, esp as result of undermining &c 2 To allow oneself to sink gradually to subside into a chair 3 To decrease in volume, intensity, vigour &c, abate, slacken, diminish the gale, one's fury fever &c subsides subsidence, n [1 subshédens, 2 eobshédans] Preo & -ence Process of subsiding subsidiarily, adv [1 subshédíarí, 2 eobshédíarí] Next word & -ly In an subsidiary manner subsidiary (I), adj [1 subshédíarí, 2 eobshédíarí], fr Lat subsidiarius, 'forming a reserve', fr subsidiarius, 'line of reserve, auxiliary troops, help, succour', see subsidy, & -ary 1 Serving as support or supplement, additional, auxiliary, esp in an inferior or subordinate position, secondary 2 Pertaining to, of the nature of, a subsidy subsidiary (II), n, fr preo (often pl) Persons or things serving as or giving supplementary aid or support, auxiliaries subsidize, vb trans [1 subshédíz, 2 eobshédíanz] See subsidy & -ize To give subsidy to, support by subsidy subsidy, n [1 subshédí, 2 eobshédí], fr Lat subsidium, 'reserve troops, support, help', fr subsistere, 'to be in reserve', fr sub- & sedere, 'to sit', see sedate, sit 1 Grant of public money to support or assist private industry or enterprise 2 (hist) Grant of money by Parliament to Sovereign for State needs subsist, vb intrans & trans [1 subshíst, 2 eobshíst], fr Lat subsistere, 'to stand still, to stop, halt, to remain', fr sub- & sistere, 'to stand', redupl form of base sīd* &c, 'to stand', see state & stand (I) 1 intrans a To remain in existence, be extant, continue in being a country where superstition still subsists, b to remain alive, sustain life we are unable to subsist without air and water 2 trans (rare) To provide food for, give sustenance to sustenance, n [1 subshístans, 2 eobshístans] Preo & -ence 1 Act of subsisting, state of being subsisted 2 Means of supporting life, that on which one subsists subsoil, n [1 subshóíl, 2 eobshóíl] Layer, stratum, of earth immediately below the top layer of the ground subspecies, n [1 subshépshéb, 2 eobshépshíz] A division of a species subspecific, adj [1 subshépshífík, 2 eobshépshífík] Characteristic of a subspecies subspherical, adj [1 subshéferík, 2 eobshéferík] Nearly spherical subspicuous, adj [1 subshéplús, 2 eobshéplóas] Somewhat spinous substage, n [1 eubstáj, 2 eobstáidž] Attachment below the stage of a microscope to hold diaphragm, mirror, condenser &c substance, n [1 subshástans, 2 eobshástans] Lat substantia, 'that of which a thing consists, material, property, fortune', fr substantia (em), Pres Part of substantiare, 'to stand firm' &c, see sub-, state (I), & -ce 1 (philos) The underlying permanent reality and cause of all outward phenomena, the subject, essence, reality of anything in which properties, accidents, attributes inhere 2 The essential, most important elements or components of anything, the true meaning, purport give me briefly the substance of his speech, though differently expressed, the two statements agree in substance 3 a The material of which a thing consists, a portion of solid matter, stuff soils consist of various chemical substances, b (1) solid character, firm consistency, body this fabric lacks substance, also (b) (in non material sense) intellectual or moral worth and value or content a piece of writing which lacks substance 4 Material possessions, means, resources, property a man of substance, to waste one's substance substantial, adj [1 substánsjal, 2 substénjal], fr Lat substantialis, 'of the essence or substance', fr substantia, 'substance', see prec. & -al 1 a Pertaining to, of the nature of, possessing, substance, material no mere apparition, but a substantial being, b solid, firm, stout a substantial building, a substantial meal, one that is solid, ample, satisfying 2 Considerable, weighty, important, valuable a substantial improvement, contribution, substantial additions 3 Pertaining to, expressing, containing, agreeable to, the pith, essential meaning, true import in substantial agreement, substantial compliance with the law 4 Possessing property, commanding resources, wealthy, well to do a substantial farmer substantialism, n [1 substánsjalizm, 2 substénjalizm] Prec & -ism Doctrine that a permanent substratum of reality, or substance, underlies all phenomena substantialist, n [1 substánsjalist, 2 substénjalist] substantial & -ist Adherent of substantialism substantiality, n [1 substánsjaliti, 2 substénjaliti] substantial & -ity State or quality of being substantial substantialize, vb trans [1 substánsjaliz, 2 substénjaliz] substantial & -ize To make substantial, give substance or reality to substantially, adv [1 substánsjal, 2 substénjal] substantial & -ly In a substantial manner, to a substantial degree substantiate, vb trans [1 substánsjalít, 2 substénjalít], fr Lat substantia, 'substance', see substance, & -ate To give substance or reality to, to prove, confirm, establish, to show to be true or genuine, give evidence of the truth of to substantiate a statement, claim &c substantiation, n [1 substánsjalishun, 2 substénjalishun] Prec & -ion Act of substantiating, state of being substantiated substantival, adj [1 substánsjalí, 2 substénjalí] substantive (II) & -al (gram) Pertaining to, of the nature of, a substantive substantivally, adv Prec & -ly As a substantive substantive (I), adj [1 substánsjal, 2 substénjal], fr Lat substantivus, 'self-existent', fr substantia, 'substance', see substance, & -ive 1 Existing independently, of individual importance, having distinct or real existence a substantive being, (mil) substantive rank, one which entitles the holder to full pay, or pension of that rank, contrasted with honorary or brevet rank a substantive major &c 2, (gram) a Expressing existence the verb 'to be' is the substantive verb b noun substantive, one which is the name of a specific object, idea &c substantive (II), n, fr prec Noun substantive substantively, adv substantive (I.) & -ly Substantivally substation, n [1 substáshun, 2 substénshun] Subsidiary or subordinate station subterranean, adj [1 substérneal, 2 substénshun] Situated below the surface substituto (I), n [1 substitút, 2 substítút], fr Lat substitutus (u.m), PP type of substituere, to put instead of, fr sub- & stituere, 'to place, put', see etatuto a Something put in the place of, used instead of, something else, b person taking the place of, acting, instead of, acting as deputy for, another substituto (II), vb. trans, fr Lat, see prec.

To put, use, in place of another person or thing to erase a word and substitute another substitution, n [1 substítúshun, 2 substítútshun], fr Lat substitutio, 'a putting in the place of another', prec & -ion. Act of substituting, state of being substituted substitutional, adj [1 substítúshunal, 2 substítútshunal] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, substitution, serving as substitute substitutionally, adv Prec & -ly As a substitute, by means of substitution substitutionary, adj [1 substítúshunari, 2 substítútshunari] substitution & -ary Substitutional substitutive, adj [1 substítútiv, 2 substítútív] substitute (II) & -ive Capable of being substituted, liable to substitution substratum, n [1 súbstrátum, 2 sástréstrém] a Lower stratum, underlying layer a substratum of rock, b (also in non material sense) underlying basis, foundation a substratum of fact, truth substructural, adj [1 súbstrúktúhural, 2 sástráktúshural] Next word & -al Pertaining to a substructure substructure, n [1 súbstrúktúhur, 2 sástráktúshur] Lower or basic structure, foundation lowest part of structure subsume, vb trans [1 súbsum, 2 sásum], fr sub- & Lat sumere, 'to take, lay hold of', see assume & assumption To classify, include, under, regard as belonging to, a specific category, to include in a specific class subsumption, n [1 súbsumpshun, 2 sásumpshun] sub- & -sumption 1 Act of subsuming, state of being subsumed 2 That which is subsumed, special instance &c classified under a general category subsumptive, adj [1 súbsumptív, 2 sásumptív] See prec & -ive Pertaining to, of the nature of, a subsumption subtemperate, adj [1 súbtemperat, 2 sátemperat] (of region, climate &c) Of, approaching, bordering on, the temperate zone, slightly colder than the temperate zone subtenancy, n [1 súbtenans, 2 sáhténans] Next word & -cy 1 a Act of holding property as a subtenant, b period, duration, of such holding subtenant, n [1 súbtenant, 2 sáhténant] Person who holds a lease from one who is himself a tenant subtend, vb trans [1 súbsténd, 2 sáhténd], fr Lat subtendere, 'to stretch underneath', fr sub- & tendere, 'to stretch', see tense (II) (geom, of side of triangle) To extend under, be opposite to subtense, n [1 súbsténs, 2 sáhténs] sub- & tense (II) (geom) Line subtending an arc or angle subter-, pref representing Lat subter, 'below, beneath', fr sub- & compar suff ter, cp inter- Lower, beneath, less than, e.g. subterhuman &c, contrasted with superhuman &c subterfuge, n, [1 súbterfú, 2 sáhtífú], fr L Lat subterfugium, 'subterfuge', fr subterfugere, 'to depart secretly, to evade, avoid', fr subter- & fugere, 'to flee', see fugitive An artifice, means of evasion, disingenuous pretext, prevarication, sophistry, equivocation subterminal, adj [1 súbstérninal, 2 sáhtérninal] Approaching, near, the end subterposition, n [1 súbterpóshun, 2 sáhtérpóshun] State of being below, underneath, some substance or thing subterranean subterraneous, adj [1 súbstérnean, 2 sáhtérnean], fr Lat subterraneus, 'underground', fr sub- & terra & -aneous & -an Situated existing underground a subterranean dwelling, subterranean pre.

subterraneously, adv [1 súbstérneali, 2 sáhtérneali] See prec & -ly Beneath the surface of the earth underground subterrestrial, adj [1 súbstértrial, 2 sáhtértrial] Subterranean, underground subthoracic, adj [1 súbthórak, 2 sáhtérak] Situated under the thorax.

subtil(e), adj [1 sútil, 2 sátil] Archaic spelling of subtle subtilization, n [1 stútilizashun, 2 sátilizashun] Next word & -ation Act of subtilizing, state of being subtilized subtilize, vb trans & intrans [1 stútiliz, 2 sátiliz] subtil(e) & -ize 1 trans a To make subtle, refined, ethereal, b to make subtle distinctions in (thought &c) 2 intrans To make subtle distinctions subtlety, n [1 sútili, 2 sátili], fr Lat subtilitas, 'fineness, acuteness, simplicity', subtil(e) & -ity Archaic for subtlety subtile, n [1 sútili, 2 sátili] Secondary, additional, title of book &c subtle, also (archaic) subtil(e), adj [1 sútil, 2 sátil], fr Lat subtilis, 'fine, thin, delicate, subtle, clear, simple', earlier subleziha*, 'finely woven', fr sub- & lez*, stem of texere, 'to weave', see textile, cp Lat tela, 'web', fr tezlā*, see tela 1 Refined, highly refined, delicate, elusive, undefinable; a subtle delight 2 a (of the mind and its operations) Keen, penetrating, nicely critical and discriminating, b (in bad sense) crafty, designing, underhand 3 Possessing, exhibiting, delicacy of touch and exquisite skill in craftsmanship, deft, highly accomplished a subtle artist, a subtle bit of work subtlety, n [1 sútili, 2 sátili] Prec & -ty (I) 1 State or quality of being subtle (in various senses of the adj) 2 Something that is subtle, esp nice distinction, over refined point or argument, a quibble, a splitting of hairs subtly, adv [1 sútili, 2 sátili] subtle & -ly In a subtle manner subtonic, n [1 súbstónik, 2 sáhtónik] (mus) Seventh note of the scale subtract, vb trans [1 súbstrákt, 2 sáhtérákt], fr Lat subtrahere, PP type of subtrahere, 'to draw off, carry away, withdraw', fr sub- & trahere, 'to carry, draw', see tract (I) To take away (a part, amount, quantity) from another amount or number, to lessen an amount or number by to subtract 2 from 4 subtraction, n [1 súbstráktshun, 2 sáhtéráktshun] Prec & -ion Act of subtracting, speed, (math) process of taking away a number from another number subtractive, adj [1 súbstráktív, 2 sáhtéráktív] subtract & -ive Tending, having the power, to subtract subtrahend, n [1 súbtrahend, 2 sáhtérhend], fr Lat subtrahendum, gerundive of subtrahere, 'to remove', see subtract (arith &c) Amount, number, to be subtracted subtransparent, adj [1 súbtránsparént, 2 sáhtéránsparént] Almost transparent subtriangular, adj [1 súbtráánggúlar, 2 sáhtéráánggúlar] Nearly triangular in shape subtribe, n [1 súbtrib, 2 sáhterib] A subdivision of a tribe subtriple, adj [1 súbtripli, 2 sáhteripli] In the ratio of 1 to 3 subtriplicate, adj [1 súbtripliket, 2 sáhtértripliket] (of ratio) Expressed by cube roots subtropical, adj [1 súbtrópikl, 2 sáhtértrópikl] Verging on the tropical, slightly colder than tropical region &c, intermediate between temperate and tropical subulate, adj [1 súbúlet, 2 sáhtúlet], fr Lat subula, 'awl', cp O Slav šilo, 'awl', O H G snula, 'awl, needle', cp further Lat severe, 'to sow', & see suture (I) (zool, bot) Slender and pointed, awl shaped.

subuliform, adj [1 súbúliform, 2 sáhtúliúliform], fr Lat subula, 'awl', see prec, & -i- & -form Awl shaped.

subungulate, adj [1 súbúnggúlat, 2 sáhtúnggúlat] (zool) With hoof divided into digits suburb, n [1 súbúrb, 2 sáhtúrb], fr Lat suburbium, 'suburb', fr sub- & urb, stem of urbs, 'city', see urban. Part of town lying on its outskirts, residential area outside boundaries of a town, (often pl) to live in the suburbs &c suburban, adj [1 súbúrbán, 2 sáhtúrbán], fr Lat suburbanus, 'near the city', prec &

-an Pertaining to, situated in, living in, a suburb, characteristic of a suburb or of the inhabitants of a suburb, often (in derogatory sense), prejudiced, limited in intellectual outlook, having the good qualities neither of the town, nor of the country subursine, adj [1 subúrshin, 2 subúrshin] Somewhat urino in character or appearance subvention, n [1 subvénshun, 2 subvénshun], fr Lat subventio (em), 'assistance', fr sub- (um), P P type of subvenire, 'to come to the aid of', fr sub- & venire, 'to come', see venue, & -ion Grant of money, esp one made by a government, or public body, in support of industry, institution, enterprise &c, a subsidy subversion, n [1 subvérshun, 2 subvérshun], fr Lat subversio (em), 'overthrow', fr sub- (um), P P type of subvertere, 'to overthrow', see subvert, & -ion Act of subverting, state of being subverted subversive, adj [1 subvérshiv, 2 subvérshiv], fr Lat subversus (um), see prec & -ive. Tending to subvert, destructive subvert, vb trans [1 subvért, 2 subvért], fr Lat subvertere, 'to overthrow, destroy, run', fr sub- & vertere, 'to turn', see version To destroy, overthrow, bring to ruin subvertebral, adj [1 subvértébral, 2 subvértébral] Situated under the vertebrae subvertical, adj [1 subvértikl, 2 subvértikl] Nearly vertical subvitreous, adj [1 subvítreus, 2 subvítreus] Somewhat glassy subway, n [1 subwá, 2 subwá] A road, path, passage, under another road, or under railway lines &c sub-, pref Form of sub- used in compounds before c succades, n pl [1 sukádz, 2 sukádz], fr Lat succus, succus, 'juice, sap', op Lat sugere, O E sican, 'to suck', see suck (I), & -ade (commerce) Candied fruits succedaneous, adj [1 sukseádnous, 2 sukseádnous], fr Lat succedaneus, 'following, supplying place of, substituted for, something', fr succedere, 'to follow', see succeed, & -aneous Of, pertaining to, serving as, a succedaneum succedaneum, n [1 sukseádnoum, 2 sukseádnoum] Lat succedaneum, neut form of succedaneus, see prec Something used, serving, acting, in place of another, substitute succeed, vb trans & intrans [1 enkéed, 2 enkéed], fr Lat succedere, 'to go under or from under, to follow in space or time, to be successful, prosper', fr suc- & edere, 'to go', see cede & cease (I) A trans 1 To follow, come, occur, appear after, contrasted with precede night succeeds day, the storm was succeeded by calm, one evening event succeeded another, as fast as one man was shot down he was succeeded by another 2 To follow (a person) in an office, rank, employment &c Aquith succeeded Campbell Bannerman as Premier, b specif, to follow as heir, obtain property, honours, rank, office of, as lawful hereditary successor to the late peer left none to succeed him, King George V succeeded his father King Edward 3 (rare, poet) to grant success to, cause to succeed or prosper 'Pallas from the skies Accords their vow, succeeds their enterprise' (Pope, 'Iliad') B intrans 1 To follow, come, immediately after, another (person, thing, event &c) the storm died down, and a great calm succeeded, often succeeded to a long period of peace succeeded to the stormy days of the Napoleonic wars 2 A To take up another's office, duties &c, after him to succeed to the Archbishop's throne, to the office of Lord Chancellor &c, b specif, to acquire property, office, rank, as hereditary successor or heir when a peer dies his eldest son succeeds, to succeed to one's father's estate, no woman could succeed to the throne of Hanover 3 A To attain one's object, be successful, have success, to accomplish, complete, one's purpose you try often enough you'll succeed at last, succeed in (doing &c), contrive to do, b (of action, attempt &c) to be satisfactorily accomplished, attain object for which it was undertaken, be crowned with success the attack succeeded beyond all expectations, half-hearted attempts rarely succeed 4 To become prosperous, be fortunate in one's career, to acquire wealth to succeed in life, as a doctor, politician &c successor, n [1 sukseator, 2 sukseátor], fr L Lat successor, 'one who accompanies in singing', suc- & Lat cantor, 'singer', see cantoris & cant (I) 1 Leading bass, bass soloist, in a choir 2 Sub-precentor, precentor's deputy succes d'estime, u [1 sukseá destém, 2 sukseá destém] Fr Applause accorded to a work, performance &c, on account of the respect in which the performer is held, rather than on account of the merits of the work itself success, n [1 sukseás, 2 sukseás], fr O Fr success, fr Lat successus, 'advance, approach, good result', fr success (um), P P type of succedere, 'to go under, from under, to march up to, to follow, to prosper', see succeed

1 Fortunate accomplishment of an aim, or attempt, attainment of desired object, or result my efforts were crowned with success 2 Prosperity, good fortune he has had great success in life 3 A Person who, that which, attains success he was not a success as a speaker, my holiday in Switzerland was a great success, b action in which one has been successful, a triumph, lucky hit I count that speech, book, among my successes, Mariborough's battles were a series of successes successful, adj [1 sukseáfool, 2 enkéáfool], -ful Pref & -ful 1 A Having attained one's object, having succeeded in an attempt I tried to persuade him but was not successful, b (of action, effort &c) producing, resulting in, a desired effect 2 Fortunate, happy in one's career, prosperous he had all the appearance of a successful man successfully, adv Pref & -ly In a successful manner successfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being successful succession, n [1 sukseáshun, 2 sukseáshun] Lat successio (em), 'a coming into the place of, a succession in office &c', fr success-(um), P P type of succedere, see succeed, & -ion 1 Act or process of succeeding, or following, a in office, employment &c a man's succession to another as editor &c, Apostolic succession, continuous transmission of the spiritual authority of the Apostles through bishops, b act, or right of succeeding as heir, lawful descendant, hereditary successor of his ancestors, War of the Spanish Succession, law of succession, that which defines and regulates conditions for the inheritance of property, succession duties, those payable by an heir on succeeding to property 2 Number of persons, objects, events, actions which follow one another in time or space, a series, sequence a succession of remarkable victories, famous personages rode past in rapid succession successional, adj [1 sukseáshunál, 2 enkéáshunál] Pref & -al Pertaining to a succession, coming, occurring, in regular sequence successionist, n [1 sukseáshunist, 2 enkéáshunist] See prec & -ist One who attaches great importance to lawful and regular succession, specif one who holds Apostolic Succession to be essential to the validity of the Christian Ministry successive, adj [1 sukseáshiv, 2 enkéáshiv] See prec & -ive Coming in immediate succession, consecutive on three successive occasions, in successive reigns successively, adv Pref & -ly In a successive manner, in succession successiveness, n See prec & -ness State of being successive successor, n [1 sukseátor, 2 enkéátor] See prec & -or 1 A Person who follows another in an office, employment &c when a great public servant dies or retires, it is not always easy to find a worthy successor, b one who succeeds another as lawful heir, by descent, according to fixed rules &c King George is the regular successor of William the Conqueror 2 Object, event, which comes after another as part of a sequence, which takes the place of another as representing a stage in regular progress &c the tank and the aero plane are to a great extent the successors of cavalry in warfare, the summer before last was dryer than its successor succinct, adj [1 sukshíkt, 2 enkéshíkt], fr L Lat succinctus, 'prepared, ready, concise', fr P P type of succingere, 'to gird, to prepare, equip', fr suc- & cingere, 'to gird', see cincture (I) 1 Concisely expressed, terse 2 (archaic and poet) Girded, tucked up 'with garbs succinct', with clothes tucked up (Pope, translating Homer) succinctly, adv Pref & -ly In a succinct manner succinctness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being succinct succory, n [1 súkuri, 2 sákuri] Variant of obscory Chaucery plant succose, adj [1 súkús, 2 enkéus], fr Lat succus, 'juice, sap', see succades, & -ose Full of juice, sappy succotash, n [1 enkotash, 2 sákates], fr Amer Ind maquash (USA) Dish of green corn and beans boiled together, usually with pieces of salt pork succour (I), vb trans [1 súkur, 2 sáke] ME succurre, fr O Fr succurre, fr Lat succurrere, 'to run under, to run to the aid of, to help, assist', fr suc- & currere, 'to run' See courier To help, aid, assist, relieve succour (II), n ME socour, fr O Fr ecorra, fr Lat succursus, 'help', fr P P type of succurrere, 'to help' See prec 1 Help, relief, support, given to one in difficulty or danger 2 (pl, archaic) Auxiliary troops, reinforcements succourless, adj [1 súkurles, 2 enkéles] Pref & -less Without succour, helpless succuba, succubus, u [1 súkuba, us, 2 sákuba, -us] Lat succuba, succubus, 'succuba', fr succubus, 'to lie down, he under' See succumb A lascivious spirit supposed to have the power of acquiring a material body, and of having sexual intercourse with human beings, succuba, a female spirit of this kind, succubus, used either of male or female See incubus succulence, n [1 súkúlous, 2 sákúlous] Next word & -ce State or quality of being succulent succulent, adj [1 súkúlent, 2 sákúlent], fr Lat succulentus, 'juicy', fr succus, 'juice, sap', see succades Juicy, full of juice or sap succulently, adv Pref & -ly In a succulent manner, with succulent material, food &c to feel succulently succumb, vb intrans [1 sukúm, 2 enkám], fr Lat succumbere, 'to lie down, sink down, to submit, surrender', fr suc- & cumbere, 'to lie down', q v under cubicle A To yield, submit, be overcome (by), give way (to), cease to resist to succumb to superior force, to be forced to succumb, to succumb to temptation, b specif, to die succursal, adj [1 sukúrál, 2 enkárál], fr Fr succursale, fr L Lat succursus, 'help', see succour (I) & course (I) & -al (of church) chapel of ease &c) Subsidiary, auxiliary such (I), adj [1 sush, 2 sásh] O E suclic, suclic, suclic, ME such, suclic, suclic, earlier suclic*, suclic*, op OHG sclch, Goth suclics, no & -like 1 A Of that or similar kind, of the same nature, quality, degree &c, of kind, like that, specified, or implied I never saw such a sight before, I know of no such place, there are few such towns as this, children such as these, such was the force of the explosion that all the windows were broken, how can he say such things?, another such disaster and he will be ruined, b of that kind, of the kind just stated 'Such were the words thy once loved poet sung' (Pope) 2 Emphatic, a possessing a specified quality to so great a degree such a good man!, we had such a kind reception, b not followed by another adjective= so great, good &c, or so bad &c according to the context she possessed beauty, and such beauty!, did you ever see such weather?

such (II), pron, fr prec 1 Snob person(s) or thing(s) 'All such as have erred and are deceived', 'Peace to all such, but were there one whose fires' &c (Pope) 2 (commerce or vulg) It, them, those we note your remarks, and in reply to such such-and-such, adj [1 sneh an(d) shoh, 2 sáf su(d) sáf] Certain, particular but not expressly stated the payment of such-and-such sums to such and such persons suchlike, adj [1 sáelikh, 2 sáf[áik] Similar, of the same kind avoid pork and suchlike indigestible food suck (I), vb trans & intrans [1 suk, 2 sak] OE sūcan, ME souken, ep OE sūgan, ON sūga, OHG sūgan, 'to suck', cogn w Lat sūgere, 'to suck', sūcus, succus, 'juice, sap', Lett sūkt, 'to suck', op further, w different formative element, Sert sūpat, 'broth', OE sūpan, 'to sup', see sup (I) A trans 1 a To draw (liquid) into the mouth by an inward rush of air following a partial vacuum formed by action of lips to suck lemonade through a straw, to suck the juice from an orange, vampires that suck one's blood, b to absorb, take up (liquid &c) by action resembling sucking bees suck honey 2 To draw liquid into the mouth from, by means of action of lips &c to suck oranges, to suck the breast 3 To dissolve in the mouth or hold in the mouth and lick repeatedly with tongue to suck a lozenge, to suck one's thumb 4 (fig) a To take into the mind, absorb, imbibe to suck knowledge into one's mind, b to draw, absorb (profit, advantage &c) B intrans 1 a To perform the action of sucking liquid &c into the mouth, specif b (of child, young animal) to draw milk into the mouth from breast, udder &c 2 To make sound as of person, &c sucking, draw in air with this sound a pump that sucks C Followed by adverbs or prepositions with special meanings Suck at, intrans, to apply lips to, and carry out action of sucking to suck at a pipe &c Suck in, trans, a to draw (liquid, air &c) into mouth, b to draw in and down, to engulf, by suction to be sucked in by a quicksand, o (of porous substance) to absorb Suck out, trans, to draw out by suction Suck up, trans, a to draw up by, or as by suction the sun sucks up the mist, b (of porous substance) to absorb, draw into itself blotting paper sucks up ink, (Phr, colloq) intrans, suck up to (person), try to propitiate by flattery, cajolery &c suck (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of sucking, state of being sucked, sucking action the suck of the whirlpool Phr to give suck '(o), suckle 2 (slang) a Small drink, mouthful of liquid, b a sell, hoax sucker (I), n [1 sūkor, 2 sūka] suck (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, sucks, specif a sucking pig, b newly born whale, c (Am slang) a person easily duped or swindled a greenhorn 2 a Genus of freshwater, edible fish with thick, protrusible lips, b one of several other varieties of fish 3 a Flexible, usually concave disk, which is made to adhere to a surface by atmospheric pressure, specif, b organ by which shellfish &c adhere to surfaces acetabulum sucking disk 4 Piston of suction pump 5 (bot) n Shoot from subterranean stem, b abnormal shoot from axils of branches &c sucker (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec. (bot.) 1 trans. To remove suckers from. 2 intrans. To produce suckers.

sucking, adj [1 sūking, 2 sūkin], fr Prec Part of suck (I) a (of child, young animal) Being suckled, not yet weaned, b (fig) inept, inexperienced sucking-disk, n Same as sucker (I) 3 sucking-pig, n Young pig, sucker suckle, vb trans [1 sukl, 2 sūkl] ME sekelen, suck (I) & -le To give suck to, to feed with milk from the breast suckling, n [1 sūking, 2 sūkin] ME sokelinge, suck (I) & -ling (I) a Unweaned child or other young mammal, hence (fig) b inexperienced, unsophisticated person, esp in Phr babes and sucklings sucrose, n [1 sūkrōs, 2 sūkrōus], fr Fr sucré, q v under sugar (I), & -ose (chem) White, sweet, crystalline compound obtained from various plants but identical in composition, sugar suction, n [1 sūkahun, 2 sūkfən], fr Lat suctum, PP type of sūgere, 'to suck', q v under suck (I), & -ion a Act or process of sucking, b specif, act or process of causing fluid to pass in a given direction by exhausting the air behind it over a small surface, so that it is driven by atmospheric pressure suction-fan, n Rotating fan which separates chaff from grain by a process of suction suction-pipe, n Pipe through which fluid is drawn by suction suction-plate, n Plate holding artificial teeth in place by suction suction-pump, n Pump raising water by suction suctorial, adj [1 sūktōrial, 2 sūktōrial], fr Lat sucti (um), PP type of sūgere, 'to suck', q v under suck (I), & -ory & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, adapted for, sucking 2 (zool) Having, adhering by means of, a sucker

Sudanese, adj & n [1 sūdānez, 2 sūdāniz] 1 adj Of, belonging to, the Sudan, Africa. 2 n Native of the Sudan sudarium, n [1 sūdārium, 2 sūdēarium] Lat sūdārium, 'a cloth for wiping off perspiration, a handkerchief', fr sūd (or), 'sweat', see next word, & -ary 1 a St Veronica's handkerchief which received a miraculous impression of the face of Christ on His way to Calvary, hence, b portrait of Christ produced by miraculous means 2 Napkin wrapped about the head of Christ in the sepulchre sudation, n [1 sūdāhun, 2 sūdēfən], fr Lat sudatio (em), 'sweating', fr sūdat (um), PP type of sūdare, 'to sweat', op Lat sūdor, 'sweat', fr base suid*, suid*, suid*, 'sweat', whence also Sert sūdayat, 'sweats', Lett sūedrs, Gk hidros, 'sweat', fr suid*, OS suet, OE suat, 'sweat', see sweat (I) a Process of sweating, b sweat, perspiration.

sudatorium, n [1 sūdātōrium, 2 sūdātō-rum] Lat sūdātōrium, 'sweating bath', fr sūdātum, see prec, & -ory Hot room for inducing perspiration in Roman bath sudatory, adj & n [1 sūdātum, 2 sūdētəri], fr Lat sūdātōrius, 'sudatory', see prec 1 adj Connected with, promoting, perspiration. 2 n (med) Sudatory substance, eudorific sudd n [1 sud, 2 sad] Arab sudd, 'barrier' Floating mass of water weeds, reeds &c, forming obstruction on White Nile sudden, adj & n [1 sudn, 2 sūdn] ME soden, fr O Fr soudain, fr Lat subitaneus, 'sudden', fr sūbitus, 'sudden happening unexpectedly', fr PP type of sūbire, 'to go under, op to, to advance secretly, to occur', fr sub & ire, 'to go', see itinerant 1 adj n Happening, occurring, done unexpectedly, without previous indication or warning. a sudden shout, shock, idea, sudden death, b acting unexpectedly, abrupt to be sudden in one's actions 2 n State of being sudden, sudden happening, only in Phr (all) of, on, a sudden, suddenly suddenly adv Prec & -ly In a sudden manner, with suddenness suddenness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being sudden sudoriferous, adj [1 sūdūrifērus, 2 sūdūrifērae], fr Lat sūdōra, stem of sūdor, 'sweat', see sudation, & -ferous (of gland) Secreting sweat sudorific, adj & n [1 sūdūrifik, 2 sūdūrifika], fr Lat sūdōri-, 'sweat', see prec & sudation, & -fic 1 adj Promoting perspiration 2 n Sudorific medicine, drug &c

Sūdra, n [1 sūdōra, 2 sūdāra] Hind, fr Sert sūdra Member of lowest Hindu caste, originally non Aryan suds, n, pl [1 andz, 2 sadz] Cp OE sōban, 'to boil', PP sodcn, see soothe, sodden (I) Frothy substance from dissolved soap, which floats on surface of water sue, vb trans & intrans [1 sū, 2 sū], fr O Fr su, 'to follow', fr L Lat sequere, variant of sequi, 'to follow', see sequela, & ep second element in onsue, pursue A trans 1 To bring a legal action against, prosecute to sue a person for libel 2 To beseech, entreat B intrans 1 To take legal action, prosecute claim &c by legal proceedings 2 To make entreaties, beg, plead to sue for peace suede, n [1 swād, 2 swaid] Fr Suede, 'Sweden' Soft, undressed leather made of kid skin, used for gloves &c suet, n [1 sūet, 2 sūit], fr O Fr seu, fr Lat sebum, sebum, 'tallow, suet', see sebaceous, & -et Cogn w OHG seifa, OE sāpe, 'soap', see soap (I) Solid fatty tissue formed around kidneys &c of oxen, sheep &c suet, adj [1 sūet, 2 sūit] Prec & -y (IV) Like, abounding in, greasy with, suet suff- pref Form of sub-, w assimilation of b when compounded w words beginning w f suffer, vb trans & intrans [1 sūfer, 2 sūfa] ME suffren, fr O Fr suffrir, fr Lat sufferre, 'to submit to, to undergo, endure', fr suf & ferre, 'to carry, bear, endure', see -ferous A trans 1 To experience (something painful or unpleasant), undergo, be subjected to suffer pain, torture, hardship, wrong, death, punishment, loss 2 To allow, permit, tolerate if I suffer you to be present, you must remain silent, chiefly with negative I will not suffer such conduct, one cannot easily suffer ingratitude and treachery in a friend Phr not to suffer fools gladly, to be impatient and intolerant of folly and stupidity in others B intrans 1 a To experience mental or physical pain men are born to suffer, learn to suffer without complaining, b suffer from, to be liable to, be afflicted by to suffer from gout, he is now suffering from measles, I do not suffer from shyness 2 To be the worse, be injured, harmed, impaired neither car nor passengers suffered much in the accident, his reputation suffered greatly by his failure at a critical moment 3 a To be punished we must all suffer sooner or later for our sins and follies, b to be executed, esp to undergo martyrdom King Charles I suffered on Jan 30th, 1649 sufferable, adj [1 sūferabl, 2 sūferəbl] Prec & -able Capable of being tolerated sufferance, n [1 sūferans, 2 sūferans], fr Lat sufferentia, 'suffering, toleration', suffer & -ence 1 (archaic) Submission, endurance, passive resignation 2 Tacit consent, acceptance, permission, implied by failure to forbid or object, esp in Phr on sufferance, without explicit consent, merely tolerated or acquiesced in sufferer, n [1 sūferer, 2 sūfera] suffer & -or One who suffers, a one suffering from disease, pain &c sufferers in hospitals, a great sufferer from rheumatism, b one who has been injured, one who has suffered less or other injury in some way specified or implied the poor are the greatest sufferers in times of famine, he tried to injure others, but was himself the sufferer suffering n [1 sūfering, 2 sūferip] suffer & -ing Experience of, process of undergoing, physical or mental pain, anguish, agony, of body or mind, tribulation the sufferings of Napoleon's army in Russia were indescribable, it is hard to be patient under severe suffering suffate, n [1 súfət, 2 sáfət], fr Lat suffat, stem of sufes, 'suffocate', fr Carthaginian (antiq) Chief Carthaginian magistrate suffice, vb intrans & trans [1 súfɪs, 2 sáfɪs] ME suffizen, fr stem of O Fr suffire, 'to suffice', fr Lat sufficere, 'to pnt, supply, as a substitute, to give, supply, to satisfy, be enough', fr suf- & facer, 'to make', see fact 1 intrans To be sufficient, be enough, be adequate, to satisfy demand or requirements a small amount of food suffices for old people, a brief statement will suffice 2 trans To be enough for, satisfy, be adequate for needs or purpose of nothing would suffice him but the whole story sufficiency, n [1 súfɪshənɪ, 2 sáfɪshənɪ], fr Lat sufficiens, see sufficient (I) & -cy 1 A That which suffices, sufficient quantity, adequate amount, ample supply, specif b adequate pecuniary resources, competency 2 (archaic) Efficiency, capability sufficient (I), adj [1 súfɪsənt, 2 sáfɪsənt], fr Lat sufficiens (em), Pres Part of sufficere, 'to suffice', see suffice 1 Adequate in size or quantity, enough, capable of meeting demands, as much as is requisite for particular purpose to lack sufficient food, the rain was not sufficient to do any harm, I have not sufficient room for my family 2 (archaic) Capable, efficient, well qualified, for specific task sufficient (II), n, fr prec (colloq) A sufficient quantity thank you, I have quite sufficient sufficiently, adv sufficient (I) & -ly To a sufficient degree, in sufficient amount sufficiently provided with means &c sufficingly, adv [1 súfɪŋŋlɪ, 2 sáfɪŋŋlɪ], fr Prec Part of suffice & -ly Sufficiently, so as to suffice suffix (I), n [1 súfɪks, 2 sáfɪks], fr Lat suffixum, PP of affigere, 'to attach, affix', fr suf- & figere, 'to fasten, fix', see fix (I) Syllable or group of syllables appended as formative element to end of word or stem suffix (II), vb trans [1 súfɪks, 2 sáfɪks], fr prec To add as a suffix, add to end of word or stem suffocate, vb trans & intrans [1 súfokət, 2 sáfokət], fr Lat suffocatum, PP type of suffocare, 'to choke, stifle, strangle', fr suf- & dual form of fauc, stem of faux, 'throat', see faucal A trans 1 To deprive of fresh air, cause difficulty in breathing to be suffocated by close atmosphere 2 To kill by depriving of air, to choke to be suffocated by poisonous fumes, by a pillow pressed over one's mouth and nose B intrans To have difficulty in breathing, choke, stifle suffocating, adj [1 súfokətɪŋ, 2 sáfokətɪŋ], fr Pres Part of suffocate Liable to cause, causing, suffocation, stifling, very close a suffocating atmosphere, suffocating heat suffocatingly, adv Prec & -ly So as to suffocate to the point of suffocation suffocation, n [1 súfokəʃən, 2 sáfokəʃən] suffocate & -ion A Act or process of suffocating, b state of being suffocated suffragan, adj & n [1 súfrəŋ, 2 sáfəŋ], fr Med Lat suffraganeus, 'assistant', fr Lat frāgor, I vote for, support', fr suffragium, 'vote', see suffrage, & -an 1 adj A Suffragan bishop or bishop suffragan, one appointed as assistant to a diocesan, esp for work in specific part of diocese, b of any bishop considered in relation to his archbishop, o (of see) under suffragan bishop 2 n Suffragan bishop suffraganship, n [1 súfrəŋənɪp, 2 sáfəŋənɪp] Prec & -ship Rank, office of, period of work as, suffragan suffrage, n [1 súfrɪŋ, 2 sáfɪdrɪŋ], fr Fr, fr Lat suffragium, 'voting-tablet, vote, right of voting, assent, support', prob orig 'concerted cheer or shout of agreement or approval', fr suf- & stem frɪg*, seen in frāgor, 'noise, din, crash', frāgere, 'to break' &c, see fragment, fragile 1 a Vote given on a question of controversy, b approval, assent, support, signified by vote or otherwise I hope to secure your suffrages in my candidature 2 The right to express an opinion by voting on political questions, esp the right to vote at parliamentary elections manhood suffrage suffragette, n [1 súfrəʒet, 2 sáfɪdrɪt] Prec & -ette (deriva) Woman who insisted on the right of women to have a parliamentary vote, and to be elected to Parliament, in the days before this right was secured by law, esp a woman who emphasized her claims by violent words and acts suffragist, n [1 súfrəʒɪst, 2 sáfɪdrɪst] suffrage & -ist Person advocating some extension of the right of voting suffuse, vb trans [1 súfúz, 2 sáfúz], fr Lat suffundere, PP type of suffundere, 'to pour into, overspread, to mingle, blur', fr suf- & fundere, 'to pour', see fuse (I) (of fluid, light, colour) To spread over surface of, flood, cover skysuffused with light, eyes suffused with tears, blushes suffused her face suffusion, n [1 súfúʒən, 2 sáfúʒən], fr Lat suffusio, 'a pouring or spreading over', prec & -ion Act of suffusing, state of being suffused sufi, sufɪ, n [1 súfɪ, sáfɪ, 2 súfɪ, sáfɪ], fr. Arab Member of a class of Mohammedan mystics, philosophic and pantheistic sufic, sufɪc, adj [1 súfɪk, sáfɪk, 2 súfɪk, sáfɪk] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, a sufi sufism, sufɪzəm, n [1 súfɪzəm, sáfɪzəm, 2 súfɪzəm, sáfɪzəm] sufɪ & -ism Doctrines, practices, of a sufi sug- pref Form of sub- w assimilation of b when compounded w words beginning w g-sugar (I), n [1 shóogər, 2 fúgər] ME sugre, suger, fr O Fr sucere, fr Arab sukkar, op Sort darkard, Pers shakar Cp sacchar- & crocodile 1 A sweet, white, or pale brown, crystalline substance extracted from the juice of various plants, esp from the sugar cane or from beetroot, often with qualifying noun or adjective, indicating a source, e g cane, beet, maple sugar, b place of origin, e g Demerara sugar, c appearance, character &c, e g white, lump, granulated, castor sugar &c, d use or purpose, e g icing, preserving, sugar 2 (chem) One of many varieties of sweet, soluble carbohydrates found esp in plants, including glucose, lactose, saccharose &c 3 Substance resembling sugar in appearance or taste, esp sugar of lead, of milk 4 (fig) Flattery, smooth-speaking, words designed to please sugar (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To sweeten with sugar, b to cover, coat, sprinkle, with sugar 2 (fig) A To flatter, speak honeyed words to, b to disguise nature of, make alluring, by flattery &c sugar-basin, n Small basin of metal or china for holding sugar at table sugar-bean, n Kind of kidney-bean sugar-beet, n Kind of beetroot from the juice of which sugar is obtained sugar-bird, n Bird that sucks honey from flowers sugar-candy, n Sugar crystallized in large, hard lumps sugar-cane, n Tall, perennial grass, with strong, jointed stalk, from 8 to 20 ft in height, from the juice of which sugar is extracted sugar-gum, n Large Australian eucalyptus with sweet leaves sugar-house, n Factory for manufacture of sugar sugariness, n [1 shóogərɪnəs, 2 fúgərɪnəs] sugary & -ness State or quality of being sugary sugarless, adj [1 shóogərləs, 2 fúgərləs] sugar (I) & -less Without, containing no, sugar sugar-loaf, n 1 Hard, conical mass of sugar 2 Anything resembling sugar loaf in shape, e g conical hill, sometimes in compounds, sugar-loaf hat &c sugar-maple, n Kind of maple from which sugar is obtained.

sugar-mill, n Establishment in which juice is extracted from sugar-cane &c sugar-mite, n Mite sometimes infesting unrefined sugar sugar-orchard, n Plantation of sugar-maples sugar-planter, n Owner of a plantation of sugar cane sugar-plum, n A small hard ball or cylinder of sugar, sometimes enclosing a caraway seed sugar-refiner, n Person engaged in refining sugar sugar-refinery, n Establishment in which raw sugar is refined sugar-tongs, n pl Small metal tongs for lifting lump sugar from sugar-basin sugary, adj [1 shóogərɪ, 2 fúgərɪ] sugar (I) & -y (IV) 1 Containing, abounding in, covered with, tasting of, sugar 2 (fig) Flattering, honeyed, excessively sweet a sugary voice, compliments &c suggest, vb trans [1 súʒest, 2 sáfɪzest], fr. Lat suggestum, PP type of suggerere, 'to lay beneath, to furnish, supply, to suggest, prompt', fr sug- & gerere, 'to carry, bring', see gest, gesture (I) 1 a To bring into the mind, call up idea of, to imply his skill suggests long training, his appearance suggests an open air life, speak b to arouse in the mind by association &c does the name suggest anything to you? c (reflex) to come into the mind, present itself an idea suggests itself to me 2 To put forward, lay before a person, as hypothesis, possible course of action &c, to introduce, present for consideration to suggest a plan, to suggest a walk, what do you suggest we should do? 3 To imply, intimate, state, as completed action, motive, fact, &c I suggest that you are not speaking the truth suggestibility, n [1 súʒestɪbɪlɪtɪ, 2 sáfɪzestɪbɪlɪtɪ] See next word & -ity State or quality of being suggestible suggestible, adj [1 súʒestɪbəl, 2 sáfɪzestɪbəl] suggest & -ible 1 Capable of being suggested 2 Capable of being acted upon by suggestion suggestio falsi, n [1 súʒestɪo fálɪsɪ, 2 sáfɪzestɪo fálɪsɪ] Lat, see next word & false (I) Suggestion of falsehood, statement which, without actually being false, nevertheless conveys a false impression, and allows the hearer to believe what is untrue suggestion, n [1 súʒestʃən, 2 sáfɪzestʃən], fr. Lat suggestio, 'suggestion', suggest & -ion 1 a Act of suggesting, specif b act or process of conveying an idea or impulse to the mind by hypnotic influence 2 a Something suggested, implied, hinted, intimated, called up in the mind by association &c a suggestion of a nautical roll in his gait, there is no suggestion of provincial accent in his speech, a building calling up suggestions of the past, to make a suggestion, his suggestion was approved, b specif, something, idea, impulse of action, conveyed to the mind by hypnotic influence 3 A suggesting of, or tendency to suggest, what is indecent or improper suggestionization, n [1 súʒestʃənɪzəʃən, 2 sáfɪzestʃənɪzəʃən] Prec & -ation. a Act or process of suggestionizing, b state of being suggestionized suggestionize, vb trans [1 súʒestʃənɪz, 2 sáfɪzestʃənɪz] Prec & -ize To subject to, influence by, suggestion, esp to incite to action by hypnotic suggestion suggestive, adj [1 súʒestɪv, 2 sáfɪzestɪv] suggest & -ive 1 Tending to suggest, arousing mental associations a melody suggestive of the rolling of waves 2 Full of suggestion, a stimulating to the mind, provoking thought and ideas a suggestive article on educational method, b specif, tending to suggest what is evil, smacking of impropriety suggestively, adv. Prec & -ly In a suggestive manner suggestiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being suggestive (in good and bad senses) sui, pron [1 súi, 2 súia] Lat sui, gent of suis, 'his', fr Aryan pronominal form s(e)wo*, sue*, se* &c, op Gk hós, 'his', Sort suayam, 'self', O H G swis, O E swis, 'own, familiar', O E sin, 'his', O Prussian es, 'self' &c Op custom In Latin Phrs sui generis, of his, its &c own special kind, unique, highly characteristic, sui juris, in his &c own law or right, legally independent, of age to act for oneself suicidal, adj [1 súisid, 2 súisaid] suicide & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, inclining to, suicide 2 (fig) Tending to one's own ruin, destruction, downfall his life of debauchery and extravagance was utterly suicidal suicidally, adv Preo & -ly In a suicidal manner, by means of suicide suicide, n [1 súisid, 2 súisoid] fr Lat sui, gent of suis, 'his, himself', see sui, & -cide, on anal of matricide &c 1 Person who deliberately takes his own life 2 Crime of self murder to commit suicide 3 (fig) Act tending to one's own downfall and ruin, moral, political, or social suilline, adj [1 súilm, 2 súilain] fr Lat suillus, 'of swine', fr stem seen in sūs, 'swine', op Sort sūkaraš, 'boar', Gk hūs, O E sū, sugu, 'sow', see sow (I), op further Lat suinus, 'of a pig', O Slav svinŭ, 'of swine', O H G, O E swin, 'swine', see swine Of, pertaining to, like, the pig family, pig like suint, n [1 súint, swint, 2 súint, swint] fr Fr, fr O Fr suint, fr euer, 'to sweat', fr Lat sudore, 'to sweat', see sudation The natural grease of sheep's wool, containing potassium salts and used as a source of potash suit (I), n [1 súit, 2 súit] fr O Fr suite, 'following', fr Lat secūda, fem PP of sequi, 'to follow', see esquela 1 A Act of suing, request, prayer, solicitation to grant one's suit, b specif, act of seeking woman's hand in marriage to press one's suit, to fail, prosper, in one's suit 2 (law) Judicial action to enforce claim or redress grievance, often low suit 3 A Set of clothes to be worn together, esp man's outer garments, including coat, waistcoat, and trousers or brooches &c, made of same material a suit of clothes, a new suit, b complete set of harness for a horse a suit of harness, c complete set of armour 4 (nant) Set of sails to be used simultaneously 5 (cards) A One of the four distinctive sets of cards, hearts, diamonds, clubs, and spades, composing a pack, Phr to follow suit, (i) to play a card of same suit as that led, hence, (ii) to follow another's example, do as he does, b number of cards of one suit held by one player, long suit, consisting of four or more cards, short suit, less than four cards suit (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To be satisfactory, or convenient to, to meet requirements or wishes of the plan, date, arrangement &c suits me well, when will it suit you to start? to try to suit everybody, all tastes &c, to suit oneself, act in accordance with one's own wishes or convenience 2 To be appropriate to, befít, be in accordance with character of buffoonery does not suit an old man 3 To be adopted to temperament or abilities &c of the role does not suit him 4 To be becoming to, be in harmony with, improve, appearance of this hat, colour &c suits me 5 To conduce to health of, agree with climate, food, that suits one 6 To cause to conform to, make appropriate, adapt to suit one's mother to one's hearers suiting the action to the word B intrans To be convenient, satisfactory, will that time suit?

suitability, n [1 súitabiliti, 2 súitabiliti] See suitable & -ity State, quality, of being suitable suitable adj [1 sútabil, 2 sútabil] suit (II) & -able Appropriate to character position or circumstances fitting, proper, adapted for special purpose to say a few suitable words, clothes suitable for the country suitableness, n. Preo & -ness. suitability suitably, adv See prec & -ly In a suitable manner suit-case, n Portable, flat, shallow, oblong case of leather, fibre &c, for carrying clothes &c for travelling suite, n [1 swét, 2 swit] fr O Fr suite, 'following', see suit (I) 1 Band of retainers, group of attendants and servants in the train of a person of rank &c, train 2 Group or set of things standing in proximity to each other, or of similar design, and forming a unity of some kind, specif a set of rooms connecting, or intended for the use of one person or party a suite of apartments, b set of furniture made to match 3 (mus, org) Musical composition consisting of a series of dances in one key, (now often) series of movements of which some at least are in dance rhythm, and the first and last are in the same key suites, adj [1 súted, 2 sútid] fr PP of suit (II) Suited to, for, adapted to, having qualifications for, fitted for not suited to the teaching profession, hardly suited for such a post suiting, n [1 sútang, 2 súting] suit (I) & -ing (tailor's word) Material for making suits of clothes sutor, n [1 súter, 2 súte] suit (I) & -or 1 Person instituting a lawsuit 2 a One who presents a petition, asks a favour, proffers a request, specif b person seeking woman's hand in marriage suivez, vb [1 súvèz, 2 súvèz] Fr suivez, 'follow', imperat of suivre, 'to follow', fr L Lat sequere, 'to follow', see sue (mus) Direction to accompanist to follow soloist in tempo &c sulcate, adj [1 súlkāt, 2 súlkēt] fr Lat sulcus, 'furrow, trench', op Gk hōlke, 'furrow', hēlkein, 'to draw', O E sulh, 'plough' (anast and hot) Marked with long, narrow grooves, fluted sulk, vb intrans & n [1 súlk, 2 salk] Back-formation, fr sulky (I) 1 vb To be sulky 2 n (usually pl) Sulky mood in the sulks, a fit of the sulks sulkily, adv [1 súlkili, 2 sálkili] sulky (I) & -ly In a sulky manner sulkiness, n [1 súlkness, 2 sálkness] Next word & -ness State of being sulky, sulky behaviour sulky (I), adj [1 súlki, 2 sálki] fr a base seen in O E ascolcan, 'to be slothful or remiss', PP ascolen, op N Fris sulke, 'to sulk', Sullen, showing ill temper and resentment by silent, gloomy, moroseness, and by sullen conversation and society sulky (II), n, fr preo Light, two wheeled vehicle for one horse and one person sullen, adj & n [1 súlen, 2 sálin] M E solen, fr O Fr solan, 'lonely', fr Lat solus, 'alone', see solo (IV) & -an 1 adj A Obstinately gloomy and ill tempered, morose, surly, persistently sulky, b making, conveying, a gloomy depressing, sombre impression, lowering, a sullen landscape, c expressing sullenness a sullen face, expression &c 2 n (pl) The sullen, sulks, gloomy ill temper sullenly, adv Preo & -ly In a sullen manner sullenness n See prec & -ness State or quality of being sullen sully, vb trans [1 súli, 2 sáli] O E sylvan, M E sullen, 'to soil', op O L G sulon, 'to defile', cp O E sol, 'dirty', O E sol, 'muddy pool', Lith sulda, 'flowing sop' To impair, mar, tarnish the purity or freshness of, to stain, soil defile (chiefly in oon material or fig, sense) to sully one's hands by on infamous action, a reputation sullied by many crimes sulph (o), pref representing sulphur (I) Sulphur, eg sulphacid acid of sulphur, sulphocyanic, derived from sulphur and cyanogen sulphate, n [1 súlfit, it 2 sálfit, it] Preo & -ate Salt of sulphuric acid, calcium sulphate, gypsum magnesium sulphate, Epsom salts, sodium sulphate, Glauber's salts; sulphate of copper, iron, zinc, varieties of vitriol sulphide, n [1 súlfid, 2 sálfid] sulph (o) & -ide Compound of sulphur with another element, sulphide of iron, pyrites, sulphide of mercury, cinnabar sulphite, n [1 súlfit, 2 sálfit] sulph (o) & -ite (I) Salt of sulphurous acid sulphonat, n [1 súlfonal, 2 sálfnal] fr sulph (o) Crystalline compound used as anaesthetic and hypnotic sulphur (I), n [1 súlfar, 2 sálfa] Lat sulphur, sulfur, sulphur, 'sulphur', prob fr earlier sulfu-*, op Goth swibla, O H G swefel, O E swefel, 'sulphur' 1 Non-metallic, light yellow, inflammable, fusible, crystalline or amorphous element, burning with a blue flame, and used for making sulphuric acid, for matches, gunpowder, vulcanized rubber, and medicinally, flowers of sulphur, sulphur in the form of fine powder, condensed from sulphur vapour, roll, stick, sulphur, purified sulphur moulded in the form of rolls or sticks, sulphur dioxide, suffocating gas produced by burning sulphur 2 Kind of yellow butterfly sulphur (II), adj, fr preo Of the colour of sulphur, pale lemon yellow sulphur (III), vb trans, fr preo To fumigate with burning sulphur sulphurate, vb trans [1 súlfurāt, 2 sálfurēt] sulphur (I) & -ate 1 To combine, mix, impregnate, with sulphur 2 To bleach by means of sulphurous acid, or by fumes of burning sulphur sulphuration, n [1 súlfurāshun, 2 sálfurēs-] Preo & -ion Process of sulphurating, state of being sulphurated sulphuratur, n [1 súlfurātūr, 2 sálfurētūr] sulphurate & -or Apparatus for bleaching by sulphur fumes sulphureous, adj [1 súlfūreus, 2 sálfurēs] fr Lat sulphureus, sulphur (I) & -eous 1 Of, pertaining to, like, sulphur, having the colour or smell of burning sulphur 2 (bot) Pale yellow, sulphur coloured sulphuretted, adj [1 súlfurētēd, 2 sálfurētēd] fr obs sulphuret, 'sulphide', sulphur (I) & -et & -ed Combined with sulphur sulphuretted hydrogen, hydrogen sulphide sulphuric, adj [1 súlfūrik, 2 sálfurīk] sulphur (I) & -ic Of, pertaining to, containing, derived from, sulphur, sulphuric acid, colourless, corrosive, oily, liquid compound, used extensively as basis of chemical operations and manufactures, oil of vitriol sulphuric ether, liquid derived from alcohol by the action of sulphuric or other acid, used as anaesthetic sulphurization, n [1 súlfurizāshun, 2 súlfurizēshun] Next word & -ation Act of sulphurizing, state of being sulphurized sulphurize, vb trans [1 súlfurīz, súlfuriz, 2 sálfurīz, sálfurīz] sulphur (I) & -ize To sulphurate sulphur-ore, n Sulphide of iron, pyrites sulphurous adj [1 súlfūrus, súlfurus, 2 súlfūres, sálfurēs] sulphur (I) & -ous 1 Of, derived from, impregnated with, sulphur 2 (fig) Heated, inflammable, pervaded by intense passion the atmosphere of the meeting became rather sulphurous towards the close sulphur-spring, n Natural spring impregnated with sulphur sulphur-wort, n Herb with sulphur coloured flowers sulphury, adj [1 súlfūr, 2 sálfūr] sulphur (I) & -y (IV) Resembling, pertaining to, sulphur sultan, n [1 sultan, 2 sáltan] fr Fr, fr Arab sultan, 'victorious, ruler' 1 Mo hammedan prince or king, specif, the Sultan, former sovereign of the Turkish Empire 2 Kind of purple gallinule 3 Breed of small domestic hen, originally from Turkey 4 Kind of garden annual, Centaurea, with yellow (yellow sultan) or purple (sweet sultan) flowers sultana, n [1 sultāna, 2 sultāna] Ital, fr Arab, see preo 1 Sultan's wife, daughter, or sister 2 Mistress of king or prince 3 Kind of small, seedless raisin from Smyrna sultanate, n [1 sultanāt, 2 sultanāt] sultan & -ate 1 Rank, authority, of a sultan 2 Jurisdiction, dominion, of a sultan sultanness, n [1 sultānee, 2 sultānee] sultan & -ness Sultan sultriness, n [1 sultriness, 2 sultriness] Next word & -ness State of being sultry sultry, adj [1 sultri, 2 sultri] fr obs sweltry, swalter (I) & -y (IV) 1 (of weather, climate, atmosphere &c) Hot and damp, moist and stuffy, close, oppressive, also b (fig) of temper, language &c, violent, hectic, lurid sum (I), n [1 sum, 2 sam], fr Fr somme, fr Lat summa, 'top, summit, chief place, highest rank, chief point, essence, amount, quantity, total', fr fem form of summus, 'highest', assimilated fr sup mo-, op Lat super, 'above', sub, 'below', see sub-. Sort upwards, 'the highest', Gk hupatos, 'the first', OE ufema, 'highest' 1 Amount produced by adding two or more numbers, magnitudes, quantities, together, the total, also sum total 2 Group of related ideas, facts, points, considered together, total result, compendium of such points &c, the essence the sum of the whole matter 3 A quantity, or amount, of money to spend large sums 4 a A problem in arithmetic, b (pl) sums, arithmetical calculation to do sums, good at sums sum (II), vb trans & intrans, fr Fr sommer, fr somme, 'sum', see preo A trans 1 Often sum up, to add up, give total of, give result of addition of, reckon up to sum up one's takings 2 Also sum up, to present in the form of a brief review, summarize, recapitulate shortly to sum up facts, statements, evidence, arguments &c B intrans Sum up, specif (of a judge) to review and comment upon facts proved in evidence, &c sumac(h), n [1 shōōmak, 2 shōōmak], fr Fr, fr Span zumaque, fr Arab summaq 1 Shrub or small tree of the genus Rhus, with pinnate or trifoliate leaves and clusters of small flowers 2 Dried leaves of some species of sumac, used in dyeing and tanning Sumerian, adj & n [1 sūmērian, 2 sūmērian] 1 fr Sumer, ancient district of Babylonia, & -ian 1 adj Pertaining to, characteristic of, the civilization of Sumer 2 n A The language of the Sumerian inscriptions &c, b an inhabitant of Sumer summarily, adv [1 sūmarī, 2 sūmarī] summarily (I) & -ly In a summary manner summarist, n [1 sūmarist, 2 sūmarist] summarist (I) & -ist Person who prepares a summary summarize, vb trans [1 sūmariz, 2 sūmariz] summarize (I) & -ize To make, present, a summary of, present in a brief review, to epitomize summary (I), adj [1 sūmarī, 2 sūmarī], fr Lat summārium, 'summary, abstract', sum (I) & -ary 1 Condensed, brief, giving the substance or gist summary reports 2 Carried out without many formalities, effected without delay or debate summary justice, punishment, specif summary jurisdiction, that of petty sessions, exercised by justices of the peace, in cases of trivial, more or less light, offences &c summary (II), n, fr preo Brief statement of leading points of argument, hook &c, epitome, digest, concise review summation, n [1 sūmāshun, 2 sūmāshun], fr Fr summation, sum (II) & -ation. Act of summing, of reckoning a total, summing up, computation summer (I), n [1 sūmer, 2 sūme] OE sumor, ME somer, ep OHG sumor, O Fris sumur, ON sumarr, 'summer', cogn. w Sort samā, 'year, season', O Ir sam, 'summer' 1 Season in which the sun has the greatest power, usually (in Northern Hemisphere) considered to include June,

July, and August, astronomically, June 21 to Sept 22, Phr Indian summer, short spell of warm, dry weather in the autumn, with hazy atmosphere, St Luke's, St Martin's, summer, short periods of mild, dry weather sometimes occurring about October 18th (St Luke's Day) and November 11th (St Martin's Day) 2 (fig) Prime, best part, most flourishing period of life 3 (pl) Years of age a young woman of some twenty summers summer (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans To spend the summer to summer in Scotland 2 trans To feed, graze (cattle) during the summer summer (III), adj, fr summer (I) Of, pertaining to, suitable for, occurring in, the summer summer holidays summer (IV), n, fr Fr sommier, 'beam', see breastsummer a Large, horizontal beam or girder supporting a superstructure, b stone resting on a column, and supporting an arch &c summer-house, n Small, ornamental building used in a garden as a place to sit in summerless, adj [1 sūmerless, 2 sūmerless] summer (I) & -less Without a summer, having no summer summer lightning, n Sheet lightning without audible thunder summerlike, adj [1 sūmerlik, 2 sūmerlik] summer (I) & -like Like summer summerly, adj [1 sūmerli, 2 sūmerli] summer (I) & -ly Like, characteristic of, summer summersault, -set, n Sas somersault summer school, n Organized course of lectures &c at a university during long vacation summer-time, n 1 Season of summer 2 Time as reckoned during spring and summer, one hour in advance of Greenwich mean time, adopted for daylight-saving (q v) purposes summery, adj [1 sūmeri, 2 sūmeri] summer (I) & -y (IV) Of, like, characteristic of, suitable for, summer summing-up, n [1 sūming up, 2 sūming up] Review, recapitulation, of comments upon, the chief points of evidence, made by a judge at the conclusion of a trial, before the jury retire to consider their verdict summit, n [1 sūmit, 2 sūmit], fr Fr sommet, 'summit', fr som, 'top', fr Lat summum, 'top', neut form of summus, 'highest', see sum (I), & -et. 1 Highest part of hill or mountain &c, top, peak to climb to the summit 2 (in non-material sense) Highest point, some, maximum to reach the summit of fame summitless, adj [1 sūmitless, 2 sūmitless] sum & -less Without a summit summit-level, n Highest point (of railway, road &c) summon, vb trans [1 sūmun, 2 sūmen], fr O Fr sumoner, fr Lat sub-, summonēre, 'to remind, hint', fr sub- & monēre, 'to warn', see monition & mental (I) 1 A To call authoritatively for, demand presence of, send for to summon a servant, b speak to require attendance of, in court of law as witness, defendant, or juror 2 To call upon with insistence and authority, require, to carry out some action to summon a garrison to surrender 3 To bring into play, to collect, gather together to summon all one's energy, also, to summon up (one's courage) &c summons, n & vb trans [1 sūmunz, 2 sūmunz], fr A-Fr sommonse, fr O Fr semonse, fr PF of somoner, see preo 1 n a Call to appear or attend, demand for presence at specific time or place to receive a summons, to answer one's summons, specif b notice, citation, to appear before a judge or magistrate 2 vb To issue a summons to, cite sumsum bonum, n [1 sūsum bōnum, 2 sūsum bōnum], fr Lat summus bonum, 'highest good', see sum (I) & bonus Supreme good, chief end of being sump, n [1 sump, 2 sump] Cp Dan somp, 'swamp', Germ sumpf, 'bog'; & see swamp 1 Lowest part of muns, pool at the bottom of a muns from which water is pumped 2 Reservoir for superfluous lubricating oil in a motor car sumptan, n [1 sūmpitan, 2 sūmpitan] Malay Blow-pipe used by natives of Borneo for shooting arrows sumpter, n [1 sūmpter, 2 sūmpter], fr O Fr sommeter, fr Low Lat sagmatarius*, fr Lat sagmārius, fr sagma, 'pack saddle', fr Gk sagma, 'equipment, pack saddle', op Gk siltan, 'to pack, press, equip', sukde, 'strammed', op summer (IV) & breastsummer (archaic) Beast of burden, pack horse, usually sumpter horse, -mule &c sumption, n [1 sūmpshun, 2 sūmpshun], fr Lat sumptiō (sm), 'major premise', fr sumpt (sm), PP type of sumere, 'to take hold of, to select, to assume', earlier subs emere*, fr sub- & emere, 'to take, buy', see second element of exempt (I) (log) Major premise sumptuary, adj [1 sūmpshun, 2 sūmpshun], fr Lat sumptuarius, 'of expense', fr sumpt (sm), PP type of sumere, 'to take hold of, to select, to assume', see preo, to acquire, to spend', see preo, & -ary Of, pertaining to, regulating, expense, esp sumptuary laws &c, regulating expenditure and intended to check extravagance sumptuous, adj [1 sūmpshun, 2 sūmpshun], fr Lat sumptuosus, 'ostentatious', fr sumpt (sm), PP type of sumere, 'to take, to spend', see sumption, & -ous Luxurious, rich, costly, involving or indicating expenditure on a lavish scale sumptuous clothes, food &c sumptuously, adv sum & -ly In a sumptuous manner sumptuousness, n Sas preo & -ness Quality of being sumptuous sun (I), n [1 sun, 2 san] OE sunne, ME sunne, ep OLG, OHG, ON sunna, Goth sunō, 'sun', fr stem su n-, sue n-, fr sama base, but having formative -i-, are Goth sunō, OE sōl, Lat sōl, 'sun', see sol (I), OE sweelle, 'shining', OE seolan, 'to glow', ep also Gk selēnē, 'moon', see selenium 1 Heavenly body forming the centre of, and chief source of light and heat in, the solar system Phrs midnight sun, as seen from polar regions, mock sun, sun dog, parhelia, sun's backstays, eyelashes, sun drowning water, (nant) appearance in sky of parallel lines of dust particles lit up by sun shining through rifts in clouds, the sun rises, is brought into view above the horizon by the earth's rotation, the sun sets, disappears from view below horizon through earth's motion, one's sun is set, one's day is over, one's reputation has declined, the Sun of Righteousness, Christ, against the sun, counter clockwise, with the sun, in direction of sun's apparent course, to hold a candle to the sun, perform useless or superfluous action, a place in the sun, prominent position, to rise with the sun, get up at daybreak, to see the sun, be born, to take, shoot, the sun, (asot) to determine sun's altitude by means of a sextant, to determine latitude from sun's altitude, (everything &c) under the sun, in the world, on earth 2 Direct rays of sun, sunlight to sit in the sun, to have the sun in one's eyes, no sun ever gets into this room 3 (poet) Period of earth's revolution about the sun, year 'A thousand suns will stream on thee, A Farwell' moons will quiver' (Tennyson, 'A Farewell') 4 Any star forming the centre of a system, with planets revolving about it 5 (her) Disk, or representation of human face, with rays radiating from it 6 Circular group of gas jets &c, arranged to reflect downwards of gas jets &c, arranged to reflect downwards sun (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans a To expose to rays of sun, place in the sun, b (reflex) sun oneself, go into, remain in the sunlight 2 intrans To be exposed to sun's rays, bask in the sun sun-and-planet, n [1 sun an(d) planet, 2 sun an(d) planet] Combination of two toothed surmount', fr super, 'over', see super-, & -able (rare) Capable of being overcome, not insurmountable superably, adv Preo & -ly To a superable degree, so as to be superable superabound, vb intrans [1 sūperabūnd, 2 sūperabūnd] To have an abundance, abound greatly superabundance, n [1 sūperabūndans, 2 sūperabūndans] Next word & -ce State of being superabundant, excessive amount, excess, superfluity superabundant, adj [1 sūperabūndant, 2 sūperabūndant] fr L Lat superabundant (em), 'superabundant', super- & abundant In excess of requirements or of normal amount, abounding, copious superabundantly, adv Preo & -ly In a superabundant manner superadd, vb trans [1 sūperād, 2 sūperād] fr Lat superaddere, 'to add besides', super- & add To add to something already added, make a further addition superaddition, n [1 sūperādābūn, 2 sūperādābūn] Preo & -ition Act of superadding, state of being superadded superaltar, n [1 sūperāwītār, 2 sūperāwītār] Consecrated stone slab used as portable altar, and placed upon unconsecrated altar superangelic, adj [1 sūperānjēlik, 2 sūperānjēlik] More than, transcending, above, the angels superannuate, vb trans [1 sūperānūāt, 2 sūperānūāt] fr super- & Lat annus, 'year', see annual (I), & -ate a To put on retired list, pension off, require retirement of, on account of age, b to request, or insist on, the withdrawal of (a boy) from school because he has not reached the required standard of his age superannuated, adj [1 sūperānūātāt, 2 sūperānūātāt] fr PP of preo a Incapacitated by age, past work, b out of date, no longer current superannuation, n [1 sūperānūātābūn, 2 sūperānūātābūn] Preo & -ion 1 Act of superannuating, state of being superannuated 2 Pension given to official & returning on account of age superaqueous, adj [1 sūperākwēus, 2 sūperākwēus] Situated, existing, above water superb, adj [1 sūpērb, 2 sūpērb] fr Lat superbus, 'haughty, proud', prob fr super- & stem bhu-, bhū- & -to be', cp Gk hyperphus, 'overgrown', & see be, future (I) Of the finest quality, magnificent, of highest excellence, value, beauty superbly, adv Preo & -ly In a superb manner superbness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being superb supercalendered, adj [1 sūperkālēndērd, 2 sūperkālēndērd] (of paper) Finished with a high polish by means of repeated rollings supercanopy, n [1 sūperkānūpī, 2 sūperkānūpī] Arch or gable placed above another supercapital, n [1 sūperkāpītāl, 2 sūperkāpītāl] Capital placed above another to support a superstructure &c supercargo, n [1 sūperkārgō, 2 sūperkārgō] fr Span sobrecarga, super- & cargo Agent in merchant ship travelling in charge of cargo and superintending its sale &c supercell, n [1 sūperkēl, 2 sūperkēl] 1 Existing, situated, above the sky or firmament 2 Above, transcending, the angels supercharger, n [1 sūperohārjēr, 2 sūperohārjēr] Blowing apparatus, in motor car &c, for forcing extra amount of petrol vapour into the cylinders superciliary, adj [1 sūpersīlīārī, 2 sūpersīlīārī] fr Lat supercilium, 'eyebrow', fr super- & cilium, 'eyelid, eyelash', see cilia, & -ary Situated above the eyebrow superciliary ridge, projecting curve of frontal bone above the eye supercilious, adj [1 sūpersīlīūs, 2 sūpersīlīūs] fr Lat superciliōsus, see preo & -ous Showing haughtiness and contempt for others, their capacity, belongings &c, as though looking down on them from the height of one's own superiority, loftily arrogant and superior superciliously, adv Preo & -ly In a supercilious manner superciliousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being supercilious supercivilized, adj [1 sūpersīvīlīzēd, 2 sūpersīvīlīzēd] Over civilized superclass, n [1 sūperkālās, 2 sūperkālās] Group or class comprising more than one class supercolumnar, adj [1 sūperkōlūmnār, 2 sūperkōlūmnār] Characterized by, built with, supercolumniation supercolumniation, n [1 sūperkōlūmnābūn, 2 sūperkōlūmnābūn] Arrangement of one architectural order above another supercooled, adj [1 sūperkōōld, 2 sūperkōōld] (chem) Having temperature brought to a point below freezing-point without freezing supercretaceous, adj [1 sūperkretāshūs, 2 sūperkretāshūs] super- & cretaceous (geol) Lying above the chalk superdentate, adj [1 sūperdentāt, 2 sūperdentāt] Having teeth in upper jaw only superdominant, n [1 sūperdōmīnāt, 2 sūperdōmīnāt] (mus) Note immediately above dominant super-Dreadnought, n [1 sūpēr drēdnawt, 2 sūpēr drēdnawt] Large and powerful type of battleship, superior to the Dreadnought class supereminence, n [1 sūperēmīnēns, 2 sūperēmīnēns] Supreme eminence supereminent, adj [1 sūperēmīnēt, 2 sūperēmīnēt] Supremely, conspicuously, eminent supereminently, adv Preo & -ly Eminently to a supreme degree supererogation, n [1 sūpererōgābūn, 2 sūpererōgābūn] fr Lat supererogāt (um), PP type of Lat supererogāre, 'to spend in addition', fr super- & erogāre, 'to pay out', fr e- & rogāre, 'to ask, demand, beg, borrow', see erogation (theol) (For) of supererogation, pious works performed by good men over and above what is necessary for their own salvation, these are held to constitute a fund in the general treasury of the Church, which is available for the benefit of others who have need of it supererogatory, adj [1 sūpererōgātūrī, 2 sūpererōgātūrī] fr Lat supererogāt (um), see preo, & -ory Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, supererogation super-ethical, adj [1 sūpēr ēthīkāl, 2 sūpēr ēthīkāl] Transcending, above the scope of, ethics superexcellence, n [1 sūpērēksēlēns, 2 sūpērēksēlēns] Next word & -ce Extreme, unusual, excellence superexcellent, adj [1 sūpērēksēlēt, 2 sūpērēksēlēt] Of more than normal excellence superexcitation, n [1 sūpērēksītābūn, 2 sūpērēksītābūn] Excitation to an abnormally high degree superfamily, n [1 sūpērfāmīlī, 2 sūpērfāmīlī] (zool and bot) Category of classification larger than a family, a suborder superfatted, adj [1 sūpērfātēd, 2 sūpērfātēd] (of soap) Containing a large proportion of fat superfecundation, n [1 sūpērfekundābūn, 2 sūpērfekundābūn] Superfecundation superfetation, n [1 sūpērfētābūn, 2 sūpērfētābūn] Second conception by female already pregnant superficial, adj [1 sūpērfīāl, 2 sūpērfīāl] fr Lat superficialis, 'of the surface', fr super- fīālīs, 'surface', see superficies, & -al

1 Of, pertaining to, affecting, existing on, the surface superficial colour, wounds, appearances &c (of non material things) Slight, shallow, not deep or thorough superficial knowledge, character, a superficial writer superficiality, n [1 sūpērfīālītāt, 2 sūpērfīālītāt] Preo & -ity State or quality of being superficial superficially, adv [1 sūpērfīālī, 2 sūpērfīālī] See preo & -ly In a superficial manner superficies, n [1 sūpērfīālīs, 2 sūpērfīālīs] Lat superficies, 'surface', fr super- & fīālīs, 'face', see face (I) Surface, outer or upper face superfine, adj [1 sūpērfīn, 2 sūpērfīn] 1 Over subtle, refined to excess 2 (com. sense) Of the finest quality, extra fine superfinesness, n Preo & -ness State or quality of being superfine superfluity, n [1 sūpērfīūtītāt, 2 sūpērfīūtītāt] See next word & -ity 1 State or quality of being superfluous 2 a Something which is superfluous to keep a carriage as well as a motor-car is a superfluity, specif b pecuniary surplus, wealth beyond one's needs to give of one's superfluity superfluous, adj [1 sūpērfīūūs, 2 sūpērfīūūs] fr Lat superfluus, 'unnecessary', fr super- & fluere, 'to flow', see fluent (I), & -ous Beyond requirements, forming a surplus or unnecessary adjunct, more than is necessary, redundant superfluously, adv Preo & -ly In a superfluous manner superfluonsness, n See preo & -ness State of being superfluous, superfluity superheat, vb trans [1 sūpērhēt, 2 sūpērhēt] To raise (vapour) to a temperature above that of boiling-point of water superheater, n [1 sūpērhētēr, 2 sūpērhētēr] Preo & -er Apparatus in a steam engine for raising temperature of steam after leaving the boiler or when no longer in contact with the water superhive, n [1 sūpērhīv, 2 sūpērhīv] Hive placed above or fitting on to top of another superhuman, adj [1 sūpērhūmān, 2 sūpērhūmān] Exceeding normal human power, wisdom, size &c, possessing more than human capacity superhumanly, adv Preo & -ly In a superhuman manner superhumeral, n [1 sūpērbūmērāl, 2 sūpērbūmērāl] fr super- & Lat humeral, 'shoulder', see humerus, & -al Vestment worn on the shoulders, specif a priest's amice, b bishop's pallium, c Jewish sphyd.

superimpose, vb trans [1 sūpērimpōz, 2 sūpērimpōz] To lay, place, establish, on top of something else to superimpose a building on the remains of another, a superimposed mass superimpregnation, n [1 sūpērimpēgnābūn, 2 sūpērimpēgnābūn] Superfestation superincumbent, adj [1 sūpērinkūmbēt, 2 sūpērinkūmbēt] Lying, resting, on top of something else a superincumbent weight superinduce, vb trans [1 sūpērīndūz, 2 sūpērīndūz] To induce, develop, give rise to, as an addition to something else superinduction, n [1 sūpērīndūktābūn, 2 sūpērīndūktābūn] Act of superinducing, state of being superinduced superinstitution, n [1 sūpērīnstītūtābūn, 2 sūpērīnstītūtābūn] The institution of a priest in a benefice already in the possession of an incumbent superintend, vb trans & intrans [1 sūpērintēnd, 2 sūpērintēnd] fr super- & Lat tendēre, 'to stretch out, to pay attention to', see intend To direct, guide, control, to, to supervise functioning or of working of, to regulate progress of superintendence, n [1 sūpērintēndēns, 2 sūpērintēndēns] Next word & -ce Act or superintending, state of being superintended.

superintendent, n [1 sūpɛrɪntɛndɛnt, 2 sūpɛrɪntɛndɛnt] super- & Pres Part of Lat intendere, see intend. A person who superintends, esp some specific official organization, institution, department &c, manager, overseer, director, specif b police officer above the rank of inspector superior (I), adj [1 sūpɛrɪɔr, 2 sūpɛrɪɔr], fr Lat superior, compar of superus, 'higher', see super- 1 Higher in physical position, above, more elevated, specif a (bot, anat, zool. &c) situated nearer the head or upper side, growing above another organ &c superior wings, calyx &c, b (print, of letter or figure) printed above the line 2 Of higher rank or grade, of more authoritative position superior officer, court &c., superior genus, including more categories, superior planets, those revolving beyond the earth's orbit. 3 A of better quality, of greater skill, power, capability, excellence &c, surpassing in quantity or degree superior strength, skill, knowledge &c, b of great excellence, eminently satisfactory, reliable &c, of excellent quality or attainments, above the average made of superior cloth, a very superior man 4 Larger in number or amount the enemy attacked with superior forces, a superior volume of fire 5 Superior to, rising above influence of, not affected, swayed or biased by superior to temptation, to rise superior to hardship, obstacles &c, to be superior to prejudice superior (II), n, fr prec 1 A person placed over another, person of greater rank, position authority &c to look up to one's superiors, b person surpassing another in merit, in intellectual or spiritual qualities, skill &c he was his brother's superior in every way 2 (cap) Person presiding over religious house director of monastery, convent &c Father, Mother, Superior superiority, n [1 sūpɛrɪɔrɪtɪ, 2 sūpɛrɪɔrɪtɪ] Prec & -ness Mother Superior superiority, n [1 sūpɛrɪɔrɪtɪ, 2 sūpɛrɪɔrɪtɪ] superior (I) & -ity State or quality of being superior superiorly, adv [1 sūpɛrɪɔrli, 2 sūpɛrɪɔrɪli] superior (I) & -ly (bot &c) In a superior position superjacent, adj [1 sūpɛrjɛsɛnt, 2 sūpɛrjɛsɛnt], fr super- & Lat jacent-(em), Pres Part of jacere, 'to lie', see adjacent Lying above, resting upon, something else superlative (I), adj [1 sūpɛrlɛtɪv, 2 sūpɛrlɛtɪv], fr Lat superlātivus, 'exaggerated, in the superlative degree', fr super- & lātum, P P type of Lat ferre, 'to carry', fr lat-, fr base tel-, tol-* &c, see tolerate & -ive 1 Of the highest degree of excellence, of supreme quality or merit superlative beauty, goodness virtue &c 2 (gram) Superlative degree, highest degree of comparison of adjective or adverb, expressing the existence of a quality in the highest degree superlative (II), n, fr prec a (gram) Superlative degree, form indicating this degree, b word in the superlative to speak in superlatives, implying exaggeration, over enthusiasm &c superlatively, adv Prec & -ly To a superlative degree superlativeness n. See prec & -ness State or quality of being superlative superlunar(y), adj [1 sūpɛrlunar(i), 2 sūpɛrlunar(i)] super- & lunar A beyond the moon, celestial, specif b not earthly, transcending things of this world superman, n [1 sūpɛrmən, 2 sūpɛrmən] Hypothetical being possessing supreme physical and mental powers, the overman, q v supermedial, adj [1 sūpɛrmɛdɪəl, 2 sūpɛrmɛdɪəl] Situated above the middle supermolecule, n [1 sūpɛrmɔləkiəl, 2 sūpɛrmɔləkiəl] Group of molecules regarded as a unit supermundane, adj [1 sūpɛrmundən, 2 sūpɛrmundən] Above, superior to, transcending, mundane things.

supernacular, adj [1 sūpɛrnækjulər, 2 sūpɛrnækjulə] See next word & -ar (of wine) Worthy to be drunk supernaculum, first-rate supernaculum, adv & n [1 sūpɛrnækjuləm, 2 sūpɛrnækjuləm], fr super- & Latinized form of Germ ragel, 'nail', q v under nail (I), w reference to custom of reversing emptied wine glass &c & pouring last drop on finger nail 1 adv To the last drop, so as to finish completely 2 n Wine of fine quality, worthy of being drunk supernaculum.

supernal, adj [1 sūpɛrnəl, 2 sūpɛrnəl], fr Lat supernus, 'celestial', fr super, 'above', see super-, & -al (poet) Heavenly, celestial supernatant, adj [1 sūpɛrnənt, 2 sūpɛrnənt], fr super- & nātant (em), Pres Part of Lat nātare, 'to swim, float', see notation. Floating on the surface supernatural, adj [1 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəl, 2 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəl] Existing outside of, transcending, effected by, a force above the normal laws of nature, miraculous supernaturalism, n [1 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlɪzəm, 2 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlɪzəm] Prec & -ism Belief in the supernatural supernaturalist, n [1 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlɪst, 2 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlɪst] supernatural & -ist Believer in the supernatural supernaturalistic, adj [1 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlɪstɪk, 2 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlɪstɪk] Prec & -ic Characteristic of a supernaturalist supernaturalize, vb trans [1 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlaɪz, 2 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlaɪz] supernatural & -ize To make, regard as, supernatural, bring into the domain of the supernatural supernaturally, adv [1 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəli, 2 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəli] See prec & -ly In a supernatural manner supernaturalness, n [1 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlɪnəs, 2 sūpɛrnəʃʊrəlɪnəs] See prec & -ness State or quality of being supernatural supernormal, adj [1 sūpɛrnɔrml, 2 sūpɛrnɔrml] Above the normal supernumerary, adj & n [1 sūpɛrnūmɛrɔrɪ, 2 sūpɛrnūmɛrɔrɪ], fr L Lat super-numerarius, 'supernumerary', fr super- & numerus, 'number' see number (I), & -ary 1 adj Exceeding, beyond, the normal or necessary number, extra 2 n Person or thing in excess of the normal, necessary, or appointed number supernutrition, n [1 sūpɛrnūtrɪʃən, 2 sūpɛrnūtrɪʃən] Extra or excessive feeding superoctave, n [1 sūpɛrɔktəv, 2 sūpɛrɔktəv] Organ stop coupling any note with its octave superorder, n [1 sūpɛrɔrdɔr, 2 sūpɛrɔrdɔr] Group comprising more than one order superordinal, adj [1 sūpɛrɔrdɪnəl, 2 sūpɛrɔrdɪnəl] Of, pertaining to, a superorder superordinary, adj [1 sūpɛrɔrdɪnəri, 2 sūpɛrɔrdɪnəri] Above the ordinary superorganic, adj [1 sūpɛrɔrgənɪk, 2 sūpɛrɔrgənɪk] Above, superior to, not dependent upon, a physical organism, psychical superparasite, n [1 sūpɛrpərasɪt, 2 sūpɛrpərasɪt] The parasite of a parasite superparasitic, adj [1 sūpɛrpərasɪtɪk, 2 sūpɛrpərasɪtɪk] Prec & -ic Characteristic of, pertaining to, a superparasite superphosphate, n [1 sūpɛrfɔsfæt, 2 sūpɛrfɔsfæt] (chem) A An acid phosphate, b a fertilizer consisting of soluble phosphates superphysical, adj [1 sūpɛrfɪzɪkəl, 2 sūpɛrfɪzɪkəl] Not to be explained by known physical laws superpose vb trans [1 sūpɛrpəʊz, 2 sūpɛrpəʊz] To lay, deposit place (one thing) above another superposition n [1 sūpɛrpozɪʃən, 2 sūpɛrpozɪʃən] Act or superposing, state of being superposed, (geol) law of superposition, principle that in stratified rock underlying beds are older than those which are above them superquadrupartient, adj [1 sūpɛrkwɔdrɪpɔrʃɪnt, 2 sūpɛrkwɔdrɪpɔrʃɪnt] In the ratio of 9 to 5 superquadrantal, adj [1 sūpɛrkwɔdrɪkwɪntl, 2 sūpɛrkwɔdrɪkwɪntl] In the ratio of 9 to 5 superroyal, adj [1 sūpɛrɔrɪəl, 2 sūpɛrɔrɪəl] (of paper) Of a size larger than royal supersacral, adj [1 sūpɛrsakrəl, 2 sūpɛrsakrəl] Situated above the sacrum supersaturate, vb trans [1 sūpɛrsachurɪt, 2 sūpɛrsatʃurɪt] (chem) To saturate beyond the normal degree supersaturation, n [1 sūpɛrsachurɪʃən, 2 sūpɛrsatʃurɪʃən] Prec & -ion State of being supersaturated superscribe, vb trans [1 sūpɛrskrɪb, 2 sūpɛrskrɪb], fr Lat superscribere, 'to write above', see super- & scribo (I) To write, engrave &c (name, inscription &c), on the outer or upper side of anything superscript, adj [1 sūpɛrskrɪpt, 2 sūpɛrskrɪpt] fr Lat superscriptum, see super- & script (of letter, figure &c) Written above, over the top superscription, n [1 sūpɛrskrɪpʃən, 2 sūpɛrskrɪpʃən] Prec & -ion 1 Act of superscribing 2 Something superscribed supersede, vb trans [1 sūpɛrsɛd, 2 sūpɛrsɛd], fr Fr superséder, 'to disast', fr Lat super-sedere, 'to forbear, refrain, disast', fr super- & sedere, 'to sit, remain', see sedentary (I) 1 To put or use in the place of replace by some other person, thing, method &c to supersede a general 2 To take the place of, supplant, be adopted instead of *the use of machinery has largely superseded manual labour supersedeas, n [1 sūpɛrsɛdɛəs, 2 sūpɛrsɛdɛəs], fr Lat supersedeas, 2nd sing subj Pres of supersedere, 'to disast, refrain', see supersede (legal) Writ issued to stay proceedings or stop execution of another writ supersedence, n [1 sūpɛrsɛdɛns, 2 sūpɛrsɛdɛns] supersede & -ence (rare) Act of superseding, state of being superseded supersensible, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsɪbl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsɪbl] Above, beyond the range of, the senses supersensitive, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsɪtɪv, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsɪtɪv] Highly, abnormally, sensitive supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensible supersensuous, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəs, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəs] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

supersensual, adj [1 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl, 2 sūpɛrsɛnsjuəl] Supersensual

superstitious, adj [1 sūpɛrstɪʃɪəs, 2 sūpɛrstɪʃɪəs], fr Lat superstitiosus, 'full of superstition, prophetic', fr superstitio, see prec & -ous Pertaining to, influenced by, involving, based on, superstition superstitious people, beliefs, customs &c superstitiously, adv. Preo & -ly In a superstitious manner superstitiousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being superstitious superstratum, n [1 sūpōstrātum, 2 sūpōstrētum] Stratum imposed upon, overlying, another superstructural, adj [1 sūpēstrātkobural, 2 sūpōstrātkōfural] Of, pertaining to, a superstructure superstructure, n [1 sūpēstrātkobur, 2 sūpōstrātkōs] Any structure built upon another super-substantial, adj [1 sūpērsūbstānehāl, 2 sūpōsūbstānehāl] Above, transcending, outside the sphere of, mere substances or matter super-subtle, adj [1 sūpērsūtl, 2 sūpōsātl] Over subtle super-subtlety, n [1 sūpērsūtl, 2 sūpōsātl] Preo & -ty (I) Quality of being super-subtle supertax, n [1 sūpērtākā, 2 sūpōrtākā] A tax paid on incomes in excess of a certain figure, paid in addition to, but separate from, the ordinary income tax supertelluric, adj [1 sūpērtēlūnk, 2 sūpōrtēlūnk] fr super- & Lat tellū-, stem of tellūs, 'earth', see tellurium Above, beyond, the earth's atmosphere super-temporal, adj [1 sūpērtēmporal, 2 sūpōrtēmporal] 1 Beyond the limits of time 2 Situated above the temporal bono superterrene, adj [1 sūpērtērēn, 2 sūpōrtērēn] Above the earth, celestial, supermundane superterrestrial, adj [1 sūpērtērēstrial, 2 sūpōrtērēstrial] Superterrene super-tonic, n [1 sūpērtōnk, 2 sūpōrtōnk] (mus) Note immediately above the tonic of the scale supertripartient, adj [1 sūpērtripāshēnt, 2 sūpōrtripāshēnt] In the ratio of 7 to 4 supertriangular, adj [1 sūpērtrikwōrtl, 2 sūpōrtrikwōrtl] Supertripartient superuberation, n [1 sūpērtūbērāshūn, 2 sūpōrtūbērāshūn] Development of young tubers from one still growing supervacaneous, adj [1 sūpērvakāneus, 2 sūpōrvakāneus] fr Lat supervacāneus, 'superfluous', fr super- & vacāre, 'to be empty', see vacant, & -aneous Superfluous, redundant supervene, vb intrans [1 sūpērvēn, 2 sūpōrvēn] fr Lat supervēnīre, 'to follow, come after, follow upon', fr super- & venīre, 'to come', see venue To come directly after, to come into existence, occur, as an addition to, or in consequence of, some other condition, event &c, to be introduced as something additional or extraneous supervention, n [1 sūpērvēnshūn, 2 sūpōrvēnshūn] fr Lat supervēntum, PP type of supervēnīre, 'to follow', see preo, & -ion Act or process of supervening supervise, vb trans [1 sūpērvīz, 2 sūpōrvīz] fr super- & Lat vīzum, PP type of vīdēre, 'to see', see vision (I) To superintend, give oversight to, direct, the work or progress of supervision, n [1 sūpērvīzshūn, 2 sūpōrvīzshūn] Preo & -ion Act of supervising, state of being supervised supervisor, n [1 sūpērvīzor, 2 sūpōrvīzor] supervise & -or Person who supervises supervisory, adj [1 sūpērvīzor, 2 sūpōrvīzor] Preo & -y Pertaining to, characteristic of, a supervisor, or of supervision supervisory duties supinate, vb trans [1 sūpīnāt, 2 sūpīnēt] fr Lat supīnāre, PP type of supīnāre, 'to bend back, turn over', fr supīnus, 'on the back', see supine (I) To place (hand) with palm upwards, reverse of prone supination, n [1 sūpīnāshūn, 2 sūpīnāshūn] Preo & -ion Act of supinating, state of being supinated, rotation of the hand at the wrist so that the palm is turned upwards, reverse of pronation supinator, n [1 sūpīnātor, 2 sūpīnātor] supinate & -or Minclo of the fore arm by means of which supination is produced supine (I), adj [1 sūpīn, sūpīn, 2 sūpīn, sūpīn] fr Lat supīnus, 'thrown backwards, on the back, backwards, indolent, negligent', fr stem sup-*, 'beneath', seen in sub-, super- 1 Lying on the back, with face upwards, opposed to prone 2 Averse to, not taking, notion, inactive supine (II), n, fr Lat (verbum) supīnum See preo Latin verbal noun formed from PP stem supinely, adv supine (I) & -ly In a supine manner or position supineness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being supine supper, n [1 super, 2 sāpā] fr O Fr soper, fr vb soper, 'to sup', fr L G sūpē, 'to sup', cogn w eup (I) Last meal of the day, substituted for, or following, dinner Phrs the Last Supper, the last meal of Christ with His disciples before the Crucifixion, the Lord's Supper, the Holy Eucharist supperless, adj [1 superles, 2 sāpālis] Preo & -less Without supper supplant, vb trans [1 sūplānt, 2 sūplānt] fr O Fr supplanter, fr Lat supplantere, 'to trip up', fr eup- & planta, 'sole of the foot', see planter To take the place of, oust, usurp position or function of, esp by art or fraud supple (I), adj [1 sūpl, 2 sāpl] fr O Fr souple, fr Lat supplex, 'submissive, supplicating', fr sup- & plīc-, stem of plīcare, 'to bend, fold', see plīcate, & ep ending of double, triple 1 Pliant, flexible, easily bent supple leather, a supple cane, bow &c, supple limbs 2 A Docile, amenable, easily led or influenced, b cunningly complacent, sly, adroit supple (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans a To make supple 'Their joints they supple with dissolving oil' (Pope, 'Homer'), b to train (horse) to be docile, quickly obedient 2 intrans To grow supple supple-jack, n A One of several varieties of climbing plant with tough, woody, plant stems, b walking stick cut from the wood of this plant supplement (I), n, [1 supplement, 2 sāplment] fr Fr, fr Lat supplemētum, 'that which supplies, fills up', fr supplere, 'to fill out, make good', fr sup- & plere, 'to fill', q v under plenum, & -ment 1 a Something added to supply a deficiency, that which is added to fulfil requirements, ensure adequacy &c, specif b (1) additional matter included at the end of a book giving fuller or later details on subjects dealt with in the body of the work, (2) special additional number or part of a periodical devoted to a particular range of subjects 2 (math) Angle that must be added to another to make two right angles supplement (II), vb trans [1 sūplment, 2 sāplment] fr preo To add something to in order to make up deficiencies in, to provide something additional for supplemental, adj [1 sūplmentl, 2 sāplmentl] supplement (I) & -al Supplemental supplementary, adj [1 sūplmentār, 2 sāplmentār] supplement (I) & -ary Of the nature of a supplement, supplying deficiencies, adding something that was lacking supplementation, n [1 sūplmentāshūn, 2 sāplmentāshūn] supplement (II) & -ation Act of supplementing, state of being supplemented suppleness, n [1 sūplēns, 2 sāplēns] supple (I) & -ness State or quality of being supple suppliance, n [1 sūplēns, 2 sāplēns] See suppliance, & -ce (rare) Act of supplicating, state of being suppliant suppliant, adj & n [1 sūplānt, 2 sāplānt] fr Fr, fr supplere, 'to beg', fr Lat sup- & plīcare, 'to kneel down, beg, beseech', see plīcare 1 adj Entreating, beseeching, making, uttering, supplication 2 n. One who supplicates, person making humble entreaty suppliantly, adv Preo & -ly In a suppliant manner, as a suppliant supplicate, vb trans & intrans [1 sūplīkāt, 2 sāplīkāt] fr Lat supplicāre (um), PP type of supplicāre, 'to kneel down, humble oneself, beg, beseech', fr supplīc, stem of supplere, 'kneeling, entreating, suppliant', see supple (I) 1 trans a To ask humbly and earnestly for, to pray, beg, entreat for b to supplicate pardon, b to address entreaty to, pray, petition to supplicate a person 2 intrans To make supplication, proffer humble entreaties, beg earnestly to supplicate for mercy supplicating, adj [1 sūplīkāt, 2 sāplīkāt] Preo & -ing Of, consisting of, expressing, supplication supplicatingly, adv Preo & -ly In a supplicating manner, with supplication supplication, n [1 sūplīkāshūn, 2 sāplīkāshūn] supplicate & -ion Act of supplicating, humble request, prayer, petition supplicatory, adj [1 sūplīkātūr, 2 sāplīkātūr] supplicate & -ory Of the nature of, expressing, supplication supply (I), vb trans [1 sūpl, 2 sāpl] fr O Fr supplier, 'to fill up', fr Lat supplere, 'to fill out, make good', see supplement (I) 1 To equip with, provide, furnish, satisfy needs and requirements of cow supply us with milk, the butcher supplies us with meat 2 To provide, produce, yield, afford for use the cow supplies milk, trass supply shade in summer 3 To make good, make up for, compensate for to supply a need, deficiency &c, Phr to supply the place of, to replace, act as substitute for supply (II), n, fr preo 1 Something which is supplied, amount, store, stock a supply of food, water &c 2 (pl) Supplies, apiece, the whole of the necessities of life supplied to a large body of men, esp an army, the inhabitants of a country 3 (econ) Total quantity of an article or commodity, available at a given price, contrasted with demand 4 Person who takes the place of another, a (temporary) substitute, esp a teacher temporarily in charge of a school, or of a class in a school, in an emergency supply (III), adv [1 sūpl, 2 sāpl] supple (I) & -ly In a supple manner support (I), vb trans [1 sūpōrt, 2 sāpōrt] fr Fr supporter, 'to bear, endure', fr Lat supporterē, 'to convey', fr sup- & portāre, 'to carry', see port (IV) 1 To bear weight of, prevent from falling or sinking, hold up from below a roof supported by pillars, to support one's chin on one's hand, to support oneself with a stick 2 a To sustain, maintain, keep vigorous air is necessary to support life, b to maintain mental or spiritual vigour of, uphold to be supported by courage, vigour &c 3 a To have dependent on one, provide subsistence for, maintain to support a family, b to subscribe to, give financial help to to support hospitals by voluntary subscriptions 4 To bear, endure, submit to, put up with to support fatigue &c 5 a To give help, sanction, approval to, assist, further, promote progress of to support a cause, leader, motion &c, b to show approval of, aid, by one's presence the speaker was supported on the platform by the mayor 6 To confirm, corroborate, show proof of, vindicate to support an argument, claim &c 7 To assume and carry out (part, rôle &c), to represent successfully support (II), n, fr preo 1 Act of supporting, state of being supported to walk, stand, without support, Phr in support of, in order to uphold, promote, advocate &c 2 a One who, that which, supports the neck orms a support for the head, to provide a structure with supports, b means of maintenance or sustenance the sole support of an aged mother 3 a Spiritual or moral help, prop, stay, sustaining power the support of a good conscience

b moral influence, backing I shall hope for your support in my candidature supportable, adj [1 supor̥təbl̥, 2 səp̥təbl̥] support (I) & -able Capable of being endured, tolerable, endurable supportably, adv Preo & -ly Inasupportable manner supporter, n [1 supor̥tər, 2 səp̥tər] support (I) & -er 1 Person who supports another person, or a cause, an adherent, a partisan. 2 (her) One of two human or apimal figures represented on either side of a shield.

supportless, adj [1 supor̥tl̥s, 2 səp̥tl̥s] support (II) & -less Without support supposable, adj [1 sup̥zəbl̥, 2 səp̥zəbl̥] suppose & -able Capable of being supposed, conceivable supposably, adv Preo & -ly As is to be supposed, presumably suppose, vb trans [1 sup̥z, 2 səp̥z], fr Fr supposer, fr sup- & poser, 'to place', see pose (I), corresponding to Lat supponere In meaning 1 To assume tentatively, as a hypothesis, for the sake of argument let us suppose for a moment that what you say is true 2 To imagine, conjecture, fancy, believe, to be: I should suppose him to be about fifty, I never supposed him (to be) a hero, I suppose you like London, I don't suppose I shall be very long 3 To require as a natural or logical result or concomitant, to presuppose, to involve as a necessary presumption success in any walk of life supposes both ability and careful training 4 a In imperat, introducing a proposal or suggestion suppose we take a holiday next week, b in Pres Part, having force of if supposing you miss your tiger, he is not likely to miss you, Phr always supposing, provided that supposed, adj [1 sup̥zəd, 2 səp̥zəd] Preo & -ed Accepted as, believed to be, genuine, assumed the supposed prince turned out to be a draper's assistant supposedly, adv [1 sup̥zədli, 2 səp̥zədli] Preo & -ly According to what is, or may be, supposed, as may be assumed he was supposedly grateful for your kindness supposition, n [1 sup̥zəp̥t̥sən, 2 səp̥zəp̥t̥sən] suppose & -ition 1 Act of supposing 2 That which is supposed, hypothetical conjecture, assumption the whole story is based on mere supposition, on the supposition, on the assumption, assuming, in the expectation suppositional, adj [1 sup̥zəp̥t̥sənəl, 2 səp̥zəp̥t̥sənəl] Preo & -al Based on, of the nature of, supposition suppositionally, adv Preo & -ly As a supposition, by way of supposition supposititious, adj [1 sup̥zəp̥t̥sən̥, 2 səp̥zəp̥t̥sən̥] fr Lat supposititious, 'substituted', fr supposit (um), P P type of supponere, 'to put in place of another', fr sup- & ponere, 'to place', see pose (I) & -ious 1 Substituted for genuine object or person with intent to defraud, spurious supposititious writings 2 (rare) Suppositional supposititiously, adv Preo & -ly In a supposititious manner supposititiousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being supposititious suppositive, adj [1 sup̥zəp̥t̥sən̥, 2 səp̥zəp̥t̥sən̥] fr Lat suppositivum, see supposititious & -ive Of the nature of, implying, based on, supposition suppository, n [1 sup̥zəp̥t̥sən̥, 2 səp̥zəp̥t̥sən̥] fr L suppositorius 'something placed underneath', fr supposit (um), P P type of supponere, 'to place under or instead of another', see supposition, & -ory Stick or lump of solid medicinal or nutritive substance inserted and allowed to dissolve and be absorbed, in a canal or organ of the body suppress, vb trans [1 sup̥r̥s, 2 səp̥r̥s], fr Lat suppress (um), P P type of supprimere, 'to keep back, restrain, to check, repress', fr sup- & primere, 'to press' see press (I)

1 a To restrain, check, keep back, prevent, the development or occurrence of to suppress a smile, a yawn, an involuntary movement, b to keep back, repress, stifle, smother, silence, the expression or manifestation of (an emotion &c) to suppress an inclination to laugh, a sob, a sigh, an exclamation of astonishment &c 2 To put down by force, to quell, subdue, crush to suppress a heresy, a popular rising, a rebellion, a mutiny &c 3 a To disallow the publication of to suppress a news paper, a book, b to cut out, eliminate to suppress a phrase, a passage, in a book, article &c 4 To conceal, refuse to reveal or divulge, to keep back, prevent statement of to suppress important facts, the truth suppressed, adj [1 sup̥r̥st̥, 2 səp̥r̥st̥], fr P P of preo 1 (of disease) Arrested in development, choked in its normal development, not manifesting usual external symptoms suppressed scarlet fever &c 2 Checked in process of utterance, muffled sounds of suppressed laughter suppressible, adj [1 sup̥r̥səbl̥, 2 səp̥r̥səbl̥] Preo & -ible Capable of being suppressed suppression, n [1 sup̥r̥sən̥, 2 səp̥r̥sən̥], fr Lat suppression (em), 'restraint', suppress & -ion. Act of suppressing, state of being suppressed suppressio veri, n [1 sup̥r̥səp̥t̥sən̥ v̥r̥i, 2 səp̥r̥səp̥t̥sən̥ v̥r̥i] Lat suppressio veri, 'suppression of the truth', see preo, & veracious suppressive, adj [1 sup̥r̥səp̥t̥sən̥, 2 səp̥r̥səp̥t̥sən̥] Preo & -ive Tending to suppress suppurate, vb intrans [1 sup̥j̥r̥ət̥, 2 səp̥j̥r̥ət̥], fr Lat suppuratum, P P type of suppurare, 'to form pus', fr sup- & pūre, stem of pūs, 'pus, matter', see pus (of wounds, sores &c) To produce pus suppuration, n [1 sup̥j̥r̥ət̥sən̥, 2 səp̥j̥r̥ət̥sən̥] Preo & -ion Process of suppurating suppurative, adj [1 sup̥j̥r̥ət̥sən̥, 2 səp̥j̥r̥ət̥sən̥] Preo & -ive Tending to suppurate, causing, characterized by, suppuration supra-, pref representing Lat suprā, 'on the top above', cp Lat super, 'above', apparently orig 'from below upwards', Lat sub, 'below' see sub- In its modern use, the pref is usually interchangeable w, but rarer than, super- 1 Forming scientific terms denoting position above part, structure, or organ specified, e.g. supraciliary, above the eyebrow, supracardiac, situated above the clavicle, supracardiacous, (gaol) lying above the oesophagus, supradorsal, situated on the back, supra orbital, above the orbit of the eye, suprarenal, situated above the kidney

2 Before, at a prior time e.g. supralapsarian, member of a group of Calvinists who regard predestination as preceding the Creation and the Fall 3 Above, transcending, superior, e.g. supramortal, beyond the power or attributes of mortals, supramundane, above the world or worldly things, suprasensible, beyond the range of the senses supremacy, n [1 sup̥r̥eməs̥, 2 səp̥r̥eməs̥], fr O Fr supremacie, fr Lat suprēmus, 'supreme', see next word, & -acy State or quality of being supreme, supreme power or authority, domination Phr Act of Supremacy, Parliamentary Act of 1531, declaring the Sovereign of England to be supreme head on earth of the Church of England supremo, adj [1 sup̥r̥im̥, 2 səp̥r̥im̥], fr Lat supremus, 'highest', superl. form of superus 'above', see superior (I), mo is an old superl. suff seen also in -most 1 Above, superior to all others in rank, power, jurisdiction &c supreme head ruler, tribunal &c Phr the Supreme Being God, the Supreme Court of Judicature, High Court of Justice, supreme good highest possible good 2 Exceeding all others in degree, quality, intensity &c supreme sacrifice, devotion, goodness &c supremely, adv Preo & -ly In a supreme manner, to a supreme degree or extent sur- (I), form of sub-, w assimilation of b in compounds where the second element begins w r- sur- (II), pref representing O Fr sur-, above, over, beyond, fr Lat super-, a in loan words fr O Fr, e.g. surcoat, surface, surprise &c, b in some scientific or technical terms &c, in place of supra-, super-, e.g. surangular, surbase &c sura(h), n [1 sūra, 2 sūra], fr Arab sūra 'step' Chapter, section, of the Koran surah, n [1 sūra, 2 sūrah] Prob fr Surat, in Western India, see surat. Also surah silk, soft twilled silk fabric

sural, adj [1 sūral, 2 sūrah], fr Lat sūra, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surat, n [1 sūrat, 2 sūrah], fr Surat, town in Western India, north of Bombay 1 Kind of cotton grown in Bombay Presidency 2 Coarse cotton fabric made in Surat district

surbase, n [1 sūrbās, 2 sūrah] sur- (II) & base (I) (arohit) Moulding, cornice, above base of pedestal &c surcease, n & vb intrans [1 sūrsēs, 2 sūrah], w assimilation to cease (I), fr A Fr surseoir, P P of surseoir, 'to delay, restrain', fr O Fr surseoir, fr Lat supercedere, 'to refrain from, forbear', see supersede (archaic) 1 n Complete cessation, end. 2 vb To stop, cease finally surcharge (I), n [1 sūrchārg, 2 sūrchārg], fr O Fr sur- (II) & charge (I) 1 Excessive, additional, extra, load, burden, charge, specif a sum added to price &c, extra charge, b extra charge of electricity &c beyond requirements 2 a Additional charge made on property by assessors of taxes, as penalty for inaccurate return, b extra charge on letter or parcel for understamping, c special charge made on the individual members of a local authority by the auditor on account of expenditure wrongly incurred 3 Additional imprint, superimposed upon original design &c, showing change of value &c on postage stamp &c surcharge (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To overcharge, charge to excess or beyond requirements 2 To demand additional payment or overcharge from 3 To print a surcharge upon sure (I), n [1 sūre, 2 sūrah], fr O Fr sure, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surah, n [1 sūra, 2 sūrah] Prob fr Surat, in Western India, see surat. Also surah silk, soft twilled silk fabric

sural, adj [1 sūral, 2 sūrah], fr Lat sūra, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surat, n [1 sūrat, 2 sūrah], fr Surat, town in Western India, north of Bombay 1 Kind of cotton grown in Bombay Presidency 2 Coarse cotton fabric made in Surat district

surbase, n [1 sūrbās, 2 sūrah] sur- (II) & base (I) (arohit) Moulding, cornice, above base of pedestal &c

surcease, n & vb intrans [1 sūrsēs, 2 sūrah], w assimilation to cease (I), fr A Fr surseoir, P P of surseoir, 'to delay, restrain', fr O Fr surseoir, fr Lat supercedere, 'to refrain from, forbear', see supersede (archaic) 1 n Complete cessation, end. 2 vb To stop, cease finally

surcharge (I), n [1 sūrchārg, 2 sūrchārg], fr O Fr sur- (II) & charge (I) 1 Excessive, additional, extra, load, burden, charge, specif a sum added to price &c, extra charge, b extra charge of electricity &c beyond requirements 2 a Additional charge made on property by assessors of taxes, as penalty for inaccurate return, b extra charge on letter or parcel for understamping, c special charge made on the individual members of a local authority by the auditor on account of expenditure wrongly incurred 3 Additional imprint, superimposed upon original design &c, showing change of value &c on postage stamp &c

surcharge (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To overcharge, charge to excess or beyond requirements 2 To demand additional payment or overcharge from 3 To print a surcharge upon

sure (I), n [1 sūre, 2 sūrah], fr O Fr sure, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surah, n [1 sūra, 2 sūrah] Prob fr Surat, in Western India, see surat. Also surah silk, soft twilled silk fabric

sural, adj [1 sūral, 2 sūrah], fr Lat sūra, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surat, n [1 sūrat, 2 sūrah], fr Surat, town in Western India, north of Bombay 1 Kind of cotton grown in Bombay Presidency 2 Coarse cotton fabric made in Surat district

surbase, n [1 sūrbās, 2 sūrah] sur- (II) & base (I) (arohit) Moulding, cornice, above base of pedestal &c

surcease, n & vb intrans [1 sūrsēs, 2 sūrah], w assimilation to cease (I), fr A Fr surseoir, P P of surseoir, 'to delay, restrain', fr O Fr surseoir, fr Lat supercedere, 'to refrain from, forbear', see supersede (archaic) 1 n Complete cessation, end. 2 vb To stop, cease finally

surcharge (I), n [1 sūrchārg, 2 sūrchārg], fr O Fr sur- (II) & charge (I) 1 Excessive, additional, extra, load, burden, charge, specif a sum added to price &c, extra charge, b extra charge of electricity &c beyond requirements 2 a Additional charge made on property by assessors of taxes, as penalty for inaccurate return, b extra charge on letter or parcel for understamping, c special charge made on the individual members of a local authority by the auditor on account of expenditure wrongly incurred 3 Additional imprint, superimposed upon original design &c, showing change of value &c on postage stamp &c

surcharge (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To overcharge, charge to excess or beyond requirements 2 To demand additional payment or overcharge from 3 To print a surcharge upon

sure (I), n [1 sūre, 2 sūrah], fr O Fr sure, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surah, n [1 sūra, 2 sūrah] Prob fr Surat, in Western India, see surat. Also surah silk, soft twilled silk fabric

sural, adj [1 sūral, 2 sūrah], fr Lat sūra, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surat, n [1 sūrat, 2 sūrah], fr Surat, town in Western India, north of Bombay 1 Kind of cotton grown in Bombay Presidency 2 Coarse cotton fabric made in Surat district

surbase, n [1 sūrbās, 2 sūrah] sur- (II) & base (I) (arohit) Moulding, cornice, above base of pedestal &c

surcease, n & vb intrans [1 sūrsēs, 2 sūrah], w assimilation to cease (I), fr A Fr surseoir, P P of surseoir, 'to delay, restrain', fr O Fr surseoir, fr Lat supercedere, 'to refrain from, forbear', see supersede (archaic) 1 n Complete cessation, end. 2 vb To stop, cease finally

surcharge (I), n [1 sūrchārg, 2 sūrchārg], fr O Fr sur- (II) & charge (I) 1 Excessive, additional, extra, load, burden, charge, specif a sum added to price &c, extra charge, b extra charge of electricity &c beyond requirements 2 a Additional charge made on property by assessors of taxes, as penalty for inaccurate return, b extra charge on letter or parcel for understamping, c special charge made on the individual members of a local authority by the auditor on account of expenditure wrongly incurred 3 Additional imprint, superimposed upon original design &c, showing change of value &c on postage stamp &c

surcharge (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To overcharge, charge to excess or beyond requirements 2 To demand additional payment or overcharge from 3 To print a surcharge upon

sure (I), n [1 sūre, 2 sūrah], fr O Fr sure, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surah, n [1 sūra, 2 sūrah] Prob fr Surat, in Western India, see surat. Also surah silk, soft twilled silk fabric

sural, adj [1 sūral, 2 sūrah], fr Lat sūra, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surat, n [1 sūrat, 2 sūrah], fr Surat, town in Western India, north of Bombay 1 Kind of cotton grown in Bombay Presidency 2 Coarse cotton fabric made in Surat district

surbase, n [1 sūrbās, 2 sūrah] sur- (II) & base (I) (arohit) Moulding, cornice, above base of pedestal &c

surcease, n & vb intrans [1 sūrsēs, 2 sūrah], w assimilation to cease (I), fr A Fr surseoir, P P of surseoir, 'to delay, restrain', fr O Fr surseoir, fr Lat supercedere, 'to refrain from, forbear', see supersede (archaic) 1 n Complete cessation, end. 2 vb To stop, cease finally

surcharge (I), n [1 sūrchārg, 2 sūrchārg], fr O Fr sur- (II) & charge (I) 1 Excessive, additional, extra, load, burden, charge, specif a sum added to price &c, extra charge, b extra charge of electricity &c beyond requirements 2 a Additional charge made on property by assessors of taxes, as penalty for inaccurate return, b extra charge on letter or parcel for understamping, c special charge made on the individual members of a local authority by the auditor on account of expenditure wrongly incurred 3 Additional imprint, superimposed upon original design &c, showing change of value &c on postage stamp &c

surcharge (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To overcharge, charge to excess or beyond requirements 2 To demand additional payment or overcharge from 3 To print a surcharge upon

sure (I), n [1 sūre, 2 sūrah], fr O Fr sure, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

surah, n [1 sūra, 2 sūrah] Prob fr Surat, in Western India, see surat. Also surah silk, soft twilled silk fabric

sural, adj [1 sūral, 2 sūrah], fr Lat sūra, 'calf of the leg', cp Gk (Ionia) (hōrē, 'calf of the leg' Pertaining to, connected with, the calf of the leg

1 a Certain to produce a particular result, unfailling in action, effectiveness &c a sure way to injure oneself, a sure method, a sure shot, slow and sure, 'our defence is sure', b reliable, dependable to send a letter by a sure hand, sure grounds for belief, c safe, secure, trustworthy a sure footing 2 Certain to do some specific thing, action, or to undergo specific experience, be in specific condition he is sure to come, it's sure to be wet Phrs be sure to, take care to, be certain to be sure to tell me 3 Positively true, well authenticated as a fact, undoubted a sure and certain hope Phrs to make sure, (i) to feel sure, be convinced, persuaded I made sure it would rain today (ii) to ascertain beyond doubt, satisfy oneself I believe the line is from 'Lycaidas', but you had better make sure, to make sure of, (i) to secure evidence of reliability of to make sure of one's facts, (ii) to secure possession of, make certain of obtaining I must make sure of a house for the winter, (iii) to ascertain that one can count on support &c of I fancy X will vote for us, but we must make sure of him, to be sure, a (implying concealment) indeed, it is granted, admitted, b (as exclamation) denoting surprise, well, to be sure!, just fancy that! 4 Having reasonable grounds for belief, basing one's opinion on positive or apparent fact, confident, free from doubt or uncertainty to be sure of one's facts, I am sure he is honest, I am not sure if I can do it, Phrs to feel sure (that), be convinced, be confident that, I'm not so sure, I don't feel absolute confidence, sure of, having good reasons for expecting or depending on to be sure of a living, a welcome &c, sure of oneself, having self confidence sure (II), adv, fr prec Surely, certainly, archaic, except in colloq Phr as sure as, as certainly, truly, as, sure enough, certainly, in fact sure-footed, adj Not liable to stumble or slip mountain ponies are very sure-footed surely, adv [1 shorli, shórlí, 2 [shí, [shá:] sure (I) & -ly 1 Without danger, safely, securely 2 Without doubt, inevitably he must surely fail 3 Expressing strong hope or belief in the probability, though not absolute certainty, that something is so, that it will happen or be done you surely don't mean to be cruel, surely something can be done to help him, surely this drought can't last much longer sureness, n [1 shórne, shórne, 2 [óna, [su:] See prec & -ness State or quality of being sure surety, n [1 shórti, shórti, 2 [óti, [suti:] Doublet of security, ME seurtie, fr O Fr seurtie, fr Lat securitāt (em), 'safety, security', see sure (I) & -ty 1 State of being sure, certainty, sureness Phr (archaic) of a surety, certainly 2 Person who makes himself responsible for the good conduct of another, for his appearance in court, payment of a debt &c suretyship, n [1 shórti, shórtiship, 2 [óti-, [suti:] Prec & -ship Position, obligation, of person acting as surety surf, n [1 serf, 2 sáf] Earlier suffe, parh a variant of sough Foamy spray produced by waves breaking on the shore or on a reef of rocks surface (I), n [1 sérís, 2 sáfis, fr O Fr surface, sur- (II) & face, cp superfluous 1 Outer part of anything having length and breadth, any two dimensional limit of a solid object, outside, exterior the surface of the earth, ocean, wood with a polished surface, beneath the surface 2 (geom) Part of space existing in two dimensions, having length and breadth but not depth, plane surface, plane 3 (in material and non material sense) outward appearance, outward part, exterior, that part or aspect of anything which meets the eye, which is obvious, or apparent on a cursory inspection, or to the inner perception from a brief experience or contemplation his cleverness is only on the surface, to look below the surface of things, Phr on the surface, so far as appearances go surface (II), adj, fr prec Existing only on, affecting only, pertaining only to, the surface, superficial surface appearance, politeness &c surface (III), vb trans, fr surface (I) To produce a specific kind of surface on, to finish off, dress, surface of surface-current, n Current of little depth at surface of water surfaced, adj [1 séríst, 2 sáfíst], fr PP of surface (III) Having, provided with, finished with, a specific kind of surface surface-flow, n (geom) Flow of lava &c over a land-surface surface-man, n [1 sáfísmán, 2 sáfísmán] Workman employed on railway to keep permanent way in repair surface-printing, n Printing on textile fabric from a plate with design in relief surface-tension, n Property of liquids, due to molecular action, which causes the outer, exposed surface to contract to a minimum area, thus forming a very thin film of appreciable toughness surface-water, n Water lying on or drained from surface of ground surf-bird, n Bird resembling plover, found on west coast of America surf-board, n Ohlong board used for surfing surf-boat, n Boat specially constructed for use in surf surf-duck, n Kind of sea duck of northern regions surfeit (I), n [1 sérít, 2 sáfít] ME surfet, fr O Fr surfat, fr PP of surfaire, 'to increase, cause to exceed', fr sur- (II) & Lat facere, 'to do', see fact 1 Excess, esp in feeding, overeating or overdrinking 2 Result of over-indulgence in food or drink, satiety, repletion 3 Excess of intellectual or spiritual experience a surfeit of concert, of detective novels surfeit (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To over-indulge, overfeed, to satiate, cloy, with excessive indulgence 2 intrans To indulge (oneself) to excess, to become satiated, experience satiety surf-man, n Man engaged or skilled in management of surf-boat surf-riding, n A form of sport in which one endeavours to balance oneself on an ohlong board while being swept along by heavy surf surfry, adj [1 sérí, 2 sáfí] surf & -y Abounding in, resembling, of the nature of, surf surge (I), vb intrans [1 serj, 2 sáfj], fr O Fr surger, fr Lat surgere, 'to raise, to rise', fr sur- (I) & -rigere, fr regere, 'to guide, direct', see rogent, rex 1 (of water, waves &c) To swell, rise, with violent, tumultuous motion 2 a To move to and fro, hallow, like waves surging crowds, b (fig, of emotion &c) to rise tumultuously surge (II), n, fr prec 1 Act, process, of surging 2 a Mass of heaving, billowing water, tumultuous waves, b (poet) the sea surgeon, n [1 sérjnn, 2 sáfjoo] ME surgen, contracted fr chirurgien, fr O Fr chirurgien, see chirurgoon 1 Medical practitioner in that branch of the profession which treats diseases and injuries by operation and manipulation, contrasted with physician 2 General term for a doctor in the army and navy, also a doctor on a merchant ship surgeon-dentist, n Dentist holding diploma of Royal College of Surgeons surgeon-fish, n Brightly coloured fish of West Indies &c, with sharp spines at either side of the tail

Surgeon-General, n (cap) Military surgeon holding the rank of a general in the army surgery, n [1 sérjeri, 2 sáfjari] ME surgerie, fr O Fr chirurgie, fr L Lat chirurgia, 'surgery', see surgeon. 1 The art and science of treating diseases and injuries by operation and manipulative means

2 Doctor's office or consulting-room and dispensary surgical, adj [1 sérjkl, 2 sáfjkl] See surgeon & -ic & -al Connected with, pertaining to, characteristio of, surgery or surgeons surgical treatment, training, knowledge &c, surgical instruments, those used in surgical operations surgically, adv Prec & -ly By means of, according to the methods of, surgery suricate, n [1 sürikát, 2 sjurikát], fr native name South African four toed burrowing mammal allied to the mongoose, the meerkat

Surinam toad, n [1 sürinam töd, 2 sjürinam töd], fr Surinam, Dutch Guiana Large aquatic toad of Brazil and Guiana, the eggs of which develop in the back of the female surly, adv [1 serli, 2 sáfli:] surly & -ly In a surly manner surliness, n [1 sérliness, 2 sáfli:nis] See prec & -ness State or quality of being surly surloin Variant of sirloin surly, adj [1 sérli, 2 sáfli] Not found before 16th cent, used by Spenser & Shakespeare Origin doubtful, derivations fr sur-hile, in sense of haughty, & sour & ly have been suggested Sullen, morose, gloomy, gruff and churlish surmaster, n [1 sáfmahster, 2 sáfmästa] sur- (II) & master (I) (rare) The second master in some schools surmisable, adj [1 sáfízfábl, 2 sáfma:zabl] surmise (II) & -able Capable of being surmised, conjecturable surmise (I), n [1 sáfízmá, 2 sáfma:z], fr O Fr surmise, fr PP of surmettre, 'to lay to one's charge, accuse', fr sur- (II), & mettre, 'to put', fr Lat mittere, 'to send', see mission Conclusion, inference, formed from data which do not amount to absolute proof, a conjecture, a guess surmise (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To form a surmise, to conjecture 2 trans To guess, reach by a surmise to surmise the truth surmount, vb trans [1 sáfírmóunt, 2 sáfmaunt], fr O Fr surmonter, sur- (II) & mount (II) 1 To overcome, get the better of, rise superior to (difficulties, obstacles &c) 2 To rise, stand, be placed over the top of, be above elaborate carving surmounts the entrance, (chiefly used in PP) his head was surmounted by a tuft of feathers surmountable, adj [1 sáfírmóuntáhl, 2 sáfmauntábl] Prec & -able Capable of being surmounted, overcome surmullet, n [1 sáfírmulet, 2 sáfmaht], fr O Fr surmulet, fr sor, 'reddish brown', see sorrel (II), & mullet (I) European edible fish with two barbels below the mouth, red mullet surname, n & vb trans [1 sáfírnám, 2 sáfíneim] sur- (II) & name (I), on anal of fr surnom, fr sur- (II) & Lat nomen, 'name', see nominal 1 n (formerly) A distinctive personal appellation, often a nickname, bestowed upon an individual in addition to his baptismal name, b permanent, hereditary name borne by all the members of a family, and usually transmitted through direct male ancestors from father to son 2 vb To give a surname (in sense a) to, call (person) by surname they surmamed King Edward VII 'the Peace maker', King John was surmamed Lackland surpass, vb trans [1 sáfíspás, 2 sáfspás], fr O Fr surpasser, 'to excel', sur- (II) & pass (I) To rise above, go beyond, excel, in degree, quality, intensity &c the reality surpassed all their expectations, he surpassed all his brothers in strength and comeliness surpassing, adj [1 sáfíspásing, 2 sáfspásing], fr Pres Part of prec Exceeding or excelling others, pre eminent, matchless surpassing beauty surpassingly, adv Prec & -ly To a surpassing degree.

surplice, n [1 sɜrplɪs, 2 ɔlphə, -sə] ME surplus, fr O Fr surplus, surplis, fr Med Lat superpellicum, fr super- & Lat pellicum, 'tunic of skins', see pelisse & pellicle Loose, white vestment of varying length with wide sleeves, worn by clergy, and usually by a choir, at divine service surpliced, adj [1 sɜrplɪst, 2 ɔlphɪst] sur- plice & -ed Wearing a surplice surplice-fee, n Clergyman's fee for marriage, baptism &c surplus, n & adj [1 sɜrplɪs, 2 ɔlplɪs] fr O Fr surplus, fr Med Lat superplus, 'excess', super- & plus 1 n Amount over and above what is required, quantity or sum left over, excess, residue 2 adj Remaining as residue, forming a redundant amount or supply surplus food &c surplusage, n [1 sɜrplɪsɪ, 2 ɔlplɪsɪdʒ] Pre & -age Surplus, overplus surprised, n [1 sɜrpraɪz, 2 ɔsprɪzɪ] sur- prise (II) & -al (rare) Act of surprising surprise (I), n [1 sɜrpraɪz, 2 ɔsprɪzɪ] fr O Fr surprise, fr PP of surprendre, 'to surprise', see sur- (II) & prise (III) 1 Emotion aroused by sudden, unexpected action, circumstance, or event, wonder, astonishment 2 That which arouses surprise, unexpected action, circumstance or event his arrival was a great surprise 3 Act of seizing, overcoming, taking (person &c) unawares, unexpected attack to capture a force by surprise Phr to take one by surprise, take unawares, surprise surprise (II), vb trans, fr pre 1 To come upon, attack, capture, or overcome unexpectedly, to take, overcome by surprise to surprise the enemy's camp 2 To cause surprise, to excite surprise in, to astonish it takes a good deal to surprise an experienced man of the world, nothing he can do would surprise me, b to shock, startle I am surprised at you, am shocked by your conduct &c Phr I shouldn't be surprised if, I rather expect that 3 Surprise into, to cause (person) to do something, by startling him, taking him unawares, by making a sudden unexpected challenge &c to surprise a person into a confession surprise (III), adj, fr surprise (I) Occurring as a surprise, unexpected, done without previous warning a surprise visit &c surprisedly, adv [1 sɜrpraɪzɪdli, 2 ɔsprɪzɪdli] fr PP of surprise (II) & -ly In a manner expressing surprise surprising, adj [1 sɜrpraɪzɪŋ, 2 ɔsprɪzɪŋ] fr Pre Part of surprise (II) Causing, exciting, surprising, astonishing surprisingly, adv Pre & -ly In a surprising manner, to a surprising degree sutra, n [1 sʊtrə, 2 sʊtrə] fr Marathi sūtra A disease of horses, cattle and camels in India and Burma, a form of pernicious anaemia, caused by a parasitic trypanosome surrebut, vb intrans [1 sʊrɪbʊt 2 sʊrɪbʊt] sur- (II) & rebut To make a surrebutter surrebutter, n [1 sʊrɪbʊtər, 2 sʊrɪbʊtər] sur- (II) & rebutter (law) Plaintiff's reply to defendant's rebutter surrejoin, vb intrans [1 sʊrɪdʒɔɪn, 2 sʊrɪdʒɔɪn] sur- (II) & rejoin To make a surrejoinder surrejoinder, n [1 sʊrɪdʒɔɪndər, 2 sʊrɪdʒɔɪndər] sur- (II) & rejoinder (law) Plaintiff's reply to defendant's surrejoinder surrender (I), vb trans & intrans [1 sʊrɪndər, 2 sʊrɪndər] fr O Fr surrendre, fr sur- (II) & rendre, 'to give' see render A trans 1 A to give up, yield possession of, relinquish, under pressure or compulsion to surrender a fort to the enemy, to surrender one's sword, b to give up voluntarily relinquish, resign, cease claim to to surrender one's freedom, rights position, a lease &c specific, to give up a claim under an insurance policy, on repayment of proportion of premiums paid, is the surrender value 2 (reflex.) To give oneself over, abandon oneself, to a specified mood, state of mind to surrender oneself to despair

B intrans To yield oneself, or something in one's possession or keeping, to superior force &c, to submit, cease to resist the fort, ship &c surrendered, to surrender to the enemy surrender (II), n, fr pre Act of surrendering there must be no surrender surreptitious, adj [1 sʊrɪptɪʃɪəs, 2 sʊrɪptɪʃɪəs] fr Lat surrepticius, 'secret, surreptitious', fr surreptum, PP type of surripere, 'to creep, steal, along', fr sur- (I) & ripere, 'to seize, snatch', see rapid (I) Done, formed, in a secret, underhand manner, with intent to avoid observation, clandestine, stealthy, furtive surreptitiously, adv Pre & -ly In a surreptitious manner surrogate, n [1 sʊrɒɡɪt, ɡɪt, 2 sʊrɒɡɪt, ɡɪt] fr Lat surrogat (um), PP type of surrogare, 'to elect in another's place, substitute', fr sur- (I) & rogare, 'to ask, demand', see rogation Substitute, deputy, specif, an ecclesiastical officer acting as deputy for the bishop, or his chancellor, in granting marriage licences surrogateship, n [1 sʊrɒɡətɪʃɪp, 2 sʊrɒɡɪtɪʃɪp] Pre & -ship Office, rank, period of tenure of office, of surrogate surround (I), vb trans [1 sʊrʊnd, 2 sʊrʊnd] fr obs surround, 'to overflow', fr O Fr surrunder fr sur- (II) & Lat undare, 'to rise in waves, surge, swell', fr unda, 'wave', see undulate (I), op abound the present meaning is influenced by round (I) 1 A To extend round about on all or nearly all sides, to encompass, enclose, encircle, encompass a wall surrounds the garden, hills surround the plain, a crowd surrounded him, b specific (mil.) to invest, beset (fortress, body of troops &c), to stand round, be present in numbers at all his family surrounded his death bed 2 To cause to be surrounded, to fence round, place a boundary round to surround a part with a wall 3 (fig.) A To bring into contact with, subject to influence of, encompass, to lap in to surround a person with every comfort, with luxury, affection &c, b (i) to beset, press in upon, be ready to assail many dangers surround us, (ii) to be close at hand, be readily available surrounded with, by, hosts of friends &c surround (II), n, fr pre Floor-covering between carpet and walls surrounding, adj [1 sʊrʊndɪŋ, 2 sʊrʊndɪŋ] fr Pre Part of pre Lying adjacent to, extending in proximity on all sides surrounding country &c surroundings, n pl [1 sʊrʊndɪŋz, 2 sʊrʊndɪŋz] surround & -ing 1 Things, objects persons area, lying, existing, in immediate proximity or relation, surrounding country &c a fine house in ugly surroundings, pleasant social surroundings 2 A External circumstances and conditions of existence, material environment unhealthy surroundings, surroundings favourable to work, b moral and intellectual environment, surrounding influences the stimulating surroundings of college life, to live amid religious surroundings surtax, n & vb trans [1 sɜrtæks, 2 sɜrtæks] sur- (II) & tax (I) 1 n A term used, since 1829-30, for the tax previously called 'super-tax', unlike the latter it is assessed not separately but for the same year and on the same return as the ordinary income tax 2 vb To impose an extra tax on surcoat, n [1 sɜrtʃə, 2 sɜrtʃə] fr Fr surcoat, 'loose coat', lit 'an overall', fr sur- (II) & cote, 'all', fr Lat totus, 'all', see total (archaic or obs) Man's overcoat, an old-fashioned style of frock coat surveillance, n [1 sɜrvɛljəns, 2 sɜrvɛljəns] fr Fr surveillance, fr surveiller, 'to watch over', fr sur- (II) & veiller Pre Part of veiller, 'to watch', fr Lat vigilare, 'to be watchful', see vigilant & -ce Constant supervision watch, observation, kept over person's movements under surveillance survey (I), vb trans [1 sɜrvɛ, 2 sɜrvɛ] fr

A Fr surveier, fr O Fr surveier, 'to look over', fr sur- (II) & veier, 'to see', fr Lat videre, 'to see', see vision (I), & words there referred to 1 To look over, view full extent of, take comprehensive view of to survey the scene, a landscape &c 2 To take a general view of, consider at large, review (circumstances, facts &c) to survey the situation 3 specific A To inspect carefully, measure by geometrical and trigonometrical methods (a tract of country, coast, a piece of land &c), and record the exact extent, shape, contours, natural features &c, b to inspect (house, piece of property) in order to ascertain its condition and to estimate its value survey (II), n [1 sɜrvɛ, 2 sɜrvɛ] fr pre 1 General view, comprehensive examination, of a scene, group of objects &c to make a rapid survey of a house and grounds 2 General review, consideration, of facts, circumstances, situation &c a survey of our present position 3 Specific A (i) act, process, of surveying a country, tract of land &c from the point of view of its size and physical features, (ii) department of government &c carrying out a series of surveying operations, (iii) record of result of such survey, b (i) inspection, examination, of condition, extent &c of buildings, esp for purposes of valuation, (ii) record of result of such examination surveying, n [1 sɜrvɛɪŋ, 2 sɜ, sɜrvɛɪŋ] survey (I) & -ing Science or practice of determining extent, physical features &c of a part of the earth's surface by means of measurements and mathematical calculations surveyor, n [1 sɜrvɛɪər, 2 sɜ, sɜrvɛɪər] survey (I) & -or A person employed in land surveying, specific b official inspector or superintendent surveyorship, n [1 sɜrvɛɪərɪʃɪp, 2 sɜ, sɜrvɛɪərɪʃɪp] Pre & -ship Position, office, of a surveyor survival, n [1 sɜrvɪvəl, 2 sɜ, sɜrvɪvəl] survive & -al 1 Act of surviving, state of being alive after specific event or after period of existence of another person, animal &c Phr survival of the fittest, (biol) theory that as a result of natural selection only those organisms which can adapt themselves to their environment can survive, the others being eliminated 2 That which survives, something continuing in existence after specific event or period survivals of medieval customs survive, vb trans & intrans [1 sɜrvɪv, 2 sɜ, sɜrvɪv] fr Fr survivre, fr Lat supervivere, 'to outlive', fr super- & vivere, 'to live', see vital A trans 1 To live longer than, outlive, live exist, beyond term of existence of he survived his wife for many years, his mental faculties survived his physical powers 2 To continue to live or exist after, and in spite of a specified event or experience to survive a shipwreck &c B intrans To continue to exist, be still in existence or operation not one of the family survives, the custom still survives survivor, n [1 sɜrvɪvər, 2 sɜ, sɜrvɪvər] survive & -or One who survives, a one who outlives another or others, b one who survives an event the survivors of the earthquake survivorship, n [1 sɜrvɪvərɪʃɪp, 2 sɜ, sɜrvɪvərɪʃɪp] Pre & -ship 1 State of being a survivor 2 (law) Right of surviving tenant of jointly held property to claim entire estate sus-, pref Form of sub-, perh. fr the earlier form sub- w loss of b, used in Lat compounds where the second element begins w c, p, t susceptibility, n [1 sʊsɛptɪbɪlɪtɪ, 2 sʊsɛptɪbɪlɪtɪ] See susceptible & -ity 1 State or quality of being susceptible 2 (pl) Susceptibilities, responsiveness, capacity for reacting to, emotional stimulus, sensibility susceptible, adj [1 sʊsɛptɪblɪ, 2 sʊsɛptɪblɪ] fr Lat suscep(um), PP type of suscipere,

'to take up, receive, hold up', fr sus- & capere, 'to take', see captive, & -ible 1 a Easily accessible, keenly responsive to, emotional appeal, readily influenced by feelings and emotions, highly sensitive he is a susceptible fellow where the ladies are concerned, a too susceptible heart is often troublesome, b susceptible to, capable of feeling, readily influenced by, accessible to susceptible to flattery, to kind treatment 2 (prod only, followed by of) Patient of, admitting, allowing to be susceptible of proof, of several interpretations susceptibly, adv Prec & -ly In a susceptible manner susceptive, adj [1 suséptiv, 2 saséptiv], fr Lat susceptum, PP type of suscipere, 'to receive', see susceptible, & -ive Connected with, pertaining to, the reception of emotional impressions or influences susceptiveness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being susceptible susceptivity, n [1 suséptivita, 2 saséptivita] See prec & -ity Quality of being susceptible sus, n [1 sōs, 2 sās] Hind E Indian striped fabric of cotton and silk sushik, n [1 sōshik, 2 sāshik] Russ Greyish-brown ground squirrel of Northern Europe and Asia suspect (I), adj & n [1 sūsépekt, 2 sāsépekt], fr Fr, fr Lat suspensum, PP type of suspensere, 'to look upwards, to look secretly at, to mistrust, suspect', fr sub- & specere, 'to look', see species 1 adj Open to suspicion, liable to be mistrusted, of doubtful character 2 n Suspected person suspect (II), vb trans & intrans [1 sūsépekt, 2 sāsépekt] Lat suspicāre, 'to look at secretly, to mistrust', freq of suspicere, see prec A trans 1 To have a vague idea or inkling of the existence of, to feel persuaded of existence of, or of the future occurrence of I suspected the presence of fire from the odour, from the symptoms one might suspect measles, 1 strongly suspect an underhand plot 2 To have misgivings regarding, to doubt, mistrust, be inclined to disbelieve in I strongly suspect the truth of the story, the genuineness of his professions, the authenticity of the document 3 To believe guilty, to attribute guilt to, to consider the guilt of (a person) probable to suspect a person of murder, of lying, to suspect an innocent man, suspect in such connexion may involve various degrees of moral certainty short of absolute conviction based upon proof 4 To suppose, presume, expect, to think it probable, to feel persuaded (that) I suspect that we shall have rain before night, I suspect he was only too glad not to be asked to sing, also absol you are pretty tired after your journey, I suspect B intrans To entertain suspicions, to be suspicious suspectable, adj [1 sūsépektabl, 2 sāsépektabl] Prec & -able Capable of being suspected, liable to suspicion suspend, vb trans [1 sūsēnd, 2 sāsēnd], fr Lat suspendere, 'to hang up, to check, interrupt, suspend', fr sus- & pendere, 'to hang', see pendant 1 To hang up, cause to hang from above to suspend a bird-cage from the ceiling 2 To postpone, defer, arrest, delay (a physical or mental action) to suspend judgement, proceedings, business &c Phrs to suspend payment (of a bank &c), fail to meet financial obligations, to suspend one's judgement, delay coming to a decision pending further information and consideration 3 (1) To debar, prohibit, temporarily, from exercise of privileges or functions, (u) remove from position to suspend a clergyman for misconduct, to suspend a clergyman from preaching suspended, adj [1 sūsēnded, 2 sāsēnded], fr PP of prec 1 Held in fixed position within the atmosphere, or in a fluid, without either rising or sinking dust suspended in the air, salt suspended in water 2 Temporally inactive, in state of abeyance suspended animation, unconsciousness suspender, n [1 sūsēndēr, 2 sāsēndēr] Prec & -er That which suspends, specif a device for holding a sock or stocking in position on the leg, b (Am usage, pl) brace suspense, n [1 sūsēns, 2 sāsēns], fr Fr, fr. PP of suspendere, 'to hang', fr Lat suspensere, 'to hang', see suspend 1 State of mental uncertainty and anxiety as to the result of some action or event, anxious expectation to keep a person in suspense, to be unable to endure the suspense 2 (law) Temporary cessation of a right 3 (book-keeping) suspense account, account in which items are entered temporarily until their proper place is settled suspensibility, n [1 sūsēnsibilita, 2 sāsēnsibilita] See next word & -ity State or quality of being suspensible suspensible, adj [1 sūsēnsibl, 2 sāsēnsibl], fr Lat suspens (um), PP type of suspendere, 'to hang', see suspense, & -ible Capable of being suspended suspension, n [1 sūsēnsion, 2 sāsēnsion] suspensio & -ion Act of suspending, state of being suspended (in various senses of vb) suspension-bridge, n Bridge suspended from chains or cables which are supported by towers at either end, or by a series of piers suspensio per collum, n [1 sūsēnsiō pēr kōlum, 2 sāsēnsiō pēr kōlum] Lat, 'hanging by the neck' (law) Hanging as capital punishment, usually abbr sus per coll suspensive, adj [1 sūsēnsiv, 2 sāsēnsiv], fr Lat suspensum, PP type of suspensere, 'to hang', see suspend, & -ive a Tending, having the power, to suspend temporarily, b pertaining to, resulting from, characterized by, mental suspense suspensively, adv Prec & -ly In a suspensive manner suspensory, adj [1 sūsēnsuri, 2 sāsēnsuri], fr Lat suspensum, PP type of suspensere, 'to hang', see suspend, & -ory 1 Of, pertaining to, forming a means of, suspensory bandage 2 Tending to delay, suspend, arrest, operation suspicion, n [1 sūsēpsion, 2 sāsēpsion], fr O Fr, fr Lat suspiciō (em), 'mistrust, suspicion', earlier suspicio, fr sub- & specere, 'to see', see species, cp suspect (I) 1 Feeling of vague belief in, inkling, glimmering, of, the existence or occurrence of something I had a suspicion of the truth though I was not certain, the disguise was so good that I had no suspicions of his real identity 2 Act of suspecting, a feeling of doubt, mistrust, impression that something is probably not true, not genuine &c I have grave suspicions of the man's integrity, b belief in a person's guilt, tendency to suspect a person 3 State of being suspected to be under suspicion, above suspicion 4 Slight trace, touch, hint, flavour, small portion just a suspicion of brandy in the pudding, a suspicion of arrogance in his manner suspicionless, adj [1 sūsēpsionless, 2 sāsēpsionless] Prec & -less Without suspicion, unsuspecting suspicious, adj [1 sūsēpsihus, 2 sāsēpsihus], fr Lat suspiciōsus, 'feeling or exciting suspicion', fr suspicio, 'mistrust', see suspension, & -ous 1 Inclined to, feeling, expressing, suspicion a suspicious nature &c 2 Arousing, tending to excite, suspicion a suspicious character, suspicious actions, under suspicious circumstances suspiciously, adv Prec & -ly In a suspicious manner, a so as to express suspicion to glance suspiciously at a person, b so as to excite suspicion to behave suspiciously suspiciousness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being suspicious suspuration, n [1 sūsēpsurāshun, 2 sāsēpsurāshun], fr Lat suspuration (em), 'a sighing', next word & -ation Act or process of suspiring, a sigh suspire, vb intrans [1 sūsēpsir, 2 sāsēpsir], fr O Fr, souspirer, fr Lat suspīrāre, 'to draw a deep breath, to sigh', fr sub- & spīrāre, 'to breathe', see spirant (poet) To draw a deep breath, to sigh sustain, vb trans [1 sūsēstān, 2 sāsēstān] ME sustēnen, fr O Fr sustēin, Prec stem of sustener, 'to hold up', fr Lat, sustinēre, 'to hold up, to check, restrain, to uphold, maintain, to undergo, endure', fr sus- & tenēre, 'to hold', see tenable 1 To support, carry weight of, hold up pillars sustain the arch 2 a To undergo, endure, suffer (physical or mental experience) to sustain injuries, a shock &c, specif b to be able to endure without giving way or collapsing, to bear to be unable to sustain a shock 3 To enable to endure, give physical, moral, or mental strength or support to food sufficient to sustain life, hope alone sustained him 4 To uphold, support, approve as right or just the court sustained his claim 5 To support, confirm, corroborate, help to prove the recently discovered facts sustain the contention 6 a To keep up, maintain to sustain one's rôle, sustained efforts, b to prolong, keep going to sustain a note sustainable, adj [1 sūsēstānabl, 2 sāsēstānabl] Prec & -able Capable of being sustained sustainment, n [1 sūsēstānmēt, 2 sāsēstānmēt] sustain & -ment Act of sustaining, state of being sustained sustenance, n [1 sūsēstānans, 2 sāsēstānans], fr O Fr, fr L Lat sustinentia, 'endurance', fr sustiner (em), Prec Part of sustinēre, 'to hold up, to uphold, maintain, to endure', see sustain, & -ce, w spelling altered on anal of words in -ance, s g governance &c 1 (rare) Act of sustaining by nourishment, maintenance of strength 2 That which sustains or supports life or strength, nourishment sustentation, n [1 sūsēstāntāshun, 2 sāsēstāntāshun], fr O Fr, fr Lat sustentationem, 'maintenance', fr sustent (um), PP of sustinēre, 'to uphold, support', see sustain, & -ation Act or process of sustaining life, subsistence, sustentation fund, fund for supplying sustentances, or more generally for supporting, maintaining, an institution and the group of persons connected with it susurrant, adj [1 sūsēsrānt, 2 sāsēsrānt], fr Lat susurrant (em), Prec Part of susurrare, 'to buzz', see next word Whispering, murmurous susurrat, n [1 sūsēsrāshun, 2 sāsēsrāshun], fr Lat susurrat (um), PP type of susurrare, 'to buzz, murmur, whisper', fr susurrus, 'hum, whisper', a reduplicated base cogn w Sorot sēsrati, 'sounds, resounds', O Slav sēsrati, 'to pipe', Mod. Germ schwirren, 'to buzz', see also swarm (I) Soft murmur, whisper, or rustle susurrous, adj [1 sūsēsrās, 2 sāsēsrās], fr Lat susurrus, 'whispering', fr susurrus, 'a whisper', see prec, & -ous Producing a soft murmuring or rustling sound sutler, n [1 sūtler, 2 sātler], fr Du voetelaar, 'sutler, camp cook, scullion', sp Mod. Germ sudeln, 'to daub, sully', according to Kluge, orig 'to cook badly', cogn. w soothe, suds Camp follower who sells goods, esp food, to troops

Sutra, n [1 sūttra, 2 sāttra], fr Sort, cp Sort sūtram, 'thread', cogn w Lat sūta, 'to sew', sūtor, 'cobble', sūttra, 'seam', see suture (I) Series of aphoristic formulae, collection of precepts, in Sanscrit suttee, sati, n [1 sūtē, sūtē, 2 sātē, sātē], fr Sort sati, 'faithful wife' 1 Custom of self immolation formerly practised by high caste Hindu widows on their husbands' funeral pyre

2 Hindu widow who sacrifices herself in this way sutteesm, n [1 sūtēshm, 2 sātēshm] Prec. & -ism Practice of suttee sutural, adj [1. sūtchural, 2. sūtjural] suture (I) & -al Of, pertaining to, situated near, a suture suturally, adv. Prec & -ly In the manner of a suture.

suturation, n. [1 sūchuridhūn, 2 sūtjārē[sū] suture (I) & -ation Joining by means of, formation of, a suture suture (I), n. [1 sūchur, 2 sūtjē], fr. Lat. sūtura, a sewing together, seam', fr. sūt- (um), PP type of sūre, 'to sew', cogn. w. Sert sūtās, 'stitched', Gk (kas)suein, 'to patch', Goth suyan, OE seowan, 'to sew', see sew, ON sæumr, OE siam, 'seam', see seam (I), & -ure 1 (anat.) Interlocking joint of two bones along their edges, esp. articulation of bones of skull. 2 (bot, zool.) Line of junction between two adjacent parts. 3 A dot or process of joining edges of incised wound &c. by stitching, b. stitch of thread, wire &c., used in surgical suture suture (II), vb. trans, fr. prec. To join with a suture.

sutured, adj. [1 sūchurd, 2 sūtjēd] suture (I) & -ed Having, united by, a suture suzerain, n. [1 sūzērān, 2 sūjūzērēn], fr. O Fr suzerain, formed on the anal. of suzerain, see sovereign (I), fr. sus, 'over', fr. Lat. superum, 'from below, upwards, over, above', fr. sub, see sub-, & coram*, 'turned', op. Lat. vertere, 'to turn', see version, vortex, vortex. 1 One who has supreme power, dominant authority, esp. in feudal system. 2 State exercising general, nominal, or limited control over another suzerainty, n. [1 sūzērānti, 2 sūjūzērēnti] Prec & -ty Rank, authority, of, or exercised by, a suzerain svelte, adj. [1 svelit, 2 svelit] Fr svelte, 'slim, slender', fr. ex- & L. Lat. vellit (um), used as PP of vellere, 'to pull, pluck, stretch', see vellere (of a woman's figure)

Swab (I), vb. trans [1 swob, 2 swob], fr. swabber 1 To clean, wash out, with n. swab (down) the decks 2 To swab up, to mop up, take up (liquid) with a swab swab (II), n., fr. prec. 1 Mop or pad of absorbent substance for cleaning. 2 (naut.) Naval officer's epaulet. 3 (naut. slang) Awkward, clumsy, unskilful fellow swabber, n. [1 swober, 2 swōbē], fr. Du swabber, 'one who does dirty work' 1 One who uses a swab. 2 Awkward, clumsy fellow Swabian, Swabian, adj. & n. [1 swābian, 2 swēbian], fr. Swabia, Gorm Schwaben, op. Lat. Suevi, & -an 1 adj. Of, pertaining to, Swabia. 2 n. A inhabitant of Swabia, b. Swabian dialect swaddle, vb. trans [1 ewodl, 2 swōdl] ME swathen, 'to swaddle bind', fr. OE swaðel, 'bandage', fr. swaðu, 'band, track' Cp. swath

To wrap up in long bandages or garments, bind swathe, bundle up swaddling-bands, -clothes, n. [1 swōdliŋ kōndz, klōdiz, 2 swōdliŋ bōndz, klōdiz] Long strip of material formerly used for wrapping round very young infants. Phr (fig.) still in, hardly, just out of swaddling clothes, very young and inexperienced, still under, just escaping from, strict parental supervision and control swadeshi, n. [1 swaddāhi, 2 swaddēhi] Bengali 'native country' Indian nationalist boycott of foreign, esp. British, goods, for the purpose of furthering their political aims swag (I), n. [1 swag, 2 swag], fr. obs. or provincial swag, 'to sway', prob. of Scand. origin op. Norw. swaga 'to sway', cogn. w. sway (I) (slang) Plunder, booty, anything acquired by robbery or fraud.

swag (II), n. See prec. A banging wreath or festoon as an architectural or other ornament.

swago, n. & vb. trans [1 swā, 2 swēdē] Origin uncertain. 1 n. Kind of die or tool for shaping wrought-iron &c. 2. vb. To shape (metal) with a swage swage-block n. Kind of anvil with hollows or perforations for shaping wrought-iron &c.

swagger (I), vb. intrans & trans [1 swager, 2 swage], fr. obs. swag, 'to sway', see swag (I), & -er A. intrans. 1 To walk, bear oneself, with a jaunty, self-satisfied air, strut about with an air of insolent superiority. 2. a To show off, give oneself airs, to affect superiority in bearing and speech, b. swagger about (one's) exploits, possessions &c., to boast of B. trans (rare) To influence, affect, bluff, by boastful talk or bluster swagger (II), n., fr. prec. 1 Swaggering goit. 2 Boastful, self-important manner, talk &c. swagger (III), adj., fr. prec. Smart, swell, ultra fashionable or splendid swagger clothes swagger-cane, n. Cane carried by soldier in uniform when not on parade swaggering, adj. [1 swāgering, 2 swāgerin], fr. Pres Part of swagger (I) Inclined to swagger, boastful swaggeringly, adv. Prec & -ly With (a) swagger Swahili, n. [1 swahēli, 2 swōhēli] Arab, 'of the coast' a Bantu inhabitants of Zanzibar and the neighbouring coasts, b. dialect of these tribes swain, n. [1 swān, 2 swēin] ME swain, fr. ON swinn, 'young man', op. OE swōn, 'herdsman', also as second element in boat-swain & coxswain, etymol. doubtful a (chiefly poet.) Country lad, young yokel, b. rustic lover, hence, o lover, admirer a lady surrounded by adoring swains swallet, n. [1 swōlet, 2 swōlit] Prob. fr. next word. (provinc.) Underground rock-fissure through which a stream flows swallow (I), vb. trans & intrans [1 swōlō, 2 swōlō] ME swoluen, swolgen, swoluen, fr. OE swelgon, 'to swallow, engulf', op. OHG swelgon, ON swelga, 'to swallow', apparently has no cognates outside Gmc.

A. trans. 1 To receive (food, drink &c.) into the mouth, and pass into the stomach, through the gullet, by the action of the muscles of the throat. Phrs. to swallow one's words, withdraw what one has said, recant, to swallow the bait, (fig.) to fall into the trap, to allow oneself to be deceived by a specious hope of advantage. 2 Swallow up, of the sea, must, the earth (in an earthquake), to cover over, overwhelm, engulf, to conceal from sight, envelop, ensnare. 3 Swallow up, to use up, exhaust, absorb the expenses swallowed up most of the profits 4 To tolerate, put up with, receive patiently to swallow one's insult 5 To believe, receive with credulity, accept as true he is so credulous that he swallows everything that is told him, such stories are rather hard to swallow B. intrans. To carry out the muscular action of swallowing swallow (II), n., fr. prec. 1 Act of swallowing. 2 Amount swallowed at one time, mouthful to take a swallow of water. 3 A food passage in throat, gullet, b. capacity of this in respect of size to allow a mouthful to pass to have a small swallow 4 Swallow hole swallow (III), n. OE swalwa, ME swolwa, swolue, op. OHG swalawa, M. Du. swalwa, ON swala, 'swallow', parh. fr. swalgō*, in wh. case cogn. w. Gk. alkuōn, 'kingfisher', for swalkuōn*, see halcyon. Insectivorous, migratory bird, genus Hirundo, with long pointed wings, forked tail, and short, broad beak.

swallowable, adj. [1 swōlōbəl, 2 swōlōwəbəl] swallow (I) & -able Capable of being swallowed.

swallow-fish, n. Kind of gurnard, with much elongated pectoral fins swallow-hawk, n. Swallow-tailed hawk.

swallow-hole, n. Funnel-shaped water-worn hole in limestone rock, rock fissure through which stream flows underground.

swallow-plover, n. Pratincole swallow-shrike, n. Swallow-tailed bird of Australia and E. Indies swallow-tail, n. 1 Object, projection &c., with deep fork as in swallow's tail, specif.

a swallow tail, swallow-tailed coat, b. small pennant with forked end. 2 Kind of hummingbird. 3 Kind of butterfly with long projection from each lower wing swallow-tailed, adj. Prec & -ed Having a forked, pointed tail like that of a swallow.

swallow-tailed coat, evening dress coat swallow-wort, n. 1 Herb of milkweed family. 2 Celandine swam, vb. [1 swam, 2 swēam] OE swam, Pret. of swim Swami, n. [1 swāhmā, 2 swādmī] Hind. Title given to, form of address to, Brahmin swamp (I), n. [1 swomp, 2 swomp], op. Du. zomp, Mod. Engl. sump, Mod. Germ. sumpf, 'pond', ON swapp, 'sponge', cp. also Goth swamm, OHG swamp, 'sponge', Gk. amphōs, 'spongy, porous' Level tract of land saturated with moisture, marsh, bog swamp (II), vb. trans, fr. prec. 1 To fill, overwhelm, cover, with water a wave swamped the boat 2 (chiefly in PP) To overwhelm, inundate, bestow upon to excess to be swamped with invitations swampy, adj. [1 swompī, 2 swōmpī] swamp (I) & -y Resembling, of the nature of, a swamp, boggy, marshy swan, n. [1 swon, 2 swōn] OE, ME swan, cp. Mod. Germ. schwan, OS swon, Dn. zwaan, cogn. w. Sert swanōn, 'it sounds', swanā, 'tone', Lat. sonāre, 'to sound', sonus, 'sound', see sonant, cp. also OE swinsian, 'to sing' 1 Large, web-footed, long-necked bird, genus Cygnus, usually white in Northern Hemisphere, black swan, Australian black genus, according to an ancient tradition the swan is supposed to sing very melodiously just before its death. Phr. the swan of Aion, Shakespeare 2 The constellation Cygnus swan-flower, n. Variety of tropical American orchid.

swan-geese, n. Chinese geese swan-herd, n. Official in charge of swan-marks of royal swans swank, vb. intrans & n. [1 swangk, 2 swāngk] Lymol. unknown. (slang) 1 vb. To swagger, to show off, to behave or speak in a manner adopted to show one's superiority and importance. 2 n. Behaviour, mode of speech, of one who swanks, swagger, side swan-like, adj. swan & -like Resembling a swan, specif. in whiteness, grace of form, neck &c.

swan-maiden, n. (in folk tales) Maiden capable of becoming a swan by assuming a magic robe of feathers swan-mark, n. Mark of ownership, usually on swan's upper mandible swan-neck, n. Curved end of pipe &c. resembling in outline the curve of a swan's neck.

swannery, n. [1 swōnēri, 2 swōnēri] swan & -ery Place where swans are kept or bred swan's-down, n. 1 Down of swan, esp. as trimming for dress &c. 2 Fine, thick, woollen cloth swan-shot, n. Large size of shot swan-skin, n. Soft, fine flannel swan-song, n. 1 Fabled song of dying swan. 2 Last work, pronouncement, or utterances, esp. of a poet or orator, before his death or retirement from productiveness or activity swan-upping, n. [1 swōn ūping, 2 swōn ūpīŋ] Annual marking of swans in royal herd by a notch cut in the skin of the upper mandible sway See swop

Swaraj, n. [1 swarāj, 2 sworādī], fr. Sert swaraj, 'self ruling', fr. swa, 'own', cogn. w. Lat. suus, 'one's own', see su, & raj Self-government for India, as aim of Indian Nationalists sward, n. [1 sword, 2 swōd] OE sweard, skn, rnd, ME sward, cp. O Frs suarde, M. H.G. swarte, ON svorð, 'skn, scalp', Dn. zwaard, 'rnd of bacon' Grass covered surface of ground, expanse of turf swarded, adj. [1 sworēd, 2 swōdid] Prec & -ed. Covered with sward sware, vb [1 swär, 2 swæ] (arohao) Pret of swear swarm (I), n [1 sworm, 2 swöm] OE swearm, ME swarm, op MHG swarm, ON starmr, 'swarm, tumult', Mod Germ schwarm, 'swarm of bees', prob cogn w Sert swarat, 'sounds, rags', Let susurrus, 'hum, buzz', see susurratio, O Slav svrat, 'to whistle' 1 a Large number or mass of insects, esp with continuous, irregular movement within the group, specif b cluster of bees, including a queen, leaving the parent hive to seek a new home 2 a Large body, throng, of moving persons, animals &c, a large irregular cluster a swarm of sightseers, a swarm of children, b large group, multitude, of inanimate objects a swarm of letters swarm (II), vb intrans, fr preo 1 a To come, cluster, throng, together in great numbers, as in a swarm, to crowd in an irregular mass a crowd of people swarmed to the spot, all over the ground, children came swarming round, b (specif of bees) to cluster together round queen in preparation for leaving parent hive 2 a To be present, frequent a place, exist, in swarms, or large numbers, to abound brigands swarmed in the mountains, b swarm with, to abound in, be much frequented by, thronged the place is swarming with strangers, a garden swarming with pests swarm (III), vb trans & intrans Etymol unknown a trans To clumb by clasping with hands and legs to swarm a rope, a pole, also swarm up, b intrans, to perform the act of swarming swarm-cell, n Spore having power of independent motion, zoospore swarm-spore, n Zoospore swart, adj [1 swort, 2 swät] OE swart, ME swart, 'dark', op OHG swarz, Goth swarts, ON swarir, Dn zwart, 'dark', op also ON sorta, 'dark colour', prob cogn w Lat sordere, 'to be soiled', see sordid, surdus, 'dark, dull, deaf', see surd (I) Dark in colour, swarthy swarthy, adv [1 swordhli, 2 swöðli] swarthy & -ly In a swarthy manner swarthy, n [1 swordhines, 2 swöðines] Next word & -ness State or quality of being swarthy swarthy, adj [1 swordhi; 2 swöði], fr obs swarthy, variant of swart, & -y Dark skinned, of brown, black, or sunburnt complexion swash (I), vb trans & intrans [1 swosh, 2 swøj] Imitative (of liquid) a trans To dash, splash, against, b intrans, to make a splash in, or as in, striking solid object, dash, wash swash (II), n, fr preo Noise of dashing or splashing water swashbuckler, n [1 ewöshbücker, 2 swöf-bäke] See next word A bold, dashing, adventurous, rather unscrupulous fighting man swashing, adj [1 swöshing, 2 swöfing], fr swash (I), in obs or archaic sense, 'to strike violently' (of blow) Violent, crushing swash-plate, n Revolving disk set at an oblique angle to its shaft, used for communicating an up and down motion to a rod parallel to its shaft swastika, n [1 swastika, 2 swastika] Sert, lit 'fortunate', fr svastika, 'welfare', fr su-, 'well', & asti, 'being', cogn w Gk esthi, Lat est, 'is' &c, see esse Very primitive and widespread symbol consisting of cross with arms of equal length, each arm having a prolongation at right angles, said to have been primitively a sun symbol, but it is also used in Christian decoration, also called a fylfot swat, vb trans [1 swot, 2 swät] Imitative (colloq) To crush, squash (a wasp, fly &c) swath, n [1 ewarw, swath, 2 swöp, swöp] OE swadu, 'track, band', ME swade, op M Du swade, cogn w swadde 1 a The amount of grass cut with a single sweep of a scythe, and removed to one side by the blade, b the mark left by the scythe at each stroke 2 The space cleared by a mower in the whole course in a given direction swathe, vb trans & n [1 swäth, 2 swät] M E swaden, 'to bind', fr OE swadu, 'band, track', see preo 1 vb To wrap, bind up, wind round, with long bendages or drapery 2 n Bandage, wrapping sway (I), vb intrans & trans [1 swä, 2 swei] ME swaien, op ON swaigja, 'to bend, swing' Cp swag (I) A intrans To swing unsteadily, lean to either side alternately with irregular motion, oscillate branches sway in the wind, the bridge swayed as the train passed over it B trans 1 To cause to sway, give irregular swinging motion to the wind swayed the branches 2 a To move, incline, influence, by moral power to sway the minds of men, he is not to be swayed by argument or entreaty, b (poet) to have dominion over, to rule, govern, by authority to sway the realm, to sway the sceptre sway (II), n, fr preo 1 Swaying movement, oscillation 2 Influence, power to move or direct, rule, dominion, jurisdiction, royal or other authority King Alfred held sway over all England, to own love's sway sway-backed, adj Of horses and cattle, having the back abnormally hollowed swayed, adj [1 swäd, 2 sweid], fr PP of sway (I) Sway-backed swear (I), vb trans & intrans [1 ewär, 2 swæ] OE swerian, ME sweren, op OHG swer(s)en, ON swerja, Goth swaran, 'to swear', earlier sense, 'to speak', op OE & OS andswearian 'to address, answer', see answer (I), ON swara, 'to answer (for), to stand surety', cogn w Lat sermo, 'conversation', see sermon, O Slav swara, 'dispute' A trans 1 a To assert, vow, promise solemnly, on one's oath I believe it to be true, but I can't swear it, to swear allegiance, eternal friendship, b spent, swear an oath, (i) to make a solemn vow, take one's oath, (ii) to utter a profane oath, curse, imprecation, Phr to swear a charge, accusation, against, accuse on oath 2 a To make a solemn promise, pledge, bind, oneself by an oath (that something is, or to do something) to swear to speak the truth, that what one says is true, to swear to be faithful, b (colloq) to assert emphatically, express a strong conviction that I swear I'll never go near the place again, I'd swear that picture was never painted by Turner 3 a To obtain a solemn promise from under oath, cause to take an oath to swear a person to secrecy, specif b to administer a legal oath to to swear a jury, a witness &c, also swear in B intrans To utter profane or blasphemous oaths or imprecations, to curse, to vent one's rage by uttering blasphemies he began to swear and swear, it is enough to make one swear

C Followed by adverbs and prepositions with special meanings Swear at, intrans, to address oaths or imprecations to, to curse at, vituperate Swear by, intrans, a to invoke as witness of oath to swear by all that's holy, b to have entire confidence in, recommend highly he swears by quinine for preventing colds, Phr not enough to swear by a very small amount Swear in, trans, to administer oath of office to the members of a body the jury were sworn in Swear off, intrans, to promise or swear to renounce to swear off smoking &c Swear to, intrans, to affirm on oath I believe that is true, but I could not swear to it swear (II), n, fr preo (colloq, rare) An oath, blasphemy, imprecation swear-word, n (colloq) A profane oath sweat (I), n [1 swet, 2 swei] OE sweti*, fr swāth*, variant of swāth, 'sweat', ME swet, op OHG swen, OS swēt, 'sweat', cogn w Lat sudor, 'sweat', see sudation, Gk idos, Sert sidōn, 'sweat', sidynai, 'he sweats', Let sidr, 'sweat'. The word in a physiological sense is often avoided in polite conversation, perspiration being commonly used instead in sense 1 1 a Moisture exuded by pores of skin, perspiration; Phr by the sweat of one's brow, by hard work, b moisture resembling sweat exuded from any substance, and condensing on the surface 2 a Process of sweating a good sweat often cures a cold, b state characterized by pronounced sweating to be in a sweat, a cold sweat, accompanied by chilly feeling, induced by fear &c 3 (colloq) Something that promotes sweat, work, toil, heavy labour, troublesome, tedious work, a grand compiling a dictionary is an awful sweat sweat (II), vb intrans & trans OE swetan, 'to sweat', fr swāth, 'sweat', see preo The word is often avoided, esp in physiological sense, perspire being substituted A intrans 1 a (of animals) To exude sweat, to perspire, Phr to sweat with fear, emotion &c, to be strongly moved or affected, b (of other objects and substances) to give out moisture from a surface in drops like sweat apples sweat after they are gathered, a new house is apt to be damp till the stone has sweated thoroughly 2 To work hard, toil to sweat (sweat) at one's job B trans 1 To give out, exude, in form of, or as, sweat to sweat blood Phr to sweat out (a cold &c), get rid of it by sweating 2 To cause to sweat, cause to perspire freely, by drugs or physical exercise doctors sweat their patients, to sweat a horse 3 To remove, scrape, sweat from (horse &c) 4 To force hard work from (workmen &c) at unflinching wages 5 To wear down edges or surfaces of (coins &c) by friction sweat-band, n Strip of leather &c forming lining for hat sweat-cloth, n Cloth placed under horse's collar or saddle sweat-duct, n Duct carrying sweat from sweat gland to surface of skin sweated, adj [1 swēted, 2 swētid], fr PP of sweat (II) a (of persons) Forced to work at inadequate wage, b (of labour) inadequately paid, c (of commodities) made, produced, by workers who are inadequately paid sweater, n [1 ewēter, 2 swēte] sweat (II) & -er 1 One who sweats excessively 2 Employer who sweats his workpeople 3 Heavy jersey worn by athlete after severe exercise &c sweat-gland, n Small subcutaneous gland which secretes sweat sweatily, adv [1 ewath, 2 swētili] sweaty & -ly In a sweaty manner sweatiness, n [1 swētnes, 2 swētnis] See preo & -ness Sweaty condition sweating-bath, n [1 swēting bāth, 2 swēting bāp] Bath intended to increase perspiration sweating-iron, n Metal scraper for removing sweat from horse sweating-room, n Hot room in Turkish bath sweating-sickness, n Fatal, inflammatory fever, epidemic in Europe in 15th and 16th cents sweatless, adj [1 swētlēs, 2 swētlēs] sweat (I) & -less Without, producing no, sweat sweaty, adj [1 swēti, 2 swēti] sweat (I) & -y a Covered with sweat, inclined to sweat, b resembling sweat

Swede, n [1 ewēd, 2 ewid] 1 Native of Sweden

2 (without cap) The Swedish turnip, with yellow, edible root

Swedenborgian, adj & n [1 swēdenbörgian, 2 swēdenbörgian], fr Swedish philosopher Swedenborg, d 1772 1 adj Pertaining to the system of philosophy and religious mysticism established by Swedenborg, or to the church founded by him 2 n Adherent of Swedenborg or the Swedenborgian church

Swedenborgianism, n [1 swēdenbörgianizm, 2 swēdenbörgianizm] Preo & -ism Doctrine, philosophy, of Swedenborg

Swedish, adj & n [1 swēdish, 2 swēdi] Swedish & -ish 1 adj Pertaining to Sweden or the Swedes 2 n Language of Sweden sweeny, n [1 swēni, 2 swini] Origin doubtful Muscular atrophy in horses sweep (I), vb intrans & trans [1 swēp, 2 swip] ME swepan, 'to sweep, move rapidly', wh presupposes an OE sweipan*, (unrecorded) fr base sweip* w: mutation, op OE sutpan, 'to sweep with a broom, to brandish (sword), to rush, dash (of wind)', op also OE sweipu, 'a whip', OHG sweifan, see further under swift (I), swipe (I). & swoop (I) A intrans 1 a (i) To move along, pass, with a swift, impetuous rush, to rush, dash, drive a pestilence swept over the land, 'Your manly hearts shall glow, As ye sweep through the deep, If while the stormy winds do blow' (Campbell), the cavalry swept down the valley, (u) to be driven with irresistible force snow, rain, wind, sweeps across the country, b (of non material process) a wave of indignation swept through the country, a deadly fear swept over him 2 To walk with vigorous motion, and a stately, proud, important bearing, to sail along, sail in the arch bishop swept up the aisle in his flowing robes 3 To extend, be shaped, in a wide, bold, curve the coast line sweeps away to the east in a deep bay 4 Specif, to perform the action of sweeping, brushing, with a broom I can't sweep without a broom Phr a new broom sweeps clean, new men, new measures B trans 1 To descend upon, traverse, pass along, through, over, impetuously, with violence, irresistibly the waves swept the deck, the storm swept the whole countryside 2 a To execute a rapid, abrupt gesture with, to brush to sweep one's hand over one's face, across the strings of a harp &c, b to touch, brush, with a rapid gesture to sweep the notes of a piano, the strings of a harp &c 3 To pass searchingly over or through, to traverse in all directions our ships swept the sea for weeks but could not find the enemy, to sweep the horizon with a telescope, to sweep the faces of an audience with a hasty glance 4 Specif a to clean, remove dirt, dust, rubbish &c from with a broom to sweep (out) a room, the pavements, a chimney &c, Phr to sweep the board, win all stakes on gaming table, hence, (fig) to win all the prizes, be victorious in all contests &c, b to collect together and remove by sweeping with a broom to sweep away, up, dust, snow, rubbish &c 5 (gon) a To remove, drive, brush, away, eliminate, cause to disappear, by violent or drastic action death sweeps away great and small, the waves swept away the breakwater, our troops swept the enemy before them, to be swept along in the crowd, the wind swept his hat off his head, to be swept off one's feet (by a wave &c), (also fig) to be carried away, over come, by emotion &c, b to obliterate, wipe out, destroy, abolish to sweep away slum areas, trees which obstruct the view &c sweep (II), n See preo 1 Act of sweeping with a broom to give a room a good sweep Phr to make a clean sweep of, to get rid of, do away with utterly 2 a Person who sweeps a chimney, Phr as black as a sweep, very black, grubby, b a dirty, grubby person esp a regular little sweep, a grubby child, c (slang) a messy, ill mannered, ill conditioned, disagreeable person 3 a A steady, irresistible movement, flux, flow the sweep of the tide, b a steady spacious, movement, esp of progress, affairs events intellectual development &c the onward sweep of civilization 4 a A wide sweeping movement swing stroke, made or delivered by a weapon implement &c the sweep of a sword scythe, b large, vigorous bodily gesture a sweep of the arm o a wide searching inspection with a telescope &c of the heavens 5 a The extent of a sweeping movement, move reach a two handed sword had a wide sweep b intellectual range, scope, grasp, comprehensive a mind of wonderful sweep 6 A long, heavy car, moved with a sweeping action, used for propelling or steering heavy barges, sailing boats &c 7 A loag, flowing curve the graceful sweep of draperies 8 (colloq) Abbr of sweepstakes.

sweeper, n [1 swēpə, 2 swipə]. swooper (I) & -er a Mechanical device for sweeping (floors, streets), b person employed in sweeping, esp in compound crossing sweeper sweeping, adj [1 swēping, 2 swipin], fr Pres Part of sweep (I) a Comprehensive, of wide range, unqualified, of too great inclusiveness a sweeping statement, b complete, thorough going, radical sweeping changes sweepingly, adv Preo & -ly In a sweeping manner sweepingness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being sweeping sweepings, n pl [1 swēpingz, 2 swipinz] sweep (I) & -ing a Matter such as rubbish or refuse swept up from floor, ground &c, b (fig) the sweepings of the gutter, the lowest dregs of the population sweep-net, n 1 Large fishing net paid out in an arc of a circle and drawn ashore 2 Net with handle, swept to and fro above bushes &c, for catching insects sweep-stake, n Sweep net, 1 sweepstake(s), n [1 swēpstāk(s), 2 swipstāk(s)] form of gambling on horse race &c in which those taking part pay money into a common fund which is afterwards divided between those who have drawn numbered tickets representing winning or placed horses sweet (I), adj [1 swēt, 2 swit] OE, ME swele, fr swēth*, 'sweet, pleasant', op OS sweith, OHG sucos, ON sēir, Goth sūls, cogn w Lat suavis, fr swādus*, 'sweet, pleasant', see suave, Gk hēdus, fr swadu*, 'sweet', see hedonic, Scrt swādul, 'pleasant in taste' 1 Having the taste of sugar, reverse of bitter or sour sweet cakes, apples, to be fond of sweet things, the pudding is too sweet, sweet wine, reverse of dry Phr to have a sweet tooth, like sweet things

2 Pleasant to sense of smell or taste, fresh, pure, reverse of tainted, stale, stinking, rancid the milk, water, meat, air &c is quite sweet 3 Pleasant to sense of smell, fragrant, agreeably scented sweet flowers, a sweet smell, the roses smells sweet, sweet herbs, ordinary herbs

4 A Pleasant to sense of hearing gentle, soothing, melodious a sweet voice, sweet melodies, b having a sweet, pleasant voice a sweet singer 5 Agreeable pleasant, gratifying to body or mind, delightful or restful sweet sleep sweet words, praise was sweet to him 6 a Kind, tender, gentle a sweet temper, disposition &c, Phr sweet on (a person) in love with, b having or revealing a sweet disposition a sweet woman, a sweet face 7 (colloq) Pretty, charming, delightful a sweet frock, a sweet little dog, he was perfectly sweet to her sweet (II), n, fr preo 1 Anything with sweet taste, esp a small sweetmeat, b sweet dish as oocore at dinner &c 2 Something sweet, delightful &c the sweets of the year, i.e. sweet season 3 (usually pl) Enjoyment, delight, pleasure, joy the sweets of life, victory, success 4 Sweet, beloved, person, darling a 'She is coming, my own, my sweet' (Tennyson, 'Maud'), b (as form of address) 'Sweet, be not proud of those two eyes Which starlike sparkle in their sites' (Herrick) sweetbread n [1 swētbred, 2 switbred] Pancreas or thymus, esp of calf, used as food sweet-brier, -briar, n Species of briar rose with aromatic leaves sweeten, vb trans & intrans [1 swētn, 2 switn] sweet (I) & -en A trans. 1 To make sweet impart sweetness (in any sense) to to sweeten sauce &c, a temper sweetened by sympathy 2 To render pleasant, make more endurable to sweeten toil B intrans To become sweet sweetening, n [1 swētnig, 2 switnig] Preo & -ing That which sweetens, sweet substance added to food &c sweet-flag, n A plant of the Arum family, with sword shaped leaves and aromatic root, growing in marshy ground sweet-gale, n A plant of the myrtle family, with aromatic leaves, growing in marshy ground, hog myrtle sweetheart, n & vb intrans [1 swēt-hart, 2 swithat] The suff orig -ard, op drunkard, but associated w heart (I) 1 n. a Lover, b (as form of affectionate address) beloved, darling 2 vb Lsp in Phr to go sweetheating, to go courting, love making sweeting, n [1 swēting, 2 switnig] sweat (I) & -ing 1 A sweet apple 2 (archaic) Sweetheart, darling sweetish, adj [1 swētish, 2 swithis] sweet (I) & -ish Fairly sweet sweet-john, n Narrow leaved variety of sweet william sweetly, adv [1 swēth, 2 swithis] sweet (I) & -ly 1 a In a sweet manner to speak, sing, sweetly, b to the extent of being sweet, in Phr sweetly pretty 2 (of machines) Smoothly, easily the engine runs sweetly sweetmeat, n [1 swētmēt, 2 switmit] Small piece of sweet confection made of or containing sugar, chocolate &c sweetness, n [1 swētnes, 2 switnis] sweet (I) & -ness Quality of being sweet sweet-oil, n Olive oil sweet-pea, n Cultivated annual of pea family with white or brightly colored, very fragrant flowers sweet-potato, n Creeping plant, Ipomaea, of warm climates, with sweetish, farinaceous, edible root sweet-root, n Liquorice sweet-rush, n Sweet flag sweet-scented, adj Having sweet odour, fragrant sweet-sop, n Sweet, pulpy, egg shaped fruit of tropical American trees sweet-sultan, n Garden annual, variety of the plant antan, with purple flowers sweet-tempered, adj Amiable, gracious, gentle in disposition sweet-water, n Kind of white grape sweet-william, n [1 swēt wilyum, 2 switwilam] A perennial pink, Dianthus, with clusters of small, white, red, pink, or parti coloured flowers sweet-willow, n Sweet gale sweetwood, n [1 swētwūd, 2 switwud] The bay, the wood of which is fragrant when crushed sweaty, n [1 swēti, 2 switi] sweet (I) & -y Sweetmeat swell (I), vb intrans & trans [1 owl, 2 swell] OE swellan, ME swellen, OHG swellan, ep OE swyle, fr swulh*, 'tumour', cogn w Lat (in)solens, 'immoderate, haughty', see insolent A intrans 1 a To expand, dilate, become larger by pressure exerted from within, as by inflation, to be blown out, puffed out a tyre swells as it is filled with air, b specif, to become tumefied and puffy from inflammation, accumulation of purulent matter &c his legs swelled with dropsy Phr to have suffer from, swelled head, to have an exaggerated idea of one's own importance 2 To be increased in size, volume, number, by external addition the book has now swelled to an inordinate size, all the streams have swelled since the thaw, population in many places has swelled beyond the limits of actual housing accommodation 3 a (of surface of the ground or of water) To rise into a curved protuberance above surrounding level, to billow, b (of sails &c) to be filled with wind, to belly, c (of a contour) to bulge out, become larger at a given point the vase swells into a beautiful curve in the middle, (often in Pres Part as adj) the swelling sides of a ship 4 (of sound) To increase in volume and intensity the first occasional twitter of birds at dawn soon swells into a full voiced chorus 5 To have a sense of elation, of mental or moral excitement to swell with pride, with indignation B trans 1 To cause to swell (in various senses), a to add to amount of to swell the national debt, b to augment numbers of to swell the popu. lation, c to increase volume of the melting snow swells the rivers, d to increase size or bulk of new notes and additions of all kinds have swelled the book out to monstrous size, e to render arrogant, puff up morally, (chiefly in PP) swollen with pride &c 2 (mus) To increase the loudness, volume, intensity of (a note &c) 'The pealing anthem swells the note of praise' (Gray's 'Elegy') Phr to swell the chorus (of admiration &c), join one's voice, add one's opinion, to that of others (perhaps also under 1 b above) swell (II), n, fr prec 1 (rare) Process of swelling, increase in magnitude or volume 2 Slow, steady, continuous, undulation of the sea unbroken by wave after a storm 3 a (mus) Gradual increase in volume of sound, b gradual increase and diminution of volume and loudness of a note 4 Mechanical device in an organ producing alternate increase and diminution of loudness at the will of the player 5 (colloq slang) a A person who is smartly, richly, fashionably, dressed, a dandy, a buck, a blood, b a person of omniscience, position, and distinction the Bishop and the other swells sat on the platform, c person who excels in some particular bodily or mental accomplishment a swell at tennis, at polo, a swell of Latin prose swell (III), adj, fr prec (colloq) a Smart, smart, dandified, extremely fashionable swell clothes, a swell walking stick, b (gen) of excellent quality, first rate, admirable, meritorious a swell tennis player, a swell speech, book swell-blind, n One of the shutters of a swell-box swell-box, n Chamber enclosing organ box and fitted with movable slats or shutters to release or muffle the sound swelldom, n [1 sweldum, 2 sweldom] swell (II) & -dom (colloq) Fashionable ecstacy swell-fish, n Fish capable of inflating itself swelling (I), n [1 swelling, 2 swellig] swell (I) & -ing 1 Something which is swollen, swelled, or swelled part of the body, a tumour 2 That which swells, specif a an undulation of the ground, a hillock, b an increase in size of one part of an object, part that is more prominent than the rest the swelling of a cash swelling (II), adj, fr Pres Part of swell (I) 1 Rising in an undulation, sloping, curving, into a mound the swelling turf 2 Formed so as to curve outwards, having a bulge the swelling sides of a ship swellish, adj [1 swellish, 2 swellig] swell (II) & -ish (colloq) Of, pertaining to, a swell, ultra fashionable swell-mob, n (coll) Well dressed criminals swell-organ, n Organ fitted with swell box swell-pedal, n Pedal controlling shutter of swell-box swell-rule, n (print) Diamond shaped rule with elongated ends swelter (I), vb intrans [1 swelter, 2 swelta] OE swellan, ME swellen, 'to grow faint, die', &-er, op ON swelta, Goth swiltan, 'to die', see also sultry To be, feel, extremely hot swelter (II), n, fr prec Sweltering state or condition swept, vb [1 swept, 2 swept] Pret & PP of sweep (I) swerve (I), vb intrans & trans [1 swerv, 2 swärv] OE swerforan, 'to scrub, file', ME swervan, 'to evert', op ON swerfa, 'to scour', Goth (af) swarban, 'to wipe out', OHG swarban, 'to wipe, rub, dry', M Da swerven, 'to wander' A intrans 1 To deviate from a straight line of progress, to start aside from one's course the runner swerved suddenly, some bowlers can make the ball swerve in the air 2 To depart, deviate, from a straight line of conduct to swerve from the path of duty B trans (rare) To cause (esp a hall) to swerve swerve (II), n, fr prec Act of swerving, turning aside, divergence from straight course, specif, turn or twist of cricket ball in the air swerveless, adj [1 swérless, 2 swárlis] swerve (II) &-less Not liable to swerve swift (I), adj [1 swift, 2 swift] OE, ME swift, 'swift', fr Gmc swip-ta-*, op OE swipa, ON swipa, 'whip', OHG swef, 'rotation', ON swifa, 'to sweep', OE swifan, 'to move, sweep', swifan, 'to sweep, rush', see sweep (I) 1 a Moving or capable of moving quickly, rapid, fleet a swift runner, horse, as swift as thought, swift feet, b (of time) swift years 2 (of motion) Rapid, quick a swift moteman, glance &c, birds of swiftest flight 3 Acting or happening promptly, not delayed, speedy swift revenge, a swift response, 4 Acting readily and promptly swift to take offence swift (II), adv OE swifte, fr prec Swiftly, chiefly in compounds swift passing &c swift (III), n, fr swift (I) Swift moving bird, insect, object &c, specif a genus, Cypselus, of swallow-like birds with long, pointed wings, capable of rapid and prolonged flight, b breed of pigeons, c common European newt, d ghost moth or other species of the Hepioidae, e reel for winding yarn swift-footed, adj Moving on rapid feet, walking or running quickly, also fig of time &c swift-handed, adj a Quick and deft in action, b (fig, of justice, vengeance &c) coming promptly, not delayed swiflet, n [1 swiflet, 2 swiflit] swift (III) & -let Small kind of swift (Cypselus) swifly, adv [1 swiftil, 2 swiftil] swift (I) & -ly Rapidly, quickly swiftness, n [1 swiftnes, 2 swiftnes] See prec & -ness Quality of being swift, speed, rapidity, quickness swift-winged, adj Flying on swift wings swig, vb trans & intrans & n [1 swig, 2 swig] Etymol unknown (now, vulg slang) 1 vb a trans (1) To drink, esp in large quantities, (u) op Dryden's usage 'but the bleating lambs securely swig the dug, beneath the Domes' ('Æneid', ix 72-3), b intrans, to imbibe drink 2 n Draught of liquor, a pull to take a swig at swill (I), vb trans & intrans [1 swil, 2 swil] OE swiltan, ME swilcn, 'to swell, wash' A trans 1 To rinse, wash out, drench, with water, also swill out 2 (vulg) To drink large quantities of to swill beer B intrans To absorb liquor in large quantities, greedily swill (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of swilling, rinse, wash 2 Liquid mixture of kitchen refuse &c, as food for pigs &c, wash 3 Draught of liquor, esp of poor quality swim (I), vb intrans & trans [1 swim, 2 swim] OE swimman, 'to swim, float', op OHG swimman, ON swimma, 'to swim', ON swimka, 'to swim', op further Goth swimfa, 'pool', swimma, 'sponge', OE swund, 'swimming, sea', see sound (V) A intrans 1 (of living creatures) To proceed through water by movements of the limbs, tail, fins, or other parts of the body to swim across the river, to swim about in the sea, to swim on one's back, to swim under water Phrs to swim like a stone, sunk, to swim with the tide, stream, follow popular custom or convention, sink or swim, fail, be ruined, or succeed, prosper 2 a To be supported upon surface of water, float the leaf swims down the river, b to be supported, held in suspension specks of dust that swim in sunbeams 3 To move with or as with smooth, gliding, buoyant motion 'his arms swam in the air' When a new planet swims into his ken' (Keats, 'Chapman's Homer') 4 To be deluged in, saturated with food swimming in butter 5 To overflow, be flooded, with eyes that swim with tears, see swim (III) B trans 1 To swim a horse across a river 2 To traverse by swimming to swim the Channel 3 To swim for (specified swine's-snout, n Dandelion.

distance) to swim a mile 4 a To engage in (swimming race), b to oppose (person) in swimming race swim (II), n, fr prec 1 a Act of swimming to enjoy a swim, b spell of swimming to go for a long swim Phr in the swim, familiar with current events, tendencies, activities 2 Deep pool in river, abounding in fish.

swim (III), vb intrans. Now felt as belonging to swim (I), but partly influenced in meaning by obs OE swima, ME swime, 'giddiness', op swindler 1 To feel giddy, to reel, spin his head swim 2 To produce a visual impression of revolving, rocking, oscillating, to be seen hazily, as through mist by one who is giddy everything swim before his eyes swimmer, n [1 swimmer, 2 swimma] swim (I) & -er One who swims a poor, strong swimmer swimmeret, n [1 swimmeret, 2 swimmeret] Prec & -et Abdominal appendage used by crustacean for swimming swimming-bath, n [1 swimming bath, 2 swimming bath] Large tank filled with water, usually under cover, used for swimming swimming-bell, n. Bell like swimming organ of jelly-fish &c swimming-belt, n Pneumatic belt for supporting a person in the water swimming-bladder, n Fish's air bladder, sound swimming-foot, n Swimmeret swimmingly, adv [1 swimming, 2 swimig] fr Pres Part of swim (I) & -ly With easy, unhindered, progress, successfully, prosperously everything went swimmingly, to get on swimmingly swimming-stone, n Light, porous variety of quartz swindle (I), vb trans & intrans [1 swindl, 2 swindl] Back formation fr swindler 1 trans a To cheat, defraud you've been swindled, b to obtain (money, &c) by swindling to swindle money out of a person 2 in trans To practise swindling, to cheat swindle (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of swindling, a fraudulent transaction he carried out a series of gigantic swindles 2 Something which is different from, and inferior to, what it is represented to be, something of which the nature and qualities have been deliberately misrepresented with intent to defraud, a take in a cheap watch advertised as made of gold is usually a swindle swindler, n [1 swindler, 2 swindler] fr Germ schwindler, 'one who plans extravagant schemes, swindler, cheat', fr schwindeln, 'to be giddy', OHG swintlan, 'to be giddy', op OHG swintan, 'to be faint, to vanish', cogn w OE swima, 'dizziness', see swim (III), ON swims, 'giddiness' Person who swindles, a cheat, a sharper swindlingly, adv [1 swindlingly, 2 swindlingly] fr Pres Part of swindle (I) & -ly By means of a swindle, fraudulently swine, n [1 swin, 2 swain] OE, ME swin, op Germ schwein, Goth swina, cogn w Lat suinus, 'of swine', see swillane, O Slav swinja, 'swine', Gk hūēōs, 'of swine' 1 (archaic in sing) a Hoofed, omnivorous mammal, wild or domesticated, of subfamily Suinae, esp of genus Sus scrofa, a pig, b (as pl) pigs collectively a herd of swine, some sheep and several swine 2 Term of violent abuse, a detestable, disgusting person, one guilty of low, mean, or dishonourable conduct swine-bread, n Truffle swine-fever, n Contagious disease which attacks the lungs and intestines of domestic swine swine

swineherd, n [1 swinhērd, 2 swinahid] Man in charge of swine swine-plague, n Swine fever swine-pox, n Form of chicken pox swinery, n [1 swinari, 2 swinari] swine & -ery Place in which swine are kept swine's-snout, n Dandelion.

swing (I), vb intrans & trans [1 swing, 2 swip] OE swinger, ME swingen, 'to swing', op OS, OHG swingen, Du swenken, 'to swing', Goth (af) swaggjan, 'to cause to waver'. A intrans 1 A To carry out the movement characteristic of a hanging object, to move backwards and forwards, to sway to and fro, oscillate to let one's legs swing, to swing by one hand from a branch, a lamp swing from a hook, Par (slang) to swing for (a person), he hanged for murdering him, b specif (as form of recreation) to move rhythmically backwards and forwards on a seat suspended by ropes &c 2 A To turn, move, on or as on a pivot or hinge the door swung open, back &c, to swing to, close, he swung round on his heel, the ship swung slowly round, b to move freely, as with the movements of water, about a fixed point the boat swings at her moorings 3 To walk, run &c with smooth, steady, easy, swaying motion the troops went swinging past B trans 1 A To cause, allow, to swing, to impart swinging motion to, to wave to and fro to swing a cone, one's arms, b to hold suspended and allow to dangle to swing a parcel from one's finger, to swing a lamp from the ceiling, Phr no room, not large enough, to swing a cat (in), (of room, enclosed space) very small and confined, to swing the lead, soldiers' and sailors' elang, to pretend to work hard, to malingering, c to cause to swing to and fro, in regular curves &c, as a form of exercise to swing Indian clubs, d to give a rhythmic motion to (person &c) on a swing, in a hammock &c, by pushing or pulling 2 To sling, boast, np, with a rapid swinging motion to swing a child on to one's shoulder 3 To cause to wheel from a fixed point, to cause to move on or as on a pivot to swing a battalion into line, the tide swung the boat round on its moorings swing (II), n, fr prec 1 Act, process, of swinging, swinging movement, motion to and fro, a the swing of a pendulum, Phr the swing of the pendulum, inevitable ebb and flow, action and reaction, in human affairs, opinions &c, in full swing, at the height of activity or operation, b mode of swinging, e.g. in playing golf, tennis &c 2 Free, easy swaying gait to walk with a swing 3 Rhythmic movement the swing of music, verse, a dance, Phr to go with a swing, (1) (of a tune, verse &c) run with easy, rapid movement, (u) (fig, of an event, organized action, entertainment &c) to pass off satisfactorily, cheerfully, with zest &c 4 Freedom to swing without obstruction or hindrance 5 Specif a apparatus consisting of a seat &c suspended by ropes &c, on which one may sit and swing backwards and forwards as recreation, b act of swinging in such an apparatus, c spell of such swinging 6 Distances swung, compass of swing sweep swing-boat, n. Boat-shaped swing with seats for two or more persons swing-bridge, n. Bridge moving on a pivot to allow passage of boats &c swinge, vb trans [1 swin, 2 swindz] OE swengan, fr swangjan*, 'to strike, fling, send', op Goth (af) swaggjan, 'to cause to waver', see swing (I) (archaic) To strike, give heavy blow to swinging, adj [1 swingin, 2 swindzin], fr Pres Part. of prec 1 (of blow &c) Heavy, forcible 2 (colloq) Large, huge, very considerable swingingly, adv [1 swingin, 2 swindzin], fr Pres Part. of swing (I) Having performed with, a swing a rapid, vigorous active, buoyant o swinging stride, b lilted, leaping, swiftly moving a swinging rhythm swingingly, adv Prec & -ly With a swing swingle, n & vb trans [1 swingl, 2 swingl] swing (I) & -le 1 n. Wooden instrument used for beating flax to separate woody part from fibre. 2 vb To dress flax by beating with a swingle swingle-tree n. Horizontal bar to which traces, chains &c of cart, plough &c are attached, whippole tree swinging-tow, n [1 swingling tō, 2 swip glin tōu] Coarse, woody part of flax swing-plough, n. Plough without wheels swinish, adj [1 swinsh, 2 swainsh] swine & -ish. Resembling, befitting, swine swinishly, adv Prec & -ly In a swinish manner swinishness, n. See prec & -ness State or quality of being swinish, disgusting mean, or dishonourable conduct swink, vb intrans & n. [1 swink, 2 swipk] OE swincan, 'to work', ME swinken (obs or deliberately archaic) 1 vb To toil, labour 2 n. Toil, drudgery swipe (I), vb intrans & trans. [1 swip, 2 swaip] OE swipan, 'to beat, vibrate', op OE swipe, 'whip, stroke', ON swipa, 'whip', see swift (I), sweep (I) 1 in trans. A To hit hard, deliver a powerful blow, esp at or clock, b swipe at, to aim a powerful blow at, hit out wildly at 2 trans To strike (ball) hard with a bat swipe (II), n, fr prec Strong, violent blow, given with full swing of arm swipes, n. [1 swips, 2 swaipe] Prob fr prec in obs sense, 'drink off' Weak, muddly, inferior beer swirl (I), vb intrans & trans [1 swärl, 2 swäl], fr ON swirla, 'to whirl', fr swerra, 'to whirl, to hum', cp Germ schwirren, 'to buzz', cogn w swarm (I) 1 intrans (of spray, water, dust, snow) To be whirled, or whirled, into an eddy, to eddy, to revolve rapidly and in spirals 2 (rare) trans To cause to swirl, to whirl swirl (II), n, fr prec 1 Eddying motion of water, snow &c 2 Swift, darting movement of fish through water swish (I), vb trans & intrans [1 swish, 2 swif] Imitative A trans 1 To whirl, flit, flick, quickly through the air with an audible, whistling sound the cow swished her tail 2 A To thrash, strike, flog, b swish off, to strike, out, off, with a swishing blow B intrans To pass, cut, through the air with sweeping movement and whistling, hissing, sound the sword blade swished past my ear swish (II), n, fr prec 1 Sharp, whistling, hissing sound produced by slender, flexible body moving quickly through the air 2 Quick movement producing swishing sound a swish of a cow's tail

Swiss (I), adj [1 swis, 2 swis], fr Fr suiss, fr MHG swiz Pertaining to Switzerland, its inhabitants or dialects

Swiss (II), n, fr prec 1 A Native of Switzerland, b one of the German, French, or Italian dialects spoken in Switzerland 2 Specif a Swiss porter, or guard formerly employed by the French kings now only by the Pope, b a porter or guard generally swiss-roll, n. Thin layer of light, spongy cake spread with jam and rolled up while hot switch (I), n [1 swich, 2 swit] Partly imitative of sound, op also M Du swick, 'whip' 1 A Small, slender, flexible shoot, twig, rod, b specif, such a rod used as a riding whip 2 Tress of false hair, fastened at one end 3 Device for making or breaking electric circuit or transferring current 4 Device for moving short section of railway line, to allow train &c to pass from one track to another switch (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To strike, lash with switch or other slender, flexible object. 2 To move, swing, with a quick jerk or flick, to whisk the horse switched its tail 3 A To transfer, shift, (train) to another track, b to make or break electric or other similar circuit to switch electric light on off, to switch (person) on, off, make, break, telephone connexion for B intrans A To transfer, be transferred to another track b to turn (electric current) by means of a switch, (also fig) to switch off to another line of thought Phr to switch off, cut off telephone connexion.

switchback, n. [1 swichbak, 2 swit[bak]. 1 Railway laid in zigzags to facilitate ascension by trains of very steep slope 2 Steeply undulating track up and down which a car moves on runners or rollers, at great speed, by its own impetus, form of amusement at fairs &c switchboard, n [1 swichbord, 2 swit[bōd] Set of switches, at a telephone exchange, for connecting a series of electric circuits.

switch-lever, n. Lever for operating a switch switch-man, n. Man working railway switches switch-signal, n. Device, usually automatic, for indicating position of railway switch Switzer, n [1 switser, 2 switser], fr Swiss-Germ form corresponding to Germ Schweizer, fr Schweiz, 'Switzerland', & -er (archaic) Swiss native swivel (I), n [1 swivl, 2 swivl], fr next word. Part of an attachment made to turn round, such as the shank of a hook which turns in a ring, being secured by a nut or bolt from slipping through swivel (II), vb intrans & trans, fr OE swifan, 'to move, turn', see swift (I), sweep (I), & -le To turn on or as on a swivel swivel-eye, n (colloq) An eye which looks in a different direction when the other is directed on an object, an eye with a strong cast swivel-gun, n. Gun mounted on a pivot swob n [1 swob, 2 swob] Variant of swab swollen, vb [1 swōlen, 2 swōulen] OE (ge) swollen, ME swollen, PP of swell swoon (I), vb intrans [1 swoon, 2 swin] ME swōghnen, swōmen, 'to swoon', fr OE swogan, 'to sigh, sigh', see sough 1 To faint, be overcome by syncope. 2 (poet, of sound) To fade gradually, die away.

swoon (II), n, fr prec Fainting fit swooningly, adv [1 swōningh, 2 swōningh] Pres Part of swoon (I) & -ly As though swooning, in a die away manner swoop (I), vb intrans & trans [1 swoop, 2 swōp] OE swopan, q v under sweep (I), ME swōpen, w alteration of o due to the influence of u 1 intrans To sweep, pounce down suddenly and impetuously, descend in sudden attack (esp of bird of prey) the eagle was about to swoop, swooped, (down) upon its prey, the robbers swooped down on the unsuspecting travellers 2 trans (colloq) Usually swoop up, to snatch up, seize with sweeping motion swoop (II), n, fr prec Act of swooping, sudden, swift, sweeping descent of, or as of, bird of prey swop, swap (I), vb trans & intrans [1 swop, 2 swāp] Prob fr ME swappen, 'to strike', fr swap, OE swap, 'blow', op ON swapa, 'whip', see sweep (I), swift (I) 1 trans To give as reciprocal equivalents, to exchange to swop hats, to swop yarns, to swop a penknife for a guinea pig Now colloquial, but formerly in literary use in this sense, op Dryden, 'Cleomenes' I would have swapped Youth for old age 2 intrans To carry out an exchange swop swap (II), n, fr prec Act of swapping, exchange sword, n. [1 sord, 2 sōd] OE sweord, sword ME sverd, op O Frs. sverd, OHG swert, ON sverdr, Du zward

1 Cutting and thrusting weapon of attack and defence, with a long blade, sharpened on one or both edges, fixed in a hilt, cavalry sword sabre, duelling, small sword, light, straight, triangular bladed sword, sword of state, sword carried before sovereign on state occasions Phrs sword of Damocles, a danger which is constantly threatening, fire and sword, general destruction by invading army, at the point of the sword, under compulsion, under threat of death, to cross, measure, swords with, to oppose, to draw, sheathe, the sword, to begin, end, hostilities, to put to the sword, kill, massacre. 2 The sword military methods or power, warfare sword-arm, n That used in wielding a sword, the right arm sword-bayonet, n Bayonet with a handle and a sword-like blade, capable of being used as sword. sword-bearer, n Official carrying a sword before the sovereign at ceremonies sword-belt, n Belt to which sword sheath is attached sword-bill, n South American humming-bird with long, slender beak sword-cane, n Sword stick sword-cut, n A cut delivered by sword-blade, b scar left by this sword-dance, n Dance in which swords are used, esp one with elaborate steps performed in and out between the blades of two crossed swords laid on the ground sword-dollar, n Scottish silver coin of James VI, with a sword on the reverse sworded, adj [1 sorded, 2 soddid] sword & -ed Having, equipped with, a sword sword-fish, n Large ocean fish, Xiphias, allied to the mackerel, with upper jaw elongated to form a long sword-like projection sword-flag, n Water-flag, yellow iris sword-fighted, adj [1 sord flited, 2 sdd fliditd] (of bird) Having wing-feathers of distinct colour, producing effect of a sword at the side when folded sword-grass, n Kind of sedge sword-guard, n Part of a sword hilt which protects the hand sword-hand, n Hand used in wielding sword, the right hand. sword-knot, n Loop of leather attached to the hilt of a sword, through which the hand is passed when grasping the sword for use, so that if the grasp be relaxed the sword is not dropped, but can be seized again, a sword-knot may also be purely ornamental and made of gold wire sword-law, n Military rule swordless, adj [1 sordles, 2 soddls] sword & -less Without, not relying upon, a sword sword-like, adj sword & -like Resembling a sword in shape, keenness & so sword-lily, n Gladiolus sword-play, n Fencing sword-proof, adj Not liable to be parced by sword swordsman, n [1 sordzman, 2 soddzman] Man skilled in use of sword, skilful fencer swordsmanship, n [1 sordzmanship, 2 soddzma[n]sp] Prec & -ship Skill in the use of the sword sword-stick, n Hollow walking-stick containing a thin sword-blade swore, vb [1 swor, 2 swo] OE swor, ME swor, Pret of swear sworn, adj [1 sworn, 2 swon], fr PP of swear, OE, ME sworen Under a vow, pledged sworn brothers, friends, sworn enemies, bitter, irracconcilable swot, vb intrans & n [1 swot, 2 swot] Prob a variant of sweat (slang) 1 vb To work hard, toil. 2 n Hard mental work, drudgery swum, vb [1 swnm, 2 swam] PP of swim, OE (ge)swummen, ME swumme(n) swung, vb [1 swung, 2 sway] Pret & PP of swing, OE (ge)swungen, PP, ME swunge(n) sy-, pref representing Gk syn- before s & consonant, or z, e.g. system, systole, syzygy sybarite, n & adj [1 sibirite, 2 sibirait], fr Lat Sybarita, fr Gk Sybaritis, inhabitant of Sybaris, in Italy, near the Gulf of Tarentum, noted for the luxury of the inhabitants 1 n Person given up to luxury and effeminacy 2 adj Luxurious and effeminate sybaritic, adj [1 sibiritik, 2 sibiraitik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, characteristic of, a sybarite sybaritically, adv [1 sibiritikali, 2 sibiraitikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a sybaritic manner sybaritism, n [1 sibiritizm, 2 sibiraitizm] sybarite & -izm. Sybaritic life or habits sybil, n See sibyl sycamine, n [1 sikamin, -min, 2 sikamin, -main], fr Lat sycaminus, fr Gk sikaminos, Semitic loan-word, influenced by Gk silon, 'fig', see syconium, op Heb šiqmā, 'mulberry', Black mulberry sycamore, n [1 sikamōr, 2 sikamō], fr Lat sycomorus, fr Gk sikamōros, 'mulberry tree', prob of Semitic origin, see prec, influenced by Gk silon, 'fig', see syconium, mōron, 'mulberry', see under mulberry 1 Also sycamore fig, Egyptian and Syrian tree of fig family 2 Also sycamors maple, broad-leaved maple of Northern Europe syce, sice, n [1 sis, 2 sais] Hind, fr Arab An Indian groom sycee, n [1 ais, 2 sais], fr Chinese sei sai, 'fine silk' Ingots of silver, varying in size, used in China as medium of exchange, also sycee silver synchocarpon, adj [1 siknōkarpus, 2 siknōukāpəs], fr Gk sulkhōs, 'many, frequent, dense, compact', earlier tul-sno*, fr stem tul-*, seen in Gk saltem, 'to pack, press, to equip', & Gk karpōs, 'fruit', see oarpal (bot) Producing fruit for several seasons, perennial syconium, n [1 si-, sikōnium, 2 sai-, sikōnium] Mod Lat, fr Gk silon, 'fig', prob borrowed fr a Mediterranean language Fleshy fruit with seeds borne in a hollow receptacle, as in the fig symplocy, n [1 sikofansi, 2 sikofansi] Next word & -cy Character, method, practice, of a symplocy symplocy, n [1 sikofant, 2 sikofant], fr Lat symplocia, fr Gk symplochia, 'informant', perh orig 'one who informed against persons exporting figs', fr silon, 'fig', see syconium, & phant, fr stem of phainō, 'to show', see phantasm Servile flatterer, toady symplocy, adj [1 sikofantik, 2 sikofantik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, a symplocy syosis, n [1 si-, sikōsis, 2 sai-, sikōsis], fr Lat, fr Gk sulōsis, 'fig-shaped ulcer', fr silon, 'fig', see syconium, & -osis Eruption on scalp or beard part of face, barber's itch syenite, n [1 sisnit, 2 sūdinit], fr Lat Syēnites (lapw), a kind of red granite, fr Syēnē, in Upper Egypt Crystalline, igneous, alkaline rock containing little or no quartz syenitic, adj [1 sienitik, 2 sūdinitik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, syenite syl-, pref representing Gk syn- before l, e.g. syllable, syllogism syllabary, n [1 silabari, 2 silabari], fr Lat syllaba, 'syllable', see syllable (1), & -ary List of syllabic characters used in some languages in place of an alphabet syllabic, adj [1 silabik, 2 silabik], fr Lat syllaba, 'syllable', see syllable (1), & -ic 1 Connected with, pertaining to, a syllable 2 Representing a syllable syllabic character, symbol 3 Forming, constituting, a separate syllable the sound t is syllabic in 'bottle' syllabically, adv [1 silabikali, 2 silabikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a syllabic manner, according to syllables, syllable by syllable syllabicate, vb trans [1 silabikāt, 2 silabikāt] syllabic & -ate 1 To divide into syllables 2 To articulate syllable by syllable syllabication, n [1 silabikāshun, 2 silabikāshun] Prec & -ion Act of syllabication, state of being syllabicated syllabification, n [1 silabifikāshun, 2 silabifikāshun] See next word & -fication Syllabication syllabify, vb trans [1 silabifi, 2 silabifi], fr Lat syllaba, 'syllable', see syllable (1) & -i- & -fy To treat, pronounce, as a syllable syllabize, vb trans [1 silabiz, 2 silabiz], fr Lat syllaba, 'syllable', see syllable (1), & -ize To syllabify syllable (1), n [1 silabi, 2 silabi] M.E. fr

O Fr syllabe, fr Lat syllaba, fr Gk syllabē, 'that which holds together, syllable', fr syll- & lab, stem of lambanē, 'to take, seize', cogn w Sort labhātē, rabhātē, 'seizes', rabhātē, 'vehemens', Lat rabidē, 'rage, madness', see rabid, catalepsy, & -le 1 A Any sound or combination of sounds, the utterance of which produces upon the ear the impression of an unbroken unity, the principal condition of which is that the sonority shall be either gradually reduced or gradually increased during the utterance, but not reduced and then increased again, such a now increase would constitute a fresh syllable, b graphic representation of a syllable 2 Verbal utterance, in such Phr as he never uttered a syllable, did not speak at all, I don't understand a syllable of what you say, I understand nothing syllable (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To pronounce syllable by syllable 2 To utter, pronounce 'Avry longues that syllable men's names' (Milton, 'Comus', 208) syllabled, adj [1 silabid, 2 silabid] syllable (1) & -ed Having specified number of syllables a three-syllabled word syllabub, n See sillabub syllabus, n [1 silabus, 2 silabas], fr L Lat syllabus, fr Gk syllabos, 'list, syllabus', fr syllambanē, 'to gather together', fr syll- & lambanē, 'to take', see syllable (1) 1 A An outline, summary, containing the principal subjects to be dealt with in a course of lectures or other form of instruction, programme of studies, b each course of instruction & itself 2 (R C Ch) Summary of decrees of Roman Curia, specif (cap) list of eighty heretical doctrines & given in the encyclical letter of Pius IX, 1864 syllopsis, n [1 silopsis, silopsis, 2 silopsis, silopsis] Lat syllopsis, fr Gk syllopsis, 'a taking together, comprehension', fr syll- & lēp-, a form of the base of lambanē, 'to take, seize', see syllable (1) Figure of rhetoric in which a word is used in two different senses at the same time, esp in both a literal and a metaphorical sense, e.g. his temper was as short as his coat tails sylliptic, adj [1 siliptik, 2 siléptik], fr Gk sylléptē, see prec, & -ic Pertaining to, forming, of the nature of, a syllepsis sylliptically, adv [1 siliptikali, 2 siléptikali] Prec & -al & -ly By means of syllepsis sylogism, n [1 silojizm, 2 siladizizm], fr Lat sylogismus, fr Gk sylogismos, 'conclusion, inference from premises', fr sylogizōmai, 'to collect, bring before the mind, sum up, draw conclusions', fr syll- & logizōmai, 'to reckon, compute, to conclude, infer', fr lógos, 'word, speech, thought', see logos (log) Formal statement of an argument, consisting of three propositions called respectively the major and minor premises and the conclusion, e.g. water is wet, rain is water, therefore rain is wet sylogistic, adj [1 silojistik, 2 siladistik], fr adj stem of Gk sylogizōmai, 'to infer', see prec, & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, in form of, a syllogism sylogistically, adv [1 silojistikali, 2 siladistikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a syllogistic manner or form sylogize, vb intrans & trans [1 silojiz, 2 siladiziz], fr Gk sylogizōmai, 'to infer', see syllogism 1 intrans To reason by syllogisms 2 trans To put into syllogistic form syph, n [1 silf, 2 silf], fr Fr syph, perh fr Gk silphē, 'insect, beetle, bookworm', etymol doubtful 1 Air -spirit, elemental spirit existing in the air 2 Slender, graceful woman 3 Humming-bird with long, brightly coloured tail syph-like, adj Prec & -like Resembling a syph, slender and graceful. syivan, adj See silvan sym-, pref representing Gk sym-, form of syn-, before b, p, m, e.g. symbol, symmetry symbion(t), n. [1 símion(t), 2 símíon(t)], fr. Gk. symbíon, stem symbíon-, Pres. Part. of symbíōn, 'to live together', fr. sym- & bíōs, 'life', see bio- Organism living in symbiosis symbiosis, n. [1 símibíōsis, 2 símíobíōsis], fr. Gk. symbíōsis, see pres. & -osis (biol.) A living together, in intimate relation, for purposes of nutrition, of two dissimilar organisms, a form of parasitism.

symbiotic, adj. [1 símibíotik, 2 símíobíotik] see pres. & -otic Pertaining to, characterized by, symbiosis symbiotically, adv. [1 símibíotikali, 2 símíobíotikali] Pres. & -al & -ly By means of symbiosis symbol, n. [1 símbl, 2 símbl], fr. Fr. symbole, fr. Lat. symbola, fr. Gk. symbolon, 'token, pledge, covenant', fr. symballein, 'to throw together, unite, to compare, to correspond', fr. sym- & ballein, 'to throw', see ballistic 1 Something which represents or typifies another thing, quality &c., outward sign, emblem of a person, cause, quality, principle, ideal &c. The owl was the symbol of Minerva, a circle is the symbol of eternity, a cross is the symbol of Christianity 2 Specif., a graphic character, letter, figure, sign, used to express a sound, a mathematical quantity &c.

symbolic(al), adj. [1 símblík(l), 2 símblík(l)] Pres. & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, serving as, a symbol.

symbolically, adv. Pres. & -ly In a symbolic manner, by means of a symbol symbolics, n. [1 símblíkika, 2 símblíkika] Symbol & -ics Study of symbols symbolism, n. [1 símblízm, 2 símblízm] Symbol & -ism 1 Representation by symbols 2 System or group of symbols representing specific group of ideas &c. religious symbolism &c. 3 Doctrine of a certain 19th cent. school of French poets and painters, denoting revulsion from the realistic or naturalistic school.

symbolist, n. [1 símblíst, 2 símblíst] Symbol & -ist a Person who is versed in the use of symbols, b person who makes use of symbols, c member of the French school of symbolism in art and literature symbolization, n. [1 símblízashun, 2 símblízashun] Next word & -ation Act of symbolizing, state of being symbolized.

symbolize, vb. trans. [1 símblíz, 2 símblíz] Symbol & -ize 1 To be a symbol of, typify, represent symbolically the peacock symbolizes pride 2 To represent by a symbol how shall we symbolize cunning?

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -logy Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symbology, n. [1 símblógí, 2 símblógí] Symbol & -ology Study of symbols, art of symbolic representation

symmetrophobia, n. [1 símétrófbíā, 2 símétrófbíā] symmetry & -phobia Fear, dislike, or avoidance of symmetry, esp. in architecture symmetry, n. [1 símétrí, 2 símétrí], fr. O Fr. symétrie, fr. Lat. symmetria, fr. Gk. symmetria, 'symmetry, due proportion', fr. symmetros, 'commensurate, in due proportion, symmetrical', fr. sym- & metron, 'measure', see metre 1 Such due proportion of the parts of a body or structure in relation to each other as conveys an impression of fitness and beauty, and produces a sense of pleasure 2 Correspondence, similarity in or between the opposing sides of an object, considered as halves on either side of a central line, in form and dimensions the symmetry of a face is marred by a bulge in one cheek sympalmograph, n. [1 símplámógráf, 2 símplámógráf], fr. sym- & Gk. palm (ds), 'vibration', fr. pallein, 'to shake, throw', cogn. w. Gk. peleimiskos, 'to shake, move violently', pólemos, 'fight, struggle' (see polemic), & o & -graph Instrument recording sound vibrations sympathetic (I), adj. [1 símptathétik, 2 símptathétik], fr. Gk. sympathetikós, 'sympathetic', sym- & pathetik 1 Pertaining to sympathy, feeling, expressing, sympathy, arising from sympathy a sympathetic person look, nature, understanding &c. sympathetic words 2 In accordance with one's sympathies, consonant with one's tastes, feelings, opinions &c., hence, congenial to live in sympathetic surroundings 3 Sympathetic vibrations, such as are set up indirectly by those occurring in another vibrating body, and transmitted by the air or other medium & Sympathetic sensation, one due to an indirect stimulus applied at a different point from that at which it is felt, sympathetic nerve, one of the smaller nervous ganglia which connect the main nerves of the cerebro spinal system. 3 Sympathetic ink, one which is invisible until exposed to heat, or treated with a chemical reagent sympathetic (II), n. [1 símptathétik, 2 símptathétik] Pres. & -al & -ly In a sympathetic manner sympathize, vb. intrans. [1 símptathíz, 2 símptathíz] sympathy & -ize 1 To feel sympathy, to be affected by similar or corresponding ideas or emotions to sympathize with a person in his grief or in his joy 2 I can quite sympathize with your delight at your success, my father never sympathized with my desire to see the world 2 To express sympathy, to speak sympathetically, to condole, commiserate sympathizer, n. [1 símptathíz, 2 símptathíz] Pres. & -er 1 One who sympathizes, a person who shares another's opinions &c., an adherent, supporter, b one who supports a cause, movement &c. 2 Person who shares the afflictions &c. of another, who expresses sympathy, who gives consolation.

sympathy, n. [1 símptathí, 2 símptathí] fr. Lat. sympathia, fr. Gk. sympatheia fellow-feeling, sympathy', fr. sympathés, sympathizing with', fr. sym- & pathos, 'suffering', see pathos 1 Community, identity, of feeling, fellow-feeling, a agreement with another in tastes, opinions, aspirations or with the tastes and opinions aspirations of another I have every sympathy with you in your love of country life, or with your love &c. he had small sympathy with the idle and frivolous, or with violence and frivolidy, Phr. in, out of, sympathy with, in, out of, agreement with, b conformity of temperament spiritual harmony and understanding perfect sympathy should exist between husband and wife 2 Specif. a the sharing of another's grief, sorrow, misery, misfortune &c., feeling of compassion and pity, tenderness, aroused by the sufferings of others his sympathies and pity could not but create sym- pathy in those who knew him one should feel sympathy for (or with) misfortune even when it arises from misconduct, o man of ready sympathies, b expression of sympathy, condolence, commiseration, consolation letters on messages of sympathy 3 (physiol.) Increase or diminution of activity in an organ as a result of a similar condition in another organ. 4 (phys.) a Correlation existing between vibrating bodies whereby the vibrations of one are transmitted indirectly to the other through a medium, b tendency of certain substances to act on one on the other, or to unite, o g the attraction of a magnet for steel sympelmaous, adj. [1 símplémas, 2 símplémas], fr. sym- & Gk. pelma, 'sole of foot', see under film (I), & -ous (of bird) Having 'ho flexor tendons united sympetalous, adj. [1 símptélos, 2 símptélos] sym- & petal & -ous (bot.) With petals united sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy

sympathetic, adj. [1 símptathik, 2 símptathik] sympathy & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, in the form of, a sympathy casualty, fr sumptōleis, 'to fall in with, to happen', fr sym- & ptōleō, 'to fall', see ptosis & ptero- 1 Perceptible change in an organ, or organo function, due to, and indicating, presence or development of disease the symptoms point to poisoning, to develop alarming symptoms, he has all the symptoms of malaria 2 Outward, recognizable, sign, indication, of the presence or existence of something else to show symptoms of fear, joy, hesitation is not infrequently a symptom of cowardice symptomatic, adj [1 simptomátik, 2 simptométik], fr Gk sumptomátos, stem of sumptomáō, 'chance', see prec- & -io Pertaining to, of the nature of, a symptom, forming, to be regarded as, a symptom, indicative symptomatically, adv [1 simptomátikal, 2 simptométikál] prec- & -al & -ly According to symptoms symptomatology, n [1 simptomátologi, 2 simptométikállogi], fr Gk sumptomátologia, stem of sumptomáō, 'chance', see symptom, & -o- & -logy Study of symptoms, investigation and classification of symptoms and their relation to disease syn-, pref representing Gk syn-, 'with', etymol unknown Found in compounds, usually representing or derived fr Gk words w the sense of 'with, together'.

syn(a)eresis, n [1 sinéresis, 2 sinérissis] Gk synaeresis, 'a taking, drawing, together', see syn- & heresy Coalescence, contraction, of two vowels or syllables synagogic(al), adj [1 sinagógik(l), gojlik(l), 2 sinagógik(l), gójlik(l)] synagogue & -io & -al Pertaining to a synagogue synagog(u)al, adj [1 sinagógal, 2 sinagóggal] Next word & -al Synagogical synagogue, n [1 sinagóg, 2 sinagóg] fr Fr, Lat synagoga, 'congregation of Jews', fr Gk synagōgē, 'a bringing together, place of assembly, synagogue', fr synagōgō, 'to bring together', fr syn- & agōgō, 'to bring', see agonistic a Congregation or assembly of Jews organized for religious observances and instruction, b meeting-place, place of worship, of Jewish congregation synallagmatic, adj [1 sinallagmátik, 2 sinallagmátik], fr syn- & Gk allagmat-, stem of allagmāō, 'to exchange, barter', fr allōs, 'other', see under alias Expressing, setting out, mutual obligations synal(o)epha, n [1 sinolēta, 2 sinolēta] Lat synalopha, fr Gk synalopha, 'contraction of two syllables', fr syn- & aleiphein, 'to anoint, smear over', op Gk lypos, 'fat', & see adipose Elision of final vowel before following initial vowel synanthorous, adj [1 sinántheros, 2 sinántheros], fr syn- & anther & -ous (bot) Having the anthers united synanthous, adj [1 sinánthos, 2 sinánthos], fr syn- & Gk anth (os), 'flower', see under anther, & -ous (bot) Producing flowers and leaves at the same time synaph(o)a, n [1 sináfēa, 2 sináfēa], fr syn- & Gk haphē, 'touch', fr haptō, 'to touch, fasten', no cognates outside Gk Metrical continuity between lines or half-lines of verse synarthrosis, n [1 sinarthrōsis, 2 sinarthrōsis] Gk synarthrōsis, fr syn- & arthr-(on), 'a joint', see arthritis, & -osis Joint permitting of no movement between articulating bones syncarp, n [1 sinárp, 2 sinárp], fr syn- & Gk karp (os), 'fruit', see oarpel Multiple or aggregate fruit, e.g. blackberry, mulberry syncarpous, adj [1 sinárpous, 2 sinárpous] prec- & -ous Pertaining to, characterized by, syncarps synchondrosis, n [1 sinchondrōsis, 2 sinchondrōsis] Gk synchondrōsis, 'a growing together into one cartilage', fr syn- & chondr-(os), 'cartilage', see chondr-, & -osis Articulation of bones by means of a layer of cartilage, forming an almost immovable joint synchronism, n [1 sinchronizm, 2 sinchronizm] See synchronize & -ism State of being synchronous, simultaneous occurrence or existence synchronistic, adj [1 sinchronistik, 2 sinchronistik] See prec- & -ist & -ic Synchronisms synchronistically, adv [1 sinchronistikál, 2 sinchronistikál] prec- & -al & -ly So as to synchronize, synchronously synchronization, n [1 sinchronizášun, 2 sinchronizášun] Next word & -ation Act of synchronizing, state, condition, of being synchronized synchronize, vb intrans & trans [1 sinchroniz, 2 sinchroniz], fr Gk synchronōō, 'contemporary', fr syn- & chronos, 'time', see chronic, & -ize A intrans 1 To agree in date or time, occur or exist at same period or point of time, be coincident 2 (of clocks &c) To keep the same time B trans 1 To show (events &c) to coincide in date, prove simultaneous existence or occurrence of 2 To regulate (a number of clocks), esp by electric or other mechanical device, so that they all keep the same time synchronous, adj [1 sinchronos, 2 sinchronos], fr Lat synchronus, fr Gk synchronos, 'contemporary', see synchronize, & -ous Occurring, existing, at the same time, simultaneous, coincident, contemporary synchronously, adv prec- & -ly At the same point of time synchro, n [1 sinchrōni, 2 sinchrōni] See synchronous & -y (rare) Agreement in point of time, synchronism synclastic, adj [1 sinclastik, 2 sinclastik], fr syn- & Gk klastic, 'broken', fr klainō, 'to break', see cataclasm Curving similarly in all directions, convex or concave on all sides synclinal, adj [1 sinclinal, 2 sinclinal] Next word & -al (geol) Forming a syncline syncline, n [1 sinclīn, 2 sinclīn], fr syn- & Gk klainō, 'to slope, to lie', see clinal Geological formation with beds dipping down to the axis of a fold syncope, vb trans [1 sinkopāt, 2 sinkopēt], fr Lat syncope, 'to faint away', fr syn- & copē, 'a swoon', see syncope, & -ate 1 (gram) To shorten (a word) by omitting medial sound or syllable 2 (mus) a To alter musical rhythm by beginning (a note) on a normally unaccented beat and holding it into next accented beat, b to disturb rhythm of (musical composition) by syncopeation syncopeation, n [1 sinkopášun, 2 sinkopášun] prec- & -ation Act of syncopeating, state of being syncopeated syncope, n [1 sinkopē, 2 sinkopē] Lat syncope, 'swoon, syncope', fr Gk synkopē, 'a cutting short, syncope', fr syn- & kopē, 'act of cutting', op Gk klōpō, 'to strike, cut', klōpos, 'blow', klōmma, 'piece cut off', see comma 1 Fainting fit, sudden loss of consciousness 2 (gram) Contraction of a word by loss of medial sound or syllable 3 (mus) a Syncopeation, b correspondence of two or more notes in one voice-part &c to one note in another part syncopeic, adj [1 sinkopik, 2 sinkopik] prec- & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, affected by, syncope syncopeic, adj [1 sinkopik, 2 sinkopik], fr Gk synkopē, 'to cut up', fr syn- & klōpō, 'to strike, cut', see syncope, & -ic Syncopeic syncoiledonous, adj [1 sincoiledonous, 2 sincoiledonous] syn- & cotyledon & -ous (bot) Having the cotyledons united syncretic, adj [1 sincretik, 2 sincretik] See next word & -ic Syncretistic syncretism, n [1 sincretizm, 2 sincretizm] Gk synkretismos, fr synkretizein, 'to combine against a common enemy', fr syn-, & the base seen in Gk kranōō, 'to mix, blend', krāsō, 'mixture', q v under oraōis Attempt to reconcile or unite varying religious or philosophical systems (often in disparaging sense) syncretistic, adj [1 sincretistik, 2 sincretistik] See prec- & -ist & -ic Pertaining to syncretism syncretize, vb trans & intrans [1 sincretiz, 2 sincretiz], fr Gk synkretizein, see syncretism 1 trans To carry out syncretism of, to attempt to harmonize 2 intrans (of conflicting religious or philosophic systems &c) To come into harmony, be reconciled synestium, n [1 sinestium, sitium, 2 sinestium, sitium], fr syn- & Gk est (os), 'hollow, urn, vessel', see under outis (biol) Mass of tissue containing many nuclei but not divided into separate cells syndactyl, adj [1 sinđaktīl, 2 sinđaktīl], fr syn- & Gk daktulos, 'finger', see daetyl Having two or more digits united syndactylism, n [1 sinđaktīlizm, 2 sinđaktīlizm] prec- & -ism State of being syndactyl syndactylous, adj [1 sinđaktīlus, 2 sinđaktīlus] See prec- & -ous Syndactyl syndesmosis, n [1 sinđesmosis, 2 sinđesmosis], fr syn- & Gk desmos, 'band', fr deinō, 'to bind', see diadem, & -osis Union of two parts of the skeleton by means of ligaments syndetic, adj [1 sinđetik, 2 sinđetik], fr syn- & Gk dektō, 'bound', fr deinō, 'to bind', see prec- & -io (gram) Connecting, being connected, by means of conjunctions syndio, n [1 sinđik, 2 sinđik], fr Fr, Lat syndicus, 'representative of a corporation', fr Gk syndikos, 'public advocate', fr syn- & dikē, 'judgement, justice', see dicast 1 An officer having magisterial functions in some European countries 2 (Cambridge University) Member of a special committee of the senate, corresponding to a delegate in Oxford syndicalism, n [1 sinđikalizm, 2 sinđikalizm] prec- & -al & -ism 1 Government, management of business, by a syndicate 2 Specif, system advocated by some trade-unionists whereby the ownership and management of an industry would be in the hands of the trade unions, the capitalist owner being abolished, the term is derived from French syndicat, 'trade union' syndicate (I), n [1 sinđikat, 2 sinđikat], fr Mod Lat syndicatus, syndic & -ate 1 Body of syndics, council 2 Group of financiers, merchants &c combining to carry out a commercial enterprise, esp in the preliminary stages of forming a limited liability company prior to the issue of shares to the public, group of persons &c that buy up news &c for simultaneous publication in different periodicals syndicate (II), vb trans [1 sinđikat, 2 sinđikat], fr prec- & -ate To combine into a syndicate, to publish (news &c) in several papers at the same time syndication, n [1 sinđikášun, 2 sinđikášun] prec- & -ion Act of syndicating, state of being syndicated syne, n [1 sin, 2 sin] Scots for since Auld lang syne, the days of long ago synecdoche, n [1 sinēkdokē, 2 sinēkdokē], fr Lat synecdochē, fr Gk synēkdokhē, 'synecdoche', fr syn- & Gk ek, 'out of', see under ex-, & Gk doche, 'reception', see del(h)oma, 'I receive', fr base del, see del synecdochic, adj [1 sinēkdokik, 2 sinēkdokik] prec- & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, affected by, synecdoche

synecdochic, adj [1 sinēkdokik, 2 sinēkdokik] prec- & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, affected by, synecdoche

synecdochic, adj [1 sinēkdokik, 2 sinēkdokik] prec- & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, affected by, synecdoche

synecdochic, adj [1 sinēkdokik, 2 sinēkdokik] prec- & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, affected by, synecdoche

hensae, undertaking', fr sunéim, 'I bring together', fr syn- & hém, 'I move forward, throw, send', cogn w Lat jacere, 'to throw', see jaotitation. Construction in which there is a departure from strict syntax owing to the attraction exercised by some conception expressed in the sentence, e.g. these sort of things, these being affected by the plural things syngenesia, n [1 sinjénésis, 2 sinjdénisis] syn- & genesis Development of embryo from union of male and female elements sygnathous, adj [1 sinjénáthús, sinjénáthús, 2 sinjénáthús, sinjénáthús] fr syn- & Gk. gnath (os), 'jaw', see gnathic, & -ous (of fish) With mouth forming a tube synthesis, n [1 sinjénésis, 2 sinjdénisis] Gk. synthesis, fr syn- & hízán, 'to seat', cogn w Gk hesomai, 'to sit', see under sedentary (I) Contraction of two vowels, each originally forming a separate syllable, into one syllable synod, n [1 sinod, 2 sinod] fr Fr, fr Lat synodus, 'ecclesiastical assembly', fr Gk synodos, 'meeting, junction, assembly', fr syn- & hódos, 'way', see hodomoter 1 Ecclesiastical council, whether local or general 2 Council in Presbyterian Church, intermediate between General Assembly and presbyteries 3 Deliberative assembly, council 4 (astron, archaol) Conjunction synodal, adj [1 sinodál, 2 sinodál] Proo & -al Pertaining to a synod synodic(al), adj [1 sinodíkal (l), 2 sinodíkal (l)] synod & -ic & -al. Synodal synodically, adv Proo & -ly After the manner of, by means of, a synod synoecious, adj [1 sinéusius, 2 sinéusius] fr syn- & Gk. oikos, 'house', see oconomy (hot) Having male and female elements in the same flower head, or within the same receptacle synonym, n [1 sinonim, 2 sinonim] fr Lat synonyma, fr Gk synónymos, 'synonymous', fr syn- & ónoma, 'name', see onomatopoeia, & name (I) 1 Word identical in meaning with another, or only slightly differentiated in sense or usage 2 Word identical in meaning with another in one or more of its senses, but not all synonymatic, adj [1 sinonimátik, 2 sinonimátik] fr syn- & Gk. ónomat, stem of ónoma, 'name', see proo & -ic Of, pertaining to, making use of, constituting, a synonym synonymic, adj [1 sinonimik, 2 sinonimik] synonym & -ic Synonymatic synonymity, n [1 sinonimíka, 2 sinonimíka] synonym & -ity State of being synonymous, similarity or identity in meaning synonymous, adj [1 sinonimús, 2 sinonimús] synonym & -ous Of the nature of, constituting, a synonym, expressing the same or almost the same meaning, conveying the same or a similar idea the two terms are synonymous, high is synonymous with lofty, his name is synonymous with cowardice synonymously, adv Proo & -ly By means of in the manner of, synonymously synonymy, n [1 sinonímia, 2 sinonímia] fr Gk synónymia, fr synónymos, 'synonymous', synonym & -y Synonymity synopsis, n [1 sinópsis, 2 sinópsis] fr Gk. synopsis, 'general view', fr syn- & opsis, 'sight, view', see under optic Comprehensive summary, general view, outline synoptic, adj & n [1 sinoptik, 2 sinoptik] fr Gk. synoptikos, 'taking a general view', syn- & optik 1 adj a Pertaining to, of the nature of, giving a synopsis, the Synoptic Gospels, those of St Matthew, St Mark and St Luke which present similarity of treatment, as opposed to that of St John, hence, b, of, pertaining to, the Synoptic Gospels 2 n Writer of one of the Synoptic Gospels synoptical, adj [1 sinoptíkal, 2 sinoptíkal] Proo & -al Synoptic synoptically, adv Proo & -ly In a synoptic manner, in outline, as a summary synoptist, n [1 sinóptist, 2 sinóptist] See synoptic & -ist Writer of one of the Synoptic Gospels synostology, n [1 sinostéolój, 2 sinostéolój] syn- & ostology Study of the joints of the body synost(e)osis, n [1 sinost(e)ósis, 2 sinost(e)ósis] fr syn- & Gk. osté (on), 'bone', see osteo- & -osis Anchylosis synostotic, adj [1 sinostótik, 2 sinostótik] See proo & -otic Pertaining to anchylosis synovia, n [1 sinóvia, 2 sinóvia] fr syn- & perh Lat ovum (um), 'egg', see ovum, & -ia Albuminous fluid secreted by glands between joints and acting as lubricator synovial, adj [1 sinóvial, 2 sinóvial] Proo & -al Of, pertaining to, secreting, synovial membrane, fluid synovitis, n [1 sinóvitis, 2 sinóvitis] See synovia & -itis Inflammation of the synovial membrane syntactic(al), adj [1 sináktik (l), 2 sináktik (l)] fr Gk sináktikós, fr syn- & taxis, 'to arrange, put together', see tactics Pertaining to syntax syntactically, adv Proo & -ly From the point of view of, as regards, syntax syntactics, n [1 sináktika, 2 sináktika] See syntactic & -ics Branch of mathematics treating of the number of ways of putting things together, e.g. permutations and combinations syntax, n [1 sináksis, 2 sináksis] fr Fr synaxe, fr Lat synaxis, fr Gk. synaxis, 'arrangement, grammatical construction', fr syn- & taxis, 'arranging' Arrangement and grammatical relation of words as members of a sentence, sentence construction synthesis, n [1 sinthesis, 2 sinthesis] fr Lat synthesis, 'compound, mixture', fr Gk. synthesis, 'a putting together', syn- & thesis (I) 1 A the act or process of putting together, of combining, b the result of such a process, combination, the reverse of analysis 2 (chem) The process of building up a substance by combining the elements of which it is formed, or of forming compounds by bringing together a number of simpler compounds 3 (philos) The mental process of uniting the separate elements of thought or sensation into a complex conception 4 (philol) The process of combining into an inflected word various elements supposed to have been originally distinct, e.g. abase, secondary formative elements including the stem, and the suffix or inflexion synthesist, n [1 sinthesisst, 2 sinthesisst] Proo & -ist One who makes a synthesis synthesize, vb trans [1 sinthesis, 2 sinthesis] See synthesis & -ize To synthesize synthetic(al), adj [1 sinthetik (l), 2 sinthetik (l)] fr Gk synthetikós, 'constructive', fr syn- & thesis, 'placed', see thesis 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, a synthesis 2 a Produced by, resulting from, a synthesis, specif b (chem) produced by artificial process of synthesis in a laboratory, and not by the ordinary process of nature synthetic wine, silk, rubber &c synthetically, adv Proo & -ly In a synthetic manner by means of synthesis synthetist, n [1 sinthetist, 2 sinthetist] fr Gk. synthetikos, 'compound', see synthetic, & -ist One who makes a synthesis synthetize, vb trans & intrans [1 sinthetiz, 2 sinthetiz] fr Gk synthetize, 'compound', see synthetic, & -ize a trans To combine (things or ideas) by a process of synthesis, b intrans to make a synthesis syntonic, adj [1 sinónik, 2 sinónik] syntony & -ic (of wireless transmitter and receiver) Tuned to the same wave length syntonization, n [1 sinónizáshun, 2 sinónizáshun] Next word & -ation Process of syntonizing, tuning of wireless receiver and transmitter to a certain wave length syntonize, vb trans [1 sinónik, 2 sinónik] syntony & -ize (wireless) To adjust (transmitter and receiver) to the same wave length syntonizer, n [1 sinónizor, 2 sinónizor] Proo & -er Device for syntonizing wireless apparatus syntony, n [1 sinóni, 2 sinóni] fr Gk. syntonia, 'agreement', see syn- & tone (I) State of being syntonized, specif, in wireless, the adjustment or tuning of one circuit to another so that their time periods or frequencies are similar, see resonance sypher, vb trans [1 stér, 2 stér] Etymol. unknown. To join (planks) by overlapping the edges so as to produce a smooth surface sypher-joint, n Joint made by syphering syphilis, n [1 sifilis, 2 sifilis] fr Fr, fr Syphilis, name of a character in the 16th cent. Lat poem of Frascatorius. Highly infectious venereal disease which starts with local symptoms and gradually, unless promptly treated, affects the whole system, caused by the micro organism Sporochacta pallida syphilitic, adj [1 sifilitik, 2 sifilitik] See proo & -itic Connected with, pertaining to, of the nature of, affected with, due to, syphilis syphilize, vb trans [1 sifiliz, 2 sifiliz] See syphilis & -ize To inoculate with the virus of syphilis syphiloid, adj [1 sifiloid, 2 sifiloid] See syphilis & -oid Resembling syphilis syphilology, n [1 sifilólój, 2 sifilólój] See syphilis & -o- & -logy Study of syphilis and its treatment syphilous, adj [1 sifilus, 2 sifilus] See syphilis & -ous Syphilitic syphon, n See siphon

syren, n See siren

Syriac, n & adj [1 sríak, 2 sríak] fr Lat Syriacus, fr Gk. Syriakos, fr Suria, 'Syria' 1 n Ancient Syriac dialect, western Aramaic 2 adj Of, pertaining to, written in, Syriac

Syriacism, n [1 sríasisim, 2 sríasisim] Proo & -ism Syriac idiom or characteristic in Hebrew Syrian, adj & n [1 srírian, 2 srírian] Syria & -an 1 adj Of, pertaining to, Syria 2 n Native of Syria syringa, n [1 sríngga, 2 sríngga] Mod Lat, fr syrring, stem of Lat syrrinx, 'pipe', see syrrinx Ornamental shrub, Philadelphus, with clusters of sweet scented white flowers, mock orange syringe, n & vb trans [1 srínj, 2 sríndž] fr Lat syrring, stem of syrrinx, 'pipe', fr Gk syrrinx, 'pipe', see syrrinx 1 n Tube into which liquid is drawn by suction, and ejected in a jet by pressure, hypodermic syringe, small, needle pointed syringe used by surgeons &c for subcutaneous injections 2 vb To apply a jet or spray of liquid by means of a syringe syringeal, adj [1 srínjeal, 2 sríndžjeal] fr Lat syrring, stem of syrrinx, 'pipe', see syrrinx & -al Of, pertaining to, the syrrinx syringeful, n [1 srínjful, 2 sríndžful] syringe & -ful Amount of liquid contained in a syringe syringitis, n [1 srínjitis, 2 sríndžitis] fr Lat syrring, stem of syrrinx, 'pipe', see syrrinx & -itis Inflammation of Eustachian tube syringotomy, n [1 srínjotomí, 2 sríngótomí] fr Lat syrring, stem of syrrinx, 'pipe', see syrrinx, & -o- & -tomy Operation on fistula syrrinx, n [1 sríngks, 2 sríngks] Lat. syrrinx, fr Gk. syrrinx, 'shaphard's pipe'; cp Gk syrrinx, 'channel, pipe', see Solen 1 Ancient wind instrument consisting of a set of hollow tubes of varying lengths, Pan-pipes 2 Song organ of birds, at the base of the windpipe 3 Eustachian tube 4 (org.) Fistula 5 (archaeol) Narrow, horizontal, rock hewn gallery in ancient Egyptian tomb Syro-, pref representing Gk. Syria, 'Syria', fr Suria, 'Syria' Syriac, Syriac, o.g. Syro-arabian, including Syriac and Arabian syrtis, n [1 sýrtis, 2 sírtis] Lat Syrtis, fr Gk Sýrtis, sand-bank on Libyan coast, op Gk sýrtis, 'drag-rope', sýrtis, 'to draw'. Quicksand syrup, sirup, n [1 sírup, 2 sírup], fr O Fr syrop, fr Arab sharāb, 'drink', see sharbat & shirub (II) 1 a Water saturated with sugar, b solution of sugar and water flavoured or mixed with fruit juice, medicinal substance &c 2 a Condensed juice of sugar-cane &c before separation of crystallizable sugar, b uncrystallizable part of juice of sugar cane &c, separated from crystals by the process of refining, treacle, golden syrup, pale yellow syrup obtained from sugar cane, maple syrup, obtained from sap of sugar-maple syrupy, adj [1 sírupl, 2 sírupl] Prec & -y Resembling syrup in consistency, stickiness, sweetness &c sys-, prof representing Gk syn- before s- followed by vowel syssarcosis, n [1 sisarkósis, 2 sisarkósis], fr Gk syssarkós, fr sys- & sarkós, 'to make like flesh', fr sark- stem of sarc, 'flesh', see sarco- & -osis Union of two adjoining parts of the skeleton by means of intervening muscle sysstia, n [1 sistia, sistia, 2 sistia, sistia], fr Gk sysstia, 'public mess', fr sys- & sitia, pl of siton, 'food', op Gk sitos, grain, food', & see sitology Communal meals in ancient Sparta, intended to promote discipline, economy, patriotism &c systaltic, adj [1 sistáltik, 2 sistáltik], fr L Lat systalticus, fr Gk sustaltikos, 'drawing together', fr sustellon, 'to draw in', fr sy- & stellon, 'to place', see under stole (I) Alternately contracting and dilating system, n [1 sistem, 2 sistim], fr Lat systema, fr Gk systema, 'whole compounded of parts, organized government', fr sy- & histem, 'I place, stand', see statio, & -m. 1 Group, association, aggregation, of things or objects, between which there exists connection, relation, interaction, and which together form a unity solar system, nervous system, tramway system 2 A collection of related facts, principles, ideas, exhibited and arranged so as to show the relations and bearings of each in respect of others and of the whole a system of philosophy, of grammar &c 3 A plan, scheme, for arranging and classifying objects, facts, ideas, according to general principles determined by the mutual relations of the objects &c as arranged a system of botanical, zoological, classification 4 Method, orderly mode of procedure, regularity of action system is necessary to success in business and affairs of every kind, studies conducted without a proper system are apt to lead to confusion of mind 5 Specif, the body as a whole considered in relation to efficient performance of all its functions too much tea is bad for the system, burgundy is highly recommended for the system, his system was much impaired by excesses systematic, adj [1 sistematik, 2 sistematik], fr Gk systematikos, stem of systema, 'compounded, organized whole', see system, & -ic Made, carried on, performed in accordance with system, or a system, based on a system systematically, adv [1 sistematikah, 2 sistematikah] Prec & -al & -ly In a systematic manner systematism, n [1 sistematizm, 2 sistematizm], fr Gk systematizma, see systematize & -ism a Systematic arrangement or method, b exaggerated, blind, adherence to a system.

systematist, n [1 sistematist, 2 sistematist], See pres. & -ist a Person working according to system, b person who pursues a system too blindly and rigidly systematization, n [1 sistematizashun, 2 sistematizashun] Next word & -ation. Act of systematizing, state of systematizing systematize, vb trans [1 sistematiz, 2 sistematiz], fr Gk systematizma, see systematic, & -ize To arrange in accordance with a system, reduce to a system systemic, adj [1 sistémik, 2 sistémik], system & -ic Pertaining to the human system, or body as a whole systemically, adv [1 sistémikah, 2 sistémikah] Prec & -al & -ly In respect of the human system systemless, adj [1 sistemles, 2 sistemles] system & -less Without system systole, n [1 sistoli, 2 sistali], fr Gk sustolē, 'contraction', fr sustellon, 'to draw together', see systaltic Periodic contraction of heart and arteries, alternating with diastole, q v systolic, adj [1 sistólik, 2 sistólik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, the contraction of the heart &c systyle, adj [1 sistil, 2 sistil], fr Lat stylus, fr Gk stylōs, 'style', fr sy- & stilos, 'pillar', see style (III) (acut, of columns) Placed two diameters apart systylous, adj [1 sistilus, 2 sistilus] Prec & -ous (bot) Having the styles united syzygy, n [1 sizij, 2 sizidz], fr Lat syzygia, fr Gk syzygia, 'yoke, pair', fr syzygos, 'yoked', fr sy- & zygos, 'yoke', see zygo- (astron) Point in an orbit at which a heavenly body is in conjunction with or opposition to the sun, or, in the case of the moon, to the earth

T

T, t [1 tē, 2 tē] The twentieth letter of the English alphabet, for use in abbreviations &c see list at end of Dictionary In Phrs (it suits me) to a T, as well as possible, exactly, to cross one's t's, pay careful attention to very minute points

T- Used before names of various objects shaped like the letter T; T-bandage, -bar, bol &c ta, vb [1 tah, 2 tā] Imitative of thank (you) (baby language) Thank you, (also in anticipation) please, a vulgarism when used by adults to each other taal, n [1 tahl, 2 tahl] Dn taal, 'language', see under taal Dntob dialect spoken in S Africa, esp at the Cape, Cape Dntob tab, n [1 tab, 2 tab] Etymol unknown Small flap, strip of cloth &c attached to surface or edge of larger piece, to part of a garment &c tabard, n [1 tabard, 2 tabed], fr O Fr tabard, etymol doubtful a (just) Cloak worn by lower classes in 15th cent &c, b short sleeveless garment worn by knights in Middle Ages over their armour, often emblazoned with arms of wearer, c similar garment worn by heralds, emblazoned with royal arms tabarder, n See taberdar tabaret, n [1 tabaret, 2 tabaret] Possibly connected w tabby Fabric of satin and watered silk, in alternate stripes, used in upholstery tabasheer, tabashir, n [1 tabasheer, 2 tabasheer] Hind & Pers tabashir, 'sugar of bamboo', Siliceous substance found in joints of the bamboo, formerly used in medicine tabby, n [1 tābi, 2 tābi], fr Fr tabis, fr Span tabi, fr Arab 1 Kind of coarse, watered silk 2 Also tabby cat, a brownish or brindled cat, cat with dark stripes on brown or grey, b hence, cat, esp female cat 3 Gossiping and spiteful old woman 4 Kind of concrete made of lime, gravel &c tabby-moth, n Kind of moth with streaked or mottled wings tabefaction, n [1 tabefakshun, 2 tabefakshun], fr Lat tabefactio (um), PP type of tabefacere, 'to melt, dissolve', fr tabē (s), 'a wasting away' See tabes & -faction

Emaciation caused by disease tabellion, n [1 tabellun, 2 tabellun], fr Fr, fr Lat tabellion (em), 'notary, scrivener', fr tabell (s), 'tablet, deed, document', dimin tabell (s), 'tablet', see table Official scrivener in ancient Rome, also, until 18th cent in France taberdar, -or, n [1 taberdar, 2 tabed], tabard & -er, fr tabard formerly worn by taberdar Name given to certain foundation scholars of Queen's College, Oxford tabernacle (I), n [1 tabernakl, 2 tabernakl], fr Fr, fr Lat tabernaculum, 'tent', fr taberna, 'hut, booth, dwelling, shop', see tavern, & -cule 1 a Temporary shelter, habitation, specif, light, portable temple used by the Israelites during their wanderings, feast of tabernacles, Jewish annual feast held in commemoration of the wanderings through the wilderness, b dissenting chapel or place of worship, c (fig) human body thought of as temporary dwelling-place of the soul 2 a (eccles) Receptacle in which the Host is reserved in churches, b (archit) canopied niche for the image of a saint &c 3 (naut) Socket in deck of vessel for a mast tabernacle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr pres 1 trans To furnish, provide with, a temporary dwelling or shelter 2 intrans To take up a temporary abode tabernacle-work, n (archit) Series of carved and ornamented canopies over stalls &c tabernaular, adj [1 tabernaklār, 2 tabemekjulo], fr Lat tabernacul (um), 'tent', see tabernacle, & -ar Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, characteristic of, a tabernacle tabes, n [1 tabēz, 2 tabēz], fr Lat tabes, 'a wasting away, dwindling, moisture of decay ing matter', op Lat tabēre, 'to waste, be consumed', supposed to be an extension w bk of base tāw*, 'to melt away', op O Slav tyati, 'to melt', also O E þwinan, 'to dwindle', & op thaw (med) Wasting, emaciation, specif tabes dorsalis, locomotor ataxia tabescence, n [1 tabēsens, 2 tabēsens] See next word & -ce State of emaciation tabescent, adj [1 tabēsant, 2 tabēsant], fr Lat tabescens (em), Pres Part of tabescere, 'to waste away', inchoative of tabēre, see tabes Wasting away, tending to become emaciated tabetic, adj & n [1 tabétik, 2 tabétik], fr tabes, on anal of adjs in -otic 1 adj Pertaining to, of the nature of, suffering from tabes 2 n Person suffering from tabes tabic, adj [1 tabik, 2 tabik], fr tabes & -ic Tabetic tabid, adj [1 tabid, 2 tabid], fr Lat tabid (-us), 'wasting', see tabes & -id Tabetic tabidly, adv Prec & -ly In a tabid manner tabinet, n [1 tabinet, 2 tabinet], fr Fr; etymol doubtful Watered fabric of silk and wool, used in upholstery tabintide, n [1 tabitid, 2 tabitid], fr Lat tabitid (s), 'wasting away, consumption', see tabes, & -i & -tude State of being tabescent, emaciation tablature, n [1 tablachur, 2 tablachur], fr, Fr, fr Lat tabula, 'plank, writing, tablet, painted panel', see table, & -ate & -ure Ancient name for instrumental musical notation table (I), n [1 tābi, 2 tābi] Fr, fr Lat tabula, 'board, plank, writing tablet'; etymol uncertain, the suggested relations seem purely speculative 1 a Piece or household furniture consisting of a flat surface of wood supported on legs, used for eating and working at when sitting, b (in compounds) such piece of furniture used for a specified purpose, e.g. billiard, card, dressing table &c 2 a table considered primarily as a piece of furniture at which people sit at meals, Phrs of table, (i) in the act of partaking of a meal, (ii) at, or for, meals, the Lord's Table, (chiefly Evangelical) (i) this altar, (ii) the Eucharist, b house, the food itself consumed at table a liberal, good, table, plentiful, good, food, c the persons seated at a table at a given time for a meal to set the table in a row 3 Inscribed flat slab of stone, wood, metal &c, hence, a the inscription on such a slab the tables of the law, the Ten Commandments, originally delivered to Moses on tables of stone, b a systematic list of figures, facts &c arranged according to some definite plan a table of births and deaths, table of contents (of a book &c), tables of weights and measures, mathematical tables, of logarithms &c, multiplication table, list of results of multiplying numbers, usually 1 to 12, by a given number twice two are four &c Phr to learn one's tables, learn multiplication table, tables of weights and measures, by heart 4 A flat surface, in various specific and technical senses, e.g. a a flat elevated tract of land, a plateau, b the out, flat surface of a gam, c either of two flat bony surfaces in the skull &c table (II), vb trans, fr preco 1 To place upon a table, spend a table a motion, submit it for future discussion, b to inscribe upon a writing tablet, out as a note &c tableau, n [1 tāblō, 2 tāblōu], fr tableau, 'picture', dimin of O Fr table 'plank, table, panel, picture' &c, see table (I) a Representation of some well known picture, a striking historical scene &c, by living persons suitably dressed and posed in fixed attitudes, called also tableaux vivants, b (fig) dramatic situation

table-clamp, n Clamp for fastening object to table table-cloth, n Piece of material for covering table, esp one of white linen for use at meals table-cut, adj (of diamond &c) Cut with flat top and usually bevelled border table-d'hôte, n [1 tābl dōt, 2 tābl dōut] Fr, lit 'table of the host' 1 Public table for guests at hotel &c 2 Also table d'hôte breakfast, dinner &c, meal in a hotel for which a fixed price is charged, consisting of a series of courses chosen and ordered by the manager table-flap, n Leaf of a table, on a hinge, which can be raised or lowered tableful, n [1 tāblfūl, 2 tāblfūl] table (I) & -ful a Amount, number of objects, required to cover a table, b number of persons that may be seated round a table table-knife, n Knife for use at meals table-land, n Elevated plain, plateau table-leg, n One of the vertical supports of a table table-linen, n Table cloths, napkins &c, n-cd at table table-money, n Allowances made to general officers in the Army, and flag officers in the Navy for expenses of official hospitality table-spoon, n Large spoon used for eating soup, and for helping vegetables &c tablespoonful, n [1 tāblspōnfūl, 2 tāblspōnfūl] As much as can be contained in a table spoon tablet, n [1 tāblēt, 2 tāblēt] f- O Fr tablete, fr Med. Lat tabulula, tabula (I) & -st 1 Small flat slab of stone or metal inscribed with a design inscription &c 2 Thin sheet of wood ivory, metal &c, covered with wax or otherwise prepared formerly used for writing upon esp one of a set of two or more sheets hinged or tied together at top or side 3 Small flat, compressed cake, usually round containing medicinal drug table-talk, n a Informal conversation at meals, b book containing record of such conversation table-tomb, n Flat topped burial monument found in catacombs at Rome tablette, n [1 tāblēt, 2 tāblēt] fr Fr tablette, see tablet (archit) Flat coping stone of wall &c, projecting at other side table-turning, n Act or process of causing a table to move by the unconscious action of a number of persons who place their hands lightly upon it tablier, n [1 tābliā, 2 tāblī] fr Fr tablier, 'apron', fr Lat tabulari (us), fr tabula, see table (I) & -ary Small apron used as part of the trimming of a woman's dress tabling, n [1 tāblīng, 2 tāblīp] table (II) & -ing 1 (carpentry) Projection on piece of timber, designed to fit into corresponding groove or mortice in another piece 2 (naut) Broad beam on sail tabloid, n [1 tāblōid, 2 tāblōid] table & -oid Copyright trade name Small, round, flat, compressed cake, containing a drug &c, tablet Phr in tabloid form, (fig) in concentrated, compressed form taboo (I), n [1 tāboō, 2 tāboō] fr Polynesian tapu 1 (in Polynesian tribes) Custom of setting apart certain persons or objects as either sacred or accursed, this usually implies that such persons or things may not be touched, and that their names may not be uttered 2 Religious or social system characterized by taboo 3 Prohibition, ban, restraint taboo (II), adj, fr preco (only predic) 1 a Set apart as sacred or accursed under taboo, b forbidden to be touched or spoken of 2 Prohibited, ruled out by convention, proscribed such things are taboo in decent society taboo (III), vb trans, fr taboo (I) To prohibit, utterdith, to avoid (a word, practice &c) as taboo tabor, n [1 tāber, 2 tāber, 3], fr O Fr tabour, fr Arab, see tambour Small drum resembling a tambourine or tumbrel, used to accompany pipe taboret, n [1 tāborēt, 2 tāborēt, 3] taboret, tāburet] fr O Fr, 'stool', dimin of O Fr tabour, 'drum', see tabor 1 Small stool 2 Embroidery frame 3 Needle-case 4 Small tabor, tabret tabret, n [1 tābrēt, 2 tābrēt] Variant of preco Small tabor, taboret tabula, n [1 tābūla, 2 tābūla] Lat tabula, 'board, plank, writing table, panel', see table (I) (zool) Flat plate of bone &c, esp horizontal plate in some corals tabula rasa, n [1 tābūla rāza, 2 tābūla rāza] Lat, 'erased tablet' a Used of the mind before any impressions or ideas have been received, b complete obliteration, a blank, a clean sweep of what already exists tabular, adj [1 tābūlar, 2 tābūlar] fr Lat tabulār (us), 'of boards or plates', fr tabula, 'board, tablet', see table (I), & -ar 1 a Having a flat table like surface, b consisting of thin plates, laminated 2 a Arranged, set out, in tablets in tabular form, b stated, exhibited, by means of tables tabular results tabularly, adv Preco & -ly (rare) In tabular form, by means of a table tabulate (I), vb trans [1 tābūlit, 2 tābūlit] tabula & -ato 1 To arrange, display, in tabular form, to set out in systematic grouping to tabulate data, results &c 2 To give a flat surface to tabulate (II), adj tabula & -ats 1 Having a broad flat surface 2 Arranged in series of thin plates, laminated tabulation, n [1 tābūlāshun, 2 tābūlāshun] tabula (I) & -ion Act of tabulating, state of being put into tabular form tabulator, n [1 tābūlitūr, 2 tābūlitūr] tabulate (I) & -or a Person who tabulates, b typewriter attachment for tabulating figures tabunahao, n [1 tākama nāh, 2 tākama nāh] 5 American Indian 1 Yellowish, bitter, aromatic gum resin yielded by certain tropical trees, used in incense, ointment &c 2 Balsam poplar of N America tac-su-tac, n [1 tāk sū tāk, 2 tāk ou tāk] fr Fr, imitative (fencing) a Parry followed immediately by riposte, b series of swift attacks and parries tace, vb intrans, imprat [1 tāsi, 2 tāsi] Lat tacē, imperat. of tacere, 'to be silent', cogn. n Goth þahan, Oð þega, Oð þagan, O H G dogēn, 'to be silent' Be silent tacet, vb intrans [1 tāset, 2 tāset, 3 tāset] Lat tacet, 3rd sing pres of tacere, 'to be silent', see preco (in unusual score) Direction for instrument to remain silent tache, n [1 tāsh, 2 tāsh, 3 tāsh] fr O Fr tache, 'spot', of Gmc origin, see tack (I) Coloured spot or blotch on the skin, a freckle tachometer, n [1 tākōmeter, 2 tākōmēt] fr Gk takhō (s), 'speed', etymol doubtful, & -meter Instrument for measuring speed tachometry, n [1 tākōmetrī, 2 tākōmetrī] fr Gk takhō (s), 'speed', see preco, & -metry Art or practice of measuring speed tachycardia, n [1 tākikārdia, 2 tākikārdia] fr Gk takhō (s), 'swift', see tachometer, & kardia, 'heart', see cardiac (med) Abnormally rapid action of the heart tachygraphic(al), adj [1 tākigrāfik (l), 2 tākigrāfik (l)] tachygraphy & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, written in, tachygraphy tachygraphy, n [1 tākigrāf, 2 tākigrāf] fr Gk takhō (s), 'swift', q v under tachometer & -graphy System or use of shorthand, specif, one of the systems of notation used by ancient Greeks and Romans tachylite, n [1 tākilit, 2 tākilit] fr Gk takhō (s), 'swift', see tachometer, & lithos, 'to loosen, dissolve', q v under second element of analysis, so called because easily decomposed by acids Kind of black, opaque, basaltic glass tachylytic, adj [1 tākilitik, 2 tākilitik] Preco & -ic Of, of the nature of, consisting of, tachylite tachymeter, n [1 tākimeter, 2 tākimēt] fr Gk takhō (s), 'swift', see tachometer, & -meter Instrument used in surveying for the speedy measuring of distances, fixing of points &c tachymetry, n [1 tākimetri, 2 tākimetri] See preco & -metry The use of a tachymeter tact, adj [1 tāst, 2 tāst] fr Lat tacti (u), PP type of tacere, 'to be silent', see tace Unspoken, understood without being expressed, implied by silence tact approval, a tact understanding tactily, adv Preco & -ly In a tact manner tacturn, adj [1 tāstērū, 2 tāstērū] fr Lat tacturn (us), 'quiet, taciturn', fr tacti (um), see tacti Habitually silent, speaking little, of few words, reserved in speech tacturnity, n [1 tāstērūti, 2 tāstērūti] fr Lat tacturnitāt (em), 'taciturnity', preco & -ity Quality of being taciturn tacturnly, adv [1 tāstērūli, 2 tāstērūli] tacturn & -ly In a taciturn manner tack (I), n [1 tāk, 2 tāk] fr A Fr tacque, 'nail', op O Fr tache, 'point, spot', of Gmc origin, op Germ zaeken, 'tooth, prong', Du tak, 'twig', cp attach 1 Short, sharp, broad headed, weakish nail, tin tack, one made of iron coated with tin, Phr (vulg) (come down to brass tacks, tacks 2 (needlework) Long stitch used in making temporary seam or fastening 3 (naut) a Rope for fastening corner of sail, b corner of sail to which this is attached, c ship's course in relation to position of sails, Phr on the port, starboard, tack, with wind on port, starboard, side, d change of course produced by shifting sails to take advantage of wind Phr tack and tack, by a succession of tacks 4 (fig) Course of action, policy on the wrong, right, tack 5 (of varnish, printing-ink &c) Viscous condition stickiness tack (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To fasten with tack(s) to tack the carpet down, to tack a notice to the wall 2 To make a temporary seam or fastening in a garment or fabric, stitch together with long stitches to tack two pieces of silk together 3 (fig) To attach, link on, as a supplementary part, to append to tack a moral on to the end of a story B intrans 1 To change ship's direction by bringing a different side to the wind 2 (fig) To change one's line of action, one's opinions &c, to adopt a new policy tack (III), n Etymol unknown Food, fare, provisions, esp hard tack, ship's biscuits, soft tack, bread, as distinct from biscuit &c, good food tackiness, n [1 tákines, 2 tákines] tacky & -ness State of being tacky, stickiness tackle (I), n [1 tákli, 2 tákli] ME talel, fr LG takel, fr ON taka, 'to seize, grasp', & -le, see tako (I) 1 Mechanical contrivance for moving, esp for raising, heavy weights, spool, system of ropes, pulleys &c, a for raising weights, b for handling ship's sails, spars &c 2 Gear, equipment, used in specific occupation, often in compounds, fishing tackle &c 3 (fr vb) Act of tackling opposing player in football tackle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To fasten, hook, with tackle 2 (lit and fig) a To seize, grapple, come to grips with, attack, spout (football) to seize and try to stop (opponent), b (fig) to approach, deal with, confront, engage in argument with I tackled him on the question of free trade 3 To turn one's attention to (a piece of work, a problem) with a view to completion, or solution, to undertake, start dealing with B intrans To carry out the operation of tackling tackle-block, n Pulley forming part of tackle tackle-fall, n Rope connecting blocks tackling, n [1 tákling, 2 tákling] tackle & -ing Apparatus for hoisting &c, tackle tacky, adj [1 tákli, 2 tákli] tack (I) & -y (of varnish &c) Thick, sticky, viscous tact, u [1 takt, 2 takt], fr Lat tact (us), 'touch, sense of touch, effect, influence', fr PP type of tangere, 'to touch', see tangent 1 Keen, natural perception of what is right and fitting, quick apprehension of the right thing to say or do, instinctive skill, adroitness, discretion, in dealing with persons or difficult situations 2 (mus) Most emphatic beat in a bar tactful, adj [1 tákfool, 2 tákfool] Prec & -ful Possessing, exhibiting, tact tactfully, adv Prec & -ly In a tactful manner tactical, adj [1 taktiki, 2 taktiki] See tactics & -al Concerned with, pertaining to, tactics tactically, adv Prec & -ly By means of, from the point of view of, according to the methods of, tactics tactician, n [1 taktishan, 2 taktishan] See tactics & -ian Student of, one skilled in, tactics tactics, n [1 táktaiks, 2 táktaiks], fr GK taktik (a), 'tactics', op tassein, fr tal jo*, 'to arrange', op also tagé, 'order of battle', taxis, 'arrangement, ordinance, post, rank, levy', see taxis & -io 1 Art of handling troops in the field, in presence of enemy, also art of handling ships in a naval action, contrasted with strategy 2 Art of handling a political situation, adroit method of dealing with persons and circumstances so that a desired end may be gained as easily and smoothly as possible tactile, adj [1 táktil, -il, 2 táktil, -il], fr Lat tacti (-is), 'tangible', fr tacti (um), PP type of tangere, 'to touch', see tangent, & -ile 1 Concerned with, pertaining to, affected by, the organs, or the sense, of touch 2 Capable of being touched, tangible tactility, n [1 táktiliti, 2 táktiliti] Prec & -ity 1 State or quality of being tactile 2 Tangibility tactless, adj [1 táktilis, 2 táktilis] tact & -less Lacking in tact tactlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a tactless manner tactlessness, n See prec & -ness Lack of tact tactful, adj [1 tákful, 2 tákful], fr Lat tactu (s), 'touching', see tact, & -al Pertaining to, derived from, the sense of touch tactually, adv Prec & -ly By means of touch tadpole, n [1 tádpoi, 2 tádpoi] ME tadpolla, fr OE tād, 'toad', see toad, & poll (I) Larva of frog, toad &c, having a tail and external gills, later absorbed into the body tadpole-fish, n Fish with broad, flat head tadium vitae, n [1 tádium vitē, 2 tádium vitē] Lat tadium vitae, 'weariness of life', see tadium, vital (med) Suicidal tendency caused by depression or weariness tael, u [1 tál, 2 tál] Port, fr Malay tahil, 'weight' a Chinese ounce, 1½ oz avoirdupois, b this weight in pure silver, as monetary unit ta'en, vb [1 tūn, 2 tein] Contracted fr taken (past) taenia, n [1 tēnia, 2 tēnia] Lat taenia, 'ribbon, band, fillet, ribbon-fish, tapeworm', fr GK tainos, 'band, fillet, bandage', fr a form tain* (ds), 'narrow', earlier tan jo-*, op GK tainos, tainos, 'to stretch', tainos, 'cord', see tons & thin 1 (Gk and Rom archaeol) Hair band, fillet 2 (archit) Fillet above architrave on Doric column 3 (anat) Ribbon-like organ, arrangement of muscle &c 4 Tape worm taenoid, adj [1 tēnoid, 2 tēnoid] Prec & -oid 1 Ribbon shaped 2 Connected with a tapeworm tafferel, n, usually taffrail [1 táfri, 2 táfri], fr Do tafferel, dumm of tafel, 'table', fr Lat tabula, 'tablet, slab', see tabula, table (I) Upper part of ship's stern taffeta, u [1 táfeta, 2 táfeta], fr Fr taffetas, fr Ital taffeta, fr Pers taftah Fabric of silk, or silk and linen taffrail, n [1 táfri, 2 táfri], fr Du tafferel, 'tafferel', see tafferel, assimilated to rail

Taffy (I), u [1 táfí, 2 táfí] Welsh form of Davy, fr David [colloq] Welshman taffy (II), n See toffie American for toffie tafia, n [1 táfia, 2 táfia] W Indian Kind of rum distilled from refuse of sugar manufacture &c tag (I), n [1 tag, 2 tag] Prob Scand., op Swed tagg, 'spike, prickle, tooth', Norw tagge, 'tooth' 1 Appendage, something forming an end, point, or projecting flap, point &c, esp a metal point of lance, b tip of animal's tail, a loop or flap at back of boot to give purchase in drawing it on, d label tied by string &c, e loose, hanging end, flap or torn edge, f ragged or matted lock of wool on sheep 2 Refrain of song or poem 3 Epilogue of play 4 Hackneyed phrase or quotation tag (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To furnish with a tag, add a tag to a tagged lace

2 To join on, add, as an appendage, tack on, esp to add something on to a literary composition 3 To cut tags from wool of a tag sheep 4 (colloq) To pursue closely, dog tag (III), n, & vb trans Prob fr prec 1 u Children's game in which one pursues and tries to touch others 2 vb To overtake and touch another player in this game

Tagetes, u [1 tajstēs, 2 tēstēs] Mod Lat, origin doubtful, the name of an Etruscan deity Tagetes is suggested as possible source Genus of plants of the aster family, with bright yellow or orange flowers, e.g. French marigold tagger, n [1 tágēr, 2 tágēr] tag & -er (pl) Tain sheet iron, esp one without coating of tin

Tain, adj & n [1 ták ik, 2 ták ik], fr Tai, a race of the Indo Chinese peninsula, including Siamese &c, & -io 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the Tai 2 u Language of the Tai taiga, n [1 tīga, 2 tīga] Siberian. Belt of coniferous forest lying to the south of the tundra in N Europe and Asia tail (I), n [1 tál, 2 tál] OE teg(e), ME tail, op ON, Goth tagl, OHG zagal, 'tail' 1 Prolongation of the spine in vertebrates, which extends beyond the body and constitutes a separate and distinctive part

Phrs to turn tail, to show cowardice, run away from danger, a fight &c, with his tail between his legs, (of dog, or fig of person) cowed, dispirited, discouraged, as having suffered a rebuff, to be unable to make head or tail of, find unintelligible, to twist the tail of, to subject to annoyance, to torment close on a person's tail, close behind him, as in pursuit 2 Any of several objects supposed to resemble a tail, a tail of hair, a plait, a whip, b tail of tail, length of string with series of twisted strips of paper knotted to it, attached to lowest point of kite, c tail of comet, luminous train extending behind the nucleus; d tail of a letter, line or loop extending below the line, e tail of a note, stroke extending above or below the line as part of a symbol of a musical note, f tail of a wing, slender point of a butterfly's lower wing 3 Lowest, hindmost, or subordinate part of object or group; speak a tail of a coat, part below waist, skirt, half of skirt when divided, b tail of a procession, rear portion, c tail of a cart, back of cart, d tail of one's eye, outer corner, e tail of a storm, gale, comparative calm when gale has slackened, f tail of a stream, comparatively calm water after current or rough water; g exposed end of roofing-tile, slate &c, h concealed end of brick &c in wall, i (of coin) reverse side 4 Retinue, train, band of followers 5 (mil) Tail of the trenches, part first dug by advance party 6 Horse-tail, formerly an emblem of rank in Turkey a Pasha with three tails tail (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To provide with a tail 2 To follow (a person) closely, to track, esp for the purpose of watching, and preventing escape of 3 To out or pull stalk or lower end off to tail fruit B intrans (naut) To tail to the tide, tail up and down stream (or anchored ship), to take up position according to direction of tide or current C Followed by adverbs and prepositions with special meanings Tail after, intrans, to follow closely, esp in line or procession Tail away, intrans, to diminish gradually, fade away, grow sparser and sparser, straggle Tail in, trans, to fix (timbers &c) into wall or other structure by one end Tail off, same as tail away Tail on, trans, to join on as appendage or supplement tail (III), u & adj, fr O Fr taille, 'notch, cutting', see tailor & entail 1 u Limitation of inheritance of an estate to descendants in particular line, of a particular person; an estate in tail, in tail male 2 adj Limited, in respect of inheritance, in a particular way tail-bay, n Part of lock between tail gate and lower pond tail-board, n Movable board forming back of cart tail-coat, u Coat with tails, with division between them, and a button at the top of each, just below the waist

-tailed, adj [1 tálid, 2 tálid] tail (I) & -od Having a particular kind of tail long-tailed, bob-tailed &c tail-end, n Last part, tag end tail-end of a procession, of a speech &c tail-feather, n Longest or most conspicuous feather in a bird's tail tail-gate, n Lower gate of canal lock tailing, u [1 tálíng, 2 tálíng] tail (II) & -ing In various senses, a concealed and of brick &c in wall, b laid in calico printing; c refuse separated from grain in threshing &c d inferior, useless part of ore tailless, adj [1 tálles, 2 téllis] tail (I) & -less Without a tail.

tail-margin, n Margin at foot of page of book &c tailor (I), n [1 tálér, 2 téllér] fr ME tailleur &c, fr O Fr tailleur, lit 'entire', fr Low Lat tálhara, fr Lat táles, 'rod, cutting for planting', orig 'sprout, fresh growth', cogn w Gk tálhē, 'sengreek', Lath (a) tálhē, 'aftermath' a Person who cuts out and makes clothes, esp enter garments made from cloth, b tradesman who sells coats, and suits, esp for men, which he employs others to make tailor (II), vb trans & intrans 1 trans a To work upon (clothes) as a tailor, to sew, press, and otherwise get ready, cloth garments, b to make clothes for 2 intrans To ply the trade of tailor tailor-bird, n Oriental bird that stitches leaves together to form a receptacle for its nest tailorless, a [1 tállores, 2 télllores] tailor & -ose Female tailor tailoring, n [1 tálóríng, 2 téllóríng] tailor & -ing a Occupation, business, of a tailor, b the work of a tailor as exhibited in a particular garment tailor-made, adj a (or woman's dress) Made by tailor, hence, out like a man's suit, plain, well fitting, and without trimmings, flourishes &c, b (of a woman) dressed in tailor made clothes tail-piece, n 1 Longish, narrow piece of ebony on instruments of the violin class, to which the lower ends of the strings are fastened after passing over the bridge 2 Ornamental design on the lower half of the page of a book, at the end of a chapter or of the book itself tail-pipe, n Snout pipe in a pump tail-race, n Part of mill stream below water-wheel tain, n [1 tán, 2 tein] Origin doubtful, ME tein, fr ON teinn, 'twig', relationship w OE tán, Goth taina, 'rod, twig', the origin of wh is also unknown, is suggested by some dictionaries, but connexion in sense appears to be lacking, Lat taenia, 'ribbon', see taenia, is hardly more convincing. Thin sheet of tin foil used for the backing of mirrors taint (I), n, [1 tánt, 2 teint], fr Fr teint, fem PP of teindre, 'to tinge, dye', fr Lat tingere, 'to stain, colour', see tinge & tint. Trace of physical corruption or decay, moral degeneration, imperfection, contamination, pollution taint (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To impart a taint to, to infect with physical or moral deterioration and corruption to render unwholesome or noxious air tainted by smoke, character tainted by self-seeking, tainted meat, insipidly putrescent 2 intrans To become infected, corrupted, by something noxious by decay &c tainless, adj [1 tántlis, 2 téintlis] Prec & -less Without taint, uncorrupted, pure taintlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a tainless manner

Tai-ping, Tae-ping n [1 t'íng, 2 t'íng] fr Chinese tai ping 'great peace' One taking part in Chinese Rebellion of 1850, in N. crushed by Gordon in 1861 taj [1 táj, 2 tál] Pers táj, 'crown' Tall conical cap worn by Mohammedan dervishes take (I), vb trans & intrans [1 ták, 2 teik] ME taen, LOI taen fr ON taka: 'to take, to win', prob cogn w Goth táhan, 'to take', w affixent grade perh remotely cogn w same base as Lat táre, 'to get', a digit. A trans 1 to budily a to take to take by force of grasp esp w the hand to take a person's hand before he's hands to take a person by the hand, by the hand to take one's arm, lay hand on one's arm for assistance support &c to take arms and come 1 prepare to fight, to take in hand, undertake, b to grasp, catch hold of, grip, otherwise than with the hand to take something between one's knees, to take (a person) to one's arms, to one's heart, breast, (i) to embrace him, (ii) to admit, receive, him into one's affections 2 To receive, accept, have given, banded, transferred to one, receive into one's grasp or possession to take presents, what is offered, I can't take money from you, Phrs to take things as they come, to take people as they are, to take the rough with the smooth, to take one's chance

3 a To remove, pick up, and convey away some one has taken my pen, take the knife from the baby, b (math) to deduct, subtract to take 4 from 10 & To convey with one, a to convey in one's grasp or keeping, to carry to take a letter to the post, to take one's umbrella in case of rain, b to conduct, cause to accompany one take me with you, to take the dog for a walk 5 a To gain, obtain, possession of, power over, (i) by one's efforts or skill in a transaction, to win, earn he took 100 at Ascot, large sums were taken at the gate, (ii) to obtain by force, to capture to take a fort, ship, a prisoner, b to catch in trap, snare, with bait &c to take fish, c to gain, win, as result of contest to take a prize, d (games, cards, chess, cricket &c) to win to take a trick, o game, o wicket &c, e to affect, strike, make impression upon, (i) bodily, to affect, hit the blow took him on the nose, the cold takes me in the chest, (ii) mentally to take one by surprise, i to attract, charm to take one's fancy, to be much taken by something 6 To draw, absorb, receive, into the system, a to inhale to take a deep breath, to take breath, to take the air, to take a pinch of snuff, b to eat, drink, swallow, consume to take one's medicine, I never take wine, he can take no food, do you take sugar? 7 a To make use of, employ, procure, or select for use take a larger spoon, take a dozen eggs and a pound of flour, b to select and associate oneself with take your partners, c to select and acquire by marriage to take a wife 8 To enter and avail oneself of for conveyance to take a train, car &c, to take ship, embark

9 a To make use of, occupy, spend, avail oneself of (time and amount) he took an hour over his dinner, take as long as you like, Phr to take one's time (over), to act, work, slowly and deliberately, be slow and unhurried, b (impers) to require, demand, call for it takes too long, it only takes five minutes to walk there, it takes patience and industry to learn a language, it takes many men to build a house, Phr it takes two to make a quarrel, both parties are usually responsible 10 a To acquire, gain possession of, by payment, to purchase I will take as many eggs as you can supply, b to reserve, engage, gain right to, by payment &c, to hire to take seats at a theatre, tickets, to take a house, rooms &c, c to subscribe to, receive regularly to take a newspaper 11 To be infected by, catch, have communicated to one to take cold, to take fire 12 a To select, adopt, accept, for one's own use to take a seat, sit down, please take my seat, Phr to take the chair, preside at meeting &c, to take a back seat, occupy inferior or obscure position, play a less important part, b to assume, place oneself in, undertake, occupy oneself with to take one's proper position, to take command, charge, the lead, precedence, to take sides to take part, the army takes the field, c to adopt, transfer to oneself to take on assumed name 13 To assume, gain attribute of, come into possession of as part of one's mental condition to take care or be hurt, fright, offence, comfort, a divine to exception to &c, to take care, be careful with care of attend carefully to 14 To enjoy use to take a rest a hot day 15 To perform a given action, act in specified way to take a leap a look round, a deep night to take steps measures, precautions, to take revenge, to take one's leave, one's chose; to take account of, no notice of; a disease takes its course, the river takes its race 16 To adopt specified attitude towards to take it easy, calmly, to take something ill, amuse

17 a To receive into the mind, have communicated to one, to grasp mentally and act upon to take a thing to heart, to take a hint, advice, b to understand, comprehend to take one's meaning, do you take me? 18 To accept mentally, assume, presume I take him to be an honest man, I take it that you are fully acquainted with the facts of the case, Phr you may take it from me, you may assume it to be a fact 19 To observe as an example, point of argument &c, to consider, turn one's attention to take the case of your brother, for instance, let us take the facts in order 20 To ascertain, find out, determine to take measurements, Phr to take a person's measure, make an estimate of his character &c 21 To set down, record on, transfer to, paper or other surface to take notes, photographs &c 22 To jump over, pass across the horse took the hedge, to take a stream in one's stride 23 (gram) a To have as inflexion most nouns take s in the plural, b to be followed by an O B across expressing deprivation take o genitive of the thing, and a dative of the person 2 intrans 1 To have required effort, work effectively the vaccine did not take 2 To become popular, capture general fancy the play did not take 3 To make photographic impression of specified kind, give specific result when photographed to take well &c C Followed by adverbs and prepositions, with special meanings Take about, trans, to disconcert, throw into confusion, surprise, startle Take after, intrans, to resemble in features, character &c, have hereditary resemblance to take after one's father Takes away, trans, a to remove, cause to depart, convey away, b to deduct, subtract Take back, trans, to retract, withdraw to take back one's words Takes down, trans, a to lower, remove by lifting down to take down a picture from the wall, b to take apart, pull down to take down a building, take down one's hair, to undo fastenings of, and allow to flow down the back, c to swallow, gulp down, d to humble, reduce conceit of, esp to take o person down a peg, e to record in writing, set down on paper &c to take down a speech in shorthand Take for, trans, a to believe, consider to be what do you take me for? do you take me for a fool? b to consider erroneously, mistake to be taken for one's sister Take from, intrans, to reduce, diminish, lessen amount or quality of the size of her hat takes from her height, her fortunate circumstances take from the merit of his achievements Take in, trans, 1 to admit, receive, give entrance or welcome to take in a homeless traveller, lodgers, 2 to receive, undertake, to do at home to take in washing, 3 to receive into the mind, grasp, comprehend he listens to the lectures without taking them in, 4 to reduce to smaller size, compress, extent to take in a dress, to take in a coat, furl it, 5 to deceive, impose upon, swindle he took me in over the purchase of a horse, 6 to subscribe to, receive regularly to take in a journal Take into, trans, to take it into one's head, mind, be seized with a sudden idea, notion, intention Take off, A trans 1 a to remove lead, conduct, convey away to take oneself off, he took me off to the garden, b to remove, lift or draw off, esp from the body to take off one's hat esp as saluto, to take off one's shoes c to lift, and move to another position please take your hand off me, take your foot off my toe, to deduct, reduce by specified amount to take o penny off the price, 2 to swallow, take down, 3 to mimic, burlesque B intrans, to leave ground in jumping begin a leap Take on, 1 trans, a to engage in, undertake to take on a piece of work, b to accept as opponent in a contest to take a man on at golf, 2 intrans, (colloq)

to give way to emotion, be greatly agitated - keep calm, don't take on so Take out, trans, 1 to remove from within, extract, take away to take a stain out, hot water will take out the stiffness, Phr to take the nonsense out of a person, to take it out of one, weary, exhaust, 2 to obtain, procure, have issued for one to take out a licence, insurance policy &c Take over, 1 trans, to have transferred to one, assume control of to take over the business, duties, responsibilities, 2 intrans, to assume, have transferred to one, duties and responsibilities the new general will take over immediately from the retiring one Take to, intrans, 1 to feel attracted by, form a liking for, to take to a person, 2 to engage in, form a habit, to take to drink, gardening Take up, trans, 1 to raise, lift up, pick up to take up a book, Phr to take up arms, the gauntlet, the cudgels &c (see arm, cudgel &c), 2 to catch end of and make secure to take up an artery, a dropped stitch, 3 to receive, admit, into a vehicle to take up a passenger, 4 a to absorb the blotting-paper takes up ink, b to fill, occupy it takes up a lot of room, time, 5 to take into custody, arrest, 6 a to engage in, adopt as occupation &c to take up gardening, b to turn one's attention to, pursue, deal with to take up a matter, c to resume, return to to take up one's story Takes up with, intrans, to adopt as companion &c, associate with Takes upon, trans, to take (it) upon oneself to, to assume responsibility of, presume to take (II), n, fr prec 1 Amount of fish, game &c taken at one time or in specific period 2 Amount of money received at theatrical performance &c 3 (print) Portion of copy allotted to a compositor to set up take-in, n [1 ták in, 2 ték in] A deception, ruse, imposition, swindle taken, vb [1 ták en, 2 tékan] P P of take (I), L O E (getaken, M E taken) take-off, n [1 ták of, 2 ték of] 1 Caricature, mimicry, burlesque imitation 2 Place at which the feet leave the ground in jumping, often a good, bad, take off, suitable, unsuitable, place for beginning a jump taker, n [1 ták er, 2 ték er] take (I) &-or One who, that which, takes, specif, person who accepts a bet take-up, n [1 ták up, 2 ték up] One of various mechanical devices for tightening thread in machine, taking in slack of rope &c takin, n [1 ták in, 2 tékin] Assam Large, heavy, reddish brown, horned ruminant of Tibet, allied to the antelope taking (I), n [1 ták in, 2 tékin] take (I) &-ing 1 (pl. takings) That which is taken, something received as payment, earnings, receipts, gains 2 (colloq) State of mental agitation, fuss, perplexity in a terrible taking taking (II), adj, fr Pres Part of take (I) 1 Attractive, charming, captivating a taking manner 2 (of disease) Infectious, catching takingly, adv Prec &-ly In a taking manner, attractively takingness, n See prec &-ness State of being taking, attractiveness talapoin, n [1 talápo in, 2 télapo in] fr E Indian 1 Buddhist priest or monk in Siam, Burma &c 2 Small W African monkey talaria, n pl [1 talária, 2 télaris] Lat talára, 'ankles, winged shoes', neut pl form of adj talarius 'of the ankle', fr tal (us), 'ankle', see talus, &-ary Winged sandals represented in classical art as attributes of Hermes, and also of Iris, Persues, Eros &c talbot, n [1 táwbót, 2 télbót] Origin unknown, perh fr name of family in whose arms talbotts figure Extinct breed of hound, with pendulous ears, somewhat resembling a bloodhound

Talbot House, n Society with branches all over the world for mutual help and service on Christian lines in memory of the Great War, founded in memory of Gilbert Talbot, killed 1916, usually styled Too H, the signaller's pronunciation of T H talc, n [1 talk, 2 télk] fr Fr, fr Arab talq Mineral, magnesium silicate, capable of being split into thin, transparent sheets, which are elastic and do not fracture, and are used for protecting the light in lanterns, for wind-screens of motors &c talcky, adj [1 talki, 2 télki] talc &-y Talcons talcoïd, adj [1 tálkoid, 2 télkoid] talc &-oid Of, pertaining to, having the appearance of, talc talcoses, adj [1 tálkós, 2 télkous] talc &-ose Talcoïd talcons, adj [1 tálkus, 2 télkas] talc &-ous Of, composed of, containing, talc tale, n [1 tál, 2 téil] O E talu, 'story, tale', tal, 'number', op O N tal, 'talk', talu, 'number', Germ zahl, 'number', Du taal, 'speech', op taal, O Frs tale, see tell 1 (chiefly archaic) Number, total, amount the tale of dead and wounded, the tale is complete 2 Connected oral or written narrative of any length, account, record, of true or fictitious events &c to tell the tale of one's adventures, a stirring tale, a fairy-tale Phrs old wives' tale, incredible legend &c, tells its own tale, is self explanatory, is obvious record of events &c 3 Rumour, report (esp of malicious reports) Phr to tell tales (out of school), (1) reveal, esp with malicious intent, something which should be kept secret or private, (2) to inform concerning another's faults and peccadilloes talcbearer, n [1 tálbárer, 2 téilbérer] Person who tells tales of others with malicious or mischievous intent, informer talcbearing, n [1 tálbáring, 2 téilbéring] Prec &-ing Act of telling tales, the spreading of malicious reports talent, n [1 tálent, 2 télent] fr Fr, fr Latin talent (um), fr Gk talanton, 'pair of scales, balance, a weight, sum of money representing a talent of silver', op Gk talanta, 'scales of balance', fr talant, neut stem of talán, 'suffering, enduring, unhappy', fr stem seen in archaic form talassai, 'to take upon oneself, support, undergo', cogn. w Sort tuld, 'balance', Lat tollere, 'to lift up', tolerare, 'to support, endure', see tolerate, O E polian, 'to endure', see thole See also atins, tantalus 1 Ancient weight and sum of money, varying in different places and periods, eg the Ainc, Roman, Egyptian, talent 2 A Special gift or faculty, marked aptitude in a specific direction a talent for languages, for drawing, to develop one's talents, Phr to hide one's talents in a napkin, allow one's gifts and abilities to lie idle (op Matt xxv 15), b persons possessing talent the best talent in the country, to encourage local talent talented, adj [1 talented, 2 taléntid] Prec &-od Possessing talent, naturally gifted talentless, adj [1 taléntless, 2 taléntliss] talent &-less Without talent, having no special gifts or aptitude tales, n [1 táls, 2 télíz] fr Lat tális, 'such', first word of writ, pl form of tális, 'such', fr pronominal stem *to, whence also the, that &c (law) 1 Writ summoning additional jurors to make up deficiency 2 List of persons who may thus be called upon to serve on a jury talesman, n [1 tál(t)zman, 2 téil(t)zman] Prec &-man Person summoned by a tales to serve on a jury taleteller, n [1 tál(t)eler, 2 téil(t)eler] 1 One who relates true or fictitious stories, narrator 2 One who makes malicious reports, talcbearer talacotian, adj [1 tálakóshan, 2 téilakóshan] fr the Italian surgeon Tagliacozzi (d 1599) &-an Talacotian operation, formation of a new nose by grafting skin from the arm or forehead, the grafted skin being severed only when it has begun to grow in its new position talón, n [1 tálón, 2 télón] fr Fr, fr Lat talón (em), 'retaliation in kind', fr tal (us), 'such', see tales & op retaliate Also called lex taliónis, law of punishment by inflicting the same kind of injury as that suffered, on the principle or Levitical law, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth &c talonic, adj [1 tálónik, 2 télónik] Prec &-ic Of, pertaining to, the law of taloon talped, adj & n [1 tálped, 2 télpéd] Mod Lat, fr talus, 'ankle', see talus, &-i- & Lat ped, stem of pēs, 'foot', see pedal 1 adj a Suffering from talpes, club footed, b (zool) having the feet placed at peculiar angle &c, as the sloth 2 n a Taliped person, b taliped animal, the sloth talpes, n [1 tálpéz, 2 télpéz] See prec 1 a Club foot, b state of having a club-foot 2 Peculiar position, formation, or distortion of foot talipot, n [1 tálipot, 2 télipot] fr Hind talpai, fr Sort tala, 'palm', & patra, 'leaf' East-Indian palm with large fan-shaped leaves talisman, n [1 tálizman, 2 téilizman] fr Span, fr Arab talsaman (pl), fr Gk talsma, 'payment', Late Gk 'consecration, sacred rite, mystery', fr télsan, 'to pay, to fulfil, perform, to initiate into mysteries', fr telos, 'fulfilment, completion, end', see tele- Object regarded as possessing supernatural power of influencing, protecting &c, the wearer, charm, amulet talismanic, adj [1 tálizmánik, 2 téilizmánik] Prec &-ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, having the power of, a talisman talk (I), vb intrans & trans [1 taw, 2 ték] M E talen, op E Frs talen, connoted w O E talan, 'to reckon', see tale & tell A intrans A To express ideas &c by means of language, to speak to learn to talk, to talk to a friend, stop talking, to talk too much, Phrs to talk big, boast, to talk at, refer pointedly to, direct remarks at (person), without addressing him directly, b speak to gossip, comment on other people's affairs in a malicious spirit people are beginning to talk B trans 1 To give expression to in words, utter in speech to talk scandal, treason, nonsense, business 2 To use (a language) as means of expression, to speak to talk French &c 3 To bring into specified condition by talking to talk oneself hoarse Phr to talk a donkey's hind leg off, talk in ceasantly, with great volubility C Fol lowed by adverbs and prepositions with special meanings Talk about, intrans, to talk upon the subject of, discuss, debate Talk down, trans, to silence by louder or more effective talking Talk of, intrans, a to discuss, talk about, Phr talking of, a propos of, with reference to, b to put forward as a suggestion or intention they are talking of going abroad Talk over, trans a to discuss, debate, hold counsel upon, b to persuade, win over, by talking Talk round, a intrans, to discuss (subject) at some length without coming to the real point, b trans, to bring (person) over to one's own view by talking Talk to, intrans, a to address in speech, converse with, b speak, to address reproaches to, reprove Talk up, intrans, to speak loudly or clearly talk (II), n fr prec 1 A Act of talking, mental communication of ideas in speech, conversation fond of good talk, b a conversation, a chat to have a long, friendly talk, c an informal lecture or address 2 Speech, c an informal lecture or address which frivolous, idle futile talk or discussion which leads to nothing he is all talk, we've had enough talk, it is time to act 3 Subject of conversation, gossip the talk of the town talkative, adj [1 tálkativ, 2 téilativ] talk &-ative Given to, fond of, talking; loquacious, reverse of taciturn talkatively, adv. Prec & -ly In a talkative manner talkativeness, n. See prec & -ness Loquacity talker-talkes, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] 1 Broken English, esp. of negroes &c 2 In cessant, futile, idle chatter, useless, empty loquacity talker, n. [1 tálwér, 2 tálk] talk (I) & -er 1 One who talks, esp. of specified kind a good taller 2 One who talks too much, one who talks but does not act talkies, n. pl. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. talk (I) on the anal. of movies (vulg. slang) Sound films alking, adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Prec Part of talk (I) 1 Having, using, the power of speech or of imitating speech a talking parrot &c, talking doll, one emitting squeaks when pressed &c 2 Speaking, or prescriptive talking-film, n. Sound film talking-to, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tál 1 A reprimand, a reproof, a scolding I'll give him a good talking to tall (I), adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Origin uncertain, no cognates in other languages 1 Above the average in stature, high in relation to the average, or to surroundings a tall man, a tall house, tower, tree, chimney, ship &c 2 Of a specified height six feet tall 3 (slang) Excessive, extravagant, inordinate, difficult to believe a tall story, Phr a tall order, task, undertaking, difficult of fulfillment tall (II), adv. fr. prec (slang) Extravagantly, boastfully to tall it tallage, tallage, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tál 1 M.L. tallage, fr. O. Fr. tallage, fr. tallier, 'to out', see tall (III), & -age Form of taxation, including customs and subsidies, established by Parliament in 1340 tallboy, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tall & boy Chest of drawers about double the usual height tallith, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Heb. 'covering' Scarf, originally fringed mantle, worn by Jews round the neck, or on the head, while at prayer tallness, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tall (I) & -ness Quality of being tall, height tallow (I), n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] M.E. tálwí, fr. O. Fr. talu, M.L.G. tálwí, Germ. tálwí, O.N. tálwí The coarser and harder animal fats melted down for making common kind of candles, for lubricating machinery &c, vegetable tallow, similar substances made from vegetable fats tallow (II), vb. trans. fr. prec 1 To grease with tallow 2 To fatten to tallow sheep allow-chandler, n. One who makes and sells tallow candles tallow-drop, n. Method of cutting precious stones so that one or both sides are dome-shaped tallow-faced, adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tálwí Having a pale unhealthy complexion tallowish, adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tálwí (I) & -ish Somewhat tallowy tallow-tree, n. One of various trees yielding vegetable tallow tallowy, adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tálwí (I) & -y Pertaining to, like containing, smeared with, tallow tally (I), n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] M.E. tálwí fr. O. Fr. talu, 'not h' cut', see tall (III) 1 A piece of wood with notches cut to indicate number, amount owing, &c, hence h' cut of accounts kept in duplicate 2 A tally of accounts tally (II), vb. trans. & intrans. fr. prec A trans. 1 To receive, receive, keep account of, by tally 2 (trans.) To put off, to tally a c' &c B intrans. 'to correspond' from exact, hence his 'record does not tally' with his tally-ho, n. & vb. intrans. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. fr. tálwí 1 n. 'Huzzah's cry to start the cry tallyman, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tally & man One who keeps a tally shop tally-sheet, n. Paper on which tally is kept tally-shop, n. Shop where accounts are kept by tally and goods are paid by instalment talma, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. François Talma, French actor, d. 1828 Long, sometimes hooded, man's or woman's cloak, worn in early part of 19th cent talmi-gold, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] talmi-gold Origin unknown Kind of thinly gilt brass

Talmud, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Heb. talmud, 'instruction' Whole body of Jewish civil and canonical law and commentary thereupon, apart from that in the Pentateuch

Talmudic(al), adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Talmudic(al) Of, pertaining to, contained in, the Talmud

Talmudist, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Talmudist One of the compilers of the Talmud, b student of, one versed in, the Talmud Talmudistic, adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Talmudistic Of, pertaining to, the Talmud or a Talmudist talon, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Fr. fr. Lat. talon (em), 'ankle, heel', see talus

1 a Claw of bird of prey, b human finger nails when long and supposed to resemble a bird's claws 2 Heel of sword blade 3 (archit.) Gage moulding 4 (cards) Part of pack left after dealing 5 Certificate attached to a bond exchangeable for a further sheet of coupons taloned, adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Prec & -ed Having, furnished with, talon(s) taluk, talook, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Hind. taluk, fr. Arab. 1 Government district in southern and western India, paying fixed revenue in lieu of taxes 2 Proprietary landed estate on special tenure, esp. in Oudh talukdar, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Hind. Administrator of, owner of, a taluk talus, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Lat. talus, 'ankle, ankle bone, heel', etymol. doubtful

1 a Ankle bone, bone of tarsus which articulates with leg bones, b ankle 2 Slope of wall or fortification 3 (geol.) Sloping mass of fallen fragments at foot of cliff tamability, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tamability Next word & -ity State of being tamable tamable, adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tamable & -able Capable of being tamed tamableness, n. Prec & -ness Tamability tamale, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Span. fr. Mexican Dish made of crushed Indian corn, meat, red peppers &c tamandua, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Brazilian. Small, arboreal ant-eater with prehensile tail tamanour, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Fr. fr. prec Great ant-eater of S. America, with long hair and snout tamara, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] East Indian Camboja tree of East Indies and Pacific islands, yielding tamarahao tamarack, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Am. Indian 1 N. American black larch 2 Kind of N. American pine tamarin, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] S. Am. Indian S. American marmoset tamarind, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Span. tamarindo, fr. Arab. tamar, 'date', & Hind. 'India' 1 Tropical tree with pinnate leaves and yellow flowers 2 Pod of this tree containing a brownish pulp used in cookery, medicine, for making cooling drinks &c tamarisk, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Lat. tamarisc (us) tamarisc, 'tamarisk' Genus of shrubs, esp. European variety with minute leaves and pink and white flowers arranged in spikes tamasha, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Arab. (Anglo-Indian) Elaborate function, entertainment tambour (I), n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Fr. fr. Arab. 1 Dr., drum, lute 1 Drum, esp. bass drum. 2 One of various objects resembling drum in shape, specif. a wooden frame for stretching material for embroidery, b (archit.) cylindrical stone forming part of column, drum, c kind of fish 3 (archit.) Vestibule in church porch designed to prevent draughts 4 Palisade defending gate &c 5 Material embroidered in tambour tambour (II), vb. trans. fr. prec To embroider in a tambour tambourin, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Fr. dimin. of prec 1 Kind of Provencal drum 2 A dance accompanied by tambourin, b music for this dance tambourine, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Fr. prob fr. prec 1 Light instrument played by shaking and rapping, consisting of a round shallow frame with skin stretched over on inside, and having jingling metal disks attached 2 A Provencal dance, b music for this dance 3 S. African wild pigeon, white, with black tipped wings and tail tambour-work, n. Embroidery done in frame tame (I), adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] O.E. tam, M.E. tame, op. Du. tam, Germ. zahm, 'tame', cogn. w. Lat. domare, Gk. damainein, 'to tame, subdue', op. Lat. domus, 'house', see domo & words there referred to 1 (of animal, bird) Brought under human authority, made friendly and tractable, reverse of fierce, wild 2 a Subdued, spiritless, passive, b dull flat, uninspiring a tame affair, retort, surrender &c tame (II), vb. trans. New formation fr. prec, op. O.E. tenian, 'to tame', this stem has been lost 1 To make tame, reduce to domesticated state, bring under human influence, make docile and tractable to tame a wild animal, bird &c 2 To bring into subjection, gain authority over, enslave, subdue to tame one's spirit, tongue, ardour &c tameless, adj. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tameless (II) & -less (poet) Incapable of being tamed tamely, adv. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tamely (I) & -ly In a tame manner, without offering resistance to submit tamely to discipline &c tameness, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] See prec & -ness State or quality of being tame tamer, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tame (II) & -er One who tames a tamer of wild animals, (often in compounds) lion tamer &c Tamili, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Native 1 One of the Dravidian dialects of Ceylon and S. India 2 Inhabitant of S. India or Ceylon

Tamilian, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Prec & -ian Of, pertaining to, the Tamils or their language tamus, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Fr. tamus, oieva, etymol. doubtful Bag, cloth, for straining liquids, fruit pulp &c Tammany, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] fr. Tammany Hall, in New York, headquarters of Tammany Society, name is supposed to be that of an Indian chief Also Tammany Society, organized Democratic party in New York City

Tammanyism, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Prec & -ism Tammany policy and principles tam-o'-shanter, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] tam o' shanter fr. hero of Burns's poem of this name Round woollen cap fitting closely round the head and having a flat baggy top tamp, vb. trans. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Part fr. tampon. To pound stamp ram down, specif. to ram down clay &c on top of charge so as to plug the hole in blasting tampian, n. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Native Poisonous S. African tick, biting flesh between fingers and toes tamper, vb. intrans. [1 tálwí, 2 tálk] Variant of tamper Usually tamper with, to interfere, meddle, with specif. a to make changes in (o document) with fraudulent intent, b to attempt to corrupt, to suborn (a witness) tamping, n [1 tãmping, 2 tãmping] tamp & -ing Material used to ram down a charge of explosive, to fill blast hole &c tampion, n [1 tãmpion, 2 tãmpion] Variant of tampon Disk or plug, a one for stopping the mouth of a gun, b a stopper for the end of an organ-pipe &c tampon, n & vb trans [1 tãmpun, 2 tãmpun], fr O Fr, variant of tapon, 'bung, plug', fr Du tap, & -oon 1 n Plug of lint &c to stop haemorrhage 2 vb To plug with a tampon tamponade, n [1 tãmpoad, 2 tãmpoad] Preo & -ade Use of a tampon to arrest haemorrhage tamponage, n [1 tãmpou, 2 tãmpou] tampon & -age Use of, method of applying, tampons tamponment, n [1 tãmpoument, 2 tãmpoument] tampon & -ment Tamponade tamtam See tom-tom tan (I), n [1 tan, 2 tan], fr Fr, either fr Germ tanne, 'fir tree', or fr Celt, op Bret tann, 'oak' 1 Bark of oak &c bruised to extract tannic acid for use in tanning 2 Bark from which tannic acid has been extracted, also called spent tan 3 The colour of tan, i.e. yellowish brown tan (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To make (hides) into leather by steeping in a solution of tannic acid 2 To make brown complexion tanned by the sun 3 To toughen with tannic acid to tan fish nets &c 4 (slang) To beat, flog B intrans (of complexion &c) To become brown through exposure to sun tan (III), adj, fr tan (I) Having the colour of tan, yellowish brown tan (IV) Abbr. of tangent (II), 2 tana, tanna, n [1 tãhna, 2 tãhna], fr Hind thana (in India) a Military post, b police station tanager, n [1 tãnajer, 2 tãnajer] fr Brazilian tanagra Group of American birds of finch family, usually brilliantly coloured Tanagra, adj [1 tãnagra, 2 tãnagra], fr Tanagra in Boeotia, Greece, where many statues of this type have been found Made at, coming from, Tanagra, esp. applied to a type of small coloured terra-cotta figurines or statues, usually of maidens &c, found in ancient graves and temples at Tanagra and elsewhere in Greece and Italy.

tanagrine, adj [1 tãnagrín, 2 tãnagrín] Preo & -ine OF, pertaining to, the tanagers tanagroid, adj [1 tãnagroid, 2 tãnagroid] tanager & -oid OF, pertaining to, resembling, a tanager tan-ball, n Compressed lump of spent tan used as fuel tandem, adv & n [1 tãndem, 2 tãndem] Orig as pun, fr Lat tandem, 'at length', earlier tandem, fr tan, 'so', fr pronominal stem to-* &c, see under the, & pronominal stem d-*, see da- 1 adv (of two horses) Harnessed one behind another to drive tandem, with horses so harnessed 2 n a Pair of horses harnessed tandem, b carriage drawn by horses placed tandem, c bicycle with seats for two persons, one behind another 3 (attrib. of bicycle) Having seats for two persons, one behind another tãndstickor, n [1 tãndstikar, 2 tãndstikar], fr Swed tãndstickor, 'matches', fr tãnda, 'to kindle', op tãnder, & sticka, 'slip of wood', op stick (II) Wooden match tang (I), n [1 tang, 2 tang] ME tange, fr ON tange, 'dagger', op OE tange, 'pair of tongs', see tongs 1 Spike, pointed shank, projecting from upper end of blade of tool, knife, dagger &c, to fit into handle 2 Strong, penetrating, pungent taste or smell, (also in non material sense) tang (II), vb trans, fr preo To furnish with a tang or spike tang (III), n, fr Dan tang, 'seaweed', op ON, pang, 'seaweed' Kind of seaweed tang (IV), vb intrans & trans Imitative 1 intrans To make a harsh, ringing sound, elang 2 trans a To clash (metal) together; b to tang bees, cause them to settle when swarming by clanging metal, beating cans &c tang (V), n, fr preo Harsh, ringing sound tangency, n [1 tãnjensi, 2 tãndžensi] tangent (I) & -cy State of being tangent tangent (I), adj [1 tãnjent, 2 tãndžent], fr Lat tangent (sm), Preo Part of tangere, 'to touch', op Lat integer, 'whole, untouched', tagaz, 'thievish', cogn w Gk telagén, 'grasping', cogn w Goth thka, 'to touch', see also tact. Meeting at a point without intersecting a line tangent to a curve, sphere &c tangent (II), n, fr preo 1 Straight line touching a curve at one point only Phr to go off, fly off, at a tangent, to pass suddenly to an entirely different line of thought 2 (trig.) Tangent line subtending angle, expressed as ratio to radius of circle, tangent-balance, n Balance in which the weight is indicated by a pointer on a graduated arc tangential, adj [1 tãnjenshal, 2 tãndženshal] tangent (II) & -ial OF, pertaining to, forming, a tangent tangentially, adv Preo & -ly In a tangential manner, as, in the direction of, a tangent

Tangerine (I), adj [1 tãnjérén, 2 tãndžérén], fr Fr, fr Tanger, 'Tangiers', & -ine OF, pertaining to, coming from, Tangiers

Tangerine (II), n, fr preo 1 Native inhabitant of Tangiers 2 (without cap) A Tangerine orange, small thin skinned, flattish orange from Tangiers, op mandarine tangrain, n [1 tãnggín, 2 tãnggín], fr Fr, fr native tangena Evergreen tree of Madagascar, bearing poisonous fruit tangibility, n [1 tãnjibiliti, 2 tãndžibiliti] tangible & -ity State or quality of being tangible tangible, adj [1 tãnjibl, 2 tãndžibl], fr L Lat tangibilis, 'that may be touched', fr tang (ere), 'to touch', see tangent (I), & -ible 1 A Capable of being touched, perceptible by sense of touch, having material substance, specif b (law, of property &c) material, corporeal 2 (fig) Clearly defined in the mind, definite, practical, not vague, illusory, or visionary a tangible reason, ground of complaint tangibleness, n Preo & -ness Tangibility tangibly, adv See preo & -ly In a tangible manner tangle (I), n [1 tãnggl, 2 tãnggl] Perh fr Dan tang, 'seaweed', see tang (III), & -le, but op ME tagle, Swed dial taggla, 'to entangle' 1 Confused knot or mass of interwoven threads, intricate, disorderly, irregular interweaving of flexible materials a tangle of wool, brambles &c, to get one's hair in a tangle 2 (in non material sense) State of confusion, disorder, perplexity his affairs, thoughts, were in a tangle 3 Device, consisting of iron frame with lines, books &c attached, for drawing up seaweeds &c from sea-bottom 4 Kind of seaweed tangle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To form into an intricate, confused mass, to intertwine confusedly tangled threads 2 (fig) To complicate, confuse, make perplexing 3 To ensnare, catch, entangle B intrans To become tangled, be inextricably twisted together tanglesome, adj [1 tãngglóm, 2 tãngglóm] tangle (I) & -some Intricately interwoven tangly, adj [1 tãnggl, 2 tãnggl] tangle (I) & -y Tangled, full of tangles tango, n [1 tãnggò, 2 tãnggou] Span. American a S American dance of Spanish origin, b dance for two persons, derived from this, and introduced into Europe at the beginning of the 20th cent tangram, n [1 tãngram, 2 tãngram] Etymol unknown Chinese puzzle consisting of a square cut into seven specific shapes to be put together to form different figures tangy, adj [1 tãngi, 2 tãngi] tang (I) & -y

Having a tang, producing a sharp, distinct flavour or odour tanist, n [1 tãnist, 2 tãnist], fr Ir tanist, 'prince's heir', fr tan, 'territory' Heir elect to Celtic chief tanistry, n [1 tãnistri, 2 tãnistri] Preo & -ry System under the Brehon laws of ancient Ireland whereby the chieftaincy of a clan, although hereditary in a particular family, was fixed by the election of an individual from the members of the family tank, n [1 tangk, 2 tãngk], fr Port tangue for estanque, 'pond', op Fr étang, fr earlier estang, fr Lat stagnus, 'pool, pond', see stagnant 1 a Vessel, receptacle, cistern, for holding or storing water, oil, or gas, b specif, part of tender holding water supply for locomotive engine, c artificial reservoir for water in India &c 2 (mil) Heavy, armoured car carrying guns and moving on caterpillar wheels tankage, n [1 tãngkij, 2 tãngkij] tank & -age 1 Storage of water, oil, gas &c in tanks 2 Price charged for this 3 Cubic capacity of tank 4 Substance, used as fertilizer, obtained by rendering down refuse fat &c tankard, n [1 tãngkard, 2 tãngkard] Op De tankard, O Fr tancuard, origin uncertain, perh connected w tank 1 Large drinking-vessel of metal, porcelain, or wood, sometimes with cover attached 2 Amount contained in tankard tank engine, n Locomotive engine carrying its own supplies of water and coal instead of drawing a tender tanker, n [1 tãngkar, 2 tãngkar] tank & -er Vessel used for carrying and distributing oil as fuel to ships driven by oil, thus serving as a reservoir tan-liquor, n Infusion of bark used for steeping hides in tanning tannable, adj [1 tãnabl, 2 tãnobl] tan (II) & -able Capable of being tanned tan(n)adar, n [1 tãnadar, 2 tãnsad] Hind. Officer in charge of a tana tannage, n [1 tãnj, 2 tãndž] tan (II) & -age Action, process, of tanning tannate, n [1 tãnat, 2 tãnest] tan (I) & -ate (chem) A salt of tannic acid tanner (I), n [1 tãner, 2 tãne] tan (II) & -er Person engaged in the business of tanning tanner (II), n Etymol unknown (slang) A swindler tannery, n [1 tãneri, 2 tãneri] tan (II) & -ory Establishment for tanning tannic, adj [1 tãnik, 2 tãnik] tan (I) & -ic OF, pertaining to, obtained from, tan, esp tannic acid, astringent substance obtained from oak-bark, gall-nuts &c, and used in preparation of leather, in medicine, and in making ink tanniferous, adj [1 taniferus, 2 taniferus] tan (I) & -iferous Yielding tannic acid tannin, n [1 tãnn, 2 tãnn] tan (I) & -in Tannic acid tanning, n [1 tãning, 2 tãnj] tan (II) & -ing Art or process of preparing leather from hides tan-ooze, n Tan liquor tan-pickle, n Tan liquor tanreo, tanrek, n [1 tãnek, 2 tãnek], fr Fr, fr Malagasy tandraka Small insectivorous mammal of Madagascar, with a tailless body covered with spines tanzy, n [1 tãnz, 2 tãnz], fr O Fr tanzy, fr L Lat, fr Gk athanaza, 'immortality', fr neg pref a- & thana (tos), 'death', see thanato- Bitter, aromatic, perennial herb, Tanacetum, with fine, deeply indented leaves and large heads of small, closely set yellow flowers tantalization, n [1 tãntalizashun, 2 tãntalizashun] Next word & -ation Act of tantalizing, state of being tantalized tantalize, vb trans [1 tãntaliz, 2 tãntaliz] See tantalus & -ize To torment by constant, alternate renewal of hope and disappointment, to tease, harass, by repeated disappointments in attainment of some object tantalizing, adj [1 tãntãliz, 2 tãntãliz-sz], fr Pres Part of proo Having the power to tantalize, inspiring hope which is repeatedly renewed and disappointed.

tantalizingly, adv Proo & -ly In a tantalizing manner

tantalum, n [1 tãntãlum, 2 tãntãlum], fr tantalus Rare, silvery, hard, ductile metallic element used in making filaments for electric lamps tantalus, n [1 tãntãlus, 2 tãntãlus] Lat Tantalus, fr Gk Tantalos, son of Zeus, condemned to stand up to his chin in water with fruit suspended above his head, both food and drink receding when he tried to reach them, formed by reduplication fr stem *tal-, fr *q, *tel, 'to endure', seen in Gk tolmã, 'suffering', talanta, 'scales of a balance', see talent 1 Stand containing spirit decanters, open at the sides, with a bar which prevents removal of the bottles unless it is unlocked 2 Wood ibis tantamount, adj [1 tãntãmount, 2 tãntãmount], fr A -fr tantãmuner, 'to amount to so much', fr O Fr tant, fr Lat tant (us), 'so much', fr pronominal stem *to, seen in Lat tam, 'so', see tandem & amount Of equal value or effect, equivalent an invitation which is tantamount to a command tantara, n [1 tãntãtra, 2 tãntãtra] Imma-tive, op tarantara Blast or series of notes on trumpet, horn &c tantivy, n, vb intrans, adj, adv [1 tantivi, 2 tantivi] Prob imitative of hunting horn.

 (all archaic or obs) 1 n a Hunting cry. b swift gallop or rush 2 vb To gallop at full speed 3 adj Swift, rushing & adv Swiftly, headlong tantra, n [1 tãntãra, 2 tãntãra] Sort tantra(m), 'thread, rule', op tantra, 'relaxation', cogn w Lat tendens, 'to strain, stretch', see tend (II) See further tone, thun, & words there referred to One of the later Sanskrit religious text books, chiefly on magic tantrism, n [1 tãntãrism, 2 tãntãrism] Proo & -ism Doctrines enunciated in the tantras tantrist, n [1 tãntãrist, 2 tãntãrist] tantra & -ist Student, adherent, of tantrism tantrum, n [1 tãntãrum, 2 tãntãrum] Ety-mol unknown (colloq) Fit outburst, of violent temper exhibition of petulance to fly, go, into a tantrum tan-yard, n Establishment for converts on of hides into leather taoism, n [1 tãu ðizm, 2 tãuðizm, 2 tãuðizm, 2 tãuðizm], fr Chinese tao, way, & -ism Chinese religious system founded upon the teaching of Lao tze (c 600 B.C.) tap (I), n [1 tãp, 2 tãp] OE tæppe, ME tappe op ON tappi 1 Device with turning valve or screw for controlling flow of liquid from pipe, cask &c cock Phr on tap (of liquor) kept in a cask fitted with tap and ready to be drawn off 2 Liquor obtained from particular cask, special brew of liquor 3 Tap room 4 Instrument for cutting internal screw threads in a nut &c tap (II) vb trans OE tæppan ME tappen, fr OE tæppa, tap see proo 1 A To supply with a tap to fit a tap into (a cask &c) and draw liquor from it b to pierce and draw liquid from a swelling in the body to tap a person for dropsy, c (slang) to extract, borrow money from he tried to tap me for a five yesterday 2 (by extension, in various senses) To obtain access to or make available to tap new sources of information to tap a telephone wire, to fix receiver to and listen to messages passing over it tap (III), vb trans & intrans ME tappen, fr O Fr taper prob of Gmc origin A trans 1 A to strike lightly with slight, rapid blow to tap the floor with one's toe to tap a person on the shoulder b to make use of (an object) in tapping to tap one's crutch on the floor 2 To fix a piece of leather on te, in repairing to tap the heel of a shoe B intrans To knock lightly with a quick blow or series of blows, to rap to tap on the door tap (IV), n, fr proo 1 A Light, quick blow, b sound made by such a blow 2 (pl taps, mil) Signal for extinguishing of lights in soldiers' quarters 3 Small piece of leather used to repair sole or heel of boot &c tapa, n [1 tãpã, 2 tãpã] Polynesian.

 Paper like fabric made by Pacific Islanders from the bark of a kind of mulberry and used for mats, hangings &c tapo (I), n [1 tãp, 2 tãp] OE tæppe, ME tappe, tape, 'tape, fillet', op OE tæppet, 'cloth', fr Lat tappã, 'cloth, carpet, hangings', fr Gk tãpã, 'hangings, carpet', prob fr Pers or Armenian, op Med. Pers tãpã, 'to spin', ultimately fr base *ten, 'to stretch', op tend (II) & thin. 1 Linen or cotton thread woven into a strong narrow strip, used for tying things into bundles, binding edges of material, fastening garments &c red taps, that formerly used for tying up legal documents, hence, (fig) pedantic formality and insistence on routine in legal and other business 2 Length of tape &c stretched between winning posts on race track Phr to breast the tape, reach winning post in foot race 3 Narrow strip of paper on which message is printed in self recording telegraph instrument tapo (II), vb trans, fr proo a To join, fasten, bind, supply, with tape, b spool (hookbinding) to fasten together with bands of tape to tape the sections of a book tape-line, n Tape measure tape-machine, n (colloq) Self recording telegraph instrument tape-measure, n Length of tape or strip of flexible metal, marked in inches, feet, yards &c, and used for measuring taper (I), n [1 tãpãr, 2 tãpãr] OE tapur, prob Celt, op Ir tapur a Wick thinly coated with wax or tallow, used for lighting lamps &c, b a thin candle taper (II), adj, fr proo (chiefly poet) Tapering

taper (III), vb intrans & trans, fr taper (I) 1 intrans To narrow, contract, diminish, gradually to a point in one direction, also taper off 2 trans To cause to taper, give tapering shape to, also taper off tapering, adj [1 tãpãring, 2 tãpãring] Proo & -ing Growing gradually thinner, narrower, more contracted, towards one end, in one direction, narrowing to a point taperingly, adv Proo & -ly In a tapering manner

taperiness n [1 tãpãrness, 2 tãpãrness] taper (II) & -ness (rare) State of being tapering taperwise adv [1 tãpãrwiz, 2 tãpãrwiz] taper (I) & -wise In a tapering manner, as as to taper tapestried adj [1 tãpãstried, 2 tãpãstried] Next word & -od. Adorned, hung, covered, with tapestry tapestry n [1 tãpãstri, 2 tãpãstri] ME tapicerie, fr O Fr tapisserie, fr tapis (er), 'to hang with tapestry', fr tapis, 'tapestry', carpet see tapis & tape (I) a Fabric of linen or some such material upon which designs are wrought in wool by hand b fabric with designs woven upon it imitation of tapestry tapeworm n [1 tãpãwurm, 2 tãpãwurm] Kind of ribbon shaped worm genus Taenia, infesting alimentary canal of vertebrates tapioca n [1 tãpioka, 2 tãpioka], fr Port, fr Brazil tapioca cassava juice Starchy substance, in the form of rough white grains obtained by drying manioc, boiled and used as food tapiir, n [1 tãpãr, tãpãr, 2 tãpãr, tãpãr], fr Brazil tapiir Herbivorous pig like mammal with short flexible proboscis, found in S and C America and E. Indies tapiroid, adj [1 tãpãroid, 2 tãpãroid] Proo & -oid. Like related to, the tapiir tapis, n [1 tãpã, 2 tãpã], fr Fr tapis, 'carpet, tapestry', fr Lat tappã, 'carpet'

&c, see tape (I) Only in Phr on the tapis, under consideration and discussion tapotement, n [1 tãpõtment, 2 tãpõtment], fr Fr, fr tãpãler, 'to tap', freq fr tãpãr, 'to tap', see tap (III), & -ment (mod.) Light manual parousion as form of massage tappet, n [1 tãpõt, 2 tãpõt] Proo tap (III) & -ot (mechan) Projecting arm &c transmitting intermittent motion from moving part of machine to another part tappet-loom, n Loom in which hammers are worked by tappets tap-room, n tap (I) & room Place in public-house &c where liquor is sold and drunk tap-root, n Principal descending root of a plant tapster, n [1 tãpãster, 2 tãpãster] OE tæppestre, tap (I) & -ster Man employed in tap room to serve beer from cask &c tapu Variant of taboo tar (I), n [1 tãr, 2 tãr] OE te(o)ru, ME terre, op ON tjara, Dan tjara, 'tar', perh. ultimately cogn w tree Thuck, black, strong smelling, viscous liquid obtained by distillation from wood and bituminous minerals such as coal &c, used as preservative and antiseptic, and in manufacture of aniline dyes Phr a touch of the tar brush, a dash of negro blood in one's veins tar (II), vb trans, fr proo To coat, smear, treat, with tar Phrs tared with the same brush, having the same defects of character as someone else, to tar and feather, smear (person) with tar, and then roll in feathers, as an unofficial punishment tar (III), n Abbr fr tarpaulin (colloq) A sailor, chiefly in Phrs a jolly tar, an old tar, also Jack tar

tara, n [1 tãhra, 2 tãhra] Native See tara-fern taradiddle See ta(r)radiddle tara-fern, n [1 tãhra fern, 2 tãhra fern] Native Kind of New Zealand bracken with edible rhizome tarantara, n [1 tãrantãhra, 2 tãrantãhra] Lat imitative in origin, op tantara Blast on horn or trumpet tarantass, n [1 tãrantãss, 2 tãrantãss], fr Russ tarantãss Large four wheeled vehicle hung on bars instead of springs tarantella, tarantelle n [1 tãrantãl(a), 2 tãrantãl(ã)], fr Ital tarantella, fr Taranto in S Italy 1 Lively Italian dance for two persons, formerly considered a cure for tarantism 2 Music for this dance, usually in 6/8 time tarantism, n [1 tarantism, 2 tãrantizm] fr Taranto, town in S Italy, & -ism Nervous disease ending in dancing mania formerly supposed to be caused by the bite of the tarantula, common in Italy in 16th to 17th centuries

tarantula n [1 tãrantãla, 2 tãrantãla], fr Ital tarantola, fr Taranto See proo Large, black hairy, venomous spider found in Southern Europe, also a similar spider found in America.

tarantular, adj [1 tãrantãlar, 2 tãrantãlar] Proo & -ar Of, resembling, produced by, the tarantula taratantara, n [1 tãrantãntãhra, 2 tãrantãntãhra] Lat imitative Trumpet or bogle call taraxacum, n [1 tãrãksakum, 2 tãrãksa-kum] Prob fr Pers a Genus of plants, including dandelion, with toothed leaves, and yellow composite flowers supported on hollow scape b laxative drug obtained from this tar-board, n Strong millboard made from tarred rope &c tarboosh, n [1 tãrbũsh, 2 tãrbũsh] Arab turban Brimless, tasseled, felt cap worn by Turks and Egyptians, fez tardamente, adv [1 tãrdamente, 2 tãrdamente] Ital, fr Lat tard (us), 'slow' See tardo (mus) Slowly

Tardenoisean, adj [1 tãrdẽnoizean, 2 tãrda-nõizean] (archaeol) Pertaining to the late palaeolithic culture represented by the finds at Tardenou, Aune, France.

tardigrade, adj & n [1 tárdigrád; 2 tádtágrád], fr Lat tardigradus (us), 'slow-paced', fr tard (us), 'slow', see tardio, & grad (v), 'to walk', see gradus (zool) 1 adj Moving slowly, sluggish 2 n Tardigrade animal, including the sloths tardily, adv [1 tárdil, 2 tádtíl] tardy & -ly In a tardy manner, so as to be behind-hand, dilatorily tardiness, n [1 tárdinos, 2 tádtínis] tardy & -ness Quality of being tardy, lateness, dilatoriness tardo, adj & adv [1 tárdó, 2 tádtóu] Ital, fr Lat tardus (us), 'slow', late, dull, prob cogn w Lat terere, 'to rub', see toredo & trite (mus) 1 adj Slow 2 adv Slowly, slookingly tardy, adj [1 tárdi, 2 tádti] fr O Fr tardif, fr Lat tardus (us), 'slow', dull, late', see proo, & -ive 1 a Slow in action, sluggish, b reluctant to act, dilatory 2 Coming, arriving, performed, late, late in the day, behind the time, belated a tardy repentance, to make a tardy appearance taro (I), n [1 tás, 2 táo] ME 'ars, etymol unknown 1 Kind of veto, esp common veto 2 (In Matt xlii 23 &c) Unidentified weed, possibly the dandelion tare (II), n, fr Fr, fr Span tara, fr Arab tarah, 'what is rejected' 1 Allowance made for weight of box, crate, sacks &c, in which goods are packed, in reckoning customs duties &c, tars and tret, rules for calculating tare 2 Weight of a vessel, after deducting that of the load, fuel &c 3 (ohom) Weight of vessel in which substance is weighed taro (III), vb trans, fr proo To reckon or determine weight for tare targe, n [1 tari, 2 tádti] fr O Fr targe, tarque, fr ON targa, 'shield', op OE targe, 'shield', Germ zarge, 'frame, rim', O Slav (pe) draga, 'border', cogn w Gk drassomai, 'I take in the hand', orig 'I enclose', dragma, 'cheek', drakhmá, 'drachma', orig 'handful', see drachma Small round shield, buckler, target target, n [1 tárgat, 2 tádtat] fr O Fr targete, dimin of targus, ooo proo 1 Shield, buckler, targe 2 a Object to be aimed at in shooting practice, esp a flat circular board, or sheet of iron, painted with circles, the central and smallest one of which is known as the bull's eye, b any object at which one aims in shooting 3 (fig) Person who, theory, action &c which, is the object of attack to be a target for criticism 4 Small, usually circular, railway signal placed near switches &c 5 Neck and breast of lamb, cut in one piece as a joint for cooking target-card, n Can' marked like shooting target for recording score targeted, adj [1 tárgatéd, 2 tádtitéd] target & -ed Armed with a buckler targeteer, o [1 tárgatér, 2 tádtitér] target & -eer Soldier armed with a shield target-ship, o Ship used as target for naval gunnery practice

Targum, n [1 tárgum, 2 tádtum] Chaldean torum, 'interpretation', op dragoman Any of several ancient Aramaic translations or paraphrases of Hebrew Old Testament

Targumic, adj [1 tárgumik, 2 tádtumik] proo & -ic Of, pertaining to, the Targums

Targumist, n [1 tárgumíst, 2 tádtumíst] See proo & -ist 1 Composer, writer, of a Targum 2 Student of the Targums

Targumistio, adj [1 tárgumístik, 2 tádtumístik] proo & -ic Of, pertaining to, the Targums or Targumists tariff (I), n [1 tárit, 2 tárit] fr O Fr tariffe, 'arithmetic', fr Span, fr Arab tarif, fr irf, 'knowledge' 1 a List of articles upon which duties are charged by governments when exported or imported, b the rate of duty charged according to tariff 2 List of prices and charges made for food, accommodation &c, together with the articles, rooms &c for which the charges are made, esp by a hotel, statement of terms, price list tariff (II), vb trans, fr proo 1 To include in a tariff, make list of duties payable on to tar ff goods 2 To put a price on, to value tarlatan, n [1 tárlatan, 2 tádtatan] fr Fr kerlatane, etymol doubtful Kind of open, transparent muslin tar-macadam, n tar (I) & macadam (usually abbr tar-mac) Layer of broken stone mixed with tar &c as road surface.

tarn (I), n [1 tarn, 2 tátn] fr ON þern, 'small lake', op Swed. dial þárn Small lake high among mountains or on a moor tarn (II) See tern tarnish (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tárnish, 2 tádtish] fr Fr terner (v), 'to tarnish', fr M H G ternen, 'to darken', fr O H G ternen, 'dark', op OE terne, 'hidden, secret', ON darna, 'to deceive', O H G terren, 'to harm', ooo darn (I) A trans 1 To spoil, dull, the brightness or lustre of by exposure to air, damp &c 2 (fig) To diminish lustre of, to sully (reputation &c) to tarnish one's name, honour, fair fame &c B intrans To become tarnished, to be liable to become tarnished tarnish (II), n, fr proo 1 (lit and fig) Loss of brightness, bluntness 2 Characteristic film of colour ferriol on face of mineral when exposed to the air tarnishable, adj [1 tárnishabl, 2 tádtishabl] proo & -able Liable to tarnish taro, n [1 tátró, 2 tátrou] Polynesian A Tropic plant of arum family, with edible root and leaves, b root of this plant boiled and used as food in Pacific Islands taroc, n [1 tárok, 2 tádrók] fr Ital tarocchi, etymol unknown Tarot tarot, o [1 tátró, 2 tátrou] fr Fr tarots, fr Ital tarocchi, see proo 1 Each card of a pack of 78 painted playing cards, used in Italy from 14th century onwards 2 Game played with such a pack tarpan, n [1 tárgan, 2 tárgan] Tartar Small wild horse of Russian steppes tarpaulin, n [1 tárpáwlin, 2 tádtáwlin] tar (I) & pal'ing, 'covering', fr obs pal, 'to cover', fr pal (I) 1 Waterproofed cloth or canvas, esp canvas coated with tar 2 Sheet of this material as protection against rain &c 3 Sailor's oilskin or tarpaulin hat, coat &c 4 (obs) Sailor, tar

Tarpeian, adj [1 tárpéan, 2 tárpéan] fr Lat Tarpeia (us) (mons), 'rock' of Tarpeia, who was said to have been buried at its foot, & -an Tarpeian Rock, cliff on Capitoline Hill of Rome from which state criminals were thrown tarpon, n [1 tárpén, 2 tárpén] Prob Am Indian Large game fish, Tarpon, or Megalops atlanticus, belonging to the herring family, with broad, silvery scales, of West Indies and Southern USA tar(r)adiddle, n [1 táradídl, 2 tádtadídl] A modern invention Prerogation, lie tarrogon, n [1 táragón, 2 táragón] fr Span tarogona, fr Arab tarhūn, fr Gk drakōn, 'dragon, large serpent', see dragon n Perennial herb with aromatic leaves used in flavouring salads &c, and in making tarrogon oil and vinegar, b vinegar made from this tarragon, n [1 táragōos, 2 táragōōn] Province of NE Spain Spanish wine resembling port tarras See trass

tarrook, n [1 tárok, 2 tádrók] Supposed to be of Greenlandish origin One of several kinds of sea bird, a young kittiwake, b gull-mot, o tern tarry (I), adj [1 tátri, 2 tátri] tar (I) & -y Resembling, covered with, of the nature of, tar tarry (II), vb intrans & trans [1 tán, 2 tátri] ME tarren, 'to vex, irritate, to hinder, delay', fr OE tergan, 'to vex', confused in meaning with ME lāgen, 'to delay', fr O Fr targer, fr L Lat tardeare, fr Lat tardāre, 'to delay', see tardo (chiefly archaic) A intrans 1 To linger, be slow in coming, delay 'Why tarry the wheels of his chariot?' (Judg v 23) 2 To remain, stay, stop, in a place to tarry at home 3 (rare) To walk, expect, be in expectation B trans (rare) To await, wait for I will tarry his arrival tarsal, adj [1 társal, 2 tádtál] tarsus & -al Of, pertaining to, near, the tarsus tarsi-, pref representing tarsus Tarsus, eg tarsitis, inflammation of tarsus of eyelid tarsin, n [1 táram, 2 tádtáw] Ital See tarsus Mosaic of coloured wood tarsier, n [1 társier, 2 tádtáw] fr Fr, fr tarsus, fr peculiar structure of foot. Small, arboreal lemur of the East Indies, with large eyes and long tail, and with one of the tarsal bones much elongated tarsio-, pref representing tarsus in various anatomical terms tarsus, n [1 társus, 2 tádtáw] Mod Lat, fr Gk tarx (ds), 'wicker-work', reed mat, any flat surface, op Gk trassid, 'crate for drying figs', O H G darra, 'drying oven', fr stem tars*, 'to dry', seen in Gk tarsoimas, 'to dry', OE pyret, 'thirst', see torrid & thirst 1 That part of the skeleton which lies between the leg and the metatarsus, the ankle 2 (ornith) Shank of bird's leg 3 (zool) Final segment of leg of insect or crustacean 4 Sheet of connective tissue in eyelid tart (I), adj [1 tart, 2 tádt] OE teart, 'acid', prob related to OE teran, see tear (I) 1 Acid, sour 2 (fig, of the temper, manner, mode of expression) Cautious, biting, sour, rebuffed a tart reply tart (II), n, fr O Fr tarle, but Mod Fr tourte, prob variant of torie, fr Lat tor (um), P P type of torques, 'to twist', see torque a Fruit cooked in a dish with top covering of pastry apple tart, damson tart &c, b fruit or jam cooked in flatish dish, with pastry below it but not covering it, called an open tart tartan (I), n [1 tátrn, 2 tádtán] Etymol unknown 1 Woolen fabric of various colours, with stripes of different widths and colours intersecting at right angles, esp used for making kilts and plaids worn in Highland dress 2 Tartan of distinctive pattern peculiar to specific Highland clan 3 (attrib) Mode of tartan a tartan plaid &c tartan (II), n, fr Fr tarlane, prob fr Arab taridāh, 'small ship' Single masted Mediterranean vessel carrying lateen sail tartar (I), n [1 tártar, 2 tádtáw] fr Fr tartré, fr L Lat tartrium, fr Arab dur, 'drugs' 1 Compound of potash and lime deposited in the form of a crust by fermented wine, cream of tartar, purified form of this used medicinally and in cooking 2 Tartar emetic, compound of tartaric acid and antimony, used as emetic, in dyeing &c 3 Incrustation forming on the teeth, composed chiefly of calcium phosphate

Tartar (II), Tatar, adj & n [1 tártar, 2 tádtáw] fr Pers Tatar, the common spelling Tartar is influenced by Tartarus 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the Tartars or Tatars 2 n a Member of a branch of the Ural Altai family, including Turks, Cossacks &c, originally from Eastern Asia, b a savage, violent, intemperate person, c an awkward customer, Phr to eat a Tartar, to have to do with an intractable, unmanageable person

Tartarean, adj [1 tártáran, 2 tádtáran] fr Lat Tartareus (us), 'of the infernal regions', see Tartarus, & -an Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, Tartarus

Tartarian, adj [1 tártárian, 2 tádtárian] Tartar (II) & -ian Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, the Tartars tartaric, adj [1 tártárik, 2 tádtárik] tartar (I) & -ic Of, pertaining to, derived from, containing, tartar tartarization, n [1 tártárizashun, 2 tádtárizashun] Next word & -ation 1 Act of tartarizing, state of being tartarized 2 Fermentation of tartar tartarize, vb trans [1 tártáriz, 2 tádtáriz] tartar (I) & -ize To treat with tartar tartarous, adj [1 tártárus, 2 tádtárus] tartar (I) & -ous Of, pertaining to, containing, tartar Tartarus, n. [1 tártarus, 2 tátaras] Lat. Tartarus, fr. Gk. Tartaros (Gk. mythol.) 1 Dark abyss below Hades to which the Titans were consigned as a punishment 2 Place of punishment for the wicked, hell.

tartlet, n. [1 tártlet, 2 tátlet] tart (II) & -let Small open tart tartly, adv. [1 tártli, 2 tátli] tart (I) & -ly In a tart manner, rudely, abruptly, crabbedly tartness, n. [1 tártnes, 2 tátnes] See prec & -ness 1 Sourness, acidity 2 Tart manner, abruptness, crabbedness, of speech or manner tartaric, n. [1 tártárit, 2 tátárit] tartar (I) & -ate Salt of tartaric acid.

Tartuffe, n. [1 tártuf, 2 tátuf] Fr. [tartuffe], fr. name of character in Molière's comedy of same name One who conceals a base nature under the guise of meekness and sanctity, a hypocrite

Tartuffism, n. [1 tártuffizm, 2 tátuffizm] prec & -ism Character of a Tartuffe, hypocrisy tar-water, n. Infusion of tar used as antiseptic taseometer, n. [1 táseometer, 2 tátseometer] n. Gk. tase, stem of tasis, 'stretching, tension' See next word & o- & -meter Device for determining strains in buildings tasimeter, n. [1 tásimeter, 2 tátimeter] fr. Gk. tás (s), 'stretching, tension', fr. stem of temen, 'to stretch', see tend (II), tone, & -meter Electrical apparatus for measuring changes in pressure caused by changes in moisture or temperature tasimetric, adj. [1 tásimétrik, 2 tátimétrik] prec & -ic, see metric Of, pertaining to, tasimetry

